HUNDRED THOUSAND IN THE WATER AT CONEY

Mercury 91, Nearly a Million Go to Beaches.

Crowds Storm the Pools—Many Places Cooked by Rays of Sun on Sunday—98 in London, Ont.—Ottawa and Montreal Swelter.

New York, July 4.—Terrific heat, coupled with oppressive humidity, yesterday caused several heat prostrations and drove the great part of the city's population to the beaches. The weather bureau reported a temperature of ninety-one degrees from two until six o'clock, while the humidity hovered between fifty and fifty-five.

Police estimates placed the attendance at three Long Island beaches at nearly one million. At Coney Island, after every available water front bath house was filled, the crowds stormed the pools until the police were called out to restore order.

It was estimated that 100,000 of the 400,000 visitors went into the ocean. The police reported 108 lost children during the afternoon.

London, Ont., July 4.—The season's record for heat was broken here yesterday, when the thermometer climbed to ninety-eight. In spite of the heavy shower a few days ago, the ground is parched, and unless more rain comes soon crops will suffer. Up to the present crop prospects were never better, and wheat cutting will commence this week, the earliest, it is said, in thirty years.

Ottawa, July 4.—The capital yesterday sweltered in the hottest day of the year. At noon the temperature was ninety-five degrees, with scarcely a breath of wind to bring relief to those who were forced to remain in the city. Last night the thermometer registered eighty.

Montreal, July 4.—This city experienced the two hottest days of the year in Saturday and Sunday, when the mercury reached 92 degrees on each day. On Saturday it was reported at two in the afternoon, and on Sunday soon after three p. m. Humidity on Saturday was sixty-two degrees, and yesterday sixty-seven. Rain threatened both evenings, but did not materialize.

PUNISHED FOR SACRILIGIOUS ACT
Lad Who Rubbed Dog's Nose Against Virgin's Statue Paralyzed.

A Paris despatch says:—
"A remarkable story of how a sacrilegious Italian was punished for his sins—an account which, it is said, has been verified by both French and Italian doctors and priests who just reached Paris from the frontier.

"While walking near Gressiana, Italy, with a friend and his dog, recently youth nineteen years old passed a statue of the Virgin in a roadside shrine. His friend saluted respectfully, but the youth took his dog by the collar and rubbed the animal's muzzle against the statue. Instantly he became paralyzed in both extremities.

"The youth was taken to his home and physicians were called in. After working over him for three days they succeeded in restoring his movements, but then a new phenomenon appeared and the boy began to bark like a dog day and night.

"Whether this is a peculiar type of auto-suggestion or a divine punishment, as is asserted by the priests, is not known, but physicians have been unable to cure the youth and have recommended that he be taken to a hospital for the insane for treatment.

"The villagers are more reverent now than before when passing the shrine, but they scrupulously avoid passing the victim's cottage without crossing themselves devoutly."

THE PLAYGROUNDS.

The supervised playgrounds, six of them, opened this morning for the summer holidays, and under the care of the play leaders many children will find great enjoyment and learn useful lessons while at play.

It is quite true that the school playgrounds are small and not well-suited for the work, but no other open spaces are available for the little children, and the Playground Association must do the best it can with such grounds as can be got.

It was declared at the recent meeting of the National Council of Women in Calgary that sixty per cent of the school children are abnormal.

New C.P.R. Bridge 5 1/2 Feet Lower Than Present Bridge

Has Nothing to do With the Issue, Says Mr. Lafleur, Chief Engineer of the Department of Public Works.

To the Editor of The Times: Sir,—In his letter of June 22 to the deputy minister of public works, published in the Evening Times, June 30, Mr. Lafleur says, in effect: "That it has absolutely nothing to do with the question at issue the new bridge will be 5 1/2 feet lower than the existing railway bridge seventy-five feet west of centre line of highway bridge."

The centre line of the highway bridge is as close to Split Rock as a schooner in low case, and a seventy-five feet west of that line is about half the distance to the new C. P. R. pier on the eastern shore, and the eastern shore of the river is about the middle of the river.

Mr. Lafleur says course of navigation (diagonally across the river in behind Split Rock headland) has been determined by actual observation.

These observations did not include a single schooner in tow, and were accepted by the chief engineer as against photographs showing the course of the river up to above the islands, while the resident engineer's blue print merely covers the portion occupied by the bridges, and as against the sworn statements of four responsible captains and pilots from every known schooner and even steamers through the falls for a lifetime, and in spite of the statement of the engineers who built the beautiful highway bridge—that the course of the river is normal to the bridge.

Mr. Lafleur practically admits that part of the new bridge will be lower or afford less clearance than the old railroad bridge in the space between Split Rock and the western pier.

The Real 'New Woman' Is To Be Found Abroad

There, Especially in Countries Most Affected by the War, Equality Has Become Largely an Accepted Fact.

(Allen Wilson Porterfield in N. Y. Evening Post.)

Hardly the moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church rapped his gavel at the opening of the 133rd session recently held at Vinona Lake, when the question was raised of admitting women to the pulpit. More recently a Congressman from the South presented a bill making it an offence punishable by law to use profane language in the presence of women. Still another Congressman is in favor of enacting a law imposing a fine on the woman who smokes in public.

The reaction to all this has been in no way surprising. Some hope, while others fear, that the American woman is undergoing a radical transformation. Equality is in order; for compared with Europe in this respect America is on the point of becoming the home of convention.

A short while ago Hugh Walpole went to Denmark, where he found himself surrounded by Danish intellectuals eager to hear of the most significant changes that were coming over England. Mr. Walpole replied without hesitation that the outstanding feature of the England of today is the new English woman. Confronted during the last seven years with problems that formerly did not interest her or were considered proper for men only, she now discusses men unabashed in the most dignified of mixed audiences.

