CO-OPERATION BETWEEN ALBERTA UNIVERSITY AND CALGARY UNIVERSITY IS ADVOCATED BY JUSTICE STUART IN EDMONTON ADDRESS

Opposes the Suggestion That the University of Alberta Should Be Merely a Teaching Body, With a College in Edmonton and Another in Calgary

Edmonton, May 14.—At the commencement exercises of the University of Alberta, held this afternoon, Mr. Justice Stuart, chancellor of the University, favored co-operation between the Provincial University and the Calgary University. At the close of his remarks he said that the views he had expressed were his personal suggestions and in no way official, though he was speaking as chancellor.

He opposed the suggestion the University of Alberta should be a teaching body, with a college in Edmonton and another in Calgary, describing that policy as out of date and very objectionable. He believed that outside of the 75,000 people of Calgary that the residents of Alberta had little objection to the location of the institution. In Calgary, even, there was no general hostility to the University of Alberta, though there was a difference of opinion which was regrettable. He suggested that a professor of the University might, on occasion, give lectures to the students at Calgary college.

After referring to the success of the Provincial University and its relation to the education of the province, he continued as follows:

Perhaps you will think, I am sure, when you hear the foregoing report, that you will think that there is little reason for my feeling disappointed. But I wish to appeal to you as well as to the University of Alberta, and I suppose insofar as visitors are concerned, most of you who are here to realize any great educational benefit, but for those who live in the great and growing city in the south the considerations that are in the mind of the university and university cannot be overlooked, and it is a cause to me of the deepest regret, without opening old sores or indulging in recriminations, to remember the facts and to discuss the real reasons for present conditions. If these spoken remarks have been established by the people of the province. There are now, I suppose, over 600,000 people in Alberta. It is they who are sustaining this university as a fulfillment of the duty of the state in regard to education. Within this province with such a population—a population of half a million—there are two leading cities; their united population is, I think, not more than 140,000. The remaining 460,000, the vast majority of the people, who never, and I venture to say, are not now very deeply concerned with the question as to where the university should be placed. These two cities are the creatures of the growth of the province. The vast wealth accumulating in these two cities, largely a result of the rise in real estate values, has not been created by the people of the cities themselves, but is the direct result of the development of the province. If there were no 460,000, there would be no 140,000 of them. And yet the location of the university is a question of the duty of the state in regard to education. NEBRASKA TORNADO KILLS 10

Sweeps Over Seward, Neb., Takes Toll of Ten Lives, Injures 30; Destroys 22 Residences, and Partially Wrecks Many More Places

FOUR PERSONS REPORTED KILLED AT TOMARO TOWN

Several Said to Have Perished at McCool Junction; Before Telephone Wires. Go Down Appeal Sent to Lincoln for Physicians and Surgeons

Seward, Neb., May 14.—A tornado which took a toll of ten lives, injuring thirty odd persons and destroyed more than a third of the town, occurred shortly before six o'clock this evening. Twenty-two residences, including several of the best, were destroyed and more were partly wrecked. The business portion of the place did not suffer greatly.

The tornado struck the western or residential section of Seward and swept everything in its path. Those killed were mostly caught in the wreck of their homes. The tornado, after passing through Seward, veered to the northeast. Reports tonight say that the towns of Tomaro, Lushington, Grafton and McCool Junction were wiped out. Four persons were reported killed at Tomaro, and several at McCool Junction. Utica was in the path of the twister.

Before the telephone wires went down an appeal was sent to Lincoln to send physicians and undertakers. Reports from surrounding sections indicate that the effects of the tornado were felt over a wide range of territory.

The tornado was followed in Seward by a hail and rain storm. Tonight the town is without lights and search of the ruins is being made with lanterns.

Of greater interest almost to the people of Alberta than all the other news that came here at the beginning of the week was a party of 50 which arrived in Calgary yesterday morning from the Old Country. Every member of the party, which was not organized as such in any direct way, was a born and trained farmer, and every one brought with him a considerable amount of capital. In point of fact, it was estimated that they brought with them capital to be invested in farms here to the value of $300,000.

The party stopped off here for only a few hours, and arriving just before daybreak were gone before breakfast. The majority went north and will settle on farms there, one man proposing to go as far north as Grande Prairie. Of the others, the majority intended to settle in the district between here and Edmonton. They were all well, and were mostly going into farms.

This party was in no sense organized, and the men merely came out to Canada for two reasons. The one was the good things that they had heard of Canada, and the other the unsatisfactory nature of conditions at home. All were men of good experience in the work of farming, and the reports from the railway offices are that this was the most desirable batch of immigrants that has reached here this year.

GOVERNMENT OUT FOR RESTRAINT OF THE FRUIT TRADE

Sam Savage, of Calgary, Says the Rigid Enforcement of Packing Regulations Against Fruit from U. S. Tends to Many Anomalies Which Are Useless to Consumer.

AMERICAN GRADES ARE HIGHER THAN CANADIAN

B. C. Fruit Growers, Though They Already Have Much Protection, Desire to See the Importation of Fruit Brought to an End

Undue restraint of trade through its natural channels is the way in which Sam Savage, the local fruit dealer, characterizes the move on the part of the governmental authorities at Ottawa to enforce certain methods of packing fruit from the other side of the line. Mr. Savage says that this scheme is but a reinforcement of the conditions which were stipulated in the amendments to the inspection and sales act of 1908.

The aim of the people behind this move is to prevent the importation of fruit from the United States and thus give the British Columbia growers a practical monopoly of the market for their produce. The British Columbia people are already well protected in this line. For instance in the case of apples they have the protective duty of 13-1/2 cents and in addition the preferential transportation rates make the preference about 25 cents a box.

Better Packing in States. As to the matter of packing, Mr. Savage says that the British Columbia people have much to learn. The growers to the south have a great advantage in this matter and send out their products much better and more carefully marked than do the farmers on this side of the line. The grade in the

BEST BAND OF SETTLERS TO ARRIVE THIS YEAR

One Man Will Go North to Grande Prairie and Most of the Others Will Stop Off Between Calgary and Edmonton

Of greater interest almost to the people of Alberta than all the other news that came here at the beginning of the week was a party of 50 which arrived in Calgary yesterday morning from the Old Country. Every member of the party, which was not organized as such in any direct way, was a born and trained farmer, and every one brought with him a considerable amount of capital. BOARD OF RAILWAY COMMISSIONERS SIT IN CALGARY MAY 26

That the board of railway commissioners will sit in Calgary on May 26 to consider matters of importance in connection with the new railroads entering the city and other matters of business is the statement of George Zimmerman, local legal adviser for the Grand Trunk Pacific railway, who has just returned from Ottawa.

The commission will come to the city from the west, having sittings in Vancouver on May 19 and 20. After leaving here, sittings will be held in Edmonton on May 27, and in Regina on May 29.

According to Mr. Zimmerman, the weather in Eastern Canada at the present time is anything but desirable, being cold and wintry. However, all through the prairies the farmers appear to be well satisfied with conditions. Seeding, especially in Alberta, is almost over, and the moisture that this province is getting at the present time appears to be just what the farmers desire.

