

AUSTRIANS' TURN NOW TO RETREAT; DRIVEN TO HILLS NORTH OF KRASNİK

GERMANY'S TENTATIVE PROPOSALS IGNORED

Pres. Wilson Decides Not to Engage in Informal Discussion of Forthcoming Reply from Berlin—Right of Search and Visit Must be Recognized by Germany.

Washington, July 8.—The United States government will not engage informally in any discussion or negotiation with Germany regarding the character of the forthcoming reply to the last American note on submarine warfare.

Ambassador Gerard at Berlin has been informed that such is the President's decision, and that the Ambassador is to make no comment on the tentative draft given him by the German Foreign Office. If asked for an expression, he is to say that the United States will await a formal reply before discussing the question further. The outline of the German note, as cabled by Ambassador Gerard, is known to be far from satisfactory to officials. With respect to the sinking of the Lusitania, on which more than 100 Americans perished, no admission of liability is made; whether in extension or not, the view is expressed in the draft that when torpedoed it was not believed the Lusitania was carrying munitions of war. The United States would be required to inform the German government of the date of departure and character of vessels carrying Americans and guarantee that such ships had no munitions of war aboard.

Insist On Original Demands
In this connection high officials here stated today that it would be an unusual act for the United States to notify any belligerent government of the date of departure from an American port or the character of the cargo.

SAYS THOMAS' STATEMENTS INACCURATE

T. A. Russel Gets After Major Thomas at War Contracts Probe—Commission to Meet in Nova Scotia.

Special to The Standard.
Ottawa, July 8.—The war contracts inquiry was adjourned this afternoon until Monday next when Major D. A. Thomas, who was employed by General Hughes to supervise the purchase of mechanical equipment for the second contingent on a commission basis of 1 1/2 per cent., will be examined. T. A. Russel, the Toronto motor car manufacturer in today's evidence went straight after Thomas on account of statements he had made to the effect that he had saved the government large sums of money as compared with the prices paid by Russel. According to the figures produced by Russel the statements of Thomas were far from accurate. Russel also showed how he had equipped and placed on shipboard the mechanical transport of the first contingent in 26 days and stated that although the second contingent is in England the mechanical transport section of it had not left Ottawa nor is prepared to leave. Thomas has been in charge of this work since November 16 last. Russel also charged that mistakes had been made regarding the bodies of the trucks and had to be replaced. The examination of Thomas which he will probably make on Monday will therefore be decidedly interesting. The attack made by Russel cannot be ignored. After the examination of Thomas the commission will adjourn to meet at Kentville in Nova Scotia the week after next. There the purchase of horses will be inquired into.

of a merchantman of another belligerent. Count Von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador, was in communication by wireless with his government during the day, and is understood to have advised the Berlin Foreign Office that the form in which the proposals had been made did not appear to be acceptable to the United States.

He learned that the position of the Washington government is that there must first be recognition by Germany of the principle that an unarmed and unresisting merchantman must be visited and searched, and passengers and crew removed to a place of safety before the ship is destroyed. Until there is an agreement on this principle, the American government cannot discuss any modus vivendi or temporary arrangements, it is declared. The German Ambassador, it is believed, is urging his government to make a broad statement on the principles involved for later discussion arrangements concerning the separation of passengers and contraband traffic.

German Reply Probably Tomorrow.
Berlin, July 8.—The German reply to the American note regarding the Lusitania and submarine warfare, according to information obtained here, probably will be delivered on Saturday, July 10, or possibly even tomorrow. The general tenor and motive of the government behind these proposals may be communicated confidentially to the leading representatives of the press tomorrow, but it is understood that the publication of the text in Berlin will be deferred until the afternoon of the day on which it is presented at Washington.

Blown Up By Mine in North Sea—Germans Seize An American Steamer Bound For Sweden.

London, July 9.—The Grimsby trawler Chesire was blown up by a mine in the North Sea Wednesday. All the crew with the exception of the chief engineer, were killed.
Berlin, July 8.—The American steamer Platuria, which, while on the way from New York with a cargo of petroleum consigned to a Swedish port was stopped by a German warship, and taken to Swinemunde, has been released. This action was taken after the United States embassy had taken up the case. The Platuria has proceeded to her destination.

ASPHYXIATED BY FUMES FROM BREWING VAT

Montreal, July 8.—Patrick McNally, aged 55 years, residing at 1275 City Hall avenue, was asphyxiated this afternoon while cleaning out a vat in the brewery of the Dow Brewing Company, where he had been employed seventeen years. Alexander McCann, 36 years old, 192 Mountain avenue, another employee of the Dow Company, went to McNally's rescue, and was also killed by the fumes in the vat.

The Adriatic at Liverpool

The steamer Adriatic arrived in England yesterday. There had been rumors to the effect that a plot had been arranged to sink her on the way across and the name of Holt was mentioned as having arranged the scheme and placed bombs on board. A number of prominent Canadians, including Premier Borden, sailed on the Adriatic, and there will be general satisfaction on learning that the rumors were unfounded and that the ship has arrived in port in safety.

Liverpool, July 8, 11.10 p. m.—The White Star liner Adriatic arrived in the Mersey this evening.
New York, July 8.—The Dow Jones News Bureau published late today a statement that the White Star liner Adriatic had docked safely at Liverpool at 2 o'clock this afternoon.
New York, July 8.—The White Star line announced shortly before six o'clock tonight that the steamer Adriatic arrived at Liverpool this afternoon.

DISCRIMINATES IN FAVOR OF GERMANY

Washington Will Be Asked to Decide If Societies Sending Volunteers For Allied Armies Violate Neutrality.

Washington, July 8.—Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British Ambassador, formally applied to the State Department today for a definition of the American government's view as to whether English patriotic societies or other unofficial agencies violate neutrality laws in sending subjects of Great Britain from the United States to volunteer in the British army.
Conferees between the Department of State and Justice will be held before an answer is given to this question, from which a serious diplomatic controversy may develop. The practice of returning volunteers to England has prevailed since the beginning of the European war, and it is said that the British government is prepared to register an emphatic protest if the United States takes the position that it is illegal. The return of indictments at San Francisco against five persons charged with enlisting recruits for the British army is understood to have precipitated the Ambassador's action.
According to the British contention it is unjustly discriminatory to interfere with the transportation of volunteers, who are not actually enlisted on American soil, when no objection has been made to "notifications" by Consuls to residents of other countries in the United States. In this connection emphasis is laid upon the fact that Great Britain has no reservations, in the same sense as Germany, France, Italy and other continental powers.
Officials of the Department of Justice explained today that they have had no understanding with the State Department in regard to recruiting. They pointed out, however, that the Criminal Code plainly prohibits the enlistment of "any person" in the United States to fight against the people of a friendly nation. The efforts of the Department, it was declared, have not in any instance been directed against

Blame For Sinking Of Str. Falaba Must Rest On German Submarine Crew

London, July 8.—Lord Mersey, presiding at the inquiry into the sinking of the American steamer Falaba today, declared that blame for the catastrophe must rest conclusively with the officers and crew of the German submarine.
Lord Mersey added that the submarine made no effort to save life, and probably could not do so without endangering itself.
Lord Mersey said he was satisfied that the witnesses who had described the lifeboats as rotten were mistaken, and that the damage sustained by some of them in launching was not due to neglect on the part of the company or crew.

London, July 8, (10.50 p. m.)—A despatch to Reuters' Telegram Company from its Cetinje correspondent states that the government has officially announced that it will submit Albania's future to a decision of the powers.
Austrians Driven Back.
Cetinje, via London, July 8, (9.45 p. m.)—The following official statement has been issued by the war office:
"On July 4 and 5, the Austrians vigorously attacked Montenegrin positions near Grahovo, but all assaults were repulsed."
"We emphatically contradict a report emanating from Vienna that our troops were defeated in an encirclement at Trebinje. This is the same engagement referred to above. Our troops made no retreat, and more than held their own at all points."

FIRE ON MINNEHAHA DUE TO BOMB PLACED ABOARD BY HOLT?

No Late Word of Steamer's Plight—No Ammunition Near Where Fire Started.

New York, July 8.—While the steamship Minnehaha, afloat at sea with 15,000 tons of munitions aboard was speeding to Halifax, N. S., tonight the line officials and authorities here were bending every effort to learn if the blaze caused by an explosion could possibly have been the handiwork of Frank Holt, J. P. Morgan's assassin, who had given warning that a steamship would sink in mid-ocean on July 7.
The Minnehaha is due to reach Halifax tomorrow morning. Captain Clark's last message said the fire was under control. It started late yesterday from an explosion in a forward hold far away from the ammunition which was stored aft. Although Captain Clark did not say so, line officials here believed that he had picked up the wireless warning sent to all ships and had caused a search to be made to ascertain if there were any bombs aboard.

RUSSIANS ON OFFENSIVE IN TERRITORY OVER WHICH THEY WERE RETREATING LAST WEEK

Austrians Forced to Assume Roll Czar's Army Has Played for Past Month—Grand Duke's Army May Be Able to Drive Invaders Out of Poland Again.

London, July 8.—The Italian navy has suffered its first serious loss, an Austrian submarine having successfully torpedoed the cruiser Amalfi in the narrow waters of the Adriatic. Most of the crew were saved.

This is the second Allied warship to fall a victim to an Austrian underwater craft, the French cruiser Leon Gambetta having, earlier in the war, been caught in the Ionian Sea. It is realized that the loss of the Italian warship is only one of the incidents which must be expected where fleets keep to the sea, blockading enemy ports or protecting commercial ports.
As an offset, it is claimed that a French warship has sunk a German submarine in the Channel, while the British Admiralty announced tonight that it was a British submarine which torpedoed a German warship in the Baltic recently, although no details are added to the brief statement made in the Russian official communication the day after the attack took place.
All the belligerent powers are rapidly building submarines, and it is reported that Austria has now at Pola alone. Thus the Italian ships will run serious risks in moving about the waters of the Adriatic, which are well suited to these craft.
The Operations on Land.
So far as land battles are concerned, interest still centres in Southern Poland, where the Russians, strongly reinforced with both men and guns, and with their railways and the fortresses of Ivangorod and Brod-Litovsk to draw upon, have held up the Austro-German attempt to outflank Warsaw from the south-west.

