GRAND FALLS FUTURE THRESHED OUT HERE

3 PROPOSALS ARE IN MIND FOR DEVELOPMENT

International Paper Co., Gov't Ownership Or New Company

STILL CONSIDER

Prominent Men In Conference Meet Government This Morning And Afternoon

Development of the Grand Falls power site was under lengthy consideration by parties representing the Province of New Brunswick, the International Paper and Paper Co. Ltd., and Fraser's Ltd. here this morning in the Provincial Government rooms and at the conclusion of the conference both Premier J. E. M. Baxter and A. R. Gauzeau, president of the International Paper Co., had not anything definite on the matter to announce yet.

Premier Baxter said, when the conference broke up shortly before 2 o'clock, that the entire Grand Falls project was the subject of the conference. The contact with the International Paper Co. was made by the Premier, signed under the Venlo regime, also was considered, according to G. H. Montgomery, K. C., legal adviser to the International, who expressed the hope that an agreement would be reached before his party returned to Montreal this evening. Following luncheon, the conference will proceed this afternoon.

THREE PROPOSALS. The Grand Falls power situation at the moment is stated to be that there are three possible courses under consideration. The first is that the International Paper Co. develop the power itself and sell it to the province. The second is that the Government develop along the lines of public ownership. The third is the organization of a company to take over the Grand Falls and have as initial parties in the company people who are producers of pulp and paper in the province.

THE QUESTION OF THE FLOWAGE RIGHTS and the question of the water power possible as yet unknown factors and as they are basic they constitute reasons why the negotiations must take some time.

WERE AT MEETING. At this morning's consultation in addition to Premier Baxter, Mr. Gauzeau and Mr. Montgomery were the following: Hon. L. D. Tilley, K. C., president of the council; Hon. E. A. Reilly, chairman of the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission; C. S. Colson, chief engineer of the International; N. C. Head, confidential adviser to Mr. Gauzeau; R. L. Hearn, consulting hydraulic engineer; Montreal, K. H. Smith, now with the Montreal Engineering Company and formerly of the Waterways branch of the Department of the Interior; C. W. Allen of the same company; Archibald Fraser, of Fraser's Ltd., who had Messrs. Smith and Allen as engineering advisers for his company; S. R. Weston, chief engineer, and A. C. D. Blanchard, hydraulic engineer of the N. B. Electric Power Commission.

Representatives who attended the conference were reticent in giving out details of matters involved, but it is learned on good authority that new ways and means for the development of this great natural power site were under consideration.

The conference today is only one of a series that have taken place during fall and winter months, and a strong effort is being made to come to some agreement for the coming session of the Legislature. Last November, Premier Baxter issued a statement in which he declared the contract with the International "fettered" the Power Commission. He declared then he would seek to get the parties together and definitely ascertain from each what mills they proposed to build, when and at what price they would pay for current.

Vienna Police Finally Get Grip on Jewel Thief

Ran Attractive Jewelry Store and Kept Goldsmiths Busy Melting Down

VIENNA, March 8.—(United Press.) Europe's master thief, Joseph Moransky, 38, is again behind the bars; and the Vienna police are determined that this time he shall stay.

A goldsmith by trade, a "front-door thief" by profession, Moransky has been a source of concern to the police of almost every Central European city for several years.

For a long time the detective could get nothing definite against Moransky. He invited the police of all the surrounding countries to send him lists of valuables which had recently been stolen in their districts.

Among Moransky's possessions was one of the finest kits of burglary tools ever seen by the Vienna police. These tools were his "treasures".

"Madame," concluded the salesman, "invest $5000 in this oil well to-day and within a year you'll be wealthy beyond your dreams."

"But your husband had considerable insurance, didn't he?"

"Oh yes, but you see, I don't get it all at once. The insurance company sends me a cheque every month."

William Hartley's foresight saved his widow. Although he is dead, his wise judgment ensures her comfort as long as she lives.

ROBBED MOTHER OF NEST EGG IN BANK

Montreal Man Given Two Years in Penitentiary For Misappropriation

MONTREAL, March 8.—For robbing his mother of $3,500, J. H. Trudeau must spend the next two years in the penitentiary. The sentence was meted out by Judge Lacroix after he had reached a verdict of guilty on evidence showing that Trudeau, after obtaining the money on a pretext from his mother, Mrs. Horace Trudeau, refused to render an account of it or even tell her what he had done with it.

The trial revealed that the complainant had received the money when she obtained a judicial separation from her husband. The funds represented her share in the community of property, which was dissolved by the judgment of separation. She deposited the money in a local bank.

The mother said that she had lived with the accused for a couple of months, but had made him a gift of $300. She said that she thought this was enough, and the court agreed with her. The son will accordingly be sentenced to two years at St. Vincent de Paul penitentiary.

CIVIC ADMINISTRATION.

The Times-Star is publishing today on this page the first of a short series of articles dealing with various forms of municipal administration.

At this time when the citizens are considering the advisability of a plebiscite on the question of changing from Commission government to the Council-Manager form, these articles are timely and will afford no little information which can be used as a basis of comparison and as a means enabling the reader to form conclusions as to the merits of the several plans concerning which the facts are presented.

The interesting announcement is made that an aviation line is to be operated between Venezuela and Colombia and New York, by way of Panama and Key West, Florida, and that it will be under German control, for the benefit of German trade in South America.

THE O. T. A. ISSUE.

It is now understood that Premier Ferguson is delaying a concrete statement through constant pressure being brought to bear on him by the Conservative leaders in the federal House.

CONCERNING THE GOAT.

We are informed that "the Dominion Government recognizes the increasing importance of the goat."

May we not anticipate the return of the goat to his ancient haunts? He is still to be found in the neighborhood, but not as an aristocratic animal who has passed the official test applied to dairy cattle.

The interesting announcement is made that an aviation line is to be operated between Venezuela and Colombia and New York, by way of Panama and Key West, Florida, and that it will be under German control.

A Quebec dispatch tells of the incorporation of an $8,000,000 company to manufacture artificial silk at Drummondville. It says the work of construction of vast plants will be in hand, and that the new method of utilizing pulp for the making of artificial silk will be adopted.

Mr. Hugh Farrell, associate editor of the New York Commercial, declares that the use of direct steam power for railway locomotives is soon to be abandoned, and that "the change from the steam to the electric locomotive on heavy-traffic lines is much nearer than you probably suppose it is."

