THIS CATALOGUE contains the titles of an assemblage of books relating to KINGS, GOVERNMENTS, LAWS and TAXES, and should be interesting to Americans and Canadians alike who sing the praises of Democracy and Loyalty. We each and all enter and quit the world through the bottomless pit of taxation. The garment which first covers our precious form and the shroud in which we are rolled up at last, bear the inexorable image and superscription of the taxgatherer. There appears to be taxes either direct or indirect upon everything we eat, wear or use. We open our mouths only to be taxed, and are taxed again for closing them. Manufacturers tax the wholesalers, who tax the retailers, who in turn tax the consumer. The Government, leading the way, taxes upon everything we purchase from abroad or manufacture at home. We turn over our ground with a taxed plough, cut our corn with a taxed reaper, gather it with a taxed waggon, and thrash it with a taxed machine, and send it to customers over a railroad built out of taxes, and of which the taxpayers neither own or control a square foot or a single sleeper. We exchange our industry for property in order to be taxed, and educate ourselves to be still further taxed. We clothe ourselves with taxed garments, and can only keep ourselves from freezing by taxed fuel burned in taxed stoves, and brought over taxed railroads. We pay taxes on the medicine which restores us to health, and the doctor is also taxed who puts us to death — the iron and the brass nails of our own coffin being also taxed. The bride becomes a wife in a taxed robe, and gazes with the greatest satisfaction upon her taxed wedding ring, her family being raised by taxes, and become taxpayers or taxgatherers. We read our taxed books by the aid of taxed glasses under a taxed light. The common hangman despatches his wretched victim by the aid of a taxed rope; and this year of grace finds the wise men of the East puzzled as well as dazzled at the prospect of taxing electricity transmitted by means of wires to Canada from Niagara Falls, New York. FRIENDS and CORRESPONDENTS, seeing that these things are so, let not fear drive us, but let knowledge and love draw us — let us remember that righteousness and truth is the salt of morality, and that morality is the safety of humanity; let us awake with joy and alacrity, and emerge from isolation and selfishness to a knowledge of our duties, responsibilities and privileges as men and as brethren in the commonwealth of humanity, and REMEMBER THAT EACH MOTIVE, WORD OF ACTION is being STEREOTYPED FOR OR AGAINST US UPON the SCROLL OF ETERNITY.

Annual Register of HISTORY, POLITICS and LITERATURE, complete from its commencement in 1758 down to 1842, 74 vols in 86, also the index vol down to 1819, a nice clean lot mostly in boards, uncut, from the library of the late MARQUIS OF HASTINGS, nearly every volume has the book plate of SIR JACOB ASTLEY, 40.00. 1

———— Another Set COMPLETE FROM THE COMMENCEMENT 1758, down to 1819 WITH INDEX VOL TO THE SAME 63 vols in 62, half rough calf, uncut, 13.50. 2

———— Another short set from 1758 to 1772, 15 vols, a nice tight little lot in calf and cheap for 2.25. 3

THE ABOVE SETS comprise a detailed view of the POLITICS, LITERATURE, BIOGRAPHY, PARLIAMENTARY HISTORY, COMMERCE, STATISTICS, etc., during a most important period. All the STATE PAPERS of any IMPORTANCE ARE GIVEN AT LENGTH. It was suggested to DODSLEY by the RIGHT HON. EDMUND BURKE, who conducted it for many years, and when no longer able to hold the pen himself, he directed that of his substitute, MR. IRELAND. The great questions which occupied the talents and attention of this, one of the greatest of men, and called forth from time to time the most splendid displays of eloquence, which was listened to, and since read by admiring multitudes, and his public labors was one continuous struggle against the stupidity, venality, and selfishness of the politicians of his day. It is safe to assume that had his advice been taken, the necessity for American independence would never have had any existence, Warren Hastings would have been hanged, and the world would never have been cursed with a Napoleon. In one of the index volumes there are above 200 references to this one man. THE CONTEST WITH THE AMERICAN COLONIES, the impeachment of WARREN HASTINGS, and the French Revolution, all of which were commenced and concluded during the publication of the above; the relationship between England and what is now the United States and Canada, occupies nearly twenty columns in the closely-printed index, representing many hundreds of pages. Hundreds of authors are indebted to this bold and uncompromising lover of justice, for his complete and invaluable information retailed to their readers. On the subject of Canadian history, these volumes are of extraordinary interest. Long accounts are given of the Indian and French wars, and each of the two first sets completely cover the interesting period of 1812-14.