The Austrians tonight made the admission that before superior Russian forces they have withdrawn to the hills to the north of Krasnik.
Further heavy fighting must occur in this region, but the Russian military writers express confidence that now any effort of the German allies to deliver a lightning blow has been discounted, and that the Grand Duke's army will be able to hold its positions, and perhaps drive the invaders back.
While this is going on, it is believed, there is little probability of the Germans detaching any part of their eastern armies for a renewed offensive in the west, and if such a move is made it must be undertaken by fresh troops. There is already heavy fighting at several points in the west, notably in the Wevre district, where the French have regained some of the ground which they had lost to the southeast of St. Mihiel, and at Soissons, where the French have made a further advance toward the village. But there is no evidence, as yet, of the arrival of any new armies, which Dutch reports persistently repeat are being moved through Belgium.
The Austrians and Montenegrins have resumed fighting, and both sides claim successes.

KENTVILLE N. S. HAS ANOTHER BAD FIRE

D. A. R. Roundhouse With Two Locomotives Burned Last Night—Machine Shop Saved By Firemen's Good Work.

Kentville, N. S., July 8.—The third in a series of disastrous fires occurred shortly before midnight, when the Dominion Atlantic Railway roundhouse was totally destroyed. Only two engines were in, these are the chief loss. The firemen put up a stubborn fight and saved the machine shop which is a continuation of the roundhouse. The fire was seen coming through the roof and at the east side of the building which no one has been at work during the day. The coal shed also caught but only partly burned. The night was fortunately a quiet one and a heavy shower impending doubtless hastened plans. Though a number of houses facing Main street were near the shed none caught.
The Minnehaha left here July 4 for London. She carried no passengers. Her crew numbered nearly 100.
The possible fate of the Minnehaha overshadowed all other developments in the case of the man who set off the Capitol bombs, then shot J. P. Morgan and finally killed himself.
The theory that Holt had accomplices because of the large amount of money he was supposed to have spent was almost abandoned by the police tonight upon the receipt here of much of the dead man's correspondence. There was nothing in the correspondence to indicate that Holt had an accomplice.
Late today Holt's body was shipped from Hanstead to Dallas, Texas, where it was said he would be buried.

SUSPECT A PLOT TO BRING HALDANE BACK

Lloyd George's Contradiction of Haldane's Statements at Cabinet Meeting Stirs Up Northcliffe Papers Again.

London, July 8 (Gazette Cable).—The contradiction given by Lloyd George to Lord Haldane's version of what took place at a cabinet meeting on munitions under the late government has caused a sensation in political circles, although the feeling is accentuated at this dispute is largely a personal one, the contention of which can do no good at the present juncture. "Let the dead bury their dead," is the attitude taken by prominent politicians on both sides. The episode has, however, roused the Northcliffe organs to start a further campaign against Lord Haldane. The Daily Mail suspects a plot to bring him back into public life, and stigmatizes such papers as the Daily Telegraph and the Pall Mall Gazette as pro-Haldane, because these Conservative journals have not joined in unsparing vituperation of the former Lord Chancellor.
It is interesting to note that Forster Law agrees with his predecessor in the colonial office that an Imperial conference is not possible this year. Answering a question in the Commons Mr. Law stated that if the premier of Canada or of any other dominion, were visiting London, the Imperial government would take advantage of the opportunity to confer with him, but anything in the nature of a formal conference was impossible.
The Times, which laid stress upon the necessity of a conference when Mr. Hancock was in office, offers no comment upon Mr. Law's statement.

The Adriatic Sea Closed to Ships of All Nations

BRITISH NOW FEEL THEY HAVE WHIP-HAND OF THE TURKS IN GALLIPOLI

Present Success, Attained After Several Failures, Gives Men New Hope and Courage, and if Ammunition Supply Continues, Prospects Are of the Brightest.

London, July 9, (1.09 a. m.)—The British press representative, in a graphic description of the battle of Gully Ravine on June 28, which places the allied line diagonally across the map of the head of Gallipoli by pushing forward a mile on the allies' left wing, emphasizes, above all, the great moral effect on the British forces, who, he says, "now feel that they at length have got the whip-hand of the Turks." They repeatedly failed previously in attacks on the positions now won, and their present success is mainly due to a change of tactics and improvement in support afforded by the artillery, and to the splendid cooperation between the military and naval forces.

On the 25th the British infantry forces were greatly resisted by the loss of some French trench mortars, which, dropping bombs containing thirty to seventy pounds of mellite vertically into the enemy's trenches, were used with deadly effect. "The great difficulty out here has been to hold captured positions against fierce counterattacks during the night," the correspondent declares. "The ground is so broken and provides so much natural cover that the enemy, having advantage of minute knowledge of its contour, is able to creep up under cover and re-take portions of trenches with the aid of hand-grenades. On the right of the 25th these tactics were attempted, but failed, and the enemy who seemed exhausted, ceased its fighting on the 25th. Thus our men were able to consolidate their positions and the enemy's attempts on the 30th to re-occupy these positions were fruitless and since then they have shown no disposition to renew the fighting."

SENEGALESE WILL FIGHT FOR FRANCE SIDE BY SIDE WITH FRENCH TROOPS

Chamber of Deputies Passes Bill Giving Senegalese Privilege of Serving Empire.

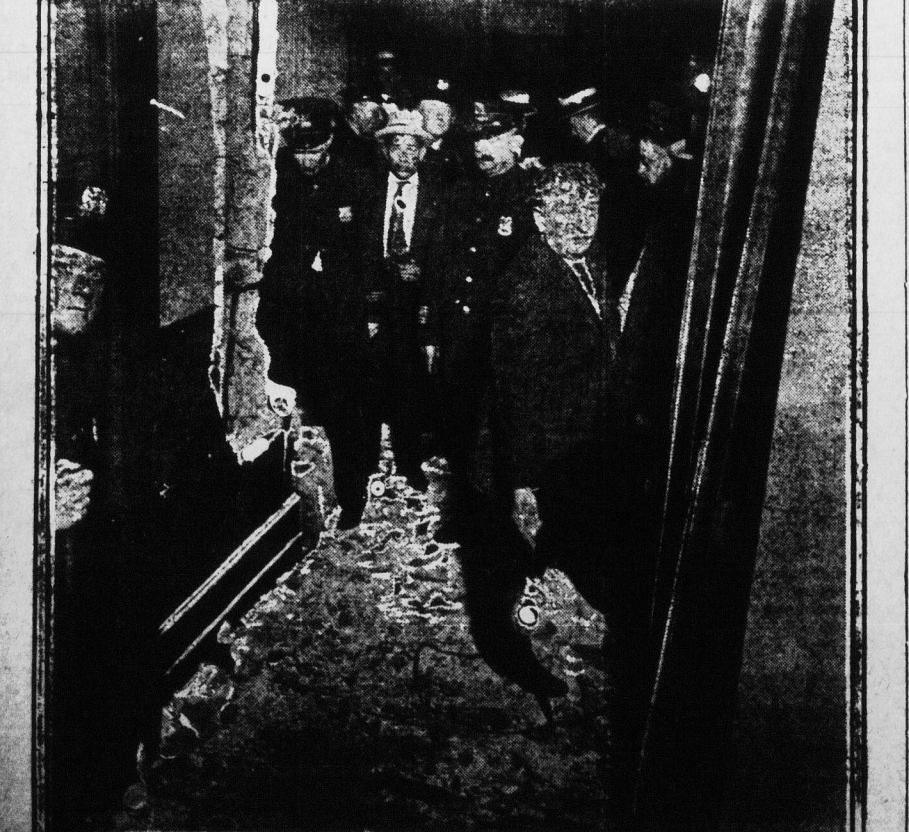

Paris, July 8.—The race and color question raised in the French Chamber of Deputies a week ago by the bill of the negro deputy, M. Dignane, representing Senegal, providing for the extension of general compulsory military service in France to colonial municipalities whose inhabitants enjoy French citizenship, was presented in numerous new lights and complications at the session of the Chamber this afternoon.

The speaker was frequently interrupted by protests from the negro deputies from Guedeloupe and Martinique, crying amid frantic applause, "our fellow citizens ask only to be allowed to serve the mother country, for whom they already have poured out their blood." Deputy Labrousse insisted on special regulations for Senegalese who do not speak French. Deputy Bousneuf interrupted, crying that "I then demand a special regiment for Frenchmen, unable to read and write." Deputy Dignane then secured the floor and made an eloquent appeal on behalf of the blacks, reviewing the part they had played in conquering the French colonial empire. "For eleven months the Senegalese have demanded to be allowed to serve France," he said, "if they have not been permitted, it is the fault of the Minister of War."

THE WRECK AFTER BOMB EXPLOSION IN NEW YORK

This photograph shows the wreckage after a shrapnel bomb possessing tremendous power exploded at the headquarters in New York city. Owen Egan, inspector of combustibles, is shown searching for clues. He is holding an electric light enclosed in a wire netting. Several men in Headquarters and in the streets were knocked by the force of the explosion, but no one was hurt. The explosion was the anniversary of the bomb explosion which killed Arthur Carson, Carl Hanson and "Fred" Berg, anarchists, who were making a bomb for the purpose of the B. Hochstetler.

ONLY VESSELS FOR MONTENEGRIN OR ITALIAN PORTS UNDER CONVOY PERMITTED IN ADRIATIC

Washington, July 8.—Closing of the Adriatic Sea to merchant vessels of all nations, except when bound for Montenegrin or Italian ports under convoy furnished by the Italian Minister of War, is announced in a telegram from Ambassador Thomas Nelson Page at Rome, dated yesterday, and given out tonight by the State Department. A blockade of the Austrian and Albanian coasts on the Adriatic was proclaimed by Italy some time ago. New navigation of the "zone of the Adriatic north of the line Otranto-Aspri Ruga-Strado Bianco" is "considered forbidden to all merchant of all countries."

