STOPPING TRADE IN CHINCHILLA

In view of the fact that it is desirable to conserve the species of useful wild animals in the republic of Peru, and that the chinchilla is one of the animals whose extermination is threatened, reads a resolution recently passed by the government of Peru, "the hunting of these animals in the territory of the republic, as well as the sale of skins and articles made from them is prohibited." In fact, the provisions of the decree of October 8, 1920, referring to the skins of the vicuña, apply also in the case of the chinchilla.

REPORTING TO ROLLO

Hamilton, March 24.—(Special)—That Monte Rose camp, outside Niagara, where workers on the Chippawa development of the Hydro are quartered, is controlled by Austrians, was the charge made in an anonymous letter sent to Mayor Copley this afternoon by a returned soldier now at the camp as an unemployment relief worker. The letter was submitted to the board of control, and despite the fact that no name was contained, the controllers looked seriously on the charges. It was pointed out that the man was likely afraid to sign his name for fear of losing his job. The matter was referred to Controller Aitchison, who will take it up with Hon. W. L. R. H. tomorrow. Sir Adam Beck might also be asked to explain.

Reparations Commission Notifies German Government of Consequences.

Paris, March 24.—The German government was notified by the allied reparations commission today that the total amount of twenty billion gold marks due under article 235 of the peace treaty must be paid by May 1 or additional penalties will be inflicted upon Germany.

The commission in its note says there is nothing in the treaty of Versailles which obliges it to bear the German government upon the conditions under which the deliveries to make up the twenty billion mark payment to the allies (which article 235 of the peace treaty stipulated should be paid by Germany by May 1) should be made or appraised.

The note adds that the commission waited as long as possible before demanding the payment by March 23 of one billion marks in gold to deposit on the reparations account because of a certainty that Germany possessed sufficient funds to make immediate payment.

The note concludes by saying that in any event the total amount of the twenty billion gold mark payment must be handed over between now and May 1, and that non-payment of the amount will entail penalties. The German government is considered as defaulting in fulfillment of its undertakings, the communication declares, and, therefore, the commission has decided immediately to call the attention of all the interested powers to such failure.

2000 VETERANS WANT PASSAGES

British Association Shipping Them to Canada Two Hundred a Month.

London, March 24.—Charles Donovan, president of the English branch of the Canadian War Veterans' Association, will sail at the end of the month for Canada to address a series of meetings from coast to coast. The English branch here is working quite harmoniously with the bureau of the Canadian high commissioner's office, which deals with cases of discharge of ex-soldiers to a free passage to the Dominion, preferably by railway. The high commissioner's bureau has before it now applications from 2000 ex-soldiers who want free passages, and is sending men to Canada at the rate of about 200 per month. Of this number about 90 are government men who were discharged in Canada, and then came to this country, hoping to find something to do. Some men, it is said, have done little else since they were discharged but cross and recross the Atlantic and this is only one instance of the difficulty of dealing with the problem of Canada's former soldiers now in this country.

NATIONAL PROGRESS MOTTO ADOPTED

(Continued From Page 1). spirit of "national progress," which is the motto adopted for the year. In this declaration of the motto, when they were not fitted to receive a reward, it created a situation that became more serious when one realized the difference between modern progress. When the union men spelled efficiency, said he, there would be the greatest competition between employers to secure the closed shop. He did not object to the right of workmen to co-operate to strengthen their bargaining power, but he did object to the methods used. There should be a right to get out as well as to get into certain labor organizations, and he believed, that it was against all principles of liberty for employers to be coerced into employing only union men. By their attempts to establish an equality, which at best, was only temporary, the workers themselves were destroying the fabric of liberty.

Capital is Essential.

There was no conflict about the necessity of production, he continued, but only in the division of the profits accruing from the sale of products, and here, he believed, that there was no such thing as the right of profit, but only the right of the individual to profit. Capital, said he, under systematic direction, was primarily essential for production. The public eventually paid the price for allowing monopolies to exist, and the only monopoly that should be permitted was that built up on sustained merit.

