B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

Plea of Mitigation

This plea of Mitigation on behalf of the accused A 110415 Pte Grimes, J.J., is being made as a result of a major domestic problem which has confronted this man during the time of his army service from 1941 up to the present time. The other problem is one which took place during his army career and the events which took place have had a great effect on his present condition.

With this domestic problem and events which took place during his army life, it is the wish to bring forth the following information before this court.

Pte Grimes has had a great worry at home. His father was sent to a tuberculas sanitorium in 1941 leaving his mother alone, they having only one child namely is the accused. The brother lived alone in her rented house in Stratford but later sold some of her furniture and moved to London to be nearer her husband. She was able to afford one rented room in a house there and stored the remainder of her furniture. Over a period of time this furniture has been sold to provide many articles necessary for the comforts of both mother and father. The parents are on in years and Pte Grimes being the only son feels that eventually a problem confronts him at home, there being no home and no furnishings with which to build up a home once more.

This anxiety of his parents has caused him much worry and a solution for his problem seems doubtful.

Pte Grimes has been in service since 5 Sep 39 when he enlisted with the Perth Regt. He took two months basic training and was then

This plea of Mitigation on behalf of the accused A 110415 Pte Grimes, J.D., is being made as a result of a major domestic problem which has confronted this man during the time of his army service from 1941 up to the present time. The other problem is one which took place during his army career and the events which took place have had a great effect on his present condition.

With this domestic problem and events which took place during his army life, it is the wish to bring forth the following information before this court.

Pte Grimes has had a great worry at home. His father was sent to a tuberculas sanitorium in 1941 leaving his mother alone, they having only one child who is the accused. The mother lived alone in her rented house in Stratford but later sold some of her furniture and moved to London to be nearer her husband. She was able to afford one rented room in a house there and stored the remainder of her furniture. Over a period of time this furniture has been sold to provide many articles necessary for the comforts of both mother and father. The parents are on in years and Pte Grimes being the only son feels that eventually a problem confronts him at home, there being no home and no furnishings with which to build up a home once more.

This anxiety of his parents has caused him much worry and a solution for his problem seems doubtful.

Pte Grimes has been in service since 5 Sep 39 when he enlisted with the Perth Regt. He took two months basic training and was then employed as a cook from the 15 Nov 39 until May 40. He then did a three months tour of guard duty at Niagara Falls.

In Sep 40 he was again employed as a cook and remained in that occupation until March 44.

Pte Grimes came overseas 18 Oct 41 and since his enlistment in 1939 Pte Grimes has had approximately four months infantry training which took place in his first year of service.

In March 44 Pte Grimes was taken from the Perths and sent to 3 CIRU to be remustered from RCASC to CIC. The short time he was there he acted as cook. From 3 CIRU he went to 2 CIRU awaiting move on draft to 2 CBRB where he again was employed as cook in the Officers mess.

Two weeks before "D" day this soldier was taken from the kitchen to go as an infantry reinforcement. He went to Normandy on "D" day and was there from 6 Jun to 22 Jul when he was wounded and returned to England. From hospital he came to 2 CIRU with an L-2 category and has been employed as a batman and that time.

This soldier feels that although he was willing he was not sufficiently trained to go to a theatre of war as an infantry soldier and has worried about his inability to have been of more assistance to his fellow soldiers who were casualties with him.

This situation which took place in Normandy and the problem of his parents at home has placed Pte Grimes under a continual mental strain. To find a release from the strain Pte Grimes left camp without leave to get away and try and forget RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President [redacted], complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning "FD" of the charge(s)[1], and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 14 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge[redacted].[1] If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty[2], or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined[3], we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. No [5]

(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.[1] The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on "FD" charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge[redacted] to which the plea(s) of Guilty is [redacted] not changed the President records finding[redacted] of "FD" Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.[1]

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A , initialled and read aloud by the President.[1]

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.[1]

(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.[1]

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and invoking an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.[1] You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.[2] You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.[3] But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.[4] You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character.[5] Whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

A103151 Pte V.A. Grimm.

In my plea for the accused I have a number of points, very important points which I would like to bring to the attention of the Court.

(1) I feel that if I had of been able to produce enough evidence I could have had the charge against the accused reduced. However this evidence could not be obtained.

(2) The accused was in a forward area throughout the entirety of his absence, and was not apprehended but presented himself at Coy HQ with equipment complete with weapon.

(3) The accused has had considerable mental and physical strain to contend with in the last few months first his brother a member of the RCN while undergoing training in Toronto he preceeded to an amusment pard and while ride on one of the many rides got into an argument with a fellow passenger and was thrown from the ride consequently costing him his life. He has one other brother serving in the RCAF. This leaves his Mother (who is suffering from a weak heart) a lot of home worries and then the death of one son and two serving overseas does not help matters any.

(4) This man has served continuously with the RCR since the Batt "FD" landed in Italyhe has done an excellent job has been a good soldier and up until this time has not shown any signs of weakness in the face of the enemy.

The accused has a perfectly clean conduct sheet.

(5) I feel that the court should consider very strongly all the points brought out by the defence and that they shown as much leniency as is humanly possible.

Plea in Mitigation of Punishment.

A 103151 Pte Va Grimm

In my plea for the accused I have a number of points, very important points which I would like to bring to the attention of the court.

① I feel that if I had of been able to produce enough evidence I could have had the charge against the accused reduced. However this evidence could not be obtained

③ The accused has had considerable mental and physical strain to contend with in the last few months first his brother a member of the RCN. while undergoing training in Toronto he proceed to an amusement park and while ride on one of the many rides got into an argument with a fellow passenger and was thrown from the ride consequently costing him his life. He has one other brother serving in the RCAF. This leaves his mother (who is suffering from a weak heart) a lot of home worries and then the death of one son and two serving overseas does not help matters any.

④ This man has served continuously with the RCR since the Batt. landed in Italy he has done an excellent job has been a good soldier and up until this time has not shown any signs of weakness in the face of the enemy.

The accussed has a perfectly clean conduct sheet.

(6) I feel that the court should consider very strongly all the points brought out by the defence and that they shown as much lenicncy as is humanly possible.

K/Cpl Yeamon and myself left a Cage in Postcamp at approx 2200 hrs. I Det the way to camp the accused kept constantly asking me to allow him to return to the cage because he wanted to smoke the plane.
I told him that was impossible and ordered him to come along. At which he grabbed me by the chest saying "you are nothing but one of the Os Bastards" I'll shot you," this reaching for his pistol. I then placed him under close arrest and duly warned him. He then agreed to come along with K/Cpl Yeamon and myself who were his escorts. He started struggling with me and bit my hand. I then placed handcuffs on him, fingers a jag and took him to the Det Hq. On arriving at same Hq the O.C. Capt Gudon was summoned and in Capt Gudon's presence the accused was perfore heard saying "Fuck you and the the goes Bastards around here" The accused was then sent to his bed and was checked during the evening.

The first struggle was caused by refusing to allow him to return to the cafe. This was just a few minutes after 12 o'clock.

The second struggle after being handcuffed they could not do much.

K. Exam.

I had been in the cafe earlier in the evening. I went in the second time to check because I was responsible for discipline. The doorway was open and I saw a disturbance. The reason for the disturbance was 7 Engrs. who were causing trouble.

I had a drink the first time but did not drink any the second round. I bought a round however. But don't remember how many I bought. I don't drink much myself.

I drank beer on the first occasion.

When Cpl Grinder was leaving the cafe he was not talking very loudly. He looked normal. I did not see him drinking heavily but I saw him drinking. I bought him a drink the second time. When he walked out he walked steadily.

I would let the accused drive a car in the condition he was.

It was a dark night.

I ordered him not to go back to the cafe but did not touch him.

Hanson owned 6 mos. How got me mixed with him. How borrowed money from him. At the time of the incident he owed him 500 francs.

(The ~~Examiner~~ was ~~correct~~ advised as to rights as a witness)

The money is now in the hands of the ~~C.C.~~ O.C. to be returned to the accused.

The accused grabbed me by the chest (indicating) and pulled me towards him. At the time his back was facing the cafe at the time.

Re Exam. The time of money did not come up during the struggle. He did not see the money that evening. I believe he did say something about the money when the O.C. came. I don't know whether I replied or not.

Sgt Pinski and a Pro. Cpl engaged in an argument.
The other parties was unknown. Profane language was used but I don't know by whom.

I heard the sounds
was made that night.
Sgt Pinski told me
the cause of the argument and the assault subsequently began on his person.

I directed the accused to go in the guard room.

There was also an argument concerning a pistol also a public argument
I have possession of the pistol.

The accused was very respectful, to me. The Pro was profane language to the Sgt on several occasions.
My impression was that the accused had been drinking.

L Cpl Ham: The disturbance sounded like a drunken bunch between two Tps. I could not see clearly.

Sgt Pinski appears to be rather excitable. He was talking in a rather loud voice.

I thought that I was about to separate and that thing settles it for morning.

I think that Sgt was trying to do his duty. But I do feel that his being there was aggravating the accused.

At approx 2300 hrs on 14 Sept the accused & I left a cafe with Sgt Pinski. After we left Cpl Goodman wanted to return. The Sgt refused & let him do so. An argument started and the accused grabbed the Sgt to get by & got back and the Sgt pulled him under close arrest. The accused did a lot of swearing.

After the arrest was placed under close arrest.
There was a short struggle.
The Sgt put an arm lock on him & the accused said he would come along to the barracks.

We went along the Sgt
& Cpl started another tussle
The Sgt got the accused in hand & took him as a jnp to our billets.
I got out of the jnp and went to my quarters.

Cross Exam.

While in Cpl Pinsky had some drinks with us.
He drank something on the second occasion.
The first time he had 2 drinks same kind of spirits. The second time he had one I know for sure.

There was one candle
— at the bar. It was a dark night The accused grabbed the Sgt about 10 minutes after we left the Cpl. I did not actually see him grab the Sgt. But I saw him holding the Sgt's tunic.
The Sgt could possibly have grabbed the accused by the arm.

The accused & I had been in the cafe since 1500 hrs. and had spent about 2000 Belg francs. I did not think the prices excessive. The accused had drunk a considerable quantity of spirits & beer.

The accused had been drinking more than was good for him but I could not say he was drunk.

There had been no argument before Sgt Piroski came in. After Sgt Piroski came in there was 7 Ergs as I did not want to leave the cafe. I had also Ergs thirst to drink the glass.

Sgt Piroski could handle the accused after he went without me. The Sgt bought a drink the second time and he had it but I did not actually see him drink it.

He replied it was good & he had 600 francs Yeoman. A round was bought and a short time later the Sgt left. We continued drinking the whole evening.

I don't remember helping to put anyone out.

The cafe was closed & we continued drinking. I don't know how long for had. I don't recall being noisy in there. The Sgt had returned to the cafe had closed.

I told him I was going back & find what the score was. He got in my way and I undertook to step him out of the way so he could pass by. He made a grab at me and put one arm on me. There we were grappled with the help of a Cpl Yeoman. and plenty of hard knocks on me. I asked him to release the handcuffs as they were hurting. He refused. I got angry.

They took me along somewhere stopped a jeep and took me to the main dressing station. The next was kind of confusing. I don't know who was who and what was what. One officer came up whom I knew to be Capt Gordon. The I don't know anything about a pistol. He told one Sgt to get and step it off.

John Grindon was granted permission to proceed to Oostcamp. At approx 2120 hrs 14 Sept 44 I proceeded into Oostcamp on duty. On entering the town I noticed a doorway of a cafe open and sounds of a disturbance inside. Upon entering the cafe I saw Cpl. Grindon and L/Cpl. Yeoman engaged in clearing the cafe of approx seven Engineers who were creating a disturbance. I ordered the Engineers to leave the cafe who did so immediately. Cpl. Grindon was using threatening gestures to the daughter of the proprietress and said "I'd like to punch you in the fucking mouth." I then persuaded Cpl. Grindon and L/Cpl. Yeoman to leave the premises with me. The time was then approx 2200 hrs. En route tothe Unit lines Cpl. Grindon constantly demanded to be allowed to return to the cafe which he threatened to wreck. Upon my refusing to let him go Cpl. Grindon grabbed me by the chest saying "You are nothing but one of the C.O's bastards, I'll shoot you", and reached for his pistol. In the struggle that followed his pistol was damaged. As soon as Cpl. Grindon made the above mentioned statement I placed him under close arrest. Cpl. Grindon was then duly warned of this. Cpl. Grindon then struggled throughout the journey to Unit lines. Upon reaching the Unit lines the Orderly Officer, Capt. Gordon, was summoned and in whose presence Cpl. Grindon said "Fuck you, you son of a bitch, you and all the no good bastards here". Cpl. Grindon, at the time of his arrest, had been drinking but was not drunk. L/Cpl. Yeoman was present throughout the whole incident also had been drinking but was not drunk.

I was on 14 Sept 44 and am still, Captain HQ Sqn 4 C.A.D. On 14 Sept 44, while on duty as Duty Officer, at approx 2330 hrs I heard sounds of loud arguing in the area of the entrance to H.Q. 4 C.A.D. and proceeding there I found the accused, Cpl. Grindon, whom I recognize and Sgt. Piroski engaged in an argument. I inquired as to what the trouble was and Sgt. Piroski said that he had brought Cpl. Grindon back to the Unit lines under close arrest. Then there ensued a discussion as to whether Cpl. Grindon should keep his pistol or not. I took possession of Cpl. Grindon's pistol and directed that he be returned to his own lines under escort and that the altercation would cease immediately. Also I told Cpl. Grindon who seemed most resentful, that he would have an opportunity to state his case to the O.C. of his Unit the following morning. After slight further discussion this was done. Cpl. Grindon used profanee language throughout at intervals, this was used only to Sgt. Piroski as he was most respectful to me throughout.

CASE FOR THE PROSECUTION

FIRST WITNESS: A.55060 Pte BAKER, A.R., R.C.O.C. on the strength of No. 1 C.O.R.U., having been duly sworn states:

Q1. Will you tell the court what took place in the Guardroom 1 CORU on the morning of the 24th Jan when Sgt Grinham was injured?

A1. Yes Sir. I was on guard duty the week of the 24th. In the afternoon when I was lying down on my bed, I heard a shot fired in the corridor and I went into the corridor and found Sgt Grinham partly slumped over web and equipment. Two rifles were laying down beside him. I picked up the two rifles and took them into the adjacent room which happened to be the Sgts room. The boys began to gather round so I told them not to touch the rifles. Then I proceeded to make the Sgt as comfortable as I could. I heard the Sgt say something about "who the hell left a loaded rifle here". I don't recall whether that was when I was there or when I was getting off the bed to go to see what the shot was.

Q2. Had you been warned by the N.C.O. IC the guard, Sgt Grinham, as to the unloading of rifles on coming off sentry duty?

A2. Sir, I can't recall whether I was or not but we were warned when I went on duty by the S.M. in charge, that rifles would be unloaded when we came off our beat.

CROSS EXAMINATION

Q3. Is it not a fact that the RSM warned all guards that they would not load the rifle at all but would carry the ammunition in their pouches?

A3. That's right, Sir.

Q4. Was Pte Sessions on the parade with you when you were warned by the RSM.

A4. Yes Sir. I am pretty sure he was.

SECOND WITNESS: A.106777 Pte SESSIONS, G.R., R.C.O.C. on the strength of No. 1 C.O.R.U., having been duly sworn states:

Q5. You are A.106777 Pte Sessions G.R., R.C.O.C. on the strength of 1 C.O.R.U.

A5. Yes Sir.

Q6. You were on guard at 1 C.O.R.U. on the 24th Jan.

A6. Yes Sir.

Q7. Did you hear anything unusual while you were on guard duty?

A7. Yes Sir.

Q8. Will you tell the Court what you heard?

A8. I was lying on my bed in the guard room and I was nearly asleep. I heard this bang and I wasn't quite sure what it was for a moment. I jumped off my bed and looked in the hall. I saw Sgt. Grinham lying on the floor. I went in, Pte Baker was there when I arrived and somebody said that the Sgt had been shot, so I went down to the F.A.P. to get the M.O.

Q9. You saw Sgt Grinham laying on the floor wounded.

A9. Yes Sir.

CROSS EXAMINATION

Q10. On whose charge was the rifle from which the shot came?

A10. Mine, Sir.

Q11. Had you been given any instructions with regard to unloading your rifle when coming off guard?

A11. Yes Sir.

Q12. What were they?

A12. To unload the rifle.

Q13. Have you yourself been charged with failing to unload your rifle?

A13. Yes Sir.

Q14. What was the result of the charge brought against you, were you found guilty or not guilty?

A14. I was found guilty and sentenced.

QUESTIONS BY COURT

Q15. You saw that you were brought up on the charge of the rifle being left loaded. Do you remember whether the rifle was loaded or not?

A15. I don't remember.

Q16. Were you given instruction that when you were on guard, rifles were not to be loaded?

A16. I never heard that order myself.

Q17. How much ammunition is issued to you for guard duties?

A17. There is no individual issue. A box of it is placed in the guard room and we just took what we wanted.

Q18. Do you know the number of rds that you took out of the box?

A18. No Sir.

Q19. When you finished your tour of duty did you hand all the rds over to your relief?

A19. To my knowledge I did.

Q20. Did you prove the rifle?

A20. Yes sir, I proved it just before my relief arrived.

Q21. Did you insert any rounds into the chamber or magazine after you proved it?

A.21 No Sir.
RP 83(B) complied with.

THIRD WITNESS:

Prosecution submits sworn and signed statement of Capt R.C. Bridges, R.C.A.M.C. as to the extent of injuries. No objection to the statement by the Defence (See Summary of Evidence).

The Prosecution is closed.

CASE FOR THE DEFENCE

Defence submits that no prima facie case has been established. The prosecution have not offered any evidence to prove negligence on the part of the accused. They have, in fact, proved only that the accused was wounded in the right leg on Jan 24th 1944 by a bullet discharged from rifle No. 38 L 2419.

I therefore submit to the Court that the evidence given by the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against the accused and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence; in accordance with Rules of Procedure 40 foot note I.

The Court was cleared to consider the submission of the defence.

"At approximately 1350 hours 24 January, 1944 I was laying on the bed in the sleeping quarters of the unit Guard Room when I heard a shot and on entering the main room I found that there was equipment strewn in the corner and Sergeant Grinham, R.C.O. of the Guard, whom I now recognise, was slumped partly over this equipment. There were two rifles lying on the floor as if they had been knocked over. I picked the rifles up and took them to the adjoining room and told the boys not to touch them. Then I proceeded to make the Sergeant as comfortable as possible and helped to dress the wound which was in his right thigh. After hearing the shot I heard the sergeant say "who left a loaded rifle here" or words to that effect.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

The other rifle discharged, hitting me on the back of the leg and knocking me over forward against the wall. I don't remember much after the bang. (Rifle No. 38-L-2419 Exhibit A)

Statement of accused in reference to the charge

Several nights before the incident occurred Pte Cameron and myself prepared plans with the view to the patrol that to. Pte Cameron did not go as with the check. Pte Tatnell picked it up, he took Cameron's place. On 24 Dec between my hours on guard duty Pte Tatnell came up and asked me while I found the patrol to Bixby's place. Pte Bumphries knew about it and the many we got from the patrol was great at the post.

2 - 4 Dec 43, I was on guard duty at 11 th. Field Dressing Station, Caterham. The hours of my shift were between 2000 hours and mid night. Approximately 2330 hours I carried 10 gallons of petrol to a woman's house named Betty in Caterham. I know this woman as Betty and she drives a taxi cab. She paid me for the petrol, I don't wish to say how much. I got the petrol from one of the Unit lorries which was parked near 'Hill Top.' I went part of a hose to obtain the petrol.

The reason I took the petrol was because I would like to bring to the notice of superior officers, the fact that in my opinion, I am of no further use to the Army, and would be of much more service to the Merchant Navy.

I have read over this statement and it is true.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of A-9021 Private GRISTEY, Fredrick Gilbert, 11 Cdn Field Dressing Station, Cdn Army Overseas, taken in the Field on the 12 Jan 44.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken under oath.

FIRST WITNESS K-79062 A/Sgt McNAIR, R.C., 11 Cdn Field Dressing Stn, sworn, states:-

On the morning of the 30 Dec 43 I made my monthly check on the vehicles on charge to 11 Cdn Field Dressing Stn and found a certain amount of petrolmissing. In checking with the log books found this amount to be in the vicinity of fifty (50) gallons. I then reported this matter to the OfficerCommanding. The vehicles I found the petrol missing in, had not been driven since the first of December 43. These vehicles were parked in the gravel pit on HILL TOP hill until the 17 Dec 43 but owing to the unfavourable condition formaintenance these vehicles were moved out onto the road along HILL TOP hill. These vehicles were under guard at all times.

K-79062 A/Sgt McNair R C

CROSS-EXAMINATION

Question: Can Sgt McNair give the exact date the petrol was missing?
Answer : No, as these vehicles were "vehicles off the road" and no drivers, they had not been checked during that month.

Question: Were vehicles facing downhill or uphill?
Answer : They were facing downhill.

Question: Were any vehicles taken out of the vehicle park without a work ticket?
Answer: Not to my knowledge.

SECOND WITNESS

U1913 Sgt SUTHERST, R S, No.1 Special Investigation Section, 1st CdnArmy, sworn, states:-

On the 6 Jan 44, in the company of civilian police officers I went to an address in CATERHAM where a search was conducted of the premises, as a result of which two five gallon drums of petrol were found. As a result of inquiries made I saw A-9021 Pte GRISTEY,F.G. the accused whom I now recognise at the 87 Cdn Arty Coy., RCASC, 3rd Med. Regt, on the 7 Jan 44. I told him who I was and that I was making inquiries respecting some petrol that had been stolen from the 11 Cdn Fd Dressing Station at CATERHAM. Pte GRISTEY was cautioned and then made the following voluntary statement which I reduced to writing. This statement was signed by Pte GRISTEY and taken in the presence of Lt. WALL L H of the 3rd Med Regt Pl, RCASC. Statement by Pte. Goad.

I was trained in 1907 and my wife, unfortunately did not receive a good education, being an Indian (London dist.). My wife comes from Muncey Reservation, west of London dist. & I come from Six Nations Reserve, Brantford dist.

Since I left Canada, Aug 1914, until I did this, I have received letters from my wife, in regard to herself, as being lonesome, due to the fact she, that I had a few days just before I came overseas, and as time went on, her letters became more. I have tried using different grades, but it is the same that I was using it & that every time was using it over here. I have received letters from Ex Gaboy that she has not received any letters from any of their people.

In one of her letters she states that she has seen a lot of men friends who has got their home & she wonders why I cannot get home.

I was in the R.C.A.S.C. & I came to time as Machine Gunner. I was posted to the R.C.A.S.C. again my unit from the A.H.A. I came with them into France, as an M.G. & worked them up to Antwerp Belgium. I was then taken off M.G. & put on General duty. The job I was given, was looking after a water Trailer, which only took an hour a day & the rest of the time I had myself. They became very monotonous. I would like to be back here now, but if it is possible, I would like to go back to the trenches & do a job there.

Referee Indian Agent at Brantford dist.

Statement recorded orally by Sgt. CORLEW. T.E. B-41377.

Sir,

About two and a half years ago, I was in the same regiment as Pte Grant, & I came in contact with him quite often, both on & off duty & I found him a soldier with a cheerful disposition, & he was always a hard worker & when called upon for any duty he did not hesitate, but immediately did the duty. He was also a soldier, who had regard for higher authority. Since I left the regiment (RHLI) I have come into contact with him several times & he has always been the same.

Question by the Court

Did Pte Grant ever mention his wife?

Answer

I cannot remember now. It may have done so, but I cannot recall it

First Witness for the Prosecution

K 75465 CSM Wilson G.E. 10 Cdn Inf Bde Coy RCASC being duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.1 Will you identify yourself to the court?
A.1 I am K 75565 CSM Wilson G.E. of the 10 Cdn Inf Bde Coy RCASC.
Q.2 Do you recognize Pte Grob?
A.2 Yes sir (Identifies the accused)
Q.3 Will youtell the court in your own words the circumstances surrounding the alleged offence of absent without leave and disobeying a lawful command?
A.3 I issued the accused a pass to go on leave as well as a number of other passes to other members of the unit and warned them all to read the pass to know the date they were to be back. The unit moved while the accused was on leave. After we arrived at the new location I phoned daily to the old location to see what men had returned and to arrange transport to their new location. On the return of the rear party to the new location the accused was not with them. On the night of the 27th of June I had to Lewes on duty and on orders from our O.C. I was told to go to the address which the accused had given and ascertain if he was there, and I did so and apprehended him at 0010 hrs on the 28th of June. On the morning of the 28th of June I asked him for his pass which he gave me and it was the pass I had issued him when he went on leave.
Q.4 What is this document?
A.4 It is the pass sir of Pte Grob?
A.5 Made out by whom?
A.5 By the Pl clerk of 3 Platoon, at that time it was private Grob.
Q.6 Did you sign it any place?
A.6 No sir.
Q.7 This is the pass the accused gave to you?
A.7 Yes sir.
Pass is handed to the court marked Exhibit A and signed by the President.
Q.8 Continue Sgt Major?
A.8 The only thing about disobeying an order is that I was instructed to send a wire by Lieut Glover which he had made out. The Post Office in town was closed and as I was proceeding to London I sent it from an all night post office in Leicester square.
Q.9 Did you have any conversation with the accused at the time of his apprehension?
A.9 Yes sir.
Q.10 What was it?
A.10 When he was getting in the station wagon he said his kit was at the Railway Station in Lewes and I told him it was too late to pick it up then and would arrange to pick it up later and this was subsequently done.
Q.11 At what date did the rear party leave the former location?
A.11 I could not say for sure sir.
Q.12 Supposing the accused arrived back and there were no members of the rear party at the old location is there any system whereby the accused could find his unit?
A.12 There is a system but on examining the pass I don't know if the accused could have found his unit. The system is that the address of the Reinf part is written on the back of the pass but in this case I see it was omitted.
Q.13 The accused as a Platoon clerk would know the system whether or not it was written on the pass?
A.13 I don't know sir.
Q.14 Does the accused know where the Reinf unit is?
A.14 I don't know sir.
Q.15 Has the accused to your knowledge ever been on a course?
A.15 Yes sir.
Q.16 What happens at the expiration of the course?
A.16 In this Div they return immediately to their unit.
Q.17 At what time did you file the telegram?
A.17 Between nine and ten o'clock on the 16th of June 1943.

The defence declines to cross examine

The Court questions the witness

Q.18 You are not familiar with the time the rear party left the former location?
A.18 I could not say exactly what date, I think it was ten days after we left.
Q.19 You know your former location?
A.19 Yes sir.
Q.20 When they left that location they came to you?
A.20 Yes sir.
Q.21 Are you not in a position to know what time they left, what time did they arrive in the new location?
A.21 It was somewhere around three o'clock in the afternoon and was either 26 or 27th but the exact date I could not swear to.

In the opinion of the court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with the provisions of R.P. 83(b)

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

Second Witness for the Prosecution

Lieut C.D. Glover, 10 Cdn Inf Bde Coy RCASC being duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.1 Will you identify yourself to the court?
A.1 I am Adm O. Lieut C.D. Glover, 10 Cdn Inf Bde Coy RCASC.
Q.2 Do you recognize the accused?
A.2 I do (Identifies the accused)
Q.3 I would like you to tell the court in your own words anything you know concerning the alleged offences by the accused?
A.3 As a result of information received I made a check on leaves and found that one Pte Grob was A.W.L. On the 18th of June I received a telegram which I have here requesting an extension of leave to be granted to Pte Grob.
(Telegram handed to the court marked Exhibit "B" and signed by the President)
(Defence consents that this witness give evidence concerning the telegram received by said witness signed Pte Grob)
I informed the O.C. of the Coy of the receipt of this telegram and of its contents and asked for further orders. Having been given further orders I proceeded to despatch with one CSM Wilson my reply.

Cross examined by the Defence

Q.4 Is it customary when you receive word from a soldier and he says he is sick to you order him to return immediately or is any concession given for a man who reports sick?
A.4 Concessions are certainly given, but the reading of the telegram sent by the accused was such that led us to believe he could return under his own power.
Q.5 In the gist of this telegram what would lead you to believe he could return on his own power?
A.5 A concession would certainly have been given ifthe message could give us a direct fact, such as unable to return I am sick in bed or Dr. ordered me to stay there in bed, but the message stated merely felt ill.
Q.6 That would prompt you to say that a man could return under his own power?
A.6 Yes, in my opinion if a man states he still feels ill the best place for him is with the unit and if he says he is sick in bed then the best place for him is to remain in bed.

The court questions the witness

Q.7 What is this(Exhibit A)
A.7 That is an ordinary leave pass that is given out to the personnel of the unit when they proceed on leave.

Q.8 Is that your signature?
A.8 Yes sir.
Q.9 From your personal knowledge were you informed that he was under medical care while on leave?
A.9 No sir, not outside of the telegram.

Closing address of the Prosecutor

Mr. President and Member of the Court in summing up I would like to point out just a few facts which have come out in evidence, which in many respects was somewhat vague. I would like to point out that the evidence of Mrs Kenward is so vague that no facts can really be deduced from it. However, these facts have been proven, first that the accused is a soldier and therefore subject to military law, secondly that a lawful command was given and received by the accused ordering him to return to his unit, thirdly, that the accused was fit to travel on the 24th of June, I refer to the evidence of Miss Betty Kenward. Therefore, the accused is guilty of being A.W.L. from June 24th until 0010 hrs on the 28th of June. It seems fairly conclusive that prior to the 24th of June the accused was unable to travel. The fourth fact is that in view the accused was able to travel on the 24th of June that is the date he disobeyed a lawful command to return to his unit. I would like to point out this fact, that it is common knowledge amongst all troops and they are instructed if their unit moves while they are on leave, that they return to their appropriate reinforcement unit. This fact has not been proven here, however, it is of no consequence, in the sense that the accused made no attempt to come back to his unit. It has been brought out in the evidence that he said he intended to come back, but nevertheless he made no effort.

These are the facts and I believe the accused is guilty of absence without leave from the 24th of June until he was apprehended and that on the 24th of June he disobeyed a lawful command in not returning to his unit immediately.

Closing address of the Defence

Mr. President and Gentlemen in the closing address of the defence I would like to draw your attention to certain facts. The first point the charge of absent without leave, the prosecution has pointed out that it is not possible to hold the accused for that offence, and they have also brought out that he was physically unable to return to his unit, and in as much as he was unable to return to his unit charge No. 2 is no offence. I refer the court to M.M.L. Sec 9 Para 2 sub para 2. The fact that the accused was given no instructions how to return to his unit in the event of them moving, it was a known fact that the unit was in the process of moving to a new location. No steps were taken to notify the accused or any other person going on leave where to return to in the event his unit moved. I would think that if a unit were concerned with the return of an absentee especially a sick one they would have despatched an ambulance or some other mode of transportation, and it has been proven that the accused was at the address given by him for the duration of his leave. No attempt was made until the 28th of June. The accused did make an attempt to return to his unit as soon as he was physically able to make that attempt. Evidence has been given that he went via London in an attempt to return to his unit. In closing I have only one thing to say, I recommend that the accused be dismissed on the grounds of insufficient evidence to prove either of the charges.

Summing up by the Judge Advocate

In considering the question of the burden of proof, regard must be had to two rules - first that every man is presumed to be innocent until he is prowe to be guilty and secon - that he who alleges a fact must prove it, whether the allegation is couched in affirmative or negative terms. Therefore the Prosecution must give evidence showing the commission of the offence, and connecting the accused with it. On this being done the prosecution will have proved a prima facie case. Then the presumption of fact shifts to the accused and he must give a reasonable explanation in satisfaction of the charge.

Today there are two charges before you, the first Absence without leave, and second, Disobeying a lawful command given by his superior officer. The facts of the case are absolutely within your domain. If I should happen to venture an opinion with regard to the facts, you are under no obligation to accept my opinion but with regard to the facts if it should happen that I should advise you on any law, then you should take the legal advice of the Judge Advocate, except for very weighty reasons, which reasons you would have to state so as they would be on the record. With regard to the statement of particulars in the first charge that on the 17th of June 1943 he absent himself from his unit without leave, 10 Cdn Inf Bde Coy RCASC, from 0800 hrs 17 June 43 until he was apprehended at Lewes at 0010 hrs on 28 Jun 43. You must satisfy yourselves that the accused was absent from the time stated until apprehended at Lewes at 0010 hrs 28 Jun 43. You have before you Exhibit A which is a pass signed by Lieutenant C.D. Glover which covers a certain period of time. There is no question in my mind that the accused was given a pass to leave his unit pursuant to the said pass. Then you have the evidence by the CSM that the accused was apprehended at Lewes on the 28th of June 43. I don't think there is any dispute about that fact. What you have to satisfy yourselves, is, was the accused in a position to return to his unit at the expiration of his pass. There has been a considerable amount of evidence, some of it contradictory and the only way you can tell if a witness is telling the truth, is if the witness has not been broken down in cross-examination and then again, you as reasonable men looking at the demeanor of the witnesses, can come to the conclusion as to whether or not that witness is telling the truth. That is rather a difficult job for witnesses even when telling the truth become flustered and by so doing may not give evidence as satisfactorily as is possible.

With regard to the second charge you must satisfy yourselves that a lawful command was given to the accused by a superior officer and also that the accused understad the said lawful command. You have the evidence of Lieut Glover that he despatched a certain telegram to the accused ordering him to return to his unit immediately. There is no question about it being sent. The next thing is to determine whether the accused received the telegram. If you come to the conclusion that it was received by the accused, the next thing to determine is whether the accused was in a position to return to his unit. My recollection of the evidence is that the accused after he had got out of hospital and returned to the particular premises which were mentioned in court, that he took a trip to London and then returned back to the premises. According to the evidence of Miss Betty Kenward, she said, that he told her he had been in London. Now whether or not the accused made an attempt to return to his unit by going to London is something for you to determine. Why did he come back to the premises which were occupied by Mrs. Kenward and others.

I don't think there is anything else I can say, but in closing I will draw your attention to the doctrine of reasonable doubt. The Court must remember the principle of English law that an accused is presumed to be innocent until he he is proved guilty, and that the burden of proof rests upon the Prosecution. Unless therefore, the guilt of the accused has been established beyond reasonable doubt, the accused must be acquitted, as the prosecution has failed to sustain adequately the burden of proving his guilt. Such a doubt would be one that reasonable men would have. It is more than mere suspicion. In other words the court must be satisfied not only that the circumstances proved were consistent with the guilt of the accused, but also that they were inconsistent with any other rational conclusion.

Is there anything further you wish me to say Mr. Defending Officer Nos sir.

And you Mr. Prosecutor
No sir.

Summary of evidence in the case of L3962 Pte. GROB, E.R., 10 Canadian Infantry Brigade Company, Royal Canadian Army Service Corps, 4 Canadian Armoured Division, is charged with:

1. A.A. Sec. 15 (1) Absenting himself without leave.

3. A.A. Sec. 11 Neglecting to obey an order.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken under oath.

K75465 Company Sergeant Major Wilson, G.E., 10 Cdn Inf. Bde Coy, R.C.A.S.C., sworn, states:

As C.S.M. I issue all leave passes and transportation tickets to men proceeding on privilege leaves. I issued the accused his pass and ticket on the day he went on leave and told him to be sure to read his pass so that he would know the exact time he should return to the unit. After the unit moved to its present area, knowing that there were still some men on leave, I checked at our former location on those days when men were due back to arrange to have them transported to this locality. On the morning of the 17th of June I checked and found the accused had not returned to the unit. I checked daily after that until the rear party left our former camp area. I had the address given by the accused, in the leave register book, and as I was proceeding to Lewes on duty on June 27th the O.C. instructed me to check the address to see if the accused was still there. I found him there and apprehended him at 0010 hrs 28th June. The accused told me that his kit was at the station in Lewes. He said he had taken it there Friday June 25th. I told him it was too late to get it that night, and that we could send someone down for it. I detailed Sgt. Bridgement to go for it on Tuesday June 29th. The accused also told me that a portion of his kit was at Frensham. This has not yet been received.

I present this pass (Exhibit "A") which I gave to the accused prior to his proceeding on leave, and which I took from him when he was apprehended.

Q. On the 18th June did Mr. Glover give you a telegram to despatch to the accused?

A. Yes.

Q. From what point did you despatch the telegram?

A. An all-night Post Office, Leicester Square, London.

Q. At what date and time?

A. On the night of 18 June between 2100 and 2200 hrs.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Lieut. C.D. Glover, Administrative Officer, 10 Cdn Inf. Bde Coy, R.C.A.S.C., swaorn states:

On the 17th June '43 I was informed that one Pte. Grob, E.R., should have returned at reveille of that morning and was considered A.W.L. from that time. This telegram, (Exhibit "B") from Pte. Grob, reached me in the regular mail on 18 June '43. This telegram was shown to the O.C. who instructed me further. On 25 June 43 Pte. Grob had not returned to the unit and, as per instructions, I informed the D.P.M. by telephone and gave them the address used by Pte. Grob on the telegram he sent requesting the extension of leave. The D.P.M. said they would investigate the matter.

Q: Is the address of the unit used by the accused in sending his telegram worded in such a way as to constitute a breach of security?

A: To my knowledge, yes.

Q: In what way is it a breach of security?

A: Because the address mentions both the unit and the division to which that unit belongs.

Q: What reason have you to believe that the accused should be aware of the fact that he should not address any correspondence in this manner?

A: Since this order was re-published in Pt I Orders of C,RASC, I presume it was re-published also by the 4 Cdn Arm'd Bde Coy, R.C.A.S.C. while the accused was on strength of that company.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

C.D. Glover Lieut

K75644 Sgt. Bridgement, H., 10 Cdn Inf. Bde Coy, R.C.A.S.C., sworn, states:

On the night of 27 June 43 I was asked by the C.S.M. to accompany him to Lewes, one of the purposes being to check on an address at which it was alleged that Grob was staying. We reached this address shortly before midnight of the 27th June and found the accused there and took him into custody by 0010 hrs June 28th '43. On the return journey the accused informed us that he had left part of his kit at the Railway Station in Lewes. I returned to Lewes for the kit on June 29th. While there I went to the house where the accused had been staying, for the purpose of verifying his length of stay there, and also to verify his receipt of the telegram sent by this Coy ordering him to return to his unit. I was informed by Mrs. Kenward and her daughter, Mrs. Boulard, that the accused had lived there during his alleged absence from the 16th June to the 28th June, but not continuously. I was informed by Mrs. Kenward that on the 15th June the accused suffered injuries from a fall down the stairs and was taken to a hospital by her son, Pte. Kenward, and that on June 16th the accused returned from the hospital. Mrs. Kenward further informed me that on the 19th June the accused left her home to go to London, she thought, and returned on June 22nd. She also stated that he made a further departure and return, but she was not sure of the dates. All this was later confirmed by Pte. Kenward. I was informed by Mrs. Boulard that the telegram from this Coy was delivered by having it pushed through the mail slot since there was no one to go to the door. She did not say there was no one in the house at the time the telegram was delivered. Mrs. Boulard stated that she personally picked up the telegram, and handed it to the accused in the presence of her sister, Miss Betty Kenward. The accused, she stated, read the telegram in their presence and handed it to Miss Betty Kenward.

While at Mrs. Kenward's house I picked up part of the accused's kit, consisting of one rifle and one large pack, which had been picked up from the Railway Station by Mrs. Boulard after the apprehension of the accused. Upon applying at the Railway Station I found that the kit in question had not been deposited there by the accused, but had been shipped down from Victoria Station and arrived at Lewes 26 June 43. This information was given me by a Mr. C. Griffin, station employee. I also called at the post office in Lewes in an effort to determine whether a telegram requesting extension of leave had been sent to this unit by the accused, and if not, by whom it had been sent. The staff there could only offer the information that the telegram mentioned had been sent by a soldier who looked ill.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

FOURTH WITNESS

Mr. Charles Denis Frederick Griffin, 54 Malling Street, Lewes, Sussex, sworn states:

I am leading Parcel Porter employed by Southern Ry. Co., at Lewes Station. On June 26th 1943 we received a rifle and a pack from Victoria Station, London, addressed to Private Grob and marked, "To be held until called for." On June 28th a lady by the name of M.E. Boulard called during the evening. She had a telegram asking her to pick up the rifle and pack. I am not prepared to say by whom the telegram was signed. I gave her the rifle and pack and she signed for them in Inwards Counter Book, page 72284.

Q: Is it customary to release goods to an individual on receipt of a chit or telegram?

