SMETILVY ON THE HUNT

Signalled Kustenji That She Sought Kniaz Potemkine.

Mutineers on the Kniaz Potemkine, Officially Declared Pirates, Have Declared War on All Russian Vessels—They Send a Note to the Powers to That Effect—Reported Attack on An Italian Ship.

Bucharest, Roumania, July 5.—The Russian torpedo boat destroyer Smetilvy appeared off Kustenji yesterday and signalled that she was seeking the Kniaz Potemkine.

It is stated that the Kniaz Potemkine has attacked an Italian vessel carrying coal. There is much uneasiness among Russian war vessels at Roumania ports.

PIRATES DECLARE WAR.

Kniaz Potemkine's Crew Hands Declaration to Kustenji's Prefect.

Bucharest, July 5.—Before the Kniaz Potemkine sailed from Kustenji, a delegation from the crew handed the prefect a proclamation addressed to the representatives of the powers in Roumania, formally declaring war on all Russian vessels which refuse to join the mutineers.

The proclamation says the Kniaz Potemkine will respect neutral territory and foreign shipping.

The delegation requested that the proclamation be forwarded to the powers.

Threaten a Village.

Berlin, July 5.—A despatch to the Lokal Anzeiger from Odessa says the Kniaz Potemkine threatened to attack a village of German colonists on the coast near Odessa, and requisitioned and took on board some cattle.

Reviving a Mutiny.

Odessa, July 5.—An attempt to revive the mutiny on the battleship Georgiy Pobedonosetz was discovered yesterday. It was frustrated by loyal sailors, who deflected six of the torpedoes to the authorities. The torpedo boats which remained here have gone to sea.

It is reported persistently in army and navy circles that the Kniaz Potemkine is being stalked and pursued by several torpedo boats, who intend to sink her. The crews of these boats consist of officers and stokers, who volunteered.

Sighted Off Odessa.

London, July 5.—A despatch to the Evening Standard from Odessa says the Kniaz Potemkine has been sighted 26 miles off that port.

St. Petersburg, July 5.—It is stated that the transport Vecha, the crew of which joined the mutineers in the harbor of Odessa, surrendered yesterday in Russian waters.

Mutinees Repented.

St. Petersburg, July 5.—The Minister of Marine has received the following telegram from Admiral Kruger:

"The crew of the transport Prout mutinied when leaving Boudrovo Bay, arresting the captain and other officers. Second Lieut. Nestertzoff and Bolkawain Kozlitzke were killed."

"The Prout has arrived the Sebastopol and the crew is now repentant. The officers have been released, the crew begging them to resume their posts."

A Bomb Thrown.

Bielostok, Russia, July 5.—There was sporadic firing in several streets yesterday and a bomb was thrown in Lipovsk street, in the centre of the town. It is reported that several persons were killed.

Strikes Spread.

Tiflis, July 5.—The strikes, which are becoming general here, are spreading.

Japanese Victories.

Tokio, July 5.—The following official announcement was made yesterday from the headquarters of the Japanese army in Korea:

"At dawn on July 2 four hundred of the enemy's cavalry with artillery approached Neromok. Our force repulsed them northward, inflicting heavy loss. Our detachment made a detour northward to cut off the enemy's infantry. Our detachment also scattered the enemy's cavalry retreating from Neromok."

"Another despatch, yesterday says: 'At 8 o'clock on July 1 six hundred of the enemy's cavalry advanced toward the Pinnu River. We repulsed them. One hundred and fifty of the enemy's cavalry and mounted infantry, with 18 guns, simultaneously attacked Shihiku, eight miles north of Pinnu River. The engagement lasted until dawn July 2, when the enemy was repulsed. The enemy's casualties were over four hundred. Ours were ninety.'"

Jap Battalion Destroyed.

St. Petersburg, July 5.—Gen. Linovitch, telegraphing to Emperor Nicholas under date of July 3, reports the annihilation of a Japanese battalion. He says:

"On July 1 our force assumed the offensive, occupying a position near Sauvalts, sixteen miles south of Liaochupen. At 7 in the evening, after the artillery had prepared the way, the enemy's fortified positions were stormed, and we pursued him for three miles. One Japanese infantry battalion was destroyed."

New War Minister.

St. Petersburg, July 5.—Lieut. Gen. Ridiger, chief of the chancellery of the War Office, has been appointed Minister of War, in succession to Lieut. Gen. Sakharoff, who recently resigned.

Japs Launch Big Battleship.

London, July 5.—The Prince and Princess Arisugawa of Japan attended the launching of the battleship Katori yesterday. The Katori is one of the most powerful battleships ever launched in this country.

PARTIZANSHIP OR MALICE

Strong Editorial From the Pen of J. P. Downey, M. P. P. on the Pleasence Case

The Conservative Member for South Wellington Speaks Out—Board Ignored Advice of Provincial Secretary

Joseph P. Downey, M. P. P., the earnest and eloquent Liberal-Conservative representative for South Wellington, is in touch with the Provincial Secretary. No man outside the Cabinet is closer to the aims and policy of the Whitney Government than Mr. Downey, who is also the able editor of the Guelph Herald.

Mr. Downey has not hesitated to express his views on the injustice of the cutting off of the license of John Pleasence, of the Hotel Rankin, in a fearless and outspoken editorial in yesterday's issue of his paper, which intimates, moreover, the strong position the Provincial Secretary himself takes in reference thereto.

The full text of Mr. Downey's editorial will be of great interest to the people of West Kent and is herewith reproduced:—

LICENSE ADMINISTRATION.

"Throughout the Province general satisfaction is expressed at the administration of the license law under the Whitney Government. Invariably the selection of License Commissioners has been well made, and the new Boards have discharged their duties in thorough harmony with the policy of the Conservative party. That policy, it is scarcely necessary to remind ourselves, is a strict and non-partisan administration of the license law. No one can question the fact that there has been an improvement in the observance of the law under the new Government. The hotel keepers have been made to understand that, while the days of farcical but expensive plebiscites and referendums is gone, they must keep hotel and abstain from illegal selling."

"In one or two instances, we regret to say, the new Commissioners' conduct bears strong suspicion of partizanship, or, worse still, of personal malice. The department has exerted its influence in these cases to stay the hands of the Commissioners, but sometimes without avail: the local Board ignored the advice of the Provincial Secretary and refused to grant a license to the hotel man whom it had placed under its ban. The law does not adequately meet such a contingency. The department cannot overrule the decision of the Board and grant a license that has been refused or revoke a license that has been granted. Thus, while the Government is held responsible, and rightly so, for the proper administration of the law, it is in any particular case at the mercy of the prejudices or prejudices of a Board of Commissioners. The extreme expediency of dismissing the Commissioners at variance with the policy of the Government, is not always practicable or satisfactory. That course was taken in West Kent, but the new Board, we understand, have confirmed the objectionable action of their predecessors. Some change in the regulations is necessary. In the Provincial Secretary should be vested a veto power. He should have the authority to continue a license where improper motives, operating through the local Commissioners, have abolished it, or revoke a license granted under similar circumstances."

"The Government has too much at stake to allow Boards of Commissioners to ignore the policy to which it is committed in the administration of the license law. Happily there is small ground for complaint. All over the Province hearty sympathy with the Government's policy has marked the course of the Commissioners. But the exceptions point to the necessity of the authority of revision being vested in the Government, which bearing the responsibility for the administration of the law, should in every detail have the power to direct that administration along sane and proper lines."

4TH DEATH IN SESSION

Premier and Mr. Borden Pay Tributes to Dr. Johnston.

House Rose From 5 o'clock Till 8 to Show Respect to Memory of Late Member for West Lambton—Mr. Foster and the "Scrip"—Lives of Members Endangered by Bad Ventilation—Will Look Into It.

Ottawa, July 5.—The funeral of Dr. Johnston, M. P., will take place at Sarnia on Thursday at 4 p. m. Last night the remains left Ottawa on a special car provided by the Government. Messrs. Clarke, Stewart and Zimmerman, M. P.'s, accompanied the remains west.

A touching tribute was paid to the late Dr. Johnston in the House yesterday. The death of the deceased member was covered with a magnificent wreath, and before the orders of the day were called in the House Sir Wilfrid Laurier arose and said: Mr. Speaker, once again it is my very sad duty to have to inform the House that we have lost by death one of our colleagues. Dr. Johnston, the member for West Lambton, is no more. This is the fourth time during the present session that death has visited the members of this House. Nobody could have believed that when we met here five months ago that our late friend, who then appeared to be the very incarnation of rugged health, would be one of the first victims. But such is the uncertain tenure of life that as upon many other occasions, the hand of fate has been laid upon him who looked to be the strongest. I need not say to the House that Dr. Johnston was one of the most popular members amongst us. He had no enemies. All his acquaintances were his friends. He was beloved on this side, and I know he was equally respected by hon. gentlemen opposite."

Mr. Borden said: "On behalf of those who sit to your left, Mr. Speaker, I join with what has been said by the Prime Minister. Our friend, Dr. Johnston, who has passed away, was a man of kindly and genial disposition, and I cordially endorse what the right hon. gentleman opposite has said as to the respect and esteem in which he was held by those who sit on this side of the House."

Out of respect to the deceased, the House rose at 5 o'clock until 8 and a large number of the members of both sides, as well as the Parliamentary press gallery, attended a short funeral service at the deceased member's residence and accompanied the body to the station.

The remains will reach Sarnia at 12.30 on Wednesday.

More Scrip Scandal.

