FARMERS' MARKET

TORONTO, Feb. 27. - Inclement weather seriously interfered with business at the local Farmers' Market on Saturday. Offerings were plentiful as farmers got in before the rain commented, but purchasers were few. Sellers held out for 35 cents per dozen for strictly new laid eggs, but afterwards let them go at 30 to 33 cents and then there were plenty left over. It was the same with butter. Farmers wanted 35 cents per pound at first but afterwards sold out at 20 to 33c. While there was no great supply of poultry, offerings were sufficient for needs. Prices were about steady. Trade was slow in apples. Vegetables were steady. Beef was unchanged, $10.50 per hundredweight being asked for hindquarters and $7.50 for forequarters. Quotations:

LIVE STOCK
TORONTO, Feb. 27. - The outstanding features of trade at the Union Stock Yards yesterday was the sharp advance made in the market values of swine, 25c being added to the already phenomenally high figures.
Market values of cattle were about steady with the close of last week. Prices of steers were in the market but they were not disposed to pay the prices asked by drovers. Offerings were about 1,000 less to-day than a week ago, and this helped to steady the situation. Another bullish factor was that holders, who could not get the price they wanted last week-end, were anxious to get good to choice cattle to Montreal on Friday. The top price paid for butchers' cows was $6.75 per hundredweight, but cows of the best were held for higher prices. All classes of cattle were represented. Milkers and springers were short. Prices of steers were paid, and while stockers were quoted a shade firmer at $5 to $5.60. Choice cows and bulls sold well. $5.75 being the top price for bulls and $5.65 for butcher cows. Calves were about steady, $9.50 being the top price quoted.

ALLIANCE

Is in Convention in Toronto--Some of the Features of the First Day Sessions.

TORONTO, Feb. 27.—With over one thousand delegates from all over the province in attendance, the annual convention of the Ontario Branch of the Dominion Alliance opened yesterday at Massey Hall with President Joseph Gibson of Ingersoll, in the chair. In point of numbers the convention is the largest ever held by the Ontario Alliance, while the subjects to be dealt with are of the utmost importance. The decision of the Supreme Court in the West-Lorne case with reference to the scrutiny of ballots cast in local option contests, was one of the leading topics under discussion, many speakers regretting that such a decision was possible under the laws of Canada. It is probable that the alliance will take action to-day towards securing remedial legislation. The general feeling was that the present outlook for temperance reform in Ontario was very bright and a spirit of optimism prevailed among the delegates. The only disappointing feature of the gathering is the fact that warnings against formal political alliances issued by President Gibson and others were frankly disregarded. This was particularly true of the evening session, which was devoted entirely to committee meetings. The committee on Political Action speedily became the centre of attraction, and before the evening was over practically every delegate present crowded around it to listen to the discussion.

The Mooted Question
The mooted question was whether the policy of either political party should be supported or whether the Alliance should retain a position of independence. The committee commenced its deliberations at 7:30, and within a few minutes had divided into two factions, with ex-controller Frank S. Spence, president of the Dominion Alliance at the head of one wing, which favored an out-and-out endorsement of the Rowell platform, and his bro., Rev. Ben. H. Spence, secretary of the Ontario branch, leading the opposition faction in favor of the safe stand of independence. After a debate of two hours, during which the god of victory sped from one brother to the other before a flow of oratory that at times grew vitriolic, the laurel wreath found a resting place on the brow of Mr. F. S. Spence. His resolution, though amended to placate the opposition, was what he desired. Following this a resolution commending the Whitney Government for the interest it has taken in temperance matters was adopted. President Gibson was a prominent member of the opposition, staunchly supporting the contention of Rev. Ben Spence, that banish the bar did not go far enough in regard to shop and club licenses. The resolution, of course, only passed the committee stage. So hot did the discussion grow at some stages that the chairman was in danger of losing control, several speakers claiming the floor at once. He handled the situation commendably, however. Rev. John Coburn and other prominent men participated in the argument. In the early stages it was decided to exclude the press under protest of President Gibson, and information concerning the proceedings was refused at the close. Several newspapermen were among those present, however. The report, together with those of the other committees, will be brought down to-day.

