Large Quantities of Armament Spoils of Victors After Saturday's Gains, in Which Germans' Second Line Was Further Crumpled and Third Line Penetrated at One Point.

ONDON, July 16.—With the exception of heavy bombardments there were no events of importance on the Somme battlefront since the last report, says the British official statement, issued this evening. Five heavy howitzers and four 77-millimetre guns were captured by the British yesterday. A British detachment, which was drawn this morning to the main line, the statement adds, without molestation from the Germans, The text of the British official statement follows:

We are continuing to find large quantities of armament and other war are continuing to find large quantities of armament and other war material abandoned by the enemy in positions captured on the 14th and 15th, and yesterday five more heavy howitzers and four 77-millimetre guns fell into our hands.

In this neighborhood a detachment of the enemy was successfully accounted for by a squadron of Dragoon Guards—the first opportunity for mounted action afforded the cavalry since 1914.

"West of Bazentin-le-Grand we cap-tured the whole wood of that name and repulsed two counter-attacks.

Sixteen of Enemy Killed and Thirty-Four Taken Prisoner-Operation Significant of Changed Conditions.

LONDON, July 16.—Progress on the British front continues most satisfactory, says Reuter's correspondent at British headquarters in France, and he adds that it is reported the British have captured High wood, and are pushing on toward Posieres and Martinpuich. Delville wood was taken by the South African troops.

In the course of the operations, the correspondent adds, detachments of the Dragoon Guards and the Deccan Horse came into action. They charged an enemy position, killing sixteen and capturing thirty-four. The operation was small, but it was the first time that cavalry was employed as such since the early stages of the war.

The wealine about the middle of June, complains that the trenches were full of water and generally in a had condition, with dugouts insufficient in number; condemns the troops in that sector as "a worthless lot of idlers," and insists upon immediate improvement.

One set question which the correspondent always asks of a German who pon used was a Japanese short sword. Karuizawa, which is an American missionary summer centre, has been greatly excited by the murder.

At 2.30 o'clock this morning, ac pondent always asks of a German who has fought on the eastern front is:
"Which front do you like better?"
Without a single exception the answer has been: "The eastern, It is easy over there." cording to the police accounts, a Japanese dressed in foreign garb, entered a second storey window of the cottage, and after awakening the missionaries, demanded money. This be-Prefer Eastern Front.

As one of them said, this expresses the universal opinion. They tell of how they walk about the trenches in the east, showing their head with impunity, which would mean death here. They dwell upon the greatly superior volume of artillery fire, the unrelaxing vigilance required, the superiority of the fortifications, and the need of a ratio of five nen to one on the western front for the same number of miles on the eastern.

A copy of a speech which the Jerman emperor made to the Third Guard infantry division when it was sent to the western front is among the documents captured. The emperor warns the Guard:

"The foe fights differently over here. He is tougher, more resisting, more adroit, more versatile."

Frequent expressions of bitterness are made against the Austrians for their defeat in Galicia. One entry in a diary refers to the Austrians as a "slack, degenerate crowd." Two different letters mention the recent allied air raid over Karlsruhe, one referring to the loss of life as 100, the other as 150. ing refused, the intruder plunged a short sword into Mr. Campbell's breast, mortally wounding him.

mention the recent allied air raid over Karlsruhe, one referring to the loss of life as 100, the other as 150.

The desire for peace and the expectation that it will come is often alluded to by prisoners. Commanding officers in their addresses to the troops speek, of peace being near and of the enemy being almost broken. Particularly is France referred to as being near her last gasp. The German emperor in his speech also referred to France's resistance as that of despair.

To the correspondent who has been with the army for a year the change in the demeanor of the prisoners of late is apparent. That unbending confidence, which in many amounted to a defiant manner toward their captors, has been succeeded by amiability and philosophic acceptance.

TAKEN ON $600,000 WORTH OF CANADIAN NICKEL?

came from it it did not come from where this nickel and was not smelted in the nternational Nickel Co.; also whether it is not true that Germany owns hundreds and hundreds of tons of Canadian nickel now at her order in the States, and as far as we know, free for export to Germany If vessels like the Deutschland are free to come in and leave American ports. We believe, however, that the British Government is pressing this very point on the American Government, and we would not be surprised if that government refused any clearance for the Deutschland because of her warlike character. But if the United States Government does this it will be because of the fallure of the international Nicket Co. to keep control; because, in fact, the very object of the international Nickel Co. is to assist its real owners in Germany to acquire, and control, and get Canadian nickel. Some intersting developments may be rooked for.

Hon. Frank Cochrane has practically quit the government and gone to regain his health down on the New Brunswick seashore. It was thought that he'd retire to Government House, Toronto; and his friends gave it out on Friday last; but that is not likely to be now. The nickel situation was largely created by Mr. Cochrane and he will have to take a share of the odium; tho, as a fact, the nickel trust first entrenched Itself in the lines of the Ontario Government and the Ottawa Govfirst entrenched itself in the lines of the Ontario Government and the Ottawa Government in the time of Sir George Ross and Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The same political and legal agent who engineered the fortunes of the German nickel trust in the Canadian capitals, under Liberal administrations, continued on the job when the Conservatives seemed like winning, and after they had won. The nickel trust foresaw the landslide that finally shattered the Ross outfit, and that reciprocity would awamp Sir Wilfrid; and they took good care to be shouting over the Conservative victories. They "wished" Mr. Cochrane from Sudbury on Sir James later on they "wished" him on Mr. Borden, and when Sir James died they and Mr. Cochrane "Wished" Mr. Hearst on the Conservative members of the local house as Coohrane "wished" Mr. Hearst on the Conservative members of the local house as the successor of Sir James!