Mr. Foster turned to his old friend the "scrip," and the commission that was to look into the matter. He said that agencies were already at work trying to get some of the halfpence scrip out of the way of giving evidence before the commission.

Sir Wilfrid took refuge in his old reply of "an answer tomorrow."

M. P.'s Lives Endangered.

Chief Conservative Whip, Taylor called attention of the Prime Minister to the utter lack of ventilation in the corridors and especially the chamber of the House. Mr. Taylor waxed eloquent over the medieval system of ventilation that existed, and pointed out that the mercury stood several degrees higher inside the chamber than outside in the open air. Undoubtedly the chamber there were large furnaces going at full blast, merely to heat water.

Mr. Foster declared that a member took his life into his hands when he spent a greater part of the session in such a death trap.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier closed the incident by remarking that he would make it his personal business to see the Minister of Public Works and see what could be done to remedy conditions. He quite agreed that things were not all right or should be in the matter of ventilation.

READ A SECOND TIME.

Some Surprises in Putting Through the Saskatchewan Bill.

When the vote was taken on Mr. Borden's amendment to Sir Wilfrid Laurier's motion for the second reading of the Saskatchewan bill, Jean Baptiste Morin, Conservative member for Dorchester, solemnly rose in his place and voted with his leader. There was a hum of excitement from the Liberal benches, and Messrs. Bergeron and Monk who, of course, voted against the amendment, turned and looked frankly at their colleague from the Province of Quebec. Whatever was passing through the mind of Jean Baptiste Morin at the time may never be known. The fact remains that he voted against the motion of Sir Wilfrid Laurier to impose a coercive educational policy on Saskatchewan.

Majority is 53.

The vote stood 37 for the amendment and 50 against. Walsh, of Huntlyden, again voted with Mr. Borden. McIntyre of South Perth again tried to run with the hare and hunt with the hounds by voting against the amendment and the main motion. His effort was frustrated by the second reading being declared carried on a second night. Hats of Middlesex, an Independent Liberal, voted with Mr. Borden. Tom Greenway, who managed to dodge the main division in the Alberta bill, was on hand and voted with his party. The division was quickly over, and the House settled down to discuss the distribution of consignments.

Salaries For the Governors.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier moved a resolution that to-day the House consider in committee of the whole the following resolution: "Resolved that section 2 or the revised statutes entitled, an act respecting the salaries of certain public functionaries and other annual charges of the consolidated revenue, be amended by adding at the end thereof the following words and figures: "The Lieutenant-Governor of Saskatchewan $2,000, the Lieutenant-Governor of Alberta $2,000."

The House then went into committee of the whole, and the second reading of the Saskatchewan bill was proposed by Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Mr. Borden moved the amendment that he moved in regard to the Alberta, dealing with Provincial rights and leaving all matters of education in the hands of the Provinces.

Monk's Amendment.

The clauses all went through without any discussion, although Mr. Monk, to be quite in order, moved the same amendment regarding the dual language in Saskatchewan as he had moved in the Alberta bill. The amendment was declared lost on the same division as that of the Alberta one.

The Budget Debate.

Mr. Fielding announced in the House last night that if the third reading of the Alberta and Saskatchewan bills was put through to-day the budget would be taken up on Thursday.

Supplementary estimates for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, were brought down in the House last night, totaling $13,414,973. This, added to the main estimates of $68,664,397, totals up $82,079,370, voted or to be voted this session for the current fiscal year. The estimates voted last session, for 1904-5, were $74,970,045, supplementaries voted this session, $6,379,342, further supplementaries (tabled last evening), $68,430, making a total appropriation for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1905, of $81,517,821. The estimates for the current year, so far before Parliament show, therefore, an increase of but $561,549 over the appropriation for the current fiscal year, but if the supplementaries next session are up to the average, the gross appropriation for this year will exceed that of 1904-5 by some six or seven million dollars. A feature of the supplementaries tabled is an appropriation of $10,000 "to provide for the expenses of an enquiry into the operation of the tariff."

A GENTLEMAN GONE.

The following tribute to the foremost statesman the neighboring republic produced is from the London Free Press:

Home-loving, hearty, human John Hay has passed to his reward. He was a gentleman of the old school. Trained under Lincoln as his private secretary it was his good fortune to play a large part in upbuilding the United States till the hour of his death. In fact those lines of foreign policy laid down by him have made Uncle Sam unique among the nations of the earth, and they will not be departed from, though their creator lies cold in death.

For the past forty years John Hay's finger had been on the pulse of the nation. But he was not puffed up. He was a man of wide sympathies that knew no class or creed divisions. He was not a politician, he was that rarer being, a statesman. He loved his native America and he gave his life to her; he died in harness. No one ever heard of his scheming to be nominated for the Presidency. But had the voice of the people called he would have assumed the responsibility as a duty he bore to his countrymen.

It is said of him, and it is a refreshing story in this world of stress and striving, that he was asked at his bachelor dinner how long his honeymoon would last. "Why," he replied, "I expect it to last the rest of my life." And it did. His wife of all his family was alone with him when the end came. His intimacy with Lincoln, the very atmosphere of his birthplace in Indiana, and his leanings toward literature all tended to make him a home-loving gentleman of the old school.

With this regard it is not hard for us to believe that John Hay wrote Jim Bludsoe and Little Breeches. Only the human being could say:

He weren't no saint—but at judgment

I'd run my chance with Jim,

'Lonside of some pious gentlemen.

That wouldn't shock hands with him;

He seen his duty, a dead-sure thing,

And went for it thar and then,

And Christ ain't a-going to be too hard

On a man that died for men.

And only a man who had got at the heart of things could pen:

How did the git thar? Angels,

He could never have walked in that storm.

They jest scooped down and toted him

To whar it was safe and warm;

And I think that saving a little child,

And fetching him to his own,

Is a durned sight better business

Than loafing around The Throne.

And the world can say, "Sweet Dreams" to John Hay who in his prime wrote:

Tender and warm the joys of life—

Good friends, the faithful and the true;

My rosy children and my wife,

So sweet to kiss, so fair to view—

So sweet to kiss, so fair to view:

The night comes down the lights burn blue.

And at my door the pale horse stands

To bear me forth to unknown lands.

The United States has lost its foremost statesman, the world of letters, the inspirer of a host of imitators, and the whole world, a true gentleman, home-loving, hearty and human.

Good-bye, John Hay.

WATER IN YOUR BLOOD.

Lots of people have thin, watery blood—they eat plenty but don't digest. When digestion is poor, food isn't converted into nourishment—consequence the body rapidly loses strength. To positively renew health, nothing equals Ferrozone. It excites sharp appetite, makes the stomach digest, forms life-sustaining blood. Abundant strength is sure to follow. If you need more vitality, extra energy, better nerves, then use Ferrozone, the medical triumph of the age. Fifty cents buys a box of fifty chocolate coated Ferrozone tablets.

FERROZONE TABLETS.

An ingenious and convenient substitute for the ordinary complexion powder is simply a dainty booklet to be carried in one's chaste and to be used when occasion calls and then with rapidity and without courting notice. Are you at all conscious that you are muggy and that your face is far from clear and dry? Then all that is necessary to effect the requisite improvement is to tear a leaf from this little volume, pass it over the cheeks and nose and consign it to the four winds. No puff, no pad, is needed. The whole operation is quickly and quickly performed.

Anyone wishing good looks and windows should call on John Glassford, who is tearing down the old Rutley House, and will have no use for this old material in his new brick hotel building.

ALD. ED. BELL HAS RESIGNED

Action of Minister of Finance due to position he holds with the Electric Railway.

He will be Asked to Reconsider his Action—Another Special Meeting of the Council.

Quite a little sensation was caused among the aldermen last evening when Mayor Cowan read the resignation of Ald. Bell from the Council Board. The aldermen were so taken by surprise that they refused to accept the resignation, but passed a resolution asking the chairman of the Finance committee to reconsider his action and if he can find it at all possible to remain in office until the end of the year.

Ald. Bell's action, as he explained in his letter to his colleagues, is the result of much careful thought and consideration on his part. He has been appointed solicitor for the Electric Railway Company and in this capacity he should have the interests of the railway at heart, while as alderman he should consider the city's interests first in dealing with the Railway Company. Thus he is placed in an awkward position and it has come to a point where he must choose between the solicitorship and his position as alderman. He had intended to resign his position at the Board when he was first appointed solicitor for the railway, but after a consultation with the city solicitor, who thought this action unnecessary, he decided to remain at the Board. Recent developments, however, have made him change his intentions. He would like to have remained at the Board to assist the Council in their deliberations on the many other important questions that will come under the finance department. And he expressed his regret at finding it advisable to tender his resignation.

Ald. Westman was sorry that Ald. Bell had taken this course. He thought it a very serious thing for the Minister of Finance to resign when there were so many heavy duties resting on his department, especially this year. He spoke of Ald. Bell's ability as chairman of Finance and moved that he be asked to reconsider his action as he (Ald. Westman) considered it in the city's interest that Ald. Bell should live out his term of office.

Ald. Edmondson thought that Ald. Bell was a valuable member of this year's Council and seconded the motion.

Ald. Potter regretted the action of Bell. Everyone recognized his ability and he was sure that if Ald. Bell had continued on he could have satisfied the electors who put him in office. Still Ald. Bell's position was a difficult one, and if it would relieve the strain which must be on his mind it might be just as well to accept his resignation.

Ald. Westman's motion passed and Ald. Bell will be asked to reconsider his action.