A Tea in the New England
Less than a month ago an English woman of high degree invited some seventy persons into tea. To keep party of this size from becoming dull and staid is usually regarded as a difficult task. The hostess resorted to a novel device. Among her guests there were not only representatives of the nobility, but of the trades as well. The major domo having deposited the last card in the hall plate, the hostess began really to entertain. She had the electrician show noble ladies how light is made; the carpenter explained the various types of furniture. Even allowing for the exaggerations that get stuck to news of this sort in transmission, it was evidently a successful afternoon. Carried off with only mild public interest in staid England, it would be considered extraordinary in the corresponding rank of society in the free and youthful United States.

Woman, however, is most rapidly evolving into a new type in the countries most affected by the war—France and Germany. France has been inceptibly slow to pass laws beneficial to her women. They are without suffrage, and there is but slight chance of their getting it within a reasonable time. And when in July, 1920, it was suggested that women be admitted to the French Academy, one of the forty-Raymond Poincaré—voted in the affirmative. Others showed their feeling on the subject in the jest that such an idea could be traceable only to the best wave that came over Paris at the time.

French and German Changes
Yet the French women are becoming radical. Henry Bordeaux, the most widely read member of the French Academy, insists that La Française of 1914 threatens to become only a pleasant memory. In his book on the French family he writes: "Owing to her war experiences, she is without patience and unwilling to make concessions. Accustomed for five years to be at the head of the home or quite dependent upon her own resources, she now prefers to direct a manless foyer to being regarded merely as the representative of the feminine gender in the family." Bordeaux's treatise is heavily documented with statistics. Those pertaining to divorce are disquieting.

The same applies to Germany, only in a cruder form. The Deutsche Hausfrau is on the point of extinction. It is no longer possible for her to devote her time to the three imperials—"K's." She has to leave the Kinder and go out and work in order to get food for the Kuche, with the result that she easily abandons the principles of the Kirche.

The divorcees in Berlin alone are averaging ten a day. The total number in 1920 was 8,149, as contrasted with 1,967 in 1910. Of the various reasons assigned for the state of affairs, the eight-hour day seems to stand in the forefront. The German bourgeois, who formerly worked twelve hours a day, now has four hours on his hands.

The country swarms consequently with radical wives and wid divorcees. Scandinavia, Austria, Russia.

In Scandinavia women are invading every field of human endeavor, from the stitching of dentistry and civil engineering. They have the vote, they are establishing their own papers, and they are entering the pulpits for which men cannot be found. After struggling for the privilege since 1888, women have been admitted to the bar in Belgium. The Austrian who did the greatest work in getting the Austrian prisoners home from Siberia is a woman. It is said too that the Swiss woman has seen so much of the Red Cross since 1914 that it has completely changed her mind as to what a woman may, can and should undertake.

Then there is Soviet Russia. Given since March, 1917, equal privileges with the men in all matters, women have a large degree of freedom to come out, the conditions being as they are. But it is in accord with their own papers, and to keep their heads when men have lost theirs?

On To Calgary and The Women's Council

The east and west of the National Council of Women were brought close together in the gay assemblage of its delegates in the Central Methodist church in Calgary on Monday 13. Women of mature years were there, whose experience of many National meets had crowned their heads with almost visible evidences of wisdom earned by study of Bourinot and his precepts. Some had benefited, like our esteemed Miss Carmichael from Nova Scotia, from international sessions, while younger women, in sweet seriousness, who left their babies, to renew inspiration for local council work, were eagerly awaiting their turn "on the firing line." Everywhere friendly greeting, and the St. John delegates were lost in the labyrinth of Alberta women, and sometimes recalled to the outer circle by a joyous hail from Halifax. We were all so delighted to meet Mrs. Murray of Halifax, whose discussions and unravelling of many a National problem, led to St. John women a sense of "hip and pride."

Registration over and badges received, the delegates sought their places and large printed cards showed where the delegates would sit. St. John was glad to find Toronto one row behind, from whence came later this pencilled note to its representatives--and as it is a tribute to our province's women, whom we so proudly represent, the words are given to you as they came to us on a hastily written piece of blue paper from a note book.

"You beloved women and province. Women like you made life worth living." It was unsigned, but came from those smiling women just behind us, and we realized that Toronto would ever be linked up closely with St. John, national endeavor, and co-operation and love.

After the singing of the National Anthem and silent prayer, when heads were reverently lowered, Mrs. Sanford welcomed all delegates. After which came the roll call, which revealed the pleasing fact to our president that the representation of provincial vice-presidents was larger than that for some years previous.

Mayor Adams on behalf of the City of Calgary extended a cordial greeting to the president, officers, and delegates, "no convention has assembled in this city to which I extend a more hearty welcome than yours, whose work for the good of the city, the province and Canada as a whole." The mayor's words in very appreciative words referred to the greetings from the mayor of St. John, brought by the four ladies.

Mrs. Woodhall, president of the Calgary Council, spoke of the "Western City of the foothills with its background of snow-capped mountains," referred to the National meet in St. John, "that beautiful city," contrasting that setting with the present one and said that "in Canada the day would come when there would be no east or west, but a great band of united women, working for the common good of the Dominion."

She referred to the greatest asset of the country, the children, and urged that they be taught reverence and self-restraint, and a love of truth and justice inculcated in those little minds. She also spoke of the big factor in the lives of Canadian women, since the inception of the Council twenty-eight years ago, "the hope that the pre-dominant spirit of the conference be one of absolute faith in the future; urged the recognition of the power of the ballot by all women, and its purpose used for the good of our sisters, and the youth of the land."