Perhaps Mr. Hearst doesn't know yet who his guiding angels were. But the nickel trust wanted another man like Mr. Cochrane from New Ontario and they saw that they got one. And those ordinary citizens of Canada, of Ontario, who wondered how the politicians of the lumber jack area were suddenly lifted into pred dominating places in federal and provincial politics, are now beginning to see where the propelling force came from. The same secret but powerful forces were and are working among other politicians, federal, provincial, municipal, and are working among other politicians, federal, provincial, municipal, and among Canadian papers, and when the day comes to turn on the light some surprising revelations may be jooked for. The nickel trust agents even threatined to put on the light themselves if those they befriended do not keep friendly, ened to put on the light themselves if those they befriended do not keep friendly, ened to put on the light themselves if those they befriended do not keep friendly, ened to put on the light themselves of one prominent journal that has been on their list of friends for years. The Standard Oil Co. of the United States has on their list of friends for years. The Standard Oil Co. of the United States has overked and is working both parties in Canada in much the same way. Threstourths, yes seven-eighths of the rank and file of the private mambers know has fourths, yes seven-eighths of the rank and file of the private members know nothing about these things; they only wonder how certain of their leading cabinet men are so efficient in times of stress and storm.

These same American and German forces were also all powerful in keeping most of the progressive men in either party from entering the inner councils. The people of Canada are beginning to see thru things at last. No one can explain our political for twenty years back until they know and weigh these hidden foreign forces, and how they not only get what they want, but are able always to go to governments that are putting something thru for them, and assure them that the opposition will be slient or put up only a theatrical objection! Whenever real attack threatened the nickel trust some shining worker in the opposition, mostly an experienced ened the nickel trust some shifting worker in the opposition, investy and experience casulst, would rise and try and side-track the criticism. It was an old trick of the railways when the question of cheaper passenger fares, or suburban services were rallways when the question of cheaper passenger fares, or suburban services were discussed for an apparently innocent farmer to be put up to say! "That's all very well, but what we farmers want is lower freights for our grain to market." And so when the nickel trust was under criticism in recent sessions Mr. Ned Macdonald, when the nickel trust was under criticism in recent sessions Mr. Ned Macdonald, who is a great admirer of Hon. Wajlace Nesbitt, would get up and say! "What has the government to say about the enormous increase in the public debt?" and then forthwith he would try and bury nickel in an exposition of wasteful national extravagance! And the shameful thing in Canadian politics is how cabinet ministers of every party avail themselves of this kind of help from an often friendly opposition!

where our troops fought their way to the outskirts of Pozieres. The British also penetrated the third German system of defence at the Bois de Foureaux, north of Bazentin-le-Grand, and gained a lodge ment there, but they later abandoned this wood on order from head quarters, probably because the position was too exposed at the present stage of the operations and it was deemed advisable to carry the German defences on a broad front with heavy artillery preparation, Cavalry was used in these operations for the first time since 1914. The present occasion comprised the attacking and dispersing of a German detachment by a squadron of dragoons. These charged a position of the enemy, killed 16 men and captured 34. Successful employment of cavalry by both the British and the Russians in their offensives explodes the theory elaborated by Winston Churchill and his school of critics that modern warfare has rendered the mounted arm obsolete and that the troopers should be dismounted and converted into infantrymen.

The British spent Sunday in the midst of heavy bombardments. In clearing up the positions captured they found four three-inch field guns and four heavy howitzers. Much was done to strengthen and consolidate the new positions and saps were pushed forward.

By turning the line of their attack northeastward instead of continuing to drive due east, the British threaten eventually to cut out a large section of Julien, there has been much criticism the German front between the Ancre and Arras, for they have driven a wedge into the hostile positions in front of Albert, and to the north the front between the Ancre and Arras is on a line running considerably west of where the alles now stand between the Ancre and the Somme. By pursuing the route of advance taken on Friday last when they attacked the enemy northward instead of eastward, the further reduction of German positions before them would cause them to burst thru the German defences on a front that would make them eventually cross the communications which feed the Teuton front south of Arras. Similarly the French may not enter Peronne at all during the present stage of the fighting, but they may drive southeastward in an attempt to get behind the German front. But instead of waiting for this the Germans would probably order a retreat. Cavalry is probably maintained in large force by the British and the French in order that opportunity should be immediately taken of any signs of cracking by the German front.

The air service of the allies continues to give excellent results. French aviators brought down eight German machines in the Somme region yesterday and the day before and British airmen disposed of three Fokkers, three biplanes, and a double-engined aeroplane, making seven completely smashed, and they forced another Fokker to land after damaging it.

