DRIVE AGAINST BOLSHEVIKI IS LAUNCHED BY POLES

BURGLARIES SO NUMEROUS INSURANCE COMPANIES WILL NOT ACCEPT RISKS

Theft After Theft Committed and No Captures Made — House and Shop Breaking Never So Prevalent in City's History.

A prominent Dundas street merchant stated to The Advertiser today that as a result of the unusual thefts in the city lately and no arrests in connection with them, burglary insurance companies are refusing to accept any more business here.

This merchant's store is located close to the corner of Dundas and Richmond streets, and has been broken into half a dozen times lately.

"The latest robbery was on Thursday night," he said, "I did not report it because the same thing has happened frequently and I have had no results from telling the police. Shop and house breaking has been more common in London lately than ever before. Today I saw a letter from one of the big companies handling burglar insurance, refusing to accept any more business here. This is a serious matter, and something should be done."

Another Robbery.

Another robbery was reported to The Advertiser today by Mrs. J. L. Johnston, 590 Talbot street. She stated that her sister, who was visiting her from Detroit had three valuable rings stolen from her house last Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Johnston and her sister went to the market in the morning, and bought some vegetables, and Mrs. Johnston's sister took her rings off to cook the vegetables. She laid them on a table in a room at the rear of the house, and then went into the garden.

Nothing more was thought of the rings till Saturday evening, when she told her sister they were missing from the table. A search through the house was made, but no rings could be found. Another search was made on Sunday, and then the case was placed in the hands of local detectives.

Mrs. Johnston stated that one of the rings was a brown cameo. Another was an emerald, which her sister had given her as a keepsake, and the other was a solid gold signet ring.

In South London.

On Friday evening last, while Anson B. Nichols of 36 Beaconsfield avenue was out at the fair, and his wife out of the house for a short time, sneak thieves gained entrance to the dwelling through a rear window. They ransacked a bureau in a bedroom and from a lower drawer took a tin box containing Mr. Nichols' Masonic aprons, an insurance policy and some coins. The coins included several English pieces and a Cuban coin. A valuable gold ring, with the initials, R. L. N., belonging to Mr. Nichols' son was also taken. Nothing was known of the theft until the following morning when the tin box was found at the foot of the G. T. R. embankment at the rear of the house by a neighbor boy, R. Hunt. The tin box, which was locked, had been forced open and then thrown away, and the insurance policy with it. The case was reported to the police.

Mrs. Nichols is inclined to place the blame for the theft on boys whom, she thinks, may have taken the money in order to go to the movies.

Market Clerk Charles Maker informed The Advertiser today that so far no trace of the thieves who stole jewelry and money from his house last Thursday has been found.

ARE CRACKSMEN COMING HERE?

Bad Gang Reported On Way West After Robbing Buffalo Store.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Buffalo, Sept. 22.—Burglars who used high speed drills to cut through the steel doors of the safe in the shoe store of Clifford B. Marsh, 475 Main street, last night, and carried off Liberty bonds and cash amounting to more than $2,000, are believed by the police to have crossed the border into Canada, and are working their way toward Detroit.

More than $600 worth of the Liberty bonds were owned by employees of the store. One young woman clerk is said to have been the owner of $400 worth of them.

Employees discovered the burglary when they opened the store for business. The door of the safe had been cleanly cut and papers, cancelled checks and account books were scattered on the floor.

Entrance was gained by cutting away one of the steel bars of a rear window. The lock on the window was then broken and the burglars stepped into the office. Protected by a partition that shielded them from observation from Main street, they worked in comparative safety.

After the safe had been opened, the burglars turned their attention to the drawers in the office desks. Very little of value was found, but just as a final detail the burglars removed from a check book several of the firm's checks that had been signed in blank by Manager Whitman last Saturday. It is hardly likely, the police believe, that any effort will be made to use the checks.

MASHER FINED $10 AND COSTS

Rocco Morro Followed Girls He Did Not Know and Spoke To Them.

Another masher was added to the Carling street honor roll today when Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon fined Rocco Morro, 296 York street, $10 and costs for his conduct toward two local girls last night. Sergt. Thomas Lucas testified that accused and a companion followed two girls along York street, and stopped them near Wellington. When the young women informed the officer that they did not know the youthful swains, he arrested them, but released one when the victims of the mashing declared that he took no part in the conversation.

The girls later identified Morro as the person who asked permission to accompany them home.

"I did not speak to these girls," declared the prisoner. "The sergeant was too far away to believe everything the girls said. We were walking by fast and the girls asked us what was our hurry."

Morro paid his fine, thus escaping the option of a ten-day term in jail.

Blanche Hewardine, charged as a vagrant, was allowed her freedom on suspended sentence after spending several days in jail on remand.

Lewis Slobasky disregarded the signals of Traffic Officer Last at the main corner recently, and as a result answered a police court summons today. When informed by the court that the traffic officer directs traffic any way that he wishes, and that motorists must obey such directions, regardless of their destination, Slobasky seemed quite surprised. As his offence was not intentional the magistrate dismissed him with a warning against repetition.

Albert Boug broke a city bylaw recently and the court broke the said news to him this morning to the tune of $2 and costs. Thomas Hull pleaded guilty to a charge of reckless driving and paid a fine of $10 and costs. He was arrested following a motor car accident downtown last week, when several pedestrians' lives were endangered.

GREAT BRITAIN TO REQUIRE MILLIONS OF BUSH. OF GRAIN

Ottawa, Sept. 22.—An estimate of Great Britain's probable requirements in imports of wheat, barley and oats during the next twelve months, furnished the department of trade and commerce by Trade Commissioner Harrison Watson, give the following totals: Wheat, 217,500,000 bushels; barley, 50,000,000; oats, 60,000,000. The estimates are based on the official forecast of the United Kingdom yields, which have still to be confirmed by actual results.

Big Flax Yield Means Wealth For Indians

Many of Them Making $25 Per Day in Northern Districts.

[Special To The Advertiser.]

Blyth, Sept. 22.—If Alexander Pope were on earth again he would have to scrap his famous quotation: "Lo, the poor Indian," because the Indian is not poor any more, at least those in this section who want to pull flax are not. They have been making all the way from $20 to $35 a day, depending largely upon the size of their families and the amount of time they want to work. Prices for flax pulling this season have ranged from about $18 to $20 per acre, and as there is one of the largest crops on record to be harvested, the Indians have had things pretty well their own way.

All through the northern townships flax has been grown abundantly. Over at Clinton there will be about 400 acres. Around Wingham there will be 500 acres, and at Seaforth well onto 400 acres, not to mention heavy crops around the Stratford district.

Many of the Indians have been making more money than they ever made in their lives before, and they are spending it freely. It sometimes strikes one as rather out of place to see an Indian maiden in a calico dress out pulling flax in a pair of white shoes that cost $15 or more. However, the money is the Indians to spend as they see fit, and they are buying just whatever takes their fancy.

FOREIGNER COMMITS SUICIDE BY LEAPING UNDER LOCOMOTIVE

Saskatoon, Sask., Sept. 22.—By leaping from the side of a G. T. R. locomotive that was traveling at 50 miles an hour, an unidentified man, apparently a foreigner, committed suicide near Arrow River, Man., according to members of the train crew on arriving here. At a water tank, he climbed aboard the pilot of the engine, and when the train had gathered top speed, he crawled along the footboard and jumped. He was instantly killed.

FROM RED TRAIL OF WAR TO PROSPERITY IN WESTERN CANADA

Thousands of Canada's soldier sons, returned to the paths of peace, have availed themselves of the opportunity provided by the Soldiers' Settlement Board of establishing themselves on farms throughout the Dominion. The above pictures give a good idea of some of the homes and farms owned by these soldiers. 1. Is the home of Edward Livesay, a lieutenant in the 49th Battalion in North Saanich, Vancouver Island. He has 20 acres and is prospering. 2. Shows W. W. Latter on his farm at Moore Park, Man. 3. FRANCE WILL PAY ENTIRE LOAN TO U.S.

$250,000,000 Amount Due in October Will Be Forthcoming.

Paris, Sept. 22.—France will pay every dollar of the $250,000,000 loan due in New York October 15, M. Francois-Marsal, the minister of finance, officially announced to the cabinet council today.

This sum is France's share of the $500,000,000 Anglo-French loan floated in the United States during the war.

M. Francois-Marsal informed the ministers that French treasury already had shipped to the United States $150,000,000 in gold and securities. He added that the success of the $100,000,000 loan contracted through J. P. Morgan & Co. would permit the picking up of all notes due October 15.

This was expected to be the last cabinet meeting of the Millerand ministry. It was attended by all the ministers and under-secretaries.

LORD BURNHAM BIDS GOOD-BYE TO DOMINION

Head of Imperial Press Conference Sails For England.

APPRECIATES RECEPTION

Famous British Newspaperman Urges Greater National Stability.

Quebec, Sept. 22.—Viscount Burnham, who acted as president of the Imperial Press Conference, and was head of the great mission of newspapermen during their entire stay in this country, was the guest of honor at a luncheon offered by the Quebec Men's Canadian Club at the Chateau Frontenac at noon yesterday. Lord Burnham made his adieu to the province of Quebec and this city in particular, and to Canada in general, expressing his delight at his visit to the Dominion with the press delegates, and stating he sincerely hoped he would soon again be given the opportunity of returning to Canada and the great and generous hospitality its people had offered the Imperial Pressmen. He sails for home on the Prinz Frederick Wilhelm from Quebec today.

Lord Burnham said he wished to emphasize strongly the need of national stability here and everywhere, because it was stability the empire stood in need of today. "I don't say, 'let us rest and be thankful,'" said Lord Burnham, in concluding his address.

Lord Burnham also spoke of the development of trade relations between Canada and the other parts of the empire, and his address was greeted with loud cheers by all those who were present at the luncheon.

U. S. Government Will Not Assist Defiant Captain

New York, Sept. 22.—Capt. Thomas Stone, master of the freighter Pandhandle State, who sailed from New York declaring he would land at Queenstown, Ireland, despite orders of the British Government that ships from the United States must not stop there on the eastward passage, will get no help from the United States state department if he comes to grief in an attempt to carry out his threats.

It is generally recognized that any government has the right to close one of its ports against ships of all nations in time of stress.

Ex-Kaiser In the "Spotlight" In the City of Amerongen

Doorn, Holland, Sept. 22.—William of Hohenzollern, former German emperor, promises to be the central figure of the gala week, which began today in this city and in Amerongen, which for more than a year was the home of the former monarch. He has given 1,000 guilders to the committee in charge of the national Orange celebration at Amerongen, where the streets have been decorated with the proceeds of his gift.

The climax of the celebration will be the formal turning over by William to the president of the Order of the Knights of St. John of a hospital at Amerongen, which was built and furnished by the former emperor as a memento of his stay here. This will be followed in a few days by the wedding of Elizabeth von Bentinck, daughter of Count von Bentinck, who was William's host at Amerongen, to Captain Ilsemann.

Preparations are under way for the reception of Prince Henry of Prussia, who will arrive here soon to spend ten days with his brother.

ITALIAN METAL WORKERS DECLINE TO EVACUATE FACTORIES SEIZED; DISPLEASED WITH SETTLEMENT

Men Demand Guarantees From Employers and Government and Full Pay For Time Plants Were Occupied—Radicals Distributing Literature Among Workers, Telling Them That They Have Been Betrayed by the Confederation of Labor in Negotiations.

Rome, Sept. 22.—Italian metal workers, who occupied factories in some of the larger cities last month, notably Turin and Florence, are refusing to evacuate the plants in accordance with the settlement agreement recently reached with the employers after government intervention, according to dispatches to the Giornale d'Italia. In Turin, in fact, says a message from that city, three additional works were occupied by the men today.

In fifty other works in Turin, the dispatch states, the majority of the men decided not to abandon the plants unless they received ample guarantees against reprisals from the masters and the government. They also are claiming payment of their wages for the entire period of their occupation of the works.

A Florence dispatch to the newspaper says that in some of the works there the men have barricaded the entrances rather than return the establishments to the masters.

A Genoa message to the same newspaper reports that syndicalists and anarchists are distributing manifestos to the workmen, saying they have been betrayed by the confederation of labor in the settlement.

20,000 VICTIMS OF CHOLERA IN KOREA

Tokio, Sept. 22.—Fifteen hundred new cases of cholera have been discovered in Korea, according to an official statement issued at Seoul. This makes the total number of victims of the disease more than 20,000, of whom more than 9,000 have died.

MAY ASK FOR WOMEN J. P.'S

Delegation To Take Up Important Matters With the Attorney-General.

A special meeting of the sub-executive of the Ontario branch of the National Council of Women is being called by its vice-president, Dr. Augusta Stowe-Gullen. This meeting is to be held in Toronto on Tuesday next, September 28 to appoint a deputation to wait on the attorney-general the next morning, for the purpose of considering the resolutions decided upon by the National Council of Women at their annual meeting held in St. John, N. B., in June last.

Although the notices calling this meeting do not state what these resolutions were, they undoubtedly are those which would come under the department of the attorney-general and probably concern changes in the criminal code affecting women, such as the raising of the age of consent and an equal moral standard. Other matters which might be discussed at this conference with the attorney-general would be the appointment of women magistrates and justices of the peace.

FRENCH RULERS CHOOSE PREMIER AS CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENCY

Millerand Is Choice of Caucus of Senate and Chamber of Deputies.

TWO WITHDRAW NAMES

Leon Bourgeois and Raould Peret Declare Themeslves Out of Running.

Paris, Sept. 22.—By the Associated Press.—Premier Alexandre Millerand was chosen as a candidate for the presidency to succeed Former President Deschanel, who resigned as chief executive of the republic because of ill health, by the joint caucus of the members of the senate and chamber of deputies in the senate chamber this afternoon.

TWO DECLARED OUT.

Paris, Sept. 22.—Two of the candidates who were prominently mentioned as possible successors to Paul Deschanel in the presidency of the republic, declared themselves out of the running today. These men were Leon Bourgeois, and Raoul Peret, the presidents, respectively of the senate and chamber of deputies.

M. Bourgeois authorized the definite announcement that he had declined to be a candidate, and M. Peret declared he would not run against Premier Millerand for the office, which M. Deschanel formally resigned yesterday because of ill health.

Before Former Premier Clemenceau left Paris last night on his hunting trip to India he remarked to one of his former co-workers, according to the Petit Parisien, that he regarded Premier Millerand as the man best qualified for representing France in the eyes of foreign peoples.

SAYS CITY CAFES ARE NOT DIRTY

Chairman of the Board of Health Making Personal Inspection.

Although he believes that the statement of conditions in London restaurants is greatly exaggerated, J. H. Saunders, chairman of the board of health, commenced a tour of inspection this afternoon.

"Our sanitary inspectors are reliable men, and the reports they have made on the restaurants lately have not indicated that conditions are bad," he stated.

To verify this belief, Mr. Saunders offered to make a personal inspection of all the eating houses and to take reporters with him. This invitation was taken to mean that a large delegation would be welcome. Accordingly a committee of representative citizens was called together. Mr. Saunders was not willing to act as guide for this large party on a Cooks tour of the cafes. He pointed out that no one has the right to enter restaurant kitchens except sanitary inspectors. For that reason he could not be responsible for taking a dozen or more people on the trip, although he believed that there would be no trouble with a smaller party.

Dr. W. S. Downham, M.O.H., also expressed the opinion that the report was exaggerated.

"One of our sanitary inspectors has just completed a four or five days' inspection of the restaurants and has found conditions satisfactory. A few of the places did not have suitable receptacles for garbage, but aside from that they were all right," he stated.

TRIPLE ALLIANCE TO MAKE FINAL ATTEMPT TO INDUCE GOVERNMENT TO GRANT DEMANDS OF MINERS

Union Committee Will Confer With Lloyd George Today — Action Will Depend Upon Premier's Attitude At Interview—Strike Will Start Monday Unless Some Concessions Are Made.

London, Sept. 22.—Another attempt to induce the Government to grant the demands of the coal miners of the country for an increase in wages was decided upon today by the Triple Alliance, comprising the miners, railwaymen and transport workers.

At a meeting of five hundred delegates of these unions this decision was reached, and a committee was appointed to visit Premier Lloyd George late today. Upon the outcome of this interview the action of the alliance will probably depend. The hopes for averting a strike of the miners, to begin next Monday, hang upon the course the alliance decides upon. Another meeting of the delegates will be held tonight to hear the premier's reply.

GRAIN CUTTING IS COMPLETED IN THE PRAIRIE PROVINCES

Winnipeg, Sept. 22.—(By the Canadian Press).—Grain cutting was practically completed in the prairie provinces last week, according to the last crop report issued by the Canadian National Railway and the threshers are now busy finishing up the work of saving a very satisfactory crop of cereals.

In the Red River Valley farmers turned their attention to fall plowing as soon as they got their threshing done, and in some localities 50 per cent of this work has already been done. Marketing of grain is being deferred in order that this important work shall not be interfered with.

WOMEN MAY HAVE TO PAY THE TAX

Move To Make Them Liable For Statute Labor.

That equal rights entail equal responsibilities may be the basis for a movement to make women liable for the statute labor tax. At present this tax is levied on all male citizens between the ages of 21 and 60 who are not assessed for any other tax. This was drawn up long before woman suffrage was thought of. Now that the fair sex has been given the ballot there is also the possibility that they will have to pay the tax.

Mrs. John Smith, 265 Adelaide street, was seriously injured when she was struck by an auto as she stepped off the curbing at the corner of Ridout and Craig streets at 9:45 o'clock last night. She was waiting for a street car. The auto was bound for the downtown district. According to spectators, its number was 50819.

The injuries to the victim consisted of a wound on the right foot above the ankle, dislocation of the jaw, which since has been partially reduced, and a scalp wound. Mrs. Smith had been visiting her mother at 26 Ridout street south, to where she was taken following the accident.

A BIG PROGRAM IS OFFERED BY THE "Y" INDUSTRIAL DEPT.

Each Day in Week Offers Something Worth While To Girl.

Mrs. John Crawford, industrial secretary of the local Y. W. C. A., has drawn up a most comprehensive program of the year's work for the "Y." industrial department. Each day in the week offers something entirely different, and the girl has but to choose her own form of enjoyment or her own way of becoming better informed.

Friday nights are to be social nights, directed by the extension secretary. These will take the form of parties with [illegible]mes, stunts, sing-songs, folk dancing, [illegible]d so on. Thursday nights are to be [illegible]sic nights. There will be orchestra [illegible]ctices, glee club singing, and inter-[illegible] song contests under the direction Charles E. Percy of the London Conservatory of Music. Wednesday nights [illegible]ve been reserved for dramatics under [illegible] direction of Miss May Walker of [illegible] Institute of Musical Art. On these [illegible]hts plays and pageants will be re-[illegible]arsed to be given later in the season, and those interested in dramatic read-[illegible]ngs will be helped.

Book Nights.

Tuesdays are to be book nights. On these nights the girls will be given suggestions as to the best books to read, and how to tell stories. Travel talks will also be given. Miss McLaughlin and Miss Hazel Tanner of the London public library and Miss Marjorie Ross of the Western University library will assist in this part of the work.

Monday nights will be leaders' nights. On the first and third Monday, Mrs. John Crawford will take Bible study groups, and on the second and fourth Mondays T. D. McCullough of the social service department will take up industrial and social problems. The girls are also to be urged to attend their various church societies on these nights, and Girl Scouts will be at the "Y." every Monday night to take strangers in the city, to their particular church and introduce them there.

On Sundays the home hours will be held at the "Y." again as last year in co-operation with the Young People's Societies of the various churches, and Saturday afternoons will be given over to walking parties and nature hikes.

Outside Classes.

All this work will be carried on at the Central Y. W. C. A., King street, but in addition to this there will be excellent classes held outside of the Y. W. C. A., specially arranged for "Y." girls. Dressmaking, millinery home nursing, cooking and household art classes will be held in co-operation with the Technical and Art School, beginning October 1. There will be business courses, including business English, spoken English, accounting, letter writing, salesmanship, etc., under the direction of W. J. O'Brien, commercial specialist of the O'Brien Business College. And there will be a course in civics, including such subjects as "Women as Wage Earners," "Occupations Open to Women," etc., to be held in co-operation with the students of Western University under the convenership of Miss Margaret Gemmell.

Registration for all these classes will be carried on from September 29 to October 1, and the regular classes and club work will begin on October 4.

WARBOYS PICNIC HELD.

BURGESSVILLE, Sept. 21.—The 9th annual picnic of the descendants of the Warboys' family was attended by more than 100 people at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boyce in Norwich. Relatives were present from Brantford, Simcoe, Cathcart, Harley, Kelvin, Walkerville, London, Woodstock and Burgessville, Grayling, Mich., Flint, Lapeer, Brown City, Dryden and Port Huron. The next place of meeting selected was Springbank, London, the picnic to be held Labor Day, 1921.

Gifts That Last

Price is the last thing we consider in making our selections of merchandise for our customers to buy. The question most prominent in the minds of our experienced buyers are: First. "Is the quality right?" and, second, "Are the goods the last word in correctness?" The experience of dealing in Jewelry and Diamonds of the finest kind for over forty years settles quickly the question of price, and the result is that OUR PATRONS GET THE HIGHEST QUALITY OF MERCHANDISE AND THE MOST CORRECT DESIGNS AT THE FAIREST PRICES.

WINTER PROGRAMS ARE ARRANGED BY Y. M. C. A. OFFICERS

Drive For New Members and To Secure Old Ones Planned.

TO INTEREST R. C. R.

Boxing, Wrestling Tests Arranged—Skiing Also On Boys' Schedule.

The annual meeting of the chairmen of the departments of the Y. M. C. A. to discuss the plans they have drawn up for the winter was held last evening in the local "Y." About fifty attended, including a few members, their friends and the chairmen of the various committees. A dinner was served before the speaking commenced. Each chairman reported plans he had arranged for his department this winter, and from the opinion of all who attended, a most successful year will be experienced.

W. T. Clark, chairman of the membership committee, informed those present that his committee is going to launch a campaign at once for new members, and at the same time to get the old members to sign up for another year. A list will be secured of all the old members, and the committee will forward them their ticket for membership for this year, and they will be asked to join again. All members of the "Y." are expected to get behind this and make it a success that can be recorded as the biggest drive yet known.

Decided Success.

W. D. Beemer, chairman of the boys' work department, reported that this past year was a decided success in his department, and that it had grown to be the most important department of the Y. M. C. A. They have divided their program into five parts, namely, religion, education, social, extension, and physical. Bible studies will be held, and at the end of the year there will be examinations. They will endeavor to establish loyalty to the church and the Sunday schools. Regarding the educational program, he stated that new books will be received for the library, and will be concerning the guidance of boys to become citizens that any city will be proud to have. Vocational guidance will take a firmer hold, and the boys will be asked to choose what work they want to do in life.

A wireless club will be formed, and the training received by the members of this club will be very important. Canadian Standard Efficiency Tests will also be held. A motion picture machine will be secured to show educational films. A high school club will again be formed. Winter hikes, including sleigh riding and skiing are being planned. Not only will there be a father and son banquet, but also a mother and son banquet. Marksmanship amongst the boys will be established, and the competition in this sport is expected to be decidedly keen.

One of the best winter programs that has been known has been arranged by the physical committee. Dr. E. S. Detwiler, chairman of this committee, stated that there will be medical examinations held in conjunction with the Western University. Two sessions a week for gymnastic work have been arranged. Hockey, basketball, indoor baseball and aquatic teams will be chosen, and the tests of these teams will be under the C. S. E. T. and the Canadian hexathlon. He said that London has an enviable position amongst the hexathlon clubs of Canada, and that the best of boys must be got in order that she can still retain the title of being the championship city of Canada for hexathlon cuubs. Boxing and wrestling tests will be given, and considering that this is the first time these arts have been brought into the "Y." is sufficient to show that all will take an active interest. A manufacturers' amateur athletic association will be formed in the early part of the winter, so that it can get away to a better start than it did this year.

