Refugees at Shanghai Declare That Manchus were Killed Wherever Found—A Ghastly Blot on the Reputation of the Revolutionaries

(Canadian Press)

Shanghai, China, Oct. 19.—Six packed steamers arrived here from Hankow today, carrying refugees. Most of the fugitives were Russians, employed in the factories and Belgian iron workers employed in the steel works, the Han Yang arsenal and on the Peking-Hankow railway.

The refugees declare that the whole Yang Tse valley from Hankow to Shanghai is in the hands of the rebels with the possible exception of one or two of the larger cities to which provincial officials have retreated with their available troops. It has been insisted that here, that Kia Kiang, 130 miles below Hankow, is under revolutionary control. This is denied, however, by foreign officials and by the representatives of the Chinese customs service.

Accounts of the revolutionary attack on Wu Chan as given by the refugees tend to emphasize particularly the massacre of the Manchus in that city. In the slaughter neither age nor sex was regarded and it is doubtful, the refugees say, whether a single representative of the Manchus was left alive there. Similar slaughter of the Manchus followed in Hankow and Hsin Yang, when these cities fell.

A Ghastly Blot

Copies of the general China post which arrived on the Helgavia described the early progress of the revolutionary movement. An editorial article comments at length on the manner in which the revolution was conducted. "The movement commands the admiration of all parties," says the editorial. "The leaders displayed secrecy, promptitude and thoroughness, qualities seldom shown by the governing classes in China. But the massacre of the Manchus in our three cities, is a ghastly blot on the reputation of the revolutionaries."

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 19.—That the revolution in China, whether successful or not, is liable to involve the other powers of the world, in a conflict, proposed peace treaties notwithstanding, is the opinion of Rear Admiral R. D. Evans, U. S. A., retired, who is now in Los Angeles. "It is probable," said the admiral, "that this revolution will prove to be the beginning of the end of the Chinese Empire. Just as the taking of Tripoli by Italy is in all probability the beginning of the end of the Ottoman empire. It is difficult at this stage to forecast just what turn the affair will take. I believe the revolution will fall for this very reason."

Several departmental reports and addresses were presented at the N. B. Sunday School Convention this morning. The devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. J. T. Tucker, of the Congregational Church. Rev. Dr. McEwen, conducting the teachers' conference, drew out many opinions regarding the difficulties of home study, the spiritual application of a lesson, non-attendance and the problem of the class of mixed ages. He said that teaching was a matter of personality.

Mrs. W. A. Ross, superintendent, reported for the elementary department. About 350, or one-half of the schools of the province, were reported, through the general secretaries' system. The following statistics were indicated by the partial returns: Sixty cradle rolls; forty-two beginners' classes, 1,288; primary, 2,511; juniors, 2,476; making a total enrollment of 6,881.

The report is so incomplete as to render comparison with last year's impossible, but a steady growth is indicated. An effort will be made to arrange graded unions in all the larger centres.

NEW DREDGING COMPANY Has Acquired Plant of Maritime Dredging Company—Dredging Resumed on Order From Ottawa—M. W. Doherty to Manage the New Concern

Dredging operations were resumed in St. John harbor this morning on the order of the Maritime Dredging Company, which was reorganized under the new company name.

The old inspectors of dredging have been replaced by new men, and so far as could be ascertained today, the experience of the old inspectors will be retained in their old positions.

Citizens are asking this morning whether or not the resumption of dredging means a decision on the part of the new government to go forward with the development of the harbor.

A definite announcement from Mr. Borden or Mr. Hazen is thought desirable by every one and is awaited with considerable interest.

acted as probably all would have done and as has been done since the time of Adam and Eve. The outraged husband, losing his head, after a scuffle the shoot of the man, Bragdon, was perfect right to shoot him. This was good law and in the interests of morality and the home the jury should grant justice.

Hon. Mr. McLeod said a human life had been taken. Was there willful murder, was the man who was the prisoner justified by law and by right? There was no question that McCluskey was killed by the prisoner. There was not a title of evidence that showed that there was an illicit connection between Mrs. Bragdon and the prisoner.

ITALIAN LOSSES CONSIDERABLE

Not Having It All Their Own Way At Tripoli

NEWS ESCAPES CENSOR

(Canadian Press)

Berlin, Oct. 19.—Edward Mynold, an experienced and reliable correspondent of the Zeitung Am Mittag, cabling his paper from Jerba, an island belonging to Tunis and a point where he escaped the Italian censors, says that the Italian losses in the night skirmishes in Tripoli are considerable and that the Italian assertions that the Turks and Arabs are discouraged and intended to surrender, are pure humbug.

Mynold adds that 20,000 Italian troops have been landed on the Tripolitan coast. The chamber adjourned until today. At the secret session of the chamber, the grand vizier simply gave an historical sketch of the relations between Italy and Turkey as well as a review of the present conflict. From official documents already made public and although he was repeatedly questioned with regard to the government's intention, he refused to reply on the ground that grave national interests were involved.

Constantinople, Oct. 19.—The chamber of Deputies met yesterday in both ordinary and secret session, but no new light was thrown upon the government's intention regarding the war with Italy. The grand vizier's statement at the public session was vague and unsatisfactory, while that at the secret session was no more illuminating. The chamber adjourned until today.

