PRIVY COUNCIL'S DECISION ON TREMBLAY-DESPATIE MARRIAGE JAIL INMATES CONCERNS QUEBEC, NOT ONTARIO REGULAR WAGE

Bishop M. F. Fallon Refuses t o Make Any Detailed Statement Regarding Matter- Rev. A. L. G. Clarke Agrees With Statements of Bisho p Farthing of Montreal.

"The privy council's decision in the Tremblay—Despatie marriage case does not in the least affect us here in Ontario, it is a matter for Quebec," declared Bishop Fallon when seen by The Advertiser this morning. "I nave really nothing further to say in the matter." His lordship indicated that in regard to the mixed marriage question non-Catholics were apt to confuse the civil to regal aspect of the matter with its sacramental aspect. It is only with the latter that the church is concerned. In Ontario as well as in other English-speaking countries the legality of marriages not performed by a priest is fully admitted, so long as the marriage into the effects of the decision to any extent, but he quite agreed with the latter that the church is concerned. SENATE CHAMBER IN THE NEXT SESSION OF PARLIAM SPICK AND SPAN OPENING

Presents Handsome Appearance, Although Permanent Decorations Not Complete.

Ottawa, Ve 12.—All arrangements for the openha of Parliament on Monday will be complete by tonight. A large staff of painters, carpenters and decorators was working on the Senate Chamber all night, and at 7 o'clock this morning the new Senate Chamber, complete as far as it will be this session, was turned over by the contractors to Col. E. J. Chambers, the gentleman usher of the Black Rod, on behalf of the Senate.

The Senate Chamber presents a very handsome appearance, notwithstanding the fact that a considerable amount of the elaborate stone carving and wood carving remains to be done. The permanent decorations of the main panels of the wall will not be done for some time, but in the meantime these panels are occupied by a number of the larger canvasses of the war memorial collection.

ago because of a 25 per cent wage reduction. Snow, packed hard by the countless automobiles which plied the traction company routes during the 24-hour storm, covered every track this morning to the depth of several inches. Efforts to clear it away yesterday with snow plows and sweepers proved fruitless. Shortly before 8 o'clock this morning one car, preceded by a gang of twenty strike-breakers, with shovels and picks, came out of the North Albany barns and began to make a laborious attempt to proceed toward the city. By constant use of the picks and shovels and the "snow-bucking" tactics of the car crew, the car proceeded at approximately the rate of less than a block an hour.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Winnipeg, Feb. 11.—Employment of prisoners detained in Manitoba jail at wages prevailing for free labor is recommended by the grand jury in its report submitted to Chief Justice Mathers on Friday. Commenting on the recommendation, the chief justice said that prisoners should be given employment on useful public works at fixed wages, and that wages should be paid to their dependents for their own use at their release if they had no dependents.

Advocates of Measure Will Put Up Strong Fight.

Washington, Feb. 12.-The Fordney mergency tariff bill was listed for further consideration in the Senate to-day after having been shoved aside in favor of appropriation measures. The measure came up today under an agreement reached at the conclusion of a brief debate on Thursday. SCIENTISTS UNABLE TO IDENTIFY HUGE SEA MONSTER

Miami, Fla., Feb. 12.-Scientists and deep-water fishermen here are puzzled over the finding of a huge sea monster off Soldiers Key, a few miles south of Miami, which they are unable to name. The body of the creature was found three weeks ago, and today part of the skull was towed to Miami. This fragment is fifteen feet long and even feet wide, and weighs three tons.

Mr. Elmer Garretson, who found the body, said he did not know how long the monster was, but he saw as much as 80 feet of it. Sharks were devouring the flesh when he Legislation Is Now Being Prepared by Minister of Interior.

Berlin, Feb. 12.—Legislation which would prescribe the manner in which all the civilian guards in Germany are to be dissolved, is now being draft. ed by the ministry of the interior. After being submitted to the cabinet the measure will be presented to the Reichstag for approval.

The action of the Bavarian premier in placing responsibility for disarmament upon the Berlin Government has created a situation quite embarrassing to the federal ministry. In view of the prolonged deliberations by the Bayarian ministers at Munich, Kon-stantine Fehrenbach, the chancellor had looked for a more emphatic de claration from Dr. Von Kahr.