The French attempted no forward movement yesterday on the Somme but they threw the Germans out of a couple of villages which they had entered under cover of a fog. The artillery was the chief arm used. Bombardments were quite spirited in the Champagne, and on the Meuse. Infantry attacks gained the French considerable ground west of Fleury, north of Verdun.

The Russians have begun an offensive against the army of Von Hindenburg on the Riga front. This advance is supported by artillery from land and sea, the Russians having brought their warships into use, and they have registered progress west of Kemmern. Local engagements which did not modify the situation were fought on the rest of the front.

Fighting in the midst of violent thunder storms, the Italians occupied Vansi, a town on the northern slopes of Mount Hellugio, and they made some gains of territory at the following points in the Posina valley: The southern slopes of Sogli Bianchi, the front south of Borcola, the Corno di Costom and the Boin valley. Heavy counter-attacks were launched by the Austrians in the Boin valley, but they were driven back with severe losses. Small encounters were fought on the remainder of the front with the advantage accruing to Baiburt, 65 miles northwest of Erzerum and 60 miles south of Trebizond in Turkish Armenia, has been captured by Russian forces. It actually fell by assault. It is on the road between Trebizond and Erzerum and its possession se cures the Russians at Trebizond from danger of a flank attack. The Russians are also about 25 miles from Erzingan, according to the latest reports, and they have won some successes that open the road to this objective. South of Mush and towards Diarbekr they have dislodged the Turks from all their strongly organized positions. A Turkish division that was recently brought up from Thrace abandoned its tents. divided in two and one part started to retreat on Diarbekr and the other on the eastern Euphrates. The Russians should therefore shortly hold the line Diarbekr-Erzingan-Balburt-Trebizond, and be then ready to begin the invasion of Asia Minor.

The Russian contingents in France have been sent to the Champagne front. This is revealed by the night communication of the French war office yesterday. It says: "On the Champagne front there has been great activity by Russian and French patrols." The striking of a successful blow by the allies in the Champagne would endager the whole position of the German army before Rheims and the crown prince's army before Verdun. An advance would cut the communications between the two forces and compel a retreat in the centre, if pushed forward enough.

ROSS RIFLES ARE NOW DISCARDED

British Improved Enfields to Be Service Weapon for Canadians.

BITTER CONTROVERSY

Hughes Says New Weapons Will Be Made in Ross Factory.

Py a Staff Reporter. OTTAWA, Ont., July 16 - The nev British Enfield rifle will be the service weapon for Canadian troops and the present Ross rifle will be discard. ed. The first division has already been armed with the new Enfield, and the rearming of the second and third divisions is now in progress. Since the outbreak of the war, o more especially since the battle of St. of the Ross rifle. Finally, last winter the government asked Sir Douglas Haig to conduct an enquire into the merits of the Canadian rifle as a ser vice weapon. The British commander did care to undertake this work, and the Canadian Government referred the question to theimperial authorities. It is understood that a report has been received by the Canadian Government the British authorities advising that the new British weapon be adopted by all imperial troops on active service.

Long Controversy.

The Ross rifle was adopted as the Canadian service arm by Sir Frederick Borden. It was the subject of many bitter debates in parliament during the Liberal regime, the Conservative members, with the exception of General Hughes, strongly opposing its adoption. The chief defenders of the Ross rifle were Sir Frederick Borden E. M. MacDonald, M.P., and General

Sir Sam Hughes. General Hughes stated tonight that the weapon now adopted was an improved Enfield and had many of the best features of the Ross rifle. Its adoption was due in a great measure to the desire for uniformity in equipment among imperial troops. The Ross rifle would be used in training camps until a supply of the new weapon was secured, which would be made in the Ross rifle factory at Quebec.

FUNERAL OF YOUNG BABE STOPPED AT GRAVESIDE

Coroner McKechen Opens Inquest Into Death of Child One Day-Old.

By the order of Coroner Dr. McKichen, the burial of the one-day-old son of Ellen Winn, a colored woman living on Wilton avenue, was stopped at Norway Cemetery Saturday afternoon and the body taken to the morgue.

According to the police, when the baby was taken ill, no doctor was called, but when it died the parents tried to secure a burial certificate from a medical man, which, however, was refused, on the ground that he did not know the nature of the illness from which the child had died. It is alleged that an undertaker agreed to perform the burial, which fact became known to Chief Coroner Johnson, with the result that Coroner McKichen was ordered to have the burial stopped. An inquest was opened at the morgue on the body Saturday afternoon.

SPEAKS FRANKLY TO ELIGIBLE MEN

Corporal Turner, D. C. M., is Son of Widowed Mother.

ADDRESSED MEETING

Toronto Light Infantry Held Session on Yonge Street Last Night.

The Toronto Light Infantry held a corner of Yonge and Shuter streets, at some very frank statements about the men who could but did not enlist. He is one of a family of five boys who supported their widowed mother in Winnipeg. Two days after the war was declared the whole five of them enlisted. Two of them have been killed and one was returned with his right arm amputated. The corporal was one of the men who saved the guns at St.

Julien and received the D.C.M. for his for greater convenience in many of the process of the men who saved the guns at St. bravery. He enlisted with the 16th avocations they pursue. Many have cameron Highlanders and was wounded seven times at St. Julien.