CENSUS REVIVES RIVALRY OF CITIES IN THE WEST

Saskatoon and Moosejaw Displeased Because of Advance Over Them Which Figures Give Regina—Ottawa Not Satisfied

(Canadian Press)

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 19.—A feeling of disappointment is prevalent in the cities and towns of the west, arising from the low rate of population accorded them by the census. Regina is showing a gain of 100,000 in the last ten years and is leading her provincial rivals. Saskatoon and Moosejaw feel that they have been hardly dealt with, being placed lower in the list than Regina. Calgary and Edmonton are strong in their retort of the accuracy of the figures, while other towns in the west also dissent, their respective enumerations. Practically all affirm that the census in their particular district was taken in an

THE MURDER CASE HEARD TO JURY

(Special to Times)

Woodsboro, N. B., Oct. 19.—The Bragdon murder trial was resumed at 10 o'clock. Mr. Carvell addressed the jury for one hour and forty minutes. Hon. Mr. McLeod started his address at 11.40 and closed at 12.30. The judge then began charging the jury at 1.20, when court adjourned. His Honor had not concluded. Mr. Carvell said that there was no doubt that Woodman McCluskey met his death in the yard of Bragdon's house. There was a mass of evidence to show that McCluskey had been intimate with Bragdon's wife. Bragdon repeatedly warned McCluskey to keep away, telling him that he was making home a hell upon earth. McCluskey promised but never kept his promise. Bragdon not only knew that he was making home a hell, but he would get hurt if he continued these visits. Mrs. Bragdon did not expect her husband home that night. McCluskey did not expect him home. If he had not arrived, McCluskey would have remained at the Bragdon home that night. Bragdon

MICHIGAN MARSHAL CROSSES TO CANADA, GETS PRISONER AND RETURNS

(Canadian Press)

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 19.—(Canadian Press) Extradition laws were set at naught yesterday by the marshal of Alcona village on the St. Clair river, 35 miles from Detroit, when he forced a prisoner captured in Canada, into a boat and brought him to American soil.

After shooting and seriously wounding a patrolman in Detroit, on Sunday night, Joseph Moulton, a negro, made his escape from the Michigan State Penitentiary. There he was recognized by the local authorities, who were reluctant to attempt an arrest because of the reputation the negro had as a "gunman." Moulton was hurriedly summoned from Alcona, and he located Moulton in a grocery store where he was eating a lunch.

"We want you," said Gray, striding up to the negro. "All rights replied the fugitive, "but I won't leave Canada." "Oh, yes, you will," declared the marshal and he hustled Moulton into a boat and took him to the American side.

BRITAIN THE LAND OF SPORTS

Football Association Controls Over 14,000 Clubs and Over 20,000 Referees. (Boston Transcript.) When the average citizen reads that any baseball game in the world's series will probably be witnessed by 25,000 persons and that as many as 50,000 may try to fight their way into the park if the contest is close, we hasten to conclude that these figures will establish a record for attendance upon popular pastimes. That is an error which would be dispelled by a study of the situation in the Mother Country, where more than 10,000 persons have paid admission to the Crystal Palace in London to see a football game. And again our pride in the number of our baseball clubs would experience a fall if we risked a comparison with the force engaged in one of the national games of Great Britain. The Football Association, of which the king is patron, has jurisdiction over 14,000 clubs, having a membership of three-quarters of a million, and over about 20,000 referees. It is the court of last resort for amateur as well as professional clubs, controlling all but school and college teams. And this year, as an incident of its activities, it is supervising five hundred "important" leagues, some of them composed of as many as forty clubs, and playing scheduled series of games through a season which lasts nearly nine months. Such statistics seem less impressive, however, when one goes below the surface a little and realizes that the attempt to apply hard-and-fast rules to both professional and amateur clubs involves serious structural weaknesses. Most of the professional clubs are managed by corporations, the stockholders in which are forbidden to receive more than five per cent on their investment; but, two years ago, one of the clubs is known to have cleared $100,000 on its season, and since only $200 was ostensibly paid in stock dividends, it became an interesting question where the money went. Again, there was formerly a maximum salary rule forbidding players to receive more than four pounds a week; but some players were paid five times that sum, and the rule was finally abrogated a year ago, so that it was found that certain clubs had devised a system of cheating at the turnstiles, so that their books should not show that they had violated their agreement.

The sisters are: Miss Sadie P., and Miss Dorothy W., of this city. Mr. Brown was a member of the Elks and in that order and among a wide circle of friends he was very popular. His early death will be deeply regretted.

SUCCESSFUL CLIMBING SCHEME

Miss Annie S. Peck, the mountain climber, described in one of her addresses in Boston on mountaineering the strange effect that some mountains have on some men.

"In a word," she said, "it is an effect of mendacity. Thus, in a Boston club, one mountaineer said to another: 'So Smith, fat Smith, actually climbed Mont Blanc?'"

"Smith? Not he!" the other mountaineer replied.

"But he said he did."

"True. But in September on his return from Chamouni he only said 'had' here to the foot of Mont Blanc. Since then he's gradually led himself all the way up to the top."

Acadia Institutions ENJOYING SUCCESSFUL YEAR, SAYS PRESIDENT Not Quite So Strong at Football, But Members Have Greatly Increased - Presented Historical Document While in St. John. Dr. George H. Catten, president of Acadia University, who is in the city attending the New Brunswick Provincial Sunday School Association, said last evening that the Wolfville institution was enjoying the most successful year in its career. The freshmen class, which numbered eighty-four, was the largest in its history and it is expected that the total registration would be larger than last year, which was considered to be a record breaker. Another encouraging feature was the fact that the senior class numbered forty-six, and it looked as though the record of 1891, which saw forty-three graduated from the university, would be broken. Two new professors were added to the teaching staff this year. They are Prof. Thompson, who is in charge of the Latin department, and Prof. Siddle, who is in charge of the department of theology. In athletic circles this year, he said, he did not expect the university to measure up to their former high standard, the football team especially being rather weak. As the season advanced, however, he said, some dark horses might be discovered among the new material and things might turn out better.

