Labor Opposes Reconstruction of Compensation Board
BALDWIN TO LEAD CONSERVATIVES

EMPLOYERS' PROPOSALS CONTESTED

Spokesman Says Labor Men are Flatly Against What is Suggested.

SPIRITED SESSION

Premier Takes Part in Discussion Over Phases of Compensation Act.

Flat opposition to all the proposals submitted by the representatives of the employers of the province in the matter of the Workmen's Compensation Act and its administration in New Brunswick, was voiced by representatives of organized labor at this morning's session of a conference which opened here yesterday. W. L. Best, of Ottawa, official representative of the labor interests, presented his case, which was followed by a lengthy and at times rather acrimonious discussion. His presentation was the result of a meeting of the labor delegates held last evening after the case for the employers had been presented to the conference.

On Three Grounds. The labor people opposed the proposal that the scale of compensation and benefits as laid down in the original act before the amendments of 1920 be restored on three grounds:— First, that to lower the present scales would defeat the primary object of the act, which was to prevent dependents from becoming charge upon the community; secondly, that the present cost of living did not justify any reduction; and, thirdly, that the tendency in other places since 1920 was to increase the scale and any reduction would be a backward step. The proposal to reconstruct the board and the administration be placed in the hands of one man was opposed on the grounds that it would not be well to place the administration of such important legislation in the hands of one individual, but that it requires the judgment of at least three commissioners.

The suggestion that employers be given the option to carry their own insurance, the labor men declared as economically unsound. It was pointed out that in Pennsylvania during a five-year period, out of more than $80,000,000 paid out in insurance premiums, only $45,000,000 went to provide benefits, while in Great Britain $3,000,000 were collected and less than $3,000,000 paid out in 1920.

Regarding the suggestion of the employers that the associations representing the employees may obtain through assessment under the act, such funds as they may require to carry on their work, the labor men replied that they were in favor of co-operation between the board and the employers in effecting practical means for the prevention of accidents, but they felt that where associations were formed for this province, workmen should have representation therein.

Premier Takes Part

Premier Veniot presided and took a prominent part in the discussions. During the proceedings he made his startling statement to the effect that an alleged labor organizer some time ago came to Chatham from the United States and decamped with $760 of the men's money. Others who took part in the discussion were H. W. MacDonald, of Toronto, representing the legal department of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association; F. W. Wegeman, of Toronto, representing the employers; Angus McLean, Balthurst, and Donald Fraser, of Plaster Rock, lumber operators; A. D. Taylor, Minto; J. W. Simms, St. John; J. A. Martin, M. L. A., Chatham; John MacKinnon, St. John; L. A. MacKinnon, Moncton, and F. S. A. McMullin, St. John, representing the Trades and Labor Council.

Representatives of the employees were heard at the opening of the morning session.

Speaks For Labor Men

W. L. Best said he represented all the labor men of the province, but made particularly of the locomotive firemen and engineers. He read a letter from Tom Moore, president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, regretting his inability to be present and asking Mr. Best to represent the congress at the hearing.

Uses Gasoline to Put Out Fire

New York, Jan. 11.—John Rizzo, who is 10 years old and lives in Long Island City, found some old Christmas trees while playing with two other boys in a lot in Webster avenue near his home. They decided to be firemen. They set up the Christmas trees and lighted them, and then the Rizzo boy, with many shouts, grabbed a bucket and threw the contents on the flames. The boy thought the bucket contained water, but it was gasoline. The flames shot up and set his companions on fire. His companions ran, screaming, and the Rizzo boy shouted for help. He was blowing all over when a woman drove by in a limousine. She stopped the car and smothered the fire with a fur robe. The boy's legs were burned and the flames hurt the woman's hands. The boy was sent to St. John's Hospital. He will recover.

BIG CUT IN LIGHT RATES PREDICTED

New Brunswick Power Co. Directors Expect to Make Reduction.

TO EXTEND RAILWAY

Local Members of Board Suggest Many Improvements in Service.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the New Brunswick Power Company held yesterday afternoon plans for the extension and improvement of the company's street railway, electric and gas systems were considered by the local members of the board. While the company's statement for the month of December has not been presented, certain preliminary figures were presented which indicated that the results of the company's operations for the year 1923 were satisfactory in view of the conditions which have prevailed. The directors of the company feel confident that the reduced gas rates which became effective on January 1, together with the proposed improvements and extensions of the company's gas systems, will result in a material increase in the business of this department. In fact, the company has already received many applications for gas service.

On Rental Basis. It was decided by the directors to have a plan worked out by the management of the company under which gas stoves would be installed by the company on a rental basis, that is, the company would install any type of gas range which the consumer might select and would charge a nominal rental for the use of same. In this way the consumer would be able to enjoy the convenience and economy of gas cooking without making a large initial investment in the purchase of a stove.

Much Lower Rate.

While no definite action was taken regarding the proposed improvements to the electric system, the members of the board felt that some reduction in rates might be made which would permit consumers to increase their use of electricity for lighting or for the many electrical household appliances which now are in use. At the suggestion of the board of directors the management will give this matter immediate attention and a decision will probably be made at the next meeting of the board of directors, at which time a complete statement of the company's operations for the past year will be available.

GALE IS ABATING

Wide Tracts of Land in France Ruined—Ship in Distress.

