Calling Attention to Latter's Troops in Ruhr District.

QUITTE UNCALLED FOR France Will Insist That the Terms of the Peace Treaty Be Adhered to Strictly.

Paris, April 5.—(By the Associated Press.)—The attitude of the French Government in the present German crisis is defined and explained in a note issued tonight. After reiterating that the Government has no hostile designs towards Germany, desiring, on the contrary, the resumption of normal relations with that country, and expressing realization of the difficult situation of the Berlin Government, the note declares that the German Government has given way to pressure by the militarist party, "not fearing to infringe the imperative and most solemn stipulations of the Versailles treaty."

The note continues: "The sequence of facts following the first request for permission for the entry of extra troops into the Ruhr district was made just after the insurgent movement by the military authorities on March 15. It was renewed from Berlin on March 17 in the name of the legitimate Government of Von Hindenburg, who had remained in Berlin with the consent, at least implied, of the insurgent Government."

GATHERING OF GREAT WAR VETS

The Outcome of Which Will Probably be Foundation of One Soldiers' Organization.

Ottawa, April 5.—A unique gathering which holds every promise of becoming historic took place at the Chateau Laurier tonight when representatives of all the chartered returned soldier organizations in Canada sat down to dinner and took the initiative step which is hoped to lead to the amalgamation of all the returned soldier bodies of the Dominion.

The members of the delegations which today interviewed the Cabinet on the question of cash bonus to returned men met on amicable terms the Dominion Command of the Great War Veterans' Association.

J. Harry Flynn, president of the United Veterans' League, chief of the flat $2,000 bonus demand responded to a toast to "The Veterans entente cordiale," which was proposed by Grant McNeil, Dominion Secretary of the G. W. V. A. and they were in absolute accord on the question of the unity of the veterans.

"Unity has been my dream," said Mr. Flynn, "and ever since I have been active in returned soldier work, I have urged a one grand organization." "Wipe out past misunderstandings," urged Mr. McNeil, "bury our personal differences and let us get together on common ground."

The dinner was arranged by a group of Ottawa returned men active in the advocacy of unified action on the part of all organizations and Captain W. F. Grant, past president of the Ottawa G. W. V. A. was in the chair.

The gathering was of the highest importance inasmuch as it may lead to the amalgamation of the G. W. V. A., the United Veterans' League, the Grand Army of Canada, His Majesty's Army and Navy Veterans' League and the original club of Toronto, all of whom were represented. For months past it has been the common belief that these star returned soldiers bodies would get their heads together, and high personages have pointed their finger at the apparent dissension in the ranks of the veterans.

NEW GOVERNMENT FORMED IN TURKEY

Constantinople, April 5.—(By the Associated Press)—Announcement was made today that the resignation of the Cabinet of Sait Pasha and the designation of Damed Ferid Pasha by the Sultan to form a new government was caused by the refusal of Sait Pasha to renounce his Nationalist principles and declare the forces of Mustafa Kemal, the Nationalist leader revolutionary and an insurrection against the Constantinople authorities.

The Sultan, it is said, is against the Nationalist forces and their demands and the new cabinet probably will be composed chiefly of members of the Liberal Party, which is willing to accept any peace terms in the hope of retaining the Sultan in Constantinople. The Nationalists are seizing the funds of the Ottoman National Bank branches throughout Anatolia.

SPRING DEBILITY

Loss of Appetite, That Tired Feeling and Sometim's Eruptions.

Thousands take Hood's Sarsaparilla as their spring medicine for that tired feeling, nervous weakness, impure blood and testify it makes them feel better, eat and sleep better, and "makes food taste good."

Spring debility is a condition in which it is especially hard to combat disease germs, which invade the system here, there and everywhere. The white blood corpuscles, sometimes called "the little soldiers in the blood," because it is their duty to fight disease germs, are too weak to do good service.

Hood's Sarsaparilla increases the "little soldiers' food" and enables them to resist germs of every kind. It has stood the test of three generations, giving entire satisfaction. Get it today.

If a laxative or cathartic is needed take Hood's Pills.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of Mrs. Roland Morton Smith was held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from her late residence, 282 Princess street, by Rev. H. A. Goodwin officiating and interment was in Fernhill cemetery.

The funeral of John Henry Wright took place yesterday afternoon from his parents' residence, 91 Victoria street, the Rev. Neil McLaughlan officiating. Interment in Cedar Hill cemetery.

SUFFERED WITH BOILS LAST 5 YEARS

Boils are simply a breaking out of bad blood, and anyone who has suffered from them knows how sick and miserable they make you feel. Just when you think you are cured of one, another seems ready to take its place and prolong your misery. All this is due to the fact that you can't get rid of them.

While the skin appears to be the cause of the irritation the real disease is rooted in the blood. To get rid of these painful pests it is necessary to get right at the seat of the trouble.

When the blood is purified, cleansed and vitalized, by Burdock Blood Bitters, the boils will quickly disappear, your misery is at an end, and health and strength come back again.

Mr. Robt. Johnson, Barkway, Ont., writes:—"I have suffered very much during the last five years from boils, having as many as five at once. I tried different remedies without any relief. I was advised to try Burdock Blood Bitters, which I did, and after taking just one bottle I have had no more boils."

t Builds You Up

THESE are letters of good cheer. They tell of health restored, of nerves strengthened, of pain and weakness overcome in the only natural way—by building up the vigor of the human system.
These letters tell you better than we can in any other way what you may expect from the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.
Everywhere you find people enthusiastic over Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. If you do not happen to know any of these people ask your friends about this "food cure." They are sure to know of some cases in which it has proved a blessing.

Brockville

Mrs. Marabell Dellabough, 262 Brock St., Brockville, Ont., writes—"For about a year, I have suffered from nervousness and run-down system. I had headaches, neuralgic pains through the body, and my nerves used to twitch and I could not stop them. I was very easily worried or tired, and began to feel that my heart action was becoming weak. I went to see a Doctor, and he told me I was nervous and run-down, and needed a tonic. I commenced using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and at the end of three weeks I could see an improvement. I took four boxes in all, and now am completely cured. I can sleep well now, and eat a good hearty meal. I can recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to anyone suffering from nervousness or run-down system."

Petrolia

Mrs. R. Thomas, Eureka St., Petrolia, Ont., writes—"For over two years I suffered with my nerves; sometimes I would break down completely and be in bed for a week at a time. I never could get any sleep until about three or four o'clock in the morning. A friend of mine one day advised me to try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and a treatment of this medicine proved to be just what I needed. It soothed my nerves, made me sleep at night, and strengthened me in every way. I continued using the Nerve Food until I completely recovered. Now I would have no hesitation in recommending it to anyone suffering from nervousness or run-down system."

Clementsport, N.S.

