THIRTEENTH YEAR.

HE FIRED IN SELF-DEFENCE.

VERDICT IN THE HEN-COOP SHOOTING CASE.
The result is being largely discussed in Pickering and Neighbourhood and Confronting Opinions are expressed as to whether the verdict is just.

PICKERING, Ont., Nov. 22.—The equity into the Palmer shooting case resumed at 10 a.m. to-day in the fire hall before Coroner Bateman.

The bill was almost filled with villagers, anxious to learn what new facts that might be elicited from the witnesses.

Although a number were examined by Crown Attorney Farwell very little, if any, new evidence was obtained.

Shortly after 3 o'clock the evidence was concluded, when the coroner presented the case to the jury. His comments were principally along the lines of what was time the evidence, both in favor and against the prisoner, was reviewed.

At about 4 o'clock the jury retired and after one hour's deliberation returned with a lengthy verdict, the purport of which was that William Palmer came to his death on the night of the 16th from a wound caused by a bullet fired from a revolver shot being fired in self-defence.

The verdict did not in any way implicate Baker.

The verdict was signed by 12 out of the 16 jurors.

The prisoners were then arraigned before Brewster, J.P., on a charge of feloniously wounding, previously laid by Constable Decker.

Baker was then asked for and granted by the crown, the sum being fixed at $100 each in their own favor.

The preliminary trial on the above charge will be proceeded with on Tuesday next at 10 a.m. before Justice Bunting and an associate magistrate.

The verdict of the coroner's jury is being largely discussed in the neighborhood and conflicting opinions expressed as to whether or not the verdict was just.

Never before did such excitement prevail in the neighborhood, and the end is not yet.

POPE AND SILENCE.
Emperor William opens a session of the Reichstag—reads his speech.

Berlin, Nov. 22.—The ceremony of opening the Reichstag took place in the Knights Hall of the Royal palace to-day and was performed with the utmost pomp and splendor.

Emperor William read his speech in the opening session.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—The Times Berlin correspondent says: "It is estimated that the new issue will yield 58,000,000 marks. The Army Bill requires a capital expenditure of 60,000,000 marks, and the annual expenditure of 64,000,000 marks. It is expected that the Government will be obliged to adjust matters by military means or the exaction of larger contributions from the Federal States to the Imperial treasury."

Chancellor von Caprivi, the members of the Bundesrat and nearly all the members of the Reichstag were present at the opening of the Reichstag.

Emperor William wore the uniform of the Garde de Corps. As he entered the hall he was given three cheers. He proceeded direct to the throne, on which he was seated by Prince Albrecht and Prince Frederick Leopold stood beside him. His Majesty read his speech without doing his helmet.

With the exception of his reference to Germany's friendly foreign relations, the Emperor's speech was coldly received by the evening papers.

The National Zeitung complains that the speech contained nothing new in regard to the ultra-conservative Kreis Zeitung says that an unrepentant prussianism is clearly obtainable in the speech any other impression than that the Empire under the present economic conditions is rather in need of economy than of new and large demands.

The Yossische Zeitung says that the speech returns the statement made at the opening of the Diet that the economic situation of the country is unsatisfactory.

An Unbearable Stench.
Sarah White in the York Avenue district is raising a hue and cry on an injunction to close up certain privy pits on the property of the defendant.

The plaintiff claims that the stench from the privy pits has been a nuisance to his business in Isabella-plate, the stench being of such a character as to render his business a nuisance to his neighbors.

The White claims that the pits were on the property prior to the erection of Park's houses and that they are not offensive.

Relief for the Farmer.
Notice was given by Mr. A. G. McLean at the meeting of the Young Conservatives, held last Monday evening, that he would at the next meeting introduce a motion in regard to the question as to the advisability of the Provincial Government borrowing a large sum of money to be loaned to the farmers of the province at the rate of 4 per cent. Government will be able to borrow money at 3 per cent. and loan it to the farmers at 4 per cent. without loss to the Government. If the scheme proves feasible it would do away with the necessity of loan companies, but Mr. McLean asserts that the majority of the stockholders in the loan companies of this province are either American or English capitalists and consequently that their interest need not be seriously considered.