Mrs. E. C. Smythe, president of the Toronto Council, new to leadership, but whose magnetic charm, and strong personality give her prominence in National work, responded to the address of welcome.

"Our sisters of the east greet you of the west," said Mrs. Smythe, and "Calgary held up the torch of companionship, humanitarianism, of educational progress, and of commercial enterprise, and made of this prairie province, a better place to live." To the founders and early workers of the Council she paid a glowing tribute. "By their wisdom, their untiring energy under all difficulties, they have made of this organization the premier women's organization of Canada. Those coming into office now must see to it that the torch is kept brightly burning."

Mrs. Sanford expressed her appreciation of the kind courtesy of the Calgary Council in accordance with a delightful welcome and spoke of the recent festival of the W. C. T. U. with its 15,000 members, whose strength and vitality would be added to every mighty work undertaken. Mrs. Sanford also referred to the irreparable loss sustained by Council in the death of Mrs. Boomer of London, Mrs. Yecker and Lady Tilley, early members of the Council, who were loved and honored by all. "The memory of their noble self-sacrificing devotion will ever be to us an inspiration." Mrs. Sanford reviewed the events of the past year in connection with the Council of women in its local provincial, and international relationship. She could not help being impressed with the vast importance of their activities and the wonderful results achieved. Mention was also made of the great quinquennial meeting at Norway last September, where 300 delegates, representing 29 of the self-governing countries, assembled Mrs. Horace Parson, the National corresponding secretary, reported two new life memberships in Council, one of which, Mrs. Alberton Smith's was a tribute of appreciation from her Local Council. Mrs. Parsons urged that all members study the work of the League of Nations, as the highway to the peace of the nations.

Among the greetings received were those from the Marchioness of Aberdeen, Mrs. Wm. Pugsley, hon. vice-president for New Brunswick; Mrs. David McCallum, New Brunswick National I. O. D. E., and the Social Service Board of Canada. The latter organization sent its greetings by Miss Charlotte Whitton, mentioned in former letters.

The total vote at this convention was reported by Mrs. Willoughby. Delegates to be 360, some proxies being counted from voting, as official instructions had not been received.

Reports from provincial vice-presidents were read at the afternoon session, which included that of New Brunswick from Mrs. Atherton Smith, which was read by her St. John representative, Mrs. J. H. Smith, vice-president of St. John Council, whose memory for dates and duties is never blurred, no matter under what flag she is traveling, in her usual systematic plan of schedule, she sent her greeting and good wishes from Barcelona, Spain, which in some almost miraculous way did not arrive too soon or yet too late, like the "one o'clock school," but were appreciatively received on the night of National executive adjournment.

After luncheon in the Hudson Bay Tapestry Room, when Mrs. Sanford entertained all delegates to luncheon, Mrs. Muldrew spoke most eloquently of the work of soldier settlers. Mrs. Muldrew is the director of the Soldier Settlement Board at Ottawa and is very sympathetic with her work. She spoke of the policy of the government in loaning the returned men money with which to purchase farm land, and said that up to date nearly $85,000,000 had been loaned for this purpose, and of this amount $1,843,691 of the $2,315,181 had already been paid. The work of Mrs. Muldrew extends from Cape Breton, B. C., and takes in between 10,000 and 12,000 soldier settlers' families. Many of the soldiers settlers had never been on farms before. Some of them had never been out of the busiest section of London, and were in many cases afraid of the animals. Mrs. Muldrew also made reference to the splendid work which has been accomplished through the medium of the short course in practical training, over 3,000 women having already benefited in this manner. The work of the National Council of Women had been appreciated, and the Local Council's co-operation had been most helpful. Mrs. Muldrew spoke of the fear of cattle on the part of the women, also of their awe of the big trees in British Columbia; and that these women could not understand the government wanting to know if they were happy. "It was necessary to bring these new people into the national life and under its traditions. It was not wise for them to congregate to live by themselves, and it was most important to strengthen the men by encouragement and sympathy and also to encourage and reach the wives. It was the best work done since the armistice, and the right keynote to solve this immense plan had been sounded when these women were being taught how to be good house-mothers and how to help on a farm. One woman who had been told "For God's sake get a smile on your face," who had often said she would rather be dead than live in Canada, had learned many things, of system, and how to cook and sew, at the Red Deer classes; had rolled and said, "Thank God for the work at Red Deer."

The evening session Hon. C. R. Mitchell gave a very interesting account of the municipal hospitals of Alberta, and presented statistics which showed that during the past year 2,489 patients had been admitted to rural hospitals; and since the institutions of these hospitals, two years ago, 444 maternity cases had been handled, no mothers lost and only one baby--one of twins. Mr. Mitchell had asked the privilege of being the first speaker on the programme, pleading an early engagement, but after he sat down amid tremendous applause no uneasiness for a delayed appointment affected his nerves; for beside a smiling president and first vice-president and other officers he remained in perfect calmness; and when, at ten o'clock, the session was adjourned, the St. John members nodded comprehensively as they saw him still in earnest conversation with officers at the door, and knew he had found Canada's parliament of bright, earnest women interesting and inspiring, and perhaps an entire session was worth a broken appointment elsewhere.

The closing exercises of the pre-convention school had almost in the on-ward rush of many busy hours raised a notice from me in this letter. This was very largely attended by Calgary people, and an invitation coming to the National, quite a few delegates were motored over to the building on Friday afternoon. One St. John delegate found herself happily placed in the car of the school secretary-treasurer, Mr. Bayne, and the announcement of being on-coming. But Mr. Bayne and the delegate returned from scriptural quotation, appreciating the city's remarkable progress, also the fact that progress defines development for Calgary's children.