Miss Gertrude M. Burrell, Clementsport, N.S., writes—"I have used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food with splendid results. For a number of years I was afflicted with nervousness, and six years ago had a complete breakdown. I had no control of my nerves, and had terrible hysterical spells. I could not sleep, had night sweats, awful dreams and nightmares. My physician gave me medicine to put me to sleep every night, and another kind to take every two hours during the day, but it did not see to do me any good while I was taking it. I could not really expect to get well. Reading about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food one day, I gave it a trial, and the results from the first box encouraged me, so I continued its use, and found my nerves getting steady and stronger. My appetite improved, and I gained in strength, ambition and flesh. Now I am able to do considerable work, and, oh, how highly I recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food as a good tonic for the whole system."

Spalding, Sask.

Mrs. Oles B. Quale, Spalding, Sask., writes—"I am glad to say that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has done me a great deal of good. When I commenced using this medicine I was very weak and run-down. My memory was poor, and I was gradually going down in weight. My blood was thin, and I was troubled continually with tired feelings and headache. I would hardly get the breakfast over in the morning when I would become so weak that I would have to lie down. One evening my husband read of a case like mine which had been cured by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, so he told me to try it. Inside of a month I began to feel stronger, so I kept right on taking the Nerve Food until I had used fourteen boxes. There is a great change in my condition, and I cannot thank Dr. Chase's Nerve Food enough for all it has done for me."

The old method of treating Nervous diseases was the use of opiates and narcotics to deaden the nerves. Pain was relieved but at terrible expense to the nervous system, because this meant the tearing down of cells and tissues. With the advent of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food the method of treatment was revolutionized because the idea of this "food cure" is to form new, rich blood and build-up the depleted nerve cells. Instead of affording mere relief Dr. Chase's Nerve Food removes the cause of trouble by restoring energy, vigor and vitality to the whole human system.

REAL LEAGUE OF NATIONS COMING SOON

Political Imaginations of People Must First be Educated up to it.

PEOPLE MUST REALIZE NEED OF A WORLD LAW

Upheld by World Authority and Such Realization Already Making Itself Felt.

By H. G. Wells. (Copyright, 1920, by Cross-Atlantic Newspaper Service.)

London, April 4.—I must confess I do not see any disaster to mankind in the refusal of the United States to come into the present league or honor of the treaty of Versailles. The United States and for that matter the better elements of French and English public life entered the great war to put an end to militarism. Germany was our enemy not because she was Germany, but because she was a militarist imperialist. Directly Germany, Austria and Bulgaria laid down their arms and submitted to disarmament they became republics and they were entitled to participate in discussion of the future of Europe and their own penalization equally with their conquerors, with the newly liberated peoples and in a real world conference on the future of the world.

The British empire is too vast, too far reaching a system to remain out of any process of world reconstruction. Its subject peoples must be considered and heard in any re-planning of the world; its navy has to be brought into any world scheme for control of armaments, and if the world is indeed to become one in peace, then it is impossible to have one part of the world within a ring or fence of the Monroe doctrine, cut off from the responsibilities of the federal world and commonwealth.

Until its political imaginations of the peoples of Great Britain and America have been educated up to these vast changes, the outlook for any league that may be contrived will be more or less a sham, a polite name for an entente of this kind and that and the other power against the rest of the world.

In the long run I believe the peoples of Europe, America, India and China will come to realize the need and righteousness of a world law upheld by world authority representing mankind. I believe that realization is already at the back of countless minds. They decline the present league not because of its infringement of sovereignty, but because of its insufficient infringement of sovereignty.

It is not good enough, not strong enough. It will not carry us where we want to go.

If you want to fly across the Atlantic, it is no use starting in a machine with insufficient fuel, and get half way over. So America stands out and waits. It is, I am convinced, an extremely wholesome thing for an aggressive imperialist Britain in Mesopotamia, of France in Syria, Italy in Albania, that America should stand out and wait. It creates just that lonely cold feeling the aggressive imperialist needs.

When Europe, by which I mean Britain, France, Germany (with Austria), Russia, Italy and Spain as principal figures can agree upon a scheme that is not simply a scheme of partition of Asia and Africa—and by 1922 they ought to be chastened to the pitch of such agreement—I have no doubt that they will find the people of the United States very ready and willing to come into brotherhood.

A DANGER SIGNAL—TENDER AND BLEEDING GUMS

Healthy teeth cannot live in diseased tissue. Gums tainted with Pyorrhea are dangerously diseased. For not only the teeth are affected, but Pyorrhea germs seep into the body, lower its vitality and cause many ills. Pyorrhea begins with tender and bleeding gums. Then the gums recede, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of the poisonous germs that breed in pockets about them.

Four out of five people over forty have this disease. But you need not have it. Visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection. And keep Pyorrhea away by using Forhan's For the Gums.

Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhea—or check its progress—if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums hard and healthy, the teeth white and clean. If you have tender or bleeding gums, start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has already set in, use Forhan's according to directions, and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

NO NEED TO FEAR GREAT U. S. NAVY

Nothing Necessarily Unfriendly or Suspicious in Their Big Naval Programme.

IS THE VIEW OF ADMIRAL SIR CYPRIAN BRIDGE

Who Points Out Need on Pacific of Fleet to Protect Commerce and Coastline of Uncle Sam.

The proposed big navy programme of the United States has attracted much attention in England. The Cross-Atlantic Newspaper Service has obtained from Admiral Sir Cyprian Bridge, a signed interview on the subject.

By Admiral Sir Cyprian Bridge, R. N. (copyright) London, April 3.—There's nothing necessarily unfriendly or even suspicious in the proposed building of a much greater navy by the United States. It is all but impossible to discuss naval matters without touching more or less definitely upon foreign relations. Navies have, and cannot help having an international side. The insular situation of England and the composition of the empire, scattered about the world as it is, and connected only by ocean waves, justify a sensitiveness on the part of the British people as regards the relative position of their navy. It is quite possible to be sensitive, however, without being suspicious. The latest news about the prospective naval policy of the United States cannot fail to be interesting to us, but this is not the only country to which it will be of interest. We are told that "Making proper allowances, United States Naval estimates are shown to be no less than $20,000,000 in excess of those of the British." Also, we are told that "at the end of the year when the British personnel will have fallen to 21,000, the United States' personnel will apparently have risen to 177,000." Assuming that these figures are correct, and they have been officially stated in the House of Commons this week. It may be inferred that the United States is before long to be in possession of a navy greater than any in existence. It would not be surprising if the people asked, not necessarily enviously or apprehensively, what this naval policy means.

The U. S. has thousands of miles of coast line on two oceans. It has been extending its mercantile marine. There is nothing intrinsically unreasonable in the desire of the American people to possess a great navy. The United States is not an Atlantic Ocean power. There is another condition to be taken into account. It is perhaps, too considerable to be classed as detail. Across the Pacific the United States looks toward Asia. Can anyone foretell, with the smallest approach of confidence, what will happen in that great continent within the lifetime of the generation already born. We can foretell with absolute confidence what is not going to happen in it. Asia is certainly not going to consent to be treated by even smaller nations of Europe as it was in the sixteenth, seventeenth and eighteenth centuries. If there is to be a reaction or upheaval there, will not the United States, as a Pacific Ocean power, be something far more than an interested spectator?

