

PATENTS PROCURED

In Canada, Great Britain, United States and Foreign Countries. PHILIP INAR, A.G. C. H. ROPER, Canada Life Building, Toronto.

SEVENTEENTH YEAR

WHERE THEY AT

Text of the Federal Offer to the Manitobans.

OBJECTIONS TO THE PROPOSALS

As Explained by the Manitoba Commissioners.

The Ottawa Proposals Meant the Statutory Division of the People into Separate Denominational Classes.

Separate Schools Meant the Impairment of the Public Schools Through the Division of School Revenues.

Government Could Not Under Any Consideration Accord to Separate Schools in That Province.

Winnipeg, April 2.—(Special)—The suggestion for the settlement of the Manitoba school difficulty made by the commissioners of the Federal Government, which were rejected by the Manitoba Government, and the counter proposals made by the Manitoba Ministers, which were in turn declined by the Federal commissioners, were made public to-day, so that the public can now judge of the merits of the proposals and of the reasons for their rejection.

The Ottawa Proposals Meant the Statutory Division of the People into Separate Denominational Classes.

Separate Schools Meant the Impairment of the Public Schools Through the Division of School Revenues.

Government Could Not Under Any Consideration Accord to Separate Schools in That Province.

Winnipeg, April 2.—(Special)—The suggestion for the settlement of the Manitoba school difficulty made by the commissioners of the Federal Government, which were rejected by the Manitoba Government, and the counter proposals made by the Manitoba Ministers, which were in turn declined by the Federal commissioners, were made public to-day, so that the public can now judge of the merits of the proposals and of the reasons for their rejection.

The Ottawa Proposals Meant the Statutory Division of the People into Separate Denominational Classes.

Separate Schools Meant the Impairment of the Public Schools Through the Division of School Revenues.

Government Could Not Under Any Consideration Accord to Separate Schools in That Province.

Winnipeg, April 2.—(Special)—The suggestion for the settlement of the Manitoba school difficulty made by the commissioners of the Federal Government, which were rejected by the Manitoba Government, and the counter proposals made by the Manitoba Ministers, which were in turn declined by the Federal commissioners, were made public to-day, so that the public can now judge of the merits of the proposals and of the reasons for their rejection.

The Ottawa Proposals Meant the Statutory Division of the People into Separate Denominational Classes.

Separate Schools Meant the Impairment of the Public Schools Through the Division of School Revenues.

Government Could Not Under Any Consideration Accord to Separate Schools in That Province.

Winnipeg, April 2.—(Special)—The suggestion for the settlement of the Manitoba school difficulty made by the commissioners of the Federal Government, which were rejected by the Manitoba Government, and the counter proposals made by the Manitoba Ministers, which were in turn declined by the Federal commissioners, were made public to-day, so that the public can now judge of the merits of the proposals and of the reasons for their rejection.

The Ottawa Proposals Meant the Statutory Division of the People into Separate Denominational Classes.

Separate Schools Meant the Impairment of the Public Schools Through the Division of School Revenues.

Government Could Not Under Any Consideration Accord to Separate Schools in That Province.

Winnipeg, April 2.—(Special)—The suggestion for the settlement of the Manitoba school difficulty made by the commissioners of the Federal Government, which were rejected by the Manitoba Government, and the counter proposals made by the Manitoba Ministers, which were in turn declined by the Federal commissioners, were made public to-day, so that the public can now judge of the merits of the proposals and of the reasons for their rejection.

The Ottawa Proposals Meant the Statutory Division of the People into Separate Denominational Classes.

Separate Schools Meant the Impairment of the Public Schools Through the Division of School Revenues.

Government Could Not Under Any Consideration Accord to Separate Schools in That Province.

Winnipeg, April 2.—(Special)—The suggestion for the settlement of the Manitoba school difficulty made by the commissioners of the Federal Government, which were rejected by the Manitoba Government, and the counter proposals made by the Manitoba Ministers, which were in turn declined by the Federal commissioners, were made public to-day, so that the public can now judge of the merits of the proposals and of the reasons for their rejection.

