STRONG PLEA FOR NEW SCHOOL HOUSE

J. Sterling King Presents Indisputable Facts in Able Manner

About 220 pupils enrolled, an average increase of around 20 per year, making necessary a new room and teacher about every two years, eleven grades with six rooms and as many teachers, two rooms getting over crowded and no chance to employ assistants, no proper place for chemistry, minerals, botany, physics, manual work or domestic science. As one result of the energy of the present staff, a fairly good organ has been installed, the singing and music proving a good attraction and being greatly enjoyed. But full advantage cannot be taken of this important matter. Not more than two departments can get together at once and when the younger ones come into the High School these grades have to move out to one of the vacated rooms. No one today questions the uplift, the quieting soothing influences, the inspiration and drawing out of the higher and better nature resulting from gathering together for the opening exercises of reading a passage of Scripture, repeating the Lord's Prayer, singing junior and senior selections and finishing with some Canadian song. But alas! we have no assembly hall and the children suffer a loss—are under-educationally speaking, robbed of the full measure of development and success. You parents may be saving a few dollars now but you are running the risk of losing many hundreds perhaps. If your boy or girl is retarded and unable to take a better position. If you had a bright active boy or girl in a race with every prospect to win a valuable prize would you deliberately hinder their movements so that another might win? The salary prize of the race you can see, and rejoice if your boy or girl should win, but have you no vision for them of the great prizes of the race of life? Some one says "Why do you require so much room for chemistry and related subjects; manual work and domestic science like these? I never got so much schooling—we did not have such things to study—I've got along pretty well and never saw or heard of all these things—mighty expensive business to run and equip a school now a days—they want far too many things, take up too many subjects, want too much room and too fine and comfortable a house—we never had the like of that and times are too hard to have all these things. Such nonsense! Money for basket ball and other games and, mind you, they want a room for the girls to play in and another for the boys and flush closets—they must think we are made of money and all we have to do is hand out taxes to pay the bills—as for me if it gets any worse I will move outside the district and live!" and so on. First, I will try to stop your moving fever and then we will discuss the other matters. Now into what country district will you move with a less rate per $100 than we have here? Suppose you are rated on $1000. Here your bill is 10 plus $1.00 head tax. Outside your bill will run from $25 to $40 plus $1 head tax. And I know of some districts where your tax would run as high as $70 and $80 on $1000 assessment and moving costs. Better stay.

As for the chances and advantages of schools in your day, you were no doubt provided with what was considered a good fair chance as things were in those days. Don't you think the children of today ought to have the same footing—a good fair chance at what ever is the general average of advantages and privileges of today? And if the children are not fairly well grounded in the general subjects considered necessary now, they will grow up to take a place socially and commercially among the retarded back numbers at the foot of the ladder.

As for a new building we don't require something very fine so much as a comfortable, sanitary place where physical discomfort will not detract from proper mental attention. To illustrate what I mean let me tell you a story. A very poor old Scotch lady lay dying in an attic. A minister talked to her one day but got very little response. He thought she ought to show more interest in spiritual matters, but the old lady replied, "If you were as cold and as hungry as I am you would not be able to think much about those things either." And in this connection let me point out the great need of a domestic science room this winter, for one of its services is to provide a place for all pupils taking their lunch, to eat the same in warmth and comfort with a hot drink of milk or cocoa. Hot soup may also be served. Last winter I found these things being done in the country districts. Has Hartland no feeling of pity for these pupils, who have to eat a frozen lunch about the chilly halls or among the books and desks with a drink of cold water, provided the water pipe is not frozen? How can these pupils do top-notch work during afternoon session? But all these conditions are eclipsed by the cruel discomfort the pupils have to suffer on account of the very primitive provisions for closets—out buildings. These are distant from the school house and as the children, even in very severe weather seldom put on any wraps when they are excused the result is very often a chill followed by a bad cold and absence from school which means loss of instruction by these pupils and a direct money loss by the district as part of the county draft is figured on attendance. I used the word "cruel" just now and I say also that it is a shame and a disgrace to have our pupils and teachers under going exposure to cold, disease germs and danger from fire, and furthermore I think it would be almost a crime to condemn them to carry on another winter in the present building under present conditions. The foundation walls are giving away, the basement is shallow, poorly lighted and damp; the furnaces old, smoky, unsatisfactory, obsolete, requiring over two times the wood that should be a reasonable supply, while the water pipes are continually freezing and requiring plumber's attention. All these services are unsatisfactory and costly.