Paris, Jan. 11.—The gale which has been blowing along the Atlantic coast for two days seems to be abating. There has been no further loss of life reported, but the material damage done along the seaboard by the storm and tidal wave will amount to several million francs. Wide tracts of land in the department of Gironde have been ruined by salt water from the tidal wave. The 12,000-ton Dutch steamer Rondo is in distress off Ushant Light. Ocean-going tugs which went out to lend aid were forced to put back to port after hawsers attached to the Rondo parted. Two men of the crew and a tug captain were killed by the snapping of hawsers.

FOUR ARE RESCUED

Passengers Taken Out Through Hole Sawn in C. P. R. Observation Car.

Bellefleur, Ont., Jan. 11.—Four passengers were taken out through a hole sawed in the observation compartment of the C. P. R. train station near here at four o'clock this morning, when the C. N. R. train from Ottawa crashed into the coach, which was not quite clear of the tracks (C. N. R.) at the station. Rain and fog prevented the C. N. R. engineer from seeing that the coach was fouling the tracks.

Fortunately no persons suffered more than a shakup in the collision which turned the observation coach nearly completely over, wrecked the rear-end and smashed in the pilot of the C. N. R. engine. The jar broke nearly all the electric lights in the C. N. R. train.

Police Fail In Clean-up; Fired

Philadelphia, Jan. 11.—Heads of police officials began to yell yesterday with the passing of the "zero hour" in Brig-Gen. Butler's campaign to close up Philadelphia. Six lieutenants and two sergeants of South Philadelphia districts who had failed to clean up to the satisfaction of the director of public works within the 48 hour period set by him for the complete elimination of vice, gambling and bootlegging, were suspended on charges of incompetence and neglect of duty. The time limit in which Gen. Butler's plan gave the police to have the city as clean as a "hound's tooth" expired at three-thirty yesterday afternoon.

PRESBYTERY SPLITS ON INSPIRED BIBLE

150 Clergymen Reject Dictum by the General Assembly in U. S. Auburn, N. Y., Jan. 11.—One hundred and fifty representative Presbyterian clergymen have united in a formal protest against the dictum of the 1923 General Assembly that "the Holy Spirit did so inspire, guide and move the writers of Holy Scripture as to keep them from error," and have signed their names to a statement that they profess to be for the purpose of upholding the whole Presbyterian following in the work of saving the human race. The conservative forces were in the majority in the last General Assembly and afterward a small number of those who felt that the scope of the church was being restricted by the narrow interpretation of the scriptures gathered in Syracuse where they organized and adopted a statement of their beliefs.

The Rev. Dr. Murray S. Howland, pastor of Lafayette Avenue Presbyterian Church of Buffalo, was chosen chairman of this committee of ten, and the Rev. Dr. Robert H. Nichols, professor of church history in Auburn Theological Seminary, secretary. A statement of their protest against the position of the General Assembly, a position that is retained at the national synods, was quietly circulating the same, and readily obtained the signatures of 150 of a fellow-student, and stayed at the denomination, and had voluntary offers of many more, which were declined.

THIS IS STRANGE CASE OF THEFT

Rich girl steals diamond ring and dress from friend.

London, Jan. 11.—A strange story of a rich girl's theft, while being retained at the home of a friend, was told at Wealdstone. In the dock was Catherine Barnes, aged 24, a smartly-dressed girl of prepossessing appearance. She admitted stealing a diamond ring worth $600 and a lady's woolen dress worth $12.

The girl's father is manager of a large mine near Johannesburg, and she came to England two years ago to study at the Royal Academy of Music. At the Academy she became friendly with a fellow-student, and stayed at the house of her friend. Later the dress and ring were missed. To a detective Miss Barnes said, "I can't think what made me do it." The prisoner did not lack money, for she had an allowance of $125 a month from her father, and received additional sums from him, but from some sudden temptation she took the ring and the dress. Seeing that she had purchased clothes at a cost of $250, with money sent to her by her father, to wear on the voyage back to South Africa, it was hard to understand why she took a dress worth a paltry $12. When her friend was married, the accused gave her a $30 watch, which was more than twice the value of the dress.

It was one of those extraordinary cases which no one could understand. The girl had her passport and ticket to South Africa, for which she had paid $250. In the circumstances the Bench sound her over for six months in the sum of $250.

White Australia Policy Criticized

Newcastle, N. S. W., Jan. 11.—(Canadian Press, via Reuters)—Lord Leverhulme interviewed here, expressed the opinion that the "white Australia" policy was retarding the development of the commonwealth. He declared that it was impossible to develop the northern territory of Australia while such a policy was maintained.

OWL FOILS HUNTERS IN KING SQUARE

Police and Public Works Department Called Out to Assist.

EFFORTS FUTILE

Snowballs of School Boys Fail to Unroof the Big Bird.

Sir Hoo Hoo Owl arrived in St. John sometime during last night or early this morning. His arrival was unheralded. And while he was not given the freedom of the city he caused just as much commotion in various civic departments. Sir Hoo Hoo Owl selected the vicinity of King Square where he was given a rousing reception especially by school boys who bombarded him with snowball bouquets. It is alleged he first landed on the roof of the Imperial theatre. The electrician who was out early to take the manager of the theatre to Carleton to pilot some of the Olympic team aboard, informed the owl that he would put the lights on. School of Boys. The owl immediately flew to one of the big trees in King Square. Several early morning workers congregated. A gun was procured and arrangements made to "serenade" the stranger. This was blocked by the timely arrival of a snowstorm. A well known worker in women's circles in St. John, who was then the school boys arrived. They were determined to get Mr. Owl. Call on Police. A hurry up call was sent to police headquarters and Police Officer Phinney was called to guard King Square and see that the stranger was accorded the courtesy for which this Loyalist City is famed. Crowds gathered as the owl winked blindly but intelligently at the assembled mob below. Then a volunteer stepped to the Public Works Department. Fire Chief Blake was called into action. He granted permission to have a long ladder taken from No. 2 Hook and Ladder No. 1 Station. The ladder was carried by four of the stalwarts of the Public Works Department, and then began the hunt. The owl was seen to alight on the party, was the hero. He started the climb up ladder, "I take some salt on my tail feathers in the crowd yelled. Others said "Remove him feather by feather."

