CALLS NOT FOR WORDS BUT DEEDS

Roosevelt's Letter Re Lusitania Published in London Has Timely Significance—Compliments Dr. J. W. White

LONDON, Aug. 21.—The Spectator publishes a letter from Theodore Roosevelt, to Dr. J. William White, of Philadelphia, who is now in London. The letter, dated at Oyster Bay, June 4, says:

"The sinking of the Lusitania, the hideous loss of life there by children to Americans, and above all, the callous murder of hundreds of women and children by direct order of the military and naval authorities representing the present German government, for this is precisely and exactly what was called for on our part, was not words, but deeds.

"Unfortunately this does not seem to have been the effect, and Americans who are sensitive of the honor of their country must therefore feel all the more pleased to have a private citizen step forward to make good, so far as may be the failure of our governmental authorities to care for the honor of this nation and the interests of mankind."

The letter part of this letter refers to a book written by Dr. White, entitled "Text Book of the War for Americans who return from a visit to the French and British front."

OVER FUTURE OF POLAND

Frankfurter Zeitung Tells Poles They Have Little to Expect in the Way of Freedom and Independence

Zurich, Aug. 21.—The conquest of Poland seems likely to prove an apple of discord between Germany and Austria.

GRAND Duke Nicholas' proclamation, when the war began, that after victory the three Poland-Russian, German and Austrian—would again form a united autonomous kingdom, was solemnly promulgated by the Czar at the opening of the duma.

THE Germans entered Warsaw the Kaiser made a vague proclamation, promising autonomy under German tutelage.

NOW the Polish Union, formed of Polish deputies to the Austrian Reichstag, are up in arms at the idea of any power other than Austria taking over the Polish heritage.

Arabic Situation Engages Attention of President

Still Watching and Waiting Until Sure of His Grounds—Survivors Tell of the Disaster—Tribute to Captain Finch—Several Reported Missing Did Not Sail

Queenstown, Aug. 21.—Zillah Covington, of Los Angeles, the playwright, who was a passenger on the Arabic, in describing last night the scenes aboard the steamer after the torpedo struck, says that the manner in which the Captain Finch had prepared for a torpedo attack, and the skillful way in which he navigated his ship from the moment he saw the projectile.

MR. Covington said one of the striking features of the exodus from the ship was the coolness of the officers and crew, and the absence of panic among the passengers.

"Immediately afterwards," he said, "there was an awful explosion, and I immediately guessed the cause. We got lifebelts and walked to the boat decks, where we jumped into a boat and reached the water safely."

BOY'S FRANK KILLED HIS LITTLE BROTHER

Quebec, Aug. 21—While two young brothers named Pichette, aged fourteen and eight, respectively, were playing in the C. P. Ignorant of what was going on, the engineer, the result being that another boy's body was blown open and he died a short while afterwards.

PLAYGROUNDS CLOSE

The official closing of the supervised playgrounds about the city took place yesterday afternoon. While there was no general demonstration, in each park an interesting programme was carried out, the work of the industrial department was displayed and exhibitions were exchanged between the children and their instructors. Hundreds of visitors watched the sports and inspected the exhibits and general approval was expressed of the work done. Superintendent C. D. Howard was highly gratified at the display of industrial work and complimented both children and teachers in each of the grounds he visited.

The programme in each place ran along the same lines, including ring games, flag drills, hoop drills, basket ball, volley ball and tennis; sports for both girls and boys, including running races, baby carriage races for the girls and cart races for the boys. The children took an end of enjoyment from these events and the spectators as well were appreciative.

OFFICIAL DATE IS AUGUST 26

Fredericton, Aug. 20—Dr. W. S. Carter, chief superintendent of education, has announced that the official date for the re-opening of the public schools of the province is Thursday next, August 26. There appears to be a misapprehension about this date as the education office has been deluged with inquiries. When asked about the announcement that the schools in St. John would open upon Monday, August 30, Dr. Carter said: "The department will not pay teachers for days upon which schools are not open. The St. John school board must make its own arrangements in that regard. Of course, any school board can make its own announcement in regard to re-opening the schools."

FINE CROP OF LATE FRUITS

Orchards in Fine Condition—Quality High

Peaches, plums and grapes are in excellent shape, according to the growers and shippers. The trees and vines have not borne as heavily as usual, but the growers find compensation in the extra high quality. They believe they will get about as much for their output as in former years. It would be wise for Canadian households to take advantage of the splendid quality and put down liberal quantities—more than usual. Canadian Clubs and Red Cross Societies are sending for canned fruit—not jam—to send to our boys in the trenches. This good work should be encouraged and "every lady in the land" should put down an extra supply. The Red Cross Society will furnish glass jars (for this purpose only), at 25c, a dozen, including carrying case.

The dealers are making special window display of Canadian fruit. The most artistic and beautiful effects are worth looking for. Triumph, the earliest yellow flesh peach, also Early Rivers and Alexandria, are now being offered. In plums, Gages and Burbanks have the call this week.

GERMAN NAVY IN GULF OF RIGA

Russian Squadron Offers Battle to Protect Coast—The Result Still in Doubt

Petrograd, Aug. 20, via London, Aug. 21—A German fleet has penetrated the Gulf of Riga and is engaged with Russian warships defending the coast, according to an official statement issued tonight at the Russian war office.

The communication follows:
"Strong forces of the German fleet have penetrated the Gulf of Riga, and fighting with our ships continues."
"On land, on the whole front, from the west of Riga to the Lovon Bay, there has been no essential change. After the occupation of the Kovno fortifications by the Germans the remainder of the garrison rejoined our forces, occupying positions west of the railway from Kovno to Kocheda, south of Kovno. Our troops still are on the left bank of the Niemen."
"From Ososets southward, and still further along the whole front of the Upper Narva and the Bug in the course of the 19th and 20th, the Russian warships strong attacks. On the right bank of the Narva, in the region of Strenkova and Gostin, in the Straliba-Bleed sector near Lipaita, thirteen miles northwest of Druat-Lovok in the sectors attacked, our troops continue to withstand the enemy. Our cavalry assisted in repulsing a German offensive near Lipaita, attacking the German infantry in strong forces."
"On the Bug, the enemy, having occupied the right bank of the river since the morning of the 19th, directed his ulterior efforts along the road leading to Pashkovo."
"Near Novogorodsk, after occupying the left bank of the Kura, the Germans concentrated all their efforts north-west of the Wilna, as far as the Vistula. By an incessant bombardment with a hurricane of projectiles they almost completely destroyed our fortifications. In this section on the evening of the 19th the Germans surrounded one fort in the region of Wyszlow and afterwards, despite enormous losses, directed their efforts on the rear of the Zakroczym sector. This compelled our troops on the left bank of the Kura, and the former forts forming the central defense in the course of the following day, having destroyed by their fire two of these forts, the Germans, by a series of sanguinary assaults, occupied their ruins, from which they directed their fire against the central defenses. We blew up the bridge over the Narva, and the forts we abandoned in the northern sector."