If Ald. Bell's resignation is accepted Arthur J. Dunn will be the new alderman. At the last election Mr. Dunn was the tenth man on the list, W. T. Piggott the eleventh and J. G. Kerr the twelfth.

Last night's meeting of the Council was another special one, but the Mayor introduced a new idea by cutting short all discussions, and as a result the Council adjourned at a reasonable hour.

A really pleasing and acceptable feature was also introduced by Ald. O'Keefe after the meeting, when he escorted his colleagues to the Central Drug Store, where cooling refreshments were partaken of and Ald. O'Keefe was voted a jolly good fellow.

There were present at the meeting Mayor Cowan and Ald. King, O'Keefe, Ainsworth, Potter, Westman, Edmondson and Marshall.

Several estimates on local improvement works were passed.

Several accounts for work at the cemetery were ordered paid.

F. McQueen, Fred. Johnson and Dosithe Martin asked relief from dog tax. Granted.

Houston & Stone, on behalf of Mrs. Scane, drew the attention of the Council to the odors issuing from the G. E. R. hog pens. Referred to Finance committee.

The Mayor—if the Board of Works takes action in having this matter cleared up the Council will strengthen in their hands.

W. G. Morris, City Clerk, asked for $200 increase in his salary.

Permission was asked to put a spur into the Bent Goods Company's property on Park street. Referred to Industrial committee.

R. S. Dunlop applied for a position as inspector on public improvement works. Referred to Board of Works.

The Bell Telephone Company asked permission to erect poles on several different streets, work to be done under the supervision of the City Engineer. Referred to Board of Works.

A statement from W. T. Shannon, manager of the Standard Hotel, showed that the city had credited to their general account of $4,496.29 and to the local improvement account $5,199.28.

Mayor Cowan told of the telegram he had received from Mr. Lilly, of the Electric Railway Company, and of the answer he had sent as published before in The Planet.

Complaint was made of smoke at the rear of O'Brien's cigar shop. Referred to Board of Works.

A petition was received from 26 ratepayers on Murray street asking that Leonard Marshall be appointed on that street. Referred to Board of Works.

Mr. Gundy and Mayor Cowan and Ald. King asked permission to cut down trees. Referred to Chief of Police.

Chairman King, for the Building committee, reported as follows:

1. That Architect Rutley be paid $1.2 per cent. on all work completed on the new market building and that he be paid a reasonable price for drawing the plans that will not be used and that the price of these plans be determined by the Council. Withdrawn.

2. That No. 3 plans be completed and that No. 1 and No. 2 fronts be left over, not having enough money to complete the work. This means that just the sheds and police station will be built. The paving will go on, as the contracts are already let.

Ald. Potter thought that the buildings should be built before the pavements are put down. He would like to see the front part built.

Ald. King explained that the Council did not have enough money to go on with the whole building, otherwise he would like to see the whole building go up. This clause of the report was carried.

The Board of Works were empowered to raise the flagstones in the walk on Fifth street from King street to the bridge.

Chairman Potter for the Parks and Cemetery committee recommended that Mr. Bowers' tender of $1,450 for a brick veneer residence for the caretaker of the cemetery be accepted.

Ald. Cowan favored the report but thought that too much money was being spent.

Ainsworth and Potter explained that the cost more owing to the distance it is away from the city.

Ald. Marshall—Architect Wilson's estimate is $1,200, while the tender is $1,450. What makes up this difference?

Mr. Wilson, who was in the audience, explained that there were many reasons. Plenty of work on hand might make the tenders higher and the distance away from the city has to be considered. There are extra work that you cannot count on. There is also no water out there.

The report of the committee was then adopted.

Ald. Westman, of the Property committee, with the Fire Chief, visited the Opera House and found that a few things necessary for the safety of the citizens had been arranged for. The Opera House people are doing all in their power to make the house safe and comfortable.

The front entrances were improved, fire escapes were put in, a fire box and hose placed on the stage. Exits are clearly marked and everything will be satisfactory to all concerned during the coming season. He moved the adoption of this report.

Ald. O'Keefe thought the front entrance should be remodelled.

Ald. Potter made the statement that there is not another public building in the city as well protected as the Opera House.

Both Ald. Westman and Ald. Potter assured the Council that with the present improvements the Opera House will be perfectly safe during the coming season for all patrons who attend the attractions. Nothing more in the line of improvements is necessary.

The report was adopted.

Chief Frithard, of the Fire Department, was appointed to go to Detroit on Thursday to look into the matter of fire escapes, to see what kind should be purchased for Chatham. Ald. Potter will go with him.

It was decided to purchase 25 new lamps for the city electric light department to replace old lamps, and that all of the old street lamps be gradually replaced.

City Clerk Merritt was granted $200 increase in salary. Every alderman present spoke in the highest terms of the City Clerk. It was stated that he was the best municipal clerk in Ontario.

A petition was received for a bituminous pavement on Centre St. from Wellington street to Park street.

Ald. O'Keefe moved that while the petition was not sufficiently signed it was a strong one and he moved the Council take the initiative.

Ald. Westman objected. The city will have to pay a good portion of the pavement.

Mayor Cowan also spoke against it. He objected to taking initiatives. The motion, however, carried.

Ald. O'Keefe moved that all crossings running parallel to the new Head St. pavement be made flush with the pavement. Carried.

The following accounts were passed: A. M. Piper, $10. Park Bros., $56.21. Hadley Co., $5.70. Paysheets, $298.22.

Robt. Rissell & Sons, $13.55. General Electric Co., $7.69. Queen City Oil Co., $7.04. Council adjourned.

HER SKIN WAS YELLOW.

"I had only to try Dr. Hamilton's Pills to appreciate their merit," writes Miss Annie Bryce, of Woodstock. "My system was out of order. My blood was weak and thin. I had a nasty, murky complexion. My skin was hard and dry. The first box of Dr. Hamilton's Pills made a complete change. I felt better at once. Healthy color came into my face. In about three weeks I was cured." Dr. Hamilton's Pills effect an easy cure. Try these good pills, 25c. per box, or five boxes for $1.00; at all dealers.

DISTRICT DOINGS

TILBURY

July 4.—Dominion Day was spent quietly in town yesterday. A large number visited Detroit and other outside points, several spent the day quietly at the lighthouse and large numbers remained at home. The rain in the evening caught several at the lighthouse.

Frank Campbell, of Kalamazoo, Mich., is on a two weeks visit with his parents here.

Dr. McCall and wife returned last evening from spending a couple of days with relatives in Elgin County.

Miss Young, of the Public school staff, is spending vacation at her home in Sarnia.

Wm. Clark, of the Crown Bank, Aylmer, spent yesterday with friends here.

Joseph Derohume, of St. Joachime, late of St. Francis Public school, visited friends here yesterday.

Rev. T. Dobson, of the Anglican church here, is considering a call to Gore, Ont. He would be greatly missed here.

PROVED IN MOUNT FOREST.

Every doctor in this town tried his best to relieve Mrs. J. Withom, of Asthma, and none succeeded. "For years," she wrote, "I was a dreadful sufferer; nothing gave relief. At times I found it necessary to have all the doors and windows open to get my breath. When in despair I heard of Catarrhazone. I used it and now am perfectly cured." This proves beyond doubt that any case of Asthma is curable with Catarrhazone. No remedy so pleasant, none so absolutely certain to thoroughly cure; try Catarrhazone yourself; it's guaranteed.

BLENH EIM

July 4.—Two ranks of Blenheim bowlers went to Chatham yesterday to take part in the tournament. Blenheim and Ridgeway were drawn to play together, the former winning. After dinner Blenheim played Dresden and won, after which Blenheim drew the bye. In the final for the Sutherland trophy it was Chatham vs. Blenheim. The former ranks won first prize, four clocks and trophy; the latter second, four umbrellas.

On July 12 there is to be a bowling tournament at Ridgeway. Manager E. L. Williams and J. L. Hunter, of the Standard Bank, spent the holidays out of town.

Duncan Rainman has taken a position on Mr. Peter McGugin's farm. The senior Rainman team left yesterday morning for Marion, Indiana, to take part in an exhibition game of lacrosse, which is part of the program in the sport to be held there today, being Independence Day.

Among the visitors here for Dominion Day were Mr. Wodehouse, of Hamilton; Benson James, of Cleveland, Ohio; H. Shillington and R. Bousnell, Chatham.

On Sunday evening Kent Lodge, No. 274, A. F. & A. M., and visiting brethren from Chatham, Ridgeway and Highgate Lodges, numbering about 90, attended divine service at Trinity church, where an excellent sermon was preached by the rector. While the offertory was being taken up Miss Rose Sheldon sang a solo, "Flee as a Bird," in fine style, the accompaniment being Miss Labadie (organist).

VULTURES OF MEXICO

HOW THESE BIRDS HAUNT THE ARID ALKALI PLAINS.

The Whirling Black Cone of Hager
Desert scavengers and the Way in Which the Circling Mass Descends
Upon its Carrion Prey.

At night the moon looks down upon a desolate, arid plain, stretching away to the great Sierra Madre mountain chain, deep, shadowy blue, against the western sky. The air is chill, and a bleak wind searches out every fold in our blankets—we might almost be spending a night on the tundras.

With scarce a moment of dawn the sun floods everything, a most welcome warmth for awhile, soon to make one gasp in its breathless heat. Long before the rainy season actually begins vegetation seems to feel a quickening in the air; the plants scent the coming moisture weeks beforehand; the rushing streams, swollen with the melting snows from the lower mountain tops, bring life to the lands through which they flow; spring is awakening everywhere—except on the alkali plain.