A: Yes, quite customary.

Q: At the time were you under the impression that the telegram in question had been signed by Pte. Grob?

A: Yes.

Q: You are not prepared to swear that the telegram was signed by Pte. Grob?

A: No, I am not prepared to swear to that.

Cross Examined by the Accused

Q: When you gave her the rifle and kit did she take it away with her?

A: Yes, she did.

Q: Are you sure that it was a telegram Mrs. Boulard showed you when she called for the kit?

A: Yes, I am sure.

FIFTH WITNESS

Mrs. May Ena Boulard, 1 De La Warr Green, Lewes, Sussex, sworn, states:

I am Mrs. May Ena Boulard, 1 De La Warr Green, Lewes, Sussex, where I live with my mother, Mrs. Caroline Kenward.

Pte. Grob came to our house on leave. I cannot remember the exact date of his arrival. Near the end of his leave he fell down ths stairs in what I thought to be a fainting spell. My brother, Pte. A.J. Kenward, carried him upstairs to bed. Pte. Grob appeared to be quite ill so my brother phoned the C.C.S. on the Brighton Rd. and told them the story, and they sent an ambulance and took him to the hospital. Pte. Grob did not want my brother to phone the C.C.S. as he said that he was anxious to return to his unit. The following morning, my sister, Miss Betty Kenward, and my mother, went to the hospital to see Pte. Grob and find out what was wrong with him. They saw him but did not find out what was wrong with him. They understood he was due to be X-Rayed. He arrived back at our house the following day, Wednesday, I'm not sure of the actual date. He was still very sick and we put him to bed for about three days. When he finally got up he left, saying he was returning to his unit.

Mother received a telegram sometime later advising her to collect rifle and pack and hold until called for. I collected the rifle and pack from the station and took it home and kept it until it was called for by men from his unit.

Q: Do you recall Pte. Grob receiving a telegram from his unit during his visit at your house?

A: Yes.

Q: Did you see the telegram?

A: No, I did not see it.

Q: Did you hear anyone read the telegram, or do you know what it said?

A: I did not actually hear it being read, and I do not know what it said.

Q: Did Pte. Grob send a telegram to his unit before he became ill?

A: I do not know.

Q: Did Pte. Grob send a telegram to his unit while he was ill?

A: I am not sure but I believe he did.

SIXTH WITNESS

Caroline Elizabeth Kenward, 1 De La Warr Green, Lewes, Sussex, sworn, states:

I am Caroline Elizabeth Kenward, 1 De La Warr Green, Lewes, Sussex. Pte. Grob came to my house on the 17th of June I think it was, to see my daughter, Betty Kenward. While he [redacted] was there he seemed to be ill all the time. On Tuesday evening he fell down the stairs from top to bottom, and my son sent him to the hospital. On Thursday he returned to my home and I asked him why he came home and he said he didn't know what he was doing. He went to bed and remained there saying that he didn't feel well enough to get up. He was in bed ill when the telegram came telling him to return to his unit, and he stayed in bed waiting for his unit to come and pick him up. Three men from his unit came on Sunday night, June 27th, and he went away with them. That is all I know about it.

Q: Did you visit the accused in the hospital the day after he fell down stairs?

A: Yes.

Q: Did you see him in the hospital?

A: Yes.

Q: Did you try to find out what was the matter with him?

A: I did try but the nurse couldn't tell me anything.

Q: When the accused returned from the hospital did he contact his unit in an effort to obtain an extension of his leave?

A: Yes.

Q: How did he contact his unit?

A: He sent a telegram.

Q: Did you see the telegram he sent?

A: No.

Q: How did the accused send a telegram if he was sick in bed?

A: He told me he had sent it on his way back from the hospital.

Q: Did the accused receive a reply to his telegram?

A: Yes.

Q: Did you see the reply received by the accused?

A: Yes.

Q: Do you remember the contents of the telegram received by the accused?

A: The telegram ordered him to return to his unit immediately.

Q: Did the accused see this telegram?

A: Yes. I took it up to his room and read it to him.

SEVENTH WITNESS

Miss Betty Josephine Kenward, 1 De La Warr Green, Lewes, Sussex, sworn states:

I don't remember the exact date Pte. Grob arrived at our house. While he was there we had a very serious quarrel and his nerves appeared to be in a bad state. I was down stairs a couple of hours after this quarrel when I heard a loud noise and found that Pte. Grob had fallen all the way down stairs. He seemed to be badly hurt, and we placed him on his bed. We tried to move him to see what was wrong, but he groaned and was evidently suffering greatly and was spitting up blood all the time. I phoned the Casualty Clearing Station on Brighton Road, and they sent an ambulance and took him to the hospital. I didn't see him again until the following morning when my mother and I visited him at the Royal Sussex County Council Hospital. This was on Wednesday, June 16th. That same afternoon he returned to our house. He told us he had sent a telegram to his unit about his leave. He was still quite sick, and went to bed where he remained for several days. I'm not quite sure of the date, but I think it was the following Thursday, June 24th, when he got up and went to London. He came back again the next day and remained until the men from his unit came for him the following Sunday.

Q: Did the accused receive a telegram from his unit?

A: Yes.

Q: Did you read the telegram?

A: Yes.

Q: Do you remember what it said?

A: I'm not quite certain of the wording, but it was something to the effect that leave not granted, return to unit immediately.

Q: Did you see the accused read this telegram?

A: Yes.

Q: Do you know for certain that the accused went to London on June 24th?

A: That is where he said he went when he returned the following day.

Q: Prior to the time the accused fell down the stairs had he been drinking?

A: He may have had one or two ales but he certainly wasn't under the influence.

Q: When the accused first came to your house did he have his rifle and pack with him?

A: I don't remember.

Q: Do you remember seeing it there at any time before he left?

A: No.

Cross Examined by the Accused

Q: Did I not have my pack with me when I first got to your house?

A: I don't remember.

EIGHTH WITNESS

6204311 Pte. Kenward, A.J., 9th Batt., Royal Berkshire Regt., sworn states:

I was on seven days privilege leave which ended Wednesday June 16th, and I reported back to my unit on that date. I came home on 14-days embarkation leave the following Monday, June 21, 1943. Pte. Grob was at my mother's house while I was on my privilege leave and was still there when I returned for my embarkation leave. On Tuesday evening June 22, he came in and went upstairs to bed. I was in the dining room at the time and heard him at the top of the stairs. I went to the foot of the stairs and as I got there he fell from the top. I managed to catch him about three-quarters of the way down. I took him into the dining room and he was complaining of pains in his side. Therefore, I took him upstairs and put him to bed. On getting him to bed he complained of sickness, and I called down to my mother for something for him to be sick in. He was lying on his side because it hurt him to lie on his back, and he coughed up quite a considerable amount of blood. I told him that for his benefit I should have to call a doctor. He made me promise that I wouldn't call a doctor. I called in a gentleman from next door, a Mr. Whistler, who agreed with me that we should call a doctor. We phoned the C.C.S. on the Brighton Rd. and explained Grob's condition, whereon they sent an ambulance to our house. We got him into the ambulance and the Cpl. in charge took him to the M.O. at the C.C.S. On the M.O's. orders he was sent to the Royal Sussex Hospital in Brighton. He was sick again in the ambulance going to the hospital and coughed up more blood. When we reached the hospital we carried him into the reception room, and after some time the doctors there decided that they would keep him in the hospital. I helped the attendant take him to the ward, and promised him that my mother and sister would see him the next morning. The following morning my mother and sister visited him at the hospital and were given to understand that he was awaiting an X-Ray. I then caught the 1457 train from Lewes that day and returned to my unit.

I got home again on Monday, June 21st, and was surprised to find Grob in bed there as I thought he was still in the hospital. I asked him about returning to his unit and he said he had to get a medical certificate first. I advised him to go to the C.C.S. and see the M.O. and get a sick report stating why he had been admitted to hospital. I don't remember on what day he got up but when he did, he went to the C.C.S. and when he came home he told me that he had seen the M.O., who had refused to give him a sick report because he (the M.O.) had not been on duty when Grob was taken to the C.C.S. and knew nothing about his case. A few days later, I don't remember the exact date, the C.S.M. and two or three others from Pte. Grob's unit came down and took him away.

Q: Would you say that the accused was under the influence of liquor when he came in Tuesday night?

A: He had been drinking, but in my opinion he definitely knew what he was doing.

Q: Did the accused give you any reason for making you promise not to call a doctor after his fall downstairs?

A: Yes. He said he had to return to his unit the following day, and did not want to see a doctor.

Q: From the time the accused got up, after returning to your house from the hospital, until he returned to his unit, did he go out at all other than going to the C.C.S.?

A: To my knowledge, no.

Cross Examined by the Accused

Q: When I went to the C.C.S. who went with me?

A: My sister Betty.

Q: When you came home on leave, did I have my pack and rifle at the house?

A: Yes.

Q: Do you remember me going to London at all?

A: I don't remember your going, but you did mention something to that effect.

Lt. A. J. Kennard.

IN THE CASE OF B.9852, Gnr. Grobb, R.A.

Sir,

In my opinion the bad record of the accused, whilst serving in the Canadian Army, is affected mostly by the fact that his home life and parental upbringing was not as any normal boy would enjoy. Kicked around from pillar to post, gave him the wrong outlook on life, and has caused him to assume a definite persecution complex. It is his contention that the entire world is against him. His first seven months in the army left no marks on his conduct sheet. His present ambition is to be overseas to fight and would bring this point to the attention of the Court. Also I strongly recommend that he see a Psychiatrist as soon as possible. Apparently he requested the same with his former unit and as yet has not had the opportunity.

CONVENING OFFR WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS

(See overleaf for oaths and notes for use on trial.)

1st Witness: W 1854 Sgt A.N. Clarke, S.I.S. 10th Indn Provost Corps, 6 R.V. sworn, states.

"On 6 Nov 43, Det. Sgt Hobbs of the Camberley Police telephoned to the Provost office and stated that on the night of Nov. 4-43 a 10th Indn soldier had attempted to sell him a pair of army boots. When the soldier found that he was dealing with Police officers he ran away, leaving the boots and the small pack in which he was carrying them. The pack carried the Regt No B9652 and D/Sgt. Hobbs asked if we could trace the owner.

"I made enquiries at the 10th Indn. Army Records office, Aston, and found that this number was issued to B9652 Gnr R.A. Grobb who was with 10 Indn Hvy Coy in this area.

"On 12 Nov 1943 I was present at an identification parade at 10 Indn Hvy Coy when accused was identified both by D/Sgt Hobbs and P.C. Hunt who was also present when the attempt to sell the boots was made. Both the police officers picked the accused out from a line-up as the man who had offered them the boots."

"After the identification parade Grobb was cautioned and questioned but denied having anything to do with the matter. At that time he was deficient one small pack and one pair of boots. The small pack and boots left with the policemen were given in charge of the adjutant of 30 Can Trag Coy after being marked for identification and are the same as are now before the court.

Cross-examined by defence: 1.Q. How many men were in the lineup for identification

A: About 15 or 20.

2.Q. Was the accused pointed out as the man who owned the small pack?

A. No. The two police officers made their identifications separately and without being given any information whatever.

Questioned by Court: 1.Q. Was there any possibility of the second policeman seeing what man the first one had picked out in the parade?

A. No. They came in separately and the one could not see what the other was doing.

2.Q. Could they have talked to each other between the time of the two identifications?

2.A. No; there was no time for them to have done so.

2nd witness: No 36 Police Sgt Daniel George Hobbs, Police station, Camberley, sworn, states: "At about 9.15 p.m. on 4th Nov 1943, I was in the Brown Jug public house in company with P.C. Hunt. I saw a Canadian soldier in battle dress and carrying a haversack under his arm come into the public bar. He did not stay long. At 9.30 p.m. the same night P.C. Hunt and I left the Brown Jug and as we left the public bar entrance we were stopped by a Canadian soldier who said "would you like to buy a pair of boots?" I asked him "what are they like? Let's have a look at them". I then shone my my torch on the haversack and swung it up into the soldier's face so as to get a good look at him. As I did this a pedestrian passed and the soldier said "Put your light out, this is dangerous business". The soldier then handed me an army boot. I said "whose are they?" and he said "They are mine; I want to get the price of a drink." I told him he had stopped the wrong parties as we were police officers and would take him to the police station for attempting to sell government property. As I said this he ran away but I was able to seize the haversack and other boot.

I got in touch with the Canadian Provost Corps and as a result was present at an identification parade on 12 Nov 1940 when I identified the accused as the man who had tried to sell us the boots. The haversack and boots before the court are the same ones I have previously referred to.

Cross-examined by the defence: Q. Did you say the ~~man~~ who tried to sell you the boots had a scar on his face?

A. Yes; I thought he had, but when I saw him on the parade I saw that what I had taken to be a scar was just a dark shadow. Here it is here (pointing to accused's face)

Q. Was that near the only way of identifying him?

A. No. I also identified him from his face generally. When I shone my torch on him in the blackout I did it purposely to get a good look at him and accused is the man I saw then and later identified.

Re-examined by prosecution:

Q. How long have you been a police officer?

A. 14 years.

Questioned by Court: When you picked out accused at the identification parade had he been pointed out to you?

A. No.

Q. Did you and P.C. Hunt pick him out together? A. No. We picked him out separately.

Q. After you had made your identification did you tell P.C. Hunt? A. No. He went straight in after me and I did not speak to him at all or give any indication of the man I had picked out. There were about 20 men in the line-up.

3rd witness No 166 P.C. James W. Hunt, stationed at Haslemere, Surrey, sworn states:

"At about 8.15 pm on Thursday, Nov 4 I was in the public bar of the Brown Jug at Camberley in company with D/Sgt. Hobbs. A Canadian soldier came in. I saw him speak to a civilian in the bar. He had a knapsack with him and left right after speaking to the civilian. At around 8.30 pm I left the bar with Sgt Hobbs, and when we got outside a Canadian soldier approached and asked us if we would like to buy a pair of boots. Sgt. Hobbs said "What are they like? Let's have a look at them". The soldier then took a pair of boots from a knapsack and Sgt Hobbs flashed his torch. I then recognised the soldier as the one who had been in the bar a short time previously and had spoken to the civilian. Sgt Hobbs asked him "Whose boots are these?" and the soldier replied "They're mine". Sgt Hobbs then told him we were policemen and he would have to go to the station with us. The soldier broke away and ran but left the knapsack and boots behind. I followed him but lost him when he jumped a fence and ran through some gardens. I next saw him on Nov 12 when I attended an identification parade at "The Grange", Farnborough and I now identify him as the accused.

Cross-examined by defence: Did you only see the accused the one before when the torch was flashed in the blackout?

A. No. I saw them he was the same soldier I had seen in the hotel a few minutes previously and I identified him from seeing him both times.

Q. Did anyone tell you he was the owner of the knapsack or had been identified by anyone else?

A. No. I made my identification alone and from what I had seen of the man who tried to sell us the boots in Camberley.

Questioned by the Court: had is this man in court now?

A. Yes: He is the accused here.

Fourth witness. Lieut. P. L. Beckett, R.C.A., 10th Edn Tng Coy: sworn; states:-

"As adjutant of 10 Edn Tng Coy I was present at an identification parade at "The Grange", Farnborough on 12 Nov 1943. The accused was unhesitatingly picked out by two civilian police officers as the man who had tried to sell them a pair of army boots. They turned over to me the boots and the small pack in which they were contained."

Defence declines to cross-examine.

Questioned by the Court.

"When the identification was made could the second policeman see who had been picked out by the first one?"

A. "No. Accused was selected individually from a line up of 15 or 20 men. He was picked by each policeman separately and I do not think it was humanly possible for them to see as the lineup was held in such a way only one came on at a time and the other was around a corner.

Q." Could they have communicated with each other between identifications?

A. " I do not think it was possible. I would say positively "no".

Fifth witness:- B 27000 C.Q.M.S. Andrews, W.G.S. of R.C.E.; 10 Can Tng Coy, sworn, states:-

"After an identification parade on Nov 12 Lieut Bartlett gave me a haversack containing a pair of issue ankle boots. I identify the pair and boots as those now before the court. When Gunner Groff came to 10 Can Tng Coy he was deficient a number of articles, among them one pair of ankle boots, and I issued him another pair while the pair he was wearing were being repaired. I recognize the boots before the court as Canadian issue boots. No other military force in this country has the same issue boots to my knowledge".

No Cross-examination.

Prosecution closed. Defence has no witnesses and accused does not wish to give evidence. Statement handed in marked "Exhibit "F" (attached)

No Character evidence will be called.

The following statement was made by P.C. 166 J.T.
HUNT:
"At 5.15 p.m. on Thursday, 9th November, 1943, I was in the guard lo bar of the "Brown Jug" P.H. in company with D/Sgt.
Hobbs of Camberley. At this time a Canadian soldier entered the bar and I saw him speak to a civilian. He had a knapsack in his possession.
"He left the bar immediately after speaking to this civilian and at 5.30 p.m. I left the bar with Sgt. Hobbs. When we got outside a Canadian soldier approached us and asked us if we would like to buy a pair of boots. Sgt. Hobbs said, "What are they like, let's have a look at them". The soldier then took out a pair of Army boots from the knapsack and Sgt. Hobbs then flashed a torch he was carrying. I recognised the soldier as the one who had called in the public bar a short time previously.
Sgt. Hobbs said to the soldier "Whose boots are they". The soldier replied "They're mine".
Sgt. Hobbs then said, "You've asked the wrong one this time with us".
"The soldier then broke away but in doing so dropped his knapsack and the boots. He ran away down the road and I followed him. He turned down into a cul-de-sac and jumped over a fence and ran down through some gardens were I lost him.
"On the 11th November I attended a parade at the Grange, Farnborough, where I identified the soldier who tried to sell the boots to us." (Sgd) James W. Hunt.

6. After the identification parade GROB was cautioned and questioned but he still strongly denied having anything to do with the matter. At the present time GROB is deficient one small pack and one pair of boots. The exhibits in this case were left in charge of the Adjutant and disciplinary action will be taken at a future date, at which time a further report will be submitted to meet the diary date on page one.

"At about 8-15 p.m. on the 4th November, 1943, I was in the Brown Jug P.H. in company with P.C. Hunt, when I saw a Canadian enter the Public Bar. The Canadian was dressed in battle dress and was carrying a haversack under his arm. This soldier left the Public Bar almost at once.

At 8-30 p.m. the same evening I left the Brown Jug and as I left the Public Bar entrance I was stopped by a Canadian soldier who said, "Would you like to buy a pair of boots". I said to him, "What are they like, lets have a look at them". I then shone my torch on a haversack the soldier was carrying and as I did this a pedestrian passed by, the soldier said, "Put your light out mate, this is dangerous business". The soldier then handed me an army boot. I said, Whose are they", he said, They are mine, I want to get the price of a drink".

I told the soldier that I was a Police Officer and that I should take him to the Police Station for attempting to sell Government property, as I said this the soldier ran away, I was able to seize the haversack and other boot from the soldier as he ran away.

Whilst talking to the soldier I shone my torch in his face and in doing so made a mental note of his features. The following is a description of the soldier:- 5ft 10ins to 6ft tall, well built, full face, pale complexion with a noticeable scar on his face".

I put them in my haversack and took them to Camberley and tried to sell them at various places. Outside the Brown Jug P.H. I run into the two civy cops and made the mistake of attempting to sell the boots to them. One guy said "come along with me" and when he said that I ran. They chased me through a yard with a flash-light. I jumped over a fence and fell down, and laid there till they went away. Then I went up to the bus-stop. It was about 9 o'clock so I came back to Camp.

The reason I had 2 pair of boots was that on arriving here I sent my only pair of boots for repair. The C.T.M.S. issued me with another pair to wear. The pair I attempted to sell was the pair which came back from repair.

Statement by Defending Officer

The accused has asked me to state to the court that he pleads guilty on all three charge against him.

The accused states that he left the United States to join the Canadian Army. Came over seas with the 8th Coy 1 C.A. in which unit he served until he was transfered to C.A.R.C. While at C.A.R.C. he passed his tests and became trained and available for the field. After he was trained he saw three drafts go out Overseas and he felt that he was being over looked.

While serving in the Canadian Army the accused has had a few minor casualties and this is the first misconduct consisting of A.W.O.L. which he has against him.

I am sure that after the accused has served his punishment that he will work hard and become a good efficient soldier.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(2), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. Nil. (5)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex B, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?
Ans. ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?

1. The a/m is facing a Court-Martial on a charge of AWL.

2. As Jewish padre, I should like to corroborate several statements made by the a/m.

(a) Sunday May 28th was the first day of the Hebrew Festival of Shevuoth or Pentecost.

(b) This does not, of course, absolve the very unsoldierlike act of absent without leave on that date. But it does point to the fact that the act was committed from a religious motive and not a sordid one.

(c) His act is unquestionably a serious one but after speaking with the a/m, one may understand the power of a sudden religious impulse to seek expression.

3. Could it be possible to consider the above facts in formulating the court's decision.

It is the opinion of the defence that this man was definitely confused by statements made to him as to whom he was responsible and this fact along with the reasons stated above are ample to request the courts utmost clemency. He has now been punished in 13 months of his army career and joined active service to revenge by his work and response to duty the treachery which he personally had been affected.

He was not warned personally to attend the parade at 1930 - 27th or of any parades Sunday 28th. This was due to the location of the battalion quarters being some distance from the lines of the rest of the coy. to which he was attached. The accused asks for nominally

IN THE CASE OF

B-147583, Pte. ALBERT GRODY, C.I.C., attached to 51 Coy., 11 CBR Bn., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

CHARGE: WHILE ON ACTIVE SERVICE - ABSENTING HIMSELF WITHOUT LEAVE
Army Act, Sec 15(1).

THE COMMANDING OFFICER HAS DIRECTED THAT THE EVIDENCE BE TAKEN ON OATH.

FIRST WITNESS: K-52761, Sgt. (A/CSM) McBride, Jerome Cornelius, SH of C., attached to 51 Coy., 11 CBR Bn., C.A.(O)., having been duly sworn states:

"I am acting as CSM of 51 Coy, 11 CBR Bn. At approximately 1145 hrs on 27 May 44, I was ordered by the Company Commander to inforce confinement to barracks of the Coy. until further notice. This information was posted on the Coy. detail board, was announced verbally to incoming training platoons, was announced on mess parades and was generally promulgated throughout the Coy. At 1715 hrs approximately, 27 May 44, I was ordered by my Company Commander to call a Coy parade at 1930 hrs 27 May 44. This information and order was generally promulgated throughout the Coy. by the COS and myself. The parade formed at approximately 1930 hrs 27 May 44. I called the Coy. roll on the parade and Pte. Grody failed to answer his name. I repeated his number rank and name twice: he failed to answer. Due to incoming and outgoing drafts it was necessary to muster the Coy. on the morning of the 28 May 44. This muster parade was announced at Reveille, time being set at 0900 hrs. The parade was duly formed at 0900 hrs. I called the roll: Pte. Grody failed to answer his name. I repeated his number, rank and name twice: Pte. Grody failed to answer. It was reported to me by the COS that Pte. Grody had returned from AWL at 2255 hrs 28 May 44. Pte. Grody's name had been carried on the Absentee Report from 1930 hrs 27 May 44 until reporting to the COS at 2255 hrs 28 May 44."

THE ACCUSED DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THE WITNESS

SECOND WITNESS: B-77117, Sgt. Greenwood, Ross Stewart, TSR, attached to 51 Coy 11 CBR Bn., C.A.(O)., having been duly sworn states:

"On 27 May and 28 May 44, I was COS of 51 Coy, 11 CBR Bn. At approximately 1930 hrs on 27 May 44, CSM McBride called the roll: B147583, Pte. Grody, A., failed to answer his name. At approximately 2255 hrs 28 May 44, Pte Grody reported to me. His number, rank and name had been called at Tatoo roll call on 27 May 44 and again at Reveille on 28 May 44: he failed to respond. He further failed to answer his name at roll call at Tatoo 28 May 44. Pte. Grody had been continually absent without leave from 1930 hrs 27 May 44 until 2255 hrs 28 May 44. I have carefully read A/CSM McBride's sworn statement and I certify that the evidence therein is correct."

THE ACCUSED DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THE WITNESS.

QUESTION TO THE ACCUSED:

"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

"B"

ANSWER OF THE ACCUSED:

"I wish to make a statement."

"On the afternoon of 27 May 44, immediately after noon meal parade, I was xxxxxxxxxxxx reading some old mail from my parents, dated 5 years ago. I became very sad and felt very wretched, so I pictured in my mind the great sufferings and death that had gripped the writers of these letters asa result of the Jewish Pogroms in Poland since that time: my father murdered, my mother and sister still in a concentreation camp. Since it was the Jewish All Souls Day I had a great urge to spend the day in recollection and prayer. As a result, I journeyed to Camberley where I joined a friendly Jewish family in their spiritual exercises at home and in the synagogue. I left camp at 1830 hrs 27 May 44 and boarded the 1015 train (2215 hrs) from Camberley to Aldershot, arriving back in the unit lines at 2255 hrs. I submit this statement as a plea for understanding any mercy in this case."

1st Witness for defence K 75929 Tpr Henry John Grosetecke, 1 Armd Car Regt (RCD) having been duly sworn and examined by the Prosecuting Officer states:-
Sir, I am K 75929 Tpr Grosetecke, H.J. 1 Armd Car Regt (RCD)

Q. How are you employed Regimentally?
A. I used to work in the Quarter Stores before I came to Hove and Brighton, in other words, it's called Barrack Stores. I got the job in Hove, Brighton, as Assistant Salvage which I help Cpl. Roe on salvage.

Q. Will you tell your story leading up to the aquisition of the exhibits, and do you recognize articles before you as found in your possession?

A. Yes sir, I do. My witnesses do not know anything about the jam or margarine, they only know the ammunition box, 50 cal, two torn palliasses, earthernware jug and map case, one butcher knife, blanket, flour, lard and rice. The two towels I did not steal, my wife bought them in Aldershot Canteen. This stuff here, I have gotten out of the salvage except for the margarine and jam. I have gotten out of the kitchen, the jam and margarine, when the Regiment pulled away. They have been away for three or four weeks, I couldn't swear to that length of time. The rice I have saved from salvage which comes in sacks and tins. It took me a week to save the rice which I have here. The lard was found in the kitchen when the Regiment pulled away, it was dirty and sloppy, I have melted it and strained it three or four times to clean it. Flour I also got from the salvage, which comes in flour sacks from the ration stores. Each sack has a cup or half a cup in the sack which I have saved for two and one half weeks or three weeks. The butcher knife came from salvage too. The map case came from salvage also. The blanket came from salvage which I also had cleaned. The jug was found in the salvage also, I have cleaned the inside of the jug only, to put the rice in. The ammunition box, 50 cal. that was also in salvage which I took home, scraped it to be painted black for a lunch box in the Army. The palliasse was also in salvage. There were more than two or three. I took those two from the salvage yard one was burnt on the side but the top and bottom was not. I tore the burnt stuff away that was connected with the palliasse. There are four pieces to a palliasse, two sides, one top and one lower piece. The darker piece which was already in salvage and torn, I tore into a straight shape. I took those articles home for my own use only.

Q. You mentioned the towels were bought in Aldershot.
A. Yes sir.

Q. Under what conditions were these towels bought by your wife?
A. My wife works in the NAAFI. All NAAFI workers are supplied with NAAFI towels. If a soldier wants towels he can buy them, my wife purchased these towels.

Q. What was the condition of the butcher knife and the Map Case, did they lookas they do now or have you altered them in any way?
A. No sir, the butcher knife which I found in salvage was a little rusty, I cleaned it myself with cleanser. The map case was very wet, I put paper and boards inside to keep it from wrinkling up when it dried, and I painted it after it was well dried.

Q. On the 26 May 43 Sgt. Richards and a Sgt Major from the Special Investigation Branch came to your house, is that correct?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Will you tell in your own words what happened from the time you answered the door.
A. The landlady came and told me that there were two men out side to see me. I told them to come on into the room, they told me that they were police officers in civilian clothes. They told me that they want to search my place. I told them to look in the locker, and there they found the stuff, which was margarine and jam. They looked in the closet and found the rice, lard and flour. On top of the closet they found the map case and ammunition box, one knife from the drawer.

Wood

The blanket was torn from the bed, when they had completed their search in the house they told me that I was under arrest. I did not ask for a search warrant or their identification card. When I was being taken to the station, they left the house in a hell of a mess. I don't mean that they broke anything, but in a mess. Some people came down from upstairs when I left and seen the mess which they made. My wife was sick for three whole days and the baby six weeks old. When they have taken me to the Police Station, he told me that anything I say will be used against me, I said "Alright". The Sgt. Major typed something out, I think it was for my arrest and the way I acted. I have signed that sheet. I was awful nervous and upset. Then the Sgt Major left the room, leaving the Sergeant in the room, the Sergeant then offered me a cigarette. He asked me if I wanted to confess, I said I do not know. I don't remember what I said when I signed the papers, only some of it.

Q. Was your statement taken down from your own dictation?
A. No sir.

Q. How was it taken down?
A. He dictated some words that I did not understand, I must have told him something, but he said, come on Groeteske, did you or did you not steal this stuff. I said I have got it from the salvage except the margarine and the jam. That's all I could remember at the office, and I think that he gave me a cigarette to see if I was nervous. He gave me three or four cigarettes.

Q. You heard your statement read in the Court. It has been produced as an exhibit and your signature is on it. Is that the way it was dictated and was this statement read back to you?
A. It was read back to me, but I did not read it for I am not a good reader, in otherwords I do not understand large words or some small ones. I can talk the big words but I will be damned if I know what they mean.

Witness cross examined by Prosecuting Officer.

Q. You first stated that you helped Cpl Roe.
A. There are two of us on the salvage truck. Myself and the driver and two on the back.

Q. When you first took over the job as assistant to Cpl Roe, did he explain your duties?
A. I knew what my duties were, but Cpl Roe did not tell me. I often watched him at work.

Q. Cpl Roe was i/c of salvage?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Did Cpl Roe know that you were collecting these articles from salvage?
A. I do not know.

Q. What happens to salvage collected?
A. When stuff is brought in, we make a mistake sometimes. There are truck loads of this stuff brought in, and dumped on the ground. I turn in the good stuff to the Army dump. The old stuff is brought to the civic dump.

Q. Does the decision rest with you whether things are turned over to Army dump or for burning?
A. In Brighton and Hove I did the job myself.

Q. In your opinion, those articles that you kept from salvage were not fit to be returned to the Army dump, were they?
A. The blanket could be turned in. The ammunition box and the knife could be turned in. The knife could be cleaned.

WOFY

Q. Will you explain where you got the margarine, Exhibit "G".
A. I got the margarine and jam from the cook-house, but the cook-house was empty except for the margarine and jam. I also seen rubbish on the floor which was bread.

Q. Did anyone see you take the margarine and jam?
A. No sir.

Q. Did you feel that acting as salvage man that these things had been forgotten by the cooks?
A. I don't know sir.

Q. You have a cook-house for the rear party, haven't you?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Wouldn't it have been your duty to return the margarine and jam to the cook-house?
A. When I took the margarine and jam I did not think that.

Witness examined by Defending Officer.
Q. On the point of rations taken from the kitchen, do you live in barracks at the moment?
A. No sir.

Q. Do you eat your meals in barracks?
A. No sir, I have not eaten in the kitchen all the time, but when RAAPI breaks come. I go down for tea and bread and jam, which the cooks do not mind. Before I was married I have eaten in the kitchen.

Q. Is it correct that since your marriage you have been granted permission to live out?
A. I don't remember at all.

Q. Where you granted an overnight pass or were you told that you could sleep at home?
A. I have an overnight pass. Every man in the Regiment has one till 6 a.m., but he must turn in the pass to the Orderly Room and can get it back at 8 p.m. in the evening.

Q. When you took the margarine and jam, did you feel that you were denying someone else of rations?
A. Well sir, I did not think at that time what I was doing.

2nd Witness for defence WOSM Lieut E.M.Jones, 1 Armd Car Regt (RCD) having been duly sworn and examined by the ~~Prosecutor~~ Officer states:- WOSM
Sir, I am Lieut E.M.Jones, 1 Armd Car Regt (RCD)

Q. Do you recognize the accused?
A. Yes I do sir.

Q. Do you know how he is employed?
A. Yes sir, He is a helper of Cpl Roe who attends to the salvage and sanitary duties.

Q. Has it ever been brought to your attention that food commodities and tin goods were finding their way into salvage?
A. Yes sir.

WOSM

Q. When and under what circumstances was this brought to your attention?

A. One week prior to 14 May 43 as Acting Adjutant, one morning during that time, Groeteske came into the Adjutant's Office and handed me two tins of milk, one of which had been partially used, the other was full. He claimed that he had taken the two cans from a garbage tin at the rear of R.H.Q. I placed them in my office and next day gave them to the 2 i/c, Major K.D.Londell.

Q. Do you know if this same condition prevailed regarding other articles of War Department issue?

A. At the same time I was Messing Officer, I noticed on several occasions some good food in swill tins.

WITNESS cross examined by Prosecuting Officer

Q. After the milk cans were found, was there any investigation held as to how they got there?

A. I enquired from the Batmen and drivers living at R.H.Q. They claimed no knowledge of it, and I do not know what action Major Londell took.

Q. What arrangements exist within your Unit for inspection of Salvage?

A. I am not aware of any salvage inspection other than that possibly by the Regimental Salvage Officer. I doubt if this inspection is carried out regularly.

Q. Does the decision, whether or not they are to be sent to the Army dump rest with Cpl Roe and Tpr Groeteske, acting in their capacity as sanitary Cpl and salvage helper assistant?

A. I imagine that this would be checked by Salvage Officer, I have no definite proof.

H 62822 Tpr Ross, C.R. 1 Armd Car Regt (RCD) having been duly sworn and examined by the Prosecuting Officer states:-

Sir, I am Tpr Ross, C.R. H 62822, 1 Armd Car Regt (RCD) "A" Sqn.

Q. Have you ever been employed in the Regimental Salvage yard?

A. Yes sir.

Q. How long ago was this?

A. About one month ago, roughly April.

Q. What were the conditions of collection and disposal of salvage in the yard?

A. The arrangements were by Squadron and ~~him~~ Regimentally. Sqns will pick up different articles then bring these over to Regimental Salvage dump. Then in turn we were detailed to dispose of it on our own.

Q. Did you ever find anything in salvage which was in good enough condition to turn back to Regimental Q.M. Stores?

A. We were not informed to return anything that I am aware of, but to take it down and get rid of it on our own.

Q. Where was this normally done?

A. At the civic dump.

Q. Did you ever see in the salvage yard that was destined for that civic dump, articles that were either edible if it was food or serviceable if equipment?

A. In most cases when we got salvage bags there was quantities of food left in. We had seven ~~x~~ kitchens to be collected from, and when you put it all together there is quite a bit. WO97

Q. Did you ever see anything in army equipment either in the way of battledress or foods similiar to the exhibits?

WO97

A. In the salvage, I have seen nearly everything that has been on issue to the Army except the whole vehicle itself. We have found Battledress with slight tears or grease spots, part of car tool kits, and when the Sqns have been out firing we have the empty cases and casings which they bring to us to dispose of.

Q. You referred to the ammunition case, what sort of a case was it?
A. What ever kind of ammunition was fired. We had several types of weapons in our Regiment such as the Browning, and until recently 15 mm Besas and all personal weapons.

Q. Were these ammunition cases not turned back to stores?
A. No sir.

Q. How were they disposed of?
A. The ammunition came in mixed, it didn't matter which box it went back into, but were shipped away to another salvage dump. There were always three or four left behind.

Q. Did anyone ever come around and say what portion was to go to Army dump or civilian dump?
A. No there were only two types of salvage, metal and paper. The swill was taken away before we saw it, it didn't come to our part.

Q. Did anyone direct you to the disposal of salvage?
A. Not that I can think of.

Witness examined by Prosecuting Officer

Q. How long were you employed as salvage man in your Unit?
A. One week at a time.

Q. When you had your tour of duty, did anyone explain your duties to you, or were there any standing orders issued to that duty?
A. No, only that salvage staff went along to show where it was to be disposed.

Q. You stated before that you were to get rid of it on your own. Did Cpl Roe tell you to do this?
A. Not exactly speaking. We had some one with us at all times, so just carried it out.

Q. Is this exhibit an ammunition box (Exhibit "A") of the type which you stated was sent to another dump?
A. That type is an issue to ranks to carry shaving kits in.

Q. Do you mean that each man has one of them on charge to him in his 00Cs.
A. These I believe are an issue to Necce Pers, but we have more now, they did not go back with the vehicles, and were given to the boys.

Q. Were they issued through Bde Q.M.Stores?
A. I cannot say myself, I was away at the time.

DEFENDING OFFICER'S CLOSING ADDRESS

Sir, as has been brought out in evidence, all exhibits with the exception of "G", "H", and "K" namely margarine and jam, the towels were recovered from the Regimental Salvage Yard. These articles were being disposed of as being of no further use.

The accused is married and has been living at home. It is only natural with rationing as it stands in this country, he would collect as much edible food as came into his hands for disposal and take home. He has been living at home since end of February and eating there. He has not drawn any living out allowances or rations as both quarters and rations available. What food he has eaten at home has been mainly either food bought with his wife's ration coupons or such off ration commodities as have been available from time to time.

Exhibits "G" and "H", margarine and jam, were taken from the cook-house where the accused found them after the Regiment moved out on exercise and the defendant did not realise that he was depriving his fellow men of rations. None of the articles listed were sold but were used by and for the defendant himself. Morally speaking, the term "stolen" or "steal" may still apply but Tpr Groetecke took these exhibits without any malice or forethought, thinking only that these articles were being thrown away or being disposed of, and that he could personally use them to alleviate the situation at home. To my way of thinking the theft of articles in this manner does not constitute a crime as serious as had they been taken for instance, from the ration store. I therefore ask the Court to consider a plea of leniency, Sir.

The Court is Closed.

SUMMING UP OF JUDGE ADVOCATE

Judge Advocate reads from M.M.L. 118 para 80 and third paras and last in para 81.

There are two charges before the court. First, "Stealing public property" and a second charge alternative, "Conduct to the prejudice".

I am pointing out to you now that if the accused should be found guilty of the first charge he must be found not guilty of the second, and conversely if he is found guilty of the second charge he must be found not guilty of the first. In other words, when there are alternative charges, if the accused is found guilty, he can only be found guilty of one of them. With reference to the first charge, in order to bring in a verdict of guilty it will be necessary for you to come to the conclusion that the articles enumerated in the Statement of Particulars are War Department and stores, and also that the accused stole them. If you come to the conclusion that all the articles enumerated in the Statement of Particulars have not been proven to have been stolen by the accused, you can make a special finding excluding the articles which you have decided the accused did not steal.

With reference to the second charge, you will have to satisfy yourselves that the articles enumerated in Statement of Particulars are War Department rations and stores, and that they were found in the possession of the accused. If it has not been proven to your satisfaction that all the articles listed in the second charge have not been found in the possession of the accused, a special finding can be rendered by you excluding the articles which you decided were not in his possession.

Para 2

The Court must remember the principle of English law that the accused is presumed to be innocent until he is proven to be guilty, and the burden of the proof rests upon the prosecution. Unless, therefore, the guilt of the accused has been established beyond reasonable doubt, the accused must be acquitted, as the prosecution has failed to sustain adequately the burden of proving his guilt. Such a doubt should be one that reasonable men would have. It is more than mere suspicion. In other words, the Court must be satisfied not only that the circumstances proved were consistent with the guilt of the accused, but also that they were inconsistent with any other rational conclusion.

COMPASSIONATE PLEA FOR DEFENCE

B-41009, Pte Groombridge V.

I wish to present to the Court, a plea of compassion for the accused who, when one looks at his past record, sees a man, who previous to this offence, was a good soldier, a capable tradesman and except for minor offences, had had very little crime.

I wish in no way to condone with any person going A.W.L., but, if any man was ever given a more thorough runaround, this soldier was.

May I just show a little of the background, which I feel sure in my mind was the real reason behind his temporary lapse of duty. May I also remind the Court that he voluntarily gave himself up, and is quite willing to accept any punishment this Court wishes to give, but I plead, may this Court give him help for the relief of his mind re the background of his home and children which I honestly believe is the real cause behind all his trouble.

(1) While in the Army, 1942, his wife disappeared and he was forced to place his three children under the care of Child's Welfare.

(2) During the investigation, etc., he was drafted to England before the details and welfare of his children could be thoroughly checked and he came away, unsure and very worried as to their future.