We saw with pleasure the attractive and well-made articles of the pupils term of perseverance; in one room lamps, desks and tables successfully made, in another results of careful instruction in sewing and cooking. The delegate was asked by the principal to speak to the assembled happy children and a crowd of interested parents and other family relations, and afterwards had the pleasure of meeting Professor Scott, at one time at the University of Fredericton. He asked her to carry back to St. John his greetings to old friends. In the domestic science room a St. John girl was eagerly recognized in the head teacher of that department. Marvellous how St. John boys and girls appear in everything worth while in this western country. This exhibition was entirely the work of girls and boys between the ages of thirteen and sixteen, and 200-odd pupils have excelled themselves in the work done in the various branches of instruction, which includes woodwork, metal, leather work, printing, millinery, dressmaking, and of shoes, and soled and heeled seventy-six complete pairs. In the print shop the boys do much of the regular form printing, thus relieving the board of some expense. In other departments, shorthand, typewriting and penmanship are taught.

A. PAULINE RAYMOND.
George H. Pearce, C. N. R. station officer, who has been in ill-health for several months and has been absent most of that period, has returned to his post for light duty. He has been recuperating on Prince Edward Island, but has not quite regained his full strength.

300,000 Canadian Motorists Can Benefit

By Goodyear's Two New Anti-Skid 30 x 3 1/2 Tires

In Canada alone 300,000 motorists use 30 x 3 1-2 tires. Their ideals of tire qualities vary. But every one of them wants long mileage. So every Goodyear tire is built for full mileage.

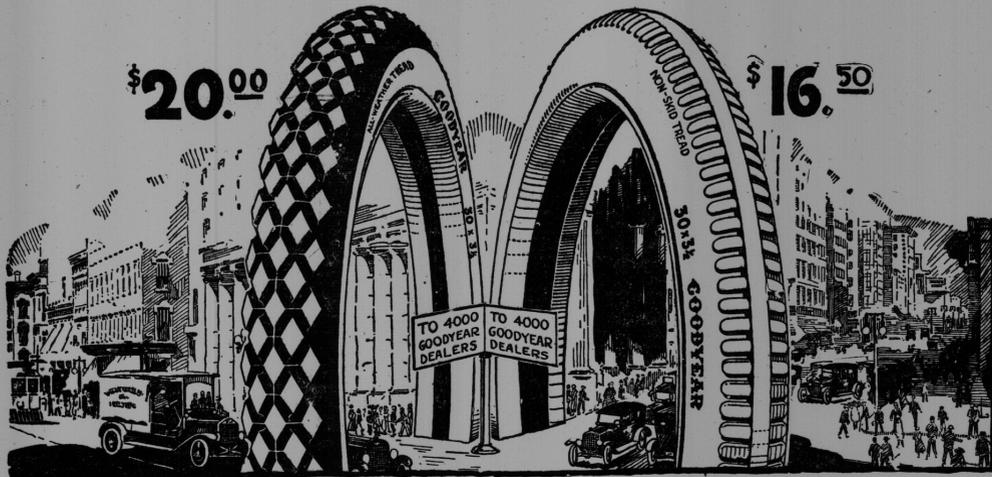

For years the road-grip and mileage of the Goodyear All-Weather Tread 30 x 3 1-2 Tire have made it the most widely used tire in Canada--and in the world.

But Goodyear learned how to make it better. And in the Goodyear institution every known betterment must be used. So the Goodyear All-Weather Tread Clincher (30 x 3 1-2 and 31 x 4) is now made rougher and tougher, bigger and handsomer. It is a new tire in Canada with new economy qualities---tested and proved on thousands of cars in other countries.

But many motorists do not require the extraordinary gripping power of the All-Weather Tread. They prefer a saving in cost. For them over 4,000 Goodyear dealers will recommend the new "Goodyear Non-Skid" 30 x 3 1-2. A tire of full Goodyear quality for mileage, with a tough, rough tread of parallel bars. Several hundred thousand new cars the world over have introduced motorists to this new tire of heaping value.

TORNADO FOLLOWS DAYS OF HEAT
One Man Killed, Train Derailed and Other Damage in South Dakota.
Aberdeen, S. D., July 4—A tornado killed last night and on Saturday, killing one man and causing more than $3,000 damage. Practically every building in the town was demolished.
Arne Anderson, who was assisting his family to the bus, was killed. The storm came as a climax to ten days of severe heat, and, although it caused great property damage, agricultural authorities believed crops would be saved, as the result of the moisture, which was badly needed.
A train was derailed at Tacoma Park, when a stretch of track a mile long was lifted from the road-bed after the wind had excavated the right of way. No one was injured.
A string of nineteen cars was blown off the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul yards at Ipswich.
EMPLOYMENT REPORT.
Ottawa, July 4.—(Canadian Press). The Dominion Employment Service received reports from 518 firms, employing 896,681, covering the week ended May 28. For the previous week these firms had employed 903,974, so that there was a decrease of slightly more than one per cent. The bulk of the decrease was consequent upon further closing of shops of railway shops. Taking the week of January 17, 1920, as a basis, the week under review was 96.5 as compared with 100 for the corresponding week of 1920.
"Camp Galahad," the seventh annual camp from St. David's church, opened this morning at Holder's Point on the Long Beach. The boys left by boat this morning under the direction of Rev. J. A. MacKegan, assisted by J. H. Crookshank, F. J. Painter and J. W. Brittain. Allan MacGowan, Kenneth Stirling and Ronald Shaw also accompanied the campers as assistant leaders.
A convention of the Union of New Brunswick Municipalities will be held in St. John on August 24 and 25.

DEMPESEY WINS BY A KNOCKOUT IN THE FOURTH

Smashing Right on the Jaw Floors French Challenger After Heavy Bombardment of Blows—Carpentier Put Up Game Scrap.