What System of Civic Government Do You Think Best?

(The Times-Star presents today the first of a series of articles dealing with various forms of municipal administration. The second article will appear in an early issue.

MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT IN GREAT BRITAIN.

IN NO OTHER country, perhaps, is the government of its towns and cities so generally satisfactory to the people as in Great Britain.

After an experience of nearly half a century, during which time there has been an enormous increase in population, giving rise to new social problems and the enactment of many supplementary laws, it was decided in 1882 to consolidate and revise all the then existing legislation in one comprehensive and lucid code which has ever since been in force.

In brief, the code provides for an elective council, the size of which is proportionate to the size of the city. The franchise is sufficiently broad to be thoroughly representative of the resident population, but it is based upon the assumption that no public interest requires the participation in municipal elections of owners or floating elements of the population.

The councilors are elected by the people elect one-third as many aldermen as there are councilors. The aldermen serve for a term of three years, one-third of the number being elected each year. That is to say, one-third of the councilors retire annually unless re-elected, and the same applies to aldermen.

The councilors and aldermen together form the council and elect a mayor. The mayor is regarded as a position of honor and dignity, and is usually conferred upon one of the senior aldermen who has served six years acceptably for a number of years.

The functions of the British municipal council are legislative, directive and advisory, rather than executive. For the purpose of advice and direction a number of standing committees are appointed, the members of which are usually, though not necessarily, aldermen. These committees keep a close oversight of the work of the several departments, and report to the council at its fortnightly meetings, but their work is strictly supervisory.

The British system, while thoroughly democratic, secures continuity of policy and stability, as well as efficiency. The feature of stability is perhaps as much due to the habits and customs of the people as it is to any provision of the law, for although the law permits a considerable change in the personnel of the council every year, the people seldom avail themselves of the opportunity for change to its full extent.

Space does not permit of any adequate reference to the splendid achievements of city government in Great Britain—the extent and character of the work undertaken to promote the convenience, health and general welfare of the inhabitants. Suffice it to say that in progressiveness and enterprise, in the control of public utilities, conservation of health, profitable disposal of sewage and garbage, improvement of housing conditions, elimination of slums, town planning and all else that goes to the making of a well-ordered modern city, Great Britain is not one whit behind, but rather in advance of any other country.

Into the woods my Master went, Clean forest, forest, forest, Into the woods my Master came, For open with love and shame, But the olives they were not blind to Him, The little grey leaves were kind to Him, The thorn tree had a mind to Him, When into the woods He came.

SAINT JOHN MAN HEARS LONDON AND N. Y. TALK

N. B. Telephone Co's Chief Engineer Has Unique Privilege

FIRST COMMERCIAL TALK OVER OCEAN

Conversation Clear and Chimes of St. Paul's Are Heard

WALTER R. PEARCE, chief engineer of the N. B. Telephone Co. Ltd., yesterday enjoyed the unique privilege of listening-in on a telephonic conversation between parties in London and New York.

At last the great watery spaces have been spanned by the human voice with all its lingual possibilities, following closely upon the heels of radio, though many years after the electric telegraph. The demonstration heard by Mr. Pearce as the first to be given commercially in the history of the world. It was a notable occasion, delivering its own peculiar thrill, he said.

For a month past on Sunday forenoons when cable traffic permitted experiments have been going on in trans-oceanic telephony. Sunday was the first time the new method of communication was utilized commercially. Newspaper persons on both sides of the Atlantic exchanged budgets, items, weather reports, stock quotations, comments on the new service and indulged in some personal greetings.

CONVERSATIONS CLEAR. Mr. Pearce says the conversations were clear and understandable. There was no unusual electrical buzz to the transmission and from a technical bearing it was entirely satisfactory. He had been invited to listen-in by a telephone engineer of the city of Boston, a personal friend. The invitation did not have to be pressed upon him. It was an inspiring experience to him as a telephone technician, aside from its historic uniqueness.

PHONE ROUTES.

The American conversation was transmitted via Long Island through the cables of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co., relayed automatically by wireless telephony from a receiving station on the English shore, then by cable to London. English parties talking made reply—singularly enough by a different route—through the wireless stations at Rugby and other undersea to the recently completed receiving station at Houlton, Maine, comprising to Miss Mabel Hunter, of New York; also several nephews and nieces. The funeral will take place on Tuesday.

TWO TRACKS.

Engineer Pearce explained to a Times-Star representative that at the outset each party spoke into a what is known as a hybrid coil. Though the talkers chatted by different routes of communication, terminal equipments conversed by a single conversation. It was not a case of talking back and forth through the same cable "tracks." There was no hesitancy, no hold-ups or interruptions.

COMMERCIAL PROSPECTS.

Speaking of the commercial possibilities of spanning of the ocean by telephone, Mr. Pearce felt sure in a short time it would be a commonplace such as transatlantic talking is already. People would be surprised to know how much the lines to New York and Montreal were used out of St. John each day. Talking to San Francisco, Omaha, Chicago, and other distant places in this large section of the world is really no novelty, Mr. Pearce says. Local managers are using the long wires to chat over important matters with headquarters before signing contracts, etc. Doubtless rates for the British service would be scaled upon the system employed on this continent.

HISTORIC PARALLELS.

From Mr. Pearce's trans-Atlantic casedropping of Sunday forenoon back to the first telephonic conversation heard in Saint John in 1879, is a far cry. It was an occasion of historic importance to be classed with the first telegraphic code messages sent out from this city to Calais on the Maine border in 1848, the first of Zebby's horse cars in 1887, and the first railway train of the European and North American Rwy that snorted laboriously from Lombard street to the Three Mile House in 1858.

3,000 MILES ELIMINATED.

LONDON, March 7.—British listeners were treated today to a radio-telephone chat across the Atlantic between a group of British newspapermen in the General Post Office in London and a group of Americans in New York.

It was a fitting celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the issuance of Alexander Graham Bell of the basic patents on the telephone. Three thousand miles were eliminated today by the radio telephones the conversations being heard distinctly and with as much ease as a telephone talk within the City of London.

MADE ESTABLISHED FACT

NEW YORK, March 7.—Transatlantic wireless telephone conversation is an established fact. A little group of men sat in a room of the American Telephone and Telegraph Building at 24 Walker street, New York, Sunday morning and from 8:30 to 12:30 o'clock took turns conversing with a group of British newspapermen and technical experts, gathered at the British post office in London.

