Victoria's Queer Actions

Giving Much Trouble to Her Attendants at Balmoral.

Her Strange Mourning for an Old Servant's Nephew-Strange Rumors.

Washington, Oct. 29.—A special to the New York Times from London says: There seems to be no doubt that Queen Victoria is passing again through one of those phases of semi-insanity which recall that she is deorge III.'s granddaughter. These in the seventies were rather frequent; of late years they have recurred less often, but for six weeks now the worst of the series has been giving everybody about Balmoral much anxiety and ceaseless trouble. Rumors began to circulate in London a week ago that things were wrong, and a modified form of them has been printed in Dublin, but nowhere else, although private letters from Scotland show that it is common knowledge there. It seems to have had its origin in the death of a young nephew of John Brown's who had some obscure post about Balmoral, but for whom the Queen burst forth in a vehement mourning which took all by surprise. Since then she has heen going to his grave and to Brown's in all weathers, and doing other extraordinary things of a queer character which it is impossible any longer to ignore. The matter has hardly yet become generally known in England, and perhaps it will pass off again without public mention, as in tormer years.

THE PREMIER IN WASHINGTON. Bowell and Sir Charles Tupper, of the Canadian Government, have arrived here to discuss the sealing troubles.

My heart lears up when I behold A flower ever so rare; So was it when my life began; So is it now I am a man; So let it be when I am old. Or let me die! —Wordsworth.

What man with a heart would not feel his heart leap on beholding roses blooming anew in his wife's cheeks? No true man likes to see in his wife a sallow complexion, dull eye, and all the ills attendant upon the irregularities and "weaknesses" peculiar to the sex. Happily these can be banished, and the roses be ensured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. For nursing

London, Oct. 29 .- The Globe this afternoon publishes from a correspondent at Hong Kong a virtual repetition of the dispatch to the Times from and Russia was conveyed to St. Peters burg by Wong Chi Chuan, who was dispatched on a mission to Russia, ostensibly for the purpose of congratulating the Czar upon his accession to the throne. TAKES IT BACK.

London, Oct. 29.-The Times publishes a dispatch from Hong Kong saying that at a public banquet at Vladivohave started from Nertschinsk, Blago-

The Times, accepting the official disclaimer of its dispatch stating that a treaty has been negotiated between Russia and China giving the former great military and commercial advantages, refers to the foregoing speech editorially, and remarks that its informant erred in good company. The paper claims that the expression of public opinion here, in America and in Germany has been useful in showing the gravity of the situation that would be created by any such movement on the part of Russia. Five Russian war ships are inside and nine outside of Port Arthur. At the Russian embassy here statement is made that there is absolutely no foundation for the announcement made by the Hong Kong corres pondent of the Times. It is asserted by the Russian officials that no such treaty has been concluded between the Governments of Russia and China, and it is further asserted by them that the Russian Government is not animated by any anti-English feeling in its policy in connection with the far east.

CANAL ROUTES CONTRASTED. London, Oct. 29.-The Times publishes a three-column article on the proposed Nicaraguan Canal. It was written by A. R. Colquhoun, & correspondent sent to Nicaragua about the time the United States Government commission went to that country. In Nicaragua, Mr. Colquhoun arrived at the conclusion that the project cannot be carried through as a private enterprise, but that it must be under the auspices of "some strong Government, which, without doubt, must be the United States." The Times' correspondent is convinced, however, that the cost of cutting the suggested waterway will be nearer $150,000,000 than $100,000,000. Continuing, Mr. Colguboun says! "As regards the political aspect, confidential communications are said to have passed between the British and United States Governments and no obections have been raised. In any case, it would seem, that under the Clayton-Bulwer treaty of 1850, any connection between the Atlantic and Pacific by a ship canal through Nicaragua, will have to be neutralized in the same way as the Suez Canal in 1888

Mr. Colquhoun also inspected the Panama canal route, and says it would cost largely over $200,000,000 to complete it. He regards the Chagres River and the Culebra cut portions of the Panama canal plane as being in-undertaking.