The New Year

Any words that might slip from the pencil stub of the editor would be flat and altogether insignificant compared with those which are appended hereto. Truly "the pen is mightier than the sword" and indeed, the various pens that inscribed what follows have done much toward beating the words into plough-shares.

Throughout 1923 heed these words for the good of your heart and soul and your neighbors:

Wherefore, putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbor: for we are members of one another. Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath. Let all bitterness, and wrath, anger and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.—(Eph. iv: 22-26, 31, 32.)

Set your affections on things above, not on things on the earth. Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness long-suffering: Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against you: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye. And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness. And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body: and be ye thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom: teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.—(Col. iii: 12-16.)

He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness, even until now. He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him.—(1. John ii: 9, 10.) A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another: as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are My disciples, if ye have love one to another.—(John xiii: 34, 35.) Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned: From which some having swerved have turned aside, unto vain jangling: Desirous of being teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.—(1. Tim. i: 5-7.)

No man can serve two masters: ye cannot serve God and mammon.—(Matt. vi: 24) Choose ye this day whom ye will serve, but as for me and my house, we will serve God.—(Josh. xxiv: 15.)

Wherefore my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath: For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God. But be ye doers of the Word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.—(James i: 19, 20, 22.)

This only I would learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?—(Gal. iii: 2.) If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies, Fulfill ye my joy, that ye be like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind: Let nothing be done through strife or vain glory: but in lowliness of mind, let each esteem other better than themselves. Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others. Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus, Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God; but made Himself of no reputation, and took upon Him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men; And being found in fashion as a man, He humbled Himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.—(Phil. ii: 1-8.)

Let brotherly love continue. Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares. Remember them that are in bonds as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.—(Heb. xiii: 1-3)

Judge not that ye be not judged.—(Matt. vii: 1.)

THE CHILDREN MEET NEXT YEAR

By Jammeradick (Edmundston Observer)

Donald and Florence and Paul one day this week went out to the woods to get away from Christmas. They had eaten Christmas pudding until they had nightmare at night, and walked in their sleep to the alarm of their father and mother. They had played with so many toys which Santa Claus had brought them that they were tired of being indoors. They were like so many children, something was the matter and they didn't know just what it was. There were ho-ho's in their stockings where Santa Claus had put the toys too far in and there were sticky places in their hair where the candy had absconded. They had been there a number of things got stuck and where their mother insisted castor oil was needed. So they wandered off to the woods and sat on a log and wished the summer was here, and the flowers in bloom, and the birds singing, and the fish waiting to be caught in the brooks. And just then an old, old man came along, a funny little old man, with a wizened up old face, and a weary little smile. The children didn't know who he was, and they were a little bit scared; but he joked with them and said his name was Anno Domini, and that he and Santa Claus were about the same age and good friends, and if they would like, he would take them to the Next Year.

great big building, and everybody was busy, rushing here and there everywhere in a great hurry. Presently they came to the office where old Anno Domini said New Year was to be found, and they went to see him. He was young, and so merry, and so busy. He said he was glad to see the children, and gravely shook hands with Paul. He told them that he would be taking over his duties in a day or two, and that he would have much to arrange. He had snow, and rain to order. He said he was trying to manage it so that there would be a lot of sunshine during his stay on the earth, and that if he could arrange it he did not want any wars. He was worried about Russia, but said that Ireland seemed to be going to give him a fairly easy time.