It was just like talking on an ordinary local telephone. In fact, the voices came across the Atlantic from London more clearly and distinctly than on any local calls.

ST. PAUL'S CHIMES HEARD.

At 10:30 a. m.—3:30 p. m. London—the Americans heard the chimes of St. Paul's Cathedral, and at 11 a. m.—4 o'clock in London—the chimes came again, followed by the deep boom of the bell tolling the hour.

J. H. Furay, vice-president of the United Press, talked for two minutes about London weather when, of course, they knew it was always bad. This got a general laugh on both sides of the Atlantic.

VETERANS MOURN C. BURGESS' DEATH

Funeral at Fredericton of Former Director of Relief Work

FREDERICTON, March 6.—The funeral of the late Charles L. Burgess, former director of relief work in New Brunswick for the D. S. C. R., was held yesterday from the late home and was very largely attended. The remains arrived here last evening by C. P. R. from River Glade, where the deceased had been undergoing treatment at the time of his death, and were accompanied by his sister, Miss Jean Burgess, of Saint John, and brother-in-law, A. H. Wilson, of Fairville. Mrs. Lila E. Burgess, mother of the deceased, arrived here today from Saint John.

Weddings

Stiles-Cameron. MONCTON, March 7.—A quiet wedding took place on Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Percé H. Milton, 1099 Robson street, when Alvin, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Stiles, of Stillsville, Maine, was united in matrimony to Miss Mabel Hunter, of New York; also several nephews and nieces. The funeral will take place on Tuesday.

Grace Evelyn Craig. Friends sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Craig in the death of their infant daughter, Grace Evelyn, at the home of her parents, Belle Creek, on Feb. 16, 1926. She was three months old. She died at home, besides her parents, one brother, Ronald Vincent, and one sister, Eleanor Viola. Interment took place at the Union Cemetery, Rev. F. Sawdon conducting the services.

Lydia Murray. THE RANGE, Queens Co., March 7.—The death of Miss Lydia Murray took place at The Range, Queens County, on Feb. 27, aged 77 years, following a severe illness of six months. For the last two years she had resided at home of Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Hopkins.

THINGS FOUND. The police report the finding of the following articles in the streets, viz., coasting sled, in Queen square; pair of men's socks, Main street; screw driver and bunch of keys, Charlotte street, and fountain pen, Paris street. The same await application by the owners at police headquarters.

UNFIT FOR USE. Police Sergeant McCleese made a call at a barn off Waterloo street Saturday afternoon and, at the request of the owner, shot a horse that was ill and unfit for use.

Alkali in Shampoos. Do not use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much free alkali, for this is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle. The best thing to use is Multisided coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It is inexpensive and beats any other hair dressing.

MADE MURRAY. FREDERICTON, March 7.—This is the name of the man who says that he likes will hear a great many things he dislikes.

CHARGE RETURN IN INCOME IS FALSE

Federal Grand Jury Indicts Former "Bootleg King" in New York

NEW YORK, March 8.—"Mannie" Kessler, former "bootleg king," for being which he served two years in Atlanta, has been indicted by the Federal Grand Jury on charges of falsifying his income tax returns. His indictment involved two counts, one for falsification and the other charging perjury in that he had sworn that the falsified reports were accurate. The first count carries a penalty of one year in prison and $10,000 fine; the second a five-year sentence and $10,000 fine. Writs against Kessler for approximately $750,000 due in income taxes were secured by Charles W. Anderson, Collector of Internal Revenue, before Kessler was released from Atlanta last year. Civil action thereon is still pending. The criminal action now instituted involves the same taxes alleged to be due, but is brought for only the last of the three years for which the $750,000 is claimed. The sum cited by the government for that year, which was 1922, is $2,700,000. It is alleged Kessler made out his income tax return for a sum less than a tenth of this total. The government examined Kessler's bankbooks in computing the profits now cited.

Acquired Habit of Drug Use At School

NEW YORK, March 8.—When arraigned in the United States District Court in Brooklyn, before Judge Robert A. Inch, for sentence following his plea of guilty to selling heroin, Samuel Kemp, 19 years old, told the Court that he became a drug addict while he was a pupil at the New Utrecht High School.

"Two other boys and two girls were in front of the school more than three years ago when a stranger gave us some of the stuff," he said. "The drug made us all ill, but the man urged us to try it again, saying 'After a few trials you will enjoy it.' After that all of us became customers of the stranger."

"This is a pitiful case," said Judge Inch. "I wish it were possible to find the man who started these five school children using drugs. I am going to send you, Kemp, to Atlanta Prison for two years. I will write to the warden to give you special attention."

Chicago Man Gets Property of Soldier Son He Never Saw

CHICAGO, March 8.—In 1898 Harry Wilson, quarrelled and separated from his wife, Nell Mallow Wilson, a few months before the birth of their child. Last week, nearly 28 years later, Wilson obtained a Probate Court ruling awarding him $6,500 from the estate of his soldier son, Vernon Ogden Wilson. After the separation Wilson's relatives lost track of him. His son, Vernon, grew up to believe John N. Gardner was his father. In recent court hearings Wilson charged that his wife had not secured a divorce from him. In 1916 Mrs. Wilson died and on June 6, 1918, the son was killed at Chateau Thierry. He made his father the heir to his estate. On Nov. 1, 1922, Gardner was declared insane and an administrator began collecting the estate. Then an aunt of the dead soldier began a search for the father, whom she finally found in Pittsburgh. Wilson came to Chicago and began a fight against Gardner's administrator.

At 17 a Girl is Only in Love With Love, and She Needs to be Saved From Her First Sweetheart Until She Has Seen Enough of the World to Know Her Own Taste in Men.

COLONEL GREEN, a very rich Texan, who with his wife has adopted eleven daughters, says:

DOROTHY DIX

"Girls need to be protected from their first sweethearts. A girl in the puppy-love stage needs protection from herself just as she needs a dentist when she has a toothache."

I WANT to add my confirmation to this statement. There isn't a girl that doesn't bring me two or three heartbroken letters from women whose lives were wrecked because they had no one to protect them from themselves when they were 17.

"I thought I was in love with the man I married when I was 17," one woman writes. "Now I am 24 and I simply hate him. There isn't a thing he does that doesn't get upon my nerves. He loves me to extinction, and I cannot imagine what I ever saw in him that made me think I even fancied him."