4 Betham's (Rev. W.) BARONETAGE of ENGLAND, or the HISTORY of the ENGLISH BARONETS, and such Baronets of Scotland as are of English families, with genealogical tables, with numerous fine engravings of armorial bearings, 5 vols in 3, 4to, half russia, cracked, 3.75, Ipswich, 1801.

ENGLISH HISTORY—KINGS AND KING-CRAFT.

Hampden (John) THE CASE of SHIPP MONEY, the ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT, CONTAINING the ARGUMENTS pro and con in this CELEBRATED CASE, consisting of 574 pages, folio, limp vellum, in a capital state of preservation, 28.50. 13

This celebrated case was argued in Michaelmas Term, 1636, before the twelve judges, by OLIVER ST. JOHN and ROBERT HOLBOURNE on the part of HAMPDEN, and by the Attorney-General SIR JOHN BANKS and SIR EDWARD LITTLETON on the part of the Crown. JOHN HAMPDEN was one of the most CELEBRATED and ILLUSTRIOUS of ENGLISH STATESMEN. He was cousin to OLIVER CROMWELL and was fatally wounded on CHALGROVE FIELD, only a short distance from the spot where I myself was born. The sum required of HAMPDEN was only a few shillings, but the demand was despotic and the principle involved far reaching. It led to the misery of almost ELEVEN YEARS of UNINTERRUPTED CIVIL WAR.—J.B.

A Radical pamphlet of a high order. The Government of the country, says our author, vide page 204, seems to be a kind of stake or thing to be tossed up for as idle boys try their luck for gingerbread nuts in the street, wih this difference, that those who gamble for the former cry "heads we win, tails you lose." It is for Parliament, the legal guardians of our invaluable Constitution, to put an end to this amusement of pitch-and-toss, or George IV will find a sceptre not worth holding and the people a country not worth living in.

Doyle's Official Baronage of England, showing the SUCCESSION, DIGNITIES, and OFFICES of every PEER, from A.D. 1066 to 1885, with 1,600 ILLUSTRATIONS, PORTRAITS, ARMS, AUTOGRAPHS, etc., 3 handsome vols, 8vo, half morocco, gilt tops, 12.50, published at five pounds five shillings, Longmans. 64

Intended to assist in the study of English history, especially mediæval history, where exact information regarding the peers who carried on the history of the country has been difficult to find. The points treated are:—1. Dates of birth, succession, and death. 2. The varying titles of each line. 3. The offices held by each peer. 4. Their marriages. 5. Their armorial bearings. 6. Their persons. This work in a manner does for the active ruling class of the earlier ages what our modern peerages and parliamentary companions do for the legislators and officials of the present day. The authority for every fact is accurately indicated.

A scarce and interesting work. Has JOHN TOPHAM'S observations on the wardrobe account of the 23th year of King Edward the First, and a valuable glossary at the end.