A powerful German fleet has been attempting, since August 8, to force an entrance into the Gulf of Riga, which would permit them to give assistance to their army, which occupies the western coast of the gulf. The Russian official statement indicates that they have accomplished their purpose, probably penetrating through the Dirben Channel, which is the only practicable way for large ships to enter the gulf.

The Russians asserted that their warships and airplanes were successful on the 8th in repulsing nine German battleships and 12 cruisers, with a large number of torpedo boat destroyers. The Germans asserted this attack merely was a reconnaissance to determine the position of Russian warships.

A German admiralty statement issued August 11, said, that German cruisers drove off Russian torp-boats which appeared near the entrance of the gulf the preceding day, in spite of repeated attacks by Russian submarines.

A Petrograd official statement, issued this morning, admitted that Russian warships, protecting the entrance to the gulf had drawn in closer owing to the great superiority of the enemy's fleet.

THE UNITED STATES.

It must now be apparent to the American government that the German policy is to reject the American claims and pay no attention to President Wilson's warning in regard to unfriendly acts. German emissaries and German money have carried on a constant German propaganda in the United States ever since the war began.

It is interesting to be told that Kitchener has again visited the western front, but that is not the information from the west that the people are thirsting for at the present time, when the Russians are still being forced back to the German armies.

The Montreal Daily Mail says: "If the Swiss come into the war, it will assuredly not be on the side of the Germanic nations. The two types are so different they could not possibly work together, apart from the question of principle which would govern the Swiss in making their decision."

THE "OPEN MIND."

A Washington correspondent gravely assures us that President Wilson and all other administration officials are "keeping their minds open." He makes the announcement twice in the course of a despatch to the morning papers, as if in the absence of an emphatic and repeated assertion some reader might assume that the president and all other officials had closed and put their minds in a vault and locked them up.

THE PATRIOTIC FUND.

To make the Patriotic Fund equal to all demands upon it is a duty those at home owe to those who go to fight in Canada's defence. There is no reason that one man should go more than another except that men who have no family claims upon them should be the first to take the field.

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL WORD
 (Youth's Companion)

What is the most beautiful word in the English language? A college professor, who has been teaching for several years, has collected some interesting facts concerning the preferences that school girls and school boys entertain for certain words. He has made the experiment with some twenty classes, all the way from an ungraded class in a country school to a senior class in college.

At the conclusion of a recitation the teacher has had little slips of blank paper distributed. He has then requested each pupil to write down without consulting his neighbors what he thought the most beautiful word in the English language, giving consideration both to sound and to sense.

Of the 600 pupils that he has had 406 wrote the name "mother"; 82 wrote "home"; 22 "father"; 18 "daddy"; 16 "vacation"; 11 "base-ball"; 9 "football"; 7 "love"; 5 "sister"; 2 "aunties"; and 2 "grandmothers." LIEUT. KELLY AT THE FRONT
 Tests of Experiences on the Firing Line
 A BATTLE OF AVIATORS

German Who Was in Manitoba When War Broke Out Taken Prisoner by Canadians—Capt. Morgan in Same Battalion

Lieut. A. C. Kelly, of Stanley, formerly of the 12th Battalion and for some years an officer of the 71st Regiment is at the front with the 6th Battalion.

In a letter received in Fredericton by Dennis Crotty, Lieut. Kelly states that he went over to France on June 12th and has been with C Company of the 6th Battalion, which is made up mostly of western men.

A remarkable thing in connection with the capture was the fact that one of the Germans had resided in Manitoba for some years and was well known to members of Lieut. Kelly's battalion. He disappeared just after the war broke out and in some manner got back to Germany and joined one of the regiments going to the front. The letter also tells of a fight between British and German airmen over the trenches, as well as many other interesting incidents in connection with life in the trenches.

The letter follows:

"The first place I was in the trenches was near Givenchy. A number of officers were showing the way through so we would know the way. While going through a communication trench in a hurry, I struck something and looked to see what it was. I found it to be the leg of a dead man. I didn't go far until there was an awful smell, the trench coming from the large number of bodies buried nearby. It is strange how one gets callous to anything like that. I have been under some heavy artillery fire at times, but as yet I have not been in any real big scrap, and from the description some of the boys who have been in them give, I am in no hurry to get in one."

St. John Officer With 9th

"I am here alone, a stranger in a strange land. There is no one here I knew before except two officers of the 9th Battalion. One is Morgan of St. John, but he is in an hospital, and the other is Crawford of Quebec. He is with the bomb throwers. I am with a very good crowd, however. I was in front of our trench one night on a reconnoitering patrol. We went up towards a German line and I had a sergeant, who used to be a circus man with me, as well as an ex-convict who used to be on the trail of the notorious train robber, Bill Miner. We haven't lost very many lately, but one man was killed and one wounded yesterday by a shell, up to that time we hadn't lost any."

Stanley Boys All Right

"I saw Ernie Fenety with the 10th Battalion and Allan Kelly is with the 14th Battalion. I only saw him once since I came over to France on June 12th. The two Sanson boys, Ray and Herb, are over here having come over early in May. Ernest Sanson is an instructor at Shoreville. All of the Stanley boys are all right."

"A man in the 5th was shot today by a German sniper. We used to hear that the Germans were poor shots, but that sniper was pretty good. If anybody doubts this let him come over here and stick his head above the parapet for a short time. Some of our fellows can shoot pretty well too. I got one a short time ago who stuck his head up above the trench and stayed there a little too long. The man who was killed in our company yesterday was hit with a piece of a shell which made a big hole in the top of his head. There was a lot of excitement over our line today. A German aeroplane flew over our trench yesterday and tried the same game today. A British airman got after him with a machine gun and they circled each other above the clouds until finally the Britisher brought him down. They damaged the machine considerably and he came to the ground close to our lines."