HORNE NOT TO ACCEPT LEADERSHIP

London Denies Baldwin is to be Ousted From the Leadership. NO CHANGE MADE. Conservative Party to Hold Meeting When Labor Assumes Power. BY HARRY N. MOORE. (British United Press.) London, Jan. 11.—Despite strong rumors that have been widely circulated during the past few days that Stanley Baldwin has been ousted from leadership of the Conservative party and that Sir Robert Horne or some other man prominent in the party will succeed him, I understand that no such change is likely to take place just now. Sir Robert Horne, whose name has been the most frequently mentioned, is out of the country just now and should reach Montreal tomorrow unless he changes his plans made before sailing on the Majestic for New York last Saturday. Meeting is Planned. There will be a meeting of the Conservative party just as soon as Mr. Baldwin has been defeated in the commons when the future organization and policies of the party will be under discussion. The retirement in some quarters of Mr. Baldwin for calling what a premature general election was a premature general election has died down and the antagonism has now been transferred to other members of the cabinet who are believed to have exerted all possible pressure to force the election.

40 WHITE PEOPLE OCCUPY LONELY ISLE

Fanning Isle in South Seas Has Temperature of 90 Above. London, Jan. 11.—Recently returned from Fanning Island (in the South Seas) P. J. Mann of Dartford is now lecturing on the lives of the little colony of white folks to whom Miss Birch, who was an Fanning school teacher, is now journeying 10,000 miles to be married and to settle there. Mr. Mann says the number of white people consists of about 30 employees at the Pacific Cable Board's station, with six white women and half a dozen men at the copra works, who act as overseers of the black labor and do the clerical work. The natives are a simple, hard-working and happy kind of folk, who will do anything for you if you treat them kindly. Most of them are from the Gilbert Islands and, as they grow tired of any spot or any particular kind of work in 12 months, they are always being changed. The white colony imports all its meat and vegetables and practically all other necessities except fish. Recently a strike in Sydney prevented the supply vessel arriving, and they had to live on fish and tinned meats, and suffered in weight and from thinning of the blood in consequence. Everyone plays on the hard tennis court. As the temperature is always about 90 degrees, the exercise is somewhat trying, although there is sometimes a little breeze off the ocean. The men wear white cotton shorts and shirt, without boots or stockings. For evening dress they add a pair of white trousers. The ladies also are usually dressed in white cotton.

Body of Woman Found In Bed With Gas Stove Burners Going Full Blast

Windsor, Ont., Jan. 11.—Lying upon a bed in an unventilated room, where stood a gas stove, everyone of its six burners lighted and pouring an intense heat into the small apartment, the body of a woman, about fifty years, was found last night in what is known as the Old Record Building, in Sandwich street west. The police believe the woman, known to other tenants in the building as "Mrs. Reid," had been dead at least ten days. Coroner Dr. H. R. Grasweller gave it as his opinion that the woman had been stricken with heart failure. Letters found beneath the door, while revealing nothing definite regarding the woman's identity, indicated she had a daughter living in Sherbrooke, Que.

FIRE PATROL WORK

Utility of Aeroplanes to Protect Forests is Discussed at Conference. Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 11.—Utility of aeroplanes in forest fire patrol work was discussed at yesterday afternoon's session of the Federal Provincial forestry conference. Representatives of the Canadian air service were present and presented their views upon the subject. High cost of operation was the chief disadvantage urged against the flying machines in patrolling forests. It was conceded that the aeroplane as an agent for discovering fires, rushing men to the scene and making surveys was invaluable. Some difference of opinion developed as to the best type of machine for forestry work. It was pointed out that small single seater could be operated more cheaply and were just as effective in patrol work but that they were useless for transporting fire fighters. It was suggested that medium sized planes which could be used for both purposes might be the solution of the problem. Colonel Gordon of the Canadian Air Force suggested that it might be possible in the near future to purchase one man planes as low as one thousand dollars.

The Tasmania is a vessel of 2,600 tons.

EMPLOYERS' PROPOSALS ON THE COMPENSATION ACT ARE OPPOSED

Mr. Best said that the labor people had very little time to consider the case as put forward yesterday by the employers. He felt, however, that the report of Mr. Wagnant was conspicuous by the absence of any specific charges regarding the administration of the Workmen's Compensation Act.

Regarding reconstruction of the board, organized labor said, was opposed to putting the administration of the act in the hands of any one man. It was the opinion of the labor people that the proposed change would not be in the interests of either the employer or the workmen.

The labor people also opposed the substitution of private insurance for state insurance. Regarding the matter of an organized labor association, Mr. Best said organized labor was anxious to cooperate with the operators to make conditions as good as possible.

Mr. Best said that the competition overhead co-operation. He said the spirit of co-operation was working out well on the railways in Canada and the U. S.

THE RED CROSS
The value of the work done in this province by the Red Cross since the war is beyond computation. If it had done nothing more than give aid to sick and disabled soldiers in hospital and give a quick relief to victims of fire and flood it would deserve great praise; but it has done much more.