The report of the treasurer showed a deficit of $2,075.11, and an appeal is being made for $15,000 of which a considerable amount has already been secured. The total income was $75,846.50. Of this, $48,112.34 was contributed by the churches. Less than six per cent was lost through broken promises.

A tribute was paid to the late Capt. Scott and those who died with him when the delegates arose in a body and stood with bared heads for a full minute in their honor.

Liberal Policy Unsatisfactory
"There never was a time when the sentiment in favor of temperance reform in Ontario was more favorable than it is to-day," said Rev. Ben H. Spence at the afternoon session, with particular reference to the political situation. The people were putting their interest in temperance before party preference, and the result was that both parties were advocating advanced temperance reforms. Referring to the policy of the Conservative Government, he said that it was unpardonable that it should be prejudged. "Take the Liberal policy of 'Banish the Bar,'" he continued, "it is coming along nicely, but a clear statement of what the Liberals propose to do in regard to the residue of the trade should be given. It con-

Lee's Side of the Case.

CLYDELAND, Ont., Feb. 27.—President W. G. Lee of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, stated today that he had received notice of a temporary injunction issued at Chicago yesterday, restraining him from suspending the charter of local No. 752 of the Trainmen in that city. Mr. Lee said that he had cited the local to show cause why its charter should not be revoked, when it refused to expel Wm. J. Pinkerton, a member, who he said, had issued circulars since last August in which Samuel Gompers, Warren S. Stone, Mr. Lee himself, and other heads of labor organizations were condemned for their favorable attitude towards the proposed compulsory compensation law. Before presentation of its case the local had applied for an injunction. Mr. Lee said he believed Pinkerton to be allied with interests not identical with those of the brotherhood.

Comet Oil Company, Limited

The company is engaged in Merchandising Coal Oil, a commodity which pays a gross profit of fully 100 per cent for its distribution.

The business has been established about seven years, in which term a trade of over nine thousand steady customers has been built up.

Without the advantage of this additional capital, the earnings of the business for the past year were sufficient to pay 30 per cent. upon the entire capitalization of the company.

The new goods are pouring in from Great Britain, France, Germany, Switzerland, and other countries they're coming. As ship after ship battles against the gales and seas—and beat their way to port—the goods come through with almost the smell and swish of the salt sea on them.

New they are, fresh from the looms, not with the bloom off by knocking about perhaps months in wholesale houses. A good many people have used brains in their selection, too, and our buyer went far afield to gather the right things. True, it would have been more comfortable at times, to be in the quiet of home, but this business demands more than that.

Then the prices are right too. Dollar price at Crompton's means dollar value, and you get it, besides there's the open sesame of money back pleasantly, if you think you can do better. We don't care either to juggle with prices. It's an easy thing to quote fictitiously large prices, so as to have the fun of knocking them down, like a game of nine pins, making the second price look low by contrast. It may catch a few people, most know better.

For Thursday we offer some desirable new lines, and they're worth every penny we quote. See them in any case, buy if you're pleased.

Police Commissioners
A meeting of the police commissioners is being held this afternoon in the Judges' chambers when matters of importance will be transacted. The advisability of increasing the number of police on the force will be one of the main issues for discussion, as will the granting of an increase of wages to the officers and members of the force. The suspension of P. J. Cara will be discussed. It is rumored that a delegation from the ministerial alliance will be in attendance.

Indoor Baseball
A team picked from the whole regiment goes to Hamilton to play the 13th Regiment's best team. Capt. B. Newman has the arrangements in hand. The team leave on the 6.45 car.

On Saturday night the champions of the 13th Regiment, F. Company play E Company of the 8th. The last game between these two teams was very fast. This is sure to be a game worth seeing.

