CANADIAN-AMERICAN SYNDICATE

The Newfoundland Timber Estates Ltd., Takes Over the Options Held by Harry J. Crowe, of Halifax.
(Halifax Echo.)
Announcement was briefly made on Tuesday of the organization of a company of which Henry M. Whitney, of Boston, is a leading spirit, to operate large timber areas in Newfoundland. The new company is the Newfoundland Timber Estates, Limited, and is to be incorporated under the provisions of the Newfoundland Companies Act. It has taken over the options acquired by Harry J. Crowe, of Halifax, on all the Lewis Miller & Co's. property at Millerton, Glenwood, Lewisport and Indian Bay, as well as a number of other extensive tracts now in active operation and owned by other parties. The total area of these properties is about 3,000 square miles.
The Lewis Miller areas include some of the most valuable timber properties in the colony. They are well wooded with pine and spruce. Three or four mills are now in active operation and this year's cut will run between forty and fifty million feet.
The syndicate will take over all the properties under option and will in the near future largely extend operations. Large pulp mills, in active operation, and other splendid natural facilities exist, will be established in suitable localities and this branch of the business will be carried on extensively.
Associated with Mr. Whitney is B. F. Pearson of Halifax, and a strong Canadian-American syndicate has been formed. The syndicate was organized by Harry J. Crowe, of this city, who is one of the most energetic young business men in the province. He has already been very successful as a lumber operator in Nova Scotia and Newfoundland and he is to be congratulated upon his success in interesting in the timber lands of the colony a gentleman of the ability, high financial standing and resources of Mr. Whitney.

FIGHTING JOE MARTIN.

VANCOUVER, B. C., March 17.—There was a big rumour at a meeting of the local Liberal Association last night, called at the special request of Joseph Martin, M. P., to reconsider a resolution passed to hold a convention to arrange for party lines in the next provincial election. Mr. Martin opposed the proposal tooth and nail, and bitterly attacked those who supported the resolution, stating that he could be elected at any time without the Liberal Association's support, and would still be leader of the party in the province when "these dogs (those who supported the motion) were hanged." On a vote being taken the resolution calling a convention was sustained by an overwhelming majority. It was decided that only members in good standing could vote, and amid much laughter it was found that Mr. Martin had not paid his dues assessed, and was thus unable to vote.

A POPULAR CORRUPTIONIST.

(London Express.)
Paris.—Mr. Raymond Bayle has hit upon a novel scheme for securing the support of voters of Valence at the forthcoming parliamentary election. He has circulated the following notice in the constituency:
"My Dear Fellow Citizens: I am a bachelor. Show me the good fortune to elect me as your representative, I will choose my wife from the community which gives me the most votes. I will also give a bachelor dinner to all my electors. In the case of two different communities plumping for me usually I will give the dinner to the one and marry the girl from the other."

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED.

The Moncton Free Baptist church was well filled Tuesday night, the occasion being the 25th anniversary of the founding of that church. Rev. G. Swin, pastor, presided, and opened the meeting by addressing the gathering in a few well chosen remarks. He referred to the organization of the church, and the work done during the twenty-six years of its existence and he also stated that the outlook for the growth of the church never was better. Revs. B. N. Nobles, G. W. Fisher, D. Hutchinson, J. E. Brown and W. Penna were present and took part in the services.

NO CLUE YET.

Police Still at a Loss to Account for Mrs. Neal's Death.

The death of Mrs. Margaret Neal is still a mystery. Not a clue has been discovered that tends to connect anyone with the tragedy. In spite of all the efforts which have been made since the discovery of the dying woman on Friday night nothing exists but a suspicion of the vaguest sort directed toward some tramp who had been loitering in the vicinity of Fairville. As a consequence of their failure to find anything to lead them toward a possible murderer the police are beginning to lean toward the theory of accidental death. A careful examination of the spot where the body was found with the head in the proximity of a large stone, has convinced some of them in spite of the doctor's evidence, that the fatal wounds could have been caused by a head-foremost fall. The absence of the satchel which the old lady is supposed to have carried that night is the greatest obstacle in the way of this theory and there are not wanting those who suggest that the infatuation of certain witnesses at the inquest would be the best place to search for that mysterious bag.
One of the morning papers attaches some importance to the fact that a short time before Mrs. Neal received her wounds a man passing along that road was stopped by a couple of men who pleaded a hard-up condition and begged for the gift of enough money to purchase a night's lodging. The morning paper magnifies this commonplace episode with a thrilling hold-up of the Jesse James type, but the police are inclined to think little of it. It is very improbable that much important evidence will be adduced for presentation at the next session of the coroner's inquest.

