LALAUZE, a fine paper copy, 6 vols, royal 8vo, cloth, 25.00, Edinburgh, 1875-77. 308

A BEAUTIFUL EDITION IN EVERY RESPECT. "Its excellencies," says the Athenæum in its elaborate review of it, "will win for it a place in every dramatic library. Those unfortunate enough to be unable to read Moliere in the original will obtain from this version as correct an impression as can be hoped of the first of comic dramatists. "Mr. Gerald Massey has collected together all the principal facts known about Egypt, with a view to trace the origin of mankind. Some portions of his theories are undoubtedly correct, especially those which go to prove that the Egyptians are the oldest known historical race, that they are an African people of a peculiar type, and by no means an Asiatic tribe filtered through the Isthmus of Suez. He has taken all reasonable care to ensure a fair and correct list of words and facts. He has produced a work which will be read with pleasure by some, and amazement by others."—Nature.
