CHILDHOOD SEEKS NEW PLAYGROUNDS ON TANK AND GUN

Ninety-Seven Thousand Youngsters Revel Amidst Grim Trophies of War at C. N. E., While Dr. Cody Plans Seriously Their Future.

Children's Day attendance... 97,000. The Prince of Wales will again be the dominating figure at the Exhibition today, when he will spend five or six hours on the grounds. He will be given a royal send-off, as he leaves his box in the grand stand about ten o'clock tonight and proceeds down the track on his way to the Exhibition station.

Following this the prince will confer decorations on over 200 overseas troops or their next of kin on a specially constructed platform within the paddock. Ranged on either side of the dais will be thousands of crippled soldiers and convalescents from local military hospitals, the men who are to receive the decorations and their kin. It is expected that the event will occupy about one and a half hours and immediately upon its conclusion his highness will proceed to the breeders' ring where a special parade of live stock has been arranged. This will include Ancon, the horse presented by His Majesty the King to Canada three years ago, and following the sire will be a large number of his progeny.

Private Dinner. His royal highness will have a private dinner with his party in the quarters arranged for him in the administration building, about 7:30 and at 8 o'clock will leave for the stand to witness the spectacle.

As his royal highness leaves the grand stand every night of the big Victory Year pageant will go to the front of the stage. Here they will mass, presenting a colorful rainbow of colors. Representatives of every allied nation in the brilliant uniforms of pre-war times will be assembled, while ranged on either side will be 300 musicians, and all will join in a tremendous ovation to the departing fleet.

Yesterday it was Children's Day and the youngsters enjoyed themselves to their hearts content. They kept the grounds lively all day, and the spectacle in the evening, when the grand stand was packed by old and young, they gave full expression to the exuberance of the spirit. They yelled and whistled in a way which made them heard far away, demonstrating staying powers which made many grown-ups envious.

EXHIBITION ALIVE WITH HAPPY TOTS. Was the dairy building steer and were the two sheep? Well, that is not? This was the burning question of the day to the teeming children who visited the packing house section of the building.

Sentimental Hat-bands. All manner of boys and girls trailed well known paths, bearing the token of their sentiments on their hat-bands. Sentimental to the last degree some of them were. One child of eleven bore the legend, "I am willing to be married." She had no appearance of being love-lorn, the of course, is sometimes difficult to tell facts from the surface. A kiddie of nine

CUT DOWN STAFFS OR ELSE GIVE WAY TO THOSE WHO CAN

Lloyd George Warns His Colleagues on Needs of Immediate Curtailment.

London, Aug. 26.—After his recent speech in the house of commons, in which he insisted upon economy, Premier Lloyd George wrote to his ministerial colleagues, calling attention to the huge national expenditure, and impressing upon them the need of immediately curtailing. The letter, as quoted by The Daily Mail, says, among other things: "The time has come when each minister ought to make clear to those under his control that if they cannot reduce expenditure they must make room for somebody who can. That is the public temper, and it is right."

Ottawa, Aug. 26.—With the announcement today of the date for the nomination of candidates for the federal constituencies, the former to be held on Oct. 20 and the latter on Oct. 27, in all cases, it became evident about the first week in October. That is the hope at present expressed in government circles.

HELP WOUNDED TODAY

Unless citizens help, 300 soldiers at Daviville Hospital, who have received invitations from those in authority to attend the exhibition today, will not be able to go because of lack of transportation. Several troop trains are expected to reach Halifax recently, and also a train load of dependents is coming in. Accordingly, organizations will be unable to render the usual aid at Daviville Hospital. The citizens of Toronto are appealed to give a half-day to those boys who otherwise will miss having what will probably be the time of their lives.

BY-ELECTION DELAY CRITICIZED BY KING

Ottawa, Aug. 26.—"The delay in issuing the by-election writs is inexcusable and can only be explained by the government's complete indifference to the right of the people to control parliament." The foregoing statement was made by Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, leader of the Liberal party, regarding the by-elections today.

Washington, Aug. 26.—Railway shopmen through the United States will begin voting immediately on whether they will accept the wage proposals made yesterday by President Wilson and Director-General Hines or go out on strike to enforce their demands for a general advance in pay. On three out of four ballots the shopmen have decided to accede to President Wilson's decision that there shall be no general wage advance until the government shows what can be done to control the rising cost of living.

IGNORANT OF FATE OF SUBMARINE BREMEN

London, Aug. 26.—There is no truth in the report that the crew of the German commercial submarine Bremen was captured during the war and returned recently to Germany, according to official information given to the correspondent today. H.R.H. Prince of Wales, Now L.L.D., Toronto, Gladdens Hearts of Patients in Hospitals by Many a Kindly Word and Friendly Smile.

The magnetic personality of Prince Edward of Wales is drawing him more friends in Toronto every time he appears in public. Although yesterday was devoted mainly to visiting the hospitals of the city and to the receiving of a degree at the University and naturally was not of the spectacular nature that featured Monday's program, large crowds were found in the streets and at every point of vantage waiting to witness the royal prince who has won his spurs of popularity solely off his own bat.

