

Public Opinion in America Divided on Note Washington Thinks Breach Has Been Averted Britain to Adopt Daylight Saving Scheme

GERMAN NOTE IS ILL-TEMPERED, INSULTING AND DISHONEST; ITS CLEVERNESS, CHICANERY

To-morrow, Lusitania Day in the United States may see upheaval, of popular anger.

New York Herald's Opinion, However, Not Held by all Other Papers.

By Special Wire to the Courier.
New York, May 6.—In commenting editorially on the German reply to the American note, the New York Herald says:

"It is one year, lacking a day, since the Lusitania was sunk, and the lynch law of the sea is still in force and the lyncher an unrepentant bully. The German note is before the country. It does not hold out any promise of the peaceful settlement of the submarine controversy so ardently desired by the American people and by all neutral nations. On the contrary, it is a keen disappointment. There is likely to be an upheaval of popular indignation in this country to-morrow when the Lusitania memorial meetings are held that will affect even our pacifist and pro-German members of Congress."

SLIPPERY DICK.
"To consider the German note with the calmness which such grave subjects should receive, is a difficult matter because of its character. It is ill-tempered; it is insulting; it is dishonest. Its attempted cleverness is mere chicanery, its efforts to place the responsibility for the submarine warfare upon the blockade is preposterous, as the German effort to place the responsibility for the war upon Russia, France and Great Britain. In some of its passages it would seem that Germany was trying to prove that the United States was responsible for the war and for its continuance. Slippery Dick, in writing this note, was at his best. It comes from a country whose every word has been questioned since August, 1915."

The Morning Sun says:
"If the official text of the German reply coincides with the unofficial version received yesterday, the administration and the country will be warranted in regarding that reply as a promise of compliance with the final American demand."
"The order to the submarine commanders has been nipped. Until it is repealed or superseded, or unless it should be flagrantly or willfully and systematically violated with the connivance of the superior authority, defines the new submarine policy of the imperial government. In its text as it stands, there is no evasion or qualification, no limitation, geographical or technical, in departure from the specific acceptance of our own understanding of what international law requires in the case."

NO CONDITION ATTACHED
"The imperial government does not make its declaration and order for the abandonment of illegal methods conditional upon anything that we may do in the way of pressing a case against Great Britain for a different sort of infraction of international law, a less atrocious invasion of neutral rights on the high seas. The Von Jagow note announces compliance with our demand, and then proceeds to express confidence that the United States will now insist that Great Britain shall also and forthwith observe the rules universally recognized before the war."

MORE DIS-APPROVE THAN APPROVE GERMANY'S REPLY TO WILSON'S 'NOTE'

By Special Wire to the Courier.
New York, May 6.—According to the New York Times, the weight of American press opinion, as it is revealed in despatches, disapproves Germany's reply to the United States on

JACK ON HIS JACKIE ASHORE

British bluejackets of the North American squadron, which is protecting Canadian commerce from the submarines, enjoying a few hours' leave on shore in the West Indies. Leave doesn't come often these war times, and the British tars make the best of it.

BREAK IN DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WILL NOT OCCUR YET AWHILE

President Wilson is Now Going Over Official Text But Unless it Differs From Draft Received by Public Yesterday, Not Likely to be Trouble.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Washington, May 6.—The official text of Germany's latest note on submarine warfare was ready to be laid before President Wilson to-day. It arrived by cable last night and code clerks worked late to prepare copies for the president and his advisers.
Unless the document contains essential differences from the unofficial version received in press dispatches by wireless yesterday, it is considered probable that the threatened break in diplomatic relations with Germany will not occur, temporarily, at least.
The president will not reach a definite decision before next week, however, it is said. Careful attention will be given the official text to discover fine shades of meaning which may have been obscured in the Berlin news dispatches. Cabinet members were asked by the president to give close attention to the document, and their opinions will be sought before any formal decision is reached.
Administration officials stated that Germany doubtless would be given a chance to demonstrate her assurances that submarine commanders have been notified not to sink merchant vessels without warning. They based their opinion on the press record of the note, however.

Much interest was apparent to-day among officials on editorial opinions of the German note. Many of these suggested the reply should be considered satisfactory, temporarily, pending the result of Germany's promise "to do its utmost to confine operations of the war for the rest of its duration to the fighting forces of belligerents." Others suggested that a diplomatic break would be advisable.

the submarine question. In the south, especially, the reply is regarded as unsatisfactory.
Of the newspapers which are quoted, 59 disapprove the tone of the note, 23 approve and 23 are non-committal.

ONE KILLED, ONE WOUNDED, TO-DAY'S LIST

George Webster, Marlboro St., Killed, and Pte. Vancour Wounded.

One Brantford man killed and one St. George man wounded was the news shown in to-day's casualty list. The dead man is George Webster, 133 Marlboro St., and the wounded man Pte. Fred Vancour.
George Webster boarded at 133 Marlboro street, and his landlady yesterday received the official notice of his death. He was an Irishman, and before enlisting had been out in this country about 4 years. He worked first at Slingsby's, and later at Ryerson Bros., wholesale fruiterers, who speak in the very highest terms of him. He was 25 years of age. He had many friends in Brantford, who will grieve to learn of his death.
Pte. Fred Vancour left Brantford with the 36th reserve battalion in March, 1915, and was later drafted to the front. He is of Canadian birth, unmarried, and previous to enlistment was for four years a member of the 91st Regiment.

Many Belgian Old Men and Women are Being Brought to United States

By Special Wire to the Courier.

The Hague, via London, May 6.—The Rev. John B. Deville, of Chicago, who twice has gone to Belgium on behalf of the Belgian-American Relief and brought out a large number of Belgian old men, women and children to join their relatives in the United States, left for Brussels to-day to bring out 1,500 more.

Owing to the present severe restrictions the permission of the German authorities was difficult to obtain by Father Deville, but after six weeks of suspense, General Von Busing, the Governor-General, gave his permission to carry out his programme. This includes the distribution of $200,000 among destitute Belgians, sent by relatives in the United States.
Among the 1,500 persons, Father Deville purposes to bring out on his present trip will be fifty young women who are going to join their fiancés in America. They will be married at Ellis Island. Some of the bridegrooms are said to be coming to Ellis Island from as far as Oregon. The emigrants will proceed to New York by way of Rotterdam in groups of one hundred. It is hoped to send the first group at the end of May.

Another One?

London, May 6.—A dispatch from Rotterdam to The Daily News says that a Dutch fishing boat which arrived at Ameland reported having sighted the Zeppelin L-9 flying extremely low across the North sea yesterday and apparently badly crippled.

THE ROCHAMBEAU IS THE FIRST FRENCH PASSENGER STEAMSHIP TO ARRIVE AT NEW YORK WITH A GUN. THE GUN IS ABOUT A THREE-INCH AND IS A RAPID FIRER. CAPTAIN JUHAM, THE COMMANDER OF THE ARMED VESSEL, SAID ALL FRENCH LINE SHIPS WILL CARRY GUNS IN THE FUTURE.