Education Object.

The industrial department has undertaken an entirely new kind of work for the winter. Education will be its chief object, and it is expected that the religious committee will work in conjunction with it. R. P. Liddle, secretary of this department, is sparing no effort to carry out his plans. He is going to work amongst the men of the factory much more than he has done in previous years. He will endeavor to educate the working class by different ways, and explain to the vast importance of the education of their children.

The educational department will also help Mr. Liddle with his program. The education of the public as to the work of the Y. M. C. A. will be undertaken.

Social Evenings.

The social committee will develop an atmosphere of friendliness that so far has not been attained. Almost every evening will be set aside for some club of the "Y." to have a social evening. More evenings for ladies will be arranged. This was recommended by the chairman of the evening, William Gray. Sing songs will be held each Sunday evening after the majority of the churches are out. Skating parties and billiard and chess tournaments will form a part of the winter's program.

A. V. Dewberry, who was recently appointed military secretary, said that he is going to get each one of the members of the R. C. R. which is coming here in the near future to give him his denomination, and he will try to stimulate Christian work among the men. Sports have also been arranged for them by him.

ASKS RECTOR TO RESIGN.

STOLEN AUTOS ARE SOLD IN EUROPE

Six Detroiters Arrested—Cars Shipped Valued At $200,000.

DETROIT, Sept. 21.—Charged with shipping more than $200,000 worth of automobiles stolen in Detroit, through eastern ports to Scandinavinan countries, six Detroit persons, one of them a woman, have been arrested here and are being held by federal authorities under the Dyer interstate automobile theft act, it was announced today.

Those arrested were Almon Besden, 30; Belle Warner, 24; William Halpin, 30; Joseph Galbo, 25; Douglas Moore, 23, and Henry King, 19. Three men now serving a sentence in the state penitentiary at Jackson, following their arrest several months ago, are alleged to have stolen the cars on the streets here during a period of a few months.

The cars, it is said, were sent overland to eastern ports by those who now under arrest here, and shipped to Norway, Sweden and Denmark, where they were sold.

DESCENDANTS OF CREW OF THE BOUNTY GET MAIL ONCE A YEAR

Community of Tristan d'Acunha the Loneliest In the World.

LONDON, Sept. 21.—(By Canadian Press). — The loneliest people in the world, the inhabitants of the little island of Tristan d'Acunha, in the South Atlantic, will shortly learn something of the big movements of the outside world when the annual mail reaches them.

Two mail bags containing letters and other packages addressed to the settlers on the island are now on their way to Cape Colony. Thence they will be conveyed by H. M. S. Dartmouth from Simonstown to Tristan d'Acunha, direct.

Many of the settlers are descendants of the crew of the Bounty, who landed on that lonely coast, but eventually grew to like the place. Incidentally a British garrison was maintained as a sort of warden of the ocean area until after the death of Napoleon at St. Helena.

Cattle and sheep raising, poultry farming and vegetable growing, with ample fishing facilities, make up an ideal sort of existance of the Robinson Crusoe type.

LEO VOLL FOUND GUILTY OF INTENT TO INJURE WOMAN

Gave Mrs. Antoinette McGaffney Bottle of Whiskey and Carbolic Acid.

KITCHENER, Sept. 21.—A verdict of guilty of intent to injure, grieve or annoy was brought in by the jury tonight against Leo Voll of St. Agathe, who last March 2 gave a bottle containing whiskey and carbolic acid to Mrs. Antoinette McGaffney of the same village. In view of the evidence by the young woman as to the accused's good conduct and character, a rider was added urging clemency for the prisoner.

Justice Lennox adjourned the court until a further date, having granted the defence counsel's application earlier in the afternoon for a stated case, when for the third time the court changed the indictment against the prisoner, his counsel claiming that the case should be dismissed.

POLES CONTINUE TO GATHER IN BOLSEVIK PRISONERS IN NORTH

Soviet Reinforcements From Siberia Reported To Have Reached Russians.

WARSAW, Sept. 21.—Polish successes against the Bolsheviki are reported on the southern and central fronts, where the eastward advance of the Poles has been continued.

In Galicia the Poles have reached the Zbrucz, and now control the western bank of the river. Northward they have occupied Rovno, giving them the triangle of fortresses consisting of Lutsk, Dubno and Rovno.

These manoeuvres resulted in an entire regiment of Gen. Budenny's cavalry surrendering to the Poles, after the officers realized that they were defeated.

North of the Pripet, after heavy fighting the Poles occupied Pruzana and the railway station of Linowka. The Poles took 1,000 prisoners. Behind the northeastern front the arrival of fresh Soviet divisions from Siberia is confirmed. It is belived that the Siberians are reinforcing the Reds, who are concentrating along the Niemen River for a fall offensive, which the military observers say may start within a few days.

MISSIONARY ADDRESS.

WROXETER, Sept. 20.—Mrs. Harkness, wife of Rev. Dr. Harkness, pastor of the Presbyterian Church here, gave a missionary address in the church Sunday morning. She is an able speaker. The fact that she spent several years in the mission fields in China made her talk of greater interest.

The harvest home services of the Salem Methodist Church held on Sunday were a decided success. Rev. R. J. McCormick, B.A., of Blyth, preached morning and evening. The attendance was so large that numbers were unable to gain admittance. Monday evening a fowl supper and entertainment were held.

50 Cents Too Much For London Fair

There were complaints from all sides. It hardly seems right for London to boost her price to fifty cents, when Toronto gives five times as much for less money. Value is what the people want. That is why they buy Perfect Diamonds from John A. Nash, My Jeweler. He does not boost prices. His store is 206 Dundas street, "where you will eventually buy."

RAILWAY BOARD WILL GO TO OTHER CITIES TO FINISH HEARING

Local Evidence Will Be Taken in Toronto and Montreal.

MEMBERS GOING WEST

Chief Commissioner Carvell Considers Sittings Outside Ottawa As Wasted Time.

Ottawa, Sept. 22.—(By the Canadian Press).—During the course of the resumed hearing by the railway board of the Bell Telephone Company's application for an increase in rates this morning, Chief Commissioner Carvell made a promise that the board will hold sittings in Montreal and Toronto for the hearing of local evidence. City Solicitor Waddell of Hamilton put in a plea for that city, but did not get a definite promise from the chairman.

The suggestion that sittings should be held outside the capital came from G. L. Geary, corporation counsel for Toronto. "I am of the opinion," remarked Chief Commissioner Carvell, "that sittings held outside the capital are only wasted time; but I know what the feeling is, and we shall bow to it."

The chairman had previously remarked that the case was very similar to the recent rates inquiry, inasmuch as the chief question involved was one of principle and the board had refused to leave Ottawa in connection with that hearing.

The chairman stated that, accompanied by one of his colleagues, he would leave for the west on Saturday night to hold the regular autumn sittings in British Columbia and the prairie provinces. He would be in the west until near the end of October. He suggested that other members of the board might during his absence proceed to Toronto and Montreal. Counsel representing opposing interests were of the opinion, however, that all the intervening time would be required for consideration of the mass of evidence and statements being produced by the company.

When the hearing was resumed, G. R. Geary, K.C., corporation counsel for Toronto, asked for a number of statements which the opponents of the increase required. Among those which he requested as essential to the case of the opposition, was a statement giving particulars of any arrangements between the Bell Telephone Company and the Northern Electric Company of Montreal and similar companies in the United States.

Chief Commissioner Carvell did not agree that the information was essential.

What was important was to find out that the Bell Telephone Company was buying its materials as cheaply as possible, that there was no water in the stock, etc.

Glin Osler, counsel for the Bell Telephone Company, interjected that the Northern Electric Company was used by the Bell Company simply as a purchasing agent. If the Bell Telephone Company wanted something which was not manufactured in the Northern Electric plant, the latter company purchased it outside for them.

Mr. Carvell remarked that other companies had complained that they could not get a look in when it came to selling goods to the Bell Telephone Company. The Northern Electric had a monopoly of the business.

He then stated that the opponents of the application had asked permission to examine the books of the Bell Telephone Company. Some of these interests opposing the increase wanted the books examined by Col. Gordon, while the city of Montreal was anxious that the firm of Price, Waterhouse & Co., be given access to the books. He, therefore, asked that both of these be granted permission to examine the books.

Suggests Joint Examination.

Mr. Osler said that the company would prefer to have the books examined by one firm only, but would not refuse to give access to two. He suggested that Col. Gordon and Price, Waterhouse & Co. should get together and conduct examinations at the same time, and that they should decide jointly what statements they would require from the company.

Mr. Geary asked that the books of the Northern Electric Company be exposed. He said that the opponents of the application had asked that this be done, but the Northern Electric Company had replied that they were not interested in the case, and refused. The Bell Telephone Company, he said, held $750,000 worth of stock in the Northern Electric Company, so the latter might also be regarded as a subsidiary company.

The chief commissioner said that the Northern Electric Company might be forced to give all information regarding dealings with the Bell Telephone Company, but he doubted whether the board would be justified in issuing an order commanding that access be given to its books.

Mr. Geary replied that certain information must be obtained, and it was finally agreed that the opposition would decide on what was required and demand it.

FARMERS TO NAME CANDIDATE.

Fredericton, N. B., Sept. 22. — The United Farmers of York County are meeting in their first political convention at the courthouse this afternoon for the purpose of consideration of their action in the coming provincial election. It was said early this afternoon there was every indication that the United Farmers would nominate a complete ticket in York.

LOCAL NEWS

MADE INSPECTION.—Charles Elliott from Osgoode Hall, Toronto, provincial inspector of law libraries, made his annual inspection at the courthouse today and found everything in excellent shape.

SMOKER TONIGHT.—The members of the G. W. V. A. soccer team, runners up in the City Soccer League, will be presented with their medals at a smoker and card party in the local club house this evening. Lieut.-Col. W. G. Coles, past president of the G. W. V. A., will make the presentation.

SHORT OF CASH.—Becaue he has not sufficient funds to pay a $3 fine and $12.60 costs, Ernest Humphries of Toronto must serve seven days in the county jail here, following conviction on a charge of reckless driving by Magistrate D. C. McKenzie of Glencoe.

WILL GIVE ADDRESS.—N. R. Chauvre, a native of Bombay, India, who is studying for a mechanical engineering degree in the University of Michigan, will address the members' council of the local Chamber of Commerce, at a luncheon at Thursday noon instead of Friday noon as formerly announced. Mr. Chauvre is a high caste Indian and represents the new spirit of India. His subject will be Canada's commercial opportunity in India.

MISSION CIRCLE.—The Mission Circle of the First Methodist Church at its reopening meeting for the fall season last evening discussed plans for the future. Miss Florence Jackson was appointed mite box secretary. Miss Louise Pavey gave a splendid article on Christian stewardship. Great interest was aroused by Mrs. Barnard's introduction of the new mission study book entitled "The Bible and Missions." Extracts were read from a letter received from Miss Bertha Sutton, who is engaged in work at the women's Medical College in Pekin, China. The thanksgiving meeting will be held at the home of the president (Mrs. W. N. Manning), 525 Queen's avenue.

WANTS MORE MEN.—Chief of Police Birrell is desirous of obtaining four recruits for the local police force to fill vacancies caused by resignations during the past year. The vacancies have never been filled, but the resignation of Constable Louis McCaughey, taking effect today, makes the force below strength and cripples the staff.

FORCED TO LAND.—An aeroplane en route to Toronto from Detroit was forced to land in a small field on Weston street yesterday afternoon, when the gasoline supply became exhausted. The landing was successful, although it was far from a perfect one. As soon as more fuel was obtained the two aviators continued their journey.

LIGHT SENTENCE.—Mathew Forton of Detroit and Frank Wakefield of Windsor, who entered the house of William Hillman of Mosa Township recently, and stole shoes, a watch, jewelry, and bread and butter, arrived at the county jail here today to serve fifteen days at hard labor, which sentences were imposed by Magistrate D. C. McKenzie at Glencoe. The terms meted out for this serious offence are regarded by the local authorities as very light.

GRAND JURORS.—The grand jury selected for the fall assizes, which open here next Monday, is as follows: G. S. Adams, Delaware, farmer James Coursey, Lucan, laborer; M. V. Fisher, Westminster, farmer; A. Hodgins, Biddulph, farmer; John Maxwell, London, farmer; Daniel McKellar, Strathroy, retired; Edmund E. Noble, London, manufacturer; William Oke, McGillivray, farmer; James Peters, Caradoc, farmer; D. C. Purcell, Wardsville, retired; Martin H. Rosser, London, farmer; Charles Venning, Dorchester, farmer, and Octavius Weld, Caradoc, farmer.

HUSSARS TO MEET. — A general meeting of the former members of the 1st Hussars, 7th Canadian Mounted Rifles, Canadian Light Horse and any other mounted troops, Canadian or Imperial, will be held in the Armories on Friday evening. The 1st Hussars was one of the few units overseas to retain its identity, and wore its regimental badges. A splendid program for the coming winter, including indoor shooting, indoor baseball, and sports, hockey, basketball, etc., will be drawn up. The social side is not being overlooked and everything points to the local cavalry having a very active winter before them. A large number of the former members have already joined, and recruiting offices will be opened at an early date. The mounted troops have always been known for maintaining a high standard, and when reorganized can be expected to make a splendid showing. The brass band, under the leadership of Bandmaster R. Pococke, is fast filling the gaps made during the war. The trumpet band, which is also being re-organized, already has many applicants.

FINED $200 FOR HAVING LIQUOR

Frank Neville Decides To Sojourn With Governor Carter Awhile.

Frank Neville, 277 Talbot street, pleaded guilty to a charge of unlawfully having liquor in his possession today, and was fined $200 and costs by Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon. Neville accepted the option of a three-months' sojourn with Governor Carter.

"I got it out at a man's home," he explained, "in East London. I had not been drinking, and I do not want to tell who he is." Sergt. W. McCullough, who, along with Constable Pilgrim, arrested Neville, swore that he told him: "I paid for it and will not squeal." Under these circumstances a fine was imposed, the court commenting that there are legitimate ways to obtain liquor, and that the man who sells it is the culprit desired by the police.

Edward Johnston of Detroit, who was last week arrested with a revolver in his possession, was again remanded pending arrangements for his deportation to the United States.

DRUGLESS HEALERS TO DISCUSS ORDER

May Urge Legislature to Pass Bill Recognizing Them.

Discussion of the recent board of health order quarantining all drugless healers who attend cases of contagious disease will be one of the principal features of the Drugless Physicians' Association convention at Hyman Hall on Thursday.

The order was strongly denounced when it was first issued. Locally no case arose to which it applied, and the discussion regarding it died down. The convention, however, will revive it, and may discuss ways and means of combating it, if occasion arises.

The possibility of introducing a bill in the Provincial Legislature to recognize drugless healers and to license them will be discussed.

Only members of the association will be admitted to the first part of the meeting, from 1 p.m. to 2:30. After that hour it will be open to all drugless practitioners. There will be a general discussion on matters pertaining to the profession. W. C. Schulze, M.D., D.C., of Chicago, will discuss the treatment of various diseases by drugless methods. He will urge also greater unity among the drugless physicians.

An address by Dr. Schulze will be the principal feature of the evening session, which will be open to the public. The doctor will speak on "Drugless Treatment vs. Internal Medicine." Drugless physicians state that he is an authority on this, as he practiced medicine and surgery at one time, but discarded them for drugless methods. E. T. Essery, K.C., will be another speaker at the evening session.

FAVORS KILWORTH FOR CITY'S WATER SUPPLY

More Springs Only Solution in Opinion of Commissioner Mitchell.

Still hopeful that a large supply of water will be found the public utilities commission is continuing its drilling operations on Carling Heights. The well is now 120 feet deep and is likely to be drilled to a still greater depth.

Pumps in operation Tuesday took about fifty thousand gallons from it. This is not regarded as satisfactory. The amount of sand which is still coming out with the water makes it impossible to give an accurate estimate of the amount of water available.

Commissioner F. G. Mitchell holds to the opinion that wells are not the solution of the city's water problem, and that the only way to obtain a large supply of pure water is use more springs. Ample supplies for years to come can be found in the vicinity of Kilworth and Komoka, he believes. These can be added to the city's supply at comparatively little cost as it would only be necessary to build a number of catch basins and to pump the water from these to the reservoir.

HOLLAND PLANS TO STRENGTHEN FORCES

Queen Wilhelmina Declares Foreign Relations Satisfactory.

The Hague, Sept. 22.—Queen Wilhelmina, at the opening of Parliament yesterday, said the relations of the Netherlands with foreign countries had been maintained in a generally satisfactory manner. The situation in Europe, however, was uncertain, the queen declared, and the prospects held out by the League of Nations with regard to the future relations of the various states had not been realized as yet.

Under these circumstances she added, measures for reinforcement of the active forces of Holland would be adopted, while the pressure of military service individually and financially would be lessened. The queen announced a partial revision of the constitution.

THANKS JUDGE WHEN SENTENCED TO DIE

George Jones of Brantford Will Be Hanged.

Brantford, Sept. 22.—George Jones, convicted yesterday afternoon of the brutal murder of Elizabeth Giles here last October, was this morning sentenced to be hanged by Justice Kelly on December 2. The prisoner took the sentence with a "Thank you!"

FINE SCHOOL FAIR HELD AT MULOCK

Durham, Sept. 22.—The first school fair of Bentinck Township was held at Mulock schoolhouse, six miles northeast of Durham, last week. Four schools in the township were represented, and a creditable showing was made, both in exhibits and interest. The school sections showing were Nos. 6, 7 and 8, U. S. S. No. 2. Mulock School (No. 6) secured the largest sum of prize money, and U. S. S. (No. 2) won first place in the school parade. Mr. J. S. Cooper, agricultural representative for Grey County, was present and looked after proceedings. Other speakers were Rev. Mr. Aird, Reeve A. C. McDonald and Mr. Knoerck, School Inspector Wright of Hanover was also present.

The funeral of Jas. McNally of Durham took place to Zion Cemetery yesterday. He leaves his wife and three children—Mrs. Bert Handforth of Toronto, Wesley of London, Cecil of Toronto. Another son, Lieut. Stanley McNally was killed overseas.

MAKING INSPECTION OF G. T. R. PROPERTY

Officials Will Pay Special Attention To Carshops.

William Howard Taft, ex-president of the United States; Sir Thomas White representing the Canadian Government; President Howard G. Kelly, of the G. T. R., and other officials of that road, are expected to arrive in this city late this afternoon. The party, whose members will form the arbitration board which will fix the value of the G. T. R., are on a tour of inspection of the G. T. R. system.

While in this city it is expected by local officials of the road that the party will confine itself chiefly to the inspection of the carshops, as this department will form a big item in the purchase of the road. The trip to Chicago will be continued early this evening.

Rapid time is being made on the trip as a whole, for the officials on board a special train of eight cars left Montreal on Monday. They left Toronto at Tuesday noon, and spent the remainder of the day in touring the Niagara district. The night was spent at Fort Erie. No stop was made at Hamilton this morning, but the train stopped a few moments in St. Catharines. Continuing over the Buffalo and Goderich line of the Grand Trunk the party arrived in Stratford a little after noon.

WOMEN MAY GO ON COMMISSION

Housing Association To Consider Request From G. W. V. Auxiliary.

At the regular meeting of the G. W. V. A. women's auxiliary held at the rooms on Queen's avenue Tuesday night, plans were made for the big social evening and euchre party to be held there tonight. It is understood that a presentation will be made to Col. W. G. Coles, who has been president of the G. W. V. A. for such a long time. The medals won by the football team will also be presented on this occasion.

Six women were appointed as delegates to the high cost of living commission, which meets every Monday night, three of whom will form the weekly deputation. The following women were appointed: Mrs. Kendall, Mrs. O'Neill, Mrs. Tutt, Mrs. Bullen, Mrs. Summers and Mrs. Ball.

It was reported that their request that women representatives be appointed to the housing commission also was being taken into consideration by that body.

SURE SIGN THAT SUMMER HAS GONE

Quorum Can Now Be Obtained At Meetings of Civic Bodies.

Certain indication that the summer is gone is given by the manner in which civic bodies are settling down to the old routine of business. Scarcely a meeting marred the placid days of July and August, but now they are commencing to come thick and fast.

The special street railway committee will hold forth tonight. Thursday the housing commission will hold its bimonthly session, and in an adjoining room the special committee on level crossings will be busy. Friday night the town planning committee will meet.

The special committee on level crossings will discuss the estimates for subways at Rectory and Waterloo street crossings of the G. T. R., as presented at the last meeting by City Engineer H. A. Brazier and the Grand Trunk. Charles Forrester, the G. T. R. superintendent, has been invited to attend. He has been ill, however, and if he is unable to come the meeting will be postponed.

The town planning committee meeting may see a continuation of the discussion between its chairman, Ald. Seabrook, and John Cottam, as to whether the committee has been doing its duty. It is said that an attempt will be made to show that the committee has been doing valuable work since its formation. The progress which has been made with a geodetic survey of the city will be pointed out as one accomplishment, it is said.

ANGLICAN BISHOPS COMING SHORTLY

Week's Retreat To Be Held in St. Paul's Cathedral.

On October 4, Bishop Dowell of British Columbia will open the retreat for Anglican ministers in St. Paul's Cathedral. The retreat will be held for one week. Special speakers will address the clergy, who will be from London and the neighboring counties. These retreats are being held in Owen Sound, Chatham, Goderich and Port Dover.

A conference will in all probability be held regarding a mission being held in every parish in the diocese during Advent. It is felt by the clergy that a spiritual revival is needed.

"TISSUE OF LIES," SAYS CHARLTON

Scathing Letter Sent To the Globe by W. G. Charlton.

The following letter has been received by The Advertiser from W. G. Charlton of Welland, formerly of Aylmer, Ont.:

The Globe, Toronto:

In your article headed "Liberals Open Their West Elgin Campaign," you have demonstrated the unreliability of the press. The fertile mind of your St. Thomas correspondent has exuded a marvelous tissue of lies. Since the fake interview you published on December 7, 1917, claiming that I recanted saying that "the Globe has been bought," this is the next approach to malignity toward me appearing in your columns.

Note this: I did not "declare against class government." I did not state that "the Liberals of East Elgin will as vigorously oppose class government by the U. F. O. now as the Reformers did in the Tudor period," etc. I did not say that "the Liberals of Canada will oppose any movement that has for its object the exclusion of any but farmers." In fact, I did not utter any sentiment attributed to me in that item.

I am able to voice my own sentiments, and do not wish any ambition "quill-driver" to place words in my mouth which I have never uttered. I am sufficiently burdened to sponsor my own effusions.

Will you kindly make this matter right in your columns. I am sending a copy of this letter to The London Advertiser also, because I am an advocate of the truthful newspaper. Very truly,

W. G. CHARLTON.

Welland, Ont., Sept. 20, 1920.

LESS FALL WHEAT IS BEING PUT IN

Farmers Are Very Busy Cutting Corn and Filling Silos.

The following is a summary of the weekly reports made by the agricultural representatives to the Ontario department of agriculture:

Corn cutting and silo filling, threshing, winter wheat sowing, the second cutting of hay, fall plowing, etc., are keeping farmers busy in most parts of the provinces.

The acreage of wheat put in this fall is likely to be smaller than that of last year, and much of it will be late in sowing. Several representatives speak favorably of that already up.

Kent states that considerable seed corn was cut and shocked during the week.

Norfolk reports that canning factories are running night and day on corn and tomatoes, which are coming in very freely.

