P. R. Bentley Drowned in Lily Lake Friday Night

A sad drowning accident occurred Friday night in which P. R. Bentley, a prominent citizen of Middleton, and a member of the dry goods firm of Bentley's Limited, lost his life and Dr. Herman, J. H. Charlton and John Burke, all of Middleton, had narrow escapes from meeting the same fate. The four men, accompanied by a young son of Dr. Herman, went fishing in Lily Lake. Here they were joined by a lad named Taylor, Dr. Herman and Mr. Bentley went out in a canoe and with Dr. Herman and Mr. Bentley capsize. They immediately went to the rescue, and in trying to aid those in the water, overturned the punt. Bentley and Burke, who could swim, started for shore. Burke reached the shore in a state of complete exhaustion. Mr. Bentley was near shore when he went down.

Mr. Bentley's body was found at 9.55 the following morning about 125 feet from the shore, he having been drowned before he reached the lily pads.

Mr. Bentley, who was in his fifty-first year, leaves a widow, two daughters, two brothers and two sisters. He was a member of the Masonic lodge and also an Odd-fellow.

The funeral, which was largely attended, took place from his late home Monday afternoon, the service being conducted by Rev. The MONITOR extends its deepest sympathy to the bereaved ones.

Digby and Evangeline's Land

A View of Digby, Nova Scotia, and a Close View of the Willows Under Which Evangeline Used to Rest.

The Pines at Digby is the first Dominion Atlantic Railway hotel to be opened in Nova Scotia. During the tourist season of 1919 it will be in full swing under the management of the new owners. The acquisition of the Pines by this railroad is a distinct advantage to tourists and to Nova Scotia, for a good hotel attracts visitors almost as much as a good scene does. Hotels and scenes go together in their call to the public. To enjoy the loveliness of nature one must be comfortably housed and well fed. One might aptly parody Thomas Moore's lines and write: The rooms where we dwell, and the meals that we eat Make every sweet scene of enchantment more sweet.

Reginald Graves is associate manager of The Pines, and he is one of the most experienced hotel men in America. He was manager of the Place Viger Hotel in Montreal for many years. Tourists to Evangeline's Land generally make a tour of all the beauty spots of the region. Yarmouth, beside the sea, offers many allurement to the visitor. A colony of French-Canadians, whose ancestors were expelled from Grand Pre, resides in the vicinity of Yarmouth, and still retains the traditions of the Acadians. Kentville is the headquarters of the Dominion Atlantic Railway which serves the entire district. Grand Pre was the site of the village from which the Acadians were banished in 1755. The well where Evangeline was wont to go for water and the willows under which she rested are still there; Blomidun mountain and the Basin of Minas near by are just as they were of old, the meadows are green on the dykelands and the dykes keep out the sea, and a little inland the gentle hills are patched with luxurious orchards. Wolfville, the headquarters for tourists to Grand Pre, is built in the midst of one of the greatest apple growing localities in the world. The late King Edward was amongst those who visited and loved this spot. It is only a short walk from Wolfville to Grand Pre, and the marshlands extend from one place to the other. The Dominion Atlantic Railway has purchased the "big field" where the Acadians made their village, which was their capital, and this has become a public park. A memorial cross now stands there on the site of the ancient burial ground, and a statue of Evangeline sculptured by Philippe Hebert and his son Henri, descendants of an Acadian family, will soon add the grace of art to what has lavished her rarest charms. It is significant that the Dominion Atlantic Railway and the Boston and Yarmouth Steamship Company have embarked on an ambitious campaign to advertise the tourist attractions of Nova Scotia.

Potato Beetles Very Abundant

It has been years since potato beetles were as abundant as they are this season. From present indications a large proportion of the fields will require treatment within a week of the appearance of the plants if the maximum crop is to be grown. On account of the fact that the adults or hard shells can very seldom be completely controlled by the early spray it would be good business for all potato growers to make plans for thorough spraying with poisoned Bordeaux when the plants are about ten inches high.

If the plants are attacked by adult beetles within two weeks of their appearance it is probable that the best treatment would be to dust the young plants with arsenate of lime. Spraying with arsenate of lime two pounds to forty gallons would be equally effective. Arsenate of lead or Paris Green may be used if arsenate of lime is not available. When the plants are ten inches high or when the larvae or slugs or soft shells, as they are often called, appear growers should spray very thoroughly with a poisoned Bordeaux made up of:—

- 4 lbs. copper sulphate.
- 4 lbs. lime.
- 1 1-2 lbs. arsenate of lime.