The children asked a lot of questions and he tried to answer them all. He told them that January and February were going to be pretty cold in Edmundston, but that there would be a great deal of snow the first part of March. The children asked him if he would promise to give them a fine day for their Sunday School picnic, and he told them that the 18 of August would almost certainly be fine, and that they had better arrange for that day, if they could. He told them that as far as he could see ahead that day would be warm, and clear, but could not promise with absolute definiteness as other things depended upon it.

He asked the children if they would like to meet his assistants, and to the huge delight of the three, brought in Jack Frost, with the icicles stuck to his beard and snow in his hair. Jack Frost laughed at the children and said "I'll freeze your ears if you don't keep them covered. I'll nip your nose if you don't keep it warm; I'll make your fingers ache if you don't keep your mitts." And then Father Time with his long white cane came in, and he told them that he was getting tired, and never got a rest night or day but that they need not be afraid of him, because if they were good he would be always good to them, and that the older they grew the more they would like him. And then Joy came in and he told them that he worked in people's hearts and made them glad. And Spring was there all dressed up in flowers. He told them he was already busy in the South, but that he was gradually working his way up North to where they lived, and he told them that Summer was just behind him down there. Then a great big fellow came in, with a fat stomach, a big jolly face and he said his name was Pros Perity. He said that Mr. New Year had insisted that he come to Edmundston right away, as soon as New took charge, and that they were to look for him the very first thing.

Then Mr. New Year introduced them to Mr. Calendar who, he said, was his personal secretary, and then wished them goodbye telling the children to be sure to look for him on Monday morning at midnight. Old Anno Domini took them home and put them down from his chawst at the same place as took them up; they ran in the house and told their mother that they wanted to stay up to see the New Year come, and their mother said to them "You children dream too much. Lands sake, you got old soon enough without going off to meet the New Year a week before he is due. Indeed you'll not stay up, you'll go to bed and get your sleep." Aren't mothers funny? But anyway, the children told me to tell the people of Edmundston through the Observer that, New Year is coming next Monday, and that he is bringing Pros Perity with him, whoever this Pros Perity fellow is.

CENTREVILLE SCRIBE WAXES ELOQUENT

When He Praises Picture People and The Observer—But They Do Deliver the Goods

The Centreville correspondent of The Observer intended what follows for his own particular page, but the Editor, in his wisdom, lifts it for a first page leader.

On Saturday evening the management of the picture Theatre put on "Love's Boomerang". A famous Players production. The play started with a bright little girl, whose mother lay dying with consumption after being cruelly deserted by a husband whose several inordinant actions made moving a dire necessity. The little tot worked as an artist's model until the death of her mother when she was adopted by the artist. The play ran along while the girl grew to young womanhood, when petite Ann Forest was substituted for the role. Here the father was introduced while endeavoring to get rid of a young man whose fortune he would inherit by his death. To further his ends, he negotiated the marriage of his daughter to this absolute young man while at the same time both the daughter and the artist were madly in love. The father succeeded in poisoning the young husband, incidentally incriminating the daughter, but through a kind break of fortune, confession was wrought from the father, leaving the girl and the artist the opportunity of living ever happy afterwards. Doings around a French circus lightened up the piece in several places. Beginning on Tuesday, we will get the first episode of the thrilling serial, "Bride 13" the episodes to follow along in sequence. These will be so very interesting that people looking for thrills will not be able to miss a chapter. The best wishes of the proprietors, Burpee & Teddie, are cordially extended to the patrons of the movie house who help to make it a successful house and the public can be assured that every laudable effort will be put forth to procure the same excellent brand of photo-dramas during 1923 that were shown through 1922. The very best in pictures seems to be the slogan of the genial proprietors, and the weekly advertising of their choice wares in the columns of the best local paper, in the provinces, is one of the mainstays of their success, as a perfect medium of translating their wishes to the people. Always cast your eye on the bottom center of the Centreville page for the semi-weekly theatricals.

ACTIVITY AT GRAND FALLS

Linking up with North Shore via St. John—Nashwaak and Miramichi Valleys Considered Probable.

