

MOMENTOUS PEACE CONFERENCE OPENED TODAY

TODAY, MOMENTOUS PEACE CONFERENCE WAS OPENED

Representatives of 26 Nations Havelined up for Work Facing Them.

PRINCIPAL PROBLEMS THEY WILL HAVE TO SOLVE.

PARIS, Jan. 18.—The peace conference convened for its first official session at 2.30 p.m. today. Delegates representing 26 nations met in the famous Gloeck Hall of the Quai D'Orsay, President Poincaré made the opening address. The peace delegates sat at a huge horseshoe-shaped table, with their secretaries at small tables nearby.

This being the first session it was open and the newspaper correspondents were permitted to be present. None of the tremendous issues of the peace settlement were to be taken up. The sitting was to be devoted to the formalities attaching to the convening of the most important gathering of statesmen in modern history.

It is the gathering, at which President Wilson, leading the peace delegation of the United States, intended to put through his League of Nations' plan and other measures which he believes will end wars and make the world safe for civilization; formation of a definite policy toward Russia, involving possible recognition of the Russian soviet government; indemnities to be collected from Germany; the final disposition of the German fleet; the future of the German Colonies; regulation of national boundaries; the demand of Greece for Constantinople; the disposition of the Holy Land; Ireland's demand for home rule and other principles of self-determination; adjustment of national boundaries along racial lines; freedom of the seas and the reduction of armaments, were among the important questions confronting the peace makers as they assembled.

The delegates present represented

all the nations associated in the war on Germany, and in addition Peru, Ecuador, Uruguay, Bolivia, which severed relations with Germany. The Central powers were not represented. When the peace treaty has been drawn up, the delegates representing the German government and its former allies will be asked to sign it.

When the conference starts its regular proceedings, the league of nations will be the first issue taken up. This will be done at the insistence of President Wilson. Premier Clemenceau is the one who is expected to bring it up for discussion.

The delegates to the conference follow: Great Britain:—Premier Lloyd George, Foreign Secretary Balfour, Chancellor Bonar Law and George N. Barnes; United States, President Wilson, Secretary Lansing, Henry White and General Bliss; France: Premier Clemenceau; Foreign Minister Poincaré; Marshal Foch; as Generalissimo of the Allies; Italy: Premier Orlando, Foreign Minister Sonnino and General Diaz; Japan: Viscount Chinda; Ambassador to Great Britain, Baron Matsui, Ambassador to France; Belgium, Foreign Minister Hymans, Emile Vandervelde, Minister of Justice; Greece, Premier Venizelos, and Foreign Minister Politis; Serbia, Premier Pashitch.

An honor guard saluted the commissioners as they entered the room. The crowds waiting outside had glimpses of motor cars, the flags of the nations fluttering from them as they whistled the delegates into the courtyard. There was frequent cheering and applause.

Under the alphabetical arrangement by which the delegates were seated in the conference room, the Americans were placed at the head of the table, on the right hand of Premier Clemenceau. The other commissioners were ranged out the big horseshoe table in alphabetical order. Great doors leading to the cloak halls were thrown open so that diplomats and others invited to witness the initial sitting could observe the proceedings from the adjoining chambers.

WORLD'S GREATEST PEACE CONGRESS.

With great dignity the full commissions of the associated powers, including two representatives of the King of the Serbs, the potentate who helped whip the Turk, gathered in the historic Clock Room.

Having won their contention in the preliminary, Belgium and Serbia had three delegates instead of two each, as previously announced.

There was a solemn brilliancy to the assembly at the Quai D'Orsay, the faces of some of the diplomats were very grave as they waited for the movement of opening the world's greatest peace congress.

MEET IN OLD CLOCK ROOM.

PARIS, Jan. 18.—All preparations had been completed early today for holding of the first formal session of peace conference at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The Salle D'Horloge, now rechristened Halle D'La Paix and one of the most splendid reception rooms in Europe, has been placed in readiness for the delegates of allied nations as they entered to inaugurate the sittings of the full congress. The entire chamber having been arranged for the special purpose to which it is now being put.

Wm. Robertson, who is charged with having assaulted Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin at the Cobourg jail and then escaped from custody, was arrested in Montreal.

The Appeal From Stricken Syria

Assisting the Unfortunate People.

The people in stricken Syria will not be forgotten. The needs of the thousands of families in that far-away country, which has suffered so much through starvation and other deprivations brought only the war are being brought before the people in other countries, who have been fortunate and still enjoy the pleasures and comforts of ante war days.

Assistances to the people in Syria will be given in the form of money and clothes. The work in the respective countries has become a national through the general appeal that has been made for the assistance of the unfortunate country. Locally, Mrs. Abdo Rishaw, has undertaken the securing of assistance from the people of this city. Mrs. Rishaw has received the endorsement of Mayor Gross as the following letter will show:

January 17, 1919.

To Whom It May Concern:

The Beate Mrs. Abdo Rishaw, a resident of Kitchener for the last seventeen years, and personally known to me for years, is endeavoring to secure aid for her stricken country, Syria. Her uncle, Joseph Libnan, Mayor of Beyrouth, Syria, has written of the terrible conditions prevailing there and asked for assistance.

Anything, either money or clothes, that can be spared would greatly help in alleviating the distress of these people.

I trust you will do the best you can under the circumstances.

Sincerely yours,

D. Gross, Jr., Mayor.

The terrible conditions prevailing in Syria, much as they have been referred to in the press and in letters, are known to a degree. The meagre reports and few facts that are being received, however, are enough to impress upon one the seriousness and sad plight. Many a human life has been extinguished and many a family wiped out through the starvation. Many a town today has only half the population it had before the war. In instances were named by Mrs. Rishaw, whom the Record had the opportunity of conversing with on the appeal; before the war these towns had 3000 and 600 people respectively; to-day the number is 1500 and 300 respectively. The sad condition was brought nearer home to the people here recently when the fact became known that five out of seven of a local family, Mr. Joseph and four children, had succumbed to the ravages of starvation. The appeal therefore, once brought before the citizens undoubtedly will be responded to, to a creditable extent.

Disposed of the Surplus Fund

Raised to Provide More Water at the Sanatorium.

A meeting of the subscribers to the fund to provide water for the Freeport Sanatorium was held at the City Hall last evening, Dr. Honsberger presiding. The purpose of the meeting was to decide what use was to be made of the surplus funds collected.

Miss Bruce, Regent of the Princess of Wales Chapter Daughters of the Empire reported that they had been successful in collecting $1500.25. Mr. Lamprey, the Secretary of the Sanatorium Board reported that the cost of sinking the well was $1195.40. There was therefore, a balance of $373.85 to dispose of.

Dr. Proctor from the Sanatorium addressed the meeting at some length and followed and it was eventually decided that when the citizens offered to provide water that it would be delivered to the building. They therefore, objected to pay for the pump and as Dr. Proctor had personally ordered it, it was, of course, necessary that he should see that funds were provided to pay for it. Considerable discussion followed and it was eventually moved by Mr. Devitt and seconded by Mr. Hughes that $210. of the surplus be voted to pay for this pump. This was unanimously carried.

A motion was made by Mr. Lockhart and Mr. Devitt that the balance of the surplus be handed back to the Princess of Wales Chapter Daughters of the Empire to be used by them for any purpose they saw fit.

A vote of thanks was passed to the Daughters of the Empire for their efforts in collecting this fund.

A suggestion was made by Mr. H.E. Lockhart that a Sacred Memorial Concert be held once a year under the auspices of the Daughters of the Empire in memory of our fallen heroes. This suggestion was heartily endorsed by the meeting.

Park Board Monthly Meeting

There was a full attendance at the Park Board monthly meeting last evening. Accounts for December were read and passed and the monthly correspondence taken up.

An offer of two eagles for the park was refused, their upkeep was considered too expensive.

Lee on Victoria Park was commenced to be cut last evening and a resolution was passed to the effect that all holes cut must be adequately guarded, or the contract for the job will be automatically cancelled.

The reward for information leading to the conviction of the party or parties who destroyed the small trees in the park prior to Christmas is still offered, although the authorities already have a party under suspicion.

Mr. Euler, M.P., will be communicated with by the board in an endeavor to obtain from the government captured enemy cannon, for placing in the park, the more worn and battle scarred the better, it was considered that this would make an interesting object for future generations to gaze upon, it being the sincere hope of the board that these weapons will become scarce articles in the future.

PREMIER HUGHES TELLS AIMS OF THE AUSTRALIAN NATION

Says it Stands Where U.S. Stood in 1776.

DESIRES TO ANNEX NEW GUINEA.

PARIS, Jan. 18. (By John De Gandt) "Australia as a free and independent nation has its own peace demands for consideration at the conference," Premier Hughes declared today in an interview with the United Press.

"Australia," he announced, "considers that it won its independence on the battlefields and that politically it stands now where the United States stood at the end of its revolution. It is in this spirit that it enters the peace conference with its own program. Recognition of the British dominions by the peace congress marks the dawn of a new era," the premier believes. It is taken to mean that the world recognizes Australia, Canada, South Africa, New Zealand and India as autonomous nations, tied only by sentiment to the motherland.

