MILLERS FAIL TO PROVE THO CAR SHORTAGE IS SHOWN DISCRIMINATION BY C.P.R.

Complaint That Western Flour Was Given Precedence Over Shipments of Grain to Ontario Mills—Congestion at Owen Sound.

CARS ENOUGH, NOT UNLOADED OFFICIAL BLAMES MERCHANTS

Complaints that the C.P.R. unduly delayed grain shipments from the west, while giving flour a right of way to the detriment of Ontario millers for the benefit of their Manitoba competitors, were vigorously pressed before the Dominion Railway Commissioners yesterday at the city hall. Unreasonable delay at Owen Sound was also alleged, and instances given in proof thereof.

Railway officials denied that they were at fault. Supt. Oborne said Owen Sound was now second only to Toronto as a divisional point and was getting a fair share of cars. The company had purchased 1000 new cars for delivery in October. In addition to those they were building in Montreal, and up to Tuesday last 80 of these had been delivered. He wished to stress upon shippers and consignees the fact that they could help themselves a great deal by unloading cars promptly. In Montreal 3400 cars were waiting to be unloaded. There were enough cars now in the country to take charge of all the business offering this week.

Chairman Killam, after evidence had been taken, remarked that there had been no proof given of discrimination. It was simply a question of cars and facilities, and he did not see what order could be given to suit the case. Dr. Bernier said that there were not enough cars, but to favor one reaction would be to deprive another.

Hon. Dr. Mills was not prepared to say that preference had not been shown and reserved his opinion.

Millers Complain.

C. B. Watts, the secretary, submitted the case of the Dominion Millers' association against the C. P. R. The complaint was embodied in a resolution bearing date Sept. 27, 1906, stating that there was an unfair order of the board, compelling the railway companies to make an equitable distribution of cars at the lake port elevators, expanding in 1906 and 1907, and that notwithstanding an alleged increase in the car supply, there had been during the preceding three or four weeks, a greater shortage of cars than during the same period the year before, and as much serious loss and inconvenience was caused by these conditions, the board should be requested to issue to the G. T. R. the same order that was given on Nov. 25, 1906, and to include in it Depot Harbor, which was entirely in the hands of the G. T. R. Co., as well as Goderich, and to add to this order the following clause:

"That the distribution of cars to the various elevator shipping points, Depe Harbor, Midland, etc., be made pro rata as nearly as possible with other orders, having regard to priority of date."

They also asked that an early date be set for the hearing of the question of reciprocal demurrage, and that if the commission had any doubt as to their power to deal with this important question, they secure from parliament at the coming session, all powers necessary to deal with it.

Mills Had to Close.

Mr. Watts, in reading the correspondence which followed, called attention to the fact that he bought wheat on Feb. 22 of this year, and on various dates up until about the end of March, thru Winnipeg dealers, for immediate shipment, and that this wheat was invariably shipped out within five days, and also to the fact that four shipped from Manitoba was being held at various points in Ontario, such as Peterboro, at the rate of two or three cars a week, while the flour bought for Ontario mills in December last for shipment from Fort William, was not forthcoming, compelling these mills to shut down and the flour to be placed on local consumption to be supplied by the Manitoba mills, while the Lake of the Woods Milling Co. at Keewatin had been so supplied by the C. P. R. that they never had to shut down, either from shortage of wheat or cars.

Not only had there been unreasonable delay on the part of the C. P. R. in shipping wheat for Ontario millers from Fort William, but discrimination had been shown in favor of export shipment, and in disbursements from Manitoba mills, against shipment of wheat for the Ontario mills, resulting in great hardship and loss of trade.

There had also been unreasonable delay in shipments from Owen Sound. For instance, the Matthews Grain Co. shipped to Owen Sound, Nov. 22 last, for the shipment of 25,000 bushels of wheat, and they reported: One car shipped on Dec. 11, one on Jan. 4, five on Feb. 4, and the balance on the last but one and March 15, when the last 5000 bushels were shipped.

Shipments Delayed.

Stark Brook ordered out 10,000 bushels of wheat for the Tillson Co., Tillsonburg, and 5000 bushels for the Goldie Milling Co., Ayr, about Jan. 24 last, from Owen Sound, and the wheat which was not shipped until March 30. They also ordered, about Feb. 4, 5000 bushels for the Tillson Co., 2000 of which was shipped on April 1, and the balance on April 6.

He had no doubt that he could cite many similar instances of violation of the Railway Act.

Mr. MacInnes, C. P. R. freight traffic manager, replied that the delay in forwarding cars from Fort William was due to car shortage. The extreme

GREAT CHANGE IN PRESIDENT

Demeanor in New York Taken to Indicate Relaxation of Attacks on Wealth.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The World today says: President Roosevelt passed thru New York twice yesterday on his way to and from Oyster Bay, where he jetted. He arrived early in the morning at the Jersey City by train from Washington. A train conveyed him around the waterfront of Manhattan Island to Long Island City. He returned over the same route at noon, reaching the White House in time for evening dinner.

The president left New York a changed individual. His appearance and his bearing were that of a sobered, reflective man. There was in his face a look of deep responsibility, of grave thoughtfulness, not seen before by those who know him.

From now on there will be a different plan of campaign conducted from the White House. The president is firm in his declarations that there is to be no change in his policy of antagonism to ward predatory wealth and illegal corporations, but his methods are to be modified, his attacks made more discriminate, and his warfare less destructive.

The events of the past two weeks in the financial world have had remarkable effect upon Mr. Roosevelt. The crash of banks, the cry of strangled business, the frightened hoarding of money, have deeply impressed him. The hours of his journey yesterday were given more to sober reflection than to animated conversation.

It is an argument was needed to complete the remarkable change in the nation's chief executive. It was furnished by the sight of Manhattan's beset skyscrapers of finance as his tugboat passed by the foot of Wall-street and skirted the Battery.

The day marked the end of indiscriminate presidential denunciations, of intemperate language of wholesale indictments, of incessant agitation against wealth, of wholesale attacks upon trusts and corporations, of fresh plans to punish and to destroy.

Mr. Roosevelt is not to make any more vehement speeches like those at Provincetown, and at towns along the Mississippi river, and in the near future, instead of causing new indictments to be brought against more trusts and corporations, the law will be allowed to take its course against those now before the courts.

Mr. Roosevelt's sudden change of attitude may be summed up in the phrase: No abandonment of policy, but modification of methods.

DAKOTA DIVORCE DIDN'T GO

Helped a Little, However, and Sentence Was Suspended.

WALKERTON, Nov. 6.—(Special).—The Switzer bigamy case was tried before Judge Barrett to-day. From the evidence it was adduced that Switzer had violated the marriage laws of the country, but unintentionally. The judge therefore let him off on suspended sentence, under bail to appear at any time within 12 months for sentence.

In 1894 Switzer was married in Manitoba to Ida Jane. He followed her to Ontario, where he was married to Marie Harris. He therefore concocated various schemes to get rid of Ida Jane and in 1896 was divorced from her in Dakota. A short while afterwards he was married to Marie Harris.

PRESTON'S STORY IS HERE FOR TRIAL

Crown Has Refused to Consent to Abandoning London Conspiracy Prosecution.

Efforts to obtain a nolle prosequi, or withdrawal of prosecution, in the case of the Londoners indicted for conspiracy, arising out of the now notorious election enquiry, have failed.

As matters now stand, George M. Reid, John O'Gorman, William Mulloy and William Wiley are to appear for trial at the criminal assizes in Toronto, which open Nov. 18. These are the cases of longest standing in the crown docket and should be the first to be heard. Twenty witnesses have been subpoenaed in London. Geo. Lynch-Staunton, K.C., of Hamilton, is the special crown prosecutor to conduct the cases.

Rumors emanating from those high in the confidence of the Conservative party in the province have been affixed for a considerable time to the effect that desperate attempts were being made by Liberal politicians to arrive at an arrangement with the crown whereby the various considerations among which would be the absence of a Liberal candidate at the recent London by-election, the conspiracy prosecutions should be dropped.

A World reporter saw E. F. Johnston, K.C., concerning the various rumors about Mr. Johnston said: "There is absolutely no truth in the report that there has been a saw-off with the crown. No arrangement has been attempted. I have seen Hon. Mr. Foy and others, even as late as a month ago, representing that the prosecution of these men had become a persecution. I have pointed out on several occasions that the charges were technical and reached the actual offense only in a roundabout way, which was never intended to be covered by the statute. The actual offenses were barred from prosecution after two years."

"I have urged that these men were not criminals, but the conditions of a condition which existed in London, and that if A, B and C had not committed the offenses, X, Y and Z would have done so, and that the condition was the creation of both parties."

"It has been to no purpose. The crown persist in the prosecution. I have received no encouragement whatsoever. These things may have been discussed in London and elsewhere for political purposes, but they were given more to sober reflection than to animated conversation. It is an argument was needed to complete the remarkable change in the nation's chief executive. It was furnished by the sight of Manhattan's beset skyscrapers of finance as his tugboat passed by the foot of Wall-street and skirted the Battery."

CAPTURED HIS WIFE.

Alberta Justice of Peace Had a Long Chase.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 6.—Charles Wixman Hermit, a justice of the peace from Raymond, Alberta, chased his faithless wife and her paramour fifteen hundred miles across country, and arrested them here to-day. The man in the case is John Cooper, a land agent. Altho Hermit arrived here several hours behind the couple, he was enabled to make the capture because his wife tarried too long over a visit to relatives in Ferrisburg.

DANGEROUS FIRE AT SUBBURY.

CLERGY'S LOAN RENEWAL REPUTATED BY BOARD

Privilege of Voting on $5,000,000 Advances From Philadelphia Bankers Objected To—Injunction Prevents Meeting—Litigation to Follow.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—(Special).—The annual meeting of the Canadian Improvement Company (Soo Corporation), scheduled for to-day, did not take place in an official way, owing to an injunction restraining the directors from taking official action.

This injunction was obtained by several Philadelphia banks and trust companies, who allege irregularity in the securing and renewal of a $5,000,000 loan from them by Mr. Clergue.

The point at issue, which was discussed at to-day's meeting, was the right of Mr. Clergue to negotiate the renewal of the loan under the terms as alleged by parties securing the injunction, and which involves the transfer of the voting power conveyed by the $5,000,000 loan to a security for the loan.

The improvement company, it seems, has repudiated the agreement negotiated by Mr. Clergue, and the matter will be threshed out in the courts.