Measurements of the St. John river in the vicinity of Grand Falls are being taken at the present time for the information of the New Brunswick Power Commission. This particular time has been selected because the St. John river at that point never has known to be lower. This will enable the engineers to make absolute minimum measurements for the purpose of calculating possibilities in development and other matters.

C. O. Foss of the commission, Engineer Kriks, S. R. Weston and other engineers and officials are at present at Grand Falls and will be there some days it is expected.

Development of the great water power at Grand Falls is forecasted by the present surveying at the falls it is believed. Rumor has it that information already has been requested of Fraser Companies Limited concerning the quantity of power which could be taken. The Bathurst Company has been approached with a like intent. This is taken as indicating a linking up of the possible Grand Falls development with the developments already made on the North Shore which include Bathurst, Newcastle and other towns.

The expectation is that connection with the North Shore would be made via the St. John Valley and the towns and villages along the Nashwaak and Miramichi rivers. Such a connection would tap a large populated district and would give a market for what power could be procured.

It is also reported on good authority that a survey of the possible field for Grand Falls Power already has disclosed requirements, which would take two-thirds of the contemplated development.

Rights in relation to Grand Falls which were given some years ago for the purpose of encouraging development will expire in April, an extension to that time having been made at the last session of the Legislature. Development by the Power Commission, would indicate that there will be no further extension.

TOWN ELECTIONS

Considerable interest is stirring over the town election which is to be held on Monday. Nominations for mayor and aldermen close at 6 tomorrow night. It is understood that ex-Alderman J. S. Faulkner is to offer for the mayorship. A great number of friends of S. S. Miller have urged him to run and perhaps a greater number are backing ex-Alderman E. C. Morgan. Such people as The Observer has been able to interview have spoken favorably of Alderman Hatfield, McLeod, Hagerman and Nixon for aldermen. Ex-Alderman Alton will be elected if he runs. Mr. Morgan is likely to succeed in the mayoralty contest. Many have spoken favorably of Mr. Kyle for a place on the board. He is a progressive spirit and a shrewd executive. There will be a meeting of the citizens at the town hall tonight and every rate-payer should attend.

Too late for publication, the Observer has received a financial statement of the town affairs. It will be remembered that a year ago the Council stated that they would run the town one thousand dollars cheaper than it was run the year before—that assessment would be $9000 instead of $10,000. They succeeded in getting within $160 of their claim which is far better than anybody really expected. The detailed figures will be published next week.

"California Fig Syrup"

NO. 128
Even a sick child loves the "fruity taste of California Fig Syrup." If the little tongue is coated, or if your child is listless, cross, feverish, full of cold, or has colic, a teaspoonful will never fail to open the bowels. In a few hours you can see for yourself how thoroughly it works all the constipation poison, sour bile and waste from the tender, little bowels and gives you a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers keep "California Fig Syrup" handy. They know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.

LAKEVILLE MILL STARTS OPERATION

Many Pleasant Holiday Visitors—Amateur Players Have Success

Christmas passed off very pleasantly in spite of the hard times. Santa made his usual rounds and nobody was forgotten. It seemed as if every one caught the giving spirit.

The play in the evening was well patronized and was highly enjoyed by most everyone. Had it not been that some one in the audience had evidently taken a little more than was needed the order was good.

Several from the village spent the week among distant friends.

Mrs. Helen Barker and Miss Barker went to Sheffield.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Carvell went to Hartland.

Mr. and Mrs. Handford Lindsay spent a few days with their daughter, Mrs. Leo Miller.

To offset these Mr. and Mrs. Helms of Houlton, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Burt and children, Milton Anderson and Viola, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Wright visited their friends here.

On Friday night the Lakeville Amateurs played in Centreville. In spite of the severe storm the opera house was very well filled and a substantial sum added to the funds that are to be expended in the inside of the public hall. The managers are loud in their praise of the very nice treatment they received from the citizens of Centreville.