America's Specific Demands Completely Evaded; the Reply is Insolent, and Cynical.

Its Only Purpose is to Gain Time, it Makes No New Offer.

By Special Wire to the Courier.
London, May 6.—The interest with which Germany's reply to the United States was awaited here could hardly have been exceeded in America. All the evening papers yesterday printed the note prominently by sections in successive editions. The greatest curiosity was expressed as to the reception of the note by the United States. The morning newspapers, almost without exception, print editorials on the note and express more or less decided opinions on it.
The Daily News says:
"The essential fact is that America's specific demands are on every point either completely evaded or met by a concession so unqualified by the condition on which it hangs as to be approximately a flat refusal. On a plain reading the German note is a non possumus, and on plain reading the American note foretold a break of diplomatic relations as a result of a non possumus."

IT IS INSOLENT.
The Express characterizes the German reply as "insolent, cynical and disingenuous," and declares it is an ultimatum, "because it means that unless the United States attempts to force the allies to raise the siege of Germany, Germans will continue to kill haphazard."
"The purpose of the long rignacole," says the Daily Chronicle, "is simply to gain time. It adds no new argument, it cites no unfamiliar fact or figure, it makes no offer to the United States, except on terms which render it valueless."
The Morning Post in an editorial sees in the German note an attempt to prolong the negotiations and to embroil England and America, while completely evading America's categorical demands.
NOTHING SATISFACTORY.
The Times says it finds nothing in the German note which is likely to prove satisfactory to President Wilson or the American people. The alleged concession contained in it is vague and is made to turn upon conditions which are utterly inadmissible. Moreover, according to the newspaper, there is an evident insidious attempt to embroil the United States with England and her allies.

Y. M. C. A. SPEAKER LAST NIGHT AT VICTORIA HALL TOLD OF WORK WITH TROOPS OVERSEAS

Reasons Put Forth Why the $250,000 Asked For in Canada to Help on the Work Should be Granted—Rev. Mr. Adams the Chief Speaker.

In the minds of all whose good fortune it was to hear the stirring addresses delivered last evening in Victoria Hall, there can remain no longer any doubt—if indeed any ever existed—as to the magnificent work which is being done for the soldiers in camp and at the front, by the Y. M. C. A. A picture of unusual vividness was that painted by Rev. Mr. Adams and other speakers, and one which should have material results when the call comes for financial support for the good work.
In opening the meeting, Mr. Frank Cocksbutt, who occupied the chair, apologized for the slight delay which had been occasioned by the tendering of a Y. M. C. A. test to Major Bicks, who, unfortunately, had to leave without coming to the meeting. He then called upon the audience to join in the singing of "All hail, the power of Jesus' name," following which Rev. Mr. Adams led the gathering in prayer.

The speakers of the evening, said Mr. Cocksbutt, were here with a purpose, which was, in fact, that of raising $250,000 in Canada to carry on our good work being done by the Y.

The foundation is not the most important thing

True, you can't have a good barn without a good foundation, but don't forget either that the roof has to stand most of the punishment. Upon it falls the burden of resisting the destructive influences of weather and changing seasons.

Now, the question is "Where am I going to find a roof which will meet these conditions?" Certainly not in wooden shingles which have rapidly deteriorated during the past few years. Not in anything so perishable as wood, nor yet iron, which lets in driving rain, but rather in a permanent mineral composition such as Brantford Roofing.

Now, let us look at a section of Brantford Roofing. First, you notice it has a pure, long-fibred felt base. This is thoroughly saturated with a filler coat of asphalt or mineral pitch. Then it is given another coat. Finally, the surface is thickly covered with crushed slate. You can imagine what a job rain, snow, fire or heat would have penetrating a roof like that. As for comparing with shingles on the score of permanency, or protection, or appearance, or even economy, there is no comparison. You put a Brantford Roof on once, and it will last as long as the building; it will always look well and it will never need repairing.

Why not let us send you samples, also a copy of our booklet which explains how Brantford Roofing is "always on the job." Or, if you will give us the dimensions of your barn or house roof we will gladly submit estimates without charge or obligation.

Stirred by the love of liberty and honor—called by the Empire's need—undaunted by the hardships and carnage at the Front—keen to be in at the finish—Canada's finest manhood is getting into khaki!

Men who thus give up income and home comforts, and risk life itself, certainly should not have to sacrifice such civilized habits as a clean, smooth shave whenever they want it. Experience has shown that the only way to be sure of this at the front is to have a Gillette Safety Razor.

Wherever there is soap and water, and five minutes to spare, the Gillette will give a real velvet shave. Take one to the Front yourself if you can—if you cannot go, see that your enlisted friend has a

WITH THE SOLDIERS

Toronto, May 6.—The two advance parties of the 84th Battalion reached Toronto to-day to prepare the quarters for the coming of the 84th Battalion from Oshawa and Brantford to Toronto. To all questions about the 84th, as to why they had not been chosen to go overseas, or what the trouble was, Brig. Gen. Logie answered as follows: "All matters connected with the 84th are being fully investigated," and not another word would the G.O.C. say on the matter.

There is some interest in military circles in the matter, however, and it is understood that the battalion will soon be in Toronto, and that the inquiry into the internal economy of the unit will be an open one. While it is felt the investigation is absolutely necessary, yet it may not prevent the unit from going overseas very soon. Explanations may be made which will clear some things up. In the meantime the Militia Department will conduct the inquiry.

NOTES OF THE 125TH
Officer of the day, Major Shultis; next for duty Capt. Cockshutt. Subaltern of the day, Lt. Verity; next for duty, Lt. Watrous.

An instructor in first aid in the person of Q. M. S. C. Clewett, C.A.M.C., will be attached to the 125th battalion from Monday next for four weeks. The battalion will be in camp for the greater part of this period.

The attention of all the soldiers is called again to the fact, by headquarters, that the hair of the head must be kept short; the chin and underlip are to be shaved, but not the speak in the very highest terms of placed evenly on the head.

An invitation has been received by the officers of the battalion to attend the dance given by the officers of the 84th on Monday night.

A pair of canvas back shoes found on the market square is the latest piece of property to be added to the adjutant's museum and curiosity shop of lost and found articles.

NOTES OF THE 215TH
Strength of the battalion to date, 267.

Three more bandmen have been signed, bringing the total up to 20. There are still a few vacancies for good musicians. Arrangements have been made for the use of the instruments of the 38th Dufferin Rifles until the battalion instruments, which are being absorbed and wondering till the very end.

Guy Bates Post, romantic actor of distinction, is still the star, and still differentiates with graphic art the two Omars of the play—the ardent young scapegrace of brilliant promise, and the middle-aged philosopher who loves his wife, his wisdom, his memories and his foster children. In the moonlit garden of the epilogue, we see too the octogenarian Omar and his long love. Mr. Post's impersonation compels ungrudging admiration for its pictorial quality, if not for its clearness. The quatrains fall musicaly from his lips, but there are times when he permits the oriental allusions with which the lines are packed to come forth rather obscurely. Thus it is not always easy to understand him.