INJURED IN QUEENSTON TRAGEDY, 92

Death Toll Placed at 12 and Couple of Injured May Succumb—Some Maimed for Life. Toronto, July 8.—The total death toll of the Queenston tragedy is 12. The injured number 92. All are Toronto people. 35 of the injured are still at the Toronto General Hospital, and 2 of these are in a critical condition. Most of the injured are getting along well, although in some cases it will be weeks and months before recovery will be complete. Some have lost limbs and will be maimed for life. Others are suffering from internal injuries, the seriousness of which cannot yet be gauged.

- Nine bodies are reported to be at Niagara Falls, and with the three who died on the steamer crossing the lake last night make a total of 12. Names of 15 dead have been received, and by the coroner after the preliminary enquiry last night. In the Niagara General Hospital are 22 injured, all doing well, although several are badly hurt. The more seriously hurt are: Frank Chanter, both legs broken and head bruised; Mrs. Hall, internal injuries; Sarah McWatters, right foot amputated; Gladys Newton, both legs and arms broken; Nelson Follott, collar bone and arm fractured; Mrs. Carlaw, arm broken and body severely bruised. The others are bruised and shaken up, but will be able to leave in a few days. Motorman Stayed At His Post. The remains of the dead were viewed by the coroner today, and the inquest postponed until next week. Sidney Boy, the motorman of the ill-fated car, was confined to bed today with his right arm dislocated, and both hands badly cut. He was also suffering severely from shock. He saw no one today, and made no statement to any newspaper. His wife said her husband thought he had done his duty. When the car got beyond control he stuck to his post to the very last, taking his chances with the passengers. In the final crash he was thrown to the ground through a window, but in fact he was not hurt. He refused medical attention and help for himself, and dislocated arm and all, took an active part in the work of rescue. Thereafter he took a car to the Falls and walked about a quarter of a mile to his home unaided. Boy is 36 years of age. George Carswell, the car conductor, was badly shaken up, but was able to go on duty today. A miraculous escape was that of the youngest survivor of the tragedy, the nine-month-old Daniels baby, who was discovered, apparently unhurt and happy, beneath a pile of bodies and wreckage and brought to Toronto by Dr. Black, of Niagara Falls, today. The child's mother is severely injured, and is at the hospital at Niagara Falls and the baby's father is at the front in France, fighting with the Canadians. Baby Daniels has been taken in charge by a Toronto family. Demands that Railway Co. be Prosecuted. Toronto, July 8.—Mayor Church of this city said today: "If the Attorney-General will not take immediate action against the president and manager of the Niagara Falls Park and River Railway, I will hold a conference tomorrow with the County Crown Attorney with a view to placing the responsibility for the accident which resulted in the death of twelve Toronto citizens. If the authorities decline to fall in line I will assume the responsibility of proceeding against the officials of the company. I have received a largely signed petition from the residents of the east end of the city, where the victims all lived, demanding the apprehension of those responsible."

PROVINCIAL GOVT. IN SESSION AT CAPITAL

Premier Back From New York — Only Routine Matters Dealt With Last Night.

Special to The Standard. Fredericton, July 8.—The July meeting of the Provincial Government opened here this evening. Premier Clarke, who has spent the past two weeks in New York, and other members of the government, except Hon. John Morrissey, who came in at noon, arriving tonight. The St. John Valley Railway matter is to be the principal question for consideration by the government at this session, but it was not taken up this evening, tonight's session being devoted to routine matters on schedule. Premier Clarke said tonight that he had not received any resignation from Hon. John E. Wilson, nor had one come to the clerk of the executive council's office and Mr. Wilson was not here. York County council's semi-annual session closed this afternoon. Warden Harry Smith was presented by Coun. Dr. Sterling on behalf of the council with a travelling bag. The St. John Valley Railway track was cleared this afternoon after the serious wreck of yesterday morning. Damage caused by the wreck will, it is said, total almost $10,000. Five cars which left the rails were put back on the track by the aid of a 100 ton crane brought from Campbellton. One of the cars which jumped the track was loaded with potatoes for the camp for interned Germans and Austrians at Pictou.

OFFICIAL REPORTS FRANCE

Paris, July 8.—The following official communication was issued by the War Office tonight: "In Belgium a German attack directed against the trenches which the British troops occupied on July 6, to the southwest of Pilleken, was taken under the fire of the British artillery and our field guns and dispersed with heavy losses. "Between Angres and Coucheux the enemy made a new attack this morning about six o'clock against our positions to the north of the road between Bethune and Arras, but was repulsed. To the north of the Souchez station a very violent counter-attack was attempted by the Germans, with the object of regaining the trenches of which we had made ourselves master on the evening before. They were successful only in occupying about 100 yards on a total front of 800 yards of our gains. "In the sector of Quenneviers there had been fighting with hand-grenades and aerial bombs. "On the right bank of the Aisne, in the region of Noyon, the struggle with mines had developed to our advantage up to the present. In Champagne, in front of the small fort at Beaujeu, we seriously damaged the enemy's trenches by the explosion of a mine. "Between the Meuse and the Moselle the day has been marked by a violent bombardment at Tete-A-Vache and at Vaux-Ferry, in the forest of Apremont, as well as to the north of Filroy."

AUSTRIA

Vienna, via London, July 8.—The War Office has issued the following official statement: "In Russian Poland, east of the Vistula, the battle is proceeding. Numerous severe Russian attacks have been bloodily repulsed. Before counter-attacks of superior Russian forces, brought up for the protection of Lublin, our troops were withdrawn from both sides of the road to the heights north of Krainik. West of the Vistula some Russian advanced positions have been stormed. On the River Bug and in East Galicia the general situation is unchanged. Hostile attacks on the Lower Zolza Lipka have been repulsed. "In the Italian theatre of war, in the Gorizia region, the enemy yesterday made several attacks, all of which were repulsed. In the Middle Isontzo and Km districts quiet prevailed. On the Carinthian and Tyrolean frontier there were artillery engagements only. "On the heights east of Trebinje, in the southeastern theatre of war, fighting against the Montenegrins was renewed on the night of July 6-7. As counter-attacks on July 6 failed, the enemy attempted an attack during the night which completely collapsed before our artillery fire. Now everything is quiet there. On the rest of the front there is nothing to report."

British Submarines Helping Russians In The Baltic

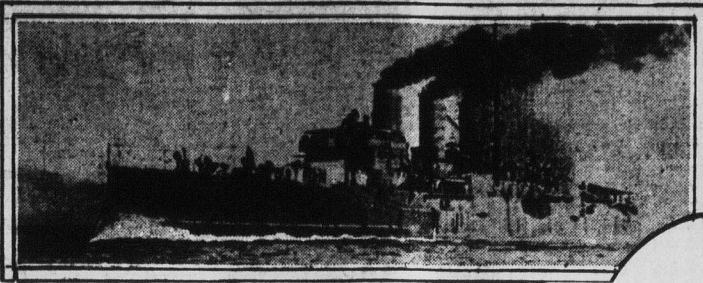

British Public Learn Fact For First Time From Russian Announcement That It Was a British Undersea Boat Which Sank German Warship In Last Friday's Engagement

London, July 8.—The British Admiralty tonight states that it was officially announced at Petrograd today that the submarine which made a successful attack on a German warship on July 2, in the Baltic was a British boat.

The statement of the British Admiralty contained the first public announcement intimating that British submarines were operating in the Baltic Sea. It is presumed that the under-sea boat passed through the Categat from the North Sea to the Baltic Sea, and then travelled eastward for 200 miles, as the Bay of Danzig, where the warship was attacked, lies in the southeastern part of that body of water. The distance from an English port to Danzig is about 900 miles.

The Russian official statement announcing that a German warship had been sunk by a submarine said that the battleship, which was of the Deutschland type, was steaming at the head of a German squadron at the entrance to Danzig Bay, July 1, when she was blown up by two torpedoes fired by a submarine.

ITALY LOSES CRUISER IN THE ADRIATIC

The AMALFI

Rome, July 8.—The Italian armored cruiser Amalfi was torpedoed and sunk at dawn this morning by an Austrian submarine, while taking part in a reconnaissance in the Upper Adriatic, it was officially announced last night by the ministry of marine. Most of the members of the crew were saved. The text of the statement follows:

"A reconnaissance in force was accomplished on the night of July 8, in the upper Adriatic. The Amalfi, which took part in the reconnaissance, was before the Amalfi sank. Nearly all torpedoed at dawn Wednesday morning by an Austrian submarine, and soon listed heavily to port. "The commander, before giving orders to the crew to jump overboard, cried 'Long live the King, long live Italy.' The entire crew drawn up along the stern, echoed the shout, giving a remarkable exhibition of courage and discipline. "The commander, who was the last to leave, slipped overboard shortly before the Amalfi sank. Nearly all the officers and crew were saved." The Amalfi, which was completed in 1908, had a displacement of 9,958 tons, and was 426 feet long. Her complement in times of peace was 648. [Pola, the Austrian naval stronghold, is situated in the upper Adriatic at the extremity of the Istria peninsula, about 55 miles southeast of Trieste. It is probable the reconnaissance referred to in the Italian statement was in this section of the Adriatic.]

French Senate Votes Sum of $600,000 to Pay For Seized Cargoes

Paris, July 8.—The French Senate today unanimously appropriated $600,000 to be used by the Minister of Marine in payment for cargoes of neutral vessels that have been seized, and especially of that of the American steamer Dacia. The Dacia formerly belonged to the Hamburg-American Line. After changing her registry she sailed from Galveston, Texas, with a cargo of cotton destined for Germany. On reaching European waters she was picked up by a French cruiser and taken into Trest. A French prize court, after hearing the case, recommended that the French government purchase the cargo.