Other speakers at the meeting were untarily parted with external feminity. Oliver Hezzelwood, Miss MacMurchy, The situation is not so acute with us a sister of Dr. Helen MacMurchy, who but the call, in all clerical departments has been nursing at Paris, and who is for female clerks. told of her experiences and the way the Canadians were admired in the French metropolis.

The recruiting depot was only open until 1 o'clock on Saturday, and during that time things were more than quiet Out of the twenty men who went before the doctors only eight were acceptable and were attested. The various units gained as follows: One niar to each of the 166th, 198th, 204th, 238th and No. 1 Construction Batta-

CALGARY C.P.R. CLERKS ENLIST AND MAKE GOOD

Canada Sends Six Thousand Railroad Employes to Supplement England's Two Hundred Thousand.

Of the 20 clerks in the C. P. R. offices at Calgary, 16 enlisted when the war broke out. Some of them have got promotion; some have been wound ed; but the spirit they displayed has been noticed in the western press. Indeed, the railway men of the country have done nobly in responding to the call. In England over 200,000 railway men are at the front; in Canada, pos sibly 6000 in all have gone forward— a splendid record considering our rail-ways and general population. The result of such depletion is found in the recruiting meeting last night at the greater number of female clerks employed in the Deminion. We do not corner of Yonge and Shuter streets, at see, as they see without surprise in which Corporal Turner, D.C.M., made the mother land, thousands of women doing the outside work on the railways

-dressed in overalls, many of them. cleaning engines, cleaning stations, acting as porters and wheeling barrows, acting as ticket agents and telegraph operators. We will hardly come to that, but the value of women in the press anent the matter, but have voluntarily parted with external feminity.

As discussions of peace terms continue to arise and subside it has become clear that one of the points most insisted upon is the freedom of the seas. This is purely a German idea, and as far as anyone can learn from the German representations it means something which has not existed before, and, if we are to accept the statements made by the chancellor, Germany demands something which she never did have before in order to gendered by her conduct in the war. In the first days of the allied attack the French and British struck directly east from Albert and the Somme towns to the south. They advanced some three or four miles until the French who were south of the British, almost reached Peronne, and both the French and British troops had occupied all the first line trenches of the Germans and the French some of the second.

This advance cut off nearly half of the German salient and carried the new allied line east of the longitude of Bapaume. Instead of holding a wide salient, the Germans now occupied parrow salient, with the French and Say

Russian Foreign Minister Says New Agreement Is Result of Previous Peace Conventions.

PETROGRAD, July 14.—A statement given out tonight by Sergius Sazonoff, minister of foreign affairs, regarding the new Russo-Japanese agreement, says:

"The convention just signed is the natural development of previous conventions concluded between Russia and Japan in 1907 and 1910. The former of these conventions expressly montions the engagement of the contracting parties to respect the principle of equal opportunity for trade and industry in China, and to uphold and defend this principle.

GERMANY DISCOUNTS IT

Evident That She Has Laid Plans to Cope With Situation.

NEW YORK, July 15 .- A cable to The Herald from Paris says: The early elimination of Austria from the war is now regarded as so rom the war is now regarded as so certain that the chief subject of debate in the newspapers of the allied countries is the policy of Germany in relation to it. That Germany has discounted the surrender of Austria is regarded as evident.

The recriminations in the German press against the allied empire have become so open and pointed that the motive for their tolerance by the German censorship is freely discussed. The fact that newspapers which, like The Frankfurter Zeitung, are considered as semi-official organs of the German foreign office should indulge in continuous criticisms of Austria, and even in cynical gibes at her, hardly can be without a political motive.

Disputes Are Open.

The most interesting feature of the situation is that there is not merely an outburst of sharp comment against Austria in the German press, but that in the Austro-Hungarian empire there are open and acrimonious disputes between the Austrian and the Hungarian sections. These disputes are seemingly being fostered by the same semi-official organs in Germany, and this circumstance is considered as extremely significant.

The conclusion drawn among the allies is that, with the Austrian "debacle" admitted as imminent, arrangements already are being made in Germans al

ON NICKEL QUESTION

Strong Attack Made by A. W Roebuck at Kettleby Liberal Picnic.

SUCCESSFUL EVENT

Between Four and Five Thou sand People Were in Attendance.

Strong criticism of the provincial gov rnment in its failure to formulate a onstructive and forward policy dealing with the vexed question of the exporta tion of nickel to the United States, together with a rousing appeal by Lieut.
Col. Brown to the young men of North
York to raily to the call of the empire were the outstanding features of the King Township Liberal picnic held in the Village of Kettleby on Saturday after-

King Township Liberal picnic held in the Village of Kettleby on Saturday afternoon.

When the committee in charge of the affair filed the date of the big rally they had not reckoned on two or three outstanding circumstances, to wit, the condition of the weather and the fact that the farmers of the historic old riding would be in the midst of the biggest hay crop ever grown in central Ontario.

In spite, however, of these the picnic was a great success, between 4000 and 5000 people taking part in the proceedings. The affair was for the most part wholly non-political and patriotic in its nature and the entire proceeds of the day, a large sum, were all handed over to the commanding officer of the 220th York Rangers Overseas Battalion for home comforts.

