NEW RULES FOR ONTARIO SCHOOLS WILL SIMPLIFY COURSE OF STUDIES

SIXTH HOUSE IN EARLSCOURT DESTROYED BY FIRE IN LESS THAN A WEEK—SIX HOMELESS

SIMPLER STUDIES ARE PROVIDED FOR SCHOOLS

Draft Provincial Regulations Make Many Subjects Optional and Permits Religious Instructions After Hours—Basis of Grants to Rural Schools is Changed.

The simplification of the common school curriculum, which has been long demanded by a section of the public, is provided for in the draft of the new regulations and courses of study of the public and separate schools of this province, just completed for presentation to the Ontario Educational Association for study this afternoon. These amended rules have not been submitted to Hon. Dr. R. A. Fyne, minister of education, yet, but go directly before the association thru John Seath, Ontario superintendent of education. The simplification of the school studies is made thru an extension of the optional principle, so that a school board is at liberty to pare down the number of subjects taught to a minimum. In forms one to four, the subjects to be taught are now divided into three groups. The first group comprises reading, literature, composition, spelling, grammar, history, geography, writing, arithmetic, manners and morals, and is made compulsory. The second group includes hygiene, physical culture, art, nature study and vocal music. When the teacher is qualified this group may be taught with the omission of topics duly authorized by the inspector or local school inspector. Group number three comprises bookkeeping, manual training, hand-sewing, household science, agriculture and horticulture, which are made entirely optional, but the school board may select for teaching any subjects that are desirable and practicable under the conditions of the school. In the fifth form foreign languages, commercial subjects, manual training, household science, horticulture and agriculture, are optional.

Religious instruction. The new rules also provide for religious instruction by the clergy of any denomination to the pupils of that faith, once a week. Any number of denominations may agree to send a particular clergyman to teach the pupils of their church members. Religious exercises consisting of the reading of selected portions of the Scriptures, the recital of the ten commandments, or a Scripture reading of the International Sunday School Association, are compulsory, but a parent may have his children absent themselves from the school.

QUEBEC OPPOSES GEORGIAN CANAL

Board of Trade Believes Railway Rather Than Canal Development Should Be Encouraged.

QUEBEC, April 13.—In answer to a letter from Mr. Forward, secretary of the Canadian Federation of Boards of Trade, Ottawa, in which he requests the Quebec board to be represented at an interview to be held at Ottawa with the Dominion Government on Wednesday, for the purpose of urging the immediate construction of the Georgian Bay Canal, the local chamber regrets that it cannot agree with Mr. Forward's views and considers the time is not opportune for building the canal yet. It is of the opinion that before undertaking so stupendous a task, it would be wise for the government of Canada to wait and see what will be the result in the cheapening of freight rates and in improving communication between the east and west, to be brought about by the two transcontinental railways—the Grand Trunk Pacific and the Canadian Northern—both of which will be completed this year.

Pointing out that a railway is good all the year-round and a canal only six months, the chairman of the Quebec board criticizes results achieved with the different Canadian canals.

DAVIS BROTHERS DIED WITHIN FOUR HOURS

Well-Known Figures in North Toronto Passed Away Yesterday, A. J. as Result of Accident, and F. H. After a Prolonged Sickness—Funerals Tomorrow and Thursday.

Two brothers, F. H. Davis, aged 74, 32 Joseph street, Davisville and A. J. Davis, 76 years, 12 Imperial street, North Toronto, died within four hours of each other yesterday.

Both of them were old residents and well-known figures in North Toronto, their father, the late John Davis, being the first postmaster of Davisville. The late A. J. Davis died from the effects of an accident which occurred on Saturday. He was crossing the corner of Shaftsbury avenue and Yonge street when he was run down by a wagon belonging to the Canadian Transfer Company and so severely injured that death resulted at 11 o'clock yesterday morning at his home.

The late A. J. Davis was associated for many years with the pottery works in Davisville but had retired from business a few years ago. He is survived by one brother, J. J. Davis, ex-mayor of North Toronto, two sons, Samuel in Guelph, Ont., Toronto, and two daughters living at home. The funeral will take place on Thursday to Mount Pleasant Cemetery under Masonic auspices.

F. H. Davis, whose death occurred at 7:30 yesterday morning, had been living in retirement for many years and previous to his death had been in bad health for about eight months. He is survived by one brother, already mentioned, 4 sons, John J., Fred H., C. R. and H. B., all of Toronto, and two daughters, Alice, and Mary (Mrs. John Cook).

The funeral of the late F. H. Davis will take place on Wednesday at 3 o'clock to Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

COST OF LIVING REPORT DELAYED

Commissioners, After Visit to Halifax This Week, Will Leave for Vancouver.

OTTAWA, April 13.—The departmental commission on the high cost of living will be kept busy if it is to complete its investigations and submit its report before parliament prorogues, as was at first intended. The members, John McDougall, C. C. James, H. H. Coats and J. U. Vincent, left for Halifax today to look into conditions in that part of the country. They will return about the end of the week, and will leave shortly after for Vancouver. In the house of commons a few days ago, J. H. Sinclair (Guysboro) asked if it were true that the commission was taking evidence behind closed doors. Premier Borden replied that the commission was taking evidence both in public and private, as it could be best secured. The government, he said, had instructed that the investigation should be thorough, and did not advise as to its limit procedure.

CAPT. ROALD AMUNDSEN NEEDS TOO MUCH MONEY

Explorers and Scientists Think He Will Be Unable to Raise Two Hundred Thousand.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—Private reports from Christiania were received here tonight that Capt. Roald Amundsen, the Norwegian explorer, must have $200,000 before he can equip his proposed polar expedition. Explorers and scientists here expressed the belief that it would be practically impossible to raise the required sum. The voyage is between Canada, Alaska and Asia, in hudding the north pole, and is contemplated to be traversed by the explorer, and it is expected that the voyage would require at least four years' work in the polar ice.

DIED AT DAVISVILLE

F. H. Davis, of Davisville, who passed away yesterday following a lengthy illness, and within two hours of the death of his brother.

ITALY WAITS STRIKE CRISIS

More Than Hundred Thousand Railroad Men May Quit at Moment's Notice.

ROME, April 13.—The question of a strike of the railwaymen thruout Italy still hangs in the balance, but the government in order to be in readiness for any eventuality, has already occupied certain stations with detachments of troops. Arrangements have been made to replace with bluejackets the sailors on the postal steamers plying between the continent and the islands, while the engineers and stokers of the warships will, if necessary, assist the military engineers to carry on the train service. In several cases damage has been done to the engines, and those responsible have been dismissed. The leaders of the railway men have been holding secret meetings, but what they have decided upon is not known. It is thought by some that the strike may be suddenly proclaimed.

The operating forces permanently engaged by the Italian state railways, including officials of all classes, number about 115,000 individuals, who are joined in a league which has been pressing for increases of wages and diminution of hours of work.

The government asserts that the claims cannot possibly be accepted, as they would involve a yearly expenditure of over $20,000,000, which the budget of the country cannot stand.