Despite the hard day's work on Monday and the fact that the prince was dancing at Government House until midnight he was up and about early yesterday morning and was unobtrusively the freshest man of the whole Government House party, and went for a walk in the grounds before breakfast. Leaving Government House and driving via Roxborough drive and Schofield avenue, the prince and his party arrived punctually at ten o'clock at the St. Andrew's military hospital where he was greeted by Major-General Pothinghham, director of medical services, from Ottawa; Col. Forde, A.D.M.S., military district No. 2; Col. Aitchison; Col. Hardy, O.C. hospital.

On the lawn of the hospital two large marquees had been erected for the accommodation of wounded officers and nurses. The prince passed down the double line of beds and shook hands and talked to each of four patients who had come to the spot occupied by Captain D. S. Bankier, 1st Batt., Canadian machine gun corps, he halted for the captain was up and dressed and standing in attention. The prince pressed him to tell how he came by his very severe injuries. The gallant captain had been awarded the military cross, and it fell to the prince's "happy duty and pleasure," as he expressed it, to pin the cross on the captain's tunic. During the ceremony there could not have been a nurse in the hospital who did not take a "snap" of the scene—it was a veritable parade of cameras.

After receiving the nursing sisters and expressing his appreciation of the work being performed at the hospital to Matron Gamble, the prince signed the visitors' book, writing the name, "Edward P.," and then drove off to inspect the Rosedale huts. He was cheered by a long line of blue-coated patients who cheered loudly. He walked down the line and chatted with a man here and there. In the huts themselves he talked words of good cheer and sympathy. On leaving another long line of nurses and patients cheered the prince until he regained his car and sped away to the Orthopedic Hospital on Charles street where the entire strength of the hospital was assembled on the lawn.

The prince inspected the whole line and chatted especially long with the double amputation cases, which seemed greatly to interest him. He made special enquiries of Lieut. Waggoner who wears the M.C., D.C.M., M.M., and has a 1914-15 star, as to how he won so many decorations. The prince has given many surprises during his visit to Toronto, but he was given one himself at Christie Street. Pte. D. A. Thompson, a bed patient, asked him to accept a beaded watch fob with the Prince of Wales' feathers embroidered in crystals on a steel background. The prince gladly accepted the gift, saying to Thompson, "I am glad to accept it as a memento of my visit to Toronto."

There were so many patients and nurses anxious to shake hands with the prince that in sheer self-defence he was bound to make a special selection of patients. He said in his charming way: "I should like to say that I am sorry"

The Exhibition is now on. It's the big event in Toronto's year. There's another equally important item in it, the fall catalogue, and that is Dineen's "fur opening." This year the fall opening at the big fur store will be greater than ever, because of some exceptionally fine purchases of native and foreign pelts, made some months ago. These are now made into stylish coats in Hudson seal, seal coney, Persian lamb and muskrat. Some are handsomely trimmed with beaver, Alaska sable, Australian opossum and lynx. Neckpieces and cuffs in all the fashionable furs now on 2nd floor of their large establishment, cor. Temperance and Yonge sts.

While in the store make use of the Information Bureau, Main Floor, Centre.

Proportional Representation.

In its series of bulletins on effective voting the bureau of municipal research has issued one on the Hare system of proportional representation by the transferable vote. We are glad to see so excellent a summary of the system available in such convenient form, and from the demand for such information should think it would have a large circulation.

The principle is not difficult to understand, and just as soon as the public does understand what proportional representation means it will insist on having it. We are inclined to think that many people are skeptical of what is asserted to be possible under proportional representation, having been disappointed by the promises of politicians so often. Such people should consider that the machine politicians, the professional organizers, all the brood of manipulators and "heelers" are opposed to proportional representation, which is recommended and endorsed by the leaders and big men, the real statesmen of all parties.

The advantages of the system are that it makes every vote count, and thus gives every voter a direct interest in the result. It brings out a better class of candidates, the parties being compelled to put up their best men in order to attract the general and independent vote, which at present does not come out, having no effect, but which under P. R. has a determining influence. It gives a proportional representation to minorities, according to their strength, without weakening the strength of the real majority.

The bureau bulletin remarks that "if a considerable proportion of the electorate comes to feel that they have no voice in the government the distance is short to that dangerous state of mind which regards political processes as futile and hopeless." The bulletin proposes that legislation be obtained for applying the system in the municipal elections of Toronto. Under the system the mayor would be elected as at present, but with a transferable vote, so that in the event of the leading candidate not receiving a clear majority over all the votes of the lowest candidates, he is, in turn, distributed according to their second choice till one man has a clear majority.

A similar course is pursued with groups of candidates. It is one great advantage of the system that no candidate can in any way injure another candidate's real chances. This enables several good men to run without risk of injuring their friends. It is quite possible under the group system with the alternate vote for all to be elected. This is why all the parties are compelled to put up their best men. A superior group of one party would quite possibly beat an inferior group of another party on account of the support given to the good men by independent voters and the transferable vote of those in a hopeless minority who vote for the best men as their second choice.

There is no difficulty in voting, the voter simply numbering the various candidates in the order of his choice, 1, 2, 3, 4, etc. The counting is done as at present by experts.

The Telegram, The Globe and "O Canada."

The Telegram has been calling The Globe a knave because it reprints despatches a month old, and calls them cables from London. The Globe explains that it is not a knave, but only a fool, because it accepted the despatches in good faith from The Public Ledger, which The Globe says disseminates such ancient material.