MAYOR'S SUGGESTION FOR TWO YEAR TERM ADOPTED; WARD SYSTEM FAVORED

In the opinion of Ald. Crichton, Ramsay and Carson, the ward system in Calgary is working out all right and no change should be made at present in the system of aldermanic representation.

Ald. Tregillus, Ald. Frost and Ald. Freese are very strongly in favor of a general election; and the two opposite views clashed on the subject yesterday at a meeting of the legislative committee, and a tie vote resulted. Ald. Carson, who at first refused to declare himself until he had more time to investigate the matter, was finally induced to come down off the fence and vote one way or another to bring a definite recommendation before the council. Ald. Carson voted in favor of abolishing the system, on the distinct understanding that he might change his mind without criticism when recommendation was brought before the council.

The legislative committee is considering a revision of the city charter; and at the first meeting yesterday afternoon, Ald. George Ross, the chairman, began at page 4 of the ordinances and statutes, which clause provides that the city of Calgary shall be divided into four wards.

"Gentlemen, what do you think of that?" said the chairman. Ald. Crichton had his mind made up. "I am opposed to it," he said, "but I think the consensus of opinion is the other way and if we try to change this, there is going to be a great big uproar!"

Labor Men Against the System.

L. T. English, secretary of the Alberta Federation of Labor, disagreed with Ald. Crichton. The labor men said, favored the abolition of the system as they English suggested that representative men elected under present conditions. At present the vote of the labor men was scattered over two wards and it was impossible to get men of their choice nominated.

Ald. Tregillus pointed out that under the present system, many men voted four times, while others voted only once. Each alderman is a member of four committees and the attendance at these meetings is very irregular. Each alderman is a member of four committees and the attendance at these meetings is very irregular. Each alderman is a member of four committees and the attendance at these meetings is very irregular.

NO DEMAND FOR MINISTERS IN COUNCIL, SAYS ROSS; GARDEN WOULD LIKE SOME WOMEN ALDERMEN

The city charter at present disqualifies the minister of religion, the minister of any religious denomination, for the office of mayor or alderman. The legislative committee will not ask to have this condition altered, although there was a lively debate on the question.

"I don't think there is any very great demand for ministers in the council," remarked Alderman William Ross. "Hotelkeepers and ministers are both barred out," observed Alderman Freese. "It seems to be working very well, so let's keep them out!"

Alderman Frost Reformed!

Alderman Tregillus was strongly for the ministers. So was Alderman T. A. P. Frost. It is known to old-timers in Calgary that the municipality is a good thing through seven strenuous Baptist pastors in Ontario, where he built and opened seven new churches, and that he came to Calgary as pastor of the First Baptist church in 1896—hence his enthusiasm for the ministers. Alderman Tregillus and Alderman Frost urged strongly that ministers were among the best citizens in the community, were leaders of thought, and most exemplary citizens generally.

Alderman Crichton challenged their contention. He had found many ministers to be narrow, bigoted and most impractical; many of them were uneducated as men, and to exchange the tenant's franchise to women, married or single, on the same basis as men.

LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE WOULD EXTEND FRANCHISE TO WOMEN TENANTS AND TO MEN PAYING POLL TAX

The legislative committee will recommend to the city council an amendment to the city charter making women eligible to any office in the gift of the electors, on the same terms and conditions as men, and to exchange the tenant's franchise to women, married or single, on the same basis as men.

The suggestion was made by Ald. Ramsay and was strongly supported by Ald. George Ross, Ald. Tregillus and Ald. Crichton and Ald. Frost. Ald. Carson believes that the intelligence with which the women of Calgary have exercised the municipal franchise for the past 10 or 15 years is sufficient to justify this extension of rights. Ald. Frost has known any number of women mayors in towns in the old country, where it is a common thing for women to stand for municipal elections.

The suggestion was opposed by one man—Ald. Ramsay. Usually mild and agreeable, Ald. Ramsay became very belligerent at the idea. "Get women back in the kitchen where they belong," he said crossly. "Women have no business running for office."

"Oh, tut! tut!" said Ald. Frost. "A little later the suggestion was put in the form of a motion to eliminate the word 'males' from section 2 of the charter. "Let the women stay home and clean up their kitchens. They have their hands full doing that," said Ald. Ramsay again.

"Whose kitchens are dirty? Why, men, you don't mean to say the women must have dirty kitchens on account of this?" exclaimed Ald. Crichton. "Yes I do. I say that the majority of the women who are running around to these meetings lately, have houses that aren't fit to live in. They should be home shoveling the fifth out of their kitchens."

The motion carried. If the poll tax is to be continued, Ald. William Ross thinks the men who pay it have an equal right to vote, with the man who pays a tax on a $400 assessment. Ald. Carson contended that the qualification clause restricting the franchise to owners of property to the value of $400, and tenants of property to the value of $200, is not over 100 people on the roll at present assessed at under $200. If these women were struck out it would simplify the voters' list without material loss.

RUMOR OF DISAGREEMENT IN BEEF COMBINE; CHICAGO FIRM SAID TO BE TRYING TO CRUSH SMALLER CONCERNS; PACKERS DENY THE STORY

Chicago, May 14.—The present crisis in the beef combine is the London market is caused, it is learned, by the refusal of Messrs. Armour to sign their agreement with other shippers. As a result of the recent developments of their resources and their plant in Argentina, Messrs. Armour applied to the shippers in the London market to permit them to ship to England fifty per cent more beef than hitherto. This proposition was not granted, and thus arose a war between the American element and other elements in the London market then were printed in the English press.

These were renewed last week, when shipments of beef to England became heavier than usual. Complaints of the cheapness of the beef also were made. The London free trade newspapers, which say in the increased shipments a sinister attempt on the part of the Chicago firm to crush the smaller packers is made.

American packing interests deride the idea of the existence of a state of war, and explain the increased figures in the beef shipments by the fact that many new refrigerating plants have been built in Argentina, and with the springing of the Argentine winter the breeders are taking the cattle off the grass and sending them to market.

THE KING AND QUEEN DEVELOPMENT TO THE ESCAPE DANGER BY PROGRAM CHANGE WILL BE BIG

Queen Was to Have Fired Mine Which Blew Debris All Over Spot Chosen for Her

London, May 14.—Owing to a change in yesterday's program, says The Daily Mirror, the king and queen occupied an alarming and possibly dangerous experience at Aldershot.

The queen was to fire a mine consisting of 100 pounds of gunpowder by means of an electric button from an iron shed fifty yards away. The charge was so arranged that it was known that their majesties would be unable to carry out their part of the program, an order was given to fire it.

The danger zone, it was understood, was a circle of about fifty yards diameter with the mine as its centre. Owing, it is said, to the strong wind which was blowing, the explosion caused dense masses of clay to rise high in the air, and to fall mainly in the high road at a distance of more than a hundred yards. Quantities of earth fell from the shed where the queen would have been, and on the roadway where the king would almost certainly have been watching the explosion, probably in horseback. One piece of clay that fell near the shed weighed over half a hundredweight.

The sky was black with the clay for seconds. About 100 spectators occupied the ground, who were watching through the wind screen of the queen's motor car, which was covered in clay and sand.