"I MARRIED when I was 17 a man for whom I thought I had the grand passion," writes another. "I know now that it was a child's passing fancy, and I have met the man who is my real mate and whom I worship with my whole soul."

"I married when I was 17," writes still another, "now I am 23. I have four babies, and I am worn and broken in health and old before my time. I have never had any of the pleasures of girlhood and I am tired of my husband, tired of my fretting children, tired of my home, tired of marriage. I would like to be free of them all and to dance and go to cabarets and on joy-rides and have a good time."

SO THESE letters run, each one stressing some pitiful phase of the too-early marriage. Often than not the man in the case is not to blame. He is just an ordinary chap he always was. It is only her taste in men that has altered. Nor has he failed in his duty to her as a husband. It is only that marriage is a life work and not a just party and she wasn't really set down to the business of wifehood and motherhood.

Nonetheless, there is the tragedy of a wrecked life as blank and pitiless as can be made of broken hopes and blasted illusions and weariness and hopelessness and despair. For there is no undoing of this thing that a girl did in the folly of her youth.

IT IS because the too-early marriage almost invariably ends in disaster that it is so important to protect a girl against her first sweetheart. It doesn't matter who he is or what qualities he possesses. He may be the incarnation of every charm and virtue and the girl may be crazy about him at the time, but that is no guarantee that when she grows up she will still be ravished by that particular line of attractions in a man.

For it is the girl herself who is in a transition stage, whose needs are changing every day, whose tastes are altering every hour, whose ideals differ from minute to minute and who at 17 has no more idea of what particular type of a husband she will want when she is 24 than she has of what style of hat she will feel she cannot live without seven years from now.

HENCE the danger of picking out a husband for keeps before the even knows what she admires and wants in a man. Heaven knows matrimony is risky enough for women without their taking any chances on what they are going to be and prefer themselves.

Furthermore, there is this added danger: that the disgruntled and unhappy wife almost invariably finds some man with whom she does fall in love, and then, unless she is a woman of high moral principle and great strength of character, there is another untoward scandal and a wrecked home and orphaned little children.

IT IS the women who marry too young who are the pleasure-mad, frivolous, silly, middle-aged and elderly women, who make a laughing stock of themselves by wearing flapper clothes and who get into scrapes out of which their husbands have to pay them with tea bounds and professional entertainers at jazz places and who carry on flirtations with boys young enough to be their grandsons. Somehow, it seems to be a law of nature that we must all have our playtime, and the woman who misses her girl time is sure to try to take it later on with disastrous results.

Above all, 17 is the dangerous age for a girl, because then she is in love with love. She is just slopping over with sentiment. She is like a child with a dollar in her hand that it is burning to spend and she is ready to lavish the whole treasure of her heart on the first passerby without even looking to see whether he is worthy as a man. In her heart she is singing as did the old Florida sextet, "I must love somebody and it might as well be you."

EVER since her pigtail days she has been thinking about love and imagining how thrilling it would be to fall in love and to be loved, and out of her imaginings and the novels she has read and the movies she has seen she has fashioned a wonderful romance that she can cling over any man that comes on the scene. In reality she never sees the man. She only beholds the lovely garment she has brocaded for him.

At 17 a girl can hypnotize herself into thinking she is in love with a drunkard, a rascal, a man old enough to be her father—anything in trousers. It is then that she marries a man to reform him or to be an uplifting influence in his life or weeds a never-do-well that her father has, to support the remainder of his life or contracts the foolhardy union she spends the remainder of her life repenting.

It is because a girl at 17 knows nothing of the world, nothing of life, nothing of men, because she has not even a yardstick with which to measure her own affections, that her first love affair is so dangerous to her. Once get her past that and she is reasonably safe, because she has learned not to take her emotions too seriously or to think that every sporadic heart affection is fatal.

THIS is why it is so necessary to protect the young girl against herself. But to do it requires the gentleness of the dove, the wisdom of the serpent, the tact of a diplomat and the patience of Job.

Is this your BIRTHDAY

MARCH 8—You are fond of books and music, and have considerable ability as a critic. You are scrupulously honest, frank and straightforward, and care most keenly for personal attentions shown you. Your love is true and steadfast. Try to be hopeful, and avoid gossip. You will travel far, and have a happy home life. Your birth-stone is a bloodstone, which means presence of mind. Your flower is a violet. Your lucky color is white.

Some Helpful Home Suggestions

Head lettuce when fresh is heavy and firm, with no signs of brown on the outer leaves. Cranberries should be firm and bright. Not over-ripe, however, and should be up to a standard.

Little Joe

YOU CAN PLEASE YOURSELF—IF YOU CAN PLEASE EVERYBODY ELSE.

Keep in a cool, dry atmosphere until used. Grapefruit and oranges, uniform in size, with smooth, thin skins, and small pores, are the choice ones. It is poor economy to save money by buying fruit and vegetables that are not up to a standard.

Fur and Feathers Trim New Formal Clothes

By MME. LESTER. BIRDS and beasts contribute their bit (and it is a good sized bit) to the lavish decoration of midday's formal attire. Feather trimmings have been the vogue for some time, and sometimes are used with a free hand, the effect being somewhat bizarre. Feather fans have never gone out, of course, but what has become of the muffs and collars of their feathers which kept necks and hands warm many years ago? A most striking frock which uses the feather trim elaborately (left) is fashioned of pink satin embroidered in rhinestones. The form fitting little bottle stops at a normal waistline and feather trimmings has a berthe of silver laces which not only gives it a dignified appearance but also—being long in use—suggests the popular cap.

DAILY MOVIE SERVICE News Notes From Movieland

By DAISY DEAN. WHEN Michael Arlen wrote his first story for the screen he described the heroine as "magnificently alive, wears clothes so that Frenchwomen look like Englishwomen and it has been as a diamond." Many screen and stage stars were considered for the part which has finally been given to Dorothy Mackrell, First National feature player.

Renee Adore's sister is playing her first part in pictures in Phil Rosen's new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production, which is as yet untried. She has been an acrobatic dancer in Mexico City for the past three years, after leaving France. Conrad Nagel, Owen Les, Antonio D'Algy and Marcia Mann are members of the cast.

BIRTHDAYS OF THE STARS. Six movie folk birthdays are being celebrated in the last of January and we aren't going to tell how old they are. Why? Just because we like to keep secrets.