Notable Service
The large auditorium of Wesley church was packed to the doors last night, when ex-Policeman Brown held forth. Every available seat was taken, and chairs had to be placed at the back. Mr. Brown gave a very strong address in his own inimitable way on the words "I will bless the Lord at all times." The Salvation Army band was present in full force and rendered some very fine selections. Ensign Trickey touched the hearts of many by a splendid solo. The congregational singing throughout was most hearty, due to the efforts of the choir, assisted by Mr. A. Martin. About 135 pupils of the three junior Bible classes of the Sunday school attended in a body and occupied seats in the centre of the edifice. The young people of these classes will tender Mr. Brown and sons a banquet on Friday night. Mr. Brown preaches farewell sermons on Sunday.

Illustrated Lecture on the Far North
Rev. Mr. Whittaker will give his illustrated lecture on "Life among the Esquimaux" at the First Baptist Church this evening at 8 p.m. There will be no charge.

Sarcasmic
A subscriber of the Courier stated this morning that in her opinion, in reference to the photos of the Duke and Duchess of Connaught being placed in the city hall, that it was a direct insult to their Royal Highnesses to put the same in that antiquated structure.

Communication
A communication from the municipal committee of the Trades and Labor Council, signed by Messrs H. Meats, J. Foran and W. Pearce, addressed to the Mayor and members of the city council is on file at the city hall, asking that body to repeal the cheese-by-law and allow the same to be sold in the market house.

Italian Police
Six Italians are to be added to the Toronto police force. In view of the rapid growth of the Italian colony, Chief of Police Gasset has found it necessary to engage foreign officers. When these men have served sufficient time on the force one or two of them will be made detectives and be attached to the stations near the sections of the city where the Italians live. Interpreter Michael Basso is getting the recruits.

A Merry Chase
A merry chase, similar to what has often been seen at a winter picture show, took place this morning about half past ten o'clock, when a man in company with a couple of his sons, was passing Townsend's shoe store on Dalhousie street, when all at once he grabbed a couple of pairs of shoes which were hanging outside the store and made off with them at a second's gait. But the genial proprietor of the shoe store had his eagle eye on the situation, and he took after Mr. man hot foot. The man with the goods ran up Dalhousie street to Market street with Mr. Townsend in pursuit. The chase went merrily on, but the shoe merchant, who used to play box ball as a star, in St. Thomas, after a good hard sprint, caught his man in front of the Barber's shop and downed him and secured his merchandise. Being satisfied with the recovery of his goods Mr. Townsend let his man go, but the police were soon on the trail and High Constable Kerr arrested shortly afterwards the individual, quietly riding on a garbage wagon in the vicinity of George and Gray streets, and brought him to police headquarters. The case will come up in the police court to-morrow morning.

Leper Mission
The annual thank offering of the Leper Mission was held at the home of Mrs. James Adams on Tuesday afternoon, 25th inst. Ladies were present to the number of 85, and were delighted with the very excellent program provided, which was as follows: Missionary hymn, followed by prayer, Mrs. (Rev.) Barber, the president of the society, Scripture Lesson, Joshua 1, Mrs. (Rev.) Lavell, solo, Miss C. Chave; instrumental duet, Misses Whitney and Johnston. A letter was read by Mrs. A. G. Olive from Mr. Davis, a missionary leper now in the lazaretto in Trocadier, solo by Mrs. (Rev.) Liddy; travel talk by Mrs. Watt, giving her impressions on and her experiences in India, from a recent visit to that country. Mrs. Baker gave some very interesting items concerning zenana work in India, and endeavored to arouse the interest of the society in this work. She strongly recommended that every member of the society make it a point to hear Mrs. Collem, who will shortly visit the city. The meeting closed with the benediction, after which a bright social hour was spent. Mrs. Adams, the hostess, very kindly provided dainty refreshments. The offering amounted to $83.