Kent reports that the weather of the past week was favorable for harvesting tobacco, but adds: "Seasonal labor for this class of work is hard to procure, although farmers growing tobacco are offering from $7 to $8 a day for expert handlers."

Frontenac states that some good yields of potatoes have been reported from the school fair plots. From five pounds of Green Mountain seed one little girl got 325 pounds, while another junior got 237 pounds from five pounds of Irish cobbler seed.

Lincoln says: "The U. F. O. is disposing of a lot of fruit in car lots. Growers generally have no serious complaint to date. The Elberta season is now beginning."

Norfolk reports that two carloads of boxed apples are being shipped to England.

Brant says that buyers are paying as high as $2.50 a barrel for spies on the tree, but that pears are cheap, selling at $1.25 a bushel.

Wentworth states that thousands of used baskets are being gathered in Hamilton for the use of fruit growers, owing to the scarcity of containers.

According to the Wellington representatives live stock in that county never looked better. "Many animals are roaming in clover up to their bellies, and buyers are hustling around to get cattle which seem to be scarce."

Frontenac also reports that live stock are in fine condition, and that although practically no good butchers' cattle are being marketed, a fair number of stockers are being shipped.

Glengarry reports that lambs are being marketed in large numbers, but that prices have gone down. Lambs in Manitoulin are selling at 10½ cents a pound.

Hogs are falling off in supply at from $18 to $19.50 a hundredweight.

CITY ASSESSORS NEED MORE ROOM

Looking After Income Tax Means Much Additional Work.

Additions to the staff and quarters of the city assessment department undoubtedly will have to be considered by the city council as the result of amendments to the income tax act. These greatly increase the work to be done by the department, and it will be impossible to carry on with only present facilities.

Income derived from stocks and bonds from mercantile enterprises and, in fact from everything but rents, is now liable for municipal taxation. Affidavits must be made out in connection with all these returns, which will mean an immense amount of work. What adds to the difficulty is that it must be completed in a remarkably short time. The returns are supposed to be made within ten days after the notices are sent out from the assessment office.

The clause increasing the exemption of married men $200 for each child also will increase the work. Formerly returns were obtained is bulk from the large factories, railroads and other places, where a large number of men were employed, the employers giving the paysheets and stating whether each employee was married or single. Now after these have been obtained individual notices must be sent to all the married men to learn how many children they have.

MUCH OPPOSITION TO PHONE INCREASES

Ald. Harley, Just Back From Ottawa, Tells of Conference.

Ald. F. E. Harley, London's representative of the committee opposing the increase in Bell Telephone rates, returned today from the hearing which is now in progress at Ottawa. He stated it was too early to make any predictions as to the outcome of the appeal, as only part of the company's argument had been heard, and the municipalities had not been called on.

Vigorous opposition is being manifested, he asserted. Aside from the representatives of the Union of Canadian Municipalities, representatives of the boards of trade of the larger cities also were present to protest.

Mr. Harley believes that the municipalities will call for an audit of the company's books, and that there will be other investigations by experts, which will require some months.

20,000 Names On City Voters Lists

Preparations For Next Municipal Election Started by City Clerk Today.

Preparation of the voters' lists for the next municipal election was commenced by City Clerk Baker's staff today. There are approximately 20,000 names to be placed on the rolls. Many additions have to be made on account of people moving into the city. In many cases joint registration of property has been made throughout the year so that both husband and wife are entitled to votes. This fact will be responsible for quite a numbr of additions to the roll, Mr. Baker said.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE.

New York, Sept. 22—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—Motor shares and kindred issues were again singled out for pressure at the opening of today's stock market, presumably in consequence of doubtful trade conditions. Chandler Motors fell 2½ points, Bosch Magneto 2, and Studebaker 1. Mexican Petroleum lost 1½, Republic Steel and Central Leather 1 each, and other prominent industrials made fractional declines. Among rails, price changes were uncertain.

1:30 p.m.—Comparative dullness prevailed during the mid-session, but the undertone, especially in oils, steels and sugars, remained heavy. Mexican Petroleum and Vanadian Steel were among the few leaders to show resistance with the low-priced rails.

OFF THE RAILS

WANTED TO HELP.

Believing that he heard opportunity knocking at his door, a one-armed man applied to the local superintendent's office on the G. T. R., asking for a job estimating the back time due to the employees of the road as the result of the recent wage award, which is retroactive to May 1. He said that he thought the men would be getting so much money that it would require extra help in figuring it out. He was gently told that only experienced clerks who were familiar with all rates could do the work, and that, anyway, there was no hurry.

ON HIS HOLIDAYS.

William Hart, chief clerk in the superintendent's office of the G. T. R., is on his holidays.

FILLED WITH CARS.

Because all the railroad yards east of the mining district in the United States are completely filled with empty coal cars waiting to be filled, all empty cars on the G. T. R. west of Toronto, even from Fort Erie, are still being returned to that country by way of Port Huron. Local officials of the railroad claim that the fact the yards west of Toledo are rapidly filling up is proof to their claim that any scarcity or the high price of coal is not due to transportation trouble.

SPECIAL TO CHICAGO.

A special G. T. R. train, consisting of five Pullmans, two diners and a combination car, will leave Toronto on Sunday next, passing through this city at 7:45 p.m., en route to Chicago and St. Louis. It will bear members of an excursion run by a private company.

BACK AT WORK.

Supt. C. F. Forrester of the local division of the G. T. R. returned to work this morning, after being confined to his home for a few days by illness.

HAD A HOUSECLEANING.

All the premises about the local G. T. R. station were thoroughly housecleaned this morning in anticipation of the visit of the arbitration party in the afternoon. Gangs of men have been cleaning the local yards for the past week.

BACK FROM HOLIDAYS.

Asst. Supt. Ross Edwards of the local division of the C. P. R. returned to work this morning after a three-week holiday.

HEAVY STEEL HERE.

After many weeks of waiting by the local officials of the G. T. R. a supply of 100-pound steel rails has arrived in the district. The work of laying this class of steel between Paris and this city has been tied up for some time, owing to the inability of the company to secure building material. As five cars of the rails arrived here within the last few days, and more are expected, the construction work will be resumed immediately, according to Supt. C. F. Forrester.

BIDDULPH FARMER ASKS $1,000 DAMAGE

Case Will Be Heard At Fall Assizes, Which Open Monday.

All actions for the fall assizes which open before Mr. Justice Logie in the courthouse here next Monday have been entered. The last jury case on the list is the suit of Richard T. Reycraft against R. E. Hodgins, both parties being Biddulph Township farmers. Reycraft, through J. M. McEvoy, his solicitor, claims $1,000 damages for "false and malicious statements regarding plaintiff" alleged to have been made by defendant at various periods. Included in the charges are that Hodgins alleged Reycraft embezzled money from the township council, while a member of that body, and that he declared plaintiff to be a thief, a liar and a rogue," before several witnesses.

Defendant admits that he said defendant was a liar, but denies the other charges. Meredith & Meredith will conduct the defence.

Non-Jury Action.

A non-jury action against David and William Tazzman, London Township farmers, has been instituted by John Wood, a retired farmer of this city, for $1,000 damages. Plaintiff claims that defendants neglected to keep farm premises leased by him to them in repair, and also asks possession of the property. Defendants through E. W. M. Flock, deny the claim which is being pressed by Meredith & Meredith.

Through his solicitor, J. W. G. Winnett, Albert E. Jolley of this city, asks that Joseph H. Cherry be declared trustee of certain Emery street property for an accounting of agreement. As an alternative, he asks that it be declared that the equity of the plaintiff in the property was transferred in satisfaction of a note for $200 and that a judgment entered thereon should be set aside.

Denies Agreement.

The defendant denies any agreement and claims that he is not now in possession of the property. William Mitgis asks for an accounting of a partnership between himself and George Strathopolus, in a shoe shine parlor at 400 Richmond street. Both parties are Greeks, and defendant denies any partnership, claiming that Mitgis worked by wage contracts, for which $1.172 is due him, but he refuses to accept the offer of this amount.

In addition to the civil actions two criminal trials will be heard, both being charges of rape. Irving Albert, a Muncey Indian youth, will answer a charge of rape preferred by the crown, a young Indian cripple girl being his alleged victim, and Harry Anderson, a local colored youth, will face a similar charge committed, it is alleged, in the county recently.

NOT IN FAVOR OF HUCKSTERS' CERTIFICATES

Medical Health Officers Regard American Proposal as a Fad.

Requiring hucksters to have a certificate showing that they are free from contagious diseases before being allowed to sell goods on the local market, is not a necessary measure in the opinion of Dr. W. S. Downham, M.O.H. Measures of this kind are being considered by some American cities.

"There is absolutely no need for such a measure in view of the information gained on contagious diseases in recent years," he said. "It is recognized by the medical profession now that contagion is communicated by direct contact with an affected person and not by contact with something the infected person has touched. Even supposing there were germs on the vegetables and fruits bought at the market there would be little chance of harm resulting from them. Most of the articles purchased are cooked before they are consumed, and that would destroy all the germs."

STEEL SUPPLIES A LITTLE EASIER

But Prices Are Firm, With a Tendency To Advance.

In its summary of the iron, steel, metal and machinery markets, Canadian Machinery and Manufacturing News, Toronto, makes the following comment:

There is not a large volume of business moving in any of the machine tool markets. None of the Canadian centres report any great buying, and the New York market says that it is quieter there now than for months past, with very little hope of recovery. Some of the Canadian dealers are inclined to blame tight money for keeping some prospective buyers out of the money, and they claim they could dispose of a number of machines were their prospects able to finance. There is a fair number of orders, as it is, but they are very much scattered. Dealers in this country do not complain of the stagnation that seems to have hit the New York market.

The supply of steel is a little more liberal, but the price that must be paid is liberal in proportion. The premium mills are making the great bulk of the deliveries that are reaching this market in the way of sheets, and they are still romping off with a high figure for their material. Warehousing interests are getting more or less nervous about going in and tackling large tonnages of this stuff, fearing that the premium market might crack, and leave them with a shipment on their hands in a skidding market.

As far as machine tool dealers can interpret the situation, they cannot see any price reduction yet. Many of the firms they represent are still booked for months to come, and the orders are all of the non-cancellation, a healthy sign for Canadian industry.

A further revision of prices has been made in Toronto warehouse lists, bringing bar iron and steel and bar mill shapes up to $5.75 per hundred pounds, a new high mark, and one not equalled in the memory of most of the steel men in Toronto.

The scrap metal market is still waiting for something to start it off on busy days again, but that something has not appeared, although some of the dealers claim that the only thing to restore the volume of trade is a lower level of prices.

MASSE CAN HANDLE DOUBLE WORK NOW

Says His Old-Time Strength and Energy Have Returned Since Taking Tanlac.

"Tanlac has built me up, so that I can now handle about double the work I used to," declared Oswald Masse, expressman for the J. B. Maillargeon Express Company, and living at 45 Elizabeth street, Montreal.

"I could not eat meat or vegetables without being bloated up as tight as a drum with gas afterwards. I had to live on cereals most of the time. My appetite was gone and I was growing weaker every day. My nerves were all on edge, I could not sleep well, and often had night-sweats. I had a pain in the small of my back and grew so weak I could hardly get through with my work.

"A druggist suggested my trying Tanlac, and very soon my appetite returned, and I can now eat meat, vegetables or anything else and never have indigestion or gas afterwards. My nerves are steady and I enjoy good rest without being troubled with night-sweats. The pains in my back has disappeared, and I am stronger and better in every way."

Tanlac is sold in London by Standard Drug, Limited, and by an established agency in every town.

TRADE OF WORLD GREAT BRITAIN'S COMMERCIAL AIM

Great Trade Corporation Gives All Possible Aid To Empire's Merchants.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—(Canadian Press.)—Never before in her commercial history has Great Britain possessed such wonderfully perfected machinery for the expansion of her international trade as that through which she is now, through governmental and private organization, seeking to strengthen her hold on foreign markets.

That is the gist of a report made by P. Harvey Middleton, assistant manager of the foreign trade bureau of the Guarantee Trust Company of New York, who has just returned from Europe, where he made an extensive study of British trade organizations.

British businessmen, Mr. Middleton's report sets forth, are not only determined to win back all of the trade taken from them in pre-war days by Germany, but to establish British commerce so firmly in every port of the world that other nations will be hard put to maintain their trade.

Trade Corporation.

One of the mediums through which British overseas trade is destined to expand, the report says, is the British Trade Corporation, incorporated in 1917, with an authorized capital of £10,000,000. Although designed to assist the small exporter, the policies of this mammoth corporation have beenj made freely available to the largest manufacturers of the empire, and it is only one of the numerous agencies at present facilitating the expansion of trade.

In addition to the elaborate commercial undertakings through which the trade interests of the empire will be cared for, an intelligence bureau is maintained to provide up-to-date and reliable information concerning conditions in foreign countries where trade may be sought. This bureau is being fostered through the British Overseas Bank, an institution formed by several English banks in March, 1919, to develop overseas trade along specialized lines.

DRUGGISTS DO NOT WANT TO TRADE IN LIQUORS

TORONTO, Sept. 21.—A. J. Johnson, Collingwood, Ont., president of the Ontario Retail Druggists' Association, which began its annual convention here today, said, with reference to the handling of liquor:

"We do not want the trade in intoxicants. We want law and order and would be better pleased if druggists did not have to deal in spirits. Some of us have sold spirits to save the public being mulcted by unscrupulous dealers."

BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY CLAIMS A BIG DEFICIT

Evidence Given by Officials of Company At Opening of Inquiry.

WANT $10,000,000 A YEAR

Proposed Increases Would Mean Only a Fraction Over Seven Per Cent.

[Canadian Press.]

OTTAWA, Sept. 21.—That the granting of the complete application of the Bell Telephone Company for increased rates would provide but 7.13 per cent on the book value of the plant, working assets and working capital, was the statement made by E. Palm, comptroller for the company, during the course of the first day's hearing of the application. Mr. Palm placed the net proceeds from the proposed rates at $3,995,734.

Near Half Million Deficit.

Mr. Palm, during the course of his evidence, stated that for the first seven months of 1920 the company had a deficit of $492,200 after meeting its interest and dividend requirements. He estimated that it would have a deficit of over $1,500,000 by the end of the year. The company had failed to earn its depreciation of slightly over 6 per cent by $576,700 in 1919, or the emergency rate for depreciation allowed by the railway board by $380,000.

Need $10,000,000 Yearly.

C. F. Sise, vice-president and general manager of the company, told the board that increased rates are necessary because the service is impaired as a consequence of war conditions, and also in consequence of rapidly increasing wages, cost of operation, maintenance and renewals. He stated that the most important thing that the company has to deal with at the present time is financing. As it is impossible for the company to do its financing by bonds, it is necessary that it should be put in a position to make the stock sufficiently attractive to bring in new shareholders. Mr. Sise stated that the annual requirements of the company for some years to come will be approximately $10,000,000.

1921 Estimates $16,000,000.

W. H. Winter, general superintendent of the plant, said the estimated expenditure for the present year had been reduced from $14,738,072 to $10,876,852, because of the costs and the delay entailed in procuring equipment and supplies. The plant budget for 1921, he said, should approximate $16,000,000, but it would be impossible to spend this amount even if it were available. Were the company certain at the present time of securing the money probably eleven or twelve million dollars could be spent next year. In order to meet business offering, expenditures in Toronto next year should amount to $4,410,595, including four new buildings. Montreal expenditures should total $2,833,300, including two new buildings.

The hearing adjourned after the conclusion of Mr. Winter's estimate until tomorrow morning. It is likely that the company will conclude the presentation of its case on Thursday, when the inquiry will be adjourned to give opposing counsel opportunity to examine the statements submitted.

C. F. SIZE EXPLAINS WHY INCREASED RATES ARE NECESSARY

OTTAWA, Sept. 21.—(By Canadian Press.—Heavy and steadily-growing increases in the cost of wages and materials, depreciation in plant, which must be overcome if the business interests of the country are to be met, and greater cost of financing were the chief reasons given by C. F. Sise, general manager of the Bell Telephone Company for an increase in rates when the hearing was commenced before the board of railway commissioners this morning.

At the present sitting of the board the company will be given opportunity to establish its case, and an adjournment will be taken to allow the representatives of the various public bodies opposing the application to study the statements submitted by the company. It is certain, however, that the witnesses to be put on the stand on behalf of the company will be subjected to much cross-examination by opposing counsel.

In the course of his evidence, Mr. Sise emphasized the fact that thousands of applicants for telephone service cannot be served, and that if the necessary plant is to be provided to meet the requirements of the public it will be necessary to borrow $10,000,000 per annum, for some years to come.

The increase asked for includes higher rates for individual lines governed by the size of exchanges and a message rate applicable to business telephones in several cities. It is this feature of the application that is likely to be the most bitterly opposed.

For cities outside of Montreal, Toronto, Ottawa, Hamilton and Quebec, the flat rate for business lines is still continued, but with a considerable increase.

The company states that it will need four and a half million dollars more annually to meet its requirements.

Mr. Sise closed his remarks just before the 1 o'clock adjournment.

NEW DEVELOPMENTS RESULT FROM PROBE INTO THOROLD FIRE

Statement of Fire Marshal Heaton To Press Last Night.

PRESS IS EXCLUDED

Expect To Conclude This Part of Inquiry Wednesday.

ST. CATHARINES, Sept. 21. — That several new and important circumstances were brought out in the evidence given at Thorold today in the inquiry being conducted by Fire Marshal Heaton into the circumstances of the fire in the town hall at Thorold on the night of August 16 last, when an attempt was made by a crowd of men to get hold of David McNeal, accused of the murder of little four-year-old Margaret Boucock, and lynch him, was stated by the fire marshal at the conclusion of the day's hearing, the press and public having been excluded.

Just what the new devolopments were, Mr. Heaton did not disclose. The inquiry was held in the library building, as the repairs to the town hall, necessitated by reason of the damage done by the mob on the night of the attempted lynching, had not been completed.

Acting Crown Attorney Griffiths of Wellington County examined the witnesses, 21 in all, in the absence of Crown Attorney T. D. Cowper of Welland County.

Official Statement.

Following is the text of the official statement of the day's proceedings:

"Twenty-one witnesses were heard at the morning and afternoon sessions, all of them having been eye-witnesses of the demonstration on the day of McNeal's preliminary trial, both in the afternoon and in the evening. Several new and important statements and circumstances were testified to and importance evidence was given as to the time, circumstances and outstanding incidents of the two fires that occurred in the town hall.

"The investigation will continue at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, when it is expected the evidence will be complete on this phase of the inquiry."

SHORTER DEMAND BRINGS DOWN PRICE OF WHEAT IN U. S.

Export Demand Slow—Price Falls 7 1-4c to 8 1-4c Net Lower.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—Receipts of over a thousand carloads of wheat in Winnipeg turned the trend of wheat values downward today, as the trade was inclined to look for increased pressure from Canada. December closed at $2.32 to $2.32½, and March $2.26½, 7¼c to 8¼c net lower.

The export demand for wheat was slow, and a weak feature in the situation is the fact that leading importing countries abroad supplied the most urgent requirements early in the season in the United States markets, and now, at the time when the Canadian crop is begining to move, the demand is less acute.

MINERS' LEADER TO VISIT CANADA

ROBERT SMILLIE, leader of the English mine workers, who has announced his intention of touring Canada and the United States shortly. He says he intends to lay the British labor situation fully before this continent.

RAILWAYMEN WILL INTERVENE IN HOPE PREVENTING STRIKE

Labor Party Will Attempt Persuasive Methods With Miners.

London, Sept. 21.—The railwaymen's delegates decided after a long debate to intervene in the hope of averting the miners' strike, according to the Daily Mail's labor writer, who adds:

"James Henry Thomas will probably propose to the meeting of the Triple Alliance Wednesday that a mediatory interview with the Government be sought. If the railwaymen's proposed intervention fails, it is probable that the Labor party will try persuasive pressure on the miners and Government, but much hope cannot be built on this."

NOTHING ACHIEVED.

LONDON, Sept. 21. — Failing an eleventh-hour development, virtually every coal mine in the United Kingdom will be idle next Monday, a meeting of the delegates from all districts having this afternoon accepted the report of the executive committee of the federation to the effect that nothing had been achieved by the negotiations to prevent a strike. The delegates, who numbered nearly two hundred, also indorsed the proposals which the executive made to Sir Robert S. Horne, president of the board of trade.

The Cabinet's Move.

The next move, therefore, appears to be with the cabinet, which met today to receive Sir Robert Horne's report on his conference with the miners' committees.

It is considered possible that the cabinet may reverse the decision of the president of the board of trade that the question of an increase of two shillings demanded by the miners, on which the negotiations broke down, must be referred to an independent tribunal. As the minister had frequently consulted with his colleagues during the conference, however, it is generally believed that they agree with him.

Majority Favor Strike.

It is unlikely that the miners will give way on their demand for an immediate increase of two shillings, for, from what can be gathered from the meeting of the miners' delegates today, they were not too pleased at the action of the executive in dropping their demand for a reduction in the price of domestic coal. It is true that a few delegates were opposed to going to the length of striking, in view of public feeling against it, and there was a considerable minority which voted against the strike. But the majority favored forcing their demand by this means.

Paralyze Industries.

A coal strike would in a very short time paralyze the industries of the country, but possibly this would ensue even before the factories were out of fuel, as the transport workers, who, with the miners and railwaymen form the "triple alliance," the most powerful trade unionist organization in the country at a meeting today, indorsed the action of the miners' executive and instructed their executive to recommend any action it deemed necessary.

Triple Alliance Meet.

The National Union of Railwaymen also met, but no statement was issued. There will be a meeting of the "triple alliance" itself tomorrow to consider the situation.

Even without the miners' strike the industrial situation is serious. Unemployment has largely increased in the last month, due to many of the woolen and cotton mills and boot factories working part time and the cutting down of the staffs at shipyards, and engineering and automobile works as a result of the falling off in orders, and the feeling among industries that owing to the decreased output they are unable to pay the present rate of wages. The cotton industry also is threatened with a lockout. The Master Spinners' Association today decided to call a meeting to consider the question of taking united action unless the strike of the Oldham spinners, which began yesterday, was settled. This means that the employers will be prepared to lock out al the spinners in the country.

PERPETRATOR OF BOMB OUTRAGE STILL UNKNOWN

All Efforts of Police Fail To Solve Mystery of Wagon.

WARNING A HOAX

Customs House Surrounded by Curious Throngs All Day.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Department of justice and police officials admitted tonight that five and one-half days' investigation has failed to solve the mystery of the explosion in Wall Street last Thursday which cost 34 lives and property damage running into the millions of dollars.

Officials generally agree that the explosive was carried into the financial district on a ramshackle wagon left standing at the curb in front of the Assay Office just before noon. Hundreds of clues have been obtained as to the identity of the driver and his wagon, but many of them are contradictory, and officials begun the long and arduous task of running all of them down and trying to draw correct conclusions therefrom.

A warning that the Custom House was to be destroyed at 2 o'clock today, which was received in the mail yesterday by William Edwards, collector of internal revenue, brought thousands of the curious to the scene at the appointed hour, and resulted in a half-holiday for many clerks and other employees who left the building. The bomb threat, however, failed to develop, and confirmed the belief of the officials at the time it was received that it was either a hoax or the work of some letter-writing "crank."

Members of the Journeymen Horseshoers' Union, local No. 1, at a meeting tonight, failed to identify the shoes of the horse found in the debris of the explosion.

Detectives have already visited 91 blacksmith shops in New York City, but without success.

Union officials say there are 500 blacksmith shops in New York and nearby towns in New Jersey, and detectives plan to visit them all as soon as possible.