1 cup butter.
1½ cups sugar.
3 cups flour.
1 cup milk.
1 egg.
1 teaspoon soda.
2 teaspoons cream of tartar.
½ teaspoon vanilla.
1 cup raisins (seeded and chopped).
¼ teaspoon salt.
Cream butter and sugar. Add one-half cup flour. Add egg well beaten. Mix soda and cream of tartar with flour. Add flour and milk alternately to mixture. Add raisins with each portion of flour. Add salt and vanilla. Bake in a loaf in a moderate oven.

Celery leaves and other stalks.
2 medium-sized onions.
Salt.
Pepper.
¾ cup uncooked rice.
No definite measures are given because this is a soup to use up just what one has in the house. Put the meat and bones and fat with the vegetables into a kettle and more than cover with cold water. Wash the rice and put in a strainer and put in the kettle. Put over the fire and bring to the boiling point. Then reduce heat and simmer gently for 2 or 3 hours. Stir the rice occasionally and when half done add 1 teaspoonful of salt. When ready to serve strain soup, season with salt and pepper, add rice, put over the fire and let boil up once. By cooking the rice in the broth any fat is absorbed and the rice also gains in vegetable flavor.

bles to the town, for Mr. Fairbanks had broken his finger while doing a scene that morning and he was out to find a physician at the earliest possible moment. But as they jogged along they were attracted by some dust off the trail, and the agonizing cry of a suffering animal. The famous star leaped from his horse, tore across the desert, and arrived a few minutes later beneath the dust cloud. A wild horse had become entangled in a stray wire fence, and it was unable to disentangle itself. Mr. Fairbanks hurriedly released the horse, watched it disappear in the distance, and then resumed his journey.

Rumpus Among Big Four.
It is rumored from the California coast that there is going to be a big rumpus among the Big Four very soon. Things have been looking that way ever since the failure of the two Chaplin films made by Charles Chaplin "on his own."—"Sunshine" and the holiday story—and the new policy adopted by David Wark Griffith. When the great people of the films disagree, they are just like the ordinary mortals, after all.

Jolt Handed To Legalized Boxing

Bitter Opposition to Walker Bill Will Deprive New York Enthusiasts of Boxing During the Present Year.

From present appearance the opponents of the Walker bill have bitten their noses to spite their faces. They were determined that the bill in present form should not be passed, and considerable work of the pussy stripes in their efforts to create hostility to it in the Assembly. Many of the opponents of the measure put the selves on record with the assertion that if the license committee provision were eliminated the bill could pass.

An Senator Walker, who drew the bill and fathered it to a successful vote in the Senate, held that the measure was the best that could be made of the situation. He naturally declined to make any change in the bill. Thereupon the opponents of the bill doubled their opposition, and rather than give them a chance to amend the measure the Senator decided to let it die in committee.

This the opponents of the bill, in making antagonistic to boxing under present regulations, will have no box at all.

The Walker bill was the most progressive measure looking to the rehabilitation of boxing that ever has been introduced in the New York Legislature and the prospect of its failure will sincerely regretted by all true friends of the sport.

The bill in all probability could pass the Assembly, but Senator Walker announced that he would not ask that it be moved until the "unrepealed" behind the doors campaign against by those who should favor it's advancement is stopped.

"Until that time," the Senator declared, "I will cease my efforts to pass the bill. A lot of men supposed to be interested in the bill now seem to be working under cover to block it, and believe me of this opposition is inspired by unscrupulous men who have been a detriment of the game and object to the strict regulatory features of the bill. This bill would interfere with the operations of fly-by-night clubs and cheap promoters, who want to own three or four boxes and match them against each other with an understanding that they stall through the fight."

"This bill requires that the contestants be not paid until after a contest and if they don't earn their money they don't get it. This is too good bill for that sort of people, and if those supposed to have the best interests of the sport at heart don't want a genuine bill, I'm sure I don't."

Pick Cleveland To Win League Pennant

Every baseball critic who has seen the Cleveland club in action at New Orleans seems to come away with the idea that Tris Speaker's outfit will win the American League pennant.

When the Giants were in New Orleans a week ago last Sunday the Cleveland bunch was in the stand. Speaker said that he had a great ball club and that he faced the season with great confidence, but he wanted to make it plain that he was not claiming the pennant.

"Everybody comes to me and tells me that I have the best club in the league," said Tris, "but I do not want to go on record as saying as much. I will say one thing, I am not afraid of the Yankees even with Babe Ruth. That club will hit, but its hitting strength will be discounted by its slowness. No club which lacks speed can win a pennant in any league—certainly not in the American. I am inclined to fear the Tigers more than the Yankees."

Speakers statement about the Yankees may have some weight, but the situation is not as doleful as he paints it. It is true that Cleveland has some pitching staff which is at Speaker's command is sure to make trouble all the way. His first stringers are Coveleski, Bagby, Caldwell, Klepfer and Uhle. His catchers are O'Neill, Chet Thomas and Nazzari—not a bad staff, but tophavy. The Cleveland outfield is a corker—Speaker, Smith and Gruney, with Joe Wood as substitute. On first base Speaker has Harris. Wambegans is on second, with Chapman at shortstop and Gardner on third. On paper it is not the club which the Yankees seem to be. But one cannot tell on paper. The Yankees showed that last season.

Recruit Hurler Is Making Good

Giants Have Find in Bill Ryan, Big Right-Handed Pitcher.

Greenville, Miss., April 4.—On the way to this city from Mobile the chief topic of conversation among the Giants was the splendid work of Bill Ryan, the big right hander, against the Red Sox in the closing four innings yesterday. Ryan not only held the Boston with a bit of a run, but he showed so much stuff that even John McGraw found reason to go into ecstasies over the young pitcher. Ryan came to the Giants in mid-season in 1918, from Holy Cross College, and was with the club for the rest of that year. Last summer he was sent to Buffalo to gain experience, and he responded in splendid fashion. Now Ryan is entrenched among the first squad of pitchers.

William Klein, the umpire, is the strongest booster for Ryan. Klein was behind the bat yesterday and had a fine chance to see just what the young man had on the ball. After the game Klein said "Ryan is the finest young pitcher I ever saw work in the spring. He had a word of speed and he has something on every ball he pitched. When he came into the box in the sixth inning he pitched a beauty to surprise. He and the Boston outfielder were in a tussle, but Ryan had a freck delivery, that he had rubbed the ball and made it sail. I told Hendry that he was mistaking, but at the same time I threw the ball out of the game. Ryan then took a new ball and made it behave. He had something on that first ball. Then Hendry had to contend with Ryan had something on that leather. He should make a great pitcher this very summer."

Frank Snyder, who caught Ryan's delivery, said everything which Klein had said, and added a bit. "The Red Sox could do nothing with him, and there was no reason why they should have done anything. Those boys have just as much on their own good pitchers, and it seems as if we have quite a number of good ones this year."

Ryan's going into the box yesterday was something of a surprise. The schedule called for Jess Barnes to work the first five innings and for Phil Douglas to finish the game. Douglas worked in the outfield, while Barnes was pitching with Ryan warming up as a sort of second reserve. At the last minute McGraw, who was in his street clothes, gave the word to Christy Mathewson to send Ryan to the mound. McGraw then went into the grand stand right behind the plate to see what Ryan had on the ball. He saw enough to make him feel that he has another dependable pitcher.