(3) His record, and by his own admission, he applied for help here in England and on half a dozen occasions, the case was started on, but never seemed to progress very far before the perso conducting it was moved etc and it was never followed up.

(4) His trade, Motor Mech Class "B", kept him occupied, and he carried along as well as could be expected under the strain of his family trouble, until he was moved to the Reinforcement Unit after the re-grouping of Support to M.M.G. and he was then left with nothing to do but pick up ashes, [redacted] He had too much time to concentrate on his troubles and brooded for hours at a time, during one of these spells of depression, he walked out of Camp and kept on going. He kept [redacted] trying privately to get information of his home, [redacted] day after day.

[redacted], of which he was not successful. This carried on for some weeks and finally, realizing that only through Army channels could he get the results of what was happening at home did he return, and also feeling that there must be someone to whom he would try to appeal and would be able to help him. On returning to the Unit, and being charged with A.W.L., he applied to Capt Hudson, Offr Comd "G" Coy who in turn, sent him to the Padre, H/Major Sutherland to start proceedings etc for him in Canada.

This soldier wants nothing for himself but only to know that back in Canada, things are being done for his children, and that when he has served his sentence, employment may be found to his advantage and to the advantage of the Canadian Army.

(a) Legal Aid is now under way to procure divorce for Defendant through Legal Aid Office of this Unit.

In view of the above, leniency is requested from the Court when sentencing the accused.

Plea of Mitigation of Sentence:
Pte. DeGroot A.

I would ask the court to note that the accused in over five years service has a clean record.

The accused found that when under shell fire he could not force himself to leave his slit trench. He did go to the Medical Officer & stated his case. The M.O. could do nothing for him. He then went A.W.L. as the only alternative. I would like to point out to the court that this man attempted to have himself evacuated through the proper authorities & did not at first just take things in his own hands.

Plea of Mitigation of Sentence
Rfn DeGroot A

I could ask the court to note that the accused in over two years service has a clean record. The accused found that when under shell fire he couldn't force himself to leave his slit trench. He did go to the Medical Officer and state his case. The M.O. could do nothing for him. He then went A.W.L. as the only alternative. I would like to point out to the court that this man attempted to have himself evacuated through the proper authorities and did not at first just take things in his own hands.

EVIDENCE

9 MAR 44

C.Q.M.S. GROSE

Prosecuting Officer. – I am going to call five witnesses by whom I propose to prove that C.Q.M.S. Rose was drunk on the 9 Feb 44 and in a condition in which he was unfit to perform his duty.

1st Witness, MAJOR ANDREW A & Q THE PERTH REGT.

On the afternoon of 9 Feb 44 I was in charge of moving personnel, vehicles and stores of my Unit from one position to another.

One 3 ton lorry had been allotted to B & C Coys for their joint use carrying blankets, kit bags & any stores. The C.Q.M.S. of C Coy had arranged to go to the new area in a jeep, leaving C.Q.M.S. Rose in charge of the joint 3 ton lorry. The driver of the boat with was Pte. Tebb, F H

At 1500 hrs the convoy starting moved off the old party, which I supervised as well as the embarking personnel, who were moving at the same time. I had difficulty in doing both jobs, so I got Sgt Boyce of the Regt Provost Sergeant to assist me.

I noticed the B & C Coy 3 ton lorry, obviously which was fully identified as a lorry which had been built by our Pioneers. With care this lorry was negotiated. The driver was standing about in the vicinity of the lorry.

On moving down the causeway towards Pte. Mc & noticed C.Q.M.S. Rose on a doorway, in a drunken condition leaning against the door for support.

The position of B & C Coy lorry prevented another lorry with C Coy blankets & stores on board getting out. I ordered to get moved, as the C Coy were evident the comfort of blankets that night, during which time I turned very cold.

Ques 1 You identify the accused as C.Q.M.S. Rose

Ans Yes.

Ques 2. What made you think that he was drunk.

Ans Obviously he had to lean against the door for support. His eyes were glassy. Later I saw him talking to Sgt Nobbs. The C.Q.M.S. had both put weakly supported arms of support as though Sgt Nobbs had to support him. Sgt Nobbs said "Why don't you go in then and sit down". To me the reply was very incoherent. I saw him later in the evening, he was still under the influence, but to a lesser degree.

Ques 3. On first seeing him did you speak to him.

Ans Yes but I did not hear his reply

Prosecuting Officer

Ques 1 Now you saw him did you arrange to do any thing about it.

Ans Shortly after seeing the accused I met L/Sgt Boyce and as a result of what I told the L/Sgt he went down to C.Q.M.S. Rose.

Defence Officer

Ques 1 Would you say that a man in a drunken condition would appear as Rose did.

Ans No his condition was that of a drunken man.

Ques 2 Did you ask the accused any thing about his drunkenness

Ans Yes, it was no use in his condition

W

Questions by the Court from C.Q.M.S. Prout

Ques Who told C.Q.M.S. Billings that Prout was in charge of the continued both ans I cannot answer that I do not know.

2nd WITNESS H 11706 L/Cpl BRYCE, H Edr Rifle Regt having been duly sworn stated.

I was ordered by Maj. Andrew at approx 1500 hrs to go around the area & see if all Cpls had moved. I did so & on my return Maj Andrew ordered me to put the whole under arrest & inform C.Q.M.S. Prout that he was in charge & that Maj Andrew would prefer the charge.

I found the above named C.Q.M.S. Prout in a room under Bn HQ sitting in a chair apparently asleep. I left him there as I had work to do. When returned he had moved to the next room and was sitting in a chair in front of a fire. He was still under the influence. I suspended him that he was in charge

Prosecution

Q 1 – You say he was sitting in the chair apparently asleep? was he just sitting normally?

A 1 – He was sort of kneeled up

Q 2 – you said "still under the influence of liquor?" What did you mean?

A 2 – When he answered, his voice was thick.

Defence

Q 1 – Did not Grose inform you at that time that he would not go away and you had nothing to worry about?

A 1 – I could not say for sure, I don't remember.

Q 2 – Do you know if 6208 Grose was drunk on Feb 9?

A 2 – When I saw him both times he was in the chair. Hard to say what is meant by drunk.

Court

Q 1 – You were told if the accused were drunk you are in the Regimental police and must have had experience could you say that he was drunk?

A 1 – He had been drinking. I don't consider he could have done his job very capably.

Q 2 – Did you have conversation with the accused when you told him that he was in charge?

A 2 – I told him Major Andrews was preferring the charge against him.

Prosecution

Q 1 – How long was it between the first and second times you saw 6208 Grose?

A 1 – Between 2½ and 3 hours

6208 Grose was sworn and stated:-

I am A 11881 6208 Grose of B Coy, Perth Regt. two days previous to Feb 9 I had carried out the duties of chefs killed by a German bomb and for no reason but I was feeling badly. I had little sleep that night I worked all the next day and the night of Feb 8 had to bed down in the open. It rained and snowed and I had only a couple of hours sleep at first light on the 9th I arranged with a task unit to share a building they were using as a cook house. Meals cooked after and the men lying to for the day. I shared below upstairs over the kitchen and at 1400 hrs Capt. Root told me we had to move in an hour till then I understood we would not move until after dark. Capt Root asked for tea in a dixey for the men and the cook gave them supper. By this time I was very weary and had gone to lie down.

I had two drinks of vino and home brew and in my tired physical condition, I was probably not warranted in doing this. But I took it to get some rest.

Defence
Q1 – Were you drunk 9 Feb 44?
A1 – No sir, I wouldn't say I was drunk.

Prosecution
Q1 – Have you been warned on various previous occasions not to drink?
A1 – Not various times, but I have been warned.

Court
Q1 – The defence asked if you were drunk 9 Feb you were not definite. Were you drunk Feb 9?
A1 – I would say that I was not drunk. My physical condition had more to do with my groggy appearance.
Q2 – How much did you have to drink?
A2 – two half cups of vino.

B 378 94 Pte. Desjardine J.S.:-
I was driving 8 cwt kitchen truck Feb 9. CSM's Grove came to me at 1330 hours and asked me to have the truck straightened out to load the coal house on for moving. His orders were given in a normal manner.

Defence
Q1 – Was the accused drunk when you saw him at 1300 hours?
A1 – No, he looked okay to me, I wouldn't say if he had been drinking.

A 11257 Pte. Ellis W:-
I am the cook for B coy. On Feb 9, CSM's Grove asked for tea in ten minutes and as we had supper ready the men had a hot meal instead of tea. The accused carried on his duties around the cook-house in his normal manner.

Defence
Q1 – Was CSM's Grove drunk Feb 9?
A1 – I won't say he was drunk, we all had a few drinks I don't know how many drinks that he had, as I was not with him all the time.

A 11337 Pte Underford. GA:-
I am A coy storeman. I was working with C2MS Grove on Feb 9. He was not drunk.

Court:
Q1- Did you have anything to drink
A1- Yes, wine at odd times between 4 o'clock and 5 o'clock
Q1- Did you see the accused drinking?
A1- No, I did not.

A 11742 C2MS Boyd G:-
I am C2MS for D coy. On Feb 9 the accused came to me at about 1800 hours and wanted to know if my thermos jugs were handy. He wanted to have tea for the men the first thing in the morning. He said that he would look after the tea and take it in my jeep.

Prosecution:-
Q1- Was the accused eating normally?
A1- Yes but he seemed a very tired man.

Court:-
Q1- Could you say at six o'clock that the accused had been drinking?
A1- I had seen him take a drink through the day but would not say he had been drinking.

Defence Counsel:-
C2MS Grove is charged with drunkenness. The evidence to bear out the charge is chiefly that of Major Andrews, who swears the accused was leaning up against a doorjamb. My contention is there is not sufficient proof on the evidence that the accused was drunk. The second witness Lt Gen Guyse saw the accused on two occasions, both sitting down. I ask the court to consider the condition of a tired soldier, physically exhausted. C2MS Boyd told the court that the accused came to him about 1800 hours about tea. I submit that that was not the actions of a drunken man.

MJ

Prosecution Officer:-

The defence has brought forward witnesses to show the accused was tried and not drunk Major Andrews and a member of the Battalion Regimental police both stated that C2Mg Grose was drunk. I submit that the chance of realizing that he was going to be up on charge of drunkenness may have changed the accused from a drunken man into a very tried one.

C2Mg Grose, in speaking as on his own character:-

I have been four years in the army and the only other time I have been up for office was once I was a couple of hours late on a pass, unavoidably, and the charge was dismissed.

Defence Counsel on the accused's character said:-

The accused was in my platoon when the unit was in Canada early in the war and I had Grose in mind for an NCO in a fighting company. He did so well in the stores, however, that he has worked himself up to C2Mg. I was talking to the Quartermaster the other day and he said that Grose was doing an efficient and conscientious job.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

H. P. 4

Perth Reg't. C. A.

17 February 1944.

Summary of Evidence in the case of A 11601 C.Q.M.S. Grose, A. C. The Perth Regiment, Canadian Army is charged with:

1. When on Active Service, Drunkenness.

2. When on Active Service, Neglect of duty.

H. P. 4 F — The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on Oath.

1st. Witness — Major M. W. Andrew 2i/c The Perth Regiment C. A. having been duly sworn states:

"Sir,

I am Major M. W. Andrew, 2i/c of The Perth Regiment C. A. On the 9 February 1944, I was in command of the Perth Regiment. A few days previously, I had been instructed to move the Regiment from the Orsogna front to our new area just west of the Ortona front. In order to facilitate the move and assist the Coys to transport their equipment, certain vehs were apportioned to each Coy. Lack of available transport necessitated "B" Coy and "C" Coy using one 60 cwt between them. Each Coy also had certain other vehs at their disposal. On the 60 cwt in question, the men's blankets and kit were placed. The Bn move was to take place at 1900 hrs on a/m date. Vehs would go in echelon on a Southerly route to the new area and marching troops by a more direct route along the Orsogna-Ortona lateral road. It was essential that the men's personal eqpt and blankets arrive in the new area as soon as possible after the commencement of the move, in order that the men might be as comfortable as possible. ~~(This was stressed by me to the Coy Comds at a meeting held at Bn H. Q. 8 February 1944.)~~ On the night of the 8 February 44, the Bn had withdrawn from their forward areas to a posn about 1 mile to the rear. From this latter posn they were to make the move outlined above. Vhes were parked in an orchard North of what is known as "the old Bn. H. Q." This parking lot is connected by a lane-way with the main road. The lane had been constructed by our pioneer pl and was passable to vehs. The orchard which was the veh standing was muddy, but with care and caution vehs could get in and out. For several days there had been much rain and the weather was cold and wet. This weather was prevalent on the 9 Feb 44.

About 1430 hrs on the 9 Feb 44, I left old Bn. H. Q. and went to the road and lane junction to see if preparations for the move were under way. I remained there until just prior to 1900 hrs. I spoke to the adjt and the tpt offr about the veh move ~~and was informed that two vehs were stuck in the orchard.~~ At 1900 hrs the vehs moved off under comd of the adjt with the exception of the two which were still stuck. I then went to a point slightly North of the road and lane junction and started checking the marching personnel. About 1919 hrs, I went along the lane in the direction of old Bn H. Q. in search of L/C,I Bryce whose assistance I required in order to clear the area of all troops. I saw the 60 cwt allotted to "B" and "C" Coys stuck in the soft ground on the opposite side of the lane-way to the veh standings but protruding onto the lane. The posn in which this truck was stuck prevented "D" Coy stores truck from moving. (I saw the driver of the "B" and Coys truck floundering around in the mud in a drunken condition.) When I arrived at old Bn H. Q., I saw C.Q.M.S. Grose leaning against the door jamb of a shed, drunk. I went into old Bn H. Q. where L/Cpl Bryce came to me and as a result of my instructions he went down to C.Q.M.S. Grose. At that time, there were only a few men present whom I could call upon for assistance in trying to get the stores of the three Coys to the new area. The continued condition, as mentioned above, of C.Q.M.S. Grose necessitated my personal efforts in getting the truck out of the mud and sending it forward the next day. When I say continued condition, I mean that I saw C.Q.M.S. Grose still under the influence of liquor on the night of the 9 February 1944. No personal want such as blankets was available to the three Coys the night of the 9th-10th Feb. The weather continued on that night exceedingly wet and cold and shelter for the men in the new area was mostly non-existant, consisting only of waterlogged slit trenches and dugouts.

"Sir,

I am A 11706 L/Cpl A. Bryce of the Perth Regimental Police. At approx 1500 hrs on 9 Feb 44 Major Andrew stopped me and asked me if all the Coys had moved, and ordered me to go around to the various areas and make sure that they had. I went around the areas and when I came back I had two "C" Coy men who had not moved with their Coy under close arrest. I went upstairs to see Major Andrew to report the Major Andrew told me to place Pte. Little F. A. driver of a 60 cwt under arrest for being drunk and to look after C.Q.M.S. Grose who was also drunk. I found Pte. Little and told him he was under arrest and then went looking for C.Q.M.S. Grose. He was sitting in a chair by the fire in a room under the old Bn H. Q. Orderly Room. I spoke to him but he was apparently asleep and I got no answer. As I had other jobs to do and I thought he would be all right for the time being, I carried out my other duties and after dark returned to the room to get C.Q.M.S. Grose out. He had moved into the room next door. I spoke to him and he was still under the influence of drink.

When I had returned from checking the Coy areas, I noticed a 60 cwt truck driven by Pte. Little stuck in the mud on the opposite side of the lane to the ven para in such a manner that it completely blocked the lane.

The case of 413782 Pte Jones C.

Plea of not guilty.

The accused age 23 enlisted in Jan 16 and arrived in England in the spring of 16. In April 16 he applied for permission to marry but was refused by the Colonel stating that his intended bride was too young, even though her parents had given their written consent to the marriage. Early in June after C. of I. the accused went absent without leave and returned to England and eventually found himself in #1 C.C.S. It was the accused's first time to look at getting married but this time he got as far as the table, or rather to buy a parcel but not the ticket, or the last step in the direction of marriage, so far the last step in the direction of a wedding.

Strangely enough the accused was very much in love with his young lady, and like of so many a soldier, was desirous of marrying her, so he took his leave of #1 C.C.S. and left.

during his absence from [illegible] worked till 6 hrs sufficient funds & got married on and the wedding took place at [illegible] 23rd of April. His intention was to return to unit the coming Monday but he was prevented by the Provost as he came on his leave after the wedding.

In view of the extenuating and very unusual circumstances in this case I sincerely plead for leniency.

Questions by the Court.

Q- Was the accused married with permission?

A- No - he was married without permission but has since filled in the forms which have been submitted through proper channels.

There was no one of that name and number on the parade. I checked the billets and found no one in the barracks of that name and number.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. Plea for mitigation of Sentence.

Case of B-27208 L/Sgt Gross, E.W. 16th Cdn Fd Coy R.C.E. CA(O)

1. L/Sgt Gross has been in the Army for over 4 years. He has been an NCO for 3 years and 9 months. During this time he has not had any entries in his crime sheet. This is an excellent record.

2. Prior to this offence on July 11th 1944. L/Sgt Gross had spent several sleepless nights and was under a definite strain. He was with his Platoon in Carpiquet from Tuesday July 6th until Friday July 9th during which time they were heavily shelled several times, each day. Caen was being shelled at intervals while his Platoon was working there in the streets.

3. In Caen on the 11th July, civilians were passing out drinks thus giving the soldiers easy access to it. L/Sgt Gross was given a couple of drinks of coffee with some liquor in it. Knowing nothing of French liquors, he did not realize how strong the drink was, until it was too late.

4. L/Sgt Gross's actions as stated by the witnesses are only proof of his drunkeness and not particular agression against his Platoon Officer. This is shown by the 6th witness for the prosecution Spr Arcand, who states that the accused used abusive language to anyone who came near him.

5. In view of the above four points 1. His excellent record. 2. The strain he was under. 3. The lack of knowledge of French liquors and 4. His general aggression against everyone about him, I submit this plea of mitigation of sentence to the Court.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of B-27208 Lance-Sergeant Edwin Wellington GROSS, 16th Cdn Field Company Royal Canadian Engineers a soldier of the Canadian Army (Overseas)

The accused was informed of his rights.

FIRST WITNESS for the prosecution: Lieut. J.L.Yeats, Officer Commanding No 2 Platoon 16th Cdn Fd Coy R.C.E. having been duly sworn states:-

"Whilst engaged in clearing the streets of the city of CAEN at about 1600hrs 11 July 44, I noticed B-27208 L/Sgt Gross, E.W. weaving down the street towards me. His face was flushed, his eyes partially closed, and there was a strong smell of alcohol on his breath. I told him that he had been drinking and to go and get in one of the trucks. He insisted that he had not been drinking, and staggered forward. In trying to walk along a four foot path between a truck and some rubble he fell backwards and had to be assisted to his feet.

I informed him that I was placing him under open arrest; whereupon he became very abusive. He called me a "Son of a bitch, a Cunt"; told me I "didn't know how to handle my platoon" and told me all the platoon thought I was "a shit".

I immediately placed him under close arrest, took his weapon away and detailed two men to guard him in the back of the truck. He continued to use abusive language about me to anyone who came near the lorry.

About 1930hrs Capt. G.E.Smith, second in command of the 16th Cdn Fd Coy RCE came to where I was working. L/Sgt Gross,E.W. in Capt Smith's presence again called me a "Son of a bitch" and said I "didn't know how to handle a platoon". Capt Smith took L/Sgt Gross back to Coy H.Q. with him."

Sgd. [signature]

The accused declined to cross-examine the witness.

SECOND WITNESS for the prosecution: Capt. G.E.Smith Second in Command, 16th Cdn Fd Coy RCE having been duly swprn states:-

"At about 1930hrs I arrived in the area where No 2 Platoon was working to check on progress. I met Lt Yeats and he asked me to take L/Sgt Gross, E.W. back with me as he was under close arrest. L/Sgt Gross, himself came up and asked if he could go back with me, and in a loud voice used very abusive language in front of me, concerning his Platoon Officer. There was a very strong odour of alcohol from L/Sgt Gross at that time.

On my return to the Unit, I brought L/Sgt Gross with me under open arrest."

Sgd [signature]

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

THIRD WITNESS for the prosecution; D-15308 Spr Humphries, A.G. a Sapper in No 2 Platoon of the 16th Cdn Fd Coy having been duly sworn states:-

"At approx 1600hrs, 11 July 44, Spr Swinburne and I were standing near a lorry on the job of street clearing in CAEN, I saw Lt Yeats and L/Sgt Gross come down the street towards me. Lt Yeats was telling L/Sgt Gross to get into one of the trucks and the latter was talking in a very abusive manner, calling Lt Yeats a "Son of a Bitch, a Phoney, and a Cunt"; and wanted to take Lt Yeats around the corner and "beat the Piss out of him". Although L/Sgt Gross was properly dressed, he looked excited and angry.

When they came up to us, Lt Yeats detailed Spr Swinburne and myself to guard L/Sgt Gross, whom he placed under close arrest. L/Sgt Gross got into the back of the lorry as ordered, and sat there, continuing to use abusive language against Lt Yeats, showing that he had no use for him.

Later Capt Smith came up and L/Sgt Gross insisted on leaving us and returning to camp with the Capt."

Sgd A. Humphries

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

FOURTH WITNESS for the prosecution; D-15249 Spr Swinburne, G. a Sapper in No 2 Platoon 16th Cdn Fd Coy RCE having been duly sworn states:-

"At approx 1630hrs 11 July 44, Spr Humphries and I were with the Platoon, clearing the streets in CAEN. I saw Lt Yeats and L/Sgt Gross coming down the street towards us, the latter talking in a very abusive manner to Lt Yeats, calling him a "Phoney, a Son of a Bitch, and a Cunt". L/Sgt Gross appeared very angry and excited; his face was flushed his lips very dry except for some dry spittle on his lower lip.

Lt Yeats ordered him into a lorry and for us to act as guard on him. He got into the back of the lorry as ordered, continuing to talk in a very abusive manner, so that we did not associate with him any more than was necessary.

When Capt Smith came up to the job, L/Sgt Gross insisted in going back to camp with him.

FIFTH WITNESS for the prosecution; A-67843 Spr Frasson, A. a Sapper in No 2 Platoon 16th Cdn Fd Coy RCE having been duly sworn states:

"At approx 1700hrs 11 July 44, I was standing at the side of No 2 Platoon's Wireless Truck. I saw Lt Yeats and L/Sgt Gross meet on the street. As they came down the street in my direction, L/Sgt Gross was talking in an excited, abusive manner, calling him various names and inviting him to a fight. Although he was indicating that he wished to have nothing to do with Lt Yeats.

Lt Yeats put him under close arrest, detailing 2 guards. Later when Capt Smith came out to the job, he requested to go back to Coy HQ with the Capt."

4th WITNESS for the prosecution: B-110543 Spr Arcand, A.S. a Sapper of No 2 Plt 16th Cdn Fd Coy R.C.E. having been duly sworn states:-

"At approx 1500hrs 11 July 1944, I noticed L/Sgt Gross walking along one of the streets of CAEN in a manner which did not appear normal - walking loosely, talking louder than usual, his face flushed and looking disheveled.

Later around 1700hrs when I was on the radio set in the Platoon half-track I heard L/Sgt Gross, talking in a loud abusive manner about Lt Yeats, calling him a "Prick, a Phoney and a Cunt"; altogether showing that he wished to have nothing to do with Lt Yeats. This as far as I could see from inside the half track, went on for about half an hour, L/Sgt Gross continuing to talk in a similar fashion to anyone who came near."

Sgd A. S. Arcand

FIRST WITNESS for the defence: B-27068 Cpl Salmon, E.F. Medical Cpl H.Q. RCE 3 Cdn Inf Div, having been duly sworn states:-

"About 2130hrs, 11 July 44, I was standing by the "N" Sec wireless truck, at the headquarters of the 16th Cdn Fd Coy RCE when L/Sgt Gross approached me in his usual manner and asked me to remove a foreign body from his eye. He appeared normal in all respects except for a smell of alcohol on his breath.

After I had finished with him he thanked me and returned to his Platoon lines, crossing over a 12 foot sunken road by means of a footbridge 14 inches wide. This footbridge was made of a ladder across the gap, the decking being made up of wood sheeting and the hand rails, two loose ropes."

Sgd' E. F. Salmon Cpl

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

THE ACCUSED HAVING BEEN DULY CAUTIONED AND SWORN STATES:

"I am B-27208 L/Sgt Gross, E.W. On 11 July 44 I was working with No 2 Platoon of the 16th Cdn Fd Coy R.C.E. cleaning up the streets of CAEN. I had had a few drinks and around 1600hrs I met Mr Yeats.

Due to the mental strain I had been undergoing, and the sleepless nights we had been putting up with, I was feeling very touchy, and went hay-wire when I met Mr Yeats and he started to speak to me".

FIRST WITNESS - For the Prosecution - duly sworn

Q.1 SM do you recognise the accused Pte GROULX H?

A.1 I do sir - indicates the accused.

Q.2 Will you tell the Court roughly in your own words the proceedings which took place when the accused was found to be absent from parade?

A.2 At approx 1330 hrs 19 Oct 44 I called a muster parade for draft warning to proceed to 46 fwd coy 13 CBR Bn. I called the roll and the accused was present on parade. I read out the draft warning and warned the draft that there would be a muster parade at 1245 hrs 20 Oct 44 before the draft moved off. I warned the draft that it would proceed at 1330 hrs 20 Oct 44. I asked the draft if any members of the draft did not understand English. I asked Sgt CADORETTE to translate the draft warning into French which he did in my presence.

Q.3 I now produce a document. Will you look at it and tell the Court what it is?

A.3 This document contains the draft warning which I read to the draft at 1330 hrs 19 Oct 44 at the muster parade on which the accused was present. The document reads "You are now warned to proceed on draft to 13 CBR Bn, 46 Fwd Rft Coy. Any failure on your part to go with the draft when it leaves will result in your being charged with desertion. The draft will proceed at 1330 hrs, 20 Oct 44. There will be a muster parade at 1245 hrs, 20 Oct 44 before the draft leaves."

Q.4 Is that the warning that you read to the draft on which the accused was?

A.4 Yes sir.

Draft warning produced, initialled by President and marked Exhibit "A".

I then handed the draft over to Sgt MAGUIRE.

Q.5 Were you present when the accused next appeared on parade?

Questioned by the Judge-Advocate.

Q.6 Do you know whether or not the accused proceeded with this draft?

A.6 Yes sir. He did not proceed with the draft.

A.10 I was the draft sgt on the 20th Oct, at 1245 hrs I called the roll of my draft and I found the accused was absent. I looked through the billets or the barracks to see if I could find him and he could not be found. I looked until it was time for my draft to move off which was 1330 hrs and he was still absent. I was also present on the 19th of Oct when the CSM, CSM MacINTOSH, warned the accused for draft.

Q.11 Were you present when the accused returned to parade?

A.11 No sir I was not, the accused did not return to me.

STATEMENT BY THE ACCUSED:
C-37571 Pte R. GROULX sworn states:

I was in the engrs for quite awhile and I was put on draft for Overseas on D-day but I was taken off draft and I went to see my offr to be put on draft again. I was taken off draft twice; as I was tired of staying in England and the way they were trying to keep me, so I got fed up and went away. After I came back I was sentenced to 28 days. I was released and put put on draft for inf, but as I didn't like the idea of being transferred from engrs to the inf for which I wouldn't see any reason. I was a tradesmen - qualified "B" - mason and bricklayer and qualified in engr training, and qualified as 2nd class dvr IC When I came to the inf I was quite up set the way they had been treatin me and went away to think things over. I did not intend to go away forever. When I was stopped by an offr I told him that I was on my way back, but as I didn't know where my unit was stationed I was going to report myself to the inf holding unit near BLACKWATER.

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF SENTENCE
Capt R.M. Sinclair states:

This man joined the Army in 1941 and has served in the RCE almost all the time since. At first he was in the RCASC and to be with his brother, he was transferred to the RCE.

On D/day Groulx was on draft with his brother and all his friends for overseas duty, but was taken off because of his teeth; all his friends went and he was left behind. Shortly after he was dentally fit, he was sent up to the Wpg Gren for inf trg, without being given any indication of what he was to do in the inf. Groulx arrived here and saw what he was to do, and that his trades pay was taken away from him. He was so fed up with the way he had been treated that he went away - to get away from the army for awhile. Groulx has thought things over now and sees that it was a foolish thing to do. His main ambition is to get over to France and do the job he signed up to do. He is willing to take punishment for his crime, because he knows that he deserves it, but he does not want to lose his chances of going overseas. In view of the trg he has had, which includes all type of engineering trg demolitions and weapons, Groulx can be a very valuable man to the Army and I would like to suggest that in deciding what punishment to give, you keep this in mind and punish him in such a way that it will still allow him to carry on with his training so he can get away on draft as soon as possible.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

-1 STATEMENT B ACCUSED
(UNDER OATH)

Sir, in '42 I had an accident; I was beaten up by two English soldiers for the money I had on me, and I was injured on the head because they kicked me on the head with their Army boots. I was in very bad shape, Sir, as I was also kicked in the ribs and on the back. I was sent to hosp the same morning and I had treatment by a Naf there, and I believe the two soldiers read 2 yrs in the pen, one for 2 yrs and the other for 1 yr. The Naf said that it could cause me headaches which it still does, and I've had a pain the back ever since. Since that time and going back to the MO's in the various places I've been, the MOs have done nothing for me except to give me pills. My category is "A", Sir, I'm unmarried, and my age is 25. In civil life I was a miner and a long distance trk driver.

F.G.C.M. 3 April 1945

C-37571 Pte. Groulx R - B.C.I.T.S. E-3

This soldier is 26 years of age and his civil occupation was miner and proceeded to England in October of the same year.

He joined the army 17 April 1941

Prior to joining the army, this man was never involved in any civil courts.

His army record up till the summer of 1942 was fairly clean cut However at that time he received a very severe beating at the hands of 2 other men He was hospitalized often this and ever since has suffered terrific back pains periodically and an almost continuous headache. He claims that his physical condition is definitely affecting his behaviour.

The medical officers visited so far home not, in his opinion diagnosed his case accurately. The defence feels that this case cannot be judiciously dealt with until this man has been subjected to a specialists examination. Therefore the defence would plea that the court recommend that this man be given a thorough examination by a specialist.

A. Yes sir.

Q.3. Will you give the court your opinion as to the character and service of Pte Grant.

A.3. I've always found Pte Grant to be one of the best soldiers in the Coy. I was his Platoon Sgt. for approx. six months during which time he was an N.C.O. He was a very able and willing N.C.O and carried out his duties with great care. I was very sorry to see him reduced to the ranks as it was the first offence that he had been charged with. Since that time he has still performed all his duties to my complete satisfaction. On scheme PIRATE he was taken from close arrest and put in the Company. Again he did everything asked of him without any complaints. In my opinion he is much too good a man to be lost from the unit for any length of time.

Pleа in Mitigation of Sentence
in the case of R66020, Rfn. Grout, G.A.

Mr. President and Members of the Court:

Rfn. Grout enlisted in September 1940, joined the Q.O.R. of C. in Newfoundland and was awarded a good conduct badge in September 1942. Whilst serving with his company I found his proficiency as a soldier to be of an equally high standard. His conduct sheet contains three entries, all under Sect. 15, the longest absence being 25 hours. The first of these charges resulted in the loss of his good conduct badge as well as reversion to the ranks.

The accused was left with [illegible] to Scotland due to a knee injury. He went A.W.L. from the rear party and surrendered himself voluntarily when the regiment went 48 hour leave were being committed to court martial - at any other time, was his misfortune to return at a time when all men absent from a specia in my opinion, the commanding officer would have seen fit to administer punishment.

In considering sentence I would remind the court that the accused has been under close arrest for 21 days, that he was released from detention and served with his company during the scheme "PIRATE" and, finally, to give due weight to the character evidence given by Lieut. Martin, his platoon commander. Rfn. Grout is a good soldier and his past record entitles him to another chance - Gentlemen, you have the power to see that he gets it.

Lieut. Wishart,
Defending Officer.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s).(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

FIELD GENERAL COURT MARTIAL IN THE CASE OF L-13418 Pte. GROVER, E.D., 1 CDN. A.S.C. RFT UNIT

OPENING ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTION

"Due to the complexities of this case I feel it incumbent upon me to make an opening address. The accused is charged with two charges, the first one being briefly 'When on Active Service Stealing Public Property', the second one being 'When on Active Service Conduct to the Prejudice of Good Order and Military Discipline in that he was improperly in possession of seven blankets, said blankets being Public Property'. The Prosecution intends to call witnesses in this case in an endeavour to prove that the accused on the night of 21 Nov 44 did take five blankets from various beds in Room 7, Spider 62, No.1 Cdn A.S.C. Rft Unit and further that he obtained six other blankets from two soldiers of this Unit and that he, along with two other soldiers, loaded them into a truck and proceeded to the village of Reading. The Prosecutor will endeavour to prove that while at Reading an abortive attempt was made to sell these blankets to a civilian and further that following this the accused accompanied by two soldiers, one of whom will give evidence for the Prosecution, proceeded to the village of Mortimer, Berks., and that he did there dispose of four blankets in a Pub commonly known as the Horse and Groom, and finally the accused accompanied by one soldier returned to 1 Cdn. A.S.C. Rft Unit and arrived here at approximately 0130 hours on 22 Nov 44, that he was placed under arrest at that time as he was getting out of a truck and that in that truck were seven blankets. I feel also that I should mention at this time for the information of the Court that the Prosecution intends to call two witnesses in order to introduce a statement made by the accused after the Summary of Evidence in this case had been taken. This statement, in due fairness to the accused, I must say is partially a confession and partially a defense. That briefly, Sir, will be the case for the Prosecution."

1st WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

B-7006 Cpl. Miller, S.C., employed with the Special Investigation Section, C.M.H.Q., Canadian Army, being duly sworn states:

"Early in November of this year I was called in to Major F.B. Creasy's Office, A.P.M., and told to hold myself available for an investigation that would be carried out in Reading regarding some Army blankets. I cannot remember that particular date but on two occasions between that date and 21 Nov 44 I was again called in and told to stand by with a vehicle. After a few hours on each occasion these instructions were cancelled. Finally on 21 Nov 44, early in the morning, I was again called into Major Creasy's Office. Also present with Major Creasy were Captain Marshall of the J.A.G's Branch and a private soldier who was introduced to me as Pte. Blair. As a result of what I was told about Pte. Blair I proceeded to Reading on 21 Nov 44 arriving there at approximately 1800 hours and stationed myself in the central part.

"At approximately 2000 hours an 8 cwt. vehicle pulled up to the Cross Keys Pub. I saw three men get out of this vehicle and they spoke together for a few minutes so I walked along the sidewalk beside the vehicle and I recognized one of these men as Pte Gover. Of his two companions one was Pte Blair and the other was Pte. Marsh. I continued on past the vehicle and stationed myself further up the street.

"After the vehicle had been standing there for about twenty minutes it moved off. My own vehicle being nearby, I got into it and picked up Detective Constable Lightfoot who had accompanied me to Reading and Detective Constable Jenkins of Reading. We followed this vehicle through various roads and finally, after following it for about twenty to twenty five minutes, it stopped in the residential part of Reading on the corner of Boston avenue and another street, the name of which I did not ascertain.

"DLR"

"I stopped my own vehicle and got out of it with Detective Constable Lightfoot and I stationed myself nearby, actually in a field about twenty five yards from the 8 cwt. I saw two soldiers, Ptes Grover and Blair talking with a civilian. While I was watching I could see that apparently something was worrying them because both Grover and the civilian ran down the street. Within a few minutes the vehicle again moved off and as my own car was not nearby I was unable to follow. I proceeded back to the Army Service Corps Reinforcement Unit, arriving there at approximately 2330 hours and I then had my supper.

"Afterwards I waited in the vicinity of the parking lot of 1 Cdn. A.S.C. Rft Unit and at approximately 0130 hours 22 Nov 44 this same 8 cwt., which I had seen in Reading, drove up to near where I was standing. At this time I was accompanied by Detective Constable Lightfoot, Farnborough Civil Police, and Major Stevens, O.C., "D" Coy., 1 Cdn. A.S.C. Rft Unit. Pte. Grover got out of this lorry and I immediately placed him under arrest pending investigation. He was taken to the Guard Room by a Sergeant who was called by Major Stevens. I do not know the Sergeant's name. While this was being carried out I searched the vehicle and found in the back seven army blankets. I marked these blankets for future reference and seized them. These are the blankets which I took out of the truck. (Witness points to seven blankets marked Exhibit 1). I transferred these blankets to my own vehicle and put them in charge of my driver. I then proceeded to the Guard Room and with Detective Constable Lightfoot and Major Stevens I questioned Grover after administering the statutory caution. Grover at the time declined to make any statement whatsoever to account for his activities.

"I then questioned Pte. Blair who had been arrested with Grover and as a result of the information supplied by Pte. Blair I proceeded to Mortimer, Berks, on 23 Nov 44, and at the Horse and Groom Public House I seized four army blankets which I can now identify by my mark. These are the four blankets I am referring to. (Witness points to four blankets marked Exhibit 2 and shows the Court the ink mark which he put on the blankets). At the Pub I spoke to the Proprietor who denied having any knowledge. He introduced me to his wife, Mrs. Lock, while I was there and she showed me the four blankets. As I stated before, I seized these blankets and after obtained a statement from Mrs. Lock I returned to my office with the blankets.

"Whilst at the Horse and Groom Public House I was introduced by Mrs Lock to a young man whom she introduced as her son, Kenneth, and as a result of what was said Kenneth Lock attended an identification parade at 1 Cdn. A.S.C. Rft Unit on 25 Nov 44. Present on this parade were Pte. Grover and eight other men of similar stature and appearance, that is to say they were reasonably similar. CSM Johnson was present at this identification parade.

"From 22 Nov 44 and in the subsequent week I questioned a number of Army Service Corps personnel, including men inside the hut while the blankets were allegedly removed. I could find no man who admitted seeing any actual theft of blankets in that hut. I questioned, among others, Pte McKay, Cpl. Constable who was NCO i/c the Hut, L/Cpl. Clarke, whom I knew as the O.C's batman, and a Pte. Marshall. None of these could offer me any assistance, disclaiming any knowledge of the affair whatsoever."

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENCE

"I was first called in on this case in November. It would be within the first ten days or so approximately and I was just told to stand by. On other occasions, possibly within six weeks prior to that, I had been told to keep a look out on 1 Cdn A.S.C. Rft Unit for possible shortages of kit. This was not an official case. I was, during the course of inquiry, given the name of Pte. Grover as a possibility. I was not told about a Pte. Blair.

"I met Pte. Blair on the afternoon of 21 Nov 44. That was the day I was called in and told to proceed to Reading. Blair was present at that time. I did not know what plans had been made or what Blair was told to do other than the fact that Pte. Blair had presented certain information and that we were acting on it and that I was to station myself in Reading. I learned from Major Creasy that Blair was taking a vehicle to Reading that night and would be bringing Grover along and that he would concur in any suggestions made by Grover. I never had any conversation with Pte. Blair until he was arrested.

"On the 22 Nov 44 at approximately 0130 hours when the lorry drove into 1 Cdn. A.S.C. R.U. lines it was raining very heavily and it was very dark. I saw a form step down from the lorry and I arrested that form. It was Pte. Grover. As far as I know Ptes. Blair and Grover were the only ones to get out of the lorry but it is possible that somebody else might have gotten out of the lorry and I did not see them.

"With regard to the seven blankets I did not see Grover actually in possession of these blankets. They were in the back of the truck."

2nd WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

B-115209 Pte. Blair, T.J., on strength of 1 Cdn A.S.C. Rft Unit being duly sworn states:

"On 21 Nov 44 I was batman driver to Major Stevens and the Transport Officer of "D" Company. On that date I was approached by Pte. Grover, the accused, whom I now recognize, who asked me if I could provide transportation to Reading in my 8 cwt. for the purpose of selling blankets. I thought this rather odd and went to speak with Major Stevens, O.C., "D" Coy., who in turn took me to Major Creasy, A.P.M., Aldershot Command. It was through his instructions that I provided the transportation to Reading for Pte. Grover.

"About 1800 hours 21 Nov 44 Grover and I went to Spider 62, Room 7, where I proceeded to get dressed for the trip. Pte. Grover went to the far end of the hut and entered into conversation with Pte. Marsh and Pte. Van Luven. Being at the far end of the hut I could not hear what they were saying. When I was ready for the trip I went to the far end of the hut and joined them. It was then that Pte. Marsh handed Pte. Grover two blankets which Marsh took off of his bed and Pte. Grover folded these blankets and put them on a bed opposite Pte. Marsh's bed. Then Pte. Van Luven handed Pte. Grover four blankets which he took off of his bed and which in turn were folded and put on top of the other two. Then Pte. Grover went around to the different beds picking up odd blankets and put them on the pile. These were similar blankets to those (Witness points to Exhibits 1 and 2). I do not know how many in all were put in the pile.

