No. 353.

1st Session, 4th Parliament, 16 Victoria, 1853.

BILL.

An Act to amend the Law relative to Savings Banks.

Received and Read a first time, Friday, 15th April, 1853.

Second Reading, Friday 29th April, 1853.

HON. MR. HINCKS.

QUEBEC:

PRINTED BY JOHN LOVELL, MOUNTAIN STREET.

An Act to regulate Savings' Banks, and to repeal the Act now in force for that purpose.

WHEREAS experience has proved that the Acts now in force for regulating Savings Banks are inadequate to the purpose they were intended to effect, and do not afford that security to Depositors to which they are entitled at the hands of the Legislature, and it is therefore expedient to repeal the said Act and to make better provisions instead thereof, Be it therefore enacted, &c., as follows:

Preamble.

The Act passed in the session held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's Reign, and intituled, "An Act to encourage the establishment of Savings Banks in this Province," shall be and the same is hereby repealed, except in so far only as it is hereinafter otherwise provided, and except with regard to any penalty or forfeiture incurred under it, with regard to which it shall remain in force.

Act 4 and 5 V. c. 32, repealed.

Exception.

II. It shall be lawful for any number of persons to associate themselves for the purpose of establishing a Savings Bank in any one place in this Province under this Act, and such persons shall execute an Instrument before Notaries, if the Bank is to be in Lower Canada, and under their hands and seals, and in duplicate, if the Bank is to be in Upper Canada; which Instrument shall set forth,—

Mode in which any number of persons may become incorporated as a Savings Bank.

The corporate name to be taken by the Institution, of which the words "Savings Bank" shall always form part:

What must be inserted in the Instrument of association.

The period during which such Institution is to continue, which shall not be less than five years, nor more than thirty years, and shall be made to end on the 30th day of April in some year to be named in such Instrument :

Further provisions in such Instrument.

Such further provisions as to the working of the Institution and the management of its affairs and business, in matters not provided for by this Act, as the persons executing such Instrument may think expedient, which provisions, not being inconsistent with the letter or spirit of this Act or the laws of this Province, shall be fundamental Rules of the Institution, and shall not be altered; and any such provision which shall be inconsistent with the letter or spirit of this Act, or with the laws of this Province, shall be void, but shall not affect the validity of the Instrument of association in other respects.

III. If such Instrument relate to a Savings Bank in Lower Canada, a Notarial Copy thereof shall be deposited of record in the office of the Prothonotary of the Superior Court for the District in which the Bank to which it relates is to be established,— and if such Instrument relate to a Savings Bank in Upper Canada, a duplicate thereof shall be deposited of record in the office of the Clerk of the County Court of the County or of the United Counties within which the Bank to which it relates is to be established, the execution thereof by the several parties thereto being attested on oath by at least one witness before the said Clerk; and every such Instrument so deposited of record, as well as the Certificates of the Receiver General of the deposit or withdrawal of money or Debentures as hereinafter provided, shall be open to the inspection of any person during office hours, on payment of a fee of one shilling to the Officer having the custody thereof, who shall furnish any person with a certified copy thereof on payment of a fee equal to sixpence currency for each hundred words in such Copy, and the certificate thereto; and any such Copy so certified, shall be prima facie evidence of such Instrument, and of the contents thereof, without proof of the signature of the Officer certifying such Copy; and a certified Copy of such Instrument and of the Certificates of the Receiver General relating to the same Bank, shall be constantly kept at the place of business of the Bank to which they relate, open to the inspection of all depositors therein.

Copies of the same and their effect.

IV. Upon the deposit of any such Instrument with the proper Prothonotary or Clerk as aforesaid, and the deposit with the Receiver General of the amount hereinafter mentioned, the parties thereto, and their successors shall, during the term herein limited, be a body politic and corporate by the name therein taken, by which name they may sue and be sued, and shall have and exercise the powers vested in corporate bodies by the Interpretation Act, except in so far as they are modified by this Act, and all such powers as may be necessary for fully and conveniently carrying out the provisions of this Act.