The Ottawa Proposals Meant the Statutory Division of the People into Separate Denominational Classes.

Separate Schools Meant the Impairment of the Public Schools Through the Division of School Revenues.

Government Could Not Under Any Consideration Accord to Separate Schools in That Province.

Winnipeg, April 2.—(Special)—The suggestion for the settlement of the Manitoba school difficulty made by the commissioners of the Federal Government, which were rejected by the Manitoba Government, and the counter proposals made by the Manitoba Ministers, which were in turn declined by the Federal commissioners, were made public to-day, so that the public can now judge of the merits of the proposals and of the reasons for their rejection.

The Ottawa Proposals Meant the Statutory Division of the People into Separate Denominational Classes.

Separate Schools Meant the Impairment of the Public Schools Through the Division of School Revenues.

Government Could Not Under Any Consideration Accord to Separate Schools in That Province.

Winnipeg, April 2.—(Special)—The suggestion for the settlement of the Manitoba school difficulty made by the commissioners of the Federal Government, which were rejected by the Manitoba Government, and the counter proposals made by the Manitoba Ministers, which were in turn declined by the Federal commissioners, were made public to-day, so that the public can now judge of the merits of the proposals and of the reasons for their rejection.

The Ottawa Proposals Meant the Statutory Division of the People into Separate Denominational Classes.

Separate Schools Meant the Impairment of the Public Schools Through the Division of School Revenues.

Government Could Not Under Any Consideration Accord to Separate Schools in That Province.

Winnipeg, April 2.—(Special)—The suggestion for the settlement of the Manitoba school difficulty made by the commissioners of the Federal Government, which were rejected by the Manitoba Government, and the counter proposals made by the Manitoba Ministers, which were in turn declined by the Federal commissioners, were made public to-day, so that the public can now judge of the merits of the proposals and of the reasons for their rejection.

The Ottawa Proposals Meant the Statutory Division of the People into Separate Denominational Classes.

Separate Schools Meant the Impairment of the Public Schools Through the Division of School Revenues.

Government Could Not Under Any Consideration Accord to Separate Schools in That Province.

Ontario Weekly

SIX PAGES—FRIDAY MORNING APRIL 3 1896—SIX PAGES

New Stock of Lightweight SPRING RUBBERS. Finest New York Goods. THE TORONTO RUBBER CO., LTD. 28 King-st. West. Arcade.

ONE CENT

AND STILL IT RAINS.

NOAH BOWELL: The commission doves don't seem to have any leaf with 'em. I'm afraid the animals will starve to death before this flood subsides.

MR. WHITNEY NOW LEADER

OF THE OPPOSITION IN THE LOCAL HOUSE.

Mr. G. F. Marter Resigns the Position and His Place—The Caucus a Full One and Most Unanimous—Mr. Marter has Given a Resignation.

At a caucus of the members of the Opposition in the Local Legislature, held last evening at the Parliament Buildings, Mr. G. F. Marter, member for North Toronto, tendered his resignation as leader of the party in the House.

Every Conservative member of the House was present, and they all protested against the leader's action. Mr. Marter, however, stated that he had for a long time intended to resign, and that he could not now change his mind.

Mr. J. P. Whitney was then nominated for the leadership, and with one accord all present supported his candidature. Mr. Marter, in a few words, expressed his acceptance of the office.

It is just about two years since Mr. Marter was elected to the County of Dundas.

Mr. Marter, who has been a member of the House since 1888, is one of the most harmonious in the party's history, and most unanimous in his selection of Mr. Whitney.

Mr. Marter, however, stated that he had for a long time intended to resign, and that he could not now change his mind.

Mr. Marter, however, stated that he had for a long time intended to resign, and that he could not now change his mind.

Mr. Marter, however, stated that he had for a long time intended to resign, and that he could not now change his mind.

Mr. Marter, however, stated that he had for a long time intended to resign, and that he could not now change his mind.

Mr. Marter, however, stated that he had for a long time intended to resign, and that he could not now change his mind.