RECENT DEATHS.

Mrs. Andrew McDonald, of Moncton, yesterday received word of the death of her brother, James Delahunt, which occurred in Boston. Deceased, who was a son of John Delahunt, of Irishtown, left for Boston some years ago, where he has since been engaged in business.
The death occurred at St. Andrews on Monday night, of Mrs. Obadiah Clarke, widow of the late Pilot Clarke, in his time one of the best known pilots out of that port. The deceased was in her 83rd year.
Patrick Devoy died last Wednesday night, aged 93, at the home of his daughter, Miss Mary Devoy, St. Stephen. Deceased was one of the oldest citizens of Charlotte county, and up to the time of death was in possession of all his faculties. Deceased leaves three daughters—Mrs. Thomas Lawler, Mrs. Joseph Lyons and Miss Mary Devoy, of St. Stephen.

THE PRICE OF STEEL.

PITTSBURG, Pa., March 19.—The Gazette says: The Crucible Steel Co. of America has sold to the United States corporation the controlling interest in the Clarion plant. The minority interest will be owned by the Crucible people and W. P. Snider. Mr. Snider will remain as president of the concern. This sale includes a bill of exchange by which the steel corporation will sell billets to the Crucible Co. It also ends the hopes of independents for cheap sheet bars and billets.

A TOWN FIRE SWEPT.

PEPPERELL, Me., March 19.—The fire which started in Griffin's shoe factory here early today was under control at daylight. A score of buildings had been burned, including the shoe factory and other structures devoted to business purposes and a number of dwelling houses. An accurate estimate of the losses has not yet been made, but the figures are placed at $300,000, with partial insurance.

HARMONY HALL.

Very Strong Opinions On the Question of Bribery At Elections.

"Fellows," said the President, "there has lately been some talk of the organization of an anti-bribery association in this city. I have been asked to bring the matter to your attention and get an expression of your views. The question is now before you."
"Mr. President," said Fellow McKeown, "I am very glad indeed to have an opportunity to discuss this question. During the excitement of the recent election campaign it was impossible to approach the subject with a judicial mind; and since the election I have been extremely busy trying to harmonize my own opinion of myself and the opinion that Tweedie and Pugsley have of me, to the end that I may get a measure of justice at their hands. I am therefore very glad to be able to make this statement of my views on the general question of bribery in elections."
Fellow McKeown sat down and Fellow Low MacLennan and Fellow Purdy got up and sat down. It was then explained that Fellow Robertson was absent but held very strong views.
Fellow Thomson said he entirely agreed with the opinions already expressed.
"What opinions?" demanded a back-bencher. "I haven't heard anybody express any opinion yet."
"Put that man out," said the President. "He is evidently a Tory."
"You may have observed," said Fellow Ernie, "that the Telegraph has read essays on the question of bribery in Ontario. Bribery in Ontario is a crime."
"I hear," said a back-bencher, "that a newspaper in Ontario, or somewhere got $18,000 from the government last year. Maybe it was the Sun—I forget."
"The Telegraph," said Fellow Milligan, "is the greatest newspaper in the world."
"The 'silly Telegraph?' queried Fellow Hannay.
"I think," said the President, "that these opinions will be of much value to the anti-bribery association. On their behalf I thank you, gentlemen, for the lucid expression of your views on the subject. The secretary will please prepare a statement to be forwarded at once to the association."
Four back-benchers fainted.

THE MILLTOWN STRIKE.

CALEAIS, March 18.—The striking weavers of the St. Croix cotton mill have voted not to return to work until their demands are complied with. There was not a dissenting voice when the question was put, and it now looks as if the struggle would be a protracted one. Meetings of the strikers are being held daily, but there has not been the slightest sign of disorder. It was reported Tuesday that Charles Owen, head of the Canadian Colored Cottons company would arrive during the day for the purpose of investigating the matter. Mr. Owen did not appear, and at the office of the mill the officials stated that they had no knowledge of his intended visit. Many of the weavers and other employees who fear a prolonged period of idleness are making arrangements for removing to other towns in Maine and Massachusetts.

THIRTY YEARS AGO TODAY.

Alexandra Temple of Honor celebrated the third anniversary in their room in Hamm's building, Indiantown. Worthy Chief C. W. Roberts presided, and the choir of Portland Baptist church assisted in the programme. Refreshments were served.
Daniel Mullen, of Red Head, while under the influence of liquor, cut his wife's head open with an axe. The woman recovered.
Patrick Dolan was seriously injured by being kicked by a horse on Main street.
The St. James hotel in Montreal was burned. Several lives were lost.