Where a thin rind of red brown grass roots partly covers the white dust, parched mesquite bushes find root and strangle, uncouth organ cacti rear their columns, like mammoth candelabra. Here wild eyed cattle roam uneasily, nibbling occasionally at the bitter grass stems.

Farther out in the desert, where even the mesquite and cacti fail, we ride
slowly across the parched surface, wondering if a single living thing can endure the bitterness of the earth. In the distance move the whirling disks of dust, tall, thin columns, with perfectly distinct outlines, undulating slowly here and there, both life and death in their silent movement.

Most remarkable it seems to us when a stray great blue heron now and then flies silently up from the desert (what can possibly attract these birds to such a place of death as this; distant even from the bitter pools?) and flaps slowly out of sight. Twice a great ebony raven sails through the dusty air over our heads—the same bird repassing.
No other life is visible save the balanced black specks high against the blue, as invariably a part of a Mexican day as are stars of the night. Herons, vultures, raven—all move slowly, seeming less alive than the distant dust columns.

But we feel the real spirit of the eternal desert when, as we turn to retrace our steps, we spy a something white, different from the surrounding earth, and the spell of past ages falls upon us. The bitter water is ever drying up, the whirlwinds carry the dust from place to place, the birds come and go as they please, but this relic of an elephant of the olden time brings past and present into close touch.
What scenes has the desert looked upon since this mammoth staggered dying into the quagmire which proved its tomb? Our eyes start from the dust as we reluctantly turn our heads on the back trail, for we should like to stay and search out these fossils—more fascinating in a way than the living beasts and birds which people the tropics beyond.

One of the most wonderful of the exhibitions of bird life vouchsafed to us in Mexico comes as we leave the alkali plain and ride away among the mesquite scrub. A confused mass of black appears in the air, which soon resolves itself into hundreds of individual specks. The atmosphere is so deceiving that what at first seems to be a vast cloud of gnats close at hand is soon seen to be a multitude of birds—blackbirds, perhaps, until we approach and think them ravens and, finally,
when a quarter of a mile away, we know that they are vultures. Three burros lie dead upon the plain. This we knew yesterday, and here are the scavengers. Never have we seen vultures so numerous or in such order.

A careful scrutiny through the glasses shows many score of black and turkey buzzards walking about and feeding upon the carcasses of the animals.
From this point there extends upward into the air a vast inverted cone of birds, all circling in the same direction.
From where we sit upon our horses
there seems not a single one out of place, the outline of the cone being as smooth and distinct as though the birds were limited in their flight to this particular area. It is a rare sight, the sun lighting up every bird on the farther side and shadowing black as night
those nearest us.

Through one's partly closed eyes
the whole mass appears as a myriad of slowly revolving wheels, intersecting and crossing each other's orbits,
but never breaking their circular outline. The thousands of soaring forms hold us spellbound for minutes before we rode closer. Now a change takes place, as gradual but as sure as the shifting clouds of a sunset. Until this moment there had been a tendency to concentrate at the base of the cone, that portion becoming blacker and black, until it seemed a solid mass of rapidly revolving forms. But at our near approach, this concentration ceases and there is perfect equilibrium for a time. Then, as we ride up a gentle slope into clearer view, a wonderful ascent begins. Slowly the creeping spiral wings upward; the gigantic inverted cone, still perfect in shape, lifts
clear of the ground and drifts away;
the summit rises in a curve, which, little by little, frays out into ragged lines, all drifting in the same direction, and before our very eyes the thousands of birds merge into a shapeless, undulating cloud, which rises and rises, spreading out more and more until the eye can no longer distinguish the birds, which from vultures dwindle to mere motifs floating and lost among the clouds.—C. William Beebe in New York Post.

The Pace That Tells.

In the six day bicycle races the pace tells terribly at the end. Man after man falls out exhausted. The victor wobbles wearily over the line. In the business race it's the same. Man after man drops out exhausted. The successful man is often a dyspeptic, unable to enjoy success. When the stomach is diseased there is not enough nutrition assimilated to sustain the body and repair the daily waste of tissues. The result is weakness, tending to collapse.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery
cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enables the perfect assimilation of food
by which the body is built up with sound, healthy flesh.

"I have taken one bottle of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for indigestion and liver complaint," writes Mr. C. M. Wilson, of Yadkin College, Davidson Co., N. C. "I have had no bad spells since I commenced taking your medicine—in fact, I have not felt like the same man. Before I took the 'Golden Medical Discovery' I could not eat anything without a painful distress, but now I can eat anything I wish without having unpleasant feelings. Last summer our baby was teething and was so poor
he was almost a skeleton. We gave him your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and now he is as healthy and well as any child. I will speak a good word for your medicine whenever I have an opportunity."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure sick headache.

Popularity of Ostich Tips.
The demand for ostich tips is undoubtedly on the increase, and in many cases they are now chosen to trim the under side of the brim and the flowers of the outside, whereas hitherto the contrary has been the case. Much of the ostich used is very little curled. An arrangement of such tips attached to the side of an upturned brim and sweeping downward is called the "willow plume." One model is trimmed at the side in this way with dull yellow tips to match the straw, while around the crown, and at the back are arranged panes in different shades of mauve, violet and purple brown mixed with their leaves.—Paris Cor. Millinery Trade Review.

Annie Besant and Theosophy.
Annie Besant has stirred up a hornet's nest in India by declaring that theosophy, the "religion" revealed to her predecessor, Mme. Blavatsky, is the oldest religion in the world. This has resulted in an organization of lecturers, whose object is to counteract Mrs. Besant's influence. They are now making impassioned appeals urging the natives to look only to their own leaders. Prominent Hindoo thinkers declare that theosophy is almost entirely the creation of women, and they are organizing with the object of driving the Besant cult out of India.

Quite a Family Affair.
As a family record the following would be hard to beat: In the town of Thurso, England, a man eighty-seven years old still follows his duties as superintendent of some flagstone quarries. Among the workmen he has seven sons, six sons-in-law, twenty-nine grandsons, four husbands of his granddaughters and two great-grandsons. Forty-nine members of one family, all connected with the same trade, employed in the same works and living in the same district is something decidedly out of the common.

PRETTY HAND WORK

EYELET EMBROIDERY IN HIGH FA-VOR THIS SEASON.

It Makes the Daintiest of Decoration For Summer Frocks and Is Also Very Durable—Will Be Much Used For Baby Clothes.

Eyellet embroidery, the old fashioned broderie anglaise, or madeira work,
as it is sometimes called, promises to be the most popular mode of decoration for summer frocks. It is one of the daintiest as well as the simplest of

A CHILD'S CAP.

embellishments, and, best of all, with a little practice the work can be done at home.

And not only for its beauty is the eyellet embroidery desirable, but especially for its durability. Years ago, before machine embroidery could be bought, this style of work was used on underclothes, for petticoat ruffles, etc., and baby clothes in particular were beautified in this way, whole yokes and front panels in dainty christening robes being simply a mass of the embroidery.

For the baby of 1905 these little robes are again being made, together with caps, jackets and dainty booties and hats for older children. The work is done with fine marking cotton, and the round openings, or eyelets proper,
are made with a stiletto, the oval openings being cut. Before doing that, however, the outline is covered with a fine even darning or running stitch, begun at the pointed end of the figure and ending at the same place. Do not cut the thread. The slit is made through the center of the oval, first lengthwise, then crosswise, and at the round or wide end it will probably be necessary to make two more slashes in order that the linen may be turned back smoothly to the wrong side along the line of darning. Then begin at the narrow end, working with the same thread and the edge of the opening with a series of the oval and over stitches, each one lying close to but not on top of the stitch last made.

The cap shown in the first illustration is made of fine white linen, which is almost entirely covered by the eyelet work. The design consists of a daisy-like figure surrounded by a trailing vine, the leaves of which are connected by an outlined stem. The edge of the cap is buttonholed, as are also the ends of the ties, and the finished cap is very pretty and just the thing for baby's summer wear. For cool days a little silk lining of white or color may be inserted, and if this lining is made double and quilted, an interlining of soft flannel being first put in, the cap may be used at all seasons of the year.

The dainty booties given in the next illustration show the same design as the two previous articles, but in themselves are something of a novelty. In shape they resemble the kid booties,
but these eyelet worked ones have no

BABY'S BOOTIES.

lining or foundation of any kind. They are buttonholed around the edge and held together at the toe by three buttonholed rings and at the ankle by two short straps, which are fastened and held in place by a ribbon bow.

Until recently lingerie hats made of all over embroidery or founcing have been more generally worn by children than adults, but for the coming summer they promise to be equally popular for all ages. One of the hats can be made with the eyelet design and the scalloped edge corresponding with the jacket and other articles.—Delineator.

Vinagrette Sauce.
Vinagrette sauce is the acid sauce usually served with cold asparagus. It may be made as follows: Mix these ingredients in the order given: Four tablespoonfuls of vinegar, half a teaspoonful of salt, a dash of paprika, half a cupful of olive oil, a tablespoonful of finely chopped pickles and two tea-spoonfuls of chopped parsley.

The Best Man at the Wedding.
Haskins—By the way, who was the best man at your wedding?
Willowby—The parson seemed to be feeling the best. You see, it was all profit for him and no risk whatever.

Imperial Oxford Range

that has made it such a striking success.
It is in the oven construction that the greatest difference is found between the Imperial Oxford and any other range on the market.
The diffusive oven flue draws the cold air from the floor, super-heats it, and distributes it throughout the oven, keeping it at an even temperature in all parts. This flue also makes it easy to regulate the heat of the oven and secures a marked saving in fuel. If your dealer doesn't handle the Imperial Oxford, write to us direct and we will send you our catalogue and tell you where you can see the range.