"Two days ago the 3rd Battalion, who are on our right, caught two Germans. Three of them had got in a wheat field in front of our lines, about 25 yards and dug themselves in. About nine o'clock the next morning one of the sentries saw them moving while looking through a periscope, and reported it to the captain. Two of our men crawled out to where the Germans were and surprised them and ordered them to hold up their hands. Two of them complied with the order, but the third grabbed his rifle and got three bullets put through him. The other two came in very quietly. One of the men they brought in used to live in Manitoba and some of the men of the 5th Battalion who come from Manitoba knew him. About the time the war broke out he disappeared rather mysteriously and got back to Germany."

Necessarily Slow.

A youngster had been permitted to visit a boy friend on the strict condition that he was to leave there by five o'clock. He did not arrive home till seven and his mother was very angry. The youngster insisted, however, that he had obeyed her orders and had not lingered unnecessarily on the way.

"Do you expect me to believe," said his mother, "that it took you two hours to walk a quarter of a mile? She reached for the whip. 'Where are you kidding me?'"

"Yes, mamma," sobbed the boy. "Chaefey Wilson gave me a mud hurlic and I was afraid to carry it—so I led it home."

DIVORCE EASY IN SCANDINAVIA

Mutual Consent All That is Needed—No Fuss and No Expense—One Result of Equal Suffrage

Mabel Potter Daggett, the well-known magazine writer and investigator, says in "Fictorial Review" for 1915:

In Scandinavia, divorce by mutual consent is the recognized way. And husband and wife may reach this agreement when neither has violated any marital obligation. The law, you see, does not require them to wait until one has wronged the other. But when they have reached the point where they two know that their real union is ended, they may secure a divorce for the asking. It doesn't cost anything. There is not even a lawyer needed. The process is a little longer, the probationary period of one year being extended to two. But there is always a way out. Sweden has no less than twelve grounds for divorce. It is accomplished in as dignified a way as any other partnership might be dissolved. And when it is all over, there is no disgrace necessarily connected with it. There may be, of course, the question of children—what disposition shall be made of them if they may have decided between themselves as to which is to have the children, the magistrate is quite likely to agree to, though, to be sure, if there is guile on either side the custody of the children is awarded to the parent capable of bringing them up to the trust manhood or womanhood.

There are no difficulties placed in the way of ending an unhappy marriage up there in the north, but, with it all, there are comparatively few homes disrupted. Our rapid American divorce-rate is the astounding phenomenon of sociology today. One marriage in twelve in the United States, the statisticians pointed out a while ago, ended in divorce. More recently they are announcing that the rate has increased, until one marriage in eight ends in this dissolution. But over there in Scandinavia, since the door has been thrown open wide, Nora isn't nearly so anxious to escape; I suspect that Helmar may make it more worth while for her to tarry than formerly he found it necessary. Anyhow, these are the statistics for the Northland: in 1910, the number of divorces per 100,000 inhabitants was, for Denmark, 87; Norway, 147; Sweden, 87; Finland, 68.

Hints for the Cook

Cream Toast
 Toast 6 slices of bread until crisp and brown, dip in hot salted water, place in dish and pour over the following gravy: One pint of milk, let come to scalding point; then stir in 1 large tablespoon of flour mixed with a little cold water. Stir till thick; add butter size of an egg.

Peach Tapioca
 Peel and slice 1 quart of ripe peaches. Sprinkle with sugar and let stand three hours. Make a tapioca cream, using 1 pint of milk, 2 tablespoons of prepared tapioca, 1/2 cup of sugar and 2 eggs; pinch of salt. When milk comes to the boiling point stir in tapioca and sugar and cook in double boiler half an hour. Beat yolks of 2 eggs with a little cold water, add to hot tapioca, stir well and add after removing from stove. Let get thoroughly cold before stirring in peaches.

Coffee Fudge
 Two cups light brown sugar, 1 cup granulated sugar, 3/4 cup strong boiled coffee, and a pinch of butter size of a small egg, and a pinch of salt, if the butter isn't very salt. Boil until it forms a soft ball when dropped in cold water. Take off the stove and stir in nut meats if liked. Now let it stand a few minutes, then stir until it begins to grain. Pour into a buttered pan, let cool then mark in squares.

AUSTRALIAN RED CROSS

Canadians perhaps will be interested to hear some details of Australia's Red Cross organization.

Strange as it may seem there was no branch of the Red Cross Society in the Commonwealth prior to the war. An Australian Red Cross was at once formed under the Presidency of Lady Ferguson, the wife of the governor general.

There is a central warehouse in the Brisbane House at the Government House at Melbourne, with branch depots at Sydney, Adelaide and Perth. $500,000 was sent as a gift to the British Red Cross.

An Australian Red Cross Hospital was established at Netley, in addition to several hospital units on the Continent.

Gifts of motor ambulances have been favorite methods of Red Cross benevolence in Australia. An average of 84,000 garments a week have been distributed throughout the English hospitals, and since the Dardanelles operations an immense quantity of field comforts and hospital supplies have been sent to the Australian troops in the Mediterranean.

All in all the Australian Red Cross has done admirably during its one year of existence and has received official thanks from Queen Alexandra and the British Red Cross.

Ernest Ingraham, of Southampton, is dead aged 22 years. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Ingraham, five brothers, Elijah, Amos, Joseph and G. Wealthy benefactress (stopping in at the hospital)—"Well, we'll bring the car tomorrow, and take some of your patients for a drive. And, by the way, nurse, you might pick out some with bandages that show—the last party might not have been wounded at all as far as anybody in the streets could see."

Last week was the first time in more than 60 years that a newspaper was published even for a single day in Gardiner, Me., without the assistance of some one of the Morrell family. H. K. Morrell, his son, E. W. Morrell and his grandson, H. A. Morrell, have done some work for each and every issue in those years.

Are You Going to Build?

The first consideration is a suitable building site. This does not mean simply so many square feet of freshhold, in itself attractive, to which you will acquire title. Of more importance than the actual land are the surroundings. The value of your land and the enjoyment of your home, when built, are very directly affected by the occupation and use of the surrounding land. Hence, the importance of first selecting a suitable locality, the present development of which is in accord with your own tastes, and the future development of which is definitely fixed on similar lines.