A WESTERN VIEW
The Saskatchewan Star looks for more sympathy for tariff reduction at Ottawa as a result of recent changes. It says that in the retirement of Sir Lester B. Pearson and the probable retirement of Hon. W. S. Fielding through ill health, the Government loses its three "protectionist" ministers; and the Star is disposed also to think that the Premier leans toward the "low tariff" wing of the Liberals. If he should adopt that policy, says the Star: "It must be realized that the tariff will continue to lose strength until he makes the word Liberal mean something more than a temporary grouping of interests. Or in other words that there is nothing for the Liberal party to gain so long as the Maritimes are disaffected and the West frankly suspicious. So far as the West is concerned, Sir Lester's resignation will remove a great part of that suspicion. If he is succeeded, however, by Hon. Walter Mitchell, that suspicion will be in large part renewed."

CANADA AND SPORT
There were two outstanding features in the brief speeches made at the banquet to Charles Gorman and the Granites last evening, on the eve of their departure for Champlain. One was the fine sporting offer of Premier Veniot to raise among sport lovers of Northern New Brunswick half the sum said to be required to send Hilton Belyea to Champlain. The other was the declaration of P. J. Mulqueen of Toronto that Belyea is today Canada's greatest swimmer, and that while the Olympic Committee would like to receive contributions for the purpose it would see that Belyea was sent as a representative of Canada. It was good to hear the Toronto man say that Gorman and Belyea will not go to represent St. John or the Granites Toronto, but that these athletes go as Canadians and the representatives of all Canada.

TEACHING BY MOTION PICTURES
While the educational possibilities of motion pictures have long been recognized and numerous films have been made for school use, the work so far has proceeded without comprehensive direction by a responsible body of pedagogical experts. That lack has now been overcome by bringing together the National Education Association and the Motion Picture Producers of America. A conference between representatives of these two bodies was recently held in this city and initial steps were taken in a programme extending over years to indicate some of the best methods of imparting knowledge through motion pictures. Neither books nor still life pictures can convey three-dimensional things to the young as the screen can. The growth of plants, the struggle for existence in sea and forest, the effect of erosion and the action of volcanoes and earthquakes—these are but a few of the countless chapters in the book of nature that can be taught more quickly and accurately by motion pictures than is possible in any other way.

RECOVERED FROM INJURY.
The many friends of Harry Burns, son of T. M. Burns, secretary of the Board of Health, will be glad to learn that he has so far recovered from his accident of last July that he will be able to leave on Monday to resume his studies at St. Joseph's College, Memphraucok. He can get about now by means of a crutch. He injured both legs above the ankles in a bicycle accident in July and has had a tedious period of treatment to mend the broken bones.

RELATIVES AND NEIGHBORS.
(America is concerned, and deeply concerned, in Europe, and it is not to be expected that the judgments of our students of foreign policy that we have everything to hope from the full cooperation of the United States in this unprecedented problem of European restoration. However much Mr. Bello may insist on the fundamental racial differences between the people of this country and those of the United States, no one will be inclined to admit that they are greater than the distances which separate us from most of the Continental nations.

HEALTHY NEW YORK.
Crowded, congested New York is qualifying as a health resort. The big city has never enjoyed a more healthful year than the last. It had the lowest death rate on record. These facts are disposed of as the criticism of treatment life and humans swarming like bees, as is the case on the East Side and in Little Italy and in other sections of the big city.

MR. STANFIELD CRITICAL.
(While ringing a chime in praise of Mayor Murphy's New Year's message to the citizens of Halifax, The Bellman feels constrained to note a message in a vastly different tone by Frank Stanfield, of unshrinkable business acumen and this message was directed to his fellow Nova Scotians to guide them in their New Year resolutions.

Next Thing.
You say Charlie Blitopper is located on this block" said Brown. "Right across the street," responded Jones. "Well, well, in school we all thought Charlie would turn out to be an orator," continued Brown. "At any rate he's a tinner, the next thing."

VENTUROUS VOYAGERS.

While still the sun rides high in the blue autumnal sky, Out from that vastness, measureless, there sounds a wild, free call; 'Tis the wild goose clanging over, And each high hearted rover Sends down the message that they go, whatever may befall.

PRESIDENT IS RE-ELECTED

T. H. Sommerville Again Heads Bible Society—May Lose Secretary.

The announcement that the Bible Society was likely to lose the services of Rev. F. S. Porter, its secretary, was heard with regret at the annual meeting of the St. John branch held last night in St. Andrew's church when the first and second groups of congregations observing the Week of Prayer met jointly. It is understood that Mr. Porter is contemplating returning to ministerial duties and that there is a likelihood of having the district which he served as secretary of the Bible Society, divided into two districts. Mr. Porter has been the secretary of the Maritime Provinces and Newfoundland district for five years and his efforts have been largely responsible for the success of the society in that period.

Ferguson was appointed custodian of the estate until the creditors held their first meeting which was held yesterday at 147 Prince William street. ## EXPECT PREMIERS AT CONVENTION

T. P. Regan Tells of Plans For Good Roads Association Meeting

T. P. Regan, president of the New Brunswick Automobile Association, arrived home yesterday from Montreal, where he had been on business. While in the big Canadian city, Mr. Regan attended a meeting of the executive committee of the Canadian Good Roads Association. He said that one matter that was definitely decided was that the next annual convention of the association would be held at St. Andrews on August 4, 5, 6 and 7 next. The coming convention is looked forward to as likely to be the best in the history of the association. It is expected that the Premier from all provinces in Canada will be present. The meeting will be opened by Lieutenant Governor W. P. Todd.