Benny Leonard In Moving Pictures

Champion Says That Making Motion Pictures is Just Like Boxing—Has Rough Time With the Extras.

"Making motion pictures is just like boxing." That was the answer given by Benny Leonard at his studio in Hollywood when he was asked how he liked acting in the films. The world's lightweight boxing champion, who is on the trail of the champions of the world of fighters, wasn't slow in telling how he felt about the movies. And the reason for his willingness is that next to his mother and sister he's more interested in the film game than any other in the world.

"The most noticeable possible difference between boxing and acting in the movies is that in boxing you don't have to even miss your hair," he continued after advancing a chair toward his visitor and seating himself before his make-up stand. "For they're paying this champion fighting man a couple of money to enact the leading role in 'The Evil Eye,' a fifteen-episode 'Benny Leonard' feature. And he doesn't waste a minute of the days at the studio. Between dabs of cold cream he went on."

"Yes, I never have had my hair mused in the ring since becoming champion and not for a long time before that. But since I have started making this fifteen-episode picture I've had my hair mused a plenty. I've been thrown around enough, too. I tell you, these fellows, especially the extras, are rough. Once in awhile in some melodramatic scene, I've been knocked over by a couple of dozen crooks and come right down. I mean close to knocking one enthusiastic highwayman for a goal in that scene. You just saw photograph. I didn't hit him. Maybe it's the best I did. I didn't for he might have given me a good kicking. Fighting in and out of the ring is entirely different. I never had much difficulty taking care of myself while inside of the ropes, but I remember once when I was down at—but that's another story. We're talking, I mean I'm talking about the movies."

"You have to train to act in the movies just as you have to train for a fight. Mr. Stuart Holmes, who is one of the important characters in the picture, is training and coaching me in acting and so are the other members of the cast, as well as Wally Van and Gordon Cooper, my cornermen."

"Those who have watched my work tell me that I have a good chance to become a regular star some day, boxing or no boxing. I have been fortunate in that my face is more or less like it was intended to be, and not like a lot of boxers' faces, pummeled beyond recognition. I'd really like to make motion picture acting my profession."

"Unless they're kidding me I think I have a chance. I'll be twenty-two on my next birthday and that's not too old to learn. At least I'm going to try."

You don't have to know the phone numbers of all the all-night cafes in Southern California in order to locate Benny Leonard, world's lightweight champion, after Prohibition. Although the world's best 125-pounder still stays in his way home as soon as the Director calls it a day.

At home he has his mother and sister, whom he considers the two greatest folks on earth.

Basketball Games Closely Contested

Fairville and Y. W. C. A. Girls Played to a Tie in Y. M. C. A. Last Evening—The Seniors Trimmed the Intermediates.

A good crowd turned out at the Y. M. C. A. last night to see two fine basketball games scheduled. In the preliminary contest between the Fairville and the Y. W. C. A. girls the former started right off with a goal when Miss Stevens netted the ball. Miss Charlton, of the Y. W. C. A., soon evened up with a pass from centre. Both teams scored on fouls. Then came K. Matheson, of the Y. W. C. A., who put her team in the lead on a foul. Both teams by checking hard spoiled many shots for goal. Half time saw the score: Y. W. C. A., 9; Fairville, 2.

Miss Blair started the scoring in the second half, putting Y. W. C. A. upon a clean goal, but Miss Simms evened up a couple of minutes later. Play was very even, and the Fairville girls brought their score up to 11-10. Miss Simms put her team in the lead with a field goal. Miss Stevens scored one of her foul shots. The game ended 15 to 16.

The tie-up was as follows:

Fairville: G. Trauman, S. Stevens, F. Charlton, C. H. Simms, K. Matheson, H. Cheesman, W. Blair, J. M. Fowler, G. Raddiffe.

The Seniors: G. Trauman, S. Stevens, F. Charlton, C. H. Simms, K. Matheson, H. Cheesman, W. Blair, J. M. Fowler, G. Raddiffe.

The main fixture, between the intermediates and Seniors, proved a real fast contest, both teams having a full line-up and the interest of the crowd being very high. At the beginning of the contest shots from Margetta and Morton put the Seniors in the lead. Urquhart got her team in the score column on a foul shot. Willett then doubled for two. Play went from end to end, both teams playing a hard game and checking back in a way that was seldom seen this season. Kerr and Malcolm here evened up the score on fast plays. A field goal and foul shots by Willett and Margetta set the Seniors to the van. Malcolm again scored, and half time ended with the Seniors in the lead, the score being 19 to 14.

Things livened up after the rest period. Willett and Morton ending the baskets for two in quick succession. Margetta made it look like Seniors with another. Margetta here twisted his ankle, and was carried off the floor. Malcolm dropped one in after several minutes of open play. Morton, who played a great game at center, tallied for two more. The game ended: Seniors, 48; Intermediates, 27.

The fans were heard in several sections during the game, the intermediate rosters being out in force. The line-ups were:

Intermediates: Forwards, Seniors: Urquhart, Willett, Shaw, Margetta, Centre, Morton, Defence, Kerr, Nizon, McKay, Marshall, Basil Robertson proved a most efficient referee.

Returns From Montreal Events

Robert E. Anderson Returned from Montreal, Where He and O. J. Killam Took Part in Traps Shooting Events—Mr. Killam Made Good Scores.

Robert E. Anderson returned yesterday from Montreal, where he and O. J. Killam, of the local club, took part in the trap shooting events held there on Friday last. Mr. Anderson speaks highly of the excellent manner in which they were used by the Montreal Club, and says that if the weather had been fine the shooting would have been much better. He speaks in the highest terms of the showing made by Mr. Killam, who won one first, two seconds, one third, and one seventh place. When the shooters arrived at the traps on Friday the wind was blowing hard, the sky was dark, and it was raining very hard, but nevertheless the match was proceeded with, and despite the weather the results were good. Mr. Killam tied for first place in the merchandise event, but it was raining so hard that there was no shoot-off, and the local man lost on the loss. Mr. Killam, however, won fourth place in the grand aggregate for the day. On Saturday Mr. Killam was out again shooting, and was elected a member of the Montreal Gun Club, and was in Ottawa yesterday shooting for Montreal.

HARD BLOW TO 'YANKIES' PROSPECTS

Jacksonville, Fla., April 4.—Miller Huggins, manager of the Yankees, made no effort to conceal the fact that the retirement of Baker and the enforced absence of Fawcett coming together are a hard blow to the prospects of his ball club. Huggins has every confidence in Meusel's ability as a hitter. But Meusel has the faint to going down for ground balls with stiff knees instead of going down with them, as Bill Bradley, who was also a tall fellow, learned to do. Huggins has talked to Meusel about this and he seems to absorb advice readily and profit by it.

With Baker and Fawcett both gone the infield appears 30 per cent. weaker than was promised a week ago. But the club will make the most of the situation, and there is the possibility of a deal to brighten the outlook as well as the possibility of the present infield developing into a strong combination.