"DLR"

"I then went out of the hut to the 8 cwt. No. GZ4206817 and lowered the tail gate. Then Pte. Grover handed me the blankets which I in turn put in the back of the lorry. Then Pte. Grover and Pte. Marsh came outside of the hut and got in the front of the lorry with me and we started on our trip to Reading. We stopped in Fleet to have a little supper and then got on our way again. We arrived in Reading about 1930 hours and I parked the lorry on Castle Street opposite the Sun Pub. The three of us got out of the lorry and crossed the street and stood in front of the Pub. Pte. Grover then said that he was going to contact the civilian to whom we were going to sell the blankets and he went to the Cross Keys Pub. About half an hour or so later he returned with a civilian and then he told Pte. Marsh to stay in front of the Sun Pub until we returned. The civilian and I got into the front of the 8 cwt. with Grover in the rear and I drove in the direction the civilian directed me. We drove to a side street, the name of which I do not remember, and I stopped the lorry and turned out the lights. On the way there Pte. Grover said to me through the tube something to the effect that there was a station wagon following us. When we stopped the civilian and Pte. Grover got out of the lorry and went down the street. The civilian told me to wait and he would bring a civilian car around. About fifteen minutes later the civilian returned and as a result of what he said I drove my truck around the corner and saw the Provost station wagon standing at the curb. I knew then that the civilian was scared off. I then went back to the Sun Pub where I picked Pte. Marsh up and circled around Reading a few times then went to the Shades Pub where I picked Pte. Grover up. It was then we decided to go to Mortimer and drop the blankets off to be picked up and sold at some other time.

"We stopped in front of a Pub in Mortimer, the name of which I do not remember and Pte. Marsh and Pte. Grover got out of the lorry and went into the Pub. A few minutes later they returned and told me that there was a chance to sell a few of the blankets in the pub. All three of us then went into the pub and had a few beers waiting for closing time. About 2205 hours we returned to the lorry and gathered the blankets out of the back of the lorry and took them to the rear of the pub where Grover knocked and was answered by the Proprietress of the Pub. We went into the back room and piled the blankets in the middle of the floor. The woman said that she would buy two of the blankets and picking two of the blankets out of the pile she asked the price. Pte. Grover mentioned ten shillings for each of the blankets,, which she figured was too much and she said she would give us five bob a piece. We decided on this price and the Proprietress handed Pte. Grover four half crowns which in turn were given to me and I put them in my pocket. I do not know why he gave them to me. Then a young woman came from the front of the pub and the older woman asked her if she would buy a couple of blankets for use in her car. The younger woman picked two blankets out of the pile and handed me a ten bob note which I put in my pocket along with the four half crowns. We then picked up the remainder of the blankets and went back out to the lorry and put the blankets in the back of the lorry. We then proceeded to the Women's Land Army Dance where Pte. Marsh got out and went inside. Later he returned and told us that he was staying and would return with some other fellows. He then borrowed two bob off of me and went back in to the dance. Pte. Grover and I then started back to camp. We returned to camp and it was then Major Stevens and Cpl. Miller of the S.I.S. arrested us and we were taken to the Guard House. This would be about 0130 hours 22 Nov 44. I am not quite sure of the time.

"I was working under instructions of Major Creasy, A.P.M. There was a dance held on that night at Graisley Green which is near Mortimer. Officers of this unit sometimes go to that dance and the work ticket read that the purpose of the lorry was to carry officers to Graisley Green and the authorization for that trip was signed by Major Stevens."

2nd WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENSE

"I would say I have known Pte. Grover for about six months . I believe I first met him at Leven when he was D.R. for one of the convoys. We were in the same company for a while but never slept in the same hut.

"I spoke with Pte Grover on many occasions but I cannot remember whether or not I saw or spoke with him on 5 Nov 44. I often saw him in the NAAFI and talked with him. We were more or less friends. I do not remember talking to him about going to the Army Salvage Dump to get worn out stuff for exchange at the QM Stores.

"Before 21 Nov 44 I made two trips to Reading with Pte. Grover but these were under the direction of the A.P.M. One of these trips may have been on 18 Nov 44 but I cannot say for sure. I went up with him in an effort to get information regarding plans which were to take place.

"I never told Pte. Grover that I had three blankets to sell nor did I give one to Grover to put in his pack. I never made a trip with him when I carried one blanket in my pack and one under my great coat. I do not recall going to Reading on 11 Nov 44. I was up at Reading with him on three or four occasions but I cannot recall the dates. We took blankets once but I am not sure which trip. The time I took one blanket was with permission because I wanted to get a look at the civilian. I got five bob on that occasion.

"The vehicle which was used on 21 Nov is the one I drive regularly and it is assigned to me.

"L/Cpl Clark was in the Horse and Groom Public House when I visited it on night of 21 Nov 44 but he did not ask me anything regarding use of his work tickets. He was rather under the weather and asked me to lend him some money. He did not say anything about me having one of his work tickets and that he would fix it up. Each time the trip was for Graisley Green a special work ticket was made up. There were no tickets made up before hand for trips to Graisley Green. I was never called upon to pick Major Stevens up at Graisley Green and I do not know whether L/Cpl Clark kept any tickets made up on hand for such trips.

"I saw Major Stevens before I went on the trip on 21 Nov 44. In fact I was in touch with Major Stevens and Major Greasy at various times that afternoon.

"On 21 Nov 44 while in the hut between 1730 and 1800 hours I did not pick up any blankets off the beds nor did I help Grover to fold any blankets. Grover handed the blankets to me through the door and I put them in the back of the truck. When we were leaving, Marsh got into the truck first. I was supposed to pick Grover up outside the Queens Hotel but Marsh was so long getting ready and looking for a flashlight that Grover came back to the lorry just as we were starting off. Marsh then got out and Grover got in the front between Marsh and myself.

"While at the Horse and Groom in Mortimer selling the blankets the lady asked Grover the price and he mentioned ten bob. She said it was too much and that she would give us five bob. Grover asked Marsh and myself whether five bob would be enough and we agreed that it would be enough. When the lady offered five bob Grover did not tell her she would have to ask us but instead he asked us.

"When we got back to camp that night Major Stevens asked Grover why the truck was out of the park. He was on the side of the lorry where Grover was sitting when he asked that question.

"I assume I was arrested at the same time as Grover because Major Stevens and Cpl. Miller did not want to draw too much suspicion.

"I never told the lady at the Horse and Groom Pub that the blankets came from men who went to hospital and that they were issued with new ones.

"I never had any dealing with civilians in Reading regarding the selling of anti-freeze. Grover was in contact with the civilians. I was a new-comer and they did not have an awfullot to do with me.

"I have had no offences charges against me in the Army nor in civilian life."

QUESTIONING BY THE PROSECUTOR

"I might have been in Reading on 11 Nov 44 but I am not sure of the date. There were times I was up with blankets and there were times when I did not have blankets.

"At the present time my great coat is on my bed. I have only worn it once this year and that was on a trip to London."

4th WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Mrs. Katheleen Marion Lock, wife of the Proprietor of the Horse and Groom Public House, Mortimer, Berks, being duly sworn states:

"On 21 Nov 44, the accused, whom I now recognise, came into the bar at the Horse and Groom and said he had some blankets to sell. I asked him if they were white and he said yes. I went on serving as we were rather busy and he was still standing by the bar. Eventually I said I thought he had better go round to the back door. I told my son that there was a man who had some blankets to sell and asked him to let this man in at the back door. The man came in with two others. I do not remember much about the other two. When I saw the armfull of blankets I said immediately that I did not want all those and that they were not white as the little man had said. The accused then said 'Here's one' and pulled out a grayish blanket. I went on to say that they were no good to me. I asked how much they wanted for them and was told ten shillings. I said I would not give them ten shillings and that they had better pick them up and take them out. They seemed very disappointed and they seemed very anxious to sell them. The accused asked how much I would give and I said five shillings as they would not do for the house but could be used in the car. Before I went to get the money I asked if there would be any trouble if I bought these blankets and was told that there would be no trouble. I said I did not want them if there would be any trouble. They said that they were allowed to sell them as they belonged to an Officers Outfit.

"As I went to get the money I said I would take two if it would help them. As I went through to get the money I met my son's young lady and asked her if she would like to buy some blankets. She said she did not want to buy any. I told her I had just bought two to help the boys and said that she should take two. I continued on my way to get the money and she said she would take two. When I returned I asked once more if there would be any trouble if I took the blankets and they said there would be none. I said "Very well then" and that was the end of it. The blankets were put out in the garage.

"I thought no more about it until Mr. Miller arrived two days later. Mr. Miller took the four blankets away after I told him where they were."

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENSE

"I gave four half crowns to the accused for my blankets and the girl gave another fell a ten shilling note. The accused was the one who said that the blankets belonged to an Officers Unit, and there was no other explanation given as to where the blankets came from. These men informed me that they were allowed to sell the blankets. There was no mention made of the blankets belonging to chaps who had gone to hospital.

"When I was informed that they wanted ten shillings for one blanket I told them to pack them up and take them out. Later I offered five shillings for each blanket if it would help them out. After talking it over with the others the accused said he would take five shillings for each blanket. I did not pay any particular attention to what they were saying when they talked it over. I just thought they had the blankets to sell and that I was doing a good turn by taking two."

5th WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

P-84031 CQMS Thoms, W., on strength of 1 Cdn. A.S.C. Rft Unit being duly sworn states:

"My business is to issue barrack stores, blankets and cleaning materials in this unit. This has been my job for the past two years. The vocabulary price for a blanket is thirteen shillings and nine pence but they go up at various prices. The highest price is around twenty four shillings. (The witness examines Exhibits 1 and 2). I have examined these exhibits and measured them and in all cases they come up to the Army Standard OS blanket and in my opinion they are Army OS Blankets. There are approximately 10,000 blankets of the same type on charge to this unit. These come from E.S.A. Stores, British Barracks, Hammersley."

THE DEFENSE DECLINES TO CROSS EXAMINE THE WITNESS.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)

The Prosecution said that he did not think it necessary to call the 3rd Witness, Detective Constable Lightfoot, or the 6th Witness, Mr. Kenneth Lock. The Defense also said he did not require either of them for the purpose of cross examination.

"DLR"

The Prosecutor stated that he wished to call two witnesses for the purpose of introducing a statement alleged to have been made by the accused subsequent to the taking of the Summary of Evidence in the case. He further stated that he had given notice to the Defending Officer in accordance with RP 76. The Defending Officer said he had received the notice.

7th WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

B-116507 L/Cpl. Darby, D.H., of Canadian Provost Corps, being duly sworn states:

"On 14 Dec 44 at approximately 0930 hours I was in the office of the S.I.S., A.P.M's Office in Aldershot when CSM Johnson, Guard Room Commander, 1 Cdn. A.S.C. Rft Unit came in to speak to Cpl. Miller. I was instructed by Cpl. Miller to go to the Guard Room at 1 Cdn. A.S.C. Rft Unit which I did and interviewed Pte. Grover who was in the Guard Room under arrest. Pte Grover was called and I asked if he had something to say. He said he did. I properly cautioned him and he told me his story. The words of the caution are contained at the tops of the sheet of paper on which the statement was taken. As Pte. Grover told me his story I again repeated the caution and took it down in writing which he signed. I did not threaten or promise anything to Grover."

The Defense Officer said he had no objection to the admission of the statement.

"This is the original statement signed on the top by Pte. Grover and at the end of the statement it is signed again with number, rank and name of Grover. Isaw him sign both of these signatures".
The Witness then reads the statement which is marked by the Court as Exhibit 3.

THE DEFENSE DECLINED TO CROSS EXAMINE THE WITNESS

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(3)

The Prosecutor said he would not call the other witness as he would merely corroborate the evidence of the 7th Witness.

THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED

The Defense Officer said he was not calling any witnesses for the Defense and that the accused would not make a statement to the Court

THE DEFENSE IS CLOSED

THE PROSECUTION ADDRESSED THE COURT ON THE FINDING

"May it please the Court. The accused stands faced with two charges, one 'Stealing Public Property' and another of being in improper possession of public property, the first charge concerning five blankets and the second charge concerning seven blankets. With regard to the first charge I wish to refer the Court to the Manual of Military Law, Chapter 7, Paragraph 80, Page 118, in which there is a definition of the words 'theft' and 'stealing'. It reads as follows (He quotes the paragraph). Therefore in order to prove that the accused is guilty of the first charge it is necessary that the Prosecution prove that he did take and carry away five blankets with the intention at the time of taking and carrying them away to permanently deprive the owner thereof, and further, in the words of the charge, it is necessary to prove that these blankets were public property.

"Let us look into the evidence adduced by the Prosecution in order to decide whether or not the Prosecution has met the onus which is placed upon them at law. The Prosecution produced a witness, one, Pte. Blair, who gave evidence to the effect that he was working with the Provost Corps under their instruction. This evidence was corroborated by Cpl. Miller of the S.I.S. He further stated that on the night in question the accused, Pte. Grover, supervised the taking away of a number of blankets from Room 7, Spider 62 of this unit. He stated that one, Pte. Marsh, had given Grover two blankets and one, Pte. Van Luven, had given him four which makes a total of six. It is not necessary for the Prosecution under the charges to endeavour to prove that the accused did steal these six blankets. However, it is necessary for us to prove that five were stolen and I submit to this Court that, in view of the evidence now produced, of the eleven blankets produced as Exhibits 1 and 2 in the case, and the evidence as to where those blankets were found and further on the evidence of Pte. Blair to the effect, and he was very honest about it, that the accused had walked around the room picking up blankets hilter skilter and laid them on top of the six already given him, the number of blankets taken by the accused amounted to five.

"As far as 'carrying away' is concerned we must prove that as well and in this connection I would like to point out respectfully to the Court that the slightest amount of moving by an accused person constitutes carrying away. Just so long as the accused moved the blankets tha far (Prosecutor moved blankets (Exhibits 1 and 2) a few inches) he would in the eyes of the law have carried them away, but the prosecution has gone further than that. The Prosecution has definitely proved, I submit, beyond reasonable doubt, that the accused accompanied by two other soldiers carried the blankets as far as Reading, that he stopped there with certain intention and that he continued on to Mortimer with the same two men and disposed of those blankets in a Public House commonly known as the Horse and Groom. To back up that statement we have the evidence of a definitely independent witness, Mrs. E.E. Lock, who states that she purchased four blankets, which the Prosecution submits were four of the eleven taken away, and that she paid the accused personally four half crowns for two of those blankets.

"I realize that the law on the subject states that Court must be cautious when accepting the testimony of an accomplice. In that regard I wish to make two submissions, one that the witness, Pte. Blair, actually in law was not an accomplice but he actually was working for the A.P.M. at the time, and secondly that even if the Court considers that he was at the time an accomplice his evidence is corroborated sufficiently by Cpl. Miller of the S.I.S. and by Mrs. Lock of the Horse and Groom Public House. They corroborate certain definite statements he made and as they were not there the whole evening they cannot corroborate his entire story but their stories do not contradict one another. Therefore in regard to the first charge I submit that the Prosecution has proved, beyond reasonable doubt, that the accused did take the blankets, did carry them away, that the blankets were capable of being stolen and that he had the intention at the time of such taking to permanently deprive the Government of their possession. There remains only one thing to be proved that whether or not these blankets were public property as charged, and I submit that the evidence given by CQMS Thoms in this case necessitates a presumption which is that the blankets were in fact public property. No other inference can be taken from the evidence adduced in Court.

"I would like to further point out respectfully to the Court that Section 56, I believe, of the Army Act definitely gives this court and any other court the right, if they decide that the actions of the accused person charged with stealing do not amount to stealing, to convict him of fraudulently misapplying property. In other words when a man is charged with theft he does not have to be charged with an alternative charge of fraudulent misapplication, that alternative is automatic and I submit to this court that firstly the accused, in the light of the evidence, is guilty of theft. The sine quanon for this charge have been definitely proven but if in the opinion of the court they find that it is not sufficient evidence to convict the accused then I submit that it definitely is sufficient evidence to convict him of fraudulent misapplication of public property. The evidence of Mrs Lock along was enough to convict him of that charge.

"Now we will deal with the second charge 'Conduct to the prejudice of Good Order and Military Discipline' in that the accused was found to be in improper possession of seven blankets, the blankets being public property. In relation to the blankets being public property I need only state that once again we have the blankets being produced in court and the evidence of CSMS Thoms to consider. Insofar as the charge of improper possession is concerned I submit the accused was found, according to the evidence, at 0120 hours in the morning of the 22 Nov 44 in a truck and in that truck seven blankets were found. They have been produced in court today. Improper possession if, of course, always a matter of interpretation. In this regard I must anticipate a certain defense which might be put up by Counsellor for the accused, namely that the accused was actually not in improper possessionf ot the blankets, that it was Blair, that Blair was in improper possession of the blankets, that he had engineered the whole thing and that the accused was merely a poor tool in his hands and that, therefore, Blair was actually in improper possession and the accused was merely accompanying him. In this regard might I point out to the court that there is a definite plea in law that when two or more people are engaged in an act, each is responsible in law for that act. In other words, if the blankets were found in the possession of five people,as long as those blankets were not properly in their possession each would be guilty of improper possession and I submit that in the light of the evidehm those blankets actually were in the improper possession of the accused.

"In conclusion therefore I would submit the accused, in the first place, is guilty of theft. In the alternative, if he is not guilty of theft, he definitely is guilty of fraudulent misapplication, and as well as being guilty of one of the first two mentioned he is also guilty of being in improper possession of seven blankets. Insofar as the accused's statement is concerned I leave it to the court to decide how much of that statement to believe and how much not to believe. It is the duty of the prosecution in these cases to adduce all the evidence both for and against the accused, therefore, it was incumbent upon me as the Prosecutor to introduce that statement of the accused but I submit that that statement in itself is enough to convict the accused of theft. From reading the statement it is apparent that the accused has made a deliberate attempt to shift the blame all on Blair but all the shifting and all the statements in the world will not absolve the accused of liability as long as he admits that he was present when these dealings took place and obviously, according to his own statement, he has done that."

THE DEFENSE ADDRESSED THE COURT ON THE FINDING

"On the first charge the charge reads that on 21 Nov 44 at approx. 1815 hours the accused did steal five blankets, the said blankets being public property. My friend adduces the evidence of Cpl Miller and actually there is nothing in Cpl Miller's evidence to suggest the theft at 1815 hours of five army blankets. The evidence of Cpl Miller on the second charge has, I think, on cross examination, brought out that he arrested Pte Grover as soon as he got out of the lorry which again does not prove the possession of seven blankets as asserted by my friend.

"Now Pte Blair, even if he is alleged to be an agent, of the Provost Corps, actually did more than that, he took an active part in the proceedings. He actually took the blankets out to the lorry and put them in the lorry, the lorry that was signed out to him. Where did the transfer of possession occur there?

At the Horse and Groom Public House Mrs Lock gives Pte Grover four half crowns which he gives to Blair and Blair puts them in his pocket. The daughter gives Blair directly a ten shilling note and he puts it in his pocket. I will be curious to know the instructions of the Provost Corps in regard to the handling of money. The prosecution has not brought the money forward that changed hands nor has he explained its possession by Blair. Therefore, I maintain that Blair is an accomplice and he is the only witness as to the charge of theft and to the charge of improper possession and that, therefore, his evidence should be corroborated."

THE COURT WAS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE FINDING

THE COURT REOPENED.

PLEA OF MITIGATION BY THE DEFENSE

"The accused is thirty-five years of age and is single. His father died when he was eight years old. He acquired a step father who died when he was thirteen years old. His mother died when he was fifteen years old. He is a category L4M2 by reason of bad feet. He is the youngest of a family of eight. He has seven brothers all older than himself and all living in different places. The accused reached Grade 3 in Public School and he has been overseas since December 1942. He has been in this unit all this time. He was on motor cycles at one time and was taken off because he was not high enough. The accused desires to go to a theatre of war but by reason of his category is being held here doing routine duties, fatigue duties, runner, etc. In civilian life he was a mechanic, repairing tractors. He has approximately five hundred dollars in deferred pay and he draws approximately two pounds per pay day. The accused tells me that one of the reasons he gets into this trouble in a way is because he is fed upwith everything and the other reason is that he just cannot help himself but strings along with others, and I believe that in this case after being provided so readily with transportation and finding it so easy to dispose of this stuff that he just could not help himself. He promises himself that he wont do so but when opportunity comes along he just cannot help himself. As I said before I think in this case that I have a doubt in my mind as to the exact nature of Pte Blair's encouragement. I think that he did actually do more than follow along like Cpl Miller stated in his evidence."

STATES:

On 11 Nov 44 I was approached by Pte. Blair who asked me if I was going to Reading that night. I said yes and he then said he needed some money because his girl friend was coming up from London. He said he had three blankets to sell and told me if I would go to Reading with him to sell them he would give me what one brought. Since I was going to Reading anyway I agreed. I packed one of the three blankets in my small pack and Blair carried the other two, one in his small pack and the other under his great coat. We went to Reading by train, leaving North Camp at about 7.00. We went to a pool room in Reading first and hung around there for about half an hour. Then we went to the Sun Public House. We didn't go in though. We stopped a civilian on the street and asked him if he wanted to buy some blankets. He bought the whole three and for mine I got five shillings. Blair and I parted then and I went to the Cross Keys Public House and then to the Shade Public House where I met my girl friend.

During the following week Blair asked me if I would go to Reading again with more blankets. I agreed and he said he would arrange to get a truck.

About the 18th or 19th Nov 44 at about 1730 Blair came around to my hut and asked me to go to Reading. When I was getting into the truck cab I noticed one blanket on the seat. We went to Reading and parked the truck at the rear of the Sun Public House. We had some beer in there and from there we went to the Cross Keys and then to the Shade. After that we went back to the Cross Keys and in there we met a civilian who agreed to buy the blanket. We told him it was in the truck at the rear of the Sun. Blair and I went to the truck and later the civilian came too. We sold him the blanket for five shillings and Blair and I split the money. At the same time Blair made arrangements with the civilian to sell him more blankets. Then Blair and I returned to camp.

At about 1330 hrs 21 Nov 44, as I was coming out of "C" Coy. Orderly Room I met Blair, who had his truck parked in front. He asked me if I was going to Reading that night. I said I was going up on the train to see my girl friend. He said he was going up with a load of stuff and asked me to go along. I told him I was going on the 5.40 train and to try to get someone else in the hut. About 1730 hrs I stopped in at my hut and stopped to talke to Ptes. Marsh and Van Luven who were getting ready to go out. I asked them where they were going and the said to a dance at Mortimer. While talking to them Blair came in and asked me if I was going with him. I said I guessed I would have to. Blair asked me to help him fold two blankets on Marsh's bed. I folded one and set it on another bed. Blair folded the other and put it on top of the blanket I folded. Blair then left to get his truck and when he returned he parked it between our hut and the band hut. When Blair came back he took a flashlight from Cpl. Constable's bed. I told Blair at this point that I would get my greatcoat and meet him at the Queens Hotel. I didn't see any blankets loaded into the truck.

Before I got out of camp I met Blair and Marsh in the truck and I got in the cab with them. We drove to Fleet and stopped for supper. The truck was parked so that the back was against a bush so that nobody could see into it. I heard Blair say something to Marsh about it. At Reading Blair drove to the Shade pub and let me out. He asked me to try to sell some blankets. Then Blair drove back toward the Sun. I went into the Shade and had a pint and then went to the Sun. There I saw the civilian who had bought the blanket from us on the previous date. I asked him if he wanted the blankets and he asked me where they were. I told him they were in the truck so he said "Let's go". I got into the back of the truck and the civilian got into the front with Blair. Marsh was left at the pub. When we were under way I noticed a station wagon following us. I told Blair and he speeded up a little. We jogged around some blocks and then stopped. The civilian got out and a couple of minutes later I got out because I didn't want to be caught in the truck. I went back into Reading, but first I asked Blair if he was going too. He said he had to look after the truck.

I went to the Shade pub and then across the street to a church and waited. Blair's truck came up and Blair and Marsh got out and went into the Shade. I met them as they came out again. From there we took Marsh to the dance at Mortimer. First we stopped at the Horse and Groom pub, about two blocks from the dance hall. Marsh and I went into the pub and there met L/Cpl. Clark. He bought us a drink. Then Blair came in. I asked a civilian if he wanted to buy any blankets and he said no. Then I went back to Blair, Marsh and Clark. Then the civilian tapped me on the shoulder and told me the woman at the counter wanted me. She asked me how many blankets I had and asked me if they were Army blankets. She asked me where they were and I said in the truck. She told me to bring them to a back door when the pub closed.

I went back to the other fellows and had some more beer and later went out to the truck. The blankets were out on the ground then.

We took the blankets to the rear of the pub and the civilian who tapped me on the shoulder was there with a flashlight. We went inside and put the blankets on the floor. The woman asked us how much we wanted for them. I said a pound each. She offered five shillings. I told her they belonged to Blair and to speak to him about it. Blair decided to take five shillings each. She bought two blankets and gave me four half crowns which I passed on to Blair. Then she asked where the blankets came from. Blair told her they came from men who went to the hospital and were issued with new ones when they came out. Then the woman called a girl in and she bought two and she gave Blair a ten shilling note. Then we went back to the truck and put the rest of the blankets in the truck and drove to the dance. Marsh got out there and after going in he came out again and borrowed two shillings from Blair. Marsh was in the back room of the pub with us.

We drove from there to the unit and were arrested when we arrived.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

IN THE CASE OF L-13418 Pte. Edward Dawson Grover, on strength of 1 Cdn. ASC Rft Unit, a soldier of the Cdn. Army Overseas.

1st WITNESS For the Prosecution

B-7006 Cpl. Miller, E.C. of the Special Investigation Section, CMHQ, Canadian Army, having been duly sworn states:

"I am B-7006 Cpl. Miller, E.C. of the Special Investigation Section, CMHQ, Canadian Army. On 21 Nov 44, acting on instructions from Major F.B.Creasy, A.P.M., C.R.U., I proceeded to carry out an investigation regarding the alleged illegal disposal of W.D. blankets at No.1 Cdn ASC Rft Unit. During these investigations information came to hand that a lorry containing W.D. blankets would proceed to Reading that same evening for the purpose of disposing of them. I proceeded to Reading in company with Detective Constable Lightfoot of the Farnborough Civil Police and at Reading picked up Detective Constable Jenkins of the Reading Civil Police. We stationed ourselves in the vicinity of the central part of Reading near the Cross Keys Public House.

"At approximately 2000 hours 21 Nov 44 an 8 Cwt. lorry, No. GL4206817 pulled up near the Sun Pub adjacent to where I was standing. After a few minutes I walked past the lorry and saw three soldiers talking together. Two of these men I recognized as Pte. Grover and Pte. Blair. The third man I did not recognize at this time. I continued on past the lorry and stationed myself further up the street.

"Approximately twenty minutes later the lorry moved off and as my own car was stationed nearby I picked up Detective Constable Jenkins and followed. The vehicle stopped at a place in the residential area of Reading near to Boston Avenue. Detective Constable Lightfoot and myself stationed ourselves nearby and I saw Grover and Blair and a male civilian standing near the lorry talking together. Although it was quite dark there were several street lights which enabled me to observe the situation quite plainly. After a few minutes Grover and the civilian ran down the street and passed quite near to me although I am positive they did not see me. The lorry then proceeded to tour around the area for about fifteen minutes and finally proceeded in a direction leading to the central part of Reading. I did not follow at this time and proceeded back to No.1 Cdn. ASC Rft Units.

"At about0130 hrs 22 Nov 44 the lorry came into the laneway alongside Hut 62 and I arrested Pte. Grover and Pte. Blair as they got out. Present at this arrest were Major Stevens, O.C., "D" Company, 1 Cdn ASC. Rft Unit, and Detective Constable Lightfoot of the Farnborough Civil Police. In the back of the lorry I found seven blankets which I now produce. (Marked Exhibit "A".)

"Blair was then questioned by Detective Constable Lightfoot and myself as a consequence of which I proceeded to the Horse and Groom Public House in Mortimer on 25 Nov 44. At the Horse and Groom Public House I seized four blankets from Mrs.E.M.Lock, wife of the Proprietor. These blankets I now produce. (Marked Exhibit "B"). I then obtained a written statement from Mrs.Lock andone from her son Kenneth Lock. As a result of Kenneth Lock's statement I arranged an identification parade of eight men including Pte. Grover ~~xxi~~ on 25 Nov 44.

The men making up this parade were as near as possible in size and general appearance to Grover as we could make it. Kenneth Lock attended this parade and identified Pte.Grover as one of the men he saw sell the four blankets at the Horse and Groom Public House in Mortimer.

"On 22 Nov 44 I had ordered an inspection made of Pte. Grover's kit, including his company issue of blankets. At this date that is all the information I have, Sir."

THE ACCUSED DECLINED TO CROSS EXAMINE THIS WITNESS.

2nd WITNESS For the Prosecution

B-115209 Pte. Blair, T.J., on strength of 1 Cdn. ASC Rft Unit, having been duly sworn states:-

"I am B-115209 Pte. Blair T.J., of 1 Cdn. ASC Rft Unit. On 21 Nov 44 I was approached by Pte. Grover of 1 Cdn. ASC Rft Unit, whom I now recognize, and asked to provide transportation to Reading that evening for the purpose of selling blankets. After consulting with Major Stevens, Officer Commanding, "D" Company,1 Cdn. ASC Rft Unit and Major Creasy, A.P.M. of Aldershot Command, I agreed to provide the transportation.

"About 1800 hours the same evening Pte. Grover and I went to Room 7, Spider 62, Men's Quarters, 1 Cdn. ASC Rft Unit. When we arrived at the room I started to get dressed for the trip to Reading. Meanwhile Pte. Grover went to the other end of the room and entered into a conversation with Pte. Marsh and Pte. Van Luve, both of 1 Cdn. ASC Rft Unit. As I was at the other end of the room it was impossible for me to hear what they were saying. When I had finished dressing I walked down to the other end of the room to join them.

"Pte. Marsh took two blankets off his bed and handed them to Pte. Grover who folded them and placed them on the bed opposite Pte. Marsh's bed. Then Pte. Van Luve handed Pte. Grover four blankets which Pte. Grover took and placed on top of the two blankets that Pte. Marsh had handed him. Pte.Grover then walked around the room and picked up blankets from different beds in the room and piled them on the bed with the others. All these blankets were of a similar type to the blankets in those two bundles. (The witness points to Exhibits "A" and "B").

"Then I stepped out of the room to the 8 Cwt. lorry No. CZ4206817 which I had waiting there. Then Pte.Grover picked up the blankets he had placed on the bed and handed them to me to be placed in the back of the lorry. I placed the blankets in the back of the lorry and raised the tail gate. Then Pte. Grover and Pte. Marsh joined me outside of the hut and we all got into the front of the lorry. We then started on our way to Reading and made a stop in Fleet for some supper. We got on our way again and arrived in Reading at approximately 1930 hours.

"Pte. Grover, Pte. Marsh and myself then got out of the lorry which I had parked on Castle Avenue across from the Sun Pub. It was at this time that Pte. Grover went to the Cross Keys Pub to get a civilian to whom we were going to sell the blankets. About half an hour later Pte. Grover came back with the civilian and then Pte. Grover mentioned to Pte. Marsh to stay in front of the Pub until we had returned.

"Pte. Grover, the civilian and myself got into the 8 cwts., with Grover in the rear, and I drove in the direction the civilian directed me. While on the way Pte. Grover, being in the rear of the 8 cwts., got suspicious of a station wagon which was following us and hollered through the tube to the civilian that we were being followed. I stopped on a dark street, the name of which I cannot remember, after driving about five minutes. Pte. Grover and the civilian got out and walked down the street. About 10 minutes later the civilian returned and told me that there was someone waiting around the corner for me. I then started the lorry up and went to see who was there. I recognized right away that it was the station wagon which was following us and I knew then that the civilian had been scared off. I returned to the Sub Pub and picked Pte. Marsh up and circled around Reading in the hope of picking up Pte. Grover. I then went to the Shades Pub where I picked up Pte. Grover and then we agreed to go to Mortimer to drop the blankets off so that we could pick them up some other time and sell them.

"We stopped in front of a pub in Mortimer, the name of which I cannot remember. Pte. Grover and Pte. Marsh went into the Pub and returned about ten minutes later and Grover told me that we had a chance to sell a few of the blankets. All three of us went back into the Pub to have a few beers until closing time.

"At approximately 2205 hours we returned to the lorry and gathered up the blankets from the back of it and each of us carried some of them to the rear of the Pub where Pte. Grover knocked and was answered by the Proprietress of the Pub. We then went into the back room and piled the blankets on the floor. The Proprietress asked Pte. Grover where we had got the blankets and he answered that there was nothing to worry about and that the blankets belonged to us. The Proprietress then picked two out of the pile and asked us what we wanted for them. Pte. Grover mentioned ten bob for each blanket which the Proprietress figured was too much. She offered us five bob for each blanket to which we agreed. She paid Pte. Grover four half crowns which he gave to me and I put them in my pocket. A young woman came from the front of the Pub and the older woman asked her if she wanted to buy two of the blankets for use in her car. The young woman agreed to this and picked two blankets out of the pile and paid me a ten bob note which I put in my pocket along with the four half crowns to be divided at a later time. We then gathered the remainder of the blankets and returned to the lorry and went to the Womens Land Army dance.

"Pte. Marsh got out of the lorry at the Womens Land Army dance and Grover and I started back to camp. At approximately 0130 hours we pulled up beside Room 7, Spider 62. We were still in the lorry when Major Stevens came over and asked the reason for the lorry being out of the vehicle park and Cpl. Miller of the Special Investigation Section placed both of us under arrest. We were then taken to the Guard House."

3rd WITNESS for the Prosecution — Thomas Lightfoot, Detective Constable, Hampshire Joint Police Force, stationedat Farnborough, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am Thomas Lightfoot , Detective Constable, Hampshire Joint Police Force, stationed at Farnborough. On 21 Nov 44 at 1700 hours, I went to Reading with Cpl. Miller of the S.I.S. At about 1955 hours I saw an 8 Cwt. truck pull up on the opposite side of the road from the Sun Public House. The front lights were out. I saw two men leave the truck and another one walk round the side of the vehicle. They stood together talking outside the Sun Public House for a while. One was dressed in a great coat and a wedge cap, one was in battle dress and wearing a beret and battle dress. I kept observation on them for a while and then walked by the three soldiers one of whom I identified as Pte. Grover, whom I now recognize. Pte. Marsh and Pte. Blair were the other two. I waited near the Sun Public House for a while and then returned to my original place of observation. I saw Pte. Blair enter the vehicle and drive it up the road about 200 yards and stop beside a lamp. I watched the vehicle for approximately half an hour and saw Blair and Grover return. They stood at the back of the truck a few seconds then Blair entered the drivers seat and Grover sat beside him. The truckdrove off. The station wagon pulled up and we followed the lights of the truck to the suburbs of Reading where it parked in a side road without lights. Cpl. Miller and I left the stationwagon and kept observation on the truck. A few minutes later a civilian appeared and spoke to the driver of the truck. Then Grover and anothercivilian ran along Boston Avenue. I saw the truck again about five minutes later. It was parked on the opposite side of the road on the side road I previously mentioned. I then went to the station wagon which was parked in a road nearby and saw the truck drive up the road.

"Between 0115 and 0130 hours 22 Nov 44 I was in company with Major Stevens, 1 Cdn ASC Rft Unit and Cpl. Miller of the S.I.S. and I saw a truck draw up in the lines of 1 Cdn ASC Rft Unit. Major Stevens spoke to Grover and Sergeant Pitcher spoke to Pte. Blair both of whom had just stepped out of the truck. I looked in the back of the truck and saw a number of blankets. They were of a type similar to those blankets. (The witness points to Exhibit "A").

"A few minutes later I saw Pte. Grover in the Guard Room of 1 Cdn. ASC Rft Unit. I was in company with Major Stevens and Cpl. Miller. Pte. Grover was questionedthen but we did not receive satisfactory answers regarding his movements the previous evening."

APPENDIX "A"

The Horse and Groom
Mortimer, Berks.
23 November 44.

I am Mrs.K.M.Lock, wife of the Proprieter of the Horse and Groom Public House of Mortimer, Berks. On Tuesday, 21 November 44 about 9 P.M. a very short Canadian soldier approached me while I was serving behind the Public Bar and asked me if I would like to buy some blankets. Before this he had asked nearly everybody in the Public Bar this same question, but nobody appeared interested. I asked him if they were white blankets and if it was straight and above board to buy them. This small soldier assured me positively that it was all right. I told him I would see him later, hoping that he would go away. I didn't think anymore about it until this small soldier again approached me. I still didn't take much notice of him, but as he got very persistent I told him to go around the back as he was bothering me. I then told my son Kenneth that some soldiers had some blankets to sell and to let them in the back door. When I went back three soldiers had brought in a pile of blankets which they put on the floor. I saw that they were not white blankets and immediately said that I didn't want them. He got very persuasive and again said that the sale would be perfectly legal. I again asked him if it would be alright and he said that there would be no trouble about it as the blankets had belonged to a Special Unit that had been disbanded and that all their equipment was being sold in this manner. I asked him how much he wanted for them and he said ten shillings. I thought the blankets would be handy to use in the car and offered him five shillings for two of them. He agreed to this. I then picked out two that I would like. Just at this time my son's girl friend came into the room and I asked her to buy a couple of blankets to help the boys out. She wasn't interested at first, but finally bought two for herself. I then gave the short soldier four half crowns and the girl gave one of the other soldiers a ten shilling note. These soldiers then gathered up the rest of the blankets and departed. The soldier who seemed to be the leader and who transacted the whole deal was very small, of dark complexion and had a small moustache.

The Horse and Groom
Mortimer, Berks.
23 November 44

I am Kenneth Charles Thomas Lock, an Enginner of the Reading Aircraft Co.Ltd. My home is at the above address. On Tuesday, 21 Nov 44, I was helping my Father, who is ill in bed with pneumonia, to run the Pub. Sometime after 9 P.M., whilst I was playing darts in the Public Bar, a very small Canadian came up to me and asked me if I knew anyone who would like to buy some blankets. I told him I wasn't interested and to go away. Sometime later my Mother told me to open the back door and let in some Canadians who wanted to sell some blankets. When I opened the door this same small soldier entered carrying an armfull of blankets. He was accompanied by two other soldiers also carrying blankets. I wasn't particularly interested in these matters, but I did notice my Mother pay this short soldier some money. I am positive I could identify this short soldier again and am quite willing to do so.

Evidence for the Defence

1st witness for the Defence

The Accused being duly sworn states
I that I was born in April 10 at Chamberlaney Pennsylvania. my first memory is living with my parents at Altoona I am certain that my name was Harold Hayden I had three and Brothers and my sister living I was then sent to my Grandmother at Warsaw Indiana I was then 5 or 6 yrs old. Her name was Mrs Charles Moats. I returned to my parents when about 12 yrs old at Harrisburg Pa. My father was a Heating engineer and was anxious that I should learn that business. I worked with him during my school years until I think I graduated from High School. For one season I was sent to a Public Health school. My father lost his business and the family split up. I went with my father. In about 1928 or 30 I was in an accident where a pedestrian struck I was badly injured. A girl of six passed to many was killed in a motor accident. I saw the car she was in strike a street car. She and 3 or 4 others were killed. Later I was with my brother in his car. There was an accident from then on things were unpleasant for me. I would wander away from home and my father would come to get me. He put me down in Baltimore. I can't give you a clear account of these yrs. I think it was in 1930 ~~2000~~ 20 I have totally blocked out Basingstoke that I had my first trouble respecting a forgery. I have a faint memory of going to a prison farm.