EXPERT ADVICE

Money spent on keeping time pieces "on the job" is really a necessary expenditure.

Plenty of good watches aren't doing their best work, simply because they can't.

Many a fifty or hundred dollar watch is being slowly but surely ruined, because it needs a dollars worth of cleaning.

If this reminds you that your watch is in that shape, let it also remind you that our repair dept. can attend to your needs on short notice.

Physical Talks in connection with the

Catch Them."

A novel method of getting an objectionable caller out of one's house has been invented by a Copenhagen gentleman who had a bailiff sent to his flat. His sympathetic friends at once arranged for a German band to go to the flat too. Arrived there, the band played with such energy that the poor bailiff after enduring the "music" for several hours inquired when they were going to stop.
Being told that the band had an engagement "for lifetime," the bailiff urgently requested that another officer should be sent at once, as he could not stand the noise any longer.
The relief bailiff was welcomed with a funeral march, and with this time the band went on practically without interval for five hours. The police were asked to interfere, but answered that they had no power to do so as the "concert" took place inside the house. The siege was ultimately raised, as it was found impossible to get another bailiff to go near the house, and the band marched out playing "See the Conquering Hero Comes."

The passion for having everything match in color has extended to im-bellias, which correspond in color with the raincoat or the rainy day suit. The girl who wears tan shoes, tan rubbers, tan raincoat and tan hat, now has a tan colored umbrella, and grey umbrellas will be one of the novelties to be seen in the spring when the April showers begin.

The sun bath is said to be so popular at present in Germany that in several cities one can buy a ticket for a sun bath, just as in America one buys a ticket for a bath in the surf. The sun bath ticket entitles the holder to a room for disrobing, a bathing suit and a "place in the sun."

Rumor reports that in England
dinners grow shorter each season.
King Edward was the first to set the cut of the brief dinner, and King George, who in spite of the greatest care, is still a dyspeptic, cuts them shorter still, as he does not taste half the courses, and consequently it is not etiquette to eat when the King is not doing so.

LAUGHTER LINES

It is reported that a small niece of Harriet Beecher Stowe was somewhat burdened by continual stories of the ability and successes of her distinguished relative. One day she became angry with a playmate, and her mother was shocked to hear her dismiss the child with "You go right straight home! I never want to see you again; you nor your man-servant
nor your maid-servant nor your ox
nor your ass."

Her mother exclaimed: "Oh, my dear. Do you know what you are saying?"

THREE GIRLS

Will be Married on the One Day—Induced Sweethearts to Come to Canada.

TORONTO, Feb. 27.—On Monday next three former London (England) girls, all very close friends,
and who for the past eighteen months have been residents of Toronto, will be married at 264 Harvie Avenue to three young men with whom they kept company in the Old Country prior to coming to Toronto, and who were induced to come to Canada by the young ladies. The triple wedding will serve as an illustration of the manner in which the population of this country is being augmented, lovers following their sweethearts and wives their husbands from the crowded centres of the Old World.

The principals in this unique ceremony are to be Miss Clara Heywood, who marries Mr. James Parker; her sister, Miss Edith, who will be joined to Mr. William Risk, and Miss Elsie Hillier, who becomes the wife of Mr. Percy Bowen. The Misses Heywood are both employed in the Hospital for Sick Children, College Street, and Miss Hillier
works in a private house in the city.
James Parker and Percy Bowen have both been in Canada for some time, but Mr. Risk came to the city
six weeks ago from Edinburgh, Scotland.

The marriages will be performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Parker, 264 Harvie-Avenue, where the three girls have for some time lived. Another peculiar phase of the affair is that Mrs. Parker, formerly Maud Heywood, is a sister of the Misses Edith and Clara, while Mr.
Parker is a brother of James Parker,
who marries his wife's sister.

The man who will have the rather difficult task of tying this series of knots is Rev. Peter P. Bryce, pastor of Faircourt Methodist Church.