George K. Arthur will celebrate on the 24th. Joyce Compton, youthful First National player, is going to cut the birthday cake January 27th. Norma Berry, one of the screen's best loved stars, has her birthday on the other person, on the 17th of January. Raymond Griffith is another who was born in January. His birthday is the 23rd. And then there's Greta Nissen, the young Swedish actress. Miss Nissen claims the 30th as her very own day.

A Thought

If thine enemy be hungry give him bread to eat; if he be thirsty give him water to drink; for thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head, and the Lord shall reward thee.—Prov. 25:21, 22.

AN EFFORT made for the happiness of others lifts us above ourselves. L. M. Child.

Merrit Punishment

It is not often that the Supreme Court of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts has before it a case involving cruelty to animals. It has just decided an issue of that sort, however, and all friends of the humane treatment of dumb beasts will rejoice at the outcome.

A Newton man named Joseph Gentle was some time ago found guilty in the Superior Court of tying a ball of inflammable stuff to the tail of a dog and setting fire to it. The dog was seen running in intense agony through the streets. The horrible offense was fixed upon Gentle. His lawyer carried exceptions to the Supreme Court, but the full bench overrules them and says the evidence warranted the conviction.

A jail sentence of three months must now be served by this man, and most people will agree that it is richly merited.

Menus for the Family

- MENU HINT Breakfast: Sliced Oranges, Mixed Dry Cereal with Dates, Whole Wheat Toast, Cocoa or Milk. Luncheon: Canned Oysters on Toast, Bran Muffins, Butter, Chinese Cabbage Salad, Apple Sauce, Jumboes, Tea or Milk. Dinner: Swedish Meat Balls, Tomato Soup, Baked Potatoes, Buttered Brussels Sprouts, Ice Cream Puffs with Chocolate Sauce, Coffee.

TODAY'S RECIPES

Mixed cereal usually includes corn flake, prepared wheat. Anything else may be used and you might sometimes add coarsely ground whole wheat bread—stale bread cut into small cubes and dried in the oven or dried first and put through the coarse food chopper. The creamed oysters are made by thickening oyster sauce with flour, as in previous day. The oysters should be cut into smaller pieces.

Chocolate Sauce—One square unwetted chocolate, one tablespoon melted butter, one-half teaspoon vanilla, one-half cup boiling water, one cup sugar. Melt chocolate in saucepan over hot water. Add butter and when thoroughly blended pour boiling water on gradually, while stirring constantly, then add sugar. Bring to boiling and cook about ten minutes. Cool slightly and flavor. When a little dropped into water can be pushed definitely together—not picked up—it has been sufficiently cooked.

Jumboes—One cup shortening, one and one-half cup brown sugar, three eggs, one-half teaspoon soda dissolved in a little water, one and one-half cups chopped raisins or other fruit, two and one-half cups flour, one teaspoon cinnamon, one-half teaspoon nutmeg, one-half teaspoon ground cloves, pinch of salt. Mix in order, creaming shortening, adding sugar, beaten eggs, soda and sifted dry ingredients. Dredge fruit with a little flour and add last. Drop from teaspoon on buttered tin.

Swedish Meat Balls—One pound lean round steak, one pound pork steak or chops, a few soda crackers or a slice of dry bread, seasoning and milk. Put meat through food chopper, alternating with crackers. Usually there is enough fat on the pork or a bit of suet with the beef to enrich the mixture. If not, add a slice of fat salt pork. Mix well, season with salt, pepper and onion juice and add just enough milk to hold mixture together. Shape into small balls, four slightly and fry in pork fat or butter. This quantity will make more than enough for a small family. You might make the required number of balls and shape the rest into a small meat loaf. Roll in bread crumbs and bake with a slice of bacon over the top.

ADVENTURES of the TWINS

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON. SOME MORE ABOUT HICKYDOO. "What shall we do now, Hickydoo?" asked Nancy. "Blue Whiskers stole our automobile." The square wooden man stopped digging in his garden and thought for a minute. "Please press my second button," he said slowly. "I'll have to look in my index again." Nick pressed the second button in the wooden man's wooden jacket, and out flew a drawer exactly as before. "Look for the bundle of pink papers at the back," said Hickydoo next. So Nick got the bundle of pink papers and then Hickydoo said: "Look among the 'A's.' See what it says about stolen automobiles." So Nick found the "A's" and the place where it said, "All about stolen automobiles." "Here it is," he exclaimed. "It tells all about everything." Hickydoo nodded. "That's right," he said. "My index tells everything. Read what it says." So Nick read. "The first thing to do when anyone steals your automobile is to try to get it back." "Very good advice," nodded Juke, the hangaroo. "If anyone stole my tail, I should try to get it back. I'm sure. And it's much the same thing." Nick went on. "The best time to get it back is at once, if not sooner. The sooner, the quicker." "Will you please put the paper back in its place and shut the drawer?" next remarked Hickydoo. "I won't want my index to get out of order. I am very careful of my diet." "What do you eat?" asked Nancy. "I'll bet you've had," squeaker Paddy-coot, the mouse, sticking his head out of Juke's pocket. "He's very fond of cherries, I happen to know. You see I was his prime minister for years 'n' years before he turned me into a mouse. He loves cherries." "There is only one reason why he wouldn't eat 'em," went on Paddy-coot. "Much as he loves cherries, he likes cherry jam better. He may have taken it to the cook."

On the other hand Dupont, Schults Stores and American Car and Foundry opened a point or so higher.

Brokers' Opinions

NEW YORK, March 8.—Clark Childs:—"For a few days we may expect a drifting market. The public disposition to sell what is owned has been modified somewhat."

Johney & Kirk:—"We favor a conservative and discriminating trade position with preference given to sound rails and oils during any fair set-backs."

Fruehling & Coy:—"While we do not anticipate wild upward swings we do expect the market to considerably better for several days."

Morning Stock Letter

NEW YORK, March 8.—The industrial market was inclined to weakness Saturday. The French crisis brought out more profit-taking than would have been the case ordinarily. However, weakness followed further irregularly. The big drop in prices frightened a lot of people who were only waiting for a rally to get out of more stocks. On weakness, we believe there are some stocks that can be bought. Despite the big reaction last week, C. & O. made a new record high Saturday. We believe it will see still higher prices and would continue to buy on any dips. In N. Y. C., and this week. Reports from the South in general that fertilizer sales are considerably above last year and this spring. We are also bullish on Cons. Gas PHM, General Motors and Gulf Steel for the pull.