CARLETON SIDEWALKS.

On the West Side the asphalt sidewalk on King street, Rodney street and St. John street for its entire length is in a wretched condition and should be repaired.
The sidewalk on Rodney street, especially, is in a very bad condition, as there are great hollow places, and when it rains the water, instead of running off, forms large pools. In the dark, especially, this is extremely annoying, as the pedestrian is apt to step ankle deep into a small lake of rain water. It should be looked after.

GANONG BROS.' LOSS.

A Calais letter says:—"The total insurance carried on the candy factory of Ganong Bros., St. Stephen, was $61,500; but the loss greatly exceeds this amount. Hon. G. W. Ganong, head of the firm, announced that he expects to begin operations in the new addition, which was untouched by the fire, in about two weeks, and will give employment to about 75 hands. The main factory will be rebuilt as speedily as possible, but several months must necessarily elapse before the establishment is completed and in running order."

PROVINCIAL ITEMS.

The smallpox in Glace Bay is now practically under control and it is expected that towards the latter end of the week the embargo will be raised off the churches and schools.
Mrs. John Black, St. Stephen, met with a most painful accident last week while brushing her dress, a pin attached to the trimming flew out and struck her eye, causing her extreme agony. A physician was summoned, but as yet little relief has been given Mrs. Black.

A CARLETON WEDDING.

The Carleton Presbyterian church was the scene last evening of a very pretty event, when Miss Ellen Warwick was united in marriage to Joseph Tibbets, both of the West Side. The bride wore white organdy, and was attended by Miss Vella Drinan, while James Anthony acted as best man. Rev. James Burgess performed the ceremony, and the church was crowded with the friends and acquaintances of the contracting parties.

GAMEY A HERO.

(Toronto Telegram, Independent.)
Ontario politics have never developed a truer hero than Robert R. Gamey, of Manitowish. Corruption can never be destroyed by good, gooey people who read essays or start newspapers. The system goes on and gets worse until some man throws himself into the gap and does exactly what R. R. Gamey did. Ontario has been waiting for R. R. Gamey. This province has produced men who would take bribes and men who would spurn bribes. Corruption can never be exposed by the greed of the corrupt man or the righteous indignation of the honest man. Mr. Gamey had the brave heart of an honest man and the head of a clever man. For weeks he has had to keep his own counsel and endure the fearful penalties of universal contempt and has done more to purify the politics of Ontario in six weeks than all the conventional moral agencies of this country would do in sixteen years.

ALCOHOL IN SACRAMENTAL WINE.

Bulletin No. 82 of the inland revenue department is on unfermented grape juice and the analysis shows a greater percentage of alcohol in several samples than perhaps the good people who use the wines imagine would be possible. Chief Analyst MacFarlane says in his report that four samples out of fifteen contained small quantities of alcohol and in three cases the percentage was higher than allowed in English wine, herb, ginger and botanic beers, 3 per cent. The three samples showed 3.30, 3.03 and 2.34 p. c. proof spirit. Mr. MacFarlane also points out that nine of fifteen samples were found genuine and six to contain salicylic acid as preservative which he thought was forbidden by the adulteration act.

WEDDED IN HALIFAX.

The marriage of A. G. Thompson, a well known New York business man, and Miss Jean Lyall, daughter of the late Professor Lyall, of Dalhousie College, took place at Miss Tremaine's residence, No. 31 Tower Road, Halifax, yesterday. The ceremony was a very quiet one and was performed by Prof. Falconer, assisted by Prof. Forrest. Mr. Thompson is a member of the lumber dealing firm of James Thompson and Son, whose business is located at Staten Island. Mr. Thompson's residence is on Staten Island.

MEXICO CITY ALL RIGHT.

MEXICO CITY, March 19.—Inquiries were received yesterday by leading bankers from the New York and London correspondents regarding the reported failure of six large exporting houses in this city. There has been only one considerable failure here for nearly a month and that was of a large retail dry goods house, which suspended owing to the successive withdrawal of partners, who took out their capital. But this failure, which was for $60,000 is in process of being satisfactorily arranged.

BLIZZARD KILLS SHEEP.

LANDER, Wyo., March 19.—The worst snow storm in many years has been raging over Central Wyoming for the past forty-eight hours and last night the average depth of snow throughout this section for one hundred miles northeast and south, is eighteen to twenty inches. Sheep men think young stock will pull through, but there will be large losses among the older animals.

DAMAGED BY FLOOD.

HELENA, Ark., March 19.—The flood situation here is still of the gloomiest character. The river has risen six-tenths of an inch in the past twenty-four hours and now stands at 48.7 in. North Helena is flooded but the city proper is in no danger from the flood. The residents of the overflowed section are largely negroes.