Many telegraph wires on the side of the road were brought down. A press photographer was the nearest person to the mine, and was covered with clay from head to foot, and his camera was hardly recognizable.

HOUSEWIVES DISCUSS LOCAL MARKET WITH OFFICIALS OF CITY

After Exhaustive Discussion of Market Problems of Housewife, Meeting Resolves Itself into a Consumers' League—Mrs. Newhall President

LEAGUE WILL TAKE UP HOUSEWIVES' PROBLEMS

And Meeting Will Be Held Some Time Next Week at Which Organization of the League Will Be Perfected; Mayor and Aldermen Talk

C.P.R.'s ATTITUDE

When interviewed last night with regard to the statement made by Mr. Fee of the Vernon Fruit company that the C. P. R. were considering the question of a public market along its line, Mr. C. S. Maharg, of the C. P. R., said that Mr. Fee had approached the company with a proposition, which the company had agreed to consider.

The proposition put forward by Mr. Fee has dealt only with the fruit question, and Mr. Maharg was of the opinion that more fruit might become interested in the matter before anything could be done. In any case, however, the matter had been considered, nothing had been decided, and Mr. Maharg had written Mr. Fee but a few days ago, stating that he did not feel justified in moving in the matter.

Mr. Maharg added that the time was not ripe for a market for farm produce. Mr. Maharg was of opinion that that would be a very large undertaking, and must of necessity be dealt with by the city council.

As a net result of the market meeting between Calgary housewives and representatives of the city council, held in the public library yesterday afternoon, and which was very generally attended, a consumers' league was formed and the purpose of the league will be to work out the market problem of the housewives.

Mrs. E. P. Newhall, who has taken a prominent part in the movement, was elected president, and Mrs. McGregor secretary, and a mass meeting will be held some evening next week, at which the organization will be perfected.

The meeting was held under the auspices of the economics committee of the Local Council of Women, and Mrs. Newhall, in calling the meeting to order, stated that the women had caused a splash that had rippled farther than they knew or dreamed. This question of the high cost of living and the idea of a public market to reduce the present high rates brought the mayor and aldermen from the city hall to meet with the women, as well as Mr. Woodbridge, secretary of the United Farmers of Alberta, and Mr. Saunders of the Farmers' League of Strathmore, besides many market gardeners, from all round the country.

That the women had touched a definite need was agreed by all the speakers, and on behalf of the farmers, Mr. Woodbridge stated that the women had their hearty co-operation, and if the proposed market could be got, and the women would promise to patronize it as consumers, they, the farmers, would agree to supply it, and patronize it as producers. That truckage facilities were absolutely necessary, he thought, must be understood by all, and the closer to the line that such a market could be put, the better for all concerned. The market, he felt sure, could be run on a five per cent, or ten per cent basis, and must reduce the present cost of living.

RUSSIA LOST 60 MILLIONS BY THE BALKAN WAR

St. Petersburg, May 14.—The budget committee of the duma estimates that the Balkan war has entailed upon Russia direct financial losses amounting to nearly $50,000,000.

On a question as to why, if the farmers needed a market so much, they had not patronized the present market, Mrs. Porter said that it was in a bad place and that the drayage cost was too great. Mrs. Porter said that from the consumer's standpoint it was (Continued on Page Four)

Pittsburg, May 14.—Mrs. Mary Hagen, through her fondness for seeing her husband laugh, has caused her husband to desert her. She says she never gave him cause to be dissatisfied with her, but that she would have trouble with him when she would tickle him to see him laugh. At first, she declared she seemed to enjoy her tickling, but finally he lost patience and berated her. One day she tickled him a little bit harder than usual and he knocked her down, she asserts. He then went away, and she says she was going for all time. She says she hasn't seen him since.

REV. JOHN C. SYCAMORE TAKES ISSUE WITH ALBERTAN

Editor, Albertan: You feel compelled to write and challenge the issue of the editorial in this morning's issue of The Albertan. It is difficult to understand how any man who is in touch with facts could so misrepresent them, and if not acquainted with facts he should learn them before making such sweeping untrue statements.

There is one point we wish made plain at the outset. The place of worship and preaching is an important function in the church, and whatever developments the church may make in other forms of service, she must not ignore these primary and fundamental things. One might imagine from your editorial that the public worship and the sacraments are negligible. We might just as well understand one another. The institutional work of the church is the child of the gospel, and the most fatal thing that can be done is to suppose that the social service of the church is possible if divorced from Christian worship and preaching and teaching.

There has been an immense amount of experiment in this matter of the church's social service in recent years, and the results may be found in a very large literature that has grown up around the subject. Your contention of a church building that combines a great many functions is not entirely new. It is found to be much better to have the church building in which all the features of institutional activity are combined. You may not be aware that some of the churches are looking forward to and planning for that sort of thing. I know very well that it is a difficult thing to be an editor and know about some particular realm of human thought and activity, you must expect to be on the outside of the circle, and to rise in their place, and to rise their circle. The church my dear friend, is not as much alien as you seem to imagine.—Yours truly JOHN A. CLARK

WOODEN CANNON IN WAR.

In Recent Revolutions in West Indies Wooden Cannon Were Used—Strange Construction.

Anyone familiar with the construction of modern weapons of warfare and the high explosives used in them would naturally suppose a cannon made of wood would be of little or no value as a weapon. Wooden cannon have been used with considerable success, nevertheless, in recent revolutions in Cuba, in Haiti and in the Dominican Republic. The wood used in the construction of these crude weapons is a very tough variety, having a twisted grain that curls about the log in such a way that to split the timber with the ordinary means is almost impossible. The best trees are selected and a piece of log five or six feet in length and about one foot in diameter is cut from the bark has been removed after the log made perfectly round, it is secured up on a crude frame, and a hole is burned into it from one end to the other. The hole is covered with the strips of hide, another layer is wound on and this is continued until the weapon has increased several inches in diameter. After the log is covered and the hole is finished, the weapon is treated to a hot draught, which tends to contract the binding, which becomes almost as strong as wire. These crude cannon have been used with success in a number of instances, and it is astonishing the number of times they may be fired before they burst or become otherwise disabled.

Rev. John A. Clark Takes Issue.

Editor, Albertan: It must be a wonderful thing to be an editor, and always know what is right about everything. This morning's first editorial gives us the editorial mind on the church and her function in the community in terms which might seem to indicate that the clergymen and all other church workers among us have been dwelling in the densest darkness with respect to their work, while the moment the mind of the editor is directed in the whole matter is made clear. To those who have not thought much about it, your summary of the facts, which can be verified by any intelligent citizen who has the honor and welfare of all classes at heart. JOHN C. SYCAMORE, First Baptist church parsonage, May 14, 1913.

THE KILLING OF CORPORAL BAILEY BY OSCAR FENBERG RECALLS OTHER POLICE TRAGEDIES

Murderous Exploits of Bad Men in Canadian Territory Have Been Numerous; the Life of the Mounted Policeman Is Fraught With Danger

Edmonton, May 14.—The killing of Corporal Detective Bailey by Oscar Fenberg, the homesteader, who shot the mounted officer dead and wounded Constables Whitley and Sted, of Edmonton, when they attempted to take him at his shack near Grassy Lake, recalls other instances of murderous exploits of bad men in the Canadian territory.

