EXIT AND ENTRANCES

A Continuous Laugh at the Grand. It hangs were bargained of at 10 cents apiece the management of "A Night at the Grand" would have realized the Grand Opera House last night a sufficient number of the national debt. H. A. Du Souché, the latest farce, which goes by that title, is the merriest conglomeration of many sally that has been in Toronto in many moons, and in it the clever young author has produced another place that will survive in popularity his two previous successful plays, "My Friend from India" and "The Man from Mexico." In the plot of "A Night at the Grand," Mr. Du Souché has trodden on dangerous ground, for it is a tribute to his cleverness that he does not allow even a hint of indecency or vulgarity in its unfolding. The scene of the play is laid in New Orleans. The story is a very complicated one, but is based on the main fact that, by the mistake of an intoxicated clerk, a man is married, by civil contract, to a woman who he originally intended for his mother-in-law. Mr. Du Souché devotes one act to the making of the marriage, and another to the making of the divorce, and the rapidity of the action of the piece keeps the audience in raptures. The leading company contains a number of clever people. Max Pignat, who assumes the role of Jules Barton, the victim of the mistake, is a capital light comedian, and plays the part with plenty of dash and spirit. The drunken clerk, James Topper, is excellently portrayed by Charles Matthews, while Judge Potter of Clayton White, who will be remembered as Dick Bond's leading man in "The Old Code" Company, is a capital character sketch. Louis James, the tragedian, who for several seasons played a leading part in James J. Corbett's "A Naval Cadet" production, is a capital role which fits him to a nicety. Meta Maynard, Rose Dore and Ann Warrington are fair to look upon and deserve a capacity for the parts allotted to them. The Hammer's interpretation of the unconventional role of Madame Augustine Dupont cannot very well be improved upon. The wretched weather accounted for the comparatively light house last night, but tomorrow afternoon and night it will doubtless be well patronized.

Last of "Town Topper."

Only three more opportunities remain to see World, Cornhill and Mack in "Town Topper" at the Toronto Opera House. Tomorrow's matinee will be a "bargain" one at the usual low prices.

A Good Concert.

There was a fair attendance last evening in West Association Hall, and the entertainment given by the Toronto College of Music and School of Expression was well appreciated.

The musical portion of the program was supplied by the Misses E. Kennedy, A. Montan and Mabel Telt, and Harold Bailey. A dialog was given by Messrs. Ritchie and Harold, and a couple of well-represented sketches by Messrs. Anthes, Harris, Dean Byra and Cow, and the Misses M. Dalby, E. Collins and I. Ritchie.

Two Girls Lost and Found.

Twice, Nov. 10—Ida Tebo, 10, and Julia Tebo, 12, living near the village of Pillsbury, left their homes together recently at 4.30 in the afternoon to drive in the cattle from the mountain farm. They did not find the cattle, but wandered on and finally lost their way. They sought shelter from the rain under an overhanging rock. They were found next morning by a search party almost completely with cold and fear.

WHITES GO OUT ARMED AND DESTROY THE OFFICE OF THE NEGRO NEWSPAPER, THE PRESS, EVEN MINISTERS JOIN IN THE MOB-LATE REPORT SAYS EIGHT PERSONS HAVE BEEN KILLED—MORE TROUBLE IS EXPECTED

The Trouble in Wilmington, N. C., Has Reached Serious Proportions.

Whites Go Out Armed and Destroy the Office of the Negro Newspaper, the Press, Even Ministers Join in the Mob-Late Report Says Eight Persons Have Been Killed—More Trouble Is Expected

Wilmington, N. C., Nov. 10.—The negroes not having complied with the demand of the business men by 7.30 this morning, "the time fixed," a column of 600 armed whites assembled at the corner of Market and Fifth-streets, and at 8.30 o'clock marched to the office of The Daily Record, the negro newspaper, and destroyed all material found in the building. The building took fire, but some assert that this was accidental. Those in command of the whites met say they had no intention of firing the building. As soon as it was discovered that the building was on fire, the leaders went for fire engines and water. The negroes were confined to The Record building. On the south, only 20 feet distant, is St. Luke's, one of the "largest negro churches in the city, and on the north within 12 feet, a frame building occupied by negroes. The Record building is a wreck, being almost totally destroyed. It is feared the negroes will attempt to retaliate tonight. The streets are now full of armed whites, and at least 1000 men will be on guard to-night. The column that moved to the Record office was composed of the best citizens of Wilmington, and the whites are now full of anger, and the city with Winchester.

The negro laborers in the Champion Company—more than 500—became terrified at 11 o'clock by wild rumors of trouble and rushed into the streets. They were finally somewhat quieted and dispersed in small squads to their homes.

Six Have Been Killed.

At 11.30 a.m. serious trouble occurred in the First Ward. A mob of whites, three negroes have been killed. Large companies of armed citizens have gone to the scene. The negroes are reported to have been killed by the mob. The police have been telegraphed to for help.