In the meantime the annual meeting and election of officers will not take place for two months—Jan. 7.

DETECTIVES SAW SHOPLIFTERS

Two Women Arrested—Got $200 in Goods From Stores Yesterday.

Getting away with $200 worth of goods of various kinds from the Eaton and Simpson stores is the charge to which Mrs. Annie Baker and her sister, Miss Florence Baker, admit themselves guilty. They were arrested by Detectives Kennedy and Mackie yesterday afternoon.

The detectives watched Mrs. Luman lift a web of cloth and conceal it under her coat. She observed the sleuths and attempted to return the goods. Kennedy snatched the other after he had observed her take sundry laces and other finery.

FRANK CAPELLI ESCAPES THE GALLOWS

Broke Down and Kissed Cell Floor on Learning That Sentence Had Been Commuted.

PARRY SOUND, Nov. 6.—(Special).—Already three times reprieved, Frank Capelli to-night, in the very shadow of the gallows, received glad tidings from Ottawa that saves him from the hangman's noose, but condemns him to life imprisonment. To-morrow, for the second time, Radcliffe will leave Parry Sound with his "job" undone.

When Capelli heard the news this evening his usual stolid and indifferent manner gave way to a complete breakdown. With tears streaming from his eyes he dropped to his knees and kissed the floor of his cell.

The message was received at about 6 o'clock this evening from the private secretary of the governor-general, informing Sheriff Armstrong that his excellency had been pleased to commute the sentence of death to one of imprisonment for life.

This afternoon, in answer to a message from the sheriff asking for instructions, a telegram was received from the minister of justice at Ottawa saying that "Capelli's case is still under consideration."

The story of the crime and of the efforts of the prisoner's counsel to save his life may be briefly summarized. The murder occurred in the house of Michael McCormack, on the Hurpee-road, last winter, and resulted from a real or supposed attempt on the part of the prisoner to commit a criminal assault on Mrs. McCormack.

Don Dow lost his life in an effort to restrain the Italian. In the melee four other men were stabbed by him.

The prisoner was tried in June and sentenced to hang on Aug. 3, but on the eve of the execution an application was made for a reprieve, which was granted. Subsequently another reprieve was granted to Oct. 1, and later another to Nov. 7, and in the meantime a number of his compatriots seeking to gain a glimpse of the prisoner, there has been nothing to indicate that to-morrow a man was to have been executed for the murder of one of the gallows.

Rev. Father Artis has been unremitting in his attentions and Capelli seemed quite reconciled to his fate, saying a day or two ago, when told he would probably have to die, that it did not matter, as it would only last a few minutes.

The gallows, which had been twice erected, will be pulled down to-morrow and Hangman Radcliffe will leave for his home the second time without his services having been further required than to superintend the erection of the instrument of death and to interview the prisoner in preparation therefor.

BRITISH STRIKE WAS SETTLED LAST NIGHT

Richard Bell, M.P., Made Important Announcement Following Joint Meeting.

OTTAWA, Nov. 6.—(Special).—Notice of the proclamation authorizing the Canadian Government to establish a mint at Ottawa and operative from Nov. 9, has reached here. The mint will not be ready on that date, nor before January.

It is believed that Mr. Bourassa, having started on a provincial campaign, will stick to it and run for Chateaugay, where there is a vacancy owing to the appointment of X. Dupuis as recorder of Montreal.

If this proves to be the case there will be a hot fight in Labelle. For the Conservative candidate, Hector Chauvin of Hull, a partner of E. B. Devlin, M.P., is mentioned. Mr. Chauvin is a brother-in-law of Mr. Bourassa.

For the Liberal nomination the name most prominently mentioned is that of C. B. Major, ex-M.L.A. of Hull.

CLIMBED TOTTERING POLE

KILLED WHEN IT FALLS

Lineman Meets Instant Death While at His Work on North Yonge-Street.

William Coyne, 28 years, a lineman for the Toronto Electric Light Company, was instantly killed by the collapse of a pole upon which he was working on Yonge-street, between Roxborough and McPherson-avenues, at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Cronie had climbed the pole to free a wire which was in the way, and was descending when the pole, which had been chipped partially thru at the base, cracked and fell. Cronie, who heard the pole crack, jumped in an effort to free himself from it in its fall. He reached the ground first, but the timber following struck him across the nape of the neck.

The man was carried into the old St. Andrew's College grounds, bleeding profusely from the nose.

The chief coroner, Dr. Johnson, viewed the body at the scene and allowed its removal to Harry Ellis' undertaking rooms in College-street, where Coroner J. E. Elliot will open an inquest to-day.

CHICKENPOX OR NO CHICKENPOX

Empress Augusta Has Made Up Her Mind to Accompany the Kaiser.

BERLIN, Nov. 6.—Empress Augusta Victoria, according to semi-official information obtained here, changed her mind on the pressing request of King Edward and Queen Alexandra, and decided late to-night to accompany Emperor Wilhelm on his approaching visit to England.

It was announced yesterday that the empress was not going to England with her husband, because her little daughter, Princess Victoria Louise, is suffering from chickenpox and her majesty considered it advisable to remain and take care of the child.

THAT POSTMASTERSHIP.

Speaking of the Toronto postmastership, a prominent Liberal politician put it this way to "The World" yesterday: "It looks very much like Rogers just now, but what would happen if Archie Campbell were to resign, falling a cabinet portfolio, or a seat in the senate, and look with covetous eyes upon the postmastership? Who could replace him?"

A Woman's Letter.

Among the clever volumes of letters, authentic and otherwise, which appear from time to time in the publishers' lists, one may find the best of examples how to write and how not to write letters.

Sincerity is, after all, the chief virtue of an interesting letter, and humor the next. The school girl who pens a heart-breaking "My Dear Friend," to the hero of her imagination, never realizes that "My Dear Lover" would be in reality better taste.

Of course, the use of the first name between good friends is really the most non-committal of all possible salutations. The "dear friend" is affected, and therefore bad form.

A woman's letters should never contain many adjectives, for that is a trick they have to the ruin of their style. Then, again, they should studiously avoid the subject of sentiment, which very few women ever express well on paper.

The tendency is to hysteria or to absolute flatness. Some women who can live out their lives with absolute trust and self-abnegation, do not express it so well as men do. Lord Byron, who was notably in love with love, but not with any woman for long, expressed one of the highest sentiments penned when he wrote "The Giaour," while Charlotte Bronte, in the famous love story, "Jane Eyre," depicts passion more convincingly than love.

Letters to friends are sometimes very

WORLD'S DAILY FASHION HINT

One of the season's novelties in separate coats is shown in this sketch. The under part is a loose sacque of dark green cloth with large armholes and sleeves, which taper to a cuff of ordinary size, trimmed with black silk braid.

This braid also trims the front and the large pocket flaps near the hem of the coat, and two heavy silk tassels finish the decorative scheme. Over this coat is a circular cape, which extends some distance below it, and is lined with black satin. Where not thrown back, the cape falls in lines parallel with the front closing. In the back is a simulated hood lined with black satin and finished with a silk tassel.

It is difficult to write, because it is harder to play to the gallery in writing than in speaking. One falls insensibly into the habit of saying what one feels, and what one feels rather than what one ought to say.

Employees of the Daveport works of the Canada Foundry Co. presented Marley Sherris of 201 Beverley-street, on the occasion of his marriage to Miss Anne Leeson of 347 Berkeley-street, with a case of silver spoons, knives and forks.

Senator Cox distributed diplomas to seven nurses graduating at Grace Hospital Tuesday night. Reports of the various departments were made, showing the hospital work to have progressed during the past year.

Miss Thompson was presented with the Vander Smitten medal by Mrs. Vander Smitten. Miss Gibson received the Wismer medal from Mr. Atkinson. Miss L. Patton, superintendent, made report of the work of the hospital.

Addresses were delivered by Senator Cox, Judge Winchester, Rev. Prof. J. Ballantyne, Dr. Evans, Dr. Bruce Smith, Dr. Palmer and Mr. Atkinson.

Fashions in England. As usual, English fashion plates show that we are at least three, or more nearly six, months behind the European modes. It is a curious thing that this should invariably be the case, particularly when so many Canadians spend a large part of the year abroad.

Take one instance, for example, that of the draped skirt. With us it is just beginning to be seen in a few reception gowns, but in the English magazines it is a very general mode. We quote from "The Ladies' Field" part of an article written by their fashion expert:

"Last spring I predicted the revival of the double skirt, but so now it has come, combined with the most lovely Grecian draperies in soft, clinging stuffs and beautiful colorings. Afternoon and evening toilets will be Greek; of that there is no manner of doubt. There will be others, of course, but the tendency will be towards these shawl-like draperies of apparent simplicity, which re-appears in reality the most subtle and intricate complexity. It takes a real artist to drape the new frock at its best. Petticoats with frill-trim, silk frills will disappear in a flash, but this is, of course, for the sumptuous style of dress. Fortunately, for practical purposes and with really smart tailor-mades we can adhere to a plain or kilted skirt, and to a skirt slightly on or right off the ground.

"It is chiefly on the subject of the new tailor-mades that I must write this week. So for the moment I will leave the clinging draperies that are dear to the heart of every artist, and particularly becoming to the best type of tall, slight Englishwoman. But even in the tailoring world we are to have an abnormally tight skirt, for the great house of Aquila has set forth this decree, and the world's fashion is talking of Aquila's tight skirt, so tight that it has to have three tucks across the front to maintain favorably. In reality it is very becoming in serge and cloths, and is worn, by the way, over satins which instead of the petticoat. This is a comfortable fashion for the winter. With this particular skirt there is a certain amount of fullness at the back, and it is at any rate graceful and can be short or on the ground. Naturally the latter is prettier.

"On all sides I hear Englishwomen asserting (I do not mean dressmakers) that short skirts form the thing. Emphatically they are not, for the smart tailor-mades of Paris and London have skirts slightly on the ground, severely plain and tight in cut and beautifully trimmed with braid and, occasionally, fur; also fur will be more used later on.

"Coats are nearly all half or three-quarter length, most of them semi-fitting, cut in front and sloping away into long tails at the back. The variety is endless. A well-known house is showing a black-faced cloth model with real swallow-tails and a buff cloth waistcoat braided in black and gold and ravers with heavy ornamentations of turned-over storm collar of black velvet and tussy collar of fancy braid. A touch of gold again appears on the turned-over storm collar of black velvet and tussy collar of fancy braid. A touch of gold again appears on the turned-over storm collar of black velvet and tussy collar of fancy braid.