The Evening Times and Star

ST. JOHN, N. B., OCTOBER 19, 1911.

COME UP OUT OF THE CELLAR

The sure-enough optimist is still an optimist on a rainy day. It is a fine thing to be hopeful on a fine day, but it is much better to be breezily confident on a grey morning.

With these few remarks about optimism and the weather, we propose to take a sly at St. John's position in the light of the discouraging census figures just made public.

The Times believes St. John is a larger city than the census men say it is, and that a workmanlike test of three or four scattered wards will prove that this view is correct. Moreover, it would be of real public value to know just what the population is, for the purpose of getting a sort of starting point from which to go forward with definite purpose.

But, mark you, while the census figures as published are discouraging, this is no time to be discouraged. We cannot afford it, for one thing, and for another, there is very little solid ground to excuse discouragement.

Census or no census, St. John is a bigger, better, more progressive, more aggressive, more hopeful, more comfortable place to live in than it ever was before.

Further, there is today in this city a ripening conviction that St. John has turned the corner at the end of the long lane, or is about to turn it, provided active and patriotic citizens will sink party differences for the common purpose of considering how we shall secure the benefits of the very great advantages which this port, this city, and this province, have in relation to transportation, immigration, manufacturing, and other matters upon which material progress is largely based.

Later we must all look in the face the real bearing of reciprocity upon our prospects. For the moment, let that go.

Politics gone mad might still deprive us of the improvements we expected to derive from the coming here of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. Politics, if grand, will assist us in preparing the port for the coming of this new Transatlantic, remembering the sage advice given to us by President Hayes, who said that, however, we may lustle the work of preparation, the freight would overwhelm us when it did begin to pour in from the West.

This is the natural point at which a transatlantic railway managed upon business principles must tap Atlantic tide water. Freight is governed by the short haul, if the short haul be the cheap one, and in this case St. John represents the natural objective for winter freight because the haul to tide water here is beyond dispute the shortest and the cheapest.

We must remember that preparation for the coming of the G. T. P. should mean preparation for the coming of the Canadian Northern a little later, and for the opening up of the St. John Valley road in the interval.

These are circumstances—and we have not attempted to name more than a few, though there are many more—which should not be altered by political considerations, because they are governed by national business principles, and St. John's position in relation to them cannot be changed except through rank political injustice.

Now, it may be true that in point of population, St. John has not made the progress we might naturally have expected. If that be true, we should know it, and, as desiring a point of departure, we should know also exactly what our population is. But we want these facts, not to lament over them, but to stiffen our determination to go forward along certain lines, most of which are plain before us today.

Let no man believe that the census figures will shake the faith of the average man in the future of this city; and let no man forget that the faith of the average man in St. John is much larger and more militant than it was fifteen or twenty years ago, or even five.

We have in St. John, unfortunately, a few gifted individuals who lose no opportunity to sneer at the mention of progress, and to remind us how much talk there has been about expansion, and how little progress we have made along that shining pathway. This company of commentators is a diminishing one, and it is beginning to speak more shamefacedly than it did some years ago. Just as we have growlers and pessimists, so also we have visionaries; but while we say to the visionaries, "Come down out of the clouds," so we say to the blue-ribbon gentlemen, "Come up out of the cellar, into the sunshine."

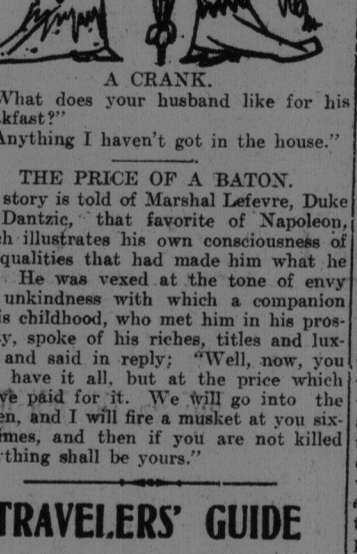

The census, whatever the truth about it may be, cannot take from us the fact that in almost every respect of importance St. John is in a much better position than it was ten years ago. This is true as to matters accomplished, and it is doubly true with regard to the outlook for the future.

Again we say to the great company of hopeful citizens who have faith in St. John, "The word is Forward!"

Afraid of Ghosts

Many people are afraid of ghosts. Few people are afraid of germs. Yet the ghost is a fancy and the germ is a fact. If the germ could be magnified to a size equal to its terrors it would appear most terrible than any fire-breathing dragon. Germs can't be avoided. They are in the air we breathe, in the water we drink.

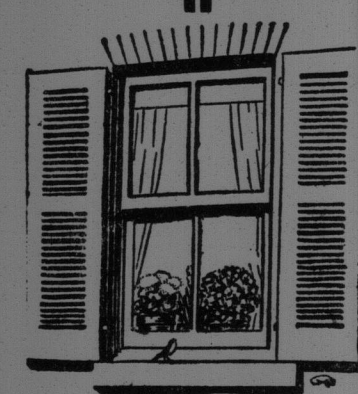

The germ can only prosper when in a condition of the system gives it free scope to establish itself and develop. When there is a deficiency of vital force, languor, restlessness, a sallid complexion, a hollow eye, when the appetite is poor and the sleep is broken, it is time to guard against the germ. You can fortify the body against all germs by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It increases the vital power, cleanses the system of clogging impurities, enriches the blood, puts the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition in working condition, so that the germ finds no weak or tainted spot in which to breed. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whisky or habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients printed on its outside wrapper. It is not a secret nostrum but a medicine of known composition and with a record of 40 years of cures. Accept no substitute—there is nothing "just as good." Ask your neighbors.