Will Not Salute Flag. VERA CRUZ, April 13.—Gen. Gustavo Maas, the federal commander at Vera Cruz, speaking today with reference to the arrest of an American detachment from the Dolphin at Tampico, said the demand by the American admiral for satisfaction for the insult to the American flag, said that the Mexican government had ordered Gen. Morelos Zaragoza not to accede to Admiral Mayo's demand—which was that the American flag should be saluted within 24 hours—considering that such a step would be highly derogatory to national dignity and was also uncalculated for, as absolutely no insult had been offered to the American flag.

For the unfortunate mistake made in arresting the Americans, Gen. Maas added, Gen. Zaragoza had by his apology made ample compensation.

TOWN IN NORTHERN B.C. WAS SWEEPED BY FIRE

Business Section of Telkwa Was Nearly Wiped Out.

VANCOUVER, B. C., April 13.—Fire this morning wiped out a large part of the business section of Telkwa, a new town in Northern British Columbia. SALUTE ORDERED AS AN APOLOGY

Federal Commander at Tampico Must Honor Stars Flag or Eagle Will Screech.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—Upon whether the commander of the Huerta forces at Tampico salutes the American flag in apology for the arrest of American marines last Thursday depends immediate developments in the Mexican situation.

President Wilson declared unofficially today that he expected the federal commander at Tampico to fire a salute to the Stars and Stripes as demanded by Rear-Admiral Mayo, and he spoke with a confidence that implicated insistence. The navy department was still undecided tonight as to whether or not the salute had been fired. It is understood that instructions have been sent to Charge O'Shaughnessy to represent to the Huerta government the feeling of the administration here over the affront, but there has been no announcement on the subject.

John Lind, President Wilson's personal adviser in Mexico, reached Washington today and will see the president just before the cabinet meeting tomorrow morning. It is stated that Mr. Lind's reports on the general situation were so comprehensive and complete that he really did not have to come to Washington to supplement them.

Mr. Lind himself was uncommunicative, saying that he merely had sought a vacation and was at the orders of the government.

EARLSCOURT FIRE WIPED OUT 6TH HOME

Sparks From Kitchen Stove Ignited Woodwork and in Five Minutes Charles Barton, His Wife and Four Small Children Were Homeless and Penniless.

Charles Barton, an upholsterer out of work with his family, consisting of his wife and four small children, were left without a home yesterday afternoon when fire destroyed their little frame dwelling at 119 Mulberry avenue, Fairbank, in the Earls court district. Sparks from the kitchen stove ignited the woodwork and in five minutes the fire had completely consumed the flimsy structure. Barton's wife was absent in the city for the afternoon and he was outside filling the tank with water when the fire broke out. Fortunately the children, the oldest eight and the youngest a baby, were out playing when he discovered it. Both the Earls court and Wyckwood roads turned out promptly, but as usual, lack of water pressure prevented them from doing much except preventing the spread of the fire.

Barton and his family lost everything except the clothes they had on. Some chickens and a cat in the house were burned, so quickly did the fire spread. Mrs. Gilbertson, who keeps a grocery store on the Vaughan road, gave Barton and his family shelter for the night. He has been out of work for some months and has been assisted by Rev. W. J. Braun and Rev. H. R. Young. The loss amounts to $750, with $200 insurance. This is the tenth recent fire in the Earls court district.

JACK JOHNSON'S OFFENCE NOT EXTRADITABLE ONE

Cannot Be Brought Back to U. S. if Conviction is Upheld Today.

CHICAGO, April 13.—Decisions in the dynamite conspiracy and Jack Johnson cases will be handed down tomorrow by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals. It is expected that Jack Johnson was found guilty of transporting Belle Schreiber, a white woman, from Pittsburg to Chicago for immoral purposes and sentenced to a year and a day in the penitentiary and fined $1,000. Pending appeal Johnson was released on bail. He fled the country, going to Europe by way of Canada. If the conviction is upheld, Johnson, it is said, cannot be brought back to the United States, as a violation of the Mann Act is not an extraditable offence.

NEWS OF SPECIAL INTEREST TO WOMEN

NEWLY INVENTED BIPLANE ON VIEW, BELLEVILLE FIRM EXHIBITORS. Polloy Brothers, Builders of First Canadian-Made Airship, Now Being Exhibited in Robert Simpson Company's Store—Expert Says Transatlantic Aero Service Will Be Installed in Six Months.

Science in the 20th century has achieved much that has astonished the world, but the thing that is to prove the sense of wonderment to mankind is as yet unrealized by comparatively only a few. When the airship is mentioned as a joke, it is a reality with possibilities for revolutionizing the world's transportation.

There is nothing capable of bringing real life to the world for oneself. So many of us are like the doubling Thomas of other days. Toronto just now has something beautiful and striking in the realm of aeroplanes which to those who see it are witness to some of the things of which it is capable, will bring the air more forcibly to mind than volumes of reading and weeks of lectures could do.

Polloy Brothers and Belleville are the builders and exhibitors of the beautiful machine. It is 35 feet long by 30 feet across and is built of the lightest and most durable materials procurable. It is supported on five wheels, two at each side and one in front, and has stays like long slender masts. Its construction follows nature and the birdlike wings are of fine strong material, woven of linen and silk, known as aero-cloth.

This is a military biplane airship and is the first to have what is known as the "body" made of aluminum. It carries three passengers besides the pilot. It was designed by Mr. Davidson, who for three years was superintendent of the well-known Curtis Company. The value of the beautiful machine is approximately $8000.

In conversation with Mr. Polloy, The World learned that in his opinion it will not be six months before transatlantic mail will be carried by airships which will make the trip from Newfoundland to the fish coast in 15 hours. This is revolutionizing things with a vengeance.

Canada Lags Behind. Canada is so behind other countries in the matter of being interested in the aeroplane movement that for all practical purposes the quality of interest may be said to be nonexistent.

an intensely interesting talk at the afternoon assembly. The little models in their charming costumes looked like young beauties. The draperies, luxuriant and flowers were in profusion. With many samples of silk and woolen fabrics, the speaker explained the color schemes, explained the value of the fundamental triad—red, blue and yellow, from which every color in existence is derived, and entertained his audience with a crowd of amusing little stories. The lecture was voted a great success.

in speaking of color and its essential relation to the speaker said: "Back-grounds must be less intense than the objects shown upon them. A French critic has said: 'Failure to recognize the distribution and urge those of its art is absent if the laws are violated.'"

Prof. Parsons will continue this phase of his studies tomorrow morning at the 10 o'clock lecture. The Italian Renaissance will be his subject for the 3 o'clock lecture.

A SONG BOOK WITH A SOUL. Books have been said to possess personalities. If this be true, then they may be said to have souls, and if there ever appeared a book that had both personality and soul—that book is "Heart Songs" and it has been placing these books—thousands of them—in the houses of our readers during the past few weeks, and we have never undertaken a task that has given us more satisfaction and our readers more pleasure. We announce elsewhere the closing days of the distribution and urge those of our readers who have not yet participated in the distribution to lose no time in clipping the coupon that appears in this issue of the paper. "Heart Songs" will be bound to grow in value with the years.