Munich, Feb. 12.—Independent So-pialists demanded during yesterday morning's session of the Bavarian Diet that the Government make a report on negotiations carried on between the Berlin Government and Dr. Von Kahr. Bavarian minister, and this provoked a lively debate. A speaker for the Government declared that the proceedings at Berlin were confidential, and that their nature could not be divulged ex-cept in a plenary session.

Why Embargo Was Piaced.
When there were no restrictions the cattle were brought over to various British ports in large numbers, and extensive sheds and sale rings were erected at the various landing places. When the animals were landed they found a ready sale, and farmers were for the most part glad to get good store stock at a moderate price. It did not take long to restore to these beasts the condition that they had lost during the voyage across the Atlantic, and many of them ultimately found their way to the Smithfield shows as prime Scotch. But as the trade in Canadian cuttle increased in England and Scotland the traffic in Irish cattle had been shipped across the channel and sold at the various auction marts and annual fairs, but as a rule trey were a lighter type of animal than the Canadian. At any rate vigorous protests were made by the Irish members of parliament against the unrestricted importation of the animals from overseas, on the ground that it was doing considerable injury to the Irish farmer, and the Government of the day lent a sympathetic ear to these representations.

The result of all this was that the board of agriculture took the matter up, and in course of time it was reported that foot and mouth disease and hear discovered in sense cattle hear discovered in sense cattle ported that foot and mouth disease and hear discovered in sense cattle ported that foot and mouth disease and hear discovered in sense cattle ported that foot and mouth disease and allow for close co-

He was junior champion at Chicago a year ago, and this year went up for the grand championship, taking a high place in a class of nineteen. This magnificent male of the blackskin breed has undoubtedly a brilliant future.

How to Make Pine

Cough Syrup at Home

Has no equal for prompt results.

Takes but a moment to prepare, and saves you about $2.

Has no equal for prompt results.

Takes but a moment to prepare, and saves you about $2.

You know that pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is that pine contains several peculiar elements that have a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest.

Pine cough syrups are combinations that have a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest.

Pine cough syrups are combinations of pine and syrup. The "syrup" part is usually plain sugar syrup.

To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2½ counces of Pinex in a 16-oz. bottle, and fill up with home-made sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you make 16 ounces—more than you can buy ready-made for $2.50. It is pure, good and pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same-inflamed membranes—and this Pinex and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 24 hours or less. Splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, hoarseness, or any ordinary throat ailment.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is famous the world over for its prompt effect upon coughs.

Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

CANNING PLANT AT ONTARIO HOSPITAL

It will be news to the great majority of the public to know that at the Ontario Hospital, London, a canning plant was installed eleven years ago, and that this plant each year handles a large proportion of the fruit and vegetables grown on the hospital lands. For example, last year there were put down no fewer than 1,360 cans of corn, 1,600 gallons of peaches, 8,000 gallons of tomatoes, 800 gallons of crab apples, 1,550 gallons of plums, 1,600 pounds of grapejam, 875 pounds of strawberry jam, 8,000 gallons of apples, 500 barrels of apple pulp, for the making of apple butter and jam, and of this jam and butter 600 pails were shipped to other provincial institutions.

Low Operating Cost.

The cost of running this canning plant was installed eleven years ago, and this wish that you could hear him tell of his many experiences with olntments, salves, dilators, etc., before he tried my method. Here is a letter just received from him:

I wish that you could hear him tell of his many experiences with olntments, salves, dilators, etc., before he tried my method. Here is a letter just received from him:

Mr. E. R. Page, Marshal, Mich.:

Low Operating Cost.

The cost of running this canning plant is practically nominal, one man being able to attend to it all.

Last year there was an abundant crop of apples grown in the orchard of the institution, the yield being from 1,500 to 2,000 barrels. There were also 1,800 bushels of tomatoes produced and 650 bushels of onions.

Besides the apples made into apple butter, pies and other things, the patients have had all of this fruit they can eat, and there is sufficient in store to keep them going for the rest of the season.

Of course, as every farmer and fruit grower knows, there is always a certain amount of fruit which is destroyed through natural agencies, such as windstorms, insects, decay and other unavoidable causes, but so far as the Ontario Hospital is concerned every ounce of produce is utilized to the best advantage.

It will be recollected that the verseprovincial institutions.