Mr. Marter, however, stated that he had for a long time intended to resign, and that he could not now change his mind.

Mr. Marter, however, stated that he had for a long time intended to resign, and that he could not now change his mind.

Mr. Marter, however, stated that he had for a long time intended to resign, and that he could not now change his mind.

Mr. Marter, however, stated that he had for a long time intended to resign, and that he could not now change his mind.

Mr. Marter, however, stated that he had for a long time intended to resign, and that he could not now change his mind.

Mr. Marter, however, stated that he had for a long time intended to resign, and that he could not now change his mind.

Mr. Marter, however, stated that he had for a long time intended to resign, and that he could not now change his mind.

Mr. Marter, however, stated that he had for a long time intended to resign, and that he could not now change his mind.

Mr. Marter, however, stated that he had for a long time intended to resign, and that he could not now change his mind.

Mr. Marter, however, stated that he had for a long time intended to resign, and that he could not now change his mind.

Mr. Marter, however, stated that he had for a long time intended to resign, and that he could not now change his mind.

Mr. Marter, however, stated that he had for a long time intended to resign, and that he could not now change his mind.

THAT WINGHAM OUTRAGE

SEVERAL ARRESTS HAVE CREATED MUCH EXCITEMENT.

The Attorney-General's Department Taking Steps Toward Bringing Those Who Caused Fields' Death to the Bar of Justice.

Wingham, April 2.—The arrest yesterday of five of the ringleaders implicated in the Fields outrage fell like a thunder clap on the people here. Nothing else is spoken of and the anxiety as to who will be drawn into it next is intense.

The five men that were taken to Goderich yesterday by Constable Gundry are Charles Manser, Thomas Montgomery, George Phippen, Robert Harrison and Jerry Flannigan. All are married men with the exception of Flannigan. Constable Gundry returned with these men to-night, and it is supposed will watch for further arrests.

An immense crowd of townspeople met the train at Wingham, and the train, which brought the prisoners back, they were driven immediately to the County Jail.

A Prisoner Fatals. When entering the hotel, Phippen, who has not been well for some time, fainted, and fell heavily to the floor. A doctor was summoned, and after some time restored the patient to consciousness.

Manser and Phippen have retained Mr. Richard Vanston of Wingham to defend them. As yet the others are undefended. There is some talk of raising a fund to defend the prisoners.

A large number of witnesses have been subpoenaed for to-morrow's court, and all sorts of rumors are afloat as to who will be implicated by the evidence given at the preliminary trial.

Magistrate C. Seager of Goderich will sit on the case, and County Attorney Lewis of Wingham will watch the interests of the Crown.

Answers to Talk Now. Detective Rogers has been busy all day at the Brunswick House receiving callers. People who could not be made to speak before the arrests are now very anxious to give their version of the affair, and Rogers has accumulated a great deal of strong evidence, and it is more than probable that the five ringleaders will be joined by a number of companions immediately after to-morrow's trial.

Yesterday, when these men were arrested, one of the leading hotelkeepers of this town came forward and offered ten thousand dollars to bail them out, and another wealthy citizen offered an equal amount, which was, of course, not accepted.

Impressed in an Hotel. Detective Rogers has decided that the lock-up here was not suitable for keeping the prisoners, and has made arrangements at the Brunswick Hotel for their confinement during their stay in Wingham.

Harrison and Flannigan have offered to make a statement giving full details to Detective Rogers, but their offer was not accepted. The authorities have the name of every man who was directly or indirectly implicated in the affair, and it is doubtful if the whole evidence can be got through with in one day. The court opens at 9.30 to-morrow morning.

Deaths of Mr. D. W. Campbell. Milton, April 2.—(Special)—Mr. D. W. Campbell, editor of The Milton Champion and County Treasurer of Huron, died this afternoon of peritonitis. He was well known throughout the country as a sporting man, and also as owner of Wild Rose, winner of the Queen's Plate and other fast horses.