Jack Dempsey retained his title of heavyweight champion of the world by defeating Georges Carpentier, the French heavyweight, in the fourth round of their scheduled twelve round bout, which was held at Jersey City Saturday afternoon.

A terrific blow to the jaw terminated the bout.

Constant Bombardment. Although the knockout punch was delivered to Carpentier's jaw the way to Dempsey's victory had been paved by a continual bombardment of blows which landed on every section of the Frenchman's body.

Carpentier Breaks Thumb. It developed after Carpentier had returned to his training camp at New-hasset (N.Y.), that during his aggressive and effective attack in the second round the Frenchman had broken his right thumb and sprained his wrist.

Frenchman Remarkably Game. Regardless of just how much caused the vanquishing of Carpentier, the Frenchman gave remarkable exhibition of skill and gameness against a heavier, more punishing opponent.

left the arena with even a greater amount of applause ringing in his ears—a tribute to an exhibition which in every way verified and upheld his boxing ability and daring.

Although Carpentier struck the first blow of the encounter, a flying left to the head, Dempsey never at any time showed a disinclination to avoid trading blows with his opponent.

The champion bored in at every opportunity and devoted much of his attention as was possible to in-fighting. Rights and lefts were steadily driven home to Carpentier's body, alternated at times by drives, jabs, hooks and cuffs to the Frenchman's face, jaw and head.

Bill Brennan Challenges. Carpentier was first to enter the amphitheatre at 2.37 p. m. He wore a gray silk bathrobe over his white silk trunk and smiled and watched an airplane flying overhead with the utmost unconcern.

There was little delay in the usual preliminaries to a championship contest. Bill Brennan issued a challenge to the winner of the fight between the two men to the centre of the ring for the championship battle.

The two men who worked the ring were very nice, generous and good talkers. They seemed to take a very keen interest in the manner in which the children were enjoying themselves.

The crowd was apathetic during the preliminaries. The first preliminary, an eight-round bout, was put on early in an effort to permit an early start of the big bout.

In accordance with the New Jersey boxing law no decision was rendered by the referee at the end of the first preliminary between Johnny Curlin and Michael Delmont, featherweights, but Curlin was generally conceded to have outpointed Delmont.

The referee stopped the Herman-Mertrange bout in the fifth round when Dempsie was having a hell of a time. The fourth bout was between Dick Griffin, Fort Worth (Tex.), and Benny Light, New York, bantamweights.

The bout between Griffin and Coster was stopped in the sixth round when Dempsie was having a hell of a time. The fourth bout was between Dick Griffin, Fort Worth (Tex.), and Benny Light, New York, bantamweights.

Revenue officials have pointed out that Carpentier also is likely to face another stringent income tax on a removal in France, shrinking still more the earnings of the defeated boxer.

book to the chin. The actual fighting time in the fourth round was one minute and sixteen seconds. Previously to the knockout, Carpentier was floored with a left to the body and a right to the chin.

Dempsey stood over the fallen Frenchman until the count was finished and then tenderly picked up the bleeding and dazed Frenchman and dragged him to his corner.

Thirteen minutes later the great international match, heralded throughout the world as over and Carpentier was being half carried, half dragged to his corner by the police and his seconds.

Helpless and groggy and with a blood-matted face, he did not resist in the slightest particular the confident challenge of a few minutes before.

Across the ring Jack Dempsey sat in his corner with not a mark on face or body. Francois Dempsie was ministering to his crushed idol as he sobbed and chattered in French. When finally Carpentier could arise he staggered to the centre of the ring, and the police and ring officials, seeing his condition, supported him, while Dempsey sprang from his stool and running to meet his defeated opponent, grasped his hand and congratulated him on his gameness and boxing ability.

A moment later the principals had left the ring and the "fight of the century" had become ring history. In the short period of the contest it was shown conclusively that Carpentier in no way compared to Dempsey as a fighting machine.

Courageous, speedy of foot, and with a lightning-like rapier blow, he proved to be a clever boxer with a moderate punch.

Against the man-killing smashes of Dempsey all his speed and skill faded away like fog before the sun. It was but another demonstration of the futility of cleverness when opposed to actual fighting.

Summed up in a few words, Carpentier was outclassed when Dempsie pressed in fighting inside the Frenchman's flying fists. His electric right hand, which with Carpentier the end might have been different. But Dempsey is a fighter who fought the attack Carpentier, game and skillful as he undoubtedly is, was a beaten man from the start.

After the main bout was over the heavyweights Billy Mitchell and Jimmy Mackey, who were scheduled to fight, were scratched from the card.

Round 1—Dempsey, 188 pounds. This was the heaviest fight yet seen in the figure Dempsey hoped to weigh when he got into the ring.

Carpentier was introduced to the vast audience as the pugilist idol of the old world and a soldier of France. This evoked a tremendous cheer from the crowd. They were sent away at 3.18.

Carpentier landed a left right and connected with a left hook. Dempsey pushed him, hitting him unmercifully. Carpentier was a trifle groggy and bleeding at the nose. Dempsey missed a right swing but beat Carpentier as they clinched. Carpentier fell through the ropes to avoid a punch. He laid into Dempsey as he crawled back into the ring and landed several blows on the champion at the end of the round.

Round 2—Carpentier missed with a left. He backed away and Dempsey hooked to the jaw beating him around the head with his right. Carpentier was shot with a left, but staggered the champion with left and rights to the jaw. Dempsey staggered back a bit and split Carpentier's eye. The cut was under the eye. Dempsey missed a right swing and Carpentier also missed a right swing. They exchanged body punches as the bell rang.

