Snowshoe to Be Added to the Shipping List

END OF ALL DEPRESSION

BIG CAMP AT PHOENIX IS ONCE MORE IN ITS NORMAL STAGE OF RAPID DEVELOPMENT—CONSOLIDATED TO HAVE FULL TOLL OF ALL MINES.

(Special to The Daily News) PHOENIX, July 24.—On Monday, November 18, 1907, the Snowshoe mine, which up to that date had shipped no less than 123,836 tons of ore during that year, closed down and from that date to this has not shipped one pound, is now again about to resume operation.

The Snowshoe was one of those properties taken over by the Trial Consolidated company as a contributor to its furnaces, the ores being specially selected for the furnaces...

It is understood from unquestionable sources that a force of at least 150 men will be immediately engaged for the operation of this famous property and it is expected that the output will be resumed on the scale at which it left off, that is to say on a scale of about 100,000 tons weekly.

Charles Bessie, who for some time past has been acting as purchasing agent for the Consolidated at Trail, will leave for Phoenix about the beginning of next week to resume the superintendency of the Snowshoe.

There is a general feeling in this camp that the resumption of the Snowshoe means the final turning of the renewed good fortune of the district.

U. S. NATIONAL GUARD CAMP IN A PANIC

SOLDIERS KILLED AND INJURED BY LIGHTNING

(Special to The Daily News) GETTYSBURG, Pa., July 24.—An all night storm of lightning, hail and rain, where 10,000 of the national guard of Pennsylvania have been camped for a week and which was visited last night by the heaviest electrical and wind storm in the history of the state...

They were all thrown to the ground by the falling canvas, but managed to get out of the tent in a blue flame when he was enveloped in a blue flame following a terrific crash and fell dead. The other soldier, Paul Neil, was only stunned. In the case of each of those killed, the new army puttees issued just before the men went into camp, were torn from their legs and the steel ribbing exposed. Some of the officers believe the steel attracted the lightning. The storm, which had been brewing all evening, broke suddenly. The wind blew with almost cyclonic force, the rain came down in torrents and the lightning was the fiercest seen here in years.

ATHLETIC SPORTS

LONDON, July 24—If every day on which the Olympic games are held were Saturday there would be some chance of their proving a success from the point of view of attendance.

The two great grandstands at either end of the stadium, the admission to which is fixed at a shilling, were completely filled with a crowd similar to that which attends football matches on half holidays.

The covered stands where the seats are reserved also held a much larger number of persons than on any other previous day while the royal box too, was occupied by a large party, including the queen, who took a keen interest in the Danish athletes, princess Victoria and the crown prince of Sweden, who, by the way, have been present every day since the opening, and the children of the prince of Wales, who were interested followers of the sports.

The weather, however, was no respecter of persons. It was cloudy and dull all morning for the archery and fencing contests, but towards noon the sky had cleared and it looked as though the remainder would be fine. Instead it was one of the worst days experienced this week and there have been bad ones.

The cyclists and runners were the only ones who ignored the wetting they all received, even the fancy girls who were forced to call a halt to their contest for half an hour as the judges were unable to do their work properly.

The officials of the cyclists union today allowed Young, one of the Canadian riders to start in the 100 kilometer race, for which they declared he had not qualified. It was proved beyond dispute that this disqualified rider was the result of a mistake in an official who placed the Canadian one lap behind where he belonged.

The matter of scoring the United Kingdom completely outclassed the other countries, her athletes adding seven wins to their already good score. These included the 100 metre sprint, the 5000 metre cycling, the 400 metre hurdle, the tug of war and the five mile flat race.

The only two other events decided, the 400 metre hurdle and the 100 metre flat race, were decided by the United States and Germany respectively. Martin J. Sheridan of the Irish-American A.C. broke all previous records with the distance of 128 feet 8 inches, while M. F. Horr of the same club won second, also with a record breaking throw of 124 feet 10 inches.

J. L. Fisele of the N.Y.A.C. secured third place in the 3200 metre steeplechase. He was the only American that compared with the Englishmen in the event. The four of the United Kingdom teams, Russell, Robertson, Holloway and Sewell in the 3200 metre steeplechase, in addition to Eisele and the American in the 100 metre hurdle, were the Englishmen took turns in trying to wear down the two others and succeeded in doing so with Galbraith, but Eisele held on, despite a nasty fall at the end of the race, to win the 100 metre hurdle.

Germany took first and second in the 400 metre hurdle and the 100 metre flat race, while the United States took third and fourth in the 100 metre flat race, while the United States took first and second in the 100 metre flat race, while the United States took first and second in the 100 metre flat race.

The weather brightened up somewhat in the afternoon and the lower priced stands were filled up with the usual Saturday sporting enthusiasts.

The Saturday afternoon crowds filling the lower priced sections of the grand stand of the stadium had an opportunity of venting their enthusiasm over the outcome of the three finals with which the day's sports were terminated. The Olympic games were opened. All these three races were won by the United Kingdom. Russell, United Kingdom, took the 3200 metre steeplechase with his teammate, Robertson, United Kingdom, second.