The Telegram goes after The Globe last night again for finding fault with an exhibition audience that "did not rise to its feet when the hand played 'O Canada.'" Here The Telegram does The Globe an injustice, because it was only the small part of the audience which did not rise that The Globe found fault with. The vast majority rose as they do everywhere.

The Telegram goes on to speak of "O Canada" as "the Quebec dirge." When the Prince of Wales had opened the exhibition on Monday the Grenadiers' Band played "O Canada," and all who were seated near the stand rose to their feet, while the Prince stood at the salute. And how the band played it! One wonders if The Telegram ever heard "O Canada" played, or if it is like Dean Stanley who only knew two tunes, one which was the "Old Hundred" and the other which wasn't. People who know and are entitled to judge, declare "O Canada" to be the finest national anthem ever written, and it is well to remember that it was written by one of the same race that wrote the "Marseillaise." No doubt, The Telegram finds the great national anthem of France exceedingly doubtful and despicable also. It is one of

POLITICAL NOTES

Monday, Oct. 27, promises to be a spectacular day in Dominion politics. No less than eight, and possibly ten, by-elections for the Dominion House will be held on that date. Some of these by-elections are long overdue, and the slowness of the Union government in bringing them on has been ascribed in some quarters to a disinclination on their part to face the electorate.

There are at present eight vacant seats in the house of commons. At the last general election the Unionists carried six of these, viz.: Carleton, N.B.; Stormont-Glenagerry, Kingston, North Ontario, Assiniboia and Victoria, B.C. The remaining two, viz., Quebec, East and Mainland, P.E.I., were carried by the Liberals.

It is intimated by an Ottawa correspondent that two more vacancies may be created in order to provide seats for Sir Henry Drayton and Hon. Mackenzie King. In the case of Mr. King it is quite possible that a vacancy may be created in Malsonneuve, as Hon. Rodolph Lemieux was returned at the general election for both Malsonneuve and Gaspé. By electing to sit for Gaspé a vacancy would be created in the electoral district of Malsonneuve, and the government would no doubt facilitate the holding of an election.

In the case of Sir Henry Drayton it is common talk about town that a vacancy will be created in North Toronto by the retirement of Sir George Foster. This riding at the general election gave a Unionist majority of some eighteen thousand. It by no means follows, however, that Sir Henry will have a walkover, because there is some talk of a straight Conservative running against him. A prominent old-line Conservative M.P. said today that the Conservative party would hold a convention in North Toronto and Sir Henry might be nominated as the Conservative candidate. But he would be opposed by the Conservatives if he attempted to run as a Unionist.

This brings up an interesting question, which is likely to arise in a good many districts. The new Unionist party has never perfected any organization, and in many places the executive is simply the executive of the Liberal-Conservative party. The convention, if one is called, will be a Conservative convention, and the nominee may be authorized to give a general support to the Union government, but he will be expected to affiliate himself with the Unionist party.

The line is likely to be more strictly drawn because we hear from Winnipeg that Hon. Robert Rogers and his friends have organized a national committee to more or less manage the affairs and speak for the old-time Liberal-Conservative party. This committee, we are told on authority of Colonel John A. Currie, M.P., will soon call together a national convention. These Conservatives, as we understand it, are banding together not to destroy the Union government, but to protest against the Union government forming a new party. They will insist upon the identity of the Conservative party being preserved, and they have a chance to show their strength at some of the coming by-elections.

A new factor in the field is the rapid rise of the Farmers' party, which bids fair to capture three of the six seats carried by the government at the general election. The United Farmers of Ontario have candidates named in Glenagary and North Ontario, and neither the government party nor the Liberal party shows any keen desire to go up against them. The farmers carried North Ontario at the recent provincial by-election and they have developed great strength in Glenagary. The farmers will also have a candidate in Assiniboia and the probabilities all favor his election.

The Liberals will probably hold Quebec, East and Prince, P.E.I., and the government will probably re-elect Dr. S. F. Tolmie, the newly-appointed minister of agriculture, in Victoria, B.C. The vacancy in Carleton, N.B., was caused by the resignation of Hon. Frank Carter, who was elected as a Unionist in 1917. It will be fair fighting ground for a by-election, but the government candidate is likely to run in that district as a straight Conservative and not as a Unionist.

The net result of the by-elections will probably be a loss of prestige for the government without any corresponding gain in prestige for the Liberals. That is, the government will lose some seats, but they will probably be carried by the Farmers' party.

Before these federal by-elections are held, however, we will have a vote referendum and perhaps a provincial election in Ontario. The result of that election cannot be without its influence in the federal field, indeed the defeat of the Liberal government or its return to a greatly reduced majority would throw the Conservatives all over the country which might force an immediate reorganization and the passing of the Union government.

The Union government, however, has one trump card. Although it is not regarded as juvenile, the present parliament was only one year old last March, starting on the fortieth day after the return of the writs. It will not be five years old until the spring of 1923. It would therefore be quite possible for the government with its huge majority to carry on until after the next decennial census and the next parliamentary redistribution, instead of having an election in 1922, which would off that disagreeable ordeal until 1923. You may say that a majority of its supporters in the house will not be returned at the next election, but that is the very best reason for their postponing the elections as long as possible.

So a great many movements of pitch and moment in the country are not re-

STORMONT LIBERALS DEFER NOMINATION

Pledge Confidence in Mackenzie King and Leave Candidature Matter Over.

