Farnborough.

Sir,

At Reading on the 10th February 1943 about 2215 hours I was on duty in St. Mary's Butts where I saw the a/n Sapper. I recognised him as being one of two Canadian Soldiers who I had checked in Broad Street, Reading, on the 11th February 1943 about 1845 hours. On that occasion he became very violent when I asked to see his pass, striking me in the face. I then arrested him but he broke escort whilst being conducted to the Civil Police Station, Reading.

Upon recognising him on the 10th Feb 1943 I again arrested him and conducted him to the Civil Police Station, Reading, to be detained pending the arrival of an escort. On the way there he kept repeating, "I don't know this policeman. I am stationed at Eastnortoke." He later admitted being an Absentee from his Unit. He was also found to be in possession of an M.B.M.I in the name of No. 3 27363 Spr Rivard Ernest.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 2. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans _____ (5)

(1. Court may be cleared to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ____, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

Note D 1.

First Witness for prosecution.

B-28774 A/Sgt. Eveleigh, H.F, 1 CERU being duly sworn states:

I am in charge of draft H Coy 1 CERU & was present at 0800 hrs 29 Sep 43 when Maj. Knapp, O.C. H Coy at that time, called the roll and Spr. Green answered his name and was warned that though missing any draft parades from being a W.L. a failing to appear on the final draft parade at 0600 hours 30 Sept 43 would leave himself liable to a charge of desertion. The circumstances of the charge of desertion was explained to the whole draft. I was present at 0600 hours, the final draft parade on 30 Sep. 43, when Maj Knapp mustered the draft. Spr Green did not answer to his name and he failed to proceed on draft from his 1 CERU. I dont remember seeing Spr. Green's face on the parade of 29 Sep 43. but we took a body count on the parade and the correct number of bodies were present.

Cross exam:

I had been in H. Coy for approximately a year. There were 89 on the movement order. The warning parade was held between hrs 1 & 2 o'clock. I cannot say I saw the face of the accused on that parade. There were several fol.

parades on 29 Sep. 43. I do not know anything about later roll call at 2200 hours 29 Sep 43

By the Court:

I am N.C.O. in charge of draft administration for H.Q. 1 CERU and was acting as such on 29 Sep. 43. Maj Hagg is in the field now. The Spr. Green I mention in my evidence is the accused. All I know is that his name was answered to on the parade at 1700 hours 29 Sep. 43. Maj Hagg told the parade they were warned for draft. Spr. Green was not present at the parade at 0600 hours 30 Sep 43. I don't know whether or not Spr. Green was on leave at 0700 hours 29 Sep. 43.

The evidence is read over to the witness.

The prosecutor offers in evidence extracts from Part II Orders # 234 Sep 30.43, and Pt II O.O. # 237 Oct 4/43, on one sheet. No objection by Defending Officer. The extracts are read aloud, received in evidence and marked "A".

The prosecutor offers in evidence certificate of apprehension of B 29652 Spr Green, J.A. 1 CERU by Lt. Sellers of No 7 Pro Coy. Can Pro Corps at 1730 hours 7 Oct 43, dated 8 Oct 43 and signed by R.C. Sellers for C.H. Ker, Capt commanding No 7 Provost Company Canadian Provost Corps. It is noted that the certificate is signed by a lieutenant for the officer commanding No 7 Pro. Coy. The Defending Officer however, states that he has no objection to the certificate being put in evidence. The certificate is received in evidence and marked 'B' and read aloud.

The case for the prosecution is closed.

D-4.

First Witness for Defence:

B-29653 Sgt. Green, J.A. 1 CERU sworn states:

I was glad to go on draft because I wanted to go to the Field. I had been there before and liked it better than the holding unit. I was to go to 1st Fd Sqdn and I was glad to go, because my former unit in the field had been attached to the fifth division. After pay parade on 28 Sept 43. I took a train to Reading. At six o'clock we started drinking. I met a friend of mine who had some spirits. We started drinking that will been. When it came time to return to camp the drink I had had made be stupefied and I didnt realize what time it was. Therefore I missed my train to camp. I had no other means of getting back. In the morning I figured it was no use to come back as I was too late for the draft and I knew I would be charged with jumping the draft and I could face it right then. I figured if I came back in a few days I would be charged with A.W.L. and I would serve my sentence and have another chance to go to the field as possibly an overseas draft. I had no intention of deserting while I was away.

Cross Exam:

I was present at parade of 0800 hours 27 Sept 43. I left camp at about 1600 hours 27 Sept 43. I was present for other parades of the draft that day. I was aware that I was on draft and my only excuse is that I was drinking.

By the Court:

It is about 12 to 15 miles from the Camp to Reading. I was not in a condition to walk back that night.

The evidence is read over to the accused.

The prosecution makes its final address.

The defending officer in his final address says:

Calls attention to necessity of "intent" which was not present. Drunk was cause of absence and he was a victim of circumstances. Would a deserter remain within 15 miles of his camp in a military uniform? He is not a deserter.

E-1.

Address by Defending Officer in Mitigation

Punishment should be light because:

The accused wanted to go on draft.

The accused was not C.B. and is intended to return that night. His staying away a few days is understandable.

Q.1 Will you identify yourself to the court?
A.1 I am D 26123 Sqn Sgt Major Patterson, HQ Sqn 4 Can Armd Div
Q.2 Will you tell the court the substance of the conversation we had with reference to the financial status of the accused?
A.2 Actually this is heresay evidence, I was informed by the Paymaster that this man has $25.00 assigned to his wife per months and there is also a payment of $10.00 marriage allowance and he has bought a war bond which takes $6.00 per month leaving him just over a $1.00 a month.

In the opinion of the court and the judge advocate it is not necessary to comply with the provisions of R.P. 83(b)

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

Mitigation by the Defence.

Mr. President and Gentlemen I would first like to point out that the accused came from California to join the Can Army as a volunteer at the age of 16. He was shortly boarded out of the army on medical grounds having very severe pneumonia and what was been described as one lung, this was in 1940. In Jan 41 he again volunteered and was accepted and has served ever since. He has recently become married, his wife is an A.T.S. and is now pregnant. Pregnancy to a medical man does not present the same mysteries and terrors it does to a layman, and those of you who are fathers will appreciate that fear which one anticipates particularly in ones own wife. They are partly natural fears and partly brought about. These fears were doubly present in the case of the accused who is at present only 19 years of age. His wife cannot find a hospital and is not feeling to well. I have here part of a letter from her which states "I have seen the Dr. again and she said she would try and book me up to Lewisham Hospital and if I cannot get in there I can be evacuated away to the country". That in itself would be cause for great alarm, let alone to a boy of 19. There would be expenses attached at the best of times which would put a severe strain on the finances of any enlisted man. In the case of the accused it has been pointed out that he has assigned $25.00 a month, and $10.00 for a war bond and $10.00 for some other thing. and he is now receiving $1.00 for himself. He has stated to me that previously he applied for a 48 hrs pass to see hiw wife and discuss this with her and for one reason or another this leave was not granted for a period of two weeks. He was worried and his wife was writing him every day, so he went A.W.L. to see her and to see if he could help straighten out the difficulties which I have mentioned, and which I maintain is perfectly natural on the part of anyone, particularly in the case of a 19 year old boy who missed that interesting period of growing up from the age of 16 to 19. I submit this man should never have been allowed to apply $10.00 of his pay towards a war bond and it is foolish to expect his to exist on $1.00 a month. I also submit that when he re-enlised there was certainly a definite lack of investigation at that time or he should not have been allowed to join until a year after that time so I think there is a definite blame for his period of A.W.L. In respect to the civilian clothing, that is something he has in mind, and that was to apply for work or acquire employment and in so doing get more money, and he has not intention of leaving the service of the crown.

Name James Jeffery, P.S.42.'P'.

Age . Occupation Police Sergeant.

Statement: At 10.45pm on 29th November 1943, in consequence of what I was told, I went to No.499a Bromley Road, Catford, S.E.6, where I saw Trooper Lloyd Greeson, age 21, Regt No.K.1143, of 4th Canadian Armoured Divisional H.Q., stationed at East Grinstead, Sussex, who had been absent from his Unit since 18.11.43.

I told him that I had reason to believe that he was an absentee and he said, "No I'm a Merchant Seaman". He then produced a Merchant Seaman's Continous Discharge Papers No.R.209380 in the name of Keith Brooks, born in Blayney, N.S.W., and he stated that they referred to himself and said, "I have been up to the Pool to-day to get another boat and a new Identity Card as I have lost mine". I questioned him for several minutes, during which time he insisted that he was a Merchant Seaman and the Papers produced were his own, but finally said, "All right I give up, I was in the Canadian Army".

I then told him that I should detain him and took him to Catford Police Station, on the way he said, "I went to Manchester about a week ago where I met a fellow in the Y.M.C.A. and we changed places, I gave him my uniform and he gave me his clothes and discharge I haven't the faintest idea who he was". When I questioned him about the Discharge Papers he said, "I admit altering the height from 5' 7" to 5' 9". Greeson was in civilian clothes.

RECORD FORM B--PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans ..... (5)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(*1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. CASE OF

E-1 K-1143 TROOPER GREESON, L.D., TOS "X-4" List, att No. 3 Cdn Armd Corps Rft Unit.

The accused, duly sworn, states:-

Sir, my age is 20 years of age. I was born on the 30th Aug 24. I joined the army, stating I had two years older than I was but I later in 42 declared my correct age when I was with the BC Dragoons in England. I was then sent to No. 3 CACRU. In Aug 44, I was sent to Roman Way Convalescent Hospital and I went AWL from there and I went over to France on my own. I surrendered myself to the American MP in Cherbourg: I was turned over to the Cdn MP and sent to No. 9 Prov and sent to CBRG at La D'Evremont. I was held in the guard-room under close arrest for sixty-four days without a trial. I was then taken before the OC of CBRG who sentenced me to one day FP and forfeiture of pay for the time I was under arrest. I was then sent to a forward unit which was the 4th Brig HQ. There I was driving an ammn truck. I was there three weeks when I received a letter from my wife, stating that my baby son was desperately ill. I went to the Sqn OC and asked him for compassionate leave. He said he'd see what he could do. I never heard a thing and I took things in my own hands and I went AWL. I arrived in England in Dec. I went immediately to Hethergreen Hospital. The doctor consulted me right away. He said the baby was on the dangerous list, and that he had not much chance. My wife was in a very nervous state and I sent her home right away. I stayed by the baby's bed until Dec 21 in the afternoon, when the baby died. My wife had a nervous break-down. In the meantime, I got a certificate from the doctor stating the baby's condition. I wrote that to the 4 Brig HQ 's OC and told him that as soon as everything would be cleared up, I would surrender myself. I gave my home address, 499A Bromley Rd, Downham Way, Bromley, Kent, and I have received no answer. I then surrendered myself to the police on the 5th Jan 45 and was sent to No. 3 CACRU. I was held there under close arrest. In the meantime, I received a letter from my wife, stating that I would probably get three years penal servitude for what I did and she was all folded up over that. I was working that evening and I escaped to go and see her. I realize now my great mistake and still wish to return to my unit and carry on with my job as a soldier. I am a Dvr IC Wheels, Painter Class 3 and Cook Class C. While at CBRG I asked the OC there if it was possible to be sent to the inf but I was sent to 4 Brig HQ Armd. My reason for wanting to transfer from armd is that in four years I have never been inside a tank. I have had two years inf trg with the United States Reserve Army.

Mr. President and Members of the Court:-

It might be of some interest before passing sentence on the accused to bear in mind a few details concerning his life.

As you know he is only ~~22~~ 20 years old and enlisted at the age of sixteen after he left his home in San Diego, California to join the Canadian Army. He married in 1943 in this country.

It has happened in the past that in some cases some innocent people had in an indirect way to suffer on account of a sentence passed by a Court.

In connection with this particular case I wish to make a special plea asking the mercy of the court on the accused for the a/m reason.

As I said before the accused married in 1943. On the 1 Jul 44 his wife gave birth to a child. Her state of health has been very poor since that date. As a matter of fact she is shortly due to undergo an operation at Lewisham Hospital and to make things worse she had the misfortune to lose her child on the 21 Dec 44.

There is no need to tell the court that the loss of her child was surely a shock for this young wife and it did affect her moral to a great extent. However she is doing all in her power to get through those difficult circumstances. She is working at the Queens Hall Cinema in Catford as an usherette. For her services she receives the sum of £1-4-0 per week and has to pay the sum of £1-0-0 a week for her room and board leaving her four shillings net. It is only with the help of the Cdn Government that she can manage to live.

In accordance with the Finance Regulations of the Cdn Army a soldier undergoing sentence, the Dependants Allowance is paid up to six months only. It is for all the above reasons that I am asking this Court again to bear in mind what will be the position of his wife if her Dependants Allowance is cut off. I feel sure that you will take this plea into consideration as a plea of mercy on behalf of the accused.

TRIAL OF

K.1143 Tpr GREESON LD 2 CGRU

PROSECUTION

FIRST WITNESS

D.82755 S/Sgt ASTON, Cdn Dtn Bks, ALTON, having been duly sworn, states:

On the 8-9-10 May I was on duty in Headley Dtn Bks, and at approx 1700 hrs 8 May, VE celebrations as they the SUS called it, started, with a bunch of SUS coming out of No. 3 Living Hut in "A" Compound. They headed towards No 1 Cell Block, and then More SUS joined them from Living Huts 2 and 1. These SUS proceeded down the steps toward Cell Block 1 and the parade then broke off and proceeded towards Cpl Gavins and Sgt Simmons in search of keys. I don't know if they were successful in procuring any keys off these two, but the parade then headed over towards me.

Q. Was the accused in this parade?
A. I cannot say, Sir.

Q. Would you go ahead?
A. Otherwise from apprehended SUS that were going over the fence there was no other disturbance that night, and up until midnight things were in a kind of an uproar, with SUS running here and there, and also the staff chasing them trying to get them to their huts, and with the exception of one SUS that did an immense amount of hollering there was very little damage done on the 8th. On the morning of the 9th my shift was dismissed and sent to breakfast and while at breakfast, [redacted] we had a call to return to the Compound immediately. Upon returning to the Compound we met a parade of SUS, approx 100-125, marching towards the Ord Room in columns of threes. They were given an order to return by Col Shankland, which they ignored and continued to the East Gate of "C" Compound. Myself and a number of the other men were given an order to proceed up the rd and try to cut them off. Upon reaching the staff quarters these SUS had gotten out and managed to disperse when they saw us coming but we managed to apprehend a few. On [redacted] returning to "A" Compound there was a considerable running around and milling about of SUS, and it was approx 11.30 A.M. was the first time and only time on the 9th that I came in contact with the accused, whom I now recognize. I was given an order to get the SUS into their huts to give them their mail and I then saw the accused. They ignored my order and the accused approached me and said "I'm the RSM, I'll call the parade". He had a stick under his arm which he was carrying in a regimental order. After the Mail Sgt brought the mail down and undertook to hand the mail out, in which manner I don't know. Then Maj-Gen Spry paid the SUS a visit and gave them a talk. Then after he gave his speech there was considerable running around here and there and everywhere in rather a disorderly manner, but personally I saw nothing broken. In the evening about 1730 hrs I saw a SUS gather a parade of other SUS on the Parade Square around him and he delivered a speech. After this SUS delivered the speech the remaining body headed for the Tower which was located on Cell Block 4. They started gathering WD eqpt, broken bed boards, paliases and material and they proceeded to pile them around the base of the Tower. I gave the alarm that they were about to set fire to the Tower and when I returned it had been lit. We got the Trailer Pump out and proceeded to uncoil the hose and after considerable interruption by SUS, myself and another Sgt managed to put the fire out. There was considerable rumming around that night as well, SUS running out and coming back in, numerous things were broken and it carried on until approx 2300-2330 hrs. The next morning, the 10th, we took a number of SUS to Redding Prison.

THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED

SUBMISSION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

I'd like to move that no offence has been shown; all the evidence has shown that good order and military discipline didn't exist at the time of any action. There was no good order and military discipline existing anywhere in that detn bks. Hehas been held now for some time waiting for this Court Martial. I don't want to object to the charge as he has been waiting fifty-one days. I refer you to the note of Section 40 of the MML (Def Offr reads the note). I'd like to move that the charge be dismissed against the accused.

REPLY BY THE PROS OFFR TO THE SUBMISSION

In regard to the statement of the defence; good order and military discipline didn't exist at that time; the prosecution maintains that the existence of good order and military discipline in any particular spot at any particular time is quite immaterial. The fact is that the behavious was going on which was to the prejudice of good order and military discipline and the prosecution feels that the evidence produced by its witnesses clearly shows that there were actions made by the accused which constitute conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline.

THE COURT CLOSES TO CONSIDER THE SUBMISSION

THE COURT IS RE-OPENED

THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES THAT THE SUBMISSION IS DISALLOWED

- DEFENCE -

DEF OFFR

The accused will not give evidence or make a statement and the defence will not call any witness.

STATEMENT BY THE PROS OFFR ON THE FINDINGS

STATEMENT BY THE DEF OFFR ON THE FINDINGS

The only evidence brought out against the accused that I can see is where, one, when he was to go to his location after being ordered to do so by an officer who didn't know where his location was and who said that he didn't go to his location; two, the damage to his eqpt; insofaras the damage to his eqpt goes, he is not charged with that nor for the damage to his cell block; such evidence is immaterial in a charge to the conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline. Any damage that hemay have done was done priorly while locked in his cell.

THE COURT IS CLOSED

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT BY THE DEF OFFR

The accused has a fairly lengthy MFM 6. He joined the Army at the age of 16 in 41. He came overseas in Oct 41. His past record is one of AWL mainly; no crimes but conduct which is to be expected of a lad of his age. He has paid for all that. He is now broughtup for his part in the disturbances at the Headby Detn Bks. To my knowledge he is the first one to be court-martialled, out of approx 500 SUS who were there at that time. The evidence has shown that his part was very minor. He was locked in his cell for part of the time and there is no evidence that he was a leader, in fact he cooperated with the staff. It was his misfortune that he was in cell block 4 as all the men from that block were transferred to Reading. While many of the others escaped, the accused had only some six weeks to run on his sentence to be set in bounds. I also would ask the Court to remember that this disturbance occurred on VE-Day, when everyone feels like celebrating, that the accused was one of the 500 and not a leader, that since he finished his former sentence on 16 Jun 45; that he has been held 48 days waiting his CM under close arrest in Reading Jail, while the charges have been decreased from mutiny to the charge he was up for to-day. I feel that theman has been punished enough merely by having to wait for this CM, and may I ask the Court to be as lenient as it feels it possible when awarding punishment in this case.

FIRST WITNESS:

D 82755, S/Sgt. ASTON J., on strength No. 4 Cdn. Mil. Prison & Detn. Bks., having been duly sworn states:

I am D 82755, S/Sgt. ASTON J., on strength No. 4 Cdn. Mil. Prison & Detn. Bks. On 8, 9, and 10 May, 1945, I was on strength No. 1 Cdn. ~~Mil. Prison &~~ Detn. Bks., employed as a Warden. At approximately 1700 hrs, 8 May 45, I saw a group of about thirty SUS walking down the steps towards No. 1 Cell Block. They proceeded on to the Parade Square where they stopped Sgt. SIMMONS. Two SUS, whom I cannot identify, searched him. I heard someone shout, "Get the keys from ASTON." As I had the keys for No. 7, 8, 9, and 10 Cell Blocks, I ran away from the Parade Square and deposited these keys in safe-keeping, returning at once to the Parade Square. The balance of the evening was spent in apprehending SUS who were wandering around in the Compound. There was considerable shouting and yelling going on until about 2400 hrs. While at breakfast on 9 May 45, I was called to the Compound, at approximately 0845 hrs. On the way to the Compound I met a large group of about one hundred SUS, marching in order towards "C" Compound. They were ordered to turn back by Lt. Col. SHANKLIN, but ignored this order. We proceeded, by order of Lt. Col. SHANKLIN, to the East Gate to head them off. At least one of these SUS struck at a member of the Staff who was apprehending him. The balance of the day was spent in apprehending SUS who were trying to escape. At approximately 1130 hrs., I went to "A" Compound to try to get the SUS into their living quarters for distribution of mail. I saw the accused, who said that he would fall in the parade as he was R.S.M. He was carrying a stick under his arm. At approximately 1800 hrs. I saw SUS GRAVELLE standing on a hand-cart, talking to a large group of SUS. As soon as he finished talking, they all headed for the look-out tower, located on top of No. 4 Cell Block. Numerous SUS were carrying palliases, stools, blankets, and bed-boards. I saw GRAVELLE proceed to the top of the tower with a palliase. Immediately after this, the fire in the look-out tower started. While I was helping to put out the fire, I noted various SUS attempting to cut the hose, and interfere in any way they could. I did not see nor hear the accused break anything, disobey any direct order, threaten anyone nor address or lead any body of men. I did not see nor hear the accused do or say anything to attempt to settle any of the disorders.

The accused questions this witness;

1. Question - At the time that I told you I would form a parade, would you say that this was being meant as a helping gesture to you and the Staff?

1. Answer - Yes.

On 8 May 45, I had just been dismissed from duty at 1700 hrs. when the alarm bell rang. I went back and stood by for any emergency. During the course of the evening there was continuous shouting and noise throughout the Compound. It was during this evening that I saw the accused throwing some articles out of the window. On morning of 9 May 45, when I walked by the Cell Block No. 4, the accused asked me if I wanted to buy some stuff, and pointed at equipment and broken bed-boards lying on the ground outside his cell. Everyone in these Cell Blocks was shouting and making a noise. I left the Cell Blocks and met a group of SUS, one of whom shouted, "Let's get them." Thinking they referred to the keys, I disposed of them on the roof of No. 4 Cell Block. I walked out to the centre of the Parade Square where I was surrounded by about thirty SUS, who asked me for the keys. I told them that I had not the keys and they left me. They then approached Sgt. SIMMONS, and I saw one SUS grasp him by the shoulder. After this they dispersed and returned to the fence. I then went around the Compound, apprehending several SUS and turning them over to S/Sgt. ASTON. By order, I returned to Cell Blocks No's. 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 to remove all equipment from the cells excepting blankets and palliases. On 8 May 45 after lunch I was talking to the fellow in Cell 8 (AC4) but was not making a big noise. Just after supper on 8 May 45 Sgt. SIMMONS and Cpl. GAVINS and Cpl. I did not smash or break anything in my cell, which was No. 9. I had my palliase and blankets and went to bed immediately. I was not making any noise and heard nothing being smashed at any time in our cell block (AC4).

On Wednesday morning, 9 May 45, at about 0900 or 0930 hrs I heard Major GRAYSON instruct Sgt SIMMONS and Cpl. GAVINS to release us in AC4, which they did. Major GRAYSON instructed us not to commit any damage such as was done in other cell blocks. I went up with S.U.S. DOLL to AH 2 and sat on the grass outside. We ate up there and after dinner I was talking for some time to the S.P.O. I did not carry a club at any time, nor was I creating any disturbance.

D.82755 S/Sgt. Aston J., on strength #4 Cdn Mil Prison & Detn Blks, having been duly sworn, states —

I am D.82755 S/Sgt Aston J., on strength #4 Cdn Mil Prison & Detn Blks. On 7, 8 & 9 May 45, I was on strength #1 Cdn ~~Mil Prison~~ Detn Blks, employed as a Warden. At approximately 1700 hrs., 8 May 45, I saw a group of about thirty (30) SHS walking down the steps towards #1 Cell Block. They proceeded on to the Parade Square where they stopped. Sgt Simmons, two SHS, whom I cannot identify, searched him. I had come on shift - "to the keys from Aston". As I had the keys for #7, 8, & 9 Cell Blocks I ran away from the Parade Square and deposited these keys in safe keeping, returning alone to the Parade Square. The balance of the evening was spent in apprehending SHS who were wandering around in the Compound. There was considerable shouting and yelling going on until about 2400 hrs. Until breakfast on 9 May 45, I was called to the Compound, at approximately 0845 hrs. On the way to the Compound I met a large group of about one hundred (100) SHS, marching ~~in~~ in order towards 'C' Compound. They were ordered to turn back by Lt/Col Shanklen, but ~~ignored~~ this order. We proceeded, by order of Lt/Col Shanklen to the East Cab to head them off. At least one of these SHS struck at a member of the Staff who was ~~apprehending~~ him. The balance of the day was spent in apprehending SHS who were trying to escape. At approximately 1930 hrs I went to A Compound to try to get the 345 into their living quarters for celebration & mail. I saw the accused who said that he would fall in the parade as he was R.S.M. He was carrying a table under his arm. At approximately 1800 hrs I saw 345 Gravelle standing on a hand-cart, talking to a large group of 345. As soon as he finished talking they all headed for the look-out tower, located on top of #4 Cell Block. Various 345 were carrying pallasses, stools, blankets, and cut-boards. I saw Gravelle proceed to the top of the tower with a pallasse. Immediately after this, the fire in the look-out tower started. While I was helping to put out the fire, I noticed various 345 attempting to settle down, and interfere in any way they could. I did not see nor hear the accused break anything, disobey any direct order, threaten anyone nor address or lead any body of men. I did not see nor hear the accused do or say anything to attempt to settle any of the disorders.