A committee was appointed to look after all details in connection with the convention. There will be papers read by some of the best informed officials on good roads in Canada and the United States.

Headaches From Slight Colds

The Tonic and Laxative Effect of Laxative BROMO QUININE Tablets soon relieve a Headache caused from a Cold. The box bears the signature of Dr. W. Grove, 30c. Made in Canada.

SUNSHINE CIRCLE ELECTIONS

The Sunshine Circle of West St. John held its yearly business meeting on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. D. H. Roxborough, 7 City Line, with a good attendance of members. The officers elected were as follows: President, Mrs. George Price; vice-president, Mrs. W. R. Saunders; treasurer, Mrs. A. K. Horton; recording secretary, Mrs. F. B. Brown; and assistant secretary, Mrs. H. MacLennan.

Don't Squeeze Black-Heads—Dissolve Them

Squeezing and pinching out black-heads makes the pores large and causes irritation. Black-heads are caused by accumulations of dirt and oil in the pores from the skin, and there is only one safe and sure way to get rid of them—a simple way, too. It is to dissolve them. Just get from any drug store about two ounces of Peroxide powder—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet cloth—rub over the black-heads for a few seconds—wash off, and you'll be surprised to see that every black-head has disappeared, and the skin will be left soft and the pores in their natural condition.

BREAKS RIBS IN FALL

John Grey, a resident of Milford, while at work in the Hamilton saw mill on Wednesday afternoon, slipped and fell about 20 feet. He received two broken ribs and was otherwise shocked.

He was removed to his home and was attended to by Dr. V. D. Davidson, of Manawagonish road. It is reported that the injuries, while painful, are not serious.

WOMEN OF THREE GENERATIONS

The daughter, mother, and grandmother have all proved from personal experience the remarkable strengthening and tonic properties of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in overcoming the ills of women. It was first made from roots and herbs in 1878 by Lydia E. Pinkham of Colburn, Ont. for her neighbors and friends. Its fame has spread from shore to shore until it is now looked upon by women everywhere as the standard remedy for woman's ills. It has been proved that it benefits 98 out of every 100 women who try it, which is a marvelous record for any remedy to hold.

DEATHS

The funeral of Miss Helen A. Paisley took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Paisley, 124 Millidge avenue. EVENING TIMES-STAR MAGAZINE PAGE FOR THE HOME

After Midnight

The writer of this story, seeking nocturnal adventure, walks toward London from Woolwich. He stops to rest in front of a long, low house of interesting architecture with front covered with white stucco. Tall French windows lead into the garden. In one of the French windows there burned a light.

A revolver shot is heard. The writer lifts the latch of the gate and tiptoes up the walk to peer into the lighted window. He sees a man seated in a deck chair. He steps into the room and finds the man dead. A door opening into a dressing-room is ajar and from that room comes the sound of sobbing.

There was a big armchair covered with crackling chints, heavily flowered in blue. Upon it, or rather upon her knees on the floor and thrown face down upon the armchair, lay a woman, whose shoulders convulsively heaved as she wept. Evidently she had just risen from her bed, for over her dressing-gown of green silk, unbound curly red hair flowed in heavy waves. I watched her for a moment, for there was something about her attitude. Her arms were outstretched across the chair; she made no attempt to wipe her tears. I had a queer feeling that she wept as if she were bleeding to death. Her plump, pretty white arms came out of the green silk sleeves. I was just about to go to her when I perceived in one of her hands a revolver firmly grasped.

"She'd killed him! That woman! It was she who had freed the shot. Obviously it was her husband whom she'd—"

"Swiftly, the domestic tragedy took form. A maddened woman, killing, one didn't know why, the man who had spent a lonely night in the room beyond. But the tears interfered with the logical continuity of my thoughts. Murderer or not, she was crying, and with sympathy, I went up to her, laid a comforting hand upon a shoulder that heaved.

I expected her to start up with a scream, but I had forgotten how much she must need the comfort of human contact, for, indeed, she suddenly raised her head, gripping my hand. Looking up at me with a stained, blotched face, she murmured: "For God's sake, don't leave me." She rested her cheek against my hand. Her sobbing was louder now.

"Of course I won't leave you," I said, in a comforting tone. "Oh, don't leave me," she said again. "Now, try and pull yourself together. You're all right, aren't you?"

"I'm all right," she said, vaguely. "What do you mean?" I asked. "I don't know what to do. I can't stay."

"You can't stay? Why not?" "I don't know. I don't know. I don't know."

"You can't stay? Why not?" "I don't know. I don't know. I don't know."

Your Health

RURAL HEALTH DEFICITS. While the same general problems of personal health apply, in a way, to city and country alike, in many ways they differ. Owing to the great growth of health problems in the city, their solution has been more possible.

Perhaps the phase of health in the rural districts more important than all others, is the lack of real health knowledge in dealing with actual health conditions. Where settlements are scattered, a real health gain would result from a gathering once or twice a month. Some health authority could be secured to address such a meeting, and health pamphlets from national and state boards could be distributed.

There is a deficit of great import in rural areas. Too much of the same kind of food is eaten, where a change in diet would cost no more. Every farm garden, which results in the canning and storage of food, means better diet.