Special to The Toronto World.
 Cornwall, Ont., Aug. 26.—The Liberals of the federal riding of Glenagary-Stormont, met at Alexandria this afternoon but did not nominate a candidate, for which purpose the convention had been called. There was a large attendance of delegates from all parts of the constituency. Jos. E. Chevrier of Cornwall, president of the association, occupied the chair and at once announced that the meeting was open to receive nominations for the forthcoming by-election.

D. A. McKinnon of Maxville, and P. E. Campbell of Cornwall then presented the following motion: "That this meeting endorse the nomination for the electoral district of Glenagary-Stormont to the Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King for the coming by-election."

Before the motion was put to the meeting, C. H. Cline of Cornwall, secretary of the association, read a letter from Hon. Mr. King similar to the letter read by P. E. Campbell at the farmers' convention at Alexandria last week.

W. E. McKillop of Maxville and Victor Berg of Moose Creek moved the following resolution as an amendment to the first motion: "That in view of the letter of Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King just read no action be taken today, but the matter of the nomination of a candidate be left for further consideration and we declare our confidence in the leadership of the Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King and pledge ourselves to assist him to carry out the platform as laid down at the Ottawa convention of the Liberals of the Dominion of Canada, held at Ottawa on Aug. 5, 1918 and 7 inst."

The amendment was carried and the meeting adjourned to a date at the call of the president.

Single Court.
 Re E. F. Y. Campbell v. The J. A. Worrell, K.C., for Royal Trust Company, moved for direction. W. D. Gregory, for E. F. Y. Campbell, and R. L. Deprieux, for trustees. Judgment: Under the trust instrument of judgment, 1916, Mrs. Campbell, then Miss Macpherson, conveyed to the Royal Trust Company certain property to receive the income for her. At the end of twenty years she had the right to demand one-half the capital and the balance in the hands of the trustee to be subject to her will, or the operation of the law as to the intestate succession. It is now asked by Mrs. Campbell that the trustee hand her the whole property. It is admitted that she may have half, but it is urged that as to the rest she has only a life estate and a power of appointment exercisable by will only, and so is not entitled. No one has any claim to the property save Mrs. Campbell and those who may claim thru her, either under her appointment or as her representatives, and so she may demand it. The order will declare that it is a true duty of the trustee to hand over the estate.

MODEST DANCES TO BE THE RULE FROM NOW ON

New York, Aug. 26.—Modesty and respectability will prevail in dancing from now on, according to the official forecast at the second annual convention of the American National Association of Masters of Dancing held here today. Three hundred members from all parts of Canada and the United States attended, and Fenton Bott, president of the association, voiced these predictions.

"The old waltz is coming back—is already back," he said, "and there will be no new dances—only a few modifications. For instance, ladies who have been pushed backward over the ballroom floor too much, will go forward on a 50-50 basis with the men."

Britain Retains Restrictions Regarding Foreign Passports

Washington, Aug. 26.—Great Britain of the great European nations, has declined, for the present at least, to remove restrictions on the admission of persons under foreign passports imposed during the war for the purpose of excluding political agitators. The police had not decided on what charge to prefer against the pair.

MANY TO TALK ON PEACE TREATY

Ratification by French House is Not Expected Before September Sixth.

Paris, Aug. 26.—The result of the first day's debate on the ratification of the peace treaty by the French chamber of deputies caused optimistic forecasts of prompt ratification to vanish.

Only three speakers of thirty-one scheduled to address the chamber were heard, Deputies Chappedelaine, Robert and Fournier, each of whom spoke for more than an hour. If the present speed continues, the treaty will not be ratified before Sept. 6, and perhaps later, as other orators are likely to be inscribed on the list as the discussion progresses.

The government seemed anxious to hurry the proceedings. Interpellations on Hun affairs and the high cost of living were postponed at the request of Foreign Minister Pichon and Minister of Provisions Noulens until the treaty has been ratified. Premier Clemenceau and all the ministers remained on the bench through the session.

Basle, Aug. 26.—Rumanian military authorities have discovered in the archives of the Hungarian foreign ministry a telegram from Otto Bauer, former Austrian state secretary, entrusted with the management of the vice bureau of foreign affairs, to Bela Kun, former head of the Hungarian Communist government, asking him to destroy all documents relative to the delivery of arms by Austria to Hungary, according to a Budapest despatch received here.

The yacht is 84 feet at the water line and has accommodations for twenty people. The sale has been postponed until next Thursday.

A Century of Temperance Progress is at Stake

THIS advertisement is addressed particularly to friends of organized temperance throughout the Province of Ontario. They have rallied to win many a victory before. They must rally in full strength for the Victory of Victoria now, to make The Ontario Temperance Act permanent law.

ONCE, in Ontario, whiskey could be bought at 50 cents a gallon by anybody. Liquor-selling taverns outnumbered the schools. Distilleries outnumbered the grist mills. Within the memory of living citizens of this Province, drunkenness was a feature of well-nigh every fair, and of every election day. Fighting and rioting were common holiday amusements in many an Ontario town and village, in the "good old days."

Shall Ontario go Back? One day in 1827, just 92 years ago, three brave men in the town of Brockville met together and formed the first pledge-signing temperance society in Ontario. "Milk sops" people called them. But they had courage, they had convictions and their ideal of Temperance has triumphed.