(The prosecution must be willing to tell the def. & jury that if the character of accused was good in case he would be free to go into the whole question)

I had a policy I was always dying to find something. I then was taken sick mentally and physically I was returned and put under the care of a psychiatrist. For the next 10 years while I remain imprisoned pictures I buy are delivered from me and cannot be put in order I don't know how I got the name of Evans. I don't remember the tape they say I have on Kingston Ont. I do not remember going the Eden army or of being in Canada. My impression of my present arrest is that I was being arrested as Harold Snyder in 1930. When arrested

I was still hearing persons thing I can't explain I was mixed up as to who and where I was was I given Snyder or who was I. I am clear I am Harold Snyder but I don't know what is happening

NOTE D-6

2nd Lieut Ernest Cumbers of Reserve posted to 3rd Battn Yorks & Lancs Regt Surgical Hospital of Command Depot duty sworn & tells

I was in charge of the accused in Basingstoke from 14 Sep to 3 Dec 43
My diagnosis is that accused has a psychopathic personality i.e. one which prevents the patient from adjusting himself normally to society. From what he told me it appears that he has not in the past adjusted himself to society. He told us of past breaks of care made by him on his attempts at adjustment were inadequate. The reasons given by him indicate that his character is unstable. He described periods of emotional confusion from which S/S Regt and from which he told us his instinct in the army has shown the same pattern of instability as in civil life. There is no physical cause for his the symptoms which he claims such as loss of memory. Observation in custody has not revealed any mental disorder. Having my opinion based upon my observation the accused is sane. In my opinion he has not been insane in any recent period such as six months. Based on my observation that we found no evidence of his having been insane. We in fact found no evidence other than statements made by the accused that he has been insane I am of opinion he is fit to undergo trial today.

I think he is fit to undergo it within a reasonable period consideration should be given to the nature of his delusions.
In the Hospital we gave him sedatives and psycho-therapy (conversation) I believe his answers to our questions were true. The effect of liquor on such a nature is very injurious and would tend to make him more irresponsible and lessen his emotional control. Liquor is more injurious to such a character my recollection is that (The Prosecution objected that my evidence of a Magistrate's conclusion together is inadmissible)
(Objection withdrawn)
My recollection is that, the accused had been in another Ward in the Hosp. at the time my opinion was that he had a neurotic condition. That does not mean insanity. Liquor will more quickly cause a neurotic person to lose the steps when they don't know, what they are doing than a normal person. I think the accused ~~was examined by Prosecution~~
~~If this man committed an offence~~
~~while suffering from a temporary~~
~~he is alleged to have committed it~~
~~I don't think there is nothing unusual~~ ~~about~~ signs of a delirium tremens in prison are improved as the intoxication the nature of his illness and the effect which it was hoped upon him and that he will settle himself to adjust himself for this reason it is felt that he requires an encouragement

He appears to me to have the intelligence to take advantage of this
The Prosecution is closed.
The Prosecutor asked time to recall D/Sgt Watson to prove Ex 10 which was admitted by the accused - Granted.
Watson This is Ex 11 was found on accused when arrested
My This is the Ex 10 is the statement written by the accused —
(The Adj Offs objection to the admission of the statement) witness continues -
I informed the accused on 5/5 appn I gave him the usual caution which I wrote out at the beginning of the statement and which caution he signed and after reading it.
I asked him if he wished to make a statement he said he did I said if you should like to make a statement write it yourself I sat in a room alone and left him there for about 2 hours.
when he handed me this statement which he signed I do not suggest any part of the others were in the room but I was the only one interested in getting this statement
This was 9th Sept/43
Cross examined by Adj Offs
The Adj Offs objected that the statement could have been put in when this witness was first called and it was to recall the witness for this purpose should not have been granted that the student was not referred to in the summary. I was not notice that it would be needed but I was told some days ago there was a statement and I was shown a copy of a statement when I read yesterday. Also a court was admitted to Bail some 5 days after and would not have been his right mind when he wrote it

My friend the Prosecutor is right. Page 14
The Court is aware the Court respond.
The President stated that the Court would admit the Statement unless contrary
This is the statement I was present when accused signed each page after he wrote at signed 6 pages. He asked he wanted to put in Swahili more he then wrote 2 more pages.
(Statement is admitted and marked EX 10)
The DP appear and he did not want an adjournment to cross examine the witness
The DP appear and he did not wish to cross examine further as he had already asked all questions he wished End of evidence

Prosecutions Reply re Objection of Defg Offr to admission of evidence as to Exh 10.

1. It was not in Summary as it was not necessary for prima facie case.
2. omitted from Summary as parts of it refer to previous offences which might be unfair to accused.
3. Does not require to be listed as an Exhibit R.P. 76 only refers to new witnesses
4. No prejudice now to accused adjournment would be only thing which could be granted accused now.
5. Undoubtedly if it is proved, merely affects credence to accuseds story but does not affect admissability
6. The Prosecutions whole file including this Report copy of Exh 10. was placed at disposal of Defending officer some days ago. Yesterday in discussing the matter I showed him a copy of Exh 10. which he read and studied in my office. I told him why I had not put it in the Summary and said I would might have to put it in if the Defts gave evidence and the case resumed it.

ARGUMENT IN MITIGATION OF SENTENCE

B.31559 Pte. Grove, W.G.

1. All evidence submitted in defence and all evidence brought out in cross examination of witnesses for the prosecution is hereby repeated in Mitigation.

2. In addition certain other points should be considered, C.A.(G) R.O. 1301 para 7 states that all evidence of psychiatric disability should be included in the proceedings and the President may attach a covering letter refering to the special features of the case. It is requested that such a letter be so attached.

3. Due to this psychiatric disability Pte. Grove has been Medically boarded 1111115 in accordance with the new Pulhems classification. In other words Pte. Grove has been Boarded Cat. E. and unfit for Service. According to normal procedure soldiers "Unfit for Service" are S.O.S. to N.D.H.Q. and returned to Canada on the next available draft. It is submitted that the sooner this takes place the better in the interests of the Service.

4. Capt. Armstrong R.C.A.M.C. has stated that due to instability of the accused a long period of detention would be injurious.

5. Capt. Armstrong has stated that Pte. Grove's prospects for recovery are good, keeping in mind para 4 above and providing Pte. Grove receives the encouragement for recovery which he needs.

6. Evidence has been given that social conduct in the accused's life has been of a cyclical nature. While working for his father prior to 1930 his record is good. His troubles commenced about 1930 due to various causes and continue for some time. A period of good conduct arises again on about the time Pte. Grove enlisted in the Canadian Army. His M.F.H. 6 (conduct sheet) shows no entries for first 6 months of service. Attached hereto are letters indicating his family life and conduct during this time. For convenience I have marked in red relevant portions of these letters.

(a) Christmas card from Church Secretary Kingston

(b) Letter No. 680 from wife refering to Minister, letter No. 484 from wife refering to Minister and Parsonage.

(c) Letter from friend Norman in Kingston

(d) Letter No. 505 from wife indicating good friend Miss. Girvin

(e) Letter No. 440 from wife indicating friend Bertha

7. It is submitted therefore in conclusion that Pte. Grove's case is a psychiatric problem and not a penal one.

this absence, to the best of my knowledge, these are the things that have occured.

For the first few weeks I wandered

In August I was employed on farms anything from one day to a full weeks employment. These farms were near and about Topluck, Twyford and Sodalming. One farm farman that treated me very well was a man by the name of Cook.

I then went from this area to the City of Bilford. While in Bilford the first time I resorted to stealing. This by taking a wallet containing a sum of money, (10 pounds) to my mind); from the home of a lady ~~who~~ with whom I spent the evening. This lady also loaned me a raincoat ~~with~~ which I did not return.
All else that may have happen in nothing in the way of crime.

Again at Fatherland I left a home with a valise containing some valuable

I next came to London via Kingston

In London I stayed at the Wasling ton

I am Harold D. Snyder and was born at Shamokin, Penna. April 14, 1910. The first school years of my life were spent at a Country school near Waynesboro, Penna; living at this time with my Grandmother, Mrs Charles Woods. There were long periods of fine success in employment, Once just after school as a Newspaper photographer with the "Evening News" at Harrisburg, Penna. Then come the first serious blank of my life which resulted in a case of forgery by check for which I eventually was sentenced to a prison at Huntingdon, Penna. I came out of this prison with excellent recommendations and good practical training as a Mechanic (High school training was Manual Arts) Again after returning home in Harrisburg I made a moderate success at my trade as a mechanic.

This is further thoughts of past that I feel ~~I~~ sure can be of some use at some future time. What time in the past these things fit into my life I cannot say.

At sometime I recall living at 1530 Regina St., Harrisburg, Penna. My father I am sure was in the business as a ~~Heating~~ Engineer and I was employed by my father as mechanic. As far as I can recall life for me at this time was not only normal but good. This picture has also reminded me of another person I believe to be a wife of my brother — Esther Snyder. There was a child about. This has me very much worried. Was this child mine? Was I married?

Again I remember being treated by a doctor G. A. Zimmerman of Harrisburg, Penna. And something in connection with this doctor or Dr. Emerick W. H. Grove — Harold Snyder

One other point of some trouble is :- I am sure there are persons close to me at Waynesboro, Penna and Chambersburg, Penna. These two towns I am sure could unfold quite a bit of the information needed. At Waynesboro and nearby I do know of living wife a Grandmother. In fact this locality seems to be the last I remember of Harold Snyder.

My darling Husband -

Another Sunday without you - I wonder and wonder, how many more shall pass before we are re-united. Darling, it is so lonely without your wonderful love and your dear sweet self.

How I miss you dear one - is beyond description. The thought uppermost in my mind - "where is my loved one to-day" If only I always had memories. each moment of the day - of our separation - the most cruel heart-rending moment of our lives:

Hey dear - I met a lady recently who met you while here. Miss Girvin. Do you remember her? She said you are a clever chap. I told her - the best in the world No one better - and no one dare claim you either, darling

So now again I shall send you - night - night across the seas. With God's blessing ever with you and all my love and kisses x x x x x x x x x x Your Lover that now, she too, does the same.

You see dearest. so many of the boys from here, have returned home on furlough after being in England 18 months. So "your lonely loving wife" is hoping that you may have that glorious privilege. Yes dear - it is almost 18 months - next Saturday - brings about another 13th and how I dread to see that date approaching.

I know - if only you were here - oh! the wishing and yearning. (Guess it only makes us more lonely.) Eh! dear. Well I was fortunate to day in getting a chance out to see mother. Left here at 6.45 A.M. so had a nice long day at home. Yes dear, Mother is feeling much better. In fact looks real well. Better than she has for months. She has heard me counting the months, since our separation - so often frequently since all day, as it has done to-day.

Guess you have lots of it in England too - eh! The dampness and fog - do you mind it much darling?
I did not get out to see mother - in fact had no way of going. You know Lex dear, we are rationed on gasoline here, so not many people can take many pleasure drives, so I suppose my chances of going home will be few and far between.

Went over to church this a.m. and as usual Mr. Liddle was asking about you. Every time he go by the corner and glance at the parsonage - oh! darling what memories it brings - the night of Dec. 12th - when I became the wife of the most wonderful man in the world. How happy we were darling for oh! such a wee short while - then to be torn apart by this cruel war - and now - so lonely and sad - away from each others arms.

God speed the day dear when we shall be re-united.
I miss you more and more every moment Luv dear.
Night night and God bless you
With all my love and for ever and ever kisses - Sweetie Yours Louie

Dear Joe:

Received your Christmas cards the other day also your letter & was real glad to hear from you. Lou is a happy girl these days after receiving so much mail from you lately. What has been the hold-up I don't know but she was certainly worried when she was so long without any letters. Others here have been the same & it is hard to understand why there has been so much delay I sincerely hope the future mail both ways will be more regular. Have you be no use on account of the difference in voltage. As you say they have the portable battery sets in the States but importation of radios into Canada is prohibited. Some two in the way things are I think you best bet if possible would be to pick up used one over there.

Well it will soon be two years since you went away & I hope before long this mess will be cleaned up & you will be back here again.

Lou is fine these days & we see her quite often. She-Bert got to the Y.M.C.A. to Barriefield to entertain the soldiers. There must be a hundred women in the band they go with &

In my last (3) letter I mentioned about the radio you said you would like. Just in case that one should have gone astray, here's the data again. When I was told I went all over the city trying to locate one, but that was impossible. In fact they told me they did not think I would be able to bring one in Canada. I guess it must be a year ago since they made up radios for private use in the country. Their whole output being for war purposes. Then there is the question of batteries for the portable. A friend of mine has one, but can't get batteries for it. That is another thing there is a shortage of batteries. Then an electric set would been getting mine? (2)

This morning there is a regular blizzard but don't think the snow will stay, hope not anyway.

Well I see it will be a year ago Sunday since I returned from Toronto I am sorry to say there is no improvement yet, in fact for the last week I have been real sick & don't know when I suffered so much. Boy believe me it is terrible & the only relief I get is when I take Asprin, go to sleep & forget. Still they say everything has to come to an end sometimes, so here's hoping

He is real busy & as to work nearly every night.

The coffee pot is still here & we have coffee, so all we need is you & then we will have a party & boy you can have all the coffee & all the eats you want. And say Pat I am looking forward to that day just as much as you are & believe me we will make up to you all the things you have missed & the sacrifices you are making for us. So get the job done & come home.

By the time you receive this Christmas will be nearly here & with all my heart I wish you the Merriest one possible I

I guess the boys are glad there is something to help them pass away the evenings.

Do you see any of the boys who were around when you were here. If so, remember me to them.

Our dog (at least she calls it hers) was real sick last week in fact I thought I was going to lose it last week end. I took him to the Vet who told me he had inflamation of the intestines. We have had a sick dog for a while, but is getting over it now though weak.

Leopard Lake Ontario Park. She like the work fine. Last week she started on shift - tomorrow tomorrow night starts her first spell of the graveyard shift midnight to eight in the morning. She has had infection in four or five of her fingers but they are just about OK now.

We are wondering what we are going to do with the forest. It is hard to get seed any more, though fortunately so far I have been able to get all the seeds I tried to grow some seed this year but it did'nt want to anything.

Mr. & Mrs Johnstone are both well

(b)

Yesterday was my birthday (no young you should have seen the cards & present I got, don't know what everybody is so good to me. I got fifteen cards, cigarettes, money, pyjamas, subscription to Pofacias Mechanics & Vivian gave me a beautiful electric clock in the shape of a ship. Walnut base with the dial set in a steering wheel & highly polished metal parts. Boy wish you could see it. Just is one thing I like model ships.

Vivian is working at the Nylon Plant. It is located on the lake just sincerely hope that long before the next

All here join me in wishing you the best of luck + a speedy return. Will be looking for you

Dear Tex -

Please excuse pencil but my writing thro' in bed where I have been for the last eleven weeks. Have been real sick Dear. Last Sept 15th. In November I had another X-ray & they found another ulcer of the stomach very extended & decided to investigate whether that is the cause of all my trouble or just another complication. I don't know though & am inclined to argue the latter with them. I have a lot of trouble with my chest will have to operate but doesn't want to if it can be avoided, as it will mean removing about half of the stomach. I have had eighteen weeks of milk & I hope that three long weeks on the medicine will do the trick. I am on the weeks on a diet of just milk & am not to look or see or think of food. I am now getting soft cooked eggs & cream of wheat for breakfast. Sounds awful, of course but I am even getting fat on it. Ha!

Well we have had one of the worst

I miss you more and more. It brings to mind the first night we met there. What wonderful memories darling. Those happy, happy days. May we soon be re-united to have them forever more. My own darling husband.

Well dearest one, this has been one of my "lonely" (especially lonely) days. This is the first Sunday I have missed, going out home for some time. It has rained nearly all day. I slept in until 10.30 then went over to "our church" Mr Fidoles always asks for you and wishes to be kindly remembered. Says he hopes in the very near future that you shall be sitting beside me in the pew. How I hope, pray and long for that time too darling.

Bert called up about 4. p m and asked me over for supper. I was glad to accept. But yet, my dear every time I go in their home.

But I do know you are so cheerful about everything - you would not tell me if you were not A-1. Would you? I must now tumble in to my lonely bed. First - cover your picture with dozens of kisses. How I wish dear, I could phone my xxx to the original. With all my love and Gods blessing xx x x x x x x x x x x all for you alone from your devoted wife Louise

Evidence for the Prosecution

M 6155 & Pte J. F. Hayes of 1 Edn adm 7 pl Coy being duly sworn states

On 25 Oct 43 I was going to Hounslow from Farnboro to Kings a date with Miss Rosina Bird & during the day I & the accused decided to go down in the car. It was the accused's car and I agreed. We left at about 1545 hrs and we arrived at Hounslow at about 1945 hrs. The accused was driving. At Hounslow by str we met Miss Bird and a friend Miss Rose Read. We decided it would be nice to go to a show at Oxford. The four of us got in the car and we started off proceeding some distance it began to become very foggy and the accused said even then we decided to go about and go back to Hounslow. We were driving slowly. The accused had his door open and his head out to see when suddenly everything went black for me & I remember someone helping me off the floor of the car and upon getting out I saw that we had run into the back of a civilian lorry which was parked at the kerb with no lights after the panic had died down a bit, I helped several civilians to push the car into the grass verge with the lights showing on the road. This was some hour & 45 minutes after we had first left Farnboro. The accused asked me to leave the scene of the accident. He opened me my train fare. He advised me to be wrapped up in this approaching car stopped and took the accused to the Hospital and a little later a passing American staff car took the 2 girls and myself to a first aid station at Heyshott where after being treated we spent the night there. We left at 0600 hrs next morning and reported to the M.O at our unit 7 a.m. He sent me to R.O.S Eng. C for X-Ray. Later I reported to the Orderly Room and gave the story.

Cross examined by D of officer

It was extremely foggy before we turned around. I was in left-hand seat. Miss Reed was in the front. I was driving very slowly and he wiped the windshield off from time to time. Sometimes his speed was between 5 and 10 miles, sometimes a little faster. It was very foggy at the accident. Just before the accident I was driving between 15 and 20 m.p.h. It was the off side of our car which struck the parked lorry. Our lights were on bright but we had no fog light. After the accident all our lights were still on. The accused was out of the car before I was. It was about ¾ of an hour before he was taken to hospital during this period he had painful fits. I had not seen the lorry before we hit it. I examined the lorry after the accident. No lights were on. I understood the electric system was turned out. It was on a main road I believe with a white line. The lorry was against the kerb but it was wide enough to the white line. I had seen no obstruction whatever on the road. When I went out to Hospital our lights were burning. I left about 1 or 1¼ hrs after the accident. There was no indication of pie. I didn't see the stop car again until it came back here. The engine was not running. The lorry driver said he knew our lights or to show up his. This I didn't need as it was midnight. Trower gave me the money per my fare home. He advised me to go as there might be a court martial. I was not negligent. he was very careful. He took all reasonable precautions. The left front of our car was badly damaged and side when I left the depot. I left the depot with the doors of our car unfastened by one side. Trower didn't say anything to me about taking the girls home but I presume I would take them back

Mr Charles Eades of 107 Morley Road Leyton E 10 lorry driver being duly sworn states

I drive a lorry for E Hillard Ltd. on night of 23-Oct/43 & was driving my lorry I had to stop because my lights short circuited. This was at first by London at about 2245 hrs. I drew to the left curb and parked my car and stood right behind it. There was room in front but not where I parked. I lit a cigarette and went it to signal with. I saw the lights of a car coming. I shouted and I got out of the way. The car hit the back of the lorry. The right rear corner was taken out of the body of my lorry. There were 4 people in the car 2 soldiers and two female civilians. They got out of the car which we stood into the large the lights of the car were on. I can identify the soldiers. I know the number of the car in my wallet at home the way my lorry is Z m H 627.

(The Defence asked the Court to grant him the right at any time to ask that this evidence of this witness be struck out because he has not adduced the charge or accusation and stated that he would like same without prejudice to that right. The Court agreed.)

Millards do a haulage business with many lorries. I go out on distances not exceeding 50 miles, often at night. I am not equipped with a lantern to warn traffic with. Later I found that the ammeter had burned out which caused a short circuit. I was driving when the lights did went out. I drove into the kerb. I couldn't get it onto the verge. made on 8 Nov 43
(Marked Ex 1 by Court)
Mj This is a true and correct estimate to the best of my ability
I obtained the various parts myself I regulated all parts I got from R.A.D.O.S. They could not give workshops boom with prices as they say the prices are constantly changing This is the only way on the price list the Daily R.A.D.O.S. had to get this information from C.M.H.Q. This is the only way a workshop can get the actual parts for a repair job under existing regulations in the Can Army
(The Dep officer registered his objection to all this evidence there being hearsay)
The Prosecutor referred to C.A.O.R.O 2183 Para 4 which indicates that the workshop officer is the competent officer to estimate costs of repairs
(at 2130 hrs the Court adjourned and the same Court reassembled at 0930 hrs 22 Dec 43)
Cross examined by the Dep Officer
The greater portion of the damage to this car was caused by the fire in the car. The following items were due to enemy

by price
1 Body complete £134-0-0 not before the price the front coming at left was driven back at least 2 feet also the left front door was damaged beyond repair other than that I cant say what other damage if any was caused by the collision to the body the front coming would be straightened out by labor the only replacment would be the left front door and I believe the windshield would have been broken by the collision a single part of the damage to the car was caused by the collision not the balance by price.
The following parts require replacment on acc of the collision
1 left front fender £ 2-10-0
1 engine hood £ 4-15-0
1 left front door £ 15-0-0
1 left front windshield glass £ 1-10 £23-15-0
That is all I can prove was caused by the collision The labour required to replace these articles on the car is as follows. due to mechanics on acc of collision Fender 2 hrs.
Engine Hood 1 "
Repair Radiator 5 " Wind Shield Glass 3 " Repair left front of body and fit door .75 "
Total hours 36 hrs at 3sh. = £12-15-0
Parts £23-15
Total £36-15-0
I warrant a statement of above

From my experience I think it is probable that the fire was caused by a short circuit of the wiring switch in line against the post behind the canvas. It would smoulder all night. I have seen that happen the lights apparently continued to burn for some time after the accident. I can remember this by saying that the wire was bare but may [illegible] by the witness and that later removal by wind and people getting in and out may have snapped or burnt the wire causing the fire at a later date time. With weight lights left on a nothing would probably burn down in about 10 hours. R & F 3(B) was supplied with 7 pitch lanterns for the Mess

He was sworn and the Court adjourned until 10 am on 3rd Nov. the Court resumed at 10 am. The Summary was not taken in accordance with proper practice. Accused had no chance to compare statement with his letter. He was still sick and nervous. The statement in the summary is materially different from the letter. There is added a sentence to the effect that he was a w/t when he took the car. The statements of the other witnesses were taken when accused was in Hospital. He was not present.

The Prosecutor said in reply that he had based his statement of the facts surrounding the taking of the summary on 3rd Nov. I went to the Hosp to take the summary on the case of Hayes. Accused wished to make a statement. I advised him not to but to take his time. Then on 10 Nov. he of his own free will wrote this letter.

IN THE CASE OF A.9337, Pte. Albert Edward Grover, No. 1 Cdn. Adm. Transport Coy., R.C.A.S.C.

ADDRESS to the Court by Major S. A. German in support of an application for "Non Suit" at the conclusion of the case presented by the prosecution.

Sir:

I am making an application for a "Non Suit" in respect of both charges which have been preferred against the accused. I shall deal with the first charge in two parts, firstly with the question of improperly and without authority using W.D.Vehicle CM195425 and secondly with the question of damages.

I submit that the Prosecution has failed to establish that the accused had the vehicle in question on the night of 25 Oct 43 without authority. The Prosecution has only made the statement that it was there without authority and was being improperly used but has produced absolutely no evidence or any person to state definitely that such was the case. On the contrary, it has been shown that this vehicle was assigned to the Officer Commanding the Unit and that the accused was his driver. The evidence shows that work tickets are issued in blank for this particular vehicle and that it is entirely under the control and direction of the Officer Commanding. Work tickets were not turned in to the Unit Headquarters or the Transport Officer until each and every sheet is completely filled. Therefore it is not necessarily known by any one but the driver and the Officer Commanding what his instructions or directions are. It is within the power of the Officer Commanding to authorize recreational transport and for such purpose he can direct the use of his own vehicle as well as any other vehicle on the strength of the Unit. The Assistant Adjutant of the Unit has presented a work ticket pertaining to the vehicle which shows a certain trip or trips performed on that date but that is not conclusive as I think it has been brought to the attention of the Court that the nature of the duties carried out by this Unit require the Officer Commanding to visit various points and places and it is not always known when he starts off at the beginning of the day just where and when he will be required to go and, consequently, the trips are filled in at the completion. Therefore, I submit that recreational transport could have been authorized and a work ticket to have been completed at the conclusion thereof.

I submit that the onus of proof of "improper and unauthorized use" lies upon the Prosecution. I cannot find any law nor any order which shifts the onus onto the accused purely on an allegation of such "improper and unauthorized use".

Dealing with the second part of the charge, namely that the accused, by ~~some~~ improper and unauthorized use, did "thereby occasion damage to the said vehicle of £161-17-0", my submissions are as follows:

(a) That is has not been shown here during the trial that these damages were a consequence of, or occasioned by, an act of the accused. I submit that on the evidence of the Prosecution witnesses it is well established that the accident was the result of the negligence of the driver of the civilian lorry involved ~~and~~ that he did not take any precautions to warn traffic of the position of his lorry on the highway. There is not a scintilla of evidence nor allegation of negligence on the part of the accused. Reference A.A. Sec. 137 and footnote 4 thereto which reads as follows:-"in the case however of the continuing wrongful act of improperly using War Department property, e.g. a motor vehicle, any loss or damage happening to such property during the continuance of such user may be held to be occasioned thereby". The last words of the aforementioned footnote namely:-"may be held to be occasioned thereby", places the question entirely in the discretion of this Court and I submit that, before the Court can hold that such damages were occasioned by the improper and unauthorized use, then it must be shown that the damage flowed as either a natural result of such act or by negligent operation on the part of the accused. Negligence has not been shown and it cannot, I submit, be suggested that it was a natural result of "improper and unauthorized use" if the Court should find him guilty of that offence.

(b) My second submission is that, should the Court find him guilty of unauthorized use, then the question of the quantum of damages arises. It has been proven here by the Prosecution witnesses that the accident occurred at approximately 2245 hrs and that the accused was removed to hospital at approximately 2315 to 2330 hrs. The evidence shows that the other occupants of the vehicle left the scene of the accident at approximately 2330 to 2345 hrs and that, at that time, the W. D. vehicle had been backed off onto the verge of the road, all lights left burning and the front headlights left on bright to throw light on the civilian lorry to give warning to other traffic on the highway. It is also shown by the police and the civilian lorry driver that when they left the scene of the accident at 0100 hrs the vehicle remained in the same position and the lights continued to burn. It is established by the Prosecution witnesses that the fire did not occur until 1000 hrs on the morning of 26 Oct 43, approximately twelve hours after the accident. The Work Shops Officer, who gave evidence on behalf of the Prosecution in respect to the damages, has estimated the damage caused by the fire at approximately 85% and the damage caused by the accident at approximately 15%. He has also stated that it is impossible to establish the cause of the fire and offers the theory that it was caused by wires being stretched, causing a friction against the metal panel, ultimately resulting in fire. This, however, is only theory and no evidence has been, and I submit cannot be, produced to connect it with the accident. The Work Shops Officer has, on cross examination, stated that, in his estimation, the life of a new battery would, on these conditions, not have been for a longer period than ten hours. My submissions, therefore are:-(a) that when the accused was removed to hospital at approximately 2315 to 2330 hrs, there ceased to be any continuing wrongful act on his part for which he could be held responsible: (b) that the damages by fire are too remote as it may have been caused by any one of several different things and my submission is that it was not caused by reason of short circuit as, on the basis of the evidence of the Prosecution witnesses, the battery would have been dead some time prior thereto, thereby ending any current throughout the ignition system, and (c) that, in order to fix the responsibility for such damage on the accused, the cause must be shown conclusively and that it was a result of some wrongful act or neglect on his part. This has not been done.

(c) My third submission is that the whole claim is not the subject matter of a Court Martial Proceeding but is a matter for reference to the Claims Commission for the following reasons: There are obviously claims against the civilian owner and driver of the lorry in question by the Canadian Government in the right of the Crown for damages to the W. D. vehicle, for hospitalization, etc. in respect of the accused, and by the accused himself for injuries received, all of which flowed from the negligent action or omission of the civilian driver. Because of any possible question of pension, it has been directed that where an Officer, N. C. O. or soldier has any claim or claims against a civilian or civilians, his right of action is subrogated and the action is conducted by the Claims Commission and, accordingly, I make the submission that the question of any claim or assessment against this soldier should be held in abeyance until the aforementioned action has been disposed of.

(d) In any event, it is submitted that the soldier can only be put under stoppages of ninety days' pay of rank pursuant to R. R. (Can.) 539a.

With reference to the second charge, I submit that there should be a "Non Suit" for the reason that it has not been established in this Court that M. T. Drivers' Regulations as authorized by Overseas Routine Order 3510, dated June, 1943, ever came to the attention of the accused. The 2 i/c of the Unit was called to give evidence that these pamphlets had been distributed amongst the drivers of the Unit but, on cross examination, admitted that he did not know the number of pamphlets distributed but knew that the number was not sufficient to provide one for each driver and he could not state what drivers had received them as no receipt or signature had been obtained therefor. I submit that, since there was an insufficient number of these pamphlets, then all personnel should have been notified by the publication of the regulations in Unit Orders. Secondly, there is no evidence that Overseas Routine Order 3510 was ever republished in Unit Orders nor that the N. B. I. was ever posted and brought to the attention of the accused, nor is it shown that the accused was on the strength of the Unit at the date of the Routine Order, namely June, 1943. It is well established that, in order to obtain a conviction in respect to a breach of any order, the fact that the order was duly published and posted and that the accused was on strength of the Unit at the time of such publication and should have had knowledge of the same must be clearly proven. As stated, this has not been done in this case and I, therefore, submit that the accused cannot be found to have had knowledge of para. 42 of chapter 2 of the said regulations and, accordingly, cannot be held to be bound thereby.

Summarizing, I submit that there should be a "Non Suit" for the reasons:-(a) that there is no evidence of improper and unauthorized use: (b) that if the Court should hold that there was improper and unauthorized use, then 85% of the damages alleged are too remote and the remaining 15% cannot be held to be a result of, or occasioned by, such use: (c) that there is no evidence of publication to fix the accused with knowledge of the orders and instructions contained in M. T. Drivers' Regulations.

... D. Thomson Lowry

After the Court had made its decision in respect to the application for "Non Suit", the Defence did not call in evidence and asked that the above be also considered as an Address prior to the Court making its finding.

CLOSING ADDRESS BY PROSECUTOR

NOTE D 4 and D 6

The facts of the case against the accused are very simple and the testimony of witnesses clear and conclusive. On the first charge, the evidence of Pte. Hayes establishes the fact that the accused did use a Canadian Military vehicle at the place and time mentioned in the particulars of the charge. Pte. Hayes also stated that the accused was driving this car at the time it ran into the back of a civilian lorry, thereby occasioning certain damage to the staff car, and that this happened near High Wycombe. He also stated that at the time of the accident they were lost and he did not know exactly where they were.

P.C. Bradbury has stated that on the night mentioned in the charge he went to the scene of an accident 200 yards west of West Wycombe, where he found Canadian staff car No. CM195425, the car named in the charge, which had been involved in an accident. He further stated that he examined the car and found it extensively damaged, mentioning several details, such as the fact that the dash had been pushed back towards the seat and the front offside damaged. He further stated that Pte. Hayes, whom he interviewed at the First Aid Station, High Wycombe, was an occupant of the car. No evidence has been produced by the defence to suggest that Pte. Grover did not take the car mentioned in the charge, or that he was not driving it at the time it was damaged.

Two points remain in connection with the first charge. The first of these is embodied in the words "without authority", and Lieut. Bedson has produced the vehicle Work Ticket for the vehicle named for the day in question, on which the entry is "7 and 1 Neuro". There is not sufficient space provided on these Work Tickets for much detail, and in this instance it would have been practically impossible to have written "No. 7 Canadian General Hospital and Basingstoke Neurological and Plastic Surgery Hospital", the two places which this "shorthand" immediately suggests to members of this Unit.

As a further protection the Officer Commanding had written across the face of the Work Ticket and signed "Commanding Officer's Duties", thus clearly indicating that it was not his intention that the car should be used for any other purpose. It can hardly be argued that there is anything in this Work Ticket which could be construed as authority for transporting Pte. Hayes to Hounslow, picking up two girls and going for a drive in the direction of Oxford. It certainly does not come under the head of visits to Canadian Hospitals or other Commanding Officer's Duties.

Lacking the Defending Officer's legal training, I hesitate to suggest that this is a case in which the burden of proof "shifts", But I would suggest to the Court that if this is not such a case, then it is certainly one in which the subject matter of the allegation, insofar as lack of authority is concerned, is peculiarly within the knowledge of the accused. It is conceivable, although highly improbable, that the accused may have had access to another Work Ticket to which he secured the signature of an Officer unknown to the prosecution, and I submit that the Court, to quote M.M.L. Chap. VI para 13, "must have regard to the opportunities of knowledge with respect to the fact to be proved which may be possessed by the parties respectively."

The second point whcih remains in connection with the first charge is the amount of the damage to the vehicle mentioned, as a result of the alleged actions of the accused. I am unable to find in Overseas R.Os. any instructions regarding the method of assessing the amount of damage to Canadian Military vehicles involved in an accident, other than those contained in Overseas R.O. 2163 para 4, which states that "Part II (of the Road Accident Report) will be completed in detail by the L.A.D. or Workshop Officer serving the formation or Unit." As the Court knows, Part II of the Road Accident Report is entitled "Damage to Canadian Army Vehicle" and includes the following:

Particulars of Damage
Estimated Cost of Repairs Labour
Materials
Total

Overseas R.O. 3647 states that only the estimate of repair total cost of ~~labour and material~~ need be shown, whereas, in support of this charge and in fairness to the accused, a detailed list of parts required has been furnished signed by a competent Officer duly authorised to do so, and, at the direction of the Court, certified by D.A.D.O.S. of the formation. It is submitted for the consideration of the Court that the provisions of A.A.138 Note 16 have thus been adequately complied with. (of Army supply)

See attached

The Defending Officer seems concerned about several points in connection with the damage done to the vehicle. First, as regards the price of materials, which has been shown to have been arrived at in a perfectly proper and authorized manner with an extra safeguard provided by the Court, and, secondly, as to the weather conditions, lack of lights on the civilian vehicle involved, and the amount of damage occasioned by the second phase of the accident, namely, the fire. The prosecution is quite willing to admit that fog may have been present at the time and place of the accident, despite the testimony of Mr. Eades to the contrary, and that the civilian lorry may have been parked without lights, and also that some of the damage named in the particulars of the charge may have been caused by fire. However, it is submitted for the consideration of the Court that the entire responsibility for the alleged unauthorized use of the vehicle and the consequent damage to it, however caused, rests with the accused. It is clearly intended by the addition to Note 4 of A.A. 137, which applies equally to A.A.138, that in the improper use of a War Department vehicle the user may be held responsible for any loss or damage resulting from such improper use, and I would ask the Court so to find in this case.

As to the second charge, the place and times have been shown to have been as stated in the particulars. Pte. Hayes has supplied the names of the civilians carried in the vehicle, and Mr. Eades has stated that two soldiers and two civilians got out of the car following the accident. Lieut. Bedson has stated that all Release Forms for Civilian Passengers in the Unit are in his custody, and to his certain knowledge the Officer Commanding, the only Officer authorized to do so, did not sign one for use by the accused for the night in question. The Court will realise that any suggestion that the Commanding Officer did is preposterous.

As in the case of the first charge, this is a matter of which might be said to be peculiarly within the knowledge of the accused, if there is any suggestion that the forms and authorization were obtained from another Unit, another highly improbable suggestion. That the accused was in possession of M.T. Drivers' Regulations has been shown in the evidence of Major Watmore.

In relation to the first charge, if not to the second also, the attention of the Court is invited to the evidence of Pte. Hayes that the offence alleged was premeditated, a fact to which the Court must have special regard, in accordance with M.M.L. Part I, Chap V para 80.

IN THE CASE OF A.9337, Pte. Albert Edward Grover, No. 1 Cdn. Adm. Transport Coy., RCASC.

ADDRESS to the Court by Major S. A. German, Defence Officer, in mitigation of sentence.

Sir:

I, in addition to the character evidence given by the former Commanding Officer of this soldier, Major W. A. McArthur, and of myself, wish to draw your attention to the age of this soldier. His recorded age is 22 but, actually, he is only 20 years of age, as a result of which he was not able to come overseas in 1939 with his original Unit. His conduct sheet is free of major crimes and there has not been an entry for a considerable period of time. You have had an opportunity of observing him in this Court Room and I feel that you will agree with the statement that he is keen and has an excellent demeanour.

This soldier has been desirous of being with his former Officer Commanding, the above named, and when that Officer was posted to the Planning Staff at C. M. H. Q., it was found that Pte. Grover could not accompany him. In the interval, he was transferred to C.R.A.S.C., 1st Cdn. Div. Shortly after, however, C.R.A.S.C., 1st Div. was posted as Officer Commanding at 1 Cdn. Adm. Transport Coy., a base installation. This soldier was not happy about that situation. He was keen and anxious and because of his age, category (which was "A"), he wanted to be in action with the lads of the First Division with whom he had served. In that regard, I am advised that he has made two applications for transfer, but there has not been any action so far as he knows in respect to either one of them. Consequently, he was not very happy with the prospect of an indefinite period in a base installation which, I submit, is understandable and for which he could hardly be blamed. The result was that he became a bit "fed up" and took an evening off without going through the proper channels.

I would ask the Court to bear in mind that this soldier has been in close arrest for a period of 41 days, 28 of which were spent in hospital as a consequence of injuries received in the accident.

Accordingly, I ask that the result be very carefully considered by the Court and only a minimum sentence imposed.

1. The m/n soldier, is to-day standing trial at a FGCM, on charges concerning the unlawful use of a WD vehicle.

2. For eighteen months, from June 1941 to Dec 1942, he was my driver. When I was posted to H.Q. First Cdn Army last Dec I was unable to take him with, and he was subsequently posted to his present unit. During his service with me, his conduct was above reproach, he was an excellent worker, and a good soldier. There is one instance of reckless driving on his MFW 6 of which I am aware. Pte. Grover considered that this case was unjustly handled, but felt that it was of insufficient consequence to warrant his seeking redress.

3. When Pte. Grover is released from custody, should he be convicted on the charges, he will eventually be posted to No.1 CASC RU. May this letter be considered a request that Pte. Grover be posted as a rft. to a RCASC unit in whatsoever formation I may be serving at the time he is available. I will then be able to contact him. I am interested in the man and wish him with me. Pte. Grover, on the other hand, has earnestly expressed his desire to return to service with me.

4. May a copy of this letter be included in the soldier's file for easy future reference, and the request it embodies have your favourable consideration, please.

Your obedient servant.

Miss Rosina Bird of 57 Whitton Dene, Hounslow states:-

On 25th Oct 43 my friend Miss Rosa Read and I had planned to meet Pte. Hayes at Hounslow Tube Station at 7.30 p.m. When Pte. Hayes arrived we decided to go to a show. Pte. Hayes arrived in a car which was driven by Pte. Grover. We got into the car and drove to Oxford where we went to a show. We came out of the show about nine o'clock and started to drive home. Miss Read was in the front seat with Pte. Grover who was driving. I was sitting in the back seat behind the driver with Pte. Hayes. It was very foggy and Pte. Grover kept opening the car door to see out. We were driving along for awhile when all of a sudden there was a crash. We got out of the car and Pte. Grover seemed to be the worst injured. His left hand was bleeding. He got out of the car by himself and we all managed to get out. Another car coming along the road stopped and they decided to take Pte. Grover to hospital. There were no police or anyone else around so we three just waited until an American Army car came along and took us to a First Aid Station in High Wycombe, where we spent the night.

Miss Rosina Bird and I met Pte. Hayes and Pte. Grover at Hounslow Station at about 7.30 p.m. on 25th Oct. 43. We decided to go to a show at first. We were on the way to the show in the car which the two boys had. I suppose it was an army car. I remember hearing the siren. We were going along and it was very foggy and we started talking about coming back. We decided to turn around and we were driving along when all of a sudden there was a bang. I thought at first a bomb had dropped. I was dazed and didn't remember anything until Pte. Grover pulled me from the car. I stood there and in about half an hour a car came along and took him to hospital. We had run into the back of a lorry. Then an American car came and took us to the First Aid Post in High Wycombe.

Mr. Charles Eades of 107 Morley Rd., Leyton, E.10 lorry driver for Messers H.Hilliard, Ltd., of Stonebridge Wharf Limehouse, states:-

Proceeding from Oxford towards West Wycombe on the night of 25th. October driving Austin lorry No. LMH627 at approximately ten forty five p.m. the wiring under the dash burned out and I had no lights. I pulled the lorry to the left side of the road about a quarter of a mile west of West Wycombe. I got out and stood behind the lorry with a lighted cigarette.