I have never seen Parisians use so much black and dark blue as this season. But apart from these sombre colorings there is a great fancy for olive and reseda green, trimmed with black. There is a craze for ruce and violet, a sea purple cloth cut away coat with a velvet collar edged with ermine, and a gauntlet cuff buttoned from wrist to elbow with little velvet buttons, had a rolled collar of ermine and a very low waistcoat of the same fur fastened with amethyst buttons. The chemise was of beautiful lace and white lawn, with a plain long skirt trimmed with purple toulouche and a narrow band of purple velvet that are dear to the heart of every artist, and particularly becoming to the best type of tall, slight Englishwoman. But even in the tailoring world we are to have an abnormally tight skirt, for the great house of Aquila has set forth this decree, and the world's fashion is talking of Aquila's tight skirt, so tight that it has white check with a cut-away, half-length coat with self-strappings. This showed a fascinating waistcoat of chintz embroidery and a slight introduction of purple and gold braid. There are all sorts of delightful colors in the waistcoat; they all seemed to blend with the check, and struck no discordant note; indeed, they represented a perfect harmony in shade. This waistcoat had a slightly high collar, standing away to allow a liberal display of white collar and jabot. To wear with it was one of the new toques of brown beaver with two gay-colored birds. The shape was rather narrow and wore well towards the back of the head, finished with a neat spotted purple veil. The sleeves of this coat were quite long, with just a tiny cuff.

Our artist has sketched a delightful tailor-made with a long coat, the fine braiding on which forms a zodiac effect and a deep border. The gauntlet cuffs and flap pockets are also braided. The waistcoat is of brocade, and the turn-over collar and cuffs are edged with fur. The skirt shows braiding in scalloped lines, giving a tonic effect. On the neck is a jabot of old lace.

The Girls' Home. The board of management of the Girls' Home held their fifty-first annual meeting yesterday. J. K. Macdonald was in the chair and expressed his satisfaction with the condition of the home in the past year. The reports of the various officers were read and passed. There are at present 80 pupils in the school and an entire freedom from sickness of all sorts. The financial statement for the year shows the total receipts, including the bank deposit, to be $7222.60, and the expenditure $7277.59, leaving a balance of $44.01 for the year. The home has received $1440.39 in legacies during 1906-7.

This home is crowded and additional school accommodation is needed. The city promised to build a separate school building if the home would provide the land. This the home proceeded to do, and has purchased, at a cost of $3000, a piece of land adjoining the present building on Ontario-street. They expect to have the new school completed by next spring. Dr. Getlike, Rev. Mr. Plummer, Rev. Dr. Wilkinson and Rev. Mr. Raymond of All Saints' were present and addressed the children, who were present at the meeting.

Acknowledgement. Mr. Edwin Branker and family beg to return sincere thanks to the many friends who have sent them letters and sympathy for the home, for any attention paid Gerald and the Misses Branker in their late sad bereavement, and ask them to accept this as an acknowledgment of their kindness—Barbados, Oct. 19, 1907.

A HARD ROAD TO TRAVEL.

There is nothing for Mr. Bourassa to do but accept what the gods have given him in Bellechasse. He may know that he is right, that he is fighting against extravagance and wastefulness of the public resources.

Mr. Bourassa is not to be blamed for the advance in switching rates. It is his business to get as much as possible from the public. The responsibility for the abolition known as the Toronto switching tariff rests with the board of railway commissioners.

Mr. Cowan of the Grand Trunk Railway intimates that the shipper at a local point is not entitled to a favorable terms as one located at a competitive point. Will Mr. Cowan kindly tell us why he is not? We have no hesitation in asserting that the shipper at a local station merits quite as much consideration as one located at a common point.

Not only is Mr. Bourassa defeated in Bellechasse, but the Liberal organs announced that he must never be allowed back at Ottawa for Labelle—that he is an open enemy of the chief features of the Liberal program and must be destroyed.

And yet if Mr. Bourassa keeps on he'll put all his enemies under ground and the day will come when the public will help him to do it. You may fix a day for a public funeral, but you want it to be a success as such you must have the public there.

ANGLO-GERMAN RELATIONS. Lively hopes are entertained that the Kaiser's approaching visit to King Edward will lead to a further amelioration of the bitterness that has characterized the attitude of Britain and Germany for the last few years.

HYPHENATED NAMES. A. E. H. is informed, in answer to his query, that a hyphenated name depending on the nationality of the parents of the child is not a name of German origin.

May Close "Short Out." The passage-way in the arcade between Victoria-street and Yonge-street in the rear of the Central Canada Loan & Savings Company, has been closed by order of the latter company for the purpose of making repairs.

er of fact to hopes entertained in competent circles in England until the last. that there would be a peaceful development of affairs. "Therefore," the article proceeds, "the widely prevailing opinion, that Great Britain was preparing for the war long beforehand, and was only awaiting an opportunity to open hostilities, is erroneous."

Chairman Killam says that he cannot say what is a reasonable time to allow the railways to furnish cars for the shipment of traffic. It did not take Chairman Killam very long to make up his mind as to the proper time to be allowed the people of Canada to unload cars when he gave his decision making car service charges legal in Canada.

TORONTO SWITCHING TARIFF. The railways state that the switching charges in the City of Toronto were advanced in order to remove discrimination in rates as compared with other places. But it is not true.

Montreal Witness (Ind. Lib.): "Mr. Gouin has had his warning. He has passed through a wearying, worrying time. To-day he may congratulate himself, and we believe he will so act that he can congratulate himself tomorrow."

Le Patrie (Independent-Liberal) is authority for the statement that Mr. Bourassa will not stand at the by-election of Bellechasse in Lakeshore, but that he will support a Conservative-Nationalist candidate.

STRAFORD AND CHEAP POWER. Hon. Adam Beck Will Address Public Meeting To-Night. STRAFORD, Nov. 6.—(Special.) John Kidder arrived here to-day from England, having crossed the ocean to take charge of the body of his brother Herbert, who recently died.

THE KING AND IRELAND. "Bystander" in Weekly Sun: The King, whose birthday is at hand, has a special claim to gratitude for his attention to Ireland. Had his predecessors done the same, had they visited Ireland, made it their residence during part of the year, and cultivated the affection of a people eminently open to personal attraction, the Irish question would never have got into the calamitous state in which it now is.

Le Canada (Liberal) characterizes the result as "a complete triumph for Mr. Bourassa and his Tory allies." We were by this result—and we have always said so—satisfied that Mr. Bourassa is only a first-class politician, a double-dealer, and that his fine and astute words can only deceive empty heads or prejudiced persons.

WANT SALOONKEEPER'S LIFE. BUFFALO, Nov. 6.—Alexander Young, a saloonkeeper of Ebenezer, was shot early to-day and probably fatally injured while standing at a window of his dance hall conversing with two friends.

TRUE BILL AGAINST DETECTIVE. WINNIPEG, Nov. 6.—A true bill was brought in this morning by the grand jury at the assize court against Detective George Smith, charged with manslaughter in the killing of Oscar Gans, Oct. 15.

Accidentally Shot. Gordon Taylor, 38, 381 Manning-avenue, was accidentally shot in the head by a companion with whom he was shooting duck on the island sandbar yesterday afternoon. The bullet removed to St. Michael's Hospital, where it was found that he was not seriously hurt.

Harder Work. Mistress-Why, Bridget, it seems to me you want very large wages for one who has had so little experience. Bridget—Sure, it's harder for me when I don't know how to—Life.

POLITICAL INTELLIGENCE

The Montreal Star (Ind. Con.) regards Mr. Bourassa's entrance into the Bellechasse campaign as quixotic, but says that Hon. Mr. Gouin is the best man to imagine that the constituency meant to whitewash Mr. Turgeon. The provincial investigation must still be held, and the Star adds: "Mr. Bourassa's relations to Labelle will be a matter of considerable conjecture until they are settled."

The St. John Sun (Liberal) is frank enough to declare that neither political party would dare to face a thoro investigation into the case of Mr. R. L. Borden, and that it would take too long anyhow. Is Dr. Pugsley hedging?

The Ottawa Free Press (Liberal) comments on Mr. R. L. Borden's tour, reads a sharp rebuke to the Liberal party, and especially to the members of the government. It says: "The rest of the Liberal party, namely, that if they want to keep in touch with the people they must go among the people. There seems too much of an inclination, in the English-speaking provinces at least, for the Liberals to rest on their oars."

The Winnipeg Free Press (Liberal) has already complained that except for seeing their own ministers the west never gets a glimpse at a member of the Laurier cabinet. The Winnipeg Free Press (Conservative) has given the Gouin government in the west what it has not heretofore been used to. It is a rebuke to the government that may be said to come from the province. Four constituencies were opened, and the they were all in the western section of the province, they were far enough separated to give the voters ground for their own judgment.

ney-general to see in how far this hope is fulfilled. Windsor Record (Lib.): Leader Mackay at Hamilton described Col. J. M. Gibson as the brainiest man in public life in Canada, and the colonel, who was present, reciprocated by placing Mr. Mackay only a little lower in the intellectual scale. He was too courteous to contradict the Liberal leader by disclaiming his classification, but he did not fail to run to his eulogist. Mr. Gibson will be remembered as the minister who patrolled with the Essex gas question until Detroit had sucked the field dry.

The Ottawa Free Press (Liberal) comments on Mr. R. L. Borden's tour, reads a sharp rebuke to the Liberal party, and especially to the members of the government. It says: "The rest of the Liberal party, namely, that if they want to keep in touch with the people they must go among the people. WINNIPEG'S MAYOR HAS PUT VETO ON COUNCIL

Says Also That Cecil B. Smith's Relations With Engineering Co. Are Too Intimate.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 6.—(Special).—As a climax of the strenuous fight on the power proposition, involving a sale of $5,000,000 of securities, Mayor Ashdown this afternoon vetoed the decision of city council in putting through the power contract Monday night, by accepting the tender of the Anglo-Canadian Engineering Company.

The mayor also announced he had wired Hon. Frank Oliver, minister of the interior, asking him to continue the reservation of the Point du Bois power site until the city could see its way clear to proceed with the work, and had received a favorable reply from the minister.

The mayor to-day stated that relations existing between Cecil B. Smith and the Anglo-Canadian Engineering Company were too close to enable the latter to serve the best interests of Winnipeg as its chief engineer. Smith having stated that he was interested in the formation of the Anglo-Canadian Engineering Company.