The accused questions the witness,-

1. Question - At the time that I told you I would form the parade, would you say that this was being meant as a helping gesture to you and the staff?
1. Answer - Yes.

On 8 May 45, I had just been dismissed from duty at 1700 hrs when the alarm bell rang. I went back and stood by for any emergency. During the course of the evening there was continuous shouting and noise throughout the compound. It was during this evening that I saw the accused throwing ~~equipment out~~ articles of kit out of the window. On morning of 9 May 45, when I was called by the Cell Block #4, the accused asked me if I wanted to buy some stuff, and points at equipment & broken bed boards lying on the ground outside his cell. I ignored this, and kept on walking.

I am K 67057 Cpl. Cairns J., on strength #4 Cdn Prison & Detn. Blks., employed as Warden. On 8, 9, & 10 May 45, I was on strength #1 Cdn ~~Prison~~ Detn. Blks., employed as a Warden. On 8 May 45, at approximately 1700 hrs I was standing beside #1 Cell Block when I saw a group of SHS leave living hut #3 and head for the fence. They were joined by a group from living hut #2. I went back into #4 Cell Blocks to check that all doors were properly locked. Everyone in these Cell Blocks was shouting and making a noise. I left the Cell Blocks and met a group of SHS, one of whom shouted, "- hat's get them". I thinking they referred to the keys, I disposed of them on the roof of #4 Cell Block. I walked onto the centre of the Parade Square where I was surrounded by about thirty (30) SHS, who asked me for the keys. I told them that I had not the keys and they left me. They then approached Sgt. Simmons, and I saw the SHS grasp him by the soldier. After this they dispersed and returned to the fence. I then went around the Compound, approached several SHS and turning them over to W/Sgt. Aston. By order, I returned to Cell Blocks #1, 2, 3, 4, 25 to remove all equipment from the cells excepting blankets and palliasses. When I came to the Cell occupied by the accused, [illegible] found that only his towel and steel helmet were left in the cell. After completing this check, I went outside and found that the small pack, respirator, shaving kit, clothing, bed boards and stool ~~of the~~ accused were outside the window of his cell. The bed boards and stool were broken. At about 1330 hrs, I saw a group of SS men out from cell blocks and head for the fence. I went over to assist in apprehending these SS. After this things quietened down for the night.

The accused puts no questions this witness.

1. Question - At the time you served breakfast 7 May 45 and up until you were relieved, was the radiator at the wall of my cell broken?

1. Answer - No.

2. Question - After breakfast was finished ~~was everyone~~ was locked in his cell except SS Doll who was orderly?

I am #13196 Sgt. Simmons A, on strength #4 Cda Mil Prison & Detn. Blks. 2nd, 3rd, 4th, & 10th May 45, I was on strength #1 Cda Mil. Prison & Detn. Blks, employed as Warder. On the 8th May 45, I was in charge of #1, 2, 3, 4, & 5 Cell Blocks. At approximately 1200 hrs, 8 May 45, I saw a group of SHS break out of #3 living Hut. Some of this group had blankets and ran to the fence. I then saw two or three SHS men away from the fence on the outside. After this some of these SHS came back passed #1, 2, 3 & 4 Cell Blocks and I heard someone say, "Here they are, hats get the keys". I then went to the Parade Square, where three SHS surrounded me and searched me for the keys. One SHS made a threatening gesture with his fist at me. Some of them held my arms while the remainder ran their hands over me in search of the keys. After this they scattered towards the fence. At 1200 hrs pulled one man down off the fence. The table from #4 Cell Block was standing up against the fence. We took this table back into the Cell Block. By this time, most of the SHS had been brought back to their living Hut by the Staff. We then locked them down in their Cell Blocks, having first removed everything except blankets and palliasses up to 1400 hrs, I could hear sounds of shouting around the Compound. Broke a bench, and some bars were thrown out of the window of #3 living Hut on the morning of 9 May, I was put on [illegible] with Staff Sears in #4 Cell Block, getting the men up and giving them their breakfast. At approximately 0830 hrs., we started to go to the Cook House for breakfast. Immediately after breakfast, we were called back to the Compound. I got as far as the Orderly Room when I saw a large body of men come from "A" Compound through "C" Compound and on the East Gate. I went with all the Staff, out of the Main Gate to head them off. When the SAS saw us coming they scattered, and made for the bush, and we chased them. I returned at approximately 1100 hrs and had dinner. At 1630 hrs, I reported back for duty, saw the N.C.O. and was sent to bed for the night. When I went to get the equipment out of the cells, I found that the bed board from the cell of the accused was broken and lying outside the window, together with his ~~coat~~ kit and equipment. The grille on his door was loose. He said they wanted it out so they've got out. I did not hear or see the accused disobey any direct order, nor make any threatening gesture, nor did I see the accused outside the Cell Block.

I saw S.S. ~~ground~~ running up with S.S. who had escaped from Hut #3 and marched along towards the fence past #1 Hut. D. 135619. Jean Gregoire R. de Chaud being duly sworn makes the following statement:-

On the morning of Aug. 9 was off the whole afternoon I asked my fellow companion if he would come with me to I could go to the pub. I left the pub. when it closed changed my clothes and went to Brighton. In Brighton I went and had drinks somewhere I don't know where. Then about 10 hrs I went to another Pub. I stayed there till about ten thirty then went home with my chum to go to bed I went to the kitchen and sat down to the table as I wanted to eat. I decided to go to bed. and saw my rifle in the corner of the room decided to take it up with me. I looked at the rifle and left with my chum who was going to put me to bed. As I passed by Sgt. Lewis's room. I was talking to my friend probably a little loud. and Sgt Lewis told me to go to bed. I replied a little loudly. He told me he would place me under close arrest the next morning. I went upstairs took off my tunic and ankletts then I started thinking he was going to place me under close arrest and it made me sore. I took what I had in my hand my rifle. I went down stairs and asked him if he would remove the charge against me. He harranged for about ten minutes then I said good night. I left my room and I was on my way to go to bed. I then changed my mind. I had some noise in the room and thought if they are trying to scare me I will scare them. I took my rifle and fired the shot a few seconds later Sgt Lewis took it away from me we shuffled about and they lifted me up between two of them and held me. Then the third Sgt came in

... then the Provost came
... When I was on the floor I received blows on the back.
These blows were apparently given by the third Sgt. If I did this it is only because I was under the influence of liquor: my conduct has always been good. my chiefs will prove this.
The Prosecution questions the accused
Q. Have you any reason to hate Sgt. Lewis
A. I have no reason. I never spoke to him or him to me.
Q. Do you remember saying if it took twenty years you would get back at him.
A. Let him give me twenty years I don't care.
Q. You say you heard noise when you left the room what sort of noise?
A. Like chairs being moved
Q. Did you have a bayonet on your rifle ~~today~~ when you went to the room.
A. I am not sure.
Q. When the Sgt said you would be placed under arrest did he say close arrest or open arrest.
A. I don't know.
Q Did you strike Sgt Lewis in the face with your fist.
A. I don't know. It was dark. I tried to hit him I scuffled with him.

He replied"I would like to tell you all about it".

STATEMENT of evidence against Pte.Gregorie,J.
by Sgt.Lewis,A. No.L.27836 Regina Rifles Regiment.

Sir,

At approximately 2320 hrs Pte.Gregorie, J. entered the billets very noisy and under the influence of liquer. I told him to make less noise and get to bed, which he replied "Fuck you,Sgt".

He continued to make a noise for a few minutes on his way upstairs.

Between 10 or 15 minutes later, he came to my room with his rifle and fixed bayonet and asked me if he was up for orders.

I told him to save himself a lot of trouble, he had better go up to bed. I was in bed at the time when I ordered him to go to bed, he then challenged me to come outside, which I ignored him.

He went out of the room himself, and while outside I heard him say that he had one round in his rifle and four in his pockets, and threatened to kill me.

I got up and pushed my door to and waited for him, thinking he would enter my room again.

He did, and fired a round and I immediately wrestled with him. Sgt.Croucher,who was with me at the time, immediately came to my assistance.

We then deprived him of all his belongings.

He then told me he did'nt care if it took him 20 years he would get me.

He then started to shout in French, but I could not understand him.

Sgt.Sutherland understanding French and not liking what he was saying, started to scuffle with him and threw him on the floor, where he laid until the Military Police arrived.

No. 21356 Pte Gregorie J. Support Coy.
Chaudiere Sgt. 3 Cdn Div.
Stationed at 45 Holland Rd. Hove Sussex

Pte Gregorie entered No. 45 Holland Rd at approx 2320 hrs in an intoxicated condition. He was rather noisy and Sgt Lewes who was in charge of discipline, ordered the abovementioned to keep quiet and go to bed.

When Gregorie persisted in causing a disturbance, Sgt. Lewes quickly put him under arrest. The a/m went to his room, procured his rifle, with bayonet attached and came downstairs to challenge the Sgt.

After making threatening remarks the a/m waited outside the Sgt's room with rifle and bayonet.

After a short consultation between Sgt Croucher and Sgt Lewes both occupants of the room, it was decided to open the door and rush Gregorie for the purpose of disarming him.

Gregorie fired a shot, then Sgt Lewis rushed him and disarmed him.

Sgt Sutherland, on hearing the scuffle, came out of his room and the hit the a/m with his fist, knocking the latter out.

I was notified of the occurrence and immediately called the Military Police in Brighton.

When they arrived on the scene, Gregorie was still on the floor and order had been restored.

3rd August,1943.

Statement of No.D135619 Pte.Gregorie,J. Support Company,Regt.Chaudiers,3rd Cdn.Div. Stationed at 45 Holland Road, Hove, Sussex.

I have been cautioned by C.S.M.Crombie Corps of Military Police, in company with Cpl.Marcolin,No.8 Cdn.Provost Company, that I need say nothing unless I wish, but anything I do say will be taken down in writing and may be used in evidence.

To shew that I understand the caution I sign my name:-

Jean Gregoire

On the evening of the 2nd August,1943,I was off duty and went out into Brighton and visited several Public Houses and had several drinks. I cant remember how many, I had, but I know that I spent £3. 0. 0.

After the Public Houses had closed I went back to my billet,which is at 45 Holland Road,Hove, at about 2300 hrs, I then went to the cookhouse, where I am employed as a cook,picked up my rifle,had a good look at it,then carried it up to my room. On my way to my room I had to pass Sgt.Lewes' room.

I saw him standing in the doorway, he said to me "Gregorie,go to bed". I replied "Fuck you,if you want a fight,come here and I am ready". The Sgt.then closed the door. I then took one round of .303 ammunition out of my tunic and loaded the rifle. I went to Sgt.Lewes' bedroom and opened his door with my bayonet, and there saw Sgt.Lewes. I lifted my rifle to my shoulder and fired, aiming at a glass jug.

I did not intend to harm him or cause any injury, but I did it because I don't like Sgt.Lewes and thought it would just scare him.

After I had fired,Sgt.Lewes rushed at me and took the rifle from me, and while he was trying to get the rifle from me I hit him in the face.

I wish to say that I am very sorry for what I did last night and I know it would not have happened if I had been sober.

I further wish to state that I knew the round of .303 was a blank.

Jean Gregoire

I have read over this statement and it is true, and I made it of my own free will.

Jean Gregoire

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of D 135619 Pte Jean, GREGOIRE of the Canadian Army, 1st Battalion "Le Regiment de la Chaudiere" placed on Active Service.

The C.O. directed that the evidence be taken by oath.

1st WITNESS

L 27836 Sgt Ansell, LEWIS, Bn H.Q. Regina Rifle Regiment, having been duly sworn, states:-

In the 2nd day of August 1943, at about 2320 hrs, Pte GREGOIRE, J. that I now recognize, came in our billets under the influence of liquor. He was making noise and I told him to be quiet and to go to bed. His reply was: "Fuck you Sgt". I placed him under open arrest; he then went upstairs. About 10 or 15 minutes later he came in my bedroom with a rifle and fixed bayonet asking me if he was up for orders. I told him to save himself a lot of trouble, to go to bed, He went out of my room and made a statement that he had one round in his rifle and four more in his pocket. He said that, when he was just outside the room and the door was opened. He also said he would shoot me or words to that effect. Finally he was about to enter my room and fired a blank. I immediately wrestled with him, while doing so Sgt Croucher who sleeps in my room and was there all the time came to my assistance. We searched Pte GREGOIRE, taking away his personal belongings but did not find the rounds he mentioned. One of the boys phoned for the Provost. While we were waiting Pte GREGOIRE said to me he would get me if it was one, two or twenty years. He then started to shout in what I think was French: Sgt Sutherland then wrestled with the accused. He threw him to the floor where he remained until the Provost Police arrived.

Questioned by the accused.

1-Q. Who kicked me in the back while I was laying down, I still have marks in the back?

A. I never saw anybody kicking him.

2-Q. Who is the 3rd person who arrived when you and another Sgt were holding me?

A. I don't know who you ~~turn~~ as the 3rd person but after the shot was fired a lot of the boys came downstairs.

Questioned by Officer taking summary of evidence.

1-Q. When the accused arrived did you order him to go to bed or simply tell him?

A. I simply told, I never ordered him.

2-Q. Did you challenge him or said anything that could be called provocation?

A. I did not.

Sgt Ansell Lewis.

2nd WITNESS

D 3034 Sgt CROUCHER, H.D., C. Squadron, 7th Recce Regt, having been duly sworn, states:-

On the 2nd day of August, at about 2320 hrs, Pte GREGOIRE, J. whom I now recognize, entered the house making quite a lot of noise. Sgt Lewis told him to go to bed. GREGOIRE told him: "Fuck you Sgt"or words of the kind. We were both in the room when GREGOIRE came back, he had a rifle with a fixed bayonet on. GREGOIRE asked Sgt Lewis if he was up for orders in the morning and Lewis did not reply directly to his question. Instead Lewis told him to save himself a lot of trouble, he had better go to bed. Then GREGOIRE went out and I heard him talking to himself saying he had one round in the rifle and four in his pocket. Lewis closed the door, The next thing that happened is that the door was pushed opened, a shot fired almost immediately and Sgt Lewis went out the door and wrestled with GREGOIRE. Then I went to Sgt Lewis'assistance. We took the rifle from him and searched him and took everything out of his pockets. A lot of the boys came downstairs when they heard the shot. Then GREGOIRE said he will get Lewis in a month, 2 years or 20 years. He then exactly spoke in French for a minute or two and Sgt Sutherland replied to him in French and then wrestled with him and threw him to the floor where he staid till Provost arrived.

The accused does not wish to question the witness.

On the 3rd of August, 1943, at about 0945 hrs, I saw Pte GREGOIRE detained at BRIGHTON POLICE STATION. I said to him: " I am making an inquiry into allege shooting at a Sgt at 45, Holland Rd, HOVE, on the night of the 2nd". He replied: " I'll tell you all about it". I cautioned him and took his statement in writing which he read over and signed. I then charged him with discharging fire arm in his barrack room. When charged he replied: " I understand".

The accused does not wish to question the witness.

A few minutes after that a shot was fired. I came down and tried to reason GREGOIRE but he would not and I had to wrestled with him.

Questioned by the accused.

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 85(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 12 Jan 43 I ordered the accd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

Statement in Mitigation of Punishment

This man's crime that has gotten a number of A. W. L. charges on it and in applying for mitigation of punishment I would like to try to bring out a few things about his character. I will show you that although the man has a large number of A. W. L. charges he does not go A. W. L. with any willful intent and always comes back by himself and that he has always performed his duties entirely satisfactorily.

Firstly the man, when he is with the unit always does a good job and any of the officers he has served under will substantiate this statement. The only time he goes A. W. L. is when he starts to drink.

The man is known to be an habitual drunkard and although there are times when he does try hard to overcome this, it is one habit that is really hard to cure. The reason for the [illegible] rather excessive drinking in this the man has seen serious family worries.

Now I'd like to say a few words about the man's service - he served for over a year and a half with the Intelligence section and during that time his work was always very valuable. When serving under an officer he really takes an interest in his work, this is borne out by the fact that under first such an officer he served for two months without a charge. I will later call this officer to give the court a character reference.

This man is honestly, really useful to the unit and could be a great asset when the unit goes into action. This awful weakness for drink will not show up then and it could be a shame to send him away so that he will miss this chance.

Really it is not the fact of the amount of dishonest gain that will make him [illegible] than he is as I have said it is his [illegible] that is to blame [illegible] can be cured in a detention camp in fact likely the opposite.

This mans character is really very good aside from this habit. He is always polite and of good appearance. He is very intelligent and always cheerful. He is very well liked by both officers and men of the regiment. A great number of the officers have come to me and told me to do my best for him.

Gentlemen I hope I have given you a little better view of a man who is certainly not unfairly had. I would like ~~him~~ to call as a witness the officer under whom he served when he went for ten months without a charge.

I call Capt Cuddihy the Adjutant of the R. de Chaix.

F.W. McGarry Lt. R.C.C.S.
Regt de Chaix.

Capt. Cuddihy, Capt + Adj (R de Chaix) made a statement to the effect that accused whilst serving under him (as L/Cpl), had only two charges in a period of ten months; that he found accused an excellent soldier, conscientious, but that he is weak-willed and easily influenced. He suggests that the accused should be considered more a victim of his own friends than of himself.

"??????????????" M.O.

1st Pro Unit, Capt J. Langlois, Pus M.R. duly sworn states:

I am QM Pus MR and i/c B Ech. On the morning of the battle of the Church of St-Martin-sur-Orme, 1 Aug 44, the accd whom I recognised reported to me at Caen. He had no web or equipment or rifle. I asked him for His authorization to have come back and he had no such authorization. So I took him to the 2 i/c MM Sauve, who was L.O.B. at the time. I then took Acc to stores to reequip him. I then told him that he was to return immediately to the front line and report to his Coy Comdr. I ordered my storemen to reequip him and write a note to his Coy Comdr. I then told Acc "Be ready to leave with the ration truck in a few minutes". This was about 1500 hrs. A few minutes later Acc had disappeared - his rifle, web and equipment were all ready but we could't find him. That night and every day after that he was absent from all parades until apprehended by the Provost. The Acc had no permission of any kind to leave the B Ech area.

Cross Ex

I personally told Acc to return to his Coy in the front line. Cpl Thifault was present and maybe 1 or 2 of my storemen.

No Re Ex

Court - The Coy of the Acc was in battle that day. That is why I couldn't understand why he reported to B Ech at that time of day. When he reported back he appeared quite normal. He came right in and reported. He said he had been under fire for several days and hadn't slept for 5 nights. His Coy tho' had been in second line for a few days. He said a direct hit had hit his slit trech and destroyed his rifle and his equipment. We have instructions that no man can return to B Ech without an O.K. from the C.O.

2nd Pro Unit D63011 L/Cpl Thifault, T. Pus MR., duly sworn deposes:

I am clerk in Q.M. Stores. On this day Capt Langlois told me to equip the acc. I was present when Capt Langlois said to the Acc to go back to his Coy after he was reequipped.

Cross Ex

I swear Capt Langlois told him he was to go back to his Coy in the front line. I got the web and rifle ready.

Re Ex Capt Langlois told Acc to wait till he was equipped.

RF 87(h) complied with.

3rd Pro Unit Lt Y.M.J. Tremblay, Pus MR., duly sworn deposes:

I present the certificate of apprehension relating to the Acc whom I recognize. This is Exh A

Court Nil

The Acc duly sworn deposes:

On 1 Aug 44 I reported to our B Ech after being in front line and having lost all my kit. After the attack on the Church in St-Martin I was in a trench and I left the trench to go to a barn to have a crap. Whilst in the barn they started to shell & mortar us which lasted about 15 to 20 minutes. When I returned to find my kit I went from one trench to another and couldn't find my kit. I couldn't find my own trench. I was excited from the shelling. After that as I had no kit and I saw nobody around I didn't know what to do, I kept looking until I hit the road where I got picked up by a jeep going to Caen. There I reported to Capt Langlois. He took me to the QM Stores. He told Thifault to note the articles I needed to return. While he was checking the articles I left and went to the toilet. Coming back I met the PMR and asked him if I could draw some money. He gave me 200 francs. I felt like a drink so I went to a cafe and had a drink. I kept on drinking with friends from the R de Mais. I kept on drinking. I drank all the time until I sobered up and reported to the C.M.P. on 12 Aug.

Cross Ex

My kit was inside the trench. There was noone around when I returned from barn. The jeep was an RCR jeep. I stopped it and asked for a ride. I didn't know any other Bn location except the B Ech in Caen. While riding to Caen I saw no one from the unit. I was broke when I reported to CMP. Don't know why I wanted money to go back with. Just for a drink.

No Re Ex I was with D Coy. With it since 26 Jul 44. Was after units forst attack. I served with Coy from 26 Jul to 1 Aug. I wasn't on the attack on the Church. I had been left behind as I was too nervous. In my time with the Coy I only knew where B Ech was. I explained to Maj Sauve what had happened. I drank for 10 days on 200 francs. I won money shooting crap. I don't remember Capt Langlois telling me to return but I do remember him telling Thifault in my hearing that I had to go back. I rode about 20 minutes in the jeep with 2 men. I can't remember what patches they had or what was it they belonged to. Can't remember what we talked about.

I was left out of the attack by L/Cpl Durocher. On 26 Jul when I joined the unit we were about 25.

I had my first crap in the barn about 0830. I was picked up bythe jeep about 1130. Between these hours I kept running from trench to trench. Between these hours I saw some men with A/Tk guns. I didn't go over as they were shelling. This kept up from 0830 to 1130.

I had no trouble getting food in Caen.
The L/Cpl didn't take me on the attack. He left me behind. He didn't tell me I could stay there. He didn't tell me to come so I stayed .

RP 83(b) complied with.

Pros Offr.

11 Sep 44

1. The accused shows his intention to evade his duty by not following his section into the attack and by not having had any orders to remain behind.

2. Later on, after the attack, when no one was around he leaves the trench to go to a barn for natural needs. Returning therefrom he fails to find his trench and equip. Erring around the area he makes no effort to return to his Coy even though he sees a section of A/Tk people he never contacts them to get the whereabouts of his coy. On the contrary, he works his way back to the main Caen Rd and returns to B Ech with the apparent intention of getting some money from the Paymaster. There, though warned of his immediate return to the Front Line, he proceeds in obtaining money from the Paymaster and making his exit from B Ech area. He gives himself up to the C.M.P. approx 11 days later after having spent his money and apparently incapable of getting any more.

I feel that the accused showed no sense of responsibility in the whole matter.

"Y.M.J. Tremblay" Lt

Les Fus M.R.

Gentlemen,

The accused Pte G is charged with desertion and I wish to point to the Court that it is shown at the bottom of page 437 of Army Act that intention must be proved and in this case the Prosecution has failed to do so. A statement has been given by Capt Langlois that Pte Gregoire had told him a story which he did not believe. Unfortunately Capt Langlois has never been on the front line as he would know that lots of things are happening on the front line. Pte Gregoire was left behind as he was having a crap and very nervous. He suffered an intensive shelling, he did not know what to do. He looked for his equipment after thirty minutes of intensive shelling and finally reached his Unit. He had no intention of deserting as he would have done so at the first place. He would not return to his unit, but he did. He went in a cafe while waiting to go back to his coy. The cafe was right beside the R Yeu, he had drinks. As he was French speaking he made friends among French people. He was fed freely and finally when sobbering up he gave himself up to the Provost; here is another definite proof that the accused is not guilty of desertion. Evidence has been brought in to prove that Pte Gregoire has been AWL for ten days but no evidence whatsoever has proved the intention of deserting. I demand that the charge against him be changed to a charge of being AWL.

