SEVENTY EIGHT IN TORPEDOING OF TRANSPORT

American Ship Antilles Sinks While Homeward Bound.
SOME SOLDIERS DIE
All U. S. Army and Naval Officers Are Rescued.

Washington, Oct. 19.—The American transport Antilles, homeward bound, was torpedoed in the war zone October 17, and went down with a loss of about 70 lives. The ship, a former ward liner, was under convoy by a naval patrol when attacked. The submarine was not seen, nor was the torpedo.

All naval and army officers aboard were saved, and all but three of the ship's officers, but 16 soldiers out of 23 aboard were lost.

No army units were aboard the vessel. Such officers and men of the army as were aboard were being sent home on special assignments, invited for some reason or other. The list of these will not be available until it can be obtained from General Pershing in France.

Report of Sims.
Secretary Daniels authorized the following announcement:

"The department is in receipt of a dispatch from Vice-Admiral Sims, which states that the ship Antilles, an army transport, was torpedoed on October 17 while returning to this country from foreign service. This vessel was under convoy of American patrol vessels at the time.

"The torpedo which struck the Antilles was not seen, nor was the submarine which fired it. The torpedo hit abreast of the engine room bulkhead, and the ship sank within five minutes. One hundred and sixty-seven persons out of about 237 on board the Antilles were saved. About 70 men are missing.

"All the naval officers and officers of the army who were on board the ship at the time were saved, as were the officers of the ship, with the exception of the third engineer officer, senior engineer officer and two junior engineer officers. There were about 23 of the army enlisted personnel on board, of whom 17 were saved.

"As soon as the department is in receipt of further details concerning the casualties, they will be made public immediately."

RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT EVACUATES PETROGRAD

Seat of Administration to Be at Moscow—Russian Fortress of Reval Being Abandoned to the Germans.

Petrograd, Oct. 19.—The government has definitely determined to move to Moscow in the very near future. This announcement was made today by M. Kishkin, minister of public welfare. The newspapers publish an official announcement that the evacuation of the fortified port of Reval, on the Baltic at the entrance to the Gulf of Finland, has begun. The schools at Reval have been closed. The inhabitants of the city are being sent to the interior of Russia.

HUNS ROB FOOD CARGOES SINK SHIPS AND CREWS

Washington, Oct. 19.—Germany's giant pirate U-boats are now robbing food ships of their cargoes, sinking these within the submarine hold and then sinking the unfortunate victims.

GERMAN FOOD RATIONS UTTERLY INSUFFICIENT

Hun Food Allowance Away Below the Normal Standard—Occupied Territories in Even Worse Case.

Washington, Oct. 19.—Rations now allowed the German people and the civilian population of the occupied portions of France and Belgium, according to the latest reports of the food administration, are insufficient to maintain bodily health and strength.

The French and Belgians get considerably less than the amount apportioned to the German population, and they get no meat except bacon.

As announced today by the food administration, the weekly ration to the Germans, stated in terms of American housekeeping amounts to sufficient flour to bake four half-pounds of bread; one-half peck of potatoes; a cupful each of beans, peas and oatmeal; one-half pound of meat; 12 dominoes of sugar; six inches of butter; and an equal amount of other fats.

In northern France the weekly ration allows sufficient flour for five pounds of bread; one-fifth of a peck of potatoes; one cupful of cereals; 12-3 ounces of bacon and lard, and ten dominoes of sugar. Here meat, butter and margarine are all replaced by bacon and lard. The allowance of flour and cereals is slightly increased, but the allowance of potatoes is less than half the German ration, while the allowance of sugar also is reduced.

The ration for the civilian population in occupied portions of Belgium is similar to that of northern France, except that bacon and lard are replaced by meat and butter.

Sofia Suspects Central Powers of Intention to Abandon Them.

ALLIES APPROACHED
Kaiser Visits Balkan Capital, Giving Assurances of Fidelity.

Copenhagen, Oct. 19.—While Emperor William and King Ferdinand of Bulgaria have been exchanging assurances at Sofia of the unshakable loyalty of Bulgaria and Germany to each other, and of the permanent nature of the alliance of the two countries, Bulgarian agents abroad have been endeavoring to get into touch with the entente powers on the subject of peace and subsequent negotiations.

The Associated Press correspondent in Sofia reports that a Bulgarian representative recently sought and obtained an opportunity in a neutral European capital to lay before the entente powers the official version of this country with regard to a peace settlement, and in a one-sided conversation explained Bulgarian aspirations as regards an independent political status as soon as the war was concluded and resume cordial relations with the entente powers.

The Kaiser, it is reported, visited Sofia on Wednesday, and gave assurances of fidelity to the Bulgarian government.

Attempts are also being made to get before the public in America and the entente countries, a defense of the Bulgarian pretensions to Macedonia and the Balkans.

ZEPPELINS BOMB IN RIGA AND FINLAND GULFS

Twenty Bombs Are Dropped on Pernau—Russian Battleship Sunk by Her Own Crew — Germans Landing Troops on Dago Island.

Petrograd, Oct. 19.—Zeppelin airships appeared in the Gulf of Riga and the Gulf of Finland Thursday night, according to an official communication issued tonight. Twenty bombs were dropped on Pernau, on the western shore of the Gulf of Riga. Ten persons were killed.

Russians Bottled Up? London, Oct. 19.—Singularly reticent is the German war office in its latest communication with regard to the operation of the Russian naval forces against the Russian squadron which is presumed to be bottled up in Moon Sound, merely dealing with the naval battle which resulted in the sinking of the Russian battleship Slava. Likewise, the most recent communication from Petrograd gives few further details of the situation.

The foregoing briefly worded resolution and the resolution passed at the morning session endorsing Sir Laurier's leadership of the Liberal party constituted all the official announcements made as to the conference of Liberal candidates and the determination to move the government building. The deliberations, which were behind closed doors, were presided over by Mr. J. A. Young of North Bay, president of the Ontario Reform Association.

The proceedings commenced at 11 o'clock in the morning, and it was 6.30 p.m. before the gathering dispersed. The delegates stated that the time had been taken up with speeches, practically everyone present being roused upon to state his views. It was asserted that while some differences of opinion were expressed, the gathering was quite harmonious. Sir Wil-

TWO HUN TORPEDO BOATS ARE BLOWN UP BY MINES

Petrograd, Oct. 19.—The text of the Russian official communication follows:

"In the Baltic Sea during the battle of Wednesday at the southern entrance to Moon Sound, hits were obtained by our battleships on enemy dreadnoughts. Two trawlers were sunk by our fire. Thursday, in the Moon Sound region, two enemy torpedo boats ran into our mine fields, where they blew up and sank. Admiral Bakhrif, who commanded our naval squadron in the battle, testifies to the gallantry of the crews who took part in the engagement.

"The German naval units which participated in the operation are reported as being not less than ten dreadnoughts of the newest Kaiser and Koenig types, about 10 cruisers and not fewer than 50 destroyers, of which about 20 were of the newest Novik type, and between eight and ten submarines. With these forces there are operating a very large number of trawlers and other auxiliaries, including transports, hydro-airplanes and rafts.

"During the evening yesterday we definitely established that at noon Wednesday, after a preliminary bombardment, the enemy began to land troops on Dago Island near the Village of Serro.

"Reports are current that about eleven enemy ships, probably torpedo boats, passed during the night of Wednesday off Kulsval, on the eastern coast of Moon Island."

LAST DAY OF CAMPAIGN HAS SPLENDID RESULTS

Sum Collected in Toronto for British Red Cross in Four Days Reaches Grand Total of $823,974.

Enthusiasm, which at times threatened to develop into delirium, marked the closing hours of the British Red Cross campaign when the final returns were announced to the 800 workers who gathered in the great meeting department of the Robert Simpson Company on Monday night last evening.

The scene was an inspiring one. The walls of the great hall were draped with immense flags of the empire and her allies, that of the United States having a conspicuous place. The workers, seated at the tables according to their divisions, were all under the influence of an animated gathering of patriotic sentiment, which broke out into song or yelled the praises of their country, allowed itself full sway, and when Col. Noel Marshall, to whom fell the honor of announcing the returns, stated that the total was the splendid aggregate of $823,974.16, a thrill went through those assembled, and with one accord they rose to their feet and waved a forest of hands clapped with patriotic fervor, while the campaign-ers allowed themselves the satisfaction of feeling that their labor and effort had been effective—Toronto, the Queen City, had once more asserted herself as a metropolis of generous people, and the staunch friend of the soldier and supporter of the British Red Cross.

BIG GUNS HERALD NEW DRIVE IN WEST

Infantry Remains Expectant, While Batteries Prepare Ground for Advance.

London, Oct. 19.—Artillery duels continue the principal method of warfare in the major theatres of the war. The British and French artillery are still pounding the German positions before them in Belgium, with the weather answering the fire vigorously at various points, especially along the Meuse and in the Zonnebeke. Little infantry activity is taking place except in the nature of raids.