Bread and Butter Rolls.
There is a knack about preparing the dainty bread and butter rolls for luncheon or the 5 o'clock tea that not every housekeeper possesses. To roll easily the bread must not be more than a day old, while the loaves should not be more than five or six inches in diameter. Cut the slices very thin with a sharp knife, buttering each time before slicing. Trim off the crust and roll lightly, pressing just enough to have the folds adhere. If preferred, the bread can be spread with a fine paste
of shrimp, anchovy, chicken, cream cheese, salad or fig before rolling. For children's parties or occasions when frills seem desirable these little rolls are tied with bebe ribbon, but as ribbon adds nothing to their toothsomeness it is best dispensed with under ordinary circumstances.

THIS MUSICIAN IS DELIGHTED

His Kidney Disease and Gravel
Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Tried Many Medicines But Got no Relief Till He Used The Great Canadian Kidney Remedy.

Rosedene, Ont., July 3.—(Special).—
Mr. Samuel J. Crow, the well-known musician of this place, relates an experience that adds to the already great popularity of Dodd's Kidney Pills in this locality.

"I suffered for years with Kidney Trouble," says Mr. Crow, "which became aggravated with every attack
of cold and caused me much agony.
The disease developed into Gravel,
when I was totally unfit for anything."
"I tried different remedies without the desired result and was in much misery when I decided to try Dodd's Kidney Pills, when to my astonishment and delight I immediately began to recover."

"After using five boxes the ailment
had entirely ceased and I was again enjoying perfect vigor, all of which I owe to Dodd's Kidney Pills."
The fact that Gravel yields so readily to Dodd's Kidney Pills is good news indeed, as it does away with those terrible operations that were supposed to be the only relief from this trouble.

One good daily exercise for preserving suppleness of the spine is to bend
the back while the legs are rigid and touch the toes with the fingers. This is done while standing.

A practical substitute for the waste paper basket is a high jardiniere which has the additional recommendation of

SERVICES HONORED

For many years Judge Woods has been one of the lay representatives from Christ Church to the Synod of Huron. These duties he has been forced to relinquish on account of his advanced age. The Synod at its recent meeting signally recognized the Judge's faithful service by passing a resolution of appreciation, contained in the following letter:

London, June 29th, 1905.
Dear Judge Woods:

I beg to advise you that at the last meeting of the Executive Committee of the Synod of Huron the following resolution was passed:

Moved by Rev. R. McCosh, seconded by Mr. J. D. Noble, that this committee having learned with deep regret that R. S. Woods, Esq., ex-Judge of the County of Kent, who for many years was an active member of this committee, ever manifesting a heartfelt and generous interest in all questions affecting the welfare and influence of the church in this Diocese, is no longer able, owing to advanced age, to give the church in the Diocese the benefit of his valuable services as a member of the Synod and the Executive Committee. And this committee would hereby express their gratitude to Judge Woods and appreciation of his long and faithful services.

Very sincerely yours,
J. H. A. BEATTIE,
Secretary-Treasurer.

FAMINE IN BUILDING STOCK

Maple City Contractor May Have to Discontinue Work for a Few Days

Lime and Cement Scarce Articles in Chatham To-day—Large Consignments Expected—Busy Year in Building

Chatham is on the verge of a famine in building material.

Such was the report given out by a dealer in building stock this morning. If relief does not come in the course of a few days it is expected that the work on several buildings now in progress will have to be abandoned for a few days until such relief does come, in the shape of more building material.

Lime and cement are said to be the scarcest articles in the building line, and the famine is caused by so much demand for it this year, accompanied by the difficulty experienced by dealers in getting orders shipped in to Chatham.

It is estimated that the supply of lime in the city to-day is not sufficient to supply the needs of both to-day and to-morrow. A large consignment of lime is due to arrive in the city to-day, but if it does not come there will be all kinds of trouble to-morrow on buildings where it is a necessary article.

At the worst, however, work will not be stopped for any length of time, but it goes to show the enormous amount of building going on in Chatham, when dealers in building stock cannot get material shipped into Chatham fast enough to satisfy the demand for it.

Cement is also scarce, although the lime question is the most serious. Large consignments of lime and cement are on their way to Chatham now and will be here in the course of a few days. It cannot arrive too soon, judging from the anxious look on the faces of a number of Maple City contractors.

A YOUNG OFFENDER

The young lad who was arrested for stealing a bicycle from Fred H. Brisco has once more got into trouble and has been arrested again, this time on a charge of stealing a spirit lamp from Claude Chapman.

It seems that this young lad has a mania for appropriating articles that do not belong to him. This last offense is a very petty one, as the lamp, which is worth about 75 cents, was used by Mr. Chapman on his naptha launch and would be of no use whatever to the young thief.

It is supposed the boy took it just for the sake of stealing it. This young lad has had a very thorough bringing up as far as applying the strap medicine is concerned. His mother died some time ago but his father has never been sparing with the rod on all occasions when he found his son committing deeds of iniquity.

The case will probably be brought up at the Police Court to-morrow.

MEETING WITH SUCCESS

The Travelling Secretary of the National Sanitarium Association, having gratifying success in his canvass on behalf of a citizens' bed in the Tree Hospital for Consumptives at Gravenhurst. Serious Accident to County Commissioner Chinnick—Ribs and Arm Broken.

County Commissioner James P. Chinnick, the popular and esteemed representative from Raleigh, met with a very serious accident at six o'clock last evening, the results of which which may be of a grave character.

While Mr. Chinnick was engaged in repairing the roof of his barn, he slipped and fell a distance of over 20 feet. Two ribs were broken and an arm badly fractured, while internal injuries were feared.

Mr. Chinnick was removed to his home, where his physician attended him, and this morning he was resting more easily.

A peculiarly sad feature of the case is that Mr. Chinnick's little boy is now lying dangerously ill at the Chatham Hospital.

MAY BE SETTLED

If looks as if the G. T. R. hog pen question may be settled at last. Yesterday Mr. Pritchard, Dr. Hall and Dr. Charteris were out looking for a site at which the pen can be moved. A location on the western outskirts of the city is likely. The site is merely tentative and will have to be approved by the company.

SEP. SCHOOL BOARD

At a meeting of the Separate School Board last night there were present, the chairman, and Messrs. Trudell, Tschirhart, Pinnoneault, Welsh and P. Doyle.

The business transacted was the appointing of a new secretary, J. P. Dunn, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Ed. Dunn.

The teachers' salaries and accounts were ordered paid.

SCHOOL INSPECTION

Trustee Arnold and Secretary Harris, of the C. C. I. Board, and Chairman Grant of the Educational committee of the County Council, and County Treasurer Fleming were yesterday inspecting the Collegiate Institute.

At the last meeting of the Council there was some complaint about the cost of maintenance of County pupils and this visit was taken to show Chairman Grant just what work is being done by the school.

NOTHING HIT

Someone has evidently been stuffing the bagpipes. This morning Chief Holmes casually remarked that there is no truth in the report that the Dagos are bathing in the waterworks basement.

Some of them go down and dip bits of water out of the reservoir, the same as many of them do, but when they were told by Engineer Murphy to stop doing this they at once complied with the order. Mr. Murphy says that the Dagos are as orderly as any people out there. They will do anything they are told to. People should be sure of their facts and then they would not spread unwarranted reports.

HAD WHEELS

Roy Tobey had a funny experience with bicycles yesterday morning. Mr. Tobey left his store with his own wheel and stopped off at W. H. Harper's office. When he came out his wheel was left in its place. This was rather discouraging, but Mr. Tobey managed to pedal the "ice wagon" to the Planet office. Here another change was made, but this time a good wheel was left for Mr. Tobey—better than the one he started out with.

Roy was just patting himself on the back for having come into possession of a good wheel when the owner came back for it and returned the "ice" Mr. Tobey had intended ed saying "anything about it, but now I am looking for the fellow who took his wheel."

SWEDEN MOBILIZING.

Thinks to Give Added Force to Norway Settlement Proposal.

Stockholm, July 5.—The Associated Press is in a position to state that an order for the mobilization of the Swedish army has been issued and that a proclamation to this effect will probably be issued within a week.

The mobilization is intended as a means of giving added force to a proposal for settlement which the special committee appointed by the Riksdag may make to the Norwegian Storting.

King Oscar granted a private audience to a correspondent of The Associated Press, and said, emphatically that he would never allow any of his sons or his grandsons to accept the Norwegian throne.

In speaking of the attitude of Norway, the King displayed deep emotion and expressed heartfelt sorrow at Norway's treatment of him after 32 years of unceasing labor for his prosperity.

An Incendiary Fire.

London, July 5.—Fire destroyed R. C. Wright's factory at Thorndale, near here, early yesterday morning. The loss will be $6,000, on which there is an insurance of $1,000. The origin is believed to have been incendiary.

Wrecked Steamer Abandoned.

Halifax, July 5.—The steamer Salerno, ashore outside the harbor, has been abandoned altogether, and is to be sold at auction. Her stern has sunk beneath the surface, the ship being bent in the middle.

THE KING EDWARD GROCERY*TWO HORSEPOWER

Frightened mothers gathered their babes in their arms, children ran screaming and the dwellers on Queen street crowded up close to the fence as a cloud of dust was seen coming down that street Saturday afternoon. From out of the cloud came a vicious snorting. The superstitious said that Queen street was being visited by an angel of wrath on account of the G. T. R. hog pens. The more practical said it was an automobile.