Discrimination in Employment.

Mr. Emery believed that success was founded upon discrimination in employment. Every employer had a differential to deal with, and a stereotyped form of agreement into which the unions were trying to fit every man was against public policy and social progress. He cited the Miller case in 1903, when Roosevelt said that he would make no discrimination between the union and non-union men. The open shop was discouraged, but the union simply meant the use of collective power to compel men to

PRESENTS CASE FOR OPEN SHOP

James A. Emery Claims Employers Entitled to Discriminate in Selecting Help.

CAPITAL ESSENTIAL

Is Primarily Needed for Production Under Systematic Direction.

In a most eloquent address, which was also an excellent lecture on economic science, James A. Emery, a prominent American lawyer, placed before the Empire Club yesterday, at a luncheon given in his honor at the King Edward Hotel, the reasons why employers favored the open shop in preference to the union of closed shop. Mr. Emery is retained by big American concerns as counsel, among which are the National Association of Manufacturers and the National Industrial Council, and has played an important part in the litigation in which business and labor have been involved. In connection with the speech he made yesterday, it is understood that efforts will be made to obtain Samuel Gompers, president of the International Federation of Labor, for an early reply to Mr. Emery.

Deal With Surplus Wealth.

In outlining his arguments, the speaker said that we could only progress in proportion to our combined efforts to subdue the forces of nature. Surplus wealth was the first essential of economic progress, as all the finer things in life depended upon it, and any man who by his own efforts, laid more money away than was sufficient for his daily needs could be termed a capitalist. Our very progress had made us less dependent and more interdependent and as each state went forward it formed its own concept of rights, ideas, morals and economic tasks, which were obliged to be translated into every relationship of that society. If they were not antagonism would create separation of some elements, which, in moving at variance, would result in the economic wreckage of that society. The individual, curiously enough, worked along lines altogether different from those of the general, and this economic inequality, Mr. Emery thought, was much more to be feared than economic equality. When, for instance, no invention would be born and society would never progress. By stimulating the individual with a reward he would make more progress for those dependent upon him. The progress of this world had resulted in present-day progress, both politically and economically.

Liberty and Economic Equality.

It was one of the first principles of civil liberty that man must have power to work out his salvation, he said, unrestrained, except by his conscience and by the moral and scientific principles of fundamental institutions. We could not have liberty and economic equality, he believed, because the moment man exercised the right of workmen to organize, it was nothing short of a gross injustice to reward a man who was not equal to the man deservng of the reward. In many instances, however, had done more in furthering society than whole groups.

So, when any group of men tried to attain their ends by coercion when they were not fitted to receive a reward, it created a situation that became more serious when one realized the difference between modern progress. When the union men spelled efficiency, said he, there would be the greatest competition between employers to secure the closed shop. He did not object to the right of workmen to co-operate to strengthen their bargaining power, but he did object to the methods used. There should be a right to get out as well as to get into certain labor organizations, and he believed, that it was against all principles of liberty for employers to be coerced into employing only union men. By their attempts to establish an equality, which at best, was only temporary, the workers themselves were destroying the fabric of liberty.

CARDINAL GIBBONS CALLED BY DEATH

Passes Away in Baltimore After a Prolonged Illness.

Baltimore, Md., March 24.—James Cardinal Gibbons, archbishop of Baltimore and primate of the United States Catholic Church, died at the archiepiscopal residence here today after a prolonged illness, which mainly affected his heart. He was in his 87th year. The end came peacefully at 11:33 o'clock.

Cardinal Gibbons' physicians said repeatedly in the earlier stages of his illness that he was sound organically, as could be expected in a person of his years, but that he suffered from the effects of his age and from fatigue that resulted from the prodigious expenditure of his energies in the performance of his duties as senior prelate of the Catholic Church in this country.

