

SIXTY-NINTH SESSION

Of the Free Baptists General Conference of New Brunswick.

A Number of Reports Received—District Meetings for the Year—The Women's Missionary Society.

MARYSVILLE, Oct. 5.—(Busy, pretty little Marysville, handsome in the green of June, when she was Methodist from end to end of their conference meeting here at that time), is perhaps more attractive in the grander tints which early October gives the foliage, in which the town is bordered, and the hospitable homes are again thrown open, this time for the reception of the 69th annual session of the Free Baptist general conference of New Brunswick, which met with the F. B. church of this place at 2 p. m. today.

Rev. W. H. Perry, moderator, presided. At roll call the following ministers and delegates responded: Rev. W. H. Perry, moderator; Rev. F. G. Francis, ass. moderator; Rev. Jos. McLeod, D. D., cor. secretary; Revs. Joseph Noble, John Perry, G. A. Hartley, D. D., J. T. Parsons, J. N. Barnes, T. S. Vanwart, C. O. Dewitt, C. T. Phillips, John Henderson, Henry Hart, J. J. Barnes, G. M. Nett, G. W. Foster, B. H. Nobles, Gideon Swin, A. C. Smith, J. E. Good, E. S. Parker, J. A. Bonnell, David Long, A. Perry, S. J. Perry, J. H. Daggert, E. C. Phillips, E. C. Currie, L. A. Fenwick, A. J. Prosser, A. D. Paul, F. D. Hartley and M. L. Gregg.

There were converted from the schools during the year, 151 scholars. The report urged renewed energy in view of the encouragement afforded by the statistics.

On motion of Rev. M. L. Gregg, seconded by Rev. H. H. Ferguson, and supported by Revs. T. O. Dewitt, G. A. Hartley, D. D., the report was adopted. Conference adjourned to meet Monday at 10 o'clock a. m.

The conference re-assembled this morning, Assistant Moderator Rev. F. G. Francis in the chair. After usual opening exercises, the election of officers was proceeded with, resulting in Rev. D. Long, pastor at St. John, north end, being chosen as moderator, and Rev. F. G. Francis as assistant moderator. Whereupon Rev. F. G. Francis took the chair, Rev. Mr. Long being absent.

Dr. McLeod Vines, from executive of conference, reported that they had changed the place of meeting of conference to this place because of the prevalence of smallpox in the former county, and they had also granted dismission to Rev. D. Patterson, at his own request, to join the N. S. F. Baptist conference.

Rev. Dr. McLeod reported that, according to act of assembly, he had registered the ministers of the conference in the office of the provincial secretary, thereby qualifying them to legally solemnize matrimony.

Prof. Anthony was then heard in explanation of the invitation of the General Free Baptist conference of the United States, that this conference should unite with the other churches that because of history, doctrine, aims and spirit the union should take place. The tendency of the times was towards co-operation as a means to more successful work.

It would not mean any change in method or doctrine, but would be an inspiration because the aims of all were one.

Already in foreign missions they were united. Why not all other ways. The larger the body the more economical can all work be carried on.

It was resolved that this conference has heard with pleasure Prof. Anthony, and that a committee be appointed to consider the question of union, and report today.

CLARKE WALLACE DEAD. Passed Away Last Evening Shortly After Ten o'clock.

OTTAWA, Oct. 8.—Clarke Wallace died at 10.15 tonight.

Hon. Nathaniel Clarke Wallace was the third son of the late Captain Nathaniel Wallace, a native of Sligo, Ireland, who came to Canada in 1834. He was born at Woodbridge, Ont., May 21, 1844, and was educated at the local schools and at the Western grammar school. After completing his course of studies, he gave some years to school teaching. Entering commerce in 1871, he has continued to represent this riding in the popular chamber at Ottawa up to the present time. He was elected by a majority of 4,283 votes at the general election in 1896, this being the largest majority by any candidate in an Ontario constituency. He became An Orangeman from his youth, he became supreme grandmaster of the order in British America in 1887, and was re-elected to that office for the thirteenth time in June, 1900. He held the office of grand sovereign of the triennial council of Orangemen of the world for three years previous to last July, when he retired. For many years he had been regarded as one of the special champions in parliament of the Orange and Protestant interests. He was one of the "Noble 13" who voted for the disallowance of Mercer's Jesuits' Estate bill of 1888, and more recently he took an active part in reference to the Manitoba school question. He was appointed comptroller of customs under Sir John Thompson, December 6, 1895, and continued in that office up to December 14, 1895, when he retired from the ministry in consequence of his declared policy on the Manitoba school question. In 1888 he was appointed a member of a select committee of the house of commons on the subject of combinations in trade, and, in the same year, introduced a bill for the prevention and suppression of combinations in trade, and in the same year formed in restraint of trade. He was president of the British and Canadian Gold and Silver Mining company. In 1897 a sketch of his life and public labors was published in the "Canadian Review" by Rev. G. E. Perry. Mr. Wallace was a member of the Anglican church.

The corps would have made a better showing if it had been possible to devote more time to the inspection. As it is all the officers who answered questions did so perfectly. No. 3 company made within one point of a possible for gun drill, having achieved a possible last year. No. 4 company came equally close to a possible in their manual and firing. No. 2 and perfect answers for their non-commissioned officers' questions, and Nos. 2 and 3 made possible for discipline and interior economy.

INCENSED ROCKEFELLER. Rev. Dr. Chas. A. Eaton, Well Known in St. John, Assails Himself in Cleveland.