As a result of the recent poll of ratepayers the Bournemouth Town Council have decided to run a service of trams from two to ten p.m. on Sundays, the employees to be paid at the rate of time and a quarter. Seventeen Councillors voted in favor and twenty-four did not vote. This has been a burning question in the place for years.

Under the will of the late Mr. Palmer Phillips his collection of eighty-four pictures by eminent artists, mostly of the English School, has been bequeathed to the Birmingham Art Gallery. The pictures include twenty-five by David Cox, of whose works Mr. Phillips presented a number to the city during his lifetime.

Lady Marjorie's Love

"That you—what?" Marjorie knew almost as little of what she did as Sanscrit; her look was mystified. Barrington half laughed and apologized.

"I beg your pardon, Lady Marjorie—what am I thinking of? I should have said that I shall request him to grant an increase in my salary. There's a phrase fit for the Countess to atone for the other one. I must be off or I shall never be back before Parkins swoops down on me again. May I take your remembrances to Mr. Penherrick?"

"Do, and tell him it is a long time since I came here to see me."

He went. Marjorie's eyes did not follow him; they fixed themselves expectantly upon the point where Loftus would presently appear. She took out her watch and glanced at it. It was growing late—perhaps he would not come at all.

He came. The watch was barely out of her hand when he came in his sight, walking slowly, with his usual indolent and easy poise, looking as well bred, as well dressed, as handsome as always. She scanned him look for look, but she did not try to understand any reason why there should be any change in him inwardly or outwardly, and yet she was conscious of a sensation of surprised perplexity at seeing just the Loftus she had always known.

She did not try to analyze the feelings that were rising in her mind, and she did not try to understand how it was that now when all about her, all her life, was so cruelly, miserably changed, she should feel this miserable chill of disappointment to see him just the same. He must have walked from Upton Waters, she thought, pale with the rising of a troubled tumult in her breast and trembling as she tried to steady herself. Then an angle of the house hid him and she sank down on the window seat again and had not stirred when he was ushered in. He looked round, and came up to her. She rose and gave him a hand that was quite cold, he bent down and put his lips lightly to her cheek.

"Why, you must have seen me coming, Marjorie."

"Yes, I was watching. Did you walk from Upton Waters?"

"No, had a fly to the gates. I will have the dog cart when I go and drive straight over to Wynneborough. I think, I find there is not a train from Upton Waters timed to meet the express—always the way in these country places. I forgot though—are the horses here to marry her only for the fortune that was hers no longer. But it might be possible to use gentle, evasive words; if she would but take a hint, if he could but lead up to a point, there need be no brutality. He did not desire to be brutal; he wanted to be graceful and as kindly as he could. Somehow it must be done, or his journey to Castle Marling, his present wretched discomfort went for less than nothing. He had tried to give her a hint in the letter, but it seemed that she had not taken it. He had desired to marry her, but she had shifted again in his chair.

"I suppose you have been expecting to see me down before this, Marjorie?"

"Yes, of course," Jack had scrambled to do to her. She turned round and round, ready to lying down, but she was intent upon smoothing her skirt for his better accommodation. "Yes, I expected you, but I thought different things were keeping you, as you said, you know. I knew you would come as soon as you could."

Child Almost Strangled

You never know what minute a child will develop a bad cold or be seized by croup. For this reason it takes a great burden off every parent's mind to have at hand Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine.

Mrs. E. W. Silver, South Milford, Annapolis Co., N.S., writes: "I have used Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine for my little boy with most satisfactory results. His throat would fill up with phlegm so bad that he could scarcely make a sound, and I thought he would surely die. He grew worse, and he frequently had bad attacks, so I began using Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. Scarcely half a bottle was used when the strangling ceased. This medicine had a wonderfully soothing effect, and when he had taken two bottles I could not tell that he had any throat trouble. We have also used Dr. Chase's Ointment, with equally good results. It is a grand medicine for salt rheum."