Beside the cardinal's bed stood every member of his household, and when it was seen that the distinguished prelate had passed away the priests fell to their knees and began reciting the prayers for the dead. The chief features of the arrangements for the cardinal's funeral were announced at the archiepiscopal residence this afternoon. The requiem mass will be celebrated next Thursday at 10 a.m., at which Monsignor John Bonzano, apostolic delegate at Washington, will officiate. The interment will be in the crypt under the high altar of the cathedral, where rest six of the eight archbishops and bishops who preceded Cardinal Gibbons as the head of the Baltimore diocese.

Masses for the repose of the soul of the late cardinal will be said at the cathedral each morning next week prior to the final services on Thursday.

Government Control

Endorsed by Thinking Men and Women

Cardinal Gibbons: "I am persuaded that it is practically impossible to put prohibition into effect in any large community. I believe in Temperance; that is, moderation in all things, but not absolute prohibition."

The Bishop of Montreal: "Sixteen years ago I made a thorough investigation into the working of various systems of liquor administration, and became convinced that the best system was that of Government Sale and Control."

Lady Henry Somerset: "Government control is what is wanted, not prohibition. This campaign for prohibition is not dealing honestly with one of the most solemn questions affecting the whole future of our national life, because everyone who looks seriously at the present conditions knows prohibition to be impossible."

WILSON GAVE WAY TO JAPAN'S BLUFF

Former Secretary Lansing, in Book on Conference, Scores Late President.

Boston, March 24.—Robert Lansing, former secretary of state and member of the American peace commission, will reveal in his forthcoming book on "The Peace Negotiations," which will be published by Houghton, Mifflin Company, March 25, how close he came to resigning from the commission because of differences with President Wilson over the Shantung question and his belief that many of the terms of peace imposed on Germany were harsh, humiliating and seemingly impossible of performance.

It is in relation to Shantung that Mr. Lansing discloses the most serious differences between himself and President Wilson. Mr. Lansing gives as his opinion that blackmail and bluff by Japan induced the president to agree to surrender to that country such rights in Shantung as before the war were held by Germany and automatically retained by China.

That other members of the American commission shared his opinion of the Shantung decision as rendered by the council of four was a flagrant wrong and was prevented from resigning only by the critical conditions in the world situation is clearly intimated by Mr. Lansing. He describes the indignation felt by himself and by Henry White and Lansing, together with the letter written by General Bliss to the president, in which Mr. Lansing and Mr. Lansing are said to have stated that to support the Chinese Prussianized mission of Japan's Prussianized mission.

In connection with other problems his communications sent directly to the president were never acknowledged, according to Lansing, who found Mr. Wilson intolerant of suggestions; irritated by opposition and seemingly suspicious of the secretary's views after Nov. 12, 1918, when Mr. Lansing incurred his displeasure by urging him not to go to Paris personally.

NEAR-SERIOUS WRECK OCCURS AT NAPANE

Ottawa-to-Toronto C.N.R. Train Runs Into Open Switch—No One Hurt.

Kingston, Ont., March 24.—(Special.)—Passengers on the express train from Ottawa to Toronto on the Canadian National Railway had a narrow escape at 2.10 this morning, a quarter of a mile east of Napane, when the train ran into an open switch and was wrecked. Fortunately, no lives were lost and nobody was injured. The engine and tender kept on the main track, but the four other cars, consisting of the mail, baggage, passenger and sleeper, went onto the siding. The engine and tender ran off into a bog, but did not turn over. The baggage car turned over in a field.

Wrecking trains were brought from Trenton and this afternoon the track was cleared. There were on board many members of parliament on their way home for Easter.

AVIATOR ESCAPES HORRIBLE DEATH

Pilot-Officer D. Wilkinson Up 2000 Feet at Camp Borden When Plane Catches Fire.

Ottawa, March 24.—A remarkable escape from a horrible death by a Canadian pilot-officer, D. Wilkinson, at Camp Borden yesterday, was reported to air board headquarters here today. The pilot, an overseas flying officer from Vancouver, was flying in an Avro machine at a height of 2,000 feet, when his machine suddenly burst into flames. With exceptional forethought and skill the pilot, instead of diving for the earth, which would have resulted in the flames sweeping back and overpowering him and consuming the machine almost instantaneously, put the machine into what is known as a side-slip landing, and arrived safely on the ground.