IS IN FAVOR AFTER EXILE OF TWO YEARS

The Man Selected to Put Down Rebellion in Chinese Provinces

HIS DISMISSAL

An Interesting Story Attaches to the Official Life of Yuan Shi Kai—British Minister Was in Favor of His Recall

Peking, Oct. 19.—Acceptance of the office of viceroy of Hu Pei makes Yuan Shi Kai's appointment a military one, his duty being to fight for possession of the provincial throne, and make it secure by restoring order in the two large provinces of Hu Pei and Hunan. It is reliably stated that Yuan Shi Kai demanded permission to raise his own division of 10,000 troops and also to cash a personal grant of $300,000 (2,000,000). To this humiliation the regent agreed.

After an eventful career in international relations under Li Hung Chang covering fifteen years, Yuan Shi Kai, on January 2, 1909, was dismissed, ordered to vacate all his offices and return home. When the axe fell he sent his family to the foreign quarter in Tien Tsin and fled to the same place immediately after. The prince regent deprecating the effect of this event on the world sent a special message to Tien Tsin to reassure him. He returned via Peking to his family home at Wei Hutu Fu in Honan. In three days he had disappeared and in a week was lost completely to Oriental affairs and until now has lived there a country gentleman, interesting himself in local improvement.

His Dismissal

Yuan Shi Kai was dismissed following the death of his sovereign protector, the late empress dowager, because he was an obstacle to the reappointment of imperial patronage and power for the benefit of the numerous princes and members of the prince regent's family, and that of the new empress dowager. His record at the time of the coup d'etat of 1908 when he sided with the empress dowager against Kuang Hsu, her so-called puppet emperor, was used against him. It is not generally known that his paramount idea upon the death of the empress dowager and emperor was the refusal of court practices, the abolition of eunuchs and female influences in the palace, rescue of the boy emperor and his education under strict lines.

His dismissal was called the unadvised joint act of a hysterical widow, Kanghsi's empress, and an irresolute regent Prince Chan. The latter flung the edict of dismissal on the council table for approval without chance of debate. The principal ministers, Prince Ching and Chang Chih Tung, hearing of the regent's intention, and disapproving of it had absented themselves. The sweeping aside of the grand council showed Yuan Shi Kai's party back of the British and American ministers, together with W. W. Rockhill, the American minister on January 15, 1909, jointly made formal representations to China necessitating a declaration of policy by the regency, which Prince Ching gave. Yuan Shi Kai was given the benefit of ambly by the British and American authorities, who feared for his life and who since that time have not failed to let China know that they looked for his recall.

Yuan Shi Kai's consent to return to office comes after refusal of government overtures made on at least two occasions. The most important effort to coax him back occurred in 1910, when the government appointed Tang Shao Yi president of a board in Peking as a conciliatory measure and sent him to Wei Hutu Fu to appeal to Yuan to join in arranging railway and currency loans and pacification of the opponents of the government's policy of industrial development by use of foreign loans. He agreed to come back if the regent would guarantee that there would be no interference by the imperial family, the court and intriguing politicians. The regent could not give the guarantee and Yuan remained at home. Tang Shao Yi thereupon resigned out of loyalty to his chief.

DOUGHNUTS WITHOUT EGGS.

MARY ANDERSON IS AGAIN IN NEW YORK

Noted Actress to Assist in Production of the Garden of Allah

New York, Oct. 19.—Mary Anderson de Navarro, late viceroy of Manchuria, is here to assist in the rehearsals of "The Garden of Allah," in the dramatic production of which she collaborated with the author, Robert Hichins. With her are her husband, Antonio de Navarro, and his brother, Alfonso.

Mme. de Navarro said that her only object in coming to America this time was to see the first performance of the play in which she has taken so much interest.

DECLARE STOLYPIN VICTIM OF POLICE

Amazing Revelations as to Secret Organization—Record of Assassin

St. Petersburg, Oct. 18.—Russia at present has no interest in anything except the extraordinary evidence before the commission presided over by Senator Trosskevitch which is making an inquiry into the assassination of Premier Stolypin in the Municipal Theatre at Kiev a month ago.

The correspondence of leading members of the Okhrana, or third division of the secret police, shows that they had divided among themselves heretofore posts in the new regime before Stolypin went to Kiev. Referring to Stolypin's "expected departure," the correspondence shows that Bogroff, the assassin, was alone assigned to his protection. Bogroff's record showing that he had betrayed sixty revolutionists in the last five years. Six of these were hanged and 23 were sentenced to penal servitude for life.

The hostility of the Okhrana to Stolypin had been bitter since over a year ago, when he insisted that they should make an accounting for their expenditures. When Stolypin heard that his murder had been arranged in St. Petersburg he said to his adjutant: "If I am murdered it will be by a police agent."

HALIFAX WHARF WORK STOPPED; DELAY DECLARED COSTLY

(Halifax Chronicle)

The Nova Scotia Construction Co. has as yet received no word from Ottawa to resume work on the new piers at Deep Water Wharf. The order to stop the work was received last Friday and since then there has been nothing done. Every day's delay will be costly to Halifax as a shipping port. Already the present facilities at Deep Water are being severely taxed in the handling of the traffic.

The extraordinary large apple crop in the Annapolis Valley this year in itself is the cause of a great increase in the amount of freight and in addition to the apples, there is also more goods in other lines moving. The traffic at present is a great deal heavier than it usually is at this season of the year, and when the winter season opens next month the railway officials will have a problem to solve in the handling of the traffic.