Louise Graissler illuminates the opposite part with her expressive diction and interesting personality. She duplicates his feat of growing old in one evening. Mabel Emerson is pretty and girlish as Omar's daughter, while John Gribner well conveys intense feeling and undying loyalty as the Bedouin foster son. William R. Randall paints the crafty and cruel governor in vivid colors, while Gerald Pring as the beneficent vizier is his antithesis. Milano Tilden does a picturesque bit as the Christian slave, and the numerous small parts are for the most part well bestowed. "Omar

The Situation.

After a bombardment of two weeks the Huns have commenced to storm the positions around Hill No. 304, the keystone of the Verdun defence.

On the other fronts nothing has occurred worthy of note. Germany's reply to the United States and Wilson's probable answer are subjects of general public interest.

This paper still inclines to the view that the document is a first-class red herring deftly and impudently framed.

The Failure of the Kyte Charges.

It would be impossible to imagine a more complete failure than has attended the Kyte charges.

After days of searching enquiry with Mr. Johnston, Liberal counsel, using all of his acknowledged skill as a cross-examiner, not one little of evidence has been adduced to support the infamous allegations of the member for Richmond, Nova Scotia.

He asserted that Col. Allison and a number of others were in collusion in the matter of rake offs and the turning down of Canadian concerns for sinister reasons, and intimated that if Sir Sam Hughes was not in the game for personal profit, then he had shown criminal laxity.

No one questions the heavy burdens and responsibilities which this war has placed upon Sir Robert Borden and his associates.

more easy by cordial support. Instead there has been the unfortunate spectacle of such men as Carvell and Kyte trying to hamper them and to create national distrust by wild charges without a scintilla of foundation.

Now that the fuse allegations have ended in such a miserable failure these men have actually had the nerve to go before parliament and to ask for a warrant to go on a fishing expedition. They say in effect: "We can't prove our main charges; now give us an opportunity to rake up something else on the off chance of scoring."

It is with them anything and everything to keep suspicion stirred for the purpose of some petty party advantage.

The whole thing is rightly resented not alone by Dr. Clark, but also by decent and patriotic Liberals everywhere.

Y.M.C.A. Work at the Front

Major Birks who is prominent in Y. M. C. A. work at the front, during his address at the luncheon tendered him last evening, made a most inspiring speech. He is a direct rather than an ornate speaker, and his message was such as to thrill his hearers.

Rev. Mr. Adam, a Scotch minister, who is accompanying the Major on this trip, also spoke and he paid most eloquent and forceful tribute to the Y. M. C. A. work as he had seen it.

Without doubt the response in Brantford and elsewhere, should, and will, more than meet the request.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Preparations should be made in the Grit cemetery to bury the Kyte charges alongside the Reciprocity remains.

A large sized Brooklyn woman took her small sized husband, to the grave of her first mate and displayed a revolver, according to his statement in fighting a suit for alimony.

It is said that the new styles include suits which demand long hair to make the tooten ensemble complete.

GERMAN NOTE

UNGRACIOUS CONCESSION. The New York Morning Press says: "As the unofficial text of the Berlin note reads, Germany explicitly agrees to the demands of President Wilson for the time being. This is done ungraciously, with bitter recriminations and with a quite deliberate parade of truculence. Nevertheless, it is done, and we can make allowances both for the hard gulping which would be natural to anybody's swallowing such a nauseous pill, and for the palpable effort to impress the German people with the stern and fearless stand of their government."

Confidence in Outcome. By Special Wire to the Courier. Winnipeg, May 6.—In Italy feeling with regard to the war is one of confidence, and the opinion is that the war will last till next spring, declared Archbishop Belluove of St. Bonifacio last night on his return from Rome.

Seeding Finished. By Special Wire to the Courier. Edmonton, Alb., May 6.—The provincial department agriculture officials say that wheat seeding in Alberta is practically finished and that fifteen to thirty per cent of the oats has been sown. Deputy Minister Craig estimates the wheat average at about 75 to 80 per cent of last year's.

GERMANY HAS YIELDED. The New York Morning Staats-Zeitung says: "Germany has yielded one of her strongest weapons—the use of the submarine against enemy commerce—at the solicitation of the president of the United States. That is a great diplomatic victory which Germany has given President Wilson, and means the settlement of one of our great international difficulties."

These methods are abandoned both as to passenger vessels and as to freight vessels. "The language is of no consequence, the fact is everything—and the fact is surrender. President Wilson insisted upon an immediate abandonment of the present methods of submarine warfare. These methods are now abandoned to the new instructions given to German naval officers. "These methods are abandoned both as to passenger vessels and as to freight vessels."

ENGLAND

"We fancy," The Times adds, "that if Germany wishes to avoid a break in relations she will have to give, without further shuffling or delay a better and less ambiguous answer to President Wilson's positive demand."

GERMANY IN BAD POSITION. "Germany feels herself in an awkward position between the determination to enforce our claims against Great Britain will leave the Central powers free to adopt other measures designed to protect the existence of Germany and her allies."

The City Council is not in a position to make a grant, but a little coming from every person in the city, undoubtedly would make a good sum to be realized for the use of both the 125th and the 215th.

French Forced to Leave Part of Their Trenches on North Slope of Hill 304

All German Efforts to Advance, However, Were Checked by Artillery Fire From the Defenders and by the Bayonet.

Paris, May 6.—The French evacuated part of their trenches on the northern slope of Hill 304, on the Verdun front, west of the Meuse, as the result of an unusually violent bombardment by heavy German guns. The war office statement of this afternoon says, however, that all efforts of the Germans to advance were checked by French guns, and that a fresh division of troops which the Germans brought into action, sustained great losses. Attacks north and northwest of Hill 304 were repulsed at the point of bayonet.

IS MISSING

Sad News With Regard to Flight Lieut. Van Allen.

Mr. E. L. Gould received a cablegram to-day conveying the sad intelligence that Marsden Van Allen is missing.

Marsden was attached to the British Flying Corps, and held the position of Flight Lieutenant, and when last heard from he was with the Royal Scouting Corps.

He is the only son of the late Mr. Ed. Van Allen, who was for many years manager of the Brantford branch of the Massey-Harris Co. He has scores of friends here, who will sincerely hope that reassuring news may yet be received.

Mrs. Van Allen and Miss Van Allen have been in England for some time in order to be near him.

RECRUITING OFFICE

MAY REMAIN OPEN

125th May Still be After Men When Battalion Goes to Camp.

With the drawing ever nearer when the 125th Battalion will go into camp at Niagara, it has not been definitely resolved how its ranks will be filled up. Some forty or fifty men are still needed, and with recruiting continuing as at present, that number will not be obtained in the next few days.

There is a strong possibility that the 125th recruiting office here may remain open after the departure of the battalion, with an officer left in charge, so that recruits may still be obtained and sent on to the camp until the ranks of the battalion are filled.