On making the Bordeaux the lime and the copper sulphate should be dissolved separately in upwards of twenty gallons of water and then poured together. In using arsenate of lime as an insecticide it is best to add it to the completed Bordeaux.

In New Brunswick where arsenate of lime is not available in all sections, arsenate of soda which is sold under the trade names of arsenoid and sol arsenate may be used in Bordeaux only in the place of arsenate of lime.

Poisoned Bordeaux made according to the above formula should be applied every two weeks during the entire season after the plants are ten inches high. This will insure freedom from both insects and fungus diseases.

Spraying four or five times in the manner described will give an average increase in crop of about 100 bushels per acre, and the total cost will be in the neighbourhood of fifteen dollars per acre. On this account spraying potatoes is like buying potatoes for fifteen cents per bushel.

Too many make the mistake of not applying enough spray. At least eighty gallons should be applied per acre on each application. Forty gallons is not enough to control either insects or diseases and if the spraying is done with a hand pump it is best to go over the field twice, once each way on each application. Thorough potato spraying is probably the most profitable operation that can be conducted on the ordinary farm, as the returns will average more than six times the cost. In other words the profits from potato spraying average over 500 per cent. Years ago there were no potato beetles and no blight in the country and there was no need of spraying potatoes. Within forty years conditions have changed, and insect and fungus diseases introduced. Today in order to grow maximum crops of potatoes the must be protected from these comparatively new insect and fungus pests by spraying.

LEMONS MAKE SKIN WHITE, SOFT, CLEAR
Make This Beauty Lotion for a Few Cents and See for Yourself.

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes; to whiten the skin and to bring out the roses, the freshness and the hidden beauty? But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white this way. Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well and you have a whole quart of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle, then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When applied daily to the face, neck, arms and hands it should help to bleach, clear, smoothen and beautify the skin.

Any druggist will supply three ounces of orchard white at very little cost and the grocer has the lemons.

SNOW—BOUTILLIER
A pretty wedding took place in Monday when Boyd, eldest son of Capt. and Mrs. Wm. Snow, of Wolfville, was united in marriage to the daughter of Mr. Arthur Boutillier, President of the National Co. of Halifax. The bride was attended by her sister, Emily White, and Miss Fisher, of Middleton, performed the duties of best man. After church of England wedding service had been performed and nuptials had been served the happy couple left for Boston on a bridal trip to the New England States. Mr. and Mrs. Snow are graduates of Mt. Allison University and have a host of friends in the Maritime provinces who congratulate and best wishes. Among those present at the wedding were Mrs. Wm. Snow and Mrs. Ethel and Dorothy, who accompanied them to Digby via yesterday's train.

The bride looked charming in a gown of white silk and crepe with a white veil, carrying a bouquet of roses. The little bridesmaids were Margaret Hall and Mrs. Bishop. The bridesmaids of the bride had tastefully decorated the rooms with a profusion of flowers. The drawing room was in pink and yellow and the dining room in pink and green. The ceremony was performed beneath a white arch and bell of white and evergreen. A pretty wedding collation was served to about fifty guests. The valuable wedding gifts were by the young couple who are popular in the community.

High Price For Hay

The Yarmouth Herald Says: At a grass auction held at Chegogg on Friday exorbitant prices were paid, which will no doubt place hay for the coming season at a very high figure. In one instance the standing grass on a field, estimated to produce about five tons, sold at an average of $25 per ton, while a small field which in previous seasons sold for $8 or $9 brought $28 on Friday.

MARSHALL-WARNER
A quiet but very pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents in Plympton, Digby Co., Thursday evening, July 3rd, when Rev. D. Mr. Hartley Marshall, brother of the groom, performed the duties of best man. The presents consisted of cash, silver, china, linen, etc. The happy couple arrived here via Saturday's express. The groom returns to Brockton, Mass., next Saturday, where he holds a responsible position with the Brockton Trust Co. # The Quickaction Chemical Fire Extinguisher

THE GREATEST "SAFETY FIRST" INVENTION OF THE AGE

The Quickaction Chemical Fire Extinguisher is the result of years of study, and while being the product of a master inventor's mind, is so simple to operate that a child can use it. This new scientific method fights fire in a manner that water has never been able to do. Its method is altogether different and much more effective. The Quickaction, which is charged with a powerful chemical, does its work by chemical action entirely. By air pressure applied through a single stroke of the powerful force pump a strong, swift stream aimed directly at the fire goes straight to the base of the flame. Chemical action then gets in its deadly work of extinguishing the blaze by choking off the supply of oxygen from the surrounding air. Life cannot exist without oxygen; neither can fire burn.