About twenty minutes after I stopped an Army car came along from the same direction I had come. I tried to signal with my cigarette which was the only means I had. The Army car tried to pull to the right but he was too late and he ran into the rear offside of my lorry. The car stopped immediately it struck and the occupants got out. The offside rear of my lorry was damaged, the rear wing was bent and torn, the cross member and runner of body were broken. The tarpaulin cover was torn.

I helped push the car back onto the verge. His lights were still on. A passing car stopped and took the occupants of the Army car away. They notified the police who came and gave me two lamps to use on the front and rear of the lorry. I stopped with it all night.

Summary of Evidence in the case of No. A-9337 Pte. Grover, A.E., No. 1 Cdn. Admn. Tpt. Coy., R.C.A.S.C.? a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the commanding officer, the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

1st Witness: M-61558 Pte. Hayes, J.G., No. 1 Cdn. Admn. Tpt. Coy., R.C.A.S.C. a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

On the evening of the 25 Oct 43 I had an appointment with Miss Rosina Bird who lives in Hounslow. During the day A-9337 Pte. A.E. Grover had asked me what I was doing that evening. I told him of my plans and he asked me if I would like to drive up with him in the car. I agreed and we left about 1845 hrs. We arrived at Hounslow Station at approximately 1945. Miss Bird was waiting for me and with her was a friend, Miss Rose Read. We discussed what we should do and decided we should go to a show. We got into the car and started off for Oxford. During the trip it began to get foggy and the air-raid siren sounded. We then decided that under these circumstances we should go back to Hounslow. We turned around and drove about trying to discover where we were. Owing to the dense fog, Pte. Grover had to drive with his head out the window and stop frequently to wipe the windshield. I do not remember hearing a crash. The first thing after the accident that I can remember, was my being helped out of the car. When I got out, I saw that we had run into the rear of a lorry which was standing at the curb. I helped push the staff car in which we had been riding, No. CM-195425, back onto the grass verge off the road. It was in such a position that the lights, which we left on, shone on the parked lorry as a warning to other traffic. While we were waiting for someone to come along, Pte. Grover tried to persuade me to go back to the unit and offered me money for train fare. I refused to leave the scene of the accident. We stopped a civilian car and asked the driver to take Pte. Grover, who seemed to be injured, to a hospital. Shortly after, an American Army staff car took us to the first Aid station in High Wycombe where we receive first aid. We stayed there for the night as it was then about 0100 hrs 26 Oct 43. At 0600 hrs., I left on the first train and on arrival at the Unit, I reported to Capt. Cherry the M.O. He sent me to No. 8 Cdn. General Hospital for an X-ray, after which I went to my unit Orderly Room and reported the circumstances.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

A-9337 Pte. Grover, A.E. No. 1 Cdn. Admn. Tpt. Coy.,R.C.A.S.C., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

On the evening of the 25 Oct 45, I took Ford Sedan CM-198425 from its garage at the officers mess of No. 1 Cdn. Admn. Tpt. Coy., at approximately 1845 hrs. I had asked M-61558 Pte. Hayes, J.G. on the afternoon of the same day what he was doing that evening, and Pte. Hayes had told me his plans. I asked him if he would like to drive up to his appointment at Hounslow. Pte. Hayesagreed to this and we arrived at Hounslow Station, the meeting point, at approximately 1945 hrs. We met two young ladies, Miss Read and Miss Bird. We all discussed what we should do during the evening, and decided we should all go to a cinema show.

Getting into the car, we started off in the direction of Oxford. I was driving along the road, when the air-raid siren sounded at the outskirts of Hounslow. We all thought that we should return, so I turned the car around. Because the fog was so dense, I had to drive with my head out of the right hand window, and stop every so often to wipe off the windshield and look at the sign posts to discover where I was. I found that I was on the wrong road and lost. The last Sign Post stated that I was headed in the direction of High Wycombe, but on this particular road, the fog was very thick. I turned on the fog lights which were reflected in the "Cats Eyes" on the road. (These are designed to show up when your lights shine upon them). Suddenly a lorry appeared in fron of me. I attempted to turn hard to the right but my effort was not sufficient to miss the lorry which had no lights on. My vehicle collided with the right side of the lorry and immediately came to a halt. I remember that I said "Get out Jack (Pte Hayes) and open the door to get me out". I was pinned behind the wheel of the car, because it was bent to the right and wedgedagainst my stomach. Pte. Hayes had been thrown on the floor in the back of the car. Having got out of the car, I found that I had pains in the right side and centre of my stomach. I helped Miss Read out of the car, and then turned to ask the driver of the lorry why his lights were not turned on, and why he had not parked off the road on the left hand side. I bent down to try to turn the front wheels of the car, and then lost consciousness.

I can remember nothing until I arrived at Amersham Emergency Hospital and operated on.
I was not happy in my unit, No. 1 Cdn. Admn. Tpt. Coy., I had submitted two transfer forms to the Orderly Room, requesting my return to my former Unit, 3 Cdn. Infantry Bde. Coy., R.C.A.S.C., 1st Cdn. Div.. I had trained with the latter Unit. However, nothing came of my papers, and I became "fed up". I went absent without leave and took the vehicle mentioned before. I should still like to transfer to my Field unit after serving any sentence imposed on me by Court-Martial.

Sgd. (A.E. Grover).

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence consisting of five pages was taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused, and that Rules of Procedure 4 (c), (d), (e), (f) and (g) have been complied with.

CONVENING OFFR WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS

(See overleaf for oaths and notes for use on trial.)

Field General Court Martial of A93337 Pte Albert Edward Grover
#1 Cdn Administrative Tpt Coy, RCASC
held on 6 Jan 44.

The defending officer before court objects to the accused being tried on the charge as framed, in that, according to the order for re-trial of J H Roberts, Major General, dated 4th day of January, it is directed that the re-trial be for the offence of improper and unauthorized use of WD Vehicle; whereas the charge as drafted is for improper and unauthorized use of a vehicle whereby damage to the said vehicle to the extent of £16/17/- was occasioned.

It is submitted that the charge is the same as that on which the accused was charged on the first trial.

The prosecutor submits that the objection is a mere play of words and not valid.

The court is closed to consider this submission.

The court is re-opened.

The president states that the decision of the court is that the objection is dissallowed and that the trial will proceed.

PLEA IN BAR OF TRIAL:

The accused, sir, has already stood his trial or a trial, on the offence as charged before this court to-day. At the time of trial, as I then submitted, and still submit, there was absolutely no evidence before the court to support the charge of improperly and without authority using WD vehicle CM195425. Unfortunately I am not able to refer you to the arguments and points raised by the president of the court, nor of the statement made by him, this because of the fact that there was no court reporter; but the statement was made and the court did rule, prior to the close of the prosecutions case, that the court was agreed that the vehicle was taken without authority.

Now, I submit, that such a statement was based on a decision or an acceptance by the court of a work ticket as evidence of the fact that the vehicle was in that location at the time alleged and that the accused did not have authority to use it at any time during the night.

That, sir, I submit, is a question of law and I submit that, in arriving at that ruling or at that decision, the learned president and members of his court erred. As a field general court martial, you, sir, and the members of your court to-day, are in a position of judge and jury. Jury as to facts, judge as to the law. The facts of that case did not substantiate the charge, the facts as shown, and it resolved itself to a point of law, the facts being in favour of the accused. He, however, had the benefit of the doubt and the fact that the court erred in accepting a work ticket that the vehicle was there without authority, was wrong and the charge should have been dismissed.

If the proceedings of that court are before you to-day, sir, I think after perusal you will agree with me that there was no evidence of taking without authority. It may be argued by my learned friend that all they did to establish that was the fact that a WD vehicle was at the time and of this position and that Private Grover was the driver. We did not question that but we did not feel that was sufficient cause to shift the burden of onus on the defence. The prosecution must establish the facts to prove the charge. I think, sir, you will agree with me that only by statutory law is any presumption acceptable or prima facia case sufficient to put an accused in the position of explaining why. In this particular end, carrying it into the army, there is no routine order by which it is established that an accused, or rather that the burden shifts on the defence to immediately say that he had authority to have a vehicle at a certain place at a certain time. Reference to page 73 of MML, last sentence of second paragraph, quote "Still, in law, the burden remains on the prosecution to the end, and it would be improper to direct a jury that they ought to convict".

There is a strong presumption, granted, but the jury cannot be directed to convict on that evidence and that is what happened in the first trial. There was a strong presumption and the jury was directed to convict on that presumption.

My next point is, sir, that the question has arisen and may arise here to-day, namely, that the accused did not himself take the box nor did he call any witnesses in his defence, and in that regard I wish to make this statement - that it is a question of interpretation of what is cross examination and the results thereto. I submit to the court that it was not necessary for me to call any witnesses. From the cross examination I was able to bring out the fact that there was no one before that court that could prove that he either did or did not have that vehicle improperly and without authority. The practice within the unit was shown from prosecution witnesses. I mean the procedure with regard to transport.

I submit that I do not have to call witnesses for defence in proof of my points of defence when that evidence is obtained through cross examination from prosecution witnesses.

I refer, sir, to MML, page 64, para 95, quote "As a conviction and sentence are not valid until confirmed, a refusal of confirmation, duly entered upon the proceedings, operates to annul the whole trial. In such a case the accused has not been convicted and may legally be tried again; but re-trials should rarely be resorted to, and only when the needs of discipline and justice demand that an offender shall not escape punishment on account of a legal technicality". Now I ask, sir, where was there a legal technicality in the first trial. The charges laid I submit then and now were not provable. That court agreed with me in respect of the second charge but not with the first charge, but made their decision on what I have already said is a wrongful direction as to the law and not as to the facts. Going on further in respect of page 64, para 95, quote "It must be remembered that if an accused at the first trial has disclosed his defence, that defence at a second trial may thereby be prejudiced." Once again, sir, I submit that the defence of the accused was disclosed on the first trial, not by defence witnesses nor the accused taking the box himself, but by cross examination and to carry out the proper cross examination and bring out evidence I want, we only disclosed our defence. It is known now. While confirming authority has certain things he can do, namely confirmation, non-confirmation, and under that heading he may recommend the court to reconsider its findings or sentence or both; or a re-trial may be ordered, it strikes me, sir, as not being fair to a man. It smatters of persecution rather than prosecution. If, with due respect to the court, he can be put back on his trial from time to time and, having first disclosed his defence which he has to-day, not only through cross examination but through defence witnesses and go back for re-trial after a time has elapsed at which greater investigation can be made, additional witnesses, maybe they will have some effect maybe not, but knowing where his defence is; I submit it is not correct. In other words is it fair that knowing that the trial was thrown out/~~xxxix~~ to go back to work and start over again. It may be thrown out again and the same thing happen. I submit it is not.

I am making further statements with respect to the summary of evidence and with particular reference to the statement of one Private Grover. At the first trial after considerable argument the statement was not admitted to the court. There was evidence of the fact that this statement was drawn from an alleged letter written by the accused while he was in hospital. On his return to the unit the whole summary was presented to him and he signed it. At the first trial the letter was produced for my examination and that statement is not correct, in that additions have been added thereto. The court did not see the letter it is admitted but it had reference, and it will be noted in the proceedings of the last court, to one particular sentence. The officer taking the summary said there were some grammatical changes. There should have been no changes grammatically. There was one statement in that summary which said 'I became fed up, went AWL and took the vehicle'. This summary is re-drafted for the new trial and it was agreed there that it was there in error.

Summarizing, sir, my points are:-

Firstly, that the court erred in a matter of law and accordingly convicted for that reason only. They erred because they thought they could presume certain facts to exist and it was on that presumption that the conviction was made and on nothing else. On erring on that the prosecution failed on the first trial and the charge should have been dismissed.

Secondly, it was NOT encumbent, in view of the evidence produced in the cross examination, for the defence to take the box or call witnesses which we could have done but it would have been superfluous.

Thirdly, the burden of proof was entirely on the prosecution and it failed to fulfil that burden.

Fourthly, that in accordance with the citation already made, re-trial shall only be resorted to when the needs of discipline and justice demand that an offender shall not escape punishment ~~xxx~~ on account of legal technicality, reiterating, there was no legal technicality. It was an error of judgement at the trial before. Again, an offender is not an offender until he is proven as such.

My next point is that the defence was fully disclosed through cross examination and that accordingly the accused is now prejudiced stainding his re-trial.

My next and final point, sir, is that there should be some question, as a plea in bar, that this court can either accept that plea or reject it. They are now sitting in a position of a court of appeal but have full powers to deal with that plea which may mean a direction that the accused is not required to stand his re-trial in spite of the order before the court to-day. That is the only means, insofar as I can find, of submitting an appeal.

The foregoing is submitted for your consideration, please.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary that RP 83B be complied with.

PROSECUTION:

I have not had the benefit of being at the other trial and am not clear as to what happened. All I can say is that we are acting on an order for a re-trial which is permitted under section 157 of the Army Act and as such, that is all I am concerned with. Any question as to burden of proof, we wont go into at this point . In my opinion it is the type of case that the provision dealing with re-trial is designed to be sued for. As I understand it, the reason why the new trial was directed was because the prosecution did not prove sufficiently that the vehicle was being used without authority. That being true or not merely shows that the court erred themselves in coming to a decision of guilt without submitting sufficient evidence.

There were witnesses who could have supplied that evidence that were not required by the court.

I submit that the whole reason for the new trial rests purely on a legal technicality and that in no way is the defence prejudiced and that we proceed with the trial and the defence can cross examine witnesses as they did before.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary that RP 83B be complied with.

BY THE COURT

You stated as I understand it that the reason for the new trid is the fact that there was not sufficient evidence before the court to justify the conviction. Is that correct?

PROSECUTION

That is not the way I intended it to be interpretted. I have not seen the documents from the first trial and maybe I do not know what I am speaking about. I think that we should get this matter cleared up if we may.

The court is closed to consider the submission.

The court is re-opened and the accused is brought before it. The President states that the decision of the court is that as a plea in bar cannot be and are not allowed, and the court, if they dealt with them otherwise, would be dealing with them by way of an appeal from the order of the convening officer directing the new trial and that the court has no authority to so ~~delay~~ deal.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary that RP 83B becomplied with.

I make my plea in bar. The court has made its decision and I am of the opinion that this appeal, as such, should be cleared and dealt with before the accused is called to trial. I have not had the opportunity to get a copy of the former proceedings; they are not available. On monday, it was understood that it was laid before the J A G for final instructions. It was not before noon yesterday that I knew that the trial was coming up to-day.

There are two things necessary if it is coming to trial. I have certain investigations to make to DDST, CMHQ, files to obtain and secondly, I feel, as I think you outlined this morning, that to carry on to-day would prejudice the accused. I think that in the interest of the accused, firstly that what has been presented to-day should be presented by way of an appeal through channels which at the moment I do not know, but there will be a channel of appeal. After we are prepared to come to trial I will know what to prepare for. We have had only 24 hours which is not sufficient. You have heard the argument, perhaps you will agree with me that there is some merit to it and that sufficient merit should be given the hearing, otherwise the accused will be prejudiced. If that appeal reaches the convening authority or superior authority, there will be some question about it.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary that RP 83B be complied with.

The court is closed to consider the application.

The court is re-opened.

The accused will appear before the court.

The president states that the decision of the court on the plea in bar, is subject to confirmation; that the accused will not be prejudiced by the trial being proceeded with now and the application for an adjournment is refused.

FIRST WITNESS: M61558 Pte Hayes, J G, No.1 Cdn Administrative Tnt Coy, RCASC, having been duly sworn states:

Q1 Do you recognize the accused?

A1 Yes, sir.

Q2 Where and when did you meet him that evening?

A2 I saw him all day because he lived in the same room in the officers mess.

Q3 Did you have any converstion with him that day in connection with any affairs in the evening?

A3 That evening I had a date with Miss Rosine Bird at Hounslow. He asked if I would like to go in the car with him. I said yes.

Q4 Where did you agree to meet?

A4 We left from the Officers Mess.

Q5 About what time in theevening?

A5 About 1845 hrs.

Q6 Did you walk or ride?

A6 We rode.

Q7 Military or ordinary vehicle?

A7 Military vehicle.

Q8 Did you know the number or where it came from?

A8 I think it was CM195425.

Q9 Is that a vehicle used in this unit.

A9 It is.

Q10 Do you know what it was used for here?

A10 It was the COs staff car.

Q11 Who was ~~dix~~ driving the vehicle?

A11 Private Grover.

Q12 Did he continue to drive the same vehicle all evening?

A12 Yes, sir.

Q13 As I understand it you left here at 1845 hrs and started for Hounslow.

A13 Yes, sir.

Q14 Tell us the details of the trip from the time you arrived at Hounslow till late in the evening.

A14 We arrived at Hounslow at 1945 hrs. Miss Bird was waiting at the station and with her was a friend Miss Rose Reid. We decided to go to a show in Oxford and started out. ~~xx~~ During the journey it became foggy and the air raid siren ~~xxxx~~ blew so we decided to go back to Hounslow. We turned round and drove around trying to find out the right road to take. Owing to the dense fog we were not travelling very fast and Pte Grover had to drive with his head out of the window most of the time. I dont remember the crash and all I remember is being helped out of the floor of the car. Upon recovering myself I found that we had crashed into a parked lorry, which had no lights showing. Immediately after I helped several civilians to push the staff car on to the grass gerge at the side of the road in such a position that the headlights shone on the lorry as a warning to other traffic. While we were waiting Private Grover asked me to go back to the unit and offered me train fair but I refused. After a while we stopped a civilian car and as Private Grover seemed to be hurt we took him to the hospital. About 15 minutes later a passing American Staff Car took myself and the 2 girls to a First Aid Station in ~~Xxxx~~ High Wycombe where we were treated and also spent the night there. I left in the morning and reported to my orderly room.

Q15 How fast was the vehicle travelling at the time of the accident

A15 Going about 15 to 20 miles per hour.

Q16 How far is the place where accident occurred from here by road?

A16 It is in Bucks.

Q17 How far from High Wycombe?

A17 Only about 3/4 to 1 mile.

Q18 Can you tell the court where High Wycombe is?

A18 I am not sure, it was very dark and foggy. It is in Bucks. That is all I know.

Q19 Did you see the vehicle after the accident?

A19 Yes.

Q20 Can you tell us what damage was done to the vehicle as a result of the accident?

A20 The left side was smashed in, not directly head on, but at the side where we swerved. The side of the vehicle hit the truck.

Q21 Tell us of any detailed damage that you saw yourself, such as fenders, etc.?

A21 I did not pay very much attention. I only noticed left side.

Q22 Do you know what was done with the vehicle after the accident?

Q23 What time did you leave?

A23 Close to midnight.

Q24 Can you tell us what time in the evening this accident did happen.

A24 About 2345 hrs.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary that RP 83B be complied with

CROSS EXAMINATION

Q25 On the question of damages. You have said the left side was smashed in. Do you mean that the whole left side was smashed in?

A25 No sir. I mean that from what I saw that it was more or less the front not the whole side. I Q26 I suggest that when he swerved he caught the left front fender on the right rear of the parked lorry.?

A26 Yes, sir.

Q27 The body on the left side was not smashed up?

A27 I am still hazy about it.

Q28 It is going to come to the attention of this court that a certain amount of the accident and a certain amount by fire and evidence will show that fire had not started approximately 12 hours after accident. Therefore, my my object of a few moments ago is that it should be broken down into detail.
Are you a driver with the transport?

A28 Yes, sir.

Q29 Your are familiar with vehicles?

A29 Yes, sir.

Q30 Would you say that the doors on the left side, the glass, the frame, body and dash were all damaged as a result of the accident?

A30 No, sir.

Q31 You said the left side was smashed. Am i correct in saying the left frong wing and immediate area, possibly some damage to the hood?

A31 Yes, sir.

Q32 You said that you left from the officers mess at approximately 1845 hrs?

A32 Yes,sir.

Q33 Is that or is it not a normal place for Pte Grover to eat?

A33 Yes it is,sir.

Q34 The reason for that was that the garage where the vehicle was kept is immediately behind that?

A34 Yes, it was kept there at all times.

Q35 Was vehicle equipped with fog lamp.

A35 No, sir.

Q36 What part of the car were you sitting in at time of accident?

A36 In the back of car on the left side.

Q37 Did you continue in that seat during the journey from Hounslow?

A37 Yes, sir.

Q38 What was the condition of the weather?

A38 It was starting to be very foggy. When we left Hounslow it was very dense.

Q39 On the way back what was the condition of the fog?

A39 Worse.

Q40 What do you think about Pte Grover's driving?

A40 Very good, very careful. He did not take any chances.

Q41 At the point where the accident occurred what was the condition of the fog?

A41 Dense.

Q42 Prior to the accident did you have any warning of any obstruction on that highway?

A42 No sir.

Q43 At the time of the accident there were no lights on the civilian lorry?

A43 That is right.

Q44 Was there at that time anyone in charge of that lorry - at the accident?

A44 The driver was there.

Q45 Did you have any conversation with him?

A45 I do not think so. I was in a daze.

Q46 At the time of accident were the lights on the staff car showing?

A46 Yes, sir.

Q47 Sitting in the back seat you were aware of that?

A47 Yes, sir.

Q48 After the accident did these lights continue to burn?

A48 Yes, sir.

Q49 After you left the vehicle on the grass were the lights still burning?

A49 Yes. The lights were left on as a warning.

Q50 The staff car was in a position on the grass so that lights shone on rear of civilian lorry?

A50 Yes, sir.

Q51 Describe the civilian lorry. Was it open or large covered van?

A51 It was a wooden box with cover over top. Not an open lorry. Very large.

Q52 What was the position of that lorry on the highway?

A52 It was parked close against the curb.

Q53 Did you take notice of the width of road at this particular point?

A53 No, sir. The main road is fairly wide.

Q54 Did you notice whether the centre was marked by a white line?

A54 It was.

Q55 How far was the right side of the vehicle distant from the white line?

A55 It was very close to it. About 1½ to 2 feet away.

Q56 How long was it after the accident that Private Grover was removed to hospital?

A56 Almost an hour.

Q57 How long after Private Grover would you say that you proceeded to the RAF.

A57 About 15 minutes.

Q58 Somewhere in the neighbourhood of 1200 o'clock you and the young ladies left. Was the driver of the civilian vehicle still there? Were the lights of the staff car still burning?

A58 Yes, sir.

Q59 Were there any indications of fire when you left?

A59 No, sir.

Q60 Was anyone else present at that time, outside of the young laidies, civilians, etc.

A60 There were 3 or 4 civilians from other cars.

Q61 Do you know whether staff car was locked when you left?

A61 It was not locked.

Q62 No one locked it?

A62 No, sir.

Q63 Then before you left you did not have conversation with civilian driver?

A63 No sir.

Q64 Did you hear Pte Grover have any conversation with him?

A64 No, sir.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary that RP 83B be complied with

BY COURT

Q65 You said you left at 1845 hrs. Where did you leave from?

A65 The garage at the officers mess.

Q66 What barracks?

A66 Cudenard House.

Q67 What town?

A67 Farnborough.

SECOND WITNESS:

Miss Rosina Bird, 57 Whitton Dane, Hounslow, having been duly sworn states:

Q68 Do you recognize the accused.

A68 Yes.

Q69 On the evening of October 25th last did you meet Pte Grover and Pte Hayes?

A69 Yes, my friend and I met them at Hounslow station at 1930 hrs.

Q70 Can you tell me what you did after you met these chaps?

A70 We drove to a place somewhere near Oxford.

Q71 In a vehicle?

A71 Yes.

Q72 Were you sitting inthe front or rear seat?

A72 Rear seat.

Q73 Do you remember anything that happened near High Wycombe. Anything of interest?

A73 Only that it was very foggy that night. Somebody mentioned turn back I believe.

Q74 Did you turn back?

A74 Yes, it was on the road back that the accident happened.

Q75 Can you give any details of the accident?

A75 Only that the headlights of the car we were in were on.

Q76 You did not see anything parked in front of you?

A76 No, it was too foggy.

Q77 Did you feel a jolt as if you had hit something?

A77 I do not remember. I only heard a crash and lost unconsciousness.

Q77 Who was driving this vehicle?

A77 Private Grover.

Q78 Did any of you visit any "pubs"?

A78 No, none at all.

Q79 No evidence of drinking?

A79 None.

The defending officer states that to facilitate proceedings that the car was at a place near High Wycombe at the time of the accident; that Miss Rosina Bird and Miss Rose Reid were in the car and that the accused was the driver of that car.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary that RP 83B be complied with.

THIRD WITNESS:

Chief Constable George Henry Bradshaw of High Wycombe Borough Police having been duly sworn states:

At about 1130 PM Monday 25th October 1943, I was called to an accident which had occurred on the West Wycombe road High Wycombe. On my arrival on the scene I saw a [illegible] vehicle standing against the curb on the north side of the road. It was damaged on the rear off side. I also saw a Ford V8 motor car #CM195425 standing on the grass verge on the North side of the road. This car was extensively damaged at the front and on the near side. No one was in charge of it. I ascertained that the driver had been taken to hospital. Later that night I saw Pte E Grover, Pte Hayes J G and Rosina Bird and Rose Reid at the ambulance Station at High Wycombe. They made to me a statement. That is my evidence.

Q80 What time was it that you investigated this accident first?

A81 1130 PM.

Q82 Can you tell me approximately how far the place the accident occurred is from here?

A82 About 60 miles.

Q83 Have you any comment to make on road vehicle regulations with regard to lights on vehicles?

A83 No.

Q84 You say that when you arrived at the scene of the accident there were no people in site?

A84 The driver of the lorry was present.

Q85 Private Grover, Private Hayes and the 2 girls were not there?

A85 Not when I arrived.

Q86 Where did they make this statement to you.

A86 At the ambulance station.

Q87 How many people made a statement to you?

A87 I had nothing in writing. Three people - Pte Hayes and the 2 girls.

Q88 Was Pte Grover there?

A88 No.

Q89 When did you leave the vehicle?

A89 1150 PM or 1155 PM.

Q90 Did you return there again?

A90 I did not return.

Q91 Did anyone?

A91 Yes, our van driver with some red lamps to place by the lorry which had no lights on.

Q92 Did you see the military vehicle again?

A92 No.

Q93 You knew nothing as to what happened to it after the accident?

A93 No

Q94 Can you give us a little more detail as to the damage you saw to the vehicle?

A94 The front side of the radiator was pushed in, the dash was pushed right back to the driving seat. The near side was partly torn away. The front near part of the radiator, almost all of the radiator was pushed in, that is on the left side.

Q95 Was there any damage to the vehicle other than the left front of radiator?

A95 Yes, to the near side of the vehicle. It was torn along left hand side or near side.

Q96 You say it was torn.

A96 Yes, torn or pushed in.

Q97 Anything else?

A97 No.

Q98 That, then is all the damage you could see.

A98 Yes.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

Q99 Do you remember giving evidence here approximately two weeks ago?

A99 Yes.

Q100 Did you at that time say the left front radiator and the left front side of the vehicle was badly damaged?

A100 I was not asked that.

Q101 Do you recall at the last trial you stated that at the time of your arrival and time of your departure from the scene of the accident the headlights of this WD vehicle were burning?

A101 I did not say that. I said that to the best of my knowledge the side light was burning on the car when I arrived.

Q102 Was it not the case that the WD vehicle was backed onto the verge of the road so that the lights were thrown on the rear of the lorry.

A102 Yes.

Q103 Do you know the position of the left hand or off side headlight or headlamp on that car?

A103 No.

Q104 You think that to the best of your knowledge it was burning.

A104 No. I said the side light. The headlight is an entirely different thing.

Q105 You say that it was a side light. What do you mean by a side light?

A105 One of the little lamps on the side of the wing.

Q106 It was still burning?

A106 Yes, and throwing a light towards the road.

Q107 Are those lights strong enough to throw a light sufficient distance and of sufficient light to give evidence of an obstruction on the road.

A107 No.

Q108 But, in fact, they were warning traffice of that civilian lorry

A108 The light would not be strong enough for that purpose.

Q109 You think that light was intact and burning in spite of the fact that the left front part of the vehicle and the left or off side was badly damaged.

A109 I said the left or near side.

Q110 That little light remained burning?

A110 Yes.

Q111 Are you positive that the time was 1130 PM that night you were there?

A111 Yes, within 5 minutes. I said approximately 1130 hrs. If I may add this is approximately 3 miles I had to go.

Q112 What, can you tell the court, is the width of the pavement where the accident occurred.

A112 About 30 feet wide.

Q113 And I understand and have been told that there is a centre line

A114 Yes, there is a white line in the middle of the road.

Q115 What was the position of the rear side of the lorry with respect to that white line?

A115 The lorry was close against the kerb and the lorry was about 7 feet wide. The road is about 30 feet wide at that spot. That would leave about 23 feet clear road for other traffic.

Q116 The owner of the lorry was there at the time?

A116 No, the driver.

Q117 There were no lights exhibited on the lorry?

A117 No.

Q118 No warning lights of the presence of the lorry on the highway?

A118 No.

Q119 No lights until your van sent lamps back?

A119 No.

Q120 During your presence there and at the time of your departure was there any indication of fire.

A120 No.

Q121 Do you remember the last trial of Pte Grover when you attended?

A121 Yes.

I draw to your attention when you were questioned about the lights and your evidence; in chief is the statement - "one front light was burning". "I think the off front side light on the army car was burning on that night when I arrived."

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary that RP 83B be complied with.

FOURTH WITNESS:

Lieut Colonel McArthur, G.C. RCASC, having been duly sworn states:

Q122 Do you recognize the accused?

A122 Yes

Q123 Was the accused your own personal driver?

A123 Yes, he was.

Q124 For how long a period?

A124 He started back for me around January or February 1943.

Q125 He was your driver until recently?

A125 Yes, I am not sure of the dates.

Q126 Is Ford Sedan Serial CM195425 your own personal vehicle?

A126 Yes, when I came to this unit.

Q127 Where is that vehicle kept?

A127 It is kept in a garage beside my quarters, at Oudenard House.

Q128 Did you have the keys or key to this vehicle?

A128 I had a key to the vehicle and key to the lock on door and so did the accused.

Q129 There were two sets of keys

A129 Yes.

Q130 I have a tpt work ticket #12. It is the work ticket for vehicle CM195425. Do you recognize that work ticket?

A130 Yes, I recognize that work ticket.

Q131 That is the work ticket used to show type of work your own vehicle was doing?

A131 Yes, that is what it is for.

Q132 The record of work that this vehicle performed begins on the 17th of October 1943 and continues 17, 18, 20, 21, 22 23 and 25th October. According to this on 25th October last this vehicle CM195425 went to #17 General and Neurological and purpose was an inspection trip?

A132 That is correct.

Q133 On her is written the word inspection. Can you clear that up?

A133 All vehicles on WE of Cdn Hospitals are allotted from this unit. I make periodic inspections.

Q134 According to this you left on 25th October to make an inspection trip to 17 General and Neurological?

A134 Yes.

Q135 What time did you leave on that day?

A135 This was an afternoon run and we were back here about 4 PM.

Q136 Could it have been after 5 PM.

A136 No, it was between 4 and 5 PM.

Q137 Was the vehicle put away?

A137 Yes, it was put away in the garage.

Q138 Is there any other person in this unit or any other unit who has authority to issue a work ticket for the use of that vehicle other than yourself?

A138 None.

Q139 Did you give any authority, written or verbal, for the use of this vehicle after that vehicle was put away in the garage in the late afternoon of October 25th.

A139 I did not.

Q140 Is this the only evidence that the driver of your vehicle would have that he asked?

A140 That is all he would have

BY THE COURT Work ticket offered as evidence received as evidence marked exhibit "A".

CROSS EXAMINATION:

Q141 What was the practice in filling out your trips. Did you do that or did the driver, or both?

A141 The driver would do it and some times I did it. On 25th October that is my hand writing.

Q141a In the nature of your duties you are required to go from place to place. When is that work ticket completed, at the end of the day or end of each journey? When is it signed by you?

A141a I sign that ticket before the car goes out of the gate. The driver has certain duties - he signs time of arrival back and amount of petrol he draws. I sign this ticket when I get in the car to go away.

Q142 Let us say that you went to 12 and 10 General and had occasion to make another call on the way home?

A142 There would be another entry put on there.

Q143 If this car is used with your authority by one of your officers or by yourself, which you are entitled to do for recreational purposes, the same thing applies?

A143 The officers name goes on.

The recreational work tickets are kept under lock and key and signed by me and me only.

BY THE COURT:

Q144 Did you, either by work ticket or otherwise, authorize the accused to use that car CM195425 on the night of October 25th/26th.

A144 I have never allowed my driver to use my car at any time expept when I was in the car or authorized him to take any other officer on a trip. No.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary that RP 83B be complied with

FIFTH WITNESS: Lieut J H Cornell, RCASC, O IC W/S, 1 Cdn Administrative Spt Coy, RCASC, having been duly sworn states:

Q145 I have here an estimate of cost of parts and labour to repair Ford Sedan CM195425. Could you tell me if that is the one you drew up and is it correct?

A145 Yes, it is correct.

Q146 Signed by you and certified by Major T Elland Beech, DADOS CRU.

A146 Yes.

Q147 When did you first see this vehicle after it had been damaged?

A147 The next afternoon.

Q148 Was it able to move under its own power?

A148 It was brought in on a breakdown.

Q149 What was done with it?

A149 It was parked between two buildings out of the way and left there.

Q150 When was this?

A150 8th of November.

Q151 It is divided into two portions. First of all cost of parts and cost of labour. Parts total cost £151/7/-, labour 10/10/-. Total cost £161/17/-. Is that correct?

A151 Yes.

Q152 Is the vehicle now repaired and being used again?

A152 I could not say as it was evacuated to 4 Sub Depot, Bordon Q153 Was there any damage caused to this vehicle by fire?

A153 Yes, the complete body was demolished by fire, and the steering wheel, instruments and door glass and things of that nature.

Q154 Can you account for any of this damage which was caused by fire?

A154 I cannot say.

BY THE COURT: Paper writing being estimate of cost of parts and labour to Ford Sedan CM195425, damaged by fire made by Major J H Cornell received as evidence and marked exhibit 'B'.

Estimate of damage to said vehicle before fire made by J H Cornell, Major, amounting to £36/16/- offered and received as evidence and marked exhibit 'C'.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

Q155 How long after the 25th October was it before you saw the car?

A155 I saw the car on the morning of the 26th October.

Q156 On its arrival here did you examine it immediately?

A156 Yes.

Q157 Was the damage as set forth in exhibit "B", totalling, including labour, £161/17/-, the result of an accident entirely.

A157 I cannot say.

Q158 I suggest to you there are two phases. There are immediate physical damages resulting from a collision and ~~s~~their is a second portion resulting from fire. Can you tell the court what, in your estimation, were the immediate physical damages by reason of collision. In your opinion Major Cornell the difference between these two amounts, roughly £125/-/- represents damage done by fire in the vehicle?

A158 Yes.

Q159 I believe that it is not possible to say whether that fire resulted in consequence of the accident or from unknown sources?

A159 I could give a technical theory, that is all.

Q160 What type of battery was in this car?

A160 6 volt battery.

Q161 Did it bear any fender side lights.

A161 No.

Q162 It is equipped with the normal WD headlamps?

A162 Yes.

Q163 Supposing we took a new 6 volt battery, assuming that the headlights and the tail light are left burning, approximately how long would they burn before the battery would go ~~xxx~~ dead?

A163 Approximately 10 hours.

Q164 You mentioned that the only thing you can do is give theory. You are going to say that a short resulted on account of the collision of the body of the vehicle which in time would cause combustion or would cause a fire and the results indicated. Following upon that is it correct to say that when the battery is dead there is no circuit whatsoever?

A165 There would be no circuit.

PROSECUTION:

Q166 Speaking of this short that defence has been speaking of, is there anything inflammable that a short might catch on fire in a vehicle of that kind?

A166 Not at the particular spot where I think it started.

BY THE COURT:

Q167 Did you test the battery when you got the car back here?

A167 Yes, the battery was dead and the car was damaged by fire.

The case for the prosecution is closed.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary that RP 83B be complied with.

SUMMARY BY PROSECUTION:

The facts of the case are clear. We have proved that accused had the vehicle in question improperly and without authority. We have also proved that he was driving the car at the time of the accident and have proved that damages resulted to the vehicle as a result of that unauthorized driving. The amount is hard to assess and must rest upon the court to assess the damages. I feel that we have proven everything that is necessary to establish the charge.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary that RP 83B be complied with.

SUMMARY BY DEFENCE:

Sir, I again wish to reiterate the object already noted to the charge as being in conflict with the order of the GOC CRU, and that consequently the question of damages should not now be dealt with. Therefore, the question before the court is the one of whether or not the accused was on the night of October 25th, 1943, in authorized possession of a vehicle.

The only evidence on that point is that of Lieut Colonel McArthur, CO of the unit concerned. Admitted, Private Grover kept the vehicle in the garage at Oudenard House and had a set of keys to it. Has it been shown to the satisfaction of the court that the system of the work ticket in respect of that car is correct.

Colonel McArthur has stated that the ticket is often filled in by the driver except for a signature authorizing the journey. Examination of this work ticket I submit will show that in each case that work ticket shows the journeys are not filled in at the same time, and are done possibly at a later time.

It is obvious here by the ink, that they are done at least with different pens and different ink which I submit at different times and the different times and the definite times at the conclusion of the day when he knows what journeys he has to do. I submit that the nature of the duties are such that he does not know just where he is to go but he has himself stated that a new entry is not made for each and every individual trip.

Now, I have before us this work ticket from the 17 to 25 October on which there are 7 entries. Of these 7 entries the only entry made by Colonel McArthur is that on the 25th of the month: the day in question.

He did not in answer to the question put to him in the examination in chief state that authority had not been given. On the other hand, however, to the question put by you, sir, he stated that no authority had been given by him or by anyone on his behalf. To what extent can that be interpretted. He has stated in his evidence of cross examination that it is usual to enter recreational transport on this work ticket although it is endorsed across the left hand - COs duties. This is a question entirely for the court to decide.

Now, in respect of the question of damages. I submit firstly, sir, that the damages, other than those totalling some 36/-/-, are the only damages proven here to-day as resulting from the direct physical contact. There is no evidence before the court as to how, when, nor why the damage by fire was caused. On the contrary, there is the evidence of the prosecution witnesses to the effect that at 2330 hrs on the night of 25th October 1943, after the accused had been removed from hospital and after the vehicle was out of his control, there was no indication of fire. However, on its return to this unit the next day, it has been badly damaged by fire and I submit, that to succeed, the prosecution must not only prove the damages, but directly connect them as a result of the accident.

With regard to the point concerning the wrongful use and the responsibility for any damages arising during that period. The original foot note 4 on page 546 of MML read as follows - "In order to put an officer under stoppages by way of penal deduction, under either para (2) or para (4) it is not sufficient to show merely that the loss etc was facilitated or made possible by his act or neglect. It is necessary to show that the loss was "occasioned by" in the sense of being the natural result of the conduct of the officer." However, there is an amendment and new note 4 reads as follows - "In the case, however, of the continuing wrongful act of improperly using War Department property, e.g., a motor vehicle, any loss or damage happening to such property during the continuance of such user may be held to be occasioned thereby". There is no evidence before this court this afternoon that there is any negligence on the part of the accused. On the contrary there is evidence of a great negligence on the part of the civilian lorry driver by prosecution witnesses; that accused was operating vehicle in a most cautious and careful manner. Consequently I submit that since these damages cannot be connected with the act the charge in respect therto should be dismissed.

In the alternative, I make another submission, sir. The damages of £36/-/- are directly attributable to the negligence of the civilian lorry driver and consequently there is a right in Crown in the Dominion of Canada in an action for damages for any damage which is suffered by reason of neglect and in addition, the accused himself by reason of such negligence suffered personal injuries and was in hospital for some considerable period of time. His right to an action against the civilian owner and driver will be subjugated and handled by the claims commission. The government also have a claim for the damages to this vehicle and also for hospital and medical attention until he was placed in a military institution.

By reason of that I submit, the question of these damages are not, therefore, the proper subject matter for charge of court martial.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary that RP 83B be complied with.

The court is closed to consider the findings.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary that RP 83B be complied with.

PLEA OF MITIGATION:

In respect of the matter of damages and in question of stoppages, I would draw the attention of the court to KR (Can) 539(a) which places the minimum stoppages at 90 days pay of rank. Further in rgard to damges or stoppages I am not going to labour the court by again reviewing the situation as I submitted to the court prior to its finding, but I would ask the court to bear that in mind.