Y. M. C. A. SPEAKER

M. C. A. in camp and trench. That the better the men were, the better soldiers they made, there was no doubt, and the work being done by the Y. M. C. A. along these lines could not be valued in money. Money, nevertheless, was necessary to enable the good work to be carried on, to enable the boys in the army to be entertained, advised, comforted, and strengthened, so that they might return with characters unsoftened and even stronger in virtue than before they went away. Mr. Cocksbutt then called upon Mr. Charles W. Bishop, international secretary of the Y. M. C. A., for a brief address.

He would said Mr. Bishop, merely give a few introductory facts concerning the work. Major Birks had been working at great pressure, and was now returning to England, which he had been loath to leave in the first place. He had been doing a great work there, and it was only after a great deal of persuasion that he had been prevailed upon to make the trip to Canada.

In the light of the present day the first efforts of the Y. M. C. A. looked very small indeed; their utter inadequacy had been brought home only after Major Birks went to England on the work of the organization, and it had been finally made clear that Canada must drop her share of the work or rise up and do it adequately, which left us no choice in the matter, for such a magnificent work could not be abandoned after so much had been done through it. The cost of carrying on the work for the first 18 months of the war had been $40,000; $250,000 was now being sought, that the financing of Canada's share of the work might be done by her, and no longer left to the Mother Country.

Mr. Bishop went on to give a number of interesting facts concerning the present campaign, and the whole-hearted reception with which it was being met. In practically every city visited, far more had been realized than was originally aimed at, the amount being in many cases doubled. "We Canadian people will not be ourselves," said Mr. Bishop, "if any more than these addresses are needed to make us pay our share."

MR. ADAMS.

An appeal of exceptional eloquence and balance was that made by Rev. Mr. Adam, who spoke with a pleasing Scottish brogue and a winning and convincing manner. The War Office, said he, cared for the physical needs of the soldiers, but for their social and religious needs, another medium was needed, a medium which even the church could not fill, because of its lack of unity, which, said the speaker, "is soon to be remedied both here and in the Old Land." It was here that the Y. M. C. A. presented itself; that institution which Premier Assinuth had termed "the greatest thing in Europe." Mr. Adams paid tribute to the Canadian soldier, and told of the gratitude felt by all in the Old Country toward those in Canada who had given their loved ones. The great distance which intervened between them and their homes was one great source of sorrow to the Canadians, and it was the Y. M. C. A. which supplied them with touches of home which made things more light for them to bear, in supplying them with writing material alone, a great benefit was done those at home, for the regular letters from those at the front saved oceans of anxious tears. But moral and religious services were also rendered, the Y. M. C. A. accomplishing work which the army chaplains were unable to perform. The "Y" officials, declared the speaker were always on the alert, busy day and night helping Tommy to live nobly, to be strong in moral as well as physical affairs. Here in Canada, there was but little idea of what was being done for the soldiers, and through them for us; were these things more clearly realized, the speaker expressed the opinion that there would be no question of supporting the Y. M. C. A.; all would hasten to do their share.

Rev. Mr. Adam went on to tell of the spirit of sacrifice which pervaded all of the Mother Country to-day; the women doing the work of men everywhere, while the men were all in khaki. "Canada," said the speaker, "has played a great part, but she must play an even greater part. Canada is British as well as the Mother Country; it is a great thing to be British, but to-day a great price must be paid for that privilege. And is there a man or woman who will refuse to pay this price? I doubt it."

ENTERTAINED.

Major Birks, one of the foremost men engaged in Y.M.C.A. work at the front, was the guest last evening at a luncheon given in Crompton's tea rooms, by local Y.M.C.A. workers. Mr. Frank Cocksbutt was in the chair and Chaplain Lavell of the 125th offered grace. After the discussion of a dainty menu, Major Birks gave a most interesting address. The Major's grandmother was a sister of the Messrs. Wilkes, who in the early days of Brantford, established a business here. He stated that when fishing was good the brothers used to ply their rods in the neighboring Grand River and his grandmother when a customer arrived, would strike on a tin pan to let them know that some business was offering.

Mr. Roosevelt says the demonstration in Chicago proved to him that the middle west is in favor of adequate preparedness.

Virginians Hold Second Place
Richmond, May 6.—Richmond took undisputed possession of second place in the pennant race when they slugged their way to a 9 to 8 victory over Rochester in the opening game of the series here yesterday. Both teams hit the ball hard, the visitors getting 17 hits and the Virginians 14. Rochester made a wonderful rally in the last two innings but were unable to overcome Richmond's early lead. Score: R.H.E. Rochester.....010010033—8 17 1 Richmond.....20031300X—9 14 1 Batteries—Sherman, Hersche and Hale; Jarman, Ross and O'Donnell.

BALTIMORE 8, BUFFALO 5.
Baltimore, May 6.—Baltimore defeated Buffalo yesterday 8 to 5 in the opening game of the series. The Orioles early got to Cooper, securing four runs in the first three innings. Anderson, who relieved Cooper in the fourth, did well until the seventh when bunched hits and errors gave Baltimore three more and they added another in the eighth. Sherman held the Bisons safe until the 9th when he eased up, the visitors bunching hits for three runs. Score: R.H.E. Richmond.....20031300X—9 14 1 Cincinnati.....300320000—7 10 3 St. Louis.....01030410X—9 15 0 Batteries—Knetser, McKenry, Mitchell and Clark; Meadows, Salter, Jasper and Gonzales, Snyder.

Graney Started Batting Rally
Chicago, May 6.—A batting rally in the sixth inning started by John Graney enabled Cleveland to win from Chicago 3 to 2. When Graney came to bat in the sixth, after one man had been retired, Catcher Schalk called the umpire's attention to the fact that Graney was using a flat bat. The umpire ordered him to change his club, and when he returned to the plate he singled. Turner and Speaker followed with safe drives, and after Roth's retirement Grant hit safely. This bombardment resulted in three runs. Benz replaced Russell and held the visitors safe thereafter. Score: R.H.E. Motor Car as Prize
New York, May 6.—Baseball players and fans are speculating as to who among the big league players is going to win the automobile offered by C. T. Silver this season. At the Polo Grounds, back of left field, there is a big auto sign which reads: "C. T. Silver will give a car to the first league player hitting this sign with a fly ball." Fans will remember that last year Mr. Silver offered a car on like conditions; but, although several players came close to it, the car was not won. When Mr. Silver decided that some player who plays this year he personally wanted to award it to the player stealing the most bases or to the first one making three home runs at the Polo Grounds, but he was overruled in this desire by those in control of the New York ball team, as the objection was raised that the players, in their attempt to win the automobile, might disobey their managers' instructions. Mr. Silver therefore did the next best thing and made the offer the same as last year, with the exception that he has made the sign within ten feet of being twice as long as last year, and has also had it moved considerably nearer the home plate. So that it is practically assured that some player will win the car this year. Mr. Silver says he hopes it will be one of the home players who wins the car when runs are needed and the bases are full.

HIGHLANDERS HAD TO REPEL HEAVY ATTACK

After Terrific Artillery Fire Germans Took Crater From Montrealers.
THEY LATER ABANDONED IT
Battalion Complimented by Commander-in-Chief for Its Steadiness.