There was a formidable list of speakers, chief among these being: Hon, Mackenzie King, A. W. Roebuck, Liberal nominee in Timiskaming: ex-Mayor Thos. Urquhart, Oliver Hezzlewood, J. M. Walton, J. H. Widdifield, Lieut.-Col. Brown and a number of others. A feature of the afternoon was the presence of the splendid band of the 48th Highlanders, who gave a number of selections during the afternoon and a concert in the evening.

The band of the 220th York Rangers, as well as the Aurora Brass Band, added to the pleasure of the occasion.

"The great problem following the war will be a readjustment of the economic conditions which will then obtain, and to that all serious thinking men must give earnest heed," said A. W. Roebuck in a thoughtful address. He claimed that the enormous number of men to be released from military service would give a joit to business conditions generally. The solution was to be found in some measure in the opportunities which would be presented in the northland of Ontario.

He dealt with the smmense area of would be presented in the northland of Ontario.

Attacked Nickel Question.

He dealt with the immense area of valuable nickel iands, 100,000 acres, owned wholly and operated to a very limited extent by the International Nickel Company, a foreign corporation, and the entire proceeds of which went across the lime and, without a shadow of a doubt, ultimately to German consignees and the German Government. The time was ripe for the inauguration of a constructive nickel policy by the Liberal party, and in this connection he favored the calling of a provincial Liberal convention to ing of a provincial Liberal convention to decide on a policy for the future.

Later he charged that Hon. Frank Cochrane, minister of railways, was a creature of the International Company, that Hon. W. H. Hearst, premier of Ontario, was a creature of the International Company and that neither of these men could be elected in their respective constituencies without the assistance of the International Nickel Company.

Pleads For Recruits.

Oliver Hezzelwood, chairman of the Citizens' Recruiting League, said: "The farmers may think their sons are needed ed on the farm, but they are needed infinitely worse to serve in the cause of the empire."

ed on the Larin, deat the cause of the empire."

Lieut.-Col. Brown, commanding the 12th York Rangers, declated that it was a shame that a commanding officer should need to devote his time to the work of recruiting. "The 20th are having a hard row to hoe," said the colonel, "and I am beginning to feel very deeply the responsibility resting upon myself and the other officers of the battalion. Some people think the farmer is a privileged class, but my business is just as important," he said.

Hon. Mackenzle King dealt at considerable length with the contributory causes leading up to the war. Ex-Mayor Thos. Urquhant stated that he had changed his views regarding conscription and now favored registration and conscription in a modified form, as in England. The chairman was Bert Crane of Newmerket.

John Wilkle of Nobleton won the prize as being the oldest Conservative on the grounds. Mr. Wilkle is $4, while Daniel O'Brien, a neighbor, with $4 years to his credit, carried off the honors as being the oldest Liberal.

CLEVER PITCHING FAST INFIELDING

That's Why Leafs Shut Out Grays Twice in the Double-Header on Saturday.

Clever pitching by Shocker and Herbert was almost equaled by the sparkling work of the Toronto infield in the double-header on Saturday. Maneger Birmingham has the team working like sure winners and they should also make a clean sweep with Newark. Baumgartner also twirled great ball against Shocker and the only run scored against him was Graham's in the ninth on an error. He singled with two out and when Thompson bunted safely Graham kept right on to third and home when Yelle dropped the pitcher's throw and Catcher E. Blackburn did likewise on the peg from first. Extra base hits made Herbert's win easy in the second. Thompson's triple in the second and the squeeze play accounted for one, and a base on balls and two-base hits by Smith and Murray produced the rest.

The day was warm and the big crowd that attended was the best pleased of the year.

Christy Mathewson of New York is to leave the Glants. Matty retires from the scone of his riumphs in the only manner New York fans would countenance his going, for in a few days Big Six will be installed as Charley Herzog's successor in the management of the Cincinnati Club. Matty's transfer to the Reds is part of a big deal engineered by Garry Herrmann, president of the Cincinnati outfit, and Harry Hempstead, head of the New York Club. In consideration of the release to the Glants of Herzog and Kenneth Williams, a young outfielder, the New York Club gives Matty, Eddie Roush and Bill Mckechnie. It remains only for the board of directors of the Cincinnati Club to give its formal sanction to the deal before the general shift will be made.

Manager Pat Donovan of Buffalo announced that he had completed a deal with the Boston Americans for Sylvanus, better known as Vean Gregs, the left-handed pitcher. Gregs is expected to report here tomorrow, and may pitch one of the two games against Richmond this afternoon.

Examination of Sammy Crane's right arm by a Buffalo surgeon disclosed the fact that the Baltimore shortstop's throwing wing was broken just above the wrist. Crane was hit on the arm by a ball pitched by George Gaw in the third inning of the second game Friday. Crane's absence will be a serious handicap to Baltimore. He is a brilliant young infielder, declared by many critics to be the fastest shortstop in the league. He belongs to Connie Mack.

A New York despatch says: Frank Baker, the slugging third baseman of the Yankees, is injured more than was at first supposed, and it now appears that the Home Run King broke two ribs when he crashed into an iran gate in the left side of the grand stand while chasing a foul in the second game of Friday's double-header.

