Ireland does not look for anything from Mr. Mr. Bedford seconded the motion.
Mr. Perley said the council was aware that Gladstone or any other English leader from love, but from their fears. The power to protect and foster Irish industries must also e conceded to the Irish Parliament. Som of the ablest men in England expect to see a deadly struggle between Russia and England for the possession of India within the next two years. It is the policy of England to settle the Irish difficulty before that time comes. The movement of the last six years, uniting as it has done every single element who call themselves Orangemen, and backed up as it is by the sympathy of the libertyloving people of the world, but more especi-ally by the people of America, has taught ally by the people of America, has taught England that, in the words of Mr. Gladstone believe that nothing short of the rights that and drilled as a military force and regard way the position of the party. Mr. Parnell, at an early age of his career, in 1877 and 1878, worried the House of Commons with only six followers. JAMES G. MCNALLY.

He is weary of our earth,
Peace to him, his work is done;
We shall built the New Year's birth are mother's morning sun. Pass away, pass away, Let the old and wrong decay; With the sorrows of to-day, Pass away.

Take with then the fleeing light,
Take the shadows of the past;
Of the years of grief and night,
Dying Year! be thou the last.
Let it die, let it die,
All the wrong beneath the sky;
God had speken from on high—

Pass away, O time of sin! Evil years of pain and grief;
Let the Kingdom enter in
That should bring the world relief.
Soon or late, soon or late, It shall come to all who watt; Batch shall reach a better fate, Soon or late.

Come, O New Year, crowned to night!
Come, O monarch, young and strong;
Help the frumph of the right,
Help the conquest of the wrong.
Hall to thee, hall to thee!
In thy hopeful smile we see
Promised peace and liberty—
Hall to thee!

Bring our weary, waiting earth Near the jubiles release, Bring the hearts that wait its birth Nearer to the gates of peace. Enter in, enter in, Earth shall yet her freedom win, Day of promise, O begin!

ers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious ex-posure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured. A Terrible Cough Cured.

"In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The dectors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY FECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the FECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY FECTORAL saved me.

HORACE FAIRBROTHER."

Croup. — A Mother's Tribute.

"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAI, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor sald that the CHERRY PECTORAI had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours, 159 West 128th St., New York, May 16, 1882. "I have used Aver's Cherry Pectoral in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effectual remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried.

A. J. CRANE."
Lake Crystal, Minn., March 13, 1882.

"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHER-EY PECTORAL. JOSEPH WALDEN."
Byhalia, Miss., April 5, 1882. "I cannot say enough in praise of AVER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung troubles. F. BRAGDON." Palestine, Texas, April 22, 1882.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine. PREPARED BY Dr.J.C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.