SOME TOMBSTONE LINES

A stone in the graveyard of Logie-Pert bears this inscription—

Here lies Tammas Gowk,
His father and his miller,
Jock and Jean and Will and Kate,
And 'a' the Gowks together.

A tombstone in another cemetery recorded the death—by name—of a father and mother, their three sons and two daughters, and the inscription concluded with: "All the family repose here in the full hope of a glorious immortality—all except John." This seems rather rough on John, but it simply means, of course, that John was still alive.

There is in the churchyard of St. Fergus this very touching epitaph, evidently written by a young man on his parents—

They were, but language fails
To utter what
Think then, what parents should be,
They were that.

In the churchyard of Old Deer, Aberdeenshire, there is the following over the grave of a soldier—

I'm billeted here by death,
And here I shall remain
Until the battle sounds,
When I'll rise and march again.

In Ellon Churchyard are these lines—
Here lies my wife in earthly mould,
Who when she lived did naught but scold;
Peace, while her not, for now she's still,
She had, but now I have my will.

In the old churchyard of Peterhead the wanderer can read the following—
Sixteen years I was a maid,
One year a married wife;
One half-hour I was a nither,
And then departed life.

Six minutes is all the time required for brewing Red Rose Tea, and the result is a beverage of matchless flavor and satisfying strength. The verdict of your family will be that

RED ROSE TEA is good tea.

A Late Judge of United States Supreme Court Noted for His Dissenting Judgments

ROGERS AND OLIVER AND MR. SIFTON

They Meet in Ottawa But History Silent as to Their Talk

ROYAL COMMISSION

Borden to Have Inquiry Into Methods of Large Spending Departments—Some Census Observations—Who Will be Head of the Transcontinental Commission?

Ottawa, Oct. 18.—There was a unique gathering in the office of the new minister of the interior, Hon. Robert Rogers, yesterday morning. Hon. Frank Oliver, who is in the city, preparatory to going with his family to Edmonton, where he will reside, called at his former office in the Langevin block to exchange the amenities of defeat and victory with his successor, the Honourable "Bob."

At the same time it chanced that Hon. Clifford Sifton also called to discuss a few matters with his political foe and recent political ally. All three met in the same room. All have a sense of humor and all smiled and exchanged mutual felicitations. History is silent as to just what was said during the fifteen minutes they remained together.

Premier Borden will, it is understood, now carry out the plan, repeatedly advocated by the Conservatives in opposition, having a comprehensive and thorough inquiry by a royal commission made into the business methods and general administration of all the large spending departments of the government.

The personnel of this commission has not yet been considered, but it will be appointed before long to conduct an investigation similar to that undertaken three years ago by the Laurier government into the affairs of the marine department. The task of the commission will be a long and arduous one, and its report will carry more weight than any recommendations as to desirable changes in the methods of bookkeeping, as to possible economies, etc., will hardly be ready before the beginning of next autumn's session of parliament.

Eastern Canada's Growth.
A significant feature of the census figures from eastern Canada is that the growth in population, except in New Ontario, has been almost exclusively confined to the industrial centres. The rural population, especially in the older settled districts, has fallen off to a considerable extent, although at the same time the value of the annual output of the farms has very largely increased.

Correspondingly also with the growth of the industrial centres the manufacturing output of the dominion shows a phenomenal increase and indeed considerably surpasses in aggregate value, the aggregate returns of the farmers of Canada.

Detailed figures showing the growth of the various industries and the relative urban and rural populations will be issued in a later census bulletin.
Tait for G. T. P. Commission?
Sir Thomas Tait, formerly a high official of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and recently resigned as superintendent of the Canadian government railways, has been in Ottawa for the past two or three days and has been in consultation with the government.

It is understood that the question of securing his services either as head of the national transcontinental commission, in succession to Hon. S. N. Parent, or as an expert adviser on the management of the Hudson Bay Railway, now in course of construction, is being considered by the government.

Hon. Mr. Parent's resignation has not yet been accepted by the government, but a new appointment will have to be made soon. The appointment of Sir Thomas Tait, at a salary of perhaps $20,000 per year, might meet the requirements advocated by Mr. Borden when in opposition, namely that eminent and disinterested experts should be in charge of the government's railway undertakings.

On the other hand, it is stated that Hon. John Haggart, ex-minister of rail-
DISTRESS FROM INDIGESTION
Tried in Vain to Get a Cure—All Medicines Failed
Old Trouble Disappeared When the Liver and Bowels Were Set Right by

DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS
You cannot eat, the stomach is confined to the stomach. It is not a case of the liver and bowels, and it is not a case of the stomach being clogged up with food. You can ever hope to cure chronic indigestion. Here are two cases referred to by Mr. Skinner which tell of continued failure to cure indigestion by doctors. The stomachs were cured thoroughly by using Dr. Chase's Kidney Liver Pills.
Mr. A. C. Skinner, Atlantic street, Hardwoodville, Sydney, C. B., writes: "My wife was troubled with indigestion and tried all sorts of medicines in vain. I got her to try them, and to our great delight she was cured. We would not think of being without them in the house for use when the liver and bowels became clogged up."
"I told a friend about them and gave him a box. He had suffered from indigestion for years and tried most everything he could get. Dr. Chase's Kidney Liver Pills were also successful in his case and he says they beat any medicine he ever came across."