There seems some secrecy among the officials of the club as to the exact nature of Baker's injury, tho Billy Fleisch mann, assistant to the president, sald yesterday that it looked as the Baker was pretty badly hurt and that it will be six weeks before he plays again. Harry Sparrow said yesterday that an X-ray photograph of Baker's chest had been taken and that as soon as the photograph is developed the club will know just how badly Frank is hurt.

Donovan said yesterday he had not seen Baker since the accident, but that he hoped for the best.

Neither Maisel nor Gilhooley is likely to be back in harness for some time. Fritz has been chasing flies the last few days, but is not trying to throw, while Gilhooley is still in a hospital in Washington. Nunamaker got an ugly crack on the right elbow yesterday, and he probably will be cut for a stretch. The Yangees certainly deserve a heap of oredit for their gameness in remaining in the pennant hunt after such a run of adversity.

Thirty-two men took part, most of them Cubs, tho the Robins used five pitchers to Chicago's four. Two great ralities saved the game for Chicago after it twice seemed hopelessly lost. The first came in the ninth, when they hammered in three runs and tied the score. Then Brooklyn batted in three, only to have the Cubs tie the count again. From the tenth on there were few chances for either side to score. The custom of allowing speciators to keep balls batted into the stand forced the home team to use 43 balls. Score:

RANK OUTSIDER WINS FRONTIER HANDICAP

Thornhill Beat Rancher and Big Field in Feature on Opening Day at Windsor.

WINDSOR, July 15.—A tremendous gathering turned out this afternoon to give the meeting a good send-off. The feature race, the Frontier Stakes, went to James Barry's Thornhill, who beat the favorite, Rancher, a scant length. King Gorin was third and Borrow fourth. The race was marked by a long delay at the post and some rough riding, in which Runes was probably the principal sufferer. Herbert Bradley refused to break when the barrier was released.

The running of the third race, a dash of six furlongs, divided interest with the stake. E. R. Bradley's Blind Baggage made a runaway affair of this event and incidentally hung up a new track record. The fractional time of the race was: .22 2-5, .46, 1.11 1-5. Calgary, who was making his first effort in a couple of years, was second. years, was second. FIRST RACE—Purse $700, two-year-of Great Right-Handed Pitcher Recently Celebrated His Second Birthday.

FOLLOW DAD'S TRADE?

WASHINGTON, July 15 .- Just as every great batter that flashes across the margin of the baseball day is hailed as a second Ty Cobb. so every great rightsecond Ty Cobb. so every great righthanded pitcher is termed "a second Walter Johnson." Grover Cleveland Alexander was so-called a few years back.
So was Al Mamaux. the Pittsburg pitching sensation of the past two seasons.
Some day there may really be a "second Walter Johnson" in the baseball world, in the person of Walter jr., the son of the great Washington pitcher.
Sons, as a rule, do not take to their father's favorite sport. Yet now and then there are exceptions to provide the rule.

verdales in Senior Lacrosse on Saturday.

ROSEDALE GROUNDS. July 15.—With ideal weather and a splendid field and with a fair-sized crowd in attendance the Riverdale lacrosse team met the Young Torontos on the latter's grounds in the most important game of the senior O.A.L.A. series. A victory for the Young Torontos would give them the championship and as the Riverdales gave them a much better game last Saturday than the score indicated they were not too optimistic as to the outcome. Last year the Riverdales played junior lacrosse and in the early games showed their lack of senior experience, but after their first game with Young Torontos and several good practices they were vastly improved and were much more certain in their play.

OTTAWA, Suly 16.—The Ottawas sprang the biggest surprise of the season Saturday when they defeated the Nationals in the N.L.U. game. It was a clean-cut victory, the final score being 13 to 7. Trey ran in five straight after Nationals had opened the scoring, and the Frenchmen were never able to catch up. Play was clean, and the officials were strict.

UTICA, N. Y., July 14.—Sensational play won the New York State championship, tennis singles for Ichiya. Kumagae of Japan this afternoon. He defeated Clarence J. Griffin of the Pacific coast on the Yahnundasis Golf Club courts three straight sets, at 6-2, 6-1, 8-6. Roland Roberts and Griffin, the Pacific coast team, took the doubles championship, 6-4, 6-1, 6-3, from William S. Mc-Ellroy and Charles S. Garland of Pittsburg. The Pittsburg men were outclassed and the match, from the viewpoint of the spectators, was much interior to that in which Kumagae defeated Griffin. Big Contraction in Loans General Trade Situation is Good.

NEW YORK, July 15,-Detailed specific comment concerning today's brief session would serve no purpose brief session would serve no purpose other than to disclose its hollow and superficial character. Business was of the usual midsummer sort, in that operations were limited to the professional element, which sought out new points of weakness, with indifferent success.

Tennessee Copper fell three points to its lowest price of recent years, before supporting orders and short covering effected complete recovery. Equipments and motors, with other industrials and minor specialties reacted slightly, but these, too, came forward later, losses roving only temporary or nominal.