In fact, there is plenty of evidence to show that it is acting as a deterrent to trade and industry. Manufacturers especially have been hampered and handicapped by the tax, as well as those who would aunch new enterprises. In the old country it has been abolished because it was cramping and crippling business of all kinds. Passing from these comforting considerations of the Divine love and mercy, the fundamental significance of the recorded vision of St. John appears in its first words: "The Revelation of Jesus Christ." That is the disclosure running through all its amazing imagery, written down as one has said, "with a pen dipped in earthquake and eclipse, in the colors of heaven and the shadows of the bottomless pit." Therefore it is through the effulgent ray shining from The Cross that a wondering humanity may discern the beauty of Divine redemption and restoring The instincts of the Old Masters guided them aright in painting a halo above the thorn-crowned Redeemer. The Cross still stands God's one all-sufficient remedy for humanity." There is a rainbow of hope and mercy around The Cross! Prosperous Days Ahead, SayBigBusinessLeaders

A Nation-Wide Poll of Industry

Why business should be depressed in a land overflowing with supplies that the rest of the world is suffering for, with ships lying idle that could carry them, will puzzle future generations, and to say that such a depression cannot last long in the face of the whole world's need of our products, is very much like saying

THE LITERARY DIGEST has asked hundreds of authorities covering the entire country, comprising business leaders, professors of economics, and financial editors of daily papers for their opinion as to the prospect of prosperity's return—and when. The answers are published in this week's issue, and people who can see nothing but gloom all around the business horizon may revise their ideas when they glance over the returns. Of course, it is very much like a survey of a battlefield where the forces are already re-arming and re-forming, and are here and there beginning to advance again. Moreover, the American business army is one that has never known defeat, and the reason why is evident in the tone of unconquerable optimism that runs through even the casualty reports. "Actual business recovery to begin about April 1;" "expect gradual improvement from now forward;" "expect business recovery gradual until inauguration—then rapid;" "expect business recovery to begin probably in spring;" "recovery is already under way;" "conditions will improve from now on." These expressions reflect the general tenor of the many replies we have received from big business leaders throughout the country.

This poll of American industry is nation-wide, and covers every state in the union and practically every important industry. Do not fail to read it in this week's DIGEST, February 12.

"And as large as life!" cried the tiny citizen, as bright as ever, despite the hardships they had gone through.

"My goodness me," said the glant dog, "I can hear voices, but I can't see any one. They must be so small I can't see them."

But when the little mayor and the tiny citizen stepped into the light the giant dog burst out laughing. "Such furny little fellows! Why, they are not half the size of fleas. Ha! and his voice shook merrily.

"Tell us all about it," Nibbles asked the little mayor. "I have been sick with anxiety for you and your little friend."

Heavy Ice To Liking of Londoners, Sarnia Claims--Arthurs and Lougheed

SARNIA, Feb. 11.-In one of the hottest fought games of hockey St. Andrew's Arena has ever witnessed the fast-trayeling, heavy-checking London Alerts went down before the Sarnia intermediates 2 to 1 in the first game of the home and home series to return a winner for the second round of the intermediate circuit." Heavy ice made the going hard for some of the locals, though the Londoners found the heavy going more to their liking than the locals. Garvey, the speed merchant of the Sarnia outfit, was kept pretty well bottled up. Arthurs and Lougheed were the bright lights for the London team, only sensational work on the part of McAllister keeping the husky defence man from scoring. McKay uncorked a wicked shot, but was wild. Hayes scored both Sarnia's goals, Finch's checking bordering on the sensational at times. The teams:

MODERN PUBLIC HEALTH

BY H. W. HILL, M.B., M.D., D.P.H. institute of Public Health of Western University, London,

A Column Devoted to Public Health In All Phases. Questions Addressed as Above Will Be Welcomed.

L. M. B., London .- Your questions about diphtheria and anti toxin may be answered as follows. Of course, a great deal, more can be said than is possible in one column. I have tried to answer as directly and concisely as possible what you ask,

Question No. 1-What is diphtheria antitoxin?
Answer.—The diphtheria antitoxin itself is a substance which the body of a human or an animal manufactures for the purpose of overcoming diphtheria toxin. The diphtheria toxin is the poison of the diphtheria germ. When the diphtheria germ is growing in some-one's nose or throat, any toxin (poison) which the diphtheria germ makes will poison that person, UNLESS that person can make the "antidote" for it, i.e., the diph-theria antitoxin. If that person can make enough diphtheria "antidote" or antitoxin, then the toxin or poison cannot harm him.

FOUND IN BLOOD.