WHY WE DON'T CHEER.

Quite a flutter of excitement appears to have been caused by the announcement that some salaries in the post office have been increased, and one might almost be led to suppose that liberal rule was a great thing for this part of the country.

GOVERNMENT BY PURCHASE.

Frank J. Sullivan, who with his father carried on the negotiations for the purchase of the support of Mr. Gage, was in the enjoyment of a good salary as an official of the Ontario government, and was supposed by the general public to be giving value for it.

THE TRAIL OF CORRUPTION.

Mr. J. S. Willison, lately editor of the liberal organ in Upper Canada, the Toronto Globe, publishes in his new paper, the Toronto News of March 16, a powerful and bitter arraignment of the present liberal government.

In introduction to his long article Mr. Willison comments strongly on what he terms the "flagrant and persistent corruption" of the conservative party during the last years of their tenure of power.

"But how far performance has come short of expectation! Hardly was the Laurier government seated in office when it was assailed on every hand by hungry applicants for places. Long exclusion from office had whetted to a keen edge the appetites of the party's camp followers.

There should be a careful scrutiny of all railway legislation brought before the house at Fredericton at the coming session. This province is not yearning for any more such branch railways as it has at present, and before the province commits itself any further there should be a clear understanding of the purposes and the capabilities of those who may seek legislation.

In Ontario the liberal government, passing into barrenness and impotence through long occupancy of power, became enmeshed in a startling series of electoral casualties. West Elgin stands almost without a parallel in our political history.

story of corrupt propensities from agents of the Ross government, and the undoubted fact of the commitment of patronage to his hands in return for support in the legislature. There is only shame and discredit for Canada in all this wretched business, and it is necessary that the people should face the facts in all their repulsive details.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 18.—The arrest of George Hoosey, a negro "herb doctor" and fortune teller, on the charge of being accessory to the alleged poisoning to death of William G. Danse, has opened an investigation into which Hoosey has been conducting a murder mill and has been assisting in the killing of persons at $100 per capita.

RAILWAY PROJECTS.

The Canada Gazette contains notice from the firm whereof H. J. Logan, M. P. for Cumberland, is the head:

To incorporate a company to be called the Quebec, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia Railway Company, with power to construct a railway from the city of Quebec to the Quebec bridge, on the north shore of the St. Lawrence River; with power to enter into an agreement with the Quebec Bridge Company for operating the company's line of railway over their bridge, and with power to build a line of railway from the south shore approach of the aforesaid bridge in a southeasterly direction to a point at or near Edmundston; thence to Moncton, in the province of New Brunswick; thence from Moncton to Pegasus, in the province of Nova Scotia; thence to New Glasgow, and thence to Country Harbor, in the province of Nova Scotia aforesaid.

Mr. Skinner has given notice at Fredericton that he proposes to apply for a charter for a railway following the same route as Mr. Logan's road. He proposes to pass through Chipman, Harris, Henry & Cahon of Halifax on behalf of the Elgin and Havelock railway, are asking for the privilege of extending that line from Havelock to Chipman. It may be claimed for this application that it is made on behalf of a railway now in operation which is seeking a legitimate extension.

THE HERB DOCTOR'S ALLEGED METHODS.

"Get rid of her by slow doses," was his answer. "First, you give her a dose of poison, then send for a doctor. He gives the ailment some big name. Give another dose, but stop after that and let the doctor think he's treating the patient properly. Then after a while begin again and don't stop until death takes place. The doctor will make out a certificate, the coroner is never notified and he knows nothing about it."

MAY SHOW MANY CASES OF MURDER.

It is believed that the memoranda obtained from "Doctor" Hoosey's house may show many cases of murder. Consequently more arrests may take place at any time.

Private Detective's Story. Austin Gavin, a private detective, who was largely concerned in the arrest of Dr. Hoosey, testified yesterday in the court to the alleged methods of the negro "herb doctor."

"I went to Hoosey first on February 27," said Gavin. "I told him I had kidney trouble and he gave me a bottle of 'Hoosey's Dyspepsia Remedy' and two tablets, charging me fifty-five cents."

"When I returned he said: 'I've been thinking about your case. You know, I'm a medium and a card reader, as well as a doctor. Now, this here woman is trying to get rid of you; you'd better get rid of her first. You'd better bring me three strands of her hair.'"

Danse, a confirmed alcoholic, died on June 22, 1901, while under the care of Dr. J. O. Eberhard, of No. 2518 North Fifth street, who certified that he died of paralysis of the heart, and who still insists that he died from natural causes.