POLES STILL FIGHT WITH LITHUANIANS

Irregulars Invade Neutral Zone and Attack Town.

London, March 24.—Fighting has again broken out between Lithuanian forces and Polish "irregular" troops, commanded by General Zeigowski, says a Copenhagen despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company. The Polish "irregulars" crossed the boundary line near Vilna on Saturday and attacked the town of Schivintal, in the neutral zone established by the allies, says the despatch, which quotes an announcement by the Lithuanian Press Agency at Copenhagen. Members of a Lithuanian military commission sent to investigate the situation were taken prisoners and executed, it is declared.

Polish regular troops opened artillery fire against the Lithuanian positions at Druskienki on Sunday, the despatch states, and several Lithuanian soldiers were wounded.

MAKE UNIQUE PLEA FOR CIGLESKI REHEARING

Ottawa, March 24.—One of the principal counts which will be advanced as an argument for the rehearing of the Cigleski murder case is that the crown prosecutor commented upon the fact that the prisoner had failed to testify on his own behalf, which is stated by counsel for the prisoner to be a violation of court procedure. Cigleski was found guilty by a jury at the Hull criminal assizes yesterday afternoon of murdering William Kussman and Mike Kurdursky in the woods near Timiskaming last July.

SEVERAL MURDERS IN SILESIAN TOWN

Deaths of Inter-Allied Employees Cause Stringent Regulations.

Berlin, March 24.—Several employees of the inter-allied plebiscite commission in Silesia have been murdered recently at Karf, and the governor of Beuthen has ordered that strictest measures to keep the peace be taken. He has forbidden all assemblies of more than four persons, all meetings except those of a religious nature are prohibited, and between eight o'clock in the evening and four o'clock in the morning all parties numbering more than two persons may be fired upon without warning.

Business houses may remain open only between nine and twelve in the morning and two and five in the afternoon. Similar regulations have been issued at Myslowitz.

Details of the Murders.
Beuthen, Upper Silesia, March 24.—Six Alpine troopers in the service of the inter-allied plebiscite commission were killed at Karf Tuesday by a mob alleged to have been made up of Poles, and as a result the commission has adopted drastic measures to suppress rioting.

The trouble in Karf broke out Tuesday, and a party of troopers was summoned from Beuthen to suppress the rioting. The Alpine contingent was immediately attacked by the mob. They took refuge in a private house, which was besieged by the rioters, who made a gunfire attack on the barricaded men.

After the troopers had hung out a white flag and offered to surrender, they were permitted to leave the house under a guarantee of safe conduct, the reports from Karf state. No sooner had they reached the street, which was besieged by the rioters, than they were killed six of the party and seriously wounded three others. The killings were witnessed by the adjutant, Col. Percival.

Sydney, N. S., March 24.—That the Dominion Iron and Steel Company offered to roll rails at cost, but that the minister of railways insisted upon a price lower than actual cost, is the statement made by E. P. Merrill, general manager, in explaining why the company is unable to accept Canadian National Railway rail orders.

In the statement issued by the Dominion Company reference is made to an article recently appearing in the press to the effect that the Sydney mills would get government rail orders as soon as the company would accept the government prices.

KING BY ELECTION IF NO DIRECT HEIRS

The Hague, March 24.—The government introduced in parliament today a bill for revision of the constitution, under the terms of which the people would elect a king should the queen leave no royal descendant, and there be no male descendants of the last king. In introducing the bill, the government takes the standpoint that the Netherlands shall remain a monarchy and not revert in any circumstances to a republican form of government.

Should there be no lineal descendant qualified to succeed to the throne, a new king must be chosen, the bill specifies.

Strong opposition is expected against the bill, which will be voted on some time this summer.

"Have You Tested My Blood, Doctor?"