Round 3—Carpentier ducked a left hook, Dempsey backed up and landed a right with a short right. Carpentier landed two uppercuts to the body in a clinch. As they clinched Dempsey punched the champion in the body and Carpentier nearly fell down when he missed a right swing. They missed lefts to the head and Dempsey punched Carpentier vigorously in the fighting. Dempsey landed a left and right to the head without a return. They exchanged left hooks to the chin.

Carpentier's left was short and Dempsey slugged him on the jaw with a left hook in the clinch. Dempsey battered Carpentier into a corner with rights and lefts at the bell. The bell saved Carpentier from a knockout.

Round 4—Dempsey rushed Carpentier to the ropes with a left to the body and made him wince. Carpentier landed a right to the head and tried to hang on. Dempsey missed Carpentier. Carpentier was floored but recovered, within slightly over a minute. Dempsey knocked out the challenger, sending him heavily to the canvas with a short right was a game and courageous fighter, I must fight. Watch me!"

When he came to his corner after the first round he told them that every one of Dempsey's blows had hurt.

"I was away from him," they said they told him.

"Never, I must fight with every canny and powerful fighter," he replied, as he rushed to the centre of the ring.

IS BUNGOED; LOSES $2,854

Put His Cash and Jewelry Into a Box Supplied with Swindlers' $18,000 and He Took Charge of It.

(Boston Globe) John Raymond, of 5 Newton street, South End, reported to Station 5 this morning that he was buncoed out of $2,854 in cash and some jewelry valued at $100 by two men who were watching the children at play yesterday on the Randolph-street playground.

Raymond lost his money after the style of the most-esteemed handkerchief game, although in this case a strong box was used to deceive him.

The two men who worked the ring were very nice, generous and good talkers. They seemed to take a very keen interest in the manner in which the children were enjoying themselves.

The crowd was apathetic during the preliminaries. The first preliminary, an eight-round bout, was put on early in an effort to permit an early start of the big bout.

In accordance with the New Jersey boxing law no decision was rendered by the referee at the end of the first preliminary between Johnny Curlin and Michael Delmont, featherweights, but Curlin was generally conceded to have outpointed Delmont.

The referee stopped the Herman-Mertrange bout in the fifth round when Dempsie was having a hell of a time. The fourth bout was between Dick Griffin, Fort Worth (Tex.), and Benny Light, New York, bantamweights.

The bout between Griffin and Coster was stopped in the sixth round when Dempsie was having a hell of a time. The fourth bout was between Dick Griffin, Fort Worth (Tex.), and Benny Light, New York, bantamweights.

NATHANIEL ADAMS TELLS OF ALLEGED DYNAMITE PLOT

Testifies Again That Eight Years Ago Mrs. Perry Made Proposals

(Canadian Press Despatch) Yarmouth, N. S., July 3.—Repetition by Nathaniel Adams of his statements that eight years ago, Mrs. Perry had given him impressions of keys which would enable him to gain entrance to the cellar of the Perry house, and requested him to disarrange the cellar steps and place dynamite caps in the cream separator for the purpose of injuring her husband, furnished the most sensational evidence introduced during the fifth day of the trial here of Mrs. Clara Elizabeth Perry, for the murder of her husband, Captain George Henry Perry, found in a dying condition a few feet from the back door of his home on the night of Feb. 26 last.

Under cross-examination on Saturday afternoon, by R. W. E. Landry, counsel for Mrs. Perry, Adams said that his wife had professed the wax impressions of keys through him to the authorities. He did not know where she got them. His house was destroyed by fire on Jan. 26 last and very little bedding or furniture had been saved.

"Was it peculiar that with so little bedding and furniture saved that these wax impressions were rescued out of the fire?" he asked.

"I do not know," witness replied. Handwriting Expert. Frank Shute, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada at Yarmouth, giving testimony as a handwriting expert, who compared the writing of Mrs. Perry with Mrs. Perry's signature, said that in his opinion the writing on one cloth was the same as the signature exhibited. That on the other had probably been done by the same hand.

Chief Detective Horace Kennedy, of Halifax, told the court that he had procured the wax impressions from Nathaniel Adams. He had shown them to Mrs. Perry who at first denied that the writing was hers, but later said she did not know.

Police Officer Gaudet, who was on duty at the Perry home following the murder, was another witness. Harold Milner (colored) accounted for his whereabouts on the night of the tragedy, and Captain Watson B. Butler demonstrated the workings of a cream separator for the court.

After conference between counsel for the crown and accused and Mr. Justice Mellick, it has been decided not to present as evidence the sound test, descriptive of a body falling in the porch of the Perry home. This test was made in an effort to ascertain whether it would be possible for Mrs. Perry from her location in the house at the supposed time of the murder to have heard the sound of Captain Perry's body when he was struck down.

GARLAND READY TO DIG SEWERS WITHOUT PAY

Man Who Refused $2,500,000 Bequest Says That Work for Money Should Cease.

Buzzards Bay, Mass., July 2.—Charles Garland, the young man who has rejected two fortunes totaling $2,500,000, believes people should stop working for money. He says it ought not to be necessary.

Garland is daily at work in his extensive garden here, hoeing and raking. He works in his bare feet. He could enjoy cleaning sewers, he says, if it fell to his lot.

"What?" he was asked, "is the idea of your refusing all that money?" "Why should I accept it?"

"To do so would be contrary to my beliefs."

"What are your beliefs?" "Well, in the first place, I believe that our system is all wrong; that there is too much seeking for the dollar."

"What disposition will be made of the money you have rejected?" "I don't know."

"Will the executors hold on to it or will you tell them what to do with it?" "I hadn't thought about that."

"If you don't want this money there are plenty of worthy orphan asylums and homes for the aged where it could be put to use."