PARLIAMENT.

OTTAWA, Mar 18.—Before a house crowded on the floor and in the galleries, Sir Wilfrid Laurier offered his explanation of Tarte's retirement. He recited the incidents leading up to the severance of Mr. Tarte's connection with the public works department.

When MR. TARTE began to speak he was received in silence by the government supporters. His remarks, however, when they touched on the policy of Canada for Canadians, brought hearty recognition from the opposition.

On Oct. 19th the premier had called at Mr. Tarte's house, and stated that the latter's conduct had annoyed his colleagues, and had caused the premier's resignation, but it was dropped.

Mr. Laurier demanded to know if Mr. Sifton's declaration that woollen factories would have to put up with a 25 per cent. tariff or close up, or Mr. Blair's pronouncement on the transcontinental railway to be built at the expense of the country had been decided as the policy of the government. If not, had he offended more than they? Mr. Tarte started to refer to Mr. Blair's interview in the Sunday Sun of Montreal relative to the railway project, and the latter expressed amazement that such an interview had been published, as he never gave it.

Mr. Borden then proceeded to show up the inconsistencies of the members of the government. He quoted from six different speeches of Laurier, in which free trade was promised to the country, and six others from the same source advocating protection.

As no answer was given, Mr. Borden upbraided the first minister with failing to treat other ministers as he had Tarte. Borden got after Prefontaine and challenged him to deny that he had given the manufacturers of Montreal a guarantee of protection.

Laurier replied that liberals could not be held to their past pledges. He claimed to have acted consistently in the Tarte matter.

This brought Mr. Tarte to his feet, and he accused Laurier of discourtesy. He demanded to know why Laurier had not cabled him asking him to refrain from advocating protection. Friendliness would have justified that much consideration.

the government was placed in. The house adjourned at 12.15. NOTES. In the senate Hon. Mr. Parley enquired of the government if Harry Harrison, fish warden of Sunbury and other counties in New Brunswick, had resigned his position as such officer of the federal government prior to his being a candidate for a seat in the local legislature for the county of Sunbury in the recent election held in that county?

Mr. Scott said that as far as the constitutional aspect of the case was concerned, he could not be expected to answer. He did not know whether the gentleman had been called upon to resign, but he would make enquiries.

Notice is given that an anti-cigarette resolution will be introduced in the house at an early day by Bickerdike. This is the result of a movement by the W. C. T. U.

It is said the Grand Trunk Pacific people are using a subsidy of $10,000 a mile. Liberals here are endeavoring to induce Ralph Smith to quit the command and accept the party leadership in British Columbia, so that the next provincial fight may be run on party lines.

Lieut. Governor Jette was here today consulting with the premier in reference to the Alaskan boundary matter. Sifton and his suite leave next Thursday. There is great kicking over Sifton's departure at the beginning of the session, when important matters affecting his department are coming up.

GAMEY CHARGES. TORONTO, March 18.—In the legislature today Premier Ross announced that Sir John Boyd, chancellor, and Chief Justice Falconbridge had been asked to act as an investigating commission in the Gamey charges and had accepted their instructions providing that the commission shall be given power to call and examine any witnesses and produce papers to investigate the Gamey charges or other charges made by members of the legislature against any member of the cabinet.

Mr. Whitney objected to the provision that only members of the legislature may lay charges. He thought the scope of the investigation should be made as wide as possible. He also objected to the provision that changes should be made as to anything.

FOUR BOYS DROWNED. MONTREAL, March 18.—Four boys were drowned in the Lachine canal this morning. John Hayes, 15 years old; William John, 10 years old; Victor Fecteau, 9 years old, and Patrick Curtis, 11 years old.

Newcombe of Westfield, N. J., who recently died at that place, and who is survived there by a young woman, well known in society and popularly supposed to be his widow.

CHOPPED OFF BROTHER'S FOOT. With an Axe Little John Young Ends the Rivarly His Spirit Could Not Break. DERBY, Conn., March 17.—John and Arthur, eight and six years old, respectively, sons of John Young, a Tolland blacksmith, were romping in the woodshed of their home Saturday afternoon doing "dares." Piqued because he could not get ahead of his young brother, John, seized an axe and, holding it up over his head, said: "You don't dare to put your foot on this block, 'cause if you do I'll chop it off with this axe."

AS BAD AS THIS. Miss Lucille Hill Says Basket Ball is Harmless School Girls.

BOSTON, March 18.—Miss Lucille Hill, director of physical training at Wellesley college, called a halt last night before the Physical Education Society on basket ball for girls. Her objections were made in a discussion of "Abuse of Athletics for Girls and Boys in Secondary Schools."