Shall We Give Up? On April 27, 1916, the Legislature of Ontario enacted a law prohibiting sale and distribution of alcoholic beverages within the Province. Almost a century of struggle lies between those dates—1827 and 1916—a century of slow, painful progress and steady toilsome climb, fighting, fighting every inch of the way. We have fought the good fight and we have won. Ontario is dry.

Shall We Surrender Now? The Ontario Temperance Act was passed as a war-time measure. The Great War brought home the truth about liquor to our Legislators and our people. Now that the war is over the facts are still the facts. After a century of struggle, and a victorious armistice, Ontario should not relax her vigilance until the terms of the Ontario Temperance Act are written into a Victorious Treaty of Permanent Temperance Peace!

The Ontario Temperance Act is the best piece of Temperance Legislation that has ever become law in this Province. Its repeal is unthinkable!

"NO!"—FOUR TIMES—"NO!"

ANY one of the proposed amendments that will face you on the ballot paper would spoil the Ontario Temperance Act. It would be a slip down hill after an upward climb of a hundred years. Those who love this Province of Ontario and have put heart and soul into its social progress and achievement will make no mistake. Mark your ballot X, four times in the column headed "No," and herein fail not, or, in so far as temperance goes, your ballot is spoiled.

NEW TRACK RECORD IN FAIR TROTTING

Nannie Extellion Lowers the Mark by Three-Quarters of a Second.

The third and final day of the harness racing program, the revived attraction that featured the early dates of the C.N.E., this year maintained the standard that has characterized the sport from the hour that Starter J. J. Burns assembled the entrants for the opening event until the time was hung up for the concluding heat. It has been a persistent remark all thru the proceedings that the race meet was the most successful venture of its nature in the history of the Queen City, once the harness horse centre of the entire Dominion, and it may be said that the individual who falls to express his gratitude toward the officials of the great fair for their generosity and the encouragement afforded the breeders, is entirely devoid of appreciative sentiment.

With the smallest fields of the entire meet, and but two events on the program predicted a tame program for yesterday afternoon, but the uncertainty of horse racing was exemplified in a slightly different manner when the day's racing provided two features of the first, the burial of a track record when Nannie Extellion glided past the stand in 2:14 in the initial heat of the 2:12 trot, thus supplanting the previous high water mark of 2:15, made by Fritz Bingen in the old-fashioned steeplechase some years ago. Secondly, the closest finish of the meeting occurred yesterday in the second heat of the two-for-all Handicap, two-year-olds, six furlongs, when it required fully fifteen minutes' consultation on the part of the judges in order to determine the winner. Some were positive that Mussel Schell arrived first, while others were equally sure that the little two-minute pacer won, and as the majority were of this opinion the heat was awarded to Frank Bogash Jr.

Following his custom of previous days, Starter Burns had the 2:12 trotters on deck sharp at 2 p.m., and scoring the added entry, Letanna S., on the pole, she reached the son of Binsara, once capable of administering defeat to any of his field, was bringing up the rear. Nannie broke at the turn and Money took command, reaching the end until near the end when the willful finisher, Letanna S., rushed in to lead closely followed by Nannie Extellion. The latter, however, was placed last for interference with Ingara on the first turn, caught up by the time she reached the flag, and as Mr. Maybee, driver of the mare, acknowledged the foul in a true sportsman-like manner, Ingara was placed third and allowed to start in the final heat. The final heat was a repetition of the second, Nannie breaking early in the mile when Money again led, but this time until two lengths from the wire when she was nipped and beaten half a length by Letanna S.

While the free-for-all did not produce the speed thrill that had been anticipated ever since the announcement of the entry, this lacking feature was amply made up by the contention of the field, a feature totally unexpected as the spectators had all conceded Frank Bogash, Jr. the race, before the first heat.

Scoring Camella on the pole the word was given on an even break with the mare retaining her position onto the back stretch where she was caught by Bogash, Jr. who with the party wall-bumper, who was allowed to loaf to the half in 1:07 1/2. No great effort was exerted until the final drive when Camella entered the stretch flanked on Frank Mussel Schell responded to a rousing drive from Muller and broke the place. The last half was done in 1:06 1/2. Camella's time was 1:06 1/2 for the second heat and the word was given with the fast one slightly in the rear. This, however, did not mean his chances as he was flanked on Camella at the half with Mussel Schell in the pocket in the creditable time of 1:08 1/2. On the back stretch Bogash paced around the mare and entered the stretch in the lead, lapped by Camella and Hal S. Jr., and then commenced what our thoroughbred contemporary Mr. Deane has expressed "The belated rush of Mussel Schell referred to above in the closest finish of the meet, and as a consequence the decision it might be timely to add that those standing on the ground near the Judge's stand all saw Bogash Jr. but admittedly it was one of the tightest finishes ever seen.

Camella had to be withdrawn after this heat because of a rather severe attack of the thump, which was extremely regrettable as the mare was putting up a stubborn contest. Starter Burns once again displayed his perfect control over his fields when he got the bear-earths on the first score for the final heat. Hal S. Jr. on the pole led past the stand and the first half in 1:06 1/2, every part of the winner's race made a wide break that lost him every opportunity of heading the fleet little world's champion racing gelding.