Meetings of several other horseshoers' unions will be held soon, and the police will be present in an effort to develop a clue to the identification of the horse.

HOUR OF DOOM PASSES; CUSTOMS HOUSE STILL STANDS

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—The New York custom house was still standing at 2 o'clock, the hour when officials were warned they might expect to see it blown sky high today. It was also standing at 2:45, and there was no indication of an explosion in sight.

The "warning" of today's bomb plot served to draw to the custom house the most curious crowd that has assembled in New York for many a day—a crowd which outwardly at least displayed no anxiety, as it gathered for the pre-announced "bombing."

MENNONITES MUST SEND CHILDREN TO PROVINCIAL SCHOOLS

Manitoba Government Decides To Prosecute Violators of School Law.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 21.—The Winnipeg Telegram yesterday published the following: In absolute defiance of the school laws of the province, Mennonites of the Houston district, who appealed to the privy council early this summer for separate school, are refusing to send their children to the public schools recently opened in the district. This is the gist of a report made today by F. J. Greenway, assistant deputy of education, who has just completed an inspection trip of the entire Menosite district.

"Through pressure brought to bear upon the people by the priests of the district, there has been a solid resistance against sending their children to school offered by the community, with the result that we are now forced to start prosecution," Mr. Greenway announced, "and the matter has been placed in the hands of the attendance officers and will be dealt with according to our school laws."

BRITAIN WILL PAY HER SHARE AND ALSO GIVE ASSISTANCE TO FRANCE

Expectation of Wall Street In Regard To Anglo-French Loan.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—(Canadian Press.)—The Wall Street Journal states that it is generally understood among leading New York bankers that Great Britain's share of the Anglo-French loan is practically provided for, and that when the date of maturity arrives, on October 15, no financial arrangements will be necessary, except the actual redemption of the bonds at the office of J. P. Morgan & Co.

"No details are available," says the paper, "as the matter is confidential between the British treasury and its agents in this country, but the bankers in close touch with British financial dealings assert that in addition to accumulation of credits on this side, England has been making continuous large purchases of Anglo-French bonds in the open market for several months past. What the aggregate of such credits and purchases are is not known, but it is believed to be well over $200,000,000. Much of the weakness in sterling lately has been due to the purchase of dollars on the other side by the British treasury for this purpose. In addition, Great Britain shipped gold earlier in the year, which was generally understood to be to strength her Anglo-French loan funds here.

"Not only has Great Britain provided for her share of the loan, but it is being said in banking circles that the French Government obtained some assistance from her ally across the English Channel in getting together the $150,000,000 which France has, or will have, to meet as her share of the obligation."

O. T. A. FINES COLLECTED IN LUCAN COURT

[Special to The Advertiser.]

LUCAN, Sept. 21.—Charles Nangle of this town was fined $100 and costs for having liquor other than in a private dwelling house yesterday. Nangle, when found, was intoxicated, and had a bottle of liquor on him. He claimed that he received a drink from a man, whom he had only seen once before in one of the hotel sheds here.

E. L. Sherbondy, an American, stopping at Wingham, was fined $100 and costs for having a bottle of liquor in his car. Sherbondy was going to Wingham on the night of September 9, when his car collided with another car, and the result was that his car upset. Upon inspection a bottle of liquor was found.

Thomas Keelan was given a jail term of seven days for driving a car while intoxicated. Michael Gordon and Timothy Clevely were fined $20 and costs each for being intoxicated. The offences all occurred in the village but the men live near St. Marys.

Magistrates C. W. Hawkshaw and S. C. Chown convicted the latter three men, while Inspector Keenleyside and Crown Attorney McKillop of London prosecuted Nangle and Sherbondy.

WORRY AND WRINKLES

Despondency is a thing of evil results. Worry produces nothing but wrinkles and wretchedness. Let the reader put a note on her bureau, on her desk, and at the head of her bed, just two words,

"Don't Worry"

Worry is the greatest foe to the happiness of any household. An anxious, despondent face, a fretful, complaining voice, will make every one uncomfortable.

A woman's nerves are more truly the cause of worry than outside troubles. The nerves are to a woman's body the telegraph system which surely warns her of any trouble in the feminine make-up. Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the ideal woman's tonic for such conditions. When a woman complains of backache, dizziness or pain—when everything looks black before her eyes—a dragging feeling, or is troubled with nervousness, she should turn to this "temperance" herbal tonic, known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It can be obtained in almost every drug store in the land and the ingredients are printed in plain English on the wrapper. Put up in tablets or liquid. STOP! PYORRHOEA DISEASED GUMS—

Save Your Teetn Before They Loosen and Fall Out, Says Dentist—Make Diseased Gums Healthy and Teeth Tight.

Pyorrhoea or Diseased Gums are dangerous and should be given prompt and careful attention if you want to save your teeth before they loosen and fall out.

It's really alarming how many people have Pyorrhoea, and either don't know it, or just let it go until their teeth are all loose and beyond help.

Take my advice which is drawn from the years of successful experience of a practicing Dentist and don't let Pyorrhoea run on.

At the very first sign of sore, tender, spongy, colorless, or inflamed gums, do something. If the gums are receding or drawing away from the teeth, or if they bleed when you brush your teeth, start to use a good treatment such as Epithol at once.

The results I have obtained from this really remarkable preparation have been almost marvelous. Epithol seems to bring results—and quickly, too, where everything else has failed. I have seen many badly advanced cases that Epithol relieved within a few days—bleeding stopped—pus disappeared—soreness gone and teeth tightened. In fact I believe Epithol is by far the most efficient preparation I have ever used in the treatment of diseased gums.

Every person who has gums that show signs of Pyorrhoea should certainly give it a trial. Standard Drug Company, Liggett's Drug Company, or any good druggist can supply you.

DRIVE OUT DANDRUFF SO IT WON'T RETURN

By a Specialist.

That the dandruff germ is responsible for nearly all the diseases to which the scalp is heir, as well as for baldness and premature grey hair, is well recognized. We appreciate, therefore, the importance of any agent that can destroy its power. For this reason it is a pleasure to give herewith a prescription which a specialist states he has found after repeated tests, will completely destroy the dandruff germs with a few applications. In many cases it will almost immediately stop falling hair, and it has in numerous cases produced a new hair-growth after years of partial baldness. This prescription can be made up at home, or any druggist will put it up for you—6 ounces Bay Rum, 2 ounces Lavona de Composee, one-half drachm Menthol Crystals. Mix thoroughly, and after standing an hour it is ready for use. Apply night and morning, rubbing into the scalp with the finger tips. If you wish it perfumed, add 1 drachm of your favorite perfume.—Advt.

He also intimated that a special meeting of the city council would be held again shortly to settle up a number of civic matters that have been in abeyance since the 9th day of August.

A number of local firms, including the Canada Flour Mills, McKeough & Trotter steel works, Sutherland-Innes Corporation, Gray-Dort Motors, Limited, and the International Harvester Company may register a protest against the removal of the Pere Marquette industrial issues in North Chatham.

In a letter to the mayor the Pere Marquette Company stated that the cost of installing the proper kind of pavement the council demanded would not be warranted by present revenue derived from the use of the tracks. The company is therefore applying to the railway commission for permission to tear up the tracks.

GOING TO WEST.

WARDSVILLE, Sept. 21.—Allen Sitter, now living west of Wardsville on the Longwoods road, is leaving the homestead and moving into Bothwell, where he has bought a home.

Wm. Dykes left for the West today to visit his sister, Mrs. (Capt.) Woods, of Selkirk, Man.

WHEN TO GATHER ROOTS AND HERBS

For medicinal purposes, roots and herbs should be gathered when their medicinal properties are at their best. For instance, roots of annual plants should be dug just before their flowering season, and roots of biennial or perennial plants after the tops have dried. All these things are taken into consideration in gathering the roots and herbs, many tons of which are used annually in preparing that most successful of all remedies for woman's ills, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

GERMANY'S GAY QUEEN OF SPIES DIES A LUNATIC

Lizzi Wertheim, Famous As Beauty, Trapped, and Her Accomplice Executed.

BETRAYED GRAND FLEET

Berlin Butterfly Led Life of Romance and Frivolity Until It Wrecked Her.

LONDON, Sept. 21.—Lizzi Luise Wertheim, fashionable demi-mondaine, once celebrated in the gay night life in Berlin, and later "queen of the German secret service," has died in the criminal lunatic asylum at Broadmoor. She was sentenced at the Old Bailey on September 20, 1915, to ten years penal servitude, but after two years she lost her mind, and during the last few months has been so violent that attendants were almost constantly with her.

The death of Lizzi closes another sordid chapter of the German spy system. Her accomplice, George T. Breeckow, alias Reginald Rowland, who asserted he was an American citizen, was executed in the Tower of London on October 26, 1915.

Lizzi came from a highly-respected land began in 1902, when she was famous for her beauty and notorious for her conduct. She was described then as "a charming little woman with lustrous brown eyes glowing in a peach complexioned face, and a mass of gleaming hair." Her "crowning glory" was her greatest joy, even up to the time of her death.

Lizzie came from a highly-respected family, and was well educated, but her guiding principle during her entire career was to enjoy herself. She was "playing the game' in Berlin in 1902 when she met Bruno Wertheim, then about 23. She learned from him that he was the scion of a wealthy British family whose connections in England dated back about fifty years.

Drifts Back to Her Old Life.

Lizzi's charm and wit made Wertheim passionately devoted to her, and he brought her to England and made her his wife, as a result of which he was cut off from the family fortune. The romance endured only a year, when she began to drift back to her old life, and her demands upon his purse caused a separation.

The beginning of her connection with the German spy system was never definitely fixed, but it is known that not long after the war began her beauty, her profession and her British citizenship by virtue of her marriage, attracted the attention of Steinhauer, head of the German spy system.

In June, 1915, Rowland arrived in London. He was a slender, good-looking young man, who passed as a traveling salesman for a Dutch firm known as Dierks & Co. At that time he said he was English. The fact that "Mr. Dierks" was known to the British officials as a recruiter of German spies attracted suspicion to him. His first duty was to find Lizzi and give her directions to travel around the north of Scotland and get information on the movements of the Grand Fleet. His work was to transmit the information she gathered. First she said she wanted to have a "good time," and the pair became marked for their extravagance around London. When his money gave out she left England.

She was the brains of the pair and worked daringly. At one time she tried to make the acquaintance of one of the directors of the British naval policy, but was received only with amused indifference. She played her part well, and in Scotland got information from the younger British officers who fell before her wiles. Rowland transmitted the information by using secret ink, and writing between lines of regular business letters to his firm.

Betrayed by Spy's Salary.

The British secret service men became active when he received a remittance for a sum which they knew to be the salary of a spy for a month. Then the plot in his correspondence was discovered. When he was confronted by detectives who said that Scotland Yard wanted to check up his passport, he clearly showed his fear, a fear which never left him, and he confessed, but he made every attempt to shield Lizzi, and it was largely owing to this fact that at her trial she escaped with only a prison sentence.

A search of Rowland's belongings revealed her address, and the secret service men waited for her to return. She came about a fortnight later and was arrested. She showed great fortitude and courage, and the officials could not draw a confession from her. When Rowland became aware of her capture he made a more complete confession, in which he told of his early life in Germany and America, where he said he worked as a pianist. He said his real name was George Breeckow. He did not implicate her, but letters from him to her furnished enough evidence for her conviction.

For years Lizzi had taken drugs, and the hardships of prison life soon began to wreck her constitution and distort her mind. She lived in great suffering, but always maintained her cold dignity and admirable nerve until she developed periodical fits of violence. She was in the asylum nearly three years before the end.

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS REPORTED A FAILURE

Withdrawal of Troops Prove To Be Stumbling Block.

WARSAW, Sept. 21.—The peace negotiations between Lithuania and Poland have been broken off, and the Polish delegation has left Kalwarya and is returning to Warsaw.

Lithuania agreed to withdraw her troops behind the Foch line, but insisted that the Poles retire a similar distance behind the line they now occupy. To this the Poles refused to agree.

The announcement was made Monday that the council of the League of Nations had succeeded in getting Poland and Lithuania to agree to an immediate suspension of hostilities pending a settlement of their dispute.

ROCHESTER SURGEON FINED IN KITCHENER COURT FOR SPEEDING

KITCHENER, Sept. 21.—It was announced today by Mayor Eden following a finance meeting that the question of daylight-saving would be submitted to the ratepayers at New Year's.

Two surgeons from Rochester, Minn., Dr. W. S. Furlough and Dr. A. Martin, were charged with speeding in police court here. Dr. Martin was acquitted, it being proven he was only an occupant of the car. Dr. Furlough drove the car which knocked out a horse attached to a delivery rig. Instead of stopping, the doctor kept right on. He was chased by the police and brought back to court. He paid a $50 fine.

The motor car of Ald. Schreiter was stolen while standing in front of his home on Queen street today. Some children playing in the vicinity of the car at the time were given money by the auto thieves and sent to a neighboring store for candy, while the two car-snatchers made off with the auto.

TAKING PRECAUTIONS.

LONDON, Sept. 21.—The authorities here are taking precautions against bomb outrages similar to those at New York and Genoa. The stock exchange today issued a notice that parcels must not be delivered at the exchange, but deposited at a nearby cloak room. One of the exchange exits also has been closed.

LOST NEW JERSEY YOUTH LOCATED IN SANDWICH JAIL

Young Wolverton Doing Time For Breach of Canadian Liquor Laws.

WINDSOR, Sept. 21.—Extension of the street railway system serving the border municipalities of Windsor, Ford, Walkerville and Sandwich to Pilette road, along the riverfront beyond Ford City, is under consideration by the hydro-electric commission as the result of an appeal for better service made by the council of Ford City to Superintendent McGill today.

T. U. Fairley, chief engineer of the Commission, who is in Windsor in connection with the work of double-tracking London street, is to inquire into the extension program embracing all sections of the border, with particular reference to river front service. It is improbable, however, that any active work in this connection will be done until spring.

No Reductions Here Yet.

Although reductions on prices of all Ford automobiles and Fordson tractors to scales in effect previous to the outbreak of war were announced in Detroit by Henry Ford today, it is improbable that similar reversions to prewar prices will go into effect in Canada for some time. No official statement bearing on Canadian made cars was made up to tonight, although Gordon M. McGregor, vice-president and general manager of Canadian Ford interests, and Walter McCampbell, secretary-treasurer, were in conference with directors of the American company in Detroit today.

Missing Son in Jail.

City authorities tonight wired J. A. Wolverton, proprietor of Walnut Island Farm, N. J., that his son, missing for several months, was serving a term in Sandwich County jail here for breach of the Canadian liquor laws. The younger Wolverton has been missing for considerable time, and all efforts of his parents to trace him had failed until he was located today.

NEW THIEVERY IS MAID SNATCHING

Struggle of Housewives in England For Servants Becomes Intense.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—A new kind of thief has come into active existence along with the newly-rich, the newly-poor and the profiteer of England, named the domestic servant thief.

There are not sufficient maids to go round, and in consequence housewives are struggling and muddling through as best they can. Registry offices are sought, but they cannot manufacture servants to order, or even ration them fairly. The housewife is brought completely to her wit's end, and so there has developed a mania for maid snatching, which is pervading all circles where maids are necessary or desirable.

One such aspirant after a maid at all costs, noticing a promising specimen in the home of a slight acquaintance, wrote letter after letter to the maid, who at last succumbed and went after the "privileges" which were offered.

More than one would-be mistress resorts to the telephone—not once in a while, but often and systematically. Others have the audacity to make personal calls on the maid at the house where she is employed, while the less daring "hang about" outside the house when they know it is the maid's "night out."

The maid snatcher wins in the majority of cases. The bait of "more leisure," "higher wages," etc., is successful in tempting the average domestic worker, as it does most other workers.

In the case of a young girl domestic, the main snatcher as a rule visits the home of the parents and usually finds them easily won over into "persuading" their daughter to give in her notice and proceed to the house of the snatcher.

Nor is it the housewives alone who are guilty of these practices. The husbands are aiders and abettors more often than not. So eager are they for domestic peace that they will take any means to attain their object.

It is the maids alone who can stamp out the evil of they choose. Failing this, there seems no other recourse than to pass a law against maid snatching.

BIG LOSSES RESULT FROM UPPER LAKES LABOR TROUBLES

SARNIA, Sept. 21.—Word was received here tonight that unsettled labor conditions at the Soo and other ports are delaying the sailing of the steamer Huronic, which will be unable to follow the schedule. The steamer should have arrived here yesterday morning. Unless there is an unlooked for improvement in the labor situation, the Huronic will not likely make this port until Wednesday or even later.

The steamer Hamonic has a complement of sailors, and so far it is not known if her crew also is likely to be affected by the strike.

Both boats carried heavy freight cargoes on their voyage to the Upper Lakes, and big losses have resulted from the disagreement between the Northern Navigation Company, Limited, and its employees.

Tonight it was announced that the finance committee of the city council at a meeting had considered the tenders received for $128,000 worth of hydro bonds and had decided to dispose of the issue to the Dominion Securities Corporation, Toronto, at 93.493, a basis of approximately 6⅞ per cent. The bonds replace bonds of the Sarnia Gas and Electric Light Company, and the proceeds will be turned over to the Sarnia Hydro-Electric system.

JONES GUILTY, JURY FINDING IN MURDER CASE IN BRANTFORD

Colored Prisoner Claims Dead Woman Annoyed Him With Attentions.

FARMER-LABOR SPLIT

Tariff Issue Rock of Division in Brant Federal Field.

BRANTFORD, Sept. 21.—George Jones, colored, was found guilty here this afternoon of the murder of Elizabeth Giles on Market street in this city on October 27, last year. The prisoner took the stand in his defence and claimed that the woman was enamored of him, and wanted him to take her away and that he was worried and harried by her attentions. He pleaded that he was subject to lapse of memory when under strong emotion, and did not remember any of the occurrences on the afternoon of the murder. The jury took about an hour before returning with a verdict.

New Jury Required.

When court was opened this morning, it was found that the indictment in the Jones case, not having arrived yesterday for the opening of the trial, made it necessary for the swearing in of a new jury, and taking the evidence of the crown witnesses all over again this morning. This was done with dispatch, and the prisoner was called to the box shortly before noon. He was given a grueling examination and was not disturbed thereby. His demeanor in the witness box caused Justice Kelly to remark that his lapse of memory had not been evident at the trial. Family members and friends of Jones were called to give evidence as to his dangerous character when under one of his spells.

Said Mind Not Normal.

A. H. Boddy, counsel for the defence, made only a brief address to the jury, and argued that Jones was not responsible and was not of normal mind, when he committed the deed. Prosecutor Hughes pointed to the premeditation on the negro's part, when he took the knife, a long instrument, out with him early in the morning, with which to commit the deed. Jones, in his lapse of memory, always showed an aptitude to protect himself when his safety was endangered, Justice Kelly charged strongly against the prisoner, and stated there was no provocation for the deed, even if the woman had been infatuated with him.

Awaits Sentence Today.

The prisoner will be sentenced when court opens tomorrow.

When the jury in the murder trial retired, the charge against Joe Dutton of spreading false news was taken up and a jury empanelled. Dutton admitted that he said that he paid the police $200 a week as hush money in order to carry on an illicit trade in liquor, but claimed he only spoke jocularly, and there was no foundation in fact for his statement. The case will be continued on Wednesday. Justice Kelly told the grand jury that it was the first case of its kind in Ontario, and a decision might be reached of far-reaching importance.

Split on Tariff Issue.

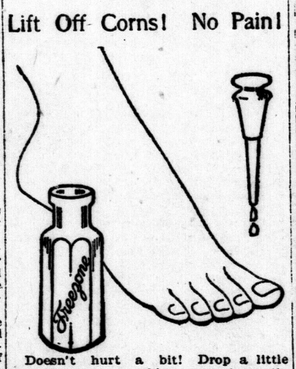

There will be no fusion of the Independent Labor Party and the U. F. O. in Brantford riding, it was announced today. Members of the latter executive will not side-track the tariff issue, at the request of the I. L. P., for any joint candidate, and the I. L. P. will not advocate reduction of tariff in any election in this city. President C. Simmonds declared to the farmers that free trade advocacy would mean suicide for the I. L. P. in Brantford, and his party would have none of it.

The upshot is that the U. F. O. will not be asked to take part in nomination proceedings in this city, and it is said to be unlikely that a candidate will be named at all to carry the U. F. O. banner.

Rheumatism

A Remarkable Home Treatment Given by One Who Had It.

In the spring of 1893 I was attacked by Muscular and Inflammatory Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally, I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted and even bedridden with rheumatism, some of them 70 to 80 years old, and results were the same as in my own case.

I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatic trouble to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-looked-for means of getting rid of your rheumatism, you may send the price of it, one dollar, but understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today.

TRAIN STRIKES HOSE WAGON ON INGERSOLL STREET CROSSING

INGERSOLL, Sept. 21.—The hose wagon of the local fire department was badly damaged tonight when struck by the westbound C. P. R. train at the King street west crossing of the St. Thomas branch. The eight members of the brigade, including Driver McMillen, jumped as the horses went down in a heap on the crossing, when they saw the train bearing down upon them, less than a hundred yards away.

While seven of the number pulled the horses off the crossing, another hurried to flag the train. Its speed was slackened perceptibly, but it could not be brought to a stop, and it crashed into the front part of the wagon, causing serious damage.

The accident occurred when the brigade was responding to a practice call to the factory of the Dominion Cone Company.

In making a sharp turn into the premises of the Ingersoll Machine Company the horses fell on the pavement and slid onto the crossing.

LOSS OF BOTTLES BOOSTS PRICE OF MILK, DEALERS SAY

Stratford Must Pay 14 Cents a Quart Because Consumers Keep the Receptacles.

STRATFORD, Sept. 21.—Definite returns from the dance held on Ontario street for the soldiers' memorial fund show $918.23 to have been added to the fund. The receipts were $1,296.

Notice was given today by local milkmen that, commencing September 22, the price of milk would be increased from 12 cents to 14 cents a quart. Cream will be 40 cents a quart, and buttermilk 7 cents a quart. Dealers claim that they can get better prices than those prevailing here by sending their products to Toronto. The principal reason given for the increase is the price of milk bottles and the failure of people to return the bottles.

A MATTER OF COMPARISON.

Efficiency and inefficiency are almost always merely comparative, especially when applied to larger things. To a Canadian the condition of the telephone service in many parts of the country seems the height of inefficiency, but to a Frenchman, a South American, even to an Englishman, our telephone service would seem infinitely better than their own. We have the greatest number of telephones, acording to population, and the wire mileage is greater than in any other country on the surface of the earth. Comparing ourselves with South America, we find that for about the same population all the countries of the southern continent have only 325,000 telephones, while we have about a million. For an area two and a half times that of this country their wire mileage is only about 1 per cent of ours. The same in lesser degree is true of the countries of Europe. And both the number of telephones in use and the wire mileage are rapidly on the increase here.

This condition may explain the decline in service in many sections. The telephone system, perhaps, has been called upon to handle a volume of business out of proportion to the increase in the means of handling it. That condition would inevitably make for inefficiency. There is reason to expect that the solution of the problem of good telephone service will come through development of the automatic system. The wonder is that it has been so long coming.

THIS SOBER COUNTRY.

A British M. P., Sir Richard Winfrey, who has just returned to England from a three months' tour of Canada, gives his impressions of the effect of liquor prohibition in this country. He says he is not a prohibitionist, but is almost persuaded by his experience here that prohibition is the better way.

Recognizing that Canada is not yet quite dry, he perceives, nevertheless, especially as an outsider, the benefits of such legislation as has already been enacted against the drink evil. He says that Canada is the most sober country he has ever visited, and that he saw more drunkenness in one night in Liverpool on his return to the Old Country than in six thousand miles of travel between Quebec and Vancouver.