When the work starts, it is said, he will insist that some other than Mr. Smith occupy the position of chief engineer, Controller Cookburn, in an interview, accused Mackenzie and Mann of blocking the scheme, using their influence with the banks, so the city could not finance the scheme.

ENLARGE RAILWAY COMMISSION

Two Members To Be Added by Legislation Next Session.

OTTAWA, Nov. 6.—It is understood that the government has for some time been contemplating a change in the railway commission by increasing it from three to five members. It is practically certain that these two members will be added by legislation to be enacted during the coming session. When the new board has been constituted it will probably be provided that any two members will be authorized to hear cases and give decisions, subject always to an appeal to the full board. The presumption is, however, that very few appeals will be taken, and that in general the decisions will be final. The tendency of this proposition will be to greatly facilitate decisions in all cases which come before the commission.

NOVA SCOTIANS' CLAIMS.

York Loan Referee Hears Argument for Easterners Interested.

Before Referee Kappela yesterday afternoon the interests of the Nova Scotia shareholders of the defunct York Loan Co. were taken up.

Mr. Douglas argued that the company had no right to sell shares in Nova Scotia, and that this made the claimants creditors and not holders of stock.

Mr. Masten, for the shareholders, had evidence that there were many paid, and also some transactions of business with the provincial secretary of Nova Scotia.

This will be taken up in two weeks, when a hearing of all sides before the referee will take place.

The referee directed that notice be served on the minister of justice at Ottawa, and the attorney-general of the province of the fact, in accordance with the Judicature Act.

MILLERS FAIL TO PROVE

severity of the winter, and the consequent congestion of traffic—that effort was made to relieve this congestion, which was general on other lines.

In regard to delays, they alleged that preference had been given to shipments of packet freight, such as flour, sacked oats, etc., brought down by the roads, and again they alleged that Owen Sound that certain cars could not be had, because they were destined for the export shipment of packet freight. He asked the company to produce the steamer's inward manifests, which he believed would prove his allegations.

Mr. MacMurphy said that Mr. Watts' telegram, asking for these documents, was only received on Saturday last. In the papers which he had seen, he stated that the shipments of flour, grain and packet freight being shipped from Owen Sound from November, 1906, to October, 1907. They had shipped out 489 cars of grain and flour, 1,340 loaded cars, and a total of 13,940 loaded cars, making a daily average of 45 cars, excluding Sundays. To produce the orders for all these cars would be the work of some weeks. Flour had been shipped out month by month, as fast as received, in November they had shipped 604 cars more of grain—wheat, oats and barley—than had been received during this period. There had been no discrimination and no preference shown in the distribution of cars at Owen Sound.

Mr. Watts: "They were requested to produce the original orders, with the dates of filing and dates of shipment."

Mr. MacMurphy: "This is a statement for the whole year—month by month."

Mr. Watts: "But it does not show that the wheat received was shipped promptly."

Proof of Preference.

Mr. Watts said he wished an order to issue, in order that they might be hung up again this winter. This preference being given in export shipment of grain at Fort William.

Judge Killam: "Have you proof of preference?"

Mr. Watts: "I wish to bring that out. I claim that export grain got a preference over grain for local shipment last fall, and that wheat which was shipped from Winnipeg got the preference over what shipped from Fort William."

Mr. MacMurphy said that the reason why flour and grain were shipped more freely from Winnipeg was that more cars were available there than at Fort William. They denied preference. Two steamers were being built, and one to be built, and being provided, etc., and they could not be charged with disregarding the needs of the country. A great deal of rolling stock was being added.

Mr. Coultter gave evidence with regard to a number of shipments complained in November. The last of the Matthews Grain Company, etc., and said that there was nothing in the records to show when the orders were filled.

Judge Killam: "Were there delays in filling the orders?"

Mr. Coultter: "That time of the year, as a rule, there is a little delay. But these are isolated cases. Thousands of cars are shipped. I do not remember any delay in shipping at that time. As to the Central Milling Company's order, it concerned about 20,000 bushels, which was shipped out in February. The line was not part of April to Tillsonburg and York. There was nothing to show the date when the order to ship was received."

Delay is Admitted.

Mr. Watts: "This grain arrived before navigation closed and was ordered out on the 1st of March."

Judge Killam: "Was there delay?"

Mr. Coultter: "A little. We have had orders on the railway for a considerable number of cars which were shipped out within two days of receipt, but he could not say when the grain was shipped."

Mr. Watts: "At this season the company was short of cars on every division, but there has been no shortage of cars at Owen Sound for a long time."

Mr. Coultter: "I am not sure that there are sixty cars of flour were shipped every two days."

Judge Killam: "The statement shows an average of forty-five cars a day. Delay in shipping would be due to the shortage of cars."

Mr. MacMurphy: "The evidence shows that flour has been immediately shipped, while what has been delayed for weeks at Fort William in December and January. But that flour was shipped out within two days of receipt, but he could not say when the grain was shipped."

Mr. MacMurphy said that as a matter of fact the flour which was delayed, and as it came on thru bills of lading it could not be held at Owen Sound.

Chairman's Deliverance. Judge Killam said it did not seem to him that undue preference by the company had been shown. It was proved that cars were being carried by the company for the flour traffic. Whether the company could supply more cars he did not know. But if it could, it was not a question of discrimination at all. He did not think that they could make any order in the case.

Dr. Mills: Has thru traffic any preference over local traffic at Owen Sound?

Mr. MacMurphy: We regard the wheat traffic as originating at Owen Sound. The flour traffic does not get a preference. The flour is milled thru.

Dr. Mills: But is it a case of preference?

Mr. MacMurphy: If there is a preference it is not an unjust preference.

Judge Killam: But is not all this traffic really traffic? If a man brings flour from the west and puts it into the elevator at Owen Sound it is thru traffic all the same.

Dr. Mills: But if flour is consigned on thru bills of lading, but the grain is not, it is simply brought on lake bills, and originates at Fort William. It is consigned on this side, it is brought in by outside steamers.

Favoring Section. Hon. Mr. Beers said that the position was exactly the same as last year, when they decided to divide the cars available between two sections of the province. But if we do this, we are not discriminating against the rest of the commercial community? The trouble is that we have a very small section of cars, and in the matter of providing cars they could not favor one section at the expense of the rest.

Dr. Mills said that at present he was not prepared either to concur or to dissent. He would like to see the cars for one case or another, at Owen Sound, so promptly as flour, but whether there was unjust discrimination or not he was not now prepared to say. He did neither concur nor dissent until he could look into the evidence more closely.

C.N.R.'s Level Crossings. The board then heard the application of the Canadian Northern Ontario Railway Co. for authority to place its tracks across Winchester-street in this city at rail level.

Mr. Fullerton, on behalf of the city, opposed the application and asked for the construction of a bridge at this point. The situation was illustrated by means of maps. No witnesses were called.

Mr. Fullerton stated that traffic was heavy at this crossing and was increasing steadily in volume. If a bridge were not constructed, the city would rapidly as it had done heretofore for one would soon be felt. It was considered appropriate that a bridge be constructed at this point in the city. The rails were not yet laid. The estimated cost of a bridge was from $50,000 to $55,000, which included everything. The city was quite content with things as they were, and the change would be entirely caused by the railway company, placing any part of the cost on the city. A bridge over the Don is also proposed for the convenience of vehicular traffic.

Mr. Ruel, for the company, held that gates were a sufficient protection, but left the matter to the board and the engineer in charge.

Mr. Fullerton asked that if a level crossing were permitted the order should be drawn so as not to prejudice the city's case in seeking in the future greater protection at this point. Decision was reserved.

Weston's Troubles. Application was made on behalf of the municipality of Weston to require the C. P. R. and G. T. R. companies to restore the culvert at John-street crossing to its natural drainage or lower the culvert at Dufferin-street, and to make a crossing at the east end of Denison-avenue. It appears that a foot bridge has been built by the people of the neighborhood and has been permitted by the G. T. R. Co. to cross tracks at Denison-avenue, through gates which are generally left open, but are sometimes closed. The company now desires to close this crossing to the general public, and the municipality asks for the issue of an order which will make the use of this crossing permanent.

Considerable evidence was taken. The witnesses included Mr. Moffat, of the Moffat Stone Co., John Pearson, Irwin Somerville, C.E., and Dr. Allen, reserve engineer of the C. P. R.

Mr. Pearson stated that 615 persons had passed this crossing between 6:30 a.m. and 9 p.m. on June 19 last, also 61 cars and nine bicycles. He had lived in Weston 20 years, and during this period this crossing had always been in use, with gates, which were occasionally closed, but in a haphazard manner. Mr. Somerville testified that it was a fairly safe crossing, and as safe as 175 feet wide and both the G. T. R. and C. P. R. traversed it.

Dr. Allen stated that this was one of their main thoroughfares and he did not consider it to be a dangerous crossing, as it was perfectly level, and they could see up and down the track.

E. C. Cunniff, G. T. resident engineer, and E. Gillen, general superintendent, gave evidence contra.

Train Traffic Increasing. Mr. Gillen stated that 14 passenger trains now passed this point daily, a less number of freight trains. Several new industries had been established at Weston within the last 48 hours, and other were being coming. He thought that more tracks should be laid here next year, and expected a striking increase to be soon coming between Weston and this city. This was on the Sarnia branch, and 12 of the trains mentioned passed between 7 a.m. and 7:30 a.m. while private sidings were contemplated.

Mr. Murphy, on the part of the C. P. R. Co., stated that about 11 trains a day passed this point.

Mr. Roney argued that this had practically been a public crossing for almost a generation, and the right of the people to use it should be made permanent.

Mr. MacMurphy held that if the people were to be allowed to cross at this point, it should only be by means of a foot bridge.

Mr. Roney suggested that if gates were to be established, the lowest of the County of York should be made parties in the matter.

Decision was reserved and the board adjourned.

DELAWARE ONLY HALF "DRY."

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 6.—The vote on the liquor question in the four districts of the state shows that there are two districts and prohibition in the other two. The license districts are the City of Wilmington, with a population of about 60,000, and about 250 bars, and rural Newcastle County, with a population of about 40,000, and about 30 drinking places. The prohibition districts are Kent County, with a population of about 20,000, and about 20 drinking bars, and Sussex County, with 40,000 population, and about 25 drinking bars.

DECORATE.

Editor World: While the government is sending such vast sums of money in buying the people educated, would it not be a good idea for the government to practice what it teaches others?