MARCOONS PLAYER FINED $100 AND SUSPENDED FOR REST OF YEAR

MONTREAL GAME

Boston Entertains New York On Tuesday
Night

MONTREAL, March 8.—Hobie Kitchin, relief man of the Montreal Maroons, has been fined $100 and suspended for the rest of the season for breaking training rules. This second penalty by the Maroon management against Kitchin was inflicted before the game Saturday night. The suspension is indefinite, but it is likely that Kitchin will not be seen in uniform again this season. Kitchin left for his home in Toronto yesterday. Toots Holway, former St. Pats player, will replace Kitchin in the relief work.

ST. PATS WON

TORONTO, Ont., March 8.—With nothing at stake the St. Pats tried out a new forward line—Day, Belliveau and Shay—and it worked, they winning from the New York Americans 4-2 Saturday night.

MONTREAL, March 8.—The Montreal Maroons defeated the Canadiens 4-3 in an overtime tilt Saturday night, and retained their lead in the league. The game was a hard-fought affair, with the Maroons unable to score in the first two periods. In the third period, the Maroons scored twice, while the Canadiens scored once. The game went into overtime, where the Maroons scored the winning goal.

BOSTON FAVORED

MONTREAL, March 8.—Pittsburgh and Boston are left to fight it out for the third play-off position in the National Hockey League race. Ottawa and Montreal having definitely qualified for positions in the play-off program within the next week, the decision between these two teams should be available at least by Friday night, when the two American teams battle one another at Pittsburgh.

May 7 Is Tentative Date For The Milligan-Walker Title Clash

Along The Sport Trail

SIR THOMAS LIPTON, in an interview declares that he has not yet given up hope of bringing the America Cup back to the old country, and that, on the contrary, he has every intention in the near future of making another attempt to win it. It is interesting in this respect to recall that during last season the 23-metre Shamrock, originally built as a test for trying out the America Cup challenges, proved itself one of the greatest yachts of modern times. She came out on her first cruise with the King's Britannia, White Heather, Lollipop in her company, which are among the best racing yachts in Great Britain. Lipton's middle name is Persistence and he may get there about the time feeble old Jack Dempsey is carried out on her back after the title against 70-year-old Harry Wills. Speaking about races, how about a real, red-blooded battle between genuine schooner men and hardy fishermen. The unfortunate controversy started when Angus Walters passed a buoy on the wrong side of the line in the first of the two-games series that we have not had one for several years. The boys should get together over a plug of tobacco and a couple of codfish and settle the details for a race this fall.

TONIGHT, the Atlantic and Rovers start their series for the Moncton city title. It should be a hectic battle.

THIS WILL be a busy sport week in the Maritimes. Tomorrow night, the Maritime hockey finals open at Truro with the concluding game on Thursday night. On Tuesday night at Fredericton, the Bathurst High School team, winners over Dorchester and Sussex, will tangle with Fredericton High in the first of a home and home series for the provincial school champions and The Telegraph-Journal & Times-Star trophy. The second game will be played at Bathurst on Friday night. Then on Wednesday night here, the Woodstock girls team meets the Truro Rovers in the first of a two-games series for the provincial title with the right to compete in the Dominion semi-finals at stake. This is going to be a hotly-contested series and the local girls must get the jump in Tuesday night's game here. Outside of the Maritimes, the third place berth in the National Hockey League race probably will be decided between Boston and Pittsburgh. If it is not decided early in the week, it probably will be when Boston plays at Pittsburgh next Friday night. There should be enough in this line-up to keep the sport boys right on their toes. On March 18, it we remember correctly, Gene Tunney and Young Stribling battle down in Florida.

DEMPSEY ASKS
$750,000 FOR
RISKING TITLE

NEW YORK, March 8.—Jack Dempsey puts a fancy price on his services when he asks $750,000 down and a guarantee of $650,000 more for defending his heavyweight championship against Harry Wills.

Business Reasons Bar
Champion From Meeting
Wills

You will hear repeated the old proverbs that such a price is such and such times what the President of the United States gets for a year in one of the most responsible positions in the world. Perhaps that rate of pay is out of all proportion with the time involved but you can't shoot a fellow for trying and it can't be denied that Dempsey is entitled to a fair percentage of what his appearance promoter to engage in the heavyweight championship fight and the Tex Rickard made an estimate recently that the Dempsey-Wills match, if it could be staged under favorable conditions without interference might draw as much as $2,000,000.

Some critics claim that it would be a bad fight and the public would not be interested but that isn't logical. The public always will be interested in a fight between two of the best fighters in the world. It is not surprising that the attendance would be restricted only by the number of seats that would be available.

HOCKEY FINAL AT
TRURO ON TUESDAY

Campbell Defeated Abbies
in Thrilling Game Saturday,
3 to 0

Campbell hockey team, champions of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island by brilliant victories over Moncton Atlantics and Charlottetown Abbets are now on their way to Truro to meet Truro Bearcats, 1935 Maritime champions, there on Tuesday night in the first of a two-game series for the final encounter in the North Shore town on Thursday night of this week.

In Saturday's game, the New Brunswick boys played like real champions and should give Truro plenty of trouble. The belief here is that if they have an excellent chance of capturing the highest honors in the return game, they back-checked hard in Saturday's game.

DEFENSE WAS GOOD

McLean and Sharpe on the defence line kept the opponent forwards on the jump and saved by breaking up combination more than once. The game was clean throughout, four penalties being handed out, three to the Abbies and one to the locals.

THE LINE-UP

Table with columns: Goal, Defence, Forwards. Rows include Charlottetown, Campbell, Diamond, Williams, McKeane, McEachern, Gordon, Prowse, Substitutes.

RE-PLAY GAME

The protested hockey game between the Canucks and Nationals of the Intermediate League which was ordered re-played, is carried for the arena to night and a hotly contested match is expected.

One May Meet Dempsey

William "Young" Stribling.

Gene Tunney.

Florida sports fans are vouching the possibility of seeing Young Stribling, Georgian, atop Gene Tunney to the position of chief white contender for Jack Dempsey's moth-eaten title, with Stribling and Tunney preparing for a bout at Miami, March 15. However, Tunney is figured to get the decision. Tunney on left.