"The great fact is that the public drinking bar has been abolished, with all its attendant temptations and evils arising therefrom, and everyone is learning to do without alcoholic drink not only at meal times but what is vastly more important, between meals also. I mixed with all sorts and conditions of people for twelve weeks, and only on five occasions was I asked whether I would take anything stronger than 2 per cent beer. I kept my eyes well open to see what was going on right along from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and I saw less than a dozen people the worse for drink during the whole visit, and half of that number was on a Saturday evening in Montreal, which, being in Quebec, is not, I understand, in the total prohibition area. One thing is quite certain: The open temptation to drink intoxicating liquor has been removed and no one seems to feel very acutely that he is suffering any hardship. Of course, here and there I heard some grousing, but that was overwhelmed by the chorus of approval on all hands, and the desire on the part of many that further regulations should be enacted with regard to the importation of liquor by private persons from one province to another."

This is no great testimonial to the beer and wine policy in Montreal. All the alcoholic liquors must go together in on general sweep. "The desire on the part of many" for prohibition of foreign and interprovincial importation is being balked for a while by the Meighen Government—one of its many anti-democratic manoeuvres—but by the time Sir Richard comes over here again it is expected that he will not find a distillery or a brewery working to make men and women drunk.

OUT OF THEIR OWN MOUTH.

In these columns last year comment was made on extracts translated in the London Times from Karl Kautsky's book, "The Guilt of William Hohenzollern." An English translation has now appeared of this important book.

After the armistice and the German revolution, Kautsky was appointed to examine and edit the documents at Berlin relating to the outbreak of the war. His main purpose in compiling his book was to put all the blame possible on Wilhelm and his militarist crowd, and as little as possible on Germany as a nation, so that when the formal peace was made, Germany might escape with lighter punishment at the Allies' hands. This was a fairly easy task with the official documents at his disposal. Less official matter, newspapers, periodicals, actions, speeches and writings of soldiers and civilians have shown up the German nation as the official documents do the Government.

Kautsky had his book ready in March, 1919, but by that time the republican government of Germany was apparently less anxious to learn and publish the guilt of the old regime. It held back Kautsky's work, and published instead a White Book in June, 1919, which Kautsky says was a whitewashing book, indorsing all the acts of the fallen government. At last, however, he got his book out.

Kautsky shows that the real cause of the war was the determination of the Berlin Government to dominate the world. To this end the main step must be the overthrow of British supremacy at sea, the bulwark of international law and of the world's freedom. Only England's self-restraint staved off war during the years that the German navy was being built up to challenge her, says Kautsky. Her "encircling" policy, as her German enemies called it, i. e., her formation of ententes with France and Russia, Kautsky regards as not the cause, but the effect of Pan-German aggressiveness.

He proves from the documents that after the assassination of the Austrian archduke at Sarajevo, it was the kaiser and Germany who urged war upon Serbia, and Austria, who showed traces of reluctance. Germany egged on Austria. Berlin insisted on "localizing" the Servo-Austrian quarrel, i.e., refusing any say to Russia or Britain, even at the imminent risk or certainty of a general conflict. The Potsdam councils of July 5 and 6, 1914, first revealed through the American ambassador at Constantinople, are documentarily proved to have been real, in the teeth of lying denials at Berlin.

Quotations from Kautsky's book should be incorporated in our school histories. It is all important that boys and girls growing up should have an intelligent, clean-cut conception of the causes of the war. If the "republican" government of Germany refuses to try the guilty, they can at least be tried by the grand jury of the citizens of the world, with Kautsky's documents before them in black and white. "Out of their own mouth."

THRESHING DAYS IN ONTARIO.

The beauty of spring and the promise of summer are being given their fulfilment these autumn days all through rural Ontario. The grey wood smoke of the engine that drives the whirring thresher is a part of the landscape almost always seen in some direction. Man's ingenuity has added tremendously to the efficiency of the machinery, so that a threshing that once would have taken two days will now be done in one, but there are human sides to the operation that have persisted from the past, and that will probably long continue.

Threshing is more than a mere mechanical or business operation. It has very human aspects. It is one of the occasions of the year on every farm when the housewife feels called upon to show her prowess in setting a good table for the men who toil all day in the dust and sweat of the barns and stacks. Not that the threshers give any very outspoken expression of their appreciation. Time is too precious to be spent in any lingering over the delicacies—indeed, it seems to be a point of professional honor to stay no longer at the table than is barely needed to satisfy the appetite, then back to the big job while there is daylight to carry on.

The past mingles with the present around the big traction engine. A big pile of old rails, conveniently placed for use, disappears into the big mouth of the engine. One might reflect that it is more fitting that these old rails, split fifty or sixty years ago by the fathers and grandfathers of the present generation, should supply the energy for harvesting the grain of the fields than be put to more domestic use. These old rails, rock-elm and oak, cedar and black ash, show a surprising length of life. After half a century they are often still firm and tough. Today the rail fence gradually gives way before the more up-to-date wire fence, but it will be a long, long time before the younger generation of Western Ontario will be without this object lesson of the toil that their forefathers went through in the big job of clearing this country and making it the fruitful district that it is today.

Inside the big barns an artist might find subject for a picture in the whirr and dust of the machinery, and in the constant, regular movement of the men whose jobs are to toss down the sheaves to the platform, and to feed these sheaves properly and regularly into the separator, while their fellows below place the grain bags beneath the spout, fill them with the grain and carry it off to the bins. A steady stream of grain flows from the spout, now to this side, now to that, with a regularity that is caught by the carriers, whose actions become almost automatic. During these coming months millions of bushels of the grain will move to the elevators and mills, Ontario's big share in the production of the nation's food supply.

There is no time lost in the threshing days. The last sheaf has scarcely been fed into the separator before the outfit is preparing to move on to another farm. There is almost a touch of the gypsy in the procession that winds along the country road, tractor, separator and water wagons in order, pulling in at some gateway, past the farmhouse and on to the barns, there to be set up and started going, as it will continue going till probably November. Out on the western prairies the same operation is going on from the Red River to the Rocky Mountains, but there it is so big, so purely mechanical in its rush, that it is shorn of much of the human side that seems still to stay with the Ontario threshing.

EDUCATION.

[Port Hope Times.]

As schools have reopened again, the thought arises: "Does our system of education produce the results we wish?" Do we ever stop to consider what we want our schools to do? We wish our children to be educated but do we ever decide what form we wish that education to take?

The schooling given our children should have for its objects the making of good and efficient citizens. This can only be accomplished by teaching patriotism and morality. It is unfortunate that the duty we owe our country and our neighbors is not emphasized more strongly to the school children.

Another faulty feature of our educational system is that school education tends to drive the young away from the productive walks of life. A system that takes a boy adapted to be a farmer and makes of him a professional man or a bookkeeper is not an ideal one. Not enough stress has been laid on the education of the pupils for all walks of life, and too often the result of our education has been to dissatisfy the graduates of our schools with manual labor of all kinds.

The Port Hope high school has departments for teaching agriculture and technical science, and we would strongly advise parents to make full use of these courses in the education of their children.

In no walk of life is a proper education as useful as on the farm, and no one can enjoy and employ an education to better advantage than the farmer. The farmers of Ontario are an educated class, but until very recently the education they received in the schools of Ontario, outside of reading, writing and arithmetic has been of little use to them, and it has been only by hardships that they have educated themselves as farmers.

Until the parents take a more sympathetic interest in their children's education we cannot look for more satisfactory results. Too much is expected of the teachers who need the support of the citizens at large in this the most important work of the country. In the past the parents and public have indulged in carping criticism rather than in constructive suggestions.

Canada's future depends on the children of today, and a great responsibility rests on the parents to see that the proper education is given to the young people of the country.

From Here and There

MORE VALUABLE WORK.

[London Daily Mail.]

Repeated convictions for reckless driving are still met by a fine instead of exemplary terms of imprisonment. Our roads have been well called "unsignaled railway tracks," with every danger that implies. Yet the police are still engaged in the futile business of "trapping" motorists on safe stretches of road, instead of patroling by motorcycle where real dangers exist, and controling reckless and ignorant drivers.

THE WORLD'S WORKERS.

[Winnipeg Free Press.]

The most of people are familiar with Carlyle's philosophy about labor. He gave it a setting in his writings which is being gradually realized in practice. Public opinion takes a different view of work from what it did a half century ago. Time was when a man could pass for a "gentleman" and live idly on the labor of others—in other words, be a non-producer. Work is no longer regarded as an ungentlemanly performance. The philosopher's point of view has won out, because it was "founded on a rock."

Here and there the influence of the old conception is traced. Some men are pursuing with feverish haste their fortune-making with the idea of "retiring." Work is the opportunity for self-realization. A man not only earns wages thereby, but he earns that which is more essential, his self-respect. Just as it takes work to drain a swamp, so it takes work to drain society of low-lying ideals and practices. Every human life at its best is then possible. The worker, like his person, is sacred. The conditions of labor often get confused. The principle is universal; the conditions are subject to circumstances. Where people are intelligent enough to discern the organic nature of society they will not willingly allow one member to suffer injustice. It is important that you be instructed in the right views about work. The home and the school must give the set of mind in this aspect of life. Work is not simply a means of livelihood; it is a man's calling. He needs to get that attitude early, and become inured to discipline and toil as soon as he is able to do so.

PROSPERITY AND CREDIT.

[Vancouver Sun.]

It often happens to businessmen that the greater their prosperity the harder up they are for ready cash. They have use for all they can get hold of, and more. They are growing rich by keeping the money employed.

Canada today is in much the same position. Her wheat crop is the most valuable in the history of the Dominion, being estimated at over $600,000,000, as compared with $333,000,000 last year. But this very abundance is causing a temporary inconvenience. When the farmer takes his wheat to market he wants the money for it at once. The purchaser, consequently, has to borrow from the bank, and the bank is not repaid until the grain reaches its final market.

While the bank funds are being used in this way, they cannot be loaned to manufacturers or merchants who ordinarily conduct a large part of their operations on borrowed capital. The result is that the merchant and manufacturer are obliged to convert into cash a portion of their liquid assets. This means that they have been selling their government war bonds, because this class of security is readily marketable, with the inevitable result that the price has been somewhat reduced.

Thus, by a roundabout process, a heavy wheat crop has reduced the value of war bonds. The net wealth of the country, however, is increasing. In a little while the money receivable for the wheat will make its influence felt, and credit will once more become sufficient.

WHAT THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS HAS DONE.

[Bay City Times-Tribune.]

A gentleman on the telephone on Tuesday, who described himself as a "subscriber," and who afterward gave his name, asked if the League of Nations is formed to prevent wars, why the league does not now stop the trouble between Poland and Russia?

Poland and Russia remain without the League of Nations, and are not amenable to the orders of the league. These two countries have been fighting ever since the peace treaty was signed, and the League of Nations is endeavoring to bring these countries to an understanding that will result in peace. The League of Nations is functioning, however, even though the United States is not represented in its council. Three-fourths of the world is now in the league, and in November eleven more states will enter. The conspicuous absentees from these lists are our own United States, Russia, Mexico and the enemy states of Germany, Austria, Hungary, Bulgaria and Turkey.

The present council of the League of Nations consists of representatives of Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan among the great powers, and Belgium, Brazil, Greece and Spain from the smaller powers.

Here are some of the many important things the council has done:

1. Appointed the commission now fixing the boundaries of the Saar Basin.

2. Named the governing commission for the Saar Basin, and this body of men is now ruling the Saar region under supervision of the League of Nations.

3. Appointed the high commissioner of the free city of Danzig.

4. Named a committee of ten famous international jurists, including Elihu Root of America, to draft a plan for an international court of justice.

5. International Health Conference prepared plans for a permanent health organization, under the League of Nations, and proposed measures to combat typhus.

6. Transit commission prepared proposals for establishment of a permanent body to carry out the League of Nations' tasks of maintaining freedom of communication by rail and river.

7. Summoned a conference of world-famous financiers and economists to take up the present serious international financial situation.

8. Dr. F. Nansen, the eminent explorer, has accepted the task for the League of Nations of looking after the repatriation of those prisoners of war who still remain in Russia and Siberia.

9. Asked all countries represented on the council to nominate one military, one naval and one air representative to advise the council on their specialties, to advise on general reduction of armaments and to control private manufacture and export of munitions and arms.

10. It has named a secretary-general and appointed a staff of experts who are collecting and collating information for the use of the League of Nations. A secretariat has been temporarily established in London, but will eventually be moved to Geneva, which is to be the permanent seat of the League of Nations.

JUST CRITICISM.

[St. John Globe.]

Lady Burnham and other women who traveled Canada from coast to coast with the Imperial Press party, have very frankly answered the challenge for their criticism of Canada with the declaration that "our wastefulness is wicked." They accuse us of being wasteful of food at a time when the world is complaining of a food scarcity. They accuse us of being extravagantly wasteful in our manufacturing enterprises, emphasizing particularly the forest destruction caused by our cutting and milling methods. Speaking of these impressions of her Canadian tour, Lady Burnham declared: "You are wasteful in every way. Your wastefulness is wicked; it is cruel. I cannot tell you how it all has distressed me." If the indictment is a true one, and there can hardly be two opinions on that score, it must at once be apparent that at our own doors lies very much of the fault for the high cost of living of which we so loudly complain. If we are wasting food, and wasting the materials that form the basis of our national wealth, it follows as a matter of course that we are aiding in creating an unnecessary food scarcity and that we are failing to get from our industrial efforts their full value. The indictment of extravagance and wastefulness comes from women who, although they have enjoyed to the full every minute of a boundless Canadian hospitality, carry constantly with them the memory of years which taught, and are still teaching the crime of waste and extravagance. They have known what it is to do without things to eat and things to use. From the depths of their hearts they sound a word of warning that is true friendship. Canada should give serious thought to criticism which came only as the answer to direct questions—criticism which in this time of world stress it is greatly to our discredit to have leveled against us, but criticism we all know is honest and well founded.

Poetry and Jest

THE GOLDEN GIRL.

[T. A. Daly.]

Red hair!
Isn't it quare?
Once on a time I'd do nothin' but jeer at it.
Now, faith,
Look at me teeth;
See how I show them an' growl when you sneer at it.

Brown eyes?
Muddy wid lies,
Dull an' deceitful, I once was decidin' them:
But—whack!
You will go back
Under me fist now, if you'd be deridin' them,

What's more,
Freckles galore
Made a complexion the worst I could deem of it;
But now—
You must allow
They give a touch o' pure gold to the cream of it.

Some girls
Flaunt the red curls,
But it's blue eyesinundher that gaze at ye;
Some own
Freckles alone—
Let them be oglin' as much as they pl'ase at ye.

One charm,
Needn't alarm,
Fear not the lass who is only unfoldin' one;
But she
Blessed wid all three—
Like my own Nora—Och! She is the golden one.

MET HIS MATCH.

He was part of the advance guard of the American invasion, and passed the huge west end hotel with the Londoner who was showing him around.

"How long did it take to put that up?" he asked.

"Oh, about three months."

"Gee! We'd do a job like that in three days in New York."

Nothing more until the Houses of Parliament. Then:

"Say, that place looks mighty good to me. What is it?"

"Don't know," said the Londoner. "It wasn't there when I crossed the bridge last night."

SONNET.

(Legare George.)

All men raise up some altar on their sight,
Some star to follow, some dear dream to love,
Some sanctity that keeps their lives alight,
For which their spirit cannot do enough;
I have loved beauty, tender in the rose,
Or in the wakeful midnight soothed and stilled;
Beauty, whereby the acceptant spirit grows
Into that greater which itself has willed.

Beauty, whose face shall leave me not again,
Being thus wise and beautiful and dear,
I need not fear the mockery of men,
Nor death, nor lonely darkness need I fear,
Having this light and glory of your face,
The presence of your calm and healing ways.

PREPARED.

Harper's.

Mrs. Killifer desired that the picture be hung to the right of the door; Mr. Killifer wanted it hung to the left. For once the husband proved to be the more insistent of the two, and Henry, the colored man, was sentenced to hang the picture according to Mr. Killifer's order.

Henry drove in a nail on the left. This done, he also drove one in the wall on the right.

"Why are you driving the second nail?" asked Mr. Killifer.

"Why, boss, dat's to save me de trouble of bringin' de ladder tomorrow when you come round to de missus' way of thinking," said Henry.

FALLTIME WINDS.

(Frank L. Stanton.)

I.

Falltime winds are hard to beat
Ef you've got the dancin' feet!
'Fears to me that, late an' soon,
They jes' blow a dancin'-tune;
Or to take another view,
It's the life they put in you!
Hard to keep still when they're blowin'
Even ef no fiddle's goin'!

II.

Falltime winds, they 'pear to say;
"Rise up thar, at break o' day!
Happiest sort o' times you'll win
When you've got the harvest in!
Now's yer time an' now's yer chance—
Gals air comin' to the dance!
Good times with you—we'll be bound,
When you swing the gals around!

III.

Falltime winds—jes' let 'em hum!
Blow our cares to Kingdom Come!
Joy o' livin' here below
Where the sweetest blessings flow!
Here's the season, hard to beat,
Fellers, with the dancin'-feet!
See the jubilation sign?
(Come on, gals! an' next dance mine!)

SWINGING ALONG.

(Washington Star.)

Swinging along to September!
Running the usual way!
'Neath the sun where it hangs like an ember
Old Earth is not scheduled to stay.
From Snowville we traveled to Maytown.
To Rose Land we came pretty soon;
And Autumn, that genial, though grey, town,
Looms up 'neath the round yellow moon.

Swinging along to September!
Making fast time every day,
With nobody pained to remember
The price that a traveler must pay.
Swinging around all creation
Not far from the heavenly gates,
Earth gets 'round on time to each station,
And nobody's boosting the rates.

NIPPON.

[Alfred Noyes.]

Last night I dreamed of Nippon. . .
I saw a cloud of white
Drifting before the sunset
On seas of opal light.

Beyond the wide Pacific
I saw its mounded snow,
Miraculously changing
In that deep evening glow,

To rosy rifts and hillocks,
To orchards that I knew,
To snows of peach and cherry,
And feathers of bamboo.

I saw, on twisted bridge,
In blue and crimson gleams,
The lanterns of the fishers,
Along the brook of dreams.

I saw the wreaths of incense
Like little ghosts arise,
From temples under Fuji,
From Fuji to the skies.

I saw the fairy mountain. . . .
I watched it form and fade,
No doubt the gods were singing,
When Nippon Isle was made.

ABREAST OF THE TIMES.

"What has become of the man who used to tell us how anybody could get rich raising chickens?"

"I guess," said Farmer Corntossel, "he has switched around and is makin' a fortune out o' plans for sellin' chicken feed to the people he started raisin' chickens."

A SONG.

[Frank L. Stanton.]

Love is a lonely way;
Hands clasp, and then they part;
But remember that I loved you
In life's love ways, Sweetheart!

And I did not fear Fate's challenge,
Nor Death's unerring dart;
I only knew I loved you,
Sweetheart. Sweetheart.

Dark storms may dim your heaven,
But sure, the clouds will part,
Remembering that I loved you,
Even unto death, Sweetheart.

WHAT TIMOTHY WAS DOING.

Little Timothy went to visit his Aunt Elvira, a dignified and severe woman who owned a parrot. One morning, coming unexpectedly upon Timothy and the bird, she was horribly shocked to hear the little boy using some profane words. "Why, Timothy," cried the old lady, "I do believe you're trying to teach my parrot to swear." "Oh, no, I'm not, auntie," the boy replied. "I'm just telling it what it mustn't say."

BEEF FOR THE SICK.

Meat when properly prepared is easily digested and well absorbed, and experiment proves that raw meat is more easily digested than cooked. The meat of young animals, with the exception of veal, is more easily digested than the meat of older animals, because there is less connective tissue in young meat, and the walls that hold the muscle tubes are more delicate.

The kind of meat given to the sick depends upon their condition, but for the first meat meal in convalescence a patient may be permitted to have scraped beef made into balls.

To prepare scraped beef balls, wipe with a dry cloth a piece of lean beefsteak, cut from the round. Cut it into strips and lay them on the meat board. With the back of a small paring knife, or some prefer, with the tines of a silver fork, scrape the meat toward you, separating all the flesh from the fibre. As the meat from one side is scraped, turn it over and scrape the other side. You need leave nothing but the connective tissue of the meat. Season the scraped meat with salt, shape it lightly into balls, and heating a frying pan very hot, sear the balls quickly on both sides. Serve them hot on rounds of buttered toast cut slightly larger than the balls.

For sandwiches scrape beef as for balls and season with salt. Cut bread very thin, butter slightly, remove crusts, and use the scraped beef for filling. These are very nourishing, and easily digested. Celery or union salt sometimes renders them more palatable, but indeed, unless a patient or a child is told that they contain raw beef he is likely to eat them with relish, without knowing it.

Scraped beef may also be attractively served in cream on toast. Heat three tablespoonfuls of scraped beef in a quarter of a cup of cream. Season with salt and serve on dry toast.

TALKS ON HEALTH

BY WILLIAM BRADY, M. D., Noted Physician and Author.

The Child With Poor Digestion.

Conditions outside of the digestive tract often cause so-called chronic indigestion in childhood. Thus infected tonsils or infected accessory sinuses in the nose are commonly found responsible, or in obstinate cases, an unsuspected infection of the kidney (pyelitis) proves to be the cause. Too late hours, irregular meal times, unrestricted nibbling or piecing between meals, too hasty eating, gulping down morseis of food with the aid of swallows of fluid, not chewing the food thoroughly, neglected or decayed teeth, and that curse to childhood, the old maid teacher, who expects a child to behave like an old maid, may be the cause of poor digestion and consequently impaired health.

One of the important regulations parents must insist on is that the child remain at table twenty minutes at least, whether he eats or not. There should be no exception or let down in enforcing this rule. In time, the child will learn to occupy the twenty minutes in leisurely eating, instead of gulping down food and rushing away to play.

A vast quantity of medicine is poured into children with indigestion to no good purpose. It is utterly absurd to feed such a child any form of pepsin in the belief that it will help digest the food. The pepsin is never wanting in the stomach secretion, even in the case of indigestion. It is equally illogical and futile to give the child medicines which purport to be stomach or intestinal tonics, for, of course, no medicines have such effects. The relief of chronic indigestion in children must be brought about by a search for the cause and the proper treatment of any causative condition discovered, or by a regulation of the habits and diet of the child.

In some cases, particularly when there is considerable fermentation in the intestine, lactic acid bacillus cultures have been given with benefit. For this purpose numerous little tubes, tablets and other preparations are marketed, but there is no reason to imagine that these preparations have any superiority to buttermilk for the purpose, if, indeed, they are as efficient. Buttermilk contains not only infinitely greater numbers of the desired lactic bacilli, but also considerable lactic acid, which is in itself inimical to the growth of the gas bacillus and of putrefactive germs in the intestine.

No formal diet can be set down for a child with chronic indigestion. But the proper diet for a normal child of the same age should be followed as closely as possible. I shall be pleased to send parents suggestions for feeding children over one year of age, with specimen diets, if the request is accompanied with a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

It should be understood that "chronic indigestion" is not a definite disease, but merely a loosely applied term signifying some disturbance of the processes of nutrition.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

A Sober Second Thought.

Your articles are helpful, well written and interesting. You say in speaking of a difference with Noah, "On sober second thought.." Now, doctor, we ask you as a friend where you get it, for if your second thoughts are sober it is fair to assume your first may not be.—C. A. N.