Canadian Headquarters in France, May 6.—Warm and brilliant weather marked the closing week of April. Under favorable conditions aviators were unusually active. German and British machines hovered constantly over the Canadian lines, and aerial combats were frequent. From time to time artillery duels developed on each section of our front. A bombing raid was delivered against a battalion of the Royal Highlanders of Canada. The front and support lines of this unit were subjected to a bombardment of heavy shells, mortars and the grenades. Steady retaliation by our field batteries and howitzers failed to check the enemy's fire, which gradually increased in severity. Finally it became concentrated on a narrow section of the front line and the zone immediately behind it. Two hours after sunset a party of Germans rushed a crater held as an advance post by the Montrealers. High explosive shells had incapacitated the majority of the garrison and buried its reserve of bombs, but the few men who were able to so including Privates J. Gill, D. Woods and A. Mordy, bombed and fired at the enemy, causing him several casualties.

LANC-CORPORAL SAVES GUN CREW
Later in the week the battalion was complimented by the Commander-in-Chief in person on its steadiness under this trying ordeal. During the bombardment a large Minenwerfer shell pitched into a trench close to one of our machine guns. It crashed through the first step, instantly, Lance-Corp. John Peacey of Vancouver rushed forward, picked up the heavy missile and threw it out of the trench. As it cleared the parapet it exploded in the air. But for Corp. Peacey's gallant rescue work was undertaken by Privates Watson and Payne. Nine times they went out under heavy fire applying first aid to the injured, and carrying them back to cover. To their gallantry at least seven men owe their lives. One of those who had been buried in the dugout, was released after much labor, while the bombardment was still at its height.

GOVERNMENT WILL NOT WIDEN FUSE INQUIRY

Mr. Carvell Desires to Look Into Early Contracts of Shell Committee.
RUNNING AWAY FROM THE ISSUE
Minister of Justice Scores Liberals for Not Standing to Their Guns.

Ottawa, May 6.—Having fished all week and taken nothing before the Royal Commission of enquiry into the four contracts, investigation of which they themselves asked for, the Opposition came to Parliament yesterday to request the enlargement of the scope of the probe to include considerably over half of all the contracts for shells made by the Shell Committee. Their motion, or rather a motion to adjourn on which the matter was brought up, was defeated by a vote of 46 to 19. It is the first straight motion to adjourn believed to have been voted on for the last thirty years or more. The motion for the widening of the fuse contracts enquiry was made by Mr. F. B. Carvell yesterday afternoon. Mr. Carvell's statement was that Mr. J. P. Halliburton, as Government counsel, had put in correspondence dealing with all early contracts made by the Shell Committee, and that it had been incidentally stated that a profit of $31,000,000 had been made by the committee in connection with these contracts, and was to be turned over to the War Office. These documents, Mr. Carvell said, were simply bald statements; therefore, he demanded the right to cross-examine in regard to them, and to go into the particulars of all the early contracts made by the committee. The commission had ruled that, while Mr. E. F. B. Johnston, Opposition counsel, could examine as to the particulars of the four contracts referred for enquiry, and generally into others to ascertain the relations of the Shell Committee and the War Office, it could not go into the particulars of the latter. He also asked that the commission be created a court by Act of Parliament, so as to have power to examine witnesses in New York State.

ONLY AT IMPERIAL REQUEST
Sir Robert Borden, in reply, pointed out that Mr. Johnston's position was that the enquiry should be as open to him as though all the contracts of the Shell Committee had been referred to the commission or enquiry. But that had not been done. The Imperial authorities had been asked if they desired a general shell contracts enquiry, and until they intimated their desire for one, none would be held. Full facilities for enquiry into the four contracts, allegations in regard to which were the issue that the Opposition had presented to the House, had been granted by the Government, and now the Opposition wished to raise another question and request some other enquiry not covered in the charges as made.

Hon. C. J. Doherty pointed out that the Royal Commission now had full powers to summon witnesses possessed by a court, and that Parliament could give it no more status in New York State than it already possessed. "The Opposition were very brave when they made their charges," said Mr. Doherty. "They clamored for a body to investigate what is now being investigated. And what do they do? It does not seem unfair to suggest that it looks as if they were running away from the issue they themselves tendered."
Hon. Arthur Meighen, Solicitor-General, Hon. William Pugsley and Mr. E. M. Macdonald also spoke on the subject.
After feasting on stolen prize chickens costing $25 each, two Jersey negroes declared they feared no "kase we dun et de fines" chicken ever a cullud famby seen.

FRANCE WILL ADOPT MODERATE PRICED CAR

Everybody Will Have to Buy New Cars After the War. WILL THEREFORE HOLD PRICE DOWN Americans Have Worked Out How to Produce Low-Priced Motor.

Paris, May 6.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press).—The necessary revolution in the construction of automobiles in France after the war, says a competent authority on the motor car business, "will involve an imitation of the American moderate priced car. By the time hostilities have ceased, all the requisitioned cars," he says, "will be ready for either the scrap heap or the bargain counter. All those who motored before the war, and the thousands of soldiers and officers who have learned to drive since, must buy anew if they want serviceable cars. Their purses will be lighter and their living expenses heavier, so they will naturally want to go light on luxuries. The popular car will sell at from 3,000 to 6,000 francs.

The American constructors have studied the cost of turning out a car more closely than the French, who have aimed first rather at perfection and only secondarily at lowest consistent cost. The Americans, however, seem to have arrived at low costs in many points without affecting the running qualities of their cars or their wearing properties. For instance, wheel hubs of French machines are made of bronze, cast, countersunk and turned; they weigh from two to four pounds, and cost from four to seven francs. The same hub on an American machine is made of brass and is stamped, weighs about a third of a pound and costs only a franc twenty-five centimes; it is quite as serviceable as the French hub.

That is only one of the details in which the Americans have worked out the low cost of a good car. The French constructor can, and will be obliged, to do the same. Moreover he has learned a lot in machine work through the quick improvising he has had to do during the war to adapt his works to the requirements of the national defense. Many interesting discoveries have been made in ways and means of decreasing manufacturing costs and increasing output of machines. Besides the French manufacturer will always have a considerable margin in his favor in competing for home trade in the thirty-three per cent or thereabouts of the selling price absorbed in the case of American cars in transportation and duty."

TRUCKS DECREASE THE DELIVERY SERVICE COST

In almost every channel of business enterprise the motor truck has reduced the cost of delivery service. It has revolutionized delivery service. And it has caused a remarkable transition to take place in the business world. Trade areas have been broadened. Business men have been enabled to reach out and secure business in new territory which it would be almost impossible to serve but for the motor truck.

The motor truck must be given credit for playing a most important part in increasing the business of thousands and thousands of wholesale and retail houses. The motor truck increases the delivery radius of a business to at least three times that of a horse-drawn vehicle, and also decreases the cost of delivery service.

The service which many motor truck manufacturers are furnishing the purchasers of trucks is being appreciated more and more by business men.

The motor truck has not only made it possible to transact business in a larger territory at a profit, but these trade areas have been made more stable. The ever increasing number of motor trucks is relieving street congestion because one motor will do the work of several teams.