Police Magistrate G. E. Sanders, of Calgary, who was then a mounted police inspector at Aliboness Landing, in paying tribute to the Indian scouts for their part in trailing Charcoal and other Indian murderers, throws an interesting light on the life of the Indians who assisted the police, who were in fear lest the braves they pursued, and who regarded them as traitors, would shoot them.

"As examples of the Indians' fears," says Magistrate Sanders in "The Riders of the Plains," a comprehensive and highly interesting history of the mounted police, "I might say that Red Crow during the whole of the pursuit slept on the floor of his house; he was afraid to sleep in his bed, the position of which Charcoal knew, for fear of a pot shot through the window. Red Crow was also afraid of the fugitive's might go to the High River school and kill his son. White Wolf, another tracker, used to sleep in a loft, and pull the ladder by which he ascended up after him when he retired for the night.

"The Indians we employed did excellent work, performing everything that Indian ingenuity could suggest. Their power of tracking and picking up signs was, in some instances, simply marvellous, and in this connection, I would mention Green Grass, Many Tall Feathers, Round Head, Neck and Calf Tail, who were regularly employed scouts. All I thing, who were connected with this pursuit, came away with a much higher idea of the Indian character than they had before."

These are only a couple of the more conspicuous instances of the sacrifice of life by courageous members of the mounted police in performing their hazardous work of keeping law and order in the vast rural sweeps of the Canadian West. As was shown by the Bailey tragedy, the element of danger in mounted police work is still great and it was only a year ago that "Pop" Davis was killed near Bassano by Jim Ham, a drunk, crazed Indian, now doing a life sentence, who fired from a wagon in which he was escaping from Davis and shot the policeman dead.

In earlier days of the "force" mounted policemen had to deal with Indian desperadoes who had no respect for life, hating their own as highly as that of their pursuers, and later, the savagery of the Indians from the American border states, who were a source of considerable trouble and danger to the fearless red coated guardians of the North West Territory and the Yukon. Many of these loud champions of gun play proved to be noisier than they were dangerous, however, and soon learned to respect the mounted police. It did not take the mounties to realize that the riders of the North West Territory were not to be trifled with, and it is to the lasting credit of the mounted police that there was very little savagery of a dangerous character in the wild pioneer days of the Yukon, when hunters, gamblers, blacklegs and thug drifters from the border and coast states to a field of easy money and fat "pickings."

One Idaho bandit who had been the terror of sh-sh-f's possess in that state, went to Wapovon, Saskatchewan, a few years ago with the intention of terrorizing the community and cleaning up in true wild west style. A prominent man of the settlement was forced by this apparently desperate character to hold up his hat while the gunman perforated it with bullets. The "bad man" took pot shots at persons on hotel verandas as otherwise made himself the terror of the town. He boasted that no Johnny Canuck could take him and said he would die in his boots rather than be captured. One day Constable Lest of Halbert, the nearest police post, rode into town, got the drop on the ruffin, gave him a severe drubbing in a hand to hand fight which followed, and led him away to the lockup handcuffed and shackled in a state of lambling gentleness. The history of the force provides dozen of other instances of the grim businesslike methods of mounted policemen in dealing with revolver-wielding outlaws who attempted to emulate their exploits of American frontier days, but to use a street phrase, failed to "get away with it." In numerous cases also they forced more than one party of several of these lawbreakers to submit to arrest and after a while the red coated horsemen became the terror of evil doers of the west to such an extent that today the force is universally recognized as the bravest and most efficient body of mounted constabulary in the world.

The splendid work of the mounted police in putting down the nefarious traffic of the whiskey traders among the Indians, their bravery and skilful fighting in the Redoubt, their clever catches in difficult cases and their general efficiency give them a prominent and permanent place in the history of the Canadian West from its earliest frontier days to its present period of prosperous development.

FIRST CALL FOR WHEAT HANDS

Topeka, May 14.—Farm help is mighty scarce in Kansas right now and there is a prospect of much trouble getting harvest hands when the wheat is ripe and ready to be cut. The state free employment bureau has received reports from 79 counties on the farm hand situation and says that many calls for workers. Nineteen counties have enough hands for the present time.

The wheat harvest will not begin until about June 15 along the southern part of the state and in the largest wheat counties through Central Kansas it will be a week later.

MEN OF SQUARE AND COMPASS TO MEET IN VANCOUVER

To Participate in Observance of the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of Cascade Lodge; Lodge Officers of a Quarter of a Century Ago Will Officiate

WILLIAM DOWNIE, NOW OF THE EAST, FIRST MASTER

Passed Through Calgary Last Evening on His Way to Vancouver, to Sit in His Old Time Place in the East—Many from the West Will Attend

William Downie, general superintendent of the Canadian Pacific railway at St. John, N.B., and well known in Vancouver circles all over Canada, passed through Calgary last night on his way to Vancouver, where on May 17 he will conduct the ceremonies which will commemorate the 25th anniversary of the institution of Cascade Lodge, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons. The fact that Mr. Downie was going through was known to a number of local masons and several old friends were at the station to greet him.

The anniversary observance will be attended by masons from all over the west. The Province says: "A quarter of a century is a long time in this swiftly-moving western country and many changes have taken yet, strange to say, nearly every officer, including such names as J. W. Horne, Lucy R. Johnson, W. O. Miller, W. F. Salsbury, Stanley Henderson, D. B. Charlton, J. W. McFarland, C. Gardner Johnson, who officiated at the opening of the lodge 25 years ago, are alive today and will be on hand to take the same office on anniversary night. Old-timers will remember that the first masonic lodge in Vancouver was Mount Hermon, which was first constituted under the Grand Lodge of Scotland, at Macdowell, but it was to Vancouver about the time of the arrival of the Canadian Pacific railway. About this time it was thought that Vancouver was big enough for two lodges and Mr. Downie, Mount Hermon, which was then a number of local masons and several old friends were at the station to greet him.

It is generally conceded amongst the masons that the success of Cascade Lodge is largely to be attributed to the excellent principles laid down by the first worshipful master, who have been followed ever since. Worshipful master after worshipful master has not only lived up to the written law of loyalty and fair-play, but has also been able to uphold those traditions and that unwritten law of loyalty and fair-play which was instilled into their hearts by the first worshipful master. Mr. Downie had a remarkable career in free masonry in British Columbia. No sooner did he have Cascade Lodge fairly launched than he began to climb in the grand lodge, being elected as grand master in June, 1908. He ruled the craft wisely and well, visiting every lodge but one in British Columbia during his term of office. Many of his railines are still law in the grand lodge today, and Free Masons always look upon him with added pride and respect, because not only was he able to give wise judgments, but his whole life has been a living example of what a good Free Mason should be.