STATEMENT OF MITIGATION

Before you is important case. Must punish a bad soldier. But if you look at the life story of Acc you'll find that he enlisted in 39. He left Canada and home and family in 1940. He has served his country for four years in England, and finally he has been risking his life to secure all our principles of democracy. He has been doing so for 5 days on the Front Line. As he looks home to Canada he sees thousands of young men like him wearing civilian clothing, sitting safely with their families listening over the radio to the sacrifices our soldiers are making here. In a few weeks the war will be over and those young men will live happy without wondering about casualties. Gentlemen, you must decide whether this man has he to spend more years of his life which has been already spoiled. Must decide whether Acc deserves more than his comrades he lft behind safely in Canada.

I want you to think conscientiously and to give all consideration you can to this soldier who has been willing and who has tried to do his duty. I'm sure youwill give him every possible chance.

Ask for leniency of Court.

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 63.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 49(E), KR Con 383(e).)

I certify that I have examined D 56567 Pte Leon Gregoire and that I find him fit to undergo trial by Court-Martial.

"????????????????" M.O.

1st Pro Unit, Capt J. Langlois, Pus M.R. d uly sworn states:

I am QM Pus MR and i/c B Ech. On the morning of the battle of the Church of St-Martin-sur-Orme, 1 Aug 44, the accd whom I recognised reported to me at Caen. He had no web or equipment or rifle. I asked him for his authorization to have come back and he had no such authorization. So I took him to the 2 i/c MM Sauve, who was L.O.B. at the time. I then took Acc to stores to reequip him. I then told him that he was to return immediately to the front line and report to his Coy Comdr. I ordered my storemen to reequip him and write a note to his Coy Comdr. I then told Acc "Be ready to leave with the ration truck in a few minutes". This was about 1500 hrs. A few minutes later Acc had disappeared - his rifle, web and equipment were all ready but we could't find him. That night and every day after that he was absent from all parades until apprehended by the Provost. The Acc had no permission of any kind to leave the B Ech area.

Cross Ex

I personally told Acc to return to his Coy in the front line. Cpl Thifault was present and maybe 1 or 2 of my storemen.

No Re Ex

Court - The Coy of the Acc was in battle that day. That is why I couldn't understand why he reported to B Ech at that time of day. When he reported back he appeared quite normal. He came right in and reported. He said he had been under fire for several days and hadn't slept for 5 nights. His Coy tho' had been in second line for a few days. He said a direct hit had hit his slit trech and destroyed his rifle and his equipment. We have instructions that no man can return to B Ech without an O.K. from the O.C.

RF 83(b) complied with.

2nd Pro Unit D63011 L/Cpl Thifault, T. Pus MR., duly sworn deposes:

I am clerk in Q.M. Stores. On this day Capt Langlois told me to equip the acc. I was present when Capt Langlois said to the Acc to go back to his Coy after he was reequipped.

Cross Ex

I swear Capt Langlois told him he was to go back to his Coy in the front line. I got the web and rifle ready.

Re Ex Capt Langlois told Acc to wait till he was equipped.

RF 87(h) complied with.

(The Defence has no objection to this witness)

Court Wil

The Acc duly sworn deposes:

On 1 Aug 44 I reported to our B Ech after being in front line and having lost all my kit. After the attack on the Church in St-Martin I was in a trech and I left the trench to go to a barn to have a crap. Whilst in the barn they started to shell & mortar us which lasted about 15 to 20 minutes. When I returned to find my kit I went from one trench to another and couldn't find my kit. I couldn't find my own trench. I was excited from the shelling. After that as I had no kit and I saw nobody around & didn't know what to do, I kept looking until I hit the road where I got picked up by a jeep going to Caen. There I reported to Capt Langlois. He took me to the QM Stores. He told Thifault to note the articles I needed to return. While he was checking the articles I left and went to the toilet. Coming back I met the PMR and asked him if I could draw some money. He gave me 200 francs. I felt like a drink so I went to a cafe and had a drink. I kept on drinking with friends from the R de Mais. I kept on drinking. I drank all the time until I sobered up and reported to the C.M.P. on 12 Aug.

Cross Ex

My kit was inside the trench. There was noone around when I returned from barn. The jeep was an RCE jeep. I stopped it and asked for a ride. I didn't know any other Bn location except the B Ech in Caen. While riding to Caen I saw no one from the unit. I was broke when I reported to CMP. Don't know why I wanted money to go back with. Just for a drink.

No Re Ex I was with D Coy. With it since 26 Jul 44. Was after units forst attack. I served with Coy from 26 Jul to 1 Aug. I wasn't on the attack on the Church. I had been left behind as I was too nervous. In my time with the Coy I only knew where B Ech was. I explained to Maj Sauve what had happened. I drank for 10 days on 200 francs. I won money shooting crap. I don't remember Capt Langlois telling me to return but I do remember him telling Thifault in my hearing that I had to go back. I rode about 20 minutes in the jeep with 2 men. I can't remember what patches they had or what was it they belonged to. Can't remember what we talked about.

I was left out of the attack by L/Cpl Durocher. On 26 Jul when I joined the unit we were about 25.

I had my first crap in the barn about 0630. I was picked up bythe jeep about 1130. Between these hours I kept running from trench to trench. Between these hours I saw some men with A/Tk guns. I didn't go over as they were shelling. This kept up from 0830 to 1130.

I had no trouble getting food in Caen.
The L/Cpl didn't take me on the attack. He left me behind. He didn't tell me I could stay there. He didn't tell me to come so I stayed .

RP 83(b) complied with.

Closing address of the Prosecution by Lt Y.M.J. Tremblay.
Pros Offr.

1. The accused shows his intention to evade his duty by not following his section into the attack and by not having had any orders to remain behind.

2. Later on, after the attack, when no one was around he leaves the trench to go to a barn for natural needs. Returning therefrom he fails to find his trench and equip. Erring around the area he makes no effort to return to his Coy even though he sees a section of A/Tk people he never contacts them to get the whereabouts of his Coy. On the contrary, he works his way back to the main Caen Rd and returns to B Ech with the apparent intention of getting some money from the Paymaster. There, though warned of his immediate return to the Front Line, he proceeds in obtaining money from the Paymaster and making his exit from B Ech area. He gives himself up to the C.M.P. approx 11 days later after having spent his money and apparently incapable of getting any more.

I feel that the accused showed no sense of responsibility in the whole matter.

Gentlemen,

The accused Pte G is charged with desertion and I wish to point to the Court that it is shown at the bottom of page 437 of Army Act that intention must be proved and in this case the Prosecution has failed to do so. A statement has been given by Capt Langlois that Pte Gregoire had told him a story which he did not believe. Unfortunately Capt Langlois has never been on the front line as he would know that lots of things are happening on the front line. Pte Gregoire was left behind as he was having a crap and very nervous. He suffered an intensive shelling, he did not know what to do. He looked for his equipment after thirty minutes of intensive shelling and finally reached his Unit. He had no intention of deserting as he would have done so at the first place. He would not return to his unit, but he did. He went in a cafe while waiting to go back to his coy. The cafe was right beside the B Hqn, he had drinks. As he was French speaking he made friends among French people. He was fed freely and finally when sobbering up he gave himself up to the Provost; here is another definite proof that the accused is not guilty of desertion. Evidence has been brought in to prove that Pte Gregoire has been AWL for ten days but no evidence whatsoever has proved the intention of deserting. I demand that the charge against him be changed to a charge of being AWL.

Serious charge.

Evidence and argument heard. Must decide.

Desertion - MML p.437. Reads relevant parts.

Intent difficult of proof. Intent can only be inferred from the circumstances of the case. Must consider carefully all that happened and then decide if necessary intent exists.

Explains Desertion charge may be reduced to AWL - Spec Finding AA56

Credibility of Wits explained. Cts function to ascertain which evidence is likely to be true or which is not.

Every soldier innocent until proved guilty beyond reasonable doubt. Reasonable doubt defined.

Any questions.

STATEMENT OF MITIGATION

Before you is important case. Must punish a bad soldier. But if you look at the life story of Acc you'll find that he enlisted in 39. He left Canada and home and family in 1940. He has served his country for four years in England, and finally he has been risking his life to secure all our principles of democracy. He has been doing so for 5 days on the Front Line. As he looks home to Canada he sees thousands of young men like him wearing civilian clothing, sitting safely with their families listening over the radio to the sacrifices our soldiers are making here. In a few weeks the war will be over and those young men will live happy without wondering about casualties. Gentlemen, you must decide whether this man has ha to spend more years of his life which has been already spoiled. Must decide whether Acc deserves more than his comrades he lft benind safely in Canada.

I want you to think conscientiously and to give all consideration you can to this soldier who has been willing and who has tried to do his duty. I'm sure youwill give him every possible chance.

Ask for leniency of Court.

He had no written authorization to come at "B" Ech and acting upon instructions from the Commanding Officer, I told him that I would reequip him and warned him that he was to return to his company with the rationtruck. I personnally saw that he be given a rifle and web. When the stock was ready to be issued to him, he had left. I did not see him since, until apprehended by the Provost Corps. I then send him the same night to "A" Echelon.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as "Notes".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a sgt of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accsd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 45 I ordered the accsd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

But Defending Offr or accsd will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accsd or any evidence given as to facts, or if accsd alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 65.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 565(a).)

Case of D109969 Pte Paul Gregoire

Statement by the Defending Officer Lt D.R. Watson

As I have been Pte Gregoire's officer for 10 months during that time Pte Gregoire has had a good record he has been a good soldier a good driver and a good mec. I have never had any trouble with Pte Gregoire as far as drunk, was concerned until this incident he has been having a little family trouble in Canada and this, apparently has led him off the straight & narrow. He has been confined to Coy Guard room for 19 days and in green Cells 4 in sending his good word for the past 10 months I ask the Court that some consideration be given to Pte Gregoire this time.

The accused was at that time drunk and noisy and wanted to fight. I then, on Mr Watson's orders, took the accused, and with the assistance of L/Cpl Cole, to the coy Guard room. When the accused was brought in I warned him he was under close arrest. At the time he was brought in to me, the accused was supposed to be on convoy duty at Ord Rail Head."

In 1927 he was committed differences with his wife and they decided to

He was in the Sustenance Regt. but when his age began to show itself he was sent to No 2 Con. Bat.
Rome Ga. from which he was discharged June 1918 his younger days in Petty Offices in mostly [illegible] He bought himself his wife back to Ga and his very thoughts since then have been to get back to them and comfort his wife.

~~[illegible]~~ [illegible] ~~[illegible]~~ He was one mind to stay but was discharged because of bad health.

Pte Gregory arranged
$20.00 per month to his wife but she has been unable to get separation allowance since they were living apart at the enlistment.
His wife being in bad health is unable to support herself.

We all see these things praying as the men need and wait to serve early and to the most he felt the need to get away from it all and try to forget. He applied to his Sgt Major for a pass and he was refused flatly turned

One thing must com like P.C. Jones do not realize as the first that he can demand to be paraded to the C.O.
in order to get redress for what he deems to be a wrong inflicted upon him. He not blame a man in such a case but the officers and N.C.O.s of his particular unit.

Upon his realizing that he had done a wrong he reported back to camp and was placed under close arrest.

I strongly ask that this man be rightly punished.
Have his true age proved and record his discharge from the Can Army Canteen.
His army age is stated to be 40 at the present time.
His true age I believe to be

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

(See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 81.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 40(E), KR Can 563(a).)

A76 1. 11 Nov 43 "A"

A76

1. The Court has heard the summary of evidence and the confession made by the accused. In a sober mind and in the somber light of what has gone before, he is most acutely and painfully aware of the full gravity of a crime, which, under the lulling effect of alcoholic stimulant appeared more of a daring adventure than a very serious offence against society. The article taken were of little commercial value. Many attractive articles were left untouched by the accused. It is obvious that articles were not taken with a view to material gain, but represented a juvenile or perverted quirk of mind of the accused, probably under the influence of alcholic stimulant.
2. He has made a full confession to the crime, and afforded those in authority every assistance to recover the articles taken. He was obviously ashamed of the nature of the articles taken which explains his preliminary feeble attempt to provide an alibi as to his whereabouts on the evening of 31 Oct 43.
3. He made his confession fully realizing the consequences involved
4. An examination of the accused's MFM 6 discloses only one entry, a trivial misdemeanor, namedly that he was absent from a training period, which can be likened to a schoolboy playing hookey from class and [redacted] and suggests mischevious but not criminal tendency. Other than this lone entry the accused's Army crime sheet is clear, which would appear to furnish ample proof that his behaviour as a soldier has been consistently good.

5. The accused has been charged under a section of the Army Act which prohibits his own Commanding Officer dealing with him. Otherwise, this case might have been dealt with Summarily by the ~~X~~ accused's own C.O.

6. I therefore make a most earnest plea that the Court weigh fully the foregoing facts when passing sentence, and that justice be tempered with the mercy due a repentant first offender.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

B38942 Sigmn GREGORY, D.E. 1 Cdn L of C Signals

1ST WITNESS: Mrs. Peggy Kate Ward, Stoke Rd, Stoke-de-Abernon, Cobham, (sworn) states:

"I am a married woman and reside at the above address. About 6:10 PM on 31 Oct 43, I left my house unoccupied. Before leaving I secured all windows and doors and everything was intact. At 7:30 AM on 1 Nov 43, I returned to my house. I entered by the front door and going to the rear, I found that the lavatory window on the ground floor had been broken and was open. The curtains in the drawing room, dining room and back bedroom had been drawn. There was disorder in the main bedroom and cupboards opened in other rooms. I then notified the police.

On making a search of the house, I found that the articles, enumerated on the list, produced, were stolen. (marked EXHIBIT A).

At 8:00 PM the same day I was shown the articles produced, which I identify as my property and value at £15-11-6.

P.K. Ward

The accused declined to question the witness.

2ND WITNESS: Mr Ivan Williams, Blundell Bank, Blundell Lane, Stoke-de-Abernon, Cobham (sworn) states:

"I am an architect by profession and reside at the above address. At 8:00 AM on 30 Oct 43, I left my house unoccupied. Before leaving I secured all windows and doors and everything was intact. In consequence of certain information received from the police, I made an examination of my house on my return on the evening of the 2nd Nov 43, and found that certain articles belonging to my wife had been stolen. They comprised of, a suspender belt, brassiere, a pair of white sandals and two pairs of silk stockings.

On the evening of 2nd Nov 43 I was shown a suspender belt, brassiere, one white sandal and two pairs of silk stockings, by the police, produced and which I identify as my wife's property and which are valued at £2-0-0 (articles marked EXHIBIT B).

Ivan Williams

5TH WITNESS: Det/Sgt Harry Cooper, Police Station, Esher (sworn) states:

"About 10:45 AM on 1 Nov 43, in consequence of certain information received, I accompanied Sgt Parrot to "Blundell Bank," Blundell Lane, Stoke-de-Abernon, where we met T.C. Coombes and he handed to Sgt Parrot the army leave pass produced. At 12:45 PM the same day, Sgt Parrot and I then went to the orderly room, Georgian House, Knott Park, Oxshott, where we saw the accused. He was informed that we were police officers and was asked to give an account of his movements on the 30th and 31st Oct 43. He stated that on the 30th he had a leave pass and went to Surbiton, returning to his billet at 8:00 PM that night and did not go out again. On the 31st, he stated that he was on duty during the day and did not go out until the evening when he went to the Knights of Columbus canteen, Oxshott about 7:00 PM returning to his billet at about 8:15 PM. I then pointed out to him that the canteen did not open on Sunday evenings, whereupon he replied, "I must have gone to a canteen at Leatherhead." Sgt Parrot then said to him, "We have every reason to believe that you was not in Leatherhead, but was in Cobham on the evening of the 31st and broke into two houses." He was then cautioned and he replied, "I guess you are right - it is no use trying to beat you fellows. I did break into the houses. I'll get the stuff for you - it's away over there." We then accompanied the accused to some haystacks in a field forming part of Lower Farm, Stoke-de-Abernon, and the accused got the property produced from the haystacks and handed it to Sgt Parrot. (articles marked EXHIBIT AMB). We then conveyed him to Cobham Police Station. Whilst detained there he elected to make a statement. I cautioned him and he made the following statement produced. (statement marked EXHIBIT D(App No 1)).

Harry Cooper Det/Sgt

The accused declined to question the witness.

The accused declined to make any statement other than made to the civilian police.

Taken down by me in the field this 5th day of November 1943 in the presence and hearing of the accused. Rule of procedure 4 complied with.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(*1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. Address to the Court By Defense.

The defence has shown against the prosecution that the accused was not absent from the Unit Lines as charged. As Commander of the guard he had no especial post to stand upon & his beat covered all the grounds covered by his various guards. It was among his duties to visit all the guards at various times during their hour of duty. In order to visit some of these posts the accused would have to pass ~~exactly~~ along the sidewalk in order to inspect his sentries. The defense has proven that there were five men on each shift that night instead of only two as quoted by the prosecution The prosecution has admitted that full control of the guards was left in the hands of the Guard Commander. It is regrettable we will admit that the accused was not at the front of the building when he was called for but no man can be in two places at the same time. We have proven that the evidence given by the prosecution was inaccurate, they do not appear to know howmany men where on guard that night. They have also hidden the fact that the Orderly Sgt was told where the Cpl was, which is against Sect. 60 A of the Rules of Procedure. I quote - " It is the duty of the prosecutor to assist the court in the administration of ~~the justice~~, to behave impartially, to bring the whole of the transaction before the court & not take any unfair advantage of or supress any evidence in favor of the accused." In fact they have tried to conceal the fact it was rather noisy & the area covered by said guards was of a large area.

It is certainly a very flimsy charge that the accused has been brought up on. In over four years of service he has only one entry on his M.F.M 6. & according to the records has been a good N.C.O.

The defense rests.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 60(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions where accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than on assumption of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 563(a).)

(vii) Summing up by JA, if any. (RP 42.)

ASSEMBLY AND DISPOSAL OF RECORD AFTER TRIAL.

(i) Charge Sheet. (On top.)

(ii) Convening Order with any declarations made by Convening Offr under RP 104, 106, 107, 114.

(iii) Medical Certificate(s). (KR Can 557.)

(iv) Addresses, statements and evidence in order taken during trial, pages being numbered and on both sides when both sides used.

(v) Exhibits numbered Ex A, Ex B, etc. (As to admitting in evidence a certified copy in lieu of original see KR Can 556). As to certified copies of regimental books see AA 103 (1) (g) (i).)

PLEA IN MITIGATION

Re B117929 Rfn Gregson W.E.

Mr. President and members of the court.
May it please the court to consider the following facts in mitigation of punishment.
The accused volunteered to fight for his country on reaching the age of 19 and 7 months later came overseas. He has spent 116 continous days of line service without a ~~day~~ (of any nature) During his army service he has only had 5 days leave and I submit that his illegal absence was merely a folly of youth. He did not intend to illegally absent himself on Oct 26th and attempted to return to his unit after he missed his unit transport. He has a clean crime sheet and I feel the court shall show leniency in this case.

Re: B-117929 Pfc Thigpen W.R.

Mr President and members of the court.
I might please the court to consider the following facts in mitigation of punishment
The accused volunteered to fight for his country on reaching the age of 19 and 9 months later comm carries He has spent 11½ continuous days of his army service without a break of any nature.
During his army service he has only had 2 days leave and I submit that his illegal absence was merely a folly of youth. He did not intend to illegally absent himself on Oct 25th and attempted to return to his unit after he missed his unit transport
He has a clean record sheet and I feel the court shall show leniency in the case

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans NIL (5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn a. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex "A", initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accsd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 42 I ordered the accsd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—" I've had enough parades ".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 60(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 2, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 583(a).)

Ref your CSCH/48/Ct Mart/2(A8) of 7 Apr 44. All enclosures are returned herewith.

1. It appears that in this case the accused was charged with being AWL from 20 Dec 43 to 5 Mar 44 and pleaded guilty. He was given imprisonment with hard labour for a period of 2 years. The apprehension in the summary of evidence is proved by a certificate of the OC the Garrison at FOGGIA that the m/n was arrested at 1410 hrs on 5 Mar 44.

2 You now advise this Hq that a Casualty Return submitted by 34 Field Hospital (Br) shows that the m/n was admitted to that medical installation on 23 Feb 44 and discharged on 5 Mar 44.

3 The plea of guilty is a judicial confession and the conviction is valid in law. This is not a case in which the conviction should be upset on the discovery of subsequent evidence. It is a case, however, in which the facts should be put before the superior authority at his next periodic review because the length of absence, no doubt, had a bearing on the sentence awarded by the court and it seems clear in this case that the m/n was absent 11 days less than the total period of 75 days to which he pleaded guilty. In view of these circumstances the superior authority may desire to mitigate a part of the sentence.

NEUROPSYCHIATRIC REPORT - 56 Br Mil Prison

GRENIER, R. Pte. E.57842 - Age 22. Enlisted May 42 - UK Oct 42 - CMF July 43.

HISTORY -

This soldier sentenced to 2 yrs Hard Labour in Mar 44 - charged with AWL.

Born in Que City. Is 4th of 5 siblings. Two bros discharged from the army in Canada for Medical reasons. Normal home relationships. Completed grade 4 at 15 - states he had little interest in school - repeated 2 grades. Worked as a messenger boy for some mos and as a printer's helper 1½ yrs previous to enlistment.

Came to Sicily with the R22R as a rifleman. Was sentenced to 28 days Det for being drunk whilst on guard duty in Nov 43. While at CBRD went AWL for 75 days - present offence.

Gives as his reason for AWL the fact that on several occasions he had asked his MO at the R22R for an eye examination. States this was always postponed and he became fed-up and went AWL. States he suffers from defective vision and is quite willing to return to combat duties after he has had his eyes checked. Has had one previous minor Army crime.

OPINION -

Of average intelligence but rather opinionated, self-willed individual. Fairly well motivated and I believe he is recoverable for further military duty in the field.

PROCEEDINGS IN E-10179 PTE GRENIER, R.

Accused pleads GUILTY to First and Second Charges, and NOT GUILTY to Third Charge.

Pros Offr makes no opening address.

Ex "A" Pros Offr produces Part II Order Extract (certified true copy) marked Ex "A" and signed by the President.

Ex "B" Pros Offr produces certified Copy Part II Order Extract, marked Ex "B" and signed by the President.

Ex "C" Pros Offr produces certificate of apprehension dated 30 Mar 45. Marked Ex "C" and signed by the President.

Ex "D" Summary of Evidence marked Ex "D"

Prosecution closed.

Defending Offcer moves that third charge be dismissed on the ground that there is no evidence that i Accused was a member of a unit that were in the line or ii a unit which was about to go into the line or iii th t he was proceeding to unit which was in the line.

There is no evidence to support a charge of special desertion, other than that he was apprehended wearing civilian clothes.

Pros Offr replies

Court entitled to look at all the evidence.

i Documentary evidence shows that he went absent from R de Maisoneuve.
ii Court may look at other charges to which accused has pleaded guilty in order to show a course of conduct.

Court can take judicial notice of fact that i Unit is an infantry regiment

ii the division of which it is a part iii the role of that division at the time of the alleged absence.

Defending Officer

Points out that accused was on X-3 List of Regiment de Mais at the time he went absent.

Court closed to consider the submission.

The Court is re-opened and the President announces that the submission is disallowed.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE: The accused - E-10179 Pte GRENIER, R., duly sworn states:-

When I was arrested on 29 Mar 45 I was with my girl friend and the M.P. stopped me and asked me where I was going. I said I was a soldier and produced my papers. I was then returning from a dance. These papers were my military identification papers.

I was not searched for the papers. I showed them myself.

I was not in uniform because my uniform was dirty, and my girl friend was going to a dance which was not open to soldiers. A friend lent me the civilian clothes.