British Aeroplanes Active. The British official communication, dealing with aviation, issued this evening, says: "Early on the morning of Thursday the weather was brilliantly fine, but at 9 o'clock low thick clouds lifted up from the west. Artillery work and photography work were carried out by the day two and a half tons of bombs were dropped on a large gun position at Ghent and in various hostile billets and huts."

That the William Davies Co. of Toronto was granted special privileges by the British Government during the period of its contract with the war office, and also that the American packers, with Herbert C. Again, during the rather incident examination of Mr. Fox as to the reason for the cancellation of the war office contract Chairman Hamilton intervened with the expressed opinion that this line of examination was not in the public interest.

ONE MILLION CHINESE LOSE HOMES IN FLOODS

Great Loss of Life in Thousands of Ruined Villages—Floods Caused by Torrential Rains Unequaled in Fifty Years.

Peking, Oct. 19.—The Associated Press correspondent has just completed a two-weeks' tour and overlaid tour of the flooded sections in Shantung, Honan and Chihli Provinces, and found that the breaks in the banks of the Yellow River were comparatively slight and unimportant and contribute only slightly to the torrent in the Grand Canal which keeps Tientsin under water. There is no danger of the Yellow River resuming its old channel. The correspondent went by boat over thousands of ruined villages and visited many isolated refugee camps.

There are at least 1,000,000 persons homeless and penniless, and probably 25,000 square miles of territory have been devastated, with the crops gone and the land still submerged. There has been great loss of life, especially among the old, small-footed women, who were unable to reach the highlands. The torrential rains for six weeks never before were equaled in volume in the last fifty years. The rains caused floods which even submerged regions away from the streams. The correspondent saw coolies dragging plows trying to cultivate land for the winter crops on the knolls, the work animals having been drowned.

The inundated Chihli plain is still pouring flood water thru the Grand Canal into Tientsin, where the American navy is stationed. The American navy is erecting huts for 5000 refugees, and other foreigners are planning to dig the water before freezing weather sets in. The Tientsin-Shanghai railway is washed away in many places, making relief of the transportation of supplies extremely difficult.

MUCH OIL POURED BUT WITHOUT AVAIL

Ward Four Conservatives, However, Clear Up Some of Their Differences.

Two hours' discussion, pandemonium, uproar, misunderstanding, interspersed with bows of "Silt down," "Let him speak," "Throw him out," "Let him alone," "You've no right here," "Yes, I have," and other choice and selected language characterized a "free works" meeting, or rather assembly of members, alleged members and non-members of Ward Four Conservative Association in Broadway Hall, Spadina avenue, last night.

To call it a meeting would be wrong, because it was determined illegality was not a meeting of the association or the executive, it did not concern, so "twas said, one lot of those who spoke, attempted to speak or rose to their feet, in humble effort and were defeated in the obtaining of a hearing and assembly had opened their mouths, while others opened their mouths in astonishment, gazed about them in amazement, and suddenly, without uttering a word, they were silent.

Thus did Ward Four Conservatives discuss or fail to discuss something that was claimed should not have been discussed, and thus did two hours fit away, leaving those who were far away from obtaining their objective as when they started. One splendid thing was accomplished, and that was that some of the misunderstanding was cleared up relative to a resolution adopted at a former meeting which was to be sent to the members of the association.

In the midst of voices the stalwart and the strong managed at times to force their words through the volume of noise which would die out, something tangible would be done, and then it would come that again. In it all would come that again. In it all would come that again. In it all would come that again.

At the outset, the legality of the meeting was questioned, not alone by the president, but by others present, and finally, after much interrupted talking it was decided that the meeting was not regular and out of order. When he was asked to make a ruling the president ruled the meeting out of order, and that the former president suggested that the president of the central association, J. R. L. Starr, K.C., take the chair, but this was not allowed as he finally took a seat on the platform, and acted in an advisory capacity only.

In addition to Mr. Starr, Mayor Church and Edmund Bristol, M.P., endeavored to act as peace-makers, and were partially successful, striking a responsive chord when referring to the sacrifice of Sir Robert Borden had made, and calling upon the united effort of all good Conservatives to lack him up in his war-time policies. As the session progressed the lecturer himself, one by one, explained why they had called the meeting and acknowledged a misunderstanding, and much the same position was reached by the president.

As a result the president promised to appoint a committee, and the association resolved to clear up the differences that remained at a meeting next week. When Miles Vokes called for a ruling as to the legality of the meeting.

President Sweeney answered, "I rule the meeting is not legally called."

Called for Petition.

Everybody talked at once. Secretary William Armstrong: "I could not do otherwise than call the meeting. (The meeting had been called by petition signed by 10 members of the executive committee). Archie Draxman tried to speak. Followed a word conflict between him and Harry Saunders. Voice: "One at a time. Elliott moved the chair be sustained. Voice: "What's the use of bylaws? Mr. Elliott moved again. More voices: "If the meeting's illegal you can't put a motion. Dr. Elliott sat down. Starr spoke as peace-maker and explained the constitution and powers of a chairman. He urged consolidation of effort, but without appreciable results.

Mayor Church entered the crowded room, and when called to speak, said: "This is no time to write. Let's get together. Even the scavengers' strike was settled. (Laughter). This has gone on long enough. You must give and take." A. R. Denison followed with exhortations urging that the mayor's advice be taken. The Smith appealed to the manhood of the members and suggested that all before executive members get out. The suggestion was not acted upon. Edmund Bristol, M.P., when the noise had calmed somewhat, recollecting other "this scraps," asked for peace and harmony, and touching upon politics, declared "If the Kaiser had wanted an agent in Canada he wouldn't have had a better man than Sir Wilfrid Laurier."

Joe Bailey handed out some straight talk to President Sweeney, repeating the reason for calling the meeting. "Why don't you step out and permit amalgamation?" he asked, and offered to resign, but I want to tell you now I'm in the field to stay." (Loud hurrahs). "Well, I want to sell you, that as sure as you run you will never be elected," Mr. Bailey threw back amid a "uproar."

"Unjust Attacks." Similar passages occurred between member and member, and member and president, and then W. M. Smith explained that he signed the petition and that he would go to the president and that he would call the meeting. J. F. Lester offered some explanations and was followed by Harry Saunders, who referred to "unjust attacks," etc. Finally Miles Vokes got the floor. Bit by bit his misunderstanding with the president was cleared up, and the light was coming and soon all would be well.

Secretary Armstrong stated his position, saying that he had not written to the ridings association because he had not been instructed to do so, and this was followed by the president lecturing a committee the citizens in dispute one by one, said: "Will we name Thursday, November 1, for the annual meeting?"

Mr. Vokes: "Why ask the question? It can't carry here. You admit your mistake?" President Sweeney: "No. You can rule this meeting in order. Many voices: "No! No! (Uproar again). J. Bailey moved the meeting adjourn and that the executive be called the first of the week.

Archie Draxman jumped up against the president, and Mr. Bailey out of order. Arthur Van Kollignt asked for settlement, making a semi-valet effort. A. R. Denison suggested another meeting and asked the president, "Are you willing to follow the wishes of the association?" to which Mr. Sweeney replied: "I'm prepared to send the resolution tomorrow, and as session they give a favorable reply I'll appoint a committee forthwith. Is that satisfactory?"

Several replied "Yes," and "Discuss the date." "Don't let the tail wag the dog," advised William Smith, asking for dignity in the matter of joining with the association. "Move we adjourn!" and the meeting broke up without the motion being put.

The room was crowded, and while they left the building the members formed into groups to discuss further the matters in question, some maintaining that headway had been made, others that the middle was deeper than ever.

LIBERTY IN JEOPARDY

W. F. Maclean, M.P., Points to Need of Reinforcements at Front.

Union government was the one absorbing theme at the meeting of the Liberal-Conservative Association of Beaches held last night. Dr. H. W. Burgess was in the chair, and addresses were delivered by W. F. Maclean, M.P., Henry, M.L.A., Controller Thomas Foster, Dr. W. R. Walters, Capt. King, Fred Baker, John Lennox and A.M. H. Borden. The speaker in the chair, Dr. H. W. Burgess, said that the Liberal-Conservative Association of Beaches was the only organization in the country that was not divided into political parties.

Mr. Maclean called attention to the fact that many nations like England, France, Russia and Italy were united in their differences and were united in their struggle to preserve the liberties of the world. The great dominions of the empire had rallied together and were not the same purpose, and there were no divisions or dissensions among the men in the trenches. Could not Canadians at home, he asked, combine under petty differences and under the Union government for the winning of the war? Union government had proved a success in the various parts of the world, and in the various British commonwealths beyond the seas, and there was no reason why Canada should not prove a success in the struggle along the same line, and the controller also outlined the progressive policy which he believed would be carried out by the new government.

He favored encouraging the shipbuilding industry, and giving more adequate pay and pensions to soldiers and their dependents. Support Union. Dr. Walters pointed to the flags of France and the United States entwined with the Union Jack, and said that if great nations could unite the same single purpose, the same single purpose could be and should be done by the citizens of Canada. Fred Baker, who opened the speech-making, favored a union government candidate for East York. At the same time he made a sarcastic reference to the Liberal-Conservative Association on Thursday, where, he said, Hartley Dewar, K.C., a corporation lawyer, posed as a friend of the people, but had a word to say for the sea-faring men and for the sailors on the great lake, as well as for the people of the nation, and for such by appealing for an understanding between the parties that would assure the return of a union government candidate without a contest.