This diphtheria antitoxin, made by the human body for its own use in order to overcome diphtheria toxin produced by diphtheria germs growing in the throat, can be found in the blood of such persons, and can be removed and used for treating other diphtheria patients who perhaps cannot make enough of their own antitoxin themselves. But, of course, we cannot always find, just when we want him, such a person—one who has just recovered from diphtheria by making his own antitoxin in his own body and is willing to donate his surplus antitoxin to a new patient. So we take a horse, and dose him with the diphtheria toxin obtained from a diphtheria bacillus growing in a test-2tube or flask, instead of in a throat. He makes antitoxin to overcome the toxin, just as a human would, and then we have a large reservoir of ready-made antitoxin in that horse's body on which we may call at any time. The pro-duction of this antitoxin has become a big industry, and one may go to almost any drug store now and buy this antitoxin bottled and

THERE IS NO LIMIT. Question No. 2—How many thou-sand units of antitoxin is it safe to Answer .- There is no limit at all drug in the ordinary sense at all. It is a natural production of the living body, made to neutralize the toxin. No one yet has ever given too much of it to anyone. The largest dose I happen to remember was 175,000 units. A horse used in preparing antitoxin may have millions of units of antitoxin in his body at any one time, and yet is absolutely well and healthy.

Question No. 3—Should a nervous child receive less than others?

Answer.—Why? It is not a ques-Answer.—Why? It is not a ques-tion of nerves, but of poison. Sup-pose two children had swallowed the same dose of some metallic poison, say, arsenic. Suppose you knew it needed a cupful of the arsenic antidote to neutralize the amount of arsenic each one had taken. If you gave only half a cup-ful it would neutralize only half the polson, wouldn't it? Would you bother to find out if one child were younger than the other, or more

LIVER TROUBLE

When the liver becomes torpid and inflamed, it cannot furnish sufficient bile to the bowels, thus causing them to become constipated.

The stomach is also affected. In the case of heartburn there is a gnawing and burning pain in the stomach, attended by disturbed appetite, caused by great acidity. Whenever too much food taken, it is liable to ferment, and become extremely sour, vomiting often occurs; and what is thrown up, is sour and sometimes bitter.

Other liver trouble symptoms are pain under the right shoulder, yellowness of the skin and eyes, floating specks before the eyes, coated tongue, bad taste in the morning, foul breath, water brash, jaunlice, constipation, etc.

Keep your liver active by using Mil-burn's Laxa-Liver Pills and you will have no heartburn or other liver troubles. Being purely vegetable they do not gripe, weaken or sicken like the old-fashioned purgatives generally do. Mrs. Mary Strome, Glasnevin, Sask. writes: "I have used Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and they have cleared me of heartburn and liver trouble. I don't think they can be beaten by any other nedicine, and I can highly recommend nervous, or weighed less? Of course not. If the dose of the poison which was taken needs a cupful of the was taken needs a cupidl of the antidote, then you must give that cupful whether the child is a week old or 15 years old. If you don't give enough to stop the action of the arsenic the child will die.

The amount of the antidote to be given does not depend on the size of the child, but on the amount of the poison. In the case of drugs which act upon the CHILD, of course the amount must be graded to the size of the child. Antitoxin acts not size of the child. Antitoxin acts not on the child, but on the poison, and should be graded if at all to the amount of the poison. As we seldom know the amount of toxin present in a case of diphtheria, except as we, can judge it roughly from the extent to which the liness has some the only safe thing ness has gone, the only safe thing is to give ENOUGH. We advise 10,-000 units to start with, and 10,000 more very soon afterwards (in six or eight hours), if it seems evi-dent that the first dose was not big enough. In late or severe cases, 50,000 units at a dose, repeated as often as may be necessary, is quite proper, and has saved persons ap-parently all but ready for the un-dertaker.

IS NOT AFFECTED.

Question No. 4—Does valvular disease of the heart in the patient affect the size of the dose?

Answer.—No. Nothing affects the size of the dose except the amount of poison to be neutralized. If several children were all attacked by wolves, would you shoot the wolf that attacked a big child with a big bullet; and the wolf that attacked a small child with a small really tiny infant were attacked by a wolf, you should only use a pea-Question No. 5-Is antitoxin hard on the heart?