On 4 Feb45 when I went absent I was in CBRG. I don't know which number. I don't remember whether it was 10 or 11 Battalion.

Before I went to CBRG I was in hospital. I was under open arrest in the hospital.

When I went to the CBR Battalion I was still under open arrest. I was under arrest becasuse I had been AWL

I was at the CBR Bn for about two days, not longer, when I went absent again. I had not been paraded before the C.O. on the previous absences. I left the R de Mais at some time, but I don't remember when. It was autumn, that is all I know. I have not been back since.

X - exam

I came to France with the R de Mais about 6 of July. I was a driver mechanic with A/Tk Platoon. I was with my unit until October. I went about in October because I was sick and tired, and was unabel to stand it any longer. I I want to go back to my unit now.

I went absent on 27 Dec in order to see my fiancee. My fiancee lives in BRUSSELS. I went absent in December from CBRG I think, but I am not sure. I got the money to live on when I was absent from my fiancee. I have worn civilian clothes when absent only once.

The dance I have spoken of that would not allow soldiers in is a club. ('Royal' I think the name is).

The man who lent me thecivilian clothes I know as Henri. He lives at 7 Rue de Hemorgueur, BRUSSELS. His surname is Flemish. I cannot remember it.

My fiancee's name is Betty. Her surname is Flemish and I cannot pronounce it. She lives at 49 Rue de "KONTRYK"

My fiancee did not know I was absent without leave. I told her thst I was living and working in BRUSSELS I lived at Rue de KONTRYK the same place as my fiancee. I wanted every day to return to my unit but was arrested before going.

By the Court

When I found I could not stand the battle any longer I asked my Captain to go back to Echelon. He told me to wait 3 or 4 days. I waited until themiddle of the next day and spoke to the Sgt but he said that there was not time for men to go to Echelon. We were in an area behind the line for rest and reorganization.

I was in hospital for 30 days I had a skin disease. It was after the first absence when I was in hospital.

R P 83(b) complied with.

The accused says the statement is substantially correct, but he does not understand what the evidence is that is recorded on the Second Charge.

The Court decides, with the concurrence of the Defending Officer that the accused should not be advised to plean NOT GUILTY to the Second Charge, as it appears that the Second and Third Charges are one complete, and unbroken absence, and that the breaking of of this absence down with two charges operates to the advantage of the accused.

Summary of Evidence is read, with reference to the First and Second Charges.

M.F.M.6 and Statement of Character and Particulars of Service submitted.

Defending Officer submits Plea in Mitigation.

GRENIER

The evidence shows this man served with his Unit until 15 Oct 44 as a driver mechanic. He claims he went absent because he could not stand it. He says he complained but noting being done about it he went AWL.

When arrested he was dressed in civilian clothes. The Court has sufficient evidence before it to show that at the time he went absent 4 Feb he did so because he did not want to return to his unit. The Court may look at this mans course of conduct to determine his intention. Where he originally went absent from, his job with his unit. The absences he has had prior to this Charge as shown on the Charge Sheet to which he has pleaded GUILTY. The Court may also consider the length of this absence, how he lived and how he was dressed when apprehended.

I therefore submit the accused is GUILTY of DESERTION on the Third Charge.

"A M Ecclestone" Lt Prosecution.

RE GRENIER

SUMMING UP

DEFENDING OFFR

Commencement of absence shows accused to be on X-3 List - a hospital category in 2 Echelon Records. He has stated that he was under open arrest at the time. It is reasonable to assume that he was due to be up for a hearing in front of his C.O. I submit that he had nothing to look forward to except a term of detention. I submit that the Court is not justified in adopting the inference of intent in the 3rd Charge because the accused was not due to move into a line of battle when he left. When apprehended in BRUSSELS he produced all his military identification papers, though dressed in civilian clothes. He has explained why he was dressed in civilian clothes at the time. I submit that a reasonable doubt exists as to status of accused when he left for his absence, and this should be viewed in the accused's favour.

"G E Collins" Lt.

JUDGE ADVOCATE'S CHARGE TO THE COURT

The J.A. charged the Court that his duty is to sum up the facts and to advise the Court upon the law, but that if he should state any opinion as to the facts, the Court should disregard such opinion.

The J.A. then charged the Court as to desertion substantially in the form attached.

The Court was also advised that they might consider the two Charges of AWL to which the accused pleaded GUILTY, as to whether or not there was a course of conduct.

The Court was also charged as to the principle of onus of doubt, substantially in the form of MML p.56.

The Court, the Prosecuting Officer and Defending Officer were referred to as to whether they wished the Court charged on any other points. There were no further points than the J.A. was allowed to deal with.

"H H Griffin" Capt

JUDGE-ADVOCATE's Closing Address to the Court

DESERTION

There are two types of desertion. (1) general desertion, the intention being not to return to military duty in any corps, (2) desertion in which the intention is to avoid some important particular service, for example, engagement with the enemy, carrying of supplies of material of war for troops in operations, reinforcement drafts, etc.

The charge in this case falls into the second category since it is alleged in the charge that the accused absented himself with intent to avoid active operations against the enemy.

As the charge is so worded it is not open to you to find general desertion but the charge must be proved substantially in the wording of the particulars, although as always it is open to you to bring in a special finding should you find the accused guilty of special desertion but find that the particulars alleged vary in some immaterial respect from the wording of the charge.

To prove an intent to avoid some particular service the onus is on the prosecution to prove the necessary ingredients, such as the role which the accused's unit was carrying out at the time, the circumstances under which the accused was apprehended, any statements or admissions made by the accused, in short any circumstance or circumstances from which you could reasonably infer that the accused had a firm intention to avoid such a particular service.

Providing that evidence or some such evidence is before you it is entirely within your power to draw whatever reasonable conclusion you wish to draw from such evidence, bearing in mind always that if there is any reasonable doubt in your mind as to such intention the benefit of that doubt should be resolved in favour of the accused.

Should there not be evidence before you sufficient to substantiate a charge of desertion the Court may always make a special finding that the absence constituted absence without leave and not desertion providing that there is sufficient evidence to prove absence.

Form referred to in J.A.'s address
"G.B.C."

PLEA IN MITIGATION

Enlisted 1940 - To England in 1941 with 2 Cdn Div. Record is not bad since arriving overseas - only two minor offences in three years. He contributes $25 per month to his family. He is an uneducated boy with approx 2 yrs schooling. He is illiterate - can neither read or write. The only correspondence going back home since he left Canada has been a periodic letter written by some officer in his behalf. Since leaving the U K no letters have been sent home. Sustained fracture of skull in U K accident 1942 - since complains of lapses of memory. His demeanour as a witness shows a manifest lack of intelligence. I suggest that the Court liik upon this case as one wherein a slow thinking boy has become involved with a woman in BRUSSELS and is now paying the consequences. A deterrent punishment should prove sufficient.

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

I put in 3 gals. of oil and £3 24 gals of petrol in order to get the car back to the unit. Before I left Lingfield I went round to the Police Station and picked up a bundle which I might hand with me. I also got two road tickets from the police (Exhibit A) in No 439 and the other 440 is (Exhibit B) Both these road tickets have not been signed by any of the unit authorities to sign them. Exhibit A has no signature on it at all except that of the driver. Ex. B has an indecipherable signature on it and also that of the driver.

There are lots of officers who may sign Column 6 of Exhibit B. Of course other may sign for them, but the signature is an attempt to resemble any of these signatures. I have seen the signature before

By the Court — that I got from the police
In the bundle I have a clothing slip which had an identity disc attached to it with the name of the accused on it. Taken

On 23 Jul 43 there was weapon cleaning from my store when I noticed that in the weapon training store of I Wing. Among the weapons were some pistols. The next day all of the stores were moved into another building and on Monday when I made a complete check of my stores I found 4 pistols missing. These pistols here (indicates Exhibit "D") as the two that were missing. I do not know if they were drawn on Friday or not. There was no signature for them but I think an officer signed for them. These pistols are on charge to the unit

6th Witness for Prosecution — P.C. D.R. Allen of the Royal Regiment of Police being duly sworn, states as follows:-

I was on duty on the 22nd July 43 about 1600 hrs & found on my patrol with No. CZ4202002 in a car park. At 2045 hrs I saw Pte with P.C. Webb and I saw a soldier by the name of Quigley in a pub. I knew him as he was my neighbour. I then approached the accused in the same pub. He resisted and we caught him. I said if he tried to bolt a pistol No. 921143 which I recognised as one of the numbers in Exhibit "D" hit me a left hook. I took hold of Quigley then and told Pte Smith, Warren number as he being No. 3402795. After I had cautioned them they both admitted being concerned in the theft of the pistols, the numbers and being absent. Then we went to the Central detention office and I produced a statement signed by him in my presence. He was cautioned verbally before I got the statement. Exhibit "E". I found in the note book I found on Army Form 4 B 9 and counter are No. 4440. I asked him what they were as a matter of curiosity and the accused said "I made them at. I got pistol in them" I then turned them over to the Police H.Q. in Liverpool. I took the two pistols I saw being brought into Police H.Q. by Detective Welch. On 29 July 43 I gave the 4 pistols to a Lt/Col. of the American Ordnance Corps.

Cross-examined

At the time I first met the accused Lt/Col Hill in the yard that I was a detective. He was just in the entrance to the yard to the pub. I told him what we thought he had done and then he was cautioned. I cautioned him verbally I think he understood what I said although I spoke rather quickly.

Pte Wilcox for Prosecution

D.C. H. Welch, of the Liverpool Police, having been duly sworn, stated:-

I was with D.C. Allen on the day in question when we picked up the accused and Culp. It was a 29 July and we saw the accused and Culp in a pub. I recognised the accused. When we got outside the accused ran away but we caught him. Then Allen then found a pistol on the accused, it is one of these here (indicates Exhibit "D") one Smith & Wesson No. 93193 We told him that we had reason to believe that he was implicated in the theft of an army vehicle & that he was arrested and heard "that night". He closed the counter. Allen then took both bags and Judge & the Allen counter the both and we started at about 4 pm with 9 the. Each of the two soldiers had a ticket a bin for luggage which was at the Y. M. C. A. Hall. I went and got both bags and each had a pistol in them. Also started but can't remember what they were both Smith and Wesson with No. 839566 and 831894. These 2 pistols were left at the K. O and I never saw them again.

Cross-examination

I was on the accused during the whole of my time Allen did all the talking. The accused had had nothing to drink, but he knew what it was all about as he left.

84 Witness for Prosecution

Miss Dora Wallace 37 Claudgate, Boston, Lincs. being duly sworn, states

I know the accused. I saw him in an Army exhibit with Tyr. Rifle contest in July. It was a medium sized exhibit I mean that the front wheel partially cuts the door off when one tries to get in. I pointed it out to Detective Allen. I cannot identify any of the cars. I remember seeing the accused with a revolver. This was the first time I had seen an exhibit like that.

Cross-examination

I was in the vehicle in the car park when I pointed it out to Detective Allen. I also knew that I was in the vehicle at the time as I could identify it.

9th Witness for Prosecution of A-70722. Trooper Brennan R.

Sir:

You have heard the evidence given as to the character of the accused. There is little more that I can add. However I wish to emphasize the fact that the accused is barely eighteen years old. He joined the army when only sixteen years of age. I submit that the accused is a little immature in his outlook towards the army and feels that he has not been dealt with fairly. The accused, in his mind saw no other way to help himself but to do what he did.

Summing up for the Prosecution.

The chain of evidence is complete and no comment is necessary.

The signatures of the accused on the work tickets and the petrol chit for 10½ gals may be compared with that on the signed confession obtained by the military police.

The ~~sign~~ work tickets have been shown to be improved and they must have been used to steal the petrol. This is sufficient to uphold a forgery charge.

Evidence of Unit Staff shows 13 gals were required to fill the vehicle tanks which were shown to be full by the dipstick. The petrol chit shows 10½ gals to have been obtained on road by the accused. 23½ gals were therefore unaccounted used and should be charged for at 1 shilling and 8½ pence per gal.

Lieut Cole Kent
No 3 C.A.C.R.A.

AP

Defending Officers Closing Address in the case of
, K-70722 Trooper Gunman R.

In regard to the first charge this ~~is no~~ ~~evidence of theft~~ has been no evidence produced to the effect that someone actually saw the accused steal the vehicle. There is practically no evidence to support a charge of stealing.

In regard to the second and third charge the evidence produced is practically non existent. The storeman could say whether the ~~pistols~~ pistols had been drawn or signed for or whether they were in the stores his evidence is very slim. No one else had any connection with the pistols according to the evidence no one saw the accused take the pistols charges there is practically no evidence of stealing.

Regarding the fifth charge there is no evidence whatsoever of forgery. The work ticket was filled in except exhibit "A" which had no authorizing signature. The second work ticket or Exhibit "B" had a signature which looked like First Lieut Thomas. No witness could say truthfully that it was in the handwriting of the accused.

K 70722 Tpr. R. Freeman in mitigation of punishment.

Sir:

I joined the army when I was sixteen years of age. The first year in the army I was quite content in the service and had no crimes against me. When they found out about my age I was sent to #3 C.A.C.R.U. When I was sent to #3 C.A.C.R.U. I was sent on taking courses and benefit by the knowledge thus gained when I returned to the field. Every application I made for some was turned down due to my age. I then tried to get a discharge from the army ~~so I could~~ on account of my age so I could join the merchant navy. They refused to give me my discharge. Thus I was completely discouraged. I could not get to the field and I could not join the merchant navy. There seemed nothing that I could do. It seemed that I was stuck here in #3 C.A.C.R.U. forever. It got so I could not stand it any longer, therefore I decided to take matters into my own hands.

On Sunday 25th July I ran away from my unit 3 C.A.C. Rgt. and boys we with me. We took the truck and came to Liverpool. We left the truck on a car park. On the way we called at an R.A.F. camp. Hyfford and got 8 gallons of petrol. We called at 2 Army camps as well and got petrol. These camps were somewhere between Stafford and Liverpool. One was an R.A.O.C. Camp. We got 10½ gallons from one camp and 14 gallons of petrol from the other. I was the one that drove the truck and I drove it all the time and signed for all the petrol.

Hants, England

To Whom it may Concern

I, Capt. A. L. Dilley of the strength of #3 CACRU, employed as Technical Adjutant do hereby certify that K-70722 Pte Freeman R was employed by me as a Wheel Driver for a period of approximately ten months until such time as he decided to absent himself from duty in the latter part of July 1943. Up until that time he had discharged his duties satisfactorily and was found to be reliable and I personally have nothing against Pte Freeman. During the ten months an attempt was made to have Freeman transferred to the Pioneer Corp, where he seemed to go since he was unfit for the Army and nothing in particular could be done for him toward getting him back to the field Regiment from where he came. This however was impossible as it entailed a discharge from the Army and it seems that he would not consent to this movement

I do however wish to state on behalf of Pte Freeman R that while employed by me, he was what I would consider a good soldier.

To Corporal Officers - Guard of 14 07 22 Pte R Grennan

I am sending this note from the pte whom it comes before the proper officers for Revision. Please note the blue in indigation This boy is 18. His conduct sheet is satisfactory for the last month he was sentenced in Sept. He admits such a much older man. He appears to be a boy of good parentage & education. He is of good appearance & was adopted he is very ashamed and especially the disgrace to his family that a substitution remain made in the new picture would be a sound thing to do.

Plea in Mitigation of Punishment

Tpr. Brennan R. K 70722

The Defence wishes to make this plea in mitigation of punishment on behalf of the accused.—

During the impressionable years most of us were fortunate enough to have a father, mother and a home. Tpr Brennan forfeited this to join the army. He was 16 when he joined up and is now only 18. He enjoys the army and was very happy with his regt. Then the inevitable happened, they found out his age and back he came to CA.C.R.D. That was in Dec. 42. Prior to this time he had had a clean crime sheet. I don't have to point out where the fault lies. This is only one of many similar cases and I'm afraid not the last.

This lad is now faced, regardless of the outcome of this trial with 1 years detention, it is his second court-martial within 2 months. A prison sentence isn't going to help. What he needs is what he has asked for many times, guidance (someone to take an interest in his case) and a course (to occupy his mind and train him for something useful) (not) return to Canada without delay.

He is not a hardened criminal (young and perhaps a bit impetuous and energetic) anyone can see that by merely looking at him but to give the court further assurances, a brief survey of his life would prove this without doubt.

At 15½ he served as a radio operator (civil service) for 6 months prior to joining the army. He enlisted in the army Oct 11/41, went through basic, advanced, and 2 months 3 CA.C.R.D. with no trouble. He was posted to the 3rd CDF and was very happy with them. He enjoys the army and is quite able to pull his weight. It was after they found out his age and sent him back to CA.C.R.D. that the trouble started. He was given a job as a truck driver and inspite of his requests for courses or discharge with a view to getting in the Merchant Navy. He got no satisfaction, till in the end he tried going A.W.L. to see if that would impress the powers that be of his boredom. Still no aid was forth coming. In addition he was told by the P.S.O. - he could not take a course till he was 18 and could not go to the field till he was 19. Sitting in camp on Saturday afternoon broke and in this frame of mind he and a friend decided to take a truck and go to Liverpool. A few days later he was apprehended court martialled and sentenced to 1 years detention. Brooding over this sentence, being classed as unfit to go to the field and the disgrace he would cause his family all went toward, as he thought, justifying his leaving again. On arriving back at C.A.C.R.D. this time he received word of his brothers death in the R.C.A.F.

The knowledge of his brother making the supreme sacrifice and his being in jail, helpless to do anything about it is punishment enough for any man.

His eyes bringing goes further to prove his not intensionaly bad, with a father a recently retired captain from the R.C.M.P. 35 years service with good conduct and long service medals to his credit. His family for generations have been soldiers and this generation he and his two brothers joined the services.

In view of all these facts it would appear to me that a little guidance and steadying influence would go further to rectify this situation and turn out a good soldier for the canadian army bone his family could be proud of rather than a long detention sentence which well might leave its mark on the mind and outlook of so young a soldier. Therefore I would ask that the utmost leniency exercised in this case.

Plea in Mitigation of Sentence

I fully believe that this is not a case of actual theft, but of borrowing with full intent to repay. As Gnr. Fyke and Pte. Grenon are on day and night shift respectively, and Pte. Grenon was on week-end pass, he had no opportunity to contact Pte. Fyke and inform him of his actions. Pte Grenon was aware that he had cigarettes coming to him from his Holding Unit, in fact on Tues. 4 May, he received 600 cigarettes. It was out of this parcel he had intended to repay Gnr. Fyke. At the time of his taking the cigarettes, there was one other person in the room, if it was stealing surely Pte. Grenon would choose a more opportune time.

When Grenon returned off leave Sunday afternoon, he did make an attempt to contact Fyke, but as Fyke had moved to other quarters was unable to do so. At 0700 hrs on Monday, 3 May 43, when approached by Cpl. Nicholson, Grenon stated that he was willing and had intended to repay these cigarettes. He was then told by Cpl. Nicholson that under such arrangements the case would be dropped, but apparently the case was carried further.

As Pte. Grenon did admit taking these cigarettes at the summary of evidence, believing it would thereby close the case and not require further investigation or action in such a minor charge, and as it has been brought out, did fully intend to repay and had no intention of profit by selling, it is strongly recommended that judgement passed in this case be very lenient.

The following statement was then made by the accused:

"On Saturday, 1 May 1943 soon after 1300 hours, I went to the bed of C.34818 Pte. Fyke, A.F. and took five packets of Sweet Caporal cigarettes from his kit. I gave one package to a man called "Slim" who works in the kitchen. He is a cook. We were in the Y.M.C.A. in Woking. I have about half of one package left and I have smoked the rest. I did not sell any of them. I have read the above statement and it is correct.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of evidence in the case D.126685 Pte. Gremon, H. #1 R.C.A.S.C.R.U., attached to No. 2 Sub-Depot, 1 C.B.O.D., Canadian Army Overseas.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence shall be taken on oath.

First Witness for the Prosecution — C.34818 Gnr. Fyke, A. No. 5 Canadian General Pioneer Coy., attached to No. 2 Sub-Depot, 1 C.B.O.D. Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, stated as follows:-

"Last Saturday, 1 May 1943, I was employed in the kitchen of the Men's Mess at No. 2 Sub-Depot, 1 C.B.O.D. At approximately 0945 hours I went to my quarters in the C.A.C.R.U. building to make my bed. I looked in my kit bag for a handkerchief and noticed that there were five or six packages of twenty-five (25) Sweet Caporal cigarettes, each in a carton, in the kit bag. That same afternoon at about 1400 hours I returned to my quarters to move my bedding and kit to another room. I found my kit bag open and when I looked inside the cigarettes were gone. The cigarettes were not found in any of my other kit which I searched when I found my kit bag open.
That evening I reported the loss to the N.C.O. in charge of our quarters, Cpl. Nicholson, now Sgt. Nicholson."

Question: - In which part of your kit bag did you keep your handkerchief?

Answer: - My handkerchiefs were stuffed down the side of the kit bag and the cigarettes were on top of everything that was in my kit bag.

Question: - Did you look in the carton to see how many cigarettes there were left?

Answer: - While looking for my handkerchief I took the carton out of my kit bag. The top of the carton was open. I did not count the number of packages but I estimated there were about five or six.

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

Plea for Mitigation in the Case of D 12685 Pte Grenon Romeo.

Mr President & Gentlemen:

As you can see by his documents Pte Grenon enlisted on January/42 leaving his family at the age of 20 which is a very young age. He served in Canada with R.C.A.S.C. during 6 months, having shown much enthusiasm he was sent to England where he gained efficiency and devoted himself during 15 months doing sober, honest, and reliable work. He was sent to this Country (Italy) where he displayed bravery and gallantry at the Hider's line, delevering ration and ammunition to forward position.

Let us examine the reasons that induce him to go A.W.L.

After 2½ yrs - with the R.C.A.S.C. rendering excellent service he was suddenly transfered to C.I.C

being an obedient soldier he accepted to transfer with a smile, sent to an Inf. depot where he expected to receive training, he even asked for training which he knew very well that was ~~necessary~~ essential.

This important and necessary training was received shortly, less than a month after that he was placed on detail that is from 20 July 44 to 11 Aug. 44 he left with others, on his way he learned that some of his pals having gone to the front line without sufficient training became casualties to avoid this he went A.W.O.L.

Gentlemen; I trust you understand my point, if this man had ~~not~~ received necessary training he would have gone forward with confidence and would have done an excellent job.

The third time he went A.W.O.L. was when in hospital, for a serious operation which he considered unnecessary, that is if he had consent, he would rend be sterile, which is not very interesting for one who dreams of a home + children

This young man had assigned money to the his family to help for his younger brother's education, he receives very few letters and less parcels, this is enough to affect anyone's morale.

Gentlemen.

We must admit that he was once sentenced by a F.G.C.M but his good conduct gained him many days of remission Finally.

Remember that he was in action He helped the military police, to control P.O.W.

Remember that he is ready to undergo a training then to proceed as rfts.

Look his conduct sheet with indulgence.

Consider his long service and good character.

Then if this man is given a chance to prove his good intention, I am positive that he will be an excellent soldier

In rendering the sentence, I beg this court to be lenient.

C. [illegible] Lt

SUMMARY OF PROSECUTION

in the case of

K-50830 Pte. Grenzeback H.F. Lan & Ren Scot R.

Pte. Grenzeback was equipped with a new radio set. If he had returned to his platoon with the new set, either he would have still been with the platoon at 2200 hrs, or a casualty or listed as missing. When listed as missing how can the defense explain the surrender of the accused at a later date to the military police, if he did not leave the platoonprior to 1600 hrs, without authority and in face of the enemy.

I wish to emphasize the point that Pte. Grenzeback left his platoon while in a forward position immediately in face of the enemy and not from a reserve postion. In so doing his job which he vacates must be shared among the other men in his platoon at a time when they are already heavily burdend. Because of this I ask that the maximum possible penalty be imposed upon him.