Word Not Fea.
Cannot fully describe the surprising operations of nature's gentle remedy, St. Leon Water. Partaking of it heartily everyone will find it more than a cure as I did my dread rheumatism. Dyspepsia, indigestion, troubles and ailments after years of suffering and constant attempts with medicine to find cure. Edwin Chapman, Alton, Ont.

SILVER QUESTION CONFERENCE.

British Delegates Are to Listen to Arguments on Bimetallism and Leave All They Can.

BRUSSELS, Nov. 22.—The International Monetary Conference met this afternoon. The proceedings were purely formal.

M. Bernhart, the Belgian Prime Minister, who opened the proceedings, and the conference, had been called to discuss one of the gravest and most complex problems that modern society ever had to face.

After referring to the monetary crisis that had occurred during the past century, M. Bernhart said it was in the direction of an international understanding that a solution of the monetary question was now sought.

It was fitting that the deliberations of the conference should be held in the Latin Union, but it was for the delegates of the United States to put forward the views of their country and explain how it was proposed to carry these views into effect.

Dr. H. Montefiore Levy, as president of the conference, followed M. Bernhart. The worst feature of the present monetary situation, he said, is its instability. He proposed that the conference should take an interest in the great human family.

Dr. H. Montefiore Levy, as president of the conference, followed M. Bernhart. The worst feature of the present monetary situation, he said, is its instability. He proposed that the conference should take an interest in the great human family.

The conference arranged to meet three times each week. The American proposal may be submitted on Friday.

The American delegates are stopping at the Hotel Bellevue. Minister Tirrel called upon them and discussed questions pertaining to the conference until it was time to retire to the hall.

M. Bernhart will give a grand reception in honor of the delegates on Monday next. M. Hoegaarden, President of the National Bank, will give a collection of Belgian, diplomatic and other notables on Dec. 7.

MONETARY CONFERENCE.

WATER POWER ON THE COAST.

Storms and Wrecks on Puget Sound.

A Seething Lake with Logs, Shingles, Battens, Ties, Trunks and Debris Jammed Ten to Twenty Feet High—Demoralization of Railroad Traffic—The C.P.R. Has Escaped the Trouble.

SEATTLE, Nov. 22.—Reports of a storm throughout the western portion of the state are still worse to-day, and prospects of a communication being restored are abandoned for several days. Five deaths are reported as the result of the floods, while the loss of property in the shape of farm buildings carried away and wrecked will amount to thousands of dollars.

In the Stock Valley, as far as the eye can see, the valley is a seething lake, with logs, shingles, wrecked buildings, railroad ties, uprooted trees and debris jammed together to a depth of 20 feet.

The Great Northern will not be able to run trains until the bridges are repaired and the slides removed and track relaid.

The Seattle, Lake Shore and Eastern runs trains to the international boundary, but a transfer is made around the slide at Blackman.

Three or four small steamers are reported near the Schoonah River, but no lives lost.

The large steamer is carrying passengers to Whistler to take the rail connection to the Canadian Pacific has almost entirely escaped any damage.

Frame houses of all descriptions have been floating in nearly every form and size west of the mountains.

TORRENTS OF RAIN.
Railroads on the Puget Sound Have a Grievance Against Nature.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 22.—Rain has fallen in torrents to-day in Oregon and Washington west of the Cascade Mountains and the local train traffic on Puget Sound north of Tacoma is entirely stopped.

The damage already done in the Puget Sound country will probably reach a half-million dollars, and the prospect now is that much greater damage will result.

The Northern Pacific repaired the damage to the main line and the trains for the east are now running regularly.

The land slide on the Union Pacific at the Cascade mountains to come down today, which washed tons of earth down the mountain side. Construction work on the track around the slide began yesterday and it will probably be completed by tomorrow night. The company is transferring passengers and mail around the obstruction by boat.