Given a locality which meets the above demands, and is in addition centrally located with regard to every part of the city, with all city conveniences installed, such as water and sewer systems, graded streets and sidewalks, with schools, churches, street cars, shops, banks, etc., within two minutes' walk, and we have a locality which at least merits the serious investigation of the prospective home builder.

PORTLAND PLACE

Fills the above specifications and more. The building lots are ample in size, individually attractive and Moderate in Price.

The whole development of PORTLAND PLACE adheres to the best "Garden Suburb" principles. These principles were only applied after personal study on the ground of the best examples of residential development in Canada, United States and Europe had made us thoroughly familiar with them.

HOUSE PLANS FREE

During the past year we have designed and purchased a fine selection of plans for moderate-priced, self-contained and two-family houses, especially suited to the scheme of development undertaken for PORTLAND PLACE. These plans are at the service of purchasers of lots free.

The Man Who Thinks

Thomas W. Lawson says that "success in finance comes to the man who thinks clearly and acts quickly. The doubting-hesitating-man is sure to be swamped."

It's the same in real estate investing—the man who waits to see prices go up and things happen before buying—always pays the top price.

But the bright, alert man who thinks and sees for himself—and takes advantage of what he sees and hears—does it quickly and wins.

You know—I know—anybody knows—who thinks—that you can't lose a penny by taking advantage of these war time prices and "get in" on our "Hatheway Partners" proposition.

Call, write or phone and let us explain this wonderful proposition.

Act at once before you are too late.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS OF THE WEEK IN ST. JOHN

Although society apparently continues to enjoy itself, the slightest call for patriotic work finds it up and ready. This war by society women will make interesting reading, and the youths, too young now to understand what is being done, will then feel proud that their mothers and sisters played such an active part in the upkeep of the nation.

Inmate Climpes Into Life on War-Ridden Country — One Who Lost Husband and Sons But Still Worked For Her Country

The following letter to a friend in this country from a writer on the spot gives a vivid picture of present day life in the hospitals, but had precious little to eat. Their looks show it, being quite emaciated. Being accustomed to little food, their capacity for digesting has also decreased, much to their regret, and not doubt that misfortune will correct itself now they are back in the land of plenty.

It appears that when the train drew up in the Lyons Gare and they saw hundreds of enthusiastic patriots cheering and waving flags and handkerchiefs, flowers everywhere and heard the "Marseillaise" being sung, they were not surprised. They had borne the privations, sufferings consequent to imprisonment for ten long months but when they heard those words of cheer and courage, they were not surprised. IN YOUR EYES

What is it that is causing all that trouble with your eyes?

Are the eye muscles following those laws laid down for them by nature?

Are they working in harmony and without strain?

Are your eyes nerves being exhausted and irritated by the unnatural demands made upon them by some form of eye-strain that you have?

I shall be pleased to set your mind at rest on these points.

A White Rug made Black

with Mosquitoes

The following is an extract from a letter recently received from the wife of an army officer in India—

"Our home was simply swarmed with millions of mosquitoes last hot weather, and after burning a candle, or tin, of the powder on an open stove and shutting up the entire room, thousands literally fell down on the floors and tables. In the drawing room alone we had a white felt rug which became black in a few hours, the insects by hundreds laying dead on it.

The powder above referred to is Keating's Powder, and the experience, although somewhat remarkable, is not unique, for it is a fact neither flies or mosquitoes can exist when exposed to the fumes of Keating's Powder. Where open stoves are not available it is quite easy to clear a room by simply using a candle and an ordinary shade burner, placing on the round part of the shade a piece of fat tin, pouring the powder on top of it, and leaving it to smoulder. Just beneath that freckled, tanned or reddened complexion there's an exquisite beautiful skin of youthful tint and delicate texture. You can have it. Keating's Freckle Powder is the simplest, most natural manner imaginable, to clear away the cause of every ordinary mottled wax, apply nightly like cold cream, removing it morning with warm water. The wax stains Nature by gradually peeling off the impure surface skin, causing no discomfort whatever. Outsource defects like pimples, blotches, freckles, spots, moles, patches, freckles, course disappear with the old skin. Nothing else will accomplish these each wonderful results in so short a time.

Fine lines and even deeper wrinkles often appear at this season. In such case nothing is better than a face cream made by dissolving 1 oz. powdered talc in 1/2 p. which has been

The letter follows: Val Fleuri Dinard, France July 15, 1915. I am inclosing a report which I hope will interest you, and showing you how we were able to distribute the many magnificent gifts sent to us for the wounded and the refugees. There are now no end to the demands on one's purse and patience, and one must have courage to take one's hope and determination in hand. Set one's teeth, and to use vulgar language, "Get on to it."

There are 4,000 wounded in Dinard that the nurses are caring for. They are in the Lyons Gare and they saw hundreds of enthusiastic patriots cheering and waving flags and handkerchiefs, flowers everywhere and heard the "Marseillaise" being sung, they were not surprised. They had borne the privations, sufferings consequent to imprisonment for ten long months but when they heard those words of cheer and courage, they were not surprised.

SHOWS NEED OF MORE MONEY FOR THE PATRIOTIC FUND

Sir Herbert Ames Tells Public Meeting That New Brunswick's Contributions Will be Exhausted Next Month—Only 40 Cents Per Head So Far—Support Pledged for Province-Wide Campaign

"By the end of September every dollar contributed in New Brunswick to the Patriotic Fund will have been returned and you will be drawing on the central fund," was the surprising statement made by Sir Herbert B. Ames, secretary of the Canadian Patriotic Fund, at last night's meeting.

"Even Newfoundland," he went on, the poorest part of the North American continent, has contributed $90,000, or 48 cents per head of the population, so that if you are to keep up in this province you will have to take a hold of the problem seriously."

Sir Herbert spoke before a gathering at the High school that was not large but which was, in the words of Mayor Fidal, who presided, splendidly representative of St. John. On the platform were Lieutenant-Governor Wood, Judge Forbes, chairman of the local executive committee, C. H. McIntyre, treasurer of the New England Association which works in the relief of those who have volunteered from there with offices at Boston, and Rev. L. R. Sherman.

Sir Herbert's words on the probable duration of the war were grave and full of meaning. "We have entered upon the second year of the war," he said, "and when we look at the conditions we seem further away from the end than we did a year or six months ago. Despite our expectations the Russians are being driven away from the German frontier and the Germans will be able to erect a fortress there that will keep the Russians back for many months. Poland has fallen into the hands of the Germans and will be able to turn it to the west."

