Churchill's resignation created enthu asm among the Dublin people. Al Seasonable Hint.

For an obstinate harrassing cough there is no better remedy than Haygara's Pectoral Balsam, which cures all throat, bronchial and lung diseases. It is pleasant to take and effectual for young and old. London Conservative papers are rather JUST ARRIVED indignant with Lord R. Churchill.

Broken down. "Being completely broken down in health, I was induced to try that valuable remedy, Burdock Blood Bitters. One bottle made me feel like a new man, restoring me completely to health." Geo. V. Detlor, Napanee, Ont.

The London Times says Lord cannot go on without Churchill's It Seldom Fails.

J. D. Cameron, of Westlake Ainsle, Cape Breton, had inflammatory rheumatism which Haygard's Yellow Oil cured after all other treatment had failed.

Lord Salisbury has renewed his offer of the Premiership to Lord Hartington. The History of Hundreds. England is said to be threatening to permanent occupation of Egypt unburkey breaks with Germany. A Seasonable Hint.

During the breaking up of winter, when the air is chilly and the weather damp, such complaints as rheumatism, neuralgia, lumbago, sore throat, cr.up and other pain-ful effects of sudden cold, are preveiant. It is then that Haygard's Yellow Oil is found truly gvaluable as a household remedy. Chief Justice Palmer, P. E. I., declar that the Provinces have nothing to do with the enforcement of the Scott Act. If the Sufferers from Consumption Scotola, and General Debility, will try Scotola and General Debility, will try Scotola Eminision of Pure Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, they will find immediate relief and a permanent benefit. Dr. H. V. Morr, Brentwood, Cal., writes: "Theve used Scotola Emilsion with great advantage in cases of Phthisis, Scrotila and wasting diseases generally. It is very palatable."

The Conservative Association in Lord Randolph Churchill's constituency, will demand an explanation of his conduct.

VOTERS' LISTS.

Beginning with the ADVANCE, of Dec. 16th, we are publishing the lists of Voters for Northumberland, as prepared by the Revising Officer has of Voters for Northumberiand, as prepared by the Revising of moer under the Dominion Franchise Act, omitting, of course, some of the particulars given in the official list, such as the situation of qualifying property, names of relatives, where qualification is derived through them, etc. The order in which the districts will be placed, will be that in which they

Appear in the official list, as follows:

Newcastle, Nos. 1, 1½, 2, 2½, 3.—Chatham, Nos. 4, 5, 6, 7, 8.—

Ludlow, No. 9.—Blissfield, 10.—Blackville, 11, 12—Derby, 13.

They had almost reached the corner of Westminster bridge, in depressed silence, when Pete -as he was commonly called suddenly stopped, and with a smile that was pleasing enough to see, although his companions did not notice it, exclaimed: 'Ain't I got an hidee?'

After which statement, he propound ed it to his attentive audience, ideas being, if not rare, always interesting to boys. And certainly Pete's was original and worthy of consideration.

He suggested that one of them should feign to be ill, should be taken to the see the tree in all its glory.

The plan sounded delightful, the and then we will see!"

LAURENCE'S SPECTACLES. When are Spectacles Required?

When the eyer water or become so fatigued by use as to be obliged to be fre mently closed or relieved by viewing different objects When more light is required than formerly.

When the letters of a book appear to blend with one another or to become double. When the lamp has to be placed between the eye and the object.
When objects cannot be seen without holding them at an increased distance. When much difficulty is found in threading a recelle. When the eyes appear confused as though they had a mist before them. When black specks seem floating in the sight. When any of the above indications arise all affectation shou'l be laid aside and a pair of Laurences Spectacle's or eye Glasses should be worn immediately. Good fitting glasses are a great comfort. Our facilities for testing tthe sight and suiting the age are not surpassed anywhere.-Prices AT THE MEDICAL HALL.