FOUR PERSONS DROWNED.
Great Deluge of Rain at Seattle and Tacoma.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 22.—There is little if any improvement in the flood conditions in the Puget Sound Basin and the steady downpour of rain, with a falling barometer, gives little hope of any relief. The rain has been falling since Monday and there is still an almost complete block of railroad communication. The railroads on railroads and ferries that are carrying passengers.

On Friday last a party consisting of Prof. Canfield, his wife, and two children, and a young man, were on the steamer Mabel picked up a capsized boat, and a red oar after wards drifted ashore.

ELIMBA, Nov. 22.—A "long time" piano playing contest between Mrs. Waterbury of New York and Mrs. W. M. Darrin of this city began here last night at eight o'clock. The players were to play until one was unable to remove either hand from the keyboard.

The contest closed this afternoon, resulting in a victory for Mrs. Darrin. Mrs. Waterbury gave up the contest at 12 o'clock, while Mrs. Darrin continued to play for an hour longer.

Mrs. Waterbury had a badly swollen wrist, which became so painful that she was obliged to desist. Mrs. Darrin said she could have played several hours longer if necessary.

A SHEET IRON TRUNK.
His Contents May Contain a Deep Mystery and They May Not.

HAMILTON, Nov. 22.—An affair which may be of a most interesting nature is being investigated by the police. It is the contents of a sheet iron trunk which was found in the possession of a young man named J. J. Madigan, who was arrested on Sunday.

The trunk was found in the vicinity of Beasley's Hollow when they saw an ordinary trunk with a keyhole on the side.

They found that it contained a lot of papers. One letter was addressed to Mrs. J. J. Madigan, and was dated from Buffalo, N. Y., and read:

Please help these chaps if you can. They are from the "Long Time" piano playing contest. They are quite well, but I am afraid they are a bit nervous. I am sure they will be glad to hear from you. I am, your friend, J. J. Madigan.

The police think that the trunk may have been sent to the residence of Mrs. Madigan, and that it may contain some valuable information.

OVERLAND FLYER WRECKED.

IT CRASHED INTO A FREIGHT TRAIN.

Four Men Killed—Three Injured. Two Fatally—The Freight Had But Puffed Out of the Yard When the Flyer Dashed Round a Curve and Collided—A Complete Account.

ONARAH, Nov. 22.—Four persons have been killed in a Union Pacific wreck at Onaraha.

The wreck was caused by a collision between the overland flyer and a freight train on the morning of a freight train.

The freight train had been switching and had just pulled out of the Onaraha yard, when the flyer rounded a curve and the two trains crashed together.

Both trains were completely wrecked. The freight train was piled on top of the flyer. The flyer was crushed and the freight train was piled on top of it.

THE SALE THAT ECLIPSES -- OVER-TOP ALL OTHERS.

This is the chance of all chances. Now is the time of all times to do your spending. Holiday goods must be cleared space. This is why we make it the lowest priced, greatest in value, most advantageous sale to you of the year.

Why these queer questions you ask? Simply because the people of last Thursday advertised playing cards of all kinds at 10c each. Those cards sold where at 25c. No less than 15 persons, in responding to this advertisement, went to another place. What was the result? We lost those 15 sales, and worse than that, those people went away from that store denouncing our advertisement.

Good people, we are only responsible for what we sell in our own store. We own no branch stores. We have no connection with any other store in Toronto. Our business is conducted at 88 Yonge-street.

OUR NAME IS JAMES EATON & CO. and if you don't always get the James before the Eaton, mistakes will surely occur. Prices made to sell quickly, to empty our shelves; we must have space. Be quick to get these unparalleled values.

But you must come to James Eaton's to get them. 88 Yonge-street. One great clear-up in the Trimming Department. We have no room in the Millinery Department. Every hat and bonnet must go.

Remember you can only see these at James Eaton's, 88 Yonge-street. Golden opportunities in the Underwear Department. Big reductions in the Staple Department. Don't fall to visit the Fancy Goods Department.