Carvell Bros. are starting their mill this week. A good many logs are coming in already.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson took tea at John Gilliss' Sunday night.

Misses Clara and Helen Tracey entertained a few friends to tea the same evening.

All were very sorry that Miss Pauline Gray, our last teacher, could not be persuaded to remain another term but the Trustees were lucky in securing the services of Miss Marjorie Barker to take her place. Miss Barker has taught in several places and at all of them has been offered the same position again.

H. T. Jones, who has been working in the permanent road construction, at Musquash, has arrived home until the spring work starts again.

Herbert Walker and Wilmet Forsythe, who had been working at Juniper, came home for the holiday, but went back on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt, who were visiting Mrs. Burt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, were here all the week on account of the illness of their little girl, Marjorie, who contracted a severe cold. Dr. Wright was called and on Saturday she was able to go to Centreville and will be taken home on Monday.

SAVING TIME AND WASTING LIVES

EXPERIENCE is a great teacher—sometimes. But it is to be remembered that you may take a horse to water, but cannot always make him drink. Similarly, you may drop a succession of bricks on or about the head of a man suffering from a habit of walking under ladders, but if he has in his head no mental mechanism of the kind that puts cause and effect together, you will still have difficulty in making him realize that walking under ladders is by no means conducive to normal health and long life.

The same thing may be said of the man who habitually crosses railway tracks without giving a thought to trains. To the vast majority of men and women, the sight of a railway track crossing a road brings to the imagination a moving train which they know moves with unhesitating, undeviating surety according to an unsuspensible law of nature. They know that under that law an object of less weight and force than the moving train will when struck by it, be brushed aside with results more or less disastrous to that object. In most cases the imagination sees what happens if a frail human body attempts to impede the progress of the train, and reasonable people act with due precaution. As an aid to these the railways have adopted all possible safeguards and warnings at level crossings, but there are still human beings whose imagination apparently can never be stirred and who persist in walking into certain disaster as unconcernedly as they would walk into their own homes.

A curious case of this kind was reported from an Ontario town less than a month ago. An electric radial car approached a crossing, a team driven by a local farmer came along the road towards the track. Passers-by saw the radial car coming up and heard its whistle as well as the ringing of the crossing bell that automatically warned of the car's approach. Despite the efforts of a witness to stop him, the farmer drove on until the car struck his horse's head, killing one and injuring the other, and had it not been for the prompt action of the passerby, the driver would undoubtedly have been killed. When it was all over the farmer admitted having heard the warning bell, but failed to say why he had not stopped in time. The amazing thing about the affair was that less than two years ago the same farmer had an almost identical accident at the same crossing at which time his wife and children were with him in a motor car. On that occasion his wife was injured and his car badly smashed. He then sued the company for damages, but failed to get a judgment as it was shown that he had been extremely careless.

A large percentage of level crossing accidents happen in just this way, and railway men are continually astonished by the persistence with which drivers of motor cars and horses dash over the crossings in utter disregard of the possible approach of trains. It is a fact that an amazingly large percentage of accidents are caused by motor cars hitting moving trains, instead of being hit by them, sure evidence of utter carelessness on the part of their drivers. At Mattawamkeag, in May last, a motor car dashed into the last of 23 cars that were moving over the crossing at the rate of four miles an hour, carrying away the rear steps of the car. At Cote Des Neiges, Que., crossing recently, disregarding the engine's whistle, the ringing of the electric alarm bell, and the frantic waving of a watchman stationed at the crossing, a motor car only managed to get across the tracks, with nothing worse than a broken wheel because the engineer had seen the car approaching from a distance away and had been able to stop his train. As the engineer saw the motor approaching, it must also have been possible for the motorist to see the train. In the same month a woman in broad daylight drove a horse and buggy into the rear coach of a four-car train on a crossing near Woodstock, Ont., and was fortunate enough to escape with her life, although she had to spend some little time in the hospital.