Many changes have taken place in Vancouver since William Downie ruled the craft. There are today as many lodges in Vancouver alone as there were in the whole of the province at the time the Grand Lodge of British Columbia was formed. Spacious rooms and corridors have taken the place of cramped quarters. Where the attendance was scores it is now hundreds and it is expected that while Mr. Downie will have no trouble in recognizing the old guard it will tax his strength pretty severely to give the grip to all the new ones who will be on hand to greet him.

Some idea of William Downie's devotion to the cause of Free Masonry may be understood when he will come clear across the continent for no other purpose than to attend this meeting. He is the intention of Worshipful Master F. C. Bird to invite the worshipful masters of the craft of the Grand Master John M. Rudd of Nanaimo and other distinguished Free Masons to attend.

RAINBOW WILL GO OUT OF COMMISSION BECAUSE OF BLUEJACKET SHORTAGE

Vancouver, B. C., May 14.—Within the next few weeks the armored cruiser Rainbow, Commander Walter Hosen, will cease to be an active unit on the Pacific coast. Between the dates of June 11 and 18, it is understood that the ship's complement of something like 12 inactive service men will have vacated their quarters, and the warship placed in charge of an officer pending further instructions from the Dominion government.

CLAIMS EXAGGERATION OF THE VALUE OF CROP

The estimate on a grain crop was the bone of contention in the case of Borthwick vs. Land at the session of the supreme court yesterday afternoon. The evidence for the plaintiff was heard and that for the defence will be heard this morning. Land sold his farm to Borthwick last fall and it was claimed that he represented the value of the crop standing on the fields to be $1,500, which it did not turn out to be. The plaintiffs claim that the defendant exaggerated the value given by the real estate agents who had been present when the deal for the land was under consideration and their evidence was heard as to the nature of the guarantee, if any, which was given by the vendor as to the crop.

JAMES KEIR HARDIE MAY BECOME PUBLISHER OF SUFFRAGETTE NEWSPAPER

Labor Party, in Fight for Free Press, May Adopt Method in Vogue in Germany

London, May 14.—In the fight against the government for a free press, the labor party, after mature consideration, has decided to adopt a plan which is new to England, but has been found effective by the German Socialists in combating stringent press laws. Should the government prosecute James Ramsay MacDonald for printing the Suffragette, he will be succeeded as manager by James Keir Hardie, who in turn will be followed by other labor party members who are prepared to capitulate. These two labor members of parliament announced yesterday their readiness to undertake the responsibility of printing the Suffragette, contending that it is illegal to suppress newspapers in advance and declaring that they were ready to stand by the consequences.

MECHANICS' LIEN CASE SETTLED IN COURT

A case under the Mechanics' Lien act was decided in the supreme court yesterday morning by Chief Justice Hagan. In the case of the Riverside Lumber company sued Kidd Brothers and the holders of the mechanics' lien and the mortgages. Judgment was given for the plaintiffs and his honor said that they could hold the mechanics' lien on the property over against any increase in the value through the erection of the building on it. P. O. Savary appeared for the plaintiff, D. Stewart for the second mortgages and L. Bakowski for the first mortgages.

BEGIN TO SEE DAYLIGHT AS ONE OF GREATEST ENTERPRISES EVER UNDERTAKEN ON CONTINENT IS BEING RAPIDLY ADVANCED TO COMPLETION

Vice-President Dalrymple, of the Grand Trunk Pacific, Says Montreal, Winnipeg and Edmonton Are to Be Hit With Passenger Service June 7

Montreal, May 14.—"We now begin to see daylight as one of the greatest enterprises ever undertaken on the continent is being rapidly advanced to completion," was one of the statements made today by Mr. J. E. Dalrymple, vice-president of the Grand Trunk Pacific, who, with Mr. G. T. Bell, assistant passenger traffic manager, has just returned from a trip over the completed portions of the system from Lake Superior to the coast. As a matter of fact, Mr. Dalrymple gave out some very important information to the effect that Montreal, Winnipeg and Edmonton are to be hit with passenger service on June 7, for on that date special July trains will leave Toronto for Sarnia, connecting with Port Arthur and Fort William by the Western Navigation Company steamers and the G. T. P. daily passenger service will be inaugurated to Winnipeg, this being the first announcement of the long expected opening of the railway from the head of Lake Superior to Edmonton. As for the eastern section, nearing completion by the transcontinental commissioners, Mr. Dalrymple states that they probably will be able to open this section some time in August. It is therefore settled that the lake passenger service of the Grand Trunk Pacific will be via Sarnia, while the freight route will be from Midland. Another important announcement made today is that a series of mountain hotels are to be built in the Rockies by the G. T. P., the most important being opposite Mount Robson. West of Winnipeg, Mr. Dalrymple states that the last spike will be driven at a place 375 miles east of Prince Rupert in October of next year, and the entire road opened from Montreal to Prince Rupert early in 1915.

MANY MEMBERS OF MYSTIC SHRINE MEET IN DALLAS

Dallas, Tex., May 14.—More than one hundred temples of the Ancient Order of the Mystic Shrine were represented tonight in a brilliant party, which included two score Arab patrols with their bands. Besides these, several thousand members of the order met in uniform passed in review before the imperial potentate, with J. Cunningham, of Baltimore. The imperial potentate made his formal report today at the first business session of the conclave. He reported a membership of 185,446, a net gain for the year of 12,790, divided among a total of 133 temples. The imperial council had funds on March 1 of $114,421. There are five candidates for outer guard, the only contest in the election to be held. The officers succeed those immediately above them, and it is assured that Imperial Junior Potentate, W. W. Irwin, of Wheeling, H. Va., will become imperial potentate. Tomorrow also the 1914 meeting places will be selected. Memphis and Atlanta are the only contenders. This afternoon more than a hundred of the newspapermen among the visitors were guests of the Dallas Press club at a "skit."

TRoubles of Ulster King of Arms

London, May 14.—Sir Arthur Vesey, formerly Ulster King of Arms, who was dismissed after the mysterious disappearance of the Dublin crown jewels, is under guard of Scotland Yard detectives by his own request, and for his own safety. Sir Arthur declares he will reveal in court all the facts concerning the jewel mystery—facts that involve persons of noble birth—and has received a series of threatening letters from a former high official at Dublin Castle.

Port Hope, May 14.—For the third time in a year Charles Canella, porter of an Italian fruit store here, has saved a human life from drowning.

Harry King, the 4-year-old son of a resident of the "Jacob's Ladder" district of Port Hope, fumbled from Mill street, where he was playing, into the Ganerska river, and was being rapidly swept toward the lake by the strong current when Canella jumped in and rescued him. Citizens are planning to bring the matter to the attention of the humane society with a view to the award of a medal.

EYES OF THE PUGILISTIC WORLD ARE NOW FOCUSED UPON CITY OF CALGARY

Forced Retirement of Jack Johnson Makes Heavyweight Title Hinge Upon McCarty, Burns and Pelkey—McCarty Claims It, Burns Had It and Pelkey Wants It

WHAT THEY SAY!

LUTHER McCARTY—"It won't make any difference to me whether Johnson goes to jail or not. I won the white heavyweight championship of the world when I defeated Al Palzer on New Year's Day. I am the heavyweight champion right now. The public will recognize me. I am willing to defend the title against anyone in the world, but will bar negroes. I don't intend to make the mistake that Tommy Burns did. Of course, I will claim the heavyweight title—I have been claiming it right along. I am the champion."