Answer.—Absolutely, NO. But the diphtheria TOXIN or poison IS very hard on the heart. Before diph-theria antitoxin could be had as it can be had now, in large quantities for instant use, a vast number of children died of diphtheria poisoning of the heart. Now death from heart-failure is quite rare; especially in cases which receive diphtheria antitoxin early. If diphtheria antitoxin is given only late in the disease, or in quantities insufficient to neutralize the poison completely, the heart is likely to show the effects of the diphtheria TOXIN.

SAVES THE HEART. The antitoxin is the very thing that SAVES the heart, not the thing that hurts it. Turning back to our parable, the quicker you shoot the wolf, and the larger the bullet you shoot him with, the less damage he can do to the child he attacked. If you delay in shooting the wolf, he may do a lot of damage before you kill him. If you use too small a bullet he may die eventually, but do a lot of damage even while he is Hit him as QUICK and as HARD as you can, as soon as you see him. Isn't that just ordinary horse-sense?

Question No. 6—Does the anti-toxin strengthen the patient for a question. Of course, enough antito recovery at once; he gets stronger every day right along-not just Question No. 7-Does a child have a weakening spell coming out of Answer .- I don't understand this question, either. The only weaken-ing spell I know of is the effect of the TOXIN, not of the antitoxin.

Question No. 8—In a weakening spell, what should be given? Answer—Ah, that is the great question. When a child has a weakening spell (which is due, remember, to the toxin, not to the anti-toxin), rest, absolute rest, in bed is the best. Drug treatment of the heart is perhaps possible in some instances, but each case requires a physician's intimate care, and just be treated on its own merits.

WHAT CAUSES IT? Answer.—See No. 8. This ilke asking: If my automobile is running badly, shall I use a wrench? Of course, the shall I use a wrench? Of course, the first question is: What makes it run badly? And the second question is: What wrench do you propose to use, and on what part of the machine? To stand off and pitch any-thing labeled "wrench" into the middle of the auto works would be skillful treatment, wouldn't it?

Question No. 10-is brandy of any Answer .- That is a matter entirely for the physician to decide under the particular conditions of the particular patient. In general, except in very small doses, and merely for the momentary, effect, alcohol is "contraindicated" (1, e., not to be used) in all infectious cases of every lend, diphtheria included. Question No. 11—How many seks should a child be in bed after itoxin is administered? Answer.—You really mean after an attack of diphtheria, don't you? If antitoxin be given when the child has no diphtheria (as, for instance, to protect a child who has been exposed, but is not yet sick), there is no need for going to bed at all. Antitoxin (once more) is not a drug. does not affect the patient or the patients heart, but the poison of the diphtheria bacillus. There is no more need for staying in bed ON ACCOUNT OF THE ANTITOXIN than there is to stay in bed on account of taking a good square meal. But patients with diphtheria, whether they have had antitoxin or not, and especially if they have not had antitoxin, should remain in bed, as a general rule, about three weeks as a minimum. Of course, cases vary, and the physician must decide the exact time in each case, DEPENDS ON HEART. Question No. 12—Is it wrong to prop up a diphtheria patient with a pillow each day?

Answer.—That depends on the patient, state of patient's heart, and so on, all impossible to decide except by a skilled examination in each particular case. Question No. 13.-Answer.—The same answer applies to letting the child up, dressing it, changing position, etc. All depends on the case, the degree of poisoning, the strength of the child.

Answer .- A child, or an adult, either, with fever should be in bed until the temperature gets back to normal. As to sitting up in bed or lying days to

A. M. SMART, Manager.

We hereby certify that we have audited the books and accounts of The Intario Loan and Debenture Company continuously throughout the year ended ember 31st, 1920, and find them correct, and the above statements in accordance therewith. We have verified the Cash and Bank Balances, and have examined the Company's securities, and find them in order. All our requirements as Auditors have been compiled with, and, in our independent opinion, and according to the information and explanations given us, the above statements are properly drawn up, and set forth fairly and truly the state of the Company's affairs.

All transactions that have come within our notice have, we believe, been within the powers of the Company. London, Ontario, 25th January, 1921.

F. G. JEWELL, F.C.A., J. F. KERN, Auditors.

The President, moving the adoption of the Report, said in part: With the year 1920 your Company has now passed its fiftieth anniversary, and I am sure the Shareholders will be as gratified as are the Directors at the success that has attended our efforts. Throughout all this time the objects for which it was formed, namely, the promotion of thrift and the development of the community, have been kept constantly in view, rather than the acquisition of excessive profits. Yet in all of these years the Shareholders have received every year a fair return in Dividends on their shares, and your Capital of $1.750,000 has been considerably more than doubled, as shown by the present amount of the Reserve Fund, which now stands at $2,250,000. These facts speak louder than any poor words of mine for the wisdom with which your Company has been conducted.