Answer—No, I merely mentioned that because, so often, second thoughts are not sober. It isn't fair to jump at conclusions that way. I am now living with my first wife, but that by no means, no, not at all, warrants the conclusion that I ever have or ever will do it again. Nor, on the fortunate other hand does it imply that I won't. I'll take lemonade, thank you.

Bottle Weakness.

My baby is fifteen months old and I suppose she ought to be taking milk from a cup, instead of the bottle now. But she refuses to do so. How can I make her take it from a cup? (Mrs. E. D.)

ANSWER—A baby should be taught to drink water from a cup by the time she is six months old. Your baby will take the milk from the cup if you take the bottle away once and for all and simply fight the battle out with her until she concludes that she is going to have pretty poor picking unless she takes food from the cup.

Yes, Clip His Ears and Slit His Tongue

Neither of our children, aged four and seven, has ever had the measles. A neighbor now has two children down with it. Don't you think it advisable to expose our children, or at least the older one to it now, so he will have it while he is young? Several have told us we should.—E. D. C.

Answers—Your advisors are a singularly ignorant lot, for this late day. They evidently imagine measles is a joke and something good for a child. Measles kills three times as many children as scarlet fever does and two-thirds as many as diphtheria does. Anyone who would advise or sanction the deliberate infection of a child with measles ought to be given ten years in prison, whether ignorant or just vicious. Such ideas are horrible and revolting to the mind of anyone who loves children. In fairness to the helpless victims of such crimes, you as a mother should report to the health officer of your community every person who gives such advice.

How To Have Pretty Natural Looking Curls

Straight, lank hair is becoming to but few women and there's no excuse now for anyone looking homely and unkempt on that account. Those who have foresworn the curling iron because of the damage it does by drying and breaking the hair, will be glad to hear that the simple silmerine method will produce a far better and prettier effect, without any injurious result whatever. If just a small quantity be applied with a clean toothbrush before doing up the hair, the loveliest natural-looking curls and waves will be in evidence in three hours, and there will be nothing streaky, sticky or greasy about it.

A few ounces of liquid silmerine, obtainable at any drug store, will prove a welcome addition to many a dressing table. It is best applied by dividing the hair into strands and moistening each of them separately from root to tip. The beautiful wavy effect will last for a considerable time.—Advt.

BRYANT—KIPP.

A pretty house wedding took place on Monday, September 20, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Kipp, Dunn street, when their daughter, Bertha Adeline, became the bride of Mr. Leonard C. Bryant of this city. The Rev. G. W. Dewey officiated at the ceremony, Mr. G. E. Bryant acted as groomsman, and Miss Nellie Johnson as bridesmaid. Only the immediate relatives of both parties were present, including the bride's grandfather. After a wedding dinner had been partaken of the happy couple left amid showers of good wishes for Niagara Falls and points east. On their return they will reside in their new home on Dunn street.

HILLEBRECHT—EISLER

On Thursday afternoon, Sept. 18, at 2 o'clock, a very pretty wedding took place at the First Lutheran Church, Logan, when Miss Ella, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eisler, was united in marriage to Mr. Wilfred Hillebrecht, of Logan. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. W. Ness, pastor of the church, in the presence of about one hundred and fifty guests. The bride, who was given away by her father, was gowned in white duchess satin and georgette, trimmed with seed pearls and sequin, wore a bridal veil caught up with orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of asters and ferns. Miss Clara Hillebrecht, sister of the groom, who acted as bridesmaid, was in pink silk crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of asters. Mr. Frank Eisler, brother of the bride, was best man and the wedding march was played by Miss Lavina Mueller, organist of the church. After the signing of the register the wedding party repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where a breakfast was served. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a pendant, set with pearls, and to the groomsman a shaving set. The bride was the recipient of numerous beautiful presents following the ceremony. The evening was spent in dancing, the music being furnished by Messrs. Ronnenberg and Thompson, and Miss Laura Morey. Guests were present from Stratford and Kitchener. Mr. and Mrs. Hillebrecht will reside on the groom's farm in Logan.

BOYD—HOLCOMBE.

A charming house wedding was that which took place at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Melville Dale, of Hyman street. It was the occasion of the marriage of Miss Una Loretta Holcombe of London, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Holcombe of Peterboro, and Mr. Harold C. Boyd, also of London, son of Mrs. R. Boyd, Maitland street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. S. Roy and the wedding music played by Mrs. Frank Holcombe of St. Thomas. During the signing of the register Mr. Frank Holcombe of St. Thomas sang "Until."

A profusion of asters and gladioli in the living-room formed a pretty setting for the bride, who appeared unattended in a handsome gown of midnight blue charmeuse, with touches of filet lace and a corsage of roses and orchids. After the ceremony a delightful wedding breakfast was served, the bride's table being prettily decorated with small cut-glass vases of pink roses and smilax. The out-of-town guests present included Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Holcombe of Welland, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Heard, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Holcombe, all of St. Thomas, and Miss Ettie Farlow, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sterling and Miss Madeline Foley, all of Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Holcombe, father and mother of the bride were house guests at the home of Mrs. Melville Dale.

The bride and groom left on a short wedding trip and on their return will reside at 339 Maitland stret. The bride traveled in a smart suit of navy tricotine, with hat to match, taupe fox furs, and wore a pretty corsage of roses.

DR. HILL URGES THAT NURSES PREPARE FOR PUBLIC HEALTH WORK

Addresses Victoria Alumnae at First Meeting of Season.

Dr. Hill of the Institute of Public Health was the speaker for the first meeting of the Victoria Nurses' Alumnae, held last night at the hospital, his subject being "The Public Health Nurse." The speaker referred to the excellent work being done in the United States and Canada along this line, pointing out the technicalities of the work and the great usefulness of the public health nurse to the community. He claimed that there was a great demand for such workers, and urged the nurses to take up this line of nursing, pointing to the new class being opened on October 15 in connection with the Western University, where they might receive instruction.

THE CIRCUS DOG.

Part Six.

MONTY IS RESCUED.

Monty wiggled his little self until he was sore, but he could not get free from the sack. He was a prisoner in earnest, and the man who had stolen him, to make sure that he would not escape, tied the neck of the sack firmly. It was a dirty old sack that potatoes had been in, and the dust and sand got into poor Monty's eyes and hurt our little friend dreadfully. He was too brave, however, to cry out, and he knew it would do no good to bark or raise a fuss, for the circus tent was by this time far behind, and no one was near to rescue him. But Monty did not know, nor did the man know that a quiet, little figure was stealing after them, his whiskers blowing and his horns bowed over ready to give a certain person a good bunt when the opportunity came.

Now, we had better tell you right now that this man who had stolen the little circus dog was a man from another circus, who wanted to make money with Monty. He had come a long way that day, and as it was late at night all the trains had left from that place. He had a long way to walk to another station, where there would be another train, but he did not mind, for he thought the prize was worth it—and so the prize would have been worth it had he got away with it, but the fates were kind to Monty and it was not to be that he was to be carried off in such a fashion. It was a warm night, you will remember, and the bad man was thirsty, so when they came to the bank of a river he laid the sack with Monty in it on the bank, and kneeling down, tried to drink from the river. That was our old friend Billy Goat's chance. He bounded forward, his chin almost to the ground, gave a little jump just before he got to the man, and then bunted him right into the river. How frightened the man was! It was a dark night and he could not see Billy, so he felt sure he had been hit with a big club; he thought, of course, that it was Mr. Bangs, Monty's master, so he no sooner struck the water than he started to swim for the opposite shore. What rejoicing there was when Billy ate a hole in the bag and Monty was able to climb out, free once more.

FIRST READING CIRCLE OF DRAMA LEAGUE IS ALREADY ORGANIZED

To Read "Contemporary Dramatists" This Winter.

The first reading circle to be started in connection with the London Drama League is that which has as its official leader Dr. Tamblyn, the president of the league. Already this circle has had three informal meetings held on the green about the Western University. So far the club has read Shakespeare, but expects shortly to begin T. H. Dickinson's "Contemporary Dramatists." Although Dr. Tamblyn is the official leader of the circle, each member is expected to take the leadership for one meeting, these meetings being held every two weeks. It is expected that other circles will closely follow in the wake of this one and that soon the Drama League will be the mother of many such organizations.

The members of this first circle include Dr. and Mrs. Tamblyn, Dr. and Mrs. Crane, Dr. and Mrs. Hughes, Dr. and Mrs. Le Touzel, Dr. Barnett, Miss May Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Firth and Mrs. Albright.

PRESIDENT SENDS HEATHER TO CLUB FROM SCOTLAND

Union Mothers' Club to Hold First Meeting on November 4.

The executive of the Union Mothers' Club met yesterday afternoon at the Technical School to make plans for the work of the coming season. In the absence of the president, Mrs. John Gemmell, Mrs. L. Atkinson, first vice-president, was in the chair. The main business of the meeting was the selection of topics for discussion at the various mothers' clubs during the winter, the following being chosen: "Civic Understanding," "The Sub-Normal Child," "Our Neighbors," "Cultivation of the Habit of Obedience," "Correct Speech and Good Manners," "Education—Intellectual Tests," "Education By Book," Round Table Talks With the Teachers," "Truancy and Delinquent Parents."

Union Meeting.

The first regular meeting of the Union Club will be held at the Chesley Avenue school on November 4, when W. L. Clark of Leamington will give a talk. This will be the first of a series of talks to be given in the city by Mr. Clark during the week-end. The Union Club has on hand almost $700 towards their $1,000 promise to the Children's Hospital. At yesterday's meeting they decided to keep the money in the bank until the whole amount had been collected.

The new recording secretary, Mrs. Kirkpatrick, was present. Through an error her name was omitted from the list of officers published last spring.

An interesting and pretty feature of the meeting was the distribution of a box of heather, sent from Scotland by Mrs. John Gemmel, the president, who is expected home shortly.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

"The sober folk, the useful folk, who all the day are toiling,
They say God gives the solid things that to their world belong,
Houses, and lands, and golden gains to pay them for their moiling;
But I, a foolish poet, say that God gives song."
—Eleanor Duncan Wood.

Requests.

Dear Miss Grey,—I wrote some time ago, but never saw my letter in print. Hope you got mite (shin plaster) for S. C. H. May I have baby bonnet pattern Leona sent in? Will copy and return as soon as possible. Inclosing stamped envelope, also dime for fund. Hope to be some help next time. MEDINA.

Ans.—Thank you very much for dime for hospital, Medina. As soon as pattern is returned to Mail-Box, shall be glad to send it to you.

Dear Miss Grey,—Would you kindly reprint the recipe for elderberry wine which appeared in an issue of The Advertiser a few weeks ago? Thanking you in anticipation. ANONYMOUS.

Ans.—In making a request of this kind, it is preferable to send name and address for clipping, as space is valuable. However, we are reprinting recipe for you:

Elderberry Wine—Strip the berries from the stalks and measure them into a crock. Pour boiling water on them, in the proportion of two gallons of water to three of berries, press them down into the liquor, cover them closely and let them remain until the next day, then strain the juice from the fruit through a sieve of cloth; when this is done squeeze from the berries the greater part of the remaining juice, mix it with that which was first poured off. Measure the whole, and add 3 pounds sugar, ¾ ounce cloves, 1 ounce ginger for each gallon, and boil twenty minutes, keeping thoroughly skimmed. Put it when more than luke warm into a perfectly dry and sweet cask (or if a small quantity of wine be made) into large stone bottles, which answer for the purpose quite well, fill the cask entirely, and pour very gently into the bunghole a large spoonful of new yeast mixed with a very small quantity of the wine.

HEATHER BELL.

Recipes From Anna Bell.

This is my first letter to the Mail-Box, and I trust it will not be destroyed. I am a constant daily reader of your valued paper and have tried many of your recipes, which have been excellent; also have received many useful hints from your page. I am inclosing a dime for the Sick Children's Hospital, and will you kindly send me the wonderful stocking-foot pattern? I will also inclose some recipes which I have tested and found to be extra good. Am inclosing self-addressed envelope.

LONELY ANNA BELL.

Graham Loaf—3 cups graham flour, 2 cups sour milk, 1 cup brown sugar, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 cup raisins. This recipe has never failed.

Silver Cake (extra good)—Cream ½ cup butter with 1 cup sugar, 1 cup milk, 1½ cups flour, 3 teaspoons baking powder; lastly, beat in whites of 2 eggs, or even 1 white with two tablespoons of water put in before you beat it will do, especially when eggs are dear.

Muffins—1 egg, ¾ cup sugar, 1 cup milk, 2 teaspoons butter, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 1½ cups flour and a pinch of salt.

Crumb Cake—1¾ cups flour, 1 cup brown sugar, 1 tablespoon butter (rounded); mix above well and save ½ cup to sprinkle on top of cake; 1 cup sour cream, 1 cup raisins, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, ½ teaspoon cloves, 1 teaspoon soda put in cream.

Ans.—Thank you for your good recipes and hospital dime, Anna Bell. Please send me your name and address, repeating request, and I shall be pleased to mail stocking-foot pattern.

Around the Grate Fire.

I am inclosing the pattern sent to me by Queen Bess. Thanks for her copying it for me. I can't crochet myself very much, but my sister does, so I got the pattern for her. She has copied it and I am returning it. Will try and be of help next time.

SARDONYX.

It's over a year since I've written to the page, and in the meantime having been finding helpful hints in your cosy corner. Would you think me very dense if I asked how the stocking was cut when using the famous stocking-foot pattern. I can't seem to get it right nohow. We are having rather nice weather for this time of year, and hope it continues till the fall work is done.

I noticed where Mutt's Sister wished to correspond with someone near Cobalt. I live farther north, but if there is anything about the country she cares to know perhaps I could inform her, if she cares to write to (shall I say, old lady with a large family. I feel awfully old at present, or should I say look old. I went to sleep in Haileybury several months ago, and when I wakened was minus my teeth, but hope shortly to have some shop teeth. Don't you envy me breaking them in?

I wonder if others found this about aluminum ware: If soaked with cold water after using there isn't any mark left like there is when you pour in hot water.

Wishing the page every succss will inclose mite for S. C. H.

MOTHER OF THREE GIRLS.

Ans.—I think the best explanation I can give is to tell you to spread the stocking to be footed flat on a table, in the fashion it would be if it were new. Now take the pattern and place it on the foot of the stocking, and see how it compares in size with the footing desired, and trim it accordingly. Then cut the foot material and sew at heet and toe. It should then fit the stocking after you have taken off the old foot, and can easily be sewn on in place of the one removed. Glad to have a visit with you again, and to have your interest from your distant home.

Am returning patterns you so kindly sent. Thanks for them. They were very pretty. As this is pickling time will give a pickle hint. How many have tried putting a few bits of horseradish on top of plain cucumber pickles before sealing? It improves the flavor and they keep well if the sealer isn't real air tight. We have kept them splendidly in a crock. LILLIAN.

Elderberry Pie.

Dear Miss Grey,—I saw English Mother's request for recipe for canning elderberries a few days ago, so am sending my way of doing same. It is very simple, and they always keep good. I like elderberry pie through the winter:

Elderberries Canned—Pick and wash berries, put in kettle and cover with water. Bring to boil and let boil two or three minutes, then bottle.

Elderberry Pie—Line a pie plate, put in elderberries, ½ cup sugar to one pie, a little nutmeg, sprinkle a little flour over elderberries, cover with pie crust and bake.

ENGLISH BUTTERCUP.

P. S.—Will you please forward inclosed letter to Reilly, who is a shutin? Also find inclosed mite for S. C. H. —E. B.

Ans.—Letter forwarded. Thank you for generous hospital gift and recipes.

Ripe Tomato Mustard.

About a year ago you printed a recipe for green tomato mustard pickle which was very hot and lovely. We moved about three months ago, and I have lost my book which contained my recipes I had cut out of your valuable column. I want to know if you could print the recipe again if you have it at hand. Here is a ripe tomato mustard pickle which is good: Slice and boil for an hour, with six small red peppers, ½ bushel of ripe tomatoes, strain through a colander and boil 1 hour, with 2 tablespoonfuls of black pepper, 2 ounces ginger, 1 ounces allspice, ½ ounce of cloves, 1-8 ounce mace, ¼ pound salt. When cold add 2 ounces mustard, 2 ounces curry powder and 1 pint of vinegar.

For Sore Throat—Take 1 teaspoon of baking soda and dissolve in 1 pint of boiling water and 1 teaspoon of salt and gargle, half glass at time, when cold. Better than peroxide.

Hoping I am not taking too much of your splendid paper, I will close, and as I have seven girls will sign myself

BUSY MOTHER

Ans.—I think this is the recipe to which you refer: Mustard Relish—4 quarts green tomatoes, peeled and chopped; twelve cucumbers, peeled and chopped 6 onions, chopped fine; put all together and add half cup salt with hot water; let stand over night. In the morning drain off and add 4 cups vinegar, ½ dessertspoon turmeric, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 teaspoon ginger, 2 cups brown sugar, 1 teaspoon celery seed, a little cayenne pepper. Boil ½ hour, then add 1 dessertspoon mustard and 2 dessertspoons flour mixed with vinegar to thicken.

Many thanks for your recipe and good hint.

MOTHERCRAFT TO BE TAUGHT BY VICTORIA ORDER OF NURSES, PRESTON.

The Preston branch of the V. O. N. is always right up in progressive ideas and work. Having got the baby clinic well established they are now taking up what is known as mothercraft. This is very new and may be described as teaching the girls from 11 years up to be helpful in the home in case of mother's illness.

The course, which will be conducted by Miss McKee, head V. O. N. nurse, will comprise eight to ten lessons of one hour each, given every Friday afternoon from 4 to 5 o'clock. It will embrace such useful information as to how to bathe and dress baby if the mother is ill; how to sterilize baby's food utensils and prepare the food; how to make up her bed with her in it. This and many more simple items will enable the girl from 11 to 14 years of age to be of great assistance in an emergency in the home.

The course will commence on Friday, September 24, and will be entirely free to all girls of both the public and separate schools. At the close of the course a diploma will be given to those who have successfully mastered it.

WORTLEY ROAD M. C.

"Our Neighbors" was the subject on which Mrs. Pellow addressed the Wortley Road Mother's Club last evening.

The other contributors to the program were Miss Rogers, who gave a reading and Miss Heeden, who rendered a vocal solo. Arrangements were made at this meeting for an autograph party, to be held at the club next month.

WHY GOLD WAS BETTER

Thought Notes Might Spoil in the Wet.

London, Sept. 21.—"I take the sovereigns home because if the notes get wet they will be spoiled." This was declared to have been the remark of Ayber Goolam, 26, an Indian subject, who was charged at Thames with illegally purchasing 128 sovereigns for an amount exceeding their face value. According to the evidence, defendant, a ship's fireman, was stopped when leaving the East India Dock, and on being searched the sovereigns were found upon him. When questioned, he replied that he bought them for amounts varying from 20s to 24s at Sheffield from persons whose names he did not know. He added: "I am taking the gold to my home in the Punjab, as I get 9 or 10 rupees for a pound note, and I get 15 for a sovereign." Accused was remanded on his own recognizances.

Peter Billiken, 2:05¼, broke his ankle at Arden, Pa., last week, and his useful career as a trotter is now at an end. This richly-bred son of Peter the Great, 2:07¼, is owned by S. A. Pickering, Pittsburg, Pa.

Princess Mary, 2:03¼, was second in the 2:10 pace at Milwaukee, after a hard six-heat battle, which was won by Hallie Hoyt. Phil Patch, 2:08¾, was ruled out in the fourth heat.

Harvest Lou, daughter of The Harvester, 2:01, and Lou Dillon, 1:58½, won the 3-year-old event at Kutztown, Pa., trotting the half-mile track in 2:18½, 2:17½, and beating a field of six. She is owned by W. Harry Orr, Reading, Pa., and looks good for 2:10 on a mile track.

The Peter the Great pacing stallion, Peter Farren, 2:07¼, owned by P. Keefe & Son, St. John, N. B., has been leased for the balance of the 1920 racing season by Len R. Acker, the theatrical magnate of Halifax, N. S., whose entry into the maritime racing game has added no little interest to the Down-East sport. Peter Farren will be driven in his races this fall by William Hood, who is in charge of Acker's other horses.

Vic Fleming was 2-2-1-2 with his newly-acquired trotter, Baroness Hanover, b. m., by Manrico, 2:07¼, in the 2:20 trot at Milwaukee, giving her a winnrace record in the third heat of 2:10¼.

Calgary Earl, 2:02¼, paced the Danville, Ill., half-mile track last week in 2:05, in a special with his stable mate, Eva Abbe, 2:03. With good conditions he would have shaded the track and state mark of 2:04¼, held by Single G., 1:59½.

Dr. John Morgan, a famous oculist and an ardent lover of the trotting horse, recently dropped dead at his summer home at Hadley, Maine. He was the owner at the time of his death of the famous pacing mare, Evelyn W., 2:00½, and her 1920 foal by Lu Princeton.

Russ McGirr and Jack Keener, the Calgary teamsters, are now racing on the coast. At Vancouver, Wash., week of August 25, McGirr won with Main Direct and Barondale, while Keener won with D. J. Burke twice and Mildred Direct once. He was third twice with Lou Axworthy and Lillian B.

Trainer Chas. A. Valentine was so impressed with the good form of his former pupil Un, 2:03¾, which he drove for owner W. J. McDonald in the free-for-all on the closing day at Readville that he persuaded the Boston sportsman to permit the Rediac pacer to be raced professionally this fall. In consequence, Un now is a member of the Valentine stable and will try conclusions with the free-for-allers through the final swing of the Grand Circuit. Un was the star pacer of the Valentine stable in 1918, winning $8,465 for the Ohio trainer.

Emily Ellen, 2:09¼, probably the most remarkable of brood mares owned by her breeder, Mr. David M. Look, Castleton Farm, is represented on the Grand Circuit this year by every one of her foals old enough to start, namely: Harvest Tide, 2:06¼; Brusiloff (3), 2:04¼, now four years old; Daystar (3), 2:06¾, and Lee Tide (2), 2:21¼, but much faster; a record-breaking showing for a brood mare. All of these foals now before the public may be seen at the Lexington track October 4-16, and it is probable that at the request of many horse lovers this wonderful young mare—she is but 13 years old—and all her foals will be exhibited. This will include her yearling bay filly by Lee Axworthy and her weanling bay filly by Guy Axworthy.

C. H. Traiser of Boston and Vic Fleming of Dundas, Canada, have bought rights to substitute in The Cumberland ($2,000), and The Phoenix prize ($2,000), Lexington's two big racing stakes, and named Margaret Dillon and Princess Mary respectively. The former has won nine straight races and is unbeaten, while the latter has lost but one race the whole year. These mares are considered the most wonderful racing machines by their respective sections; but at Lexington they will race to meet Juno, Red Lancelot, Hal Mahone, Russell Boy, Drift Patch, Peter Look and others. Good judges predict that these will be the two greatest pacing races of the decade, for amongst those eligible to start are fourteen that have won this year.

PROBE INTO BASEBALL GAMBLING STARTS IN CHICAGO TOMORROW

Benton of Giants Offered $750 To Throw One Game.

CHICAGO Sept. 21.—The grand jury probe of alleged dishonesty in organized baseball will get under way in earnest here tomorrow, when more than a dozen witnesses, including the highest officials in baseball, will appear in answer to subpoenas to testify before the inquisitorial body. Indictments are promised by Assistant State's Attorney Hartley.

Asked why Pitcher Benton of the Giants had been subpeonaed, Attorney Replogle said it was "because he knows a heil of a lot." Replogle said Benton would be asked to tell "what a certain player on the Cubs team asked him to do."

$570 To Throw In.

"It is known," Replogle said "that Benton was offered $750 to lose a ball game that he pitched. The man who made the offer was an associate of gamblers, but is no longer a member of the Cubs."