There are imitations, but the genuine Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine bears the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., the famous Receipt Book author.

Canadian League Opens May 7th. TORONTO, Feb. 27.—A representative meeting of the Canadian League was held at the Prince George hotel last night. The schedule for 1913 was the topic for discussion. Those in attendance were: Ottawa, Frank Shaughnessy; Peterboro, President Denham, D. W. McCabe, Dave Rowan; Hamilton, Knotty Lee, M. M. Robinson, John Burns; London, S. Stevely; Berlin, President F. W. Keenan; St. Thomas, Ed. Killingsworth; Guelph, W. A. Mahoney; W. J. Sheridan; Brantford, Thomas Nelson and Roy Brown.

President J. P. Fitzgerald occupied the chair and opened the meeting. Among the first things done was the electing of ex-President Dan Ferguson of London, honorary president.

The expenses of the League will be paid out of funds raised by a 10 per cent. assessment of the gate receipts.

The meeting moved a vote of thanks to President Stevely of the London club for the able manner in which he wound up the 1912 league business affairs. A schedule drafted by Frank Shaughnessy of Ottawa, was taken as a basis for the coming season. With a number of changes made by a committee composed of President Fitzgerald, W. A. Mahoney and S. Stevely, another more satisfactory draft will be made within the next ten days.

It was decided to open the 1913 campaign on May 7, and close the Saturday following Labor Day. This means practically two weeks more of baseball than in 1912.

Several cities are undecided about holiday dates and this makes the schedule drafting hard. This is the case at St. Thomas, Brantford and Guelph.

Lou Cook Signs Two Pitchers. GUELPH, Feb. 26.—Louie Cook has sent in the signed contracts of two more pitchers, Winn and Dorbeck. Cook states that he still has lines out for two more pitchers, and if he lands them he will let a couple go that he formerly signed up.

TORONTO, Feb. 27.—At the Canadian League schedule meeting yesterday Manager Shaughnessy of Ottawa, proposed a deal with President Stevely of the London club, whereby he would trade with the 1912 Senator center fielder, for Eddie Lindburn. It is hardly probable that this proposition will be accepted by the London club official, since Callahan is an Ottawa holdout, the same as Lindburn is. The Shaughnessy made a deal yesterday with President McCaffery, of the Toronto Baseball Club, whereby Charlie Isaacs, the former Guelph third baseman, becomes the property of the Ottawa club. Isaacs was offered to the Hamilton club some time ago, but the latest deal is that the Toronto Leafs release the Toronto lad to Ottawa.

financial league of their city. The game was undoubtedly the best seen here this year; the Cockshutt team are making quite a reputation for themselves at these lines. The Toronto septet had Farr Bros. formerly of St. Michael's team on their line-up; the point player, the younger of the two brothers, was very fast and one of the best stick handlers seen on a rink here in this year. For the Plow Company, Klersey and Woolams were both very effective. For the Toronto bankers, the two Farris at point and cover point, were the best.

Mr. Jack Kelly officiated as referee; Jack is still one of the best in the business, and certainly was much better than some of the referees sent up by the O. H. A.

ORILLIA, Feb. 26.—In the first of the home-and-home semi-final O. H. A. games here last night, the Orillia boys put it over the Oshawa seven by 8 to 0. The half time score was 5 to 0.

The first half was fast, but Orillia held Oshawa right down and kept steadily adding to the count. In the last half Oshawa was all in and simply played defence. The Oshawa goal keeper played a star game and stopped many shots, but was finally beaten out. Cooke in the Orillia goal did some nice work in the first half and had an easy time in the second period. The Orillia forwards are well balanced and well supported by their defence. The game was clean. The return game will be played in Oshawa Friday afternoon, when Orillia hope to go into the finals with Woodstock next week. The team: Orillia—Cooke, goal; Reid, point; McNabb, cover point; Butterfield, rover; Tudhope, centre; Thornton, left wing; Jupp, right wing.