HOCKEY RECOGNIZED

The Oxford Hockey Committee has decided that blue is worthy of full recognition, and in the future a full Blue is to be given to those who represent the university in the match against Cambridge each year. The intervarsity match dates from 1890, and five years after a half Blue was given at Cambridge. It was seven years before Oxford fell into line, and a similar period saw Cambridge substitute the full honor to its representatives. This was an old bone of contention has been settled on equal terms at both universities.

GET SCOTCH STAR

England has captured another soccer football player from Scotland in James McMullan, the Patrick Thistle left halfback, who has been transferred to Manchester City. McMullan played for Scotland in seven international matches—against England in 1921, 1924 and 1925, acting as captain in 1920 and 1921 and against Ireland in 1921 and 1924. With the departure of McMullan, only McStay, Melkijohn, Cairns and Morton of last year's Scottish international team are left in Scotland.

BOARD STICKS TO SCOTCHMAN
AS CONTENDER

Jack Delaney Meets
Lohman in Brooklyn
Tonight

NEW YORK, March 8.—Notwithstanding his defeat last Wednesday night at the hands of George Levine in Brooklyn, Tommy Milligan, Scotch welterweight, who holds the European title, still stands forth in the eyes of the State Athletic Commission as the logical man to face Mickey Walker in a bout for the world's welterweight title which is held by Walker. This statement was made yesterday by Chairman James A. Farley of the commission.

In explanation of the commission's attitude, it was announced the board felt obligated to give Milligan a preference in the selection of opponents for Walker, in view of the fact that the Scotch lad was matched with the world's champion for a bout which was cancelled through circumstances over which Milligan had no control. Matchmaker Jess McMahon of Madison Square Garden has been instructed to arrange the bout for May 7.

In the selection of Milligan as Walker's next opponent in a title bout, the commission feels it is discharging a debt incurred by the board when, through its refusal to sanction a bout between Walker and Milligan because of Walker's injured toe last January, the board caused an abandonment of a match which was signed, sealed and ready for delivery. Now, in addition to recognizing Milligan as foremost challenger, the commission has taken steps to insure for Milligan first crack at Walker's title.

The title holder won by a margin of 1,014, the total score being 15,000 to 16,986. Newman paved the way to victory with 1,066 against Iman's 202 on what proved to be the last afternoon session. He carried an unfinished break to 198, following with 105, 352, 262 and 263. At night Newman made breaks of 485, 125 and 100, as it gave him his required 18,000.

SMALLPOX GAINS AS PEOPLE LAX

Neglect of Vaccination in U. S. is Scored By Doctor

Health Service Reports Show More Than 56,000 Cases in 1924 in U. S.

By SAMUEL WOODWARD, M. D. Member Gorgas Memorial Institute, CHICAGO, March 8.—(United Press)

—Before Jenner, the Englishman, discovered the efficacy of vaccination, smallpox was a children's disease. The adult population was largely immune, the vast majority of people showing their scarred faces that they had already suffered from the scourge.

So universally present were these scars that the Frenchman, St. Simon, could think of no greater complimentary comment on the beauty of one of the ladies of the Court of Louis the Fourteenth than to say that she showed no pock marks on her face.

One-tenth of those who died, died of this disease.

CHANGED BY VACCINATION.

A blind beggar is a familiar expression, and blind beggars, who were so common in the middle ages and later, were largely the victims of the smallpox which had blinded them.

Vaccination changed all this. No longer were it practiced do children die in hordes. Pockmarked faces are uncommon, as to cause comment when one is seen.

Yet today people are getting careless. They are enjoying false security, believing that there is no longer danger of smallpox. The result is a large increase in the number of cases of smallpox over previous years. The latest data from the public health service shows over 56,000 cases in 1924. In 1923 there were in round numbers only 80,000 cases.

Were it possible to vaccinate successfully all peoples of all countries at one and the same time, smallpox would become a memory only. Were all children vaccinated during the first years of life, smallpox would not get much of a foothold; no foothold at all unless introduced from the outside.

PROTECTION EXAMPLES

Porto Rico, Guam and Hawaii are examples of the protection afforded by such action. Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New Hampshire and the cities of New York of 50,000 and over, show the good effect of the vaccination of school children.

This improvement has come because of the watchful care of health authorities in spite of the fact that except in a few states vaccination laws are poorly or not at all enforced. The United States, with the most telephones, the most automobiles, the most railroads and supposedly the greatest civilization, is surpassed in the incidence of its smallpox only by the most backward countries—India, Russia, China and perhaps Mexico, Persia and Afghanistan.

Nothing but vaccination, so far as we at present know, will protect a person exposed to smallpox from the likelihood of acquiring it. Recently vaccinated, he can safely approach, touch and care for those afflicted.

So why not vaccinate in childhood? Repeat the process in one's "teens" and then be content to try out

After many failures, De la Cierva, noted Spanish inventor, believes he has solved the problem of vertical flight. His latest helicopter model is being demonstrated at Villacoubly field, near Paris, where on several occasions it has remained in the air for some time. New photo shows the machine being prepared for flight.

immunity unless direct exposure has occurred or a severe epidemic is present. To die of smallpox is a crime against oneself and against the community at this stage of civilization's development.

Who Cares?

Mr. Amundsen Mr. Steffanson and Dr. Cook between them have been able, lately, to stir up a feeble revival of the controversy over who discovered the North Pole—if anybody.

This hasn't interested very many people very much.

And the main purpose it has served is to raise the question what real difference it makes who did it or whether anybody did it.

And, considering the real devotion and ambition and endurance and heroism that were put into the project—even, to give the devil his due, by Dr. Cook—it is pathetic to think how little real difference it makes to the world who stood at the imaginary point that represents the North Pole, or, indeed, whether anybody did.

Does That Cough Stick On Your Lungs?

Mr. Lally MacNab, Bogner, Ont., writes:—"I was troubled with a terrible cough that I could not get rid of. My doctor told me that I had a slight touch of bronchitis. Nothing I took seemed to give me any relief until I got a bottle of

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup

I got such relief by using it that I would advise all those who are subject to bad colds or coughs to keep a bottle of this remedy in their homes all the time."

Don't experiment when you buy "Dr. Wood's" as it has been a household remedy for the past 37 years.