A LITTLE TALK ON MOTOR TIRES

Motorists Know Little of What Happens Inside the Tire When Wheel Turns.

"The percentage of automobilists in the city or country who know or appreciate the why and wherefore of tire construction so that equal service may be had on all kinds of roads is very small," said W. H. Pfeiffer, general manager of the Miller Rubber Company. "And the percentage of tire users who know why a tire is built as it is is decidedly smaller."

"Ask the average motorist what he gets his tires out, and in ninety-nine times out of a hundred he can't give you a logical answer. If he were to know what actually happens inside the tire, at each revolution of the wheel he would be amazed. The big function of a pneumatic automobile tire is to minimize the effect of a rough road service on the passenger in a car, at the same time protecting the mechanism of the car from jolts and jars that would otherwise soon wreck it. A pneumatic tire that would not bend would not be as resilient as a solid rubber tire."

"The original pneumatic tire," continued Mr. Pfeiffer, "was made from a section of a garden hose twenty-five years ago, and from that day to this the same basic idea of cotton and rubber has been used in tire construction. Cotton fabric is the backbone of automobile tires; it naturally follows that the big wear and tear comes on the fabric. The threads in the fabric of your automobile tire are interwoven. As your tire is inflated, the strain pulls these threads down upon one another. Then, when the tire goes into action, it naturally bends because the power driving the car drives it over the uneven road. This causes a sawing effect to be set up in the fabric where each thread strains against another. So the big wear on your tire comes on the inside—not on the outside, as is generally supposed. Cotton fibre, in its natural state, contains a certain amount of vegetable wax or oil. That wax and oil are really the life of the fibre. When they are lost, as so often happens in the vulcanizing process, a brittle and lifeless cotton structure is the result. And no matter how good the rubber—or how much care is lavished in finishing the tire, it cannot be any stronger than the cotton structure underneath."

Things that were impossible yesterday are today's accomplished facts.

Somewhere in the world someone with special knowledge, special experience, special equipment gets ready and then startles the world by accomplishing the seemingly impossible.

Almost everyone said that a complete automobile of beautiful design, fine finish, the ideal small, light, economical car, built with quality materials and absolutely completely equipped, could not be built to sell for $850.

And but for Overland special knowledge, special experience and special equipment, it probably would still be one of the impossibilities instead of an accomplished fact.

Probably no other organization in the world can produce the quality and efficiency equal of this car to sell at anywhere near so low a price.

Certain it is that no other organization is doing so.

And no other car ever produced seems so exactly to suit the requirements of so varied a lot of people.

People of wealth, people of modest means—

People of long automobile experience—

People who never before owned a car—

All find in the small, light $850 Overland their ideal car.

It has the beauty, comforts, conveniences, power and complete equipment which everyone wants.

Yet it is inexpensive to buy and economical to operate.

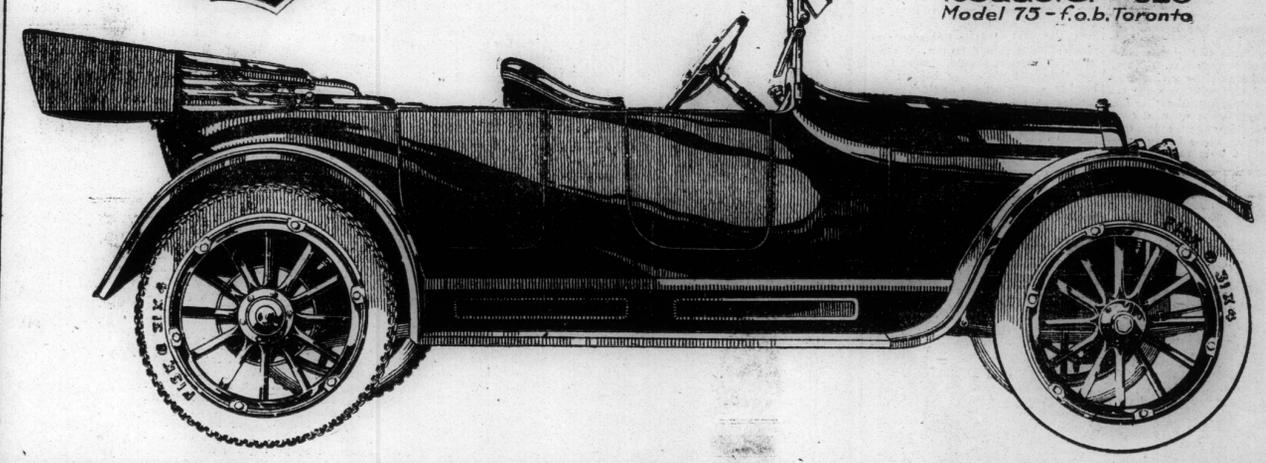

See the Overland dealer and get acquainted with this car.

But act now, as this car stands alone and the rush to own them is amazing—delayed action is almost sure to mean a long wait for delivery.

TAXES STOPPING MOTORS IN ENGLAND

London, May 6.—The cost in taxes of keeping a motor car has been much higher in England than in America for some years, but under the new war budget of the Chancellor of the Exchequer, is increased to a level which will discourage all but the very rich, and particularly discourage the building of high power machines. The old motor taxes ranged from ten dollars on a car of six and a half horse power, up to about $200 on a sixty horse power machine. Now this tax has been doubled on the smaller cars of 16 horse power and less, while it is trebled on those of higher power so that a sixty horse power car must pay about $600.

Still there is enough wealth in England, new war gains, and old accumulations, so that no radical reduction in the number of cars in use is expected immediately.

Practically every section of the country from Maine to California and from Canada to the Gulf is represented among the 208 prize winners whose officially reported mileages in the third annual tire contest of the Ajax Rubber Company are remarkable. According to Horace de Lisser, chairman of the Ajax board, the mileage reported this year was better than last year's remarkable record.

The winner of the first prize, $500, was George C. Mathis, a New Haven, Conn., chauffeur, who drives a Cadillac. He made a record of 27,220 miles, or 3,200 miles better than last year's winner. Charles V. Finrock, who drives a Pierce-Arrow, won the second prize of $300 with a record of 25,648 miles, while Lars E. Pederson, who drives a Rambler car for Mrs. J. B. Van Norman of Chicago, captured third prize with a record of 25,337 miles.

MOVIES, MUSIC AND DRAMA

AT THE GRAND

COMING ATTRACTIONS.
There is a great treat in store for the theatre-loving public of this city, a treat that has been requested by hundreds of Brantfordites. After much trouble and hard work Manager J. T. Whittaker of the Grand, has succeeded in booking the well-known Tenmaker, Guy Bates Post in "Omar, the Tentmaker," for the night of Friday, May 19th. This famous play, based on the no less famous poem "Omar Khayyam," was written by the author of the "Bird of Paradise," and its original setting allows a magnificent stage production. Guy Bates Post, by his acting in this play, has become recognized as one of the foremost artists in the stage of this continent.