TOMMY BURNS—"Now that Johnson has been found guilty and will probably be forced to spend the rest of his life in jail, do you think there is any room for argument as to who has the most right to the title. I was the first man to hold it. He won it from me. I am still in the game and have the best right of anyone to it. I am prepared to defend it, too. However, I am willing to turn it over to Art Pelkey, provided he will give me the title. But if he has any legitimate claim upon the title, if McCarty wins over Pelkey I am willing to box him, at any time or place in the world."

ARTHUR PELKEY—"Of course, I know that Tommy Burns has the best right to the vacant title. He has practically turned it over to me to defend. I will prove the matter. I will fight him on May 24. I feel confident of winning over McCarty. I boxed Jess Willard and had him almost out in the fifth and sixth rounds just one week before Willard put it all over McCarty. I was sitting at the ringside and saw McCarty get hit, and I would rather box him than Willard any day in the week. Burns has given me the title to defend, and I am going to defend it."

(By Joe Price) The conviction of Jack Johnson, the champion of white slavery, and the impending sentence which will mean a vacancy in the championship sport world to be directed toward Calgary, for in this city are the two most looked upon as the best to step into the place left vacant by the man who has so disgraced the game. These two men are Tommy McCarty and Tommy Burns. As though to further complicate the heavyweight situation Tommy has declared that his claim to the title will be forfeited provided Art Pelkey, the man who is now grooming for the championship honors, wins over Luther McCarty on May 24. While there may be some others who think they have a right to contend for the title, the only men whom the world recognizes as having the right to the claim are right here in this city. Time only will tell what will be the result of the controversy. At present however, there is no recognized heavyweight champion of the world. Tommy Burns' Claim When it comes right down to a fine point there is no use denying the fact that Burns appears to have a little the best of the claim race. Burns was champion once and that means something further, he was the recognized champ. He was the last white man to hold the undisputed title. He probably still is the holder were it not for an unfortunate occurrence in far away Australia when Jack Johnson stepped into the ring and stopped the contest. Now that Jack Johnson has been eliminated from the race, it seems no more than right that the title should go back to the last holder of it. Where Luther Comes In Luther is a product of the public demand for a white man who could defeat Jack Johnson. "White Hope" is the name that was tacked on the first man who answered this demand. Luther McCarty at the present time has established a reputation which has made him the boss of the White Hopes. Luther has never defeated any champion—in fact, when it comes right down to a fine point he has never beaten anyone but second raters.

LANGASHIRE CLUB WILL REMAIN IN LEAGUE

In Spite of Remarks of Representative at Meeting Club Will Stick

In view of the remarks made by Mr. Hilton at the meeting of the Calgary City and District League on Tuesday evening, great interest centered round the meeting of the Langashire Football club held in the Y.M.C.A. last night to consider their position. The league had refused to consider the question of the playing of the home games of the Langashire club at Hillhurst, more especially as the Langashire representative himself at the previous meeting had voted in favor of playing all games at Victoria park, except those of Hillhurst who have now left the league, because of another reason. The meeting decided in favor of holding the league and so the position of the club has been made clear, and the schedule as published in The Albertan yesterday will be carried out in its entirety. The decision of the Langashire is a popular one.

EDMONTON ESKIMOS WIN THRILLING STRUGGLE

Defeat Regina Red Sox by Daring Baserunning—Clayton in Fine Form

Edmonton, May 14.—Edmonton and Regina locked horns today in the best battle staged here this season, the Birds winning out by 4 to 1. It developed into a battle royal between Burgess and Clayton, with the local man having considerably the best of it. He held the Red Sox to two hits, struck out twelve and did not issue a pass. The only run against him was scored in the fifth, when Hill singled, Williams hit to Reddick, but Redmond dropped the ball, missing an easy double play. Hargrave's sacrifice advanced Hill to third, and he scored a moment later on a wild pitch. Clayton kept the men off the bases in every inning but the first, third and fourth. Edmonton's runs were due to daring dick and timely hits by Clayton and Povey. Regina registered a lot of hits against MacDonald's decisions, and Stepp was put out of the game in the sixth and fined $5. The feature of the game was a one-handed stab catch by Redmond back of first. Six score: A. B. R. H. P. O. A. E.

At last must we dip our pen in wormwood and tell harrowing details of how one boy met defeat—the first defeat of the season. The score was five to four, and Bill Hurley's Saskatoon Quakers got the five end of the score. However, there is some consolation—not a great deal, but some, perhaps—in the fact that it was an ex-Calgarian who pulled off the circus stunt of stealing home in the eighth inning, which decided the contest in favor of the enemy. Frederick the Fat, otherwise known as F. Chick, was used as a March hare on the bases, pilfering three during the course of the contest, climaxing it all by a daring swipe of the home plate while Tiny Reese was deliberating whether to send a curve or a flat spin ball over the plate. Reese was deliberating during the whole contest, but the astuteness of the prosecution in the eighth when the score was tied up in the shape of the figure four. Fred had already stolen second this trip, and went to third on an easy out—and then it happened. The tale is too sad to repeat, anyway. The hold stripe cost our boys the contest.

It was a game pregnant with opportunities for the locals to win. But Bill's Quakers had the knack of hitting when this meant runs, and one of them, Fred Chick, knew how to get a man without the aid of a hit. A glance at the box score will show that the Bronchos' sluggers got hot healthy by noon, and went to third on an easy out—and then it happened. The tale is too sad to repeat, anyway. A bylaw will be submitted to the raters of the city for approval on May 28, authorizing the city to borrow $250,000 to establish an industrial building of some kind.

The idea is worthy of consideration, but there is much about it which should receive much consideration. The city council has established a rule that nothing which is not absolutely necessary in the way of expenditure shall be submitted during the present year.

It might be well to hold a public meeting to discuss the question. There is an organization in Calgary, known as the Progressive League, which would show some enterprise if it should call a meeting of citizens to discuss this very important subject.

SAUCE FOR THE GOOSE NOT SAUCE FOR THE GANDER

The London Daily News, to hand by the last English mail, prints letters from some prominent men of advanced politics, Britishers and otherwise, and the general tenor of their remarks is to the effect that it is regretted that the sensitive Duchess of Bedford postponed her visit to Portugal so long.

Mr. Cunningham Graham observes that had she happened to go there during the time of the late King King Carlos I., of blessed memory, she would have found an identical state of affairs existing in the Portuguese jails during that monarch's happy reign.

The only difference, the famous English Socialist sarcastically remarks, would have been that the unwilling guests in those uninviting institutions were men of democratic leanings, Liberals, Republicans, Socialists, and the like. As most persons are aware, Mr. Cunningham Graham is a traveller, and a traveller familiar with the Iberian Peninsula; on which account The Albertan begs leave to commend his words to those hyper-sensitive individuals who are today agitating their minds over current events in the land of Camoens and Vasco da Gama.

If conditions in the Portuguese jails are bad, remarks Cunningham Graham, those of the Russian prisons are a thousand times worse; and despite this fact, no sympathetic duchess has yet risen to say a single word about the matter.