"The war will last a long time yet, and the demands already made upon us will be hardly comparable to those that will certainly come before the final issue. We cannot have a stalemate in this war for principles. That would mean that for the next twenty years the whole of Europe and America would have to go on preparing for a still greater war, to be fought out by those who are children to-day. We cannot allow this great loss of the present to be merely the first chapter of a series. We must fight this grim thing out to the end and there is to be only one end. This war cannot end until certain things are accomplished."

"The war cannot end until Belgium is restored to all and more than all she had; the war cannot end until the boundaries established for France shall remain for all time the menace of constant attack; the war cannot end until it has been established that the smaller nations of Europe have the right to live without threats; the war cannot end until Prussianism has been crushed so that it shall never raise its head again."

"All these things are being recognized more and more in Canada and with that dogged determination which is the characteristic of the races from which we have sprung we are determined to go to the end even if it be years and years and years, and at whatever cost. Lord Kitchener has said that the war can only be brought to an end by trained men. Only in the British Empire is there a reserve of men. France has nearly every one of her men in the field and France is only able to hold her own. The Rus-

MORNING WAR NEWS BY CABLE

London, Aug. 20.—The garrison of the fortress of Novo Georgievsk, which was left behind by Grand Duke Nicholas when he commenced the evacuation of Poland, to delay the advance of the German invaders, after accomplishing its task for just a fortnight, has succumbed to the heavy siege artillery of the Germans, which throughout the war has made every fort attacked by it untenable.

After the fall of Novo, Field Marshal Von Hindenburg's army commenced again an offensive along the whole front, from the Gulf of Riga to Kovno, with the object of taking Riga and the whole Warsaw-Petrograd railway from Vilna northward. He is meeting with stubborn resistance and may be denied even the possession of Riga, unless the German fleet succeeds in entering the Gulf of Riga.

South of Kovno, as far as Grodno, the Russian armies, after the fall of Kovno, fell back toward the Niemen river, and here, according to the German official account, they are offering fresh resistance, in the hope of preventing or delaying the employment of the northern flank of the Great-Litovsk line.

Other armies have cleared the whole of the left bank of the Bug before advancing on the fortress from the south. This means that the obstacle of the marshes has been circumvented and that Great-Litovsk, the chief military depot and concentration centre of Russia, is virtually enveloped. Although military observers are of the opinion that the grand duke probably again will be able to withdraw his army in safety, the loss of these lines is considered a grave military misfortune due to the loss of Warsaw.

GERMAN SUCCESS DUE TO ARTILLERY. The German success has been due almost entirely to their great superiority in artillery, and the military critics express the belief that as long as they maintain this and continue to press forward the Russians must retire before them, while the Russian armies remain intact, however, these critics are optimistic as to the future.

Emperor William, who is reported to have arrived at Novo-Georgievsk, will, it is understood, make a state entry into Warsaw, and there let it be known by an announcement what the future status of Poland will be.

Along the western front there have been some spurts of liveliness in the fighting, but nothing that could be called a battle.

It is now evident that the fresh landing of British troops at Sorvia Bay, on the Gallipoli peninsula, robbed of its element of surprise by the appearance of the Turkish reinforcements, has proved somewhat of a disappointment, the only gain being that another strip of the peninsula is in the possession of the Allies, and more Turkish troops must be employed against them.

While on her way to the Baltic to help the Russians the British submarine E-13 grounded on the Danish island of Saltolm, in the Sound, according to an admiral's statement. A Berlin official announcement says the underwater boat was "destroyed" at the southern coast of the Sound. Fifteen members of the crew of thirty of the E-13 are missing.

ARABIC SITUATION IN U. S.

Washington, Aug. 20.—The official details upon which President Wilson will decide whether the sinking of the White Star liner Arabic was an act deliberately and unfriendly to the United States were still lacking today and meanwhile the president and all other administration officials, while realizing fully the gravity of the new situation between the United States and Germany, were keeping their minds open.

Ambassador Page forwarded a White Star report that the ship was torpedoed without warning and Vice-Consul Thompson at Queenstown made a similar report. Neither accounted for Mrs. Josephine Brugiere nor Dr. Edmund Woods, the two Americans still missing.

Whether the Arabic, by having been conveyed on the beginning of her voyage, had, under international law, participated in the character of her conveyance and waived her right as a non-combatant, is another point.

Whether by proceeding to the vicinity of the steamer Dunsley, which had just previously been torpedoed, the Arabic's commander intended any qualifying circumstances by violating the rule of the British admiralty which forbids a ship to take shelter by attempting to assist another which has been torpedoed, is also to be considered.

A view prevailed that an attempt by the Arabic to anchor on another torpedoed ship was justified by the British admiralty and was not a matter of international right. Whether the Arabic's movements toward the Dunsley might be interpreted as an attempt to ram the submarine's sinking point to be developed.

help through the central fund to relieve the strain in the western provinces. Some of the Ontario relief has been contributed $6 a head. The city of Quebec has paid in $155,000, which is more than the province of New Brunswick, Calgary, which was especially struck by the war, has subscribed more than St. John, while Vancouver has given $240,000.

Sir Herbert Ames then mentioned Newfoundland's fine lead per head and said that he believed New Brunswick could do this coming winter easily contribute the $200,000 that might be called for next share in the Canadian patriotic fund.

No More Than Expected. The lieutenant-governor, proposing a resolution, said that when he had looked at the provincial donation to date of $140,000 he thought it much, yet when he considered that the war has cost the expenditure of $15 to $16 a family a month he felt that they had not done more than they could have been expected to do.

"The people of New Brunswick realize much more than a year ago the terrible consequences that will result should we ever suffer defeat in this war and I believe that the only way that horror can be prevented is to unite in one firm resolve that we will make any sacrifice to win this war and preserve our liberty, no matter at what sacrifice and no matter what it may cost."

GERMAN SPIES
TRAIN AT BADEN

College With Course of Secret Study

MANY STUDENTS WOMEN

Cypher Code Taught in Which to Communicate and Report Observations — To Neutral Countries For Practice

"Spies are a domestic product in Germany," writes a contributor to the Figaro, "and the government assists in developing the innate properties of the seed in order to bring out a satisfactory crop. It raises its spy embryos in hot-houses, until they attain such perfection as we have seen demonstrated on so many recent occasions. There are in Germany special colleges for training spies, according to the Warsaw Gazette, which has published some very interesting details on the subject.