Following "Omar," Manager Whittaker has also been successful in getting the New York hit of the season, "The Princess Pat." This is a new and up to date musical comedy, carrying no less than 70 people, and has one of the finest and best balanced choruses of any show going. Brantford is to be congratulated on having the opportunity of seeing this performance.

The last performance of the season is on the afternoon and evening of Monday, May 20th, when the famous Creators band will make an appearance. The Grand will then close for two months, bringing to a close the theatrical season it has ever had. During the summer the house will be re-decorated and painted, and everything made ready to open in August. Manager Whittaker already has booked some good attractions for next season.

GUY BATES POST IN "OMAR, THE TENTMAKER."

Not in many seasons has there been so much advance interest in any theatrical presentation as for the appearance here of Guy Bates Post in "Omar, the Tentmaker," which comes to the Grand Opera House Friday evening, May 19.

Mr. Tully is also the author of two other dramatic successes, "The Bird of Paradise" and "The Rose of the Kasbah," both of which are pleasurable recalled by their contemporaries. In his latest work, which was the reigning dramatic success of last year in New York, Mr. Tully has eclipsed all his previous endeavors and "Omar, the Tentmaker" is far and away the greatest romantic success that our stage has seen in several seasons. In the title role Mr. Post has won for himself more conspicuous laurels than have ever before befallen to him during his career, and his interpretation of the beloved Persian poet, Omar Khayyam, is unquestionably the finest romantic impersonation since the passing of the late Richard Mansfield.

Briefly, the play relates how the young and impulsive Omar, singer of sweet songs and lover of red-wines, wooed and won the beautiful Shirzen in her father's rose-bowered garden; how the two were ruthlessly separated for many years; how they remained faithful to each other through all the storms and stress that befell them; how Omar reared and loved the Little Shirzen, daughter of his one time sweetheart; how he learned at last that the Little Shirzen was also his own daughter, and how in the end peace and happiness came to the poet and his long lost Shirzen.

Mail orders are now being received.

CREATORS' BAND

As a musician, Sig. Creator, who is to appear here at the Grand Opera House Monday, May 29, takes rank with the foremost conductors of the day and his organization is well nigh perfect. One of the leading features of Creator's Band is the marvelous precision of its members. Every chord is played as if by a single instrument, and that with a crispness that is almost startling. Another feature of the band is the splendid crescendo effects. Strange as it may seem, this leader plays heavy programs without a note to guide him, and the band's repertoire is one of the most extensive known. On a tour of Canada in 1910 this organization created a real sensation. Part of a lengthy article published in the Quebec Chronicle is as follows: "There are bands and bands, and there are also leaders and leaders. Quebec has heard and seen many of the best of them. But it can be stated as an absolute fact that Creator, a band leader and a musical artist, furnished a unique and novel experience to the music lovers of the Ancient Capital. The large and fashionable audience, which assembled at the Auditorium has come prepared to listen to something out of the common, and there was no dividing of opinion that their expectations had been fully realized. There has never been a director who has won such a spontaneous and such an enthusiastic greeting in Quebec as Creator. It was no faint hand-clapping which greeted him; it was no perfunctory call for encores; but it was such a wave of cheers and cries of approval that brought the famous leader back before the footlights to bow again his acknowledgments, which with all his modesty, he could not escape without repeated encores. There has never been a band in Quebec which has given such a succession of fine pictures, all apparently evolved from the wonderful wand which the masterful director wields. It is a real object lesson in phrasing, contrast and artistic conception that Creator succeeds in obtaining. Inspired by the artistic enthusiasm of its leader the band proved a revelation. It would be hard to say which was the most enjoyable, the woods or the brasses. Both were so exceptionally excellent and in conjunction so magnificently grand, that there was good reason for the wonderful enthusiasm which they worked up among the great audience present."

AT THE BRANT

Margaret Clark, the fascinating little star of the Famous Player Film Company, who since her desertion of the stage has endowed the screen with a number of inimitable characterizations, most notable of which are her successful appearances in "Still Waters" and in the dual title roles of "The Prince and the Pauper," adds another screen achievement that surpasses all her previous triumphs in her delightful interpretation of the role of Peggy in the photo-production of the famous romantic comedy "Mice and Men." This role, in which such popular actresses as Annie Russell and Lady Gertrude Foy have distinguished themselves in New York and London, respectively, develops the impulses and whimsicalities of romantic youth, and it may therefore be readily seen that Miss Clark is eminently suited to this captivating impersonation. With the additional interest contributed by a stirring dramatic conflict, and with the beautiful delineation of life and love as they were known in the South of a by-gone day, "Mice and Men" is one of the most exquisite Paramount pictures produced.

AT THE APOLLO

"The Supreme Test," the five-reel Broadway Universal Feature photoplay which comes to the Apollo theatre on Monday and Tuesday, introduces to the screen world the well-known star, Miss Henrietta Crossman, the role of Miss Crossman's close companion is played by Miss Adele Farrington.

One day while Director Le Saint was engaged in the filming of scenes for the Crossman feature, Miss Farrington said to the star, "Gracious, but I never saw a woman fuss so over putting on a hat."

"Well," replied Miss Crossman emphatically, "it should be put on carefully, the woman should always take her time and place her hat on her head at a very artistic angle."

"But what an awful waste of time," said Miss Farrington. "Here you've been fussing around with your own hat and yet you've got it on crooked."

DETAILS OF TAXES ON AMUSEMENT PATRONS

Will Range From One to Ten Cents—How They Will be Collected.

The regulations pursuant to the amusement tax provide for a tax of one cent on patrons not paying more than ten cents for admission, two cents over ten cents and not more than fifty cents, five cents over fifty cents and not more than one dollar, and ten cents over one dollar. The Treasury Department of Ontario will supply tickets in a convenient form of such denominations as may be necessary and shall sell same to owners of amusements purchasing tickets in quantities having a face value of not less than $20 at a discount of ten per cent, for one cent and two cent tickets, seven and a half per cent for five cent tickets, and five per cent for ten cent tickets.

"What!" exclaimed the new star in the Universal film. "Do you mean to say that after all the care I've taken, my hat—"

"Cut," ordered Director Le Saint and the camera man stopped turning his crank. "Miss Crossman you put a lot of ginger into your speech and acting and I'm sure we secured a very good picture of this little scene."

"You don't mean to tell me you took that scene?" exclaimed Miss Crossman.

"Yes, indeed we did," replied the director. "Miss Farrington was simply making conversation and you didn't realize it. The result is a good one, I'm certain."

Miss Crossman was new to the movie game then. Now she has many ideas on photoplay acting.

The provisions of this act shall not apply to entertainments of a religious or semi-religious nature, conducted by any religious body or denomination, any fair or exhibition given by any society organized under the agricultural and arts act or by any association mentioned in section 3 of the agricultural associations act, the Canadian National Exhibition Association, and any exhibition of paintings, any entertainment the entire proceeds of which are devoted to patriotic or charitable uses.

In addition to all other penalties the Provincial Treasurer may revoke the license of any owner or place of amusement willfully contravening any of the provisions of the act or the regulations.