The one discordant note was struck by Mr. Lennox, who feared the Liberal party, and that the parliament had joined the Liberal party, but he said that because they saw that Laurier's defeat was inevitable. But for the first three years of the war they had not been in the cabinet. Mr. Lennox got a good hearing, and when he had finished he seemed pretty evident that the East York Conservatives were not prepared to accept Mr. W. F. Maclean as a union government candidate.

Controller Foster, Dr. Walters, Capt. King and Mr. Lennox are understood to be in the running for the nomination. An enjoyable feature of the evening was a number of stirring songs, splendidly rendered, by Tom Barclay.

Making of Canada. It was 27 years, said Mr. Maclean, since he had first entered his ridings to take up the cause of the Conservative party, the late Sir W. Macdonald, and to support his national policy. That policy had made this country self-sufficient, and had made Canada a nation and competent to take its part in the prosecution of this war for the maintenance of the rights of humanity.

Never has the liberties of the world and the future of civilization been in such jeopardy as today by reason of German aggression. The people of America were as much in this fight as the people of Europe. The question before the people of the Dominion today was: "How can Canada play her part to win this war and to let it be known that never again may a nation organize on military lines for the purpose of gaining the domination of the world?" The glory of Canada was that she had led the North American continent in undertaking the fight for liberty and humanity. By means of a union government, the speaker declared, Canada would be allowed to take its part in the war and give much needed support to the boys at the front.

Mr. Maclean pointed out that the need for reinforcements was great. Daily he had received communications from women appealing for further aid for the boys at the front. Each case had been forwarded to Ottawa, where a thorough investigation had been made, but the reply had not been received, and he needed at the front, and none would be allowed back.

Give Men Furlough. He had in favor of compulsory service in a war of this kind. The government, by the introduction of the military service bill, was not trying to establish a form of military service as existed in Germany prior to the outbreak of war. The bill had been introduced in order that Canada might maintain her forces at the front. As a result some who had been there three years might be able to come home on furlough. "The time has come," he declared, "for a union of all people to win the war, irrespective of the ideas that have divided us before. Can't we, as Canadians, follow the example of the allied nations which have united for the purpose of winning the war? The people now see their duty and are united in their purpose. It is absurd to talk of our alliances with other peoples when we are divided at home on this question."

As a result of union government a better feeling would exist between Liberals and Conservatives. The bulk of the people now saw their duty and were getting in line to win the war by uniting at home, as there was union at the front. The Conservative party had led the way by inviting all Liberals who wished to win the war to join with them, and today the country had a union government which was consecrated to uniting the people of Canada for the one supreme issue, the winning of the war. Predicts Sweeping Victory. The union government, he stated, would in the coming election get a western sweeping victory from a Liberal and Conservative. The bulk of the people now saw their duty and were getting in line to win the war by uniting at home, as there was union at the front.

Mr. Lennox, who opened the speech-making, favored a union government candidate for East York. At the same time he made a sarcastic reference to the Liberal-Conservative Association on Thursday, where, he said, Hartley Dewar, K.C., a corporation lawyer, posed as a friend of the people, but had a word to say for the sea-faring men and for the sailors on the great lake, as well as for the people of the nation, and for such by appealing for an understanding between the parties that would assure the return of a union government candidate without a contest.

were downed and four were driven out of control, while another was shot down by anti-aircraft gunfire. Seven of our machines are missing. The British official statement issued by the war office tonight followed: "On the battle front there was the usual hostile artillery activity most marked in the Zonnebeke sector and against our back areas in the neighborhood of St. Julien and Steenbeke. Our artillery carried out a concentration bombardment of the enemy's positions. The hostile artillery which has shown more activity than usual in the neighborhood of Arleux. Elsewhere nothing of special interest occurred."

Spirited Cannoning. Paris, Oct. 19.—Today's official communication was issued this evening: "At some points on the Aisne front, in the sector of Souain, and on both banks of the Meuse there has been rather pronounced artillery activity. Belgian communication: The cannonade has been intermittent on most of the front. It has increased in the sector of Ramscapelle. In the last two days we have carried out a retaliatory shelling on enemy organizations and counter-battled various German batteries."

"During the night of October 18-19 one of our patrols penetrated a German wood near Dixmude and attacked with grenades its garrison. Shortly after the return of this detachment the enemy started a violent barrage fire against our trenches to the north of Dixmude."

"The night of the East, October 18: There has been spirited enemy cannonading. During the night a British mortar battery near the mouth of the Struma. Our aviators have bombed Gjevial station. Violent Artillery Duels. Berlin, Oct. 19.—Today's official statement says: "Western theatre—Army of Crown Prince Rupprecht: The fighting activity of the artillery in Flanders again reached great intensity yesterday on the coast and between the woods of the front. The firing was especially violent at the Houthulst Wood near Passchendaele, and between Gheluvelt and Zandvoorde. "Army of the German Crown Prince: After a rainy morning, the artillery duel northeast of Soissons again increased yesterday. The firing has been raging since then almost unintermittently with a formidable use of munitions."

"French detachments, after drumfire, pushed forward in reconnoitering thrusts in the morning near Vauxallons and in the evening along the whole front to Bray. The local engagements of the enemy everywhere were repulsed. Neighboring sectors on the line behind our positions were subjected to very strong destructive fire, which we powerfully answered."

"On the eastern portion of the Chemin des Dames, the French again attacked our positions, three times north of the Valenciennes mill, and were singularly repulsed. With the German armies the fighting activity was restricted by reason of rain and fog."

"Our opponents lost yesterday 12 airplanes, six of which belonged to a squadron which had dropped bombs on Roulers and Ingelmar with considerable damage to houses."

Victory Near in Hamilton Drive. The following official communication was issued: "Seven hostile airships attacked the eastern and northeastern counties this evening. The enemy did not proceed, and some distance inland over these counties, but did not carry out any very definite attack. Six or seven bombs were dropped at various points, including a few in the London area. The raid is still in progress. There were the customary scenes in London. The people hurried to the subways and other shelters, which were soon filled. The combusters, however, continued running. After the warning was sounded very distant roars of guns were heard for a few minutes. The searchlights were seen. It is evident the raiders were prevented from reaching the London district."

VICTORY NEAR IN HAMILTON DRIVE

British Red Cross Campaign Passes Ninety Thousand Mark.

Hamilton, Saturday, Oct. 20.—With the $90,000 mark passed by a comfortable margin the supreme effort of the $100,000 three-day campaign in the interests of the British Red Cross will be made today. Despite the previous success of the campaign, which has been made in Hamilton since the war commenced there is not the slightest doubt that the long-for goal will be attained. Confidence is being expressed on all sides that Hamilton's answer to the appeal of the motherland for assistance will be considerably over $100,000.

Two hundred workers rose to their feet and cheered as one yesterday when George C. Copley, chairman of the management committee, announced with a smile on his face that the desired goal was in sight. "There are gold mines in sight yet, boys, and I know that you will find them," said the chief. He urged the workers to go forth as "knightly knights of old," and not leave a stone unturned in order that Hamilton might live up to the standard set by her soldiers overseas.

The board of control chamber, which has stormy history, housed no livelier session than that of the property and liaison committee yesterday afternoon. Hot words and personalities flew thick and fast and once Aldermen Book and Young were on the verge of blows. Ald. Book had expressed the opinion that any project in Hamilton would fleece the public if given the opportunity. Ald. Young, however, resented the aspersion and both stood up, leaned towards each other and growled. Then they sat down again.

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 19.—For the purpose of "spreading isolation around the bishop," as it was explained, a horde of the new Sacred Heart Church on the west side of the city, was declared at a meeting of French-Canadian in Wyandotte Hall. Those present at the gathering pledged themselves to remain away from any ceremonies and refuse to give any assistance. It is understood that the bishop will be here on October 25 to attend the opening of the church. Rev. Father Rooney is the pastor.

This is in line with the policy adopted by the protesting sectors of Our Lady of the Lake Church, Ford City.

WAR SUMMARY THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

THE English eastern counties and London again entertained unwelcome visitors in six or seven German airships last night. The raid was still in progress when the news was sent. The employment of airships instead of airplanes appears to suggest that the enemy is making use of zeppelins again. After the threat of reprisal made by Premier Lloyd George, the Germans ceased their aerial attacks for a considerable time.

The British are continuing their artillery preparation with great intensity for their advance into Belgium. Field Marshal Haig, in his official bulletins, describes the British firing as counter-battery work. The Germans established their artillery in a strong new line after the first British success. The British front line has now come within effective range of these new positions. The Germans cannot conceal their guns from the cameras of the British airplanes. The result is a great and destructive bombardment of the German batteries.