Deaths of Mr. D. W. Campbell. Milton, April 2.—(Special)—Mr. D. W. Campbell, editor of The Milton Champion and County Treasurer of Huron, died this afternoon of peritonitis. He was well known throughout the country as a sporting man, and also as owner of Wild Rose, winner of the Queen's Plate and other fast horses.

Deaths of Mr. D. W. Campbell. Milton, April 2.—(Special)—Mr. D. W. Campbell, editor of The Milton Champion and County Treasurer of Huron, died this afternoon of peritonitis. He was well known throughout the country as a sporting man, and also as owner of Wild Rose, winner of the Queen's Plate and other fast horses.

Deaths of Mr. D. W. Campbell. Milton, April 2.—(Special)—Mr. D. W. Campbell, editor of The Milton Champion and County Treasurer of Huron, died this afternoon of peritonitis. He was well known throughout the country as a sporting man, and also as owner of Wild Rose, winner of the Queen's Plate and other fast horses.

Deaths of Mr. D. W. Campbell. Milton, April 2.—(Special)—Mr. D. W. Campbell, editor of The Milton Champion and County Treasurer of Huron, died this afternoon of peritonitis. He was well known throughout the country as a sporting man, and also as owner of Wild Rose, winner of the Queen's Plate and other fast horses.

Deaths of Mr. D. W. Campbell. Milton, April 2.—(Special)—Mr. D. W. Campbell, editor of The Milton Champion and County Treasurer of Huron, died this afternoon of peritonitis. He was well known throughout the country as a sporting man, and also as owner of Wild Rose, winner of the Queen's Plate and other fast horses.

Deaths of Mr. D. W. Campbell. Milton, April 2.—(Special)—Mr. D. W. Campbell, editor of The Milton Champion and County Treasurer of Huron, died this afternoon of peritonitis. He was well known throughout the country as a sporting man, and also as owner of Wild Rose, winner of the Queen's Plate and other fast horses.

Deaths of Mr. D. W. Campbell. Milton, April 2.—(Special)—Mr. D. W. Campbell, editor of The Milton Champion and County Treasurer of Huron, died this afternoon of peritonitis. He was well known throughout the country as a sporting man, and also as owner of Wild Rose, winner of the Queen's Plate and other fast horses.

Deaths of Mr. D. W. Campbell. Milton, April 2.—(Special)—Mr. D. W. Campbell, editor of The Milton Champion and County Treasurer of Huron, died this afternoon of peritonitis. He was well known throughout the country as a sporting man, and also as owner of Wild Rose, winner of the Queen's Plate and other fast horses.

Deaths of Mr. D. W. Campbell. Milton, April 2.—(Special)—Mr. D. W. Campbell, editor of The Milton Champion and County Treasurer of Huron, died this afternoon of peritonitis. He was well known throughout the country as a sporting man, and also as owner of Wild Rose, winner of the Queen's Plate and other fast horses.

Deaths of Mr. D. W. Campbell. Milton, April 2.—(Special)—Mr. D. W. Campbell, editor of The Milton Champion and County Treasurer of Huron, died this afternoon of peritonitis. He was well known throughout the country as a sporting man, and also as owner of Wild Rose, winner of the Queen's Plate and other fast horses.

WORDS SHOULD NEVER DECEIVE

Language. Instead of Hiding Thought, Should Express Its True Intent.

"Dude" is a word that approximates to slang, still it is very expressive. The Dude cap is coming into general use this spring. It is a most comfortable cap, as shown in the accompanying cut. It is worn in bicycling, railway traveling, boating, as well as in all kinds of sport, also for evening occasions—theatres, concerts, balls and parties. Its best recommendation is that you cannot crush it out of shape; it goes into small compass and is especially convenient for those attending lectures and the playhouses. This dude cap is made of Scotch tweed, Halifax tweed, sergew, fancy cloths and other equal, of real good quality; better ones at 75 cents, and first-class at $1.00. It can be had in all kinds of colors, and is made in all sizes, from 6 1/2 to 7 1/2. The estimate was used, but could not be proceeded with because the Opposition called for nothing else. So with the Budget; it was debated for over a month. The bill itself had been introduced on the 23rd of February. The estimate was used, but could not be proceeded with because the Opposition called for nothing else. So with the Budget; it was debated for over a month. The bill itself had been introduced on the 23rd of February.