She told of the sad physical condition prevailing in Wellesley freshman classes and of some observations she had been able to make in secondary schools for girls.

She asserted that the prevailing fad for basket ball was working incalculable harm among girls, principally by reason of the lack of supervision by older persons, who could utter a note of warning on occasion of any life-long suffering. Girls come to college who had joints ached and bearing injuries as the result of over exertion in basket ball, which game seemed to be the sole reliance of a great many teachers, when considering the matter of recreation in the open air for the pupils of their schools.

Prof. Ira N. Hollis of Harvard sent a written address in which he urged that the tendency in school and college sport toward a "anything to win" standard of ethics must be regarded as unfortunate in every aspect. Athletics in general in college and by its influence in schools was becoming too much of a business, where the demands of fellow students, popular enthusiasm, the spirit of the age, perhaps, turned what should be a mere game into a species of profession.

Another instance, more deplorable in its character, was the boasting he became cognizant of on the part of a Worcester school boy, whose ball nine had just defeated a strong rival team. The victory was found to be due to the enrollment among the winning ball players of a young professional, whose antecedents were regarded as an important secret and kept as such by his companions.

Prof. Hollis believed there was now more of a tendency toward the English notion of college athletics, in which there was a determination to have a good time as to the points. He welcomed this tendency and would welcome a falling off also in the publicity attaching to college sports.

BOARD OF TRADE.

An almost full attendance of the freight and transportation committee of the Board of Trade yesterday afternoon showed the interest that is felt among business men in the question of railway charters and railway routes in this province. The committee was not, however, in a position to take action inasmuch as it had not full information as to the latest application of the Grand Trunk Pacific Company. Steps were taken to obtain information on these points. The Grand Trunk bill has not yet been introduced at Ottawa, and the formal notice even as amended only covers the ground as far east as Quebec. After fuller particulars have been received the committee will meet and consider the whole question in its bearing on the trade of this port and on the interests of the country generally.

FOR ACADIA.

Dr. Trotter Gives Details of Rockefeller's Donation.

Dollar for Dollar up to $100,000—Quarterly for 5 Years.

Rockefeller's Part Will be Paid Quarterly for 5 Years.

Rev. Dr. Trotter returned today from New York, where he has been in the interest of his visit to John D. Rockefeller's pledge of support for the institution of which he is president to the extent of $100,000. With the promise and the plans he has arranged, Dr. Trotter is full of confidence in future for Acadia.

The general conditions of Mr. Rockefeller's donation have been outlined in the Star before. As a result of representations made to him by Dr. Trotter, he will give a dollar for every dollar raised by the governors of Acadia up to $100,000. His collections may start any time and Mr. Rockefeller's portion will be paid quarterly until the $100,000 dollar mark is reached or until January first, 1903.

This is the proposition which Dr. Trotter had in mind when he visited New York and his success in obtaining it is more than gratifying to friends of the institution. The whole matter has meant great labor on his part, for Mr. Rockefeller does not give money without being thoroughly convinced that his gift is going where it will do the most good.

Dr. Trotter has had to confer with him with voluminous information regarding not only Acadia, but also all other educational systems in this part of Canada; the public school systems, social and economical conditions and every thing else that could possibly be of use in the future usefulness of Acadia.

When he went to New York Mr. Rockefeller was down South and the president was received by C. T. Gates, the man who has charge of the financial philanthropic schemes. With him the matter was gone over thoroughly, and through him the representation were made to Mr. Rockefeller, which resulted in the proposition stated above. Mr. Gates, says Dr. Trotter, had an acquaintance with maritime province educational affairs which astonished him.

Asked regarding his plans today Dr. Trotter said that nothing definite had yet been arranged except that the canvassing campaign would at once be prosecuted. As soon as he returns to Wolfville the matter will be laid before the executive of the board of governors which has power to arrange all details necessary.

"There will undoubtedly be some difficulty in raising our $100,000," said Dr. Trotter, "at least under present conditions. There are many schemes before the churches now notably the one with perhaps a later appeal, to which many of our supporters are pledged for two or three years ahead. To make the movement a success, those who are well-to-do must give liberally at the beginning for it is my idea that the canvases at first must be among individuals with perhaps a later appeal to the churches to complete the fund."

"Then money when raised will go first toward the wiping out of the debt which burdens the various branches of the institution. When this is paid—about $60,000 in all, the balance of the $200,000 will go toward increasing the endowment of the university and the income will be at the absolute disposal of the governors. But nothing at all will be done in the way of improvements or the establishing of new chairs until every penny of debt is cleared away."