The decision to remove the Russian capital from Petrograd to Moscow is equal to an allied victory. It takes the government from the midst of a great cosmopolitan population, in large part German-speaking and in large part having an old grievance against the Russian people. It transplants the government from surroundings, which have absorbed vague and impractical ideals, which have long floated round Europe, to surroundings of a more conservative nature, in the midst of the real Russian peasantry. It may therefore make for stability of government. It will give the new Russian national assembly less turbulent environment. In the Gulf of Riga the enemy is proceeding to attack other islands. He has lost vessels in the naval operations, including two trawlers and two torpedo boats. He has massed ten dreadnoughts, ten cruisers, fifty destroyers and eight to ten submarines for the offensive.

A reading between the lines shows that the manifesto of the Stockholm conference has not so much as its object the bringing about of peace as the creating of divisions among the allies. It adopts the terms of German propaganda in referring to the military position, expressing unqualified opinion that it would be rash to conclude that either side would win the victory, either this year, next year, or the year after. The basis of peace laid down in the manifesto is familiar—it comes from Berlin. Germany not to surrender Alsace-Lorraine to France, but its future to be settled by plebiscite; Bulgaria to retain eastern Macedonia as far as the Tardar; an independent Russian Poland, while Prussian and Austrian Poland are to remain under the enemy yoke; independence for Ireland; Bohemia to remain under the Hapsburg sway; international solution of the Jewish problem; special privileges for the Jews in Russia and Poland. The clauses for compulsory arbitration, general disarmament, the suppression of any form of economic warfare and the extension of parliamentary control over foreign policy read like excerpts from a speech of a German chancellor.

The GRAND - OPENING - DISPLAY - of - FURS -

— BEGINNING — MONDAY — OCT. — 22 nd. —

NOVEMBER is close at hand, the month of bleak, sunless days, of snow flurries and of biting frost — the season when Furs come on the scene in all their warmth and glory. And to present to you the new mode in neckpieces, muffs and wraps, the Fur Department, on Monday and the following days, will be set forth in gala array with

A SUPPERB SHOWING OF FASHIONABLE PELTRIES

Among which will be featured the furs of chief favor in the style centres of Paris, London and New York—

- Fox in the brown and taupe tints known variously as Georgette, Poirat, Lucille, Yukon, Victoria and cinnamon.
- White fox, black fox, cross fox, red fox and pointed fox.
- Wolf—Brown, taupe, black and grey.
- Copper, sable, Alaska sable and mink.
- Ermine, moleskin and Hudson seal (seal rat).
- Kolinsky and Jap-Kolinsky (dyed weasel).

In All of Which Will Be Emphasized the Ruling Vogue of the Animal Scarf, the Caperine, the Round Muff, and the All-enveloping, All-prevailing Coat of Hudson Seal.

THE SENSATION of the season is the cape. Its form is legion, varying from the wee collarette to the pelarine that reaches to the waist, serving as a quaint little mantelet. Oftentimes it appears as a long shawl scarf, arranged cape-wise on the shoulders. For which are employed such peltries as Hudson seal (seal rat), moleskin, Kolinsky and ermine.

The alternative neckpiece is the flat animal scarf in wolf or fox, head, tail and paws finishing it off in logical manner.

And whether worn with cape or scarf, the fashionable muff is almost invariably round or "canteen" (oblong) in shape.

The coat of 1917-18 is slimmer in line than its predecessor of last year, falling gracefully in a straight line from shoulder to ankle. It may be slightly full and belted, or semi-fitting, without belt. As for the collar—ever the chief point of interest in a coat—it is sometimes of the seal itself, but oftentimes of some such contrasting peltry as Kolinsky, taupe fox, Alaska sable, beaver, natural lynx or opossum.

The brown muskrat coat also presents itself with sure confidence of popularity for motoring and general winter wear. It, too, follows the straight lines of current vogue.

Cape and pillow muff of Alaska sable in "drop" skin, set, with natural tails. Price, $500.00 set.

Coat in Hudson seal, French dyed (seal muskrat), with pointed collar and deep cuffs of Alaska sable, and lining of brass color crepe. Note the deep point in the elbow of the sleeve. This, too, a model from Revillon Freres.

If perplexity assails you in any matter concerning your wardrobe, the furnishing of your house, the choosing of a gift, the filling of a soldier's overcoat box—write to "The Scribe," who will reply to you in the column below. If you live out of town and wish to purchase something advertised on this page—or anything which is not listed in the Catalogue—address your order to The Shopping Service.

"A Busy Wayfarer."—Fancy your sitting down, "once upon a midnight dreary," and peering that interesting screen on the amiability of public servants. Your appreciation of the two salespeople will certainly be "passed on." We were delighted to receive it. As for the "talks" on pictures—here's hoping!

"Curious One."—"Roberts' Rules of Order" may be had for $1.10. Feeling the responsibility of the vote!

W. J. B.—And your call, too, can be met—10-gallon crocks (empty) being procurable at $2.85, and 6-gallon at $1.45. Both prices include covers.

"Louise."—One seems to associate blue with a "Louise," but if your bedroom looks to the north it would be wiser to adorn it with pink. One would suggest an English flower garden wall paper, with curtains in plain rose color case-ment cloth, and rose or moss green Scotch wool square on the floor. Or, if the room is small, an unpatterned ivory paper with curtains of crestone in which rose is the predominating color.

If warmth is the chief requisite in the baby slippers, why not have a pair of the crocheted wool variety with lamb soles. They are in pink, at $1.50 a pair.

If you will send your full address we will try what we can do about providing you with the somewhat complicated directions you want.

"Mother."—Had you thought of marabout? It is inexpensive, yet by no means or means what you would call "cheap." It can be had in the fashionable brown shade, a neckpiece in the modish cape style being $8.50, and a muff, $5.00.

If you still prefer to concoct some sort of a stole and muff for yourself, suitable brown silk may be had from $1.50 to $2.50, 54 inches wide. In fur banding to border it you may have Western Sable, 3 inches wide, at $3.00 a yard; beaver, 2 inches, at $4.00, or 3 inches at $6.00, and skunk, 3 inches, at $15.00 a yard.

"The Definite Object"

Jeffery Farnold's Latest Novel, "Reviewed" For Us by "Katherine Hale."

THIS is a romance without a word of war from beginning to end. Those who admire the whimsical humor of Jeffery Farnold, and who wish to get away from the tension of present-day life for a while, will find much to interest them in this amusing tale.

The plot is concerned with the doings of a young American millionaire, who, tired of the monotonous ease of his days, gives himself up to Chance, and is introduced by an amateur burglar to a certain slum of New York known to the initiated as "Hell's Kitchen." Here, among its various denizens, especially a band of American Anarches, Geoffrey Ravensdale finds scope for all his wit and resources. Life as a peanut vendor becomes more interesting to his adventurous soul than as a mere millionaire.

But "the definite object" is really the pursuit of Love. There is a rose blooming in Hell's Kitchen. To pluck this rose, from sorry surroundings and place it in a garden, makes the romantic interest. The story is full of action.

(For sale in the Book Department. Price, $1.25.)

LAST DAY OF CAMPAIGN HAS SPLENDID RESULTS

sided; His Grace Archbishop McNeill; Bishop Reeves, Hamilton; Fr. McFadden, the eminent English war correspondent and representative of The London Daily Mail; Hon. T. W. McGarry, Mayor of Toronto; H. H. Williams and Dr. Abchurch. Others present were: Lady Hearst, Mr. Justice Riddell, Kenneth Dunstan, C. A. B. Brown, T. A. Stevens, Commissioner Bradshaw, Alderman Robbins, Mrs. H. S. Strathairn, Mrs. A. E. Gooderham, Mrs. W. H. W. Cummings, Mrs. R. S. Wilson, Mrs. Angus MacMurphy.

Got Great Reception.

As Hamilton Frye had to leave to catch a seven o'clock train, the total was announced at an early hour of the proceedings so that he might have the necessary figures and participate in the excitement of the meeting. The distinguished visitor was then invited by Col. Noel Marshall to say a few words before leaving and when his words were heard in response to the invitation, he was held up for a few minutes by the applause that greeted him, the audience insisting on singing a verse of "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" before permitting him to speak. When he could be heard, Mr. Frye said that he supposed nobody ever got so much kindness without doing anything to deserve it. I have to thank you for one of the most wonderful weeks of my life. He described the gallant energy, the dash, determination, skill and judgment which had gone to make it a success and which had been shown since the workers went over the top Tuesday morning. You have shown me," said the speaker, "that a community can be welded together into an instrument of great value for social service, and why Canada is the brightest part of Toronto what it is today." If opportunity presented he would tell the troops at the front of the things he had done to you during his stay. "Good-bye and God bless you. I hope I shall soon be among you again," were the closing words of the eminent newspaper man who had made himself a great favorite while in the city, and who followed from the hall by the notes of "For We Love Him Best of All" and "We'll Never Let the Old Flag Fall."

Tribute to Organization.