Somewhat to the surprise of the experts the United Kingdom also took first and second place in the final of the 200 metre breast stroke swimming race. In this event Holman was the winner with Robinson second.

It had been expected that today Hungary would walk off with the 100 metre flat race, but he did not even get a place; Hanson beat him for third.

Third heat—Duncan, United Kingdom; Cloughen, Robertson and Cartnell, America.

Martin J. Sheridan, Irish-American A.C., this afternoon beat all previous records, throwing the discus, Greek style or "as it then," with a throw of 148 feet 8 inches. M. F. Horr, Irish-American A.C., was a good second, and Jarvise, Newfoundland, who held the Olympic record, was third.

In the final tug of war the city of London police was first while the team made up from the Liverpool policemen, was second. The Metropolitan police team was third.

The final in the fancy diving was won by Zurmer, Germany, with 55.5 points; Berhrens, Germany was second with 53.3; George Gaidzik, Chicago A.C., tied with Walsh, Germany, for third, with 50.0.

Olympic games culminated today in an occurrence which threatened to wreck the Olympic meetings.

The trouble was over the final heat of the 400 metre flat race, for which "Lout" Wright, Halswell, United Kingdom; J. C. Carpenter, Cornell University, U.S.A.; Taylor, Irish-American, A.C., and C. W. Robbins, Cambridge, Mass., qualified.

With the exception of Taylor, the men got off quickly, and Robbins sprang in front taking the pole from Carpenter who was just behind him. Their spurt for the final hundred yards was just beating when suddenly a number of officials rushed on to the track, the tape across the finish was torn down and the race was declared void.

The official announcement was that Carpenter had fouled Halswell on the turn. An uproar followed. Officials of the amateur ran along the edges of the track shouting "foul!"

The runners, with the exception of Taylor continued the race to the finish. Carpenter passing the post first, Robbins second and Halswell third. Taylor, who was in the rear, was dragged off the track by one of the excited officials who shouted all the while that there was no race.

The uproar continued for nearly an hour and as the people poured out of the stands, the arguments were taken up at the aisles and gateways by excited thousands and the race is still the subject of the bitterest wrangling everywhere.

Matthew H. Halpin immediately entered a protest claiming the race for Carpenter who had done the distance according to unofficial watches in the remarkable time of 48 2-5. A committee meeting of the amateur athletic association was called and the judges who rendered the decision and Halswell, were called to state their case.

Further, they did the tempo team like act of running up the track in an endeavor to stop Carpenter coming through and meanly broke the tape so as not to give him that honor. They practically declared it no race without authority. There was but one man in the arena who had authority to do that and he was the referee. The referee did not do so.

The formal announcement of the United States committee is as follows: "We have decided to protest the decision as unfair and because the officials declared 'no race' without consideration."

Carpenter, whose team mates say, was the last one to resort to fouling in win medals, thus described the incident: "As we approached the last bend, Robbins had the pole and was leading by a yard. I made my effort there and I certainly ran wide as I have done every time I have been on the track. Halswell had lots of room to pass me on either side. It is ridiculous to talk of a break of a team 'boring' or pocketing, as good a man as Halswell is in a quarter mile. No team could do it. We had nothing of the kind in view; we just raced him off his feet and he could not stand the pace."

F. Leroy Holmes, of Chicago, had an unpleasant experience with the spectators this afternoon. He was giving a splendid exhibition in the standing high jump when without any cause whatever the spectators commenced to say "boo."

partially pulled up, as the worsted man been broken and there could be no race. Taylor ran perfectly fair throughout. The judges themselves then inspected the footmarks which showed that perfect fairness that what happened was unquestionably such as to bear out the umpire's signal and to prove that a foul had been committed."

Robert Kerr of Hamilton, Canada, won the 200 metre flat race. Cloughen, Irish-American, C. C. second and Cartmell, university of Pennsylvania third. Time for the winner 2:25 seconds. Cloughen led Cartmell by a foot. Hawkins, United Kingdom, was fourth.

The four men in this event got away to a splendid start. Kerr finally showed in the front and although Cloughen ran a magnificent spurt at the half way and pulled up inch by inch, he was unable to catch the speedy Canadian, who breasted the tape nine inches ahead of him.

In the first section of the standing high jump at the stadium this morning, Tsalitiras, Greece, won with a jump of 5 feet 1 inch. Adams, United States, second with 4 feet 10 inches and Dupont, Belgium, third. In this event the best of all sections come together in the final.

The third section of the high jump was won by Holmes, Chicago, with 5 feet 2 inches. Chicago and Hallwitz, Germany, each made 4 feet 9 inches.

The tributes to the Americans at the stadium paid to Walker, the young South African, who yesterday won the 100 metre dash, appears to have appealed strongly to English sportsmanship and is likely to do much to dispel the soreness caused by the American protests earlier in the games.

The Standard says: "The Americans took a leading part in the oration given by Walker. They showered congratulations upon him and the young men who were named in the grandstand carrying the flag their country, went out of their way to praise their conqueror."