Prof. Parsons explained to his audience the two great fundamental laws of decoration—without the adoption of these laws, decorative results would be at least lacking, he said. In the first place decoration should not be present in every turn. Harmony in house-decoration is absolutely essential; color, form, texture—the entire must form a complete harmony.

EFFICIENT HOUSEKEEPING. CONDUCTED BY RACHEL R. TODD. DOMESTIC SCIENCE LECTURER.

Discovering the Attic. ALMOST every house has an attic, but the conveniences of these secluded places have not all been put to use. Sometimes this is because the room is not needed, but more often it happens the attic floor is not ventilated, lighted or heated properly. Again it may only be used for storing or for drying clothes in wet weather.

The college towns of our country have shown us what may be done with attics, no matter how unsightly they are in the beginning. The lighting problem must be solved first, of course, gas or electricity should be used if practicable, but splendid lights are provided with the modern, improved of burning lamps and acetylene gas burners. Sufficient daylight is harder to provide, but this can be had with a skylight, and such an arrangement gives the needed fresh air during winter.

The plastering of unutilized parts of houses is undoubtedly the best, but it is expensive and so tedious a job that the man of the house dreads undertaking it. But modern improvement has cared for this, too, on rather done away with plastering by providing something much better in the shape of wallboard.

This covering can be put on without any under-structure, except a heavy studding above and there, to hold the nails that secure it. It is superior to lath, plaster, canvas or any other form of wall coverings, for it keeps out cold and heat and is indestructible.

The material comes in sheets from thirty-two to sixty inches wide and in any length up to twelve feet. There are several varieties made, and the price is regulated by the thickness of the wall-board when it is less than half an inch, and by the weight when the finest board is used. Any building supply company will give estimates for this sensible wall finish, and after it is purchased it only remains to hammer the sheets into place with wire nails. Where the edges of the wall-board join, a border is used, and this gives an artistic, paneled effect that is as handsome as the best paper produces.

THE GARDE CONDUCTED BY RACHEL R. TODD. MD. THE NURSERY CONDUCTED BY Elvira Murray.

Temperature. Almost all illnesses begin with fever. It is the body's way of saying "I am sick" and it is the young mother and nurse who should be awake at night watching her baby's flushed, sleeping face. And yet it is the mother who is too busy to examine her baby when fever is evident, and not to decide carelessly that it is "only one of baby's feverish attacks" and to let it pass.

The amount of fever can be ascertained by means of a clinical thermometer. Every mother should have one and use it. The instrument is exactly on the same principle as an ordinary mercury or bath thermometer, but on a smaller scale. It is graduated in degrees. The normal body heat is 98.6 degrees Fahrenheit. This is usually marked on the thermometer by an arrow. Slightly above the index of the thermometer until it is below the arrow mark, now draw the arm away from the side and put the bulb of the thermometer under the arm. Then hold the arm close against the side of the chest for five minutes; on removal the top of the index will mark the temperature.

With an infant it is more convenient to take the temperature in the fold of the groin; the thigh should be held against the instrument in its increase. The skin should be gently rubbed first, as any perspiration will prevent accuracy. Care must be taken that no air or draught intervenes between the skin and the thermometer, and that the instrument does not shift from the proper position.

A slight cold will often send the temperature of a child up to 102 or 103, and in some cases even higher in bronchitis or measles, but it has less significance in a child than in an adult. When the temperature is raised by the fever, the child is in an increased number. Both are normally more rapid in children than in adults. A clinical thermometer may be bought for 75 cents.

Thin Folks Who Would Be Fat. Increase in Weight Ten Pounds or More. A Physician's Advice. "It certainly gives most anything to be able to eat a few pounds and stay that way," declares every excessively thin man or woman. Such result is not thin, it is a condition of mal-nutrition. This people are victims of mal-nutrition, a condition which prevents the fatty elements of food from being taken up by the blood as they are when the powers of nutrition are normal. Instead of going into the blood, the fat and flesh producing elements stay in the intestines until they pass from the body and are excreted. To correct this condition and to produce a healthy, normal amount of fat in the blood, the power which nature has denied them. This can best be accomplished by eating a scientific combination of six of the best strengthening, fat-producing elements known to medical science.

FLOWERS CONDUCTED BY RACHEL R. TODD. Crinkleroot. Toothwort, Dentaria Diphylla.

Gentle odors tell my steps astray, mixed with a sound of waters murmuring. —Shelley. Not yet will you be able to see the pretty, fresh, green and white blossoms of crinkleroot, but you may soon grow the woods and across its favorite haunts. You may even find the intended three-leaved leaf issuing on short stems; on either side from the fluted stalk.

Crinkleroot is shy, and loves to hide behind old stumps near the water's margin like the rest of the cress family in moist, old mold, where it grows the woods and across its favorite haunts. You may even find the intended three-leaved leaf issuing on short stems; on either side from the fluted stalk.

The ones may not yet for two weeks find the plant blossoming, yet search for the two-leaved stem, and having found it, watch for the blossoms. When they are in the search, you remember that these leaves recall you to the color, the bright green marsh plants; that each of the two stem leaves is made up of three pointed and toothed, broad-based leaflets, and above which the lower raceme of buds will come; that two other leaves, similar in shape but larger, grow up on separate stems from the horizontal root stalk; that these latter leaves are tinted, as to the stem, with a deep purplish hue nearer the root; and that the entire plant is under six inches in height, you will have a few plants in the garden.

Later, when you see the frail, white four-petaled, cross-shaped blossoms, green-sealed and yellow-centred, faintly fragrant, you will say with Shelley: "White blossoms, whose wine was the bright dew, Yet drained not by the day."

With every short flower talk will be appended the explanation of one common botanical term. We may as well be learning something as we go along. A petiole is the stem of a leaf in contradistinction to any other stem.

Book Review The Spiritual Message of Dante. Dante should be available to all kinds of readers, and with the present revival of interest in the great Italian, he should be of all kinds of avenues of approach to the study and understanding of his works. It is true of Dante, as of all other great writers, that the student only finds what he brings to the study, and the most helpful criticism perhaps is that which helps the student to understand himself, and in the message of his author. In the publication of the William Belden Noble lectures on "The Spiritual Message of Dante," Dr. Rev. W. Boyd Carpenter has followed the conditions of the trust, to extend the influence as the way, the truth and the life; to make known the meaning of the words of Dante, and the quality of his life, and that they might have more abundantly." Dr. Boyd Carpenter states that his lectures are simply a study on religious experience, as exemplified in Dante's poem. It is evident that in such a case, if it is what the student brings to the study that the quality of his work will be found. Dr. Boyd Carpenter yields so much to the mystical interpreters of Dante as to say that it is as a soul drama that I desire to study Dante. The one word, he says, which gives a clue to the whole poem is love. "Amore, amore, amore—the sound is heard loudest and loudest in the happy realms of paradise, but it speaks on the winding terraces of purgatory, and even in hell it is not silent. The six lectures deal with the life of Dante, the history of his life (life lost), the inexorable, the righteousness (the inferno), educative discipline (the purgatorio), the victory of the soul (the paradiso), and the drama of the soul (life lost and found). These chapters will be of great value to the multitudes of people who stand on the threshold of knowledge and who lack the courage to step into the treasure-house where lie the things new and old. It is as an introductory study that these lectures will be found of greatest value.