MERCHANT SHIPS HAVE RIGHT TO CARRY AND USE GUNS IN SELF DEFENCE

Lord Cecil, Parliamentary Under-Secretary, Says in British Commons—Entitled To Do So By Unwritten Laws of the Sea.

London, July 8.—"Merchant vessels for self-defense have been generally recognized, and British ships so armed have been trading regularly with the various countries since an early stage of the war." Commander Bellairs' question was whether, in view of the unusual character of the German attacks on unarmed merchant vessels the government would ask all neutral governments to allow merchant vessels armed for purposes of defense only, with a gun in the stern, to trade with their ports, in spite of the fact that they carried a gun.

RECRUITING IN UNITED STATES

Reservists of Teutonic Armies Permitted to Leave, but Authorities Prevent Sending of Volunteers for Allies.

Washington, July 8.—Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British Ambassador, today asked the State Department to inform him what distinction, if any, it draws between the questions of neutrality involved in the return of reservists of those European countries which have reserve systems and the departure of volunteers to those countries which have no such system. In effect, the Ambassador's request points out that reservists have been permitted to return to Germany, Austria and Turkey, while legal action has been taken against persons forwarding volunteers for the British army. It is understood he contends there is no difference in effect in the situations.

Chicago, July 8.—Five Montenegro, including three commissioners of the King of Montenegro, and a former charge d'affaires at Constantinople, were named in an indictment returned by the Federal grand jury today, charging conspiracy to violate the neutrality laws of the United States.

Over Twenty Indicted. San Francisco, July 8.—More than twenty indictments, charging various violations of neutrality, were voted here today by the Federal grand jury. Recruiting for the British army, and furnishing supplies to ships of war, are the offenses charged.

PRODUCTION OF BEES' HONEY

The present is one of the most critical periods in the work of producing a good crop of honey. The clover honey-flow has been on for a week or ten days and the bees need watching. Many people who have bees do not realize how much space a strong colony will fill in a few days in the best of clover bloom. Do not allow the bees to loaf for a lack of room to store honey.

Too many second, and even third swarms are allowed to come off. This can be very largely prevented by placing the swarm, as soon as it is hived, on the stand where the colony sat from which the swarm has issued. This brings all field bees into the swarm where they will be most useful and thus weakens the "old" colony, which should be moved to some distance, to such an extent that it is not likely to attempt to send out another swarm.

Beginners are always in need of more information and even "old" beekeepers are sure to benefit from a general discussion of beekeeping problems. For this reason H. B. Durost, instructor in beekeeping for the Provincial Department of Agriculture, is arranging for a series of "Beekeepers Field Days." One such meeting will be held at the beehive of Mr. Hiscoe, at Fredericton, on July 13th; another at Mr. Flroids, Bloomfield, Kings county, July 15th; and still another at the Messrs. Peabody Bros. yard, at Woodstock on the 16th.

Mr. Morley Pettit, instructor in beekeeping at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, Ont., will be at these meetings to give instructions and answer questions bearing on all phases of beekeeping. Persons who are at all interested in beekeeping, cannot afford to fail to attend one or other of these meetings. Bring along your bee-veil.

U.S. GOVT. TAKES OVER WIRELESS AT SAYVILLE

Station Will Be Operated by Navy Men—Charges That Unneutral Messages Had Been Sent.

Washington, July 8.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels today issued the following statement regarding the Sayville wireless station:

"It is understood that the Sayville wireless station has made application to the Secretary of Commerce for a license. The Secretary of Commerce declined to grant the license and so informed the Secretary of the Navy, who, after conference, directed Captain Bullard, as the expert of the department to take over and operate the station. Lieut. George R. Clark will be in control of the station. Capt. Bullard reached New York this morning and will confer with the owners of the station in all that relates to the details of the operation of the station. Practically the same rules and regulations as are now applicable to Tuckererton will be put in operation at Sayville.

"There will be no change as far as the public is concerned. Messages will be accepted as heretofore. The only difference will be that naval operators instead of commercial employees will man the keys. The charges collected by the navy will be paid to the owning company."

"Today's action which was taken under an executive order issued by President Wilson giving the navy authority to take over 'one or more' stations was deemed necessary because of alleged violations of neutrality by the company's operators. It has been charged that when the navy censors had left the wireless room for a minute or two, unneutral messages had been sent and that only by a difficult and trying supervision could neutrality be strictly preserved.

This afternoon Captain Bullard reported to Secretary Daniels that he had completed his arrangements and had taken over the plant.

DISARM POPULATION IN SCUTARI

Montenegrians Collect large amount of Arms and Ammunition of Austrian Make.

London, July 8.—A despatch from Cetinje, Montenegro, to Reuter's Telegram Company today says: "The Montenegro authorities who recently took possession of Scutari, Albania, have ordered the population to give up all arms and ammunition. As a result a large amount of rifles and cartridges of Austrian origin were handed over, and they will be used to arm several thousand Montenegrians who now are returning from America."

Austrian Consul Expelled. London, July 8.—The Scutari correspondent of Reuter's Telegram Company states that the Austrian consul and his staff have been expelled from Albania, being escorted to the Austrian frontier. All Austrian subjects and agents, he says, are being arrested and sent into Montenegro for internment.

IMMORTAL SOUL OF FRANCE FLAMES IN CATHEDRAL RUINS

Mme. Jane Catulle Mendes Writes for N.Y. Herald Her Impressions of a Trip to "the Martyred Basilica" at Rheims.

Mme. Jane Catulle Mendes, of Paris who is treasurer here for the Vestiare des Blesses, a society organized to take care of the French wounded, has written for the New York Herald an interesting description of the ruined Cathedral of Rheims and its surroundings. Mme. Mendes is one of the few women who have been allowed by the French government to go to the war area. She went in her official capacity with a commission investigating the condition of the wounded soldiers of the republic.

"It was the end of April," writes Mme. Mendes, "when we approached Rheims automobiling. The weather was fine. The hill bore their fruit trees in blossom, white and perfumed. The swallows flew twittering through the air. But I was insensible to nature's renaissance; I was watching for the cathedral.

"All at once I saw it, like a martyr dead on his feet. The tears came to my eyes, for we had hoped so much that it might be spared.

"In Paris while the German army was approaching Rheims all sorts of rumors floated about. Some said: 'Precautions have been taken. No effective bombardment of the edifice can be made.' Others: 'The Germans will not dare to touch it. They will be afraid of arousing the wrath of the world.' Finally the rumor ran about that there was nothing more to fear. The United States had taken the cathedral under its protection and the American flag was hoisted upon its towers. No one stopped to reflect that this was impossible. We grasped every straw of hope.

"But now the basilica is before us—a skeleton, dead. We stand before it, hardly daring to advance lest we step upon sacred cinders. Finally we enter, wandering through the ruins. Everything is topsy-turvy. Statues, broken angels, clock towers, gargoyles, colonnades, everything is pell-mell—smashed, melted, burned. One does not know where to put one's feet for fear of committing sacrilege. Suddenly I utter a cry. One more step and I would have stepped upon the face of Christ. I become faint and they have to hold me up.

Kaiser's Broken Promise

"Nevertheless, when the Germans entered Rheims they did not touch the cathedral. The reason is very simple. They thought that their victory was certain. They never intended surrendering Champagne, and they wanted the glories of Rheims for themselves. The Kaiser proclaimed himself the protector of the art treasures of France and of Belgium. When, however, on September 12, the French, victorious upon the Marne, reentered Rheims it was different.

"Two days later the German batteries opened upon the cathedral, and the Kaiser no longer was the protector of the art treasures. From nine o'clock on the morning of September 14, 1914, to the present time, they have directed their fire upon the basilica, each shot fanning the flame of hate they had kindled.

"The Germans have not sought to excuse themselves. Last New Year's Day in celebrating the glories of the Fatherland, one of their poets, Radolph Herzog, wrote an ode, 'In honor of the destruction of the cathedral of Rheims.' One of the verses, translated, reads: "Its bells no longer sound "In the two towered dome. "Ended is the benediction. "We have closed with lead. "O, Rheims, thy house of idolatry."

"Still seated, as I pondered on these things, I saw a little girl ap-

The Cathedral's Silent Bells

"We arrived there, Tombstones overturned, statues decapitated, wreaths scattered about. Even the dead themselves had not been spared their peace. And upon one of the largest tombs a great figure of Christ thrown to earth, the arms of pardon still extended wide.

"The lower part of the statue was broken into splinters, reduced to a hundred pieces, as if the agonies of the cross and the lead had not been sufficient.

"Leaving the cemetery I bought an armful of flowers from an itinerant flower seller, not knowing yet just what I should do with them. On leaving the little girl I asked her: "What would give you most pleasure in the future, my dear?" "And she answered, leaning close to me, almost in a whisper, as if she feared to be overheard by those who had done her injury:—" "Give me flowers."

MR. HAZEN'S GOOD WORK

The province of New Brunswick is feeling the beneficial effect of having as its representative in the Borden cabinet a gentleman of the ability and influence of Hon. J. D. Hazen. Prior to 1911 New Brunswick was represented in the government of the country by one of the most prodigal promoters in the Dominion of Canada. Mr. Puseley, when in normal spirits, was ever ready to pledge himself to secure all sorts of public works and concessions for this province but, unfortunately, these promises were seldom implemented and as a consequence the profit from them was comparatively slight.

With Mr. Hazen, however, a promise is made to be kept and this it is that New Brunswick benefits. St. John has already had tangible evidence of his work in the extension of the west side facilities, the provision of the new marine depot and the very generous share of war contracts secured by our manufacturing firms. Other constituencies in the province have enjoyed a similar experience and the latest evidence of this is found in the case of Bathurst.

Although the Gloucester county representative in the Dominion house is not a supporter of the government of the day, that county has already secured a good share of public works and the Minister of Marine has shown deep interest in the development of the port of Bathurst. Necessary dredging has been done in Bathurst harbor, as the result of which large steamers are now able to load without the necessity of lightering the cargo outside of the bar as was the case formerly. In addition to the dredging the Government has made provision for a spur line of railway from the I. C. R. that can be used by the big new pulp and paper mill there.