V. Before any Savings Bank intended to be established under this Act shall be entitled to the benefit thereof, the Directors of such Bank shall deposit with the Receiver General of this Province, a certified copy of the Instrument of Association, and a sum not less than one-eighth nor more than one-fourth of the Capital of the Bank, in money or in Debentures receivable under the laws regulating the business of Banking in deposit for registered Bank Notes, or partly in money and partly in such Debentures, the value of such Debentures being reckoned at par, and the Receiver General shall grant a Certificate of such deposit in duplicate, one duplicate shall be deposited in the office of the Prothonotary or Clerk in whose office the Instrument of association of the Bank is deposited, and the other shall remain in the office of the Bank; and the money or Debentures or both, so deposited, shall remain in the hands of the Receiver General, subject to the provisions hereinafter made, as security for the repayment to the Depositors in such Bank of the sums deposited by them, with the interest due thereon; but the interest on such Debentures, and interest on the money so deposited at the rate allowed at the same period on the special Debentures hereinafter mentioned, shall be paid over by the Receiver General to the Bank on behalf whereof such money or Debentures were deposited, except in the case hereinafter provided for.

Deposit of a certain sum with the Receiver General as security in favor of the Depositors in the Bank.

VI. The sum so deposited by the Directors of any Savings Bank established under this Act, may, if originally less than one-fourth the Capital of the Bank, be increased at any time by one or more deposits to any sum not exceeding one fourth of the said Capital, or may be diminished to any sum not less than one-eighth of the said Capital, by the Bank's withdrawing one or more sums, after giving three months' notice to the Receiver General of the intention to withdraw the same: Provided always, First, that the sum deposited or withdrawn at any one time shall not be less than five thousand pounds; Secondly, that no sum shall be withdrawn until the Receiver General shall have been satisfied that all the requirements of this Act are so far complied with as to authorize such withdrawal, and Thirdly that a certificate of the deposit any sum under this section shall be granted in duplicate by the Receiver General to the Bank, and such duplicates shall be deposited in the same manner as the duplicates of the original certificate of deposit,—and that a certificate of the withdrawal of any sum Assignment or lien may be granted on monies in hands of Receiver General.

VII. It shall always be lawful for any Savings Bank established under this Act to assign or grant a lien upon the money or Debentures in the hands of the Receiver General and belonging to such Bank, but such assignment or lien shall be subject to the rights of Depositors in the Bank, and shall take effect so far and so far only as such money or Debentures may be liable to be withdrawn by and delivered to the Bank, in which case the Receiver General being duly notified of such assignment or lien, shall deliver the money or Debentures to the party holding such lien or assignment instead of delivering the same to the Bank.

When the Bank may commence business.

VIII. Any Savings Bank which shall have complied with the foregoing requirements of this Act, may forthwith thereafter commence its business as such, and may receive deposits from any persons or parties whatever, so as no deposit made by any one person or party at any one time shall exceed the sum of five hundred pounds, and may allow to such Depositors such rate of interest as shall be from time to time fixed by the Governor in Council and no more, subject to such regulations as to the deposit and withdrawal of monies by Depositors as may from time to time be made by the By-laws of the Bank: Provided always, that the amount due to Depositors by any Savings Bank at any one time shall never exceed six times the sum belonging to such Bank deposited in the hands of the Receiver General, nor shall it ever exceed the Capital of the Bank.

Proviso.

only that they may be deposited in any of the Chartered Banks of this Province, at interest or without interest, but subject always to be at any time drawn out by check and without previous notice.

XI. It shall be lawful for the Receiver General directly or 5 through any Agent he may appoint for the purpose, to receive from any Savings Bank established under this Act, any sum of money time, and to grant for the same Special Debentures for not less than £50 each, bearing interest payable half yearly at a rate exceeding 10 by two per cent. the rate of interest then fixed by order in Council, as that to be allowed by Savings Banks under this Act to Depositors; and such Debentures may, in the discretion of the Receiver General, or in conformity with such orders as he shall from time to time receive from the Governor, be made payable solely 15 to the Bank and not transferable, or transferable by special indorsement in full, or the principal and interest thereof or either may be made payable to the Bearer thereof or of the proper interest coupons, but in either case the principal shall not be made payable in less than three nor more than five years after the date thereof, 20 and no interest shall accrue thereon after the time at which such principal shall be made payable; but any such Debentures may, if then held by a Savings Bank established under this Act, and such Bank shall request such exchange, be exchanged for new ones bearing the proper rate of interest as if granted for 25 money then received from such Bank; and at any time before the principal of any such Debenture shall be payable, any such Debentures may, under the order of the Governor in Council, and with the consent of the holder thereof, be exchanged for other Debentures of any of the kinds authorized by this Section, 35 to the extent of at least £1000 each, to be Directors of the Bank, in place of the Directors then in office, who shall go out of office immediately upon the close of such election, unless re-elected