D 6 (ACB) 1

SUMMARY OF DEFENCE

in the case of

K-50830 Pte. GRENZEBACH, H.F. Lanark & Renfrew Scottish

The prosecution has not, at any time, shown actual desertion in the face of the enemy during an action. From 1600 to 2200 hrs 3 Dec 44. there is no indication by anyone whether the accused moved back to a rear area or went froward with his platoon. The first and second witnesses have both stated that they were employed in their own duties and were, therefore, too busy to take note of the movements of persons in platoon H.Q. The third witness merely knows that the accused was reported to be absent at 2200 hrs. The fourth witness stated that a new Wireless Set was given to the accused but did not know of the movements of the accussed.after that time. There is no indication that the Wireless Set was in working order. It is assumed by the prosecution that the accused deserted merely because four witnesses did not see that accused after 1600, although their own duties did not give them the opportunity of doing so. The second point brought up by the prosecution was that there was no communication with the platoon of the accused. This is no indication that the accused was not present.

Officer Defending.

CASE OF

E-1 B-131647 Private GREIG, N.T., 22 CDNSPEC EMP COY

CHARACTER WITNESS

B-66819, Sgt LLOYD, C., 22 CDN SPEC EMP COY, sworn, states:-

I recognize the accused and I have known him for six months. I have had him on different jobs with me and I have always found him to be a very good worker and a good soldier. The opinion of those I came in contact with was that he was a very good worker and a good soldier.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83 (B).

B 131647 - Pte Young N T

Sir. The accused has pleaded guilty to a rather long period of absence & expects to be punished for his misbehaviour
I would ask the court however to consider also his previous record of good behaviour
He enlisted in Aug 42 arriving overseas in March 43 & took part in the Sicily landing in July 43 with the 48th Highlanders
He was wounded in Sicily & returned to his Regt after 2 months. He remained with them until Jan 44 when he was injured & returned to U.K.
His first crime was in Oct 44, & I would ask the court to consider this period of over 2 yrs of honourable action & good clean record
This first crime (7 days D.W.A.) was caused by being mentally depressed when his brother was killed in action in France
Leading up to his present offence, his mother had to undergo a serious operation. His remaining brother is serving somewhere with the navy & the accused felt that he would like to be back in Canada when his mother was in hospital. This of course was not sufficient grounds for compassionate leave but it seemed to unduly depress the accused. He got this privelege leave & remained away going from relative to relative in Scotland & always worried about his mother. When he came out of this state of mind he surrendered himself.
He is a good worker, & well liked by his NCOs
My I would ask the court, sir, to show all

(Pleading) possible leniency in this case & return the accused to useful employment as soon as possible. He realizes the error of what he has done & is willing to make amends.

Respectfully submitted
Sir,

~~Robert~~ Owden

Plea of mitigation in the case of C.5078 Pte Grier
Mr Pres and members of the Court:

There is not much to be said in the case of an AWL charge such as has been laid against the accused. The accused is guilty. However I sincerely believe that a brief resume of the story behind the more than five years service, and good service it has been gentlemen, that Pte Grier has given - and a little explanation of the circumstances leading up to the crime in question will undoubtedly assist you in arriving at a fairer and more just decision than would be possible if these facts were not brought to light. I mean to mention but three main points - the first will throw a little light on the latter two and they will in turn make everything quite clear.

Pte Grier was one of the first Canadians to offer his service in this war and before many months had elapsed had taken part in the original "D" day landings on the coast of France in 1940. His first but by no means last contribution in the battle line.

From the time he left Canada, gentlemen early in 1940 Pte Grier's conduct and actions as a Canadian soldier were exemplory. So much so that until Sept42 he wore the non too common good conduct stripe. In Sep 42 Gentlemen Pte Grier overstayed a leave and was charged with being AWL. After being convicted he asked his CO if he should take down his stripe. The CO informed him that he had won it therefore it was his to wear or discard as he so please. The accused realized that he had done a wrong and therefore felt he did not deserve to display the good conduct stripe on his sleeve. He therefore took it down gentlemen - he did not discard it though but kept it. He kept it until it and the rest of his personal belongings were destroyed in December 1943 at Ortona, the day he was wounded.

What has all this supposed sentimentality to do with the case in question? I believe gentlemen that it on the surface a very minor point has a real inference into the true character of the soldier here before us. That is point No. 1

30 MARCH 45 GRIER 'JHG'

Now please remember Pte Grier as a young man with good intentions when he joined the army. A young man with but two slip-ups - actually small ones - in four years. A young man with an excellent record as a member of a fighting unit. A young man who since April 1943 has been trying futiley to switch from the Infantry Corps to the Provost Corps because he had decided he could do better work after the change. One who fought with the H.P.E.'s from Sicily to Ortona and then had his little world collapse about him in May 1944 when a long dreaded letter arrived from home. His mother informed him that his ailing father had died. This left his mother alone.

Something temporarily snapped within him - He had been on the move continuously from June in Sicily for eleven moths without a leave - He needed time to think things over now to try and realize what had happened He wanted to be alone and attempt to regain his former self. The only way he could see open. gentlemen, was to absent himself without leave. I wonder if after eleven months with an active unit we can blaime him? But what happended gentlemen? It took him but one day to see it was wrong and he came back. Mind you he still could not see things clearly, his mind was still over wrought but he realized he was wrong in absenting himself- he rependted and came back. Three weeks later he found himself in a quandrary again. After visiting the Padre and also talking to his Pl officer he again took things in his own hands and went AWL. After finding things clear again he once more surrendered himself to the Military Police. That little story is point No 2. I hope you can see as much in it as I can.

Point No 3 is merely a continuation. Some moths ago another flurry about home leaves and an increase of compassionate leaves came along. Upon investigation by his officers Pte Grier had more grounds for compassionate leave than others from his unit yet for some reason he remained behind while they went home. You can well imagine how he felt. Still his mother was alone - leave to Canada was impossible so he once more tried his own remedy that of AWL hoping because even a leave in Italy had been refused

This time he rested completely, he regained his co of the feeling that no one wanted to give a break to
- no transfer - no leave - no chance to see his mother time he found himself in the predicament of being in too out again - so he just stayed in.

GRIER 'JH

Gentlemen it is quite clear that this case is not a first appempt at being AWL. Instead it is something that has been building up in the mind of that lad for two years and more. It is something that has definite causes and those causes are as yet still not remedied.

"Let the Punishment fit the Crime" - well and good BUT gentlemen, when you are fitting the punishment to this crime please remember that this lad has been trying to get help from the army for two years - as far as he was concerned, no one seemed to want to help him - so - he tried to help himself.

In view of the psychological aspect to the case I beg you gentlemen to see this case in its true light - that of a false step being taken because no one gave a helping hand - an all to common occurrence in the army - and such a false step as anyone might make under similar circumstances.

This time he rested completely, he regained his composure - got rid of the feeling that no one wanted to give a break to a lowly private - no transfer - no leave - no chance to see his mother - but - by this time he found himself in the predicament of being in too far to get out again - so he just stayed in.

Plea of mitigation in the case of C5078 Pte. Grier. Mr. Pres. and members of the court:

There is not much to be said in the case of an AWL charge such as has been laid against the accused. The accused is guilty. However I sincerely believe that a brief resumé of the story behind the more than five years service, and good service it has been, gentlemen, that Pte. Grier has given — and a little explanation of the circumstances leading up to the crime in question will undoubtedly assist you in arriving at a fairer and more just decision than would be possible if these facts were not brought to light. I mean to mention but three main points — the first will throw a little light on the latter two and they will in turn make everything quite clear.

Pte. Grier was one of the first Canadians to offer his services in this war and before many months had elapsed had taken part in the original "D day" landings on the coast of France on 1940. This first but by no means last contribution in the battle line.

From the time he left Canada, gentlemen, early in 1940 Pte. Grier's conduct and actions as a Canadian soldier were exemplary. So much so that until Sep 42 he wore the now too common good conduct stripe. In Sep 42, Gentlemen, Pte Grier overstayed a leave and was charged with being AWL. After being convicted he asked his C.O. if he should take down his stripe. The C.O. informed him that he had won it therefore it was his to wear or discard as he so pleased. The accused realized that he had done a wrong and therefore felt he did not deserve to display the good conduct stripe on his sleeve. He therefore took it down gentlemen — he did not discard it though but kept it. He kept it until it and the rest of his personal belongings were destroyed in December 1943 at Ortona, the day he was wounded.

What has all this supposed sentomentality to do with the case in question? I believe, gentlemen that it, on the surface a very minor point has a real inference into the true character of the soldier here before us. That is point No. 1.

Now please remember Pte Grier as a young man with good intentions when he joined the army. A young man with but two slip-ups - actually small ones - in four years. A young man with an excellent record as a member of a fighting unit. A young man who since April 1943 has been trying futilely to switch from the Infantry Corps to the Provost Corps because he had decided he could do better work after the change. One who fought with the H.P.E's from Sicily to Ortona and then had his little world collapse about him in May 1944 when a long dreaded letter arrived from home. His mother informed him that his ailing father had died. This left his mother alone.

Something temporarely snapped within him - He had been on the move continuously from June in Sicily for eleven months without a leave - He needed time to think things over now to try and realize what had happened - He wanted to be alone and attempt to regain his former self. The only way he could see open, gentlemen, was to absent himself without leave. I wonder if after eleven months with an active unit we can blame him? But what happened gentlemen? It took him but one day to see it was wrong and he came back. Mind you he still could not see things clearly, his mind was still overwrought but he realized he was wrong in absenting himself - He repented and came back. Three weeks later he found himself in a quandrary again. After visiting the Padre and also talking to his Pl. Officer he again took things in his own hands and went AWL. This time after finding things clear again he once more surrendered himself to the Military Police. - That little story is point No 2. I hope you can see as much in it as I can.

Point No 3 is merely a continuation: Some months ago another flurry about home leaves and an increase of compassionate leaves came along. Upon investigation by his officers Pte Grier had more grounds for compassionate leave than others from his unit but for some reason he remained behind while they went home. You can well imagine how he felt. Still his mother was alone - leave to Canada was impossible so he once more tried his own remedy - that of AWL because even a leave in Italy had been refused him.

This time he rested completely, he regained his composure - got rid of the feeling that no one wanted to give a break to a lowly private - no transfer - no leave - no chance to see his mother - But - by this time he found himself in the predicament of being in too far to get out again - so he just stayed in. - The old story of being hung for a sheep.

30 March 45

Grier

Gentlemen it is quite clear that this case is not a first attempt at being AWL. Instead it is something that has been building up in the mind of that lad for two years and more. It is something that has definite causes and those causes are as yet still not remedied.

"Let the Punishment fit the Crime" — well and good BUT gentlemen, when you are fitting the punishment to this crime please remember that this lad has been trying to get help from the army for two years — as far as he was concerned no one seemed to want to help him - so - he tried to help himself.

In view of the psychological aspect of the case I beg you gentlemen to see this case in its true light — that of a false step being taken because no one gave a helping hand — an all too common occurrence in the army — and such a false step as anyone might make under similar circumstances.

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

TRIAL OF

M-87048 PTE GRIER JF -------- 6 CDN REPAT DEPOT

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT

The accused is very wise in pleading guilty to this AWL charge. He has served 4½ years in the army and has rendered very good service. By his MFM 6 you will see that he has done a very fine job. He has fought in the Canadian Army in Sicily and Italy in 43 where he was attached to an LAD as a tradesman and hemust have done a very good job there because he went to Germany where he served until VE-Day. His service musthave been very good because only good men were taken out of Italy at such an early date to be sent to Germany. The accused also volunteered for the CAPF. On arriving in theUK, he got leave and went to visit the woman he intends to marry. It is a petty excuse maybe; or maybe he has one weakness - woman weakness; she apparently got into tears and didn't want him to go to the Far East; the accused has already been 16 days awaiting trial; the accused is still willing to serve in the UK as long as his services are necessary and intends to stay in the UK until discharged from the Canadian Army.

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution. L 34021 L/Cpl Butler, F.C.
No 4 Cdn Provost Coy, 3 Cdn Div.

being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

I am L 34021 L/Cpl Butler, No 4 Cdn Provost Coy. I was on duty about 2.15 a.m. 26 May 43 near Kings Head public house with 3 other L/Cpls of Prov Corps. I saw three civilian youths being chased by a soldier across the Carfax. On investigating, found soldier, later identified as the accused, facing one of the civilians in a belligerent attitude. I spoke to them, in order to divert their attention until the arrival of the civil police. This officer did not know the cause of the trouble, but told the civilians to move on; I then ordered the soldiers to move on. Then the question arose as to the authority of 3rd Div Provost to deal with men of another div. While we were taking Pte Pineault to the station, accused followed us; when we stopped on the street, accused struck L/Cpl Newton, who then pursued him.

Q. Did you hear Pte Pineault call out for help?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. You were sitting down and holding P (2), and then accused struck L/Cpl Newton?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. You have no knowledge of what accused did after striking Newton?
A. No, sir.
Q. Did you actually see accused strike L/Cpl. Newton?
A. Yes sir, I saw him strike him in the face.

Second Witness H63014 L/Cpl. Newton, D.H., No. 4 Cdn Provost Coy, 3 Cdn Div.

I am H63014 L/Cpl. Newton, No. 4 Cdn Provost Coy. I was on duty in Horsham about 2150 hrs, 26 May 43. Accused had nothing to do with this affair till we were taking Pte. Pineault to the station. On the way we stopped and sat down, and it was then that accused interfered; he asked us to let Pineault go, and when we refused, he came in and hit me on the head with his hand, while I was holding Pineault. I would say that accused had been drinking.

Q. Did you hear Pte Pineault call for help?
A. No, sir.
Q. ~~How long have you known the accused~~ Was Pte Freise drunk, in your opinion?
A. No, sir.

Third Witness B85953 Pte. Bond, H.S., HQ Coy 2 Cdn Div. RCASC.

I am B85953 Pte. Bond, H.S., HQ Coy. 2 Div. RCASC. On the night in question I had some drinks with accused in a pub on the Carfax; then we went to another, & met Pte Pineault. Then I went to the King's Head, & then to the bus stop. While I was standing at the bus stop I saw Pte Pineault & Freise come out of the King's Head pub; they were talking "a little louder than normal", & in my opinion the accused was drunk.

D

The prosecution is closed.

Defence.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?

Answer. Yes, upon oath.

Question. Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence?

Answer. Yes

Question. Is he a witness as to character only? Answer. Yes.

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE COURT.

(i) When the answers to the above questions have been recorded, the Court will follow the provisions of Rules of Procedure 40 and 41 respecting the order of evidence and addresses which is applicable to the circumstances of the case.

(ii) All addresses by prosecutor, counsel or defending officer, whether recorded by the Court or handed in in writing will be attached to the proceedings in the order in which they are made. Any address which the accused is entitled to make pursuant to Rules of Procedure 40 (C) (iv) and 41 (A) (i) and (iii) will be similarly dealt with. Written addresses will be read to the Court, marked and signed by the President. If any person who is entitled to make an address declines to do so, a record will be made to that effect.

(Where any evidence is given for the defence.)

The evidence of the accused (and of the witnesses for the defence including witnesses as to character) is recorded on a separate page (see overleaf).

(Where the accused does not give evidence upon oath.)

Question to the accused. ~~Have you anything to say in your defence?~~

Answer. ~~The accused in his defence says:~~ Nar.

~~[hands in a written address which is to be read, marked signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.]~~

On the night in question

I am B 83466 Pte. Friend, R.W., HQ Coad 2 Can Div RCASC. Pte Pineault & I went across the Carfax, & were laughed at by three civilians & a naval cadet, which started an argument. The Provost came up then, and started talking to me, & I didn't answer. Then we started to walk away, & I heard Pineault say something, & I looked back and saw that the provost had grabbed him. They marched him along towards the police station, and I followed about 10 yds behind. they had twisted his arms behind his back.

Instruction. † In this space will be recorded any oral statement or address made by the accused in his defence when he has not given evidence as a witness. (For any additional address which he is entitled to make, see Instructions to the Court above.)

The evidence of the witnesses for the defence, including that of the accused, if he is a witness, will be taken here in the order in which they give evidence.

And he kept calling out, practically begging them to let go, as it hurt. When they sat down, I came around in front, and asked them to let go of his arms. They said "Get the hell out of here; you've caused enough trouble already". So I reached with my left hand towards the provost's shoulder, and as I reached, he grabbed hold of my arms. Apparently he thought I was going to strike him. He ordered me to accompany him.

Q. You are under oath. If the provost had released Pineault's arm, would you have interfered?

A. No, sir.

Q. Up until the time you spoke to them as they sat down, you had remained behind them?

A. Yes, sir.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF B053466 Pte Griese, R.W. - HQ Comd 2 Cdn Div RCASC - a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

The accused is informed of his rights.

The C.O. directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the prosecution: L34021. L/Cpl Butler, F.C. No. 4 Cdn Provost Coy, C.A.A.F., sworn, states:

On the evening of 26 May 43, between 2145 hrs and 2150 hrs, L/Cpl Newton and myself were on patrol duty in HORSHAM. We were standing on the street corner by the King's Head Pub, and were talking to L/Cpl Newcombe and L/Cpl Buchanan. I noticed three civilian youths crossing the street going towards Barclays Bank at the Carfax. A soldier who I later identified as Pte ~~Pineault~~ GRIESE was chasing them. A civilian policeman was walking in the direction that the civilians had gone - they were out of my sight by this time. I told the other Provost personnel that something was wrong and that we should investigate. As the four of us turned the corner at the bank I saw ~~Pineault~~ GRIESE and a civilian youth facing each other. From Pte ~~Pineault~~ GRIESE's actions I felt that he was about to hit the civilian. The civilian was one of the three youths who had been chased by Pte ~~Pineault~~ GRIESE. I asked Pte ~~Pineault~~ GRIESE what was going on. By this time a civilian police sergeant came on the scene. Pte ~~Pineault~~ GRIESE and the civilian who had been arguing, stopped doing so and paid attention to us.

I enquired of the police sergeant what had been the trouble. He replied that he didn't know but that he had noticed a little rumpus and was investigating.

Pte ~~Pineault~~ GRIESE and the civilian now started their argument again. At the same time a second soldier (later identified as Pte ~~Griese~~ PINEAULT) came up. The police sergeant then told the civilian youth to move on and to go home, which he did. I told the two soldiers that the best thing for them to do was to move on and be quiet. Pte Pineault then spoke up and said that we were 3rd Div soldiers and had nothing to do with him, as he belonged to 2nd Div. I advised him that I didn't want to hear any of that kind of talk from him and again ordered him to move along. A verbal argument followed between Pte Pineault and myself but he still did not move on. I then asked both soldiers if they had passes to be in town. Pte Griese replied that he had a pass and proceeded to look for it. Pte Pineault replied that they lived close to town and did not require a pass until after 2230 hrs. We had a few more words, I don't remember exactly what then they started to cross the street. While crossing the street one of the soldiers turned around and called us a bunch of bastards - I could not say which one. We then went after them, caught up to them and asked to see their paybooks. Pte Pineault said that he didn't have any pay book nor identity discs. Pte Griese had his pay book. I then told Pte Pineault to come along with us - intending to place him under close arrest. He then struck at L/Cpl Newton with his fist but missed him. L/Cpl Newton and myself then grabbed Pineault. We pinned his arms behind his back and started off for the police station. Pineault was swearing and shouting during this action. He struggled all the way, kicking at L/Cpl Newton on two occasions and spitting in our faces. It appeared to be hopeless to attempt to get Pte Pineault to the station in this manner so L/Cpl Buchanan went and got our lorry. While we were waiting for the lorry Pineault would not stand up so we held him in a sitting position on the sidewalk. Pte Griese, who had followed the procession from the rear, came around to the front and hit L/Cpl Newton on the side of the face with his fist. L/Cpl Newton then released his hold on Pineault and grabbed Griese. Pte Pineault struggled further and managed to break away from me. L/Cpl Newcombe then came to my assistance and while trying to get a hold of Pineault was struck on the side of the head by Pineault's fist. We then caught Pineault again and held him lying down on the street, until our lorry arrived.

The lorry arrived and we placed both prisoners in it, proceeded to the Horsham police station and had them put in cells.

During the action I noticed that both soldiers smelt of liquor but in my opinion neither of them was drunk.

While in the police station Pte Griese was identified by his pay book so we phoned his unit to send an escort to pick up both prisoners. Pte Pineault was identified by the Cpl i/c Escort.

CROSS EXAMINED BY ACCUSED - B83466 Pte Griese, R.W.

SECOND WITNESS for the prosecution: H63014 L/Cpl Newton, D.H., No. 4 Cdn Provost Coy, C.A.A.F., sworn, states,

On 26 May 43 at approximately 2130 hrs, L/Cpls Newcombe, Butler, Buchanan and myself were standing in front of the King's Head Pub in HORSHAM. We were on patrol duty. I noticed a disturbance at the Carfax. I saw a civilian police sergeant and two soldiers, later identified as Ptes Pineault and Griese. When I first saw the two soldiers they were running after four civilian youths, who ran away. One youth only ran as far as the corner opposite the King's Head and stopped there. The other three L/Cpls and myself proceeded to that corner. Just as we appeared at the corner Pte Griese was starting to swing his fist at the civilian but he stopped when he saw us approaching. I inquired as to what the trouble was. The civilian answered something to the effect that the soldiers had started to fight with them on the street and that the soldiers had called he and his three companions "Limey bastards". A civilian police sergeant, who had arrived told the civilian youth to go home, which he did. The police sergeant told us that he would leave the soldiers for us to deal with. I then told the soldiers that there was no need for any trouble and that they could carry on. Pineault stated that they were 2nd Div and that we were 3rd Div and consequently had nothing to do with them. I again warned them that there was no need for any trouble - with that they turned and walked about half way across the street. When they got half way across one of them, I'm not sure which, turned and called us a bunch of rotten bastards. The four of us then walked after them and asked to see their paybooks. Pte Pineault stated that he did not have his pay book. I asked him if he had identity discs on and he replied in the negative. I told Pte Pineault that he was under close arrest because he had no identification whatsoever. As L/Cpl Butler advanced towards him to place him under close arrest Pineault swung his fist at me but did not hit me. L/Cpl Butler and myself then grabbed Pineault by the arms, pinning them behind his back and forced him to come along with us. He would not come voluntarily. He fought and kicked, using abusive language to us while we were leading him to the police station. About half way to the police station he sat down on the sidewalk and refused to get up. I then sent L/Cpl Buchanan for our lorry with the intention of transporting Pineault to the police station. In the absence of L/Cpl Buchanan, Pte Griese who was following L/Cpl Newcombe and L/Cpl Buchanan (who were behind me) came around to the front and took a swing at me with his fist. The blow landed on the left side of my head and caused me to let go of Pineault. When I let go of Pineault I grabbed Griese and told him that he was under close arrest. While I was holding Pte Griese, Pte Pineault was able to break away from L/Cpl Butler but he remained on the scene. L/Cpl Butler and L/Cpl Newcombe then took hold of Pte Pineault, who struck L/Cpl Newcombe on the side of his head. Pte Pineault was then held and the lorry arrived. Pte Pineault refused to get into the lorry, he struggled and kicked, swore at us and spit in my face. Finally the three other L/Cpls had to lift Pte Pineault into the lorry. Pte Griese, who I was holding at this time, struggled to get away for a moment and then got into the lorry unassisted. Pte Pineault continued to use abusive language during the ride to the police station. When we arrived at the station we took him inside and he was put in a cell. Pte Griese was also taken into the police station and put into a cell.

During the action it was evident to me that both Pineault and Griese had been drinking but were not drunk.

THIRD WITNESS for the prosecution: P50015 L/Cpl Newcombe, J.H. No. 4 Cdn Provost Coy. C.A.A.F., sworn, states:

On 26 May 43 at approximately 2200 hrs L/Cpl Buchanan and myself were on duty near the King's Head Pub. L/Cpl Newton and L/Cpl Butler had been talking to us for a few moments and then they moved on towards the Carfax. They crossed the street and I saw them talking to Pte Griese and Pte Pineault. There appeared to be an argument going on so L/Cpl Buchanan and myself proceeded to the scene to see what it was all about. As we approached I overheard Pte Pineault telling L/Cpl Newton that he had nothing to do with 2nd Div and that 2nd Div had its own Provost. I saw a civilian youth standing near bye when I got to the scene. He was told to go home by a civilian police sergeant and proceeded to do so. The sergeant then went about his duties.