Aye! As Hamlet says, there's the rub. Portugal is a republic; and Russia, if not now avowedly an autocracy, is in practice a near autocracy. And, as all the world knows, there is an unwritten law which lays it down that republics may not do what autocracies may do; or, put in more homely fashion, that sauce for the goose is not sauce for the gander. Again, it is very pleasant and at the same time we are always pleased to see the best our manufacturers can produce, and are proud of what our country is doing. If these manufacturers were not protected, they would be stronger than they are.

It can hardly be said that Chancellor Stuart of the Alberta university, held out much of an olive branch to Calgary. Some may say that his offering had more of the appearance of a lemon apout. However, it was something. It is difficult to see how his suggestion of co-operation can alter existing conditions in any way at all.

And hard as these little disappointments are to bear, we must remember that there wouldn't be much baseball league if our team won all the time.

Talking about loyalty and the Borden policy and that sort of thing. L'Evenement is one of the leading government papers in Quebec and in discussing the Borden naval bill it says that "in it there is no real question of sending a single cent to England. The bill specifies no date, place or conditions or even any obligation to spend the money." That is the way that Borden people are talking in Quebec. It was ever thus.

Bulgaria lost about 90,000 men in killed and wounded in the war with Turkey. It fought for a principle and the winning of the war means much to freedom and liberty and that is the only justification of a war.

A Liberal worker has been committed to trial for election irregularities in the riding of Clearwater. It is impossible at this time to say whether he is guilty or innocent of the charges if he is guilty he should be punished to the very limit. There is too much election irregularity in this country and there will be too much of it as long as election crooks are allowed to do their crooked work without proper punishment.

The Edmonton hospital is having some internal troubles, not dissimilar to the Calgary hospital. There the hospital board declines to have doctors upon the board of management, which seems to be a reasonable attitude for the board to take. If all hospitals adopted such an attitude, there might be less trouble in the management.

Has the city the right to do an advertising business? Its charter does not permit it. The city is calling for tenders for advertising now. It undoubtedly has the right to lease space in its cars, but it has no right to engage in the business really competing with legitimate local advertising businesses.

GENERAL HOSPITAL SUBSCRIBERS AGREE TO TRANSFER SITE TO THE CITY OF CALGARY

Negotiations Reach Final Stage Satisfactory to Authorities of the City and a Bylaw Authorizing Transfer Will Probably Be Submitted. The Calgary General Hospital has agreed to deliver to the city the title to a parcel of two acres of land, the northern part of the present hospital site, and has also agreed to abide by the decision of the ratepayers as to the method of election or appointment of the six city representatives on the proposed joint hospital board.

At the last meeting of the joint committee, the city representatives were somewhat nonplussed by the attitude of Mr. Berkinshaw, who insisted that the subscribers would never consent to the proposed amalgamation of the hospital property from the present holders would be illegal under the charter and therefore impossible in view of the fact that a permanent joint board could not be organized.

NEW YORK MARKET IS OFF UNDER SLIGHT PRESSURE

Dealings Superficial, Representing the Maneuvers of Trading Element Only

New York, May 14.—The strength gained by yesterday's advance was apparent today. There was no serious pressure on the market and trading was dull throughout the session, but the demand was so small that even the light offerings were sufficient to press the list materially. The Harriman shares, Reading, St. Paul, Pennsylvania, Lehigh, Smelting, Amalgamated and other leading stocks sold off a point or more. Canadian Pacific and the Washab stocks and bonds were especially weak.

Speculative conditions were little changed and there seemed to be no more reason for the decline of today than for the advance of yesterday. The only influence which could be drawn safely was the dealings lately which were superficial, representing the day-to-day maneuvers of the trading element rather than the play of forces which affect the market fundamentally.

Weakness of the Washab securities was attributed to unloading by holders who did not wish to hold the heavy assessments which it is proposed to levy under the re-organization plan. Another group of new low records for the year was made including Pennsylvania and St. Paul.

Announcement over night of New York Central's financial plan did not disturb the market.

The fact that the roads' bankers decided that present conditions warranted announcement of the plan and the taking of the steps necessary to make it effective was regarded as indicative of the hopeful view on the part of those responsible for this huge project.

In addition to $8,000,000 gold taken for Paris on the last movement, it was expected that the engagement of $2,000,000 more would be announced soon. That French banking interests are paying the usual rate for the gold now being shipped from this country was intimated in high financial circles. Ordinarily the only extra inducement is "in transit" but it is believed that in this instance the Paris bankers are paying as much as 1-2 per cent on the actual arrival of the gold.

The bond was easy. Total sales par value $2,241,000.

U. S. bonds were unchanged on call.

CHICAGO MARKET.
Chicago, May 14.—Beneficial rains in both the spring and winter belts knocked the crops from under the sun today. Texas request for bids on wheat shipments in July accelerated the smash and the market closed heavy with a net loss of 3-8 to 3-4 to 7-8.

Corn was off 1-4 to 3-8, and oats down 1-8 to 1-4 to 2-8. The outcome was 2 1-2 lower to 2 1-2 gain.

Bears in wheat made much of the fact that each day the country was getting nearer the period of wheat cutting and that the chances of accident to the crop were reduced. In addition cables were lower and Liverpool sent word of increased Canadian offerings at lower prices. Temporary returns were bought about by lightness of receipts at leading terminals and talk that moisture in the southwest was excessive. There were also assertions of export sales at Baltimore. Advice from Western Ohio, too, told of fields there being thinner than expected. Shorts covered freely but the market spurted itself without any prop and general liquidation was in progress in the final hour. Speculators who were loaded with old wheat and yet had been attempting to buy the 1913 crop sold with freedom.

CO-OPERATION BETWEEN ALBERTA AND CALGARY UNIVERSITY IS ADVOCATED

in the hands of the people for social betterment and advancement and its work is being spread out more and more so far as is consistent with unity of purpose and policy throughout all the state, into every city and town and village in it. For myself and facilities this university may do the same. I think it ought to do the same and a splendid beginning has already been made in the character of our extension work for which I am afraid the good people of my own city have very little knowledge. Now I am bound to say that I do not feel full confidence in the correctness of the view that, where you have a populous and important city, not the provincial capital, home of the university but a city which has great industrial and commercial resources centered in it, I do not feel full confidence in the view that such a city should have a university merely as any other 75,000 people scattered over some vasty wider area in the province should be treated. I incline personally to the view that the whole province is a general unity of scheme, of control, and of policy and I may as well add also to that that the provincial government some special arrangement might possibly be made by the people of the province to the provincial government, that the university may itself meet the special needs of such a centre. If you now add to that that as a citizen of Calgary seventeen years my heart does long to see the people of my own city enmeshed in the development of the province in the university which the people of the province have established. My appeal is from municipal patriotism to provincial patriotism. I am not a provincialist. I repeat that there is no hostility to this university in the city of Calgary. I must be remembered that there is an adage: "That he that is not with us is against us." There the university depends, as this university must depend, upon the loyal support and co-operation of all the people in the province. It is not a light thing—I say it is not a light or a negligible thing—to have the great and important province, and opinion, containing 75,000 people, and the great and important province, and we do not find it easy to see why there should be a second train in the province for unity of interest and co-operation of all the people in the province. Of course, the 425,000 are getting along all right, and with great interest in the great and important province, and opinion, containing 75,000 people, and the great and important province, and we do not find it easy to see why there should be a second train in the province for unity of interest and co-operation of all the people in the province.