To those who are not aware that the romantic love of women did not take its place in literature till classical times were past, or who are unaware of the degradation that befell womanhood thru the growth of asceticism there are interesting suggestions. Dr. Boyd Carpenter does not, however, take the view that in the drama of the soul the stage is set in man's own consciousness. He retains the historic and experiential view, and accepts Dante's story as objective in its application. When the virtues and graces are acquired, then the powers of perception and apprehension are enlarged. No spirit can discern God in nature, God in moral order, God in the very soul itself. The highest capacity, however, the theological, the final knowledge of God, not thru any medium like that of natural or moral order, but in direct spiritual vision. If this view be not altogether consistent with the recognition of God even in hell itself, it will be accounted for by a lack of discernment in the early stages of development. After all, had we the spiritual vision, we would be no hell. Dr. Boyd Carpenter grapples with a phase of the problem in dealing with the sin of Paolo and Francesca (p. 206). DISEASE IS DUE TO BAD BLOOD. To Cure Common Ailments the Blood Must Be Made Rich and Red. Nearly all the diseases that afflict humanity are caused by bad blood; weak, watery blood poisoned by the particles of bad blood, the cause of headache and vertigo, rheumatism and neuralgia; debility and indigestion, neuritis and other nervous troubles and disfiguring skin diseases like eczema, and scabies, and show how impure the blood actually is. No use trying a different remedy for each disease, because they all spring from the one cause—bad blood. To cure any of these troubles you must get right down to the root of the trouble in the blood, and that is what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do. They make new, rich blood and thus cure these diseases when common medicine fails. Mrs. John Jackson, Woodstock, Ont., suffered from both nervous troubles and a run-down condition, and experienced a complete cure through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. She says: "I was a sufferer from a number of years from neuralgia, and a general debility of the nervous system. I had tried several doctors and many medicines, but to no avail until I began Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. At the time I began the Pills I had grown so bad that I could hardly get on my feet and was forced to wear elastic bandages about the ankles. The pain I suffered at times from the neuralgia was terrible. I had almost given up hope when I began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. In a course of a few weeks I felt an improvement, and I gladly continued the use of the Pills until I was once more quite well and able to attend to my household duties."

New Complexion "Musts" For Early Spring Days

Nature Your Best Guide In Escaping Consumption

Consequent to this impetus comes to you this much told matter, this oft-repeated story, "civilization does get torrid sometimes upon a powder-cart," and at the worst it brings better things for the multitude. Unluckily, however, it also brings such baneful afflictions as tuberculosis. Indeed, tuberculosis might be said fundamentally to be the wild oats of the march of culture and civilization.

The Call of Nature.

Modern cities and the call of the suburbs are among the purveyors of the new hygienic dispensation. Breathing spots in cities, public playgrounds, parks, recreation places, civic centers and other oases in the deserts of the mighty marts of modern cities, all contribute a quota of the sunlight and fresh air to invigorate to man and child, beast and fower. Advice to Girls

By Annie Laurie

Dear Miss Laurie: Should a girl who is engaged to a young man let him kiss her as often as he wants to? Is it wrong for a girl to hold a young man's arm out in a crowd if she is engaged to him? How can a young woman tell when she really loves a young man? Would it be right for a girl and her young man to go to visit his little sister who is engaged to a young man who is interested in a young man who she thought was a proper? BLUE BELL

WELL, Blue Bell, you seem to be worried to death—about a good deal of nothing. Most of the things you want to know about don't amount to anything at all, one way or the other, and the rest of them are things you ought to know without asking.

TUESDAY MORNING, APRIL 14.

"IF WE STARVE THE RAILROADS WE STARVE OURSELVES."

To the April number of the magazine which bears his name, Mr. Frank A. Munsey contributes an article under the above caption, which has been widely read and commented upon in the United States and Canada. The bald statement which furnishes the text and the caption for Mr. Munsey's article is, of course self-evident and indisputable. If the railway companies of any country are prevented by invasion, insurrection or confiscatory legislation from earning the money they need for their efficient operation, the result must be peril, inconvenience and sharp distress for the people. But is it true that the rates imposed upon the railways of the United States are unjust and in the nature of confiscation? What are the facts as to the "starvation" of which complaint is made, not only by Mr. Munsey but by many others less disinterested in appealing for justice and generosity to the common carriers of the United States?

The railways of the United States are capitalized for something over nineteen billion dollars. It is the burden of the fixed charges represented by this enormous sum which renders it impossible for these companies to pay their way, keep their plant and equipment up to date and render proper service. If the fixed charges could be cut in two, if, better still, they were only levied on $9,500,000,000 instead of $19,000,000,000, no one will deny that the American railways could render ideal service and make money hand over fist at the rates now established by law. And yet we know beyond dispute that railway securities now outstanding to the amount of $9,500,000,000 were in their issue and inception fraudulent; that the burden of fixed charges now crushing the railways to the earth is double what it should be and that the securities upon which interest and dividends must be paid exceed in face value by one hundred per cent. the money actually invested in the enterprises.

Unfortunately, many of these railway securities have found their way into the hands of innocent holders and the gigantic problem presented to the people of the United States is how to conserve the public interest without inflicting too great injustice upon the thousands of people who have invested their savings in railway stocks and bonds. The government shrinks from assuming the responsibility for the problem and its solution involved in nationalizing the railways—willing as the railways are to be taken over by the government. Not unnaturally also the government shrinks from unjustly taxing the people who use railways by authorizing extortionate passenger and freight rates, in order to provide for interest and dividends upon securities to the face value of nineteen billion dollars, one-half water.

As to the gravity of the situation, and as to the urgent necessity for dealing with it, no one will dissent. But Mr. Munsey's earnest appeal is weakened by the claim or assumption that the railway companies are in their present deplorable situation, not thru their own fault or misconduct, but thru government regulation. It was not the government which authorized or sanctioned the looting of the New Haven and other prosperous railway enterprises. No act of congress or order of the Interstate Commerce Commission can be found which directed the watering of stock or the fraudulent issue of bonds. All that can be said is that if the United States Government had begun to regulate the railways twenty years sooner than it did, and had regulated them from the beginning in a more drastic manner, the present deplorable situation would not have been created. In short, the complaint of the railway companies, and the complaint of the public alike, should be, not that the government has interfered too much, but rather that it has interfered far too little in the management and administration of public utility corporations.

Mr. Munsey also touches lightly upon the misdeemeanors of the railway companies in the good old days when neither courts nor commissions sought to protect the public. He airily says that in the old days the railways gave a better rate to the big shipper than to the small shipper, just as the manufacturer quotes a better price to the wholesaler than he does to the retailer. If this had been the head and front of their offending the strong public feeling against the railways would indeed be inexplicable.