- 138 Hayley (W.) LIFE of JOHN MILTON, to which are added CONJECTURES on the ORIGIN of PARADISE LOST, with an appendix, 328 pp, 4to, half calf, 1.25, London, 1796.
A source biography of this champion of liberty, and is an interesting work on a controverted literary subject.
- 139 Milton's (John) PROSE WORKS COMPLETE, with prefaces, remarks, notes and indexes, by J. A. St. John, portrait, 5 vols, 2.50, Bohn's Stand. Lib.
"Revolutions have approximated him to us," says Chateaubriand. "His political ideas made him a man of our own ep. ch. He complains in his verses that he came a century too late; he might have complained in his prose that he had come a century too early. The hour of his re-urrection is now arrived. Milton shook with a mighty hand all the ideas agitated in our own age." And we would earnestly advise those who believe in taxing books to read our author's UNANSWERED BECAUSE UNANSWERABLE TREATISE ON THE FREEDOM OF THE PRESS.
- 140 Letters of LADY RACHEL RUSSELL, from the manuscript in the library at Woburn Abbey, with an introduction vindicating his character against Sir John Dalrymple, the early second edition, 4to, calf, large paper, 75c, 1773.
Her letters are written with an elegant simplicity, with truth and nature, which can overflow only from the heart. The tenderness and constancy of her affection for her murdered lord presents an image to melt the soul.—BISHOP BURNET.

This nice little volume contains a most interesting account of our author's voyage as a prisoner to Jamaica, 1685, and his subsequent life and experience as described on page 98 and following pages is of unusual interest.

270 Royal Progress (The), or a historical view of the journeys or progresses which several great Princes have made to visit their dominions, and acquaint themselves with their people, 71 pp, 8vo, sewn, 35c, 1724.

271 Question of the Residency of the Peers of Ireland in England fairly stated, 108 pp, 8vo, sewn, 50c, 1761.

A scarce pamphlet by JOHN FENICHAL, the well known founder of a colony in Georgia in the early part of the last century.

272 Cartwright (John), AN APPEAL, CIVIL AND MILITARY, on the subject of the English Constitution, 297 pp, being the second and best edition, and comprising the three parts, London, for the author, 1799; VOLTAIRE'S translation of BECCARIA'S "Crimes and Punishments," with a commentary, 247 pp, 1801; SOMERS (John Lord) SECURITY OF ENGLISHMEN'S LIVES, or the trust, power and duty of Grand Juries of England explained, 103 pp, 1771, all in one thick 8vo vol, calf, 1.00.

RARE AND IMPORTANT PUBLICATIONS. MAJOR CARTWRIGHT, it will be remembered, was an ardent political writer and reformer. His love of liberty compelled him to refuse to fight in the American War. His "American Independence, the glory and interest of Great Britain," published in 1774, and other publications, together with his correspondence with Americans made him one of the most conspicuous of English Radicals.

273 Chabot (Mr. Chas.) THE HANDWRITING OF JUNIUS PROFESSIONALLY INVESTIGATED, with preface and collateral evidence by EDWARD TWISLETON, 276 pages of letterpress, also 260 fac-simile letters, thick 4to, cloth, 5.50, John Murray, 1871.

We also include with this fine volume the well-known article on this subject from the Westminster Review of January, 1872, which to our mind settled the question at once and for all.

274 Letters of Junius, 2 vols in 1, 12mo, cloth, 35c, 1854.

275 Butler (S.) HUDIBRAS with large Annotations and a preface by DR. ZACHARY GREY, portrait and plates after Hogarth, and woodcuts by Nesbit, 2 vols, 8vo, russia, sound copy, 3.50.

276 Review of the Council of Trent, first writ in French by a learned Roman Catholic, now translated into English by G. L., 388 pages, folio, calf, numerous old initial letters, 1.00, Oxford, 1638.

Wherein are contained the several nullities of it. With the many grievances and prejudices done by it to Christian kings and princes, as also to all Catholique Churches in the world, particularly to the Gallicane Church.

277 Owen (Robert) MS. REPORT of the COUNTY of LANARK of a plan for relieving public distresses, a well-written manuscript, 135 pp, 4to, on both sides of the paper, also a MS. COPY of ROBERT DALE OWEN'S "Outline of Education," 150 pp, 4to, this last is in a lady's hand, 2 vols, uniform, half calf, 2.25, about forty years old.