With regard to the charge of taking and using I draw the courts attention to the conduct sheet of the accused which over a period of years, since 1939, I submit, is good. A former commanding officer, Major W A McArthur, gave certain character evidence on behalf of the accused at his last trial. Since Major Mc Arthur xxx is not able to be here to-day by reason of the fact that he has just recently returned from Canada, having attended a staff course there, and has been sent to points which make it impossible to make his attendance, I, therefore, propose to read the statement of Major McArthur as taken into the evidence by the president of the court at the last trial and I quote - "I have been in command of the accused from June 1941 until December 1942. He came and was detailed to drive the CO. His appearance and deportment were excellent. In 2 or 3 weeks I arranged that he become my driver and he drove steadily for me until December of 1942. It was at that time that I left the Supply Coy and I could not arrange to take him with me or I would have. His work was excellent, he kept his car in perfect condition, working after hours. He was always willing to help others in their work. The NCOs insisted he be made a L/Cpl which was done. Later he drove the Comd RCASC of the 1 Cdn Div. He was 17 years old when he enlisted and was left in Canada for a time on account of his age. He is excellent with his weapons, including machine gun, grenades and carbine, and was frequently chosen stick man from the guards. He served me faithfully and I have had no cause to complain of his conduct. I have already done what I could to get him transferred to me when he is released and I submit herewith a copy of my letter of application."

To that I would like to state that I succeeded Major McArthur in command of the then 1 Cdn Div Supply Coy, RCASC, in July 1942. The accused continued to serve in that unit and act as my driver and I can substantiate the remarks of Major McArthur. It was Major McArthur's wish to take him with him to London if at all possible, as he was then employed with the planning staff.

In the meantime, however, Colonel McArthur, the then CRASC of the Division wished to have Pte Grover as his driver and he went to him on the condition that if and when the opportunity arose, he could return or go to Major McArthur. This, the latter part of January or early February. It was not long after that that Colonel McArthur was posted to the command of this unit and brought the accused with him. He has served him from that day until now.

However, Pte Grover was not happy. He is young, has the training, is keen and anxious to be with the lads with whom he signed up, the late first Division. He thought he was happy and pretty well assured his going up to CRASC HQ as driver but finds himself at a base installation. He has made two applications for transfer hoping to get back with the 1st Division or into the field with some prospect of going into action.

The result is the situation which arises here to-day. In view of the facts which I have not presented to the court I would ask that the deepest consideration be given to his case and dealt with as leniently as possible.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary that RP 83B be complied with.

APPENDIX "A"

Mr. Charles Eades of 107 Morley Rd., Leyton, E.10 lorry driver for Messers H.Hilliard, Ltd., of Stonebridge Wharf Limehouse, states:-

Proceeding from Oxford towards West Wycombe on the night of 25th. October driving Austin lorry No. LMH627 at approximately ten forty five p.m. the wiring under the dash burned out and I had no lights. I pulled the lorry to the left side of the road about a quarter of a mile west of West Wycombe. I got out and stood behind the lorry with a lighted cigarette.

About twenty minutes after I stopped an Army car came along from the same direction I had come. I tried to signal with my cigarette which was the only means I had. The Army car tried to pull to the right but he was too late and he ran into the rear offside of my lorry. The car stopped immediately it struck and the occupants got out. The offside rear of my lorry was damaged, the rear wing was bent and torn, the cross member and runner of body were broken. The tarpaulin cover was torn.

I helped push the car back onto the verge. His lights were still on. A passing car stopped and took the occupants of the Army car away. They notified the police who came and gave me two lamps to use on the front and rear of the lorry. I stopped with it all night.

Miss Rose Read of 53 Hounslow Road, Whitton, laundress, states:-

Miss Rosina Bird and I met Pte. Hayes and Pte. Grover at Hounslow Station at about 7.30 p.m. on 25th Oct. 43. We decided to go to a show at first. We were on the way to the show in the car which the two boys had. I suppose it was an army car. I remember hearing the siren. We were going along and it was very foggy and we started talking about coming back. We decided to turn around and we were driving along when all of a sudden there was a bang. I thought at first a bomb had dropped. I was dazed and didn't remember anything until Pte. Grover pulled me from the car. I stood there and in about half an hour a car came along and took him to hospital. We had run into the back of a lorry. Then an American car came and took us to the First Aid Post in High Wycombe.

Rose Read

ADENTITY "C"

On 25th Oct 43 my friend Miss Rosa Read and I had planned to meet Pte. Hayes at Hounslow Tube Station at 7.30 p.m. When Pte. Hayes arrived we decided to go to a show. Pte. Hayes arrived in a car which was driven by Pte. Grover. We got into the car and drove to Oxford where we went to a show. We came out of the show about nine o'clock and started to drive home. Miss Read was in the front seat with Pte. Grover who was driving. I was sitting in the back seat behind the driver with Pte. Hayes. It was very foggy and Pte. Grover kept opening the car door to see out. We were driving along for awhile when all of a sudden there was a crash. We got out of the car and Pte. Grover seemed to be the worst injured. His left hand was bleeding. He got out of the car by himself and we all managed to get out. Another car coming along the road stopped and they decided to take Pte. Grover to hospital. There were no police or anyone else around so we three just waited until an American Army car came along and took us to a First Aid Station in High Wycombe, where we spent the night.

Summary of Evidence in the case of No. A-9337 Pte. Grover, A. E., No. 1 Cdn. Administrative Transport Company, R.C.A.S.C., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

M-61558 Pte. Hayes, J. G., No. 1 Cdn. Admn. Tpt. Coy, R.C.A.S.C., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

On the evening of 25 Oct 43 I had an appointment with Miss Rosina Ward who lives in Hounslow. During the day A-9337 Pte. A.E. Grover had asked me what I was doing that evening. I told him of my plans and he asked me if I would like to drive up with him in the car. I agreed and we left about 1845 hrs. We arrived at Hounslow Station at approximately 1945. Miss Ward was waiting for me and with her was a friend, Miss Rose Reed. We discussed what we should do and decided we should go to a show. We got into the car and started off for Oxford. During the trip it began to get foggy and the air raid siren sounded. We then decided that under these circumstances we should go back to Hounslow. We turned around and drove about trying to discover where we were. Owing to the dense fog, Pte. Grover had to drive with his head at the window and stop frequently to wipe the windshield. I do not remember hearing a crash. The first thing after the accident that I can remember, was my being helped out of the car. When I got out, I saw that we had run into the rear of a lorry which was stationary at the curb. I helped push the staff car in which we had been riding, No. CM-195425, back into the ~~the~~ grass verge off the road. It was in such a position that the lights, which we left on, shone on the parked lorry as a warning to other traffic. While we were waiting for someone to come along, Pte. Grover tried to persuade me to go back to the unit and offered me money for train fare. I refused to leave the scene of the accident. We stopped a civilian car and asked the driver to take Pte. Grover, who seemed to be injured, to a hospital. Shortly after, an American Army staff car took us to the First Aid Station in High Wycombe where we received first aid. We stayed there for the night as it was then about 0100 hrs 26 Oct 43. At 0600 hrs, I left on the first train and on arrival at the unit, I reported to Capt. Cherry The M.O. He sent me to No. 8 Cdn. General Hospital for an X-ray, after which I went to my unit Orderly Room and reported the circumstances

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

J. S. Hayes.

EXH.

The accused was cautioned as follows: "Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence, unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you may give, will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

The accused elects to give evidence on oath.

A-9337 Pte. Drover, A. E., No. 1 Cdn. Admn. Tpt. Coy, R.C.A.S.C, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

On the evening of 25 Oct 43, I took Ford sedan CM-195425 from its garage at the officers' mess of No. 1 Cdn. Admn. Tpt. Coy at approximately 1845 hrs. I had asked M-61558 Pte. Hayes, J. S. on the afternoon of the same day what he was doing that evening, and Pte. Hayes had told me his plans. I asked him if he would like to drive up to his appointment at Hounslow. Pte. Hayes agreed to this and we arrived at Hounslow Station, the meeting point, at approximately 1945 hrs. We met two young ladies, Miss Read and Miss Bird. We all discussed what we should do during the evening, and decided we should all go to a cinema [illegible].

Getting into the car, we started off in the direction of Oxford. I was driving along the road, when the air raid siren sounded at the outskirts of Hounslow. We all thought that we should return, so I turned the car around. Because the fog was so dense, I had to drive with my head out of the right hand window, and stop every so often to wipe off the wind shield and look at the sign Posts to discover where I was. I found that I was on the wrong road and lost.

The last sign Post stated that I was headed in the direction of High Wycombe, but on this particular road the fog was very thick. I turned on the fog lights which were reflected in the "Cats Eyes" on the road (these are designed to show up when your lights shine upon them) suddenly a lorry appeared in front of me. I attempted to turn hard to the right but my effort was not sufficient to miss the lorry which had no lights on. My vehicle collided with the right side of the lorry and immediately came to a halt. I remember that I said "Get out Jack (Pte Hayes) and open the door to get me out." I was pinned behind the wheel of the car, because it was bent to the right and wedged against my stomach. Pte Hayes had been thrown on the floor in the back of the car. Having got out of the car, I found that I had pains in the right side and centre of my stomach. I helped Pte Read out of the car, and then turned to ask the driver of the lorry why his lights were not turned on, and why he had not parked off the road on the left hand side. I bent down to try to turn the front wheels of the car, and then lost consciousness. I can remember nothing until I arrived at Amersham Emergency Hospital and operated on.

I was not happy in my unit, No. 1 Cdn. Adm. Tpt. Coy. I had submitted two transfer forms to the Orderly Room, requesting my return to my former unit, 3 Cdn Infantry Bde. Coy, R.C.A.S.C., 1st Cdn. Div., I had trained with the latter unit. However, nothing came of my papers, and I became "fed up". I went absent without leave and took the vehicle mentioned before. I should still like to transfer to my field unit after serving any sentence imposed on me by Court Martial.

P.C.2 Grover

I certify that the foregoing summary of Evidence consisting of five pages was taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused, and that Rules of Procedure 4 (c), (D), (E), (F), and (G) have been complied with.

1st Witness for Prosecution — No. 21 Sgt. Stott, D.C., of No. 1 Sig. Coy. being duly sworn, states.

On the night in question I returned to my room about mid-night & noted the code, Exhibit "C" was gone. It was there when I went out. I left Hilyer there when I went out. I left Hilyer there when I went out. I left Hilyer Exhibit "C" which is the statement the accused made to me after caution.

Cross-examined.

The deposits of the cafe identified the accused as one of the soldiers who had been in the cafe. The accused had said that he was to stay at the camp, but did not want to tell this story to Lieut. Smith. He admitted that he had given different stories in connection with the matter.

Mr. Evans re-examined.

C 304.6 Pte Mr. Cracken, R. 1 C.A. & C.R.A. having been duly sworn, states.

On Oct 15th in question I met the accused at the Queens Hotel. I then with Pte Hemingway we the accused selling a radio which I was told to sell. Later we left. I went to the garage and Sam and Hemingway went on. I got to see from the C.R.A garage and picked up Hemingway. Then we went to Rhodes house and Sam got into the car with a radio wrapped in a blanket. On then eventually sold it at Corbyn's Cafe at Thetford. We got £5 for it. I gave Sam £1-10-0 & Sam and Hemingway and myself each got £1-15-0. Sam was present at the Queens when we discussed getting the car.

Cross-examined.

I do not remember anything in pig-latin at the Queens but I did use it at Corbyn's Cafe. I asked Hemingway approval in pig-latin as to the price of the radio. I did not want Sam to understand. I never told Sam that we got only £5. Sam did not have anything to do with the transaction after he got into the car. Sam did not handle any radio that was at the Queens. We agreed to split the money 3 ways. Sam did donate a radio to me which was of little use.

Re-examination Witness did not explain as to his whereabouts of the money. Exhibit "B" is the radio.

5th Witness for Prosecution D26133 Pte Dunlop, W. H. of C.G.A.S.C.A.U. being duly sworn, states

On the night in question, the accused, Mc Cracken and I discussed selling a radio set to Queen Hotel. We decided to try and get the money that way. Evans wanted us to sell after the night. We left the Barracks and Mc Cracken went to get the car and Evans and I went to Chisholm House. They returned & myself went to Queen & waited looking for his radio. He did not and it was at that time. Then we went back to Chisholm House. Then I went to meet Mc Cracken. Mc Cracken & I came back to the house and Evans got in the car with the radio. We sold the radio at Cully's Cafe. My evidence was read to radio at Cully's Cafe. My evidence was

P/- 15-2. Etc

Cross-examination

Does not remember telling pay-station to Mc Cracken at the Queen Hotel. Evans only said he had a radio Does not remember anything about a coat. Does not remember seeing a coat in Evans room. Evans and I went to Queen room to look for a radio.

The Prosecution is closed.

The Defence makes a submission under R.P. 40(1) for the dismissal of the 2nd charge.

The submission is dismissed.

R.P. 40 (7)(8) complied with.

1st Witness for Defence

I assumed having been duly sworn, testified. On the night in question I met McCracken & Humphrey at the Crown Hotel. The arrangement was that I should get a certain MQ&T radio and that we should all go together. I did not see Exhibit "A" at all. McCracken and Humphrey after seeing pictures at the Crown. Late Humphrey and myself looked in the window at Crowns quarter for the MQ&T radio. We could not find it. Later that evening Humphrey suggested we take Roy's Crown radio. I moved out to the Crown where Col. Tolputt was with Exhibit "A" when he was to have pulled it out of the rack and handed it down. I reached to light up and Humphrey got Exhibit "A" down. The two both left the room. Late Humphrey left the building and I did not see him for some time after when he and McCracken drove up in the car. I got into the car and the radio Exhibit "A" was in the back seat. I recognized it as Col. Tolputt's. We went to Carbo Cafe and I got $1-10-0 and $5 the deal. They told me that they had got only £4 for the radio. I never said that I had any radios. There was talk about at the Crown we bring them to me and that how if I may remember. I did not know McCracken went to get the car. I do not know why I got into the car except that they were both in the party. I did not see Exhibit "A".

Cross-examination

I gave a different story at McCracken's enquiry because of what they said to me in the meeting. I do not remember discussing the price of the Cameras with anyone. I went to obtain a M.O.F. radio, not to obtain "X". I did not stop Channing buying from taking Exhibit "A". I did not stop Channing buying from taking Col Fletcher's radio because I am not empowered. Mc Cracken and Channing both asked me to jump into the car. I knew they were trying to sell the radio in the back of the car. I did not object. I took the many names I mentioned it. I did not object.

Re-examination I gave different stories to different people because Channing lied and Mc Cracken and Lieutenant were lying. I did not take the names for the radio. They told me if I did not take the names for the radio they would beat me up. I told Mr Cody that is what would happen. I did not want to assign criminal conspiracy. I did not want to assign criminal conspiracy — Lie and that I did not want to assign them. He said I asked to.

And Witness for Defence. D105586 Pte. Coyne, W.F. of O.C.R.C. being duly sworn, states.

On 8th June at about 2200 hrs I heard a scuffle going on in the floor above me. I think Col Fletcher's room.

3rd Witness for Defence Lt. J.S. Cody being duly sworn, states.

I took the testimony of Cruchon in the case of Mc Cracken. I remember the accused stating on that what he had said in the Mc Cracken and Channing case was not true and that he was afraid of being murdered by the other two if he had not lied. Later on we took Lie in camera. I had not lied. Later on we took Lie in camera. The accused was asked what he said was to be true. The accused was separated from the others and after we had taken the evidence

Prosecution's address

L-13418 US Brown B.P.

This is a case of two diametrically opposed stories. Brown in his evidence states that he saw Dannenberg in Gt Fletcher Road with the radio in question under his arm. The next time he saw the radio was in the car when McCracken and Dannenberg picked him up behind Blunden House. About the time of them went to Sunleys Café in Shaftesbury and the radio was sold for five pounds. Each one received £1-10-0 as his cut.

Dannenberg and McCracken state that Brown approached them at the Queens Hotel and stated he had a radio for sale. If it were sold that night each would get ⅓ of the proceeds. Then after discussing the question, the three left the Queens Hotel. McCracken departed to get a car. Dannenberg and Brown went to Queens Quarters to get the radio. It couldn't be found so the two returned to Brown's room. After a short interval, Dannenberg left to find McCracken. The two of them returned to Blunden House and Brown got into the car with the radio. Then the two stories tally. The three went to Sunleys Café at Shaftesbury and sold the radio. Each one obtained an equal share of the proceeds.

It appears to be a case of common intent. Brown states that the radio the three intended to take was not the particular radio in question but one belonging to N.A.A.F.I. and hidden at Queens Quarters. That doesn't make a particle of difference. The three of them decided to take a radio unlawfully, no matter which radio and as a consequence Gt Fletchers radio was stolen. If several persons combine together for an unlawful purpose, each is responsible for any offence committed by any one of them in furtherance of that purpose (Page 107 M.M.L.) Secondly, it is a rule of law where missing articles are private property and are found in the possession of another, there is a strong presumption that they were stolen especially if accused is discovered to have sold them. This is right on point. The onus now shifts from the prosecution to the defence to give this Court a reasonable explanation. I submit the defence has failed in this obligation and the accused is guilty of the first charge. All the evidence clears out this point - each receiving ⅓ of the proceeds of the sale, the sale taking place quite early that night, the radio being unemployed in a blanket etc.

In the alternative, if the Court deems that the prosecution has not satisfied the onus of proving intent (mens rea) then the Court is justified in finding the accused guilty on the second charge. I refer to page 73 M.M.L. The improper procedure rules there is no hardship if it is not an offence against the Comrade, but an offence against military rules, and may irrespective of any fraudulent intent be punishable under S 40. There is no question that the accused rode in possession of the radio at Shaftesbury and as to radio not legally entitled to [illegible] the first charge. I submit, therefore, if the Court [illegible]

Possession under S. 40

Now the third charge " improperly and without authority" was concerned in the taking and using of a Govt. Military Vehicle". The evidence clearly proves that Brewer knew McCracken had left to obtain a car. When the car did arrive, he did not hesitate, but upon being called went immediately into it and drove to Chatham. Both Dunenberg and McCracken testify that Brewer knew the car was being obtained. McCracken states he did take the car without authorization and as Brewer knew this he was an accomplice and guilty of the 3rd charge. I again refer to the doctrine of "Common intent" page 107 M.M.L.

K. Shankman Lieut
A.H.

Plea in Defence

R v. Grover. 13 Jul 43

1st charge - Stealing Radio - Dec 1943

the Court is confronted with two stories diametrically opposed - if it believes Mc Cracken & Dannyburg then Grover is guilty as charged and the second charge is dismissed. But if it believes Grover is telling the truth then he will be not guilty on this charge.

What corroboration is there for Grover's story?:

1. Mc + Dannyburg did go to Queens Pks to look for a radio in the coal bins

2. Dannyburg + Mc Cracken did talk in Prq latrine

3. Pte Payne did hear the thump of (~~the~~) a fall in Lt Col

I left his room about 1230 hrs on 8 June 43
4. Both Ute Fracken and Dannenberg did tell, at this time, the story that Grover had was arranged by intimidation in the Guardroom.

2nd charge – Conduct improper possession of radio (alternative)
Accused to not guilty as:
(a) If he did plead it, then the prosecution has proven no possession by Grover – all 3 agree to that.
(b) At 0130 hrs or night of 8-9
June the radio was at that time being used and Grover had nothing to do with it then.

3rd charge Conduct - taking and using W D vehicle.

Accused had no part in the taking of the vehicle - this was admittedly done by Mc Cracken. He admits riding in the vehicle and knew that Dunnigan signed the worksheet. It is submitted that he is not guilty of taking and using the vehicle.

II

Plea in Mitigation:

1. Accused has a clear conduct sheet.
2. He has been in custody since 33 days
3. Sgt Collin admitted not taking his statement as he did not think he was involved on 9 June 43.

4. Had it not been for Green the rods would not have been removed as there was no evidence against him.

5. He assisted the police in finding the rods and gave an early statement on 9 June 43.

6. It appears that the accused is easily led and that Dunnington and the Crichton were really the "brains" behind this offence.

Date 10 June 1943 Time commenced 11-45 a.m.

I am a private soldier of the 1st CASCRU stationed at Blenheim Barracks. I am employed as a batman to Major Turner of my unit and live in the servants quarters of Blenheim Barracks. At about 8-20 pm on the 8th inst I left my quarters in company with L/Cpl Poff, and we both went to the Queen's Hotel. We remained there drinking until about 9-30 pm, when we were joined by Daningburg and McCracken. We all had a drink together and we all left the Queen's Hotel at closing time. On the way to Blenheim Officers Mess McCracken left us. In company with Daningburg, we went to my quarters. That would be at about 10-20 pm. I left Daningburg in my room whilst I went to attend to the blackout. On my return to my room Daningburg had left. I was then joined by L/Cpl Poff, who had with him two bottles of beer. We drank one bottle of beer, and then we both left the room and went downstairs. That would be at about 10-45 pm. Poff then left me and went to the mess kitchen. I was then joined by the batman on duty named Sam. Together we left the quarters and went in the direction of Queens Quarters. Later I returned to the mess and went in to the mess kitchen. About 10 minutes later a car driven by a Canadian soldier now known to me as McCracken drove up to the back of the mess at Blenheim Barracks. At that time I was standing by the mess kitchen window. Daningburg who was sat in the front of the car with McCracken called out to me and said "Jump in", which I did and I sat in the back of the car by myself. On the seat at the back of the car was a radio set covered over with an Army blanket. I recognized the set as the one I have seen in my room, and knew it to be the property of Col Fletcher. I made no comment to either Daningburg or McCracken about the Colonel's wireless being in the car. McCracken then drove away, and we went in the direction of Reading. Passing Reading we went to Jacks Cafe at Sonning. Arriving there we all got out of the car and went into the cafe, leaving the radio in the car. McCracken left Daningburg and myself, and he went up to the counter and spoke to the waiter. After a few moments he rejoined us, and Daningburg and McCracken got up and left me sitting at the table. McCracken then went out to see the proprietor of the cafe, by himself. He was gone about 5 minutes. He then returned to the cafe and asked several of the people in the cafe if they would like to buy a radio set. McCracken then said "Come on we will go to another cafe about 8 miles up the road. We then left the cafe and McCracken drove the car in the direction of Reading, and took the Newbury Road. When we arrived at a place called Theale we stopped and asked a policeman who was pushing a bike, where there was an all night cafe open. He directed us to Macs cafe at Thatcham. We went to this cafe and on arrival there we all got out of the car and went into the cafe. McCracken spoke to a man at the counter. I did not hear what he said. Daningburg and myself stood by the fruit machine. McCracken and a lorry driver went out of the cafe leaving Daningburg and myself inside the cafe. Daningburg and myself went up to the counter and bought three cups of tea, and we then returned to the table. McCracken then left the cafe again with the lorry driver. We then heard music from a wireless set outside in the storeroom of the cafe. Daningburg then left me in the cafe alone, he going outside. Later both Daningburg and McCracken rejoined me at the table. McCracken said to the lorry driver "Don't worry it's not hot". Daningburg then went up to the counter and bought 3 cups of tea which he paid for with a pound note. We all left the cafe and Daningburg drove back to Farnborough. McCracken was sitting beside him on the front seat, and I sat at the back. I went to sleep and was awakened by them when we got back to the mess, at about 3-30 am. I did not receive any part of the proceeds of the sale of the wireless set, but I saw McCracken give a pound note to Daningburg as we sat at the table.

This statement has been read by me and is correct. I have been allowed to make any corrections I wish.

The accused was cautioned as follows: Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on Oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence, unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

The accused makes the following statement on Oath.

"On the evening of 8 Jun 43, at approximately 2000 hours, I went to the Queen's Hotel with L/Cpl. Poff where we sat down by the window s and had a few drinks. About 2130 hours Daningburg came over to me and asked me if I had any money and I told him No. He talked to me for a while. He asked me if Brown was in. Brown is Col. Fletcher's batman and I told him No, Then he went back to his table. I got up to get some more beer for me and L/Cpl. Poff and Daningburg called me over to his table and asked me to buy him a beer. I bought them a beer. After buying them the beer, I went back to L/Cpl. Poff and told him to drink up and I would try and get two more, as the bells had rung. I went back to Daningburg and McCracken's table and they asked me if I had anything to sell. I told them that Sam, Capt. Ryerson's batman, was supposed to have a radio to sell and that it was hidden in a coal bin in Queen's Quarters. Daningburg said "Lets go over and get it."

We then left the Queen's and started towards Blenheim House. McCracken left us here to go and get his car. Daningburg, Poff and I, stopped at Blenheim House to get some beer. Poff went to get the beer. Daningburg and I went to Queen's Quarters to look for the radio in the coal bins. We couldn't find the radio, so we returned to Blenheim House and went upstairs to my room. I left him in the room and went to put the black-outs up in Maj. Turner's room. Daningburg came in to Maj. Turner's room and said "Lets take this radio". I told him not to take the radio, so he stepped out the door and I finished putting the blackouts up. Daningburg was in Col. Fletcher's room. The door was open and I looked in and saw him over by the radio. He tore the wires on the radio loose. A light fell off the wall, and I walked in and picked it up and put it on the table. Daningburg went out and I came out behind him, closing the door. The radio was still in the room. We went back to my room, L/Cpl. Poff came in just after we got back. He had some beer with him. Daningburg went out. I drank a bottle of beer with L/Cpl. Poff. L/Cpl Poff and I went out together. He left me to go to the mess. I stayed talking to the cooks and Sam, the duty batman. After talking for a little while, McCracken's car came up behind Blenheim House, with Daningburg sitting in it. They opened the door and said "jump in". I got in the back and McCracken drove off. After leaving the yard, McCracken said, what will we do about the ticket, and Daningburg asked if he wanted him to sign it, which he did.

I lifted up the blanket on the back seat and saw a radio, which I recognized as Col. Fletcher's. This is the radio I see before me (Exhibit No. 3).

We stopped at a place in Sonning known as Jack's Cafe. McCracken went in and came out and then we all went in and had something to eat. McCracken tried to sell the radio here and couldn't. We went to a place which I now know as Curley's Cafe at Thatcham. I played the slot machine and McCracken went out with somebody and I later on came back in to talk to Daningburg. The fellow who was with him went up to the counter. McCracken and this chap went out again and I heard the radio playing.

McCracken came in and told Daningburg, I got rid of it alright for £4. We split the money three ways and after having some more tea, we then came home. I received £1-10-0.

The radio was discussed on the way to Blenheim House by the three of us, regarding the price and sharing of same."

I am a private soldier of the RCASC stationed at Bremerhaven Area. After 7am employed as a batman to Major Turner and him at the sergeants qtr. at the mess. At about 2020 hrs on 8th June 43 I left my quarters in company of L/Cpl Poff and we left next to the Queens Hotel: we remained there drinking until about 2130 hrs when we were joined by Hannigan and Mr. Bracken: we had a drink.

Sgt Cpl CMP

together and we all left the Queens Hotel together at closing time: that would be about 3200 hrs. We carried on with drinking in various pubs. I left Hannigan in my room whilst I went to attend to the lockout. On my return to the room Hannigan had left. I was then joined by L/Cpl Poff who had with him two bottles of Vin. I paid for the two bottles. We drank our bottle and then we left the room and went downstairs at about 3245 hrs. Poff then left me and went into the mess kitchen: I was then joined by the Latimer on duty named Sam. Together we left the mess and went in the direction of Queens Quarters later I returned to the mess and went into the mess kitchen. About 10 minutes later a car was driven up by a Canadian soldier now known to me to be Mr Bracken to the back of the Officers Mess, Aberdeen Pier. At that time I was standing outside the Mess Kitchen window. Manageress who was sat in the front of the car with Mr Bracken called out to me and said "Jump in" which I did and I sat on the seat at the back of the car by myself. On the seat at the side of the car was a radio set covered over with an Army blanket. I lifted the blanket and recognised the set as the one I had seen in my room and which I knew to be the property of Sgt. Fletcher. I made no comment to either Mr Bracken or Mr Bracken about the set unless seeing it in the car. Mr Bracken then drove away and we went in the direction of Peterhead. Passing Reading - we went on to "Jacks Cafe" at Sonning: we all got out of the car and went into the cafe leaving the wireless in the car. Mr Bracken left Brandy and myself and he went up to the counter and spoke to the waiter: after a few moments he rejoined us and Brandy leaving Mr Bracken walked away leaving us sitting at the table. Mr Bracken left the cafe to see the owner of the cafe: he was gone about 5 minutes. When he returned to the cafe and asked several people in the cafe if they wanted to buy a radio: getting no reply Mr Bracken said "Come on, we will go to another cafe about 8 miles up the road: we all left the cafe in the car and went in the direction of Reading and picked up the Newbury Road. Arriving at a place called Theale we stopped a policeman who was pushing a bike and asked him where there was an all night cafe open: he directed us to Mac's Cafe at Calcham: we went to this cafe: we all got out of the car and went outside: McCracken went up and spoke to a man by the counter. I did not hear what McCracken said. Manningham and myself stood by the fruit machine inside the cafe: McCracken and a lorry driver then went out of the cafe leaving Manningham & myself inside the cafe. McCracken then returned to Manningham and myself went up to the counter, bought 3 cups of tea and returned to the table where Manningham and McCracken were sitting. McCracken again left the cafe with the lorry driver

We heard music from a wireless set outside in a storeroom of the café. Dawnglung then left us alone in the café and went outside. Both they left returned + rejoined us at the table. Mebroeken said to the lorry driver "Don't worry, it not hot". Mebroeken then sat at the table and handed Dawnglung a 5 note and Dawnglung went to the counter and brought 3 cups of tea with it and returned to the table. We then all left the café, Dawnglung driving back. Mebroeken was sitting beside him on the front seat. I was on the back seat. I must to sleep and was awaken'd by them when we got back to the officers mess at about 0330hrs. I did not receive any part of the proceeds of the radio sale. The radio or thereabout was definately not in the back of the car when we

4th Witness for the Prosecution

C-30616, Pte. McCracken, K., R.C.A.S.C. on strength of 1 Cdn. ASC Mft. Unit and attached for all purposes to Hdqts. Can. Mft. Units, having been duly sworn states:-

"On the evening of 8 Jun 43, accompanied by Pte. Daningburg, I entered the Lounge Bar in the Queens' Hotel between 2030 hrs. and 2100 hrs. We sat down and had a few drinks, Daningburg saw the accused, whom I now recognize, at another table and went over to speak to him. Daningburg returned to our table and asked me if I would like to make a few pounds. I said "Yes" "How do I have to do it?" He then told me Grover had a radio he would like to sell. Grover came to our table and I then spoke to him about the radio asking him what kind of radio it was and how much he expected to get. Grover told me that he paid £15 for the radio and said that the radio was a table model set and that he would be satisfied with whatever price Daningburg thought was right. And if it was sold the same night the money would be split three ways. I agreed to get a car and help sell the radio for this share.

We left the Queen's Hotel at closing time accompanied by L/Col. Poff, who joined us at this time, and proceeded about 60 yards along Duke of Connaught Rd, where I left to go to the garage at R.A.S.C.

I took the car assigned to me and Daningburg came to meet me and I drove from the garage to the back of Blenheim House. Daningburg was sitting beside me.

When I came to Blenheim House, I saw Pte. Grover standing near the window with something wrapped in a blanket. I stopped and he got in the back with the parcel, which I later knew to be the radio. I drove from there to Canning, where we all went into the cafe. I asked the proprietor, Jack, and was told that he had gone to bed. One of the men in the cafe showed me where he lived and I called him, asking if he would care to buy the radio. Jack said it was too late and he didn't care to trouble. I returned to the cafe where I attempted to sell the radio to anyone interested I was told that I could probably sell the radio at "Carley's Cafe" at Thatcham. We started for Thatcham and stopped along the way to ask the policemen if he knew where Carley's Cafe was. He directed me there.

On arrival we all went in. I approached a truck driver, and asked him if he cared to buy a radio. He said he would have a look at it and we went out to the car. He took the radio to the store room and I returned to the cafe. Later I joined him again outside, and he asked my price. I told him £9. He asked me to come into the back when the radio was being tested and where I met another lorry driver, whom I now know as Atkinson. After talking for a while he made me an offer of £5. We went outside where I asked Deningburg if the offer was O.K. and he said yes, and I then accepted the offer.

We returned to the cafe. I gave Deningburg £1 and he went to the counter to buy three cups of tea. When he came back, we decided to flip coins, odd man taking the short end, and Grover lost. I then gave Deningburg 15/0 and Grover £1-10-0 and I kept £1-10-0 for myself. We then went out to the car, and started back to Camp, and arriving there I let Grover out on Lynchford Rd. near Blenheim House."

Grover, who had a radio for sale. We talked about the radio, Pte. McCracken and myself were to receive 1/3 of the amount received, each. We were led to believe that the radio was the personal property of Pte. Grover.

At closing time of the Queen's Hotel we all left. McCracken headed for C.R.C. Garage for his car and Pte. Grover and myself, along with a third party, L/Cpl. Roff, went to Blenheim House. L/Cpl. Roff went to get some beer. Grover and I went to Grover's room. The L/Cpl. returned with the beer and I opened one bottle, while Grover looked for some glasses. I did not drink any of the beer, but left to see what was keeping McCracken. I met McCracken at R.C., C.R.C. Garage and waited for a few minutes for him to bring his car, out. We returned to Blenheim House, McCracken driving where we saw Pte. Grover standing in the rear. He got in the car with what he said was a radio wrapped in an Army blanket. APPENDIX "A" Statement of Louis Arthur Crew Goodall re Pte. McCracken.

"I am a heavy goods transport caterer, and the proprietor of the Corner House Cafe, Thatcham, Berks.

At approximately 1-45 a.m. on Wednesday 9th June 1943 my cafe was entered by three Canadian soldiers who called for three cups of tea. I served them and they all sat down at one of the tables and drank them. The tall fair one spoke to some of the lorry drivers who were in the Cafe. One of the boys employed on the lorries came up to the counter and asked me if I wanted to buy a wireless set, as one of the Canadian soldiers had one to sell. I replied "Definitely No as I already had two sets". The soldier then went out of the cafe with the boy and a lorry driver named Atkinson who works for a firm named Pye (Counties) Limited of Bermondsey, London. The fair soldier and Atkinson then went into my scullery with my permission to try the set. After they had tried the set by plugging in to the wall connection they went out and Atkinson came back into the cafe with the set under his arm. He said to me "Will you look after this wireless set for me until I come back tonight?" I took the set from him and placed it in my store room by the side of my own set where I went and got it from, and handed it over to the Police. I don't know how much Atkinson paid for the set. At 10-30 p.m. on the 10th instant I attended an identification parade at Blenheim Barracks Farnborough where I picked out Daningburg as one of the three men who entered my cafe when the wireless set was sold".

APPENDIX "B"

Statement of Frederick James Atkinson re Pte. McCracken.

"I have been cautioned and make the following statement quite voluntarily. I am a lorry driver employed by Messrs. Pye Ltd., of Cranham Road, Bermondsey. On the night of the 8th instant, I was driving a lorry from London to Bristol. At about 1.30 a.m. on the 9th instant, I stopped at "Curley's Cafe", Thatcham. Whilst I was in the cafe having my supper, three Canadian soldiers came in. They spoke to another lorry driver and he went outside with them. The driver came in and told me that they had a wireless set for sale, the set was brought into the cafe and was tried out and it worked alright. Three of us wanted to buy it. The soldiers were asking £9 for it. We decided that that was too much for it and I offered them £5 and they decided to let me have it for that amount. I then paid £5 to a tall thin fellow with a dark moustache. I had no receipt for the money. I asked Mr. Goodall if I could leave the set there until the evening of the 9th as I did not want to take it to Bristol and then bring it back again in case it got damaged. Mr. Goodall took charge of the set. The soldiers also had some rugs or blankets for sale but I was not interested in them. I did not think that it was Government property or otherwise I would not have bought it."

Date 10 June 1943 Time commenced 11-45 a.m.

I am a private soldier of the 1st CASCRU stationed at Blenheim Barracks. I am employed as a batman to Major Turner of my unit and live in the servants quarters of Blenheim Barracks. At about 8-20 pm on the 8th inst I left my quarters in company with L/Cpl Poff, and we both went to the Queen's Hotel. We remained there drinking until about 9-30 pm, when we were joined by Daningburg and McCracken. We all had a drink together and we all left the Queen's Hotel at closing time. On the way to Blenheim Officers Mess McCracken left us. In company with Daningburg, we went to my quarters. That would be at about 10-20 pm. I left Daningburg in my room whilst I went to attend to the blackout. On my return to my room Daningburg had left. I was then joined by L/Cpl Poff, who had with him two bottles of beer. We drank one bottle of beer, and then we both left the room and went downstairs. That would be at about 10-45 pm. Poff then left me and went to the mess kitchen. I was then joined by the batman on duty named Sam. Together we left the quarters and went in the direction of Queens Quarters. Later I returned to the mess and went in to the mess kitchen. About 10 minutes later a car driven by a Canadian soldier now known to me as McCracken drove up to the back of the mess at Blenheim Barracks. At that time I was standing by the mess kitchen window. Daningburg who was sat in the front of the car with McCracken called out to me and said "Jump in", which I did and I sat in the back of the car by myself. On the seat at the back of the car was a radio set covered over with an Army blanket. I recognized the set as the one I have seen in my room, and knew it to be the property of Col Fletcher. I made no comment to either Daningburg or McCracken about the Colonel's wireless being in the car. McCracken then drove away, and we went in the direction of Reading. Passing Reading we went to Jacks Cafe at Somming. Arriving there we all got out of the car and went into the cafe, leaving the radio in the car. McCracken left Daningburg and myself, and he went up to the counter and spoke to the waiter. After a few moments he rejoined us, and Daningburg and McCracken got up and left me sitting at the table. McCracken then went out to see the proprietor of the cafe, by himself. He was gone about 5 minutes. He then returned to the cafe and asked several of the people in the cafe if they would like to buy a radio set. McCracken then said "Come on we will go to another cafe about 6 miles up the road. We then left the cafe and McCracken drove the car in the direction of Reading, and took the Newbury Road. When we arrived at a place called Theale we stopped and asked a policeman who was pushing a bike, where there was an all night cafe open. He directed us to Mess cafe at Thatcham. We went to this cafe and on arrival there

we all got out of the car and went into the cafe. McCracken spoke to a man at the counter. I did not hear what he said. Daningburg and myself stood by the fruit machine. McCracken and a lorry driver went out of the cafe leaving Daningburg and myself inside the cafe. Daningburg and myself went up to the counter and bought three cups of tea, and we then returned to the table. McCracken then left the cafe again with the lorry driver. We then heard music from a wireless set outside in the storeroom of the cafe. Daningburg then left me in the cafe alone, he going outside. Later both Daningburg and McCracken rejoined me at the table. McCracken said to the lorry driver "Don't worry it's not hot". Daningburg then went up to the counter and bought 3 cups of tea which he paid for with a pound note. We all left the cafe and Daningburg drove back to Farnborough. McCracken was sitting beside him on the front seat, and I sat at the back. I went to sleep and was awakened by them when we got back to the mess, at about 3-30 am. I did not receive any part of the proceeds of the sale of the wireless set, but I saw McCracken give a pound note to Daningburg as we sat at the table.

This statement has been read by me and is correct. I have been allowed to make any corrections I wish.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination, and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

- The prosecution submits a declaration of a Court of Inquiry to establish the date of commencement of AWL of accused.
- The defense objects to the admissability of the afm document on the grounds that it is not complete and not a proper one in the particulars specified are not included and in view of the fact that the admissability of this document is permitted by statute it must be complete and strictly adhered to to be admissable
- The prosecution replies that misspelt particulars go the accused is not charged in that regard and the declaration of the Court of Inquiry is complete insofar as the charge of AWL is concerned.

The court is cleared to consider the submission

The court reopens and the president announces that the submission of the defense is disallowed and that the declaration of the Court of Inquiry is admissable in evidence. The declaration is produced by the prosecution and marked as exhibit #1.

The prosecution submits a Pt II Order extract from x9 list dated 13 Jun 45 pertaining to Pt II Order No 56 dated 15 Jun 45.

The defense submits that this document is not admissable on the following ground.

1. It does not prove fact relevant to the charge. Evidence not mere logic ascertaining truth as to fact in truth. Shows TOS on surrender from desertion. He is not charged with desertion. Raising an issue not in question and a charge more serious. I refer the Court to the law of relevancy in admissability in evidence. Oleman's Rule p 48 and Phipson more appropriate authority also 2 review sheets FGCM dated 10 May 45 by D J A. It is not evidence of termination of AWL. Only acceptable if accused pleads guilty.