"Foremost of these colleges is the one in Loerach, Baden, where the corps of teachers consists exclusively of former general staff officers. The course of instruction comprises an intimate study of the armies and military resources in general of foreign countries on which Germany may have some designs. Scholars are procured through advertisements. One such appeared some time ago in a Berlin newspaper and read as follows: 'Several vacancies open for intelligent and absolutely reliable persons. Indispensable to be of German birth and have knowledge of the French, Russian and English languages.'

"Loerach is a co-educational institution, and it is deserving of notice that its female scholars are more often than not in the majority. Before being admitted to the college, the applicants are put through a very minute examination. The principal himself conducts the purpose of convincing himself of the unquestionable loyalty of the prospective spies.

"Once accepted, the scholars receive both theoretical and practical instruction. Maps and diagrams in colors are used to show the composition of the various European armies and the exact size of the different branches of the service—infantry, cavalry, engineer troops, aviation corps, etc. Photographic reproductions give enlightening details about rifles, cartridges, cannon, shells and the like.

"Particular stress is laid on the study of French military matters, which the students are required to know almost as thoroughly as their own country's army organization.

"During the second year of the course the scholars at the spy college spend all their energies on getting familiar with the defensive and mobilization systems of the European countries.

"They must acquaint themselves with the disposition of the troops in garrisons and forts, the means of transportation by land, river and sea, the location of bridges and a great many other odds and ends of strategic importance. For several months all these particulars are gone over and over again, until the students know exactly how and where this or that power is going to assemble the units of its military forces in the event of a mobilization.

Cypher Code Learned Last.

"At the end of the course the scholars are taught an elaborate cypher code in which to communicate and report their observations. This code is composed so ingeniously that there is little possibility of detection, hardly even of suspicion, by any outsider. After graduation the spies are first assigned to some small neutral countries for 'practice,' and when they have proved their adaptability they are finally commissioned in the regular government service and stationed at such places where their services will be of actual value and immediate use.

"If these revelations had been made a year ago," the Gazette adds, "they would have been received with a shrug of the shoulders. But in the light of real occurrences since last summer, there is no reason to withhold credence from the report about the German spy college in Baden."

EARLY DAYS OF BOAT RACING IN THE ST. JOHN HARBOR

Development of the Sport and of Modern Racing Craft—When St. John Men Were World Champions—Article by Late Sheriff Harding Reprinted

The following is an article recalling many aquatic reminiscences of the early days in St. John which was from the pen of the late Sheriff Harding, and which appeared in one of the local publications in the early eighties. The article recalled the glories of the past and will be of interest to our readers, as it gives them an idea of events held here in the early days, and also tends to show the great change which has taken place in the present day. It is as follows:

My earliest recollection of boating and regattas commenced with the sloop "Louisa," of the "Brunswick," "Harriet" and "Minerva," Captains Currier (still living), Akerly, Broadshaw, Segge and Drake, that carried freight between St. John and Indiantown, sailing a race around Partridge Island. Also a sailing race between the pilot boat "Teaser" and a weatherly schooner called the "Alert," with Scotch clipper lines, built by George Thomson, Esq. Monday the boat was conveyed by steamer to Fredericton where the race was rowed on Wednesday as a heavy northwest wind. The course was two miles. The Oxford men were left far behind and the British boys wore the blue ribbon.

A Mr. Sterling, an Irish builder whose shops were in Lower Cove, built racing boats that were an improvement on the style then in vogue. One called the "daunted" was rowed against the Oliver built "Perit." A strong national feeling and local excitement was created by this race. The boats started in a fog from Reed's Point. They passed on opposite sides of the Beacon, reached the island and got lost. Meeting in the fog they agreed that the race was off and that they would try conclusions on another day. They met again on a day when there were heavy rollers in the West Channel. The Carleton men excelled better judgment and gained the day. The general opinion was that the "Undaunted" was the faster boat. Mr. Sterling also built the famous boat "Xiphias" and "White Squall." Bought by Indian-town clubs, the "Xiphias" was a success. She was rowed by three brothers named Stevens, all still alive, and at times a Dunham or a Pilgroun.

Their success brought their old time rivals, the Carletonians, to the front again in a boat called the "Experiment," built by Malman (who emigrated to New Zealand) and rowed by the stock of Inverables. Their first attempt at a race resulted in a foul, that was rowed again. The Carleton crew placed three inches of an outrigger on their gunwale, this being the first made here of this method of building a four-oared boat, and she won.

Then followed the famous four and six-oared crews known as the "Wasp," an immense boat to be called "Welch-Lambert crew." They broke new ground and visited Halifax and Boston. To get to Halifax was a Pilgroun of those days was no boys' play, for after they left the steamer at Windsor, they carried and carried their boat on their shoulders, and to their own backs as well as their arms do the work, and they won, lost and won. They visited Boston several times as a crew of six, and as eights. The stroke oarsman of this crew, Dennis Morris, is still alive, hearty and well. The managing man, and at times an oarsman with the crew, Walter Walsh, a genial pilot, was drowned in 1885, in a six mile race, the Charles River, Boston, they defeated the Lynch-Lawson crew of New York, and a year later, on the same river, they defeated the Roberts-Daw crew, also from New York. In 1885, as an eight oared crew, in a boat called the "Perit," in a twelve mile race, with three turns, they defeated an eight oared crew from Boston. This crew having four rusty was defeated in 1867 at Springfield, Mass., by the Ward Brothers.

By this time C. Coyle had taken the place of Mr. Sterling as a boat builder, and he built fine boats, all lap-streak, against eight competitors in each race. One of which the "James A. Harding," was a world wide notoriety, being owned and rowed by the famous Paris crew at home and in their races on the Seine, France.

Indian Runner Dead Charlottetown Patriot—Many friends will regret to hear of the death of Michael Paul, the well-known runner of Rocky Point. The deceased had been sick for nearly two years as the result of a fall. A few years ago Michael was one of the best runners in the maritime provinces. He was a member of the Abegweits, and always ran under their colors. At Old Home West in Amherst some years ago, he carried off nearly all the running events. He had numerous cups and medals as the result.

Montreal Horse Races Montreal, Aug. 20—Yedno, owned by F. J. Daly, Peterboro (Ont.), established a new Canadian record for a competition mile in the grand circuit races at Dorval track today by stepping the distance in the 2:08 pace contest in 2:02 1/2. She had won the two previous heats with comparative ease, and her time in the final.