"I don't believe that it should be necessary to spend money to care for orphans. People shouldn't demand money for their care; they should be glad to do it for the love of the work."

"And feed them without charge?" "Yes. We should abolish this system of working for money. We should work because we wish to be of service to somebody. We do that in our own family life. We don't ask to be paid for something we do for our parents or our brothers and sisters. That sort of thing should include all of us. Why not do for another man what we would do for our brother? Then let him do for us what we need to have done."

"That a man would clean sewers because he wishes to do something for his fellow-men?" "Exactly. I shouldn't object to cleaning sewers."

"Do you think you have the right to reject the money instead of holding it in trust for your daughter? Do you think you have the right to decide for her? When she grows up, she may not approve of your action. How about that?"

"I am not so sure that I wouldn't be doing her an injury by placing so much money at her disposal. It might handicap her to have great wealth. No, I am doing what is right."

FIRE DESTROYS FARM DWELLING AT PUBLIC LANDING

Charles A. Parker's farmhouse at Public Landing was completely destroyed by fire at an early hour yesterday morning. The barn was saved, and a small building used as milk-room and ice-house. Nearly all the furniture in the main house was saved, but the contents of the cell, in which were provisions, dishes, tools, some clothing, cooking utensils, etc., were consumed.

The loss is estimated at $8,000, and the insurance is only five hundred dollars. Potatoes and other things in the cellar were burned.

A. M. Belding and family occupied rooms in the house, for part of the summer holidays, and lost some chairs, dishes and other things of small value.

TO WAKE UP A LAZY LIFE

For "liveriness," constipation, biliousness, headache, drowsiness, mad complexion, etc., try drinking before breakfast a little Akita Salts dissolved in hot water. Feel fit as a prizefighter all day.

When you sleep the heart immediately slows down and then the sluggish blood deposits greasy and acidulous poisons—toxins—throughout the system.

Next morning the blood flows more rapidly again, but cannot flush out all the impurities accumulated overnight. That means a clogged liver and constipation, the beginning of all diseases. So poisons are sucked into the blood through thousands of absorbent intestinal glands.

You should thoroughly cleanse the whole system by washing out all the poisons in the morning. Then your body acts better, same as a fire burns better with fuel cleared from chimney. Ask your chemist for a few ounces of refined Akita Salts, and take before breakfast a half tumbler of hot water. The breakfast dose promptly washes out the mucous and acidulous poisons from the entire intestinal tract, leaving the system fast and clear.

The salted water also reaches the liver by absorption, thus stimulating that organ and removing any congestion or sluggishness. This remarkable Akita Salts compound is practically tasteless, also harmless as sugar, in any quantity, and it never grieves. Children love it, especially with a little sugar added. It is the greatest solvent and eliminant known to science, and its amazing curative properties will make you a crank on the subject of intestinal cleanliness.—C. N. H.

(Canadian Press Despatch) Montreal, July 3.—Thomas O'Neil, aged 30, while at work with a crew clearing up a wreck on the N. T. R. in English Bay this afternoon, suffered a stroke and died about an hour later. He belonged to Montreal and was unmarried.

THIS WOMAN'S RECOVERY

Shows Remarkable Restorative Power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Chester, Ont.—"Before using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was a total wreck. I had terrible pains in my sides and was not regular. I finally got so weak I could not go up stairs without stopping to rest half way up the steps. I tried two doctors but they did me no good. I saw your medicine advertised in the newspapers and thought I would give it a trial. I bought four bottles of the Vegetable Compound and was restored to health. I am now well, am the mother of two children, and do all my housework, milk eight cows, and do a hired man's work and enjoy the best of health. I also found Vegetable Compound a great help for my weak back before my babies were born. I recommend it to all my friends who are in need of medicine, and you may print this letter if you wish."—Mrs. HENRY JAMES, E. E. No. 4, Chester, Ontario.

It hardly seems possible that there is a woman in this country who will continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, proving beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other medicine in the world.

THE captains of commerce and industry are always seeking improved ways and means of increasing the efficiency of their organizations—and it is undoubtedly the human element which presents the most baffling problem. Personal efficiency solves itself into keeping one's body and brain as near as possible to the 100% standard, but in these strenuous days fresh air and exercise are very often out of the question. For this reason, the early morning glass of water sparkling with a dash of ENO is absolutely essential to safeguard the health of every worker, in every sphere of activity.

PALACE THEATRE

Monday and Tuesday

One of the greatest motion pictures of the year will be the screen attraction, "The Woman in His House," in which Mildred Harris heads an all-star cast. The production, which was six months in the making, is declared by many who have seen it to be a motion picture masterpiece, ranking with such popular photoplays as "The Miracle Man," "Daddy Long Legs" and others. In the cast with Miss Harris are Ramsey Wallace, Thomas Holding, George Fisher, Gareth Hughes, Winter Hall and little Richard Hedrick. The photoplay is founded on an original story by Irene Reels. The age-old theme emphasizing the divine power of mother love is effectively employed in this powerful and moving screen drama. It is the story of a neglected wife, a too busy and ambitious husband, a philosopher friend, and a baby. The work of Richard Hedrick in portraying the role of a youngster who is stricken with infantile paralysis is one of the outstanding points of this compelling photoplay. How mother love triumphs where science fails and straightens out the crooked limbs of the child is revealed in a fascinating story. In this production Mildred Harris has achieved her greatest success. The photography is wonderful; it was done by Piny Goodfriend. In short, "The Woman in His House" is one of the most remarkable pictures that it has been the good fortune of this theatre to offer to its patrons for their entertainment. Nobody should miss this. It's chock full of love, laughter and tears.

CHANCERY COURT.