FIVE DOCTORS GAVE UP ALL HOPE

Said she Would Die of Kidney Trouble

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" CURED HER

Mountain, Oct. 14th, 1910.
"For six years, I suffered from dreadful Kidney Disease. My back and lower part of my body were very swollen, and the pain was awful. My people thought sometimes I was dead, as I was faint from the agony. Five different doctors attended me, and all said it was kidney trouble and gave me no hope of getting well. A kind neighbor told me to try 'Fruit-a-tives' and mentioned the case of Mrs. Fenwick, who was cured by them. I took 'Fruit-a-tives'—and in a short time, I began to feel better, the swelling went down, the pain in my back, and then 'Fruit-a-tives' cured me. All my friends look upon my recovery as a miracle, and I am unable to praise 'Fruit-a-tives' enough."

(Mrs) MAGGIE JANNACK.
"Fruit-a-tives" is the most scientific remedy ever discovered for Irritation or Congestion of the Kidneys, frequent Pain in the Back, and Swollen Limbs. 25c a box for $2.50, or trial size, 25c. At all dealers or from Fruit-a-tives, Limited, Ottawa.

ways, is an applicant for Mr. Parent's position and his claims for some recognition under the new administration have weight with Mr. Borden. Mr. Haggart is willing to give up his seat in the Senate to Hon. W. J. White, but the quiet pro quo has apparently not yet been fully settled. Possibly the promise of a senatorship may suffice.

David Henderson, member for Halifax, arrived this morning and interviewed Premier Borden, but no information was vouchsafed as to whether Mr. Henderson would resign to provide Mr. White with a seat. Mr. Henderson will get a senatorship after a while, but just at present there are no Ontario vacancies.

COUGHING BURSTS BLOOD VESSEL

Says Danger Avoided and Cures Coughs in 5 Hours.

A writer for the medical press states that coughing is responsible for the bursting of blood vessels quite frequently. A cough or cold means inflammation (fever), and congestion, and these in turn indicate that the body is full of toxins and waste matter. Simple relief is found in patent cough medicines, as a cough often results in more harm than so many other ailments, and it is a serious cause of more congestion. A cough which is accompanied by a fever, and here follows a pneumonia which is a very serious disease, and often fatal. The famous for its prompt relief and thorough cures. It rids the system of the cause, except it be caused by a virus, and it waits for consumption to grasp its victims, but begins this treatment which cures some in five hours. Mix in half a cup of warm water one ounce of the essence, and three cups of syrup white wine compound. Take twenty drops every half hour for four hours, then one-half to one teaspoonful three or four times a day. Give children less according to age.

WHY HESITATE?

I am so positive my remedy will completely relieve constipation, no matter how long it may be, that I offer to furnish it free of all cost if it fails.

I want you to try my Remedy on the body, and are particularly good for children. They seem to act promptly on the nerves and muscles of the large intestine. They have a neutral action on the other organs. They do not irritate or cause other inconvenience. C. P. R. REPORT ON FRUIT CROP ON THE PACIFIC

Montreal, Oct. 19.—The C. P. R. reports that the apple crop of British Columbia will be about a two-third yield. Peaches are a failure with the exception of Penikese, B.C., where some fair shipments will be made. Cherries have been a good crop in the Kootenays, plums and prunes are fair and apricots have proved a very regular crop. One grower in Penikese, gathered 3,400 pounds of apricots from 100 trees. After paying the cost of picking, packing and packing he realized a net profit of 8 cents a pound or $434.00 for his crop.
The fruit shipment from the Okanagan Valley for the season will be about 300 cars. The amount of land under cultivation in British Columbia devoted exclusively to fruit represents 140,000 acres or an investment of easily forty million dollars. One million acres of land is still available for fruit culture. Of the lands under cultivation only fifteen per cent. are yet bearing, so that a yearly production of 7,000 cars can be looked for when all the present orchards are producing.

FATHER AWAKES TO FIND HIS SON AS A BURGLAR

Boston, Oct. 18.—Awakening from sleep and recognizing a burglar who had broken into his house and was rifling his clothes as his own son, Charles C. Combs, a former police officer of Malden, chased the man in the street in an endeavor to capture him last night and falling, swore out a complaint and appeared against him in the Malden police court today.
The father told the court that the young man, William Combs, who is twenty-four years old, had been the black sheep of the family. Although the son denied that he was in his father's house last night, the older Combs maintained that he was not mistaken in his identification, and William was held in $2,000 bail for the grand jury.

THE DUKE'S SMILE

The new governor-general is evidently highly pleased at the reception accorded him. Somebody complained when he was coming out that Canada was not doing enough to honor the coming out of a royal governor-general. In the picture His Excellency evidently does not agree with the critics. It was snapped at Ottawa on Saturday.

CARDINAL GIBBONS COMMENDS HOLY NAME SOCIETIES

Baltimore, Oct. 18.—Cardinal Gibbons who spoke very briefly at the national congress of the Holy Name Society told the delegates that he did not know of any society in the United States that has commended itself more to the American people in large than the Society of the Holy Name.
Mgr. Falconio, the Apostolic delegate, read a letter from Cardinal Merry del Val, the papal secretary of state transmitting the Pope's approval of the congress and the apostolic benediction of the Pontiff to the members of the society and those attending the convention. Another speaker was Timothy S. Hogan, secretary general of the state of Ohio. Mr. Hogan urged the members to work with the church in suppressing vice. He praised President Taft for the appointment of Chief Justice White, a Catholic.
Resolutions were passed dealing with the following subjects:
Congratulating the cardinal upon his fifty years as a priest and twenty-five years as cardinal; emphasizing the diocesan activity only in the direction of the society; proposing plans for an extensive campaign to establish Holy Name societies in every parish; reaffirming the chief pledge of the society against profanity; and urging members to work to restrict the habit; deploring the laxity of Sunday observance in some localities; promising the support of the society for diocesan periodicals; endorsing the Christ Child badge as the official insignia of the society and urging the members to give up other badges that have been used independently by separate dioceses; accepting the 339 days' indulgence granted by the Pope for all members who wear publicly the official badge; deploring profanity on the stage, obscene posters and immoral moving picture exhibitions, and pledging themselves to work in every way to have these evils ended.
The bishops at their meeting at Calvert Hall agreed that an archbishop be chosen to act as director-general of the Holy Name Society. The archbishop will be designated at some future meeting of the hierarchy.
The bishops also endorsed a plan for establishing junior Holy Name societies.