About three hours later a lumber wagon pulled by two somnambulists of horses appeared from the direction in which the vision had vanished. Attached to the wagon was a very tame automobile, being ingeniously pulled into town—no cloud of dust now, no terror, no countenances. One of the more courageous men went so far as to go up and touch the fire-wagon. It did not hit back—there was no light left in it.

While says he just wanted to find out the horse-power of his machine.

RECORD OF A GREAT MEDICINE

A Prominent Montreal Woman Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Completely Cured Her.

The great good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is doing among the women of America is attracting the attention of many leading scientists, and thinking people generally.

The following letter is only one of many thousands which are on file in the Pinkham office, and go to prove beyond question that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound must be a remedy of great merit, otherwise it could not produce such marvellous results among sick and ailing women:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"Soon after my marriage my health began to decline. My appetite failed me; I was unable to sleep, and I became very nervous and had shooting pains through the abdomen and pelvic organs, with bearing-down pains and constant headaches, causing me much misery. The monthly periods became more and more painful, and I became a burden and expense to my family instead of a help and pleasure. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me within three months. Soon after I began using it I felt a change for the better, and at the time of my next period I noticed a great difference, and the pain gradually diminished until I was well. I am stronger and look better than I did before I was married, and there is great rejoicing in the house over the wonders your medicine worked."—Mrs. M. A. C. Letellier, 723 Cadieux St., Montreal, Quebec.

If you have suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness of the stomach, indigestion, bloating, leucorrhoea, flooding, nervous prostration, dizziness, faintness, "don't-care" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feeling, excitability, backache or the blues, these are sure indications of female weakness, some derangement of the uterus or ovarian trouble. In such cases there is one tried and true remedy—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

THREE BOYS ON A RAFT.

Drifted Out Into Lake 10 Miles at Collingwood.

Collingwood, July 4.—A drowning accident was narrowly averted yesterday by the presence of mind of an 8 year old boy and his two brothers, aged 4 and 6.

The three boys, sons of Policeman Willison, went down to the town park on the lake shore about 10 o'clock, and the two older boys went in for a swim, and taking their little brother with them on a raft.

There was a severe strong wind blowing off shore and before the little fellows were aware of it they were drifting out into the lake.

Some one discovered their clothes, and a searching party was organized. The little fellows were given up for lost, but as a forlorn hope launch was secured and steamed out into the bay. When darkness was coming on they caught sight of a tiny speck and made for it.

The three boys were still clinging to the raft which was becoming heavier as they went on.

They were nearly ten miles from land.

He Will Cure You First Then You Pay Him

The physician, who has not sufficient confidence in his own ability to cure his patient first, and receive his pay afterwards, is not the man to inspire confidence in those, who are in need of honest treatment.

Dr. Goldberg's acceptance of a case for treatment is equivalent to a cure, because he never accepts incurable cases. He is satisfied to receive the money for the value he has given the patient, but he expects to prove his worth and show positive and satisfactory results before he asks for the fee. So should he fail to cure the case, the patient loses nothing, while the doctor, when he cures the patient, has given him what is worth much more than money—he has given him his health back.

Dr. Goldberg is the first specialist in the United States or Canada, who has had sufficient confidence in his ability to say to the afflicted that not a dollar need be paid until cured.

There is no guesswork, no experiment about his method. He is a known expert in his chosen specialty, and offers you the best, and only the best treatment. When your life or your health is at stake, inferior treatment (which leaves after-effects worse than the disease itself) is dear at any price.

Dr. Goldberg has 14 diplomas and certificates from the various colleges and state boards of medical examiners, which should be sufficient guarantee as to his standing and ability. It makes no difference who has failed to cure you, it will be to your advantage to get the doctor's opinion of your case free of charge. He wants to hear from patients who have been unable to get cured, as he guarantees a positive cure for all chronic, nervous, blood and skin diseases, which he accepts for treatment. He not only cures the condition itself, but likewise all the complications, such as rheumatism, bladder or kidney troubles, blood poisoning, physical and nervous debility, lack of vitality, stomach trouble, etc. All medicines for patients are prepared in his own laboratory to meet the requirements of each individual case. He will send a booklet on the subject, which contains the 14 diplomas and certificates, entirely free. All medicines for Canadian patients sent from Windsor, Ont., duty and transportation prepaid. Address him simply, Dr. S. Goldberg, 208 Woodward Ave., Suite 511 Detroit, Michigan.

Kit, Kitty And the Kitten

By CLEMENT WILLIS

Copyright, 1905, by T. C. McClure

"I beg your pardon, but can you tell me how to wash a cat?" Christopher Caswell held up a black kitten, with a very dirty white shirt front, to justify the question.

Catherine Turner caught it in her arms. "Isn't it a dear!" she cried. "Where did you get it?"

"I didn't get it," said Christopher (known to his friends as Kit); "it got me. You see, last night was pretty snowy, and this little beast followed me all the way down the street."

"And you took it in? How good of you!"

"I didn't exactly take her in; she led the way. After that I couldn't chuck her out in the snow again."

Kitty Turner gave him a look that seemed to him to bore into the inner-

"DID YOU HAVE A FIGHT?"

most recesses of his heart. He had worshiped her from afar ever since she had come into the studio building. This was the first opportunity he had had to speak with her.

"You get some soap and tepid water," explained Kitty. "Then you souse her well, dry her off and wrap her in a blanket and hold her until she dries out. You have an extra blanket?"

"Oh, yes," said Kit mendaciously, vowing that his steamer rug was none too good for a cat that had laid in Miss Turner's arms.

Kitty handed the wail to Kit. "Have you fed her?"

"Sure," was the prompt response. "She had a pint of cream this morning, though I'm sure she doesn't look it yet."

"You must not overfeed her," decreed Kitty. "I'll bring you some fish for her supper. All cats like fish." Then the door shut, and Kit went back to his own apartments, assuring the unenthusiastic kitten that she was about to have the bath of her brief existence.

The preliminaries were simple enough, though Kit's ideas of tepid water were rather above the standard temperature. Grasping the cake of soap in one hand and the kitten in the other, Kit soaped her and boldly plunged the unsuspecting guest into the water. As she touched the water she gave vent to a howl that frightened Kit and made a spring for the edge of the tub.

Kit dropped the soap and grabbed at the cat, but his hands and the cat were slippery with soap, and he hugged her to his breast to secure her. This turned the frightened little animal on her back, and in an instant Kit's face was streaked with crimson.

With a howl he dropped the kitten back into the tub, from which she made her escape unhampered and promptly vanished under the sofa in the sitting room.

Kit bathed his face, smeared it with soap and then started after the kitten again. With the aid of a crook handled cane he dragged her from her hiding place, the dust matted in her wet fur. Clearly that bath was more than ever a necessity. Kit tempered the water from the faucet and finally accomplished the task.

When Kitty knocked at the door an hour later she very nearly fainted at the apparition which confronted her. Kit, with his shirt front wet and torn, his face streaked with blood and grease, bearing under his arm a wadded mass of steamer rug, certainly presented a formidable appearance.

"I gave her a bath," he grinned cheerfully.

"I should say you did," agreed Kitty. "Did you have a fight?"

"Did I?" echoed Kit. "Do you know, I'm going to form a new society for the prevention of cruelty to animals?"

"Is that the cat?" she demanded. "What's left of it," he answered, picking at the bundle. The cat dropped out and streaked into Kitty's apartment. She ran after it, and when she came out again she carried cloths and a bottle as well as the kitten.

The kitten she quickly settled in a chair before the radiator. Then she turned her attention to Kit. Tenderly she washed off the ointment and bathed the scratches, applying a soothing lotion.

"That will take the sting out," she said as she turned to go. "If you will leave the door unlocked, I'll come in later and change the cloths again."

To Kit it seemed as if the familiar sitting room had suddenly grown gloomy and depressing, and he lay there wondering at the difference a woman's presence makes.

Kit Caswell had been a confirmed bachelor ever since he had come from college. He rallied at marriage and love until his victims swore that some day they would have their revenge by seeing him struggling against the advances of the little god of love.

Now he confessed to himself that their dark prophecies had come true, only they were not dark prophecies. He found, to his surprise, that being in love was an altogether agreeable sensation.

His face soon mended under Kitty's care, but his heart was less easily cured. Kitty was friendly, but blissfully unconscious of his lovelornings.

There were little friendly visits to the door with some dainty approved by the feline species, brief chats in the elevator and the lobby about cat nature and education, but somehow Kitty's absorption in the kitten fended off the tender speeches that hung trembling on Christopher's tongue.

Several times he determined to put his fate to the test, but some incident restrained him until she had gone. It was a fit that finally brought his courage to the proper point.

The kitten, as all kittens will, indulged in the luxury of a fit, and Kit in hot haste summoned Kitty to the rescue. Her tenderness with the suffering beast fanned his love into a fierce heat, and when she had gone back to her own rooms he sat and applied picturesque appellations to himself for a coward. Then he crossed the hall and knocked on Kitty's door.

"I want to talk to you about the cat," he began lamely.

"Is she worse?" asked Kitty anxiously.

"It isn't that," he explained. "It's about her future. May I come in?"

She stood aside hospitably, and he entered the little den, strewn with its half completed bits of china painting.

"I don't think I can keep that cat," he began when she had settled herself.

"They are an awful comfort," she urged.

"And an awful responsibility," he added. "I don't think a bachelor should try to keep a cat."