The Paris Crew The Paris crew having won many races at picnics and on the Kennebecasis in the Coyle boat referred to were sent to Paris in 1867 and won in two races, one in a boat rowed on the gunwale and the other in the "James A. Harding," both heavy lap-streak boats, against eight competitors in each race. On their return they were met by a challenge from the Ward brothers of the Hudson, who claimed the championship of America.

The Paris Crew having left their favorite boat behind them, and wishing to try their luck in a skeleton, they declined for that year and had a boat built expressly for themselves by Elliott, of Green Point, and accepted for 1868, where they, at Springfield, Mass., over the same course on which the Walsh-Morris crew had been defeated, won easily, and became the acknowledged best four oarsmen in America. Their success at home and abroad tempted an English crew to try conclusions with them and a match was made that came off at Lachine, near Montreal, when, in a wind and rain squall, the Englishmen being prepared with washboards, defeated them, the home boat having become waterlogged. This led to another race that came off on the Kennebecasis, when on a beautiful morning, with the water like a mirror, at three-quarters of a mile from the start, with the Paris crew leading, the ever to be remembered and unfortunate English oarsman, Kenforth, gave out and was carried ashore where he died shortly after from an internal rupture. The Paris crew rowed over the course, a measured six miles, in the quick time of 20 1/2 minutes.

SARAH BERNHARDT AGAIN ON STAGE; PLAYS IN FRANCE

DAVID BISPHAM AND MARIE NELLE IN "ADELAIDE" IN NEW YORK

Lyn Harding Back From England; More Stage Stars for Screen; Tom Wise, Cyril Maude, Blanche Ring and Others in Pictures; The Revue Closes; General Green Room News

Sarah Bernhardt made her first public appearance yesterday at Anderson, France, since the amputation of her leg. She stipulated that the proceeds of the matinee be given to the war funds. A crowd of several thousand went to Anderson, where Mme. Bernhardt spent six months of the period of her convalescence. The great tragedienne, who scored one of the greatest triumphs of her career, recited successively an ode by her son, Maurice Bernhardt, another by her granddaughter, Lisane Bernhardt, and a patriotic piece by M. Feyn. Mme. Bernhardt recited standing up, and no one would have supposed she had a wooden leg. Her performance received prolonged applause. She was overwhelmed with flowers and did not conceal her emotion. When the curtain fell she was unable to restrain her tears. A telegram last week from the Oliver Morosco Photoplay Company in Los Angeles announced that that company has succeeded in signing contracts with such prominent stars of the legitimate stage as Blanche Ring, Cyril Maude, and Charlotte Greenwood. Cyril Maude will be seen in September in the adaptation of Ibsen's well known drama, "Peer Gynt." This will be the first Morosco release for the fifth quarter of the Paramount Pictures Corporation. The vehicles for the initial screen appearance of Blanche Ring and Charlotte Greenwood have not been decided upon as yet, but will be announced in the near future.

Charles M. Seay, who was one of Edison's leading directors until a short time ago, has signed a contract with the Equitable Motion Picture Company, and will direct the making of five- reel feature pictures, which will be released through the World Film Corporation. Mr. Seay's first photodrama in his new capacity will be the production of an adaptation of Paul Armstrong's popular Southern play, "Blue Grass," in which Thomas Wise will play the lead. Bispham in "Adelaide."

Lucien Bonheur, cousin of the French commander-in-chief, General Joffre, expects to make a tour of America this fall, appearing in a dramatization of Maurice Barres' book, "Collette Baudoche," and in Jacques Richepin's "Love and War."

One of the prettiest romances ever staged in real life had its climax recently in New York city. So fragrant was it with the sentiment of France that it might have been written by De Callavet and De Piers. It concerned Georges Renaud and Mile. Simone Reryl, players of the Theatre Francaise.

hear the minute he feasted his eyes upon the dancer's beautiful face. In order to achieve convincing realism in one of the big scenes of "Ash-ton Kirk, Investigator," which Arnold Daly is producing for Pathé, the well-known actor persuaded Mrs. George Gould to allow him to use the large ball-room in her palatial residence at 507 Fifth Avenue, New York. When the scene was taken upper Fifth Avenue was shocked at the impropriety of seeing a large number of carriages and automobiles drive up to the Gould residence at high noon and discharge scores of men and women in evening clothes and see them received by lines of footmen in powdered wigs and livery. It could not understand such a breach of social etiquette until it was all explained by the presence of the moving picture camera. A number of well-known society people appeared in the picture, which is being produced under the direction of Ashley Miller.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Rev. F. P. Dennison, of the Tabernacle Baptist church, Thursday afternoon, Aug. 19, when Miss Edna Beatrice Colpitts, daughter of D. Colpitts, of Fenobosqui, was united in marriage to Otty Albert Smith, of the same place. The pair were attended by the groom's cousin, Mrs. H. D. Miller. The bride wore a white silk, voile with picture hat to match. The matron of honor was gowned in blue satin with hat to match. The groom's present to the bride was a gold pendant set with pearls, the bridesmaid a gold ring. Many costly presents were received. After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served at the home of H. D. Miller. The bride and groom will reside at Fenobosqui.

Attractions for THE HALF-HOLIDAY

Baseball, Horse Racing and Patriotic Fairs Among the Features of the Afternoon

The many attractions for this afternoon promise to make the half holiday an enjoyable one for all as the line of amusements is varied.

At Moosepath a series of races will be held and, as many of the fastest local horses are entered, the meet should be an interesting one.

On the East End league grounds three five inning games will be played. The first will commence at two o'clock sharp and the second immediately after it.

The Man In The Street

Got your coal in the bin? We did intend to open the col. today with something nice about the weather, but this will do for a change.

The Dacia seized by the French from a German-American company, has been re-named the "Yser".

Sweden seems to be the latest of the tenants on the Brink.

Another Little Note? In writing him about the "Arabic" Pres. Wilson will probably tell the Kaiser once again what "the U. S. flag won't stand for."

It's hardly likely that Roumania put a war loan of $2,000,000 through merely for the sake of giving her ministers experience in financing.

Are the Scissors Sharp? Boston Globe editorial paragraph, August 18:—"The Germans are running the big Russian steam roller with reverse gear now, but it will cost them a good deal to drive it clear to Petrograd."