The summary: The 2:12 trot, purse $500; Letanna S., b.h., by Unko (Roche) 2 1/2; Nannie Extellion, b.m., by Extellion (Maybee) 1 1/4; Money, b.m., by Mognanza (Lock) 3 2/2; Ingara, b.s., by Binsara (McCarthy) 4 3/4; Free-for-all pace, purse $200; Frank Bogash, Jr., b.s., by Frank Bogash (Wade) 1 1/2; Mussel Schell, s.g., by (Muller) 2 2/2; Hal S. Jr., b.h., by Hal S. (McDowell) 4 3/4; (Marshall) 3 3/4; Time 2:14 1/2, 2:15 1/2; four horses that started in this last event, it was undoubtedly the fastest field of pacers that ever took the word on a Canadian half-mile track.

COX LOOKING BACK OVER HIS SHOULDER

Behind Mignolia in Each Heat in Feature Race at Readville.

Boston, Aug. 26.—The Readville purse for 216 class trotters, the feature event of the opening day of the Grand Circuit meeting at the Readville track, was easily won by Mignolia, marking his eighth successive victory this year. At the end of each heat Cox was looking back at the sportsman in the arena, for a price of $150,000 for the Fair Play colt, but Samuel D. Riddle has refused to part with his great racer at any price, and Man of War will carry his colors in future stakes.

Ennislaire Farms' Remarkable Wins at Cobourg Horse Show

The Cobourg horse show was revived last week in all its glory. Perhaps the chief interest centered in the hunter and jumping classes, as the popularity of this type of horse is rapidly growing.

For some years the Ennislaire Farms of Oakville have been convinced of the superiority of the Canadian-bred horse for these purposes and have done much to re-establish their breeding in Halton county, which was at one time the greatest horse-producing county in Ontario, by placing fifteen of their thoroughbred mares with responsible farmers in Tharalgar township. These mares, as well as a number of half-breeds and three-quarter-breeds, have been mated with their progeny is fast coming to marketable age. Meantime, by judicious selection and careful and masterly training Mr. Hugh S. Wilson, the farms' manager, has gathered together a string of horses which for uniformity of type, conformation and substance are unique, and for their jumping ability are almost supernatural.

Their success at Cobourg last week has amply proven the Ennislaire theory, as in classes for hunters and jumpers, shown under varying and at times very trying conditions, owing to the excessive rain, they won 75 per cent. of all ribbons offered. In the open jumping competition they won all four ribbons with clean performances; in the ordinary five-foot class they won first, second and fourth; in the Allen Cup competition over six-foot and rail fences of five feet, they again were placed first, second, third and fourth in the class for pairs jumping abreast, while in the Corinthian class for amateurs they again won all ribbons. Their manners and ability were further demonstrated when in a class of ten riders by ladies they carried off first and second.

Another feature match on the grand stand, court resulted in the defeat of S. Howard Voshell of Brooklyn by Conrad R. Doyle of Washington by scores of 4-6, 6-2, 6-2, 6-7, 6-4. Champions of former years, including Maurice E. McLoughlin, J. J. Lindley, Murray, William M. Johnston, R. Norris, Williams II, and the two Japanese entrants, Ichiji Kumasao and S. Kashio, all advanced without meeting unusual opposition.

Two of the Australian stars, Patterson and Lyckett, whose names were drawn in the second sixteen, were to oppose each other tomorrow, but Lyckett announced that he would default instead of trying to eliminate his countryman.

COX LOOKING BACK OVER HIS SHOULDER

Behind Mignolia in Each Heat in Feature Race at Readville.

Boston, Aug. 26.—The Readville purse for 216 class trotters, the feature event of the opening day of the Grand Circuit meeting at the Readville track, was easily won by Mignolia, marking his eighth successive victory this year. At the end of each heat Cox was looking back at the sportsman in the arena, for a price of $150,000 for the Fair Play colt, but Samuel D. Riddle has refused to part with his great racer at any price, and Man of War will carry his colors in future stakes.

J. K. L. Ross has shipped twelve of his racers to Belmont Park for the meeting which begins there next Monday, keeping only those that are engaged in stake races here.

AUSIES OUTCLASS AMERICAN EXPERTS

Patterson, Brookes, Lyckett and Thomas Win in the Singles.

Forest Hill, N.Y., Aug. 23.—With one upset and several hard fought sensational matches the initial round of the thirty-eighth annual singles and turf tennis championships of the United States opened on the courts of the West-side Club here this afternoon. Great interest centered in the work of the visiting Australian players, and the experts from down-under justified the report which preceded them from England.

Gerald L. Patterson defeated Fred B. Alexander of New York, who ranked third among the national tennis stars of 1918, by scores of 4-6, 6-2, 6-1, 6-2, 6-2. The veteran Norman E. Brookes, holder of the present Davis Cup championship, won in straight sets from Walter Pate of New York, 6-0, 6-3, 6-1; Randolph Lyckett disposed of Harold Goddard, Los Angeles, 3-6, 6-3, 4-6, 6-0, while R. V. Thomas disposed of W. J. Compton of Cedarhurst, 6-0, 6-1, 6-1.

Alexander was the only opponent against the Antipodeans of today, who was able to give the invaders from Australia a real battle. He swept into rain, they won 75 per cent. of all ribbons offered. In the open jumping competition they won all four ribbons with clean performances; in the ordinary five-foot class they won first, second and fourth; in the Allen Cup competition over six-foot and rail fences of five feet, they again were placed first, second, third and fourth in the class for pairs jumping abreast, while in the Corinthian class for amateurs they again won all ribbons. Their manners and ability were further demonstrated when in a class of ten riders by ladies they carried off first and second.