"I used to keep one," she said carelessly, "and found it very easy. If you will follow my directions about feeding it you will have very little trouble."

"They say black cats are very lucky," he observed.

"Indeed they are. I know lots of instances where they have brought good luck."

"I thought," he said nervously, "that you might like to have it."

"I couldn't think of taking her away from you," she cried, "she is such a comfort to you."

"Well, you see," he continued, his heart thumping violently. "I go with the cat; one of those trading stamp games, you know."

It was unconventional, but Kitty had the kitten—and Kit.

North German Superstitions.

During an eclipse all hidden treasures are open, and if you are wise enough to carry a primrose with you you will be able to help yourself to any of them. No witchcraft will ever harm you if you carry a water lily bud about your person, and if you should chance to dream of illness you will soon be happily married. If you eat double cherries you will have twin children, and if you are afraid of lightning take heed to keep in your house a plant of arbutus or live oak.

Now peas on Wednesday and Saturday if you do not want them to be eaten by birds. Put blue marjoram in the baby's cradle when empty to keep witches at a respectable distance, and if you don't want your last baking to go moldy you must take good heed not to bring cornflowers into the house. Stars are souls, and when one falls a baby is born. When a baby dies God makes a new star. These are all north German superstitions.

The Husband as a "Nice Doggie."

There are a lot of women in this world who think that there's only one side to the married relation, and that's their side. When one of them marries she starts right out to train her husband into kind old Carlo, who'll go downtown for her every morning and come home every night, fetching a snug little basketful of money in his mouth and wagging his tail as he lays it at her feet. Then it's a pat on the head, and "Nice doggie."

And he's taught to stand around evenings, retrieving her gloves and handkerchief and snapping up with a pleased licking of his chops any little word that she may throw to him. But you let him start in to have a little fun scratching and stretching himself or pawing her, and it's "Charge, Carlo!" and "Bad doggie!"—From "Old Gorgon Graham."

Buddhist Bells.

In an article on "Some Remarkable Old Chinese Bronzes" a writer speaks of the thimblelike projections on the temple bells as being for the purpose of adjusting the sound. Many Chinese and Japanese bells have similar projections, but in every one of them these are above the sound bow of the bell. This would not be the case if the above theory were correct. An educated Japanese gave me another reason—to wit: Once upon a time Buddha was so engrossed in his meditations that he did not observe the sun's beating down on his bare head. The snails, seeing his plight, covered his scalp with their slimy bodies and prevented his having a sunstroke. Since then Buddhist bells that were cast had these twisted protuberances, while those of beaten metal have been covered with small convex bosses.—Forest and Stream.

RUSSIAN CRUISER SAVES LIVES.

French Steamer is Wrecked Off the Arabian Coast.

Aden, Arabia, July 4.—The Russian auxiliary cruiser Rion arrived here yesterday, having on board 618 persons from the French steamer Chodoc, from Saigon for Bordeaux, which is ashore off Cape Guardafui, at the mouth of the Gulf of Aden.

The Rion, which was homeward bound from Batavia, was attracted by the signals of the survivors, who managed to get ashore at Cape Guardafui despite the hostility of the natives.

Only a few lives were lost during the transfer of the passengers and crew from the Chodoc to the shore.

BETTER LATE THAN NEVER.

Government Appoints Commission to Look Into Uruguay Outrage.

Ottawa, July 4.—Canada at last is going to make an independent investigation into the Agnes D. Donohue affair. Sandford H. Pelton, K. C., of Yarmouth, has been commissioned to visit Uruguay and ascertain the facts. Hitherto negotiations have been carried on through Imperial channels. This method has been found too deliberate. The captain and mate of the schooner are still in prison in Montevideo on a conviction of having stolen seals.

DR. JOHNSTON, M.P., DEAD.

Liberal Member For West Lambton Dies in Ottawa.

Ottawa, July 4.—Dr. Johnston, M.P. for West Lambton, died at 12.22 this morning. Death was due from blood poisoning, following an attack of erysipelas. Dr. Thomas George Johnston was elected to the House of Commons as a Liberal to represent West Lambton at a bye-election in 1898, and was re-elected at the subsequent general elections. He was born in Sarnia in 1849.

Circus Employe Fined.

Quebec, July 4.—James Jordan, the negro connected with Lemon Bros. circus, and one of the quartet arrested for complicity in the Roberval outrage, was committed to stand his trial at Roberval yesterday. William Justin, one of the prisoners, pleaded guilty to carrying firearms and was fined $10 and costs or a month's imprisonment.

The Great Salt Lake Bridge.

The longest bridge in the world stretches across Great Salt Lake. It was constructed at an enormous cost to save time and money. Before the bridge was built the railroad skirted the north end of the lake. Now it cuts off forty-three miles of road and runs directly from Ogden to Lucin. The cost of this remarkable bridge was $5,000,000. The piles were brought from the Oregon and Texas forests. By placing all the piles together they would measure nearly 600,000 feet. There are more than eleven miles of permanent trestling, nearly the entire length being under water, which is from thirty to thirty-four feet deep.

Beginning of the Trouble.

"Well, what happened later?" queried Mrs. Breezeem.

"I married you," continued the alleged head of the matrimonial combine.

CUTIGURA SOAP

The World's Greatest Skin Soap.

The World's Sweetest Toilet Soap.

Sale Greater than the World's Product of Other Skin Soaps.

Sold Wherever Civilization Has Penetrated.

Millions of the world's best people use Cuticura Soap, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, the great skin cure, and purest and sweetest of emollients, for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and soothing red, rough, and sore hands, for baby rashes, itching, and chafing, for annoying irritations, or too free or excessive perspiration, for ulcerative weaknesses, and many sanative, antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, especially mothers, as well as for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery.

Cuticura Soap combines delicate emollient properties derived from Cuticura, the great skin cure, with the purest of cleansing ingredients and the most refreshing of flower odors. No other medicated soap ever compounded is to be compared with it for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair, and hands. No other foreign or domestic toilet soap, however expensive, is to be compared with it for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. Thus it combines in one soap at one price the most effective skin and complexion soap and the purest and sweetest toilet, bath, and nursery soap.

Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are sold throughout the world. Church Weddings and Cards.

While it is a popular custom to issue cards of invitation to attend a church wedding, it is entirely contrary to the teaching understood to be implied by the church edifice. No private family has a right to issue invitation to the House of God to witness the performance of a rite within the said house as though for the time being the latter had been given over to them for their own particular use. A wedding in a church is not a private, but rather a public rite, at which any parishioner who wishes may be present without an invitation from any one. God's house is at all times a public place of worship, the very spirit of which is utterly opposed to cards of invitation.—Church Eclectic.

CHOLERA INFANTUM.

Child Not Expected to Live From One Hour to Another, but Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Ruth, the little daughter of E. N. Dewey, of Agnewville, Va., was seriously ill of cholera infantum last summer. "We gave her up and did not expect her to live from one hour to another," he says. "I happened to think of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and got a bottle of it from the store. In five hours I saw a change for the better. We kept on giving it and before she had taken the half of one small bottle she was well." This remedy is for sale by All Druggists.

Cornwall Strikers Beaten.

Cornwall, July 4.—The strike of the motormen and conductors of the Cornwall Electric Street Railway was called off last night, and it is understood that most of the men will return to work today at the old scale of wages, 13 cents an hour. They struck last week, asking first 17 and then 15 cents.

Last of Boxer Indemnity.

Pekin, July 4.—The final Boxer indemnity agreement was signed Sunday, the Russo Chinese Bank difficulty having been removed. China, therefore, will liquidate on the basis originally proposed. The affair is regarded as satisfactorily settled.

ONE DOLLAR SAVED REPRESENTS TEN DOLLARS EARNED.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent. of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars. For sale by All Druggists.

Fell Under the Wheels.

Perth, July 4.—John Cameron of Winnipeg was accidentally killed at the C. P. R. depot yesterday morning. Deceased had been attending the Old Boys' reunion and had gone to the midnight train to bid good-bye to a number of old friends. He boarded the train, and while it was in motion fell under the wheels and was killed.

LISSAJOUS' CURVES.

The Salt Artist and the Pretty Designs It Will Produce.

Some very curious natural curved designs may be made with sand or salt and a funnel.

Get a piece of wood about three inches in diameter, and in the center of it make a hole large enough for the funnel to rest in. Fasten three pieces of stout twine near the edge of the wooden disk equally distant from each other, so that when their other ends are united in a knot, as at A in the picture, the funnel will hang in a balanced position in the wooden rest while held in your hand at the knot.

THE SALT ARTIST AT WORK.

Then on two hooks in a frame, as shown in the picture, placed about four feet apart, fasten two strings, and let them be united with the other three at A. When this has all been done, the funnel, which may be of glass or tin, should hang with its center as close to the table as possible.

Now remove the funnel and make a knot in the strings at about one-fourth the length above the funnel, as at B. Replacing the funnel, held your finger at the bottom of the tube and pour it full of sand or salt, and your salt artist is ready to draw.

Hold the funnel off at one corner of the table and let it go, when it will swing off in a curve, the sand or salt marking the line of its motion. Now fill the funnel again and, holding it at the opposite corner of the table, let it go, when it will duplicate the first curve from that corner. If you do this from all four corners you will have a pretty symmetrical design.

If you will now remove the funnel, untie the knot at B and make the knot at some other point, the curves will be different, and you may make an infinite variety of designs by starting from different positions on the table.

You may think that this is great fun, and so it is, but it is more than fun, as the curves really represent a discovery made by a Frenchman, and they are called after him, Lissajous' curves.

