FARM AND FIRE. A MODERN ENOUGH ARDEN.

Timely Hints Useful to the Farmer and His Household. A case involved in considerable romance has just come to light in Amherst, N.S.

FRANK LESLIE'S MONTHLY. The midsummer (August) number of Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly, has an appropriately breezy and outdoor tone throughout.

FEEDING SOUP FOOD TO PIGS. The prevailing notion that the hog has digestion equal to any undertaking in the way of converting crude or offensive foods, leads many to give, in excessive quantities, the refuse of the kitchen on hand.

NOTES FROM THE CENTURY. Prof. David P. Todd, of Amherst college, will describe in the August Century an ascent of Fuji-san, the sacred mountain of Japan.

Myrtle Navy. A small camel's hair brush dipped in water can, by misting the lids, be passed over the eyeball, and foreign particles thus brushed out.

Chas. Cluthe's AUTOMATIC TRUSS. Original invention. The Automatic is a marvel of mechanism. It centralizes differences between contraction and expansion of body, again and by a MAX!

BE A MAN. Lagoon in the coils of the fatal serpents was not more helpless than is the man who plunges under the effects of disease, excesses, overwork, worry, etc.

ANNIE LAURIE'S LIFE.

Just as the Frolic Lover—Became a Country Squire and Married a Gypsy and a Match-Maker. A great-granddaughter of Annie Laurie met Andrew Carnegie in Scotland and Mr. Carnegie made some mention of it in his writings.

DEAR SIR.—My ancestor, Annie Laurie, was unquestionably the heroine of the famous ballad. She was born on Dec. 16, 1682, at 6 a. m., in the manor house of Maxwelltown, and baptised a few days later in Glenasmirk Kirk.

With regard to the song "Annie Laurie," it was originally written to an old air by William Douglas, of Glasgow. Both words and tune were altered by Lady John Scott, sister of the late Duke of Buccleugh, and were published by her, in their present condition, for the benefit of the widows and orphans left by the Crimean war.

I also send a view of Craigdarroch house, wherein Annie passed a half a century of her existence. The original path on the right of the picture still remains, and is the same as that on which Annie Laurie used to walk.

BRITISH ELECTIONS.
One of the greatest electoral battles that has ever taken place in the British empire, has just ended. Other contests of perhaps as much moment to the people themselves, have undoubtedly taken place there, but in this election the wishes and the wealth of a great portion of the empire united to make the struggle a widespread one while the people of the United States have taken as much, if not more, interest in the result than in their last presidential election.

The summary gives Gladstone a majority of the popular vote of 290,000. The Liberals have a majority of six over the Conservatives. Out of 670 members returned the dyed-in-the-wool Tories have but 268. Four factions show a united force of 347, but it is impossible to foresee how they will vote on a public question. Of this 347, 261 are radicals and may be called Gladstonites. Then there are ten labor men who claim to be wholly free to vote as they choose without respect to party. The remainder are Parliamentary and Anti-Parliamentary on whom Mr. Gladstone can not depend at all times for support. Neither of these has declared for the grand old man, but they will wait and see from which side they can get the best bargain.

It is conceded by his followers that Mr. Gladstone is dissatisfied with the result of the election. He intended securing a majority that would make him altogether independent of the Irish members. As it is the Irish members, as has so long been the case, are now holding the balance of power and the same rule of thumb may be as far from settlement as ever, as they cannot only vote down a measure that does not please them, but may be the means of putting Gladstone out of power.

Salisbury has resolved not to resign but will meet parliament on the fourth of August and stand a test vote.