WOMAN HELD FOR MANSLAUGHTER

Case Follows Death of Stepson, Believed From Starvation

Nine Year Old Brother Only 30 Pounds When Taken to Hospital

PETERBORO, Ont., March 8.—Mrs. Mary Dwyer, of Dunsmuir Township, is charged with manslaughter, arising out of the death of her twelve-year-old stepson, John, in hospital here, where he was brought in an emaciated condition. The case is to come up on March 11. This is to permit of the attendance in court of another stepson, nine-year-old George, who is a material witness for the crown.

AGED IN APPEARANCE.

Mrs. Dwyer is 28 years of age, and her husband is 45. On her appearance in court she looked to be older than 40, and her face was marked with scars. She showed no emotion but was careful not to answer questions she did not understand. She was poorly dressed.

The charge was that during the months of December, January and February, while the guardian of John Dwyer, aged 12, she omitted to provide necessities for the boy and did thereby commit manslaughter.

The husband is charged with neglect. Though both the man and woman give no signs of starvation, their outward appearance indicates they lived in very poor circumstances.

George, the nine-year-old boy, who with his 18-year-old sister, Nellie, is still in hospital, weighed only 30 pounds when brought in. The girl is also in a poor condition, but both are improving.

The children lived with their father

ASKS FOR MEXICAN DIVORCE BY MAIL

Texas Inquiry One of Many From U. S. Regarding New Laws

TUCSON, Ariz., March 8.—"Can I get a divorce in Mexico by correspondence?" This is the question asked by a Texas inquirer in one of the letters from candidates for divorce that are flooding J. E. Anchoado, Mexican Consul in Tucson.

These inquiries come from both men and women and a majority of the letters contain newspaper clippings which tell of the new divorce laws of Sonora and Morelos.

In the pile of correspondence to the Consul there are letters from New York, several towns in Texas, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Salt Lake City, Chicago, California, Napaatuck Conn., Denver, Birmingham, Ala., and even from Reno, Nev., considered a haven for divorce.

The Texas inquirer, who asks concerning the possibility of obtaining divorces by mail, intimates that such a method would be particularly acceptable, as a journey to Mexico would not be entirely convenient at this time.

Major Ney, Here Today, Tells of Education League Plans

Foundation is Laid for Organization in That Part of World

Among the passengers who arrived here this morning on the Canadian Pacific steamship Montcalm was Major Fred J. Ney, executive secretary of the Canadian Council of Education, the home organizer of the Overseas Education League. He and his wife are returning after a trip to the Mediterranean branch of the Overseas Education League. He also completed an interesting program for the visit of Canadian educationalists to that part of the world during the coming summer.

Major Ney said he found everywhere great interest in the league's work and was much gratified to be able to announce that His Excellency Lord Lloyd, High Commissioner for Egypt, and His Excellency Field Marshal Lord Plumer, commissioner in Palestine, have both consented to become honorary vice-presidents of the league.

The program prepared by Major Ney embodies features of interest and provides for a pilgrimage rather than a visit to the Holy Land; also a visit to the battle fields of the Near East and especially to Gallipoli. Here it is planned that visitors will arrive on the day of the unveiling of a great memorial to the unknown dead of the Gallipoli campaign. On the Canadian side, Major General Sir Fabian Ware, vice-chairman of the Overseas Education League, who recently joined the advisory council of the league. An official reception will be given by Lord Lloyd and Lord Plumer while at Malta and Gibraltar. Major Ney said that the program is one which will certainly eclipse the league's previous efforts and one which could not in any circumstances be repeated.

RAIN MAKES IT BAD IN STREETS

Catch Basins Frozen And Refuse To Carry Off Flow

Department Men and Street Railway Employees Kept Busy All Night

Saint John was visited by a heavy snow storm yesterday which later turned into the first real rain storm of the season and today the streets of the city were in a very bad state, making traveling difficult for many, and the snow was piled up about noon yesterday and kept up until last evening when it turned to rain. About 10 o'clock last night the rain began and it rained more or less heavily until about 11 o'clock this morning. The total precipitation was 2.16 inches.

TROUBLE IN CLEARING.
The men of the water and sewerage department were out all night with two boilers in an effort to keep the catch basins open and carry the running water from the streets to the sea by way of the sewer system, but they were unable to accomplish their purpose entirely and in many sections the water was from three inches to a foot deep. In some places cellars were flooded before the gutters were cleared out.

THE STREET RAILWAY.
The street cars had difficulty in some places, one of the worst being on Bridge street. There the water this morning was about eight inches deep and gave considerable trouble. It was only after an all night fight by the employees with the company's special equipment that the regular service was able to be operated this morning. Hazen McLean, traffic superintendent, said today that conditions during the night were very bad. The sudden thaw brought the frost out of the rails, he said, and this caused a coating of ice to form which, coupled with a coating on the overhead wire, threatened for a time to disrupt the service.

NOT RESPONSIVE.
People living off the car lines and in the outskirts of the city have had difficulty in getting to work this morning. The taxi men have had trouble in the heavy snow, but failure was encountered as well in effort to engage cabs.

DISMISSAL ASKED IN GALLAGHER CASE.
Counsel Criticizes Charge Made in Three Mile House Liquor Matter.

The preliminary hearing in the case of Charles J. Gallagher in the Three Mile House liquor case, was resumed in the Police Court this morning and was set over until 4 o'clock next afternoon after some argument by defence counsel.

E. J. Henneberry and W. A. Ross, for the defence, objected to the charge and asked dismissal. Mr. Henneberry said the charge reading "Having smuggled goods in his possession" was not right as it did not state the date of the offence nor did it give the value of the goods alleged to have been smuggled. "Neither in the criminal code or in the Customs act could there be found any charge like that preferred against the defendant. The customs act, as amended, stated that having smuggled goods of a value of over $200 constituted an offence and the criminal code there was no statute which prohibited the possession of such goods."

Magistrate Henderson said that he did not feel that he could dismiss the case, but would postpone the commitment of Gallagher for trial until the counsel could go before the Supreme Court judge to ask that the present bail be continued. This was accepted and the case will come up at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The Board of Trade this morning received word that Major H. R. Poussette would be here to address a meeting of the New Brunswick Export Club at the Admiral Beatty hotel on March 24. Major Poussette is trade commissioner at Port of Spain and his territory covers Trinidad, Barbados, Windward and Leeward Islands, British Guiana, Porto Rico and Venezuela. He is announced as one of the most experienced of the Dominion trade commissioners and an excellent speaker.