The Baptists of Cleveland, Ohio, are greatly disturbed at the prospect that the Old Euclid Avenue Baptist Church may lose its member and co-founder, John D. Rockefeller, by reason of certain slight utterances of the pastor, Rev. Dr. Eaton, which have greatly displeased the oil king of the world.

Rev. Charles A. Eaton is a native of the Annapolis valley and was a member of the Euclid Avenue Baptist church in Cleveland, Ohio, for many years. He resigned the pastorate of the church in 1898, and has since been pastor of the largest Baptist church in that city, to accept his present pastoral charge in Cleveland, Ohio, in 1900.

Rev. Dr. Eaton, who has been greatly displeased the oil king of the world, is said to be kept open in the hope that ere long the Rev. J. D. Freeman of the German Street Baptist church, St. John, may accept the call that is understood to have been extended to him. Rev. Dr. Eaton is well known in St. John. He was the preacher at the jubilee services of the Brussels Street Baptist church, and while in Cleveland, delivered a lecture on Anglo-Saxon Union. Dr. Eaton is a forcible public speaker and an attractive man in the pulpit.

A Cleveland despatch to Monday's New York Herald thus describes the situation as it is at present:

Mr. Rockefeller has not only brought to the city a pastor of his own choosing for the East End Baptist Church, but he seems to have taken the young minister in as almost a member of his own family, the new pastor having lived in the home of the multi-millionaire ever since he came to the city. In fact, he is still living there.

He is the Rev. E. A. Hanley, of the University of Chicago. He has not yet been ordained a minister, but he has been appointed pastor of the struggling little East End Baptist Church, and will receive a salary that has warranted his planning a tour of Europe for next summer. He probably receives the highest pastoral salary ever paid a divinity student not yet ordained a minister. His formal ordination is to occur soon in the church of which he is pastor.

Lack of sympathy between the new pastor of the Euclid Avenue Baptist Church, the Rev. Chas. A. Eaton, D. D., and Mr. Rockefeller is responsible for the present condition of affairs. Dr. Eaton has preached several sermons that seem to some to be of a scissalistic nature. In some of them he has made remarks concerning wealthy men which appear to be somewhat pointed.

Mr. Rockefeller has not only guaranteed the comparatively large salary that is to be paid young

OCTOBER TERM

Of the Charlotte County Circuit Court Opened Tuesday at St. Andrews.

The Grand Jury and Members of the Bar Present Congratulatory Address to His Honor Judge Gregory.

ST. ANDREWS, Oct. 8.—The October term of the Charlotte county circuit court was opened today. His Honor George F. Gregory, K. C., Judge.

The civil docket was George Marshall and Lucy Ann Marshall, his wife, v. William Holland, Mr. Grimmer appealed for leave to withdraw record withdrawn.

The grand jurors were called, all summoned being present, by direction of the court, retired to the grand jury room, and got their return to court. Sheriff Stuart announced that Robert E. Armstrong of St. Andrews was elected foreman, who with the other members were duly sworn, the learned judge charging them in brief terms.

To Judge Gregory—May it please your honor, we, the grand jurors of the body of the county of Charlotte, summoned to discharge the duties incumbent on us as law-abiding citizens, would embrace the opportunity to attend to your elevation to the responsible position you now occupy.

That nowhere upon earth are life and property safeguarded, and nowhere does crime meet its punishment more promptly and effectively, this fact we regard as the strongest bulwark of British institutions, the very foundation stone of British liberty.

We are confident that you will do your utmost to maintain unimpaired the purity and honor of our courts, and preserve the reputation for justice and impartiality and mercy, where mercy is needed to be shown, which they have so long enjoyed.

My N. Cockburn, K. C., then on behalf of the bar, read the address as follows: To the Honorable George F. Gregory, one of the Judges of the Supreme Court of the Province of New Brunswick.

May it please your honor—The members of the bar in the county of Charlotte take great pleasure upon the occasion of your first visit to this county since your elevation to the bench, in extending to you a hearty welcome to this county to preside over our circuit court and lend your very able assistance in the administration of justice.

Through your honor we would also beg leave to extend our very best wishes to your worthy consort, Mrs. Gregory, and to express the hope that she may long be blessed in health and strength to share the honors and pleasures incident to the high office you now hold.

Dated at St. Andrews, N. B., October 8th, 1901. Lewis A. Mills, M. MacMonagie, James G. Stevens, Jr., W. C. H. Grimmer, M. H. Crookburn, George J. Clark, E. H. Grimmer, Edna Chamberlain, E. B. Coakley, N. Marks Miller, J. Richardson.

Judge Gregory in suitable and elegant words thanked the grand jurors and members of the bar for the very laudatory terms of the addresses, and hoped that he should so conduct his duties as a judge as to merit all the kind words said.

There is always a great deal of uncertainty as to the origin of names. Take the name Acadia, or as it has been Anglicized, Acadia. No one knows for certain whence this was derived, but the best explanation seems to be that it is a corruption of the word "quoddy," which is as near as the termination of the Indian name of the head of the bay can be spelled.

CROWE AND THE GRAPHOPHONE. He Weeds at the Hymn "Ninety and Nine."

The graphophone is beginning to figure as a considerable American export, and certainly it is one of the most curious and interesting. While its commercial uses are beyond the comprehension of needs of the Peruvian, the Hindoo or the South Sea Islander, each of them is fascinated by an invention which reproduces the familiar sounds of the human voice and entertains him with grand and light opera and orchestral music.