Simcoe's Lead of One Goal. SIMCOE, Feb. 26.—In a second-round intermediate O. H. A. game held last night the home team secured a lead of one goal to take with them for the return game with Berlin on Friday night. Last night's score was 4 to 3.

For Simcoe Mayo again starred in goal and saved his team on many occasions. Martin, Curtis and Andrews also showed up well. For the visitors Hainsworth and Uffelman were the best. The game at Berlin on Friday should be a hummer. With one goal to make up, the Damsen are sure to put up a great battle. The locals are, however, confident of holding their narrow lead. The line-up:—

Referee—J. Moxon of Toronto.

RELEASED

(Courier Leased Wire). PATERSON, N.J., Feb. 26.—Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, organizer for the Industrial Workers of the World, arrested here yesterday charged with inciting riot among striking silk mill operatives gave bail early to-day and was released from jail. She left town at once. Her companion, Carlo Pestana, was still locked up this morning.

Union leaders insisted to-day that approximately 6,000 of the 15,000 silk workers in this district are out. The employers place the number at 3,500. The mills were under guard to-day and no disorder had been reported this morning. The strikers demand higher pay and the abolition of certain machinery.

INTERESTING POINT.

(Courier Leased Wire) MONTREAL, Feb. 26.—That the Hebert and Tremblay cases, involving the alleged right of the Quebec courts to give civil effect to decisions of the Roman Catholic Church dissolving marriages, which had not been performed in accordance with its law, are some up before the Privy Council in this near future, was the announcement made last night by Geo. V. Cousins, one of the lawyers who acted for the defendants in opposing annulments in these two suits, in the course of an address on the status of married women delivered at Emmanuel church under the auspices of the women's council of Montreal. The principal point in the Hebert case was whether courts could uphold the ecclesiastical annulment of the marriage before a Protestant minister of two Catholics, Judge Laurendeau holding that the wedding could be voided and Judge Charbonneau deciding the other way. An appeal against the latter judge's right to hear the case is pending. In the Tremblay case, two people were married and afterwards found out that they were fourth cousins, the church authorities annulling the marriage and the courts endorsing the dissolution.

Rheumatism Crippled Arms

So stiffened up by rheumatism that he could not dress himself without help was the condition of Mr. Clarke, who tells in this letter how he was entirely cured by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

The kidneys must be got right before rheumatism can be really cured, and hence the success of this great medicine. Mr. James Clarke, Maidstone, Sask., writes: "I can honestly say that Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have done me a world of good, and cured me of rheumatism."

For two years I suffered from rheumatism in the shoulders, and could not raise my arms above my head. I could not dress or undress myself without help, and was obliged to hire help to do my work. No medicines that I could find did me any good.

"A friend wrote from England and begged me to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. This treatment soon brought relief, and in six months I was entirely free of rheumatism. That was four years ago. I am now 60 years of age, and can do a day's work with any man."

FOR THE WOMAN WHO THINKS AND FEELS.

Some women complain that they periodically suffer from dull and heavy feelings, or dizziness in the head, nervousness, pain and bearing-down feelings which should not occur to the normal healthy woman. But most every woman is subject to these pains at some time in her life, due to abnormal conditions in life, such as over-exertion, over-taxed strength, bad air, poor or improper food, wet feet, sluggish liver, etc. A regulatory and female tonic made from native medicinal roots with pure glycerine, and without the use of alcohol, called

I have used them for thirty years for female trouble and general weakness with the very best result, and they have saved me hundreds of dollars in doctors' bills. I buy the Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery' and take them together. I never was disappointed in your remedies and take pleasure in recommending them to any suffering lady. I am now almost fifty years old; at forty-five I took your medicine both kinds, and I pleased that period very easily and left me fat and healthy. I feel like a young girl. If any lady cares to write me, I will gladly tell her more about the good work of your medicines."