But what did they do when there was no government regulation? Many startling acts of oppression and injustice might be recalled; let one suffice. From Marietta to Cleveland the railways charged the independent refiner $5.95 for the service which they rendered to the Standard Oil Company for 95 cents. Moreover, of the $5.95 paid by the independent refiner, 35 cents was kept by the railway company and $5 handed over to the Standard Oil Company. Not only this, but all the shipments of the independent refiner were at once reported to the Standard Oil Company. So little did the government interfere at that time that this particular bargain was made and carried out by the refiner, of a railway company, appointed by the United States court for the southern district of Ohio.

Another thing of which the United States might take notice is the effect which a policy quite the opposite of starvation has upon railway companies in a country not far distant. We do not starve our railways in Canada; indeed, we have always fed them most generously. But we do not get any better service than do the people of the United States, and we pay much more for the service we get. We have our railway situation as have our neighbors to the south. If ours be less serious, it is still perplexing enough. Patience, courage and statesmanship are called for in both countries. In neither country is there any disposition to muzzle the ox, but in neither country will the 6x be permitted to take possession of the house and run the farm.

TWELVE PER CENT. STREET RAILWAY INCREASE.

About a week ago we had the audacity to state that the intangible assets of the street railway are much more valuable than was anticipated. The Globe declared: "This statement is hopelessly at variance with the facts," and it presented a table of the revenue for six months in 1912-13 and six in 1913-14, which showed a falling off from the anticipated 10 per cent. increase of $80,197.26. The Globe, of course, wound up with the usual enquiry why The World does not tell the truth. We try very hard; harder, we are inclined to think, even than the Globe. We feel sure we try harder than The Telegram, which often does not seem to try at all, and, in fact, gives the impression that it is trying the other way. We made our innocent little remark because we have great faith in Toronto, considerable faith in Mayor Hocken and his batch of experts, and were still more assured by the assertions to the contrary of the opponents of railway purchase. But of course we might be mistaken, and we are always grateful when The Globe or The Telegram prints out genuine errors to us in the kindly and Christian spirit of which they boast such ample possession.

We still believe that the experts are correct in their estimates. The present wrong has been singularly severe and prolonged, and has not been conducive to street car traveling. Times have been hard also, and street car traffic feels any pressure of that description quite sensitively. Yet in spite of all this we find, if we are to be taken, that the increase in street railway receipts for the twelve months ending March 31, 1914, was 12 per cent., or $7,264.68 in excess of the 10 per cent. estimated by the experts.

We believe a full twelve months is the fairest way to figure on the receipts. The months vary considerably, and the seasons will never be the average on a year's basis. The revenue for the twelve months ending March 31, 1914, was $5,544,237.02, for the year ending March 31, 1913, it was $8,105,925.40. A 10 per cent. increase would only have brought the receipts up to $8,925,925.40. We trust The Globe will take this matter up and give us a little credit for trying to tell the truth. It might remember, too, that the current quarter includes some notable holidays and the "Woodbine week," and while we are not refusing to accept its figures it surely will not decline to recognize the increase in street railway receipts for the past twelve months of 12 per cent.

THE CANADIAN NORTHERN.

The Vancouver Sun discusses the probability of James J. Hill buying out the Canadian Northern and says the provincial and federal governments would have to be consulted if any such deal is on. Certainly, but perhaps Sir William is willing to buy out Mr. Hill. Our own idea is that no one will get the Canadian Northern until it is completed one or two years hence if the financial aid proposals now under consideration at Ottawa are closed up. We believe Sir William Mackenzie and Sir Donald Mann would desire nothing better than to turn their system over to Canada when completed, on most reasonable terms. No one will ever force Sir William Mackenzie to sell, least of all Mr. Hill. But that he will give Canada a chance to own the road there is good reason for believing. He is willing to sell the Toronto Street Railway and his electric propositions as well. Surely that is something. In Montreal the street railway owners will not sell, are seeking a forty years' renewal.

A DANGEROUS DESCENT.

All this clamor for an 18-mill tax rate is inspired by the wish that the Hocken-McCarthy administration could be induced to roll up a deficit in the revenue similar to that which characterized the previous administration when the city went $12,000,000 in the hole. Nineteen mills is little enough to meet the deficiencies of the past, and an honest attempt will be made to get the city finances on a firm basis again. Eighteen mills is the way to the quicksands.

HEADS AND FEET.

The Telegram, having been forced to disabuse its readers of the idea it tried to force upon them that the tax rate now being discussed is based on the assessment at present being made, has indulged itself with a few reminiscences about Dr. Kane's unwillingness "to kick Queen Victoria's crown into the bovine," and then launches out into the fine Pickwickian vein of vituperation for which we challenge Eatonswill to produce the equal. The Telegram is singularly at home with the "pedal extremities" of various individuals, and mentions The World, office boy and some unidentified "Bel-fast boy" as two of those of which it has recently been making a study. The Telegram expects to find "more brains in the boots of the boys afore-said than can be identified in the columns of The World." We shall not quarrel with The Telegram's expert authority on feet and boots, and of course there is nothing remarkable about its inability to identify brains in The World. Some day it may make a study of heads and feet more at home with The World.

Meanwhile its readers are advised that the assessment now being made in this present year of grace 1914 will form the basis of the tax rate for 1915.

IRISH DRAMA AND PLAYERS.

It is to be hoped that there is still enough of the sense of humor left in Toronto-bred "fishmen" to prevent them taking up the astounding folly of attacking "The Playboy" of the Western World on the ground that it has been made the basis of objection to it by some enthusiasts elsewhere. Synge's play is a piece of most delightful humor and satire. Very ignorant people in Scotland object to Shakespeare having selected Macbeth as a subject instead of Bruce, and equally ignorant Italians might object to the typical villain of all times having been pictured in the Italian lago. But the case against Synge is nothing like so bad as that. "The Playboy" is a type which might be discovered in some parts of Ontario as readily as in Ireland, and the Irishman who will imagine his exploits as likely to be accepted as typical of Ireland must have had little experience of the theatre. It is quite true that Synge is a more profound psychologist than D'op Boucault, and a more poetic writer, but why the traitors and spies of Boucault should be allowed to pass without a word and exception taken to the farcical "Playboy" it is difficult to conceive. The explanation given by some is that Synge represents a new spirit in Irish literature, and that it is against this spirit rather than the special manifestation of its operation in a particular play that the agitation is directed. Toronto is fortunate in having a visit from the Irish players, who have injected a new element into British drama. The exquisite simplicity and naturalness of their work is remarkable, and when it is remembered that their origin is as humble as anything in Ireland can be, that their experience had inspiration in Irish, and that their plays are the work of Irish playwrights, it is a matter for further wonder that anyone with Irish blood in his veins could raise any voice of protest. But indeed those who read or see the plays are disarmed of their prejudice. No one has a right to criticize a play he has not seen.

ANGELIC GIFT TO PRES. BYTERIAN CHOR.