President Veek of the Cubs and official of the White Sox, said the probe will be welcomed, and every possible co-operation given the grand jury.

President Ban Johnson of the American League has announced that he will ask Congress to pass laws making betting on baseball games a penitentiary offense.

Subpoenas for twelve ball men and sport writers have been issued. They are:

And Bert Collyer.

John Heydler, president of the National League; Ban B. Johnson, president of the American League; Charles A. Comiskey, owner of the Chicago White Sox; William "Kid" Gleason, White Sox manager; William L. Veek, president of the Chicago Cubs; J. C. "Rube" Benton, pitcher of the New York Giants; Sam P. Hall, sport editor of the Chicago Herald and Examiner; Harvey Woodruff, sport editor of the Chicago Tribune; I. E. Sanborn, baseball writer for the Tribune; Oscar Reichow, baseball writer of the Chicago Daily News, and Bert E. Collyer and Frank Kline, who edit a sporting journal.

The grand jury is expected to probe thoroughly charges made that certain players of the White Sox were "influenced" by gamblers in the world series last year. More recent charges of gambling "crookedness" in the game between the Chicago Cubs and the Philadelphia Nationals on August 31 also will be probed.

MOTHER IN PRISON ON MURDER CHARGE; BABY DISCONSOLATE

WINDSOR, Sept. 221.—Lenora Cassak, 18 months old, has a new doll with a red dress. She has candy, pennies, and a new home with her aunt. But all these things do not console Lenora for the loss of her mother.

Lenora's mother, Mrs. Lena Cassack, was sent to the jail at Sandwich Monday afternoon to wait until November, when she will be tried for the slaying of Archie Wuhm.

All Sunday night and Monday morning attorneys, patrolmen and Harry Maisonville, chief of the Ford City police, tried to soothe the baby and get her out of the police station. Lenora clung to her mother. She would not look at the chief. She scorned the biggest attorney, and refused to recognize her aunt. At noon Monday the baby fell asleep, and was then taken to the home of her aunt, Mrs. George Vorkin, 18 Parrent road.

Immediately after the shooting, which occurred on the front porch of the Cassack home on Obain road, Mrs. Cassack was arrested. She refused to talk, only telling the officers she had fired the shots in defence of her home. She cried when the baby was taken from her.

"The whole thing came too quickly for anybody to realize what had happened," Mrs. Cassack said. "Five men I didn't know came to our house about 10 p.m. Sunday and called for George, my husband. Then they started quarreling, and Mr. Cassack told me to get the gun. I saw the men were drunk. When I came back from the bedroom I thought they were killing George, and I shot."

BLIND GIRL JILTED

London, Sept. 21.—Heartless letters from a fickle lover, who jilted a blind girl, were read during the hearing of an action for breach of promise before the undersheriff at Northampton. Plaintiff, Miss Dorothy Agnes Ball of Kings Sutton, Banbury, sued Ivor Gladstone Probert of Nantymoel, Glamorgan. Probert allowed judgment to go by default. Counsel for plaintiff explained that both parties had lived at Kings Sutton, and had been acquainted since 1912. When defendant, on joining the army, went to India they corresponded. On his return Miss Ball's eyesight was affected by disease, and she was practically blind. She told her lover of it before they became engaged, but he replied that it would make no difference to him. A few days after, he asked plaintiff to marry him, and bought her an engagement ring. After being demobilized in October he worked for a time for the girl's father. On December 14 he kissed her and left her, stating that he was going home to tea, and that he would return in two hours, but she had not seen him since. Six weeks later she received a letter, in which he wrote:

"I am just writing for the last time. I should have thought you knew the last two months I was home I had had enough of you. I told you plainly you would never make a workingman's wife; nor a rich one's, I should think." The letter ended:

"Now, once and for all, you can finish wasting paper and stamps, and this will be the last three halfpence I shall waste on you."

Miss Ball, in her evidence, stated that when defendant asked her to marry him she reminded him of the condition of her eyes, and he replied. "Health does not matter so long as love is there." Defendant sent a letter to the court, explaining:

"I was absolutely fed up, so I left her. If you were a young chap, 27 years of age, would you like to be bound to a blind girl for life? Although I served right through the heat of Mesopotamia, I am not mad."

Miss Ball was awarded £40 damages.

Pays Big Tribute to British Sportsmanship at Olympic

Sgt. Prudhomme of Pats, Who Lost in Finals For World's Middleweight Honors, Back in City—Won Three Bouts by Knockouts, But Lost On Points To Mallin.

In an interview Sergeant Prudhomme of the Pats, who has just returned from the Olympic games at Antwerp, where he was beaten for the world's amateur middleweight title, last night paid a wonderful tribute to British sportsmanship, which, he said, dominated not only the boxing, but all the other sports as well.

After going through his class with three knockouts to his credit the young Canadian met Mallin, a six-foot London "Bobby," and lost the decision on points.

"He was a cleverer boxer than I was, but didn't have a punch," the sergeant explained, and added, "It was a good, clean bout and my opponent was a fine sportsman."

"They changed the judges for the last round for some reason unknown to the boxers.

"Armstrong, who had charge of us, hissed you've only four seconds to get the world's championship," stated Prudhomme, in explaining that he practically had to judge his own fight. Jem Driscoll, one of the greatest fighting machines England boasted, was in the Englishman's corner, coaching him for the decision on points which Mallin was clever enough to obtain in the four short rounds.

"Did you find the referees incompetent?" was asked in view of the reports some of the Canadian contingent brought back.

"Well, you see, sir, my opponents were knocked out, and the referee didn't have any chance to be incompetent," which shows that the Canadian runner-up has a sense of humor, as well as a knockout punch.

Prudhomme and Herscovitch, the Montreal lad, who also went over, furnished a great battle in the trials and are to meet again shortly in an exhibition for the benefit of hospital patients in a Toronto hospital. The former is foregoing his two months' furlough, granted on his return, and is hard at training.

AS YOU WERE

It would seem that while some of the public organizations are in the appreciative mood of thanking those who advertise the city in athletics now would be a good chance for some of them to show a little appreciation of Sergt. Prudhomme of the Princess Pats, just returned to the city after coming within a few punches of winning the middleweight boxing honors of the world at the Olympic games in Antwerp.

The Pats, of course, didn't turn out and escort their comrade through the city. Ostentatious display isn't the Pats' role, and, besides, someone might have pondered the depths of militarism to which the country was slowly sinking. And, anyway, the Pats' publicity agent lost his job on November 11, 1919.

Therefore, Sergt. Prudhomme arrived home as he went away, unsung and unhonored, with one little difference in that he came back from all that stands highest in the athletic world and amateur sport honored, if there weren't any swelling chorus as an accompaniment.

It's not true to say that the Olympic victor—and London's only representative; constantly in the dispatches as coming from London; not the Princess Pats, mind you—did not get a cup. He did. The regiment which collected enough to send him away and augment his allowance from the athletic organization of Canada saw to that. To witness the presentation wasn't at a dollar a throw, either, yesterday afternoon at the barracks—just quietly and sincerely made from the officers' and men's earnings.

Sergt. Prudhomme would probably be the last to want any fuss made about his work at the Olympic, but he unfortunately presents a contrast in extreme of a city's appreciation when his remarkable performance is overlooked in the organized hurry to pay homage to athletes who neither mean so much to the nation's athletics and who are extremely well paid for the contribution they do make.

Lacrosse failed to make an impression on London this year, but traveling on west landed in Sarnia and seems bound to stick. Sarnia is out of the O. A. L. A. race for this year, but lacrosse has made a home in the border city, as the patronage extended to the semi-final games by the residents fully attested. With St. Marys fully back on the lacrosse map and Sarnia a new but enthusiastic corner, London's lacrosse prospects for next year look much better than they have ever done in the past.

* * * * *

London is not going into the O.R.F.U. this year and Petrolea and Sarnia can fight out their own battles this year. Both have good squads ready to jump right into the game, and Sarnia has had its squad at work with highly-encouraging results. London's rugby dish this year will be provided by Western U. and the inter-collegiate, and this field certainly offers something this season, if advance rumors count for anything.

* * * * *

It's noticeable in accounts of Bill Morrisette's past and present that the Detroit papers never mention Hamilton, but just the Mint League generally. Bill's evidently thrown his bat to the winds and is using discretion.

* * * * *

The race card hastily organized by John Coventry of Woodstock in the latter part of August and the Western Fair races have given local horsemen confidence that a revival of the sport is just about due for the city. London's entry into the Western Ontario short ship next year may be effected during the winter, if present agitation is properly organized.

* * * * *

Probably one reason the $50,000 matched race at Windsor is matched is because some of the fraternity won't even have matches when the gallopers have galloped.

TO RELIEVE CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or are hard of hearing, or have head noises, go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmint (double strength), and add to it ¼ pint of hot water, and a little granulated sugar. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.—Advt.

REGARDS CANADA AS WONDERFUL ASSET OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE

Imperialism Dominating Note At Banquet To Delegates Attending C. of C. Congress—Empire Bank Favored by Delegates—Preferential Trade Supported by Large Majority.

TORONTO, Sept. 21.—Imperialism was e dominating note in the speeches at banquet here tonight given by the Toto Board of Trade to the delegates the 9th congress of Chambers of mmerce of the British Empire. More n 500 delegates to the congress and embers of the local board of trade were present.

Stanley Machin, J.P., London, Eng., in roposing a toast to the Dominion of anada, spoke of the marvelous progress ade in Canada since his previous sit to the Dominion, 30 years ago. e said he had been greatly impressed luring his present visit with the enterprise, self-reliance, keenness and unity of the men who had received the overseas delegates to the congress. He declared that Canada was a wonderful asset for the British Empire, and as the development of this country progressed it would be one of the brightest jewels in the empire's crown.

A Great Trust.

Sir George Foster, minister of trade nd commerce for the Dominion, said he warm welcome given the visiting elegates was a feeble attempt to reay the British people for the kind manr in which they treated Canadian solrs during the war. Referring to nada's resources, Sir George said: "None of us know the potentialties of anada. We Canadians are surprised the possibilities of our country ourlves. We are in God's providence, the ustees of this heritage, and it is a eat trust for the future."

Lord Desborough, president of the h congress, made a humorous speech, d thanked the Canadians for their eat hospitality to the visitors from erseas.

Other speakers at the banquet inded Sir Edmund Walker, P. W. Ellis this city, and Sir Thomas MacKenzie, ew Zealand, and Mark Sheldon of ustralia.

Shoulder to Shoulder.

Sir George said: "Canada's message to e rest of the empire is: 'We will join ith you hand in hand, shoulder to houlder, step by step and march forward towards the progress of the empire and the world.'"

Premier E. C. Drury said: "Comerce was one of the most potent and vital things in the world, and it ought to be, in the true spirit, the waiter at the table of humanity. Commerce must be the unifier and not the divider of the people, as it has been at times in the past."

An Empire Bank.

The establishment of an "Empire Bank," whose function would be to act as the banker of governments and banks, with a central office in London, England, and branches throughout the Empire, was the suggestion made at today's session of the congress of chambers of commerce of the Empire by John F. Darling, C.B.E., of London, England. Mr. Darling also advocated in this connection the general issue of comparatively short-term bills of exchange against goods in transit as a method of standardizing the currency.

"If," said Mr. Darling, "we can so arrange the Empire's exchanges that it becomes in effect a united economic whole, endeavoring as far as possible to supply its own wants, and on balance to repay the debt to America, United States, the advantages to all parts of the British Empire will be considerable."

Imperial Preference.

After a spirited discussion on the question of free trade versus protection, the congress of the Chambers of Commerce of the Empire today passed a resolution in favor of imperial preference, by a vote of 83 to 21.

During the debate one the resolution, Sir George Foster, who welcomed the delegates in the name of the Government, said what might have been good one time might be a bad policy today.

"We favor the principle of protection, but the grade must vary from time to time as we are acted upon internationally. Neither free trade nor protection came from heaven."

T. L. Moorehouse of Huddersfield, who opposed the resolution and advocated absolute free trade within the empire, said he found it cost him twice as much to eat in Ontario as in England. "We are tired of United States methods," he said, "for neither their methods nor their products are satisfactory."

Oliver Bedington of the British Board of Trade, in Paris, contended that opportunity for employment was more to be desired than cheapness.

A resolution in favor of an imperial trade propaganda was carried unanimously.

Employ Ex-Soldiers.

Stanley Machin, J.P., London, England, in a resolution which was carried, pleaded for employment for ex-service men. Mr. Machin stated that 153,000 ex-service men in England were drawing unemployment pay, and 33,000 of them had registered as willing to go to the British dominions. "And 40 per cent of those are anxious to come to Canada," Mr. Machin said. He added that he had been told by a Toronto manufacturer that he would give employment to 25 of these men. This statement was greeted with applause.

WANTS PERE MARQUETTE

Latter Road Also Reported Scheduled For Hydro-Radial Purchase.

WINDSOR, Sept. 21.—Aerial photographs of the Canadian riverfront along the Detroit River for several miles up and down stream from Windsor will be made by the Ontario Hydro-Electric Power Commission when that department commences work here on a program of cleaning up the waterfront along the border of steam railways.

Appeal was made to the commission some months ago by Mayor Winter to take charge of a campaign against the various steam railway companies operating through the border, to force them to surrender their rights to present holdings and move their yards back to the south of the various municipalities.

It is planned to make the entire border here one great park fronting the river, in the form of a boulevarded driveway. Present plans also provide for a union station to be located out near the end of Quellette avenue, the main street, in the vicinity of the Windsor Jockey Club.

That some plan has already been worked out by the hydro commission was indicated today, however, when it was stated aerial photographs would be taken from which the blue prints necessary to the work would be developed.

Big Railway Rumor.

Rumor has been current in well-informed circles for some months past that the plan for bridging the Detroit River is identified in some way with the recent entry into Detroit, at a cost of $40,000,000 of the Pennsylvania Railway. According to one story plans have been made by the Pennsylvania road to enter Canada and cross the southern peninsula of Western Ontario, as a short route back into the United States and through to the Atlantic coast. Toward this end efforts would be made to acquire the Père Marquette Railway, which rumor has connected for some time with hydro radial purchase.

If these stories prove to have any foundation, and there is a certain belief that they will, border officials are more hopeful of their attempt to clear up the network of rails in the downtown district and remove all yards and switching facilities to the south.

Held Under $4,000 Bail.

Elmer Orton, joint proprietor with Beverly Trumble of the Chappell House, widely-known roadhouse in Sandwich, made famous by charges levied against it by Rev. J. O. L. Spracklin, which were responsible for the institution by Toronto liquor license authorities of a general clean-up campaign of illicit liquor vendors, is being held on $4,000 bail on a charge of illegally selling whiskey.

Charges of selling liquor behind the bar in the roadhouse were made by License Inspector Mousseau, Special License Officer O'Connor and Provincial Officers Smith and Stringer.

Convicted of a breach of the Ontario temperance act in Windsor police court today, Leonard Beveridge of Windsor was fined $500 and costs by Magistrate Miers.

Baby Taken From Jail.

Lenora Cassak, eighteen-months-old daughter of Mrs. Lena Cassack, being held in Sandwich jail in connection with the slaying of Archie Wuhm at Ford City, Ontario, early yesterday morning, was today removed from her mother and placed in the care of an aunt. Since the arrest of Mrs. Cassak, the child, deemed by the police to be too young to leave parental care, has been imprisoned in the cell with the mother.

Mrs. Cassak admits having shot the man, who died shortly after in Hotel Dieu Hospital, when she thought they were killing her husband.

The police are holding George Gitsan, Steve Cafanko, Christian Molda and Andie Mordie on nominal charges of drunkenness. All four are badly bruised and show evidences of a fearful beating. They claim they went to the Cassak home and charged George with stealing a quantity of beer.

BALBRIGGAN SCENE OF ANOTHER RAID, BUT NO CASUALTIES

Raid Took Place While Citizens Were Seeking Aid of Government.

EXCITEMENT TENSE

Irish Constabulary Did Not Join in the Rioting.

DUBLIN, Sept. 21.—The "Black and Tans" returned to Balbriggan this afternoon, 150 strong, and began discharging further shots at Sinn Fein houses. According to a parish priest, the deaths of Larless and Gibbons, whose bodies bore both bayonet and bullet wounds, followed on demands on them by the "Black and Tans" to disclose the names of the local Sinn Fein leaders. The largest hosiery factory in the town, Smythe's, was protected by the police, whose remonstrances with the "Black and Tans" were successful. In consequence of an attack on a military lorry in the streets of Dublin last night, all permits for the possession of arms in this district have been withdrawn, and those holding arms have been ordered to surrender them.

With only a remnant of the population remaining in town, Balbriggan tonight was reported to be quiet.

According to information received in Dublin the "Black and Tan" entered Balbriggan this afternoon at the very moment a delegation from the town, composed of clergymen and leading citizens was being received at Dublin Castle to ask for further protection from depredations.

It is said that the "Black and Tans" drove through the streets of Balbriggan in motor lorries, throwing bombs and firing rifles. So far as is known there were no further casualties. The only perrsons in the street at the time were a few Dublin journalists and photographers, who sought cover when the lorries arrived.

It has been ascertained that the local Irish constabulary had no share in the attempts to wreck the town, and succeeded after vigorous efforts in protecting the Smyth Hosiery Factory.

Gibbons, one of the men killed, was secretary of the local Sinn Fein Society. Larless had displayed Sinn Fein propaganda in his shop window.

There is intense excitement in Dublin tonight.

BLACK AND TANS USED THEIR BAYONETS

DUBLIN, Sept. 21.—The Burke brothers, the two police officers, for whose shooting the auxiliary police wrecked this town during Monday night, were shot at 7 o'clock as they were leaving a restaurant. They had motored over from Dublin in plain clothes with other members of the police force. Some dispute arose in the restaurant, and as the Burkes emerged five shots were fired at them from the crowd.

The news quickly traveled to the neighboring village of Germanston, where the "black and Tans," who are English recruits for the Irish police force, are stationed. They immediately started in motor lorries for Balbriggan. The shooting, burning and looting began immediately upon their arrival.

Among the homes destroyed was a whole row of thatched cottages in the workingmen's district.

Incendiary Bombs Used.

One of the acts of the auxiliaries was to seek out men suspected of shooting the Burkes. A barber named Larless, a middle-aged man, the father of a large family, was taken from his house and killed, as was a dairy farmer named Gibbons. The latter, at least, was both bayonetted and shot.

During the night numerous explosions were heard, which were atributed to incendiary bombs. The "Black and Tans" left at 5 o'clock in the morning, declaring that if the wounded police officer, Sergt. Burke, died, they would return and "finish the town."

PROPOSES DUTCH LEGATION AT VATICAN.

The Hague, Sept. 22.—Proposals that Holland maintain a legation at the Vatican were made by Jonkheer van Karnabeek, foreign minister, in presenting estimates of his department before parliament here today. He said Dutch representation at the Holy See was desirable in the nation's interest because the Vatican is becoming a more important centre for diplomatic communications and information.

OVER 4,000 ATTEND ON SECOND DAY OF EXETER FALL FAIR

Popular Huron County Exhibition Breaks Its Previous Records.

HORSE RACES ARE FAST

Excellent Showing of Live Stock—Many Special Attractions Interest Crowds.

[By Staff Reporter.]

EXETER, Sept. 21.—Ideal weather conditions combined with the efforts of a capable board of directors made the fall fair staged by the Exeter Agricultural Society here today and yesterday the most successful in the history of this town. Over 4,000 people were present today on the grounds, which were the mecca for residents of Huron County and vicinity. So numerous were the motor cars that additional parking space outside the park was required. The speed trials added to the interest of the fair, and the numerous exhibits on view were well above the average.

There was not a dull moment throughout the day, and no accidents marred the exhibition. The county police closed up several concessionaires operating gambling devices, but those doing a legitimate business reaped a splendid financial harvest from the crowds of merrymakers. The public schools for miles around were closed during the afternoon, and merchants in Exeter declared a half holiday for the event.

Races Keenly Contested.

The speed trials for a $350 purse were run in three heats each, and although the same winners predominated each time the trots were keenly contested. In the first heat of the 2:30 trot George Patchen barely outnosed Irish Bill, and in the second heat of the same trial the former horse took the pole from Prohibition on the first turn, the latter breaking badly at this point.

Five starts were required in the second heat due to a loose nail in a shoe on Prohibition, and the trial was halted until this was fixed.

Four horses were entered in the 2:20 trot which was won in three straight heats by Nile Boy, owned and driven by S. G. McNall of Shepperton. This steed was never headed in all three heats.

Some excellent stock was shown at the fair, and the horses on exhibition presented a very creditable appearance. Possibly the most interesting class was the roadsters, which paraded the track during the judging and later the entire class indulged in a free-for-all race to the applause of the spectators. This impromptu event was won by Hiram Copeland's outfit, with John Decker of Zurich an easy second.

Lariat Throwing Act.

During the afternoon Montana Campbell, a versatile cowboy, entertained the grandstand crowd to a clever exhibition of lariat throwing free of charge. In the track inclosure music was dispensed by the Exeter brass band, and in the evening the gala fair was concluded by a concert in the Grand Opera House.

Speed Trial Results.

Following are the winners in the speed trials: 2:20 trot or pace, Nile Boy, owned by S. G. McNall of Shepperton; Gentry De Forest, owned by John Galbraith of Brussels; Ello, owned by F. Yearly of Crediton. Tony Unco also ran. Time 2:29.

2:30 trot or pace: George Patchen, owned by George Young of Clandeboye; Irish Bill, owned by Frank Taylor of Crediton; Prohibition, owned by G. S. Lith of Mitchell. Time 2:29¼.

The above standing was the same in all three heats of each event. The 2:30 trot drew a purse of $150, while the 2:20 winners shared a $200 purse. Robt. Wilson of Seaforth satisfactorily performed the duties of starter, and C. Eilber of Zurich and Al McDonald of Exeter were timekeepers.

The prize winners for best roadsters on exhibition were: Hiram Copeland of Woodham; John Decker of Zurich; Harry Horton of Usborne, and Dr. H. K. Hyndman of Exeter. The draught teams also provided a first-class exhibit, providing a hard task for the judges in picking the winners. A feature of the fair was the great interest evinced by the school children of the district, whose entries called forth great commendation on the part of those interested.

Directors in Charge.

Following are the officers of the Exeter Agricultural Society: President, Wm. Andrew; first vice-president, G. Penhale; second vice-president, B. Williams; treasurer, S. Woods; secretary, R. G. Seldon; board of directors, W. R. Elliott, Centralia; H. Smith, Exeter; A. H. Doupe, Exeter; James Jeckell, Exeter; R. D. Hunter, Exeter; W. D. Sanders, Exeter; B. W. F. Beavers, Exeter; T. Hunkin, Usborne; F. Ellerington, Exeter.

UNITED STATES VIOLATING TREATY? VETERANS PROTEST

Presence of Armed Cruiser On St. Lawrence a Menace, Is Claim.

KINGSTON, Sept. 21.—"A cruiser in the River St. Lawrence mounting guns is a direct violation of the treaty between the United States and Great Britain and should not be tolerated," is the form of a protest being made to the state department at Ottawa by the Kingston branch of the Army and Navy Veterans, who object to the United States armed cruiser Chillicothe being used in the St. Lawrence River, with Ogdensburg as its base, for the purpose of suppressing violations of the United States liquor laws.

The veterans' protest to Ottawa includes the statement that naval guns on such a narrow strip of water menace Canadian shipping, as well as Canadian homes and lives along the river, and point out that not training ship on the lakes, on the Canadian side, is permitted to carry a gun, even for training purposes.

OFFICIALS WARNED OF BOMB OUTRAGES

BOSTON MAYOR THREATENED.