XIX. Notwithstanding the transfer of any share in the Stock of any Savings Bank established under this Act, the party transferring the same shall nevertheless remain responsible and liable in all respects as regards all liabilities of the Bank incurred before such transfer, to the same extent and in the same manner to and in which he would have been responsible and liable if such transfer had not been made, provided legal proceedings shall be commenced to enforce such responsibility and liability within eighteen months from the date of such transfer and saving always the recourse of the party transferring such share against the party to whom it shall have been transferred, and the party to whom a transfer of any share shall be made, shall by accepting the same become subject to all the liabilities of the Shareholder transferring such share, in respect thereof.

XX. Each Shareholder in any Savings Bank established under this Act, shall be responsible and liable for the debts, obligations and liabilities of the Bank to the extent, and not beyond the extent, of the amount of his shares therein, less the amount actually paid in upon such shares; but in the event of the failure of the Bank, no more of the Capital Stock thereof shall be held to have been paid in within the meaning of this Section, than shall then be in the hands of the Receiver General in money or Debentures or both, reckoning such Debentures at par as aforesaid.

Statement to be published when required

Directors to take security from officers of the Bank.

XXIII. The Directors of every Savings Bank established under this Act shall require from every officer or servant of the Bank ample and good security by Bond, executed by him jointly and severally with two or more sufficient sureties, and conditioned that such officer or servant will well and truly demean himself in office in all respects, and will faithfully account for and pay over or deliver up to the Directors when called upon so to do, all monies and securities for money, books, papers, documents and property of whatever nature or kind belonging to the Bank, or which shall come into or be at any time in his hands as such officer or servant; and such Bond shall be to the Bank in its corporate name, and shall and may in case of any breach of the conditions thereof be enforced against the parties thereto by the Directors in the name of the Bank.

Punishment of officers of the Bank

XXIV. All monies or securities for money deposited in any Savings Bank established under this Act shall be held to be the property of the Bank, subject to the right of the depositor to receive back or recover the same or an equal amount in money; and if any officer or servant of any such Bank shall at any time fraudulently embezzle any chattel, money or valuable security 5 belonging to such Bank (and any unjustifiable refusal or failure to pay over or deliver up any such chattel, money or valuable security, on demand, to the Directors of the Bank or to any person by them authorized to demand and receive the same, shall be held to be a fraudulent embezzlement thereof) he shall be deemed 10 to have feloniously stolen the same, being the property of the Bank, and may be indicted and proceeded against, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be punished in the same manner as any servant who, having fraudulently embezzled any chattel, money or valuable security received or taken into his possession 15 by virtue of his employment for or on account of his master, and being in law deemed to have feloniously stolen the same, may be indicted, proceeded against and punished: Provided always, that nothing herein contained, nor the conviction or punishment of the offender shall prevent, lessen or impair any remedy 20 which the Bank or any other person or party would have had against such offender or his sureties, or against any other person or party whomsoever; but nevertheless the conviction of any such offender shall not be received in evidence in any action or suit at law or in equity against him or his sureties.

25 XXV. Any Savings Bank established under this Act, may be closed before the time fixed for that purpose by the Instrument of Association, under a By-law to be passed for that purpose, with the concurrence of three-fourths of the whole number of votes of the Stockholders therein at a General Meeting called expressly 30 and in the manner provided by the By-laws of the Bank, for the purpose of considering the propriety of closing the Bank, and the time at which the Bank shall be finally closed shall be fixed by such By-law, and shall be not less than one year from the passing thereof; and if any such By-law be passed, and also if no such 35 By-law be passed but the period for which such Bank is to continue according to the Instrument of Association be within one year of expiring, then in either case the Bank shall receive no further deposits, and the Directors shall give notice that the Bank will finally close on the day appointed for that purpose, and that 40 no further deposits will be received, and shall by such notice require all depositors to withdraw their deposits on or before the commencement of the six months next before the day appointed for the final closing of the Bank, and all interest shall cease on any deposits which are not withdrawn pursuant to such notice; 45 and the Directors shall proceed to convert all the securities held by the Bank into money, and to discharge all liabilities of the