Another feature match on the grand stand, court resulted in the defeat of S. Howard Voshell of Brooklyn by Conrad R. Doyle of Washington by scores of 4-6, 6-2, 6-2, 6-7, 6-4. Champions of former years, including Maurice E. McLoughlin, J. J. Lindley, Murray, William M. Johnston, R. Norris, Williams II, and the two Japanese entrants, Ichiji Kumasao and S. Kashio, all advanced without meeting unusual opposition.

Two of the Australian stars, Patterson and Lyckett, whose names were drawn in the second sixteen, were to oppose each other tomorrow, but Lyckett announced that he would default instead of trying to eliminate his countryman.

Ennislaire Farms' Remarkable Wins at Cobourg Horse Show

The Cobourg horse show was revived last week in all its glory. Perhaps the chief interest centered in the hunter and jumping classes, as the popularity of this type of horse is rapidly growing.

For some years the Ennislaire Farms of Oakville have been convinced of the superiority of the Canadian-bred horse for these purposes and have done much to re-establish their breeding in Halton county, which was at one time the greatest horse-producing county in Ontario, by placing fifteen of their thoroughbred mares with responsible farmers in Tharalgar township. These mares, as well as a number of half-breeds and three-quarter-breeds, have been mated with their progeny is fast coming to marketable age. Meantime, by judicious selection and careful and masterly training Mr. Hugh S. Wilson, the farms' manager, has gathered together a string of horses which for uniformity of type, conformation and substance are unique, and for their jumping ability are almost supernatural.

Their success at Cobourg last week has amply proven the Ennislaire theory, as in classes for hunters and jumpers, shown under varying and at times very trying conditions, owing to the excessive rain, they won 75 per cent. of all ribbons offered. DOLLAR AN HOUR FOR WINNIPEG BRICKLAYERS

Winnipeg, Aug. 26.—A strike of bricklayers and masons, which had threatened to again paralyze the building trades, has been averted by the acceptance by the men of an agreement at a meeting held last night, which gives $1 an hour, an increase of 20c over the former rate. The agreement provides for the payment of 95c an hour for all work done since the strike ended up until the new schedule goes into operation on next week.

Calgary, Aug. 26.—Hon. Arthur Meighen, minister of the interior, told a delegation of former postal workers who were strikers yesterday, that he would bring before the Dominion cabinet their request for reinstatement.

CAT SHOW OPENS AT EXHIBITION

Proud Pussies of All Nations Compete for Red Ribbons.

The Cat Show, which opened at the Exhibition yesterday, is considered by the committee in charge to be the "best yet." The entries, 175 in number, include fine specimens of black and red Persians, brown tabbies and long-haired white Persians. Short-haired classes, too, are well to the fore.

Among the groups that attracted attention was No. 128, a family of four prettily-marked grey kittens. No. 128 was an unusually light grey that appealed because of the rarity of shading. The Maltese was well represented in a group of three kittens with thick soft coats that made a pretty picture as they lay in their bed each bedecked with a cardinal neck-ribbon. Their numbers were 43, 351 and 44. Perhaps the favorite with the public was No. 2, a splendid white Persian with a magnificent coat of long thick hair and the possessor of blue eyes. "It is the most beautiful cat I've ever seen," said an admiring spectator who seemed to be an expert in matters feline.

Judging was done in the afternoon. The work being in the hands of Miss Lola Besse of Chicago, who came to Toronto for the purpose, and who was giving her task most conscientious attention. The judging will not be completed until today. The principal exhibitors are: Mrs. C. C. Dempsey, Chicago, who has black Persians; Dr. Grave Elmendorf, Buffalo, red Persians; Miss Kroeh, Orange, N. J., whites; Mrs. J. R. Reynolds, brown tabbies.

IDA AT THE "EX."

BY IDA L. WEBSTER.

"Kids' Day" at the fair, and what a day it was. Everyone of them was there, and so large was the mob that one could not help thinking that some of them must have been there double. Exhibits which were giving away cards, or tin plates, or in fact any sort of a souvenir were in great demand, and if the guy or the queen, as the case may have been, stopped before every one who had gathered was served, he or she came in for a great and eloquent tongue lashing. Indeed, so well do some of the youths of our city talk that it is ridiculous to wonder who will take care of the doings of the city council when the present outfit is ruled off for age.

One venturesome youth strolled into that perfectly "lovely" building, which has a sign Press on the outside. Now, the fact that he got in there was against law, because who is hard-hearted enough to want the right of entrance to glimpse of the horrors of life? However, the dear child was quickly hustled to the fresh air and it is to be hoped that the lesson he saw will do him good, and teach him to keep away from newspaper office as he would from the plague. The hard boiled who were in the building at the time seemed oblivious of the entrance of "Boyhood" and continued to steep themselves in soft drinks and pipes.

On the famous Midway one mother was heard to say: "Lor' love me, Albert, when I get you 'ome, I'll more than go for you. Do you think your father's made of money, that you want to go into every Tom Fool tent on the blessed place?"

In the police station one little yellow between sobs, because he had lost his mother, and the tears could not be held back, said to us: "Oh, I want my mother. Mamma, mamma." Then, with a howl like a machine gun, he started to cry in right good earnest, showing us that his former sobbing had been merely nothing to what he was capable of.