Boston, Sept. 22.—A letter scrawled in red ink and warning Mayor Peters that "you will get your medicine next," was received by the mayor yesterday. He treated it as a joke, but said he would turn it over to the police today.

TORONTO STOCK EXCHANGE.

Toronto, Sept. 22.—Further weakening of prices and future transactions featured the morning market on the Toronto Stock Exchange today. The bearish sentiment caused by disquieting reports on industrial conditions was the main factor in bringing about declines, which also reflected a poor market on the bigger United States exchanges. Atlantic Sugar dropped from 143¼, the close last night, to 140¼ at the noon close today, while C. P. R. lost 1 point at 135. Brazilian and Consumers' Gas were steady at yesterday's declines, while General Electric again sold below par. Spanish River common was weak, opening at 125, and losing 13 points during the session.

In the unlisted section, Brompton declined 2¼ points to 81½, while Abitibi lost ¾ at 82⅜. The closing was strong in this stock, which has advanced 13 points in a few weeks.

MAY TAKE OVER COMPANY.

Mexico City, Sept. 22.—Plans by which the government would take over the Mexican Light and Power Company, a Canadian company, with head offices in Toronto, and the Mexico City Street Railway, will soon be laid before either the president or congress, it was announced by the treasury department last night. The Mexican Light and Power Company supplies the Mexican capital and several large cities on the central plateau with electricity.

The scheme under consideration contemplates the issue of bonds by the government to pay the stockholders, the bonds being retired later by the profits of the companies.

D'ANNUNZIO SELECTS QUARNERO CABINET

Elections To Be Held Shortly in Accordance With Constitution.

Fiume, Sept. 22.—By the Associated Press.—Gabriele d'Annunzio has appointed his cabinet for the provisional government of the Italian regency of Quarnero. It consists of seven "Rettori," or rectors, and d'Annunzio himself will act as foreign minister. This post, according to the constitution, carries with it the title of chief of state, and at the same time d'Annunzio will retain his title of commander.

Each of the "Rettori" will have the privilege of naming an under-secretary, who will probably be chosen from among the members of the former National Council. Elections will be held shortly, in accordance with the constitution, to choose members of the two houses of parliament. No positive date has been set for the election as yet.

The people are not enthusiastic over the poet's new move, but he is using all means to persuade the different factions to accept his proposal. The legionaires insist on their right to choose a commander, and will have nobody but d'Annunzio. The constitution of the new state provides for a commander or dictator in times of extreme national danger, to be chosen by both houses of parliament.

Ships and trains continue to come into and leave Fiume, but no persons are permitted to go out of the city except on grounds of the most urgent necessity.

BRITISH SUBJECT HELD BY MEXICAN BANDITS IS FREED

B. C. Johnson Was Kidnapped During Raid On Town.

Mexico City, Sept. 22.—Bertle C. Johnson, a British subject, who has been the prisoner of bandits in the state of Jalisco since August 10, has been freed, according to an official announcement. Johnson was kidnapped during a bandit raid on the town of Autelan by Pedro Zamora, but escaped a few weeks later. His liberty was brief, however, because he was recaptured by a lieutenant of Zamora, known as La Unracco. This bandit has just surrendered, and Johnson was found in his camp and given his freedom. Zamora following a pursuit by government forces and several defeats, is hiding in the mountains in the state of Jalisco, being accompanied by a woman he kidnapped near the Autalan River.

RADICALS AMONG MINERS FAIL TO GET NOMINATIONS

John L. Lewis Again Chosen As Candidate For President.

Indianapolis, Sept. 22.—The radical element of the United Mine Workers of America has failed in its efforts to win the majority of the nominations for national officers of the organizations, it was announced at the offices of the union here last night. The board of international tellers announced that President John L. Lewis, Conservative, had been renominated by a vote of 926 to 484 over Robert H. Harlan of Washington, for international president. Vice-President Philip Murray of Pennsylvania, defeated Alexander Howat of Kansas, for the nomination for international vice-president by a vote of 740 to 667. William Green, international secretary and treasurer, was re-nominated without opposition, receiving the indorsement of 1,246 local unions.

Each of the nearly 4,000 local unions of the organization has the right to make nominations, said the announcement. The fight on Lewis and Murray was bitter, it was stated, and especially that in behalf of Howat.

"The radicals inside the organization were assisted by extreme radicals from the outside in the hope that control of the United Mine Workers might be seized by the radical element," said the statement in conclusion.

START TRANS-CANADA FLIGHT ON MONDAY

Col. Robert Leckie Will Leave Halifax in Seaplane.

Montreal, Sept. 22.—The first trans-Canada air voyage will start from Halifax Monday. According to present plans, Col. Robert Leckie, with a reserve pilot and a mechanic, will fly from there to Winnipeg in a seaplane. It is proposed to make five stops at or near Ottawa, North Bay or Sudbury, Sault Ste. Marie, Fort William and Kenora. Halifax to Montreal is about 800 miles. The seaplane, which can land only on water, is capable of flying 80 miles per hour. The start is being made Monday, so that full advantage may be taken of moonlight and part of the flight may be at night. From Winnipeg to the coast the trip will be made in three different aeroplanes.

VICTIM OF AUTO SMASH

FRED SMITH, who died Monday in Amasa Wood Hospital, St. Thomas, from injuries received when the auto in which he was riding went over the bank near the M. C. R. overhead bridge, was a native of Harriston, Ont. Both his parents are dead. He enlisted in the 153rd Battalion and trained in St. Thomas, later going overseas, where he transferred to the 10th Battalion and served in France for several months, returning to Canada in 1918.

G. W. V. A. MEMBERS URGED TO STRIVE FOR HIGHER IDEALS

Secretary-Treasurer McNeil Declares It Time To Cease Quibbling.

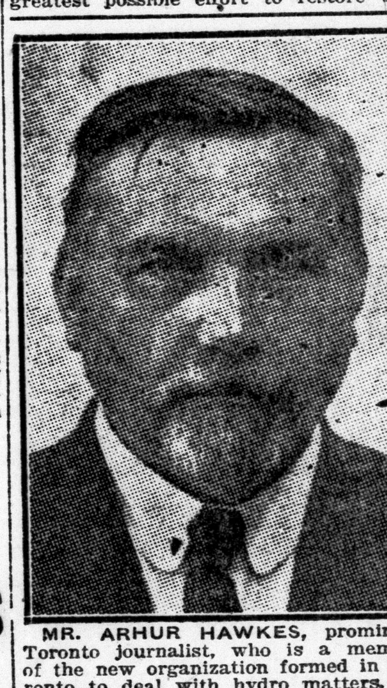

Digby, N. S., Sept. 22.—The time is now for the returned men to cease quibbling about details and stride forward for high ideals," said C. G. McNeil, secretary-treasurer of the Dominion G. W. V. A., at yesterday's session of the annual Nova Scotia G. W. V. A. convention here. The association, he declared, had always been sane and reasonable in its views toward the common weal. Further aid for the returned men was necessary. Thousands of men were still adrift, and the situation was rendered more acute by the government demobilizing its re-establishment bureaux. The returned men were thinking on sane lines, and the public should not be misled. They stood for a clean government and a square deal for all.

"With regard to the future of the assoociation," said the Dominion secretary, "there are a few calamity-howlers, but it would be better to scuttle the ship than to admit inability. There is absolutely no evidence of stagnation. The association has a past of successful achievement, it possesses a great organization, it has men of brain power and it holds the good-will of the people. What more is necessary but our own efforts? The great thing before us is to make Canada a better place to live in."

The provincial executive of the Nova Scotia command recommended adoption of a number of resolutions, chief of which was the following:

"That more general recognition be given to the fundamental principle which has actuated all representations with regard to future aid in re-establishment, namely, that the obligation devolves upon the nation to make the greatest possible effort to restore the discharged soldier to a status in the community life which he would have enjoyed but for war services."

Other resolutions recommended greater and more frequent emphasis of the purpose of comradeship and service for which the association exists.

MR. ARHUR HAWKES, prominent Toronto journalist, who is a member of the new organization formed in Toronto to deal with hydro matters. He will have charge of all publicity.

CROWN CLOSES CASE AGAINST A. F. COYNE

Defendant Will Prepare For Examination of Important Witness.

Edmonton, Sept. 22.—The case for the crown in the seditious conspiracy charge against A. F. A. Coyne closed yesterday, after about a dozen witnesses had given testimony regarding the revolutionary tendencies of the accused in the fall of 1918. Upon the application of Coyne, who asked for time to plan his cross-examination of one of the important witnesses for the crown, the case was adjourned until Thursday morning, when Coyne indicated he would call his witnesses.

"If anyone gets killed in Canada for starting a revolution, I will be the first to die," was the statement attributed to Coyne by John Fischer of Ponoka yesterday afternoon. He testified that Coyne said he had men in Russia studying Bolshevism, and that he had plans for the taking of the city of Edmonton, and that Coyne claimed he would be backed by returned men, and all he needed for them was a leader. In cross-examination Fischer admitted he was a German citizen.

ST. THOMAS GETS BIG NEW FACTORY OF U. S. A. COMPANY

Board of Trade Closes Arrangements With Concurrence of Council.

CHECK PASSERS FINED

Michigan Central Railway Reducing Staff of Divisional Shops.

ST. THOMAS, Sept. 21.—The board of trade, with the approval of the city council, is about to close a satisfactory arrangement with a large American factory to locate in St. Thomas The company is asking for comparatively reasonable concessions and for these, if conceded, a big staff of expert mechanics will be employed. The purchase of a large building in the south end of the city is now under way, and on the deal being consummated the entire details of the agreement with the company will be made public.

Fined $100 Each.

Pleading guilty a week ago to the charge of passing worthless checks on a couple of local merchants, Richard Mahoney, Pittsburg, and Norman Ogden, Rodney, were fined $100 and costs or a year imprisonment. The sentence was made a pecuniary one because of the age of the accused. Suspended sentence was also meted out to the youths on a subsidiary information. The Pittsburg lad has a wife and two children, and blamed his fall to the slump in the motor industry at Detroit, where he was working.

M. C. R. Shop Staff To Be Reduced.

About one hundred men of the M. C. R. shops, employed between here and Bridgeburg, will be laid off before the next pay day. Some of the men are returned soldiers and who claim to have been working in the department before the war and on their return from the front they lost their seniority. The rule of the company appears to be, when a reduction of the staff is being made, the last men on the list of workers are discharged. The veterans will demand that they be given the benefit of the years spent overseas.

Pays $40 For Damages.

The Michigan lady, who was arrested during the week for destruction of a relative property in the east end of the city, was liberated this morning from the county all on payment of $40 for damage done as well as disbursing the costs of prosecution.

Aylmer Youths Committed.

The Aylmer youths, Stanley Chappelle and Roy Roberts, who are in the county jail waiting to be tried at the assizes in October on a couple of serious charges, were again committed for trial by Police Magistrate Maxwell this morning on an information laid by John Leach against the pair of youths for having stolen a car from Mr. Leach's garage, the property of Norman Price, St. Thomas. The accused are also blamed for breaking the lock of the pump and filling the tank of the stolen car with gasoline.

Horticultural Society Tag Day.

The Horticultural Society will hold a tag day, under the direction of the local branch of the local Council of Women, on Saturday next. The society is looking to a minimum contribution of $1,000 by the people of St. Thomas. Flowers will also be on sale, and the entire street corner subscriptions will be used for the reclamation and beautifying the waste spots of the city. The west end is at last promised a share of the society's favors.

Funeral Under Masonic Auspices.

The funeral of Fred E. Smith, who was fatally injured on Sunday night in an auto accident will be held Wednesday afternoon under Masonic auspices. He was a member of St. David's Lodge, 302. The members of the G. W. V. A. will also attend in a body.

A denial is given by the occupants of the car that the driver, Theodore Knowles, was going at inordinate speed, and was in no way responsible for the accident. The party had been out for a drive, and were returning home when the fatality happened. They had not been to Aylmer. The condition of Miss Coulter was reported favorable this afternoon, and the others are recovering from the shock and bruises.

London Institute Branch.

A. D. Jordan, director of the London Institute of Musical Art, will open a branch in St. Thomas. Theodore Gray will be its supervisor.

E. A. Towers, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Towers has passed his examination at the Toronto School of Anatomy with honors.

J. H. Killingsworth, grand secretary of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, leaves tomorrow to attend the annual convention of the order to be held at New Westminster on September 28.

E. S. Smythe, formerly editor of the Toronto World, recently addressed the local Theosophical Society on "Theosophy and Science of Life."

Employees of the M. C. R. shops and offices in St. Thomas have been paid for their back time under the last wage award.

Mrs. A. H. Austin, Ravenna, O., has presented a number of high-bred gladioli bulbs to the city for planting in Pinafore Park.

Bert Nealon Appeals.

Bert Nealon, who was convicted about ten days ago for having liquor in his possession, will appeal the judgment of Police Magistrate Maxwell, who fined Nealon $400 and costs. Mr. Nealon was found with a club bag filled with whiskey in an alleyway off east Talbot street. He denied ownership to Constable McKeown when found with the bag, and excused himself on the plea that he saw a stranger deposit the bag and contents there.

McKILLOP TOWNSHIP RURAL FAIR DRAWS LARGE ATTENDANCE

SEAFORTH, Sept. 21.—It seemed as that the entire population of McKillop Township thronged into the grounds of No. 4 school today to see the great rural fair, an event to which old and young look forward with keenest interest. The first and perhaps the most important feature was a grand parade of school children from ten schools in the district. The exhibits in all classes were well represented. The school exhibits also aroused very much interest.

Presentation to Organist.

The choir of the First Presbyterian Church, Seaforth, held a surprise party at the home of Mrs. Malcolm McKellar on Monday evening last. An illuminated address accompanied by a handsome traveling bag was presented to A. T. Craig, the retiring organist and director of music, by L. T. Delacey on behalf of the choir.

GALT, Sept. 21.—Tenders are being called for for an addition to the Galt postoffice, 16 by 50 feet, one story, of stone construction, to conform with the style of the present building. Extra room is required in the postoffice to handle the growing business. It is also proposed to install an entirely new lighting system.

The Galt Paper Box Company has let the contract to G. H. Thomas for an addition to its plant on King street to provide extra office accommodation. The addition will be 16 by 50 feet, two stories in height.

The city will buy a lot on Beverly street north, to be used as a storage yard for the board of works, where the stone crusher and other equipment can be stored. The yard is convenient to both the G. T. R. and C. P. R. railways and is an ideal location for the purpose.

TILLSONBURG FAIR CROWDS BREAK RECORDS TO DATE

1,500 Autos Park On Grounds —Horse Races Feature of Day's Program.

AWARDS ANNOUNCED

Splendid Horticultural Display—Live Stock and Poultry Exhibits Excellent.

TILLSONBURG, Sept. 21.—After a very disheartening opening day yesterday, today most excellent weather came as a surprise packet to the directions of the Tillsonburg and Dereham fair, and crowds swarmed through the gates from early morning, breaking all previous records for the fair, without one accident to marr the day's pleasure. The midway and concessions were simply overwhelmed, and several times during the afternoon sold completely out of stock. The entries were very numerous and of the highest quality, and the judges were perplexed in awarding many prizes.

Donald Sutherland, M.P.P., and the mayor of Brampton were guests of the fair board. The prize herd of W. C. Prouse, which won many prizes at London and Toronto, today again swept away many prizes. It was estimated that 1,500 autos were on the ground.

As usual the horse races were the centre of attraction and resulted as follows:

BETTER EXHIBITS BIGGER CROWDS AT STRATHROY FAIR

In More Ways Than One Exhibition Breaks Records of Other Years.

[By Staff Reporter.]

STRATHROY, Sept. 21.—With excellent weather prevailing, the fair directors reported a record attendance at the Strathroy Agricultural Society's exhibition at the exhibition grounds today, the second day of the three-day fair.

Although the agricultural exhibits are not as large as in previous years, the fair in general is of a higher order. The livestock entries are large, as were the poultry entries. The dairy exhibits are small. The officials stated that the farmers were too busy to get their products ready for exhibition purposes. The judges expect to complete the judging late tonight.

Juvenile Competition.

The juvenile department was continued again this year. In connection with this competition there is besides the prizes a beautiful silver shield, which was donated in 1917 by William Geddes. The shield must be won three successive times by any school before it can be held. The shield was won in 1917 by S. S. No. 9, Caradoc, Miss Wilton, teacher, and was won in 1918 and 1919 by S. S. No. 7, Caradoc, Miss Dorothy Cutler, teacher. It will be announced today what school won it for this year.

COUNCILLOR RENTS DWELLING TO CITY, SUES FOR MONEY

Judge Holds Municipal Act Violated, But Settlement Is Advised.

INGERSOLL, Sept. 21.—In the division court here today Ex-Councillor H. D. McCarty sued the corporation of Ingersoll for $35, being balance of rent for a house which had been rented from him by last year's council for an indigent family. He stated he had received his rent for some time in accordance with the agreement entered into, but eventually payment ceased and he had received no payments for a period of five months. He claimed that he had rented the house for one year. On behalf of the corporation, it was stated that Mr. McCarty's son, who was his agent in his absence, had been notified to look to the husband for the rent after a certain period, and that when this notice was given the town's responsibility ceased.

Judge Wallace held that Mr. McCarty could not legally collect the rent according to the municipal act, as he was a member of the 1919 council. The council, he considered, acted very charitably, and while there was no legal responsibility, there was a moral one. He thought the parties should effect a settlement themselves. Monday night the council passed a resolution that the account but not costs be paid.

At The Theaters

AT THE GRAND.

Romance and Thrills in "Rio Grande."

"Rio Grande," the feature playing at the Grand Theatre last time today, is a vivid, colorful, virile romance of the river that separates Mexico from Texas.

On one side of the Rio was Maria Inez, a beautiful and spirited Senorita. On the other side was Danny O'Neil, as Irish as his name yet as American as the Texas Rangers, of which he was a daring member. But the river and all the hatred it flows between separated them—or tried to.

Edwin Carewe is the producer and director to whom much credit is due for this thrilling, stirring, romantic and highly entertaining Pathe feature.

A funny Comic, and Topics of Day complete an exceptionally strong picture program which will be shown for last time today, matinee and evening.

FEATURES AND NOVELTIES IN "MY SOLDIER GIRL."

Containing more than a score of novelties and elaborate scenic ideas, the musical spectacle, "My Soldier Girl," the season's greatest success, coming to the Grand, tomorrow night, Friday and Saturday, matinee and evening, is without a doubt the most novel attraction of the entire season. The producers, LeComte and Flesher, have spent money freely to make this play elaborate in every detail—the first act presents an evening at Col. Stone's home, Miami, Fla., a lawn fete is in progress, and a night of gayety prevails—while the last act presents a brilliant musical spectacle, measuring well up to the Follies or Winter Garden in all its grandeur. The feature novelties are many, including the popular "Flirtation Walk," an illuminated runboard extending from the stage almost to the rear wall of the auditorium. The novelty presents many enjoyable feature as the bewitching beauties make their way right out into the audience. The girls, in novel drills and cleverly staged dances, are a treat to look upon. A brilliant lawn fete, with banks of flowers and lights—New York City in grand illumination and shimmering opalescent scenery fulfills every expectation. The famous "pony" ballet from the roof of the New York Theatre, is a revelation, while the cleverly-selected cast is all that could be desired to make "My Soldier Girl" a success. Seats for all performances now on sale.

"DUMBELLS" COMING TO GRAND.

The "Dumbells" are going over the top again, carrying on for another season in Canada, with a new edition of their overseas revue, "Biff, Bing, Bang."

They have been booked for a week's engagement here at the Grand Theatre, commencing Monday next, when the same capacity audiences which greeted them on the occasion of their initial visit are anticipated.

The "Dumbells" have firmly established themselves in an enviable position, being the pioneers of a Canadian drama, which it is hoped may form a foundation for more purely Canadian efforts in our dramatic development.

Not satisfied with resting on his laurels and continuing his initial production, which would easily have found favor for one or two seasons more, Capt. Plunkett has provided an entirely new, and much more elaborate offering for the present tour, showing a spirit which should be encouraged.

HAYAKAWA NOW MAKES HINDU LOVE

Star Shows How It Is Done in "Mental Vampire" Role in "The Devil's Claim."

"Making love on the screen is a deep problem—you must satisfy man and women everywhere for your audience is not limited to one country or one race of people."

The speaker was Sessue Hayakawa, the noted Japanese actor, whose pictures, released through Robertson-Cole, have been delighting thousands for years. He was discussing his latest starring vehicle, a novel story of life in New York's Bohemia—Greenwich Village—and the Egyptian plains.

"After a thorough study of love-making," the screen star continued, "I find that the American is the most successful lover, because he is the most sincere.

"In Japan and other countries the suitor never has an opportunity of registering his true feelings, because customs so dictate. In many cases the lovers do not meet until their wedding day.

"Yes, love-making for the screen is a great study. I make French love with gestures, German love with heels together—stiff, erect; American love with both arms, Japanese love with eyes, Hawaiian love with ukulele and wiggly toes."

"But how do you make Hindu love?" Hayakawa was asked.

"Ah, that is shown in my new picture, 'The Devil's Claim,'" was the reply.

"The Devil's Claim," showing Hayakawa as a Hindu novelist, who is a "mental vampire," will be shown at the Patricia Theatre, today for the last time.

GLORIA SWANSON, THOMAS, MEIGHAN AND BEBE DANIELS, DELIGHTFUL SURPRISE IN BEAUTIFUL PHOTOPLAY.

Ultra-modern is the keynote of the new Cecil B. De Mille picture, "Why Change Your Wife?" which is starring Gloria Swanson, Thomas Meighan and Bebe Daniels at the Allen today and tomorrow.

The costumes worn by beautiful Gloria Swanson and Bebe Daniels in the leading feminine roles are the latest creations of the modistes, and then some. The settings are massive and done in the impressionistic style. The great hotel scene, with its magnificent swimming pool scenes, the luxurious apartments, the wonderful homes and rooms, all offer a perfect background for these wardrobes, and the two wonderfully-beautiful women who wear them.

The story is of the greatest problem of married life, being the answer to that eternal question, "Where do the sweethearts go after the honeymoon is over?" Robert Gordon, wealthy, loving a good time and much entertainment, finds that his beautiful wife Beth (Gloria Swanson) has become a much too wifely wife, and forsaking her after a bitter quarrel, he tries to find solace in the arms of a chic little model of an exclusive modiste's shop. But he finds that his little siren becomes even more domesticated than did his former wife, and romps through the divorce courts again in a hurry to get back to the first wife, who has now blossomed into one of the most gorgeously-gowned, fun-loving young members of the four hundred.

Among the many extra attractions are pictures taken exclusively for the Allen Theatre of the Western Fair, and the baseball game during that week at Tecumseh Park. You must not miss seeing yourself in the pictures.

AT LOEW'S.

Clyde Fillmore plays his first big screen role under his contract with Famous Players—Lasky Corporation as leading man in support of Ethel Clayton in her latest picture, "The Ladder of Lies," at Loew's today.

For twenty-five consecutive weeks, Mr. Fillmore played the leading role in the stage production of "Civilian Clothes," at the Morosco Theatre in Los Angeles and his work won the commendation of all who witnessed the play. The picture is said to contain the real heart touch, and ends with a powerful climax, in which romance is the supreme factor.

Tom Forman directed the picture—his first Paramount Artcraft. In the supporting cast are Jane Acker, Irving Cummings, Richard Sterling and Ruth Ashby. Edith Kennedy adapted the story from the original by Harold Vickers, which appeared in "Snappy Stories" magazine.

A funny Sennett Comedy, Loew's Pictorial and three excellent vaudeville turns complete a program of exceptional merit which will be seen for the last time today.