Health in body building is a result of better garden work by boys and girls. Try and have the family supplied with vegetables and fruits the year round, and vary the diet for a distinct health gain.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

Why, you're not the two little boys I gave my balloons to? Nancy and Nick and Tom Tinker hurried on down past Jack's new house and the Pemans' shop, and pretty soon they came to the place where the street melted away, you might say, into a sort of big field.

And honestly, it did seem as though the whole world was there to see the circus come in. Certainly nearly every body in Daddy Gander Land, except the mothers who were trying to get the four-wheeled cart, was out to see the performance in the afternoon.

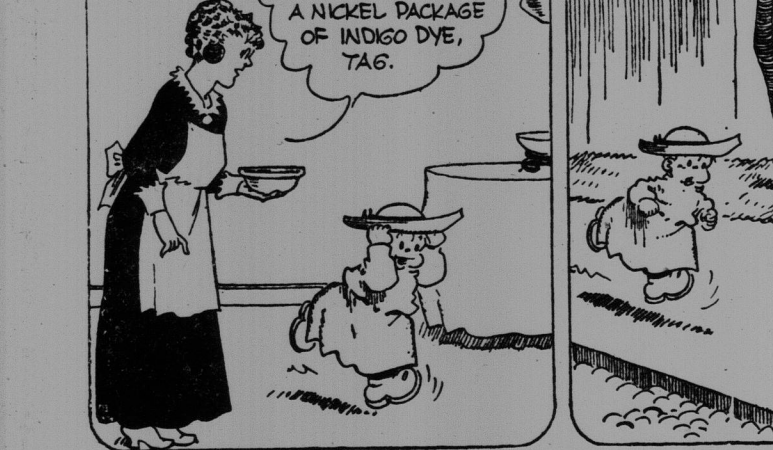

And, oh, yes, the daddies who were busy working to make enough money to send their families to the performance in the afternoon.

Great golden wagons with marvelous pictures painted on the sides went rumpety, rump, thumpety, thump over the bumpy places, teams of black and white horses were being hitched and led away to be fed, lemonade stands were being set up, and side-shows with pictures that would take your breath away almost, were getting fixed up.

The sword-swallower and snake charmer and knife-thrower and the fat lady and living skeleton and tattooed man were to be in them.

And above all was the delightful, terrifying roar of the lions, and all sorts of sounds you could hear, but not see—I mean see what they were coming from. But the elephants were right out in plain view. Nobody could hide them.

ROCKEFELLER FOUNDATION OFFERS FUNDS FOR PUBLIC HEALTH NURSING

Important Matters at Annual Meeting of the Red Cross Here.

The announcement that the Rockefeller Foundation had agreed to provide the funds for twelve public health nurses in New Brunswick for two years, provided the municipalities would undertake to carry the work at the end of that time, was made this morning at the annual meeting of the Provincial Red Cross by Hon. W. F. Roberts, Minister of Public Health.

The meeting was opened by the chairman, R. Hayes, M. L. A., who extended a welcome to the visitors and called on Rev. Canon Armstrong for prayer. Following the prayer, Mr. Armstrong gave a short and most interesting talk on the importance of health to the life of the individual and the nation.

This was followed by the reading of the minutes of the last annual meeting, and the report of the secretary, which was, in part, as follows: Secretary's Report.

The report of the Secretary, Miss Ethel Haas Jarvis, shows that during the last year the Red Cross has spent large sums of money on the salaries of public health nurses throughout the province, who have maintained a depot in St. John to carry out the work and dispense relief, cared for the sick and wounded soldiers in hospitals, visited the homes of the aged, and visited the homes of the poor.

C. B. Allan presented the report of the meetings of the central council and stated that at these meetings the financial problem was the most important one to be carried on money must be provided for the head office at Toronto, for the publications and the provincial headquarters.

Following this the financial report of the year for the New Brunswick branch, prepared by C. B. Allan, was read by Miss Jarvis. It was as follows: Treasurer's Report.

Table with financial data: 1924, Jan. 1st, to Jan. 1st, 1925. Includes items like Balance, Donations, and Expenses.

Most people who suffer, either occasionally or chronically from gas, sourness and indigestion, have no discernible disordered diet, patient foods and the use of harmful drugs, stomach tonics, medicines and artificial digestants, and instead, following the advice so often given in these columns, take a teaspoonful or two of Magnesia in a little water after meals.

SPORT NEWS GLEANED FROM WORLD'S CENTRIES

THE TIMES-STAR SPORT REVIEW

Brief Comments on Pastimes of Interest to the Fans.

Hockey fans were given a rare treat in the arena last evening when they witnessed the Granites, Canada's Olympic team, and the Abegweits of Charlottetown, Maritime champions, clash in one of the fastest and best games ever staged in this city.

The papers in the United States have been featuring a despatch from Toronto regarding the Olympic team.

Young Stribling continues his good work, and his victory last evening shows that he is still at the peak of his career.

Reading writers in the States are beginning to note the fact that only a few spitalball pitchers are holding their jobs in major league clubs.

OLYMPIC STARS ARE INELIGIBLE

Three Members of United States Skiing Team Banned.

Minneapolis, Jan. 11.—Three stars of the American Olympic ski team have been declared ineligible for Olympic competition a few hours before the team was due to leave Minneapolis for New York and France.

They were Anders Haugen and Hans Hansen, of Minneapolis and Ragnar Omstedt, of Grand Beach, Mich.

The Technicolor process will be used in the production of this film.

MISS NORMAND HAS RELAPSE

Los Angeles, Jan. 11.—Mabel Normand, involved in the sensational shooting of Courland S. Dines at a New Year's party in Dines' apartment, suffered a severe relapse and was subjected to several seizures of hysteria.