SMOTHERED IN WELL

Shorebrook, Que., Oct. 18.—While digging a well near here, E. Demontigny and A. Nault, two young men residing on a farm just outside the city limits, were instantly killed. Both men were in the well when it caved in on them, and although rescuers worked hard to get them out, their efforts were in vain. Both were dead when taken out.

Sturdy Food Breeds Sturdy Children

STURDINESS means more than weight and muscle. It also means energy. The really sturdy child has its tissue and its energy developed in the right proportion. That is why Tillson's Rolled Oats are the superb food for boys and girls, as well as for grown folks. They supply the body with energy and tissue in the ratio of just about 5 1/2 to 1, which is the proportion declared right by science. About the only other food that does this is milk. Tillson's Oats and milk are, therefore, the two practically perfect foods. Ask your doctor about it. Remember this: Milk and a little salt is much better for the digestion than rich cream and a lot of sugar. Try it on your porridge.

BERTHIERVILLE DISTILLERY

where RED CROSS GIN is made under the supervision of the Government officers. The Berthierville Distillery, large, well built and well equipped, is the representative of one of the greatest in Canada and not the least interesting—that of the manufacture of GIN.
The successive additions made to the plant are indicative of the growing favor enjoyed by RED CROSS GIN.
An absolutely pure gin, the delicate aroma and fine flavor of which has been produced by aging alone. The Distillery consumes quantities of grain, barley, rye and corn which are stored in bins. RED CROSS GIN is a pure spirit extracted from the heart of Canadian grain, combined with juniper berries of the best growth. The native elements of the grain are transformed into sugar, which, in its turn, becomes, by fermentation, alcohol, in the manner that the ferment of the stomach transforms the sugar that we absorb in our tea or in any other form into alcohol.
Sugar gives strength. A ration of sugar is given to soldiers to sustain them during hard marches. Napoleon I gave his men a little glass of brandy—transformed sugar—with this idea in view, and was rewarded with the success that history tells us of. Naturally—as with every thing else, sugar must not be abused, nor gin either.
RED CROSS GIN is pure, aged in bonded warehouses and each bottle bears the official stamp of Canadian Government inspection, the guarantee of the consumer, a guarantee that imported GIN cannot offer, as the latter are not inspected and are therefore liable to dangerous adulteration.—this fact has been officially admitted before the Royal Commission of England.
You are safe in drinking RED CROSS GIN, The Gin with a guarantee.

WEST POINT CADETS GET HISTORY GARBLED

That all candidates for West Point are not shining lights of intelligence and learning is shown in the annual report to the United States War department of Brigadier-General Thomas H. Barry, superintendent of the military academy. Brigadier-General Barry, without mentioning names, submits some rare specimens of knowledge shown in a recent examination.
Among the important writers of the day, according to one paper, was Jack London, and to be "more of a novelist than a writer."
His chief work is writing up prize fights and other things.
Some illuminating history is related: "The battle of Waterloo was fought between the French and English. The French were led by Napoleon, and the English by Lord Wellington."
"Mohammedan" was a prophet, and the English were his followers. He told that certain things would happen, and they did happen.
"Mason and Dixon's line was a line made across the country from east and west. It apparently divides the country."

THE BRITISH CABINET

secret under the eyes of this official, and the men who work the printing machine, are forbidden to handle any of the papers after it is printed upon.—National Magazine.
Each member of the cabinet is supplied with a key which fits the lock of a certain despatch box retained by the prime minister. At any particular crisis, when important papers reach Downing street, the premier, after perusing them, places them in the despatch box and hands the box to a special messenger, who takes it round to each member of the cabinet in succession. Each member opens it with his key and reads it after he has read the documents it contains. In this way the papers are prevented from falling into the hands of strangers or members of parliament who are not in the cabinet.
Now and again it is found necessary to print copies of a "secret," which comes up for discussion at a meeting of the cabinet. The document is cut up into many small pieces and distributed among a number of compositors in the government printing works, each of whom sets up his little piece, and the little pieces are then present only a dozen lines of type. When all the fragments are in type a highly trusted official collects both the copy and the type and puts the latter together. The setting of the document is thus done in a timber.

How Important Secrets of the National Government are Preserved

Washington, Oct. 18.—The supreme council of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite Masons of the southern jurisdiction is in its biennial session here.
With imposing ceremonial the Royal Order of Scotland was conferred on seventy-five candidates. The session was attended by thirty-third degree Masons from both the northern and southern jurisdictions.
The opening session was devoted to an address of welcome and the annual address of Sovereign Grand Commander Richard Scott. He announced that during the last two years 11,638 new members had been added to the order.
A soft answer may turn away wrath, but sometimes it comes hard.
Timber is becoming scarce, but the family tree continues to flourish.

NELSON IS BEATEN BY PAL MOORE

Standing up like a wall of stone Bating Nelson, former lightweight champion of the world, received one of the worst beatings of his boxing career on Tuesday night in Boston at the hands of Pal Moore of Philadelphia, after one of the fastest 12-round contests witnessed in a Boston ring. Although battered and bruised and fayed from one corner of the ring to another, Nelson stood up under the heavy fusillade of the Quaker city boxer unflinchingly.