The Three Slaves.

"Oh, mamma," cried little Blanche Philpott. "I heard such a tale about Edith Howard! I did not think she could be so very naughty. One—"

"My dear," interrupted Mrs. Philpott, "before you continue we will see if your story will pass the three slaves."

"What does that mean, mamma?" inquired Blanche.

"I will explain it. In the first place, is it true?"

"I suppose so. I got it from Miss White, and she is a great friend of Edith's."

"And does she show her friendship by telling tales of her? In the next place, though you can prove it to be true, is it kind?"

"I do not mean to be unkind, but I am afraid it was. I should not like Edith to speak of me as I have of her."

"And is it necessary?"

"No, of course, mamma; there was no need for me to mention it at all."

"Then put a bridle on your tongue. If we can't speak well, speak not at all."

Names of Vehicles.

The word carriage comes from the old Latin word "carrus," which means a cart.

Cabriolet, commonly shortened to cab, comes from a French word which means a goat leap or caper. The carriage is so named on account of its lightness.

Omnibus is from the Latin and means "for all."

Gig is from the French word jig, and it is given to the vehicle on account of its motion.

Chaise is from the French word for chair.

Sulky is so called because the driver is regarded as a sulky fellow, otherwise why would he prefer to ride alone?

Coupe is from the French word "to cut." It is given to the vehicle because it looks like a coach with its front cut off.

What the Robin Told.

How do robins build their nest? Robin Redbreast told me.

First a wisp of yellow hay In a pretty round they lay.

Then some strands of downy flax, Feathers, too, and bits of moss.

Woven with a sweet, sweet song, This way, that way, and across;

That's what Robin told me.

Where do robins hide their nest? Robin Redbreast told me.

Up among the leaves so deep, Where the sunbeams rarely creep.

Long before the winds are cold, Long before the leaves are gold,

Bright-eyed stars will peep and see Baby robins—one, two, three.

That's what Robin told me.

$100 REWARD $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have gone to much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Tea owes its flavor to a certain fine volatile oil which is present only in very minute quantities. The fact that it is so volatile renders it most necessary to keep tea in a caddy that is air tight.

THE ROOT OF NEURALGIC HEAD-ACHE.

Is an irritable condition of the nerves caused by cold. Relief comes quickly from Nerviline, the great pain reliever of to-day. "I consider Nerviline a magical remedy for neuralgia," writes Mrs. E. G. Harris, of Baltimore. But I never worry if Nerviline is in the house. A few applications never yet failed to kill the pain. I can also recommend Nerviline for stiffness, rheumatism and muscular pains." In use nearly fifty years; try Nerviline yourself.

The trouble with the people who repeat everything they hear is that they don't hear everything they repeat.

In late years men have made fortunes out of the tailings of gold mines. The mills in which the ore formerly was crushed and the crude processes then in use allowed a large percentage of the precious metal to escape, and that loss amounted in some cases to a fortune. The story is just like a stupor mill in this respect, that when it is not in perfect order it allows the escape and waste of much of the precious nutrient contained in the food. That loss, when continuous, means the loss of man's greatest fortune—health. Science offers a remedy for this condition in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It corrects the "weakness" of the stomach, prevents waste and loss of nourishment, and puts the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition into a condition of health which enables them to save and assimilate all the nutriment contained in the food which is eaten. In all cases of constipation the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets will speedily and permanently cure the disease.

To Make Pure

Biscuit, cake, rolls, muffins, dumplings, etc., a pure leavening agent is indispensable.

While the Royal Baking Powder is reported absolutely pure and healthful, the official reports show most other baking powders, as well as the cream of tartar of the market depended upon by many housekeepers for raising biscuit and cake, to contain either alum, ammonia or sulphuric acid.

The Government Analyst of Ontario says:

"As a result of my investigation, I find the Royal Baking Powder far superior to the others. It is pure, contains none but wholesome ingredients, and is of greatest strength."

MAN SEIZES LIVE WIRE

Palms of His Hands Burned Through, Will Be Useless.

Doctors Wonder That He Escaped From Death Owing to the High Voltage of Electricity the Wires Carried—William Willis Fell From a Yacht Mast He Had Repaired and Confronted Death Twice.

Twice Confronted Death. Toronto, July 5.—William Willis, aged 19, after repairing a National Club yacht yesterday afternoon, climbed to the top of the mast to test it. Something caused him to reel and slip down the mast. He clutched at two wires which hung overhead to save himself from a fall. They were carrying a high voltage of electricity, and his scream of agony brought help. One man picked up a board and struck the wire which Willis could not let go of and then his grasp loosened and he fell to the deck with an awful cry. One hand is burned throughout the palm, and the other is in almost as bad shape. The doctors at the Eastern General Hospital wonder that the man survived the shock. The hands may have to be amputated.

TWO KILLED AT BARN RAISING.

Accident Near Barrie—One Man Had Back Broken.

Barrie, July 5.—An accident happened in the Township of Flos, about 12 miles from here, on Monday, whereby two men were killed and several others badly injured.

During a barn-raising on the farm of Peter Moran of the fourth concession of Flos a bent collapsed, and the entire structure fell to the ground.

William Harker had his back broken and died instantly, and Thomas McTaggart died about two hours after the accident. Both were respectable residents of Flos. McTaggart was a married man. The others injured are recovering rapidly.

George Oliver Drowned.

Saskatoon, July 5.—George Oliver, a young man 20 years of age, was accidentally drowned Monday night. He drove into the river with a rig to fill a barrel of water, but as the water had risen rapidly during the last few days the swift current carried the horses and rig away. He attempted to jump, but was unable to do so, and was swept away. He was wearing a life preserver, but it was not of much use, and he disappeared from sight within a few seconds.

Raft Sinks and Boy Drowns.

Cayuga, July 5.—Victor Barnes, about 7 years old, while playing on a raft yesterday morning on the river here, was drowned. He was in a small boat, filled with water, and sank under him. His little brother, Cecil, gave the alarm.

Little Girl's Paralysis Saves Life.

Kingston, July 5.—Yesterday morning a small boy named Staley fell off the King street bridge and was in great danger of being drowned. Norma Twigg, the 7-year-old daughter of William Twigg, Barrie street, was passing along, and promptly took hold of the boy with her parasol and held him till help came.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.

Rex Meredith of Quebec Has His Arm Badly Shattered.

Quebec, July 5.—Rex Meredith, notary public, son of Mr. E. G. Meredith of this city, had his left arm badly shattered on Saturday last at St. Patrick's, near River du Loup, by the premature discharge of a sporting rifle. He was in the act of lifting from the bottom of a canoe.

Accidental Drowning.

Stop Trains to Save Life.

New York, July 5.—Seeing Catherine O'Connell, aged 35 years, leap into the Hudson River, New York Central Railroad signalmen set the signals in their tower stopping all trains while they went to her assistance in a rowboat. The woman was rescued, but later died in a hospital.

Fourth of July Accidents.

New York, July 5.—The premature explosion of a shell in a fire-boat while a Fourth of July salute of 45 guns was being fired on Governor's Island resulted in one death and severe injuries to 16 other soldiers. Fatal shooting fatalities are also reported from Chicago and Boston.

Altogether five deaths were recorded in New York as a result of the day's celebration, and the number of accidents reaches into the hundreds.

JOHN HAY'S FACE.

Although Body Lies in State, Public Will Not See It.

Cleveland, O., July 5.—The remains of John Hay now lie in state in the spacious chamber of commerce of this city, guarded by a detail from Troop A, of which the illustrious dead man was an honorary member.

Mrs. Hay wished, above all, that the body should not lie in state for public view. The people of the city will therefore have no opportunity of seeing the face of the dead secretary of state. The body will lie in state in the hall of the chamber of commerce building for two days, but exposed only to the eyes of the troopers, who will stand guard over the coffin. Even the funeral services themselves will be like those of one of the country's most humble citizens. The last words will be spoken over the body of the dead in the privacy of his dearest relatives and closest friends in life.

Contract Awarded.

Ottawa, July 5.—The contract for the Port Stanley breakwater has been awarded to Haney & Miller. The price is in the neighborhood of $100,000.

NEW POWER COMMISSION.

Ontario Government Names Three Manufacturers For the Position.

Toronto, July 5.—Hon. Adam Beck, Minister without portfolio in the Whitney Government, manufacturer, London.

George Pattinson, member of the Legislative Assembly for North Waterloo, manufacturer, Preston.

P. W. Ellis of the firm of P. W. Ellis & Co., manufacturer, Toronto.

These men compose the Ontario Government commission to investigate the question of electric power development. A session of the Cabinet was held yesterday afternoon, when they were named to look into the whole question and suggest means of bringing the vast water power resources of the Province under control.

M. Whitney stated yesterday that the commission had been given very wide powers, practically carte blanche, to gather information.

A report will be presented to the Government and the policy to be pursued will then be determined upon.

It is probable that Hon. Adam Beck will be chairman of the commission. He has taken a most intelligent and lively interest in electric power development. The other gentlemen are also practical manufacturers, and their appointment to such an important commission will be received with satisfaction.

How to Live to a Hundred.

New York, July 5.—Sitting in a chair at the home of his son-in-law, in Brooklyn, smoking a cigar and sipping a toddy, Joseph Zeitlin celebrating his 100th birthday, gave the following rules for longevity:

"Never have a doctor and don't go into a drug store. Don't worry. Never be in a hurry. Don't eat quick lunches. Take little meat especially in early life. Sleep eight hours a day. When you reach the age of 90 do as you please."