"YES, I have."
"And what is the result?"
"Not very satisfactory."
"What seems to be the trouble?"
"Well, your blood is thin. It is lacking in what we call the red corpuscles. It does not contain enough of the nutritive quality to properly supply nourishment to the nervous system."
"But I am not nervous."
"No, you are not, in one sense. Your hands do not tremble. You are not easily startled or excited. But nevertheless your nerves are not in good condition. There is not enough nervous energy in your system to work the machinery of the body."
"Perhaps you never thought of the vital organs of your body as requiring any positive power—any propelling energy—but they do, and this force comes through the nervous system."
"Because you are not conscious of every heart beat and of every breath you breathe is no indication that this action is not the result of nervous energy."
"You really have two brains—one with which you think and act voluntarily, another one which, without any conscious effort on your part, controls the action of the various organs and members of the body. It is the failure of this sympathetic nervous system, as it is called, which most frequently causes trouble."
"Because nervous energy is lacking there is weak functioning of the vital organs. The digestive fluid does not flow properly in the stomach, and you have nervous indigestion—the action of the liver and bowels is slow and weak, and you suffer with other organs. And so it may be with other organs. While they are not really diseased, their action is weak for lack of nervous energy. What you need is a good restorative."
"What do you think of using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food?"
"There's nothing better. You know we doctors prefer to prescribe our own favorite treatments, but I have seen such splendid results from the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food by my patients that I no longer hesitate to recommend it."
The active and concentrated ingredients of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food are approved by the best medical authorities as a means of building up the exhausted nervous system. The experiences of many thousands of people go to back up the professional opinion, and hence the enormous success of this great restorative. 50c a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

Premier Meighen the Man on the Bridge.

This country is looking to Premier Meighen and his government to take immediate action with regard to the railway situation. They demand that within a fortnight the government take possession of the old Grand Trunk, absorb it into the national system and vigorously proceed with the work of consolidation.

He is the man on the bridge, and the Grand Trunk must be held to its agreement with the government. He is the man on the bridge, and the Grand Trunk must be held to its agreement with the government.

The request of the city of Toronto to change its powers in regard to income assessment has been pressed on the legislature and practically conceded. This is as it should be. If there are grievances, municipal or otherwise, for the legislature to deal with, red tape provisions should not prevent their being carried out.

Probably no man in the United States was more generally respected by those of his own faith than the late Cardinal Gibbons. No man, perhaps, ever played a more important part in a less ostentatious way. The child of Irish emigrants, he was typically American.

The Toronto correspondent of The London Times, whose identity is pretty well known, has been calling his paper the deal for the purchase of the Grand Trunk may fall thru. But how can this be when the government has already expended millions in part payment of the purchase money?

It may be said that while the old Grand Trunk more than earned its operating expenses last year, it failed to meet all its fixed charges. That is true, but it must be remembered that the Grand Trunk as a rule has paid not only fixed charges but also dividends upon guaranty and preference stock.

Operating expenses must be reduced. They can be reduced by cutting off duplication of service everywhere, by restricting service to the demands of traffic, by cutting out service for which there is no real demand, by substituting on many small branches electric energy for the highly expensive steam locomotive transportation.

Well, seeing as Good Friday comes a little early this year, those of us who don't spend the day cleaning up the fluster can lend a hand with the spring housecleaning.

Harvostmaster Allen says the bay and lake level is about a foot higher than last year. Perhaps we'll need that extra foot of water after the referendum.

Red Tape Regulations.

It is pleasing to note that the old forms and ceremonies in connection with the introduction of bills into the local legislature are passing away. The introduction of measures, especially those so-called private bills, had a certain prescribed time limit and form by which they were to be introduced.

Cardinal Gibbons.

Probably no man in the United States was more generally respected by those of his own faith than the late Cardinal Gibbons. No man, perhaps, ever played a more important part in a less ostentatious way.

The Homologated Line.