Canadian Statesman: Next Sunday (Easter) the choir of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church will appear in gowns, the lady members wearing caps of mortar-board style. The gowns and caps are a gift generously donated by Mr. J. A. Culverwell, C.E., of Port Hope. This is not a new departure on the part of Mr. Culverwell, as he has already presented similar gifts to St. John's Anglican Church, Port Hope, of which he is an active member; also to the Baptist Church, Port Hope, and to St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Cobourg. Mr. Culverwell has been interested in choirs all his life, having as a boy sung in a vested choir in Toronto. The thanks of the pastor, session, board of managers and choir of St. Paul's were forwarded to Mr. Culverwell, the pastor stating that the gowns would be worn for the first time for the special services on Easter Sunday.

THE TANNERY AT THE BRIDGE.

Editor World: In your issue of April 7 I noticed a letter suggesting that the aldermen of Nos. 1 and 2 wards might be able to secure the removal of the Johnston Tannery at the west end of Wilton avenue bridge, now that it has to be rebuilt in consequence of the recent fire. This I would heartily support. The district is one largely of workmen's houses and the odor from the tannery renders residence in it very disagreeable and unpleasant. An industry of this nature should be placed in a location where it is not an annoyance and, now that the opportunity has been provided, I think that not only the aldermen representing the wards concerned, but the city council should agree to have it removed to the bay front. The step will be thoroughly appreciated by the residents in the district. Working Man. Toronto, April 13.

BROWN TAIL MOTH A CAUSE OF TUBERCULOSIS.

(Special Correspondence.) FRIDDERICTON, N. B., April 13.—That in addition to being a destroyer of fruit and ornamental forest trees, the Brown Tail Moth is a threat to the health, is amongst the discoveries made by the Entomological Experiment Station of the Dominion Government at Fredericton. The investigators have found that whenever the hairs of these insects come in contact with human flesh they produce a most painful itching and eruption, the effect of which may last for months, when breathed into the lungs inflammation and become productive of tuberculosis.

New Brunswick is making strenuous efforts to purge itself of the Brown Tail Moth invasion. In the vicinity of Sussex the exterminators, armed with cans of petrol, have succeeded in reported in exterminating 15,000 of the pests and destroying their nests. The moth is the most dangerous pest that destroys trees and orchards, and has yet appeared in New Brunswick. The New Brunswick Agricultural Department has long recognized the danger, and had been on the watch for this insect, and when in the winter of 1911, in the course of its natural spread from the State of Maine, it was found to have become established in New Brunswick, a staff of scouts was organized and a systematic search for the nest of the insect was made at once.

The New Brunswick Department of Agriculture has carried on an educational campaign for the destruction of the insect, and the co-operation of teachers and boys and girls enlisted. A reward of one dollar was offered for the first nest found in each school district, and five cents for each subsequent nest found. The campaign was a success. Hundreds of nests were sent in, discovered mostly by teachers and school children. The methods of destroying the Brown Tail Moth are chiefly of two kinds: destroying and spraying the foliage with poisons to kill the caterpillars and removing them with a long-handled tree pruner in the winter months when the nests are on the end of the branches.

GINGERBEER MAKER DEAD.

CHATHAM, April 13.—John Hoon, the well-known manufacturer of Hoon's gingerbeer, passed away at his home in this city this morning at 8 o'clock, in his 89th year. CANADIAN PACIFIC PAVILION PANAMA PACIFIC EXPOSITION SAN FRANCISCO, CAL. 1915. FRANCIS J. SWALEZ ARCHITECT. The plans for the Canadian Pacific Railway Company's building at the San Francisco Fair in 1915 have been completed and are now awaiting the approval of Mr. J. S. Dennis, assistant to the president, and head of the natural resources department of the Company, which has full charge of the building and exhibits. The building was designed by Mr. F. S. Swales, designer of the C. P. R. buildings at the recent exposition at Brussels, and will cover a ground space of 65 feet square. It is a one storey structure, in the Spanish renaissance style, and will harmonize with the architectural scheme that is being carried out on the other buildings of the exposition. The roof will be of tile, and the wide cornices will be colored to conform with the general style of the neighboring buildings. The interior will be divided into an exhibition hall, 40 feet wide by 65 feet in length, and a cinematograph hall, 22 feet in width and 50 feet in length. The ornamentation is renaissance in character but emblematic of the products of the Canadian west, fruit and grain being used throughout.

HERE IS A TALE OF GENUINE HARD LUCK Man Was Robbed While Occupying a Cell in Guelph Jail. GUELPH, Ont., April 13.—It is pretty hard for a person to be robbed in his own house or store by burglars, or anyone else, but when a man is in jail and is robbed it is harder yet. This happened to a man named Norris today. He is serving a month in the county jail, and when he was put in a young man, Edward Arnold, was just concluding a ten days' sentence for theft. It seems the jail physician had given Norris permission to smoke and a friend went up to see what he wanted in that line. He was asked to purchase several packages of tobacco, and to get a new pipe, and also bring along his fountain pen. Arnold heard what was going on and apparently paid no attention, but this morning as soon as he was released he went down to the storekeeper, told him that he had been sent for the tobacco and other things, and was given them. That was the last seen of Arnold, and thus was the man robbed while he was locked up in jail.

MONTREAL NEEDS MORE POLICEMEN Chief Asks for Two Hundred Recruits — City's Budget Much Larger. Canadian Press Despatch. MONTREAL, April 13.—The occurrence of many serious crimes during the past few months has led Chief Campeau to insist upon having 200 additional policemen to bring his force up to effective strength. He asked for the same increase last year and was given a hundred more men. The medical health department is also asking much more money to carry out a reorganization of the department. This year's paving program too will swell up $1,500,000, which, owing to the repeal of the paying tax on proprietors, now has to be borne by the city. These are some of the big problems that face the new board of control. The city's budget will reach, it is expected, $4,000,000, instead of the usual $2,500,000.

HOW BASEBALL LEADERS VIEW COMING SEASON

BY GOVERNOR JOHN K. TENER, President of the National League. At the very best, baseball predictions are no more than precarious judgments. So many unforeseen and uncertain elements enter into a baseball championship that it is not only futile, but foolish, to estimate the relative playing strength of eight clubs and attempt to forecast their position at the end of the season.

BY BYRON BANCROFT JOHNSON, President of the American League. The American League, which entertained the largest aggregate number of fans in its history during the season of 1913, looks forward to another year of loyal support from the public—support earned by the constant efforts of its club-owners to give patrons the best there is in the game.