TOURIST TRAVEL.
The St. John river in this season is in its fullest beauty of moss grown rocks and gravelled beaches, hill sides clad with varying foliage, over which the blue sky arches, reflecting in the rippling waters scenes that must prove attractive to the soul and health broken tourist. We know not the beauties of this river of ours, and therefore do not prize it so highly as we should. On the islands that mile after mile grace its bosom, what space can be found for summer houses that may not only home those of our people able to enjoy them, but may of comfort and health to the crowded inhabitants of the cities of America. It is granted by all that the St. John river is magnificent, that in its adaptability as a resort of tourists there is a source of much profit to the citizens of St. John and Fredericton. To get the benefit of tourist travel, however, we must be prepared to aid nature. The river is all that could be desired, but good boats must be employed to get the fullest benefit. These we have not, and it appears that we are not to have them. Surely the people of central New Brunswick did not intend to submit to such river accommodations as are now afforded us. It is a return to the days of fifty years since, when the city was not so wealthy nor comfortably situated as at present. Even then the boats were far superior to the miserable tub now said to be on the route. We say, said to be, as we are not certain whether there is a boat on or not, as no one seems to take any interest in the matter. We have lost the tourist travel for this year, but it is hoped that something will be done to prepare for that of ninety-three.

The city council were wise in that they reduced the grant to the St. Johns relief fund from $1,500, as at first proposed, to $800. The latter sum is a generous donation from this city, larger in proportion to population than that of many others. If all the towns of the Dominion do as well all the wants of the sufferers from the fire can be speedily alleviated. It is better at all times to be just before being generous, and the council have shown a just regard for their constituents by voting as they did. This grant, as all are aware, must be paid by our citizens the majority of whom are laboring people, and though willing to help all in their power, yet do not wish to burden themselves too heavily. In a former article we advocated a grant of $500, and all must be satisfied that it is a splendid gift from a city with our population. Now let the money be paid over, the sooner it is in the hands of the committee the better; time is everything in cases such as this.

The creamery project proposed by the local government for the benefit of the farmers, is beginning to find much favor. The Kingsclear factory has already proved that as fine butter can be made here as in any portion of the world at a comparatively low cost. This butter is held at twenty-five cents per pound, while the ordinary home made tends at fifteen cents, a clear gain of ten cents per pound to the farmer. Not only is there a gain in price but as this butter is shipped to foreign markets, it takes away just as much competition from the home made article, thus keeping up its price. The people of the river parishes who have dealings with the creamery, get more enthusiastic in its favor as time goes on. It gives them a good price without the trouble of looking up a market; it reduces the toil of the women, one of the hard features of farm life, and all must admit that a better article as a whole is produced. The government has made strong efforts to have other factories erected in various sections, and latest reports are to the effect that several will be built. Farmers should take advantage of the Kingsclear creamery and should visit it, seeing for themselves the system pursued, the manner of conducting the manufacture, and the product of the work. If they do they will be satisfied that the wise foresight of the local government has placed in their hands a plan by which they may benefit most to themselves and to the country at large.

As will be seen from a report in another column the election petition against the return of the hon. A. H. Gilmore as member for Charlotte county, has been dismissed, there being no evidence to support the petition. Many will be pleased to learn that Mr. Gilmore has been confirmed in his seat. He has represented that constituency for many years and if any man deserves well at the hands of the people it is the hon. A. H. Gilmore.

Cuba has agreed to pay to the United States $75,000 of indemnity for the Baltimore affair. The bill presented was for $1,800,000 but America's share was not triumphant. This appears to be a small amount as two soldiers were killed and sixteen wounded. Still this is higher per man than was paid by the United States to Italy, the price in that case being $25,000 for nine men killed.

THE HERALD.
FREDERICTON, JULY 23, 1892.

July 21.—The tea and concert to be held here on Saturday, 23rd, promises to be a very pleasant affair. The best musical talent in the place has promised to assist. There will also be select readings, recitations, etc. Proceeds to be in aid of the Free Baptist church.
Rev. C. A. S. Warnford and Mrs. Warnford have been for a short visit to friends in St. John.
We are much pleased to learn from J. M. Hartin, that his brother, George, who has been for the past six months at Arkansas hot springs, is now fully recovered and has again commenced work in Minneapolis.
Messrs. Bonnes and Shaughnessy, seizing officers, have been paying the village a visit. Although informed that smuggling was being carried on here to quite an extent, a thorough search convinced them that such was not the case.
The bridge over Dead creek, which the government so generously assisted in building, is nearly finished and is considered by nearly everyone to be a good substantial job, although some who are never satisfied, claim that it is built of rotten cedar and will hardly be safe to cross. It is ready for crossing now. When going to the station drive that way and have a look at it.