It has been proved in a court of law that motorists equally with railroad men are expected to observe caution at level crossings. At Cleveland, Ohio, last winter, a train struck a motor truck, and while no lives were lost, the locomotive was damaged. To set an example to careless drivers the railway company sued for the damages sustained and was awarded judgment for the full amount claimed.

In a recent letter to the Toronto Globe, W. J. Mooney, who is one of the pioneer motorists of Toronto, put the following to say on this subject:

"To the Editor of the Globe: Once again we pick up the morning paper and read of another accident. 'Auto hit by fast express.'"

"Why will motorists continue to take chances? I contend that no driver should attempt to cross a railroad until he has a clear view. Do not place too much confidence in the bell ringing. It may be out of order."

"Here is an instance: Last summer I was motoring east from Cooksville. As I approached the C.P.R. track near Lambton, a long C.P.R. freight was going west. I stopped; another motor came up behind me. When the freight had passed I continued to wait. The motorist behind sounded the horn and called to me to go ahead. I replied, 'Just wait until I get a clear view of the other track.' Just at this minute along came the Detroit flyer, 40 miles an hour. The motorist got out of the car and said, 'My, but we had a narrow escape.' I said, 'You mean that you had a narrow escape—not me. Safety first.'"

"It is better to wait two or three minutes at a crossing, than spend two or three months in some hospital, longer in a cemetery."

Railway News

Vancouver.—Three hours after the Queen of the Pacific, Empress of Canada, Capt. A. L. Hiley, had made a graceful landing at G. P. Pier A, section 2, a long train with her valuable silk cargo rolled out of the yards on its way to eastern points. The magnificent ship was tied up about 4 p.m. and a battalion of stevedores got all the silk in the cars and out of the yards at 7 p.m. 24 hours ahead of a similar cargo on board the President Madison, which left Yokohama the same day as the Empress of Canada.

Montreal.—Calls at Belfast on both the eastbound and westbound trips of Canadian Pacific liners sailing between Montreal and Glasgow instead of only on the westbound trips as at present, and more extensive use of Southampton as a port of call for passenger traffic, are innovations planned by the Canadian Pacific Steamships, Limited, for the 1923 season.

The calls at Belfast on eastbound trips are an inauguration of a new passenger service from Canada to Ireland. This service will be maintained by the steamships Metagama, Marburn and Marloch, and will commence with the sailing of the Metagama from Montreal, bound for Belfast and Glasgow, on May 3. This will be the first Canadian Pacific sailing from this port in 1923.

Winnipeg.—With the completion of the Canadian Pacific Railway line from Acme to Drumheller, Alta., last month, five new lines were put into operation along this line, according to Charles Murphy, general manager of western lines.

The coal mined is of excellent quality for domestic use and should remove any danger of coal shortage in the west this winter, Mr. Murphy states. Evidently the farmers of the district are not confronted with the fuel problem. For Mr. Murphy, while travelling through the district, noticed farmers filling their wagons with coal dug up with shovels.

Lethbridge.—Jurisdiction of the Lethbridge division, Alberta district, Canadian Pacific Railway, was extended far inside the western border of Saskatchewan when the Lethbridge operating department of the railway took over on December 11 the operation of the newly constructed portion of the Lethbridge-Weyburn line. The Lethbridge division now extends 72 miles from Lethbridge, Sask., half way between Lethbridge and Weyburn, 122 miles east of Manby, which has been the end of the steel on the west, and the territory of the Lethbridge division now covers 72 miles from Crow's Nest to Shaunavon and from Calgary to the border.

Owen Sound.—Joseph Lee, section foreman on the C. P. R. at Dundalk for seven or eight years, has been appointed section foreman at Orangeville and has moved to that town. Just before his departure from Dundalk Mr. Lee received a cheque for $25.00 from the C. P. R. representing the amount of the prize offered by the Company to the Superintendent having the best kept section on the Bruce division. Six years ago Mr. Lee was the winner of the Roadmaster's prize.