Amherst To Enter Baseball League

Meeting of Fans Held Last Night—Signified Intention of Entering Team in Provincial Baseball League.

Special to The Standard.
Amherst, N. S., April 5.—Amherst signified its intention this evening of entering the Provincial Baseball League. The busy town is confident of placing a strong team in the field, and at a regular meeting of the baseball fans the question was discussed and agreed upon. However, the local entry depends upon the financial arrangement that can be effected with the teams outside of the town. Amherst will undergo a handicap with baseball lines, and necessity depends upon the other teams for a certain amount of support. F. L. Simpson is in Halifax now representing the G. W. V. A. of Amherst in connection with this entry.

Invites Golfers To Discuss Rules

U. S. G. A. Executive Committee Asks Delegates to Meet in New York on April 30.

New York, April 5.—Golfers who have constructive criticism to offer in connection with the code of golf will find an opportunity to air their views as to how the laws governing the game ought to be written or amended if they attend a meeting which has been called by the executive committee of the United States Golf Association at Delmonico's Friday, April 30, at one o'clock. While the powers that be have had just such a gathering in view since the season at which the members of the committee who will go abroad to confer with the Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, Scotland, were elected, the date for the rules convalescence was named only yesterday. The object of the gathering will be to secure expression of opinion regarding proposed changes in the rules, and while the intention is to invite only delegates from the various subsidiary associations, there are so many of these in existence and the subject is of such general interest and vital importance that the "conference" is likely to assume very imposing proportions.

The committee has done a wise thing in calling the meeting for afternoon, as this will allow of full and free discussion. However, the fact should not be lost sight of that the committee is asking the various subsidiary associations to make their suggestions of changes in the rules well in advance, so that it may get in concrete form the point of view of the majority of golfers of the United States. Those invitations are now being sent out to the various bodies and it is interesting and gratifying to note that the professional are not being ignored. The "pros" will make their views known through their national association.

At the meeting, it is expected, will be all the members of the committee selected to go abroad, but as the U. S. G. A. representatives do not leave until May 22 this will leave ample time for still further discussion should such be necessary. Those who will convey the American viewpoint on the rules to

THE SITUATION IN IRELAND.

There can be very little doubt that conditions in Ireland are rapidly approaching a crisis. They cannot continue as they are. Late despatches seem to indicate that the Sinn Fein may accept and utilize the machinery of the Home Rule Bill itself to precipitate a final crisis in English-Irish relations. Moreover, there are indications that, following the enactment of the Government's bill, the Republicans will unite to sweep the elections to the Dublin Parliament, and, once elected, they would immediately declare an Irish republic. It seems to be thought that any such action by a duly constituted body—which the Dublin Parliament would be—would carry all the necessary force and weight, as showing that Ireland wanted independence, and not that it was the demand of minority agitators only.

Needless to say that the situation is being carefully watched in England, and should a Dublin Parliament, controlled by the Sinn Fein, essay to declare the independence of Ireland, it would find itself face to face with a sternly armed English opposition, backed up by a heavy military power. For this reason it is regarded that any organized armed uprising in Ireland at the present time would be ineffective.

More than half the trouble that is occurring in Ireland is due to the sympathy which the agitators are getting from the United States. When so prominent a body as the U. S. Senate takes a hand in interfering, it is not to be wondered at that illiterate Irishmen should feel that they have powerful help across the water. The idea appears to be anything to separate Ireland from the remainder of Great Britain. At the same time, were the United Kingdom to wash its hands of Ireland, that would not dispose of the Irish difficulty, Ireland is firmly fixed in English national politics and cannot be cut out therefrom. An Irish republic at Britain's door is as arduous of contemplation as is a separated South in the United States.

The situation was made much worse by the war with Germany, because it gave to ill-advised or deliberate traitors to the cause of humanity an opportunity to bring Ireland into disrepute as being linked up with the German effort to destroy the liberties of the world at large.

THE NEWSPAPER SITUATION.

The time is approaching, in the opinion of Jason Rogers, publisher of The New York Globe, when it will become necessary for publishers to limit newspaper circulations, as well as to circumscribe the size of the paper itself. Mr. Rogers has been in Canada looking for newspaper supply, and in an interview upon returning home is reported as saying that newspaper may sell for thirty cents by next October—the price in Canada today is four cents!

The New York publisher further says: "Canada is much alarmed over the threatened destruction of her forests by paper-makers, to supply a people so rich and prosperous that they are (erroneously) thought to have forgotten the much-needed sacrifices of a smaller brother in the great world war."

These advancing paper prices are certain to ruin many newspapers, Mr. Rogers says. Unless some very radical step is taken in the meantime for the curbing of the use of newspaper, he declares, "the whole industry of newspaper making will suffer an annihilating shock next fall."

There is not, as we have pointed out in these columns before, the slightest need for so many Sunday editions; in fact there is no need of any of them. Most papers publish an enlarged Saturday issue, which is quite sufficient for week-end reading, with-out another on Sunday. There is also getting out the average newspaper today. There are very few of the metropolitan dailies of the United States that could not afford to "shed" two or four pages, without incurring any serious loss.

One thing is certain, American publishers will have to economize on newspaper very considerably, for they cannot be allowed to ruin this country of its timber resources just to satisfy their insatiable demand for big issues.

THE AMERICAN PEACE RESOLUTION.

President Wilson seems to be going from bad to worse, in his domineering tendencies, and the course he is following is subjecting him to a considerable amount of hostile criticism by a large section of the people and Press of his own country.

The New York Sun, for instance, declares that he is "the sole obstructor of the technical conclusion of peace with Germany," after he "has already informed Congress that peace exists in fact," adding that his unconstitutional assumption of undivided power to dictate the manner and terms of a concluded peace has forced upon the two Houses of Congress the necessity and duty of action in the interests of the nation primarily and indirectly of the whole world. Continuing, the Sun says that the joint resolution introduced by the chairman of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, whether modified or not in any particular during its progress to passage, will present when it reaches the Executive an issue which he cannot evade. It squarely challenges the power and the right of the co-ordinate department to participate in the ending of a war which the Constitution empowers it to begin by declaration and to carry on by raising and supporting armies, by providing and maintaining a navy, and by making rules for the government and regulation of the land and naval forces—all by the ordinary processes of legislation.

The pretence that the people through their Congress can have no part in terminating a state of war which the Constitution empowers the people through their Congress to begin and to carry through to a state of actual peace, and that this power in some mysterious way passes into the exclusive possession of a dictator Executive, once that hostilities are begun, is as repugnant to common sense as it is intolerable to patriotic American understanding of American institutions.

The Constitution does not withhold from the Congress the power of ending a war by declaration in the form of a joint resolution, any more than it withholds from the Congress the power to repeal any other of its legislative acts. The Constitution does not even require that war declared by the Congress shall be ended by a treaty of peace negotiated by the President with the advice and consent of the Senate. There is not a single word in the Constitution warranting the idea that the Federal Legislature is impotent to bring peace to the Republic when an arrogant Executive, rejecting the plain limitations placed upon his treaty negotiating authority, assumes to decree on his individual responsibility, that war shall continue in the United States despite the Senate's advice, despite the will of Congress, despite the will of the people and despite the plain fact of peace.