There were a few words, I believe of caution, said by L/Cpl Newton to the two soldiers. The soldiers then started away from our men and Pte Pineault turned around and called us "Provost Bastards". L/Cpls Butler and Newton went over to them and although I couldn't hear what was said, I saw the two L/Cpls each take one of Pineault's arms and start walking him towards the civilian police station. Pineault struggled and used very abusive language. At this time Pte Griese spoke to Pte Pineault telling him to "smarten up and see it the right way". I told Pte Griese not to get involved in this or he would get himself into serious trouble.

L/Cpls Newton and Butler carried on with Pte Pineault who continued to struggle and swear. He spit on the faces of the men holding him. He was continually kicking and further resisting arrest. As they proceeded up the street he finally sat down on the side walk. L/Cpl Buchanan, who was following behind was told to get our lorry. While Pineault was sitting on the side walk being held by two L/Cpls, Pte Griese who had been following us came around in front of me. L/Cpl Newton let go of Pte Pineault and grabbed Pte Griese. Pte Pineault broke loose from L/Cpl Butler - I tried to get close enough to Pineault in order to get ahold of him - he struck me on the rightside of my head and forehead with his hand, L/Cpl Butler and myself managed to subdue him and the lorry arrived. The three L/Cpls with the assistance of Cpl Cochrin who was driving the lorry, picked Pte Pineault up bodily off the pavement and put him into the lorry. Pte Pineault was kicking with his feet during this movement, he continued to spit on us also. Pte Griese got into the lorry on his own accord and we then proceeded to the police station.

The first time I had occasion to go near Pte Pineault during the above action I smelled liquor very plainly on him. I did not notice any trace of liquor on Pte Griese.

At the police station the routine of booking went on and the prisoners put into cells until picked up by their unit escort.

FOURTH WITNESS for the prosecution: F77487 L/Cpl Buchanan, H. No. 4 Cdn Provost Coy, C.A.A.F., sworn, states,

On 26 May 43 at approximately 2145 hrs I was on duty with L/Cpl Newcombe when we met L/Cpls Butler and Newton on the corner near the King's Head Pub. I saw two soldiers running across the street in the direction of the Carfax. I then saw a civilian police sergeant walking across the street in the same direction. L/Cpls Butler and Newton started off walking toward the Carfax to investigate the two running soldiers. L/Cpl Newcombe and I followed them.

When we arrived at the Carfax I saw a civilian youth, about 16 years old, with the two soldiers and the police sergeant. I heard the sergeant tell the civilian to move on, which he did. L/Cpl Butler told the two soldiers to move on, which they did. They walked across the road towards the Carfax and when about half way across the road Pte Pineault turned around and called the four of us a "dirty bunch of cocksuckers". L/Cpls Newton and Butler walked over to them and asked to see their paybooks. Pte Pineault did not have his. Pineault was then asked for his identity discs which he said e didn't have, L/Cpl Butler then told Pte Pineault he had better come alon with us. Pte Pineault didn't move so L/Cpls Butler and Newton each grabbed an arm and started toward the police station. Pte Pineault struggled and kicked at the two L/Cpls. When L/Cpl Newton saw he was having difficulty he asked me if I would mind going to the police station and get my truck, I left the party and got my lorry, returning to the scene. I stood by the side of my vehicle [redacted] while the prisoners were put into the back of the vehicle. I then drove to the police station.

During the action I did not see either of the accused strik at any of the Provost personnel. I did not see any struggling done by Pte Griese. I did not know that he was under arrest until we arrived at the police station.

FIFTH WITNESS for the prosecution: Number 8- Sgt Peters, Jack Everson, Horsham Division - Sussex Police Force, sworn, states,

At about 9.50 Wednesday 26 May 1943 I was on uniform duty in the Carfax, Horsham, where I saw two Cdn Soldiers who were arguing with three civilian youths and a naval cadet. Owing to their obscene language (both of them) and their agressive conduct and threatening attitude it appeared to me that the cdn soldiers were going to strike the youths. I went to the group and I advised the civilians and the naval cadet to go away, which they did. I then spoke to the two soldiers and warned them as regards their conduct and advised them to go away. At this time one of the civilian youths returned to the scene and was standing about 20 yards away. The taller soldier who is now presented to me as Pte Pineault and whom I now recognize appeared to see the civilian and he ran across the road towards him, he threatened the youth and I heard him call the youth "a shit" several times, I told this civilian youth to go away which he did. Four of the Cdn Provost Corps came across the road from the direction of The King's Head Pub. They advised the two Cdn soldiers who are now presented to me as Pte Pineault and Pte Griese and whom I recognize as the two Cdn soldiers to go away quietly. They both refused at first but later commenced to go away, but then stopped. Pte Pineault still used obscene language calling the Provost Cpls "a lot of shits". They were then asked to produce their passes. Pte Pineault refused and said "you can't see my pass until after 1030" and he refuesed to produce it. The other soldier, Pte Griese, searched for his pass in his pockets and apparently failed to find it and said "I can't find my pass". Pineault called one of the Provost Cpls "a bastard". This cpl said "you have gone too far this time and you are under arrest". Pineault struck a back-handed fist blow which caught the Cpl in the chest. He was then taken in charge by the four Cpls. I remained in the Carfax for a few minutes and saw the Provost Cpls taking Pineault, who was struggling all the time, up East Street. I walked up the street a few minutes later and saw the Provost Cpls putting Pte Pineault into their lorry. He was struggling violently all the time and they had to sit on him when they got him into the lorry. Pte Pineault and Pte Griese had both been drinking but they were not drunk.

On 26 May 45 at about 2150 hrs I saw Pte Griese and Pte Pineault standing on the sidewalk in the Carfax, Horsham. I was about 35 to 40 feet away from them. They were leaning up against each other with Pineault's hands on Pte Griese's shoulders. They seemed to make no noise. There were no civilians near them. I then got in the bus for Slinfold Manor and did not see Pte Pineault nor Pte Griese again that night.

On 26 May 45 at about 2045 hrs I saw Pte Griese in a hotel in Horsham drinking beer. He appeared to have had several drinks. In the pub there was also Pte Brown and Pte Burns with Pte Griese. The four of us left the pub together and went across the street where Pte Griese met Pte Pineault and started to talk to him. A few minutes after the five of us proceeded to another pub. When we first met Pte Pineault it appeared to me that he had been drinking. We each had a pint and a half of beer in this pub, I then left by myself and proceeded to the King's Head Pub. I was there about ten minutes when Pte Griese and Pte Pineault came in. They both appeared to have been drinking heavily. They had two pints of beer with me at least and I then left the hotel to catch the bus for camp. I later saw Pte Griese and Pte Pineault come out of the pub and stand in front of it talking together. They were talking in a bit louder than normal voice. This would be about 2155 hrs. I then went across to the bus and did not see them again that night.

FIRST WITNESS for the defence: D106693 Pte Harkness, K., HQ., Coms 2 Cdn Div RCASC., sworn, states,

I was duty driver on night of 26 May 1945. At about 2200 hours I was informed by Cpl Boucher that I would have to drive him and Pte MacCallum into Horsham to pick up Pte Griese and Pte Pineault from the civilian police station. When we arrived there I left the car parked outside with Pte MacCallum in it and went into the Police Station with Cpl Boucher. While he signed the papers I waited at the door. The first I saw of Pte Griese and Pte Pineault was when they were brought to the door by Cpl Boucher and the Provost Cpls. When I first saw them they appeared to me to be drunk. Cpl Boucher and I had to help Pte Pineault into the car as he could not get in himself. Pte MacCallum assisted Pte Griese into the car. We then drove back to Gleniffer. They were both talking incoherently. When we arrived back at Gleniffer Pte MacCallum assisted Pte Griese upstairs and Cpl Boucher and myself assisted Pte Pineault up to his room where we made his bed and helped him to undress. It was approximately 2300 hrs when we returned to Gleniffer.

On 26 May 1945 at approximately 2235 hrs I was detailed by Cpl Boucher to act as escort to bring two prisoners back from Horsham. We arrived at the place in Horsham where the two prisoners were being kept between 2255 hrs and 2300 hrs. I waited outside in the car alone for about ten minutes then Cpl Boucher came out with the two prisoners. From their actions they were very drunk. They both talked incoherently. Cpl Boucher and Pte Harkness assisted Pte Pineault into the car. I got out of the car and assisted Pte Griese in. They were both put in the back seat. We came back to Gleniffer then. On the way back Pte Griese was mumbling words which did not make any sense to me. Pte Griese's breath smelt very strongly of beer. When we arrived back at Gleniffer Pte Harkness and Cpl Boucher helped them upstairs and I proceeded to my bed.

Third Witness for the defence: H14420 Cpl Boucher, G.A.C., HQ Coms 2 Cdn Div RCASC., sworn, states,

On the night of 26 May 45 I had been drinking beer with Pte Pineault at Five Oak's Pub. We had 3 pints apiece and then left for Broadbridge Heath. We had two or three half pints apiece at the pub in Broadbridge Heath and then Pte Pineault left me and proceeded to Horsham. Pte Pineault had 15 shillings when he left me. I went back to camp about 2205 hrs when I was asked by Cpl McGill to go into Horsham to escort two prisoners who were Pte Griese and Pte Pineault back to camp. I detailed Pte Harkness to get his work ticket signed so that he could drive me in. I also detailed Pte MacCallum to come as an escort. I went to the civilian police station and asked for the RCASC personnel the e.

The civilian constable gave me the pay book belonging to Pte Griese with some money in it. While I was there I asked some Provost Cpls what was the matter and they stated that Pte Pineault had got into trouble and that Pte Griese had stuck his nose into it and had made a nuisance of himself. The civilian constable asked me if I knew the regimental number of Pte Pineault which I gave him. I signed the receipt for the two soldiers and went to the cells with the constable. We went to Pte Pineault's cell first which the civilian constable unlocked. Pte Pineault was lying down with his eyes closed. I had to shake him and I asked him if he recognized me. He opened his eyes but did not answer me. I took him by the arm and shook him again and asked him to get up. He put his feet on the floor beside his bed and tried to stand up but fell back on the bed. Pte Pineault was now sitting on the side of the bed, I gave him his two boots and told him to put them on. I then went to Pte Griese's cell where I found him lying down with his eyes closed. He appeared to be asleep. I shook his arm and he opened his eyes. I asked him if he recognized me but do not remember if he answered me or not. I then told him that I had come to pick him up. I then went back to Pte Pineault's cell to see how he was getting on. He was still sitting down on the edge of the bed so I helped him to stand up. He appeared to be drunk and stated that he had a sore leg. As the police had not given me any money belonging to Pte Pineault and as I knew that he had had 15 shillings when he had left me earlier in the evening I asked him if he had any money. He put his hand into his pocket and showed me a two shilling piece and said that that was all he had. I put his tunic over his shoulders and told Pte Harkness to come and help me take him to the car. We put our arms around his shoulders and helped him out to the car. In the meantime the Provost Cpls were helping Pte Griese to the car. We helped Pte Pineault into the car and Pte MacCallum helped Pte Griese into it. We arrived back at Gleniffer where Pte Harkness and I helped Pte Pineault up to his bed where we helped him to undress. I got a bandage and bandaged up his ankle as he stated it was sore.

I was in Horsham on 26 May 43 and returned to Gleniffer at approximately 2230 hrs. I went to my room and at about 2300 hrs Pte Pineault came into the room. He and I live in the same room. Pte Pineault was complaining of a sore ankle so Cpl Boucher rubbed his ankle with ointment, after which Pte Pineault went to bed.

I have known Pte Pineault for two years and roomed with him for six months and it was evident to me that he was under the influence of liquor that night. In proof of this I state that Pte Pineault got into the wrong bed when he went to bed.

At the same time as the above, Pte Griese was also in our room. I did not pay much attention to him but there were definite signs of him having been drinking. I have known Pte Griese for three years and from his actions and talk it was evident to me that he was under the influence of liquor.

We met Pte Bond in this pub. The four of us then came out of this pub and met Pte Pineault. We all went into another pub and had two or three more pints of beer. We went outside of this pub and Pte Brown and myself left the other three who went over to the King's Head. Pte Brown and I just walked for awhile and then about 2130 hours we went to the King's Head and again met Ptes Pineault and Griese in the pub. By this time they both appeared to have had quite a bit to drink. The two of them left this pub before Pte Brown and myself did. That was the last I saw of them that night.

On 26 May 43 at approximately 1730 hrs Pte Griese and I left billets for Horsham. We had a couple of pints of beer at a pub. We then left for the King's Head Pub where we met Pte Burns. The three of us went into that pub and had three or four pints of beer. As we left that pub we met Pte Pineault who appeared to have been drinking quite a lot. Pte Bond met us also so the five of us all went over to another pub where we had another two or three pints. We left that pub and Pte Griese and Pte Pineault went toward the King's Head. Pte Burns and myself went for a walk. Pte Bond had gone back to billets.

Pte Burns and myself then went into the King's Head at about 2130 hrs and again saw Pte Griese and Pte Pineault. They were both drinking and looked to be pretty drunk to me but Burns and I did not actually speak to them. Shortly after this the two of them walked Court reopened at 1315 hrs.

First witness for Defence 13845817 Sgt Gwinn RS 34 CCTC Coy Recce

Q Tell the court what occurred on 14 Apr 45

A at 0900 hrs I fell in the men of No 1 D.I.D. I told them they would be paid at 0930 hrs & to pack their kits & move off at 1530 hrs. They were paid at 0930 hrs. Several approached me & asked to get off to pick up laundry etc. at the laundry. I gave permission & told them not to go beyond Bunnfield, where there is a barber shop, some wished to get haircuts. They were warned to be back at 1430 hrs. From 1000 hrs to 1100 hrs I was busy with the admin Sgt, Sgt Leon SEONS, winding up affairs of our disbanding unit. At 1115 approx, I visited a house where they take battledress for cleaning, & picked up my battledress. Walking back, I passed the Hare & Hounds, a public house, & was greeted from the doorway by 3 Officers I knew, from another unit. They were also disbanding. During our ~~own~~ conversation it was suggested that we drink a toast to the unit & this was done. I looked in the private bar, & heard a piano in the saloon bar & men singing. I went to the saloon bar ~~and~~ & met the ~~unit~~ CO in doorway. We looked in saloon bar & the men spoke to us, & they sang a song to the CO. (for he's a jolly good fellow). I repeated warning to the men to be back for 1430 hrs to have a picture taken. When returned & billets (approx 1430) inspected Sgt Murnaw to assist in checking that the kits of men proceeding to Norway were packed ready to move off. We checked various rooms & found that only the kits still in rooms belonged to the recce party. At 1445 approx we formed up at the rear of house & took photographs of the men in a group. There were several pictures taken in small parties. When Sgt arrived from making a final check of grounds & billets to make sure they were clean. I was accompanied by Lieut McLean. The men were already in the lorries by the time I finished inspection. The O.C. told me that he had given Sgt Morrison the M & M 6's & a confidential letter to O.C. 3 Bde Corps Tps Coy, containing the nominal roll. This was at 1630 hrs approx. We proceeded to 3 Corps Tps Coy & stopped once en route. When I arrived at Rivenwood, I approached the C.S.M. & asked if the men were to be billetted in that house. He said yes, & told the men to debuss & fall-in in three ranks. They did so. I counted the men & knew that they were all present, 19 in all. The C.S.M. told me that Sgt Skipp would arrange to issue palliasses & blankets & show the men the available sleeping quarters. I drew palliasses & blankets myself & put them on my bed in the same billet. I checked the remaining rooms when detachment was sleeping, finding all had a bed, except one, Pte Wilson. I had asked the C.S.M. if it would be alright for men to go out, & he said yes. I told the men who asked, that they could go out until 2300 hrs. I then washed & went out, returning at approx 2215 hrs, & went to bed. Following morning I fell the men in at 0815 hrs & found all present. I had them ready for Sgt Major who had told me he wished to parade the men at 0830 hrs. 1 Sgt, 2 Cpls & 3 L/Cpls.

Court.

A Yes sir.

PROVISIONS OF R.P.O.(S) WERE COMPLIED WITH.

Defence Speech

The two charges are not alternative, & court cannot be convinced & find accused guilty on both charges. The evidence of Cpl Hawken is bond on staggers, blurred speech, & smell of liquor. But he did not place the accused under arrest. There is a certain amount of confusion in first three witnesses in their evidence. Everything seems to center on the Sgt. Major. Sgt Skaggs was there to take over, previously detailed, and not put in charge because Sgt Evans had been drinking. Accused had no drink from time of public house until after supper, when Sgt Skaggs claims he was staggering around billets. Quinney's only evidence of the accused being drunk was that he had fallen over the guys on a straight road. He could understand the accused & could not smell any alcohol in the cab. The accused's normal could understand his commands. His reasons could can explain why his men new accused's actions staggering. The reading up of the unit, & the extension of 1/2 hour given by the Sgt. Major are possibly misdemeanors regarding learning, new in put timing visiting hours. He was able to carry out duties on his arrival at 34 Bty. The accused was not put under arrest for two days.

Prosecution.

The witnesses for prosecution did not know the accused ~~for the~~ prior to his arrival at 34 Bty. The witnesses for the defence are his friends. Evidence of Cpl Hawken & Sgt Skaggs both describe the walk as a stagger, and is not to be confused with an erratic walk. Evidence has been given of his jumbled words & alcoholic breath. What other evidence can be given as to the accused being drunk. Sgt Bannon took charge on arrival and gave details, not the accused. He was not put under arrest immediately because he was a senior NCO & was not causing any disturbance.

Officer Taking Summary of Evidence

Mr. President & members

Sir -

Gnr Griffin has pleaded guilty to the charge of desertion
A W L 25 minutes. In view of the circumstances and of the time absent it does seem a rather trivial offence to have resulted in a Court Martial. Gnr Griffin would not accept the C.O punishment.

Obviously on an absence of so few minutes there must be some very strong motive for a man to prefer a court martial. I would like to bring to the courts attention the following reasons.

① Gnr Griffin realized that he was and is guilty of an offence, a breach of discipline and that discipline must be maintained. By having been told he knew he must be punished for the offence. However when his Battery Commander remanded the case to the C.O. Gnr Griffin was immediately under the mistaken impression that by being so remanded he in view of his previous record would automatically be sentenced to the maximum punishment allowed for the C.O to award namely 28 days ~~detention~~ or 28 days pay.
Thinking thus not knowing or realizing that the C.O deals with the charge laid before him ~~as he sees fit~~ as he sees fit Gnr Griffin requested a court martial. We who now have no idea what punishment may have been awarded by the C.O I feel certain that no commanding officer would make an award of anything like the maximum award for such a charge particularly when Gnr Griffin Conduct sheet has nothing of an extremely serious nature on it.

to his ignorance of military law (not the soldiers fault) he understood that in asking for a court martial he was appealing a sentence that he felt was very unjust. Mainly ignorance of military law has led to Gnr Griffin being before this board today.

A long period of imprisonment is not a pleasant thing for any man to look forward to and it was particularly so in this mans case. Not so much the physical strain as the mental strain. Soldiering has not been a very pleasant life for Gnr Griffin for some time past. He is a married man a long way from home, his means are limited and even if they weren't with no chance to get back home remains formally reports are a heavy burden to bear. You can see from the correspondence & present that Gnr Griffin has not had a very easy mind the past few months and still does not know how he stands with all he holds dear in doubt.

Nerves continual worry & sleeplessness all combine to make life extremely unpleasant make it hard to keep a grip on ones self. The thoughts of 28 days or such a heavy sentence was more than he feels his nervous condition could stand particularly when to him it seemed so unjustified a sentence. Again I remind you that he believed that he would automatically get that mitigated.

There was no deliberate intention on Gnr Griffin part to be late because he misjudged the time necessary to bring him back on time is no excuse but it was not a premeditated crime.

Gnr. Griffin feels that he has had a more difficult time on his wings than other members always the one who has been the butt for more attention tending to disfavour him than has been his fair share. Certainly a man with problems such as he is carrying needs and deserves a bit of extra help and attention from his N.C.O and Officers.

I feel in view of his ignorance of military law that the court will consider the circumstances of the charge carefully and in awarding punishment. I feel that the accused Gnr. Griffin will be dealt with in the same manner that he took advantage of the protection he believed Clair him against what at the time seemed a most unjust and unfair sentence out of proportion to the infringement of discipline. Also Gnr. Griffin should have some consideration shown due to the severe mental strain he is labouring under.

Plea of Mitigation

Sir and Members of the Court:

A42234 Trooper Griffin R. R. volunteered to serve his country on the 4th of July 1940. This means he has spent more than five years in the Army and over three and one half years of this time he has been Overseas.

His M.F.M.6 shows that he has committed no crime since his enlistment. This record speaks for itself--Trooper Griffin has been a good soldier. This is his first offence in over five years of service--truly a remarkable record.

Trooper Griffin served in Italy for eleven months and has been in action. While in action he was wounded in the leg and as a result of his battle experiences his Pulhems Profile was lowered to S3. At the present time his Pulhems is still S3.

Trooper Griffin left his home at the age of nineteen to join the army and has been away from the restraining influences of a good home since that time. Nevertheless this is the first time he has been in trouble. He is single. His parents are both living but his father has been in poor health and is only working part-time. His mother is sixty years of age and his father is fifty-five; as could be expected he is very anxious to get home and help out his parents.

Trooper Griffin has been stationed at "C" Wing, No.4 Canadian Repat Depot for over eight months. It was not the most pleasant place to be while in the Army. Every day he saw soldiers being returned to Canada with less service than he had while he seemed to be "frozen". This situation made him feel very dissatisfied.

Towards the end of his leave he met undesirable acquaintances who led him astray. He met a woman who was working as a waitress in London. Griffin thought he fell in love with this woman. She told him that she was not feeling well and needed an operation for a tumor before they could marry and return to Canada. She also mentioned it was necessary for her to find new living quarters as her land-lady required her room. In all good faith Griffin decided to do what he could to help this woman out. Hence we have the picture of a woman much older in experience but with an unhappy childhood, now working for a pittance who sees a chance to better herself. If she can marry a Canadian and go to Canada she can have a new start in life. She plays on Griffin's loneliness and arouses his compassion for her lot in life. Blinded by this infatuation he spent all his money on her and even pawned his $80 watch. He honestly felt it was his obligation to help her make medical arrangements for her operation and see that she got safely moved to new living quarters. We believe that, considering his youth as judged by experience in the ways of the world and his state of mind due to his anxiety to return home, he was a victim of circumstances in that he came under the undue influence of this woman and so neglected to return to his camp on time. The S3 Fulhems Profile may well support the fact that he could have been more easily influenced under the above circumstances than the average soldier. Finally realizing his mistake he voluntarily returned to camp and surrendered himself.

Trooper Griffin's point score is 148 and he has missed one draft home over this episode. We believe that the sooner he is returned to Canada the better for all concerned. The length of time he has been in arrest is [redacted] days. In view of Trooper Griffin's past clean record and the circumstances in connection with this case we believe that the Court should be lenient and this soldier's punishment as light as possible. I suggest that the punishment be in the form of a fine not detention.

Defending Officer.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

H 39178 Spr Griffith J.

First witness for the Prosecution

M 533 rd Regt SHERRITT 1 CDRU T.R.O., sworn, states "I am regimental provost in charge of unit detention. On 25 Oct 43 one of my duties was to call the defaulters parade and the first roll call was at 1800 hrs. Spr. Griffiths was absent at that time. At 1800 hrs he did not answer his name. At 2000 hrs he did not answer his name. At 2130 hrs he did not answer his name. I wrote out documentary evidence and sent it in to his coy."

Question by defending officer: Will you explain to the court what the defaulters parade is for?

Answer: It is a parade that gets all the defaulters together and if there are any petitions for them to be put up they are given them

Question by defending officer: Tell me what happens to a soldier if he gets a sentence of F.P.?

Answer: If there is a regimental provost at the orderly room at the time of sentence, he takes the mans name and number and tells him when he is to report first on defaulters parade. If no R.P. is present, the R.S.M. sergeant major notifies us what the sentence was and we put him on a roll-call list of defaulters.

Question by defending officer: Who informed Spr. Griffiths on 25 Oct that he was to appear on defaulters parade at 1800 hrs?

Answer: I do not know. I was not on duty at that time.

Question by defending officer: When you sent that report in to the coy. was it a report that he was AWL, or absent from defaulters?