In looking along the banks of the Welland Canal, I don't think that a more desolate piece of landscape can be imagined. Why not plant the banks with trees? And while setting them out make a good selection, such as our native edible nut trees and not such big weeds as horse chestnuts.

WINDSOR ACTRESS WHO SCORNE MILLIONAIRE

But Takes Him When He Drops Money in Copper Crash— Windsor News Notes.

WINDSOR, Ont., Nov. 6.—(Special).—The Leamington Oil Company is seeking a franchise from the council to supply Windsor with natural gas from the Tilbury fields.

Rev. Thomas Manning has been invited to remain for a fourth year as pastor of Central Methodist Church.

Windsor friends of Miss Nena Blake, the actress, who is known here as Nena Fry, hear that she is to wed Morris Sellers Largey, a Montana millionaire. Largey was first rejected because of his wealth, but since he dropped most of his fortune in the copper crash, Miss Blake is in a more favorable mood.

PLANT BARREN TIMBER LANDS WITH NEW TREES

Impetus to Reforestation Expected as Result of Conference at Saginaw This Month.

SAGINAW, Mich., Nov. 6.—The most important meeting of an interstate character relating to forestry yet held in the northwest will take place in this city Nov. 12 and 13. It will, in addition to its local character, be a conference of leading forestry experts of northern United States and Canada, and it is expected as a result of the sessions that the first practical work of Michigan and surrounding states in reforestation on an extensive scale will be inaugurated. It is believed by those promoting the conference that it will give a tremendous impetus to reforestation both public and private in all the states which were once the great lumber centres of the continent, as well as in the Dominion provinces.

Michigan will be represented in the conference by three organized bodies—the state forestry commission, composed of Prof. Filbert Roth of the University of Michigan, C. W. Garfield of Grand Rapids, and William B. Merston of Saginaw; the special commission of nine members appointed by Gov. Warner last spring to investigate the subject of reforestation, especially with a view to restoring the 6,000,000 acres of pine barrens now held as public lands, and which will make its recommendations to the next legislature for laws and any necessary appropriation; and the Michigan State Forestry Association of 400 members, practically all of whom will be here.

In addition, there will be numerous representatives of private corporations and railroads engaged in practical reforestation.

Delegates From Canada.

From the outside the forestry commissions of Wisconsin and Minnesota will be represented, their members occupying a place on the convention program proper. Both the New York Forestry Board and that state's forestry association will send delegations, while two leading experts from that commonwealth have prepared addresses. Prominent forestry authorities will also be here from Ontario and Quebec.

On Wednesday evening, Nov. 13, following the close of the convention, a conference of lake states forest officers and professionals will be held at the East Saginaw Club with a view to determining what statute changes are needed to successfully inaugurate private reforestation whether on a large scale or on a small scale. The plan of assessment; proper exemption; prevention of fraud in forest taxation; a reasonable system of fire protection, and whether it shall be done by warden or patrol; stringency of fire laws; the policy of placing a minimum price on state land forest; form of state forestry administration; how private investments in growing forests may be induced; whether the state shall employ experts and the advisability of bringing up forestry in farmers' institutes.

Scope of the Convention.

In a general way the convention will consider reforestation from the standpoint of state and private initiative, taxation of forests and pine barrens, and their protection from fire and destroying agents. Dr. R. E. Fernow of Toronto will lead the discussion on "Taxation and Control of Forests." C. Andrews, forestry commissioner of Minnesota, will take a leading part in the convention. Largely thru his efforts Minnesota has passed forestry legislation that has materially advanced tree planting and reduced forest fire losses.

Encouragement of state and private reforestation will be the object of the convention, and it is intended to recommend legislation on the subject to the various states and provinces represented.

KICKED SATCHEL FOR A WEEK

Grocer Didn't Know the Valise Was Loaded.

WINSTED, Conn., Nov. 6.—Elijah O. Peck, the well-known grocer, is still trying to figure out why he has been sitting on the edge of a damp cloud tugging a log, instead of weighing butter. For the past week he has been hugging the rim of the great beyond, but he didn't know it until to-day.

"Morning Light," said a traveling man who dropped in to see Peck a week ago Friday. "If you don't worry I'll leave this grip here till I return."

The grocer didn't object, and the grip was chucked behind the big stove. Every time Life picked up the usual scuttin' hen he decided to make sundry observations about folks who used his place for storage purposes. When trade was dull he amused himself by kicking the leather all around the room.

"Guess I'll take my dynamite row," said the traveling man, returning Monday and picking up the grip. He showed the contents to the badly-frightened grocer and ever since Life has kept the errand boy busy running around to the Peck homestead to see if there's a craze on the brass knocker.

COOKSVILLE THE CENTRE OF OIL AND GAS WELLS

Success Has Attended the Preliminary Investigations of City Prospectors.

Manufacturers, power users and householders in the city will be delighted to hear there is a reasonable possibility of a material reduction being made in the cost of fuel for power and heating purposes, consequent upon a new factor entering the lists in competition with the gas, electrical and coal companies. It is claimed that the new concern will effect a saving of nearly 70 per cent. in the annual fuel bill of the city.

Within a few miles of Yonge-street indications have been found of an abundant supply of natural gas and petroleum oil, while the property is being developed with a view of supplying the city's requirements. From the tests made in several directions it has become manifest to the experts employed that huge quantities of natural gas and oil exist.

Cooksville, some 15 miles west of the city, is the centre of this discovery. It has long been known that gas was there, but with very few exceptions, the farmers of the district took no notice of it. One more enterprising than the rest sunk a shaft, and was rewarded by striking gas at an easy distance from the surface that gave a daily supply of 50,000 cubic feet, which he uses on his own and neighbors' farms for heating, lighting and other purposes.

Farms Are Leased.

This naturally caused considerable agitation amongst the farmers, and the success of this man became widely known and attracted the attention of numerous experts resulting in nearly every farm within a radius of 15 miles being leased for exploration purposes.

Emmett geologists visited the district and their opinion was that in one period the waters of the lake covered the land between this point and the present shore. Owing to some eruption of the earth's surface the water receded and huge deposits of clay were made upon the rocks, which at that time formed the bed and shore of the lake.

Evidence of this is afforded on the other side of the lake, particularly in the Welland County, where gas and oil fields are extensively drawn upon by the manufacturers of Buffalo for power purposes.

Wills & Co. of Adelaide-street were so impressed with these reports and the ocular demonstration given by the experts that they decided to install several drilling rigs immediately and bore thru the clay with the object of discovering what quantities of gas really could be obtained.

The success that has attended their efforts has justified their confidence. They commenced with a single rig on a farm within a mile of Cookville. At a depth of ten feet blue shale was struck and every foot taken out gave several drilling rigs immediately and bore thru the clay with the object of discovering what quantities of gas really could be obtained.

WOMEN THEATRE USHERS ARE NEXT INNOVATION

Twelve Have Been Engaged at the Manhattan Opera House—Others May Follow.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—There are to be women ushers in the Manhattan Opera House this season unless Oscar Hammerstein changes his mind before Monday. Last winter there was considerable trouble with some of the men who were employed in this capacity and many changes had to be made in the corps of seat pilots before the season was over.

Mr. Hammerstein has studied out the cause and effect of last year's petty troubles with his son, Arthur, and they have decided that if women ushers, who are employed in many of the large opera houses in Europe, are to be used in this country, they will be in the Manhattan, and it will be tried.

Twelve young women, some of whom have been teachers in the public schools, have been engaged, and beginning Monday night they will take charge of the seating arrangement of the Manhattan theatre. They have been carefully instructed as to their duties, and are thoroughly familiar with the location of every seat in the opera house.

Men will be stationed at the head of every aisle to see that the women ushers are not interfered with in any way, and to keep the passageways clear. The women will be in uniform and easily recognized even in a crowded aisle.

ONE WILD, GLORIOUS NIGHT

New Canada Fairly Sizzled the Last Wet Evening.

NEW CANAAN, Conn., Nov. 6.—This town went dry to-day. Last night the town made a gallant and concerted effort to wipe out rum by buying up all that was left over from the wet season.

Ministers and temperance societies were out in force, and to the woe of the latter they were outbid in many cases, and in Main-street three star brands of booze ran like water after a cloudburst. Beers, whiskies and liquors of all kinds that are now under the ban of the law were sold at auction in all the saloons. The curse of rum was wiped out effectively at midnight, but there are many aching heads to-day to pay.

FOR COUGHS

Never hesitate to ask your doctor about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It is a regular medicine, a strong medicine, a doctor's medicine.

DOES THIS INTEREST YOU?

A prominent physician, famous for his success in the treatment of kidney and bladder diseases, attributes a great deal of his success to the following simple vegetable prescription:

One ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion;
One ounce Compound Sarsaparilla;
Four ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla;

Mix, shake well, and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime.

Your druggist can supply the ingredients, and the mixture can be prepared at home at very little expense.

This, the doctor says, acts directly on the kidneys, assisting them to filter the poisons from the blood and expels same in the urine, at the same time restoring the kidneys to healthy normal action.

We feel that a great many readers will be pleased to learn of this simple prescription, and knowing the ability of the physician whose formula it is, do not hesitate to recommend it to any sufferer.

Action for Damages.

The widow of William J. McNellis has begun an action against The Dominion Bridge Company for the death of her husband and boxes for the National Telephone Company. The Bridge Company of Great Britain has been through its history hampered in its efforts to get its enterprise established by the action of the government. The argument is developed in twenty chapters, and is a most interesting and chronologically an account of the important circumstances connected with the introduction and extension of the telephone system of the British Empire. Incidental chapters are devoted to the episodes arising from the establishment of the telephone in Canada, and the various undertakings established in competition with the National Company. Copious extracts from the parliamentary debates, reports of parliamentary committees and governmental commissions, and Mr. Meyer has evidently spared no pains in gathering in other words, supplying a profit on a profit.

Mr. Meyer's book is intended for American consumption, and his conclusions is that the doctrine which enunciates that the public may resume a franchise "at the National Telephone Company" in its big struggle with the government, but however readable Mr. Meyer's special pleading may be, it is a knock of skillful arrangement and clear expression, it will not be convincing to those who are not conversant with the operation of public services, and on occasion he shows his hand too plainly in his conclusions. Thus he justifies the action of the promoters of the National Telephone Company of $8,460,000, out of a capitalization of $15,225,000, 42 per cent., on the usual ground that it was a proper reward repaid by the persons who had the courage to risk their money in an untried industry. But he takes no notice of the consequence that the public have to pay on paying dividends on "water," in other words, supplying a profit on a profit.