"Our fighting record surpasses that of any nation," he asserted. "Now we want self-determination."

Australia, Hughes made plain, throws its cards face upward on the peace table. "His commission, being most democratic and a firm foe of secret diplomacy, frankly and openly makes public its aims and desires in the great settlement. Hughes announced that Australia would demand: indemnities, the islands of New Guinea; a league of nations, with certain restrictions; military support to Poland, if that country is threatened; a hearing on all questions concerning Europe or the Far East.

Australia, he declared, would oppose Freedom of the Seas, if that means taking Britain's supremacy from her; any restrictions upon the right of making whatever economic arrangements she pleases and further intervention in Russia.

"Australia," said Hughes, "feels that she stands politically today pretty much where the United States stood at the end of the revolution. She has won liberty on the fields of France and deserves recognition as an autonomous nation.

"Australia lost nearly 60,000 killed and 260,000 wounded in the war. She spent a billion and a half dollars. She clothed her own troops in uniforms made of wool grown in her own country. Her fighting records surpasses that of any other nation. Now Australia wants self-determination. This means she insisted on a policy of a 'White Australia'. We do not want promiscuous immigration. We are a white nation in a sea of blacks. We must have the New Guinea islands, which lying only eighty miles from our shores, stretch 1,800 miles toward Asia. They are full of possibilities for naval bases and U-boat nests if they pass into unfriendly hands. We believe we ought to have an indemnity. We helped beat the powers who willfully forced the war; thereby saddling us with only 5,000,000 inhabitants, with a war debt which is a most frightful handicap to a new people like ourselves. If America had been unable to make headway, Germany ought to pay indemnities to the utmost of her ability, Australia sharing in proportion to the part she took in the war.

"We believe in the league of nations, but we must not impair the nation's rights of free government and though the league would be a valuable instrument in making world peace we must keep our powder dry.

"I do not precisely know what Freedom of the Seas means but Australia is surrounded by a coast line 12,000 miles long, as long as the distance from Australia to England and we are unable to protect this ourselves. Therefore, we must depend on Britain to oppose any plan taking away her naval supremacy."

Were France to Keep At The Big Annual Furniture Exhibit

Interview With Prominent Leader.

HOLDS IT WOULD BREED REVENGE.

AMERICAN HEADQUARTERS IN GERMANY, Jan. 18. (By Webb Miller).—"If the Rhinelanders are taken from Germany a spirit of revenge will be engendered—a spirit that will bring on another war, so Count von Groots, Governor of the Rhineland Provinces, declared today to the United Press. (Marshal Foch in an interview with the newspaper correspondents made public to-day, declared that France, in self-defense, must keep its hold of the Rhine.)

Von Groote made the emphatic assertion that the Germans would never forget any retention by France of Rhineland territory. The ultimate redemption of such territory by Rhinelanders territory. The ultimate redemption of soil territory by Germany would be the object of their "most ardent hopes and endeavors," he said. "Germany as a whole would consider such severance as a gross violation of the fundamental conditions for an equitable peace settlement, as proclaimed by President Wilson.

Von Groote declared: "The territory on the left bank of the Rhine belongs to Germany and is thoroughly German. (This is the area that is presently occupied by allied troops.) We would never forget such a severance and its reunion with Germany would be the object of our most ardent hopes and endeavors. These statements are most emphatically shared by the Rhinelanders themselves. They would consider their separation from the rest of Germany a great misfortune.

I think the effects of such a separation are clearly evident. I do not doubt for a moment that such a procedure would create a permanent source of serious uneasiness and perturbation in the political situation. It is my opinion that the Rhinelanders do not wish separation from Germany but that some of the peoples interests of the Rhineland are not sufficiently guaranteed by the present relations with the Prussian state and that their interests would be better protected if the Rhineland, and perhaps other parts of Germany, were united into separate federal states within the German realm.

An effort to influence the peace conference is evident in recent statements from German leaders. Von Groote's plea and war hint follows an utterance from Count Bernstorff wherein he insisted that it would be dishonest for the allies to retain the German colonies.

Exports of domestic manufactured articles show a decrease of $84,008,824; the figures for 1917 being $522,963,430, and for 1918, $428,954,606.

At The Big Annual Furniture Exhibit

KING STREET EXHIBITS.

Several factories have located their exhibits on King Street. The Art Furniture Company are showing in Ritt's old store, and show some original designs in bed-room furniture. The Queen Ann suite in Walnut finish is exceptionally pleasing, likewise a suite in Ivory Enamel finish and one in Walnut a Louis XVI design, bespeak great credit to the firm. Library tables in fumed and golden oak made in twenty different designs, and a variety of dressers make up an attractive display.

At the permanent show rooms of the Waterloo Furniture Company situated on the third floor above the Kitchener Furniture Company, without doubt the finest and largest collection of Mohai and Velvet upholstered furniture is shown, the colors and designs of which are amazing in their variety.

An exclusive line of solid mahogany and walnut living room suites are shown, a splendid example of which can be seen in the window. Library tables, chest-of-drawers, and parlor suites, make up an interesting display and gives an idea of the large assortment lines manufactured by this firm.

At Schreiers Limited the Heppel Furniture Company are showing bed-room and dining room furniture of period designs, and the articles shown are of a very high grade. The Beaver Furniture Company show dining room furniture only in fumed and golden oak, and the De Luxe upholstering shows a splendid line of chest-of-drawers which have received the high praise of outside buyers.

The exhibition in Schreiers building is quite a feature on its own, the three firms making up a splendid collection of household furniture.

This scheme as outlined by Sir Adam includes the taking over of the existing radial from Hamilton via Burlington Beach to Oakville, but only the section from Oakville to Burlington would be incorporated in the Toronto-Niagara line. The Burlington-Hamilton section, via the beach would be operated as a local line.

It is expected that by-laws will be submitted in all three places within three weeks and that they will be enthusiastically endorsed, sentiment in the municipalities having changed since the first vote.

Gallant Part by Deceased Aviator

THE LATE FLIGHT LT. J.R. GOW, FORMERLY OF THIS TOWN.

The following article taken from a Windsor paper, in connection with the death of the brave young son of Mr. John E. Gow, Inspector of Inland Revenue at Kingston, formerly of Waterloo, Ont., will give some little idea of the splendid part played by Clan Gow in the great war.

"Flight Lieut. J. E. E. Gow, died of wounds after his machine was shot down while attached to a flying squadron that was in an engagement near Zeebrugge. Six enemy planes were downed and three machines of the Royal Navy Air Service fell within German lines. This was on July 31st, and Lieut. Gow, one of the British flyers, succumbed on August 10th, although notification of his death did not reach his father, John E. Gow, Inspector of Inland Revenue at Kingston, but formerly of Windsor, until Dec. 28th. Last. Deceased was only 19 years of age and had enlisted with the Grenadier Guards of Montreal, afterwards transferring to the 72nd battery, an Artillery unit, and later joining the R.N.A.S. He was a nephew of Col. Alex. Gow and Dr. James Gow of Windsor, Col. Walter Gow, deputy of Militia overseas, and Col. George Gow, who went to Salonica with Toronto University Hospital in a charge of the dental corps. This will also be of interest to numerous Waterloo friends to know that Flight Lieut. J. E. E. Gow was a cousin of the late Lieutenant-Colonel John McCrae, author of "In Flanders Field, a wonderfully inspiring message which will live in the memory of generations to come."

A UNIQUE SNOW HOUSE.

A unique snow house has been built by a number of children at the entrance to the park. The house stands between the main pillars and the ticket office and is large enough for a good sized child to stand up in. It will hold quite a number and the workers are guarding it jealously and hope the cold weather will get cold as they would like to preserve it as long as possible.

IN GOOD SHAPE.

The Fire Sleighs have been installed in the Fire hall, the truck and hose wagon having been changed over a day or so ago with runners and more serviceable just now than wheels. Driver Simpson had the teams out last night about 8.30 o'clock for a practice run up Albert Street testing the harness and sleighs and everything was O.K.

Mr. A. McClellan of Guelph was a visitor in town yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Sussner of Edmonton who have been visiting friends in town the past few weeks returned West this morning.

Miss E. Beamish of Brantford is visiting friends in town for a few days.

Miss Annie Foster of Stratford is spending the week end with friends in town.

MAY HAVE BEEN CAUGHT.

Chief Flynn received word from Toronto yesterday stating they believed they had arrested the party guilty of breaking into the store of Mr. W. Vavermick a few weeks ago and immediately an officer was sent down to bring the prisoner back. The case will be heard on Monday and it is fully expected it will be disposed of then.

The choir of the Methodist Church were hospitably entertained on Thursday Evening after choir practice at the personage by Rev. and Mrs. Harton. Needless to say an enjoyable time was spent in music and social intercourse after which a dainty lunch was served by the kind host and hostess.

SALE OF HOGS.