The introduction of Sir William Hearst by Noel Marshall was the signal for fresh applause. "This gathering tonight," said the premier, "is one that would do the heart of any Briton good. It shows the empire and humanity is something wonderful. You have made nearly double your objective, which is a tribute to your organization, but above all, to the people of this magnificent City of Toronto. If the boys who are holding the line in Flanders could see this picture, they would give them courage and if the Kaiser could see it he would say might as well give up. The premier addressed everyone to forget politics and work shoulder to shoulder. He made a covenant to be in the war until the last dollar was spent and the last man had given his life for the cause of liberty. After the premier had spoken, Col. Noel Marshall paid a tribute to the ladies of the "Experience" company, who in their midst, another happy incident was when a gold medal bearing the head of a soldier was put up and bought by Miss Edmondson, who then presented it to the fair auctioneer, Miss Down. The auction sale brought in $2,854.90.

Varsity's Returns.

The students of Toronto University, under the supervision of C. C. Grant, collected $2,350.85; the staff gave $4,000; The United Can. Co. of Canada $5,000; Queen's Hospital $2,000; Low's Theatre, $1,000; Simpson Co., $1,000; Canadian Ammonia Company, Ltd., $250, employees, $50; Harry Ross collected $178 from the new boys.

Archbishop McNeil expressed his conviction that the City of Toronto was now on the map to stay in white and red. It was an inspiring situation, giving assurance of what can be

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Backache is Sign You Have Been Eating Too Much Meat.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid, which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood, and they become sort of paralyzed and sluggish. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, your tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, your feet swell, your kidneys often get sore, water scales and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is a life-saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.

THE BLESSING OF A HEALTHY BODY

Has Not Had an Hour's Sickness Since Taking "Fruit-a-tives."

MR. MARRIOTT, 73 Lees Ave., Ottawa, Ont., August 9th, 1915. "I think it my duty to tell you that 'Fruit-a-tives' has done for me. Three years ago I began to feel run-down and tired, and suffered very much from Liver and Kidney Trouble. Having read of 'Fruit-a-tives,' I thought I would try them. The result was surprising. During the 3 1/2 years past I have taken them regularly, and would not change them for anything. I commenced using 'Fruit-a-tives,' and I know now what I haven't known before, the blessing of a healthy body and clear thinking brain."

WARNING AGAINST PREMATURE PEACE

Hon. James M. Beck Points Out Lesson of Silesia.

CONQUEROR OR EXILE

Speaker Calls Canadians His Fellow-Citizens at This Time.

Hon. James M. Beck, the pioneer champion in the United States of the cause of the allies against Germany, gave good and substantial reasons for the faith that is in him at a Canadian Club luncheon in St. James' parish house yesterday.

He aroused real enthusiasm by his friendly sentiments, and in opening addressed those present as his fellow-citizens. His learned friend beside him (Justice Ritchie) might think him technically wrong, but he said he used the expression advisedly. As long as this war lasted, as long as soldiers of the two countries were fighting together, as long as the women were making the sacrifices they did, as long as the two flags were entwined, so long as the nations were together in the great venture for the cause of democracy, he would regard Canadians as fellow-citizens.

"We few, we happy few, we band of brothers. For he who sheds his blood with me today, he is my brother."

Nothing was further from his thoughts than to boast before England, Canada and France of what the United States had done, and he asked to be acquitted of any intention of that kind in mentioning a few facts of a tangible kind. The indemnity awarded to France in 1870 was one billion dollars, and it staggered the world. The United States in six months had put at the disposal of the allies seven times that amount. Congress had appropriated twenty-one times as much. The entire capital wealth of the United States was 250 billions, and one-fourth of this had been appropriated as a start. Divisions had all died away, and they were in fact as well as in name the United States of America.

He believed President Wilson's reply to a little group, of which he himself was the spokesman, was the utterance of a sincere mind when the president declared, "America will never stop in this fight until the great ends for which it was begun have been accomplished."

There was usually an excess of sentiment in a democracy, and he warned them against any false idea of magnanimity. He ventured the prediction that Kaiser Wilhelm in twelve months would either be a dethroned exile. There was a great danger that in the presence of such unusual butchery they might accept a congress had agreed that case there would come to the Kaiser all the prestige of a conqueror, and the residue of power of the neutrals and even some of our allies would go to him.

He referred to the career of Frederick the Great, who in the first year of the seven years' war was far nearer defeated than the Kaiser at present. No war was won until it is won. They must depend on what Napoleon called the impendable. Had there been any appreciation of the fact that this was a moral universe when Frederick raped Silesia there would have been no rape of Belgium. The nations should have risen and stamped out the author of that infamous call to arms through a false idea of peace France and England stopped because there had been enough blood shed. "When a bully starts to bully the world there is only one thing to do, and that is to thrash the bully. Having cornered the Hohenzollern beast, let's cage him," he pleaded amid great applause.

I. S. Fairly occupied the chair.

The Psychological Pressure.
If any explanation be needed for the somewhat slower response to the Red Cross appeal this year it may be found in the immediate liabilities which citizens are called upon to face.

We believe the government could do more to establish a better feeling in the country and to "loosen up" the circulation of cash by cleaning up the coal situation than in any other way.

The controllers of food and fuel have not considered the people in any common-sense way. They have not considered them as people at all.

Probably he should put aside these considerations, but most of us have not fully learned the need for giving yet, and these seem to be very real and urgent excuses.

The La Follette Case.

A sub-committee of the United States Senate's Standing Committee on Privileges and Elections has been instructed to examine and report upon the sensational speech delivered some weeks ago at St. Paul, Minn., by Hon. R. M. La Follette, a senator from the State of Wisconsin.

Senator La Follette appeals to the right of free speech, and cites some illustrious examples of patriotic citizens who savagely denounced the government of the day while a war was in progress, and even denounced the war itself.

As to the issue of free speech, a number of American papers take the ground that free speech only includes the right to speak the truth.

Mr. La Follette has undoubtedly spoiled a great career by his attitude on the war, but the hue and cry raised against him is not altogether prompted by his opposition to the war.

The Sword and the Lyre.

When this war commenced we were confidently promised a great literary outburst of poetry, drama and song.

ture had been reached in England during the martial times of Elizabeth, the continental wars of William the Third and Marlborough, and the titanic struggle that closed at Waterloo.

Up to date this prophecy lacks verification. Yet we must remember that the great writers of the past have seldom reaped direct inspiration from contemporary wars.

One reading a present-day war-time novel is struck with the fact that the story has to be left up in the air. The hero and heroine may marry, but if the hero remains in the army he may be killed in a month; but he cannot, even in a novel, leave the army unless he is incapacitated by wounds for further service.

H. G. Wells is a conspicuous exception. Sir James Barrie has also made good so far as popular approval goes, even if he has not greatly added to his artistic reputation.

Wellington Hay, M.L.A., who carried North Perth at the by-election of 1915, is another example of the Liberal members of the Ontario Legislature this week.

Other People's Opinions

Food Control—Fuel Control.

Editor World: Since the appointment of Mr. W. J. Hanna as food controller I have, with many others, waited patiently to see what attempt he would make in connection with his big staff of highly paid assistants, to grapple with the conditions which necessitated his appointment.

"According to an order of the food controller's, issued under the banner of the Realm Act, the price of dead piglets is fixed at 133a per cent. maximum; and buyers and sellers are prohibited, by penalty, from exceeding this amount."

It would, therefore, appear to me to be the first duty of a food controller to regulate prices, and if Mr. Hanna still feels he is unable (for want of the necessary power), or unwilling to do so (for fear of incurring the displeasure of the interests), then I would suggest that he resign and thus give the people an opportunity of insisting on the government appointing a food controller, with power to regulate prices, who will have the courage to handle his position without "fear, favor or affection."

It Eliminates the Middleman.

Editor World: Can you explain what consistency there is in the following paragraphs which appeared in the outline of the union government's policy in 'The World' this morning?

It seems to me that the paragraph should read: The encouragement of co-operation among those engaged in agricultural production with a view to diminishing the cost of production and marketing so that the price paid by the consumer may conform more closely to that paid by the producer.

POLITICAL NEWS

The prime minister's manifesto may be said to formally open the campaign. It is considered the most able document of the kind since Sir John Macdonald's famous manifesto of 1891.

Yesterday morning Sir Wilfrid held a conference with the Liberal candidates for parliament from eastern Ontario, and he is to hold a similar conference with the western Ontario candidates at London this afternoon.

A semi-official statement was issued yesterday from the Liberal-Conservative headquarters respecting the visit of Hon. Frank Cooper and Hon. J. D. Reid to Toronto. They are here, as The World stated yesterday morning, to map out the campaign of the union government candidates.

Wellington Hay, M.L.A., who carried North Perth at the by-election of 1915, is another example of the Liberal members of the Ontario Legislature this week.

The Pioneer, a staunch advocate of temperance, hopes the union government will inaugurate a policy of supply by prohibiting the further manufacture of alcoholic liquor, and wishes that such earnest temperance advocates as Sir George Foster and Hon. N. W. Rowell, all of whom are included in the restricted cabinet.

The Windsor Record rejoices in the announcement from Ottawa that the union government has decided to have no campaign fund. It seems to take it for granted that Sir Wilfrid Laurier will have none at his command, and that we may look forward to an absolutely clean election.