Mr. Laurier replied somewhat hotly that it was "plotting in the Cabinet" and was a "stunt" to bring it before Parliament. This might have been given to the Remedial Bill. He charged the Government with having caused the obstruction.

In the course of his reply Mr. Foster pointed out that the Cabinet crisis, which had caused the delay, had lasted over four working days. The obstruction commenced with the debate on the address which, in two or three days, had run from the 18th to the 23rd of February. The estimate was used, but could not be proceeded with because the Opposition called for nothing else. So with the Budget; it was debated for over a month. The bill itself had been introduced on the 23rd of February.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

CALLED A "TRAITOR"

Sir Charles Tupper Gets After Mr. McNeill.

MEMBER FOR BRUCE HITS BACK.

He Objects to Bullying and Browbeating.

On the Part of the Leader of the Home-Declines to Be Headed Off the Conservative Party—Mr. McCarthy Also Makes Legitimate Attack on the Secretary of State, and Says: "I am not a Traitor, Too Well to Be Insulted by Him—Mr. Haggart Also in the Fight With the House—It Was All Talk, and Another Day Was Lost—House Hits on Saturday.

Ottawa, April 2.—(Special)—Obstruction, pure and unadorned, was what the Opposition indulged in this afternoon. The question was as to whether or not the House should sit on Saturday next and every device was resorted to by the Opposition in order to spin out the time.

Sir Charles Tupper, having made the motion, Mr. Laurier thought that if the motion applied to next week it would be the convenience of the House. Friday being a legal holiday, it might not be advisable to sit on Saturday next.

Sir Charles Tupper said it was actually impossible to lose Saturday next to get through with the business of the session.

Mr. Sutherland, Liberal whip, urged that many Conservative members had asked him to get pairs of socks to remain at home on Saturday. It would be a disappointment to many members.

Sir Charles Tupper suggested that by the members securing pairs the difficulty would be overcome.

Mr. Sutherland replied that just the difficulty was to pair members when Liberal and Conservative were voting on the same side.

Mr. Charlton held it to be a monstrous proposition to sit on Saturday next.

Mr. Ives wanted to know by the tenets of which church Mr. Charlton deemed it an outrage to work on the day intervening between Good Friday and Easter Monday. It was not Presbyterianism, certainly not Judaism, which could only offend the Jews, who held to strict observance of the Sabbath.

Then Sir Richard Cartwright arose and offered to "swap" next Wednesday for Saturday. He proposed that the Government in exchange for a Saturday holiday.

Mr. Laurier supported this suggestion with much plausibility and the plan also found favor in the eyes of Messrs. Wallace, McCarthy and others.

Mr. Sutherland said he could not forget that the opposition to a Saturday holiday was not a matter of principle, but a matter of expediency. He had evinced no desire to promote the Remedial Bill. Mr. McCarthy had long ago announced his intention of opposing the passage of the measure by all means. It was the hon. gentleman and he was doing his duty in obstructing this measure who was making the proposal to sit on Wednesday next.

Mr. Laurier replied somewhat hotly that it was "plotting in the Cabinet" and was a "stunt" to bring it before Parliament. This might have been given to the Remedial Bill. He charged the Government with having caused the obstruction.

In the course of his reply Mr. Foster pointed out that the Cabinet crisis, which had caused the delay, had lasted over four working days. The obstruction commenced with the debate on the address which, in two or three days, had run from the 18th to the 23rd of February. The estimate was used, but could not be proceeded with because the Opposition called for nothing else. So with the Budget; it was debated for over a month. The bill itself had been introduced on the 23rd of February.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country.

Mr. Laurier's speech was a masterpiece of logic and force. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve the condition of the country. He pointed out that the Government had been in power for over a year, and that they had done nothing to improve