ARMED MEN ON THE STREETS

And the Negroes Ran in Terror Into Their Homes.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Star special from Wilmington, N.C., says: Events have moved quickly in Wilmington this morning and the white people have made good their threat to destroy the negro newspaper, the Record, which published the editorial derogatory to white women. At 7.30 o'clock the negroes, not having responded to the demand for the removal of the press of the Record (the negro newspaper), or Representative Waddell, the chairman of the white Citizens' Committee, went to the Light Infantry Armory, where he was to meet the citizens by appointment. Eight o'clock was the last hour of grace passed without an answer being received. The citizens then waited half an hour for reinforcement, and then the mob of whites gathered in the wide street in front of the armory. They carried rifles, shot guns and ammunition, and the scene was a picture of chaos.

BEET SUGAR IN EUROPE.

Large Falling Off From Last Year's Production.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Congress Britain has made a report to the State Department in regard to the beet sugar cultivation of Europe, from which it appears that the production of beet sugar in Europe for the present season will fall 37,000 tons short of the production of last season. The deficit is the only country in which an increase is shown.

To Be Born Toronto.

Mr. J. Enoch Thompson has made a proposition to the City Council to open a Toronto information bureau at Niagara Falls, which he proposes that the office shall be located on the principal street, and that it will contain all kinds of information in regard to the attractions of this city. Each attraction as it comes up will be fully bulletined and detailed information will be given to the thousands of people who visit Niagara Falls during the summer season. Mr. Thompson proposes to render this service to the city gratis provided the latter will supply the necessary space. The probable amount to $50 a month. Mr. Thompson is not doing this from a purely monetary point of view, but expects to make a decent salary from the sale of railway tickets and in connection with an agency business with Toronto hotels.

Royal Dental College.

The Royal Dental Society in connection with the Dental College held its first meeting of the season, in which a very interesting program was given, including a song by Mr. Fred Murray; papers, read by Mr. Wm. and Dr. Hoare, concluding with a two-piece concert by K. C. Campbell and Laid, three-round contest by Robertson and Bartlett. Doc Henderson acted as referee and declared in favor of Reid in the first and a draw in the second.

A Popular Lecturer.

Miss Maryah Barakat gave her lecture on "The Blood Covenant" last night in the Queen-street Methodist Church. This lecture was the last of the covenant series, but this evening Miss Barakat will lecture on "The Ten Virgins" or "The Bride of the Lamb." Miss Barakat is proving herself a popular entertainer, as her audience increases every evening.

Reappears Next Tuesday.

Yesterday the County Judges of York, Peel and Ontario heard the appeal of the Toronto Electric Light Company against the city's assessment of $88,000 on their buildings on Teraulay-street and the Esplanade. The company accepted the assessment of $23,075 on the land, but wished the assessment on buildings reduced to $24,000, their present market value. Further argument will be heard next Tuesday.

Detective vs. Constable.

Judge McDougall handed down judgment yesterday in the suit of Detective Verney against Constable Guller for damages on account of a defective drain running from the policeman's house through that of the detective. An injunction preventing it was also asked. The judge awarded Verney $15 and costs, and the injunction was stayed. The injunction was ordered for ten days.

Boats Held by the Storm.

Port Jervis, Nov. 10.—This morning the wind blew down the upper story of W. B. Clark's new brick house, now in course of erection. The steamer Topoka, which left here yesterday morning, had back here for shelter. The following boats at the wharf, and the steamer Gov. Smith, steamer Topoka, steamer Bermuda, barge Grampian.

Personal.

The many friends of Mr. T. A. Weldon, Toronto manager of the E. B. Eddy Co., will be pleased to hear that he is rapidly recovering from his serious illness and hopes to be at business again in the course of a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. McConkey are making a trip across the continent and the World letter from them at Cheyenne, Wyoming, saying the sands are quite hot there and that the Overland Limited, via the Chicago and Union Pacific, and the Northwestern Line, is the best way of reaching the West. Mr. McConkey met Mr. Bert Bennett, who is travelling passenger agent of the Northwestern Line and an old Toronto man.

"MUSICIAN'S WALK"

Says Mr. C. Lee Williams, the Celebrated English Organist.

He is a Renowned Critic—Comes as an Examiner of the Associated Board of the Royal Academy of Music and Royal College of Music—A Keen Personality—Elementary Knowledge Lacking in Canadian Musicians.

"Let the present grand progress go on a few years longer, and Canada will hold its own against the world." So said the celebrated English organist, Mr. C. Lee Williams, at the Queen's Hall, in his address to the whites and blacks at the celebration of the centenary of the birth of the late Sir George Frederic Handel. Sunlight's Legal Position

Sunlight Mantles have never had a decision against them in any court in England. The Sunlight was found to be in violation of the Law of the Court of Justice. The decision was again in favor of the Sunlight.