In a statement the other day Hon. Mr. McGarry said the regulations would come into effect on May 15.

ROSE DAY FOR HOSPITAL ON KING'S BIRTHDAY

Yellow and Pink Wild Roses to be Sold at 10 Cents and Upwards.

THE W. H. A.

IN SESSION
Reports Received and Considerable Routine Business Done.

The Women's Hospital Aid which met on Friday morning in the Public Library was largely attended by members from both city and country and was very successfully conducted. The President, Mrs. Schell occupied the chair. The secretary read the minutes which stood confirmed. In the absence of Mrs. Birkett, Mrs. Revell presented the financial statement. The total disbursements during the month were $50.22, which included $30.50 for cutlery for the hospital.

The Busy Bee Club of the North Ward reported through their representative, a very successful talent tea on April 27th which realized over $20, which sum will be used towards providing linen for the Children's Ward. It was suggested that in future the W. H. A. ladies be notified regarding entertainments by the B. B. club in aid of the hospital, as many would wish to be present.

It was moved by Mrs. Revell, seconded by Mrs. Yates and carried that another dozen of women's white gowns and a dozen of gray flannellette dressing gowns be ordered for the public wards.

A letter was read from Mr. Stentiford of Halifax, N.S., enclosing a donation of $2 being an Easter offering from the family of the late Mrs. C. Stentiford in her memory. Also a picture of Nurse Cavell and money for framing to be hung in the Nurses' Home.

Mrs. Livingston and Mrs. Agnew moved a vote of thanks of appreciation for their remembrance and kind thought for the W. H. A., and that a copy of the resolution be forwarded to Mr. Stentiford by the secretary.

VISITORS DURING APRIL

Mrs. Colquhoun and Miss Bell were visitors at the hospital during April and had supplied the public wards with magazines, jelly, fruit, etc., and had distributed Easter cards and flowers to all the patients, who were all pleased with the remembrance.

The J. H. A. remembered the isolation patients in a similar manner at Easter time.

Visitors for May are Mesdames Julius and David Waterous.

Mrs. Hurley reported for the county that Miss Cora Macintosh will be the collector in Burch, and that collectors in Langford and Paris will be appointed very soon.

A report was presented regarding roses for Hospital Day on June 3rd. Samples were shown from Brantford and Toronto. The ladies voted in favor of the wild roses made in Toronto, colors to be some yellow, some pink. Ten cents or more will be asked for them, in aid of Hospital work, for which the rose will be given as a badge to show that the wearer has already contributed, and as a protection from other appeals, and not in any case as the value of the rose. Heads of districts were named and committees appointed to see about boxes, headquarters, etc. Ice cream, soft drinks and light refreshments will be offered.

Householders who are now engaged in spring cleaning are reminded that the W. H. A. would be glad if they would save anything not needed for the Rummage Sale in November.

Women's Institute

The Tutela branch of the Women's Institute held their annual business meeting on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. C. Moyle, Mohawk Road, most of the members being present.

The president, Mrs. Hird and the secretary, Mrs. Birkett were both re-elected. Mrs. John Houlding, 1st vice-president, and Mrs. Chapin, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. R. Henry was elected for secretary-treasurer for Red Cross work. Miss Kendrick gave a splendid reading called "I did not raise my boy to be a soldier." Chaplain McKeegney and Capt. Joyce of the 21st gave very interesting and instructive addresses on the war, and explained the recruiting work now being carried on in the city. The ladies felt very grateful to the officers for the insights into their work, and everyone will do their best to help this noble work. The roll call was answered by paying the membership fee. After a dainty lunch, served by the hostess, the meeting closed by all singing the National Anthem.

The members of the Cainsville Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. W. Stuart on Tuesday, May 2nd. The meeting opened by singing "Hail Somebody To-day." The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. After the roll call, which was responded to by paying annual dues, two splendid papers were listened to with much interest and appreciation. One on "Germany," by Mrs. Fox, and the other on "Florence Nightingale," by Mrs. D. Cole. Both papers were very instructive.

The following officers were then elected: President, Mrs. Rose; 1st vice-president, Mrs. J. H. Clark; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. Richardson; Sec.-Treas., Mrs. Carmody; directors Mrs. Shaver, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Foulger, Miss Reid; auditors, Mrs. A. E.

Taylor, Miss Reid; press correspondent, Mrs. Geo. Fox; flower committee, Mrs. Shaver, Mrs. Carmody.

PROFITS GIVEN TO WAR OFFICE

Shell Committee Liable in Case of Loss, But No Remuneration Received.

Ottawa, May 6.—With the conclusion of the eighth day of the Meredith-Duff Commission to enquire into the Kite charges, regarding shell and fuse contracts, the only evidence so far secured has been point-blank denials, by every witness called, as to any improper profits. A vast amount of detailed evidence was collected to-day, which went to bear out evidence already given as to contracts and prices.

Col. Geo. W. Watts, another member of the Shell Committee, was examined, stating that at one time it looked as though there would be a heavy loss on the Shell Committee's business for which they would have been responsible. Subsequently however, considerable profits had been made, but none of this went to the members of the committee, stand all afternoon and examined regarding many details of contracts, in which he bore out the statements of previous witnesses that the whole idea of the Shell Committee had been to secure fuses wherever they could get them in order to hurry up the delivery of completed shells.

It is expected that Dr. Harris, of the International Fuse Company of New York, will be called on Monday when the commission resumes, but in view of the refusal of Parliament to extend the scope of the commission it is not at present apparent what course the enquiry will take on, in view of the complaints made by Mr. Johnston. It is likely that the resumption of work on Monday will produce some interesting statements which will go far to decide the future work of the commission.

DECLINED TO MAKE SHELLS.

At the opening of the session Mr. Hellmuth produced a letter of March 1915, from Melville T. White to

Col. Carnegie, stating that Mr. George Watts had informed him that the Canadian-Chalmers Company had decided not to undertake the manufacture of shells. As they had a fuse expert, Mr. A. Kirby, who had experience at Woolwich Arsenal, he had tried to induce them to go into the work of fuse production. A second letter showed that the Chalmers Company had finally decided not to undertake the manufacture of fuses.

Peddlers' Parade Held at St. Jude's

A very pretty programme was presented last night at St. Jude's church school room when a large number of people were delighted by the entertainment offered. The evening opened by a parade of Peddlers wearing fancy costumes carrying a variety of wares which were afterwards dispensed of.

Mr. J. L. Asford gave two recitations much to the delight of everyone. A Japanese motion song by six young ladies, was finely executed. Patriotism was represented by seventeen little girls prettily attired who went through a drill in creditable style at the same time singing strains of martial music.

Two young ladies gorgeously attired in Italian costumes flourishing tambourines sang a characteristic and appropriate song with fine effect. A rock orchestra led by a ludicrous conductor proved quite amusing. The whole arrangements were carried out under the presidency of Mrs. Metcalf, who was presented with a beautiful bouquet of roses. Mrs. Broadbent acted as accompanist. The proceeds of the evening totalled $60.