The Powerful Chemical used is Safe, Harmless, Positive. Having secured the agency for this wonderful invention described above, I am prepared to take orders immediately. Goods delivered from two to three weeks after order is taken. The price of the Extinguisher is $1.50. My plan is to accept 75 cents, or half of the total price, with order, and the balance on delivery of Extinguisher. In this way we both give some security. Those ordering by mail must enclose $1.00 with order to help pay postage, etc., and remaining 50 cents on delivery.

Hoping the public will see the wisdom of having one or more of these wonderful Chemical Fire Extinguishers in their homes, shops, offices, etc., I will be expecting a fair share of your patronage. Sample shown on request.

Valuable Information.

Deer folks: Now I know why editors go mad. I ben trying to run this paper while the editor is on his vakashun. For three (3) days and nites I ben reading questions and trying to answer them, and if I don't quit I'll be going around talking to myself. I'm going to answer a few more, then go to the ball game —(Jimmie, the office boy.)

1. Do small cows give condensed milk? (Mable B.)

No, Mable. Condensed milk is made by trying to get a quart of milk into a "quart milk-bottle."

2. Please tell me how hash is made. (W. M.)

Hash is not made. It akumulates.

3. Is it right to feed hogs corn-in-the-ear? (G. K.)

No. Put it in the trof and let them help themselves.

4. I am in love with a homely girl who works for us but she don't seem to care for me, while a pretty girl with lots of money wants to marry me? What shall I do? (Will M.)

Marry the one you love and send me the name and address of the other one.

5. My hair is beginning to fall out. What can I get to keep it in?

A sack.
6. Please tell me how to raise a nice fat hog of about 500 pounds.

Get a derrik.

7. How can I tell when the water is the right temperature for bathing baby? (Young Mother.)

If the kid gets red and hollers, the water is too hot. If he gets blue and shivers, it's too cold.

8. I am 40 years old and have a nice little farm, and am thinking of taking a wife. What would you advise? (Old Batch.)

I would advise you to be kerful whose wife you take.

9. Our old red bull is chasing me around a forty-acre field. What shall I do? (Mike F.)

I don't know, but don't give up, Mike. The editor will be back in a week.

His Way.

A Canadian woman wanted to show her Chinese servant the correct way to announce visitors, and one afternoon went outside her front door, rang the bell, and made the man usher her into the drawing-room. The following afternoon the bell rang, and not hearing him answer it went to the door herself. To her surprise he was standing outside. "Why Sing", she asked, "what are you doing here?" "You foolee me yesterday I foolee you today," was the reply.

Some Really Need Them.

On Jonny's first day of school he was given a registration slip on which mother was to write his birth record. The following day he came tardy and without the registration slip. His teacher said: "Johnny, you bring an excuse for being tardy and don't forget the slip about when you were born."

All out of breath, next day, Johnny rushed in, holding out a note from mother.

"Teacher," he gasped, "I brought the one about being tardy, but I forgot the excuse for my being born."

The landlord who refuses to allow children in his house or apartment ought to be brought up short with the curb rein. He is anti-social, anti patriotic, anti-everything. The one great need of this country is more, and still more children.

Minard's Liniment Cures Diphtheria.

Death of Mrs. Delila Cossitt

The death took place at Smith's Cove, early Thursday morning of Mrs. Delila Cossitt, widow of the late James Cossitt, at the advanced age of 81 years. Mrs. Cossitt was born at Smith's Cove, being the daughter of Capt Eben Rice and Eliza Thomas Rice. Her long life was a specially useful one, and she will be long missed as a friend and neighbour by the whole community. She had no children of her own but brought up two sister's children who had been left motherless and to whom she gave the most devoted care. To these two, Mrs Orville Jones, of Digby, and Dr. S. B. McGregor, of Smith's Cove, we extend our deepest sympathy, and also to the brother, Mr J. W. Rice, and the two remaining sisters, Mrs. Cynthia Cossitt and Mrs. Jas. Young.

The funeral which took place from the home of Dr. McGregor on Friday afternoon was conducted by Rev. A. N. McNinth, pastor of the church of which the deceased had been a faithful member during the most of her long life.

