The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Hamilton Public Library

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

LAST YEAR'S OVERCOAT

is nothing but a reefer compared with the long "full back" this season. There are many men who spend double what they can afford to for clothes. If so-and so's name is't on the back of their necks, inside their coat collars, they don't think life's worth living. That's all rot. We'll put you in style for $15.00 as satisfactory as though you paid your tailor $25.00. We hit the mark every time with those LONG FULL-BACK OVERCOATS; cheaper ones, $10.00; but our $15 is a point to survey from.

POEMS HERE AT HOME, by James Whitcomb Riley, with pictures by E. W. Kemble. New York—The Century Co. On sale at MURPHY'S Book Store, 10 King street west

Riley is fast growing in favor with the American public. There are good judges who consider him their greatest living poet. Certain it is that no writer, past or present, has ever exceeded his ability in portraying certain phases of country character with which he is most familiar. His dialect is exquisite and perfect in its kind. This volume by the Century company contains many old favorites and some new pieces. Several of the best poems had appeared in the Century magazine. All admirers of the Hoosier poet will desire to add this new volume to their collection.

—Would-Be Purchaser—How much for this picture? Artist—The price is £1,000. "Why, man alive, you expect to be paid for your work as if you had been dead four or five hundred years."

—Moriarity, it's home you should be going. You're drunk." "Bedad, but O'm not, son." "Ye're drunk. O' say." "O'im a liar, then, Phelim. O'Reilly." "No. Ye're jist dronk." "Ye wouldn't say that if O' was sober." "If ye was sober ye wouldn't deny it."

To start the fire with kerosene—
She became one that day.

—Little Charlie—Papa, do angels see what's going on in the world. Papa—I suppose so; they're often pictured as weeping.

—Boston woman—Oh, I do so love the fields of our New England farms. New York girl—Why? Boston woman—Because they are so cultivated, you know.

—It takes four years for a college to turn out a good student, but it frequently turns out a bad student in less than three months.

—Mamma—When that boy throw stones at you why didn't you come and tell me instead of throwing them back?
Little son—Tell you! Why, you couldn't hit a barn door.

—Mrs. Gushy—Dear me, the new minister is such an interesting young man. Mrs. Winks—What did he talk about when he called? Mrs. Gushy—I told him all about the baby's new tooth.

—“The doctors all pronounce it ner-

COMING.

The chief attraction of a literary nature booked for Hamilton this season is that of James Whitcomb Riley, the Hoosier poet, and Douglas Sherley, the southern author, who will appear in readings from their own works, in the Grand opera house, on Feb. 2.

Mr. Riley has been termed the sweet singer, who with his magic lyre has touched the hearts of countless thousands; whose words and works are known and loved wherever the English language is spoken; whose lines are filled with laughter and pathos; who personates his own creations, so that we see them before us in flesh and blood; the Burns of America; the poet in the plenitude of his powers.

Mr. Sherley is a stranger to the platform in Canada, but his appearance will likely be hailed with delight. The best students of American literature look upon him as the polished romancer of the south, who has flashed a searchlight into new fields and reproduced the results in colors that charm; whose wit is as infectious as a summer's day; whose versatility, combined with that of Mr. Riley, completes one of the most enjoyable entertainments known to the lyceum or the stage.

The public appearances of these twin spirits of genius have been highly appreciated in the few privileged cities where they have appeared jointly, and great enthusiasm always prevailed.

—“What are you crying for, Frita?” “Because my brothers have a holiday and I haven't.” “But why haven't you a holiday, too?” “Because, I'm not old enough to go to school yet.”

—Mrs. Newman—What made you tell me he was the carrier of his own fortune, when he got every penny he has by marrying an heiress? Newman—Humph! He had to cut out a half a dozen fellows to get her, didn't he?