A car load of young hogs is being sold at the Grand Trunk Cattle Yards today. The hogs are principally young porkers and the prices we understand are reasonable.

The Weekly Market

There was an unusually large crowd out at the regular weekly Market this morning the ideal weather no doubt having something to do with it. While the crowd of buyers was large there did not seem to be any increase in the quantity of produce offered and as a result the Market was a short snappy one. Fowl was very scarce only a few being on sale at 35 cents per lb. Butter remained at 52 cents per lb. while Eggs were a little more plentiful and sold from 56 to 58 cents per dozen. All kinds of produce such as onions, carrots, beets, turnips etc. sold at the usual prices.

Pure Religion and Undeified

Was the subject used by Mrs. Durham last night as she spoke from James 1:27 "Pure Religion and Undeified before God and the Father is this, to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world." The Alma St. U.B. Church was crowded to the doors to listen to this excellent message. "People said the Evangelist demand practical Christianity. James was the exponent of such Christianity and Jesus was the example thereof. In Matt. 25:31-46 Christ puts the standard for the judgment on this practical basis. Yet their is also a number and the workers are guarding it jealously and hope the cold weather will get cold as they would like to preserve it as long as possible.

Are Raising Fund For Reconstruction

NATIONAL LUTHERAN COUNCIL HAS TAKEN STEPS.

American Church Assuming Leadership.

The National Lutheran Council is organizing a campaign for $500,000 to be used for directly reconstructing purposes. The date of the campaign are February 16th-20th. $375,000 are to be used for overseas service, helping the Lutheran churches of France, Finland, Estonia and other parts of Europe. Apart from the destruction and dissolution of the churches of these countries is severely threatened by the growing chaos and Bolshevism. The campaign is significant. It practically means that the Lutherans of this country are assuming world-leadership for the Lutheran cause.

Campaign headquarters have been opened at 437 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

Dr. H.G. Stub, president of the National Lutheran Council, has published an appeal setting forth the objects of the campaign. It follows:

"With the close of the world war a new period has begun for the Lutheran Church of this country. Our Church is called upon today to assume leadership for the Lutheran cause throughout the world. Across the water, in war-torn Europe, there is chaos and disorder, uncertainty and fear. Men are doubtful of the future because they have no experience in the past to guide them and give them confidence.

"Millions of our fellow-Lutherans are to-day facing difficulties as great as those among which our church was born. The old social order is crumbling about them. Radicalism of the most anarchistic and Godless type is rousing the masses to fever heat. In their own past they have no guide to meet the present. Held under the utage of autocratic states they had no opportunity to develop that vigorous, courageous, resourceful self-reliance which is the life of a free church in a free state.

"Providence has given a peculiar opportunity to the Lutheran Church of this land. Tracing back its origin to man who came here because they valued freedom of conscience more than home and country, it has developed to the fullest measure its ideal of a free church in a free state. "Quietly and unobtrusively it has grown to strength as well in numbers and resources as in the conviction that spiritual democracy alone represents the Master's ideal for the church.

"Today the period of quiet preparation is coming to fruition. As our land is called upon to bring civic democracy, so our church is called upon to bring spiritual democracy to the Lutherans of the world. They seek it. We have it. It is our duty to share with them its blessings.

"The National Lutheran Council has been organized to meet the call. Representative of 1,500,000 confirmed Lutherans, it represents an agency that can and will effectively carry out the task.

"It is appealing for a free state. $500,000 and has appointed Feb. 16th-20th as the time when it is to be gathered.

It is hardly necessary for me to request the whole-hearted sympathy of every Lutheran for this cause. It is so urgent. Its possibilities are so great. It challenges us to do our part in a manner that cannot be refused.

Decrease in domestic merchandise exported for the nine months, when compared with a similar period last year total over 310,000,000.

A Retrospective on Tree Planting

In the quiet winter months tree planting may not appeal to the citizen. Yet there is occasion for thinking about it and consequently for making a decision to plant shade trees in front of one's property thereby improving the appearance of the property and the street.

In conversation this morning with Superintendent Koehler it was ascertained that the Park Board, as soon as the proper season returns will again plant trees for those citizens who put in their orders. Last fall quite a number were planted and more orders are on the books.

"One thing in tree planting that should not be lost sight of is the aim at uniformity on the street. Tree planting should be carried out on a plan which will harmonize with the surroundings," so Mr. Koehler said when he was asked what kind of trees are generally planted on streets. He stated that the best kind of trees for the street, including the kind of trees that are already on it, and also the number of the same. In planting the space between trees also must be considered he remarked.

In connection with tree planting and the citizens may do to improve the streets and the surroundings of their homes, it is worthy of note to look about here and there thus securing a retrospective of what has been done by some within the last year.

In several instances residents have had trees planted on the street and at the right place. The charge $1.25 cents per tree, which includes planting and replacing until they have grown up, at the expense of the Park Board they consider no more than fair, being lower than the cost of the trees.

Prominent Citizens Deed.

It is encouraging to notice that more citizens are becoming interested, not only in the hope of improving the appearance around their own homes and neighborhood, but also including others to do the same. A citizen's deed was set last fall by one of the city's prominent manufacturers, Mr. A.R. Kaufman, who provided the funds for several hundred trees which were planted here and there in the city. Since the placing of these trees, one who has taken note, regret that many years have passed and still many properties have no ornamental and natural decorations. But the day apparently has dawned when there will be a general response to add some of nature's attractiveness to the city streets.

"Ever so many thanks for your welcome letter received in Germany telling me how sick all of you had been with that influenza but I do hope you will all soon be right again. Myself, I never felt better. Yes, Lucy, I am glad the scrapping is over and I don't think Germany will want another war in a hurry. I have just returned from England leave. I spent a nice time there indeed and sincerely hope to spend a better time shortly in Canada. You asked if I could be home for Xmas.

Your Sick Child Is Constipated! Look at Tongue

Hurry, Mother! Remove Poisons From Little Stomach, Liver, Bowels.

Give "California Syrup of Figs" If Cross, B'ious or Feverish.

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and setting naturally—look! Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that the little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of the little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this bar "less 'fruit laxative,' because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for a baby, children of all ages, and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

Some think patients are treated nude

"I would like to have the benefit of Osteopathy treatment but I could not make up my mind to be treated naked," say some women. That is about the most preposterous nonsense ever uttered. Thinking that Osteopathy is some sort of rubbing or massage some people conclude that it must be applied to the nude body. As a matter of fact Osteopathic Physicians treat their patients through a thickness of clothing. A lady usually disrobes to her underclothing and puts on a special treating robe. Under Osteopathy there is not one quarter the immodest exposures necessary under surgery and drugging.

SOCIETY NEWS

Mr. Herbert Klein has returned to the city after a month's visit with his parents in New York. Mr. Campbell of New York is the guest of Mr. Klein for a few weeks.

Miss Farrell, of New York City, is the guest of Mrs. George C. H. Lang, "East Lawn."

Mrs. Leo. McLaughlin, Mrs. Harold Wurster, Miss Florence Krug are spending this week with friends in Toronto.

Miss Margaret Breithaupt returned to Bishop Strachan School on Monday. Miss Annie Krug also returned to Villa Marie Convent, Montreal, and Miss Helen Weir to Oshawa Ladies College.

A number of young people spent a pleasant evening Saturday last at the Grand River Country Club.

At a meeting held in the Parliament Buildings this week it was decided by Lady Hendrie, Lady Hearst, Lady Willson, Mrs. A. E. Gooderham and Miss Church that the voluntary collection to be taken up, for a national gift to the Princess Patricia of Connaught, on the occasion of her marriage will be left entirely with the people. The ladies felt that owing to the heavy strain that many of the patriotic organizations have been under during the war, it was unfair to ask them to be responsible in raising this collection. The mayors and reeves throughout the Province will be responsible for the collection in their own communities.

Hon. Mr. McGarry will take charge of the money. As to whether the Provinces will each send a gift, or whether it will be combined in one, is not decided. Lady Hendrie thought something possibly made from Cobalt Silver would be suitable for Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lang are spending this week in Mt. Clemens.

Mr. and Mrs. Hewittson, of Brampton, are spending the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Breithaupt.

Miss Lilian Breithaupt is the guest of Toronto friends this week.

Her Royal Highness, the Princess Mary, will make her official debut at the first drawing-room to be held since the war, probably late in January. The Princess is twenty-one years of age. A large number of belated debutantes will be presented at that time.

The Queen Anne Chapter, I.O.D.E., are having a dance this afternoon in the Masonic Hall. The young ladies will give a hearty welcome to their guests, and it is hoped a great number will attend. Proceeds to bring comfort and cheer to the soldiers, who have been so heroic in this great war.

The Chapter hopes to repeat the dance next Saturday. Everybody welcome. Come and help along this splendid work.

Mrs. William Snyder, Waterloo, is spending the winter months in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Snyder, Waterloo, left on Friday, for a two months trip to Florida.