However, after trying several ways to get him to "let up" and take the air, we hit upon the Prince of Wales. The moment that some sank into his rump, he stopped the racket and prepared to deliver himself of much speech, the gist of which was: "I don't care, I shook hands with him, and he smiled at me, too. I liked his boots best, and when I get to be like him I am going to have my spurs all shiny, too, only I'm going to have gold ones." Then, "does the king wear gold ones?"

Our efforts at explaining must have been punk, because the kid handed us one of Edward Robins' stage looks, and said: "Well, I don't care, in my book it says the king does have gold ones, and I don't care, my auntie read it to me, and my auntie's a nice lady, and she wouldn't tell lies and get engaged to hell's fire."

Truly out of the mouths of babes and sucklings, there come many true things.

Later in the day we saw our little friend trotting along beside his mother, and his auntie, who wouldn't get engaged to hell's fire, clasping tightly a picture postcard of the prince.

send rain. Yet what a wonderful day in the history of Toronto is "Kids' Day" at the Exhibition! Yesterday's turnout was the duplicate in larger numbers of the same day 25 years ago. The difference being that yesterday there were more things to see and hot dogs for sale. On the previous date those delicacies were not in season, and the sights were not so pretentious. Yet the spirit was the same. Little storms, but mostly sunshine.

BLUEJACKETS GIVEN FREEDOM OF EX.

Arrangements were completed yesterday for the reception at the Exhibition grounds to the 40 officers and 548 members of the crew of the battleship Renown, which brought H.R.H. the Prince of Wales to Canada. The men are coming in two special trains and will reach the Exhibition station at 6.45 and 7.15 Thursday morning. The men will be given freedom of the grounds during the morning and will have lunch there, leaving at 1.30 for the island, where they will see the ball game, returning about 6.30 for supper and a visit to the grand stand, where they will remain for the Victory Year spectacle. They will leave about 11 p.m. from Exhibition station. The officers will be the guests of the directors at the noon luncheon and will go to the R.C.Y.C. for dinner.

COTTAGE OF GLASS DELIGHTS CHILDREN

Even at the National Exhibition, where thousands of articles of interest and originality are found, it is difficult to come across anything that may not be duplicated. There is, however, always the exception that proves the rule and this is found in the exceptionally ingenious product from the hands of John Hale, Dr. which yesterday drew continuous crowds, where it rested in one of the cases of the annex to the women's building.

The exhibit consisted of two models, one of a cottage and garden and the other a miniature leeward temple. One of the curious features of the work is that it is made entirely of glass, broken glass, beads and glass ornaments being taken into the composition. The cottage is laid out on strictly architectural lines. It is about five feet in length and has chimneys, windows above and below, and a verandah supported on columns. The windows are lighted and have the effect of stained glass. A fence surrounds the house and grounds, which are laid out with pretty beds of flowers, the paths being made of brown glass and the grass of green, many colors entering into the flower scheme. The temple is in Oriental style with blue stars on its roof. A few of the shades that enter into the composition are green, amber, white, pink, mauve, red and blue. Many comments on the patience exercised by the maker were passed by the visitors, the children being simply fascinated by the wonderful glass house of fairy book lore.

MOTOR BOAT RACES.

At 5 o'clock today, opposite the sea wall, over the Exhibition course, the first race of the big motor boat regatta will take place. The program starts with the displacement class for the Canadian National Exhibition championship cup, and will be five times around the course. A five-

A Woman's Way

Heard in the Den of a Toronto Home

There had been silence for some moments. The longstanding friendship of the two men banished formalities.

The home of the host, Robert Wallace, was well furnished throughout and very comfortable. He was not a wealthy man, but by diligence and steady application had pushed his way to the position of foreman in a large well known Toronto industrial concern.

After a while his friend and visitor, Victor Robb, blurted out, "Bob, how do you do it?" "Why, keep your house furnished and in such fine shape all the time. Of course, I know you have a very clever little wife, but tell me, Bob, how do you do it?"

Bob was plainly amused and pleased—he loved to hear his wife and his home praised, particularly by his old friend, in this blunt manner. "It is very simple, Victor," he replied with a smile, "when you know how, and that is the little joke my wife put over on me some years ago. She told me one day she thought a woman should have a little more money than was actually needed for expenses to run the home, so that she might have a bank account of her own if she wanted it."

"I did not argue the question—a sensible man with a good wife never does. I simply increased her allowance a few dollars and thought no more about it until one evening I became conscious of the fact just as you have tonight that my home was uncommonly well furnished and I made a remark to that effect to my wife. I was complimenting her on her good taste and the splendid care she took of our little home. Incidentally the bank account was mentioned and my wife came right out with the truth about it. She told me she had a little money in the bank, but that our home was her big bank account. She was pleased that I had noticed and spoken about the matter. She considered the money well invested in the best bank in the world—Home."

"I'm satisfied and we are both happy. My wife thought it was a good joke about the bank account. She buys all the house furnishings through just as she needs them. She buys the very best of everything and only pays cash prices. The plan of paying part down and spreading the balance over a few months makes it easy—just like putting money in the bank. There is no interest charged and no fee for membership."

Victor thought it was a very good scheme and complimented his friend again upon having such a practical joker for a wife.