2. Further it is not the best evidence available — Rule of best evidence. It is not best in 2 ways. Firstly because statement contained in the document does not reflect a true picture of past events - secondly because other evidence documentary and oral does exists and was available to prosecution before the summary was taken. The document has an artificial air - 2359 hrs most unusual - Unit X-9 Art - accused referred to as on X-4 list

dated 15 Jun 45.

There are many of these documents in our possession. We would not make amendment to our "hold 6" from Pay & Adjts. He goes to X-4 list only on release "TOS X9 list" so entered from our own Casualty Return. The date appearing in "hold 6" is the date he comes to the Dis Centre.

Defence

Best evidence was available and it was easy to find and much better evidence than submitted by prosecution. Refer to MML p 98 para 107.

Reply by Prosecution

Abstract form has to do with desertion is satisfactory and therefore on application must be TOS from desertion. The defence also had second pt B objection to document "from desertion 2359 hrs 26 Jan 45." which is quite clear. Time is the nearest time records show accused surrendered and it is incorporated into Pt II Order extract. What truer picture of return from AWL than the time he surrendered himself. The other objection by defence - accused on X-9 list at time of Pt II Order. I believe Court will agree that it is same person as accused shown on charge sheet as on X-4 list. Witness Sgt Donnelly who showed man taken on X-9 list 2 2 Mar 45 shows Pt II Order extract correct in that respect. He referred to several matters in attempt to show that best evidence was not produced. That attempt has failed because nothing in the file shows a definite termination of absence whereas the document objected to does. Reverse sheet has no bearing in this particular case Reference to another Pt II Order extract which is not admissable by Prosecution because it is improper as it only shows TOS and not time of surrender.

Court is closed to consider the submission.

Court is re-opened. The submission of the defending Officer is dis-allowed and the Court rules that the Pt II Order extract is admissable in evidence.

4. The defending Officer submits that the prosecution have failed to establish a prima facie case on the evidence before the Court. Not proper evidence of termination of A.W.L. Pt II Order extract admissable in evidence but irrelevant to charge.

Prosecution in reply

Documents in evidence establish a prima facie case. Pt II Order extract is relevant. It relates to the accused and termination of his absence.

Statement by 1 Pte. GROOER not on oath. AB

I left 11 Bde on or about 12 NOV. 44 as a reinforcement for the S.S.R. The vehicles in the convoy became separated and the drivers of my vehicle decided that we were lost. The Cpl. i/c asked me to throw my torch in the ditch so the driver could see to turn around. I was almost in the tract again when the tract started reversing, causing me to fall off. A short time later I managed to stop a lorry and the drivers agreed to take me closer to 6 Bde. H.Q., under whose command my regiment was.

We crossed the Nijmegen Bridge and shortly afterwards were put down at a depot and given instructions on how to reach Bde. H.Q. I was to follow a track and I would come to Bde. I followed this track and the next thing I knew was I had a rifle pointed at me. I grabbed for the muzzle and shouted I accidentally discharged harmlessly into the air. The next thing I knew another soldier had remained unseen hit me from behind with his rifle.

During the next few days I was repeatedly interrogated. Questions asked pertained to guns, tanks, infantry etc. on the Canadian front. I was treated well at this place.

at the next camp a place I was sent to I was sent to and treated very well. The same questions were asked and because I would give only my name rank and number I was beaten. My clothes were all taken away from me. I removed them all week except my greatcoat and tunic. At night I only had one blanket to sleep with.

After a period of about three days at this interrogation camp I was to go to a P.O.W. camp. We were handcuffed and a chain passed between the cuffs and our bodies. [illegible] long tower the Allied Air Force started strafing and bombing. The guards (x) took cover in a slit trench. We were able to release ourselves and made a dash for the nearby woods.

During the next few days we travelled very slowly and cautiously. We travelled as often as we could by [illegible] and [illegible] during the hours as and the scene of our escape as possible. We lived off the land and [illegible] we could find in cocktails from huts.

I continued to hide and escape detection existed on a about 25 Lemons reached the British lines.

The first officer I met was Lieut Meredith of the 6th Dragoon Gds. Y Arm. Div 2nd Br Army. He gave me a brief interrogation. — Went with me to the edge of the minefield in which I said I left my two companions and I believe I can state that he saw only one set of tracks coming out of the field he knew definitely to be mine.

After feeding me and bidding me down Lieut. Merideth in company with an M.P. went to find the R.Es. to get my companions out of the field. —

The next morning I was sent on to 7 Armd Div. HQ.

At 7th Armd Div. HQ I was interrogated by Lieut H.W. Taylor. He took me to the Officers mess and fed me. I had on a set of German clothing which I am sure he was. that is true.

While awaiting transport at 7 Armd Div. HQ I was asked for my story by an Officer who had been discussing a set of plans, they had got off a German W.O. — If a new set plans to Camel 166. After hearing my story he said I would only be briefly interrogated here and then flown to England to be fully interrogated.

I was sent to 12 Corps HQ and the B.I.G.S. there told me I would be staying at 12 CRE for the night. From there I went to 15. G. W.E.A. — Then I was interrogated — issued with new clothing and again received treatment for trench mouth and [illegible]. I was in Hospital for 6 or 7 days.

On or about 13 Feb. I was told I was going to the Canadians to be disposed of. I was taken to D.F.P. at 1 Cdn. Army HQ main and there placed under arrest as a deserter. For almost a month they kept me there, then finally told me that as there were no charges or grounds for charges against me, I would be taken to the S.S.R.'s. I arrived at the regt. and I believe it was a Capt. D.A.A.G. of the S.S.R. who was told that I was being turned over to the regiment until such charges against me, except loss of equipment. I was taken to it - the informed that I had not reached the regt. I was put on that strength and that I was being returned to 11 Bn. 2 C.B.K.R.

The next day I was picked up by a Cdn. Insp. Det. HQ Prov. and taken to 11 Bn. where method was using an officer's method of charge against me I was placed in a cell under close guard. I repeatedly asked to see the Adjt. or the CO. Each time I was informed by the cell block orderly Room that I could not.

When I was told that I was going to POC I asked on what orders - and was told - on the 5.CO i/c Cell Block orders. I was never up on any charge or before any officer for any until about 16 Jan. when I was remanded for A.W.L. for alleged A.W.L. from 17 Mar. 44 to 26 Jan 45, when I was with a firearm in escaping.

RB

I have been held in custody since my return to the Allied forces and at 1 CDE I have been subjected to ridicule and taunting by an officer Lieut. Beardmore.

When asked by S.I.S. to give a statement I said "No" I was then told that I would not ~~not~~ have if I didn't.

Summoning of by D.O.
in case of
Pte. Prosecutor Pte Fraser

Ref. M.m.L. P. 44. "Involuntary absence is not ordinarily an offence under section 15."

Pte. Fraser has stated that he returned to the British lines on or about 25 Jan. after being an escaped prisoner of war for over two months.

Five months ago the authorities felt that his case should be investigated and his story, either verified or proven false. For five months Pte Fraser has been deprived of his liberty and treated like a criminal - with no opportunity to prove his story.

To day he appears before you on a charge of A.W.L. I suggest, Gentlemen, that Pte Fraser should never have been tried charged with A.W.L.; that a more serious charge should have been preferred against him - or he should have been declared a free man.

I further suggest that in order to prove a case of H.W.L. against Green before a Court of Justice the Prosecution must produce very substantial evidence firstly to prove that he was absent as claimed in the charge and secondly, sufficient to deny the facts which he has stated to exist.

The Pros. has not denied the statement of Pte. Green.

The evidence presented in support of the charge consists solely of two documents which I suggest but skim beneath the barrier of admissibility.

Termination of A.W.L. is proved by a P.T. II Order only which was created for the trial and one which has been declared irrelevant to the charge by D.J.A (Pros) and Sec. 1 Ed.

You must also remember that the Prosecution has had not only five months, but all the faculties of the Army at their disposal to frame a case against Pte Green.

I suggest that at least a doubt must exist as to the circumstances of his absence and remind you that if a reasonable doubt exists in your mind - you must find in favour of the accused.

Reasonable Doubt

The Prosecution summing up & Judgment JBB.

May it please the President members of the Court

A Prima facia case has been established by the prosecution by production of

1 Declaration of a Court of Inquiry exhibit "A" for commencement & continuance of absence

2 Pt II Order by Unit showing termination of absence.

The defence has not disproven any of these

The statement made by the accused has not been substantiated by any witnesses or documentary evidence as to fact

I believe the Court will agree with me that an offence has been committed and the accused should be brought to justice for the offence.

In the Case of,
F 95005 Pte. Groves, G.M.

We have in the accused a hard working family man who left a good job in civilian life, to join the army. He joined the army to do his best and his bit for his country. When he came overseas he left behind him a wife and four children in a home that he built with the money he earned at his trade as an electrician.

Pte. Groves joined the R.C.O.C. because he is a tradesman and naturally expected he would be employed in the army at his trade, where he would not only receive his trades pay but have a chance to get promotion, and be of more use to the war effort.

He has been in the army for two years and has been employed at his trade for only three months, the remainder of the time he has been doing general fatigues, some of them menial tasks. Whatever task he was given to do, he did it and did it good (this I can personally vouch for). Outside of being A.W.L. a few times he has been a good dependable soldier.

In Pte. Groves, we have a man who has committed a crime by being A.W.L. and he must be punished. Gentlemen of the Court, I plead with you to make your sentence as lenient as your duty will allow you. Give the accused a chance to come out again and mingle with his comrades, start life in the army anew, do a good job, something a proud man will be proud to do. I am sure he will be an entirely different soldier and a man.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

The President, members of the court

In pleading guilty and pleading himself upon the mercy of the court the defendant wishes in mitigation that there the following circumstances be given kindly consideration.

After becoming old enough, 17 years of age, & successfully passed himself through an Army recruiting Office, he did so. He realized his duty and although actually too young for foreign service he made himself a volunteer. A year after he enlisted to prove himself in a theatre of war. But the trials that beset the mind of a boy, are great, though to us of a more mature age these trials all, or many appear to be mere trivials. I would ask you to consider the strain on a boy's mind, a lad of 18 years when he finds himself in the middle of the greatest war civilization has ever known without the comfort of correspondence from home. As the days pass the shadow becomes greater and as he find that suddenly a clean military record is tarnished, he begins drinking, and as so many of us have discovered before, he finds that instead of the release, the consolation he had hoped for, he finds increased - more trouble.

The defendant as he stands before you is not only a chastened soldier, he is a wiser boy, and trusts that as you learned gentlemen of the court pardon this case, that as you will realize that already he has paid for his folly - he has realized the error of his ways and now asents the opportunity to prove himself the good soldier we believe him to be.

Evidence

B-139/02.

B-2. Sn. Sgt. Grubb, Geo. P. states I have a brother in 1st Inf. Div. 82nd American Army. I had been getting letters from my mother while I was in England continually asking me if I had got in touch with him in any way. Not knowing what particular branch he was attached to with 36th Div I could not very well locate him. We had not been writing home for approximately 3 or 4 years which was a cause of worry to my folks back home. When I landed in Italy I found out that the 36th had made the invasion at Salerno. The particular outfit was practically wiped out. I had not seen him myself in approximately 6 years and it commenced to worry me and I wanted to find out just actually what happened to him. I found out that remnants of his outfit were up on the Venafro front so I decided to go there and find out if he was alive or whatever had happened to him. I caught a ride with the 376 Airborne, American, who were loaded towards that particular front. I was with them for about three days and nights. I gave them a hand casting ammunition up & hand grenades, towards the front. The last day I was with them we were in for a terrific shelling.

The same afternoon I met a Staff Sergeant who had all the maps. He told me the.

all stating that they had received no word from the missing brother and asking the accused to obtain information, and on the other hand knowing that his brother was with a unit which had lost a large percentage of its members in casualties. Accused technically guilty of being A.W.L. but in interests of equity would remind the Court that the accused when absent not with any desire to benefit himself: he had no desire to escape his normal duties as a soldier, he was not a coward as evidenced by fact he went to the front and, according to his evidence, was in action there. Would ask the Court for leniency on behalf of accused and would suggest that they deal with the charge not as straight case of A.W.L. but in light of compassionate leave.

PLEA IN MITIGATION of sentence for B.139103 PTE (L/CPL) George Peter GRUBIC, Lanark & Renfrew Scottish Regiment.

The a/m soldier arrived in Italy on the 11 Nov 43 with the 5th L.A.A. Regiment and served with them until his transfer the to 1st L.A.A. Infantry Regiment.

He was in action with the 1st L.A.A. Infantry Regiment in all their engagements until October 1944 when he was ordered out of the line as a result of battle fatigue. When in hospital he received a letter advising of the death of his brother who was killed in action in France while serving with the 36th American Division.

This news being received while the accused was in an extremely high strung condition undoubtedly was instrumental to his subsequent action.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)[1], and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).[1] If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty[2], or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined[3], we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. No sir.[5]

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.[1]
(*1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). Medical Officer

I first met L 101701 Pte Grumbly, H.H., when I became platoon commander of 14 Pl of C Coy. He was at that time in No. 4 Sec and had been since 8 Oct 44.

He was in every action from that time until the time of his absence. Through his actions during this time he gained the respect of myself, and the men who were fighting by his side. At no time did he ever say, or do anything that would be held against his character as a soldier. I offered him promotion on several occasions but each time he refused the offer because as he put it "lack of training".

Before he joined this regiment he was in another branch of the service.

Annual

To each of us, as we approach battle, and find ourselves involved in its turmoil, there comes a purely personal and individual reaction to the noise and danger surrounding us. Each of us possess a nervous system which has only a certain capacity for terror and noise.

To those of us who, from the moment of entering the army, were assigned to the infantry, there has been an opportunity throughout the months and years of training to accustom ourselves gradually to the fact that we must prepare for the arduous and dangerous life of an infantry man.

Consider this gentleman, the man you see before you in this light. This man stepped forward to offer himself in any capacity in which the army could use him. At that time the army saw fit to train him as a driver in the R.C.A.S.C. For two and one half years this man trained and worked at that job.

Regardless of the motives and bravery of a man who has made this great decision, to serve his country; to find that you have been chosen to do a comparatively safe, though essential, job, a man experiences a sense of relief. During his training he builds up a shell of confidence and sense of security. He is not going to be committed to actual battle, and at the time that he is adjusting his mind in that direction, his comrades in arms in the infantry are preparing themselves for the day that they will be thrown in.

To have that shell or crust of security suddenly smashed, to have the steering wheel wrenched out of your hands, and placed there instead, a rifle, to go from the rear to the front and find yourself face to face with the enemy, with a total of 22 days infantry training, I repeat, 22 days, is a staggering blow to a man's balance.

Some men, in their 22 days, do not have time to readjust themselves, to get a grip on their feelings in order to be completely their own masters, and if they have not time before they are committed to battle they do not have the opportunity to do so after.

However, this man, who for two and one half years had been a driver, and who had been prepared for this life of ours by 22 days training, hung on at the front, not a matter of hours, or days - but for weeks - fighting not only the enemy, but bitterly. During these weeks our unit saw much action, the fighting at Hazebrouck, the sealing off of the Bendale peninsula, the clearing of the peninsula, and then the static positions on our own front, and this man was haunted all of this time by the spectre of ignorance. In one position which his platoon occupied, they were mortared almost incessantly, and in one barrage alone, they had a counted number of 105 bombs land around them. During this time, he was above reproach in any way, a soldier of the finest calibre.

When platoon ~~Commander~~ said to me - "When you defend this man, remember you are defending a bloody fine soldier."

I, myself, have taken this man on ~~a~~ another hazardous fighting patrol, and found him exceedingly good man.

I have here a signed statement from his platoon ~~Commander~~, testifying as to his good character and reliability while he was with him.

However - following this period of heavy stress and strain, came one of relative relaxation the period during which we guarded the bridge at Treves. During periods of rest, when tension is slackened, and a man has time to think back over the ordeals through which he has passed, the occasions when he has looked death in the eye face and escaped, and of the friends who did not, one tends to brood over them, and to enlarge on them, until they become almost an obsession with him.

To clasp at the straw, to see the opportunity to escape his troubles, and to go back to the job for which he has been trained, driving, as a driver Batman at Brigade as B Echy only to find that someone else had been boosted into the job, the old old story, that straw he clutched at was the proverbial straw which broke the camel's back. A state of absolute confusion exists in a man's mind void of help & depression. During this period of temporary instability he could fight himself no longer, and he took what appeared to him then, the easy way out. He went to Antwerp. There he regained control of himself, and realizing the rashness of his action, he did not wait to be apprehended, but surrendered himself to the ~~M~~C. P. C.

In closing, gentlemen, I wish to ask you to remember that story when you pass sentence, two and one half years to twenty two days - a man who, in spite of lack of training has done a fine job, is a man deserving of leniency.

The above statement (with the schedule of convictions and of cases in which trial has been dispensed with) is read, marked "A.P.W. Watkinson"Lt. signed by the president, and annexed to the proceedings.

I first met L-101701 Pte Grumbly W.H., when I became platoon commander of 14 Pl of C Coy. He was at that time in No. 4 Sec and had been since 8 Oct 44.

He was in every action from that time until the time of his absence. Through his actions during this time he gained the respect of myself, and the men who were fighting by his side. At no time did he ever say, or do anything that would be held against his character as a soldier. I offered him promotion on several occasions but each time he refused the offer because as he put it "lack of training".

Before he joined this regiment he was in another branch of the service.

B117832 Rfn GRUMMETT K.

The accused is 20 yrs of age, enlisted 8 Oct 43 at 18 yrs and arrived overseas 6 May 44. He went into action 13 June 44, was wounded 28 Aug 44 and evacuated to England He returned to action 6 Jan 45 and served with his Unit until 25 Feb 45 when he went absent from his Unit while back in the rest area.

The accused states that he went absent simply because he was browned off. The fact that he has served so long in action and had returned to the line once after being wounded indicates his willingness to fight. The accused is quite anxious to return to the line again.

I ask that the Court consider this man's repentant conduct shut and long time in action and award the most lenient sentence so that he may again serve in the front line.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. 1st Pros Wit Maj J.G.A.D. le Grandpre, R de Mais sworn deposes.

I am OC A Coy R de Mais. I identify the accused. On we Sep I sent accused to the M.O. as he said he was sick and could not stay in position with his Pln. As a result of the m.Os report I ordered the acc to report back to his pln which at the time was in contact withthe enemy. I definitely ordered him back. The next day I discovered he had not gone back. The next day I again ordered him to report back immediately and left. Two hours later he was still there.
I ordered the C.S.M. to place him under arrest on a charge of disobeying an order.

Cross Ex Acc said he was sick when I ordered him back I had already sent him to see the m.O. the previous day.

Court
His pln was forward and in contact with the enemy. The acc understood the order as I explained it. He said he couldn't get as he was scared. He certainly must have known I was an officer I was properly dressed.

I am CSM of A Coy R de Mais. I recognize the accused
A Coy was in contact withthe enemy. The acc was in A Coy. We debussed near the enemy on 24 Sep. He wouldn't go back to his pln. I saw the Major about it and the Major gave him an order to report back to his pln.
The Coy was prepared to attack. The order was given at coy H.Q. The pln of the accused was in front of coy H.Q. The acc did not go back after receiving the order.

No Cross ex

Court When ordered to go back he said he wouldn't go as he was sick.
Wouldn't say any more than this. Just said he had a head ache and was dizzy.

3rd Pros wit Capt J.M.P. Robert, RCAMC attd R de Mais sworn deposes.
I am M.O. R de Mais. I identify the accused here today.
He came to me on 23 Sep. I remember the general nature of his complaint but can't remember whether he said he couldn't stand it or whether he had medical complaints. I concluded that his complaint was he couldn't stand the strain of fighting.

Cross ex I don't remember giving him anything. He didn't show any agitation. I may have given him some pills but I can't remember. Sometimes
I give a mild sedative. I haven't the necessary equipment to diagnose stomach complaints. I have no X ray or lab. I can only give a clinical opinion.

Re ex With cases of shell shock we treat themdifferently. I used to evacuate them. We were to have exhaustion centres. Such cases were to remain in the division. Used also to keep cases in R.A.F. lines. Now either I send a man to his coy if his claims are unfounded. If I think his complaint is justified I'll send him out for a rest at B Ech or A Ech.
There was no reason for me to send this accused to A or B I felt he was capable of going back withthe rest of his Pl and so sent him back.

R.P. 83(b) complied with

Acc duly sworn deposes.

On 24 Sep I was ordered to go back to my pln. I was not thinking clearly. I had had spells that made me dizzy. I couldn't act clearly. I saw the doctor three times over a period of a week. I was given pills which effected me in no way at all. I had the same treatment every time I saw him. My trouble is that I have weak lungs I've had symptons of collapsing. If I stretch myself I get dizzy. If I take a deep breath I also get dizzy. I told the Doctor where the soreness was. The doctor exam'ed my chest and breathing. Used his fingers as a stethoscope. Sometimes he'd said I might be sick at other times he'd say he didn't know

Cross Ex I've been in the army for five years approximately. I was A category when I entered army. In England I went on all our schemes & battle train'ng. I went to the doctor in England as well as seeing him in France. In England I last saw the Dr I don't remember just when.

No re ex

Court Q. 23 Sep when I saw the Dr he gave me a talk on cowardice. Then he became appeasing. He went over my chest. After he examined me he told me to go back to my coy. I know the importance of obeying orders in the army. I went to coy H.Q. I didn't go back to my pln as I was sick. I had chest trouble that day. It made contact with my head. I used to play hockey in England and I got a hard body check. I just went to the doctor in France just about the time of 23 Sep.

R.P. 73(B) complied with.

Pros Closing address

Close of Defence in the case of D 57268 Pte Guimond, S.anley.

This man did not disobey a comand but was not in condition to execute the order given to h . When this soldier reported himself to coy H.Q. he was sick and was notable to do his job so his duty was to report to coy H.Q. to tell his commanding officer that he was unable to stay at h's post.

As soon as he arrived there he was ordered to go back to his position. He could not go back because he was too sick.

Pte Guimond suffers from stomach troubles for a long time. He has seen the Regt M.O. 3 times. Each time he was given pills but h's condition still the same.

In my opinion h's man should be sent to hospital where he could be given more attention.

J.A. Sums up

I must advise the court at the outset that this is indeed a serious charge with which we are dealing this afternoon. The evidence has disclosed the facts surrounding the circs of this alleged offence and you should approach it carefully. You must decide if the particulars of the charge have been proved and if you feel that they have then you must decide if those facts constitute the offence charged. With this charge the following must be proved.

(a) A command was given (b) that it was a lawful command (c) that it was given by a superior officer (d) that the order was disobeyed. In addition to this you must further be satisfied that any disobedience that may have occurred was immediately or proximate to the demand. (Note 1 of AA 9 read to the court)

So there is is. Allthese must be proved by the Prosecution and the burden of proof rests upon the prosecution throughout The acc need not prove his innocence. The Pros must prove his guilty beyond a reasonable doubt and if any such doubt exists inthe mind of any members of this court then he bound by law to interpret it in favour of the acc soldier.

A word now on thecredibility of the witnesses. You officers have heard and seen the witnesses here this afternoon and noone is better qualified than you to determine which are telling the truth and which are not. The question of credibility is entirely one for the court. You can believe all, or part, or nothing of a witnesses evidence according to how it strikes you as reasonable persons.

The facts are not in dispute. I think I am fair in stating that he order was never carried out. The acc himself says as much but offers in defence that he was too ill to comply withthe order. If you believe that in part the accused could not carry out the order, that it was beyond his physical capacities, then you should acquit him of the charge. If not, and if all the other necessary elements have been proved then you may legally find him guilty of this offence.

There is nothing else I can say. You are Regtl officers all used to handling men and I feel most capable of disposing of this charge in accordance with the oath which you have all to en.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans.....(5)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 90(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans. Evidence on oath. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans. No. Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans.....

sworn deposes.

I am OC A Coy R de Mais. I identify the accused. On we Sep I sent accused to the M.O. as he said he was sick and could not stay in position with his Pln. As a result of the M.Os report I ordered the acc to report back to his pln which at the time was in contact withthe enemy. I definitely ordered him back. The next day I discovered he had not gone back. The next day I again ordered him to report back immediately and left. Two hours later he was still there.
I ordered the C.S.M. to place him under arrest on a charge of disobeying an order.

Cross Ex Acc said he was sick when I ordered him back I had already sent him to see the M.O. the previous day.

Court
His pln was forward and in contact with the enemy. The acc understood the order as I explained it. He said he couldn't get as he was scared. He certainly must have known I was an officer I was properly dressed.

R.P. 83(b) complied with.

2nd Pros Wit. No 56045 CSM Perrier R R de Mais sworn deposes.

I am CSM of A Coy R de Mais. I recognize the accused
A Coy was in contact withthe enemy. The acc was in A Coy. We debussed near the enemy on 24 Sep. He wouldn't go back to his pln. I saw the Major about it and the Major gave him an order to report back to his Pln.
The Coy was prepared to attack. The order was given at coy H.Q. the pln of the accused was in front of coy H.Q. The acc did not go back after receiving the order.

No Cross ex

Court When ordered to go back he said he wouldn't go as he was sick.
Wouldn't say any more than this. Just said he had a head ache and was dizzy.

R.P. 83(b) complied with

3rd Pros wit Capt J.M.P. Robert, RCAMC attd R de Mais sworn deposes.

I am M.O. R de Mais. I identify the accused here today.
He came to me on 23 Sep. I remember the general nature of his complaint but can't remember whether he said he couldn't stand it or whether he had medical complaints. I concluded that his complaint was he couldn't stand the strain of fighting.

Cross ex I don't remember giving him anything. He didn't show any agitation. I may have given him some pills but I can't remember. Sometimes
I give a mild sedative. I haven't the necessary equipment to diagnose stomach complaints. I have no X ray or lab. I can only give a clinical opinion.

Re ex with cases of shell shock we try at themdirectly. I used to evacuate them. We were to have exhaustion centres. Such cases were to remain in the division. Used also to keep cases in F.A.P. lines. Now either I send a man to his coy if his claims are unfounded. If I think his complaint is justified I'll send him out for a rest at B Ech or A Ech.
There was no reason for me to send this accused to A or B I felt he was capable of going back to the rest of his Pl and so sent him back.

R.P. 83(b) complied with

Acc duly sworn deposes.

On 24 Sep I was ordered to go back to my pln. I was not thinking clearly. I had had spells that made me dizzy. I couldn't act clearly. I saw the doctor three times over a period of a week. I was given pills which effected me in no way at all. I had the same treatment every time I saw him. My trouble is that I have weak lungs I've had symptoms of collapsing. If I stretch myself I get dizzy. If I take a deep breath I also get dizzy. I told the Doctor where the soreness was. The doctor examined my chest and breathing. Used his fingers as a stethoscope. Sometimes he'd said I might be sick at other times he'd say he didn't know

Cross Ex I've been in the army for five years approximately. I was a category when I entered army. In England I went on all our schemes & battle training. I went to the doctor in England as well as seeing him in France. In England I last saw the Dr I don't remember just when.

No re ex

Court C. 23 Sep when I saw the Dr he gave me a talk on cowardice. When he became appeasing. He went over my chest. After he examined me he told me to go back to my coy. I know the importance of obeying orders in the army. I went to coy H.Q. I didn't go back to my pln as I was sick. I had chest trouble that day. It made contact with my head. I used to play hockey in England and I got a hard body check. I just went to the doctor in France just about the time of 23 Sep

R.P. 73(2) complied with.

Pros Closing address

The charge is a hard one but I am sure that the evidence speaks for itself. I have nothing further to offer.

Close of Defence in the case of D 92288 Pte Guimond, S.anley.

This man did not disobey a comand but was not in condition to execute the order given to him. When this soldier reported himself to coy H.Q. he was sick and was notable to do his job so his duty was to report to coy H.Q. to tell his commanding officer that he was unable to stay at his post.

As soon as he arrived there he was ordered to go back to his position. He could not go back because he was too sick.

Pte Guimond suffers from stomach troubles for a long time. He has seen the Regt M.O. 3 times. Each time he was given pills but his conditio still the same.

In my opinion his man should be sent to hospital where he could be given more attention.

J.A. Sums up

I must advise the court at the outset that this is indeed a serious charge with which we are dealing this afternoon. The evidence has disclosed the facts surrounding the circs of this alleged offence and you should approach it carefully. You must decide if the particulars of the charge have been proved and if you feel that they have then you must decide if those facts constitute the offence charged. With this charge the following must be proved.

(a) A command was given (b) that it was a lawful command (c) that it was given by a superior officer (d) that the order was disobeyed. In addition to this you must further be satisfied that any disobedience that may have occurred was immediately or proximate to the de and. (Note 1 of AA 9 read to the court)

So there is is. Allthese must be proved by the Prosecution and the burden of proof rests upon the prosecution throughout The acc need not prove his innocence. The Pros must prove his guilty beyond a reasonable doubt and if any such doubt exists inthe mind of any members of this court then he bound by law to interpret it in favour of the acc soldier.

A word now on thecredibility of the witnesses. You officers have heard and seen the witnesses here this afternoon and no one is better qualified than you to determine which are telling the truth and which are not. The question of credibility is entirely one for the court. You can believe all, or part, or nothing of a witnesses evidence according to how it strikes you as reasonable persons.

The facts are not in dispute. I think I am fair in stating that he order was never carried out. The acc himself says as much but offers in defence that he was too ill to comply with the order. If you believe that in part the accused could not carry out the order, that it was beyond his physical capacities, then you should acquit him of the charge. If not, and if all the other necessary elements have been proved then you may legally find him guilty of this offence.

There is nothing else I can say You are Regtl officers all used to handling men and I feel most capable of disposing of this charge in accordance with the oath which you have all taken.

Mr. President are there any further matters on which you wish me to direct the court NO

I don't know whether its true. Also
I was dropped from my Right to

I had a few drinks out went A W L. I intended to return. This is my first offence. Service in nearly 4 years.

Plea in Grundy

I am asking the Court for leniency when considering what sentence to impose upon this accused. To me it is apparent that Grundy was driven by domestic worries to go absent. The series of "poison-pen" letters concerning his wife, in combination with his transfer from the familiar associations of his field unit to a strange unit, preyed upon his mind to such an extent as to cause a normally sober & industrious soldier to do something he would not do at other times. The accused's conduct since speaks for itself. In nearly four years in the Army he has never been guilty of any serious crime. His present Commanding Officer has given evidence today & speaks highly of the accused. If the Court can see its way clear to avoid giving the accused detention it will be much appreciated by him & I'm sure he will never give the Court cause to regret it.

1. When soldiers are apprehended in uniform near their quarters it is considered that as a general rule 5/- is a sufficient reward. Not more than 10/- will be allowed in any case where the soldiers were in uniform.

2. When soldiers are apprehended in plain clothes, at a distance from their units, and after having been absent for some time, the reward may be increased to 10/- or 15/- according to the nature of the cases and the trouble incurred in apprehension. A reward in excess of 15/- will seldom be granted.

3. The reward of 20/- should be strictly reserved for cases where superior intelligence has been displayed in apprehending men in plain clothes, or under difficult or exceptional circumstances.

Rewards and expenses attendant upon apprehensions will be paid by the Command Paymaster of the Command or District in which the soldier's Unit is stationed.

4. No reward can be authorised if the Deserter or Absentee voluntarily surrendered, or if it shall appear that he was in collusion with the person who apprehended him, or if the apprehended man was not a Deserter or Absentee.

The following Statement of expenses (if any) incurred by the Police and chargeable to Army Funds should be certified by a Superintendent or Officer in charge of a station.

No expenses incurred in conveying a Deserter or Absentee from the Court to prison should be charged to Army funds. Such expenses can be included in the claim made on the Prison Commissioners.

PART I.

DESCRIPTIVE RETURN of a Deserter or Absentee without Leave.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF MAGISTRATES.

(1) When a man is apprehended by the Civil Power as an absentee without leave, or as a deserter, if the information tendered leaves no doubt in the mind of the Magistrate that the prisoner is a soldier, this return should be completed and given to the Police to hand to the escort on arrival.

(2) To avoid delay in the arrival of the escort a telegram stating the Number, Rank, Name and Unit of the soldier should be sent by the Police, as soon as the man is committed, to the Officer Commanding the soldier's Unit. The place where the escort is required to attend should be stated, also whether the soldier surrendered or was arrested.

(3) Any recommendation for a reward should be made on Part II of this return.

(4) The Court fees chargeable for Descriptive Returns should be claimed periodically from the Command Paymaster of the Command in which the Court is situated.

(5) The stations of all Units are shown in the Monthly Army List, as are also the Depots of Corps.

In the case of doubt as to the location of a particular Unit reference should be made to the nearest O.C. Troops. Where the soldier's Unit is stationed overseas (outside Great Britain, Northern Ireland District, and the Channel Islands) the telegram for an escort should be despatched to the O.C. Depot, who will take all necessary action for its provision.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

E.G. Roads 1945 13

in the case of

K-42623 Lance Corporal Douglas Styan, and A-43059 Private John James Grundy, both of The Irish Regiment of Canada, C.A., and M.C.O. and a soldier placed on Active Service.

Charges --

1. Conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, in that they improperly took and without authority used a Military Vehicle, thereby occasioning damage to the same.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

First Witness — P.C. Herbert H. Horn, No. 87, Hastings Police Force, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

"At 0105 hrs, 23 February, 1945, I was on duty at Harold Place, Hastings. I saw an army station wagon proceed down Cambridge Road, through York Bldgs toward Castle St. About half a minute afterwards I heard a crash, and saw what appeared to be a large motor vehicle broadside across the road, at the west end of Castle St. I was walking towards the place when I saw someone leave the wagon and run away through Castle St. I then saw that a station wagon like the one which had previously passed me had collided with and smashed the ornamental base of a trolley bus standard outside 15 Castle St. It had wrecked the front part of the station wagon. There were no occupants in the wagon. I ran through Castle St., where I met a duty officer of the P.L.D.Cs on an M.C. I took steps to cover the various roads in the vicinity and notified Police Headquarters. I later saw two men detained at the police box at the Fish Market in Hastings. They were conveyed to police Headquarters. They were the same men who are now identified to me on this enquiry as L/Cpl Styan and Pte. Grundy, both of the Irish Regiment of Canada, C.A. Both stated that they were the driver of the car. Finally Pte. Grundy stated that he was actually the driver.

The station wagon was GM Ford Station Wagon #4204637. Both men were detained pending the arrival of an escort. Both were sober, and I am unable to say whether they had been drinking. L/Cpl. Styan in particular was suffering from shock.

Herbert H. Horn

The accused declined to cross-examine the witness.

Second Witness — Police Officer War Reserve #11, Charles French, Hastings Police Force, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

"At 0130 hrs on the morning of 23February, 1945, I was instructed to make a search of the "Front" and "Old Town" area in Hastings for the driver of an army vehicle which had smashed up in front of 15 Castle St. I searched for some time without result, and eventually found two soldiers, wearing green bonnets, standing looking out to sea on the West Hill. I asked them if they were looking after the guns, and they replied "Yes". There being no gun there, I asked them to accompany me. After some hesitation they did so. I took them to Police Box #5, and examined their pay books. According to these pay books, one was K-42623 Pte. Douglas Styan, and the other was A-43059 Pte. John James Grundy, both of The Irish Regt. of Canada, 5th Canadian Armoured Division.

Second Witness Continued

I asked them where they were stationed, and Grundy replied "Wadhurst". I asked them what they were doing in Hastings. Grundy replied "We were sent out to look for a stolen car". I asked them for the number, and Grundy replied "Divisional number 63". Styan then admitted that they were both A.W.L.

I accompanied them both to Police H.Q., where they were questioned. Grundy admitted that he was the driver of the vehicle which had smashed up at No. 15 Castle St., Hastings. Both men admitted driving the car at first, but later Grundy admitted that he was the driver.

I saw the damaged car myself which was a Ford Station Wagon #CM 4202637, bearing Divisional Number 63. L/Cpl Styan had no stripe on his sleeve, but threads were hanging from his sleeve and shoulder. All identification marks were missing from his uniform."

Question by L/Cpl. Styan - Are you sure that the Divisional Patch was missing from my uniform?

Answer -- The red patch was there. The "Canada" badges were missing.

The accused declined to cross-examine the witness further.

Arthur C. Grant

Third Witness

P.S. James W. Wills, Hastings Police Force, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

"I was on duty in charge of Central Police Station Hastings, on the morning of 23 February, 1943. At 1150 hrs on the morning of the 23rd February, 1943, two soldiers of the Irish Regiment of Canada were handed over by me to a military escort. One of them was Pte. Grundy of the Irish Regiment of Canada. He admitted in my presence that he had no license either civilian or military to drive a vehicle. I recognize the man now present at this enquiry as Pte. Grundy, the man who made this admission to me. I obtained from Lieut. Gordon, T.O. of the Irish Regiment of Canada, a receipt of the work ticket for the vehicle concerned and a receipt for the vehicle itself. This receipt is for station wagon No. CM 4202637 in damaged condition."

The accused declined to cross-examine the witness.

James W. Wills

Fourth Witness

Lieut. Chas. A. Gordon, The Irish Regiment of Canada, C.A., having been duly sworn, states as follows:
"I am Transport Officer of The Irish Regiment of Canada, CA."
"Station Wagon No. CM4202637 was taken on charge of the Irish Regiment of Canada on Saturday February 20th, 1943. It was in proper running condition and was kept parked in the courtyard immediately outside Wadhurst Castle, pending its being assigned to a permanent driver. The only person who had authority to drive it was Pte. Wilson, J.M., who was authorized to drive it for the Commanding Officer. No other person had authority to drive or use the vehicle.

At 0500 hrs on February 23rd, I was duty Officer at Battalion Headquarters. At that time I received a telephone call from the Central Police Station at Hastings. As a result of the information I received,

I went to Hastings in company with the Regimental Provost Sergeant and my Sergeant Fitter, and inspected the vehicle, which was the vehicle mentioned above. It was in the Police Garage at Hastings in shadly damaged condition. It was in an untowable condition, and I made arrangements to have it picked up. It was taken to the Ordnance Workshop via Brigade L.A.D.

I then went to the Police Station and witnessed our Provost Sergeant take custody of L/Cpl Styan and Pte. Grundy, both of this Regiment. I signed the necessary release papers for the vehicle.

While I was in the police station, both men were questioned by the police sergeant in charge. During this questioning, Pte. Grundy admitted that he had been the driver of the car, and that he held no license to drive either civil or military vehicles. L/Cpl Styan admitted that he had been with Grundy in the car.

Later in the same day, I visited both Styan and Grundy in the Regimental Guardhouse, for the purpose of obtaining information to make out an accident report. Both men admitted having had the car, and Pte. Grundy admitted driving it. Neither man, however, had any recollection of their acquiring the car or of the accident itself. They ascribed this to the amount they had had to drink.

The station wagon was normally parked in the Courtyard outside Wadhurst Castle. It would normally have been immobilized by removal of the key. On the evening in question the wagon was being fitted with wireless in anticipation of a forthcoming scheme. During this process it was occasionally necessary for the signallers to move the vehicle, and the key was consequently left in the wagon.

The area in which the vehicle was parked is some 200 yards inside the gates of Wadhurst Castle. This is the only exit, and there is a 24 hour guard mounted on it."

The accused declined to cross-examine the witness.

Wm. A. Gordon, Capt. T.D.

Fifth Witness

B-78824 Pte. Wilson, J.M., having been duly sworn, states as follows:

"Station Wagon No. CM 4202637 was taken on charge of the Irish Regiment of Canada on 20th February, 1943. It was not assigned to me, but I was authorized to drive it on Monday 22nd February for the purpose of driving the Commanding Officer to a meeting at Brigade HQ. I returned from that trip about 1630 or 1700 hrs, and left the Wagon parked in the courtyard of Wadhurst Castle.

Fifth Witness Continued

The Wagon was being fitted for wireless in anticipation of a scheme, and the key was consequently left in it, for the convenience of the signallers. It was occasionally necessary for them to move it during the process of installation of the wireless set.

The courtyard in which the wagon was left is immediately outside the Battalian Orderly Room, and is some 200 yards within the castle gates. These gates are the only entrance or exit to the Courtyard, and a guard is always mounted on the gates.

The occasion mentioned above is the last time I have seen the station wagon.

The accused declined to cross-examine the witness.

Sixth Witness

Lieut. J.C. Wilkin, 11 Cdn Infantry Bde W/Shop having been duly sworn, states as follows:
