SERIOUS MENACE TO MONTREAL SHIPPING

Probability of St. Lawrence Route Remaining Without Adequate Dry Dock Accommodation for at Least Five Years—Dock That Will Take Large Tonnage is Needed.

OTTAWA, Oct. 30.—(Special).—In the general impression prevailing in maritime circles that the harbor commissioners of the Port of Montreal had about concluded arrangements with Messrs. Vickers, Sons & Maxim for the construction of a dry dock in the eastern part of the harbor, it is learned on the very best authority that, not only will the Montreal project fall thru, but that the recent announcement of a dry dock at Levis was premature. In other words, that there is every probability of the St.
Lawrence route remaining without any adequate dry dock accommodation for at least five years to come, and from enquiries at headquarters this deplorable state of affairs comes from the fact that, if Quebec influence has been able to secure a dry dock for Levis, they have been strong enough to prevent a progressive policy being carried out at the head of steamship navigation.

A first-class dock possesses a capacity for ships of 25,000 tons, and a second-class for those of 15,000 tons, and in order to show how absolutely necessary it is to provide a first-class dock for Montreal, one only has to consider the following figures. Fifteen years ago the largest ship coming to the Port of Montreal was 6000 tons, ten years ago 10,000 tons, and to-day 15,000 tons, or an increased tonnage of one hundred per cent. in the same ratio, and of course it will, with a channel deepened to 25 feet, there can be no possibility that ships of 25,000 tons will be coming to the national port of the Dominion.

Second-class Dock Useless.
It will be seen, therefore, that a second-class dock, which would be able to handle a ship of 15,000 tons is simply out of the question. Yet this is what powerful influences are endeavoring to impose upon the growing trade of Montreal, and the port authorities are reported to have related any such project as unjustifiable, it looks as if the whole enterprise will be declared off for an indefinite period.

Shippers decide in fact, that fifteen thousand ton docks were absolutely obsolete in five years' time, if such a policy prevailed.

It is stated here that Vickers, Sons & Maxim were ready to spend five millions on a first-class dock at Montreal, if the Dominion subsidy of three and a half per cent. up to $4,000,000 for a term of 25 years were given, yet they have a second-class affair, the government would get off with a subsidy of three and a half per cent. on $2,500,- 000 for a period of twenty-five years.
In other words, Montreal has to be held up for so small a sum that the difference in the two prices might be wiped out and more by a single accident, which would, of course, be prevented if such a dock were constructed.

The serious part of the business is that ship owners will not put first-class ships into the St. Lawrence trade, unless they are assured that the largest dock of the sufficient size to take care of them. While a graving dock cannot be built in less than five years, a narrow floating dock could be assured the opening of navigation in 1912.
In fact, had it been begun last spring, such a dock would have been ready by the first of May, 1911.

Even R. & O. Boats Cannot Dock.
Reports at the department here show that there were twenty-four ships stranded this year on the St. Lawrence, representing a capital of $15,000,000, yet, at the present time, the two largest of the Richelieu & Ontario Navigation Company's boats cannot be docked, so the result of this grand collapse of the dry dock scheme leaves the St. Lawrence trade unprotected for five years at least.

This also means the maintenance of the present high rate of insurance, which, at the present moment, is four times as high against the St. Lawrence business as are the rates out of the port of New York, permitting wheat to be shipped via New York from Fort William at one cent a bushel cheaper than from the port of Montreal. The present situation is, in fact, a menace of a serious nature to the trade of Canada as a whole, and steps should be taken at once by all the commercial bodies to obviate such a disaster to the St. Lawrence route.

ANOTHER YORK FARM SOLD.
The World recorded last week the sale of John Morgan's farm at Willowdale (up Yonge street), his brother Samuel Morgan has also sold his 350 acres (not on a part of Yonge), two and a half miles east of Willowdale.
Options have been taken on several farms in the township near the city.

THANKSGIVING DAY.
It is determined by the ever-flowing, ever-abundant Sons of earthy men, that there shall be one day in every year appointed to what they deem a task of giving thanks for having garnered in their harvests.

Does it not sometime far upon their thought, that one day in the year is very spare which to give thanks for the showers of life and love, and for the dear delight
They take in living thru those fruitful years?

Canada's Thanksgiving

ONTARIO—Premier Whitney, who has been confining to his residence since suffering from a cerebral hemorrhage, was unable to express Ontario's celebration for Thanksgiving. But this province has been blessed with her fair share of general prosperity, and the agricultural community has no reason to feel otherwise than thankful this day. And the recent triumphant inauguration of the Niagara power project is surely not least among the many reasons why Ontarians should feel that this is still the banner province of the Dominion.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND—Prince Edward Island is thankful for an abundant harvest, good prices, general prosperity and confidence, immunity from hurricane, pestilence, earthquakes and great calamities; and for the harmony and good-will existing among all classes of the community.
(Signed) J. H. Comiskey, Acting Premier.

QUEBEC—Quebec should particularly celebrate Thanksgiving Day, because ours is a land of law and order, of increasing progress, of union and happiness, enjoying all the blessings of a kind Providence.
(Signed) Lomer Gouin, Premier.

BRITISH COLUMBIA—The great prosperity British Columbia is now enjoying, expanding trade and splendid results in all lines of industry, together with the certainty of increasing growth and development, are reasons why the people of this province should, with cheerful hearts, celebrate Thanksgiving Day.
(Signed) Richard McBride, Premier.

WORK OF Y. M. C. A. IN FAR-AWAY FIELDS

taries Will Be Required in Three Years—Fred B. Smith Delivers a Strong Address to a Very Large Audience on Sunday.

To-Day's Program

—Morning—
9:15—Devotional address, Rev.
Geo. L. Robinson, D.D., Chicago.
Address on "The Work of the Colored Man," Dr. C. T. Walker, Augusta, Ga.
Report of standing committees.
—Afternoon—
2:00—Address, "What Can the Association Do to Recruit for the Church, Leaders, Lay and Clerical?" Dr. Clarence A. Barbour, New York.
Theme for discussion: "Safeguarding the Boys of a Nation." Dr. Graham Taylor, Chicago; (b)
"From Shiftlessness and Ignorance to Industry and Skill," Dr. Thompson, New York; (c) "From

New York.
—Evening—7:30—Theme: "The Latent Power of the Nation of North America," (a) "Money and Time Power," N. W. Rowell, Toronto; (b) "The Power of the Power," Dr. Clarence A. Barbour.
Closing address, "Some Great Unfinished Tasks in the Work of the North American Association Movement," John R. Mott.

Morning, afternoon and night did delegates and others interested in the International Y. M. C. A. flock to Massey Hall Sunday. At 9:15 a.m. Rev.
George L. Robinson of Chicago gave an address which was followed by a personal workers' conference, Fred B.
Smith of New York, senior secretary of the international committee, leading.
In the afternoon he gave an address entitled "A Fatal Mistake," which was listened to by an audience which crowded the big auditorium, while hundreds of men had to be denied admission.
Mr. Smith is known in Toronto as a man who is particularly adapted to deliver a message to men, his exclusive field as a speaker. His robust build is typical of the kind of Christianity he preaches. His reputation for getting direct results did not suffer yesterday, several hundred men, old, middle-aged and young, coming forward at the close of the meeting in response to his invitation to be enrolled.
On the platform was an assemblage of prominent local Y. M. C. A. workers and delegates from far and near. E.
Samuel Morgan has also sold his 350
acres (not on a part of Yonge), two
and a half miles east of Willowdale.
Options have been taken on several
farms in the township near the city.

That the Y. M. C. A. had developed in spiritual power to an even greater extent than in material possessions during the past decade, was his gratifying statement. The past ten years had been the most important in the history of the organization. In building of material development there had been a gain of 127 per cent., and in internal development, including physical training and education, the number of participants had increased 281 per cent. but in the spiritual life, as per cent. in the attendance at Bible classes and religious work generally, the advance had been 430 per cent.

BRITISH RACER WINS GRAND PRIZE

Grahame-White Wins International Trophy After an Exciting Race in Which French Contestant Met With Accident at the Most Critical Moment.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—(Special).—In a day of the most sensational flying ever seen in any contest, Claude Grahame-White of England, in his 100-horsepower Bleriot monoplane, won the Coupe International d'Aviation at Belmont Park yesterday, and also broke the world's record by doing the 100 kilometre (62.1 miles) course in one hour and four and three-fifths seconds.
The great race saw the thrilling smash-ups of the aeroplanes driven by Alfred Le Blanc of France, and Walter Brookins. A few minutes before Le Blanc was ready to end the race and win the cup, his gasoline gave out and in descending his machine hit a telegraph pole. The pole was cut in two, the aeroplane wrecked and the French contestant slightly hurt.
Grahame-White's average speed of 60.6 miles an hour was exceeded by LeBlanc's average of 66.50 miles an hour, which also was made with a Bleriot of 100 horsepower, but when Le Blanc was on his last lap he crashed into one of the telephone poles along the southeastern part of the course to which the French team have objected so often, broke off the upper part of the pole and fell amid a tangle of telephone wires and monoplane wreckage.

LeBlanc's time for the 19 laps or 52.37 miles, was 52 minutes 49.78 seconds. His first lap was made at a rate of 70 miles an hour. At one time he was going nearly 80 miles. LeBlanc blames his being winged on the forgetfulness of one of his mechanics who failed to fill a gasoline tank properly before the race. The Frenchman says that he noticed during his seventeenth lap that he was running out of fuel. As soon as he had been bandaged up he got some relief from his injuries to body and mind by racing to his hangar in an automobile to fire the mechanic.

Brookins Hurt, Too.
Brookins, in the Wright "baby grand" racer, on which American hopes rested, met with an accident as he was going to the starting line. His aeroplane struck the turf and his aeroplane turned a somersault in front of the grand stand. He was slightly injured and the machine so badly damaged that it was out of the race.

Other French and American aviators made attempts later in the day to wrest the victory away from Grahame-White, but they failed, and the daring Englisher received an ovation from the crowd when it became evident that he would carry the cup to England.
Hubert Latham of the French team just averted plunging into the water when he was about to crash. He was scarcely able to get his aeroplane into the air, but he was rescued by a crowd of men who were packed around the grand stand. He was so close that women screamed in terror, but the Frenchman by an exertion of almost superhuman skill managed to miss them.

Outside the race for the cup, the most sensational evolution seen at Belmont Park was the flight of Ralph Johnstone. While there was a lull in the near-earth racing, the daring American made a flight up into the heavens, an approximate height of 5000 feet. When the eyes of the fifty thousand spectators were on him, his aeroplane, then at a height of about 4000 feet, was seen to turn a complete somersault so swift that the eye was hardly able to follow the manoeuvre.
A moment later it whirled over in exactly the same manner.

Crowd Terrified.
The crowd screamed in horror. It seemed to the thousands in front of the grand stand that the aviator was about to be dashed to earth. The universal terror gave way a moment later, and then he righted his aeroplane and descended in long, graceful sweeps to the centre of the field. When the crowd saw him land safely, fifty thousand voices joined in such a cheer that mont Park has not heard for many a day.

When friends ran up to Mr. Johnstone and asked him about the somersault, he declared that his "loop" was not intentional, and that he had performed them to show his mastery of the biplane. He said he was never in any danger.

DROWNED IN STURGEON LAKE

Rev. Mr. Chidley of Stouffville Victim of Fatality.

LINDSAY, Oct. 30.—(Special).— While out duck hunting at Bald Point, Sturgeon Lake, Saturday morning, Rev. Mr. Chidley of Stouffville met a watery grave.

Mr. Chidley had spent three days in Lindsay here to-day of the drowning of three well known residents of Pembroke, Harry Irwin, knight; Emmett Duff, clerk; and H. B. Christman, a auctioneer.
They were on a duck shooting trip in Mud Lake, and on Saturday their overturned canoe was found by a farmer. Later on the three bodies were found in shallow water. Apparently the canoe capsized, and the occupants could not reach land owing to the deep mud. All were

Sir Thomas Shaughnessy Says If Fiscal Policy is Changed C. P. R.
Will Build North and South.

MONTREAL, Oct. 30.—(Special).— Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, speaking of tariff matters, stated to-day that while west, he was not, of course, looking for tariff reformers, but he neither saw nor heard anything to indicate any serious movement in the west favorable to reciprocity with the United States.
Being questioned as to the extent of the grain growers' movement in the western provinces, the president of the C. P. R. said that as far as he could learn, they were recruited from the farming population, and that their advocate of a change in the tariff was probably confined to farming implements and agricultural machinery.
Speaking of the attitude of the Canadian Pacific up to the present time, Sir Thomas said that their policy was to stimulate inter-provincial trade, consequently their lines, as much as possible, had been constructed east and west, but if a change were made in the fiscal policy of the country, it would lead to the building of roads north and south.
Charles R. Hosmer, who accompanied the president's party to the west, was asked what he thought of the enthusiasm of a Vancouver banker, who in the enthusiasm of the moment had predicted that in ten years the political and financial supremacy of the west would be dominated by the whole country. Mr. Hosmer said that, not being a politician, he would leave the political part of the question to Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Borden, but he still thought that a good deal of water would have flown down the St. Lawrence before Montreal ceases to have a say in the financial destinies of the country. He drew attention to the fact that, altho the western states had developed to a tremendous extent, New York still remained, and will, no doubt, remain for all time the financial centre of the republic.

WILLIAM MACKENZIE HOME

But His Trip to the West Was on Private Matters.

President William Mackenzie of the C.N.R. returned on Saturday evening from the west, where he has been on private business not connected with the company.
"I really haven't any news for you this time," he said to The World. "It is such a short time since I last went west, and any news I might have would be stale by now."
Regarding the rumored objection of Hon. Clifford Sifton to the C.N.R.
Hudson Bay Railway scheme, Mr. Mackenzie said it had not reached him, but he should not be surprised if it were so; Mr. Sifton, however, had very little to do with the matter.

ELECTIONS IN 38 STATES

Prohibition, Woman Suffrage and Conservation Among the Issues.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—Election of state officers, judges of the supreme court, railroad commissioners, etc., Nov. 8. Maine, Vermont, Arkansas and Georgia have held their state elections, but the two latter states will wait from to-morrow elect representatives in congress. Maryland, Mississippi, Virginia and West Virginia, likewise, will elect congressmen, and Vermont have already chosen their congressman and state officers. In 28 of the states, governors and full state tickets are to be elected. In 9 others justices of the supreme court and minor officials are to be chosen, while in Indiana, state officers, except governor, will be elected.
A number of states will elect members of the legislature. The terms of 30 United States senators expire March 2, 1911. The legislatures of Alabama, Maryland and Vermont have elected their senators.
The sixty-second congress will be elected in 1911.
South Carolina and Louisiana have each one ticket—the Democratic.
The prohibition party has tickets in 24 states, and the Independent League has a full state ticket in New York; the People's Independent (Populist), has one in Nebraska, and the American party (anti-Mormon), one in Utah.
Prohibition is an issue in Florida, Missouri and Oregon, and Texas electors will vote incidentally on the question of statewide prohibition.
Three states, Oklahoma, South Dakota and Washington, will vote disfranchise to women, while in Oregon a proposed amendment to the constitution grants to all taxpayers, regardless of sex, the right of suffrage.
Conservation of natural resources will be passed upon by voters of Wisconsin in the shape of a proposed amendment to the constitution, authorizing the state to make annual appropriations for acquiring, preserving and developing water power and forests of the state. In Minnesota, a proposed constitutional amendment authorizes the legislature to exempt from taxation the estates of private persons from taxation for purposes of restoration.

PORTUGUESE EX-PREMIER PLACED UNDER ARREST

Abuse of Power Under His Incumbency.

LISBON, Oct. 30.—Senhor Franco, ex-Premier of Portugal, who held office at the time King Carlos and Crown Prince Luis were assassinated in 1908, has been arrested on the charge of abuse of power during his incumbency.
It is declared by the government that it did not inspire the arrest of Franco, but that it was the result of an investigation held by the judiciary.
The ex-premier has been released on bail.
The government has approved a deree, granting the right to strike, and has named a commission of arbitration to take labor disputes under advice-ment.
Pale green and bright red have been adopted as the colors of the national flag.
A Military Conspiracy.
MADRID, Oct. 30.—A special despatch from Lisbon to The Correspondence de Espana says that a military conspiracy against the government has been unearthed, and that thirty-two officers have been arrested.

Lay of the Late Minstrel.
Lillian White is a colored girl who got out of police court the other day by answering to the name of Lillian Pink. Lillian Pink was up on a charge of "frequenting" and it was the court's intention to let her off on remand. The black White girl got the benefit of the remand and stole away before the error was discovered. A few minutes later the name of Lillian White was called to answer a charge of stealing $5 from Richard Thompson.
Then it was that Lillian Pink, who should have responded before, answered to the call "Lillian White," thinking that "was she that was wanted. The court had to let her go, and a warrant was issued for the arrest of the brunette, who was arrested last night.

FOUND DEAD.

CHATHAM, Oct. 30.—(Special).— Charles Rogers, an aged resident of this city, was found dead in his home here yesterday. He had evidently been attacked by heart failure during the night, and had fallen on the floor.
On the table in his room were found two bottles of whiskey, half empty.
This also indicates in some measure the cause of his death. Rogers of recent years has been a constant fre-quenter of the police court on charges of drunkenness.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

We think that nearly every man and woman and child living in Canada today should feel a grateful heart for Thanksgiving. We certainly are enjoying the proceeds of a beautiful harvest. Mr. W. Dineen of the W. & D.
Dineen Company said this morning that not the least grateful of all the people should be the merchants of Toronto, for theirs has been an increased business, the climax of which seems to have been reached in the last twelve months. "It is surprising," said Mr.
Dineen, "the way Toronto has grown within the last few years. Everyone seems happy, and certainly they look

VIOLENT SCENES IN FRENCH HOUSE

Socialists Attack Premier Briand for His Attitude on Railway Strike, and Call for His Resignation—Vote of Confidence Passed by a Large Majority.

PARIS, Oct. 30.—The debate on the railway strike, in which the government has been bitterly attacked in the chamber of deputies by the Socialists, took a new dramatic turn last night.
During the session, which was not only the most violent in the history of the French Parliament, but rivaled in disorder and turbulence the sessions of the national convention during the French Revolution, Premier Briand himself was the pivot on which the drama turned.
Smarting under the repeated attacks of M. Jaures, the leader of the Socialists, and others, the premier leaped to his feet, and, defending the cabinet's suppression of the strike as a revolutionary outbreak, exclaimed: "The actual laws have been insufficient. We would not have hesitated to have resort to even illegality for the purpose of preserving the fatherland."
An uproar followed these words. The Socialists jumped up, and were joined by a number of Radicals. With shouts of anger they moved towards the tribune, crying: "Resign-dictator; resign-dictator!" Decks were banged, and the premier was a perfect bedlam with the noise of shouts and cheers. One Socialist tried to find his way to the tribune to strike Briand.
Throughout it all the premier stood dignified and calm, and for three-quarters of an hour awaited to be heard. Finally, M. Brisson, president of the chamber, amid cries and imprecations from the Socialists, adjourned the debate until 8 o'clock tomorrow.

NO DICTATOR.

Amid an impressive hush to-day, which contrasted strongly with Saturday's unprecedented passion and furor, Premier Briand, in cool, incisive phrase and accomplished oratory,ayed the Socialists for their violence in forbidding him the right of resignation.
The premier assured the chamber that he was no dictator, but a man of law and order, and at the end of the session his frank appeal for Republican support resulted in a vote of confidence 329 to 152.

Since the days of the Boulanger and Dreyfus affairs no such interest has been displayed in a session of the French Parliament. The chamber besieged the doors at an early hour, and unable to secure entry, assembled in the square, the streets and on the Pont de la Concorde, and waited for hours in the rain to learn the outcome.

A Dramatic Scene.
Following M. Reynaud, who justified the premier's words by the axiom that a great national crisis would justify the neglect of the government's M. Briand mounted the tribune, and silence fell over the house. He said that his remarks yesterday were entirely misunderstood, because the socialist party and disorder did not permit him to complete his statements.
What he tried to say was that in grave hours of national peril exceptional measures were justified. Never had he neglected the government's silence fell over the house. He said

MOTION TO IMPEACH PREMIER.

A resolution introduced by the socialists impeaching M. Briand for his "dictatorial crushing down of wages, and neglect of the government's vital interests of the nation." A scrinity of the vote shows that 100 Radicals, who ordinarily support the government, joined the socialists.
Subsequent to the session, bands of royalists and anti-parliamentarians held demonstrations in front of the chamber and in the boulevards. The police dispersed the crowds, and made a score of arrests.

HYPNOTISM AND THE DRAMA.

Psychology as a basis for stage fiction has come to be regarded as an appealing subject by dramatists whose professional fingers are wont to play with the public pulse. Charles Klein, the successful author, whose plays,
"The Lion and the Mouse," "The Third Degree" and "The Music Master" have proved three of the most conspicuous successes of recent years, is a pioneer in the field of psychological drama.
In "The Third Degree" Mr. Klein presents his ideas in tense fashion. The big scene shows a young man of limited mentality swaying under the influence of a master hypnotist, whose connection the author takes occasion to express his belief in the potency of hypnotic suggestion, as it is admitted by police officials in obtaining the confessions from prisoners suspected.

HAMILTON HAPPENINGS

HAMILTON TEMPERANCE MAJORITY CANDIDATE

George H. Lees the Choice—Will Give an Answer by Tuesday.

HAMILTON, Oct. 30.—(Special).—George H. Lees is the choice of the Hamilton Temperance Federation for majority candidate in the next election. Whether or not he will run is another question, but it is expected that he will make a definite announcement on that point by Tuesday. A special committee was appointed at a meeting held on Saturday night to wait on him and ask him to be a temperance candidate, and when it met him last night he stated that he was not prepared to give an answer just then. The temperance people are hoping that he will accept, as it is believed he would make a strong run. In favor of the hydro-electric poles, and for that reason would receive a lot of support outside the temperance ranks. Being a man who has been more or less in public life for many years, he has numerous friends, whose support, it is thought, is assured.

Like Church of Babylon.

The annual sermon of the local Orangemen, in celebration of the 30th anniversary of the gunpowder plot, was preached in St. Matthew's Church this afternoon by Rev. Canon Howitt. He said the Catholic Church was just like the Church of Babylon, it was shrouded in mystery. The Book of Revelation was under the ban of the Catholic Church, because in it the Catholics saw a revelation of themselves. He said it was outrageous that to be held in honor and asked if there was any other city in which that could be done. He said the Masonic lodges were helping Mexico to overthrow the Catholic Church, and that was the reason the latter was opposed to secret societies.

License Inspector Stridy Made a Raid on the Home of Tony Quinn.

387 North Sherman avenue, last night, and seized a quantity of liquor. There were 35 men in the house and 18 of them were around a keg of beer, it is alleged. A charge of selling liquor without a license will be laid.

There was a serious runaway on Wellington-st. on Saturday afternoon, as a result of which Mrs. Everett of Hayesland had three ribs broken, and was otherwise injured. She was minding a team of horses, while her husband was delivering some vegetables at a house, and the horse took a drink from a fountain near King-st., and she was thrown out. She was taken to the City Hospital unconscious. The fountain was wrecked.

A Strange Coincidence.

The death occurred to-day of Mrs. Ibbot, wife of Rev. T. H. Ibbot of Barton. Her little baby died a week ago, and a strange coincidence in connection with her death was that her mother, Mrs. Taylor, died a year ago to-day. The interment will take place at Burlington on Wednesday.

THEY ACTUALLY DO THE WORK

Food Eaten is Worthless Unless Digerated—Some Stomachs Must Have Help.

Food taken into the stomach, which, from the nature of the food or the condition of the stomach, is not digested, is worse than no food at all. This is a true statement as far as it goes and a great many dyspeptics go only this far with their reasoning. They argue with themselves that because their stomachs do not do the work given them, they must be given less work; in other words, they must be starved. It would be just as sensible to argue that with a sensible business man employs help and goes forward with his business. Likewise the sensible dyspeptic will employ help for his stomach and give his body proper nourishment.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets actually do the work assigned to them. They relieve weak and overburdened stomachs of a great portion of digestive action. Their component parts are identical with those of the digestive fluids and secretions of the stomach, and they simply take up the grind and carry on the work just the same as a good, strong, healthy stomach would do it.

On this account Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are perfectly natural in their action and effects. They do not cause any unnatural or violent disturbance in the stomach or bowels. They themselves digest the food and supply the system with all the nourishment contained in what is eaten and carry out Nature's plans for the sustenance and maintenance of the body.

How much more sensible is this method than that employed by many sufferers from weak stomachs. By this means the body and brain get all the good, nutritious food they need and the man is properly nourished and equipped to carry on his work and perform his duties. He could not possibly be in proper working condition by starving himself or employing some half-fancied, insufficient food that does not contain enough nutriment for a year-old baby. A strong man doing strong work must be properly fed and this applies to the brain as well as the body.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, by relieving the stomach of its work, enable it to recuperate and regain its normal health and strength. Nature repairs the worn and wasted tissues just as she heals and knits the bone of a broken limb, which is of course not used during the process of repair.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for sale by all druggists at 50 cents a box and they are the one article that the druggist does not try to sell something in the place that's just as good. Their unequalled merit and success and the universal demand for them are shown by the fact that they are benevolent city in America, Mr. Smith declared that, encouraging as had been reports from other cities engaged in building campaigns, that of Toronto broke all records.

Four Dangers.

Taking as his theme the obstacle presented by riches to the attainment of true religion, the speaker attacked four warnings. Riches did not consist in dollars alone. Physical power was a form of wealth which might constitute a spiritual danger. He had learned that men with great exuberance flowing thru their lives were particularly subjected to worldly temptation. The man who was a millionaire in good feeling was about the last to be attracted to God.

"Some men are kept as much out of the kingdom of God by grabbing at ten dollars a week as if they had a million," he declared.

Secondly, warning was needed for the man who, when spoken to about the claim Christ had on his personal life, said he was doing his duty as he observed the moral laws. No standard of morality alone was equivalent to personal salvation. God didn't make little bargains whereby one man wasn't to gamble and another to steal. Christ demanded the heart and service.

Can't Gamble With Life.

A third warning was that no man could afford to gamble with his life. He could afford to gamble with his life. He but he must take no chances with his life and its opportunities. Worldly aims should yield to the strivings after spirituality.

That no nation was worth anything unless it served God was a final warning. No nation, possibly excepting South Africa, was growing so fast as Canada. He trembled for its future. A man might get everything that he desired in money and fame, but his life was a failure if he missed the higher things.

While the hall was not filled at night when the addresses on Y.M.C.A. foreign work were delivered, the available space in the top gallery was readily explainable by the fact that thru-out the churches of the city special services were being held. As it was the ground floor and first balcony were filled and thru-out the meeting, which lasted about two and one-half hours, the interest shown was keen. E. R. Wood was chairman.

As a Mission Force.

After the opening prayer by President Falconer of Toronto University, John R. Mott of New York, traveling secretary, spoke of the broad field of the extension movement. The great work of the Y.M.C.A. lay in foreign lands, he said. It was already established in 36 non-Christian nations so securely that, in his travels, he had received the impression that it was actually indigenous. They had sent 100 missionaries, and one and one-half millions were invested in buildings.

The future needs, were, however, great and a committee of experts had reported that, to make proper headway, there should be sent out in the next four years not less than 50 secretaries and 49 buildings should be established. He had come to see that success depended upon wise supervision, expert secretaries and modern buildings.

The Work in India.

E. C. Carter, former national secretary for India, but now connected with the student movement in America, explained that the British Y.M.C.A. organization was unable to undertake the work in India because the movement, although founded in England, had never made the headway there it had in America. The necessity of the work was imperative among the young natives attending

Y.M.C.A. had to contend there with active agencies of evil in the form of rampant immorality.

E. T. Cotton of New York, a foreign work secretary, said, with reference to China, that a nation which yielded 50,000,000 pounds sterling annually to British investors and which had universities that antedated Harvard by 400 years was not to be ignored. In South America, there were 10 states without a Y.M.C.A. branch. Commercial contact with other nations was a menace, intemperance and low business ideals having been introduced.

Extension in China.

Robert E. Lewis, who founded the Singapore branch, spoke vigorously of the work in China. He said the branch had taken in in fees $5000 more than expenses.

An eloquent and urgent appeal for further extension in China was made by P. S. Brockman, the national secretary. He declared that, in his belief, no other nation of people, in with the genius of the Y.M.C.A. so quickly and so abundantly responded, yet there was only one branch there, and one physical director for 400,000,000 of people. He greatly deplored that such large cities as Kiang-kow and Hongkong were without a branch.

A special collection for the foreign work was taken up and the result will be announced to-day. Mr. Mott stated that at least 90 secretaries should be sent out in three years, and that maintenance for 16 had already been provided.

Saturday's Sessions.

After two hours strenuous debate, the convention decided Saturday that there shall be no change in the present evangelical basis of the association, which provides that only members of evangelical churches shall have a vote in the association's government. The question of whether any change is desired was referred to a committee of fifteen.

The discussion followed the report of the commission appointed three years ago to investigate the desirability of rephrasing the definition and the recommendation by Bishop William F. McDowell of the commission that the definition of evangelical be that adopted by the federal council of the churches in America.

Judge Spencer moved as an amendment that the historic basis adopted at Portland, Me., in 1840 be adopted. The amendment was seconded by Fred B. Smith of New York.

The second day of the convention opened with a devotional service. The Rev. Dr. George L. Robinson, Chicago, spoke on "The Decency of Money."

Joseph Thomson, formerly of this city, died in London on Friday. The remains will be interred in Hamilton Cemetery to-morrow morning.

Not Materialistic.

From the newspapers, he said, people might have the impression that the accumulation of wealth was the objective of the Y.M.C.A. He declared groundless the fear that the advance of the association in material moral forces. The increase in lines of religious work, he declared, had been ten times as great as the advance in property.

EASTERN GARDENS

The Man With a Garden Solves the Problem of the High Cost of Living

Have you ever figured how many of the things that have increased in price could be produced on a half-acre lot? Some things are as cheap as they ever were, but the ones that cost more are fruits, poultry, eggs and vegetables.

EASTERN GARDENS is an ideal spot for a self-supporting home. A half-acre would produce sufficient to supply a large household. An acre would produce a surplus that would pay for the property in a short time. Eastern Gardens location is high, healthful and beautiful. It commands a splendid view of Toronto, and is within one mile of the city limits.

At the present price—$300 to $600 a lot—it is exceptional value. It will be higher in the spring.

See Eastern Gardens on Thanksgiving Day

Our automobiles will meet you at Queen Street East and Kingston Road all day, and we will take pleasure in showing you this beauty spot. Come with us to-day.

You do not commit yourself to purchase, and it will cost nothing to investigate.

ARGOS DEFEAT OTTAWA STUBBORN RUGBY GAME

Some Great Inside Football Displayed on the Line at Rosedale—Rugby Gossip.

The four thousand or more people who saw the Argonauts defeat the Rough Riders of Ottawa by 11 to 4 at Rosedale Saturday witnessed a game worth going a long way to see.

In many respects much better football has been witnessed at Rosedale, but few matches have been more stubbornly contested. This is saying a lot, as the game on the two Saturdays preceding were hard fought all the way.

Argonauts made several changes on their line. Sinclair was taken off the line and put in the scrum, along with Addison, formerly of Parkdale, while Kenzie, Huetter and Wigie were the new men on the line. This necessitated the dropping of the two Browns, Bill Grant and Moore.

The back division was left the same last Saturday, which proved a wise move, as the players are becoming acquainted with one another and play well together. Ottawa used the identical same team that defeated the Hamilton Tigers in Ottawa the preceding week.

The opposing lines had a busy afternoon, and some great inside football was the result. Wigie, Huetter and Bancroft were always prominent whenever Argonauts were trying to gain ground by bucking, and Pud Kent worked like a beaver, as also did Banty Russell, Phillips and Church were the most prominent in close work for Ottawa, while Kilt featured at outside wing for his team. Both sides found the bucking very hard, and if there was any advantage to this style of play, it was in the Argonauts' favor.

Newport and O'Neill, the opposing quarters, both played good football. The former, the small, gets thru an opposing line in good style.

It was on the back division that Argos were more prominent, not so much in kicking and catching as in judgment shown. Take for instance, on an exchange of punts, the Argonauts' efforts were concentrated on making the play sure, while Ottawa, after making a catch, would attempt a passing game, with Argos wings all around them, in the hope of gaining more ground, but which generally resulted in either a bad pass or a loss of ground.

This argument was plainly seen when Williams decided to run himself instead of passing, as he made great gains on two particular occasions. The passing game in his case to witness and very effective, but should only be attempted after considerable practice by players who are familiar with one another's style of play; for, should it go wrong, it generally means a loss.

Binkley lost nothing in an exchange of punts with Williams. He was at all times cool and stood considerable punishment from the Ottawa forward line. Leveck did some nice running, and his fast following up on one occasion resulted in a try, which Binkley converted. Murphy caught well, but was too closely watched to be as effective as on some former occasions.

But mention must be made of Jimm Dissette at full-back, who put the Argos all times being fine. He caught well and ran back several punts dangerously near his own line, and also saved nicely from the fumbles made that might have resulted in scores. Gerard and Johnston ran well, and Kennedy relieved Williams with some of the kicking. Murray, the Argonauts' wing, was the most prominent of both teams, and is fast developing into a great player, and he continues to improve as he has during the last couple of games will be classed among the stars at his position.

Ottawa won the toss, and with the wind behind them and the sun in their opponents' eyes, started in to force matters. They secured a try in the first quarter. This was the only scoring in the quarter, but several nice plays were made. Murphy and Dissette both made nice runs, and Wigie bucked well. Kilt was very prominent in following up, and Williams' kicking was good.

Play was even for the early part of the second quarter, with both backs doing some fine running. The ball went to Ottawa, head-ball line for Argos' first score. Leveck followed up one of Binkley's kicks and secured a try, which was the only scoring in the quarter. Huetter and Wigie were very prominent in following up, and Williams' kicking was good.

Parkdale 41, S. M. C. 6. St. Michael's met their 'Waterloo' on Saturday afternoon in a Junior O. R.F.U. game with Parkdale at Trinity College campus. From the start, Parkdale seemed the better team, and early commenced to pile up the score.

Parkdale (41): Full back, Adams; halves, Hunter, Cumming, Henderson; quarter, Graham; scrum, McNeil; wings, Skuce, Russell; wings, Clarke, Mollard, Macdonald, Pell, Jepson, Brown. St. Michael's (6): Full back, McNeil; halves, Brown, Doyle, Seaman, quarter, Hart; scrum, Hogan-Smith, O'Leary; wings, Ryan, Mahoney, O'Boyle, Kellner, Fee, Gorman.

Queens 14, McGill 10. KINGSTON, Oct. 23.—Queens defeated McGill, 14 to 10, on a muddy field, there being a hail storm at the time. The playing against the wind, McGill led the first quarter, 3 to 1. However, Moran's field goal and Elliott's kick in the third quarter, that ended a 10-0 lead to McGill, was ahead at half-time, 10 to 3. McGill dropped on the ball for a try in the third quarter, that ended a 10-0 lead to McGill, was ahead at half-time, 10 to 3.

Queens (14): Full back, Dobson; quarter, G. Reid; wings, Suttler, Elliott, Kinella, Young, Dowling, Smith; scrum, Smith, Overend, Bruce. McGill (10): Back, Brydon-Jack; halves, Billington, Murray, Forbes; quarter, Paisley; wings, Bignell, Rogers, Garthore, Johnson, Gilmore, Goodwin; scrum, Waterhouse, Irwin, Turberville.

R.M.C. Cadets Beat McGill 18 to 0. KINGSTON, Oct. 23.—In a game on Royal Military College campus today, Cadets clinched their hold on the Rugby Union by defeating McGill 18 to 0. The half-time score was 11-0, and three-quarters 18-0. Cadets had their own way throughout, showing great superiority over McGill. There were several accidents, both sides suffering from hard tackling. Cadets will play Varsity II. next week. Look for hard battle. The teams lined up as follows: R.M.C. (18)—Full, Galt; halves, Smith, Robertson, K. Stewart; quarter, Laung; scrum, Irving, Pierce, Young; wings, Sweeney, Arnold, Goldie, Roberts, Gwynne, Lewis.

McGill (9)—Full, Underhill; halves, Duple, Lee, Denys; quarter, Lange; scrum, Gallagher, Barnum, Dixon; wings, Cockfield, Oughtred, Stanton, Digby, McLeod, Wilkes. Referee—Dawson (R.M.C.), Matron (McGill).

Ben Simpson Boots for 14 Points. MONTREAL, Oct. 23.—The Hamilton Tigers defeated Montreal here today, 14 to 7, due to the superlative booting of the old warrior, Ben Simpson. It was even up first quarter, with one score each. Montreal dropped on the ball for a try in the second quarter, leading at half-time, 7 to 2.

The ball was in Montreal territory all the third quarter, but Tigers only tallied one-7 to 4. Hamilton continued to press in the last quarter and also counted, all single points, and one safety. Final score, 14 to 7.

Montreal (14): Full back, Stinson; halves, Craig, Williams, W. Bellie; quarter, Buz Bailey; scrum, Ryan, McAllen, Callie; wings, Egan, J. Ballie, Cameron, Laidlaw, McMurtry, Savage. Hamilton (7): Full back, George Smith; halves, Ben Simpson, Art Moore, Burton; quarter, Avrey; scrum, Craig, Claffier, Scott; wings, Glasford, Gatenby, Barrow, Ishbister, Marshall, McFarlane, Ed. McKenzie and George Ballard, of fields. Tiger point was made on Simpson's grand kicking. The Tigers played an almost faultless game in the back field and won thru superior kicking.

Farthest North It is a recognized fact among distillers that the finest Scotch Whisky is produced in the Highlands of Scotland. In the North, the art of distilling has been handed down from father to son for generations. The Stomness Distillery—established at Orkney over a century ago—is the furthest north of any distillery in the world. The influence is plain. The entire production of this distillery is devoted to 'Old Orkney' Whisky and every drop is bottled by us. McCOLL'S DISTILLERY LIMITED, 3 Front St. East, Toronto.

WHOSE LITTLE BOY IS THIS?

James Marshall is the Name He's Traveling Under.

A peculiar case will confront the magistrate this morning when 12-year-old James Marshall comes before him, charged with vagrancy. The boy was brought into Court-street police station yesterday by an older chap, who roams on York-street. The older one said that a young Marshall had been turned over into his custody two days ago by another boy who left the city. The story he got of the Marshall lad was that his home was at 92 Humberside-avenue, from which he had decamped because he was being beaten.

Pastor Russell's Sermon
The Message of the Hour to the Church and the World...

LONDON, Oct. 30.—Pastor Russell of Brooklyn Tabernacle to-day addressed an audience of nearly four thousand people from the above text. His hearers were of all classes and very intelligent appearing. He had closest attention. He said in part:

God has messages for those who have hearing ears at each great dispensational change in earth's affairs. These messages have generally been in the nature of forewarning of coming distress and the duties therefrom. Such a message was given to our first parents when they were expelled from Eden—accursed would be the ground for their sakes. Thorns and thistles it would bring forth unto them. In sweat of face they should eat bread thereof until they should return to the ground, from whence they came. Another great message went forth at the time of the tower another before the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah; another at the close of the Jewish age, when Jesus and His apostles called attention to the prophecies which foretold the divine rejection of the nation of Israel for a time and declared that all things written in the law and the prophets concerning them would have fulfillment, quoting the prophecy which declared that their house would have neither prophet, nor vision, nor priest, nor ephod for many years, but that eventually God's favor would return to Israel; that He would gather them again and fulfill to them, everlastingly the blessing promised both to Abraham and to His descendants—the sure mercies of David.

A week ago we considered the prophetic message, "Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God" (Isaiah xl, 1). We noted then that the due time has arrived for the fulfillment to Israel of this comforting message—viz. as a people the appointed time for the return of favor to them is accomplished because their two-fold discipline for sin have been fulfilled. Thus our present day is clearly marking the words of our text following which imply that now is the time for a special message to all, in proportion to each may have the hearing ear.

It is the voice of God which calls now thru various channels and agencies. It cries not from the "City Babylon the Great." It cries not from the "chandel of Christendom," but from the wilderness, from those who are more or less separated; from those who have heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues" (Revelation xviii, 4).

The message of the hour to every hearing ear is: "The Lord whom ye seek shall suddenly come to his temple" (Malachi iii, 1). For centuries you have been praying, "Thy Kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is done in heaven." Now your prayer is about to be answered, whether you prayed in sincerity or in hypocrisy. The glory of the Lord is about to be revealed. "All flesh shall see it together." It will not be revealed merely to one nation, nor merely to one holy class. His glory will be revealed in flaming fire—in judgments. All flesh shall see it—the rich and the poor, the learned and the ignorant, the holy and the unholy. But, as the work everywhere in society—in politics, in finance, in religion. A straight path is certainly being marked out in the wilderness. The people are coming to see gradually what constitutes justice from the divine standpoint—the path that Jehovah God will take when coming to mankind to require an accounting for the blessing of religion and of enlightenments granted to humanity in this, our day. Those who point out to mankind the straight paths do not always walk therein themselves. Nevertheless, the great purpose of the Almighty is being accomplished in the exposures of sin and iniquities, whether made from the Christian pulpit or from the scholastic platform or in the public press. The divine edict is, "Make straight in the desert a highway for your God" (Isaiah xl, 3), show His path of righteousness; make it known to all the people.

We should remember, however, that it is one thing to know the path of righteousness, of justice and of equity, and another thing to walk therein. Let us, my dear hearers, see to it that we not only recognize the divine standards of righteousness and that we proclaim these to all who have the hearing ear, but let us also take heed that we practice what we preach; that we be not condemned in respect to those principles which we allow and acknowledge and proclaim as the golden rule to others. Alas for the hypocrites who proclaim the way of the Lord to others yet ignore that way in their own dealings. We have every reason to believe that honesty is one of the qualities which our God most highly appreciates in His creatures; hence we may be sure that hypocrisy is one of the most abominable qualities in His sight. Hearken to the words of the great teacher, "Woe unto you, scribes and pharisees, hypocrites! for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens, one of your fingers" (Luke xl, 44-46).

Let all who have named the name of Christ; all who in any sense of the word profess to be God's people, put far from them the hypocrites which appear so abominable in others. Let us be honest. Let us practice even more than we ever preached. Let all who belong to the Lord be indeed burning and shining lights in the world—examples of justice and righteousness in their homes, in their neighborhoods, in their workshops and in the markets. Let us not only make straight before our feet the pathway of our God, but let us conform our words and deeds and thoughts thereto. The general result of the uncovering of the hidden things of darkness, and the bringing of them to light, and the proclamation of the straight way of the Lord, will have a great effect, and that effect is declared by the prophet. It will mean a revolution—in symbolical language, an earthquake. Note the picture given: "Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places smooth." Not in one instant will all this mighty transformation of society be accomplished. Not at once will all the degraded members of the human family be brought to the general standard or level. Not at once will the mountains and hills (the kingdoms and the nations of the world) be brought down to the common level. Not at once will this general equalization of society be effected. But it will be effected. "The mouth of the Lord hath spoken it."

The leveling process already is begun. In Germany, for instance, one-fourth of the Reichstag is composed of Socialists, and the fact that the wealthy have several votes to the poor man's one. Already we see the great mountain (or nation) of Russia yielding to the demands of the people and granting them a measure of civil rights. There we see a practical illustration of the lifting up of the valleys and the bringing low of the mountains. In Great Britain we see another wonderful illustration of this principle; for here, more than in any other kingdom of Europe, perhaps, the distance between the mountain top of autocracy and the depths of social degradation, have been lessened so that in Great Britain the change demanded by the new kingdom, Messiah's kingdom, will be less than in many other countries. Here it has come gradually.

The exposure of the frailties of poor humanity—of the shams of society and of religion and of business and politics, declared prophetically of old, against the background, against which the glory of the Lord are being revealed in striking contrast, as the critics of the world mercifully named to the line and effect of our social system. The laying of this primarily will be the arousing of the masses against the classes of privilege. The human shams and ideals will crumble. Their confidence in men will melt. They will give vent to what they will esteem to be a righteous indignation. And so doing they will forget that they are equally as unrighteous, unjust, as the more favored classes, in proportion to their opportunities. Wherein they judge others they should also condemn themselves, and the result should be that mercy which the Lord enjoins.

Only those who forgive others their trespasses—who thus manifest a spirit of love and sympathy—need expect to have mercy, consideration, shown to them by the new King. He will surely punish injustice and unrighteousness of word and deed and thought in the poor as in the rich, in the ignorant as in the learned, in the outwardly religious as in the outwardly profane. The message of the hour to Christian, Jew and Gentile is what it was eighteen centuries ago, "Repent ye, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand." Repent and reform respecting public iniquities, no matter of how long standing, no matter by whom practiced and approved. Repent of and reform from and disown the rank errors to be found in so many church creeds, dishonoring to our Creator. Let us be content with our professions of faith. Repent as respects wrong practices which have crept into our churches, quite out of harmony with the teachings of Jesus and the apostles.

Let us return to the simplicity of the early church. Let us repent of the God-dishonoring statements we have put forth in the name of God and religion and the Bible, by which we palmed off bad tidings of great misery, instead of the true gospel of good tidings of great joy which shall be unto all people. Let us repent of and abandon the falsehoods and misrepresentations so common in business life—the subservience of the truth to money. Let us repent of and put away the dishonesties of the stock exchange, thru which the weak and ignorant financial lambs are deceived and impoverished. Let us repent of the iniquities which abound in nearly every home, even those where Christ is claimed to be the Head—Injustices of

University Sermon

The university sermon yesterday was delivered by John R. Mott of New York, traveling secretary of the Y.M.C.A. extension movement. The sermon was somewhat in the nature of a lecture, the subject chosen being the university student of Russia, and the lessons to be learned from him, or rather from his faults, by students of the world over, and especially in Toronto University.

The students of Russia, said Mr. Mott, are less known than any others in the world. If anyone were asked to name the largest university centre on earth, he would probably think of Paris, Berlin, London, Tokio or Calcutta. But St. Petersburg leads, as a matter of fact, with 30,000 students of university grade, not to mention the scores of others enrolled in secondary schools. In Moscow, too, there is a men's university numbering 11,000 on its register and it is possible, in a long corridor on the upper floor of this great building, to see at one time as many as 6000 men walking up and down, representative of every Slav race of Europe and Asia.

These Russian students constitute a neglected class. They are not only willing, but anxious, to be led to some understanding of the principles of Christianity; but none of their professors or fellows can be found who is willing to serve as a guide. As it is, the name of Jesus Christ, which counts for all that is good and loving to people of other nations, regardless of creed, means to some Russians a babe merely. But to others, that man on the cross, but to the vast majority it signifies all that is horrible in the way of superstition and cruel torture. It therefore easter to convert the Mohammedan, the Hindu, or the Buddhist, than to reopen for the Russian the books he has himself closed.

These Russian students are, however, much more accessible to-day than they were a few years ago, when the surveillance of the secret police was so vigilant, that they should form gatherings and create a revolution, that Mr. Mott had to hold his meetings between midnight and 4 a.m., arrest being inevitable at any other hour. On his last trip all was changed, and the largest public halls were crowded with students, most of them devoid of any religion, with a sprinkling of Jews and priests of the Greek Church. Women attended all the meetings, no matter what the subject, the principle of the Russians being that the questions studied destructively by men and women should also be studied constructively.

The great lesson to be learned from the Russian student, declared Mr. Mott, is that it is impossible for the students of any country to get along without religion. They who have cut loose from all religion, are actually the most religious people on earth; the pagan Russian student has yet to be found who is quite satisfied with his paganism. And they may be sinful, bewildered and confused, but indifferent they are not; they are keen and alert to investigate any new dogma, and willing to pay the price of their investigations and go to the end at any cost.

Lenten Anglican Mission. Preparations are being made to have a general mission in the Anglican parishes of the City of Toronto from March 2 to 12, 1911. Many parishes have already arranged for their mission preachers. The object of the mission is: 1. To convert the unconverted. 2. To strengthen and confirm the faithful. 3. To arouse, inspire and instruct.

TECHNICAL EDUCATION

Address by Prof. Robertson Before Business Women's Club.

The work of the commission on conservation and the royal commission on industrial education and technical education was the subject of an informal address by Prof. T. W. Robertson, before the Business Women's Club, in the technical school auditorium, on Saturday evening. "Conservation," said Prof. Robertson, "is not saving or leaving our resources unused, but it is making everything we have serve to its greatest possible extent." He discussed briefly the work that the commission does through its committees on mines, fisheries, water power and lands, and showed that the proper use of these resources will be of the greatest assistance in upbuilding Canadian national life. Much harm has been done because of ignorance in such matters. An instance of this is the recent failure of the Newfoundland fisheries, which was the result not of any lack of fish in the sea, but of the fact that while Newfoundlanders can catch fish, they do not know how to hunt them. Speaking of the commission on technical education, Prof. Robertson said: "There never was a greater fallacy thrust upon the human race than that Latin and Greek are cultural subjects. True education, the speaker declared, had three elements: Hand and eye training, the development of the intelligence, and social experience. Manual training, which itself is as old as the race, has been too much neglected among us, and in attempting to restate it in its proper place, the royal commission is trying to establish 'the basis to make the nation fit to match the home.'"

A Business Man's Home.

There is a house to rent, well situated on Scarsden-avenue, in a fine, desirable locality, just a few blocks from Queen. It is a carefully built, eight-roomed home, hardwood finished, with every convenience. The owner lives next door at 85 Scarsden. Call him up Park 2334 if you desire to rent a home that will bring satisfaction.

NAVIGATION RESUMED.

CORNWALL, Oct. 20.—(Special).—Navigation of the Cornwall Canal, suspended by a break in the weir, was resumed yesterday, after 24 hours' delay. The old locks were utilized as a weir, and a log dam having been put in, the work of laying a concrete floor in the regular weir, in place of the old timber one, which caused the trouble, is nearly completed.

A THANKSGIVING DAY CHANCE

The fifty acres recently put on the market for gardening purposes was disposed of at once, and we're able to secure another sub-division close by, but one half a mile nearer to Weston, which we are putting on sale starting Thanksgiving Day.

This division adjoins Weston on its eastern limit. It is known as the Bull Estate, and is splendidly rich land with a running stream through it. It will be cut up in one acre lots or more.

Call at the Property Thanksgiving Day—The trip will be enjoyable and you will see some real estate that, with a little work and some watching, will prove ideal garden land and an investment of sterling quality.

Weston Building Lots

We have the pick of the building lots in Weston. Most of them are located in the very heart of the town, and on the height of land. There is waterworks and a splendid electric lighting system. Next year the land will have advanced to twice its present value.

The terms are very easy. The price very low: Five dollars the foot and upwards. Fifty cents the foot down and the balance in $5.00 monthly payments.

Get in touch with us to-day. If you don't want a lot for your new home you can make money quickly by turning over some of this property.

REAPPEARANCE OF THE BLACK DEATH IN ENGLAND

Now Known as the "Pneumonic Plague"—Kills and Rabbits Caused the Outbreak

LONDON, Oct. 30.—England was startled this week by the discovery that pneumonic plague, even deadlier than bubonic plague, is established in Suffolk.

A child in the village of Preston died Sept. 16. The mother and father and a neighbor who had helped nurse the child all died within a few days. The illness was not then diagnosed, but was considered so malignant that 11 neighbors were isolated in a hospital. There have been no other cases since, but a number of rats, hares and rabbits have been found dead all over the countryside. The true nature of the disease was then established.

Official notices have been posted throughout the district, calling on the public to assist in the destruction of rats, which must not be touched with the naked hand, and also warning everyone not to eat hares or rabbits killed in the district.

The introduction of the disease is attributed to plague-infected rats from Odessa grain vessels. The local government board has sent inspectors to organize with the local authorities a campaign for the total extermination of rats in the peninsula of Suffolk, which is enclosed by the Rivers Orwell and Stour. An army of professional rat catchers from all parts of the country has been engaged, while the villagers are busy with guns, traps and poison. Thousands of rats are killed daily, while hundreds are being found dead of the plague. The authorities are determined upon the complete extermination of rats in the district.

The land owners are burying all the hares and rabbits shot on their estates, which the people everywhere refuse to eat. The panic has grown to such an extent that even pheasants, partridges and grouse shot in the neighborhood are refused as gifts. Pneumonic plague is the most infectious and most fatal of all types of disease. It corresponds with the "black death" which from 1348 to 1349 desolated the world from China to Ireland, destroying one-third of the whole population of England.

Bishop Vincent and Higher Criticism. Bishop Vincent of Chicago, preaching in the Metropolitan Methodist Church yesterday morning, spoke of "the injudicious aspect of the few and the misapprehension of the many" as to higher criticism.

To illustrate his subsequent remarks, he told of an imaginary man who took a friend into his bank vault and showed him a mountain of gold ingots; then took him across country into the wilderness and showed him a real mountain of gold ore, saying that he could choose which mountain he would have for his boy. And the wise man chose the mountain of gold in the rough, because of the good it would do the boys to win the results for themselves. "God line of which was inspired and every word of which was made plain," said Bishop Vincent. "Instead, He gave us a great mountain of revelation, with us by the by true endeavor, producing a discipline and faith that no inspired work, in which every sentence and every word was clear, could do."

Seized the Nets. BELLEVILLE, Oct. 30.—Capt. Hunter, game inspector, on Saturday seized about 600 yards of gill net at Weston's Bay. They had been illegally set out.

MONDAY MORNING

ALL THE NEWS OF THE MARKETS. was to be found in The Sunday World, together with illuminative reviews of the week's trading. This (Thanksgiving day) is a holiday on all the Canadian exchanges.

ST. LAWRENCE MARKET.

Receipts of farm produce were large on Saturday. On the grain market 600 bushels and 15 loads of hay were on the market. In the north building there was an immense display of mixed produce of all kinds of desirable fruits, vegetables, butter, eggs, poultry, hoes, flowers, etc., and on the farmers' market in the south building there was the largest supply of butter, eggs and poultry, especially the latter, that has ever been seen since the new buildings were erected and opened.

Trade was brisk, as there were thousands of citizens coming and going all day, as long as the supplies lasted. The turkey market was very active, and a rich reward for some of their hard work during the summer. One hundred bushels sold at 50c to 55c, which is the highest quoted this season. Hay—Fifteen loads sold at $17 to $20 per ton. Dressed Hogs—Prices easy at $10 to $11 1/2 per 100 lbs.

Potatoes—Several loads were reported sold at 60c to 75c per bag. Apples—The supply was the largest, and the quality the best of the season, selling at $1.50 to $2.00 per bushel. Price for the bulk of the crop was $1.25 per bushel, with a few barrels sold at $1.50 per bushel. Poultry—The supply of poultry was the largest ever seen on the market in 14 years, and the prices the best all round during that time: they ranged as follows: Turkeys, 20c to 25c per lb.; geese, 12c to 15c; ducks, 10c to 15c; chickens, 14c to 16c; fowl, 10c to 12c.

Butter—There was a good supply, and a good demand, at firm prices, ranging from 20c to 25c per lb. and some of poorer quality sold at 20c to 25c per lb. Eggs—Supplies of new-laid were large for this season of the year. Prices ranged from 40c to 45c per dozen, the bulk selling at the former figure, although some farmers were asking 50c per dozen.

Market Notes. J. L. Paterson of Swan Bros. was back at the market for that firm. Mr. Paterson was heartily welcomed by his many friends on the market, who were pleased to see him, as he is regarded as a straight dealer. John Barron as usual was on the poultry market and bought tons of the best of the market, in fact he does not buy anything but the best. Miss Etty Beamish of Etobicoke topped the market for 15 turkeys, 221 lbs., all away together, at 24c per lb.; but they were extra quality, and were bought by Mrs. Barron. Mrs. Beamish, it will be seen, got nearly 13c each for her turkeys. One day last week The World said that it looked as if the market was to have a plentiful supply of poultry for the Thanksgiving Day, and there was, as you know, a glut around the market, you could see tons of it, in fact all over the city it was the same. We saw farmers who had driven 20 and 30 miles with loads of live and dressed poultry.

One farmer with a light wagon filled with turkeys, geese and chickens, dressed, sold the load all away together to Mrs. Appleton, turkeys at 20c per lb., geese at 12c per lb., and chickens at 15c. This farmer's little load netted him over $60. We have seen the time when half the money would have been considered a good thing. M. P. Mallon, who does at all times a strictly wholesale poultry business, was up to the neck in dressed and live poultry, and so busy that we could not get an interview with him. It was he who informed us last week that there would be a glut of poultry to supply the Thanksgiving market, which shows he was in touch with the trade. From the amount of business he is doing and has been doing for some time past, we would judge that he would soon have to enlarge his plant to accommodate his many customers and rapidly increasing trade. The Harris Abattoir Company, who had and always have an unlimited supply of the best of all kinds of dressed meats at their wholesale emporium at the St. Lawrence Market, also had tons and tons of poultry of all kinds. They were doing a trading trade, their large staff of employees from the office boy up to Wm. Appleton, the rapidly increasing trade of this business has compelled them to double their floor space and storage capacity at the St. Lawrence Market by taking in the space lately occupied by the florists. This is being fitted up with all the latest

IMPERIAL BANK OF CANADA

DIVIDEND No. 81. Notice is hereby given that a Dividend of the sum of seven per cent (7 per cent) per annum upon the paid-up Capital Stock of this institution has been declared for the three months ending 31st October, 1910, and that the same will be payable at the Head Office and Branches on a Saturday.

By order of the Board, D. R. WILKIE, General Manager. Toronto, 21st September, 1910.

Improved and up-to-date storage appliances. The butchers of the St. Lawrence Market, and the large supplies of dressed meats and poultry, and all seemed to be more than busy supplying their many customers. The fruit and vegetable dealers all were busy, in fact everybody doing business, and the trade in a thankful mood. The farmers especially looked pleased and well satisfied with the good prices they had received.

And last, but not least, the florists, in their new quarters, were doing a thriving business. This change in putting the florists at the entrance to the market was advocated by the World some years ago. The city authorities are to be congratulated for this and many more improvements which is helping to bring back the trade to this famous old market, which on Saturdays is now as large as ever. But we would like to see one or two days during the week like it is on Saturday and there is no reason why there should not be.

Union Stock Yards. There are 148 car loads of live stock at the Union Stock Yards, consisting of 3022 calves and 20 sheep and lambs, 30 calves and 20 horses. The new Grand Trunk Pacific elevator at Tiffin, Ont. (near Midland), which has a total storage capacity of 2,000,000 bushels of grain, has been making a great record during the past 28 months, when it was opened for business. It has handled during that period—without serious delay to vessels or cars—18,804,000 bushels of grain. The maximum amount handled for any one day was 527,000 bushels in 23 hours. The record amount handled during one hour was 40,000 bushels. This sets a high-water record for handling of grain in Canada by modern freepower elevators. In the construction of the Grand Trunk has been the pioneer—and it was the pioneer in erecting the old style of elevators at the various Georgian Bay ports reached by the lines of railway for handling grain. The elevator at Tiffin is a duplicate of the new large elevator at the head of the lakes at Fort William—planned by the same architect—and which was recently opened for the reception of the new crop of grain which is now moving down from the Northwest via the lines of the Grand Trunk Pacific.

BOY SCOUTS' SHAM FIGHT. Thousand Khaki-clad Juveniles to Engage in Don Valley. Nearly 1000 boy scouts will go up the Don Valley and play at the game of staking or jacking for stakers. This will be the first scouting match held in Toronto on such a large scale. There will be between 500 and 600 boys in the attacking force and between 400 and 500 in the defending army. The attackers, under Scoutmaster A. E. Mercer, will meet in Yonge-street, north of the C. P. R. tracks, at 9 a.m., and the defenders, under Scoutmaster Ed. Williams, will meet in Riverdale Park, north of the Gerrard-street bridge, about the same time. The defenders will take up a position in a line across the valley produced east from and parallel with Bloor-street. The attackers will endeavor to penetrate that line in small groups, moving southward from near the C. P. R. tracks. The boundaries are: West Yonge-street, north C. P. R. tracks, east Leslie Junction and the Don Mills-road, and south Bloor-street. Any scouts who are captured will tie their hands behind the ends of their staves and proceed to the rallying ground. They will meet in Riverdale Park and get home by 4 p.m. The different scoutmasters will have copies of a detail map of the district, which was drawn for the purpose in the office of Charles Goad, C.E.

Public Amusements

Nothing could have been in better taste for a popular concert, than the program presented by Frank Weisman on Saturday night at Association Hall, for the second popular concert of the Toronto Symphony Orchestra, which was all of the best class, while the popularity was undoubted and the cordiality of the audience was unbounded.

Herold's ever welcome overture to "Zampa" opened the concert and well as the orchestra to be well organized, and the full tone was only conditioned by the small hall. The strings had great delicacy and sprightliness, especially in the passage following the lovely clarinet solo, and the punctual brass was artistically effective. Greg's tone poem for the strings, "Spring," was given with expert clarity, and a truly lyric consciousness. It was highly applauded, but Mr. Weisman reserved the encore for the "Einführung" by Helmsberger, which followed.

Two movements of Goldmark's "Rustic Wedding" symphony, the "Servant" and "In the Garden," proved that this work will grow more popular by repetition. The former consisted of beautiful passages of the garden movement, closing with the lovely scoring for reeds, cellos and double basses. It was equally meritorious. A fantasy on the "Cavalleria Rusticana" proved to be a great success, and the "Tannhäuser" overture was done with sufficient contrast between the various strings and the audacity of the brass. The final climax was wrought up with a majestic body of tone, introducing the Pilgrim's Chorus for the last time in magnificent style.

Frederic Nizet's well-known and his sympathetic renderings and he exhibited his best qualities in David Popper's "Im Walde." An insistent encore gave the bow an opportunity to put himself right in the orchestral accompaniment. P. Redfern—Hollinshead sang two suites, and found himself in an encore to the second, in response to a recall for Schubert's "Hark, Hark, the Lark," which was artistically rendered. He sang Donizetti's "La Donna Mobile," and captured the attention of the audience by his vocalization. To an insistent second encore he gave Wallace's "Let Me Like a Soldier Fall." He also sang the aria "Onaway, Awake, Awake," from "Havranek's Wedding Feast," by Samuel Coleridge Taylor. The orchestra accompanied this number.

Mr. Weisman and his orchestra are certainly at the high road, and the crowd is right with them. A. E. S. New York's great dramatic organization, The New Theatre Company, with its famous company of actresses and actors, complete stage force from the New York house, and four cars of scenery, property and equipment, is now in the city ready for the performances of "The Merry Wives of Windsor," with which the engagement begins this afternoon and evening at the Royal Alexandra Theatre, also on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings. Wednesday afternoon (the latter at popular prices). The first performance of the "Thunderbolt" will be on Friday night, and it will be repeated Saturday afternoon and evening. Those who have secured seats for Thursday, to see the "Thunderbolt" can have their tickets exchanged, but they are requested to call at once and make this exchange, as the call for seats is very large for the entire week. Because of the length of "The Merry Wives of Windsor," it is necessary to begin promptly at 8 o'clock evening, and 2 o'clock at matinees.

"Checkers," one of the most emphatic hits of the past seven seasons, will open an engagement at the Grand with a special matinee this afternoon. Pronounced one of the most entertaining and one of the best written plays of the day, it is absolutely clean and free from the suggestive. It appeals to all players and pleases all classes. This week at Shea's Theatre, Harry Williams and Jean Schwartz, two of Vienna is the home of high-class Leather Novelties. Our Vienna representative has sent us a shipment of 2,500 pieces, including all the high-style advance fashions. In this consignment of Art Leather Novelties you'll find everything that's worth seeing. It would be impossible for us to make clear to you in print the attractiveness of this merchandise. We invite you to our Leather Goods store display on Tuesday. In this assortment of Art Novelties you will find all sorts of things, such as:

- Bags from $5.00 to $35.00. Purses, $1.50 to $10.00. Vanity Bags, $3.00 to $12.00. Billbooks, Letter Cases, Dollar Cases, Fitted Boxes, Jewel Cases, Leather Baskets, and Fitted Leather Work Boxes, Memo Books, Folios, Music Cases, Glove and Neckwear Cases.

Your Thanksgiving Will not be Complete

Unless you give yourself the opportunity on Tuesday of rejoicing over this pageful of unusual values.

No matter how attractive we try to make the printed page, your expectations must fall far short of the merchandise itself. Every item here represents value that you'll hardly duplicate, for very rarely is such "class" found in combination with such prices.

Just Over a Hundred Suits for Women will be put on sale Tuesday at a price that will surprise every woman who visits our Third floor.

Before we pounced on this little collection they were intended to sell at prices ranging from fifteen to twenty-one dollars.

Our Tuesday price is $11.75; and when you see the smart styles, the fine French serge or all-wool cheviot they're made of, the popular colors, such as light brown, plum, navy and black—you'll wonder how we could buy them, much less sell them for $11.75.

Great Value in Men's Fancy "Victor" Boots for Men Ulsters

These are the best-looking and best-feeling Ulsters a man can wear. They're made of tweeds and ulsterings imported from England, where they know best what ulsters should be. These ulsters have convertible collars, comfortable, neat, whether up or down. Come and see these coats, and you'll not want to leave without one. Our price for Tuesday is $12.50.

"We can't beat them," said an American shoe manufacturer, who was looking over our stock of Victor Boots the other day.

"Canadians who buy imported shoes are certainly getting stuck for the duty, when you can sell shoes like that for four, four-fifty and five dollars."

Note—The "Victor" Boot is owned and controlled by the Robert Simpson Company, Limited. You cannot buy them elsewhere.