Ottawa city is having a "Silver Shower" to raise money for the Princess Patricia's gift, Lady Laurier and Mrs. George Foster, making the collection for the National Council of Women. Lady Pope for the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire, Mrs. Adam Shortt for the Canadian Club.

Miss Rosetta Kuarr entertained some of her girl friends at her home.

Miss Kathleen MacMillan left on Wednesday last to attend Branksome Hall, Toronto.

Ottawa, Jan. 17.—Some months ago it was made a crime by order-in-council to have in one's possession in Canada any "Red Terror" literature. A director of public safety was appointed and special arrangements made to suppress generally the revolutionary type of social agitation.

A number of arrests have been made and convictions secured, but in nearly every case there is a subsequent application for executive clemency. In some it has been granted. In every instance, extraordinary conditions are set forth and in some, degree, at least, sustained. You reckless men and women who are pestered with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lockjaw or blood poison are now told by a Cincinnati authority to use a drug called freezeone, which the moment a few drops are applied to the corn, the soreness is relieved and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts off with the fingers.

It is a sticky substance which dries the moment it is applied and is so soft to apply that it can be applied without flaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce of freezeone costs very little at any of the drug stores; but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

War Service Gratuity

As soon as a soldier is discharged from the army his first concern is to find a job.
He may not find a job at once. During his period of unemployment he will however be in receipt of his War Service Gratuity.

Before the Armistice was signed "post discharge pay" was granted to discharged soldiers. Upon the signing of the Armistice it was felt necessary to make certain changes.

A larger grant will now be made to all who have served at the front whether discharged before or after the Armistice.
Those who were on active service on the date of the Armistice, but had not served at the front, will also receive a gratuity on a higher scale.

The War Service Gratuity is given over, and above any "back pay," pension or clothing allowance to which a man may be entitled.

It is given in addition to all the care,
attention and service which the Government will devote in order to restore our fighting men to civil life.

To Whom Awarded.

All soldiers discharged on or after November 11th, 1918, who have served with good conduct will receive War Service
Gratuity according to their class.

Soldiers discharged before November
11th, 1918, will receive War Service
Gratuity only if they served at the front in any actual theatre of war.

If a soldier discharged before November 11th, 1918, did not serve in an actual theatre of war he will be entitled only to post discharge pay—according to his class on the old scale.

The Amount of the Gratuity.

The gratuity consists of a continuation of a soldier's pay, field allowance and separation allowance for a period beyond his discharge.

This period is graded according to the length and character of service.

If his service has been in part overseas his gratuity is figured on a higher scale than that of the man who has served only in Canada.

The maximum gratuity for the man who has served overseas is six months.

This is given to the man whose total service amounts to three years or more.

Three months gratuity is the maximum for the man who has served in Canada only, and it is given for three years' service.

If the monthly pay and allowances for a man whose dependents have been receiving separation allowance should be less than $100 he is given $100 per month as gratuity. A part of the gratuity equal to separation allowance will be paid direct to the dependent entitled to it.

If the monthly pay and allowances for a man without such dependents should amount to less than $70.00 he is to receive $70.00 per month.

Further, every gratuity granted will amount to at least one month's pay, field allowance and separation allowance.

When Payable.

Men who have already been discharged will be given the gratuity to which they are entitled (less any "post discharge pay" they have received) after February 1st, 1919.

Application for an adjustment must be made to the paymaster of the district from which the soldier was discharged.
The necessary forms to be filled out in support of each claim for adjustment may be obtained from the military headquarters of each district, from district and unit paymasters and from officers commanding militia units.

Men who are still in the service will receive their first month's gratuity immediately upon their discharge—unless they are "boarded" to receive treatment and full pay and allowances from the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-Establishment.

Men who are in the care of the Soldiers'
Civil Re-Establishment will get their gratuity as soon as they cease to receive full pay and allowances.

By this token Canada will record her appreciation of her soldiers and sailors—to a degree more generous than that shown by any other nation.

BRITISH FILMS WILL BE SHOWN

The formation of "British Films Limited" under the direction of Jule and Jay J. Allen of Toronto endeavors to meet the ever increasing demand of the patriotic people of Canada for the display of British Films on the Canadian screens and is being organized to import, distribute and exploit the leading photoplays of Britain and stories woven around British and Canadian life.

A great majority of the patrons in Canada are of British birth or decent. As a British people, we are proud of our history, our traditions and our achievements. We desire to see the picture play masterpieces that are produced in the mother country and to be brought face to face with the rulers, the statesmen, the soldiers and the sailors of the motherland. The subject has been brought up for discussion many times in the periodicals and the press of the country, and without exception these organs of public opinion have voiced the demand for a more adequate representation of British films in Canada.

Within the near future there will be released in Canada that most touching story of the war, already famous in famous in Britain "The Kiddies in the Ruins," which depicts a humble home in France before and after the battle of the Somme. Another production soon to be witnessed is netitled
"God Bless our Red, White and Blue" a story to make the heart swell with pride for the British Empire and the England that

These are only a number of stirring, splendid picture plays of British origin that will soon be shown in Canada. There will also be imported from Britain many films dealing with the history of the past and the history that is now in the making.
At no time has Britain, the mistress of the seas occupied such a commanding place in the affairs of the world.
Her rulers, statesmen, soldiers and sailors will be seen face to face by the people of Canada. All these films will breathe the spirit of British liberty and British nationality. They will focus the minds and hearts of the spectators upon British achievements and British institutions. They will be inspired and inspired by an atmosphere of imperial patriotism. To make way for this large number of British films, the companies affiliated and controlled by "British Films Limited" will curtail their importation of American films, effective immediately, from twenty to thirty per cent.

From the above, it will be easily seen to what a very considerable extent the proportion of British films will be increased, and the audiences of Kitchener should hail with delight the fact that these pictures will shortly be shown at the Allen, a fitting message and gift for the year 1919 to the people of Canada.

Rheumatism Every Winter

To be crippled by Rheumatism is to have life become an intolerable burden, especially in the winter, when the persistent cold and damp aggravate this complaint till it is almost unbearable.

Can you picture the dread that any man would hold winter in when all it meant to him was a yearly return of his Rheumatism and the agonizing pains that it brings?

Such was the case of Mr. A. Beaudry of Bedford, Que. Each winter he was forced to undergo the torture of Rheumatic pains, until he discovered Gin Pills. Read what he says about these little doctors:

"Every winter I suffered from Rheumatism, and this is the first season I have been able to go through without a return of my old trouble—thanks to Gin Pills.
The pills are all you claim for them, and more."

Testimony such as this should convince even the most skeptical that Gin Pills do remedy Kidney troubles.

If you have friends or relatives who suffer from this dread affliction, tell them to try Gin Pills. So many people have written us stating in glowing terms how Gin Pills have relieved them of Kidney troubles, that we are convinced that all any person needs to do in order to obtain relief is—try them.

OPTIMISM SHOULD PREVAIL.

Investigations carried on through Canada by agents of the Dominion Government disclose the fact that the task of replacing Canada on a peace footing as far as manufactures are concerned, can be accomplished with little confusion, and that a period of exceptional prosperity and activity lies before both Canada and the United States.

Canada, according to the Department of Labor, is entering upon a period of expansion greater than at any time in her history. There is no anxiety concerning the attitude of the manufacturers of the country, who realize that they must take full advantage of their opportunities and minimize the difficulties of transition from war to peace conditions. Unmeasurable opportunities, embracing every department of industry, confront the Canadian manufacturer, and with the passing of the need for conservation, the demand for goods of all kinds will increase.

Deferred construction programs, involving the expenditure of scores of millions of dollars, will be proceeded with in the Spring, and industrial plants in all parts of Canada are awaiting only for labor to inaugurate large schemes for expansion. Stocks are low and the call for manufactured goods will come from every quarter. The demand from abroad will be enormous. Europe must be reconstituted and rebuilt, and with the release of shipping for commercial purposes, trade with other parts of the globe will be stimulated.

Price levels, it has been ascertained, will be generally maintained. Any possibility of a precipitate fall is precluded by the world-wide demand. No sudden readjustment of wages is anticipated. General stability, with slow and steady readjustments to meet new conditions, is the evident tendency throughout the country.

In order that all manufacturers may better be able to take advantage of these opportunities, the Dominion Government is giving them every assistance. It has re-endorsed the principle of using goods made in Canada, and has undertaken to stimulate public interest in the movement.

By establishing Industrial Research Bureaux it affords valuable aid to existing industries and will foster the creation of new ones. By its programme for the construction of useful public works it will absorb the products of many factories. It has stimulated the building industry by instituting a credit of twenty-five million dollars to be drawn on for housing development, and it has inaugurated an important ship-building program. It is providing employment for thousands of men on the Government Railways. It is establishing employment offices through the country to aid both the employer and employee.

The opportunities should have not been forgotten. The Government proposes to establish credits for work undertaken by manufacturers and producers in connection with the rehabilitation of the devastated regions of Europe, which will enable manufacturers to finance contracts on a cash payment basis, and which should lead to a large share of the business coming to Canada.