The city is asking for legislation permitting municipalities to lay down a homologated line for future street widening. The idea of establishing a line upon a street which it is desired to widen at some future date has advantages and should materially decrease the cost of the improvement when such is put into effect.

Remark in Passing.

Well, seeing as Good Friday comes a little early this year, those of us who don't spend the day cleaning up the fluster can lend a hand with the spring housecleaning.

THE WORLD'S WEEKLY NOVEL

HIS OLD HOME TO TOWN

By LARRY EVANS. (Copyright, 1917, by the H. F. Fly Co. and the Metropolitan Magazine Co.)

(Continued from Yesterday's World.) Hanlon stooped him with an imperious gesture. "Aye, I know! Small town stuff, I've heard it called with supreme scorn. Small town stuff—ye see, an endeavor to protest. All I have finished for twill avail ye little! 'Tis a favorite phrase of the sophisticated, the well-to-do metropolitans or that; at patronizing estimate of the 'simplification, inadequate wickedness of provincial places."

"Frightful blind fools! The wretched community I ever knew was a town or two hundred souls. Meanness is not a matter of geography, nor does wickedness depend upon population. Human nature is human nature, irrespective of longitude or latitude, or the last census report. Jimmy lad, ye've felt foolish this night, ye've ashamed of yourself for participating in it. Performance so atrocious as this, when ye should have been standing by the side of ye 'nobly' vander on the pavement coughin' to keep yer throat clear of blood."

"I understand," he said, heavily. "Ye speak of me as a more serious-like now—ye would ye still be thinkin' to change the greed of T. E. H. Banks, the hope of the Civic Reform party, the senator, by a few minor alterations ye've play-dialed? Would ye still think to correct District Attorney Jameson's tergiversation, and recall him as an honest man, with a man's instincts and courage, instead of the desperation of a convicted felon?"

GRAND JURY FAVORS LASH FOR RUFFIANS

Would Also Deal More Severely With Prisoners Guilty of Receiving. LIMIT FOR PAROLE Commend Good Work Done for Patients at the Toronto Asylum.

"We have had before us sixty-one indictments and have returned fifty-nine true bills and two no bills. The majority of those cases have been for receiving, and we are of the opinion that if the parties convicted for receiving were more severely dealt with there would be less cases of their kind."

Speaking of their visit to the Toronto asylum, the grand jurors said: "We have this institution a thorough inspection. We were shown all over the place. We can safely say that we saw the patients most get the very best care and attention. We inspected the houses and the food provided for the inmates was good and wholesome."

Good Training for Boys. Mimico Asylum, Toronto Jail and the Victoria Industrial School were also visited and favorably reported upon. Of the latter the grand jurors say: "We especially mention this school for boys. The training and education the boys get there is valuable and lasting."

Finance Commissioner's Report Calls for Economy in All Branches.

Finance Commissioner Ross laid before the board of control in private session yesterday a very pessimistic report on the city's financial situation. It contained the statement that if the department estimates were not further reduced the city's tax rate this year would be 55 1/2 mills.

"Proposals involving capital expenditure total the almost appalling sum of $4,400,000, and in addition, the city will this year have to guarantee bonds of the harbor commission for $4,000,000, and market them."

"It is very unfortunate, to say the least, that in this particular year, when we are pledged to such a large program, we should be burdened with the financing of approximately $9,000,000 worth of local improvements, which were initiated last year."

Yesterday afternoon the senior and junior finals for the championship of the city in the school girls' basketball league were played at the Oakwood Collegiate. In the senior game, the Oakwood girls defeated the Riverview girls by 16 to 14. The Oakwood girls led with their trickiest from the start, and the Riverview girls were unable to get into the game. The final score was: Oakwood 14, Riverview 7.

The junior girls of Oakwood and Commerce Collegiate played a splendid exhibition of combination and spectacular shooting. Play Both Rules in Remaining Cup Games

Vancouver and Ottawa hockey teams are playing the remaining games of the world's series on a fifty-fifty basis so far. The rules are concerned. One of the clubs got together and decided that in view of the criticism leveled at the six-man game by coast fans, it would be in the interest of all concerned to inject more "city" into the series by taking a whirl at the coast game as well as the National Hockey League brand. Last night the rules were used and on Monday afternoon the fifty-fifty game was played. If a fourth game is necessary, it will be played under the N. H. L. rules, with a fifth game should the series go that distance, under the western rules.