Granites Defeat Abbies in Sensational Game at Arena

Canadian Olympic Team was Forced to Travel at Top Speed to Win Over the Abegweits of Charlottetown—Graceful and Skillful Exhibition of Fancy Skating.

Continuing their victorious march to Chamonix, France, where they will represent the Dominion in the International ice-hockey games on the 1924 Olympic schedule, the Canadian Olympic team, better known as the Granites, defeated the "Abbies," (Abegweits) Charlottetown, P. E. I., maritime hockey champions, to the tune of 4 to 1 at the arena last night.

The score by no means indicates a walkover for the Olympians. The only change in the line-up was McMunn substituting for McCafferty at right wing for the Granites. The latter player has been ordered rest by the doctor because a cut on his leg is not responding to treatment as it should.

As the only sub on the team he was used several times and each time put everything he had into the game and pulled off some beautiful shots.

The game throughout was hard fought and considered by the Granites as one of the hardest they have had since the commencement of the season.

Upon their return from Chamonix the Granites have promised to play the Abbies and it was announced that in view of the fact of several Granite players in the States.

The line-ups are as follows: Centre—McCabe; Goal—Morgan; Defence—Gordon, Watson, Probst; Forwards—McMunn, Smith, Kler; Substitutes—Galt, Williams, Moore.

ABBIES TO PLAY FAST LOCAL TEAM

Maritime Champions Will Meet St. John in Arena Tonight.

The big attraction in hockey circles this evening is the game between the Abegweits, champions of the Maritime Provinces and St. John. The Abbies by their splendid work last evening installed themselves as great favorites and a big crowd is expected to see them perform against the local team.

The Abbies expect to play in Moncton Saturday night and then will go on to Halifax to take on Crescents, Dartmouth and Wanderers on successive nights.

The line-up of the Abegweits and St. John, who will play in the arena tonight will be as follows:

SPITBALLERS ARE NOW DISAPPEARING

Only Eight "Moist" Pitchers in the Two Major Leagues.

Boston, Jan. 11.—Slowly but surely the knell of the spitalball pitcher is being sounded. One by one the freak deliveries have passed into the discard, and with the resignation of each veteran purveyor of the mole-bait ball into obscurity, ambitious batsmen take heart again. Maybe hitters may have their eyes on that coveted 300 mark won't care so much in the future if the powers that be finally decide to take away a lot of life from the official ball.

From the time that Bugs Raymond used to stand opposing batsmen literally on their heads with the erratic spitter, down through the seasons which Richard Buck O'Brien, Jimmy Morgan, Eddie Cloutie, George McConnell, Phil Douglas and the rest of the pitchers of that school used to keep the hitters backing away from the plate, efforts have been made from time to time to curb the activities of the spitters and drive them out of the big leagues.

Legislation first became effective when a ban was put upon the use of energy and pitchers forbidden to "rough" the ball. But this was not far-reaching enough and pitchers who could not deliver kept this cause continual grumbling.

Finally, in order to lessen this cause of dissatisfaction and cater to the popular demand for increased batting, the baseball commissioners decided that only those spitalballs who were in the big leagues at the time this new rule was passed would be allowed to continue the use of the mole-bait delivery.

This meant that the spitalball would die with the pitchers who were using it at that time, and that spitalballs were resorting to its use would have to discard the delivery if they ever hoped to climb into the majors.

When this rule was put into operation a few seasons back there was almost a score of spitalballers in the majors. Their number has been decreased since by more than half.

Cloutie, who used to use the knuckle ball spitter, made his exit from baseball on the wings of the White Sox scandal. Douglas was afterwards forced to retire from baseball on account of interfering in the two latter cases when it was clear as day that someone was "going to get them."

In the future, Cloutie Talt, the Canadian lightweight champion, made short work of Willie Gradwell of Somerville, despite all of the latter's game, and that is the way of the world.

At the end of the fourth round after Gradwell had taken a dozen or so wacks on the chin that had him dizzy, the referee called a halt and pointed to Talt. It was just as well that he did so as the fan didn't want to see the referee called a halt and pointed to Talt. It was just as well that he did so as the fan didn't want to see the referee called a halt and pointed to Talt.

The Cleveland Indians possess a great spitalball pitcher in Stanley Coveleskie, a time-worn veteran, but going strong in spite of his years. He is Faber of the White Sox, who uses the payroll up to a few weeks ago, but when Dana Fillingim was banished to Beaumont, Tex., the Indians were not so fortunate as to have a pitcher to replace him.

The Cardinals have a spitalball pitcher, old Bill Dool, Burleigh Grimes still hurls the knuckle ball and the Philadelphia Quakers possess the only left hand spitter in captivity, Clarence Mitchell.

Outside of Shocker, the greatest of the dwindling array is Alan Russell, practically a Red Sox discard a year ago and only saved from banishment to the minors through a club in one of the organizations refusing to accept him in trade.

Russell was the big relief pitcher of the Washington team last season. He saved more games than any other pitcher in the Ben Johnson organization and to buy him from Clark Griffith would have any club would have to hand over a sum that would make a few of these recent purchases of minor league stars suffer by comparison.

MINYRE MATCHED

According to the Portland newspaper, Sailor Byron of Worcester, Mass., New England's greatest spitalball pitcher, will meet Johnny McIntyre in the main bout of the Eastern Athletic Club show at the Exposition Building, Jan. 15. On paper at least, it looks as though Loring had hooked up one of the sensational bouts of the year. In defeating Johnny Podak several weeks ago, McIntyre showed that he was in top form. As the fact was that he had never been knocked out by any other pitcher in the past, his record was not too bad.