The Calgary Alberta, an independent paper, with Liberal leanings, and at one time opposed to co-operation with the union government, has recently changed its position to give sympathetic support to the union government. It does not believe that the government is open to the charge that it was formed to help the big interests. At the same time, it observes that those Liberal leaders who have been most tied up in the past with the big corporations are opposing the new government.

General G. H. Macdonell, D.S.O., who has been decorated for conspicuous gallantry at the front, may consent to stand for South Toronto as the union government candidate. General Macdonell is the brother of Senator A. Claude Macdonell, who represented the constituency from 1894 until he was called to the senate a few months ago.

The crew, as recruited by the quartermaster's department, included many of the men who had served on the steamship when she was in the merchant service. The Antilles was built in Philadelphia in 1907. She was 421 feet long, with a beam of 33 feet and a depth of 37 feet.

This tragedy of the sea, the first in which an American ship engaged in war duty has been lost, is the first of its magnitude to bring home to the people of the United States the horrors of the war in which they have engaged against Germany. It carries the largest casualty list of war of American lives, and makes the first success of German submarines upon American transports.

Complaints are made that Bulgarian divisions were compelled to march long distances on foot while favored German troops rolled past them in trains, this favoritism exciting particular bitterness on the part of a select Bulgarian division from the capital.

U. S. Government Action Adds To Problems of Grain Dealers

Guelph, Oct. 19.—Chas. P. Quinn of Toledo, secretary of the National Grain Dealers' Association of the United States, and a Guelph boy, is resting for a few days in this city. Quinn stated that the action of the American Government in taking over the wheat supply has enormously added to the problems of the grain dealers and a number of them have gone out of business as a consequence. They are faced with the prospects, too, of similar action being taken by the government towards the corn and oats, of which there is a three billion supply of the former and a million and a half of the latter.

Laurierites Hold A SECRET SESSION

frid Laurier. It was stated, spoke both in the morning and afternoon, and received a warm reception, the resolution endorsing his leadership being changed. It is understood that Sir Robert Borden's manifesto outlining the platform upon which the union government will appeal to the country came in for some criticism. It is quite probable that within the next week Sir Wilfrid Laurier will also issue a manifesto outlining his position.

It was learned that Hon. G. P. Graham made a speech in which he stated that, since the beginning of the war, he had favored union government. He had favored it when Sir Robert Borden made proposals for union to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and which, owing to conditions and circumstances, could not be accepted because it was too late. Later on when individual Liberals were asked to join the government, he had adopted the attitude that the formation of a union government on the eve of an election was not desirable, but that it would more properly come after the people had spoken. Mr. Graham deprecated criticism of the motives of the Liberal who had joined the Borden administration. They were still Liberals, he said. No one in Ontario would question the loyalty and sincerity of Hon. N. W. Rowell. Referring to the prime minister's manifesto, Mr. Graham said that the platform as announced showed an infusion of Liberal principles. Some of the planks announced were identical with proposals which had been made by himself. He intimated that if this program were adopted by the government, he would give it his support, but he would leave himself free to oppose to the full extent of his power any attempt on the part of financial pirates to plunder the public treasury. Referring to the Military Service Act, Mr. Graham, it is said, stated that he had voted for conscription, and still believed it desirable. He had not changed his views. It is understood that Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in his speech, did not depart from the views already expressed by him in regard to the Military Service Act. His position, it is said, is that conscription, will, it is believed, be dealt with fully by him in the manifesto which he will issue shortly.

SMOOTHING WAY OF UNION CANDIDATES

Ministers Who Have Been in Toronto Returned to Ottawa.

Hon. Frank Cochrane, Hon. Dr. Reid and Hon. N. W. Rowell left last night for Ottawa after spending a few very busy days in Toronto in an effort to smooth the way for the new union government at the coming elections. All three before leaving expressed confidence in the work accomplished and pleasure at the support the government was receiving. An official statement was handed out by the Conservative organization yesterday to the effect that arrangements were being made for the coming campaign in the Province of Ontario. Some difficulty is being encountered in adjusting things in riding where there are candidates who are not being taken kindly and the claim is made that under this method the Liberal part of the union government will be poorly represented in parliament.

Cochrane in Charge

It is generally understood that Hon. Frank Cochrane will have charge of the Ontario campaign and that another conference here will bring matters to a head in the near future. Hon. N. W. Rowell, when asked before leaving the city last night regarding a rumor that two candidates in North Oxford had resigned in his favor, stated that he had heard nothing of it. The same inquiry made at the Conservative headquarters failed to bring out the information that no official word to this effect had reached them.

When Hon. Dr. Reid was asked if he had discussed the situation with F. F. Pardee, he said that he had taken the matter up with Mr. Rowell, who had Mr. Pardee present. Dr. Reid claimed that Mr. Pardee was supporting union government.

More Rumors Heard. Word was received here last night that Col. Barney Hepburn, M.P. for Prince Edward County, had placed his resignation as a Conservative candidate at the coming election in the hands of the executive. No further details could be learned, but it is supposed that this is a preliminary step toward agreeing upon a union government candidate who will be returned by acclamation.

Repulse Austrian Attacks in Force to the East of Calgary.

Rome, Oct. 19.—The Italian war department today issued the following statement: "During the night of Wednesday there was a renewal of local fighting on the Trentino and Carnia fronts. The enemy's activity was particularly directed against our line between Posina and the Rio Freddo Valleys, where, after repeated attacks in force and several concentrations of fire, he succeeded in occupying one of our advanced posts north of Monte Majo and breaking into another east of Calgary. We dislodged him from the former post with an energetic counter-attack and drove him from the latter post with fire, capturing 40 soldiers and three officers. Three enemy patrols were driven back at various places before they could reach our positions. "On the Julian front an enemy attack on the northern slope of San Gabriele, with hand grenades in an assault by companies, was crushed by our fire."

Baseball Leafs Are Mentioned Again in Despatches

NO BASEBALL NEXT YEAR IN TORONTO

That is, if There's No International, or Leafs Fail to Horn into Another League.

New York, Oct. 19.—At a special meeting of the National League here today President John K. Tener was given full power to act for the league in the matter of the suit of the Baltimore Club of the former Federal League. He will represent his organization in consultation with legal advisers looking toward any action which may be undertaken either in defence of the suit or otherwise.

Annual Dunlop Trophy Race This Afternoon

Since the original list of handicaps in the Dunlop Trophy race was published, post entries have brought the total to 101. Only once in the twenty-four years has this mark been surpassed, namely, in 1913, when 110 entries came in. The next nearest mark was in 1903, when there was a total entry list of 97.

The twenty-fourth annual race is on today (Saturday), on the Danforth-Markham road, at 3 p.m. The special prize for the first boy under 15 to finish in the Dunlop Trophy race this Saturday has brought out a number of the kids. It will be remembered that last year Roy Bingley, aged 11, rode the entire twenty miles in a 15-minute handicap.

Officials for today's race: Honorary referees, J. Westral, L. Rubenstein; referees, G. L. MacKay, J. H. Smith; starter, Robt. Falconer; clerk of the course, W. G. McClelland; assistant clerks of the course, J. T. Allan, C. Greenwood; judges at finish, F. Dixon, C. E. Patrick, F. A. O. Johnston, Hech. Kipp, H. Marshall.

In Hamilton the Tigers and Technical School meet. The Tigers, of course, need no introduction. Technical, however, are a new outfit, who, close followers of football in Hamilton claim, are the team.

Best Hamper, the former Rowing Club quartermaster, is coaching the team, and since taking charge has induced a number of well known players to turn out. Frank Tobin and George Ballard have been appointed to handle the game.

Eddie Collins is Greatest of World's Series Players

Eddie Collins has played his twenty-sixth game of these annual baseball championships, a mark which no other player has reached in the history of these struggles between the National and American League champions, and he is living up to past reputation in all departments of play.

Collins played his twenty-fifth world's series game last Saturday, thereby reaching the figure that Jack Barry alone had touched. The present manager of the Red Sox would have gone beyond this mark last year but for an injured hand, which kept him from taking part in the series, and he played twenty-five games up to 1916, twenty with the Mackmen and five with the Red Sox.

Frank Baker, while a member of the Athletics, proved himself the greatest of world's series hitters, and he went thru twenty games with thirty-one hits for a batting average of .388. Collins has hit but 351, but he is so far ahead of Baker in fielding and base running, in these world's series games that his place at the head of the list is undisputed.

Five Base Running and Hitting. Collins led both clubs of the 1917 world's series in stolen bases, but that is nothing new. He led both the Athletics and Cubs in 1910, when he played his first world's series, and in 1913 he led both Athletics and Giants in this specialty in 1911 and 1914 he did not lead, neither was he led.

As a fielder Collins never had a superior over a long stretch of world's series play. He slumped in the 1911 series, in which he was charged with four errors, making one in the first game, two in the second and one in the sixth. One misplay in the 1910 set and one in 1913 complete his collection of errors for twenty-five games. Going thru twenty world's series games without an error and handling 144 out of 150 chances is a performance that players in these games are likely to shoot at for a long many moons ago.