ROW IN THE FRENCH CHAMBER. Paris, Oct. 29.—The debate on the Carmaux strike in the French Chamber of Deputies on Saturday resulted in a disgraceful row; the duputies called each other cowards, pups and liars, and three Socialist deputies indulged in a boxing match.
Paris, Oct. 29.—The Cabinet resigned

yesterday as a result of a Government defeat in the Chamber of Deputies during the debate on the Southern Railway scandal. The Ministry which has just gone out of office was constituted Jan. 27, 1895, ten days after the election of M. Felix Faure as President of the Republic. The excitement caused by the overthrow of the Government was all the more intense as the defeat of the Cabinet was totally unexpected. In his speech on his interpellation. M. Rouanet reiterated his statements that the facts of the fraud had long been known to a majority of the members of the Cabinet, but that they had maintained an icy attitude when a suggestion was made that the real culprits be prosecuted. He concluded by demanding that M. Traireux, Minister of Justice, should give the real names of the benefitters of the other speakers for and against the in terpellation, and M. Traireux ascended the tribune and made a brave defense of the Government, concluding by appealing to the Chamber to cast a sensible vote on the interpellation. M. Ribot, the Prime Minister, then offered to accept the order of the day pure and simple, but the offer was rejected. Dr. Herbert (Republican) then moved that the Chamber interdict its members for participating in financial syndicates. M. Ribot accepted the motion and it was unanimously adopted. The vote was taken, with the result above mentioned, on Rouanet's motion, which, in addition to calling upon the Minister of Justice to prosecute all the guilty parties, demanded that the report of M. Flory, one of the two official accountants in the judicial investigation of the scandal, be laid on the table. Shortly after the withdrawal of the Ministers for the purpose of tendering their resignations to President Faure, the Chamber took an adjournment until Nov. 4. The resignation of the Cabinet was formally of the Elysee. It is expected that the

"Will your Honor allow the case to go over until tomorrow morning? pleaded Mr. Rotan.

"Call a jury," replied the judge firm-ly, and the calling of a jury was begun. One juror had been admitted by the commonwealth, when there was another sensation. Holmes arose in the dock, and in a quivering, trembling voice, said to Judge Arnold: "May it please the court, I have no inclination to continue with the trial of this case with Mr. Rotan and Mr. Shoemaker as my

The examination of jurors was about to be proceeded with, when Shoemaker again arose, and stated that the prisoner absolutely forbade them from representing him in the case, and declared that he (Holmes) would examine the jurors and witnesses himself. Judge Arnold said he would permit Holmes to question the jurors, if he so desired, while counsel considered it the question of their proceeding. Holmes then armed himself with pencil and paper, and proceeded to question the jurors, one of whom he challenged peremptorily. At this junc-ture Messrs. Rotan and Shoemaker arose and declared that they felt obliged to withdraw from the case, regardless of consequences. "You must take the consequences, then," said the judge, and the two lawyers, without further ado, left the court room. The commonwealth's officers consulted with the judge, and then called upon Everett and Schofield and J. M. Fahy, young members of the bar, who agreed to assume the responsibility, with all the aid possible from Mr. Graham.

ATHLETICS SPOUTING FOR FITZSIMMONS. San Antonio, Texas, Oct. 29.-Martin Julian, manager for Bob Fitzsimmons, gives out a statement to the press, in which he says Corbett is the coward, and fluked to avoid meeting Fitzsimmons. He says he (Julian), before lcaving Hot Springs, made a reasonable proposition, looking to the selection of referee and fight in private for a side bet of $10,000 and a purse of $5,-000, all of which Brady refused. In conclusion, he says: "Robert Fitzsimmons stands ready to fight any man in the world before any club that is not composed of the Brady-Corbett-Vendig combination." CORBETT UNDER ARREST. Hot Springs, Oct. 29.-Attorney-General Kinsworthy was surprised at a late hour last night when informed that a warrant had been placed in the hands of Sheriff Houpt, of this county, for Corbett's arrest, and that it had been served, and that he was in the custody of a deputy at his training quarters. The action of the Attorney-General, when asked for the champion's dismissal by Judge Kirk upon the case which had been remanded by Supreme Court, was anticipated, and as soon as Corbett was dismissed a warrant charging him with conspiring to create a breach of the peace was issued and immediately served, and he was placed under arrest by the sheriff. The action was taken to forestall the Attorney-General, who intended to have him re-arrested and the case transferred by change of venue to Fayetteville, Washington county. If the same course is pursued with Fitz-simmons by the local authorities, which in all probability will be the case, it is held no power on earth can prevent the fight. The pugilists will simply give bonds in a reasonable amount to keep the peace and proceed with the contest. THE TRICOLR SUIT AGAINST CARVER. New Haven, Conn., Oct. 29.—Mrs. Carrie J. Carver has filed a suit for absolute divorce from her husband. Dr. Wm. J. Carver, the champion shot. It is on the statutory ground. They were

I see in mind that wretched Sultan, whom God has given as a curse to mankind, waving his flag in triumph, and the adversaries at his feet are Russia, France and England. As to the division of shame among them, I care little enough, but hope that my own country will, for its own good, be made conscious and exhibited to the world for its own full share, whatever that may be. May God, in his mercy, send a speedy end to the governing Turk and all his doings-as I said when I could say and even sometimes do, so I may say in my political decrepitude or death. Always sincerely yours, William Seavey, art director of Hellmuth College, which are on exhibition at Jones' auction rooms, Dundas street. The large and valuable collection will be sold tonight and tomorrow afternoon and evening, without reserve, and our con-noisseurs should not fail to attend, if even only for the inspection of these really fine pictures.

Washington, Oct. 28.-Those who know that no church in this or foreign countries has been able to hold the audiences that have assembled when it and they are all with us. Daniel knows all about lions Paul fought with was announced that Dr. Talmage would preach will not be surprised that vast multitudes attempted in vain to hear his first sermon as pastor in Washington. Crossing the Alps by the Mont Cenis Pass, or through the Mont Cenis Tunnel, you are in a few hours set down at Verona, Italy, and in a few minutes begin examining one of the grandest ruins in the world—the Amphitheater. The whole building sweeps around you in a circle. You stand in the arena where the combat was once fought or the race run, and on all sides the seats rise, tier above tier, until you count 40 elevations, or galleries, as I shall see fit to call them, in which sat the senators, the kings, and the 25,000 excited spectators. At the sides of the arena, and under the galleries, are the cages in which the lions and tigers are kept, without food, until frenzied with hunger and thirst, they are let out upon some poor victim, who with his sword, and alone, is condemned to meet them. I think that Paul himself once stood in such a place, and that it was not only figuratively, but literally, that he had "fought with beasts at Ephesus."

Paul refers when he says: "We are compassed about with so great a crowd of witnesses." The fact is that every Christian man has a lion to fight. Yours is a bad temper. You have been thrown by it time and again, but in the strength of God you have arisen to drive it back. I verily believe you will You have given it so many wounds that the prospect is that it will die, and you shall be victor, through Christ. Courage, brother! Your lion is the passion for strong drink. You may have contended against it twenty years; but it is strong of body and thirsty of tongue. You have tried to fight it back with broken bottle or empty wine flask. Nay! that is not the weapon. With one horrible roar he will seize thee by the throat and rend thee limb from limb. have I offended. If you have not fought the lion it is because you have let the lion eat you up. Men think, when they contend against an evil habit, that they have to fight it all fight for heaven. They watch this fight for heaven. They watch this fight for heaven. They watch this when they contend against an evil habit, that they have to fight it all alone. No! They stand in the circle of an immense circle of sympathy.Paul had been reciting the names of Abel, Enoch, Noah, Abraham, Sarah, Isaac, Joseph, Gideon, and Barak, and then says: "Being compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses."

On the first elevation of the ancient amphitheater, on the day of a celebration, sat Tiberius, or Augustus, or the reigning king. So, in the great arena of spectators that watch our struggles, and in the first divine gallery, as I shall call it, sits our King, one Jesus. The Roman Emperor sat, with folded arms, indifferent as to whether the swordsman or the lion beat; but our King's sympathies are all with us. Nay, unheard-of condescensions! I see him throngs! Throngs! How shall we come down from the gallery into the stand in the gaze of the universe? arena to help us in the fight, shouting, Myriads of eyes beaming on us! Paul, and Peter, and John, and James. There sits Noah, waiting for all the world to come into the ark; and Moses, waiting till the last Red Sea shall di-vide; and Jeremiah, waiting for the Jews to return; and John of the Apocalypse, waiting for the swearing of the angel that Time shall be no longer. Why Emperors Avoid Mayence.

At the last review at Mayence, the Emperor is reported to have said to the officers: "Do not forget that we must be strong in order to maintain peace, and that the stronger we are the more respect will others have for us." It has been remarked that the Emperor has not entered the town of Mayence itself, although he has been repeatedly and even this week, close to it. A local newspaper tells the following story of explanation: On a wall of Mayence Cathedral there is a sculptured hand, which is raised as if in the act of taking an oath. When the Emperor

Francis of Austria was still German Emperor, he visited Mayence, and was so hospitably received by the clergy that he solemply promised, and took an oath, that that German Emperor who from that day came first to Mayence and spent the night

there, must pay for the building of the two towers on the cathedral. As a sign of the promise the hand was carved in the night there since that time," said the story, "and you will see that the present

Emperor will not stay here any more than his grandfather did."

The Kaiser's Wardrobe.

Emperor William was kept on such an ex-that he was frequently to be seen with

But on drawing near the corner of Dundas and Richmond, a vociferous cheering and loud yells began to rend the air, and then a procession of young men, headed by a hurdy-gurdy, rounded the corner, and everybody ran out, and the cars stopped, and I made for the friendly shelter of the "Advertiser," round the corner, just as fast as I knew how, for "A Bread Riot" was first thought that suggested itself to me, and very naturally, too. People ought always wear their best going-tomeeting coats when they march in procession and yell, so that people will know what kind of one it is. But when the hurdy-gurdy struck up and it turned out to be "only the medical students," why, I felt disappointed. A Bread Riot would have been so much more exciting. I like medical students, their chief beauty (everything has a beauty of its own, even a medical student) being that things are never dull where they are. Liveliness is the spice of life, and most of the people in this world are too mopy and staid and repressed to suit my taste. Now, the medical student may have his faultsin fact, I know people who think he has a good many-but his meanest enemy cannot accuse him of being staid or quiet or repressed. No! He will stand forth from charges like these, with unblemished character, and vindicate his assailed reputation in the topmost gallery of the next political meeting, which is where I most enjoy

Everybody who went to the Marine Band said "I'd go to see that show again." It was a stunning fine concert, they say, and though the house was half empty the musicians played away with all the cheerfulness and liveliness imaginable. You see, a millionaire is backing them up, and the effect of being backed up by a millionaire is to make you lively and in jumping good spirits. Besides, this is only an advertising tour to make themselves known, so they don't expect bumper houses just yet awhile.

Come up to visit Jakey; I had to laugh right in his face, He looks so skairt and shaky.

We call his "Slim," because, you see, He's slender, like a willow: ef he should tackle me I'd brain him with a pillow.

Don't look like he could do the things What we boys does so handy: He goes to Sunday school and sings Soft songs-the city dandy!

We're goin' to pester him and make Some fun about his mother: He'll just be nuts for me and Jake In one way and another.

But Jake's front teeth is swallered too His nose bled on his jacket, And both his eyes were black and blue When he got through the racket.

And so I say that boy from town Ain't fit to have no fun with: I'll cut him dead and turn him down-That sort of boys I'm done with. -Judge.

The persistency with which children see some other moral in a fable than the one which is intended that they shall see is often distressing, and sometimes really instructive, to their elders. A mother had recited to her little boy the story of the wolf and the lamb, and followed it up with the remark: "And now, you see, Willy, that the lamb would not have been eaten by the wolf if he had been good and sen-impossible to describe it. Perhaps the The City Gas Company Secures a Reduction of $20,000.

Knocked Off the 1896 Assessment by the Court of Revision.

> Three Other Large Assessments Considerably Reduced.

> The Appeals Entertained and Those Dismissed-Rapid Business Working of the Court - Chairman Armstrong Gives an Oyster Supper,

The court of revision on the assessment of 1896 gave decision last night in the 110 appeals entered against the assessment, and reduced the total amount of the roll over $67,000. The entire list was gone over in two hours and a half, the five members of the court working with the greatest har-W. Armstrong was in the chair, the other members present being Ald. Carrothers, J. W. Jones, O. E. Brener and H. Dreaney, City Clerk Kingston, Assessment Commissioner Grant and Assessors Toll and Westcott. The principal reductions which went to make up the $67,000 were those of the Bell Telephone Company, $20,000; Edward Adams & Co., $12,000; Bell Telephone Company, $7,500, and the Consolidated Plate Glass Trust, $10,000. The City Gas Company had been assessed for $70,000 on mains and $20,000 on income, but a valuation of the mains had been placed by an expert at $57,000. On account of the reduced price of gas, Mr. Duffield, the president of the company, had estimated a drop in the income of fully $7,000, and both these figures were adopted by the court with very little discussion. "I have always found Mr. Duffield a very liberal man to deal with," said Assessment Commissioner Grant, when the appeal came up.

"Yes," said Ald. Jones; "we would be hitting the company very hard to keep their assessment so high. London is getting the cheapest illuminating gas on the continent."

And $13,000 was knocked of mains and $7,000 off income. The question of the legality of the assessment was re-served pending the decision of the courts in the appeal of the Toronto Gas The Consolidated Plate Glass Trust was assessed for $20,000 on personal property, but it was claimed to be very excessive, and was reduced $10,000. The case of the Bell Telephone Company was rather interesting. The company was assessed for $5,000 on income and $10,000 on poles and wires, but Manager Brown protested on the ground that when the last agreement was made the corporation's telephones were granted at an annual fee of $20 each on condition that the company's A dainty dress was recently shown with assessment of $5,000 would not be ina sleeve of this design of shell-pink satin, creased. MR. E. E. SHEPPARD ON THE COMING CHANGE.

Mr. E. E. Sheppard, the well known Conservative speaker, who has participated in almost every contest in this city, writing in his paper, the Toronto Saturday Night, expresses his disgust at the condition into which his party has drifted in recent years. Among other candid remarks, he says:

"It is with sincere regret that I see the powerful Government estab-lished by the late Sir John Macdonald falling to pieces."

"The Dominion Government seems to have acquired a great faculty for getting into holes, which is altogether out of proportion to their ability for getting out of them. Promising and procrastinating have been their

What hope is there for these men to hold the country when they summon courage to go to it? None whatever, Mr. Sheppard says. "The Government," ne adds, "seems utterly incapable of reorganizing itself, and even in its present despairing situation is peddling Cabinet offices around amongst onehorse politicians who are by no means eager to accept office, it appears as if the worst must be gone through with before we can have anything better. The dilemma has not been produced by an awakening of the public conscience; it has resulted from the upsetting of the public stomach. The people have been nauseated and probably they will have to be sicker before they get well." Mr. Sheppard says he is strongly opposed to the Liberals obtaining power, which is quite natural, seeing that he has so long opposed them with all the energy at his command, but he has made up his mind that it is better that they should get a term of office than that the men now in power should longer hold sway. Therefore, he advises the rank and file of the Conservative party to get ready for the impending change by nominating the best men offering as Conservative candidates, in order that the Conservative Opposition in the new Parliament, to be elected when the present mismanagers not greedy," said Sir Richard. We have said that independent manufacturers are constantly harassed for the benefit of some monopoly. Hardware and Metal, a Canadian trade journal, supplies us with the latest verification of this assertion. The hardware trade have always known a coach or large screw as a screw, but the Dominion customs head decrees that it is a bolt, and must pay the high duty of 1 cent per pound and 25 per cent., whereas the duty on screws is only 30 per cent. On this subject Hardware and Metal pertinently

One almost shudders to contemplate a war between the great fighting nations of Europe. L'Independence Belge says that in time of peace Russia has a standing army of $58,000 men; next comes Germany with 580,000, and then Bronchitis, Paeumonia, Rhouma-France with 512,000. In case of war Russia and France could put in the field 9,700,000 men, against the 7,700,000 soldiers of the three countries forming the triple alliance-Germany, Austria and Italy. In time of peace the maintenance of the standing armies of the above powers cost $1,000,000,000 annually. These are mighty armies. They tell us that their maintenance tends to prevent war; but is it not more probable that the military-ruled nation is largely influenced in favor of dispeace. by the professional fighters who are anxious at all times to show that their services are indispensible?

ORGANIZATION OF FARMERS

A FEATURE OF THE DAY.

James Rogers Speaks Earnestly. The development of Farmers' Insti-

The most successful ones are not as a rule those who do the greatest amount of manual labor, but they are found ranking first as prize-winners on all agricultural products. James Rogers, a resident of Tilsonburg, Oxford county, Ont., for 45 years, has taken numerous first prizes during the year. A successful, reliable man, his statement will be of interest to many:

Purified Blood

Saved an operation in the following case. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures when all others fail. It makes pure blood. "A year ago my father, William Thompson, was taken suddenly ill with inflammation of the bladder. He suffered a great deal and was very low for some time. At last the doctor said he would not get well unless an operation was performed. At this time we read about Hood's Sarsaparilla and decided to try it. Lieury, Oct. 27.-A thanksgiving dinrer, in connection with the Presbyter-ian Church here, was held last evening, and was very largely attended. The driving sheds had been transformed into a spacious dining hall, and presented a most comfortable and attractive appearance. Here, for more than three hours, the ladies of the congregation served a most excellent meal to all comers. In fact, the way in which they did their work merited and received the approbation of all concerned. At the close of the dinner the assemblage repaired to the church, which was soon crowded in every part. to listen to a lecture by Rev. Robert Aylward, B.A., pastor of the congregation. Mr. Aylward chose for his theme "The Character and Career of the Great John Bright," and for more than an hour and a half he held the close attention of his large audience, as he graphically depicted the gifts and graces of Mr. Bright as an orator, statesman and Christian gentleman. Several musical selections were tastefully rendered during the evening by the church choir, and the chair was admirably filled by the Rev. S. A. Carrierre, of Grand Bend. The proceeds, which amounted to over $60, will be spent in the erection of additional driv-ing sheds for the accommodation of the increasing congregation.

We want to introduce the women of London to a stock of Linen goods that we are confident will wear well and give perfect satisfaction. You will never grow tired of it-it will die of old age first. That's the way with all our goods. To be sure you will want to see the goods before buying. That's just what we're getting at. We want you all to come down. We only quote a few prices as an index of what we are doing. Perhaps the article you require isn't mentioned, perhaps the price you want to pay hasn't been given. But that makes little difference. We've got everything worth having, and all at the most moderate prices, because we buy from the manufacturers direct, which means a great deal. Our customers secure the profit the middleman would receive were we

Victims of Rheumatism Taken Off Every Day.

Paine's Celery Compound a Perfect Cure for Rheumatism.

Are you numbered in the vast army of rheumatics? If you are, be warned in time. This is the season most fatal to all who suffer from rheumatism. Already, alarm and consternation is spreading in the ranks of the suffering Mr. J. D. McCrimmon also stated you; tomorrow and succeeding days, > onies that may prove fatal at any moment? Can you afford to experiment with useless medicines when you know of Paine's Celery Compound, and the wonders it has done for others? If you value life, make trial today of the only medicine under heaven that can banish your terrible affliction. Each bottle of Paine's Cefery Compound is full of life-giving virtue and power. It cannot fail in your case; a cure is guaranteed; what stronger promise can you desire? Your friends and neighbors have been cured by Paine's Celery Compound. Many of them lin-gered in pain for years, and failed with scores of medicines; but victory was theirs after using Paine's Celery Compound. Both men passed a rest-less night, and ate a very light breakfast, and then sat on the edge of their cots awaiting the call of the executioner. They saw the chaplain, and were with him for about twenty minutes. Shortly after 11 o'clock the witnesses were summoned to the execution chamber.

Smith was first to take his seat in the death chair. He received the shock at 11:39 a.m. Death was instantaneous. Davis met the electrical death at 11:57. Death was instantaneous.

Smith murdered Philip Richtmeyer, an aged German, on the night of June carried out by the Ladies' Aid Society and 15, out of revenge for suposed insults. Smith drove to the house of Richtmeyer at a very early hour in the morning. He awoke Richtmeyer and told him that a neighbor had been taken very ill, and wanted him to come to the bedside. The old man dressed himself and entered the carriage of his murderer. When they reached a lonely part Smith shot him, took $15 from his clothes and threw his body into the road.

The crime of Davis was one of the most helnous, and the man barely escaped lynching in the community in which he lived. He assaulted a little golden-haired 6-year-old girl, Mary Shannon, then killed her and threw her nude and mangled body in the canal, where, on May 20, this year, the day after the crime, it was found. The cry for revenge was so great after Davis' arrest that he was taken to Albany jail for safe keeping.

Two Children Set Their Bed Clething on Fire and Perish.

Manistee, Mich., Oct. 29.-Mrs. John Connolly, on Sunday morning, went to the upper room where her children, aged 5 and 3 1-2, were sleeping, and was horrified to discover the room full of smoke. The children were in the last stages of asphyxiation, the bedclothing having been almost enthely burned off by a slow smoldering fire. Physicians, after an hour of hard work, brought the children back to consciousness. One was badly scorched on the leg and side, the other untouchoughly saturated with smoke, all efforts to save their lives were unavail-ing. The theory is that one of the children was fooling with matches and set the clothing on fire.

King Callahan Goes Over Pougkeepsie Bridge - A Distance of 212 Feet.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Oct. 29.—Patrick King Callahan, 26 years old, who lived in New York, jumped from the top of the Poughkeepsie bridge into the river Sunday. The distance is 212 feet. At least 30 people saw Callahan's foolhardy feat.

Callahan, accompanied by four of his party, climbed up the mountain side of the entrance of the bridge, where they eluded the watchman by telling him that they belonged to a party of painters that were engaged in painting the bridge.

They passed out to a point to within

175 feet of the west shore, where Callahan prepared to jump. He wore a pair of black trousers and a heavy blue woolen shirt over a suit of ordinary underclothing, and wore heavy leather shoes. His associates strapped a cork jacket or life preserver around his waist and attached an inflated bladder to each of his shoulders. These were calculated to keep him erect in

Callahan clambered over the railing and hung from the edge of the foot-path by his hands. His friends were waiting under the bridge in two row boats to pick him up, and as soon as he saw them he shouted good-bye to and climb the mountain. He saw the farmer Warren go up the mountain right afterwards, and when the farmer ran from the cabin to his home again the life of that innocent, beautiful girl? TO PREVENT HOG CHOLERA. In the Iowa Homestead, Dr. J. T. Dodge, Hamilton, Ill., gives his method of curing and preventing hog cholera, which he has used for years. He has experimented with it by placing a healthy hog among sick ones, and has kept it well by the use of this remedy. The prescription and directions are as follows:

Arsenic, one-half pound; cape aloes, cne-half pound; blue vitriol, one-fourth pound; black antimony, one ounce. Grind and mix the remedy well before using.

The following are the directions for

1. Sick hogs in all cases to be separated from the well ones, and placed in dry pens, with only five large hogs or eight small ones in each pen. 2. Feed nothing but dry food, but no water, only the slop containing the remedy, until cured.

3. When the hogs refuse to eat, turn them on their backs, and then, with a long-handled spoon, put the dry medicine down their throats.

4. Dose for large hog: One teaspoonful three times a day for three days; then miss one day, and repeat amount until cured. Shoats or pigs, one-half the amount. 5. As a preventive, one teaspoonful once a week will keep your hogs in a healthy condition to take on fat.

The principal business before the directors was the re-ception of tenders for strengthening the bridges over the Thames just south of the city, and over Kettle Creek at Port Stanley, and the masonry work and superstructures at Zavitz's pond and Dingman's Creek. The Dominion (Montreal) and Hamilton Bridge Companies were the only tenderers for the iron work. For the masonry at Zavitz's and Dingman's, Wm. Gibson, of Welland, tendered at the following figures: Abutments, $10 50 a yard; pedestals, $12 50 a yard; second-class pier, $8 a yard, and concrete pier, $8 a yard. Mr. Gibson wanted the foundations prepared free of cost to himself. Mac-Mahon & Tiernan, of Hamilton, also tendered, but at their figures the work contract awarded by Engineers Graydon and De Gurse. The work at Zavitz's will necessitate the closing of Mr. Zavitz's mill for several days. For Mr. Zavitz's mill for several days. For closing down Mr. Zavitz will be paid a minimum price of $50 and $5 a day for every day over ten. The Dominion Bridge Company offered to supply the material for strengthening the Kettle Creek and Thames bridges for $360. For the strengthening they estimated an additional $360. The former figure was accepted. The work of strengthening the structures was given to the Lake Erie and Detroit River Railway at the request of Mr. Woollatt. By their do-ing the work themselves, no delay to traffic would be caused, thus giving —Miss Margaret Scatcherd, of Buffalo, who has many friends here, was introduced to Buffalo society at Mrs. Wilson Shannon Bissell's "five o'clock tea" last week. It was a brilliant gathering.

The stone work on the piers and abutstructures at Dingman's and Zavitz's were referred to the two engineers and Mr. Wm. Bowman, as one of the ten-dering companies had made some alterations in the plans.

Well-Known Man Writes a Grate'ul Letter.

Given Up to Die He Uses Dodd's Kidne Pills and is Cured of Diabetes.

Kirkfield, Ont., Oct. 29.—About two years ago l left Kansas, returning to Can-ada, my native land. I am a miller and own a saw and grist-mill in this village. I knew before that I was not a well man, but one day in trying to lift a bag of grain, I discovered that my strength had failed. My wife induced me to take medical advice Our local doctor, as clever as most of them, did all he could for me; diagnosed my case, as did a Toronto specialist, and both pronounced my case to be Diabetes. Getting no benefit from the doctors, I was reading one of your advertisements of Dodd's Kidney Pills. At this time my skin was a yellow, sickly color, I had lost all ambition and was so weak that I could only trail myself along, a mile's walk being too much Well, I commenced using the pills and got help inside of two weeks. This was the latter part of November last. I took eight boxes in eight weeks and am now completely cured—not a symptom left, general health good and all the color returned to my face. My weight had been during my illness as low as 120 pounds; it is now 170 pounds. I was bothered with my heart and liver but these troubles have been cured along with my diabetes. My cure is perfect, I can now walk briskly for miles, and I am as well a man as ever I was although I am now past 62 years old. I am well known in all this country; have two sons in Toronto and am brother of Wm. McKenzie, president of the Toronto Street Railway Company. I will answer all questions of any one desiring to write me if the writer will inclose a stamp for supply.

Gratefully yours truly,

DUNCAN MCKENZIE. Dodd's Kidney Fills is the only medicine in the world ever known to cure Diabetes.