John A. Lawson has returned to Rhineland, Wisconsin, accompanied by his mother. She will remain a short time visiting friends in Minneapolis before returning home.
The C. P. R. intend building a new tank house which will be supplied with water by steam power. It is the intention of the villagers to buy out, if possible, the present water supply and lay pipes to convey the water into the centre of the village.

UPPER MAGAGUADAVIC.
July 19.—The hay and crops look as though they took advantage of the sunshine and refreshing rains, rendering the place very attractive which was once thought of trivial importance as it was out of the way. The greatest point of interest is the Lake, which is much resorted to by tourists from the surrounding towns. If some person could be induced to build an hotel at the shore and have a boat running on the lake, I am fairly convinced that they would be surprised to see what a benefit it would be and how largely it would be patronized. There is not the least doubt but that Magaguadavic could be made to afford the best sport for tourists at any place within the bounds of the province; as it is a splendid place for fishing, bear-hunting, partridge shooting, canoeing and blueberries and numerous other amusements.
Mrs. Joseph King passed through on Saturday on her way to see her sister, Mrs. Seers, who lives in Vanceboro.

Miss Eva N. A. McMullin has gone to Fredericton on a somewhat lengthy visit. Robbie Henry, who was working in the States for the past year, has returned home. Another young man, Robbie Hood, who accompanied him, is expected home in a few days.
Mrs. Pat. Hanan, from Vanceboro, is visiting with her mother and sisters who live in this place.
Mr. and Mrs. George Hood are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a little girl.
Mrs. Robert Miller has returned home from York Mills where she was taking care of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Brown.

An open-air tea meeting will be held on July 28th at Farm Point. Tables will be of four and five. The amusements will embrace dancing, singing and swinging. The Acropolis swing will be on the ground. Refreshments will be sold. A good time may be anticipated if the day proves fine; as the manager, David Sloan, spares himself no trouble in his endeavors to make it a success. All are cordially invited to attend.

HARVEY STATION.
July 21st.—Haying has begun in earnest now. Everywhere can be heard the click of the mowers. So far the weather has been favorable. Men to work at the hay are in demand and wages high.
The strawberries are at their best now. They have not been as good this year as last. The price paid for them is forty cents per half peck.
A child of our station agent, A. E. Saunders, died on the 21st inst, after a short illness. An interesting feature of the funeral was the youthfulness of the pall bearers, they being all small boys. A younger child of Mr. Saunders is lying at death's door. Much sympathy is felt for the family.
The station will soon lose one of its oldest residents. Miss S. E. Saunders, who for years has kept the hotel Lorne and a millinery store, is selling out, preparatory to departure. No doubt she will be greatly missed in the village. She was the chief worker in the sewing circle and always took an active part in church affairs.

LUDDOW.
July 19.—Bark peeling is over here for this season.
Grass and grain are looking well. S. Wallace has a very fine field of rye.
Potatoes look well but the bugs are keeping the little boys, and some of the big ones, busy.
Mr. and Mrs. A. Knox are visiting his sister, Mrs. S. Wallace.
Herbert Adair has the misfortune to cut his foot quite badly.
Henry Wallace and George Hoyt, of Hainesville, were the guests of Mrs. A. Crabe for a few days.
Several of our young people went to Hartland to the Forester's picnic. They had a pleasant time.
C. F. Jones has returned from a very successful hunting trip at Fish River. He was accompanied by H. Good.

LULLOY.
July 21.—Miss Annabel Murphy, who has just returned from Portland, Me., gave the young folks a very pleasant party last week.
Miss Nellie McCarthy, of Avery's Portage, has been visiting here a few weeks.
Miss Lorella Pond is visiting friends at Zionville where she taught school a few years ago.
Mrs. Laura Scott, of Haysville, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Alpheus Pond.
A Temperance prayer meeting was held here on Tuesday evening.
It is hoped that Mr. Mott, the Episcopal divinity student, who is here for the summer, will visit Sunday evening.