"Have you decided to remain in the presidency?" Dr. Trotter was asked. "Unreservedly, yes. The way things had been I had felt unwilling to give my whole life to a work that must, by financial conditions, have always crippled the college. The college would certainly have gone on but never with thorough success and at a fearful strain to the ruling man at its head. Never since its foundation has Acadia been solvent. But now that we will be able to release the institution of its embarrassment and place it on the reserve at that date $18,750,000. I have more hope and feel that if my services are of use to the college I cannot withdraw them. This movement when completed will practically double our resources, and though even then we shall not be able to indulge in luxuries and all the way of advancement that we would, yet we will be in a position to do far better work than ever before."

Dr. Trotter will leave for Wolfville tomorrow.

LAKE NAVIGATION. CLEVELAND, March 19.—The steamer City of Detroit has arrived here on her first trip of the season. The run was made in about the usual time, and the captain reports the course quite clear of ice. With but one or two exceptions the present season opens earlier than for many years.

MUSKOGON, Mich., Mar 19.—The Barry line steamer Alice Stafford, with 20 passengers aboard, bound for Chicago, is fast in a huge fog of slush ice about four miles out and one mile north of this port. The strong southwest wind is rapidly driving the floe toward shore.

THE PASSEOVER. The next feast in the Jewish calendar is that of the Passeover, which commences in three weeks and continues for eight days. During the fast days members of the congregation are allowed only the unleavened bread described in the Bible. Large quantities of this bread, which resembles pilot biscuit, is being imported from New York. It is made in the same manner as that eaten by the Israelites, but stoves are used for baking it instead of the rays of the sun.

Rabbi Rabbintovitch, who was formerly in charge of the congregation here, is expected to return this week. He will again take charge of the synagogue. The present Rabbi will also remain here. His duties will include among other things, the feeding of the children and the killing of animals for the people. Rabbi Seigel is well educated in Jewish, but Rabbi Rabbintovitch has the drop on him in English.

POLICE COURT. Dennis Murphy and Coke O'Brien got on an early drunk yesterday and were scopped by the cops between three and four o'clock this morning. They were fined eight dollars apiece each for both of them, Coke and Dennis.

Yesterday afternoon Annie Francis went to jail for one month for selling beer in her place on Sheffield Street. In this case, the finding of the police was not so much to have the woman punished for selling beer as to break up the house she was starting.

BURIED TODAY. The funeral of the late Mrs. Letitia Peacock took place at half past two o'clock this afternoon from her late home, 80 Adelaide Road, to the Mission Church. Rev. P. Owen Jones conducted the service and the body was interred in the Church of England grounds.

UNRULY CATTLEMEN. Although no disturbances of a serious nature have occurred this year at the Seaman's Mission, the persons in charge of the place have their own troubles in handling the cattlemen who make use of the shelter there. These cattlemen are the worst class with whom the mission people have to deal, and they are often pretty hard to manage.

Yesterday two of them got into a fight in the shelter and when Mr. Williams tried to act as peacemaker they, with three others, turned on him. But they got away without being seriously injured. The cattlemen themselves are a pretty rough looking lot and many of them carry cuts or bruises as relics of drunken fights.

WHITTAKER WRIGHT. LONDON, March 19.—The case of Whittaker Wright, who is under arrest in New York, came up in the Guild Hall police court this morning, this being the day the summons obtained against him was returnable. Formal notification was given the court, and Wright's arrest in New York and of the government's application for his extradition. In the summons John Flower, chairman of the shareholders' committee of the London and Globe Finance Corporation, described as the "informant," charged Wright with "publishing a false balance sheet."

THE HUGGERMAN. Lower Cove is now getting a share of attention from the huggerman. About ten o'clock last night a lady who was going to her home on Charlotte Street was assaulted between St. James and Britain Streets by an unknown man. She screamed for assistance and this evidently scared the fellow, who ran away. The lady was taken to Donohoe's drug store in a fainting condition and it was some time before she was able to proceed on her way.

TONIGHT'S MEETING. The Fabian League holds this evening, the first of its public meetings at Odd Fellows' Hall, Union Street. The public are invited to take part in the discussion. P. C. Sharkey, the chairman of the league will give an address on the "Need of a Factory Act in New Brunswick," and Scott E. Morrell will speak on a "Better System of Ballot in This Province." These questions are deserving of a large audience.

THE FISH MARKET. The scarcity of supply in the Lenten fish market continues. Today the stock in the hands of the several retailers was hardly sufficient to supply the demand for today and tomorrow, and the wholesalers had little to replenish the stock with. Some arrivals of fresh fish from the other side of the bay are expected today. The only fish in the market this morning were halibut, cod and haddock. Prices on these were unchanged.