TO STOP UNDESIRABLES COMING INTO CANADA

Public Meeting to Discuss Preventive Measures—S. of E. Resolution.

A meeting will be held in St. George's Hall on Thursday evening, Nov. 14, for the purpose of making a representation to the Dominion Government and the Ontario Legislature to prevent more effectively the importation of undesirable immigrants who are being sent to Canada by organizations in the old country. It will also request the Dominion Government to provide for their return and for their maintenance while awaiting deportation. The following will be invited to speak: Commissioner of Immigration, Sheard, Dr. J. T. Gilmore, J. W. Flavelle, George McMurich, Hamilton Casseja and Arthur S. Hudson. Hon. Thomas Crawford will preside.

Sons of England discusses an article in the Dominion which is a Ottawa Citizen on the class of English immigrants coming to this country. The society is taking steps to combat the articles in the press reflecting upon the immigrants, and also statements appearing in English papers and in letters from immigrants in the old country back to the motherland filled with a grievance and a sense of injury, and the local society will be asked to adopt a resolution to this effect:

"That Canada has everything to gain by the continued and increased immigration of Englishmen, of whatever class, so long as they are willing to work, and to contribute to the development of the country; that such Canada offers unbounded opportunities for a measure of success impossible for the many in England; and that the millions to-day will be enriched by the presence of the most desirable class of immigrants. "Be it also resolved that this lodge place on record the earnest conviction of its members, that it is most detrimental alike to the welfare of Canada and of the English immigrants who have arrived in the future, to encourage the immigration of those who live in England and have been characterized by lack of industry and energy, and who are independent; failures in England, such will be even worse failures in Canada; and that the lodge earnestly protests against the Canadian press, and the English press accepting the statements of these failures as representative of the class of English immigrants, and of the many opportunities existing in Canada."

BOOK REVIEWS.

Public Ownership and The Telephone in Great Britain. By Hugo B. P. Meyer. Toronto: The Dominion Company of Canada, Limited, Toronto, $1.50 net.

Mr. Meyer, at one time assistant professor of political economy in the University of Toronto, is an assiduous writer on subjects connected with public services. His point of view is that of a determined opponent of public ownership of the telephone system of the British Empire. Indeed, he is so uncompromising a partisan of private enterprise that he is ready to go to any length rather than the work of a special pleader than of a student of economic affairs, and a student of an impartial survey, and weighing in the light of actual experience. For this reason his book is a most interesting and valuable contribution to the literature of the subject, and can only be regarded as a brief for the corporation side of the case, and must be read with very considerable reservations.

The patent object of the volume under review is to demonstrate that the National Telephone Company of Great Britain has been through its history hampered in its efforts to get its enterprise established by the action of the government. The argument is developed in twenty chapters, and is a most interesting and chronologically an account of the important circumstances connected with the introduction and extension of the telephone system of the British Empire. Incidental chapters are devoted to the episodes arising from the establishment of the telephone in Canada, and the various undertakings established in competition with the National Company. Copious extracts from the parliamentary debates, reports of parliamentary committees and governmental commissions, and Mr. Meyer has evidently spared no pains in gathering in other words, supplying a profit on a profit.

THE HOME FIRST AID HEALING SOOTHING ANTISEPTIC

STAND BY FOR UNEXPECTED ADVISE OF RAILWAY MEN

All Improvements Costly to Some One, and Railways Are Better Able to Stand It.

Advice from two visiting railway men that the city should insist on the viaduct plans for the Esplanade, was given yesterday, when the board of trade tendered a luncheon to J. F. Curtis, president of the Old Colony Railway, president of the Union Freight Line, vice-president of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railway, vice-president and resident trustee of the South Terminal, Boston, and Albert F. Perkins, formerly general superintendent of the Quebec lines and now consulting-engineer and adviser in railway terminal and transportation for the City of St. Louis.

There was a large attendance of business men. R. C. Steele, president of J. F. Curtis characterized the dispute between Toronto and the railways as the same old story of the railways getting located and then refusing to move. He favored the railways generally, but said, "I cannot agree with the plan of the railway when it is to work to the detriment or to the practical killing of a city like Toronto, whose waterfront should be preserved."

"There is no improvement anywhere that does not work an injury to somebody or something, and the elevation of the tracks will injure the railways least of anybody, while it will preserve an important life artery, the waterfront. The erection of bridges would," he said, "be a sore spot to the people of the City of Toronto all their lives. Cost in a matter like this should not be considered material, and I urge you to stand up for your rights."

A. F. Perkins conveyed the regards of Toronto's interest could only be served by a convenient and economical permanent access to the waterfront.

MOTHER TROD ON RUSTY NAIL

BLOOD POISON AVERTED!

A punctured wound, properly treated, will heal quickly if Zam-Buk is applied according to directions, but if carelessly treated may result in death through blood poisoning. Mrs. Hammond (the mother of the children cured of Mumps) was wise in applying Zam-Buk when she trod on a rusty nail. She says: "I got a rusty nail, which caused a painful sore. Two applications of Zam-Buk ended the pain and removed the inflammation." No wonder she decided to do what thousands are doing, viz.: "Keep Zam-Buk handy as the household remedy."

ST. CATHARINES BECOMES SWINDLER'S PARADISE

Private Banker Relieved of Two Hundred Dollars—Telegram From Falls Adds to Mystery.

ST. CATHARINES, Nov. 6.—(Special.)—For the second time within two weeks St. Catharines has been visited by a swindler, who succeeded in getting away with a quantity of real cash. Yesterday L. H. Collard, private banker and broker, fell a victim to an unknown woman to the extent of $200. A peculiar circumstance is that to-day Mr. Collard received a telegram from Niagara Falls, as follows:

"L. H. Collard, broker, Ontario-street. Will express $200 to you from Toronto, where I am going, or will call week from Monday. Make a little mistake. (Signed) Lillian Hamilton."

Mr. Collard was returning to the bank for lunch yesterday when he was accosted by a nice looking woman dressed in black clothes, with a fastidious in her hat. She called him by name and expressed surprise that he did not remember her, saying that she remembered him well. She said she was in St. Thomas' Church and afterwards went to Paris, France, where, in an auto accident, her husband was thrown out and his neck broken, dying from injuries. She said she and her child were guests at the Welland House and that she met some people there every day who knew years ago that she was in St. Thomas, and that she was related to the Merritt family in this city.

Continuing, she told Collard that she had owned two houses in Port Colborne, but that she recently sold one. She was now about to sell the other. She said she was negotiating for the purchase of property in the city and was short of a little money. She asked Mr. Collard if he would let her have a couple of hundred dollars, further discussing whatever suspicion he might have had by telling him that his son, William, who is manager of the Imperial Bank at Ridgeway, had told her if she ever wanted any money accommodation to call on his father.

ILLEGALLY TRAPPED BEAVER.

Two Men Fined $40 and Costs and Property Confiscated.

Charles Graham and Bert Organ admitted having illegally trapped four beaver before Magistrate Gibbon at Sarnia, Ontario, and endorsed by Ben. C. Fairhead. She received the money without further question and left the bank. Collard suspected nothing till he was told by a man in Sydney, Cape Breton, who supplied them with an outfit. The skins will be sold and the proceeds turned over to the provincial treasury.

RECORD FOR ROCK DRILLING.

CLIFFORD

Its First Settler A Peculiar Sect-Free Sites and Tax Exemptions—How the Treasury Was Milked.

She came very carefully down the stairs to meet The World's representative, an old lady with a pleasant face and a physique which still reflected both the beauty and strength of her youth.

"I am old, madam, that you have been acquainted with this Town of Clifford since its infancy."

"Well, I ought to be, sir, for I was the first white woman who came to this place, and for nearly two years I was buried in the woods here and never saw the face of a white woman."

"That was early enough to be in touch with the Indians, I suppose?"

"Oh, yes, the squaws with their baskets and other work visited me without invitation and took so great an interest in me that they very nearly took my skirts off at times. I don't quite remember the year—52 or 53, perhaps—that my husband, Francis Brown, walked through the woods to this spot from about 40 miles, blazing his way. All this region was called Queen's bush then. In the following February he brought me in a sleigh. We were never on the way, sleeping the first night in a vacant shanty, and the next in the sleigh. He had built a log house consisting of one large room, with an addition at one end."

"The first home in Clifford?"

"Yes, sir, and the first tavern. That is what he came here for—to open an hotel."

"An hotel? Where did he expect to find his patrons?"

"The old lady smiled as she replied: 'The woods was full of them, prospectors, land seekers, and our hotel was the only one in this region—we had no competitor. But the first occupants were the span of horses—only for one night, however, when he found shelter for them. Many a tired man was glad to find shelter in our hotel and feast on our meat and potatoes. I remember that the first kind of flour, and how Mr. Gilliam brought some on his back, having waded the river with it, and how my husband contracted with him to bring a barrel of it for fifteen dollars, which was a large sum at that time.'

"But the pioneers were contented with meat and potatoes, I suppose?"

"Yes, sir, we had appetites then."

"But not a very cheerful life for a woman alone?"

"Ah, but when spring opened and the leaves were on the trees, we had our Canadian band to cheer us."

"The birds?"

"No, sir, frogs. You never heard anything to beat that band. Why the ground was so soft and wet it was like one vast swamp. I smile to see my daughter and the young people here so much afraid of a little mud underfoot. When I remember that I had to get from here to the brick hotel stood, without being asked, in mud, my husband and I were not so much afraid of mud as you are now. Settlers after awhile joined in the work of erecting the first mill. Some years after my husband built the first

FIRST SIGN OF WEAK KIDNEYS IS BACKACHE

Sufferers Should Try at Home This Simple Prescription Which is Easily Prepared.

Take care of backache. A great many cases of kidney complaint are reported about here, also bladder trouble and rheumatism.

An authority once stated that pain in the back, loins or region of the kidneys is the danger signal nature hangs out to suffer that there is something wrong with the kidneys, which should receive immediate attention. Only a vegetable treatment should be administered and absolutely no strongly alcoholic patent medicines, which are harmful to the kidneys and bladder.

The following prescription, while simple, harmless and inexpensive, is known and recognized as a sovereign remedy for kidney complaint. The ingredients can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy and anyone can make them; or you can buy a bottle in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime.

This preparation is said to restore the natural function of the kidneys, so they will lift and strain the poisonous waste matter, uric acid, etc., from the blood, purifying it and relieving rheumatism. Backache will be relieved, the urine will be neutralized and cleared and no longer a cause of irritation, thereby overtaxing the bladder, frequent and weak urinary difficulties.