Officials for today's race: Honorary referees, J. Westral, L. Rubenstein; referees, G. L. MacKay, J. H. Smith; starter, Robt. Falconer; clerk of the course, W. G. McClelland; assistant clerks of the course, J. T. Allan, C. Greenwood; judges at finish, F. Dixon, C. E. Patrick, F. A. O. Johnston, Hech. Kipp, H. Marshall.

COMBINE WAS REAL CAUSE

(Continued from Page 1). were seeking to get away from the competition of other concerns, and were endeavoring to procure a protective contract for yourselves with a view to meeting any emergency that might arise in the commercial field?"

Well, I wouldn't say that exactly. You were doing your best, were you not, to have the admiralty rates reduced?

Yes. To the extent of two shillings on every 100 pounds.

The market was going up by leaps and bounds, was it not?

It was going up.

Well, in the cable dated June 27, you say: "The Canadian market price has gone up to record heights. The Matthews, Blackwell people are forcing the price."

Mr. Fox: I think that from time to time one packer or another forces prices upward. He must often necessarily do so in the process of buying heavily. That was my idea when I wrote that cable.

Then, on another occasion, too, you would say, would you not, that the Matthews-Blackwell Co. was the aggressor?

Yes.

And, reasoning a step further, you

Everyone Should Drink Hot Water in the Morning

Wash away all the stomach, liver, and bowel poisons before breakfast.

To feed your best day in and day out, to feel clean inside; no sour bile to coat your tongue and sicken your breath or dull your head; no constipation, bilious attacks, sick headache, colds, rheumatism or gassy, acid stomach, you must bathe on the inside like you bathe on the outside. This is vastly more important, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do, says a well-known physician.

To keep these poisons and toxins well flushed from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, drink before breakfast each day a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from your pharmacist. It is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant. Drink phosphated hot water every morning to rid your system of these vile poisons and toxins; also to prevent their formation.

To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood, nerves and muscles became saturated with an accumulation of body poisons, begin this treatment and above all, keep it up! As soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and purifying, so limestone phosphate and hot water before breakfast act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.

could equally well say the same of the Davies Co?

Well, yes. And one of the real causes of the inflated values in hogs in 1916 was the combined operations of the Matthews, Blackwell and the William Davies Co.

Had Advantage in Shipping.

In answer to further questions the witness stated that some packers were paying 80 cents a cubic foot for shipping space. His company was able to put the bacon over to London at $1.50 a 100 pounds. This did work out to some advantage for themselves. Mr. Bain read from a number of cables sent to the local offices of the Wm. Davies Co., showing that in or about August and September, 1916, Dennis, of London, acting for the British war office, advised the Toronto firm a minimum price on all consignments received by the war office, this price being based on the Matthews' estimate, or anticipated estimate, of the cost price of their commodity. The term "anticipated" was explained by Mr. Fox to mean the cost price estimated for hogs not yet bought. The company was to export 1,000 boxes of Canadian bacon a week, obtaining for these a minimum price of 100 shillings. Eight days after this contract guaranteeing a minimum price for Canadian bacon was agreed upon for the Davies Co.'s American export consignments.

Further examination elicited the information that the war office, thru the Dennis Co., was very favorably inclined toward the Wm. Davies Co.

Mr. Bain now read a cable from the witness to his London agents, Sneed and Thompson, pointing out that he noted the Dennis Company was in need of larger consignments. He did not want to force the market, if, on the other hand, the increased trade was transferred to his company.

Mr. Bain: What was meant by this reference, Mr. Fox? Are we to infer that your company wished to draw the products of other companies over to your companies?

Mr. Fox: I don't want any unnatural interpretation of my motives brought up here, Mr. Bain. I was engaged in pure business.

Great Stroke of Business.

It was further brought out that if at any period the Davies Company consignments were short of the required stipulated amount, say 1500 boxes a week, the Dennis Company granted the privilege of making up the loss in the succeeding shipment, and selling these at the prices current during the period of the later consignments. A cablegram was read, alleged to have been written by the London agents of the Davies Company, which was in substance: "The establishment of a minimum cost price contract, with the many other privileges accorded by the war office, is one of the greatest strokes of business your company has ever managed."

One other privilege accorded to the William Davies Company was the acceptance by the Dennis Company of the "seconds," or purely commercial consignments, which were sent over along with those for the war office. These Mr. Fox pointed out, amounted to only four per cent. of the total consignments received by the British firm. Late in the year 1915 the war office consignments had increased in number to more than 9000 boxes. The entire contract period covered 29 weeks.

Mr. Bain now touched upon the reasons for the cancellation of the war office contract. The witness stated his emphatic opinion that the real reason was that of pure finance and nothing else.

Mr. Bain: You are sure, Mr. Fox, that the real reason did not lie in fact of the high prices prevailing? It did not. It was common talk at the time in Chicago that an embargo was being placed against American sides.

Yes, yes. But the Americans did blame the two Canadian companies for the rise in prices, didn't they?

Yes, I admit that.

Now, is it not a fact that Herbert C. Hoover called the American packers together with a view to discovering the underlying cause of the inflated prices, and if necessary placing a complaint before the British war office?

No. I may say that at the seven principal packing points in the United States—Chicago, Omaha, Buffalo, Detroit, Kansas City, St. Louis and St. Joseph—the number of hogs bought by Canadians amounted to only two per cent. of the total bought at those yards.

Yes, but the suggestion is that you influenced the Chicago market in the main.

Only to a very small degree.

Mr. Henderson: Can you give us a statement showing the exact percentage of your buys on the Chicago market?

I think so. If you will permit me I shall work it out tonight and produce the statement tomorrow.

Mr. Bain continued his examination on this point until the chairman, G. F. Henderson, intervened.

"I have been told by those who claim that the real reason for the cancellation of these contracts was financial, and none other," said the chairman. "Do you think it should be suggested that Lord Reading should be called to give evidence in the matter?"

The three counsel were dubious on this point.

Mr. Henderson: Gentlemen, once again let me say it is not in the interests of the public that rumors such as those considered this afternoon should be allowed to counter the official reasons given for the cancellation of these war office contracts.

The two counsel for the government and private interests reiterated their absolute sincerity in the matter, and Mr. Bain stated that he had examined Mr. Fox on the subject because he felt the general manager of the Wm. Davies Co. was one of the few men who could explain away the disturbing rumors.

FLIGHT-LIEUT. CONN SMYTHE, M.C. Word was received yesterday by Mr. A. E. S. Smythe, of The World, that his son was missing since last Sunday.

LIEUT CONN SMYTHE REPORTED MISSING

Young Soldier Was Well-Known Athlete and Student at Varsity.

Flight Lieut. Conn Smythe, M.C., is officially reported as missing since last Sunday, according to a cable received by his father, Albert E. S. Smythe, of The World editorial staff, yesterday morning.

Smythe was a well-known Toronto boy and a distinguished athlete, having played on football and hockey teams of the university. (University of Toronto, Jarvis Collegiate Institute and the Y.M.C.A. He was captain of the champion junior O.H.A. team of the university, 1914-15, and his 40th birthday was prominent in the winter prior to his departure overseas. He played on the champion junior school Mulock cup rugby team last and fourth year at the faculty of applied science at the university.

As an individual athlete he was prominent in swimming, diving, boating and running. At the Aldershot garrison military competitions last year his section defeated other sections of the brigade and division in handling guns and horses under active service conditions, winning a silver trophy, which the men presented to him.

Lieut. Smythe was 22 years of age and left the university in his fourth year to enlist as a gunner in March, 1915. He won his commission the following July and went overseas early in 1916. He was awarded the Military Cross for valor on Feb. 13 last, when he volunteered to go as observation officer with an infantry raiding party, the officers of which became casualties. He took charge of the party, and after successfully coming thru an encounter with half a dozen enemy bombers he extricated the raiders from the enemy trenches, but he was put to rout four Germans who had been bombing two Canadian positions.

Transferring from the artillery to the Royal Flying Corps on May 3 last, he trained both as an observer and as a pilot. He crossed to France on April 24, and his appointment was officially gazetted about two weeks ago.

In a letter home under date of Sept. 27, he said he was going up the line and hoped to be attached to the operations with the Canadian artillery. The official report on Sunday's air operations said two British machines were missing.

While training with the artillery in England, Lieut. Smythe hit a 17th fractured while moving guns and was also slightly wounded while in France.

Mr. Henderson: I don't for a moment doubt the sincerity of your motives, gentlemen. I simply do not wish the impression to gain ground that the war office was affected by rumors. It is scarcely policy for the exchequer does not know his business.

Mr. Bain now touched upon the possible influence of Sir Joseph Flavelle on the rise of prices.

Did Sir Joseph ever discuss with you this minimum rate agreed upon in your contract with the war office?

"I never do so. I take full responsibility for all we have accomplished these past four years."

Mr. Bain: Did Sir Joseph ever get the monthly statements of the companies' profits?

No.

Did he never discuss anything with you?

Never until the accomplishment of the company's intentions.

Oh, when then?