Anong the high-priced specialties, and gain of 9½ points and Sears-Roebuck was unusually active on its rise of 5½ points. Ralls were steady to strong and U. S. Steel traversed a narrow radius with some heaviness in U. S. Industrial Alcohol. Total sales of stocks amounted to 145,000 shares.

Good Bank Statement.

The bank statement bore out its promise of a large cash gain, actual reserves in our own vaults and other deserves of statement season, thereby more than offsetting last week's heavy loss. More notable, however, was the loan contraction of $72,530,000, showing a decrease of over $111,000,000 in the past fortnight.

General news included the weekly statements of the mercantile agencies, which referred to the seasonal influences on various lines of industry, with further abstention of speculative buying. In the main, the general trade situation was resarded as more wholesome.

Gold to the amount of $3,000,000 was received from Canada, making the fourth instalment of the week. There was virtually no market for foreign exchange, rates to leading centres showing no change.

Trading in bonds was restricted to a

SURVEY OF CONDITIONS

General Business Fairly Active, But Summer Quiet is Spreading.

NEW YORK, July 15.—The most significant event of the week, says Henry Clews, was the rise of the Bank of England rate from 5 to 6 per cent. This is the first advance since August, 1914, and was evidently intended as a protective measure against the possibility of higher interest rates and adverse sterling exchange in New York. Next in importance came the announcement of a new $100,000,000 French loan on a 5½ per cent. basis.

Very little real change can be detected in the financial situation, for better or for worse. The war drift is peacewards, the increased intensity of hostilities astening the end. Mexican affairs have attled down into a state of quietude, hich may be permanent if the conliatory spirit on both sides proves sinser and stable. The domestic political ampaign has not yet started, and the hald drive will not begin until both canditates have formally announced their acptances and policies.

General business is fairly active, but mmer quiet is spreading. Some important of the warm spell. The general business is fairly active, but mmer quiet is spreading. Some imvement is reported in the crop situanas a result of the warm spell. The n crop was estimated by the governat report at 2,866,000,000 bushels besten the recent rise in temperature, or ily 180,000,000 below last year; and the wheat crop at 759,000,000, or 252,000,000 ushels less than last year. But 73,000,-30 bushels of wheat are left in farmers' hands from last year, and it must not be overlooked that last year's crop of wheat was phenomenal and corn exceeded the record. Bank clearings and railroad earnings prove by their large gains the sustained increase of business activity. Such figures are of course affected by high prices: tho the upward tendency in many commodities has been stopped, and not a few articles have declined with indications of further weakness coming.

Operations Were Entirely in Circumstantial Rumors of Cancellation of Foreign Orders Factor in Wall Street Trading.

NEW YORK, July 15.—(Weekly financial review.)—Almost continuous liquidation of "war brides," aided and abetted by a formidable short interest, attended the week's operations in stocks, reversals in some of these issues forcing their quoted values to lowest levels of the year. The decline was accompanied by further circumstantial rumors of cancellations of foreign orders, it being noteworthy in this connection that few of the new contracts rum into the coming year. In other instances, such as United States Industrial Alcohol Company, whose stock registered an extreme loss of over 30 points, with only slight recoveries, more specific and definite causes were assigned, such as International differences growing out of questions of policy. The break in the motor stocks seemed almost inevitable after the recent abortive effort to effect a merger of several of the larger companies.

Rails and other representative stocks were but little affected by the set-back in specialities, maintenance of excellent earnings, with prospects of indefinite continuance, proving a strong factor. Leading industrials, chief among which was United States Steel, also resisted pressure. Independent steel and iron companies show record-breaking earnings, and the important copper producing concerns are increasing their output regardless of the depressed state of the foreign metal market.

Domestic monetary conditions assumed greater importance on the temporary rise in call loans to six per cent., induced largely by the further impairment of local bank reserves, which promise speedy correction. The increase in the British bank rate to six per cent. and announcement of the terms of the new French loan of $100.000.000 by our bankers were the outstanding features of the international situation.

Changes in the European war failed of direct reflection in this market, aside from slight weakness in remittances to the foreign serior.

about 12 inches wide on the surface. It is also proposed to raise a vertical shaft from a point on this crosscut for ventilation.

At a depth of 35 feet the main ore shoot was first located in the sinking of the shaft. The width at that point was about 10 inches, but assays from it gave as high as $530 per ton in gold. The shoot cut off to the east and was again picked up in a drift on the 100-foot level. Assay values of as high as $61 per ton were obtained at the latter level and at this point the ore shoot was found to have widened out to 70 inches in the drift. It is hoped to again locate this at the 200-foot level in the east drift. On the west drift at the 100-foot level an ore shoot 12 inches in width and of a good grade of ore was found, and it is hoped to pick this up also on the 200-foot level in the west drift. Drifting will go on east and west alternately as on the upper level. On the latter level 175 feet of drilling has been done to the west and 225 feet to the east.

This syndicate now proposes shipping some of the high-grade ore and a bumping table is being put in for separating it. It is expected that shipments will be lattered in about two months. from a point on this crosscut for ventila-MONEY RATES. Glazebrook & Cronyn, exchange

LONDON STOCK EXCHANGE.