McIntyre was a spitalball pitcher in the past, but he has since changed his style and now pitches a fast ball. He is a former member of the Boston team and has been a member of several other clubs.

GALLI-CURCI TELLS SOMETHING OF ART

Says Suavec River One of Most Beautiful of Folk Songs.

New York, Jan. 11.—Mrs. Amelita Galli-Curci, just from Chicago, told something about the Chicago Opera and much about her art. There was not much to be said about the former, in her opinion, because it no longer exists to her. But her art? "That is different. Let us see."

The singer had not had time to unpack her trunk. But she was calm and composed. The opera she dismisses quickly. Of course, she thought it was poorly managed and that was the entire trouble so far as she was concerned. She was perfectly willing as a star, to give if she could receive in return. But she had been treated like an employe.

"I have sweated for my success," she continued, with a hint of determination and sternness. "I have sweated for me from the clouds like spaghetti."

There was a simple sincerity in her manner as she said this.

A woman reporter asked if Madame did not think it strange that Americans should be "art worshippers," as the singer intimated.

Mrs. Galli Curci looked grave, wrinkled her brow and puckered her lips, then answered:

"Nature is not democratic. It gives a great talent to one, neglects to give any to another. Let present one man wealth a superb physique, yet makes another man an incurable cripple."

Mrs. Galli Curci thinks that America is experiencing a renaissance in all the arts. More great American singers are appearing constantly, she says. Italians make more responsive audiences, but Americans are doing so well as greatly as the people of any other nation. "Let us merely a deference on the outside," she explained, "but inside it is the same. I have an American husband. Ha, ha, I know."

Madame likes concert singing in the praise of American folk music, and doesn't hesitate to say that "Suavec River" is one of the most beautiful folk melodies ever written.

She practices half an hour every morning, and daren't practice more, "for the voice," she says, "is not like a violin. It has only two strings that cannot be replaced. My voice is me."

Helen of Troy, N. Y. Gets Into Courts

New York, Jan. 11.—Suit has been filed in the Supreme Court by Elaine Carrington, authoress, to prevent the production of the comedy "Helen of Troy, New York," and to receive royalties paid on the play since its opening early in the season on the ground that she wrote the original manuscript, which was turned over without her knowledge to George S. Kaufman and Marc Connelly for adaptation. One of the defendants is Julia Chandler, a play broker, who is accused of having given a copy of the play to Rufus Le Maire and George Jessel, who in turn submitted it to Connelly and Kaufman.

AUTHOR MIGHT HAVE HAD HOMELY GIRL IN MIND—BUT NOT IN MOVIES

(By Jack Jungmeyer.)

Hollywood.—Truth, at times, is even stranger than present action. Witness the case of Miss Glen Walters, the sage of a homely girl's day in pictures.

Miss Walters has gone back into that obscurely when she emerged for her hour in the films. In the faint opinion of producers she will never be famous. But, because of singular effort to realize her ambition, she deserves her moment in the spotlight.

MISS GLEN WALTERS.

Four years she waited. Then, a few days ago, at the United Studios where Richard Walton Tully is filming the Beach novel for First National the tall Texas girl gained admittance. Her family had brought her by auto from the Lone Star oil fields to have her chance in the picture.

"I am Glen Walters," she announced to Tully. "I have come to play 'Allegory Briskow' in your picture. 'Ma made me a riding suit, too,' she confided eagerly. "But I'm so big I hate to wear it out here until I was sure of the part."

St. Peter's Singers Give Excellent Performance in Auditorium.

R., was the able director. Throughout the performance the chorus work was excellent, while the Liguorant Ladies' Orchestra was an excellent feature of the entertainment.

REINSTATEMENT REFUSED

Cases of Athletes Dealt With by Maritime Registration Committee. A meeting of the executive and registration committee of the Maritime Branch of the A. A. U. of C. was held in the Victoria Hotel last evening. A. W. Corey presiding. Seven applications were received asking for reinstatement from the following athletes: Blair Carroll of Moncton, Fred Chapman and Irving Bickerton of Amherst, J. A. Payne of St. John, Charles Campbell, Don Patterson and Jos. P. McCarthy of Sydney. After their cases had been investigated it was decided to place them in class A professionals and their applications were denied.

Alvin Smith, formerly of Pictou, applied for registration with Truro, but this was stood over until more information as to his residence can be secured. C. A. Creighton, who was registered in Sydney for four years, and who went to Dartmouth about September, asked to be permitted to play with the Dartmouth Club, but as the residence clause specifies August the application was not granted. A case of Pettis, of Truro, who has been in Boston and who applied for a card was set aside until more information can be secured as to his residence in the Hub. The cases of Wigmore and Smith, who were registered in Kentville and who were formerly members of the Windsor championship team and who are now in Boston, were also set aside until more information can be secured about their movements.

With reference to the Morton Thompson hockey trophy, the secretary was instructed to notify the trustees that the Maritime Branch of the A. A. U. of C. would no longer consider this trophy emblematic of the championship of the Maritime Provinces and that another will be secured. In explanation, President Corey said that the trophy was put up for competition by the late Morton Thompson in 1920 and following his death it was placed in the hands of three trustees. As one of the trustees in Halifax did not meet the wishes of the branch it was decided to make other arrangements.