Well, he used to come in for an hour's chat at the week-end when he visited me.

Did you never ask Sir Joseph Flavelle to take up the matter with the admiralty?

No.

Contract Was Common.

NEW LIST OF HONORS TO APPEAR SHORTLY

Dominions Will Share in Empire Decorations Next—Migration of Soldiers.

Canadian Associated Press Cable. London, Oct. 18.—Replying to a question of Mr. McMaster in the British house of commons today as to why the first list of the empire honors was confined to the United Kingdom, Mr. Bonar Law stated that the consultations with the Dominions had not been completed in time for the issue of the list in August. Regarding a further issue he said that lists including the names of those entered in the service of the Dominions and India were now receiving consideration.

Asked whether the government was prepared to co-operate with the overseas governments in assisting the migration of ex-soldiers, Mr. Law said the proposals for the establishment of a central emigration authority necessarily involved an amendment to the existing law. The question of new legislation was under consideration and the government hoped to announce its policy in a few weeks.

STRONG TONE IN MINING MARKET

Many Substantial Gains Are Recorded as Result of Sudden, Insistent Demand.

After a protracted period of dullness and shrinking quotations, dealers in the afternoon session of the Standard Exchange yesterday indicated that the market is breaking away from its apathy. While in some quarters the material advances which extended practically throughout the list were attributed largely to the drive against the short interest, which had become quite large and aggressive, it was stated also that public participation is becoming noticeable, and the more optimistic among the floor traders at the close of yesterday's operations expressed the belief that the long-awaited upturn has definitely been reached. Other traders, less sanguine, held to the view that the market is still too narrow to warrant the opinion that an old-time bull market is under way, and that yesterday's advances were too rapid and feverish in some instances to be regarded as wholesome. However, the fact remains that both gold and silver stocks shared in the brisk movement, and that the upturn was more hopeful than in many days.

In the gold group the notable gains included McIntyre, 4 points; Hollinger, 15; Dome Extension, 2 1/2 and West Dome 3 1/2. The marked strength in West Dome was associated with the report that arrangements had been made for the Cobalt mill. Dome Mines acted rather disappointingly in the face of the strong market, falling to advance from Thursday's close. West Dome was neglected and sold off a point.

Among the Cobalt's prominent features were Peterson, Lake, Adanac, Hargrave, McKinley and Timiskaming. Confidence grows that Peterson Lake will emerge victorious in its suit over the possession of silver and copper. It is estimated that such is the outcome, the intrinsic value of the shares based on known assets will be about 15c. The sharp upturn in Adanac was ascribed to the report of a new strike at depth. McKinley-Darragh sold three points higher than at Thursday's close. The current year will prove one of the most profitable periods in the history of McKinley-Darragh is generally believed. Scarcely a week passes but what a high position is occupied in the list of producers, last week being third with 170,594 pounds of high-grade ore to its credit. The big earnings are also clearly shown in the last official statement, as of September 25, to wit:

Cash in bank $189,637.96 Ore in transit and smelter 98,700.00 Ore at mine ready for shipment 113,500.00 Treasury resources $32,387.26

REGARD GIFFORD-COBALT AS COMING PRODUCER

Hamilton B. Wills in his weekly market letter says of Gifford-Cobalt: Now that this company has reached the most important point in its history, the chief factor in its success is required to intelligently direct underground development. John Bradford, who has been closely associated with the Cobalt camp from its earliest days, has been placed in charge, and under his direction splendid progress is being recorded. Mr. Bradford has a thorough knowledge of mine conditions in the southeast Coleman, having been engaged in this section since 1905 and is familiar with the workings of Timiskaming and Beaver. In his preliminary examination Mr. Bradford shares the belief of Consulting Engineer Charles Spearman, President of the company, that Gifford-Cobalt will be a producer.

A new shaft-house is being erected adjoining a master hand was required in order to prevent any tie-up in operations during the coming winter, and a set of ladders has been installed to the bottom of the shaft, as well as a 20-foot sump completed, also a large working station cut preparatory to starting to drive towards Beaver. An extra gang of experienced drillers have been engaged to rush this important lateral work along the upper levels, and with what is already known to exist on the 200-foot level, as well as at depths between 250 and 300 feet in the shaft, there is every reason for expecting good results will be met with in driving over toward the Beaver Consolidated line. According to those in charge the drillers at this shaft are working in a sub-level which is showing very good results. It is being talked about, believes this one body on Beaver will extend for considerable distance into Gifford.

MONTREAL NOT RESPONSIVE.

Heron & Co. received the following from their private wire from Montreal at the close: The local market was again inactive and somewhat disappointing in not recording to the strong tone of the New York list. Shawinigan, which had been down to 10 1/2, yesterday showed little strength at the close, selling at 1 1/2. Dominion Iron was in good demand in the morning session, being advanced to 6 1/2, but in the afternoon declined to 5 1/2. The rest of the list showed little change from yesterday's prices.

OPERATIONS ON LA ROSE PROMISE RICH RESULTS

Kiely, Smith and Amos received the following wire yesterday: The La Rose are now down 160 feet on the Violet mine workings and it is confidently expected that in the development of this property there will be cut the extension of a very rich vein running into this property on the West, which is adjoining them on the east, and it is generally known that a very rich vein has been developed on the latter property right up to the Violet line and very rich ore in the face.

LONDON TONE CHEERFUL

London, Oct. 19.—Money was in better supply today. Discounts were quiet. The latest Russian news, although it has weakened Russian securities and caused a further depreciation in ruble exchange to 352, has not affected the general tone of the stock market, which is cheerful. There was a fair business in gold mines, oils and rubbers at hardening prices. Well-edged securities, Argentine rails and industrials were nominated firmly. There was a moderate investment enquiry.

Bank of Commerce Bonus.

The directors of the Canadian Bank of Commerce yesterday announced the declaration of a dividend of 2 1/2 per cent. on the 15th of December 1 to stock of record November 15. The books will be closed from November 15 to 30. The bonus will be paid with this dividend in accordance with the bank's policy, which is to declare a bonus with the June and December dividend payments.

The stock of this company around 16 cents per share looks very attractive from a speculative standpoint. The main shaft is down 430 feet with workings levels at 200, 300 and 400 feet. High-grade silver is being mined and a shipment will be made shortly, when a sharp advance in the price of the shares may be looked for. We advise the purchase of this stock without delay. Steel Stocks Backward in View of New York's Strength. Montreal, Oct. 19.—There was a firmer undertone to the Canadian securities market today, although improvement in prices in some directions was partly offset by sagging in others. Not changes, set by sagging in others. Not changes, set by sagging in others, embraced more gains than losses, there being no recurrence of pronounced weakness in specialties, such as was in evidence in earlier days of the week and selling in the morning session appeared to have been completed.

Bethlehem Steel Stocks Make Spectacular Recoveries in Active Market.

New York, Oct. 19.—Equipments and other issues comprising the more important shares were again the conspicuous features of today's strong and active market. Bethlehem Steel and the securities of other companies which derive less direct benefit from war demands, moved forward to more deliberately. The strength of the war group was chiefly due to an increasing recognition of the advantageous position occupied by some of these stocks in connection with new steel contracts. Bethlehem Steel retained their lead of the previous day, the steel common stock being 1 1/2 to 2 points down. BUSINESS IN TORONTO

Toronto reports to Bradstreet's that trade in seasonal lines is shaping up better as the autumn progresses. There is some tendency to purchase specialties and cheaper goods are being taken as a substitute for the class of customers who would ordinarily insist on higher quality. Nevertheless, orders by travelers to be very fair in most lines. Wholesalers report that totals for current trade are running steadily in excess of last year, although in many cases the enhanced prices are mostly responsible for the gains. Dry goods and hardware are heavily stocked up and goods purchased at prices now in force are expected to make retailers next season. The better class of retailers whose credit is good are also well stocked up with goods taken at their own prices. A fair number of retailers are being met for renewals, but this demand is not heavier than usual, and collections are generally reported to be from fair to good.

COTTON DAMAGE REPORTS.

J. P. Bickell and Co. received the following New York wire at the close of the cotton market: One more today cotton, made a moderately new high record for this movement. Later, heavy selling for the movement, and western action will favor a reaction of about 50 points with a better tone obtaining in the late trading, final prices being about 20 points above the low figures and practically unchanged from last night. The reports of killing frost in parts of the belt, and the forecast of weather for night and tomorrow, failed to bring about any notable strength or pronounced upward movement.

The Very Young Men May Not Have Any Part in Creating the Fashion But They Have All to Do With the Establishing of It---

To them, each season, falls the honor of bringing out the new models.

Few designers know just "where" to work in the "punch" that counts so much in lending youth and smartness to the young man's figure.

The secret behind the success of our young men's clothing is that we get them from makers who are specialists in clothes for young men --from those makers we selected the clever models we would like to show you.

Young men have "fallen" for these new styles this season at about the same rate as young ducks fall for water--because every model shown is the kind that spirited young men demand. Could anything be smarter looking than the suit illustrated? It is one of the many new dashing suit styles and one of the splendid values we can show you.