A system has been begun for the compilation of accurate details of imports with the object of indicating the directions in which trade may be developed. A trade mission to London, and a Canadian Trade Commission with headquarters in Canada have been established for the fostering of commerce and industry. Important machinery is being built up by which the Government will co-operate with the manufacturer in every possible direction.

THE PRESS AND THE PEACE CONFERENCE.

There is so much depending upon the results of the allied peace conference, now underway at Paris, that the question of admitting the press assumes unusual importance.

Democratic nations have wearied of secret treaties and secret diplomacy. They are opposed to the idea of the conference degenerating into a grand grab or being employed to further imperialistic aspirations. It is obvious that if the peace finally written is to insure permanent world peace, it must be founded on justice and the square deal. Perceiving this they conclude that the future welfare and progress of mankind, which are welded to peace, are of more vital importance to the world than the dividing of spoils.

Further they hope and expect those who have sacrificed and suffered beyond measure will make the equally great sacrifice of restraining themselves in the hour of victory, in order to gain the priceless boon of permanent peace.

Taking this into consideration, can there be any doubt as to whether or not its sessions should be open to the press? The correspondents sent thither do not appear as representing a single newspaper or groups of newspapers. Theirs is a vastly more important mission. It is jointly to represent the peoples of the associated countries; to keep them informed daily of demands advanced and solutions reached.

Admitting the press will by proxy be seating the allied nations at the conference table. Excluding them will not only be depriving them from hearing the claims made and subsequent deliberations thereon but schemes which would not bear the searchlight of public opinion may be advanced.

Europe has so long been accustomed to secret diplomacy that it views with disfavor the discussion of international questions in an open forum. Having been for centuries "on the make," its representatives like movie nations about like pieces on a chess board.

Were the peace terms made in secret, conclusions would possibly be reached only after one group had gained a concession by promising support to another group seeking a similar gain, say of territory. Peace terms thus arrived at could scarcely hope to form a solid foundation upon which to build permanent peace.

The peoples of the associated nations, and particularly of North America, desire an open, aboveboard peace; openly arrived at. Publication of the requests made and the discussions following, will enable democracies to protest should their ideals be departed from or even threatened.

They believe that every meritorious claim will stand the light of day and of public discussion. They conclude that if any of them will not stand these tests then they cannot be good.

To admit the press is to admit the associated nations to the conference. Next to the formation of a league of nations it stands as the second most important principle, proposed to be adopted in international relations.

"In The Day's News"

Celebrating his twenty-fifth birthday today, King Boris of Bulgaria finds himself newly seated on a throne left rather wobbly when his father, King Ferdinand, was obliged to abdicate last October as a penalty for his poor judgment in picking sides in the great war. The future of Boris and his kingdom will be determined in large measure by the coming deliberations at Versailles. Whether the youthful King has inherited the cunning and abilities of his father remains to be seen. From his mother, who was of a deeply religious nature, he is said to have inherited a rather profound piety. His baptism in the orthodox Greek church in 1896, it may be recalled, developed into a political issue involving several nations.

ODD AND INTERESTING.

Every six minutes a merchant vessel arrives and another departs from American ports.

In the recent fighting towards Damascus, one section of Arabs marched seventy miles in twenty-four hours, fighting part of the way.

The total expenditure on the war in four years reached the stupendous sum of $145,000,000,000, or roughly the equivalent of the entire combined wealth of the United Kingdom and France.

For short distances the salmon is the swiftest of fish. Its speed at high pressure is from twenty to twenty-five miles an hour. Sharks are capable of keeping up a speed of from seventeen to twenty miles an hour for a considerable time.

When the peace of Ryswick was made which brought to an end the war between Holland, France, Spain and England, the Dutch ambassador in London celebrated it by a huge illumination in front of his house in Piccadilly of 140 barrels of pitch.

Pneumatic tires were the outcome of a device used by an Irish doctor to diminish the jolting of an invalid chair for a patient of his. He fastened around the wheels a piece of ordinary garden hose filled with water. Instead of water, air was afterwards used with improved results.

So far as England was concerned the end of the greatest war the world has ever seen was celebrated far more quietly than the end of far less important wars. After Waterloo amazing scenes were witnessed in London and the provinces. In one of the suburbs of the metropolis a wealthy eccentric announced that he would burn down his house on the following night, which he did amidst scenes of wild enthusiasm. A political rival not to be outdone, set fire to his own place, but then the authorities stepped in and stopped this method of celebrating peace.

ANAEMIC PALENESS QUICKLY CHANGED TO ROSY CHEEKS

Chlorosis or anaemia is simply thinness of blood.

If confined too much indoors, anaemia develops, because the lungs are insufficiently supplied with oxygen and the blood is consequently ill-nourished and half-starved.

But there is a cure!

Dr. Hamilton has solved the problem in his famous pills of Mandrake and Butternut; as a blood enricher their equal is not known.

All the functions upon which life depends are helped by Dr. Hamilton's Pills.

Richness and purity are instilled with wonderful promptness into the vital fluid.

Healthy color supplants the pallid, ashen face.

Better appetite, strong digestion and dreamless sleep are sure to follow, because of the increased blood supply furnished by Dr. Hamilton's Pills.

Think it over.

Will it pay you to look and feel half-dead, to lack color and spirit, when all can be changed by Dr. Hamilton's Pills?

Better act at once.

Your case is more curable now than it was when you first began to feel half-dead.

Dr. Hamilton personally guarantees his pills of Mandrake and Butternut.

Their merit is unquestioned. Thousands of anaemics they have cured and kept well.

They will do just the same for you. Try Dr. Hamilton's Pills, 52c per box.

NEGLECTED COLDS

Lead to Consumption

Unless a complete cure is effected the inflammation passes rapidly to the throat bronchial tubes, and then to the lungs.

You can't make new lungs any more than you can make new fingers or a new nose—hence consumption is practically incurable.

But Catarrh can be cured, except in its final and always fatal stage, CATARRHOZONE

Guaranteed to Cure

The purest, balms and the greatest antiseptics are sent to every spot where catarrhal trouble exists—germs are killed, foul secretions are destroyed, nature is given a chance and cure comes quickly.

Colds and throat troubles can't last, if the pure healing vapor of Catarrhazine is inhaled.

Use Catarrhazine to prevent—use it to cure your winter illness—it's pleasant, safe, and guaranteed in every case.

Two months' treatment, large size, guaranteed to cure, price $1; small size 50c; sample size, 25c; sold everywhere.

GRATUITY TO RETURNED MEN

Thousands of soldiers will soon be returning to Canada. Their demobilization has been so arranged that the labor market will not be glutted, resulting in returned soldiers being out of work. It is realized that the soldier who has been discharged from the army, will look for employment. In order that he may have an opportunity of living decently until he finds employment; the Dominion government has decided to give every man a "War Service Gratuity." The gratuity is graded, according to length of service, from six months to one month's pay and allowances. After Feb. 1st, men who already have been discharged will be given their gratuity to which they are entitled.

Men who still are in the service will receive their first month's gratuity immediately upon their discharge. Men who are in the care of the Soldiers Civil Re-Establishment Department will receive their gratuity as soon as they cease to receive pay and allowances. The gratuity also will be granted to a dead soldier's relatives. The decision to grant this gratuity places

A Broken Wedding Ring

By Bertha M. Clay

I may not have been perhaps the best of fathers, but I am your father, and to give up my love and protection for that of another is, I say, a sin that cries to Heaven for vengeance. You hear me, Leah? I say it to you in the time of your punishment that my father regretted, you will remember this hour and this deed. The time will come when the anger of Heaven will fall upon you—when, in your turn, your heart will be torn with anguish, and you will say to yourself: "This is the punishment that my father prophesied for me! I do not curse you, Leah; I leave you to the Power that never fails to punish or reward."

"Do not be so angry with her, father," said a loving voice; and again Hettie's arms clung to him tenderly.

The general, seeing that Leah had hardly strength to stand, drew her nearer to him.
"There is one thing I must do before you go," said Martin Ray. "I will not say that I have studied my Bible much; but I have made a family register of it."

He unclasped Hettie's arms, and placed her in a chair, then he went to the bookshelf, took from it a large Bible, opened it, and laid it upon the table before the general. There was about his action that dignity that comes from great sorrow.

"Look!" he said, pointing with his finger. "There is the entry of my marriage with Doris Hatton. Here is the birth of my first and best-loved child Leah, more than sixteen years ago. Here is the birth of Hettie, fifteen years ago. Now see. My eldest child is dead to me; she died to-day. I have but one daughter living."

He took a pen and dipped it in ink, and through the name of Leah Ray he drew a thick black line with steady fingers. He wrote opposite to it, "Dead to me." Then he closed the book, and replaced it on the shelf.

"There is no more to be either said or done," he continued. "You have taken my child from me, General Hatton. She goes readily—let her go. I do not mean to complain; but, when she passes over the threshold of the house, she passes over my heart."

General Hatton bent down, and looked into the beautiful face so white and still.
"Leah," he said, gently, "I would not over-persuade you—and the choice is for life. Will you take time to think over it?"