Ottawa.—Ottawa loses a popular citizen, and an able railwayman in Mr. F. P. Tinker, district freight agent for the Canadian Pacific Railway for several years, who has just received a promotion. On the first of the year Mr. Tinker takes up the position of district freight agent for the Canadian Pacific and associated lines in Detroit. These lines include the Canadian Pacific Steamship Co., the Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie Railway, the Duluth South Shore and Atlantic Railway and the Spokane International Railway.

Mr. Tinker came to Ottawa on December 1st, 1916, from St. John, N.B. He started railway work on the old New Brunswick Railway on Oct. 7, 1891, and was taken over by the C.P.R. when the company purchased the road and has been with the company ever since.

Mr. C. S. Morse, of Toronto, a well known C.P.R. man, has been transferred to Ottawa to take over Mr. Tinker's duties. Mr. Morse arrived in Ottawa on December 26th.

Chatham, Ont. — "Speed-mania" has again broken loose in the city and unless some strong steps are taken to eliminate this craze it will gain a strong foothold in the city, declared Chief of Police Groves.

A complaint was laid to the police by the C. P. R. to the effect that an automobile going south on William St. at a considerable rate of speed struck one of the north-side gates which had just been lowered for an oncoming train and completely smashed it.

The tower-man, realizing that one of the south gates was liable to be similarly treated by the speeding motorist, raised these gates at a considerable speed, being just quick enough to make a passage for the speeding motorist. The number of the car was secured by one of the local section crew and turned over to the police.

"The driver of the car will be charged with reckless driving," stated the Chief. "It is high time that we take decisive steps to prevent any accidents which can be directly traceable to reckless driving."

Railway News

Winnipeg.—The principal officers of the Canadian Pacific Railway at Winnipeg entertained Major Wm. Kirkpatrick at dinner at the Royal Alexandra Hotel prior to his departure for Montreal where he assumes the duties of the new office to which he has been promoted as general foreign freight agent in charge of ocean service.

Lethbridge.—The requirements of the Canadian Pacific Railway for men for construction work on the Foremost line, has helped out the labor situation in the city very materially. About 80 men have been placed on this job through the local government bureau, but in spite of this 194 names appear on the idle list.

"Lethbridge is doing better than most of the western cities," said Supt. Thomas Longworth. "We are placing a few men right along, the C. P. R. helping us out greatly."

Lethbridge.—The Lethbridge "Herald" says: "Miss Doris Carter, of Del Bonita, drove into Magrath on November 6, to meet her little cousin who had travelled from Vancouver, in charge of the conductor of the C. P. R." It speaks well for the efficiency of the railway authorities, that a little girl of 11 years of age could travel so far alone in safety. Thanks are also due to the kindness of the Travelers' Aid, who took the child in charge at Calgary and Lethbridge.

Fort William.—That Fort William is rapidly getting into her pre-war stride again was shown by statistics given out to-day by Building Inspector McNamara. Before the year closes, the building permits for the 12 months will have reached $1,500,000.

Up to November 22 the total value of building permits issued for this year is $986,485, to which will be added in a few days a permit for the building of another unit to the Canadian Pacific Railway coal dock on Island No. 2, which will run into hundreds of thousands of dollars.

St. John.—Eighteen members of the C. P. R. Investigation Department who are on duty at Sand Point during the winter season have arrived in the city. Others are expected, and with the cessation of port activities at Montreal and the shipment of all remaining freight from warehouses the full detective force will be transferred to this city. The same corps of investigation officials work at Montreal during the summer season and here at the winter port, and as the respective ports gradually open or close the C. P. R. police are transferred as the changing conditions warrant.

Local News and Personal Items

The Observer asks every reader to help make this page interesting by contributing any local news or personal items they may have about. The editor must depend on the parties interested to supply items for this page. Don't hesitate to send personal news concerning yourself and your family; we want them all. Don't blame the editor if what you expect to see in it is not here. If you have not yourself taken the pains to see that the office was informed of the item, anything in the nature of advertising appearing in these columns must be paid for at the rate of 10 cents a line. This applies to Cards of Thanks, Announcements of Marriages or Societies, For Sale, Wanted, Lost, Found, etc. Charged items will be 10 cents a line. Better send the money with the item, counting six words as a line. No ads less than 50¢ a week.