This is worth trying and may prove just what many people here need.

BAKERS WANT THE LABEL ALDERMEN WANT IT OFF

City Will Apply to the Legislature to Have the Privilege Abolished.

Another step in the direction of obtaining legislation to abolish the placing of labels of bread was taken yesterday when the civic legislation and reception committee unanimously decided to recommend that such legislation be sought.

E. B. Ryckman, representing the bakers of the city, appeared in opposition, and confidently asserted that the legislature would refuse to grant the request. He asked whether the city hadn't power to prosecute should bread be found to weigh less than 20 ounces, as indicated on the label. The reply of the city solicitor was that the city had no power to prosecute should the bread be found to weigh less than 20 ounces, and this was confirmed by Inspector Wilson, who said he had no power to act in cases where loaves were labeled. Adiverse paste was used in affixing labels.

There was some discussion as to whether it was worth while to press again the request of last year, that street railway penalties be increased from $100 to $500 a day, in view of the fact that the city council, it was, however, agreed to urge the matter once again.

Almost the whole slate of legislation submitted to the city council was approved. Power to extend Blue-Print will again be sought, contingent upon an agreement being reached between the city and the townships affected. No amendments to the Assessment Act will, however, be sought, the assessment commissioner having come to the conclusion that, as the amounts involved are small, the game isn't worth the candle.

A. F. of Toronto might become the place of convention for the American Federation of Labor next year, if proper efforts were put forth by the city council, as proposed by Robert Humber and James Simpson, on behalf of local labor unions. It was stated that about 800 delegates would attend.

The board decided to send Controller Ward to the convention to be held at Norfolk, Va., next week, in the hope that the controller's powers of persuasion might succeed.

The Hospital Trust will be asked to take up the question of the extension of the upper end of Elizabeth-street from 50 feet to 66 feet.

Mayor Steps Down.

As was anticipated by the World yesterday, it is unlikely that Mayor Coatsworth will seek a third term. In a statement made by his worship yesterday, he said that he had given up the question of whether a mayor should seek office a third time, private and professional claims, and regard for the health of his family. He said that he was not prepared to undertake the intensely exacting and onerous duties and responsibilities. He considered the present an opportune time to step down, as he had named men of experience. He concluded:

"I cannot speak too highly of the unfailing courtesy and genuine kindness of heart with which I have always been treated by all my colleagues. I am sure that the city will be benefited by the untiring energy and high capacity of the men who will succeed me."

Dr. Sheard reports that he has examined the report of street cleaning by $471. He has, however, a total balance unexpended of $24,100.

The city council will meet at the city hall this afternoon at 3 o'clock to attend the funeral of Miss Hubbard, a sister of the controller.

ACCIDENT NEAR CROOKSTON

C. Howard Shot in Leg—Taken to Belleville.

BELLEVILLE, Nov. 6.—C. Howard, a young man residing near Crookston, Ont., was accidentally shot in the leg yesterday afternoon while hunting near Millbridge, north of this town. The unfortunate young man was in company with a party of deer hunters, who were examining their rifles before entering the woods, when in some unaccountable way one of the guns was discharged, the ball entering Mr. Howard's leg below the knee, shattering the bone and tearing the flesh terribly. He was taken to Belleville Hospital on the morning train, where it is feared it will be necessary to amputate the leg at the knee.

TOOK DUE PRECAUTIONS.

Evidence in the Gillies Limit Fire Case is Concluded.

The hearing of the evidence in the Gillies limit case before Justice MacMahon was completed yesterday and decision reserved. William Young, roadmaster of the T. & N. O., said that his gang of thirty-five men had cleared up the right-of-way, and that ten days before the fire he had inspected and found the work completed.

Richard Montemur, foreman of the gang, said that he had been over the right-of-way on both sides of the tracks.

Frank Tursdale, section foreman, was not sure of the thoroughness of the work. He said that the ground was very rough, and admitted that some inflammable material may have been left. Justice MacMahon complained that some of the cross-questioning was unnecessary, as it was only necessary to show whether or not the railway had taken the legal precautions against spreading fire.

Some of the previous witnesses were recalled.

GOOD SHOOTING UP NORTH.

Sarnia Sportsman Bags a Big Black Bear.

PARRY SOUND, Nov. 6.—The few hunters who are leaving the territory between here and the French River, made accessible by the Canadian Northern Railway, report excellent shooting along the line.

Some parties who had been in the country in previous years, think the deer are not quite so plentiful as formerly, and the suggestion is made that the use of hounds be prohibited.

One of a party of Sarnia men camped near Goswessock shot a huge black bear on Monday.

The railway will run three special trains on Nov. 14, 15 and 16, starting from the Still River, to bring out hunters and game. It was only necessary to show whether or not the railway had taken the legal precautions against spreading fire.

Some of the previous witnesses were recalled.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 4.—Gov. P. B. Glenn of North Carolina, who took part in yesterday's conference over the railway rate situation in the south with Govs. Smith of Georgia and Comer of Alabama, to-day appealed to the railroads and the people of his state to assist him in upholding the law of the state and in giving the present rate law a fair trial.

GIVE LOW FARE A TRIAL.

"If after a fair trial the rates are found too low," said Gov. Glenn, "in my judgment it will be found they will increase receipts, then the railroads may rest assured that the state will do what is right. I appeal to the railroads to stop their litigation, which will result in no good to them or the people, and let us all await results until the next meeting of the general assembly."

Progress of Work on Quebec Section of Transcontinental.

OTTAWA, Nov. 6.—(Special.)—About fifty miles of rails have now been laid on the national transcontinental railway on the Quebec section, and grading is well advanced for a long distance on the various divisions now under contract. It is thought that by next fall about 400 miles of road will be graded, and that the track will be laid on a large portion of it.

Tenders for a greater portion of the remaining thousand miles between Winnipeg and Moncton will be called for next spring.

No one was seriously injured, the proprietor, J. Simpson, W. Watson and R. Allen received severe burns on the face and hands, and a number of guests had narrow escapes.

The accident was apparently due to employees filling the machine with car lantern kerosene while it was working, and the neighborhood of $500.

Physicians know of no remedy so prompt in results as Ferreroze, which contains all the elements lacking in debilitated blood.

Ferreroze not only improves the present quality of the blood, but actually forms more blood—the rich, red kind that nourishes and feeds the organs that require assistance.

"About a year ago," writes Mrs. S. Stanhope of Ryeash, "my three boys were very pale and listless, and kept losing strength until too weak to attend school."

"We read of a similar case, that of Miss Descent, Stirling, Ont., being cured by Ferreroze. It induced us to get it for Elaine. It took three boxes of Ferreroze to make any decided improvement, but when six boxes were used my daughter's health began to be her old self again. It didn't take much longer to make a complete cure. It has made a new girl of Elaine. She has gained ten pounds in weight and looks the picture of perfect health. She is stronger and enjoys the best of spirits."

Every growing girl and young woman can make herself strong and healthy with Ferreroze. Price 50¢ per box, or six for $2.50. All dealers.

Montreal Pleasure Resort Wiped Out by Fire.

MONTREAL, Nov. 6.—The Dominion Park, Montreal's well-known pleasure resort, on the bank of the St. Lawrence, just east of the city, was practically wiped out by fire this morning.

The blaze started in the scenic railway building and an easterly wind carried the flames thru the Dimy buildings to the west side.

The property insured for $200,000, but the loss will likely exceed that amount. The resort was closed for the season some weeks ago, and only a watchman and a few carpenters were about the premises.

Penitentiary Guards Lay Grievances Before Commission.

KINGSTON, Nov. 6.—Penitentiary guards have gone to Ottawa to lay grievances before the civil service commission. They want higher salaries, better uniforms with trouser pockets and the prison barber shop reopened.

The guards also want vacancies filled at once. The staff is constantly under strain, and extra duty imposed. The prison, they hold, is running too economically and at their expense and suffering.

STAY LOYAL TO CROWN.

Not a Chance of Canada Begging a Republic.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—Lord Strathcona, interviewed by The Tribune, reiterates his prophecy that before the end of the century Canada will be the dominant state and the food market of the empire. He thinks there is not the remotest chance of the Dominion ever becoming a republic. There is no visible reason why in the future the vast population should not remain loyal to the crown.

WALL ST. BUOYANCY ENDS IN DULL PERIODS

Rally at New York is Not Continuous—Toronto Market Gets Dull.

World Office, Wednesday Evening, Nov. 6. The Toronto market was quite tame today, despite almost remarkable buoyancy on Wall-street. With one or two exceptions there was no attempt made to try to force prices up, and where such existed they did not meet with much success.

C. D. Barney Company were the most important buyers of Pennsylvania this morning, while Huhne, Edye & Caspary sold. The stock was lending flat, although it is not thought that the short interest in Pennsylvania is nearly as large as it was last week.

Active issues in the stock market appear to be reaching for the higher recovery levels attained on last week's rally, and in view of the fact that the company must raise a great deal more money before it can proceed rapidly with its new terminals here, and doubtless another $50,000,000 loan will be arranged as soon as possible, which will have a tendency to hold the stock back.—Town Topics.

Gold engagements continue to augment. Lazard Freres taking another million and the Bank of Montreal engaging $500,000, bringing the total engagements up to $37,000,000.

It is learned from an authoritative source that the payment for the T.C.I. stock at par is to be made in the U. S. Steel sinking fund on 100,000 shares at $4. This means that about $1,100,000 in steel bonds par value will be given for each 100 shares of T.C.I. stock.

PRICES RESTRAINED BY OFFERINGS.

World Office, Wednesday Evening, Nov. 6. There is still sufficient liquidation in the Toronto market to restrain price advances, and, in some instances, to force new declines.

The latter was evidenced this morning, when a small block of Canada Permanent, belonging to an estate which is being wound up, was put on the market. Owing to the apathy of investors, the price declined two points before sales were effected.

A few of the speculative shares showed better support, but this was occasioned by the marked improvement at New York. A few investors are being attracted to the market daily, and this is relieving the congestion in the floating supply of stocks. It is believed that there are still enough matters ahead to prevent more than a small recovery in prices for some time to come.

Highest in Toronto 72 and Lowest 22—Fall Wheat Looking Well.