Winnipeg, May 14.—On the wheat market trading in options was light and prices weaker. Openings were 1-8 to 3-4 lower on lower Liverpool cables, following which there was a slight recovery on short coverings. Later the market was dull and flat, closing at a loss for the day.

Liverpool's butter cables were 1-8 to 3-4 lower. Continental markets were irregular, Paris being 3-4 to 1c lower, Berlin 3-8 up, Budapest 3-8 up, and Antwerp 1-8 to 7-8 lower.

American markets opened weaker generally, advancing 1-2 to 5-8 on Chicago and 3-8 to 1-2 on Minneapolis over opening prices yesterday.

Chicago opened 1-4 to 3-8 lower, closing 3-8 to 3-4 lower.

There was an improved demand for cash wheat, and prices advanced 1-2 to 1-4. Receipts continued heavy, 525 cars being inspected Tuesday and in sight Wednesday were 553. The total has been cool in all districts of the prairie provinces.

Winnipeg Live Stock
Montreal, May 14.—There was no improvement in the cattle market at the seat and discount rates were a shade harder today.

There was only a small account open at the commencement of the settlement on the stock exchange which was arranged at prevailing prices. Consols hardened and Guatemalan bonds advanced two points, but speculative issues sagged later and closed weak on continental offerings.

Market securities opened steady, with prices from 1-4 to 3-4 above par. The market was quiet, with the exception of the list of securities in sympathy. Chesapeake and Ohio was a firm exception and advanced. The closing was easy.

Brazilian in Demand
Toronto, May 14.—A better demand for Brazilian was apparent today this morning, and the stock advanced nearly a point by noon. The close was at 94 3-8. Brokers said the buying was from London. Stocks were dull, and there was no definite trend in prices.

Canadian Pacific was a weak exception. There was no movement in the market on the other tariff-affected stocks.

FERNIE BOY OF 14 IS VICTIM OF SHOCKING ACCIDENT

Fernie, May 14.—A shocking tragedy occurred at Manatee some time between Saturday night and Sunday morning, the victim being little Clarence Sweet, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sweet, of that village. The boy was out late on Saturday night and when he returned he went into the lot of the stable to sleep, in order not to disturb the house. He had with him a single shot 22 calibre Winchester rifle, which he must have had by his side when he lay down to sleep. It is supposed that the rifle was cocked, and that in drawing the blanket around him the boy accidentally pulled the trigger.

His body was found on Sunday morning. Dr. Saunders made an examination and discovered the bullet in the boy's brain. Death must have been instantaneous.

Coroner Wilkes held an inquest on Tuesday and a jury returned a verdict of accidental death by the boy's own hand. The remains were interred at Elkton.

Mr. and Mrs. Sweet are very highly respected by those who know them and much sympathy is felt for the bereaved parents. A sister of the deceased boy was married in Fernie on Saturday.

STREET CAR MEN OF LETHBRIDGE ARE ORGANIZED

Are Affiliated With the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Employees of America; Two Preliminary Meetings Are Held
MAGNUS SINCLAIR IS UNION'S ORGANIZER
Statement Made That Wages Paid Are Lower Than in Other Western Cities, Which Is an Indication That Increase Will Be Asked for in Near Future

Lethbridge, May 14.—The street car employees of Lethbridge have decided to organize; in fact the temporary organization of the union has been effected. Magnus Sinclair, the official representative of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees of America, has been in the city for some time working to this end. Two meetings have been held during the past few days. According to Organizer Magnus Sinclair, the wages paid here are lower than those paid in any city in Canada, other conditions are not too bad and there is not much danger of a street railway strike occurring on the Lethbridge system.
No dissatisfaction whatever was expressed by the men, however, but they owed it as a duty to themselves to organize. The opportunity presented itself in order to participate in the death, disability or sickness benefits provided by the organization.
A temporary president and secretary were elected to sit until the charter and books of the organization are received when permanent officers will be elected.
Wages of the West
Organizer Sinclair was asked how local conditions compared with conditions in other cities in western Canada. The wages here range from 25 cents per hour to 32 cents according to the length of time the men remain in the city's employ. However, the wages paid Mr. Sinclair, the minimum is 28 cents per hour and the maximum is 37-1/2 cents. In Regina, however, the men are paid for 9-1/2 hours, which is equivalent to a maximum of 49 cents per hour. In Saskatoon the wages are approximately the same as in Regina. In Moose Jaw, the street railway and the wages range from 28 to 35 cents. Edmonton, however, the wages are paid practically as Regina and Saskatoon. The only system non-unionized in Saskatchewan is Calgary. The wages paid there, however, are also higher than in Lethbridge. The minimum is 30 cents and the maximum is 36 cents. In Calgary, however, any man who will permit himself to be sworn in as a special police constable receives two cents per hour more than the other men.
Speaking of the proposal of the local employees to organize, Mayor Hardie recently stated that he had no objection to the wages paid in Lethbridge to those paid elsewhere and did not care to express an opinion until he knew more about the matter.

WORSELEY WARNS CONDUCTORS OF IMPRISONMENT
Edmonton, Alta., May 14.—If there are any more occasions of this nature brought before me it will not be a suspended sentence.
This was the warning sounded to street car conductors by Magistrate Worseley in the city police court this morning, after he had allowed Conductor Archibald Graham to go on suspended sentence. The conductor was charged with stealing a five-cent piece, and in his written explanation to Superintendent Worseley, he said the money had been placed in the change box while he was in a hurry.
A few weeks ago two other conductors were brought into court on the same charge and were allowed to go. This morning the prosecution asked that the prisoner also be given liberty, but the magistrate seemed loath to grant it and after said he would do so in this case, but the next time it would be different.
Conductor Graham was in charge of one of the cars running between the north and south sides. A few days ago he was notified to drop a five-cent piece in his change box instead of dropping it in the usual place. This resulted in a summons being issued for him to appear in court this morning when the case was disposed of.

SAY KEIR HARDIE WOODS MRS. FLORA DRUMMOND
London, May 14.—The Daily Express says this morning: "An astonishing discovery was made by the police during their recent investigation of the suffragette activities.
In a search for documents in the office and domiciles of the militant suffragettes, there came into their hands a bundle of letters which proved not to be bomb plots but the outpourings of an overflowing heart. They were notes from a love sick inviolate member of parliament to a lady who for some time has taken a prominent part in the militant movement.
"Naturally the police will not divulge the contents of these precious letters, but it can be stated that they are of an entirely different character. There seems to be a little likelihood that the letters will ever reach the public, but the police have had at least an amusing experience."
The Daily Express does not mention the names of the parties to the correspondence, but it is reported in newspaper circles that the Socialist M.P. is Keir Hardie and the lady "General" Flora Drummond.
