"I am With Thee."

Art thou with us, plessed Jesus, With us midst our grief and care? Hast thou then an eye that sees us, And an ear that hears our prayer?

Art thou with us when the surgea On the sea of life run high? When the winds sing deep-toned dirges As the storm-cloud passes by?

When along our pathway flashing, Lightnings through the darkness pierce en the waters loud are dashing All around us, wild and fierce;

When our bank is driving, tossing. Sometimes high and sometimes low, As the line of life we're crossing, Can we still His presence know?

Listen! listen! o'er the waters Comes a voice the heart to thrill. I am with ye, peace, be still."

The Unspoken Sermon

That man runs the risk of losing his reward from God, who waits for the applause of men. He who really loves his neighbour never grows weary of exhorting sinners to go to Christ. We ought at least to present, and, as it were to lay them before God in prayer, when we have no other means of assisting them. How wonderful is the goodness and kindness of the Son of God towards souls! One alone ought to be dear to a true pastor, and deserves his whole care and application, however despicable it may appear.

Missionary Anniversary.

The Anniversary Services of the Wesleyan Missionary Auxiliary Society for Halifax and Dartmouth are in progress this week. The Deputation consists of the President of the Conference, and the Revs. C. Lockhart and L. Gaetz. We hardly need say that these esteemed brethren have addressed themselves to the work assigned on the great Missionary theme; and those acnot need to be informed that their hearts are in the right place in regard to the cause of the world's evangelization.

The Sabbath services were conducted by the Deputation, agreeably with the announcement made last week, and to the edification and delight of the several congregations. We are unable to present a full report of the Missionary the brief outlines which our space permits us to furnish. The storm on Sabbath interfered with the attendance at the evening services, and no doubt diminished the collections; but the wonted Missionary liberality of Halifax Methodists will not allow the pecuniary results to be seriously affected on this account, but will, we presume, in some way make up for such deficiency, so that the proceeds may compare fayourably with the handsome and generous contributions of other years. The reports turnished of the Sermons at this Anniversary are ne-

HARPER'S BAZAR.

The Publishers will commence, on November lst, the issue of HARPER'S BAZAR, a Weekly Illustrated Family Journal, devoted to Fashion and Home Literature. Their aim is twofold : to supply the existing need of a Weekly Fashion Newspaper, and to combine therewith a firstclass literary journal; which will be indispensable to every household.

Arrangements have been made, at an immense cost, with the most celebrated of the Fashion Papers of Europe, especially with the famous Bazar of Berlin, which supplies the fashions to the leading journals of Paris to furnish the same to them in advance, so that henceforth the fashions will appear in Harper's Bezar simultaneously with their publication in Paris and Berlin-an advantage enjoyed by no other urnal in the country.

The patrons of Harper's Bazar will receive every fortnight large pattern-plates, containing rom forty to fifty full-sized patterns of ladies, misses, and children's bonnets, closks, dresses, under-clothing, and other articles, accompanied with the necessary descriptions and directions,

The Publishers have perfected a system of mailing by which they can supply the Magazine, or to receive their perceions directly from the Office of Publication. Postmisters and others testrous of getting up Clubs will be supplied with a Show-Bill on application.

The postage on Harper's Bazar, is 20 cents a