"No," she answered, faintly. "I could not live the life that is proposed for me. I hate it. I prayed to Heaven to send me deliverance. I cannot refuse it now that it has come."

"You need no do so," said the general. "I wish your sister would come too."
But Hettie clung to her father. After a few moments Martin raised his hands.

"I am no prophet," he said; "but I believe in the natural order and the natural fitness of things. I predict that over the head of the child who has forsaken me dark clouds will gather; I predict for her a sad life in the midst of wealth, luxury, and gaiety. For the daughter whose faithful heart and tender love are my consolation I predict happiness in life and in death. May Heaven confirm what I say!"

"We will have a proper understanding," said Sir Arthur Hatton. "I am not unreasonable, though I frankly confess I dislike everything about you—your name, your character, your life, and its aims. I am implacable in my resentment against you for having stolen my sister and blighted her life, and I will never willingly hold any communication with you—never. You and I will be strangers; your children will be strangers, if one goes with me and one remains with you—strangers always. I shall require that they neither write nor speak to each other, except it is a case of life and death. But, if you are ill or dying, and send for Leah, she shall come. If Hettie be dying, or ill, and send for her, she shall come."

"Neither in life nor in death shall we meet again," declared Martin Ray. "We shall live our lives; they will be far apart from hers. To me she no longer exists. I have touched her hand, kissed her face, spoken to her for the last time. She lies in her coffin now to me, and I draw the sheet over her face—she is dead! Oh, Hettie, with your mother's eyes, comfort me!" Leah raised her white face to Sir Arthur.

"This is dreadful," she said; "it is killing me. But I cannot follow out my father's wishes. Take me away."

Then the two sisters looked at each other. In each face was an unspoken longing.
"No," said Martin Ray, sternly. "You shall not touch her, Hettie! She has cast us off; let her go her own way."

"Just once," pleaded Hettie. Oh, "let me kiss her once, father. We are own sisters, you know; we have loved each other so dearly. Oh, Leah, stay with us, darling; do not go!"

"No, not once or ever!" cried Martin Ray, raising his hand. "You shall not kiss her! You shall Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea And Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Every body uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

THE MUSICAL GUARDSMEN

Orchestra, Band and Solo Music

RETURN ENGAGEMENT by SPECIAL REQUEST

Roma Theatre Wed. Jan. 22. Admission 25,35,50
Plan now open.

WHEN THE MUSICAL GUARDSMEN come marching out, playing that thrilling military march, you will immediately be convinced that here is an unusual company. Six lively, fine, energetic musicians on a myriad of instruments give you music that makes your blood tingle and your feet want to keep time with the music.

"From their first appearance on the platform to the final number, this splendid organization makes their audience sit right up and take notice. They are handsomely uniformed, but this is not their main attraction. They MAKE MORE MUSIC THAN YOU HAVE EVER HEARD SIX MEN MAKE BEFORE. They use a variety of instruments and play partially orchestral and partially band music, all of a high grade. Both the ensemble and solo numbers give great pleasure. The Overture to Orpheus and the special arrangement of Dixie are especially pleasing features.

"Every member of the Musical Guardsmen is a high grade artist."

Briefly, the last line tells the story. "Every member a high grade artist." Solos, ensemble numbers, with a few vocal selections—a richly varied and satisfying musical program given with a snap and ginger and precision of a cavalry charge.

A program that appeals to musical critics.
A program that delights and satisfies the masses.

"A program varied enough to appeal to any mixed audience and the Guardsmen are quite alive to the business of entertaining. If applause counts for anything, they are the real hit of the season.

"Achille Bragers, a native of Belgium, and only six years from the Boulevard de Anspach, is pleasing in song and a whirlwind on the accordion. His marvelous rendition of 'Poet and Peasant' is followed by 'The Marseillaise,' the national song of France which M. Bragers sings in French."

The company appeared at Rockwell City, Iowa, and here, in part, is what the Republican said about them:

"It is only putting it mildly to say that the Musical Guardsmen made a hit when they appeared at the Methodist Church to give the first number of the Rockwell City Community Lyceum Course. A large audience gathered in spite of the rain, and everyone was delighted, and well repaid for making the effort to be present. SECURE SEATS NOW.

DEPRIVED OF MILLIONS MANICURIST ADOPTS COURSE OF FOLLY

Spends $1000 Legacy In One Day And Breaks the Law

Helen Thurston, the humble and pretty manicurist of the Ritz has been placed under arrest. Decked in finery and the center of attention at last night's hop given in that fashionable hotel, she was suddenly apprehended by a detective in the midst of the assembly. The charge brought against her is that of pawing jewelry which she had obtained on credit.

The news of the arrest created a sensation in social and business circles. That she was in financial difficulties was no secret to her creditors. They had been advised of her possible bankruptcy and had calmed at her door for payment. She pleaded to them for time, and was given twenty-four hours to make good.

The manicurist is frank in stating the cause of her difficulties. Be ore the announcement of the Ritz, she was stating that she was the inheritor of a thirty-million-dollar estate, she had always possessed a longing for the fine clothes of the wealthy people whom she daily saw at the Ritz Hotel. Paring and polishing the nails of the dandies, her one ambition had been to rise into the social atmosphere of ease and luxury.

The announcement of the sudden inheritance swept her off her feet. She felt that she would now be able to indulge in her every whim. When the will was read, however, she discovered that a codicil was appended leaving her a meagre thousand dollars.

Bitterly disappointed, she determined to obtain a unique revenge. She planned to spend her thousand dollars in one day. The news had gotten around town that she was the inheritor of a thirty-million-dollar estate and merchants pressed their wares on her. She was at once taken up by society, where her beauty and charm made an instant hit.

And who should play the manicurist but that delightful dainty, winsome Olive Thomas! It's a Triangle photoplay, and is named "Heiress for a Day." This play will be shown at the Star Theatre on Monday Tuesday and Wednesday.

LOVEABLE IRISH PLAY NEXT WEEK.

"Sweet Innisfallen" furnishes a scenic setting for several songs by the noted Irish star, Bernard Daly, who will appear at the Roma Theatre, next Thursday. The scenes of the romantic comedy are laid in picturesque parts of Ireland, and the songs are fetching and have the true Irish flavor of the popular sort. They are well sung by Mr. Daly, whose charming personality and tenor voice has made him a host of admirers. Right triumphs over wrong in this play and love proves a winner when the Irish lad claims the girl for whom he has overcome many difficulties during the course of the play.

Among the pleasing songs sung by Mr. Daly are "Mavis," "Believe Me Of All Those Endearing Young Charms," "Call of the Wind," "Hide and Seek," "Sweet Innisfallen," and others.

To those thousands of her admirers who have thought of Miss Ferguson only as one of the screen's most charming exponents of the society role, it will come as a pleasant surprise to learn that she also excels in those dare-devil riding and other stunts which characterize the thrilling and up-to-date western picture. Come to the Allen next Wednesday and Thursday and be doubly charmed.

LETTER TO PATRONS

Dear Sir or Madam:
Again I have the pleasure to announce Gladys Brockwell in one of the greatest picture dramas in which this brilliant star has ever appeared. In the new William Fox production, Miss Brockwell has a role which graphically portrays the incidents leading up to the World War.

This is not a "war play," it is an absorbing photodrama that treats only of events that brought on the great struggle. It shows in thrilling scenes that intrigues of the German war lord and the part played by a beautiful woman, who, through hate, brought to a head the deadly Teuton plot that resulted in the rape of democracy.

There is not a moment throughout this wonderful film that does not throb with tense dramatic action. I am sure that you will agree with me, after seeing it, that "Kultur" is one of the most stirring photodramas ever filmed. Come yourself next Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday and bring your friends, for this great picture is a rare treat.

RETURN ENGAGEMENT THE THREE GUARDSMEN

Next week is a pretty full one in local theatrical circles, each of the three playhouses offering specially attractive programs; but whatever else may be going on no one who heard "The Three Guardsmen" when they were here recently as a lyricous court attraction will wish to miss hearing them again.

It is said that these six lively and accomplished musicians can produce more really enjoyable music from the multitude of instruments which they play than was ever before heard in the course of a two hours' program. It is certain that they will make your blood tingle and your feet want to keep time to the rhythm of the martial and inspiring music.

There also is a vocal soloist with the party, Achille Brager, a native of Belgium and to hear his rendition of "Poet and Peasant" is sufficient reward for one evening, and when he sings "The Marseillaise" in French the audience is invariably swept off its feet. This Red path Bureau attraction, "The Three Guardsmen" will give one concert only, at the Roma next Wednesday night. Seats plan is now open; popular prices.

"GREATEST DARE DEVIL"

"He is the greatest dare devil I have ever seen," said Graham-White the famous English aviator, in characterizing Arthur Peirce who does some "death defying feats" in the thrilling Pathé serial "Wolves of Kultur", shown weekly at the Roma Theatre.