During the period of the war and the time since peac being the period of the war and the time since peace was declared, the nature of our Assets has aftered materially. The needs of the Empire have been very great, and your Directors conceived it to be their duty to render assistance in supplying funds by investing considerable sums in the Bonds of the United Kingdom, of the Dominion and the Provinces, even at rates much below the average yield of our other advances. Investments in these Bonds, together with Securities fully guaranteed by the Dominion and the Provinces, and those of Canadian Municipalities, now amount to one-third of the Company's total invested assets, whereas in 1914 mortgages on Real Estate made up nearly 35 per cent of the then total. Now that the Dominion Government issues have an open market, and the embargo against the return from abroad of Canadian Securities has been raised, and the import of all others is absolutely free from interference, their marketable value is established on the logical (if perhaps interference, their marketable value is established on the logical (if perhaps old-fashioned) foundation of supply and demand.

The coming year seems likely to develop a greater demand for advances upon Real Estate Mortgages, at possibly better rates. Rates for this class of service have, I think, shown less increase than any commodity, either material or labor, being but little higher than they were in 1914.

While I consider our Company should endeavor to do its share toward overtaking the requirements of this department of the reconstruction activities, it will be wise to bear in mind the present inflated cost of building. Cost is not always a true gauge of value. Especially at present it should not be taken as such in making these mortgage loans. I believe the members of the Board fully realize this, and, if re-elected, the policy should be and will be to face the future with confidence, and to proceed with caution. uture with confidence, and to proceed with caution The Vice-President, Mr. A. M. Smart, in seconding the adoption of the Re-

In seconding the resolution which Mr. McClary has just proposed, I would In seconding the resolution which Mr. McClary has just proposed, I would like to say in connection with the new form in which the balance sheet is presented that it is in the form required by the Registrar of Loan Corporations from all similar companies. This uniformity is a step in the right direction, as making it much easier of comparison of the position of one company with another. With others we are of opinion it might be further improved were the items on the assets side differently grouped, and presented in sequence of cash and quickly available securities first, followed by those not so readily convertible into cash, then those of a more fixed and permanent nature. However, we have no option in this. ever, we have no option in this.

ever, we have no option in this.

Some of the Loan Companies, fearing a shortage of supply of money for mortgages, are urging that the limit to which money may be received on Deposit be raised, by amending the Loan and Trust Corporations Act to the end that funds available may be thus augmented. The present limit is fairly reasonable, and by it provision is made that in effect moneys which are repayable by the Companies on demand or short notice will not be tied up in longterm mortgages. The so-called safeguard that is suggested is misleading, fallacious, and would be, in my opinion, quite ineffective and positively detrimental to the Companies and to the public. The Board of Directors are, for these and other reasons, not in sympathy with the proposal, and trust that wiser counsels may prevail wiser counsels may prevail.

Our Securities, Bonds, Debentures, etc., which the President has mentioned as now forming 33 per cent of our invested Assets, amount with cash on hand at the end of the year to $2,930,000, and (quite apart from our Mortage assets) are equal to about 80 per cent of our total liabilities to the public. The Bonds of the Dominion of Canada have now a definite market value, being quoted and dealt in daily on the Exchanges. They and all other Bonds that are so quoted have been taken into the balance sheet at not exceeding their market values as on the 31st December last. 'Against MI other Bonds and Debentures, amounts have been reserved to bring them all within the values authorized by the Government Department in charge of the matter.

Like reservations are also provided as heretofore against Real Estate held Like reservations are also provided as heretofore against Real Estate held for sale, in which item is included all properties in the possession of the Company, whether by foreclosure, power of sale or otherwise; with the exception of office premises, Experience in the past has repeatedly proved our appropriations more than ample.

appropriations more than ample.

The office premises item is again reduced to $40,000, which is barely 57 per cent of the assessed value for taxation. This is brought about through the sale of the Agricultural Savings and Loan Company building, not required by your Company. The surplus derived from this sale is shown in a separate item apart from the profits, and rightly so, as it is in no sense part of the earnings of the Company. If there is any further information desired by any Shareholder I shall be glad to furnish it.

The Report was then adopted unanimously.