There is only one alternative. Either the usurper of all authority must be compelled to bend his stiff neck and lower his defiant visage before the law and the will of the American people as expressed in the act of their chosen representatives—enacted, be it remembered, in direct answer to his earlier demand for the license of absolutism—or the Senate and the House must surrender to him the part which the Constitution has assigned to them in the American scheme of government by balanced powers, and the American people must accept here at home a super-government in its most hateful form; more odious even than the super-government which President Wilson has vainly attempted to establish for us in a foreign council. The Sun and New York Herald has little doubt as to how the Congress and the people will stand on this supreme question of Executive service under the law or Executive mastery above the law as it has of its own position regarding the matter.

For events are rapidly shaping a situation in which the naked question of unlimited, undivided Executive power must be met and settled by the Congress of the United States and the people of the United States. The issue raised by President Wilson's reckless obstinacy of self-assertion is neither more nor less than the issue between representative government and unrepresentative autocracy.

The announcement that the Text Book Committee of the Board of Education has ordered Myers' History to be thrown aside, and a new text book by a Cambridge man substituted, will be generally welcomed. We don't need American text books in this country at all—nor, for that matter, very much of anything else of American origin; there are plenty of Canadian educationists capable of writing all the text books needed for use in Canadian schools, and, failing these, there are heaps of British authors to draw upon.

The Hon. Robert Murray has not yet pointed out where the particulars of that $10,000 which he said was distributed as a bonus among the civil service employees last year, can be found in the Comptroller's report. As a matter of fact that bonus was not distributed till shortly before Christmas—not in the last fiscal year at all. This shows just how very little the Provincial Secretary really knows as to what is going on in his Department.

The United States financial people are overjoyed because Britain is shipping large quantities of gold to New York, and the strained credit situation is thereby relieved. The United States now has about one-third or one-fourth of the world's gold, and if the credit situation needs the $20,000,000 badly, it must be strained to near the breaking point. The use of airplanes for forest fire ranging will be much more extensive this year. When timber has become so enormously valuable a commodity, the cost of full protection is but a small premium. Canada must guard with jealous care the timber that remains, because it is being used up with spendthrift speed.

The Drury Government proposal to have a fixed election date ignores the very essence of our system, which is that the Government shall live only as long as it has the confidence of the popular chamber, and may have to resign or go to the country at any time on a major issue.

The United States naval estimates are $200,000,000 more than the British, and the construction programme far larger. Washington may feel that the time is at hand when the navy will take over the entire job of reform of the courts.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

In Deepest Mourning. (Indianapolis News.) Maybe the Americans who attended King George's levee, dressed in black out of regard for the memory of John Barleycorn.

Mormonism's Advantages. (Columbus Record.) Mormonism has its advantages, nevertheless. We burn with envy when we reflect on the income tax exemptions Britain's King had.

Let the Laymen Do It. (San Francisco Chronicle.) If lawyers cannot create efficient court procedure, laymen can. They are demonstrating that ability all the time by the arbitration courts which they set up. It is possible that the time is at hand when the laymen will take over the entire job of reform of the courts.

The Tie That Binds. (London Morning Post.) We should work in the country more directly to support and expand the production of the Dominions. We have made a small beginning in imperial preference; but that small beginning has hardly affected them at all. In the long run, it is the economic tie which will decide the fate of Empire, and without our statesman have shown a very imperfect realization of that great truth.

Declaring Peace. (Springfield Republican.) Mr. Lodge insists that Congress can "declare" peace, but even he admits that Congress cannot "make" peace. Thus the situation in which our proud Government finds itself is suggestive of comic opera. It may be asked, if Congress can only declare peace, but cannot make it, what is the use of declaring something that isn't made? The chambermaid might as well say: "I declare this bed 'made,'" without making it.

The 24-Hour Clock. (Adelaide Chronicle.) Among the post-war changes for which the British people are invited to prepare themselves is the substitution of a 24-hour for a 12-hour clock, a proposal to divide the day into 24 hours reckoned consecutively without the aid of a.m. or p.m., having found favor with a committee of the House of Commons. The suggestion is not novel, since astronomers have always employed this method of counting the hours, and in several Continental countries and Canada it is largely used especially on the railways.

Protest From Grand Manan

We have received the following communication from a leading resident of Grand Manan: The Editor, St. John Standard, Sir:—We wish to call your attention to an article in your daily publication dated April 1st, headed "Grand Manan Man Arrested on Serious Charge."

Rufus Penley, the man spoken of, is not a "Grand Manan Man" neither has he ever been here to the people's knowledge. It is not only this, but other articles have appeared in your columns in which criminals claimed Grand Manan as their mother abode, and we wish that you would publish this fact, as the people of Grand Manan who are a quiet, law-abiding people do not wish every criminal who comes along to claim Grand Manan as his home. We trust that your next publication will issue a contradictory article as to the above.

Fernhill Lot Holders' Meeting

Annual Session Held Yesterday Afternoon — Reports Received and Directors Elected for Ensuing Term.

The annual meeting of the lot holders of Fernhill cemetery was held in the Board of Trade rooms yesterday afternoon. The directors presented their annual report. The expenditures show a considerable advance over previous year, caused by higher rates of wages and increased cost of material. The total cost of labor was $11,132.00. The cost of material was $4,480.00. The cost of tools, cement, upkeep of carts, etc., was $768.00. Insurance premiums were $98.50. Marble posts and markers and balance of paving contract were $194.00. Office rent, salaries, telephone, sundries, etc., $3,159.50. Receipts from burial fees and annual care show a decline from previous year. The Perpetual Care Fund now stands at $120,506, a gratifying increase representing 1,246 lots, and about 300 monuments under care. The amount is invested in Government and Municipal Debentures.

Arrangements have been made for purchase of a power lawn mower. The Field of Honor now contains the bodies of 34 soldiers, and a white marble headstone marks each grave. A handsome granite monument has been placed on the Field of Honor by the Daughters of the Empire, and a handsome drinking fountain has been placed on Centre Avenue by the family of the late Trooper Joshua S. Clayton, of the 4th C. M. R. who was killed in action.

About 150 new lots were opened on Central and Water avenues last year and the whole section has met with ready sale. Every effort has been made to improve the condition of neglected lots without owners. Great improvements have been made during the year. The usual work, including care of lots and upkeep of avenues and paths (of which there are over 50 miles) has been well performed during the year, and the general appearance of the cemetery was never better.

Cases Dealt With In Police Court

McNulty Charged With Cutting Wm. J. Coholan, Was Remanded—Two Men Fined $200 for Having Liquor—Other Cases Heard.

A goodly number of week enders passed in review before the magistrate in the police court, for having carefully scanning countenances of the squad and discerning "those old familiar faces," the order was given for them to be remanded and with the look of the "Alcoholic Blues" the men marched back to the cells. William McNulty was charged with cutting and wounding William Coholan with intent to do bodily harm, and was remanded. The case will be taken up when the complainant is able to leave the hospital where he was taken owing to his condition following the attack.