RUSIAGOORNS.
July 20.—Miss Edith Bruce, of Bath, Me., is visiting friends here.
Miss Laura Dutton is home on a visit from Brunswick, Me.
John Phillips is extensively repairing his barns. A few days since he had one and a half acres of potatoes hoed in two days by a sailor. This feat would puzzle a farmer to beat.
Mrs. William Sinclair, of this place, while visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Adams, at Lincoln, was taken suddenly ill. Not much hopes of her recovery are held.
Mrs. Albert McDonald, of Marysville, is visiting friends at this place.

NASHWAUK VILLAGE.
July 22.—On the 14th, the rev. T. L. Williams returned to his labors on this circuit after a short holiday.
Mrs. Edgar McConaghey, of St. Marys, is visiting her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. King, of this place.
Mrs. D. Richards and Mrs. D. Guter are visiting their parents near Boiestown. The members of Nashwauk Village Lodge, No. 121, I.O.G.T., held a strawberry festival on the 19th, and a very enjoyable time was spent.

July 21.—The road machine, under the supervision of J. N. Hallett, has paid us a visit and showed, to the satisfaction of the most ardent grumbler that it can do all its admirers claim for it. One of our citizens, a great government supporter, styles it the government hog.
The berry business seems quite brisk. Coming events are casting their noise before. The rattle of the mowing machine is heard, and faintly, the music of ye olden time—whetting of the scythes. The hay crop in this vicinity will be beyond the average this season. Potatoes and grain are also looking well, and give promise of a fine yield. Our yankee emigrant, Colorado bug, is putting in fine work on some of the farms. Our farmers say they think that a law something like the United States anti-Chinese law should be enacted by the Dominion in regard to these and kindred pests. The trade is altogether too free.
The C. P. R. paint car arrived this morning and the process of rejuvenating the station commenced. By the time the painters have put on their finishing touches, it will be a credit to the town and company.
Business, in all its branches, is good, but money, by general consent, is very scarce.
It is a wonder that the people of Fredericton and Woodstock have never discovered the beauties and capabilities of this locality as a summer resort. We have beautiful scenery, splendid climate, good hotel accommodation with our friend Brown, and good trout fishing within a few miles of the depot. Few localities in New Brunswick excel Millville in all that makes a summer resort popular and there is no doubt that if sufficient encouragement was given, the C. P. R. would put on an express train so arranged that it would accommodate all parties.

SKIFF LAKE.
July 21.—We regret very much that Solomon Gould is about to leave us. He has sold his farm and bought the estate of the late rev. T. Hartin at Canterbury Station.
A very pleasant party from McAdam spent Wednesday on our beautiful lake, among them being Messrs. Baskin, Greenwood and A. number of ladies from Canterbury and McAdam also spent the day on the lake.
Our crops never looked better. Hay promises to be a heavy crop and farmers are commencing to gather it in.
The serpent has not been seen for some time on the lake, but the quality of the whiskey drunk this season is better, which perhaps, accounts for it.
John Jarvis is to be congratulated on a happy domestic event—a twelve pound boy.
George Graham's new house is nearing completion and when finished will be one of the finest in this section.
John Ingraham has been sick for a few days but is now recovering.

BROCKWAY.
July 19th.—A few of the neighboring farmers have commenced to hay.
A fine grey mare owned by Sinclair brothers dropped dead in the harness last week while hauling lumber from the mill.
Mrs. Jas. Davis is on a visit to her home at Second Falls, Charlotte Co.
Mrs. Frank Vall and little daughter are visiting friends at St. George.
C. H. Buttrick, of New Haven, Conn., Tom and Dan Speedy have gone to Portland, Me., to hay.
W. E. Vickery passed through here on Monday.
Ed. Davis has added greatly to the appearance of his new house by giving it a coat of paint.
A young man from St. Stephen passed through yesterday on a bicycle en route for Fredericton.