It is doubtful if Pal Moore was ever better boxing form. Bating Nelson proved a perfect subject for him to work on. Not an idle second marred the bout. Moore took several breathing spells after which he came across with a sudden burst of speed and punched the Battering Ram over the side of the ring.

There wasn't a round which could fairly be called Nelson's. Whenever little Moore took a rest, Nelson would come back and, by the time the gong rang, he would be in the center of the ring waiting the gong. The sound had hardly died out of the gong when Nelson made a wild rush at Moore, who deftly sidestepped and dodged Nelson to his heart's content for at least half a minute. Nelson was furious in his efforts to get at Moore's swinging went wild and failing to reach his mark only served to create a more furious attack by the Dane.

FINE IN LIQUOR CASE; AN APPEAL IS LIKELY

A fine of $50 was imposed this morning upon Henry Dolan in the police court by Magistrate Ritchie on a charge of selling liquor to a drunken person. George Hanson, in his licensed bar in Union street on Friday night last, Daniel Mullin, K. C., appeared for the defendant and announced that an appeal would be taken.

His Honor in giving judgment said that the weight of evidence was in favor of the fact that whiskey had been poured from a bottle into a glass and given to Hanson, although some of the witnesses had said it was lager beer. He also believed from the evidence that Hanson had not been sober on that night, and in fact he said he had "no doubt that he was drunk, and too much of this business has made this second year for drunkenness in St. John."

SURPRISED CHOR

FOR FIRST TIME IN ST. JAMES' CHURCH

Diamond Jubilee Will Be Celebrated on Sunday Next and During the Week—The Programme

The sixtieth anniversary of the founding of St. James' Episcopal church will be observed with special services on Sunday next with other fitting observances during the following week.

The church has had an interesting history and during the sixty years of its existence has played an active part in the religious life of the city and in the advancement of those things which make for the betterment of conditions.

The first church building, a wooden structure which was consecrated on October 27, 1851, was destroyed in the great fire of 1877. The congregation set about the work of rebuilding with praiseworthy promptness and on January 7, 1879, the present handsome stone structure was consecrated.

The observances on Sunday will commence with the celebration of Holy Communion at eight-thirty o'clock a. m. The regular church service at eleven a. m. and 7 p. m. will be in the nature of Thanksgiving services, largely by the volunteer labor of the men of the congregation.

A new choir room opening off the vestry has also been built, largely by the volunteer labor of the men of the congregation.

A congregational reunion will be held on Wednesday evening next. A musical programme has been prepared and addresses will be delivered by the rector, Rev. H. A. Cody; Ven. Archdeacon Raymond and by Colonel J. Russell Armstrong whose grandfather was the first rector of the church and whose father was its second rector. A special missionary meeting, to be addressed by Archdeacon Remondin of Moncton, will be held on Wednesday evening.

Its diamond jubilee finds the church in a prosperous and flourishing condition. In addition to the congregational work there is a large and active Sunday school of more than 200 members; and there are a boy scout patrol of forty members, a young men's club numbering twenty-three, who are building a club room for themselves in the basement of the church; active branches of the Women's Auxiliary, the Junior W. A., the Girls' W. A., and a Dorcas society for work among the poor. A parish magazine entitled "The Church Bell," has been successfully conducted and enables each member to keep in touch with the various phases of the church work.

IMPORTANT MATTERS FOR THE ANGLICAN SYNOD TO DECIDE

Shall Divorced Person Hold Any Church Office?—Meeting Next Month in Fredericton

Despite the fears that the cathedral repairs would not be far enough advanced to permit of it, it has been decided to hold the Church of England Synod meeting for the Diocese of Fredericton in Fredericton and the first session will be held there on Monday, November 6, at two-thirty o'clock. This will be in the nature of a quiet hour for clergy and lay delegates and will be conducted by Rev. Canon Powell of Windsor.

The synod will meet for business at half-past eight in the evening, Tuesday will commence with the celebration of Holy Communion at half-past seven o'clock in the morning and the business sessions will be resumed at ten o'clock. On Tuesday evening the special synod service will be held in the cathedral, at which the sermon will be delivered by Canon Powell.

The regular sessions will continue on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Among the important matters to be dealt with by the synod will be the revision and amendment of the church act and the proposed amendment to the church canon increasing the number of the lay delegates to the synod.

Another interesting change which will be discussed is the proposed amendment forbidding any divorced person to hold any church office either parochial or in connection with the synod.

W. B. RANKIN DEAD

IN HALIFAX; FORMER SAINT JOHN MAN

A special despatch to the Times from Halifax says: "William B. Rankin a well known commission merchant, died this morning, aged fifty-seven years. He was a native of St. John, a son of the late deputy Sheriff Rankin. He came to Halifax nineteen years ago and entered in the commission business with E. Erb, of Waterloo, Ont., which business he continued up to the time of the death of Mr. Erb last January.

News of Mr. Rankin's death will be read with regret by many in St. John and there will be deep sympathy for the bereaved relatives. Only a few weeks ago his sister passed away in Winnipeg. He is survived by his wife and four children in Halifax; two sisters, the Misses Rankin of King street east, and two brothers—Fred in Boston and Leonard of Winnipeg. The latter is now on his way east and is expected here on Saturday. Miss Annie Rankin has been in Halifax for some days because of her brother's serious illness.

PRESENTATION IN CARLETON

The presentation of a handsome family Bible to Thomas Johnston by members of the vestry on behalf of the congregation marked the close of the morning service in St. George's church, Carleton, on Sunday last.