These two young men first met at the Monte Carlo where Peirce's reckless squandering of an inherited fortune made him a conspicuous figure. Graham-White took an immediate liking to the vivacious Franco-Swiss and gave him his first ride among the clouds. Peirce became so interested in aircraft that he purchased a flier at once and was soon performing stunts like "looping-the-loop" which, at that time, only the foolhardy would dare attempt.

When his fortune had entirely disappeared the qualifications which he had acquired in his pleasure-seeking moments became an asset and fitted him for his profession as a "stunt" actor. Peirce is given great latitude in "Wolves of Kultur" and does some marvels of daring. The next number of "Wolves of Kultur" is a thriller and will be shown next Friday and Saturday.

"TOO FAT TO FIGHT" DRAMA OF SACRIFICE
Rex Beach bids fair to add lustre to his famous name when "Too Fat to Fight" newest of the Rex Beach Pictures produced for Goldwyn comes to the Roma Theatre beginning Monday, Tuesday. He will surprise his public with a drama of purpose and patriotism rather of Alaska and the West.

It tells the story of Norman Dalrymple, former football star, played by Frank McIntyre, who is now a mountain of flesh and much to his sorrow too fat to fight. Turned down by every branch of the service "Dimples" as he is called succeeds in joining the Y.M.C.A. and serves his time at passing doughnuts and carrying coffee for the doughboys until he finds himself in a fix from which he emerges a hero. When a general comes to his hospital cot to pin a decoration for bravery upon the expansive bosom of his pyjamas "Dimples" wakes to find that he spoke almost prophetically when he said he'd "give a leg to be with the boys over there". One of his is gone. But his decoration and a certain discovery he makes about the girl he loves recompenses "Dimples" for his sacrifice.

PUNCH AND PATIOS IN "THE BETTER OLE"

Sensational Screen Success Coming To Allen Theatre.

"The Better Ole," a film version of the successful play, has proved to be a sensation success, as its authors ventured it would be. Taken all round it is the finest British picture ever produced. No foreign picture has ever surpassed it in its power, humor, pathos, production and acting. It has taken six months to bring it from scenario stage to the finished film, and the time has been well spent. The film goes much further than the play, is a fuller story, with connected scenes, and it introduces some new characters.

The picture is a succession of tingling emotions, which exhibitors call "punch," with alternating flashes of humor and humanity, connected by the wisest sub-titles ever seen on the screen. One or another is constantly before the eyes. A tear can hardly start to trickle down the cheek before it is checked by laughter, which dries it up. There are times when the acting is so expressive that the motionless attitude of the players brings tears to the eyes. There are scenes so real and so tremendously powerful that one forgets that one is looking at a picture.

The secret of this play's wonderful fascination is its close and true analysis of the spirit, which animates the men in the trenches, that spirit that keeps them cheerful under conditions almost indescribable. The army is full of Old Bills, Alfs and Bertas, and their sorrows and pleasures—pleasures under circumstances that would seem to make the very thought of the word a mockery—are true reflections of what the daily life of the boys is over there. But "The Better Ole" will do more than raise a laugh and dim the eyes with tears at pathos so piquantly drawn. It will endeavor to make the people at home understand why this war was fought out to a bitter end, and how much is due to the Bertas and Alfs and Old Bills, who stood a living wall of protection for England against the horrors that overtook Belgium and the places where the German's foot had been set.

It is a British film over which every Canadian can glow with pride of race and thrill with patriotism.

WINSOME DOROTHY DALTON IN "LOVE ME"

A fascinating story of a breezy western girl who, after a long struggle, captivates the hearts of her husband's exclusive and very wealthy family who at first had refused to receive her, is "Love Me," the latest Dorothy Dalton-Paramount picture, showing at the Allen Theatre next week. Always winsome, Miss Dalton is more than ever adorable in her new role and some of the gowns she wears as well as those of her socially correct "in-laws" caused gasps of pleasure from the feminine contingent of the audience. William Conklin plays the "villain" as usual in Miss Dalton's pictures, while Robert McKim ably assists him in his machinations and clever young Jack Holt is the husband. There is another "woman in the case" too, played by Dorcas Mathews, while Elinor Hancock makes a stunning mother. Roy William Neill, under the supervision of Thomas H. Ince himself, directed the picture.

"HEARTS OF THE WILDS" SPLENDID PHOTOPLAY FOR ELSIE FERGUSON.

Appearing for the first time in her screen career in what is generally termed a "western" photoplay, Elsie Ferguson will be seen in her newest Artcraft picture, "Heart of the Wilds," at the Allen theatre next week. This is a splendid picturization of "Pierre of the Plains," a stage play by Edgar Selwyn, in which Miss Ferguson scored a pronounced hit in New York several years ago.

The versatility of Miss Ferguson was never displayed to finer advantage than in this superb story. Accustomed as she has been to the delineation of sub-titles, such as those in "A Doll's House" and similar strong photoplays, it is a distinct novelty for her admirers to see her in a photoplay of the West, in which she does dare-devil riding and other stunts so often seen in red-blooded plays of to western variety.

This picturization was made by Charles Maigne, and the photoplay, was excellently directed by Marshall Neilan. Thomas Moighan gave a strong, virile impersonation of Sergeant Tom, while the Pierre of E.L. Fernandez, was an exceptionally clever performance. Matt Moro, as Val, and Sidney D'Albrook, as the Indian, were artistic. The photoplay by Walter Stradling left nothing to be desired.

SHE WAS AN OLD MAN'S DARLING.

An old man's darling is always a subject of keenest interest. But when the old man is an Emperor of Austria-Hungary, and the woman in the case is a beautiful and brilliant Countess—well, you have a story that is a story.

And when this strange pair is involved in a deep-laid Teuton plot to crush democracy and dominate the world—see Gladys Brockwell in "Kultur" at the Star Theatre next Mon. Tue. Wed. and learn what happened in scene after scene that pulses with thrills and sensations.

Lt.-Col. J.L. Youngs Ordered Overseas
Alderman Stevenson Stratford received a telephone message at noon today from his Warship Lieut-Col. J.L. Youngs in London, stating that he had been ordered overseas. He had just received word a few minutes before and did not have any particulars as to how long he would be away, nor did he know for certain when he was going. Further word is expected from him. Should it prove that he would be away for a short time, Mayo Youngs could be granted leave of absence. He is Commander of the 1st Depot Battalion W.O.R., London, and was elected Mayor at the recent civic election by a large majority.

Asks for recount.
J. Wesley Kent Woodstock through his solicitor, made a deposit with the Clerk of the Court asking for a recount of the ballots in the recent Woodstock Mayoralty contest, by which A.J. Gahagan was elected in a three-cornered fight by a majority of 23 over W.D. Hobson and 62 over Clifford Kent. In the affidavit Mr. Kent gives it as his belief that a number of ballots at different polling divisions were wrongly rejected and that an other polling division the statement given out by the returning officer was not correct.

A Dog Case.
The dog tax was a question before the Police Court this morning. After it had been disposed of three dollars were handed over to the Township by Edward Moser.

Tax Collector Clemens in the performance of his duties to collect the taxes found it necessary to have the defendant, who had not paid the tax, state his case before the Magistrate. The defendant's explanation was that he had two dogs last February 27th, when the Assessor of Waterloo Township made his rounds. He was taxed $2 for one and $4 for the other.

Between May and July he sold the animal on which there was a $4 levy to a resident in this city, who last year paid a city tax on the dog. About April the other dog died. So he felt that he should not pay any tax.

Magistrate Weir reviewing the circumstances said that $3 was a fair compromise and that he should pay this to the Township collector. The defendant could not understand why he should. "Now see here, there is no reason why you shouldn't pay taxes for the half year namely, the first six months of 1918, which are not paid. Three dollars is a fair adjustment. You better pay it to Mr. Clemens," Magistrate Weir said, pointing out that the city taxes run from July 1st, 1918 to July 1st, 1919, and the Township from Jan. 1st, 1918 to Dec. 31st, 1918. "All right, I'll pay it but I don't see that it is fair. It's not right, I shouldn't pay anything," the defendant said, as he put his hand in his pocket and pulled out two bills. "It's a fair adjustment you are altogether too saucy. You should pay $6.00. What's the use of arguing. I'm inclined to have you pay the costs," the Magistrate remarked.

"Well, I'll pay it but I want a receipt," Mr. Moser remarked. Mr. Clemens will give you a receipt," the Magistrate replied. Mr. Clemens accordingly signed a small piece of paper and handed it to Mr. Moser, remarking: "You know we don't like to do these things but sometimes we have to do them if we are to do our duty."

Sweaters are not going to drop in price this year. Every indication points to them being much dearer.

Better come in and get one now. Our prices are low when quality is considered. And it always pays to buy a good sweater. We still have a fairly good selection of both colors and weights.

But what is going to drop in price now? We are buying heavy in many lines against another advance. And we will maintain the old price as long as the stock lasts.