BLOOMFIELD.
July 19.—The past week has been very warm with occasional showers.
Jonathan Mann who got badly hurt by falling on an axe some weeks ago is gaining strength rapidly.
There are at present a large party of sportsmen over river. Mr. Woods, of Boston, is among the number.
News has just reached here of the death this afternoon, of Angus Bole, of Bloomsfield Ridge.
James Fairley, sr., has gone up river on a prospecting trip.
James S. Fairley has a gang of men to work building a large barn on what is known as the Duff place on the Bloomfield Ridge road.
Ed. Davis has made great improvements on the place having cleared and put in crop nineteen acres this spring.

CLOVERDALE.
July 19.—Bark peeling is over here for this season.
Grass and grain are looking well. S. Wallace has a very fine field of rye.
Potatoes look well but the bugs are keeping the little boys, and some of the big ones, busy.
Mr. and Mrs. A. Knox are visiting his sister, Mrs. S. Wallace.
Herbert Adair has the misfortune to cut his foot quite badly.

AROUND THE WORLD.
The Week's Events in Brief—The Ocean of our Exchange.
Hon. Mr. Haggart will leave for the maritime provinces next week.
The Manitoba crop promises to be larger this year than it has been yet.
The people of Manchester, England, have subscribed £1,000 for the anti-famine fund by the fire at St. John's, N. F.
Rev. Wm. Dobson and family, formerly of Woodstock, have left for Bermuda, Mr. Dobson's new field of labor.
The house at Washington has concurred in the senate's bill closing the world's fair on Saturday, but rejects the $500,000 grant.
Cardinal Giuseppe d'Arnaboldi, prefect of the congregation of Indulgences and Sacred Relics, is dead. He was born at Borbona in 1815, and was created a cardinal in 1880.
A Burlington freight train was wrecked on the Missouri river bridge Wednesday morning. Three tramps were killed and twelve cars filled with grain were demolished. The accident was caused by the train breaking in two.
Joseph Regley, an employe in Harpers' circus, injured by falling from a wagon between Penasook and Tilton on the night of June 30, died at the hospital at Concord, N. Y. He belongs to New Brunswick, and is about nineteen years old.

A couple of days ago a little girl aged eight years arrived at Springhill, N. S. from Newfoundland. Her parents were burned to death in the fire but she is ignorant of the fact. She has relations in Springhill who will take care of her.
Premier Fielding, of Nova Scotia, spoke at a public meeting in Hampstead, Eng., in favor of Home Rule and "local option."
The London Daily News published a summary of his ideas and his whole tone and style made a most excellent impression.

The Montreal Witness published the following: It is probable that Lord Stanley has sold his farm and resigned in Lord Salisbury's hands before the British premier leaves office. This is not mere conjecture but the belief of those attached to the governor general's office.
It is reported in official circles at Ottawa that Lord Stanley, of Preston, is likely to be taken up by a resignation in Lord Salisbury's hands before the British premier leaves office. This is not mere conjecture but the belief of those attached to the governor general's office.
A despatch from Victoria, B. C., to the department of agriculture, at Ottawa, says that the cases of small pox in New York, but the city is being quarantined and the spread of the disease is not anticipated. A case said to have been brought from Victoria is reported at Calgary. In both places isolation is being strictly enforced.

The adjourned hearing of the petition against the return of A. H. Gilmore, came on Tuesday morning before Judge Palmer and King at St. Andrews. C. W. Waldron, Q. C., appeared for Mr. Gilmore the sitting member, and N. Cockburn for the petitioner. The court declared Mr. Gilmore elected, and the petition was dismissed with costs.
The libel case of Dr. Waldron, M. P. for Albert county, against J. T. Hawks of the Moncton Transcript came up for trial Wednesday. The Transcript articles stated that Dr. Waldron had drawn mileage as a member of parliament from Halifax instead of Edgin, and was a bootler to the extent of $27, and in the same issue, Mr. Grevy and others. Verdict for the plaintiff of $50.
The strike begun Monday by the Union New York housemaids was augmented Tuesday by calling out the workmen employed in three more buildings. More than 4000 men, in all were taken off. It is computed that altogether nearly 8000 men have in one way and another become idle through the trouble between the Iron League, who sanction the employment of non-union men, and the housemaids.