Save Your Clover Seed

Two methods may be followed with success by clover seed growers in Nova Scotia. One is to allow the first crop to mature without interference. The other is to cut the first growth about the last of June, not later than the first of July in any case, and harvest the second crop when mature. The second method gives the cleaner seed, for obvious reasons, and probably yields a larger quantity of seed. It will be remembered, of course, that this is not applicable to Alsike, which will not develop a second crop.

The clover should be left standing until the blossom is black and then well cured before storing. In selecting the field to be saved for seed, if the intention is to use the first crop a poorer stand may be selected so as to avoid rank growth of other material, but if the second crop is planned on the richest plot is best.

Great Distinction.

An English lord who had just arrived from England was talking to an American boy. "My grandfather," he said, "was a very great man. One day Queen Victoria touched his shoulder with a sword and made him a lord." "Aw, that's nothin'" the American boy replied. "One day Red Wing, an Indian, touched my grandfather on the head with a tomahock and made him an angel."

LIFT OFF CORNS!

Apply few drops then lift sore, touchy corns off with fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little Freezone on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. Yes, magic.

A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

Freezone is the sensational discovery of a Cincinnati genius. It is wonderful.

Quite a number from here attended the circus in Kentville on Saturday, June 28th, and report a very pleasant time.

Mr. W. H. Phinney and daughter, Irene, of Lawrencetown, were recent guests at the home of Mrs. Timothy Phinney and of Mr. and Mrs. J. Abner Phinney.

The Misses George Brown, teacher in Quebec, Vera Palmer, of New Tusket, Digby Co., and Dorothy Lentz, of Hastings, Anna, Co., are spending their vacation at their respective homes here.

On Tuesday, July 1st, Mrs. Frank Goucher was hastily summoned to the bed-side of her mother, Mrs. Andrew Spicer, of Berwick, who has been stricken with a shock of Paralysis, and is now very low.

Kindly allow us to correct an error in our last list of items. Mrs. Ella Goucher did not meet her son, Pte. Wylie Goucher, in Halifax as stated, as he did not arrive on the Adriatic, your correspondent having been misinformed.

On Wednesday, June 25th, one of our most popular young ladies, Miss Hortense V. B. Spurr, youngest daughter of Col. Spurr, was united in marriage to Mr. Frederick C. Gilliatt, of Granville Centre, the ceremony being performed in the Baptist church, by the Rev. Mr. Roop, pastor of that church.

Mrs. Arthur Coleman, of Halifax, who was visiting her mother, Mrs. Ella Goucher, of this place, was called suddenly away to accompany her sister, Miss Lilla Goucher, of Digby, to Halifax, where she is now in the Dr. Mader Hospital for treatment. We understand that Miss Goucher is in a very precarious condition, but hopes are entertained for her recovery.

A very pleasant event took place on the evening of July 1st, at the home of Lt.-Col. and Mrs. E. F. McNeil, the occasion being the fortieth anniversary of their wedding.

The affair had been planned as a surprise for the parents, by their daughters and the Colonel and his good lady were invited to attend the races at Aylesford, on that day, remaining at Kingston until evening.

The surprise was certainly complete, when, upon their return, they were met and congratulated by some one hundred and ten of their friends and neighbors. Another surprise awaited the guests, for in a short time, the Colonel's son, Kenneth H. McNeil arrived with his bride, who was formerly Miss Caldwell, of Bridgetown, the young couple receiving congratulations with the older couple.

The evening passed pleasantly with music and conversation, and after refreshments had been served to the guests, the Rev. Mr. Hockin with a few well chosen words presented the bride and groom of forty years with a couple of handsome chairs as a slight token of the esteem in which they are held in this community. The Colonel's reply was that of a man taken entirely by surprise, but it is needless to say the thoughtfulness of the neighbors was thoroughly appreciated by him and Mrs. McNeil.

After singing "Auld Lang Syne", the happy company dispersed, feeling that they would like to be present at the next anniversary in that hospitable home.

MARINE NEWS

Capt. Arthur Casey, of Digby, has resigned command of the Patrol A. to take command of a new three masted schooner at Clare, which will load lumber at St. John for France.

According to data recently compiled, fourteen Gloucester fishing vessels were lost during the past year, most of them being sent to the bottom by enemy U-boats. Of the crew some 25 men were natives of the Maritime Provinces, principally from the Yarmouth and Digby districts. Among the other casualties were natives of Newfoundland, Sweden, Portugal, France and Finland, giving one a good idea of the range of nationalities represented by the Gloucester fleet.

Sheep Industry Steadily Growing

ONE of the chief factors making for the growth of the sheep industry throughout Western Canada is the wider distribution of these animals that is now taking place among farmers all over the three prairie provinces.

Southern Alberta has hitherto easily led all the rest of the West in this industry, the production of wool from this district being about two-thirds of the total output of Western Canada, but there are signs that this disproportion will not always be so great. Not that any falling off in the number of sheep in Southern Alberta is expected. The industry is expected to maintain its steady growth there. But other parts of the West have equal advantages for the growth of the industry, and since this is realized by farmers a considerable development along that line may be confidently anticipated.

One of Southern Alberta's successful sheep breeders has recently been investigating conditions in the central part of the province, and has nothing but enthusiastic praise for the abundance of suitable fodder available there. He believes that thousands of gold dollars are going to waste every year because of the small number of sheep on the splendid pastures, and pictures the country in a few years dotted with small sheep ranches.

A steady movement of sheep is now taking place to those parts of Western Canada where they are most needed. Most of them are finding their way into the hands of small farmers, who have thus a means placed at their disposal for turning to profit considerable pasture that would otherwise not be utilized. All realize that the future of the sheep industry in Western Canada is in the hands of the farmer rather than in the large flockmaster. Most of the farms in the West can profitably maintain a small flock of sheep, and the efforts of the provincial governments, as well as of the various sheep breeders associations, are directed towards the end of providing these farms with flocks.

At the beginning of October an auction sale at Wetaskiwin, Alberta, resulted in two thousand head of high class ewes being distributed among the farmers in that neighborhood, while hundreds have gone into this and other parts of the province as a result of private sales.

Farmers in Manitoba and Saskatchewan are displaying considerable eagerness to secure small flocks of sheep. Towards supplying the needs of these near Saskatoon, two thousand four hundred head were forwarded from Calgary recently, followed soon after by another consignment of eight hundred head. Whenever it is possible to secure good sheep agents the Saskatchewan Government are securing them. The larger breeders in the province are being prevailed upon to dispose of part of their flocks; and animals are being brought in from Alberta, from the East and from many of the States across the line. But the Government's efforts are not confined just to securing high class grade ewes to supply the needs of farmers. They also embrace the improvement of the standard of the flocks by importing registered pure bred stock. During the present month one of the most valuable consignments of pure bred sheep ever brought into Canada has been secured by the Saskatchewan Government. It comprises one hundred and nine head of pure bred Ramboulllets, personally selected by the Provincial Live Stock Commissioner at an establishment in Washington noted for the standard of its other sheep that are being secured by the Government are to be resold to farmers at cost on favorable terms.

The Manitoba Department of Agriculture is also seeing to it that facilities are placed in the way of farmers in its province to obtain sheep. Its efforts, ably seconded by the sheep-breeders associations, have resulted in sheep being placed on many farms, where none were before, and in the flocks on others being numerically increased.

This wider distribution of sheep is becoming more and more emphasized every year in increased wool output. Eventually, not only will the production of wool, to say nothing of mutton, become one of the largest businesses in Western Canada, but the quality produced will make Western Canada an important factor in the world's markets. At the present time there are only about two million sheep in the West. Forty times as many could be easily maintained and there is no reason why this number should not be maintained in time. Now that the old days of poor prices for wool are gone, and co-operative selling is enabling farmers to sell their wool to the best advantage, the greatest obstacle to the development of the industry has been removed. It cannot do other than grow in such a favorable environment as Western Canada affords.

Wrigley's Advertising

Wrigley's manufacturers of the famous Spearmint Doublemint and Juicy Fruit Chewing Gum, have just issued a unique circular to their retail trade, which tells one of the most wonderful advertising experiences that we have ever read. Wrigley's Chewing Gum has been introduced to the public in Canada, almost exclusively by newspaper advertising. Figures given in this circular show that Wrigley's is sold by more than 80,000 Canadian retailers, that it is advertised in 267 newspapers, magazines and farm papers, from Newfoundland to Vancouver. These publications have a total of 3,147,628 circulation each issue, which means 165 million Wrigley advertisements go out to the public yearly through these papers. With this tremendous urge, it is no wonder that the public has responded so heartily in buying Wrigley's Gum.

It is barely ten years ago that this message began to go out to the readers of the newspapers. Every year the sales have increased. Every year more papers have been used. Today the advertising is larger than ever and the selling cost less.

Recently a western editor made a comparison between Wrigley's advertising and the advertising, or lack of advertising, of some of his local merchants. He published a statement in his columns to the effect that Wrigley's spent more money with him in a month than some of his local merchants in a year, yet, his circulation was infinitely more valuable to the local man than it could be to Wrigley's. Wrigley's could only sell chewing gum. The local merchants had hundred, or maybe thousands, of items that interest the purchaser once he comes into the store. Advertising is needed to arouse interest, to create the desire to buy, in order that the merchants may make the sale. Then he must deliver the goods or the service which will induce the customer to come again. So with Wrigley's, the chewing gum must be good or the customer does not wish another package. Wrigley's have wisely added good advertising to good chewing gum. They have told people that in Wrigley's the flavour lasts, that it benefits the teeth, appetite and digestion and to "Chew it after every meal."

It seems to us such an advertising story as this is of interest to every reader of this paper, whether he wants to sell a stock of merchandise, a flock of chickens, whether he needs a page advertisement or a liner want ad. Advertising will help sell goods, in your house or get you a job.

Prices For Wool

There has been much speculation, not only in Canada but throughout the whole sheep breeding world, in respect to the price which will be paid for the farmers' clip this year. It was recently reported during the early part of the winter that prices might drop as low as 40c. and 50c. A little later to the prices that seem likely to be received may be taken from the report just received from the headquarters of the Canadian Co-operative Wool Growers Limited, which company markets the wool for Co-operative Sheep Association in Nova Scotia and other parts of Canada, who have sold two carloads of Maritime wool at 73c. f. o. b.

This will be very gratifying news to the sheep breeders of Nova Scotia and a stimulating effect on sheep breeding in the Province and should be put a premium upon the farmers taking the best possible care of their wool and thoroughly posting themselves the prevailing market prices.

Welcome News

Gasoline may come down to a decent price before long. How what a St. John paper said last week: "It is likely that the price of gasoline, which now varies from 37 to 40 cents, depending on where it is purchased, will settle down to 37 cents. The wholesale price reduced by the Imperial Oil Co. on June 9, one cent on a gallon making it 32 cents. Two millions of gallons stated yesterday that would sell for 37 cents in the market. The lower price is due to the removal of the 7-1-2 per cent tax. Lubricating oils will also be reduced from one to two cents a gallon according to grade."

Humor Of J. W. Leonard

His Scrap Book and His Well Done Work

The late James W. Leonard, formerly general superintendent of the C. P. R., in Toronto, was one of that picturesque type of railroad man which is passing into history.

The older generation will recall the figure he made a quarter of a century ago when he was superintendent for the C. P. R. He wore a frock coat, a wide-brimmed slouch hat, and smoked a pipe of slight proportion.

The hat became a sort of landmark. It was a symbol around the C. P. R. To it, one came for the brief, business-like "yes" or "no" that characterized "Jimmie" Leonard's abrupt and efficient administration. But the hat began to show signs of decay. However jauntily "J. W." cocked it over one eye, it wilted and faded. So his good friend, W. R. Callaway, now general passenger agent of the Soo line, took Mr. Leonard up on the hat question and urged him to get a new one.

"What for?" demanded J. W. "Nobody would know me in another hat! This is my crown! Nothing doing!"

Mr. Callaway finally offered to buy a new hat, and J. W. said: "You're on."

A new derby was purchased, sleek, and in the latest fashion of the eighteen nineties. J. W. put it on, and ordered the famous old slouch hat to be sent home.

Next morning, J. W. appeared on the job in the old slouch hat!

Another anecdote indicates the late Mr. Leonard's quiet but effective method of brushing away the vanities of human nature. A young man applied for a job to him. This young man was sporting a walking stick.

"I'm afraid we can't do anything for you," said Mr. Leonard. "We can't use a lame man."

"But I'm not lame!" protested the applicant.

"Then why the cane?" asked J. W.

The applicant got the job, but he discarded the stick and also a certain name of mind out of which the stick arose.

Mr. Leonard was a man of few words, a trait that endeared him to his many friends and which secured him in the high esteem of the thousands of business men with whom he dealt for the railway.

HIS GREAT LOVE OF WORK

Deep down in the recesses of his nature, it would appear that the late J. W. Leonard, whose life motto was, "I want to do the work entrusted to me in the very best way that I can," should have been eager for the approval of his fellows. In a scrapbook, containing the clippings of newspaper papers for the past twenty years, there is a letter from Lord Elgin, congratulating him upon the manner in which he had moved the wheat crop out during his first year as assistant superintendent of the western division. It is evident that he valued the letter as an evidence of work well done, rather than as the approval of the head of the system.