In Chancery this morning before Mr. Justice Grimmer the matter of a certain agreement was argued in the case of Gopette vs. Colman and his wife, belonging to Albert county. This agreement, it was said, had been entered into between the parties, and the husband paid the wife $150 with the intention of its being a separation settlement. The wife, however, did not understand it as such and petitioned that the agreement be set aside. A decree to this effect was granted. R. St. J. Freese and G. W. Fowler, K. C., for the plaintiff and J. F. H. Teed for the defendant.

TIMES BETTER HERE.

Rev. George Scott and Mrs. Scott returned this morning from Hamilton, Ontario, where they had been spending their vacation with Mr. Scott's brother, who is mechanical superintendent and constructional engineer with the Canada Steel Company, Ltd. The steel company's plant occupies 800 acres and in normal times they employ about 3,500 men. Now, however, Mr. Scott said, they are scarcely a third that number and there is a likelihood of further curtailment in the staff in the near future. One of the reasons mentioned in Hamilton reported that in his district eight out of every ten men were idle. Times in St. John are better than in any part of the west that he could hear about.

HEN THIEF IS BEATEN TO DEATH

Marauder at Chapel Grove Caught After Series of Depredations.

Beaten over the head with a club until life was extinct was the fate meted out to a hen thief at Chapel Grove Saturday. For some weeks farmers have missed valuable hens and scores of young chickens and a concerted effort was made to bring the culprit to justice. The whole matter was enshrouded with mystery as every precaution made by the residents to protect the hens was unavailing. Large and heavy boxes were found upturned and setting hens and broods of chickens kept disappearing. At first it was thought that it was the work of a human being, but later evidence pointed to some large animal. Traps were set in and about hen coops, but they did not deter the marauder. Many were found sprung, but no sign of the thief and the mystery remained unsolved. Last Thursday Clarence Edwards lost a setting hen valued at $20, which he procured in the United States, and with it several chickens. This was the second raid on his henery, although he had surrounded his run with heavy wire netting and placed the hen under a large packing case. He found the case thrown to one side, the hen gone and chickens missing. By following the trail of feathers he discovered that the animal took his prey to a nearby brook there to enjoy his repast with liquid refreshments. He scattered traps in and about the brook and Saturday morning found that the thief had been caught. It turned out to be one of the largest raccoons ever seen in that district. It had a long and heavy body, and a set of teeth which would make short work of many larger than a hen. When Mr. Edwards approached the trap the animal endeavored to bite him so he took up a heavy piece of wood and killed it. When other countrymen learned that the animal, which had been causing them so much trouble, had been caught there was general rejoicing.

MAYOR GETS ANSWER TO LETTER BY HIKER MAIL

Mayor Owen of Vancouver, writing to Mayor Schofield, acknowledges receipt of his letter, dated February 5, which was conveyed to him by John and Clifford Behan, while on their cross-country hike. He returned greetings in a letter dated June 11.

The Calgary Herald in a recent issue carried a story of Mrs. W. Edmond Raymond of St. John presenting to Mayor Adams of Calgary a letter of greeting from the mayor of this city to the people of Calgary. Mrs. Raymond was attending the annual meeting of the National Council of Women. Mayor Adams acknowledged receipt of the letter graciously returned the good wishes conveyed by Mayor Schofield.

BRIEF SESSION OF THE COUNCIL

Com. Jones Reports Newman Brook Excavation Completed—Matter of Traffic Control at Foot of Waterloo Street.

This morning's committee meeting of the common council was a brief one and only a few matters of routine nature were discussed. The mayor and all the commissioners were present.

Commissioner Bullock reported regarding the application of J. J. Goldie for return of his $100 deposit on the purchase of the Monahan House in Lancaster. Mr. Goldie contended that there was no driveway. The city engineer reported there was a good driveway on one side of the house. Mr. Bullock's motion that the deposit be returned was carried.

Commissioner Thornton said that a man should be stationed at Brindley street to control the traffic diverted by the closing of the lower end of Waterloo street, while paving is being done in Brussels street.

Commissioner Frink said the concrete work would be done that far today, but the granite block had not arrived.

Mr. Thornton thought that the public works should look after the matter.

Dr. Frink said that similar conditions existed at Bentley street. He said that as soon as the concrete was in the track section, he could have the tracks planked over. He promised to take the matter up with the road engineer.

Commissioner Jones reported that the Newman Brook excavation was completed and ready for the covering that will do away with the Newman Brook bridge. He said the work was done at considerable under the estimate, and there was sufficient money to go ahead with the work.

Commissioner Frink thought the excavation should be extended further into the marsh which is drained by the brook. Mr. Jones agreed to have the engineer report on the matter.

Replying to Commissioner Thornton, the mayor said that M. P. Fennell, secretary of the port of Montreal board of harbor commissioners was coming to St. John to talk on the matter of harbor commission.

Adjourned.

SAVED LIFE AT BRENNAN'S COVE

Wm. Watson Rescued Ralph Estey, Who was in Serious Trouble.

It is reported that drowning accident was narrowly averted at Brennan's Cove, opposite Green Head, St. John county, yesterday when Ralph Estey of Pokok got beyond his depth and found he could not reach shore unaided. William Watson, also of Pokok, swam to his rescue and brought the lad ashore and he soon recovered his strength and was able to go home.

It appears that young Estey, a lad of nine or ten years of age, was learning to swim and was taken out in a boat some distance beyond his depth. Under the impression that he could swim the distance to the shore he jumped over the side of the boat and started for the beach. Soon, however, he found himself almost exhausted and called for help. Watson, hearing his cries, swam swiftly to him, reaching him after he had gone down twice and assisting his ashore. After a little while he was able to go to his home little the worse for his experience. Watson was much commended by bystanders for his bravery.