A Sign of Growth.
The continued growth of the city is reflected in the crossing number of pupils at the schools. For example at King Edward School eighteen new pupils have entered since the beginning of the new year.
Many families are moving into the city, the heads of the same securing employment with the city and streets. They come from Owen Sound, Harrow, Lestow, New Hamburg and many other places. At King Edward School the influx is marked owing to the proximity of the Dominion Iron and Steel Works and the new houses built in the neighborhood.
All schools however are well attended and are filled.

Larger quarters the appointment of a publicity commissioner and increases of salary for the Secretary and his staff were recommended. Kelley, the retiring President urged every member to do all in his power to help the returning soldiers. He thought the city could raise $120,000 to buy land for small farms to be given to the soldiers.

Announcing a Great Victory -Sale-

We've won! The Allies are Victors. Greed, Strife and Destruction had to go and their doom has been sounded. Victory—a wonderful word. It symbolizes the triumph of right over wrong and the realization of the hopes of our heroic boys who made the supreme sacrifice for the ideal of right. We're proud of the men who have been foremost in this pursuit of valour. Their glory will ever be blazed in the hearts of men. They have not died in vain. From the great struggle there has issued freedom for all.

To celebrate this remarkable occasion we are going to hold a series of VICTORY SALES, bringing before the public of Kitchener, Waterloo and surrounding district, WONDERFUL REDUCTIONS. Prices have been high during the duration of the war, and prices will continue to be high for quite a while. This celebration event brings before you hundreds of timely items of importance at prices in many cases as low as before the war.

Slushy Ice and the Saints Defeated the Champions

On a Sheet of Slush and Cement the Irish Slipped Three Over on Hick's Six. Team Play Was Impossible.

SAINTS 3 KITCHENER 1.

There were wigs on the green last night when the Saint Patricks met the Kitchener team. Champions of the world, in the second game of the first section for group honors in the O.H.A. The Saints were there with bells on, as the going was absolutely to their liking they slipped on over on "Hick's six" winning a strenuous game by 3 to 1.

When the Saints took the ice they must have resembled a bunch of shock troops who had had a month or more hammering the Kitchener line. Striking players and blarney eyes, the result of their battle against Jerry La Flamme's Newman Halls last week, were very much in evidence, and showed the visitors were willing mixers. They were, and anyone who thinks otherwise should find time to have a word with two of any of the local players who took part in the engagement.

Thanks to the Rink Company, who recently have installed an up to date artificial ice plant, the ice was perfect. It was as hard as glass, and just suited the local boys. Particularly where the cement was sticking through, in other words, the ice was perfect. It was a crime to ask the hockey players to attempt to give the fans their money's worth on a sea of slush. No, it was a crime to ask them to play on a few dozen bald spots where the cement was peeping through the thin veneer of snow and water.

Needless to say, conditions such as these, where the player's skates struck fire every second stroke they took were anything but conducive to good hockey. Combination play was absolutely out of the question, and consequently the game resolved itself into a burlesque. It wasn't hockey, it was a scramble between two good teams with the odds all in favor of the heavier six, which, on this occasion, proved to be the Saints. Under the condition the Irish earned their decision, and their victory was due to the fact they were better mud-larks than the champions. However, if the ice is fast in Toronto, when these two teams again meet the fans will be justified in pawing the gold fillings from their teeth to raise money to back the Champions.

The condition of the ice rendered team work impossible, and consequently our boys were at a great disadvantage. Time after time the old formation of attack was formed, i.e. two men taking the puck down with a third man trailing. This order of things was started not once but a dozen times, and it was heart-breaking to witness the disaster which ended all such efforts. In attempting to clean the defense the front rankers would try to pass, but the rubber would come to rest in a snow bank a couple of feet away; then the trailer would reach for it only to find he had missed the puck and had loaded his blade with a dozen or two ounces of snow. In the first spasm most of the play was in the Saints' territory but Crooks delivered the goods and held the Champ scoreless.

The second frame was not a minute off when Manton and Hiller were retired for mixing it. Breen followed the pair for tripping Parkes. While the three were off Etherton secured in mid-ice shot in 2-40. Parkes cross-checked Etherton and was waved off, and while he was benched Trushinski tripped Dye and also was handed a rest. While the two were doing penance the Saints attacked like demons but Hainworth withstood the bombardment. Parkes returned for ten seconds, but was ordered off again for some reason best known to Lawson Whitehead. A few seconds later one of the Saints lifted the rubber and connected with Hiller's eye. That the crack was genuine there is no doubt by the beautiful, blue black appearance of the optic today.

From this time on the game was hot, yes very hot, and the teams mixed freely. Every player of the line up did his damndest, but all efforts were futile. Once in a while that old wizard of a Kargos would bring the fans to their feet with a roar as he would break away and in spite of the slush and the Saints, would zig zag his way down center ice for the full distance. That his herculean efforts did not result in a goal is no fault of his, but rather was due to the solidity of the Hefferman-Cain defense. On two occasions he beat these stone wallers, but Crooks was there with bells on to receive the shot. Trushinski also played a whale of a game, and resorting to his old style of hockey—shoot the puck ahead and skate like the dickens—he was effective all the time. This was the only way most of the boys of both teams could shift the play forward.

When Hiller registered in the dying moments of the period may be that little old rink didn't rock with the cheering. It was a pretty play and fooled the defense. The shot was from a difficult angle, and was past Crooks before that lively youth was aware of the fact.

Snoozer also came near registering on several shots that he lefted almost to the ceiling from mid-ice. The third frame was as strenuous as the last and the ice would allow. The teams went to it hammer and tongs, with the locals having a triple the better of the play. However, when twelve minutes had faded away Cain slipped through on his own and capped off another. After this the Saints resorted to defensive tactics, and would lift the rubber into Kitchener's territory big long drivers. Once in a while Hefferman would score, and this Mooseman would make rapid time down the slush, only to be skated into the corner by Snoozer or blocked by the Wizard. The so-called ice in the last ten minutes of play seemed to crack up all over, and sparks flew when skates and cement came together. Not infrequently the cement brought the players to grief, and several of the gladiators were more or less injured when they fell.

One thing the game demonstrated was this—"A heavy team in condition is better on soft ice than a light team also in condition." Our boys are not individual effort artists. They are a machine, and to run smoothly they must have keen ice. When the return game is played in Toronto, if the ice is right, they will trounce the Pats to the Kings taste.

Hillman on the left wing was a tower of strength to his team. This boy is as game as a pebble, and the worst his weightier opponents could do to him was accepted with a smile, and later was returned with interest. He's a daisy, and fits in on the forward line to perfection.

Hillier at centre was the same old bundle of tricks, but he was not in love with the conditions that existed.

Hainworth was good, and on account of the bald spot upon which he was standing in front of the nets, he was forced to make most of his saves with his hands.

Parkes was brilliant until he got sore and blew up in the second frame. When he was soaring the management would have been wise had they taken him off for a few minutes until he cooled down. However, no one could blame him for getting sore, when it is taken into consideration the Toronto goal judge stole a goal. The rotten ice also didn't tempt to make him feel happy. He took several bad falls over the bare spots and one of these tumbles shook him up rather badly.

Merriek was frequently used, and showed good form every time he was dropped on.

Lawson Whitehead handled the game, and the Pats got all the favors that were coming to them and then some. If the writer doesn't miss his guess Lawson will buy his own ticket next time he attends a hockey match here.

The line up:
Kitchener:
Hainworth, goal; Trushinski, r. defense; Kargos, l. defense; Hillier, center; Parkes, r. wing; Hillman, l. wing; Merriek, sub.; Masters, subs.

St. Patricks:
Crooks, goal; Hefferman, r. defense; Cain, l. defense; Dye, center; Breen, r. wing; Etherton, l. wing; Farr, subs.; Manton, subs.

Referee—Lawson Whitehead, Toronto.

Hot Water for Sick Headaches

Tells why everyone should drink hot water with phosphate. In it before breakfast.

Headache of any kind, is caused by auto-intoxication—which means self-poisoning. Liver and bowel poisons called toxins, sucked into the blood, through the lymph ducts, excite the heart which pumps the blood so fast that it congests in the smaller arteries and veins of the head producing violent, throbbing pain and distress, called headache. You become nervous, despondent, sick, feverish and miserable, your meals sour and almost nauseate you. Then you resort to acetanilide, aspirin or the bromides which temporarily relieve but do not rid the blood of these irritating toxins.

A glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, drank before breakfast for awhile, will not only wash these poisons from your system and cure you of headache but will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary canal.

Ask your pharmacist for a quarter pound of limestone phosphate. It is inexpensive, harmless as sugar, and almost tasteless, except for a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant.

If you aren't feeling your best, if tongue is coated or you wake up with bad taste, foul breath or have colds, indigestion, biliousness, constipation, or sour, acid stomach, begin the phosphate hot water cure to rid your system of toxins and poisons.

Results are quick and it is claimed that those who continue to flush out the stomach, liver and bowels every morning never have any headache or know a miserable moment.

For DAD and his LAD

At the head of the Government will be a President elected for ten years, with a Government composed of a Chancellor and Ministers.