An entirely cordial and mutual satisfaction with the result of the election, in the United States and Chili is respecting the indemnity to be paid by the latter on account of the assault upon the crew of the Baltimore. Seventy-five thousand dollars in gold will be distributed among the families of the two men who lost their lives and to the surviving members of the crew who were injured.
The Carleton St. John, F. C. Baptist church has granted their pastor, Rev. G. A. Hartley, a vacation, and presented him with a well-filled purse. Mr. Hartley leaves the city with his friend, T. S. Simms, for their old tenting ground at Camp Liberty, Birch Lake, New Brunswick, Oct. 1st. They will this year miss the pleasant company of Rev. Mr. Parsons, who has been one of the party for several years.

A bold surgical operation was made at Vienna, Austria, the other day upon a boy of 15, who has been suffering from epileptic fits from his early youth. Prof. Benedict and Moseion opened the skull and took out a portion of the brain where the nerves start that connect with the limb in which the fits used to commence. The wound healed rapidly, and the boy has been free from fits ever since the operation was performed.
While Prof. Castaldi, of Newport, was giving Dr. C. C. Terry his usual weekly lesson in fencing, in Fall River, Mass., on Tuesday, the button on Castaldi's weapon broke and before it was discovered the steel cut the mark on Terry's face, the blade entering his right eye, badly wounding it and penetrating the brain. Terry fell unconscious and was carried to his home. Six physicians were called, but Dr. Terry, after lingering about three hours, died without recovering consciousness.
Peter Gibson, a man about 70 years of age, attempted suicide at his home at Hibernia, Queens county, on Sunday afternoon. He made a bad wound in his throat with a razor, and when found in an unconscious state the blood was flowing freely. Dr. Cawwell, of Gagetown, was summoned and sewed up the wound. The patient though still in a serious condition is doing very well and will likely recover. No reason can be assigned for the rash act, but it is supposed to have been committed during a temporary fit of insanity.

POETRY.

THE BABY IN THE CASK.
'Twas midnight in the sleeper
And all had gone to rest;

Wary, tired, and wanting sleep,
They'd just begun to doze,
When loud and loud, with piercing strength
A baby's cry arose.

'Twas just a three-month's baby
With lungs enough for ten,
And one by one that youngest's cry
Awoke those sleeping men.

Then some began to curse and swear,
And from the curtain peep,
With "Darn the child! Confound the brat!"
We've paid to get some sleep.

Trying to hush the little one,
His face with sorrow stamped,
Still up and down the sleeping car
The youthful father tramped.

Then a crusty Western magnate,
With anger in his eye,
Burst forth in furious temper,
At the baby's piercing cry.

"Take the brat to mother,
She is the proper nurse,
I guess she's in another car,
Asleep without a coser."

"Where is his mother? Damn it!"
But the father sadly said:
"My wife is in her coffin
In the baggage car ahead."

Then a hush fell on the passengers,
The angry man grew mild,
"Go with your little child,"
Give me your little child."

INTENSE SUFFERING!
Mr. William Buchanan, 24 years engineer in the Cunard
Steamship Company's service, 5 St. John's Road, Kirkcaldy, Levepool, Eng., writes: "I suffered two years of agony from an affection in the head which six physicians pronounced incurable.
They were divided in opinion as to whether it was acute neuralgia of the head or some affection of the brain, but all agreed that I could never recover.
In my paroxysms of pain it needed two and sometimes three men to hold me down in bed. When at death's door, a porter of a Wagner car, who was caught by the conductor taking a "smile," said it was the only cure he had taken in his life, his lone grin, as it were; but this availed him not.

ST. JACOBS OIL
was applied to my head. It acted like magic. It saved my life.
I am well and hearty, and have had no return of the trouble."