"Caesar and Cleopatra" opened the Forbes-Robertson second week at the Royal Alexandra last night before a magnificent audience, and the play will be repeated this evening. Whether those present derived more enjoyment from George Bernard Shaw's play or from Sir Johnstone and his company it would be difficult to determine, but the combination creates an entertainment which is not to be surpassed in its varied appeal. It is too late in the day to begin to discuss Shaw's marvellous method, but there is no doubt about the result. It will never be too late to dwell upon the charm of the personation by which the great actor brings Julius Caesar as a living man before the eyes of a twentieth century generation. He makes it possible to understand the great conqueror among his friends, with all his quorism and craft and experience, set upon by those around him as a man of destiny. The key-note is sounded by the part of Brutus, part woman, and part god—nothing of man in me, Brutus. His humor, his candor, his craft are all of the perpetual paradox of human nature at its loftiest development. One could wish that Shaw would write a play of Ulysses, and that Sir Johnstone might create the part. But we have Caesar to set in the gallery of the unforgettable. Miss Gertrude Elliott is scarcely less memorable for her cruelty and her softness, and all her affectionate treachery. Ian Robertson made a great hit as Britannus, whose proud regard for the proprieties of the Roman Empire was excellently played by Frank Lacy, and Adeline Bonham made her best presentation as a Platonic. The other characters were perfectly filled and the splendid scenery framed a picture which is worthy of the greatest traditions of British drama.

"Sweethearts" a romantic little opera playing at the Princess this week, is as full of musical comedy delights as a toy Easter egg is of sweetmeats. It abounds in merriment, parades a chorus of the prettiest maidens witnessed here in many a theatrical moon; is couched in the daintiest of Victor Herbert lyrical strains and has a "bang-up" comedian in the person of Tom McNaughton, whose quips and jests shake a laugh from even those most cautious of their dignity. The vehicle is light-gaied, but which along in merry style and not a moment is left unaccounted for. "Sweethearts" twines about a pretty little story of a court romance. Fifteenth century flavor is imparted to an otherwise modern setting, but not clash in such little of the plot as exists. The play succeeds because it combines so well many of the things which an audience desires. The songs and dances are novel and the songs which spring forth at every interval have enough charm to cling in the memory for a week at least. Without Tom McNaughton the production would be a sorry thing. He flashes in and about with a constant stream of comedy, slapstick and eccentric, but delivered in inimitable and mirth-provoking style. No comedian is more welcome on a local stage. Then there is Nella McCoy as Sylvia and Lionel Walsh, Frank Belcher, Robert O'Connor and others, who make their influence felt in speeding the three hours of the evening performance. The finale in both of the acts comes with a splendid crash of choral voices, but, unfortunately, the accompaniment in several of the duet passages destroyed harmonic effects that might have been obtained.

The newest of the cartoon plays, and one of the best that has been seen here in several seasons is "The Dingbat Family," which opened at the Grand, with a special Easter Monday matinee. All the fun that has broken out in the funny series of pictures in the papers for a year past is condensed into two acts of a lively musical comedy, that is both a treat and comic. Both audiences at the Grand thoroughly enjoyed the production. The producers have not depended on the popularity of the newspaper characters to make the attraction a success. They have provided a splendid cast, with Bobby Barry, a comedian built to the specifications of the part in the role of Mister Dingbat. Barry can dance and sing, and it is no effort for him to be funny. His make-up is a visualization of George Herriman's drawings. Mr. Dingbat is big and burly, and the daughter, Mary, is as sweet and dainty as the balance of the family are grotesque. The family troubles begin when Dingbat buys the Cafe de Luxe with money that came from a questionable source. We see the little fellow initiated into the Rikoto Society with ceremonies weird and mysterious. The second act finds the merry crowd at the Jardin de Danse, where the Ritz Carlton, New York, with the handsome chorus in many changes of costume, and the principals dressed to suit the occasion. Costumes and scenery add much to this part of the production. R. DeAngelo, who plays the part of Tony, has a voice that is not often equaled in musical comedy. His "On the Shores of Italy" is one of the gems of the piece. Miss Thompson, who plays the charming Mary, also delighted the audience with her singing, and some twenty numbers were rendered in a way that called for many encores.

The Festival of the Lilies was celebrated at Massey Hall last night for the twentieth time in as many years. To say that it has become an institution inseparable from Easter in Toronto is to repeat an obvious but worthy compliment to everything that this annual symposium has come to signify. Last night's performance was no exception to the record of two decades; in fact, both the children and their audience entered into the spirit of the merry-making in a way that made the evening one of perfectly spontaneous and wholesome enjoyment. As usual, the major portion of the program consisted of part songs and unison numbers by the children's choir of 700 voices, under the direction of M. Lew Rees, supervisor of music in the public schools. These were rendered with perfect enunciation and well-sustained tone quality, the children responding intelligently to every move of Mr. Rees' baton. The aesthetic exercises and dances by groups of girls trained by Mrs. H. E. Somers provided the novelty in the entertainment. One big number, a succession of pantomimic movements, entitled "The Triumph of Spring," proved especially charming. The novel movement, called "The Ecstasy of Youth," was danced by Miss Josephine Hodgson and Miss Aithes Howarth, in the music of Lindbergh's "Glow-worm." Both young ladies performed with poetic grace, which was fully expressive of the sentiment. Master Max Fleishman was heard in a well-learned violin solo, and members of the Grenadiers Band, which played the accompaniment to the choruses, rendered cornet and clarinet selections. Mrs. Somers and her accompanist, Miss Lenore Hurd, together with Miss Hodgson and Miss Howarth, were the recipients of flowers.

What word-magic can paint your feelings, when, as the years go by, some far-off tune is whistled in the street, that your mother used to sing to you; or some hand-organ ditty, softened by distance, floats in to your window with a strain that you often heard on her lips; or some piano in the neighborhood accompanies a sweet voice with the music that once charmed away all your childish cares and troubles.

"Heart Songs"—a piano or an organ—a woman's voice—be it that of wife or daughter—or sister—will give you, once again, all your mother's favorites. Every evening, after your day's work, you may soothe your wearied senses with the old songs she used to sing to you. Your children will be the better for singing them and you the better for hearing them. Try it! This paper puts it into your power, almost as a gift.

WELL BALANCED BILL AT PARK THEATRE
Sandor Brothers Are Clever Gymnasts, and Agnes Adie Pleases With Songs
Sandor Brothers, the Napoleonic all gymnasts, head an exceptionally attractive bill at the Park Theatre. Eloise Mortimer has a strong and powerful soprano voice which fills the large auditorium and pleases the hearers. Easily there is no greater than has been seen at this theatre and one has the clearest that has appeared in Toronto is "Gallon," while another special attraction is Miss Agnes Adie, the renowned Canadian soprano. She is a graduate of the Toronto College of Music and has a remarkably clear and sweet voice.

CHINESE CONJURER HEADS BILL AT SHEA'S
Ching Ling Foo and His Troupe of Jugglers and Magicians Do New Stunts
Ching Ling Foo and his troupe of Chinese jugglers and magicians are the big feature of the show at Shea's this week. This is the first time that Ching has ever appeared in Canada. He was billed here once before in 1898, but the American authorities refused to allow him to re-enter the United States if he crossed the border and his appearance had to be canceled. By putting up a bond of $1,000, Jerry Shea was able to secure the Chinese conjurer for this week, and judging by the exhibition of his art as shown yesterday, he is certainly worth the customs impost and more. His chief feats consist in producing all sorts of objects from a bottle of magic water out of an apparently inexhaustible bottle. His daughter, Miss Choo Toy, adds novelty to the act by singing popular songs while diabolically performing stunts with the back. But Fisher is back with his interesting but always interesting "The Girl From Jack's" and "Casey in Society," comedy burlettas entitled "The Girl From Jack's" and "Casey in Society," in which Gladys Sears, the rich and Tony Kennedy are featured. The act is a high order. Gladys Sears, the baby doll comedienne, sings well and introduces a number of new parodies. Jesse and John Powers, singers and dancers, are good. Collins and Hawley in their comedy skit "A Professional Souze," were well received.

DON ROWING CLUB ANNUAL BANQUET
Prominent Public Men Cast Bouquets at East End Club—Pres. Thompson Ill.
The first annual banquet was held last night at the Grand Union Hotel, and the affair was a huge success. A very large attendance was on hand, and the interest in the club and the coming season was in evidence throughout the whole evening. In the absence of President Joe Thompson, who was unable to be present because of illness, Past President Crawford made a splendid master of ceremonies, and under his direction the affair was a success. The evening was run off in great style. Among the guests of honor were Hon. A. E. Kemp, Mayor Hooker, ex-Ald. Sanderson, Major Heron, Harry Sutherland and Joseph Wright.

THUG NEARLY KILLED A CUSTOMS OFFICIAL
Archibald Sharp Received Glancing Blow on Head—Assailant Escaped.
LONDON, April 13.—Archibald Sharp, appraiser of customs, who has just returned from a visit to St. Catharines, was the victim of a brutal attack in that city on Thursday night. The assailant used a heavy lumber wagon double-tree pin as a weapon, and doctors who attended Mr. Sharp here state that he probably would have been killed had not the blow he received been a glancing one. As it was, Mr. Sharp was rendered unconscious, and his head was badly lacerated. The thug, escaped before pedestrians, whose attention was attracted by sound of the scuffle, could hold him or obtain a sufficient view of him to furnish a description.

MOTION PICTURE PLAY BEST ON LOEW'S BILL
There is little doubt but that "Lord Chumley," a motion picture drama in four parts, is the best feature of a moderately good bill at Loew's Theatre this week. This is a really clever and amusing drama, and one of the best yet shown at this house.

TAYLOR'S TANGO GIRLS AT STAR THEATRE
Bertha Rich Makes Hit in Scottish Number With Chorus of Highland Lassies
Charles Taylor's Tango Girls, the attraction of the Star Theatre this week, is without a doubt one of the best around burlesque organizations in the city. Gladys Sears, the baby doll comedienne, sings well and introduces a number of new parodies. Jesse and John Powers, singers and dancers, are good. Collins and Hawley in their comedy skit "A Professional Souze," were well received.

"GOLDEN CROOK CO." PLEASING BURLESQUE
Many Popular Stars Included in Cast, and Chorus is Chic and Clever
The return of the ever-popular "Golden Crook Company," to the Gayety Theatre at this week is bound to be one of the burlesque hits of the season, if yesterday's performance are any criterion. A packed house greeted both performances at the music, humor, with some clever dancing mixed in, drew round after round of applause.

EPHRAATA, Wash., April 13.—The Great Northern Sheep Shearing Company has begun operations at Ephrata and is shearing sheep at the rate of about a thousand in an eight-hour day. The company is using shearing machines, and if they prove as successful as anticipated a large plant will be installed and inducements will be offered to sheep men in all parts of the northwest to ship their sheep to Ephrata for shearing. An operator sheared a sheep in sixty-three seconds. There are about twenty thousand sheep in the corral and many thousands more are being held in this vicinity awaiting the shears.

GOUNOD'S REDEMPTION BY JARVIS ST. CHOIR
Under the auspices of the University Alumnae Association Dr. Edward Broome's oratorio chorus repeated the rendition of Gounod's "Redemption" in Convocation Hall last evening, which they gave in Jarvis street Baptist Church on Good Friday evening. Last night's concert was even more successful than that of last week, and even in the spacious Convocation Hall the volume of the hundred voices composing the choir made itself felt. Among the choir there was a number of exceptionally good soloists, although the choral work was perhaps the most conspicuous. Under the leadership of its conductor, Dr. Broome, the chorus has attained a high state of efficiency, and he has shown himself to be capable of obtaining the finest shades of tone, for which Gounod's masterpiece gives ample scope.

Canadian Press Despatch.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—The economic question of tolls exemption was considered today by the inter-oceanic canal committee, to the virtual exclusion of the treaty obligation involved and neither aspect was in evidence elsewhere about congress.

At the White House, however, President Wilson reaffirmed his belief that repeal of tolls exemption from tolls granted to American coastwise ships would not constitute an interpretation of the Hay-Puncoate treaty, but merely would indicate the unwillingness of this country to bring up the question of discrimination.

The president agreed with the views recently expressed by Secretary Bryan that no American coastwise ships pending the repeal bill reaffirming the sovereignty of the United States over the canal.

Economic Aspect. Before the canal committee, E. T. Chamberlain, federal commissioner of navigation, and Prof. S. S. Huebner of the University of Pennsylvania, discussed the economic question of tolls exemption in a general way. Prof. Huebner for two years was employed as an expert by the inter-oceanic canal committee, and data which he compiled as to the coastwise shipping at that time was laid before the committee today for its information.

Chamberlain declared his belief that the U. S. had no right to exempt any of its shipping from payment of tolls unless it specifically proposed that the government should meet the expense of passing the exempted ships thru the canal, and that the exemption should not add in any foreign shipping.

Trust Controls Vessels. Prof. Huebner expressed no opinion on the repeal issue, confining himself to his statement that the house committee investigation has shown that 90 per cent of the coastwise ships on the Atlantic coast and 50 per cent of those on the Pacific coast were controlled by railroad or other trusts.

The evangelist movement was launched in Canada in 1867, but it was not until 1864 that the Ontario portion of the church became a separate conference. Two years afterwards Rev. Mr. Schaefer was sent to the Ottawa valley as the first evangelist missionary.

From this the conference has grown until today there are churches of this denomination scattered all over Canada. Delegates will be present from as far east as Timbuctoo and from the Province of Alberta.

Four bishops will be in attendance: Bishops Bowman of Allentown, Pa.; Horn of Cleveland, Dreyfoote, Reading, Pa.; Spreng of Naperville, Ill.

Seven Arrests Followed Triple Murder at Boswell, Pennsylvania.

SOMERSET, Pa., April 13.—John and Joseph D'Angelo, cousins, were shot and killed and Mrs. Frank D'Angelo, Joseph's mother, was dangerously wounded at Boswell, near here, today.

Mrs. D'Angelo was awakened by the sound of shooting, and hurrying to the rear of the house fell over the bodies of the boys. She stooped to lift one of them when a fusillade of shots came out of the darkness. She crawled back to the kitchen and gave the alarm.

Seven persons were arrested, five of them blood relatives of the D'Angelo family. The boys were returning home from Easter festivities at the house of a friend. The police know no motive for the assassination.