A fine of $900 was imposed on Louis Roade of Fairville, for having liquor in his possession other than his private dwelling. The charge was laid by Inspector McAlister. A fine of $208 was imposed on James Campbell for being drunk and for having liquor in his possession illegally. Evidence was given in the case of George Wedge charged with the assault of Zephir LaRiviere, the complainant said that the accused struck him in the face following a dispute as to who was to run a steam wench at McLeod's wharf. The case was adjourned for further hearing.

One man dropped $15 which he put up for his appearance in court following a charge of drunkenness. He did not appear. Harold Smith was charged with being drunk. It was brought out in the evidence that the accused had no visible means of support. The magistrate gave him his choice between three months in the almshouse, or nine months in jail. The prisoner returned to jail to think it over. Alphonse Pusloa was charged with being drunk on an Erin Street and with carrying a loaded revolver. He was remanded. SHORT OF BREATH

Could Hardly Walk Without Resting. When you go to a physician to be examined for any heart trouble one of the first questions he asks is: "Are you short of breath?" becomes affected, there ensues a feeling of a choking sensation, a shortness of breath, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, another sensation, dizziness and a weak, sinking, all-gone feeling of oppression and anxiety. On the first sign of the heart becoming weakened or the nerves unstrung Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are just the remedy you require. They regulate and stimulate the heart, and strengthen and restore the whole nervous system. Mr. Stephen Crouse, East Clifford, N. S., writes:—"I suffered for five years with heart trouble. I could hardly walk from the house to the barn without resting, as I used to get so short of breath. Doctors could not help me. My wife told me to get a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and I felt better after taking them; three boxes made me quite well. I am now helping my son to work on the farm, and can truthfully say I feel like a different man."

WASHINGTON HAS SUBMITTED PLAN

To London for Payment of Interest on War Loans to Allies—First Payment Deferred Until May, 1922.

(By Tewson.)
Copyright, 1920, by Cross-Atlantic Newspaper Service.)
London, April 4.—The British treasury, I learn from high authority now received from Washington, an outline scheme proposed by the United States government for payment of interest due on $10,000,000,000 loaned to the Allies.
According to my authority the scheme acknowledges the unreasonableness of making demand for interest payments before the Allied governments had a period in which to recuperate and reconstruct. Payment of the first installment of interest will therefore not be requested until May, 1922, or three years after date which interest became operative.
Although the payment of interest would be deferred three years, Washington has intimated that back interest amounting roughly to one billion dollars must then be paid, although not at compound rates.
An eminent banker discussing the British gold shipments to New York said: "New York is in the position we used to occupy—its free gold market. England can send any amount of gold there and get United States credit for it. That is why our shipments of gold in repayment of debt to such a great deal of good. The process has a twofold action. It goes toward making money easier in the United States and it improves the value of the pound sterling measured in dollars.
"Such gold as we can send to the United States makes money cheaper and enables manufacturers to get their advances at lower rate. Of course a shipment of ten million dollars in gold to New York is not of itself sufficient to improve the value of the pound to the extent of ten dollars. It does, however, affect it sensibly in sentiment and this means much.
"American business men know that the bonds for two hundred and fifty million dollars for which we are responsible do not mature until October next and that we will be able to begin our payments before the money is out. This speaks well for us. The effect is bound to do us much good."

MARKET NOTES FROM NEW YORK

(By Private wire to F. B. McCURDY & CO.)
New York, April 5.—Stata Motor declared four quarterly stock dividends of 20,000 shares each.
U. S. Rubber earned $17.50 a share on $72,000,000 common stock in 1919 against $30.31 on $85,000,000 in 1918. Duns report 1,672 failures for first quarter 1920, with $2,907,490 indebtedness compared with 1,906, with $50,821,952 involved same time last year. Senate passage administration message recommended by Governor Harding empowering Federal reserve board to put in force graduated rediscount rates as means to check loans for speculation purposes now goes to President.
Federal reserve board's weekly statement shows reductions of 76.6 millions in bill holdings with temporary advances to government of $52,000,000, increase gold imports of 15.5 millions and $23 millions in cash reserves increasing bank's reserve ratio from 42.7 to 43.9 per cent.
Clearing House bank statement shows actual surplus decreased $10,612,340.
Federal reserve bank's reserve ratio increased from 39.1 per cent to 41.2 per cent.
Primary election in Michigan today. Fight centres between Wood and Johnson, with Governor Lowden holding outside chance.
Twenty industrials off 15. Twenty rallies off 15.
New York, April 5.—The New York stock exchange took further action today to prevent shorts in Stuts Motor from being squeezed as the result of price movements which led officials of the exchange to fear that there was a corner.
Having previously suspended trading in Stuts after the stock rose from 125 to 391 or thereabouts under shorts, efforts to cover, the exchange announce today that failure of mem-

BUILDING MOVEMENT WILL GROW SLOWLY

Lack of Supplies and Difficulties of Transportation Big Factors.

Present conditions indicate that a large building movement which now seems inevitable in view of the housing shortage must be of slow and gradual growth, the National Bank of Commerce in New York declares in the April number of its magazine, Commerce monthly.
"The dearth of building supplies," the bank continues, "is rendered more acute by difficulties of transportation. Some time must elapse before the various lines of industry which furnish these materials will be able to function at full capacity. Added to this is the difficulty, under present conditions, of financing new enterprises."
In summarizing the current market situation, the bank says:
"Fundamental business conditions have changed little from a month ago. The present price level requires a large volume of credit and capital for essential transactions. This, coupled with the fact that sound public policy requires a conservative use of bank credit, has resulted in an increasingly cautious attitude on the part of industry and commerce. Even an attitude in much to be commended for the part of the producer, it may embolden him to deliver the stock under existing conditions would not be regarded by the exchange as failure to comply with a contract. Under ordinary conditions failure by members to deliver or stock is tantamount to insolvency. In over the counter trading today, Stuts was quoted by one house at $50 to $60."

COTTON REPORT

(By Private wire to F. B. McCURDY & CO.)
New York, April 5.—Both foreign and domestic trade interests were buyers of the new cotton crop month, and the broadening of commission house business went into the new crop positions in which a considerable interest must be accumulating.
Sentiment which was rather divided being bulls and reactionists towards the end of last week, has become very one sided, owing to the weather in the South. Rains in eastern and central sections of South were fully as heavy as expected, while the temperatures report southwest were more unfavorable than the trade had gathered from private advices received during the early morning. We look for a reaction in the new crop month.
Edmund Ritchie returned to the city last night after spending the holiday in St. Stephen the guest of friends.