Ottawa started the same team last night which started on Monday, but Vancouver went into the contest with a weakened line-up. Skinner, the hard-working and aggressive right winger, was out of the game, suffering from a bad cut under the right eye, received on Monday. Skinner's absence necessitated a rearrangement in the line-up of the coast champions. Jack Adams filled the vacancy on the right wing. Mackay again started at centre, with Harris on the other side. Taylor, Bill Adams and Desjardis were the substitutes.

Technical and Oakwood Collegiate hockey teams clashed at the Arena at 8.30 yesterday afternoon for the collegiate championship of the city. Oakwood emerged victorious by a score of 2 to 1. Burich scored for the winners, while Patton, Fursley and Harrison were best for Tech. Wm. Tackaberry was the referee.

HYDRO CHAMPIONS. Hydro won the public service hockey championship by defeating the City Hall team at the Arena yesterday afternoon 2 to 1. It was a great battle throughout the game. The City Hall team was led by the star for the Hall outfit, Leavitt, late of Bechar, played a great game in the net for the victors. The team was: Hydro: Position City Hall: Kinber.....Goal.....Darlington; Kimber.....Defence.....Rough; Robertson.....Centre.....Ashton (P); Lawrence.....Right.....Lutton; Dove.....Left.....Jackson; Bowdley.....Sub.....Laurie; Young.....Sub.....Wentle.

FALCONS SMOTHER ONTARIO CHAMPS.

Get a Seven-goal Lead in the First Game for the Junior Title.

A fair exchange is no robbery. Varsity went into the arena yesterday to win the O.H.A. Memorial Junior trophy back home with them. The return tide made Stratford look bad in the first of two games at the arena last night, winning 9 to 2, and standing out as the best junior team that has shown in this neck of the woods in many a day.

They are fast and tricky and have not a weak spot. Comfort in the net is a factor. This defence is the best in the city. The attack is fast and powerful, and a big factor in the attack. Woodall, at left wing, was the outstanding player on the ice. He did a lot of his poking at the opposing net with regularity. What made Woodall's work look especially good was that he was marking Frank Carson, one of the toughest kids in junior company. Woodall made a thro' job of it, and Carson was besetted sick all evening. Fridfinnson, at centre, was a slippery puck-carrier and unwrapped a snappy shot that was hard to handle. Summers was a busy little bee, and tackled the biggest of the Ontario champions.

Stratford never had a minute to get into the attack properly. Fridfinnson camped right on their trail for the full hour and it proved Carson and Morens who they understood some nasty obnoxiousing that did not make them any friends. Stratford, Ruston was woefully weak in the net and practically the whole nine western goals were scored on shots from outside the defence. Richards scored the first goal in the first period, and in the last round, but Falcons were content to let him get as far as the defence, then hook it away and swept into a two-man rush that carried the rubber right back to the other end. The Falcons led 8 to 1 at the end of the first period, and 7 to 2 at the second. The third round, the second and final game will be played on Saturday night.

Baseball Teams Start Movement to the North

Spring training activities for the White Sox, so far as the camp at Waukegan, Ill., is concerned, closed yesterday. Uniforms were dealt out to the first and second squads and last night the players left for Wichita Falls for three days of training camp. A goal for the purchase of the Los Angeles club of the Chicago Cubs, as said to be under way, in reports from the Cubs training camp yesterday. Manager Evers sent in Bailey to relieve Jones, and Vernon made four runs off him in four innings.

Manager Tris Speaker of the Cleveland Indians intends to keep his squad intact until the middle of April at least, according to dispatches from the camp. Speaker has not offered the Sox a great deal of money, but he is ordered to hold firm when the season opens.