Bathurst is booming as the result of the establishment of large industries. Much of this is due to the enterprise and public spirit of Mr. Angus McLean of the Bathurst Lumber Company, but the credit for not a little of it can be given to the spirit of sympathy and co-operation manifested by the Borden Government toward the development of that town and port. The people of Bathurst, in common with the residents in other parts of New Brunswick, have every reason to appreciate the efforts of the Minister of Marine.

PREMIER BORDEN IN ENGLAND

The steamer Adriatic, with Sir Robert Borden and other distinguished passengers aboard, reached England yesterday and docked in safety. The news will cause much relief in Canada because of reports that the Adriatic had been threatened with a fate similar to that of the Lusitania.

Sir Robert Borden goes to England to consult with the War Office and Admiralty as to the general war situation. Great good can be accomplished by such a conference and Canada is to be congratulated on the fact that she will be represented by a statesman who has always been a pronounced imperialist and in whose integrity and earnest desire to cooperate the British government can have every confidence.

Canada has done good work in the way of supplying both men and munitions to Britain. Already this country has 125,000 men under arms, either at the front, or ready to go there. Also, this country has executed war orders for the Allies to the value of $200,000,000, which, as Hon. J. D. Hazen said the other day, equals the value of a Canadian harvest. The benefit to Canadian manufacturers from this source is great and thus Canada has profited.

On the other hand there is need that Canada and every portion of the Empire should cooperate to the utmost in rendering every possible aid to the Allies. The need for munitions is great and the fact that Canada has been in a position to satisfactorily execute every order sent from the War Office has drawn to this country the warm approval of the men in control of affairs in Britain. The statement of Earl Kitchener to Col. Cantle in the matter of munitions Canada had risen to the occasion to a greater extent than most of the manufacturers in Britain, is evidence that the work is appreciated.

reason for the statement. Why should not the opinions of the Times in 1904 carry as much influence as its views in 1915? And particularly since the same gentleman has occupied the editorial chair of that paper during the whole period. If the people are not to be influenced by his condemnation of the G. T. P. bargain in 1904, when he was paid to condemn it, is there any reason why they should give weight to his defence of that road today when he is paid to defend it? Possibly, there may be some subtle argument to be advanced in favor of that versatile journalist but the opinion of most people will be that he is in deep water and is additionally hampered by his inability to swim.

The Times complains that the N. T. R. is organized for business from Winnipeg to Halifax and asks why St. John is not included. The answer can best be provided by the Times itself which on November 1st, 1904, said: "Don't forget that if it had not been for Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Senator Cox and a few others who could not wait the people of Canada would not have been bound to a corporation largely foreign which has its railway terminus at a foreign port. Don't forget that Mr. R. L. Borden is the man to fight the wrong and protect the country from those who would sacrifice its best interests."

Readers of the Evening Times during the past few months have enjoyed perusal of some charming little verse from the pen of the talented editor of that paper. For the most part the compositions have been on themes inspired by the war. But the Times has also published some interesting political verse, on its front page and we take the liberty of republishing in another column this morning a little poem which first saw the day in the Times of Oct. 31, 1904. In the light of happenings since that date it is almost prophetic.

Apparently the Russian bear has his "second wind" and is now ready to continue his little argument with the Germans.

Italy has suffered her first naval reverse at the hands of Austria. But the score will soon be evened.

That proposed children's parade as a stimulant to recruiting is an excellent idea. A procession of little ones who have given father or big brother to the cause of Empire should prove an inspiring sight.

Laurier's Guarantee

Under the above caption, the Evening Times of October 31st, 1904, published on its first page the following lines which, viewed in connection with the recent attitude of that newspaper in defending Laurier's promises regarding the Grand Trunk Pacific and St. John, should be of particular interest:

Laurier's Guarantee.
(Special to the sunshine; I'll guarantee people; I'll guarantee music by day and by night; I'll guarantee beauty and sweetness and light; Let us look to the future and ponder no more; On the numerous things I have promised before; For 'twas mentioned, when first my career I began, That I as an exceedingly promising man, I will flatter your fancy and nourish your schemes; With limitless wealth from the mint of my dreams; Come, pledge me a vote 'ere I part from every assistance; And I'll fling guarantees with a prodigious grace; You'll find I won't falter, what'er be the boon; A rose-bud in winter; a snow-drop in June; The health of a peasant; the pomp of a King; In short I will promise you any old thing; Don't listen to Borden, but hark now to me; What matter if Portland does get G. T. P? I would go on further, but perhaps you have heard; Of the value electors have placed on my word; Don't mind my past record, but do what you can; Though I fail to perform, I'm a promising man.

Mr. Lloyd George

(London Daily Mail.)
Mr. Lloyd George has done more to cheer up the people of England than any other man. His speech at Manchester, his speeches elsewhere, and the bold action of his Department have helped to re-establish public confidence. Mr. Lloyd George has the courage to tell the people the truth. We are tired of hearing only smooth news of having had things dotted out to us, and of having favorable facts related at great length and with great emphasis. The people of this country are not children. We know that we are up against a very serious proposition. We realize that this war will demand all our energies, all our strength, and all our resources before it is brought to a satisfactory conclusion. There has been too much administration of soothing syrup and too much fear of alarming the public. The public ought to be alarmed! Mr. Lloyd George recognizes this. It is very hard to realize that the Minister of Munitions was even only a year ago the boyer man of half England. The city feared him. The denunciation of Lloyd George that took place every night in nine out of ten first-class suburban railway carriages was as bitter as the denunciation hurled today at some of the men who are trying to wake the nation up to the seriousness of the war. The men who denounced him then are the first to praise him now. The city will doubtless erect in time—may it be a very long time!—a statue to him in front of the Royal Exchange. Lloyd George has won out not only because he has had the courage to adjust his principles to the new facts, but because he has shown a force and splendid ability and driving power such as no other statesman in England possesses.

IMPRESSIONS OF M. CRUPPI

A Series of Interesting Articles Appearing in Paris Paper.

The Martin of Paris is publishing a series of articles by M. Jean Cruppi, member of the French Parliament, and former Minister of Foreign Affairs, who has been gathering in England impressions of what is thought and desired there of British projects and British hopes.

Speaking of the organization of the British Army, he says: "History will tell what strength of mind the Asquiths and the Kitcheners have shown when at certain times they have nobly forgotten the defence of their island and emptied England of her last forces, for Kitchener before organizing the irresistible forces of the United Kingdom, a sergeant who writes to the people, describes to them the country's peril, and endeavors to persuade them by figures and pictures.

"Lloyd George is the living expression of this work, which is the continuation and development of the efforts already accomplished. I was in England when on June 3 the Minister of Munitions delivered to the workers of Manchester his magnificent 'call to the workshop.' And so a formidable army is to be added to the force already gathered at the front."

In conclusion, M. Cruppi says: "All the persons I have seen showed me the complete unity which prevails in the desire to reduce Germany. Whigs or Tories, Scots or Irishmen, desire only that from the bloodshed among our sons the union of France and Great Britain will arise, tightened and strengthened by the common trial. In France these things are known, but it is good that they should be recited by a witness who has been able, as they say in England, to 'realize' them, and support his impressions by the facts which I will give. Before leaving London I had the great honor of being received by the King. Never have the irresistible forces of the United Kingdom appeared to me more energetic, more imposing. These forces are in full activity and moving towards the desired end."

Herr Fuglister, the Swiss subject, who was in Louvain during its destruction by the German troops, recently returned to Switzerland and delivered lectures on "The Truth About Louvain," illustrated with lantern slides from his own photographs. Lectures were given in Neuchâtel, Geneva, and other French-Swiss towns, exciting much interest. The German Minister

MILITARY NEWS OF LOCAL INTEREST

There is still a chance for men for the 5th Battalion, for the Mounted Rifles and for the Artillery. Frank L. Sharp, of Millstream, has been reported wounded and held prisoner by the Germans. The same is true of Peter M. Grant, of Bangor, F. E. L. and Maynard B. Slack, of Wallace, N. S.

Captain Cuthbert J. Morgan, of the North End, and who went away with the first contingent, is now in khaki. He is with the Royal Scots Regiment. "Bud" Tippett, of Patville, is reported to be recovering from wounds received some time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Johnston of Quispamsis have received a letter from their sons, Joseph R. and W. J. Johnston, of the Divisional Ammunition Column, telling of their pleasant trip and safe arrival in England. They also wished to be remembered to all inquiring friends.

Major Paul Hanson, formerly of St. John, who was recently returned from the front incapacitated by his wounds, has been appointed to an instructional position at Valcartier. His valuable knowledge of conditions in Flanders will be imparted to the officers and men now in training for service abroad. Many old rules of war have been broken, many new and startling weapons have been introduced and Major Hanson's lectures and explanations of tactical schemes will be exceedingly useful.

Eastern Tennis Stars at the Coast. San Francisco, July 8.—The Eastern tennis team, which is to compete in the Panama-Pacific Exposition tennis championships, July 10 to 17, arrived today. R. N. Williams, Ed. W. M. Washburn, Dean Mathey and G. M. Church compose the team. They immediately began to practice.

In Berne sent a notice to the Swiss Press that the German Government is shortly publishing a book about Louvain in which the full truth would be stated. When Herr Fuglister wished to deliver his lecture in Berne the police authorities forbade it on the ground of its being contrary to Swiss neutrality, owing to the serious accusations made by this eye-witness against Germany. On Friday, June 11th Herr Fuglister invited his friends privately to hear his lecture in a certain hall in Berne. The French Ambassador and members of the British, Belgian and Italian Legations all went to hear it, besides hundreds of Swiss, only to find the doors of the hall shut and guarded by police. Herr Fuglister, it appeared, had been arrested and his slides confiscated.

The Bernese police authorities have since returned Herr Fuglister's slides, their owner having informed the police that he can prove that the German authorities offered to buy back his slides and documents, and at the same time purchase his silence about Louvain.

HISTORIC LIBERTY BELL ON WAY TO THE FRISCO FAIR

Recorded by the First Brigade, National Guard of Pennsylvania, composed of three Philadelphia regiments, and the First Troop, City Cavalry, the Liberty Bell, the old Revolutionary relic, passed between lanes of thousands of persons to the Pennsylvania Railroad station in Philadelphia, was hoisted on a specially constructed car and amid cheers left for the Panama-Pacific Exposition. The bell is being taken on a special train, which will make more than seventy stops for local celebrations before it reaches San Francisco on the night of July 16. Six months will elapse before it will be returned to its case in Independence Hall.

PROVINCIAL RED CROSS WORK DURING LAST THREE MONTHS

A Vigorous Campaign Was Carried On and the Results Were Highly Satisfactory—Reports of the Officers Were Received.

The quarterly meeting of the New Brunswick branch of the Red Cross Society was held yesterday morning in the Mayor's office. Besides the Mayor there were present: Lady Tilley, Miss Clements, Col. E. T. Sturdee, H. A. Powell, K. C., and James A. Belyea. The reports of the treasurer, Lady Tilley, and secretary, Miss Clements, for the last three months, were presented, and great satisfaction expressed for the painstaking and efficient manner in which the work of the organization had been carried out.

Treasurer's Report.
The report of the treasurer referred to the progress made in connection with the provision of beds in the Duchess of Connaught's Canadian Red Cross Hospital at Oliveden, as well as anaesthetics and hospital supplies. Col. Hodgkiss, Red Cross commissioner in England, in a letter recently received expressed thanks to the people of New Brunswick for their splendid efforts. He said that one of the wards would be named after this province. A brass panel with the New Brunswick coat of arms will be placed in this ward. The report adds:

"Such has been the interest and so great the need for the accommodation of our wounded men, that a short time ago it was decided that the hospital should be enlarged, so that instead of five hundred beds it should contain a thousand, thus doubling its capacity. Word was sent to this effect and I at once wrote to Noel Marshall, at Toronto, asking how many beds New Brunswick might have in this new lot of five hundred. He replied that the response to the appeal had come in such a measure from all over Canada that he did not think it would be possible for New Brunswick to have more than ten, and very soon I will be able to forward my list of ten, with cheque for the necessary $500. This list will read as follows: Cross Creek Village, Women's Institute, Williamsburg, Hopewell Hill (subscribed by the young people of the place), Upper Jemseg, Tabusintac, Tay Creek, Caron Point, Back Bay, Hillsboro (traised by the United Women's Institute), and the money for the tenth bed is now being collected.

So through the Red Cross Society, the Province of New Brunswick will have a splendid representation of 22 beds in this most Canadian of all our Red Cross hospitals, and I am sure there will be a deep and continued interest shown in its progress.

Inquiries having been received regarding the cost of the upkeep of a bed for one year, Noel Marshall has written me stating that the sum of twenty-five dollars is sufficient for this purpose."

Bi-State League Disbands.
Prescript, III, July 8.—The refusal of the Racine club to play in a four-team circuit resulted today in the dissolution of the Bi-State League, organized six months ago, with five clubs in Illinois and one in Wisconsin. Two of the teams quit Monday.

Donations.
Lady Tilley also wishes to acknowledge the receipt of the following contributions, during the months of June and July to date: Royaton, per Mrs. Harry Weed, for the Duchess of Connaught Hospital, $10; Salsbury Red Cross Society, for respirators, $3; Ladies of Great Salmon River, per Mrs. Ora P. King, for hospital supplies, $10; Tay Creek Red Cross Society, for Cross Creek Red Cross Hospital, $50; Anasance Ladies' Aid, for hospital supplies, $12; Tabusintac, per Miss Laura H. Secretary's Report.
The secretary's report for the three months showed that, as a result of earnest work, 175 boxes and parcels were received, and 148 boxes shipped to Halifax for consignment to the soldiers. No less than 4,960 pairs of socks were received in response to the appeal on Dominion Sock Day. About 1,410 respirators were also received for the use of the men. The report also referred to many generous contributions of various articles from young and old in different parts of the province.

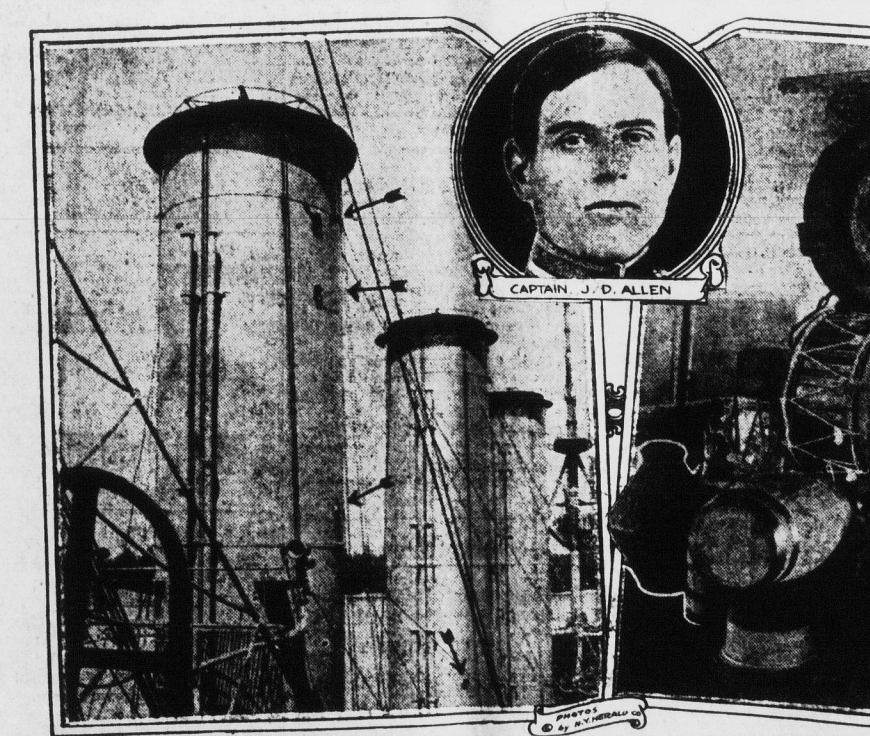

PERSONAL.
Hon. John Morrissey and Hon. J. A. Murray passed through the city yesterday afternoon on their way to Fredericton.

DIED.
FINLEY—Entered into peaceful rest on the 7th inst., after a long illness, Florence A., beloved wife of Joseph Finley leaving her husband and one daughter to mourn.

Funeral on Friday from her late residence, 103 Leinster street, at 2:15 o'clock. Service in St. John (Stone) church at 2:45.

SMITH—On June 30th last, at Middleton, N. S., George F. Smith, of Pine Grove, Wilmet, N. S., aged 61 years.

INTERESTING PICTURES OF THE BATTLE OFF THE FALKLAND ISLANDS

Here are two interesting views of the British cruiser Kent, which is now being repaired after a cruise of nine months. The scene on the right shows some relics from the Germans in the battle off the Falkland Islands. The other view shows relics of the Dresden, picked up after the vessel sunk. At the top of the illustration is one of the Dresden's captain bars, below is a life buoy from the same ship, at the back are two of the Dresden's ammunition canisters, on each side is an anchor buoy taken from the Dresden, and two buckets and one barrico complete the list with the exception of the Kent's drums and bugles. Also shown is Captain Allen of the Kent, who is now on the immortal list of Britain's naval heroes.

ORANGE PARADE PROMISES WELL

Grand Celebration in Fredericton On Monday—St. John Will Be There.

The Fredericton Orangemen are planning for the greatest Twelfth of July celebration ever held in that city. The lowest estimate places the number of Orangemen, who will be in Fredericton on Monday, at eight thousand.

The St. John brethren will be accompanied by the Sons of England Band. The parade promises to be notably large. The train from St. John will leave here at 9:30 a. m. and returning will leave Fredericton at eight o'clock.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO ROCKWOOD PARK

Several Specimens Added to The Zoo—Live Young Partridges Wanted.

Miss Marguerite Allen, daughter of Mrs. A. Allen, recently observing a porcupine near her mother's residence at Duck Cove, pluckily grabbed it with her hands around the neck—the only safe way of capturing it without injury. She placed it in the woods and then telephoned to the management of Rockwood Park, offering them her prize. The animal can now be seen at Rockwood Park enjoying life with its new companions.

Master Cecil Slocum, of 16 Exmouth street, has had in his possession for some time a tame raccoon. Desiring that more persons should see this interesting little animal, he has given it to the Park.

A few days ago fishermen in the Bay captured a young loon, and bringing it with their catch to Messrs. Leonard Bros., that firm communicated with the park, and an effort will be made to rear it there in one of the small ponds.

The management would like to procure some young live partridges, also some owls other than the Great Horned variety, for which a reasonable sum will be paid.

POLO WAIT FOR 15 YEARS.

Chicago, July 8.—It would not be sportsmanlike for American polo players to send a challenge to England for the international polo trophy within 15 years, according to Foxhall Keene, here today to referee the opening tomorrow of the Western polo championship tourney.

England took the cup away in fair play," he said. "Of the Army players who did it one or two have been killed and other wounded. England cannot rehabilitate its polo team in 15 years. Until her teams are thoroughly back to form I do not think a challenge should be sent from America. We want the cup, but we want it with honor."

JONES WILL REMAIN.
St. Louis, July 8.—Fleider Jones, suspended manager of the St. Louis Federal, announced this afternoon that he was reconsidering his resignation, which he telegraphed to Phil Ball, principal owner of the club, after a dispute with Umpire Howell in the Kansas City game Monday.

After a conference between Jones and Ball, it was announced that Jones definitely had reconsidered his resignation and that he would leave with the team for Pittsburg.

NEW YORK MARKET NERVOUS, AND DEALINGS ON MORE CONTRACTED SCALE

Several Standard Stocks Sold Below Low Levels of Preceding Day—Foreign Exchanges Steady—Bank of England Statement Shows a Decrease

New York, July 8.—Stocks were again nervous and unsettled today but not to the same degree as yesterday. Dealings were on a much more contracted scale, the result in large part of some diminution in the volume of foreign offerings. Selling for Europe was sufficiently extensive, however, to cause more new low records.

Louisville and Nashville declined to 104 1/2. Southern Railway common and preferred to 13 1/2 and 45 1/2, respectively, and Missouri Pacific fell to 3 1/2. Missouri, Kansas and Texas, Kansas City Southern and St. Louis and San Francisco second preferred also were weak.

Many of the standard railway stocks sold under yesterday's low levels, especially in the last hour, on publication of mixed crop reports, while others seemed in process of readjustment to new conditions. Leaders like Reading, Union Pacific and U. S. Steel offered resistance to bear pressure, but the list, as a whole, was inclined to yield on moderate offerings. War specialties ranged from one to two points higher, and copper hardened on denial of reports that the metal is being sold under quoted prices.

Total sales amounted to 355,000 shares.

Steadiness in the various markets for foreign exchange gave added point to the negotiations now pending for the new British loan at 5 per cent. There was a fair demand for bills on London, and continental remittances were firm, even Reichsmarks manifesting a harder tendency. This last condition might be ascribed to purchase of bills on Berlin and Hamburg against recent German sales of our securities.

Money brokers reported a better demand for mercantile loans, an indication of betterment in general lines of trade. Quoted rates show no change from recent easy monetary conditions.

The feature of the Bank of England's weekly statement was the further large decrease—almost $6,000,000 in gold. The bank strengthened its liability reserves over the preceding week, but the decrease of $6,000,000 in public deposits probably represented withdrawals for participation in the new war loan.

Japanese bonds bearing the German stamp figured in today's bond deal.

Total sales, par value, aggregated $2,170,000.

RUSSIANS CLASSIFIED

Quite apart from the many alien races on the frontier there are three main groups among the Russians themselves, differing from one another not only in dialects, habits and disposition, but physically as well.

First there are the Great Russians, numbering more than 82,000,000 and much the largest of the three groups. They occupy the heart of Russia, with Moscow as the centre.

Second is the Little Russian, about 37,000,000 strong. He holds the territory south and southwest, including the Don Cossacks, and his centre is at the old and first capital of the Russians, on the Dnieper at Kiev.

There is the White Russian, about 5,000,000 in number. He inhabits east of Poland and northward around Lithuania.

The land of the White Russian is heavily wooded and in parts marshy, the soil is that of the Baltic provinces, being poor and unproductive. The territory of the Little Russian, on the other hand, is flat and open, comprising the rich black earth belt and the vast grazing steppes of the south.

The distinction between these groups is not fanciful but very real. The language spoken by the three groups, though basically the same, differs so much that they cannot understand each other. One may be quite conversant with Muscovite and yet be unable to understand the Russian of the Ukraine.

Indeed, on the border territory be-

QUOTATIONS IN THE ST. JOHN MARKETS

CLOSING LETTER OF N.Y. MARKET BY E. & C. RANDOLPH

A few changes have occurred in the wholesale prices of commodities during the past few days. Tapioca is fifty cents dearer; cream of tartar has advanced from five to six cents; molasses is from one-half to one cent up. Eggs, both fresh and case, are about three cents a dozen dearer than last week. Bermuda onions are now both plentiful and cheap. There have been some changes in the prices of hides and skins, with an upward tendency in each case. Jobbers say that trade is quiet, but not unusually so for this time of the year. Late quotations in the whole sale market are here given:

CUTWORMS AND HOW TO FIGHT THEM. Farmers, market gardeners and others who cultivate the soil will be pleased to know that the Entomological branch of the Dominion Department of Agriculture has issued a 31 page bulletin (No. 10) on "Cutworms and their Control," prepared by Mr. Arthur Gibson, chief assistant entomologist. In the introduction it is stated that cutworms as a class rank in importance with such well known pests as the San Jose scale, the Codling Moth, and the Hessian fly, all of which are among our most destructive insect enemies. There are certainly few insects which year after year, inflict such widespread damage as the various caterpillars known commonly as cutworms. The annual loss occasioned by these insects in Canada amounts to hundreds of thousands of dollars. In the bulletin the methods of controlling cutworms are discussed fully. Under "Preventive Measures" the value of clean cultivation is referred to as well as the placing of bands of tin or paper around plants which are set out. "Remedial Measures" include descriptions of various poisoned baits to destroy the cutworms, directions for the making of proper furrows or ditches to prevent the advance of armies of cutworms, etc. Fifteen common kinds of cutworms are described in popular detail and much information given on the habits and life-history of the various species. The bulletin is fully illustrated, the figures being clear and well chosen. Altogether there are 20 illustrations of cutworms, cutworm moths, injury to

MANAGER CHARLEY HERZOG

It is a foregone conclusion that at the end of the season Charley Herzog will be released from the management of the Cincinnati Reds. Herzog seems to be a complete failure in this role. He signed as manager in February, 1914, and his contract was for one year. The Cincinnati club would have turned Herzog out last fall had it not been for the clamor of the Porvill baseball critics, who believed that the Cantaloupe King would prove a success. The Reds have played so poorly this year, however, that Herrmann and the Fleischmanns, who own the club, will send a barrel of money. Herzog, it is reported, has been at longheads with them on more than one occasion, so that there is plenty of friction. It was said the other day that the Reds might sign Jack Hendricks to succeed Herzog next year, but it is believed that Hendricks, if he can get his release from the McGills' Hoosiers, will take hold of a club in the American League, perhaps Cleveland.

ATHLETES KILLED IN ACTION ON THE FIELD OF BATTLE

(From the New York Evening Sun.) Present day historians have made many prophecies concerning the effect of the war in Europe on civilization. Ponderous documents have been written foretelling the number of years it will take to rebuild the cities destroyed, to restore the peaceful commerce of ante-bellum days and to pay off the monstrous debt incurred by the belligerents. The loss of life has been appalling and many attempts have been made to explain what this means to the future of the nations at war. One phase of this grim, desperate struggle that has escaped notice in the more momentous questions of the day is the effect the European war will have on athletics and sport in the various countries engaged in mortal conflict. The 1916 Olympics were scheduled for Berlin, but it is doubtful whether there will be any for many years to come, and it is likely that international tournaments of every kind will be called off until the places in the ranks of noted athletes killed or incapacitated in the war can be filled by new recruits.

JEFF SMITH AND ATTELL ARE BARRED

Two American boxers have been barred from boxing in Australia in the future on account of their unsatisfactory work, according to advices received here from Sydney. Jeff Smith of Bayonne, N. J., who has been hailed by his manager, Al Lippe, as the middleweight champion of the world, came under the ban of the Stadium, Ltd., which controls boxing in the Antipodes, for using foul tactics in a match with Les Darcy at Sydney last month, and Young Atteley received his fare home from "Snowy" Baker after it had been proved that he did not try in a recent bout with Jack Clune, who last year toured the United States. Smith's offenses were more inexcusable than Atteley's, for his foulings of Darcy is said to have been very evident to the spectators. The low blows were struck by Smith but the referee excused the American's first breach of the rules. He could not well overlook the second infraction. Smith's share of the purse, amounting to about $2,500, was withheld and will be turned into a fund being raised for wounded Australian soldiers. Al Lippe has issued a writ claiming the money for the boxer. The Bayonne man has been unfortunate in his stay in Australia. Twice he was booked for big events on the best holidays of the year. One was Easter Saturday, when he was certain of picking up at least $2,000. Lippe created absurd difficulties and Smith lost these matches. Altogether the American boxer has lost $10,000 through poor management and bad conduct. There is plenty of money for American boxers in Australia, but the public there will not stand for exhibitions such as Smith gave against Darcy. Eddie McGoorty, who reached Sydney three weeks ago, has made many friends in that city. Les Darcy and Mick King are spoken of as his first opponents. Jim Corbett, former world's champion heavyweight, brought out a youngster named Tom Cowler while he toured Australia and Cowler may be matched with McGoorty. He is six feet three inches tall and weighs more than 200 pounds. Young Billy Gradwell, the New Jersey lightweight, who arrived in Sydney while he toured Australia and Cowler may be matched with McGoorty. He is six feet three inches tall and weighs more than 200 pounds. Foy has taken Gradwell to his mansion in the suburb of Bellevue. A gymnasium has been provided there for the boxer.

Germany, it is reported, lost the two greatest athletes the country ever had, Oer, R. Rau, was the champion sprinter and record holder. This three-footer still stand against his name are: 100 metres, 10 1/2 seconds; 200 metres, 22 seconds; 300 metres, 36 1/2 seconds. All these were made in 1911. The other, Hans Braun, the middle distance runner, was, according to Mel Sheppard, our former amateur champion, one of the world's greatest half milers. In the Stockholm Olympics Braun was defeated by Charlie Reid, path of the American team for first place by several yards. Braun was the holder of German records for 400, 500 and 800 metres. Anthony P. Wilding was the best known tennis player to be killed in action. He was a member of the Australian team which captured the Davis cup in 1914 and was known throughout the world for his wonderful skill on the courts. In his college days he was a star at Cambridge University. Wilding was conceded to be one of the greatest players in the history of the sport. Prior to his death in the desperate fighting in the Dardanelles, Wilding had won promotion of valiant fighting and exceptional bravery under fire and wore a lieutenant's shoulder straps when he fell. The brilliant young player from the Antipodes was well known in the United States, having played in Davis cup matches against the German team at Pittsburgh and the Americans at Forest Hills. That he was extremely popular with American followers of the game was evident from the widespread expressions of sorrow caused by the news of his death and the glowing tributes paid to his memory by all those who were fortunate enough to meet him. Another famous English player to be killed was Kenneth Powell, who was captain of the Cambridge team at the time Wilding attended the English university. Powell, who enlisted as a private in the infantry at the outbreak of the war, was paid to be the first tennis player under fire on the Continent. He was wounded in the trenches and carried to a little village at the rear, where he died shortly afterward. A left-hander, Powell learned much of his game from Wilding in their college days and later adopted a style greatly similar to that of Norman E. Brookes, himself a left-hander. Powell won the Swedish covered court championship at Stockholm in 1913 and in the same year captured the London championship and the London covered court title. In addition to his fame on the courts, Powell was widely known as a track and field athlete and was a champion hurdler at both Rugby and Cambridge.

Hon. John E. Wilson Savings Bank Manager

Announcement of His Appointment Received from Ottawa Last Night.

Announcement of the appointment of Hon. John E. Wilson, of St. John, as assistant receiver general and manager of the Dominion Savings Bank here, was made from Ottawa last night. The position was left vacant by the death of Dr. Wetmore. Hon. Mr. Wilson has been in business in this city for many years and he has made for himself a wide circle of friends. He has represented this constituency in the local house, and for the last few years was president of the legislative council of the province. He also sat for a time in the common council of the city. Hon. John Edward Wilson, president of J. E. Wilson, Ltd., iron foundry and sheet metal workers, of St. John, was born in St. John on August 6, 1862. He was educated at the William Mills school in this city. After apprenticeship with A. G. Bowes & Co. he was employed in the G. Heveor Copper Works until 1884, in which year he began business on his own account. In 1905 he was elected president of the company which bears his name. He was elected to the New Brunswick legislature as member for St. John.

HON. JOHN E. WILSON, Assistant Receiver-General and Manager of Dominion Savings Bank. He was born in St. John on August 6, 1912. He was elected in 1912. On July 20, 1912 he was appointed as a member of the government without portfolio. He was elected as an alderman of the city in 1896 and re-elected by acclamation in 1907. He married Beatrice J. Orr, and has one son and three daughters. Hon. Mr. Wilson is a member of the order of A. F. and A. M., and of the Knights of Pythias.

CHILDREN WILL HELP SECURE MORE RECRUITS

Parade Will Be Feature of Campaign to Press Home the Great Need of More Men.

An effort to stimulate recruiting for the 55th New Brunswick Battalion will be made in St. John at once, and in order to draw attention to the need of men, the children of the city, having relatives at the front, will take part in a monster procession on the afternoon of Tuesday next. The 55th Battalion requires nearly three hundred more provincial men in order to make it a purely New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island regiment. The responsibility of recruiting the corps to strength rests with the young men of the province, and it is with the idea of pressing this idea home to the young men of the city that the parade will be held. Many brave New Brunswick men have given their services to the Empire, and several have given their lives in order that those at home might retain their liberty. Greater sacrifice will be necessary before the power of the Kaiser is crushed and the horrors of militarism banished from the world. New Brunswick men, who can possibly leave home, are needed in the ranks of the 55th and other units, and it is hoped that all, who possibly can, will offer their services at once, so that they can be properly trained for the great work. The Children's Part. The parade of the children will take place Tuesday afternoon, starting at 2:30 o'clock. The special committee having the arrangement for the parade in charge met yesterday morning. C. D. Howard, supervisor of playgrounds, will have charge of the parade, and he expects to have nearly five thousand children in line. The parade will muster in King street east. Each child will carry a flag, and suitable banners will also be displayed. Commissioner Wigmore, Hon. John E. Wilson and F. B. Ellis will have charge of arrangements for bands, and it is hoped that several will offer their services for the demonstration. J. N. Gilling offered the use of the Star Theatre as a rallying place for the children of the North End. It was suggested that the mayor and commissioners and the local members of the legislature should ride in automobiles on Friday morning at 11:30 in the council chamber at City Hall.

The deputy district officers were present and conducted the ceremonies. There was a large attendance of members of the lodge and visiting brothers.

Municipal Home Picnic. The annual picnic of the inmates of the Municipal Home was held yesterday on the grounds of the institution. The usual sports were carried out and prizes, donated by the city merchants, were awarded to the successful contestants. Among those who helped to make the picnic a success were Ven. Archbishop Raymond, Rev. H. A. O'Neill and Miss Maguire.

Police Court. Herbert Kane and William McDonald were fined $2 each in the police court yesterday morning, having been adjudged guilty of smoking in the country market. Thomas Rogers, charged with assaulting Thomas Murphy in view of the police was allowed to go in order to go aboard his ship, which was sailing at noon. One drunk got two months in jail as his sentence.

New Ferry Collector. Elmer A. Young of West St. John, has been appointed ticket collector in the West Side ferry toll house. For many years Mr. Young has been news agent on the Boston train and has many friends among the travelling public as well as among the citizens generally. He has been receiving hearty congratulations upon his appointment.

Unmarked Logs Sold. The "no marked logs" took place in the Board of Trade rooms yesterday. Many lumbermen were present. Auctioneer Potts first offered the spruce merchantable logs, and after several bids they were knocked down to Fisher Miller at $18.50 per thousand with bats, at two-thirds. The pine logs were bought by Stetson, Cutler & Co. at $6.75. The cedar and hemlock sold at $8.75, and the hemlock at $5.75, full size, to Frasers, Limited, Fredericton. These prices are for logs at Fredericton.

Hon. J. B. M. Baxter went to Fredericton last evening on the Montreal Express.

ACTIVITIES OF THE CANADIAN ARTILLERY AT SHORNCLIFFE

Sergeant H. H. Patchell of This City Tells of Work of Our Men in England—Learning the Game of War Down to the Smallest Detail.

Sergeant Major Holly H. Patchell in a letter to his brother, Louis L. Patchell, gives an intimate description of the work being done by the Canadian artillery in England. His letter in part is as follows: "As you know I am sergeant major on the 2nd battery Canadian reserve of C. F. A. This brigade consists of three batteries, each acting as a reserve for a brigade of the C. F. A. at the front. We train the men here and send them in drafts to the C. F. A. in France. Already more than 650 men have passed through the 2nd battery. Each battery has forty horses and two guns and is really a school of artillery and as the men become efficient they are drafted as needed to fill casualties at the front. "A reserve battery consists of three officers, eight non-commissioned officers and fifteen men. Sometimes we have 325 men in the battery, at present there are 154. I am chief instructor of the 2nd battery. "Nearly all the men of the old 23rd are now in France. Major McKay went over in command of a draft a few weeks ago but has returned again. Many of the senior officers are sent over for instructional purposes. "Shorncliffe is one of the healthiest camps in England. Our men have been particularly free from all sickness. We have excellent hospital services. In fact far better than I ever dreamed of. I shall now give you an idea of what a day's work consists of here: Reveille sounds at 5:30 a.m.; stables at 5:45; breakfast at 7:00; O. C.'s parade at 8:45; battery gun drill from 9 to 12 (that is hook horses in gun and wagon, drivers mount on horses, we go away off in country, take up covered positions, come into action, lay telephones, in fact do all the work necessary as though on active service). Stables at 12:30; gunnery instruction from 2 to 4 p.m.; stables at 5:00; tea at 5:30; tattoo at 9:30; lights out at 9:45. "The government allows us so much meat, bacon, bread, vegetables, cheese, tea, jam, salt, pepper, beans and butter for every man. There is an allowance of eleven cents per day per man and this is used to purchase whatever the man desires. Green vegetables are available, also eggs, milk, coffee and other things. "Another good move which has been introduced is that every officer and man has to take a course in musketry at Hythe. It is a real course, too. All live ammunition with disappearing targets and rapid fire work which is real and you have to hit the target. The latest Ross rifle with the five cartridge rapid loading clip is a dandy. With it is no trouble at all to load and fire ten shots in thirty seconds. The new type peep sight makes aiming a lot easier and quicker.

NORWEGIAN BARQUE HAS GUARD ABOARD

The Caracas Said to Have Taken On More Oil Than Necessary for Voyage to United Kingdom.

A guard, consisting of six men from the Home Defense Company, was placed aboard the Norwegian bark Caracas yesterday. The bark is berthed in Rodney slip and the presence of soldiers aboard her was the cause of comment by persons going up and down the wharf. It is said that the bark took on an extra supply of crude petroleum, more than enough for her auxiliary engines on the voyage over. Neither civil nor military authorities here would give out any information concerning the placing of the guard on the ship. The vessel is 996 tons register and is commanded by Captain Kaalslad. She arrived here on June 15, from Porsgrund to load deals for W. M. MacKay for the United Kingdom.

MOTOR BOAT TRIP FOR THE BOYS OF Y.M.C.A.

Summer Camp Idea Has Been Abandoned, but boys will enjoy Outing on River.

A week's motor boat trip up the river will be undertaken as part of summer activities of the Y. M. C. A. boys' division. The party will leave on Monday morning next, in charge of P. J. Legge, boys' secretary, and will proceed up the river as far as Grand Lake. On the return it is proposed to go up the Belleisle, Washademoak and the Kennebecasis. During the outing lessons in First Aid, swimming, Bible study and signalling will be given to the boys. Those making the trip are William Howes, Herbert Maston, Paul Cross, Gordon Smith, Ronald Earle, Edgar Pummer, William Lee, Jack Jordan, Charles Jordan, Robert Cochran, Byers Prince, Hugh Gregor, Murray Skinner, Gordon Ferris and P. J. Legge in charge. On account of the lack of applications the proposed camp to Robertson's Point has been abandoned.

MONEY AVAILABLE FOR SOLDIERS' COMFORTS

A concert and entertainment was held last night in Edith Avenue Mission hall by the Young People's Society of East St. John. Mr. Dakin presiding. An enjoyable time was spent by all present, and as a result of the success achieved, for which Miss Edith Massey was in large measure responsible, a substantial sum becomes available for aiding the work of the Soldiers' Comfort Association.