Ans: Absent from defaulters parade.

Evidence that RP 838 has been complied with Exhibit "B" was introduced to the court and released by the court on consent of defending officer.

Defending officer submitted nothing in evidence and indicated all would had been warned to appear on defaulters parade at a given place at a given time, and roughly, time of AWL as stated in charge sheet was not proven.

Prosecution admitted inability to produce witness to give evidence on check that Sgt Griffith had been warned. One attempt was made to introduce extracts from Part II orders to show Sgt Griffith was absent as of 800 hrs 25 Oct 43 to which defense objected. Objection was sustained by the Court.

Opening address by the prosecutor

The charge against Pte Briggs is drunkenness and to prove this charge it is necessary to tell the entire story of what happened on the night of 12 Feb 1944. This evidence may indicate to you that a more serious charge should be laid against the accused. However we believe that the drunkenness of the accused was responsible

It is only because of the dangerous acts which the accused committed while he was drunk that he comes before a Court Martial.

I am 2 i/c A Tr. Platoon, and on the 10th Feb. 1944. I was commanding a portion of the platoon in San Nicola, on that date
I was ordered by Maj. Martin Sup. Coy.
Commander to test the Bn. from San Nicola to the Embussing point and to drop guides along the route to direct the Bn. Test
On receiving this order I held an O Group and issued my orders to the men under my command. I was also ordered to take with me the remainder of the Mortar platoon and any Signal personal who were left behind
At 1800 hrs on 10th Feb 1944 I proceeded to the Carrier Platoon billets to contact the mortar platoon officer and to make sure his men would be ready to leave at 1900 hrs.
While there I received information on which I took action. I returned to my own billet contacted my sergeant (C/Sgt Wilson) and he man absent. He then ordered the man to be found and a charge laid against him.

I could see the accused had been drinking and in my opinion he was drunk at about 1830 hrs. same date. L/Cpl Martyn came into the room and the accused asked him why he was on a charge. Cpl Martyn told him because he had been drunk he called Cpl Martyn a liar and a son of a bitch. There was a bit of a scuffle but a couple of men were holding the accused. He then said he was alright and he was let free. He next thing I saw him with a grenade in his hand and he then told everyone to clear out of the room they turned to Mr. Marilyn and said This is for you.

There was a dash and everyone cleared out of the room.
The accused followed them out of the room closed it and held it. In a little while the accused said Let me in let me in!
I waited awhile he said I still have the grenade in my hand. Let me in I let him in and replaced the pin in the grenade removed the detonator. He looked at me and said everyone got scared and left the room. he then started laughing.

I am in the S.K.P. on 10 Feb 44 we were ordered to move, we were dressed ready to move the accused was with us. Sgt. Wilson came in and placed the accused under arrest.

The accused asked who ordered it. Sgt Wilson replied Mr Martyn.

A few moments later Mr Martyn came in and the accused asked why he was placed under arrest. Mr Martyn said for being drunk and the accused took a pass at him. I grabbed his arm. and tried to reason with him. He seemed to get hold of himself so I released my hold. He then pulled a grenade from his pocket and removed the pin said don't pull the pin you have 4 seconds to get out. They all ran out of the room and Mr Martyn hit the accused

I didn't pay much attention to the accused he was jabbering as usual and as usual his conversation didn't make sense.

He seemed to go into the laughter and said crazy things after it was all over I knew the accused for 3 months.

The accused is charged with drunkenness; other charges might have been laid but the sole question before the court is whether or not at the time in question the accused was drunk.

Sec 19 1A. Witnesses should be required to state their reasons for their opinion that an accused was drunk.

The accused when charged asked reasonable sober questions, incompatible with drunkenness; he was sober enough to warn the crowd in the billets to leave the room, and sober enough to beg also the guard even when sworn.

All witnesses for prosecution agree that the accused is nervous, and is not a normal individual and that it is difficult to hold a coherent conversation with him; I submit that on what they base their opinion of drunkenness is, for the accused, normal conduct.

The prosecutrix own witness, [illegible] and a escort in charge of the accused could not say definitely whether or not the accused was drunk; he even stated his words were clear and concise. He stated that he thought the accused lost his temper.

The accused in his own evidence states that he is suffering from a nervous condition; and that he has often been mistaken for being drunk when he is sober. He states definitely that he was not drunk and that when accused his mind stopped and his violent actions were a result.

Three days after the alleged offence, the accused was examined with exhaustion.

In view of all the evidence I submit there must be in the mind of the court a reasonable doubt as to the condition of the accused, and the accused is entitled to the benefit of the doubt.

(3) No. 3

In mitigation I refer, to the long battle history of the accused, to his award of the D.C.M. and in particular to the evidence of Major Liddell. I also refer to his clean M.T.M.O. and submit this is a case for a most lenient sentence, should the court find the accused guilty.

I make a strong recommendation, in view of this man's abnormal condition and the fact that all witnesses agree that he is abnormal, that before undergoing sentence, the accused be examined by a neuro-specialist or a psychiatrist.

Respectfully,
A.R.C. Walker Lieut.
Defending Officer.

Pe Pbr J. Corrigan D. C. M.

Summary by Prosecution

Gentlemen, as I said in my opening remarks there might have been charges more serious than drunkenness However, all these other acts, I feel, are part and parcel of the drunkenness with which the accused is charged.

In the evidence, you have heard an officer and two MCO's say that in their opinion, this man was drunk, and you have also heard a signing clerk. They know the accused and admit that he is not a normal individual at the best of times but, on this occasion, not only his actions were abnormal, therefore they knew he was drunk. The accused was present when Sgt Wilson warned the Pl that they were doing a job that night and that drinking would not be tolerated but, the accused appeared on the scene only a half hour before moving off when these two MCO's Sgt Wilson and S/Cpl Rondonick both say that he was drunk, and you have also heard a signing clerk say that this was before his more violent actions.

From Pte Evans evidence we see that the accused was to avoid the witness's own answer "not normal" after the Pl had moved off - therefore he could not have performed his duties whilst in this state.

Drunkenness, gentlemen, can take many forms, there can be no set way for a man to act when drunk, although he may take however that the actions of the accused on 10 Feb clearly indicate that he was drunk as charged. We appreciate that the accused is not a nervous condition and has been "brought a lot" but this is no excuse for drunkenness.

The evidence of the witnesses for the defence, including that of the accused, if he is a witness, will be taken here in the order in which they give evidence.

On the 10th of Feb 1944 I came off guard in the morning. I spent the afternoon with some Italian friends. I returned to my billets about 8pm o'clock at night I had a couple of glasses of wine as I always do but I was not drunk.

When I came in supper was over I was standing by the fire talking when Sgt Wilson shut his head to the door and said you are on a charge I asked him what I was on a charge for, and he said he was sorry but it was Lt. Marlyns orders a few minutes Lt Marlyn came in, there were quite a few people in the room and I pushed my way up to him and asked why I was on a charge he said for being drunk I don't remember very much what happened after that I remember seeing about a grenade and Lt Marlyn telling me on the floor I always carry a grenade in my greatcoat pocket when I was knocked down by Lt Marlyn I remember making a special effort not to let the grenade out of my hand because the pin was out I lunged at Lt. Marlyn and when I got outside I seemed to snap out of it I then turned the grenade over to Hope. Rankdown

I have been accused on different occasions by people of being drunk but its my actions and the way I behave, I hate to admit it but my records are not what they used to be and on the 10th of Feb I was incensed because of frustration

Summary of evidence, in the case of D-105811, Private Joseph Grigas, D.C.M., a soldier of the Canadian Army, on Active Service.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the evidence is taken on Oath.

First Witness for the Prosecution.

Lieut. D.R. Martyn, The Royal Canadian Regiment, having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am second-in-command, number 5 Platoon, Support Company, R.C.R. I was, on 10 February 44, in command of a portion of the platoon, in S. Nicola, whose job it was to guard Tac Headquarters. The accused whom I recognize was in my portion of the platoon at this time. On February 10th. 44, I was ordered by Major Darton to leave S. Nicola at 1900 hrs. with my portion of the platoon, plus some Mortar and Pioneer Personnel and to lead the Battalion back to the embussing point, dropping guides along the way. Upon receiving this information I held an orders group in the billets and informed the men as to the time we were leaving and what our specific job was. At approximately 1800 hours I proceeded to the Carrier billets to contact the Mortar Platoon Commander to see if his men would be ready at 1900 hrs. While there a man came in and informed me that some of the anti-tank platoon were drunk. I immediately went back to the billets and ordered L/Sgt. J. Wilson to make a check of the platoon and place the man or men under arrest. L/Sgt. Wilson reported to me that only Pte. J. Grigas, D.C.M., was missing. I left, and on returning at 1830 hrs to prepare to leave, I found the accused just inside the door of the billets. As I came in, the accused asked me who had placed him under arrest and for what reason. I informed him that I had ordered his arrest because he was drunk. He replied, "You are a liar, you son of a Bitch", and started swinging his fist, whereupon the escort held him back. Just after this Pte. Grigas, D.C.M., withdrew a 36 grenade from his greatcoat pocket, withdrew the pin saying, "The rest of you leave the room", and turning to me, said, "You stay here, this is for you". The men immediately cleared the room and I struck Pte. Grigas, D.C.M., and left also".

Second witness for the Prosecution.

D-105805, A/L/Sgt. Wilson, J.W., The Royal Canadian Regiment, having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am a sub-section commander in the Anti-Tank Platoom, R.C.R. and on February 10th '44, was in charge of the guard in S. Nicola. At approximately 1745 hrs, February 10th '44, Mr. Martyn came to me in my billet and told me that some of the men of the anti-tank platoon were drunk. I immediately checked the nominal roll and found Pte. Grigas, D.C.M., the accused, whom I now recognize, the only man missing. I took a man with me and went on a patrol of the town. Not being able to find the accused, I returned to my billets and found the accused there. I observed him for a few moments and then went out and came back in and observed him again and warned two escorts to place him under close arrest, as I felt quite sure, in my own opinion that he was drunk. I also warned L/Cpl. Remdonick that he was a witness to the charge, and then left the billets in preparation for moving off".

Grigas, D.C.M., the accused whom I recognize, under arrest for drunkenness. He asked me to be evidence on the drunkenness charge, and in my opinion I could see that he had been drinking. I figured he was drunk then. At approximately 1830 hrs, 10 Feb 44, Lieut Martyn came into the room and the accused asked Mr. Martyn why he was placed on a charge. Mr. Martyn told him, in front of me, that he was drunk. The accused told him he was a liar and a son of a bitch. Then there was a bit of a scuffle. Then I saw two fellows holding the accused who said he was alright, so they let him go. Then, all of a sudden, he was holding a grenade in his right hand over his head and he told everyone to get out of the room, and said to the officer, Mr. Martyn, "This is for you". Then there was a mad scuffle and everyone went out the door. The accused followed them. I stayed in the room and shut the door. A minute or so later the accused asked me to let him in. He pleaded a few times, "Remdonick, Remdonick, let me in. I'm still holding the grenade and pin in my hand". I let him in and he gave me the pin and I replaced it in the grenade. Then I removed the detonator. Then he said to me, "Everybody got scared. You're the only one who stayed". Then he started laughing".

L/Sgt Wilson came in and put the accused under arrest for drunkenness. Whereupon Grigas demanded to see the Medical Officer. I did not hear any answer. At that moment Mr. Martyn entered the room and asked why he had been put under arrest. Mr. Martyn replied "For being drunk". The accused called him a liar and took a poke at him. I grabbed his arms. I thought he had lost his temper and would cool down. After reasoning with him, for a time, I thought he had regained control of himself, and I released him. He then took a grenade from his pocket and pulled the pin. He said "O.K. you fellows. I've pulled the pin; you've got four seconds". He turned to Mr. Martyn and said, "You stay here. This is for you". We rushed for the door and Mr. Martyn hit the accused in the chest, knocking him down, and ran out with us".

First Witness for the Prosecution: Lieut. D.R. Martyn, The Royal Canadian Regiment, having been duly sworn states:-

I am second in-command, number 5 Platoon, Support Company, R.C.R. I was, on 10 February 44, in command of a portion of the platoon, in St. Nicolai, whose job it was to guard Bde. Headquarters. The accused whom I recognize was in my portion of the platoon at this time. On February 10th 44 I was ordered by Maj Barton to leave St. Nicolai at 1900 hrs. with my portion of the platoon, plus some Mortar and Pioner personnel and to lead the Battalion back to the embussing point, dropping guides along the way. Upon receiving this information I held an orders group in the billets and informed the men as to the time we were leaving and what our specific job was. At approximately 1900 hours I proceeded to the carrier billets to contact the III Mortar Platoon Commander to see if his men would be ready at 1900 hrs. While there a man came in and informed me that some of the anti-tank platoon were drunk. I immediately went back to the billets and ordered W/Sgt. Wilson to make a check of the platoon and place the man or men under arrest. W/Sgt. Wilson reported to me that pte. J. Gregoire, D.C.M., was

On night 17 Dec 2300 hrs had roll call of pl accd, Pte Grigg did not answer - searched area and could not find - since then has not been duty - recognize accd - accd was a sniper - pl in D Coy billets - were manning slit trenches nr VILLANOVA - enemy 400 or 500 yds away. PLDG up near there as well.

Cross-Exam - Sgt Cormier called roll - now gone to CANADA - accd has been under my comd then I was sniper Sgt - now a pl Sgt. Accd did not ask to have weapon exchanged - I issued no orders to accd - I have not attended sniper's course - accused has caused me no trouble.

Re-Exam - Nil

JA - accused has not been to pl since - would know if he had.

Court - accd and pl had been warned were going into attack.

RP 83 (B) complied with.

Prosecutor present Certificate of Surrender Marked Exhibit A.

Prosecution closed.

Defence

First Witness, accd, duly sworn states:

Attended sniper's course - while attending course was told we were to do a special job - to work as a team and not with coys - not to be caught with telescopic sights on a rifle or if caught would "have had it." Said chances were that if caught would most likely be shot - did not want telescopic sight on rifle in attack - asked for tommy gun and were ordered to go in with them - were given orders that going in attack as a platoon - were also told to work only as a sniper under col or coy's comd orders - pl sgt gave these orders - Sgt Cormier pl sgt.

Cross-Exam - not aware that it is responsibility of man to take any orders given - were always given orders by Sgt Cormier prevously - were told could only be ordered into another job by col or coy comd.

Re-Exam - Nil

Court - 8 men in this pl - volunteered to be a sniper and took course - did not parade and ask to be relieved - had been in action with this unit since first went into line - were ordered into attack as a pl - when in action orders are to be obeyed.

RP 83 (B) complied with.

2nd Witness: M.105023 Pte Smid F - Land & Ren Scot R, duly sworn states:

Attended sniper's school - given lectures - were told that if taken prisoner with telescopic sight's would be shot - were told would work under a col's comd also rifle coy comd's - only two people to order us into attack.

Cross-exam - aware that orders relayed to junior comds and so on to soldiers - realize coy comd could not tell each one of us to go into attack - I went fwd into attack - was a scout them - did not have a sniper's attack - went into attack as inf man.

Re-Exam - was not a sniper then.

Court - was sent from Sp Coy to Rifle Coy for attack - was in attack as rifleman.

RP 83 (B) complied with.

Defence Closed.

Def Offr - Charge must be proved beyond shadow of a doubt - Sgt who issued orders not here and no statement here accd ordered - sniper's given fair amount of leeway and take orders from Tac HQ - accd in posn of artyman who has transferred to inf. After 2 wks course in a sniper in inf, 6 week later in action - has had little trg merely being used as a sniper - never required to go into attack before as rifleman - CO had issued instructions would issue orders for snipers.

Pros Offr - Nil.

JA defines burden of proof fact finding functions, credibility of witnesses, reasonable doubt, desertion, AWL, special findings under AA 56 and MP 44 D, intent.

Plea in Mitigation - accd did return without persuasion - volunteered for the Army and on active service for a long time - only minor offences onconduct sheet - I am only one who could give character evidence - accused has attended NCO's school - would be glad to have accused as a member of a rifle coy under my comd.

3. On reviewing the proceedings it is recommended that the sentence be reviewed after 14 days with a view to releasing this soldier for Overseas Service. This man's record is reasonably good and there were extenuating circumstances. I would have mitigated the larger part of the sentence excepting for the fact the charge was a serious one and I felt that it should be promulgated in the interest of discipline.

4. It will be noted that Tpr Grigg has already seen service in France.

5. May the above receive your favourable consideration, please.

OPENING ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTOR: NOTE D2

The charge before the court today is a serious one. I would like to point out before calling on witnesses, that a member of his Majesty's Services may be charged with desertion after 21 days AWL. This charge, however, differs from that type of charge in that the accused is charged with desertion after having been warned that he was to proceed on draft. I would like to ask the court to refer to MML S12, para 3 of 1st note, reading:

"In order to establish in evidence that a soldier has deserted or attempted to desert "when under orders for embarkation," the original or a certified true copy of orders detailing the accused for embarkation must be produced by a witness on oath, and evidence must be given that the orders were duly posted or brought to the notice of the accused, or that he was otherwise in a position to be acquainted with the contents (see K.R. 1099, 1100). This would not, however, exclude proof of verbal orders for embarkation given by a C.O. in an emergency."

The prosecutor therefore intends to show the court that the accused, having been duly warned for movement overseas, did absent himself without leave from a draft, with intent to avoid embarkation for service overseas. I will now call my first witness.

FIRST WITNESS
Major ASTROP, L.E. No. 2 CACRU ~~having been duly~~ sworn, states:

Q. What is your official capacity at No. 2 CACRU?
A. As Officer commanding "A" Squadron, I am responsible for the intake of drafts for the field.

Q. Do you recognize the accused?
A. Yes. (witness points to the accused)

Q. Was he listed on draft?
A. The accused whom I recognize was listed on draft No. UKAG 15. On Tuesday 7 Nov 44, on the afternoon parade, at approximately 1500 hours, the draft UKAG 15 was mustered, and the accused was present on this parade. On this parade the draft was warned for o/s service by Capt. E.L. MARRUS. I was there and heard it. It was explained to them that they would be present on all parades called for draft, and in the event that they missed a parade, or were absent when the draft left, they would be liable to be charged with desertion. The seriousness of the charge was explained to them. As a result, the accused was paraded to me, in the presence of Capt Marrus, SSM Beckerson, and Sgt Mitchell. I again warned the accused that he was on o/s draft and would be present on all parades called for draft. He was warned to be present when the draft left, and in the event that he was not present, he would be liable to be charged with desertion. The seriousness of the offence was explained to him. SHortly after this warning, the accused was again paraded to me and asked to be paraded to the Col. I had him paraded before Col. O'Brien. I was present when Col O'Brien saw him. The accused said that he was married before the effective date of permission. He said that his wife, as yet, was not receiving her Dependents' Allowance. He was to be taken off the draft until such time as Dependents' Allowance came through. Col O'Brien asked if it would make any difference to the Dependents' Allowance if he were in France or England, or if it would make any difference to the amount of money he could assign to his wife if he were in France or England. The accused said that it would because he had a source of money in England or from some other source which he would not state. As a result of this meeting, Col O'Brien informed me in the presence of the accused that he would remain on draft unless otherwise informed by Col O'Brien. I received no notice to take the accused off draft. He was not taken off draft. At approximately 1300 hours, Friday 10 Nov 44 I was present when the draft was mustered. The accused was present on this parade. On this draft we received a movement order that the draft would proceed at 2 o'clock. The draft was warned to go to their barracks, put on their kit, and report back on parade at 1350 hours. At 1350 hours and until the draft left, I was present on the parade. When the muster roll was called for the distribution of embarkation cards, the accused was absent. When the draft left, the accused was absent.

Q. You state that the accused was paraded before Col O'Brien for the purpose of being taken off the draft because of family difficulties. Can you say that since then, the difficulties have been cleared up?

COURT:- Defending Officer, have you any objection to that question?
Def Offr. No, Sir.

WITNESS.
A. Yes.

Q. Were they cleared up prior to the time of the draft being paraded on the afternoon of the 10 Nov.?
A. Yes

Q. To your knowledge then, was there any reason that the accused should not be left on the draft?

OBJECTION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

The objection raised was that his wife was not getting Dependents' Allowance and the prosecutor will agree to that, and the difficulties have not yet been cleared up [redacted] Prosecutor states he will drop the question.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE DEF OFFR

Q. The accused came to you through hospital from France?
A. Correct.

Q. Was he a battle casualty?
A. Yes.

Q. And he has been with you since when?
A. Some time in September.

Q. When he arrived, I presume he was paraded to you in regard to his matrimonial situation?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Does your 2 i/c know the situation?
A. Yes.

Q. At any time did the accused, in your presence, state that his wife was expecting a baby?
A. Yes.

Q. When did he say that?
A. He said it before me when I gave him warning, and said it before Col O'Brien in my presence.

Q. When was the baby expected?
A. I don't know.

Q. I suggest to you that the accused said it was expected near the end of November.

A. He may have said that. I do not remember.

Q. I take it Major Astrop, that in regard to this fellow's story, that the first you heard about it was on the last draft?
A. Yes.

Q. When he came up before Col O'Brien with you, did he not take the attitude that his Presence was necessary at this time? In view of these circumstances: (i) that she was not in receipt of Dependents' Allowance. (ii) that she was expecting a baby, and (iii) that there were domestic difficulties where she was living with her mother. Was that not correct?
A. Allowances, yes. Baby, no.

Q. No mention was made of the baby?
A. No, but there was mention of difficulties where she was living.

Q. The situation as he stated, was that his wife was living with her mother?
A. Yes.

Q. That her mother, in fact, was supporting her?
A. No, he didn't say that.

Q. You are positive that he didn't say that?
A. No.

Q. That his wife was not working?
A. There was no mention of work.

Q. That they were living in a house owned by her father?
A. Yes.

Q. That the father threatened to throw them out?
A. Yes.

Q. Did he not suggest that the father agreed to delay it until the baby was born?
A. Yes.

Q. You gather that the situation was unhealthy between the mother and father?
A. Yes.

Q. Was not the accused listed for draft, previously?
A. I don't know.

Q. As far as you know, the Dependents' Allowance will not be paid in the normal course of events to the accused's wife for sometime yet?
A. I don't know that either.

Q. Has the marriage been approved, as yet?
A. Yes.

Q. When was it approved?
A. Recently, prior to the 10th Nov.

Q. Has approval appeared in orders, yet?
A. It did appear in orders.

Q. Was that order not cancelled?
A. It was.

Q. How was the seriousness of the offence stated to the accused?
A. In terms of punishment. I told him that he would be liable to punishment of two years and over.

Q. Is that not true of almost any army offence?
A. That I could not tell you.

Q. You say that the accused was listed for draft UKAG 15. Was the order placing him on UKAG 15 read out to him?
A. There was no such thing as an order for UKAG 15. There was a Nominal Roll.

Q. Do you know where the order for the UKAG 15 is, presuming there is an order?
A. There is a movement order issued by records office,

Q. Was that read to the accused?
A. He was not there when the movement order was given to that draft.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q. When Capt Marrus paraded the accused to you, what did the accused then say to you?
A. He stated his difficulties in short, and immediately asked to be paraded to the COlonel.

Q. That is the occasion on which, before parading him to the Colonel, you gave him the warning again, individually?
A. Yes.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)

2nd WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
Capt MARRUS, E.L. No. 2 CACRU: sworn, states:

Q. Will you state your official capacity and duties at No. 2 CACRU?
A. I am 2 i/c "A" Squadron in charge of despatch of personnel.. I recognize the accused. I identify these documents as (i) a nominal roll of the draft UKAG 15 (ii) Candaian embarkation tag. These tags are prepared for each individual in event of draft. I tender them as exhibits.

COURT:

The court will mark them for identification, but will not accept them as exhibits at the present time.