LONDON, July 15.—Money and discount rates were firm today. Money continues the dominating factor in the market, which ended the week dull and easy. There was no material set-back, however, and numerous inquiries for stock indicated that buyers will take advantage of the low level of values as soon as money conditions are favorable. Consols lost a quarter of a point, but there was scarcely enough business elsewhere to test prices. American securities were quiet, with small offerings under the mobilization scheme readily absorbed.

BLACK RUST SCARE GROWING GREATER

Moist Weather Northwest Aids Spread of Pest.

PRICES ROSE SHARPLY

Cent Advance Wheat, While Corn Was Also Strong.

CHICAGO, July 15.—Likelihood of examsive damage from black rust led to aggressive buying today in the wheat market here. As a result sharp advances were scored and the finish was strong at gains of $1 to 3½c, with July $1.11½ and September $1.13½. Corn closed 1½ to 2½c up and outs up 1 to 1½c. In provisions the outcome ranged from 2½c decline to a rise of 5c.

Wheat advanced to the highest quotations of the week and held nearly all of the fain. Jumps in price began within a few minutes after the market opened. Suiter moist weather in the nonthwest furnished the motive power. Cool winds, which had been relied on to lessen the black rust danger, seemed to have disappeared, and reports were at hand in some sections of North Dakota that the pest was visible on the stalks in every field. The assertion was added that the rust was not confined to an occasional stalk, but was general. A turther incentive to the bulls lay in the fact that pit offerings here were unusually small until the market had shown a decided advance, and that when profit-taking did assue the effect was noticeably of a slight and temporary sort.

Enlarged export demand accompanied the rise in the value of wheat. It was estimated that as much as 1,000,000 bushels at the seaboard was disposed of for shipment to Europe. Part of the total was definitely said to be domestic grown, the rest Canadian. Liverpool despatches indicated some renewal of anxiety in regard to the adequacy of supplies.

Corn prices were lifted by word that the crop was fising in Illinois, Missouri and Kansas. Temperatures above 100 were reported in the southwest and there was serious complaint of the absence of rain. In oats, as in other cereals, crop damage reports acted as a handicap on the bears. Moreover, the call from the seaboard was good and stocks were expected to show a big decrease for the week.

Provisions rallied on account of the strength in grain. At first the market had been depressed owing to a decline in the value of hogs.

NEXT THIRTY DAYS IMPORTANT TO CROP

Reports Indicate Harvest Will Be Fully as Large as That of Last Year. WINNIPEG July 16 .- Except for few local storm disturbances ideal growing weather has prevailed in Mangrowing weather has prevailed in Man-itoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta dur-ing the past week and the crops un-iformly show great improvement. Reports received by the provincial government, The Winnipeg Free Press and three transcontinental railways to the transcontinental railways indicate that the crop for 1916 will be fully as large as the record breaking ing crop of 1915. Local damage from ing erop of 1915. Local damage from hail may occur here and there, but no danger now threatens the crop except the possibility of August frost.

Practically no wheat was killed by frost during June of this year, and what appears to be a long spell of hot dry weather is now in full swing. There is always the possibility of damage from frost in August, but the old settlers say that the wheat will be beyond much injury by frost after August 15. say that the wheat will be beyond much injury by frost after August 15.

The west is anxious to see the next thirty days safely passed, but there is not the same anxiety among the people as there was a year ago. Althoperhaps a little less acreage was sown to wheat this year than last the proto wheat this year than last, the pro-spects are for another bumper crop with demand steady and prices high. Never has there been a more hopeful and confident spirit everywhere apparent in the northwest.

development of a strong root growth, there has now been a few days of warm weather and crop conditions up to the present are excellent in all parts of these provinces. The amount of land which has been seeded on disked stubble is greater than had been previously estimated, but the season so far is favorable for such seeding and the total acreage in crop is now estimated at about 90 per cent. of that of 1915. In other parts of the Dominion weather conditions have been generally favorable for field crops. Abundance of rain has favored pastures and hay crops, but has not improved the outlook for fruit, which promises to yield somewhat below normal.

R. E. Kemerer, in his weekly market letter, speaks with optimism on West Dome Consolidated as follows:
Additional information which we have secured on West Dome Consolidated makes possible a more complete view of the results of the development work which has been accomplished in the past few weeks. The results of diamond drilling have been far in excess of anything that could reasonably have been expected inasmuch as the drills have indicated ore bodies with a tonnage in excess of 1,000;000 tons of ore which will have a milling value of between $5 and $5.50, or total ore to the value of over $6,000,000. This is not a visionary estimate, but is based on a careful calculation of the size and average value of all the ore bodies which have been located, and furthermore this estimate does not include the two veins which have been located in the crosscut at 120 feet, nor does it include the shaft vein, which latter is one of the important veins of the property. Another noteworthy feature is that the development work which has proven up the property to this extent has cost only about 10 per cent. of the funds in the treasury of the company, and since there are now some 1600 tons of ore on the dump which have excellent milling value, this expenditure of funds will all come back to the company plus about $3000 of profit which will be secured when the ore on the dump is miled. These results may well be chamiled. These results may well be chamiled. These results may well be chamiled is taken into consideration. J. P. Bickell & Co., 802-7 Standard