The Scrutineers were then appointed, and the election of Directors proceeded with, Messrs. John McClary, A. M. Smart, Lieut.-Col. William M. Gartshore, John M. Dillon, M. Masuret, C. R. Somerville and J. G. Richter being re-elected for the ensuing year.

We beg to announce we are offering ROSEDALE SURVEY right on the PROVINCIAL HIGHWAY, Dundas Street East, three minutes' walk from Dundas car (eight minutes' service). Has all the advantages over any other sub-division on the market.

1. It is only fifteen minutes' walk from all the factories on Dundas street, Empire Brass, Corn Flakes, McCormick's, Ruggles Truck Factory, Dominion Dye Works, Lawson & Jones, and many others that are bound to locate in the immediate vicinity, and it is just far enough away not to get any smoke from them. mediate vicinity, and it is just far enough away not to get any smoke from them.

2. The soil is the best in Ontario, facing Dundas are full-grown shade trees covering the whole front. At our doors we have churches, stores, banks, school houses, G. T. R. and C. P. R., stations. In fact, everything you have in the city proper, and it is the prettiest location in or around London.

2 Regular Sales Each Week WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY EVENINGS,

This week two large consignments were received from outside parts. Distance is no object when your goods are properly sold. Last Saturday morning we received a consignment of household furniture. All was sold Saturday evening, and party received $37.45 more than any private offer she could obtain. This happens every day. Would you try to perform an operation on yourself without the aid of a surgeon? Disposing of your furniture is also important, and requires the services of an expert. You may be a proficient salesman yourself, but selling used furniture you may be a proficient salesman yourself, but selling used furniture is an art which requires your constant attention to prevailing prices. threatened to resign unless back pay, now more than a month overdue, is forthcoming promptly. The school board and the council are in a quandary with the treasury empty; and no way of getting the needed funds in time to satisfy the teachers. Almost 200 scholars will be affected if the teachers act upon their threat and walk out. The financial situation in the village, which has reached an acute crisis since the new year, is responsible for the present state of affairs, according to D. J. McRury, chairman of the board. Charles Kemley, a member of the school board, has threatened to resign unless the council takes immediate steps to hand the board over enough money to pay the teachers their arrears. Thus the village is in danger of the necessity of a new election and employing a new staff of teachers.

The council, on the other hand, claims it has authorized W. McCleister, village treasurer, to pay the board of education the sum needed to clear up the matter, but the money as yet has not been received. Mr. McCleister had nothing to say on the matter.

One reason advanced, though unofficially, is that the village wiped off one outstanding debt in one payment, and in doing so wiped out its account.

Why Does a Dealer Substitute?

For Three Reasons:

First --- Because the article he substitutes is cheaper and makes more money for him, and, therefore, of inferior quality.

Second--- Because he is afraid the branded article he offers a substitute for will become too strongly entrenched in the minds of his customers, and control of his sales will get away from him.

Third---Because he wants to push some article, either under his own brand or that of some friend.

Parnell's Bread

Because of its high quality and purity has had many imitators. It may cost the dealer a little more than inferior breads, but it is worth it. Hundreds of our patrons complained that when they asked for Parnell's Bread they did not get it,

So to protect ourselves, our customers and the dealer who does not substitute, we labeled every loaf.

Now, for your protection, LOOK FOR THE LABEL, and patronage the dealer who gives you a square deal.

A Solution That Solves The Unemployment Question

---BUY GOODS MADE IN CANADA

THIS shipment of 365 RED BIRD BICYCLES, every one of which was made in Canada by Canadian workmen, means this: It supplied work for 8 men for one whole year, and according to the laws of averages, allowing five people to one family, it took care of forty people for one year-supplied food, clothes, shelter, education, amusement, and all the necessary things in life, including the saving of a little sum for a rainy day.

All this in addition to our staff in our store and repair shop, who work full time the year around at good pay. Just stop and think a moment what this means to you.

THEN THINK what it would mean to Canadian workmen if these bicycles had been brought in from another country. Workmen in another country would be kept busy in place of Canadians. Are we right? We'll say so.

Now then, if every Canadian citizen would demand and buy only Made-in-Canada goods, would there be any unemployment? We'll say no.

As progressive Canadian merchants we are doing our part to keep Canadian workmen busy. Are you doing yours? If not, you can, by buying RED BIRD BICYCLES, made in Canada. Remember, the money you pay for them remains in Canada and in turn helps you.