ON WALL STREET

(By Private wire to F. B. McCURDY & CO.)
New York, April 5.—Continued ease of call money which held at six per cent, gave the market confidence this afternoon, and a fairly good general rally occurred in the industrial stocks, which made prices close higher on the day.
The high priced industrials, in which some of the short interest had accumulated, were run up, gains of ten points between scores, by Crude Oil, four points by Studebaker, and other Motors and Oils also made gains.
Steadily improved by sterling exchange was also a constructive factor. Studebaker was prominent and very strong at the close, and as there is a dividend meeting this afternoon reports were current that an increase in the seven per cent. rate was to be declared.
Laidlaw & Co.
New York, April 5.—Stocks were decidedly unsettled in the first hour of today's trading, as a result of latest incidents in the Franco-German situation, but the market soon strengthened and closed with many substantial gains, especially among selected issues.
Interest in the market itself was most often subordinated to the movements of foreign exchange. Demand bills on London continued to rise to $4.94-5, an advance of almost eight cents over last week, and the highest since December of last year.
Even the Paris rate made substantial improvement, but dealings in that quarter were reported comparatively small.
Although last week's statement of the Federal Reserve and Clearing House banks were not especially favorable, the money market relaxed visibly. Call loans were freely made at six per cent, after opening at seven and dealers in time funds negotiated several renewals for short dates at quotations slightly under recent rates.
The usual favorites led the market, developing greater strength in the final hour with general motors, Crude Oil and Studebaker as the outstanding features. Motors made up its cash and stock dividends, closing at $35.54, a gain of 2.52.
Other motors and their accessories also steels, equipments, oils, leathers, shippings and sundry specialties ended at variable gains, but rallies lagged in their usual fashion, nominal losses ruling at the end. Sales amounted to $100,000 shares.
Investment issues, including Internationals, were mostly higher in the bond market, but Liberty issues and speculative rails reacted within narrow limits. Total sales, per value, aggregated $15,250,000.
Old U. S. 4's advanced half per cent on call.

CHICAGO GRAIN

Chicago, April 5.—Wheat—No. 3 hard, $2.63; No. 5 northern, $2.60; Corn—No. 2 mixed, $1.69; No. 2 yellow, $1.69 to $1.70.
Oats—No. 2 white, $1.00 to $1.01; No. 3 white, $0.98 to $1.00.
Rye—No. 2, $1.88 to $1.88.
Barley—$1.42 to $1.45.
Timothy seed—$9.00 to $12.00.
Clover seed—$45 to $50.
Pork—Nominal; lard, $20.05; ribs, $19 to $19.

THE METAL MARKETS

Toronto, April 4.—Prices continue to provide considerable speculation in the steel and iron markets. Quotations given by jobbers and warehouses were for the most part barely nominal. The supply in many lines is so uncertain and resort has to be had to the premium market so frequently, that each shipment and each sale is tied with a set of conditions all its own, and it is on these that the price is placed. The trade is becoming weary of the operation of many of the premium channels, and it looks as though, in nearly every line they had reached their peak, and whatever happens now will be in favor of the consumer. The Steel Corporation has notified its agencies that it will look after its customers, and that none of them needs to approach the point of suspending operations because they cannot get supplies.
Shipments are coming in more freely in all lines of machine tools, and supplies, due to better shipping; but it cannot be said that there is any improvement in the matter of schedules, which are still extended some months into the future.
The automobile, truck and kindred lines continue to stay in the machine tool market as the best buyers of material. Reports from New York markets this week seem to show a difference of opinion among dealers as to the sustained demand for machinery, some of them claiming that their experience shows a falling off.
Capacity operation of plants is reflected in the continued demand in this district for small tools and supplies generally. Prices for these lines remain firm, and it is understood that several of the makers of small tools contemplate outlining large stocks in Toronto for distribution purposes.

GOVERNMENT HEARS VETERAN DEPUTATION

Which Came to Discuss Flynn Proposals.

Flynn Excluded

And Sir George Foster Explains Why Government Could Not Receive Him.

Ottawa, April 6.—Explaining the exclusion of J. Harry Flynn from the proceedings of the deputation which waited upon him today in favor of the Flynn proposals for returned veterans, Sir George Foster, the Acting Premier said the Government had been very glad to receive the delegation and to hear it express its views so reasonably, so fairly and so frankly.

"We do not," Sir George added, "always get the same reasonable treatment. That is perhaps because we are not used to face with each other. I am sorry that I had to say to Mr. Flynn this morning that the Government did not feel it could receive him. The reason, I think, is quite well known to you. Mr. Flynn has used some very harsh language with regard to the leader of the Government and with regard to the Government itself. The Government itself does not care so much, but when such language is used of the leader of the Government, the case is different.

"We did not feel that, out of respect, we could have Mr. Flynn appear before us, and give countenance to a man who used such language. I have no doubt he felt deeply and strongly when he used such language, and perhaps he thought he would advance things by using harsh language. But things were never advanced by using harsh language. Sir George again thanked the delegation for having presented its case fairly and fearlessly. "You must know," he went on, "that it is no reflection on your organization as an organization that we have felt ourselves obliged to say to Mr. Flynn that we could not hear him."

Conrad, the leader of the Grand Army of Canada, acted as chief spokesman for the delegation.

The Virgin Of Stamboul

Far East Brought Near St. John Last Night When Jewel Universal Super Production Was Given Private Screening at Imperial.

The far East was brought very near St. John last night when "The Virgin of Stamboul" the Jewel Universal Super production was shown at a private screening at the Imperial Theatre. Invitations had been issued by the Canadian Film Company and a large number of persons, including many out of town exhibitors greatly enjoyed the picture which was heartily applauded for its technical merit and its artistic value. The Imperial orchestra played a fine musical setting. The story tells of a beautiful beggar girl, Sari (Priscilla Dean), a dashing young soldier of fortune (Wheeler Oakman), and a mighty sheik (Wallace Berry). Miss Dean makes a fascinating heroine with a large measure of mischievous, pathetic, lovable and again filled with fury after the passionate manner of Eastern maidens. The hero is handsome and a fine fighter. The character studies of the natives are cleverly done, and the costumes depicted are said to be strictly authentic. Absolutely wonderful desert scenes with camels and horsemen, and views of the "Turkish cities" make up a part of this stupendous production, which it is impossible to describe, but which must be seen to be truly appreciated.

What a Change—Large numbers of addresses made by male persons to the female societies point plainly to the fact that woman no longer desires to do all the talking.

Large Demand For Houses Received

Commissioner Bullock is Trying to Work Out Scheme to Encourage Building Operations—Considers Situation Serious.

Commissioner Bullock is trying to work out a scheme to encourage building operations in the city, but is not disposed to make it public until he has had an opportunity to consult with the new Council.

Mr. Bullock evidently considers the situation so serious that he is preparing to recommend that the city should take measures to help solve the problem on its own account.

Some landlords have not raised rents since the outbreak of the war, but they would not form a brigade. Lately St. John has been suffering by the sort of thing that in some American and Canadian cities has driven the tenants to Bolshevism.

Another form of profiteering prevalent in St. John is the renting of themselves. Lots of tenants take a house and then sublet two rooms, and ask a matter of forty dollars a month.

Last month there was only one building permit issued in St. John, and that was for remodeling an old building.

Although few new industries have come to St. John recently the existing industries have been expanding and the population is undoubtedly overcrowding the housing capacity.

Mr. Bullock is going to make a study of the situation and report to the Council.