St. John Standard editorial paragraph, Aug. 19:—"The Germans are running the Russian steam roller on reverse gear now, but it will prove a costly job before they get it as far as Petrograd."

From the German "Braunschweig" Speaking of streets with German names, the Standard suggests "there are one or two whose changing would do no harm."

Canada cannot grumble, says industrial man visiting here, but that doesn't mean that we haven't any grumblers.

Capt. Owen, British Royal Engineers, mentioned for distinguished conduct in France, is a son-in-law of Wm. Jennings Bryan.

But Why Tell the Obvious? After a profitable deal with a Northumberland farmer on a $1,500 purchase for the Farm Settlement Board, A. J. H. Stewart sold him "the way" working for his health.

In Our Mail Box To the Man in the Street: There is no denying that we suffer too much noise about the city because of shrieking car-track curves.

Notice of Funeral, Etc. Of course, in these modern and progressive times one is hardly surprised at anything, but the cub reporter received a shock this week which hastened him to the nearest soda fountain for a glass of "cola-coca."

The Chocolate Man It was evident that the youngster in the Pullman which left St. John the other evening, was enjoying her first opportunity to study a colored man at close range.

What is the Answer? His friends have been congratulating a member of the local legislature upon his prospects for the appointment to a well paid office in the postal service upon the approaching superannuation of the present incumbent.

DEATH OF THEIR CHILD. The death of Margaret W. Friars, aged eighteen months, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Friars, occurred last evening. The funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from her parents' residence, 109 Hilyard street.

DELONG-SAUNDERSON. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. McLean, 60 Draper street, Dorchester, Mass., on Thursday evening, Aug. 12th, Harry J. DeLong and Miss Margaret F. Saunderson, both of St. John, N. B., were united in marriage. Rev. A. A. Riddout performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. DeLong will make their future home in Dorchester, Mass.

Here's A Chance To Cut Down The Cost Of Living

A Little Bit of Information Which is Worth Real Money to Every Picture Postal Patron

Do you know that you still may mail a postcard for a copper?

If you do you are one of the minority, but you are right, just the same.

When the war tax stamp was introduced most persons jumped to the conclusion that picture postcards were included in the class of mail which requires the extra stamp.

This was all quite true in theory but in fact it was quite wrong. No one had attempted to place a tax on picture postcards.

Just let that sink in. The postal provisions do not call for an extra war tax stamp on a picture postal unless it bears more than five words of writing in addition to the address.

The reason is simple. A picture postcard does not class as first class matter as printed matter and is chargeable only as such.

There is another class of postcards which do charge the war tax and that includes those bearing printed announcements. The rule allowing five words of writing permits enough latitude to make a printed form card, with the necessary data filled in by hand, a very convenient and economical method of communication.

This can be taken advantage of for notices of meetings, traveller's announcements of when they will call and so on.

There is another exception of the same nature which has been overlooked even by some large establishments with a reputation for keeping a careful watch on expenses. Printed circulars are printed matter and not first class mail and therefore do not need a war stamp.

Every war stamp which has been placed on a picture postcard or circular should be charged up not to taxes but to charity; it was just a free gift to the government.

NO GERMANS WITH THE BIG MOOSE CARNIVAL

Show Appearing in Many Other Canadian Cities—No Reason For Any Opposition

In connection with the announcement contained in yesterday's Times relative to a proposed street fair and carnival which is intended to conduct here early next month under the auspices of the Royal Order of Moose it was said yesterday at City Hall that there must be inquiry made before permission would be given for the show to come to the city. The reason given was that it was said there were Germans connected with the show.

Investigation has shown that the proprietor, Henry Meyerhoff, is a Russian Jew, and in his company are no Germans. The majority are French and Irish-Americans. The show has been booked in Ottawa, Valfield, Montreal, Quebec and other Canadian cities, and since there is no reason why the show could not come here the license will be granted today.

The same show will play the Fredericton, Chatham and Halifax fairs this year.

WHAT THE CANADIAN LAW LIST SHOWS

Seven Lawyers From St. John on Active Service—Compares Well With Other Places—Changes Recorded

In the supplement to the Canadian law list, recently issued, the names of seven St. John lawyers on active service are given. Whether the lawyers of this city are more warlike than those of other Canadian cities or whether the local list is more complete, the comparison with other cities is interesting. The number of lawyers on active service from some other Canadian cities are given in the list as follows: Halifax 14, Montreal 14, Toronto 1, Winnipeg 10, Vancouver 15.

Those from St. John are, H. H. McLean, K. C., B. B. Armstrong, C. F. Inches, C. H. McLean, W. H. Harrison, H. J. Smith, E. C. Weyman.

Other changes given in St. John include the appointment of J. R. Armstrong, K. C., as judge of the county court of St. John, the announcement that Weldon & McLean have associated with them O. Ring and that W. M. Ryan is now practicing here.

The New Brunswick section of the list also announces that: M. B. Innes of St. John has a branch office in Hampton; M. H. Parlee, late of Sussex, is practicing in Hampton; A. A. Dyarr, late of Moncton, is practicing in Buctouche; M. A. Kelly and J. L. Ryan are practicing in Campbellton; J. J. Doane in St. Stephen; R. P. Hartley in Woodstock and W. Lingerick, late of Gibson, is practicing in Fredericton.

W. B. Farris, well known in St. John, has left the partnership of O'Shea & Farris in Nelson, B. C., and is now a member of the firm of McCarty & Farris in Revelstoke, B. C.

In Winnipeg, Bonnar & Co. have admitted into partnership W. Robinson and the firm will be known as Bonnar, Treeman, Holman & Robinson.

Opposite the names of several who appear in the list from various parts of Canada, is the brief but expressive note, "Killed in action."

Among the successful candidates for grammar school licenses announced from Fredericton yesterday, is Miss Mary E. Lingley, daughter of the Chamberlain Duncan G. Lingley, of this city.

When Buying a Bed Spring the Best is None Too Good

The Hercules is absolutely guaranteed never to sag, and the basket edge, which cannot be obtained on any other spring, keeps the edge of the mattress square and prevents spreading over the edge.

This adds wonderfully to the durability and comfort of the mattress, and this feature alone would make it worth while to insist upon having the "Hercules."

And the prices are moderate, $5.85 for all-steel frame, and $4.50 for wooden frame.