FATHER and SON. The first being the well-known Socialist and Philanthropist and author of the New moral Word, and who created a profound impression upon society in England in the early part of the century. ROBERT DALE OWEN was a distinguished political and miscellaneous writer, who came, early in life, to AMERICA and SETTLED IN INDIANA, and was elected to Congress by the Democratic Party, 1843. SOCIALISM will be the great question for the near future, and the above volumes will be appreciated by those who may be aware of this fact.

278 Wissett (R.) Letters on Licensing and Regulations for Public Houses; Bowle's (John) on the Law and Right of Retailing Spirituous Liquors, etc, 3 thick and scarce 8vo pamphlets, sewn together, 35c, 1815.

279 Letters written by the EARL of CHATHAM to his nephew, THOMAS PITT, afterward, Lord Camelford, post 8vo, boards, uncut, 40c, London, 1804.

280 Hints on the Principles of a Constitutional Police, a scarce Edinburgh pamphlet, 8vo, sewn, 20c, 1822.

281 Warning to Great Britain and Ireland against French perfidy and cruelty, etc, towards the peasants of Swabia, during the French Invasion, 1796, 72 pp, 12mo, sewn, 25c, 1798.

282 Massi (M. Coustard De) HISTORY of DUELING in ALL COUNTRIES, translated with introduction and concluding chapter by SIR LUCIUS O'TRIGGER, post 8vo, cloth, 50c, London, n.d.

283 Bell (A.) Historical Sketches of Feudalism, British and Continental, with the doings of the feudalry in all ages and countries, 447 pp, post 8vo, cloth, binding slightly damaged, 50c, London, 1852.

284 Memoirs of a celebrated literary character, from the resignation of SIR ROBERT WALPOLE, 1742, to the establishment of LORD CHATHAM'S second administration, 1757, containing strictures on some of the most distinguished men of that time, 89 pp, 8vo, nice clean copy, boards, 75c, 1813.

RICHARD GLOVER, the well known author and politician, is the subject of the memoirs, and RICHARD DUPPA, art critic and author, did the editorship as might be expected. The references to this continent are many and interesting.

285 Europe, The Political Views, Interest, Connections and present constitutions and state of its several powers, full of interesting information, and has the book-plate of R. Sutton, 517 pp, 8vo, calf, 50c, 1752.

By JOHN CAMPBELL, a diligent and useful writer and author of Lives of the Admirals.

286 Hoadley (B.) Measures of Submission to the civil magistrate, 8vo, calf, 40c, at the White Hart, 1706.

A LEARNED AND SCARCER WORK on this historical subject by WHITE KENNETT. The volume has a valuable appendix.

Saunders, 27 FINE PORTRAITS and MEMOIRS of EMINENT LIVING POLITICAL REFORMERS, after SIR GEORGE HAYTER and other eminent artists, with a copious history of parliamentary reform, by WILLIAM HOWITT, some slightly foxed, THE BEST ROYAL FOLIO EDITION, 4.75, pub. £4 4s, 1840, 390

A SPLENDID BOOK for a REFORMER'S LIBRARY, here are samples—Marquis of Lansdowne, Viscount Melbourne, Lord Holland, Lord John Russell, Lord Palmerston, Viscount Morpeth, Marquis of Normandy, EARL OF DURHAM, the ADVANCED RADICAL REFORMER, who advocated TRIENNIAL PARLIAMENTS, VOTE BY BALLOT, AN EXTENSION of the SUFFRAGE, and FREE TRADE, and who came to CANADA in 1838, and after making his CELEBRATED REPORT, died in 1840, as we believe, of a broken heart, and about a score of others who were denounced as traitors, but whose principles are, or will be, adopted by all enlightened peoples.

The continuation of important Historical and Political Miscellanies being now in the press will appear in the forthcoming Catalogue.