STANLEY AND MINTO. The Stanley succeeded in forcing her way through the blockade of ice on Pictou harbor last evening and shortly afterwards the Minto was towed in and docked. This morning the I. C. R. received the following: "The Stanley left Pictou for Georgetown at 7 a. m. It is considerably more than two months since this happened before. The Minto will have to be repaired before going on her route."

THE C. P. R. STEAMERS. LONDON, March 19.—The Beaver line steamers recently purchased by the Canadian Pacific Railway, will run between London and Montreal, the new owners having abandoned the plans for a Glasgow-Canada service, which it was announced was to be started in 1902.

WELL SOLD. A farmer was one day selling wool to a carrier, and after weighing it in the yard he went into the house to make out an invoice. Coming back he missed a cheese, which had been standing on a shelf behind the outer door, and, glancing at the bag of wool, he observed that it had suddenly increased in size.

FOR ACADIA.

Dr. Trotter Gives Details of Rockefeller's Donation.

Dollar for Dollar up to $100,000—Quarterly for 5 Years.

Rockefeller's Part Will be Paid Quarterly for 5 Years.

Rev. Dr. Trotter returned today from New York, where he has been in the interest of his visit to John D. Rockefeller's pledge of support for the institution of which he is president to the extent of $100,000. With the promise and the plans he has arranged, Dr. Trotter is full of confidence in future for Acadia.

The general conditions of Mr. Rockefeller's donation have been outlined in the Star before. As a result of representations made to him by Dr. Trotter, he will give a dollar for every dollar raised by the governors of Acadia up to $100,000. His collections may start any time and Mr. Rockefeller's portion will be paid quarterly until the $100,000 dollar mark is reached or until January first, 1903.

This is the proposition which Dr. Trotter had in mind when he visited New York and his success in obtaining it is more than gratifying to friends of the institution. The whole matter has meant great labor on his part, for Mr. Rockefeller does not give money without being thoroughly convinced that his gift is going where it will do the most good.

Dr. Trotter has had to confer with him with voluminous information regarding not only Acadia, but also all other educational systems in this part of Canada; the public school systems, social and economical conditions and every thing else that could possibly be of use in the future usefulness of Acadia.

When he went to New York Mr. Rockefeller was down South and the president was received by C. T. Gates, the man who has charge of the financial philanthropic schemes. With him the matter was gone over thoroughly, and through him the representation were made to Mr. Rockefeller, which resulted in the proposition stated above. Mr. Gates, says Dr. Trotter, had an acquaintance with maritime province educational affairs which astonished him.

Asked regarding his plans today Dr. Trotter said that nothing definite had yet been arranged except that the canvassing campaign would at once be prosecuted. As soon as he returns to Wolfville the matter will be laid before the executive of the board of governors which has power to arrange all details necessary.

"There will undoubtedly be some difficulty in raising our $100,000," said Dr. Trotter, "at least under present conditions. There are many schemes before the churches now notably the one with perhaps a later appeal, to which many of our supporters are pledged for two or three years ahead. To make the movement a success, those who are well-to-do must give liberally at the beginning for it is my idea that the canvases at first must be among individuals with perhaps a later appeal to the churches to complete the fund."

"Then money when raised will go first toward the wiping out of the debt which burdens the various branches of the institution. When this is paid—about $60,000 in all, the balance of the $200,000 will go toward increasing the endowment of the university and the income will be at the absolute disposal of the governors. But nothing at all will be done in the way of improvements or the establishing of new chairs until every penny of debt is cleared away."

"Have you decided to remain in the presidency?" Dr. Trotter was asked. "Unreservedly, yes. The way things had been I had felt unwilling to give my whole life to a work that must, by financial conditions, have always crippled the college. The college would certainly have gone on but never with thorough success and at a fearful strain to the ruling man at its head. Never since its foundation has Acadia been solvent. But now that we will be able to release the institution of its embarrassment and place it on the reserve at that date $18,750,000. New Dressmaking Department.

We have much pleasure in advising the women of St. John that on Monday next we will open a new Dressmaking Department in connection with our rapidly growing business. We have been doing a successful skirt making business for some time, but the demand for other garments has been so great that we have decided to take up the art in all its branches. A new Dressmaker, MISS ANNIE NELSON, for a number of years forewoman for Miss Spence, one of St. John's leading dressmakers, who comes to us very highly recommended, will have charge of this department. Miss Nelson will be pleased to give any information about the best styles for 1903, and take orders for any kind of a garment for women or girls.