The report of R. F. Stupart, director of the meteorological service, for October, shows that a subnormal temperature marked the weather. The highest in Toronto was 72, and the lowest 24. Paris experienced the warmest weather in the province, the extremes being 73 and 22, while White River was the coolest point, the highest being 58 and the lowest zero.

The precipitation from Manitoba to the Pacific Coast was deficient to the extent of from 66 to 100 per cent., whereas from Eastern Ontario to the Gulf of St. Lawrence there was a marked excess from the average, from 16 per cent. in the Ottawa Valley to 102 per cent. in Gaspe.

The report for Ontario says: A subnormal temperature marked October weather in Ontario. The precipitation also was generally below average, except in some few localities. Many bright days were experienced, and during the latter half of the month frost was of almost nightly occurrence. Snowflurries were noted in many districts, and in northern regions light falls of snow were reported on several occasions. Deciduous trees were almost bare of foliage by the end of the month. Owing to the open weather farm work has progressed satisfactorily and fall wheat is reported to be looking well. Frost Arthur-Lakes and streams high, no ice or snow. Crops only fair, but all safely housed. Ernie Mines—Gesse migrating on the 13th. Beatrice—Roots about all in; fall work fairly advanced; live stock in good order. Gravenhurst—Det. leaves on the 19th. Little furrings of snow inappreciable in depth on the 20th; the first frost to injure tender plants on the 21st. Clinton—Forest leaves turning on the 10th; leaves yellow and falling on the 16th; falling rapidly on the 17th; upper part of forest bare; fall pasture fair; fall wheat looking well; frost at night for last two weeks. Birnam—Fine open weather; trees not bare; wheat looking well; roots all housed; fall plowing well advanced. London—Severe frosts have cut down all foliage and trees have shed their leaves. Port Burwell—Leaves about all off trees on the 28th; windy north. Georgetown—Considerable rain during the first part of the month; improved conditions for plowing; sharp frosts at night prevailed the latter part; first ice formed on the 9th; wild geese going south on the 12th. Sator—Cold nights; bright days on the whole; favorable harvest; splendid weather for fall plowing. Lansdowne—The leaves have nearly fallen off the trees; wild geese going south on the 15th and 16th, and the 28th, other birds have all gone. Arden—The last few days of the month sharp frosts prevailed; a large flock of wild geese flying south on the 20th.

ST. THOMAS, Nov. 6.—Hiram Chamberlain, president of the Merchants Bank of Tillsburg, has made an assignment to the London and Western Trust Co. and a meeting of creditors will be held in the office of E. C. Sanders, barrister, on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The long expressed wish of the Hon. George A. Cox to retire from the presidency of the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Company, Ltd., with great regret given effect to at yesterday's meeting of the board of that company. This office the Hon. Mr. Cox has held for nine years, during which he has given freely of his time and energy to build it up to the immense proportions it today attains. But Mr. Cox's desire to lessen the burdens of too many responsibilities had to be yielded to.

Mr. G. G. S. Lindsey, K.C., was at the same meeting advanced to the office of president, vacated by the retirement of the Hon. George A. Cox, with the understanding that as chief executive he devote all his time and attention to the duties of that position, and as this in turn involved the appointment of a new general manager, that office has been filled by the selection of Mr. James D. Hurd of Duluth, a mining engineer of long experience.

Mr. R. M. Young becomes the secretary of the company.

By order of the Board. E. S. CLOUSTON, General Manager. Montreal, 22nd October, 1907.

SOMETHING DOING TO-DAY REGARDING POWER ISSUES

Western Ontario Mayors to Meet Here—Producers Gas Not Substitute for Electricity

To-day will be the fall opening for the Hydro-Electric Power Commission's specialities. The mayors of the municipalities engaged in the western union will meet the commission at 10.30 this morning and discuss the situation up to date.

Hon. Adam Beck was in the city yesterday and attended a meeting of the Ontario cabinet, at which a good discussion of the electric power question was carried on, as Premier Whitney remarked afterwards. No pronouncement of a piecemeal nature will be made for the present concerning the government's policy, and it will not be for some time that the complete plan as projected can be expected.

All the cities practically that were asked for power have made application, and as the figures were prepared in anticipation, there will be no delay in placing the contract basis before them. An engineer of the commission will present the figures to the respective municipalities and make any necessary explanations. The power so far asked for amounts to 43,000 horsepower.

The several cities are each on a separate basis, according to local conditions. Some, like Guelph, Woodstock, St. Thomas and Berlin, already have distribution plants installed and therefore are quite prepared to receive the power when transmitted.

Hamilton only desires power to operate the public utilities, waterworks, street lighting and public buildings, including the city hall, and it is to be expected that this afternoon at a meeting at which Hon. Mr. Beck is to be present.

The transmission lines, at the present price of copper, can be built at a saving of many hundred thousand dollars below the estimates originally made, and it is understood that steps are being taken to secure this advantage.

London Leads Way. London has decided to submit the power by-law to the voters, and from the discussion on the question there is no doubt it will be approved. Hon. Mr. Beck, who was present, supplied much information, and pointing out that the price of power would be based on the peak load—that is to say, the greatest amount of power used during 20 consecutive minutes in an hour, he showed that the peak could be greatly reduced, and the cost rate, therefore, lowered to a point where power from generators in connection with the Springbank dam.

The question of producer gas was also brought up, and Mr. Beck regarded it as a ruse to cloud the situation. In this connection, an interview with Col. Gartschore, an electrical engineer, is of general interest. The company has been added by opponents of the government power scheme as an example of a reliable firm turning to Col. Gartschore's explanation of the fact that producer gas is absolutely required as they had first asked, and probably more than they first asked.

Generating Producer Gas. The Ald. O'Hanlon and Ald. Stevely of the

Pure Salt—prepared by a process which separates every atom of foreign substance from the salt. WINDSOR TABLE SALT is pure, indeed!

Col. Gartschore said that he would like to see Niagara power in London, for it is something that will revolutionize the cost of manufacturing in the city.

"We saw that we simply could not wait for it," he said, "as we had to have the power, and have it right away, so we went ahead with the producer gas engine."

He stated that when the power came they would introduce it into their works if it could be secured at anything near the price at which they can make power by the producer gas engine.

"We have already promised to take power from Niagara when it reaches here," he said, "and we can probably take more than we estimated."

Col. Gartschore pointed out that it would pay to take the power even at a higher price than it would cost to produce gas, because it did not necessitate the heavy investment for the engine and plant, and especially would be the case with the smaller manufacturer.

"We had about 30 citizens from St. Thomas over to see our plant last week," he said, "I don't know what they wanted to do with one unless it would be for the purpose of running the street railway line, which is operated by the city, and I believe they are having some difficulty securing sufficient power, but they came over unadvised to us and took a good look around."

SCARBORO TOWNSHIP IS HOME OF GOOD PLOWMEN

East York Association Have Record Number of Contestants—44 Plowmen at Work

AGINCOURT, Nov. 6.—(Special.)—In the long history of the East York Plowmen's Association it is questionable if in the number of plowmen engaged, coupled with the interest displayed, to-day's event was ever so excellent. The elements were not altogether propitious, and early in the day were such a thicket many from attending, but probably more than a thousand interested spectators, of whom the great sprinkling were ladies, were on the grounds.

The match was held on the splendid farm of Fletcher Morgan, some two miles from Agincourt, and the land was admirably adapted for artistic work.

Some Who Were There. Among those noticed on the ground were Sandy Doherty, John Little, Elias Woods, James McLean, James Gibson, George Little, James Hood, R. Horey, Simpson Rennie, Archie Campbell, M.P., Dr. McLean, Frank Weir, W. Walkington, Lyman Kennedy, John Young, R. J. Cunningham, and Alex. McCowan, M.L.A., and a host of others.

Ladies' Institute Do Well. A feature of the match which more than any other added to the interest and convenience of the occasion was the presence of a large tent, in which the ladies of the Agincourt branch of the East York Women's Institute dispensed good cheer and hospitality. Through the day hot meals were supplied, and the quality and abundance was undoubtedly excellent. The innovation is a new but happy one, and another year ought to go far toward making it a provincial match, to which the government might well donate a generous amount.

4TH WARD CONSERVATIVES RE-ELECT PRES. BURNS

Fred Dane Becomes First Vice-President—Hon. G. E. Foster's Warning.

In somewhat marked contrast to Monday night's proceedings in Victoria Hall, the election of officers by the 4th Ward Conservative Association, passed off quietly last night. The meeting was held in Broadway Hall, Spadina-avenue, and the attendance was good, considering the rainy weather, and the absence of a live issue.

S. W. BURNS President of 4th Ward Conservatives. Stephen W. Burns was re-elected president, and Fred Dane succeeded in winning the vice-presidency. Among those on the platform were: A. C. Macdonell, M.P., Hon. George E. Foster, W. C. Boyce, M.P., West Algoma, Controller Hocken, Ald. Church, Ald. McGhie, Geary and Miles, Voters. The majority candidates seemed to take friendly interest in each other.

The nominees for the presidency were S. W. Burns, E. J. Hearn, Dr. T. Wylie, Fred Dane and L. S. Leves. The three last named withdrew, leaving the contest between Mr. Burns and Mr. Hearn. There were 168 ballots marked, Mr. Burns having a comfortable majority.

Fred Dane, W. G. Burns and E. J. Hearn made up the field for the post of first vice-president. Mr. Dane had no trouble in winning, he obtaining a plurality on the 178 votes cast.

Five faced the starter in the race for the second vice-presidency, they being Alf. Coyell, Dr. T. Wylie, W. G. Burns, Alf. Gault and R. E. Stanley. A lack of interest amounting almost to apathy was, however, shown. Mr. Burns did not get a plurality, but it being the will of the meeting that the office should go to the leading candidate, he was declared elected. The precedent was followed in the case of the third vice-presidency, Alf. Coyell being returned. The others nominated were B. Gash, Dr. T. Wylie, R. E. Stanley and Alf. Gault.

A. H. Birmingham was re-elected secretary without opposition. Robert Martin had a majority over S. S. Nesbitt for the treasurer's office.

"There are a number of gentlemen here who are desirous of letting you hear from them," was the happy manner in which the chairman paved the way for Hon. Mr. Foster and others.

Mr. Foster warned Conservatives of false security, as the enemy were working strenuously. We charged the Liberal platform with their avoiding attempts to defend the government against serious charges to-night. As to the boast that the government had the Canada prosperous, Mr. Foster pointed out that prosperity existed in other countries; as well.

After President Burns had returned thanks, Mr. McNaught spoke briefly. He created enthusiasm by referring to