PROSECUTOR CONTINUES THE CROSS EXAMINATION

Q. Were you in charge of the draft UKAG 15?
A. I was.

Q. When did the first parade of this draft take place?
A. There were many parades of the draft in part. The first full muster parade was held at 1300 hours on the 7 Nov 44

Q. Was the accused present?
A. He was.

Q. What warning did you give the parade, if any?
A. I warned the parade that they had been selected for o/s draft, that I did not know when the draft was leaving, but they would be required to be on all parades called for that draft, and any absence from these parades would call for a charge of desertion rather than AWL

Q. Was the accused given any other warning?
A. Yes, he was.

Q. Under what circumstances?
A. The following day, as a result of many things which had intervened, I felt it necessary to have the accused specially warned, and I had him paraded to Major Astrop for that purpose. At that time, Major Astrop warned him in my presence, and in the presence of SSM Beckerson and Sgt Mitchell that he was on o/s draft, that he would be required to be on all parades of that draft, and any failure to be present on such parades would result in a charge of desertion.

Q. When was the next full muster parade for the draft?
A. There was a muster parade every day at 1300 hours. I can not tell you positively whether the accused was on parade on the 9th or not. There was a muster parade on the 10th at 1300 hours. I called the roll that day. The accused was present. As a matter of fact, I looked for him. I just finished calling the roll at 1320 hours when a runner came and reported to me. As a result of the information I received, I then warned the draft that they would be leaving at 1400 hours that day, and that they would break off to their quarters and prepare to move at 1350 hours.

Q. Was the accused present when the parade again formed up at 1350 hours?
A. The roll was not called until 1400 hours. I marched the men over to records office and he was not present at that time.

Q. What action did you take?
A. It was not necessary to report it to Major Astrop as he was present, but a search of the lines was made.

Q. Was the accused found?
A. He was not in by the time the draft had moved off, but some time later.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE DEF OFFR

Q. When did the accused come to your Squadron?
A. I know of him having been in the Squadron for at least a month prior to UKAC 15. I know that because he had been up on UKAC 14, 13 and 12 which were approximately one week apart. There were three drafts which I recall the accused being on, then my dealings with the man. When they come on draft, I have not any knowledge of when they arrive.

Q. Did he come to you as a battle casualty?
A. I can not answer that of my own knowledge, but I believe he did.

Q. Did he, when placed on draft, approach you in regard to his difficulties regards his marriage?
A. Yes, he did along with the Padre.

Q. You gather that he had been in touch with the Padre before seeing you?
A. Yes.

Q. Was his difficulty that he had married in September without permission?
A. Yes.

Q. The accused, the Padre and yourself discussed the matter and agreed to take him off draft until such time as his difficulty was cleared up?
A. The Padre asked that he be taken off draft until such time as permission to marry was granted and pointed out that unless he had the man available to file the necessary documents, it would be extremely difficult to get the matter through.

Q. So, on a couple of drafts, he was taken off, pending completion of his application to marry?
A. Yes.

Q. Finally approval came through and was published in orders?
A. Yes.

Q. Shortly afterwards, that order was cancelled?
A. I believe so. I didn't see the order, but I think so.

Q. Then he was placed on this draft UKAG 15, and he approached you and was paraded to Major Astrop.
A. No at first. When he approached me again, on the 7th or 8th, I went with him to the Padre. As a result of the discussion with the Padre I did not recommend him to be taken off the draft.

Q. Did it arise during the conversation that his wife was expecting a baby before the first of December?
A. Yes it did. The conversation was with the Padre, the accused was there.

Q. During the conversation in the Padre's office, did the matter of difficulty between this girls mother and father arise?
A. It was one of many things.

Q. It would appear from the conversation that this situation was not of particular recent origin?
A. So the accused indicated.

Q. In other words, it was a situation which had been there for some time?
A. He said so.

Q. Is Dependents' Allowance being paid to this man's wife?
A. You will have to tell me the date of the order approving the marriage.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q. You state that after consulting with the Padre, and due to the recommendations made by the Padre, you did not take the accused off the last draft list?
A. That's right.

Q. Were you present when Col O'Brien, having knowledge of the facts at stated, again refused to take him off the draft list?
A. No, I was not present.

3rd WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

A.11537 SSM BECKERSON C.W. No. 2 CACRU, sworn, states:

Q. Were you present at the parade of the draft UKAG 15 at 1300 hours 10 Nov 44?
A. No, I was not, Sir.

Q. Were you present on a draft parade when the accused was there?
A. Yes, Sir. On the 7 Nov, afternoon parade.

Q. Do you recognize the accused?
A. Yes, SIR.

Q. Was he on that parade?
A. Yes.

Q. Were you present at any other time when the accused was warned concerning a draft?
A. Yes, Sir. On the 8 Nov, the following day, at approximately 1400 hours in the Squadron Orderly room, I was present when Major Astrop warned the accused that he was on draft, that he would be present on all draft parades, and any absence from these parades or when the draft finally left would make the accused liable to a charge of desertion, and a penalty of two year imposed.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q. You said that you were present on the afternoon parade of 7 Nov?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Was the accused there?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Were there any instructions given on that parade?
A. Capt Marrus, on the afternoon parade of the 7 Nov, when the draft was formed up on the parade ground, told the draft that they were finally warned for draft, and that any absence from parades called for draft, or any absence at the time the draft left could be charged with desertion.

Q. Was the roll called?
A. The roll was called, Sir.

Q. By whom?
A. By Capt Marrus, SIR.

Q. DO you know if the accused answered that roll?
A. I could not say.

Q. Was the accused there?
A. I saw him there.

4th WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
K.66766 Tpr. GREENO J.E. No. 2 CACRU, sworn, states:

I recognize the accused. I am a member of the Regimental Police at No. 2 CACRU. While on duty in the guard room at No. 2 CACRU on the evening of 10 Nov 44, the accused walked in, stepped up to Cpl St. Laurent and says: "I guess you are looking for me." So Cpl Laurent says, "Why?" The accused says, "I believe I have missed a draft." or something to that effect.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE DEF OFFR

Q. When the accused came into the guard room, I suggest to you that he said: "I have been reported AWL"
A. I am sure that he said: "I have missed a draft".

Q. Cpl St. Laurent has said that the accused reported to him and enquired if he had been reported AWL. Is that correct?
A. To that effect, but he did say "I was absent from the draft". That was the way I understood it.

Q. You would not be too positive of how he said it?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Is that all he said?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Did the accused make any comment?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Who locked him up?
A. L/Cpl Scarfe.

Q. How long was the accused in your presence?
A. I don't know, Sir. Not very long. Just to change clothes.

Q. And the accused made no other statement during that period?
A. Just for belongings, Sir.

Q. You don't remember any words?
A. No, Sir.

Q. I suggest to you that you don't remember any words that were said?
A. I do remember words, Sir.

Q. Why, in the summary, did you put in "or words to that effect" then if you knew they were the exact words.

A. I put in, I believe: "I have missed a draft".

Q. And followed by the words "Or words to that effect"?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. If you remember the exact words, why did you put in "Or words to that effect"?
A. Whether he said "I did miss a draft" or "I have missed a draft" I am not sure, but the exact words were to that effect. I do not remember just which.

Q. But he didn't say "I believe I am AWL"
A. No, Sir.

Q. Then Cpl St.Laurent did not know what he was talking about?

COURT: I think you have gone far enough, unless you are going to call Cpl St.Laurent. Unfortunately he is up in Scotland.

PROSECUTOR: That is the course for the prosecution, but I am not calling the other witnesses in the summary as they are not available.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(8)

COURT: Are there any witness who appeared in the summary whose attendance here you require in the cross examination.

DEFENCE: No, but there are two small points involved which arise. The 3rd para of note 1, section 12 states: "In order to establish in evidence that a soldier has deserted or attempted to desert "when under orders for embarkation," the original or a certified true copy of orders detailing the accused for embarkation must be produced by a witness on oath, and evidence must be given that the orders were duly posted or brought to the notice of the accused, or that he was otherwise in a position to be acquainted with the contents (see K.R. 1099,1100). This would not, however, exclude proof of verbal orders for embarkation given by a C.O. in an emergency."

I submit of course that the last sentence does not apply here. A draft has been prepared 5 days before it leaves, and it can hardly be said that there is an emergency which would preclude a written order. It could be put in an order that so-and-so are detailed for UKAG15. And there is some such order in existence, although I can't find where it is, and the note says it must be produced. I do not see that there is any emergency that would waive that production. The emergency as referred to in the latter part of the foot note would be such as where the situation arose where the order must be issued and acted upon in a matter of hours, thereby precluding the possibility of preparing the order. That does not apply here. The evidence we have had so far on the matter of the accused being placed on draft has been purely evidence of the order placing him on draft, but according to the best authority, the order itself must be produced to prove he is, in fact, on draft, and this has not been done. The evidence did not cover a small point, and it is, in fact, that this draft, as far as I recall from the evidence so produced, has not, in fact, proceeded from No. 2 CACHU overseas. That of course is a matter of record. I don't think it is in the record, and of course, if it has not been shown that the draft has proceeded o/s, this man could not have been listed. I therefore submit that the prosecution has not provided a Prima facie case.

PROSECUTION: In reference to the notes in section 12 - we seem to be going into this section quite often - that it reads: "Or that he was otherwise in a position to be acquainted with the contents" It has been shown that the accused was warned that he was on draft, and that the draft would be leaving at a certain hour, and failure to be present would result in a charge of desertion. There can hardly be any doubt in the mind of the accused that he was on a draft proceeding for o/s.

THE ACCUSED DOES NOT WISH TO MAKE A STATEMENT NOR WISH TO CALL ANY WITNESSES

SUBMISSION BY THE DEF OFFR

The accused will not give any evidence or call any witnesses, but I wish to address the court on the finding:

In this particular case, we assume that this man was warned for draft, and all the evidence we have heard, was in regard to his state of mind during the formation of the draft. And that was, that his whole function of his mind was fixed on the home and family difficulties of his wife that completely occupied his mind. Now to convict on the charges laid, there must be a positive proof of intention on the accused' part of avoiding not necessarily the draft, but a special service such as o/s service. I mean it must be a positive intention to avoid this service, not a carelessness as whether he missed it or not, but a positive intention, and everything as far as his state of mind submitted by the prosecution, manely, Major Astrop and Capt Marrus do not indicate anything as to him intending to avoid this special service, ~~xxxx~~ namely to get out of o/s service, but rather that his mind was fully occupied with the problems facing his wife, both monetary and the unhappy situation at home. AND if he had any intention, it was to be near where he could assist his wife, rather than avoid o/s service. And I wish to draw this distinction that the intention that must be proved is to avoid a special service which is o/s service. It is not the intention to avoid the draft. The intention to avoid this o/s service must be positively proved by the prosecution. It is for the defence to prove what the intention was, or to prove that was not the intention, and as far as the prosecution evidence goes to show that his state of mind is such that if he had an intention, it is more, and definitely should be, to be of assistance to his wife, and not to avoid o/s service.

SUBMISSION BY THE PROSECUTION

I fail to understand the last statement of the defending officer in which he states that the accused did not intend to avoid the draft. The notes state intent must be shown, and I quote: "TO avoid embarkation for service abroad", The prosecution has no desire to prove the reasons for his avoiding this service. We have shown that the accused was aware of his presence on the draft, that he was consistently warned about liability, and despite these facts, regardless of the consequences, he did absent himself with intent to avoid service abroad. I am trying to point out the reason that the charge of desertion was laid. And that the accused could not help knowing that he had avoided a draft for o/s. I think there can be no doubt in anyone's mind that the act did take place, and I ask the court, on the evidence presented, to consider that the prosecution has shown intention to avoid embarkation for o/s service

THE COURT WILL NOW BE CLOSED TO CONSIDER ITS SUBMISSION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

PLEA IN MITIGATION

THe accused, although his record shows him to be 22, he tells me, in fact, he is 20 years of age. In other words, he arranged his age 2 years in order to join the Army. He was born in Massachusetts, USA 1924 and subsequently came to Canada with his family shortly prior to joining up. He joined the Army in Sep 1941, came overseas Mar 42 as a reinforcement to No. 2 CACRU. He went to the 1st Hussars Jul 42, and remained at that unit until such time as he was evacuated from France as a casualty. There seems to be some difficulty in the record as to what his qualifications have been from time to time, but it is definitely known in his documents that he is a qualified Gnr Op, and is presently in receipt of trades pay as such. When he was in France, he had information that his present wife was in the family way and he made application for permission to marry, or rather he launched an application. However, the fact that he was in France and she up in Glasgow, it was difficult lining up the papers, with the result that he got the papers the day before he was discharged from hospital in England. The day of his discharge he went on leave to Glasgow. THat was early in September, the 7th or 8th of September this year and he was married to his wife on the 12th. His wife was 18 years of age. His wife was working as a fitter in an assembly plant in Glasgow, but due to her position, had to terminate her employment early this year. Since that time she has been living with her mother in a house owned by her father. But since she has discontinued working, she has had to be supported by her father. The story I got is that the father and mother are estranged although they do live under the same roof, but they do not speak, and the father has threatened to turn the child and the mother out. The accused states that while he was on leave arguing the father out of this action, the most the father would say was to delay it until the baby was born. The accused received a telegram yesterday, I believe, from Glasgow, which I read, and file with the court

DEF OFFR READS TELEGRAM TO THE COURT (attached)

It would indicate that the son was born on the 21 Nov. As we have in evidence, the accused has been quite worried about the monetary end of the thing, and although he was married on the 12th and presumably shortly afterwards presented an application for approval of marriage, that approval was not granted to the accused until the end of October. There the situation may arise whether the accused knew what the situation was. Well, I ask his Squadron commander Major Astrop what the situation in regard to DEpendents' Allowance was and he stated he did not know. How can you expect the accused who has no knowledge, presumably of routine orders, in any event, not the knowledge of a Sqdn Cmdr, how can we assume that he knew the situation was clarified, especially in view of the fact that approval of marriage was published and cancelled. It is the most confusing situation they could put this man in as regards the feeling that the situation has not been cleared up. Put yourself in his place, and not knowing what the routine orders say, it is a most confusing situation. The fact remains that as far as he was concerned, the situation was just as bad as it was a month ago. Then we must realise that in addition to the Dependents' Allce question there is the matter of the home. His wife who is to have a child shortly and who has been threatened with eviction, must first have a home. She is 18 and he is 20, officially 22, can we blame him for such thinking, for thinking he should assist his wife. Admittedly, he did wrong. It would have possibly been worse for his wife, if he had gone to France, or where he was going. But can we blame him in view of the facts that on a couple of occasions he was taken off draft for less reasons. It seemed the best thing he could do. As he has had experience in France, he assures me he does not hesitate to go back. The reason he is here today is concern for his wife, and the allowance, as far as he knows, he does not know the score. Other things being equal, he will get D.A. in September. Normally the fact that his wife is threatened with being homeless and without funds, and shortly the fact that she was expected to give birth to a child in a matter of days, and to a young girl of her age, that is a pretty important matter. In the Army sense, he was wrong, but in the main sense it was not wrong. It is not a matter of being afraid to go to France. He knows something of the score and would like to go back. He would like to get his marital situation fixed up. We know the soldier's record. He is quite young. Taking these into consideration, the state of mind of this fellow and the fact that he is trying to get out of the Army or get away from duty. The absolute minimum should be given to this man. It is not going to do him any good or the Army any good to put him away for a few months. It will do his wife more good and the country more good if he can be given a light sentence and get back to France where he can fight for his country.

NO. 2 CANADIAN ARMOURED CORPS REINFORCEMENT UNIT

IN THE CASE OF

Boxxxx Tpr Griggs, W.C., of
No. 2. Canadian Armoured Corps Reinforcement Unit.
A soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.
Taken at 2 CACRU on the 14 Nov 44.

FIRST WITNESS:
For the Prosecution

Major, L.E. Astrop, "A" Sqn No. 2. CACRU, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am the OC of "A" Sqn No. 2. CACRU and as such am in charge of the intake and de-patch on draft of personnel of 2 CACRU. At a muster parade of draft UKAG 15, at 1300 hours, Tuesday, 7 Nov 44, I was present when the draft was warned for overseas service by Capt E.L. Marrus. Tpr Griggs when I recognise as the accused was present at this parade. During the afternoon of 8 Nov 44, Tpr Griggs asked to be paraded before me. He asked to be removed from the draft stating that he had family difficulties. I heard his story but refused to grant him his request. He then asked to be paraded before higher authority and arranged for him to be paraded before Lt-Col O'Brien at approx 1400 hours. At 1330 hours, Wednesday, 8 Nov 44, it was felt that Tpr Griggs should be given a special warning and was therefore paraded to my office and warned by myself that he was warned for overseas service and would probably be leaving on Friday 10 Nov 44. It was explained to him that he was to be present on all draft parades and in the case of being absent from parade or AWL when the draft left, he would be liable to be charged with desertion. The seriousness of the offence was explained to him. Present at this warning were Capt E.L. Marrus, 2 i/c "A" Sqn, Sgn Heckerson, C.W., NSM of "A" Sqn and Sgt Mitchell, G., "A" Sqn. The reason I warned Tpr Griggs specially was that he has been removed from previous drafts on his own request, stating that he had family difficulties. He had approached Capt Marrus when placed on this draft. Capt Marrus referred the matter to me accordingly. He had him paraded before me. At 1330 hours on Friday 10 Nov 44, I was present at a muster parade of the draft and Tpr Griggs was present on this parade. The draft was warned to put on their kits and be back on parade at 1350 hours. At 1350 hours, and until the draft moved at 1500 hours, I was present with the parade. When the roll was called for the issuing of embarkation cards, Tpr Griggs was absent, and was still absent when the draft left. At that time I submitted an absentee report on him."

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

SECOND WITNESS:
For the Prosecution.

Capt E.L. Marrus, No. 2. CACRU, having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am 2 i/c of "A" Sqn, No. 2. CACRU. My duties include the taking charge of all drafts leaving this Unit. Draft UKAG 15 was formed on 6 Nov 44.

"On the 7 Nov 44, at 1300 hours, I mustered the entire draft on parade. Tpr Grigg W.G. whom I recognize as the accused, was present at that time. Following the muster, I warned the draft that they were officially warned for overseas service, that the time of their departure was not yet known but that they were required to be on all parades, and were warned that absence from these parades would make them liable to be charged with desertion. When previous drafts for overseas were formed in September and October, Tpr Grigg had been placed on them, but on presenting himself to me and giving me his reasons, and through the representations of the Padre of this Unit, I had him removed. After the parade on the afternoon of the 7 Nov 44, Tpr Grigg presented himself to me and gave me the same reasons and others as to why he should again be removed from this draft. On the morning of the 8 Nov 44, I took him to the Padre's Office and discussed his case fully with the Padre. After this discussion and the recommendation of the Padre, my decision was that his case did not justify him being removed. In the afternoon on the 8 Nov 44, I had him paraded before Major Astrop, so that he could be specially warned. Present at this warning were SSM Beckerson and Sgt Mitchell. Major Astrop again warned Tpr Grigg for overseas draft and again warned him that he would be liable to a charge of desertion if he absented himself from further parades of this draft. On 10 Nov 44 at 1300 hours, the draft was on parade for a complete mustering by myself. Tpr Grigg was present on this parade. At 1320 hours, I received word while the parade was still formed up that the draft would proceed at 1400 hours. I then ordered the men to return to their barrack rooms, put on their equipment and to return to the parade ground at 1350 hours and that the draft was proceeding at 1400 hours. When I called the roll at 1400 hours, Tpr Grigg was absent and on search of the Unit lines he could not be found. His equipment was on his bunk and I ordered it to be returned to the QM Stores. He was still absent when the draft left at approximately 1500 hrs."

The accused declined to cross-examine the witness.

R. P. 35 (B) complied with Summary read, marked "A" accused states "not much excuse for AWL but my only excuse is that I want a transfer from the unit - I am a tailor by trade & I want to get to a unit where my tailoring would be appreciated I suffer from rheumatism & I figure that if I could get out of the field I wouldn't suffer so much. At Xmas I was sent for re-board by C.O but MO of unit said it wasn't necessary and when I went for board I wasn't even examined. Doesn't wish to call character evidence Prosecutor, duly sworn, presents AFB 296 & NFM 6 & states they relate to the accused. No cross-exam.
Defending officer in mitigation:- Suffering from rheumatism hasn't spoiled to MO because didn't want to go off duty but on one occasion he did have to go a doctor, he went to a civilian doctor & a military doctor, not his unit MO. Suggests he would be better placed in a static unit. Asks court to consider background & suggests accused would be better soldier & better for army if placed in ~~pas~~ trade. (1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans No.(5)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

PLEA OF MITIGATION Page 1 "LNC"

Mr. President and Members of the Court.

In my plea of mitigation for B.81888 Pte Grigsby A.N. I would like to put forth a few facts concerning his career and also a few concerning his home life. He joined the Army on Dec 11th 1940 and was under the enlistment age but falsified his age so that he could get a monthly cheque sent to his mother and sister and also keep the home up. He was not employed before the war and his father was not at home and is not supporting the home in anyway at all. Pte Grigsby arrived overseas U.K. Dec 25th 1940 remained there until Sept 3rd 1943 when he arrived in Italy. He was with the RCAMC all the time and has been with them at the front. During the last year he has received several letters from home and they only tell him of the great and many troubles they are having at home. His sister who is quite young is causing the mother great trouble and anxiety. They would like to put her in a convent but have not the money to do so. This news has not been good to Pte Grigsby and it bothers him a great deal so much at times that he cannot concentrate on any work at all. He does not want a discharge from the Army but he suggested to me that he would like a transfer to the Infantry. I would like to recommend to the Court that a thorough medical examination be given Pte Grigsby to try and determine which is best for him. I sincerely hope the Court will consider this recommendation as I know it will be the best solution for Pte Grigsby, so that he will be in a better position to assist his mother and his home. Before closing I would like to add that Pte Grigsby in Nov 1943 made an application for compassionate leave to go home and see what he could do to settle the troubles at home, and he has not had any results from this application and I assure you that this has done more harm than good.

MR. President, Members of the Court:

In considering the sentence which the court is bound by the Army Act to award, it is respectfully submitted by the Defence that there are points in the military ~~record~~ and family situation of the accused which the court may deem to have considerable bearing upon the sentence which may be awarded him. The accused, 34 year old Private Grimes, volunteered and was accepted for Overseas Service with the Perth Regiment only 2 days after Britains Declaration of War, 5 Sep 39. Since that day, his only misdemeanors in the Army have been AWL and 2 charges of being improperly dressed.

D Day in Normandy found him following up the initial beach assault with the Highland Light Infantry as a member of a Rifle company. He took part in the Bayeaux attack where all in his section were casualties but himself and a corporal. After surviving the battle of Caen, he was wounded in the leg by shrapnel while attacking an enemy position at dawn on the 25 July 44.

On being discharged from Hospital, he was reboarded an LE and consequently placed in the unhappy position of being neither permitted to rejoin his regiment nor be returned to Canada.

On VE day, he was posted to No.1 Cdn Repat Depot under the impression that his application for compassionate leave had gone through, and that he was on his way home. Upon arrival at the Depot, he was told to take his regimental and divisional flashes down, and was informed that he would be in the camp for a year or 18 months on the PE as a permanent fatigue man.

Four days later he went AWL, towards the latter part of the appropriate Victory in Europe celebrations, Although, as the accused admits, going absent without leave was an unwarranted action, I believe the court may have no difficulty in understanding the " Cause and Effect". There was no woman involved, it was a case of the natural reaction to bitter disapointment, family worries, and the humiliating drop from Pte in a line regiment to general fatigue man in a base. Upon being apprehended, he was under the influence of alcohol and on the spur of the moment, he unthinkingly attempted to run for it, but no force was necessary to bring him back.

Pte Grimes has asked for compassionate leave three (3) times since returning to the UK from France. His father is in the Queen Alexandra Sanatorium in London, Ont. suffering from Tuberculosis. He receives a pension of 28 dollars per month, of which the hospital claims $20.00, leaving him $8.00 per month. The mother of the accused is 73 years old and solely dependant on him. She has no savings as the family lost all their money in '29. Pte. Grimes is a baker by trade, and has a job waiting for him in Canada. If he could return home, he is assured a higher income than his present army pay.

Under such circumstances, the Defence hopes that the court shall see cause for leniency and award the minimum sentence within its power.

On the 11 May 45 I was Regimental Orderly Sergeant and part of my duties consisted of receiving the passes on their having been turned in by the persons concerned. The passes turned in to me did not include one made out in the name of the accused. I searched the Sgts Mess where he was employed but could not locate him and did not see the accused again until about three or four days ago."