We do not expect any action brought against the Sunlight by the Assoc. Co. Y. Any attempt to bring such an action would be a waste of money. The Sunlight is a well-known brand and its quality is guaranteed.

Can't Give a Man Ears.

"Do you think, Mr. Williams, that a man cannot naturally distinguish between a good and a bad sound?" asked the organist of the Sunlight. "No, I don't," he replied. "One man, whom you took for a butler, might play the violin like a drum and the foot."

Mr. Williams' next tour of length will be a visit to the Cape. The recent injustice done to the Sunlight by the Assoc. Co. Y. is a well-known fact and its quality is guaranteed.

Can't Tell a Musician by His Walk.

Mr. Williams laughed at the question if it was possible to tell a musician by his walk. "No," he replied. "One man, whom you took for a butler, might play the violin like a drum and the foot."

Benning's Meeting Will Close Racing in the East.

Ready to Start on Saturday—
Thomas Cat Favorite for Thanksgiving Day Handicap—Racing on Several Muddy Tracks.

Washington, Nov. 10.—The autumn meeting of the Washington Jockey Club begins at Benning's Track Saturday, and the present expectation is that almost every stable of any prominence now in training will be represented. President Preston J. S. Howard says the meeting promises to be the most successful in the history of the organization, an unusually large number of racing people being expected to attend from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and other nearby cities, and will close the legitimate racing season of the year. The stables will go from here to New Orleans.

An interesting program of flat and jumping races has been arranged for the Thanksgiving Day at 2 p.m. a revival of the Washington Cup race, a feature of the sport at the old City track.

There is an assurance of a value of $1700 for this race, and it may be even richer. The distance is that of the regular cup, course 2 1/2 miles, and it is not to be expected that the field will be large. Thomas Cat will probably be the favorite, and some of the horses that may appear as his opponents when the entries close on Nov. 10 are Jefferson, Latsch, Dutch Stater, Don de Oro, Decanter, Sailor King and Whistling Con.

John Belmont, the chairman of the Jockey Club and the New York State Racing Commission, who is Mr. Howard's brother-in-law, has been one of the promoters and maintainers of the Washington Jockey Club. Mr. Belmont and Mr. Howard have manifested their love of racing in virtually every practicable way, but have not yet or anyone else undertaken a better means to popularize the sport than by supporting such meetings as that at Benning's. They are both men of means, and their support is a boon to the poorer owners a chance to make money, and they procure a large number of the country's best horses.

About 300 horses are already here.

Favorites in the Mud.
Cincinnati, Nov. 10.—On account of the cold weather the attendance at Latona was very small, but the racing was good, and the betting was excellent. Summary:

First race, 1 mile, selling—Cordell, 7 to 1; 2 to 1; 3 to 1; 4 to 1; 5 to 1; 6 to 1; 7 to 1; 8 to 1; 9 to 1; 10 to 1; 11 to 1; 12 to 1; 13 to 1; 14 to 1; 15 to 1; 16 to 1; 17 to 1; 18 to 1; 19 to 1; 20 to 1; SHARP DECLINE IN WHEAT

Wheat Was Taken Out of the Sails of the Bu's

By Lord Salisbury's Temperate Speech in London Night Before

Last-Speculative Buying Eased Off, and Cash Demand Became Less—Receipts Continue Good—Notes and Gossip.

Thursday Evening, Nov. 10. Lord Salisbury's pacific utterances at the Lord Mayor's banquet in London last night unspiced the fears of war, and hence, no doubt, most of today's weakness in the wheat markets. Liverpool futures opened heavy and closed quiet at 3/4d per cent, below yesterday's final figure. Paris wheat closed 5 to 10 centimes higher than yesterday, with flour 30 centimes higher.

Chicago followed Liverpool's lead, declined a full cent a bushel, and closed at the bottom figure. Liverpool maize declined 3/4d to 3/4d per cent today. Chicago corn eased off 1/4c per bushel.

Tallow eased off 3d at Liverpool. Bacon declined 5d to 1/4d at Liverpool. Total clearances today: Wheat and flour equal to 375,000 bushels; corn 214,000 bushels.

The output of flour at Minneapolis, Milwaukee, Duluth and Superior for the week to 21st inst. was 1,000,000 bushels.

Wheat receipts at Minneapolis and Duluth to date 1,000,000 bushels, against 970,000 the same day of 1892.

Corn receipts of grain at Chicago today: Wheat 324,000 bushels, oats 300,000 bushels, barley 180,000 bushels, and 145,000 bushels of other grain.

Chicago reports 100,000 bushels of wheat sold for shipment last night, and two loads this morning for Hamburg. New York reports 12 loads.

Chicago Price Current: Wheat: Weather influences have not hastened cribbing and marketing conditions of new corn. Such disposition is further delayed. Wheat crop is maintaining excellent promise. Little change in marketing sentiment. Hog packings for week, 480,000, against 450,000 same week last year.