H. P. Burpee has been confined to his home by illness.

Mrs. F. F. Plumer and little son Ralph are spending the week in Woodstock.

The best investment you can make is to come to A. W. Phillips' store any day during 1923.

Charles Plummer has been confined to his bed at the home of his brother, A. H. Plummer, for the past two weeks, suffering from bronchial trouble.

While on his way to his store on Tuesday morning, D. E. Morgan fell on the ice and sustained such injuries that it was found necessary to summon the doctor.

A. B. Lovely, deputy registrar of vital statistics for Peel reports from his territory six marriages, eleven deaths and 38 births during 1922. No less than four cases of child-births were double-headers, twins being presented.

There being no preaching service in the United Baptist church on Sunday evening the members of the large and lively congregation spread themselves impartially among the three other churches, substantially augmenting the strength of each and tangibly displaying Christian fellowship and brotherly love.

Edmund Stratton of Bridgetown, N. S., arrived yesterday to take at least a temporary position on the staff of the Observer. Mr. Stratton was until recently one of the publishers of the Bridgetown Monitor. He also was one of the merry party that included the Observer staff in the glorious trip to the Pacific coast in 1921.

We will make unusual prices for battery storage this winter, since we have the current at lower cost than any who have to run a dynamo especially for the purpose. You may bring your batteries to us and we will keep them fully charged all winter, delivering them to you in perfect shape for running next spring, for only 25¢. The usual charge has been 35¢. If the batteries are found to need repairs we will make them, but we will not put a cent of extra expense on them until you have instructed us to do so. Soon as you tie up your car for the winter bring or send your battery to us. If you live at a distance ship by express. Red Ball Garage, Hart-

Parties living 8 to 10 miles away are getting wood for them and making good money at it. Call either one for prices and full particulars. S. W. Smith and B. J. Bell, East Florenceville, N. B.

On New Year's night the Methodist Sunday school gave a social evening to themselves. The affair was held in their newly finished school rooms in the vestry of the church. Although the night was dark and wild, a large number were able to be present. A nice program was carried out and much pleasure was derived from phonograph music. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served and thus closed a very pleasant evening, the first of 1923.

Perhaps no one can recall a New Year's Day when the weather was so mild. All day long the mercury stood at 45 degrees above the cipher. The rain that fell was greatly needed for the good of the springs and streams. Throughout Carleton and Victoria places of business were closed all day. Hartland young-folks had looked forward to ice skating but found the roller rink, opened on the holiday, a novel and most enjoyable substitute. The excellent play in the Neighborhood Theatre attracted and entertained a good number.

Harvey Perkins spent the week-end at his home near Bristol.

H. M. DeWitt of Woodstock was a Hartland visitor yesterday.

The next regular meeting of the G. W. V. A. will be in the armory on Friday at 8 p. m. Every member is expected to attend as there will be the annual election of officers and reports of work for the past year will be received. Let us make 1923 a year to be remembered in G. W. V. A. work. Per order Executive Committee.

Percy Graham, who for 18 years was manager of the Bank of Montreal here, going from here in 1916 to Sawyerville, Que., then to Charlottetown, thence to New York with a large importing firm, has left the American metropolis and at present with Mrs. Graham is a guest of Rev. and Mrs. N. Franchetti at Edmundston.

The play, "Nothing But The Truth" by the Lakeville Amateur Club was successfully presented to a Hartland audience on Monday evening. Directed by the talented Miss Grace Page of Centreville, who played the leading role. Each character was very creditably presented and the entertainment was a real treat. Despite the unpleasant weather and several counter-attractions there was a fair sized audience. All have spoken words of high praise and will welcome the Lakeville young people should they come again. The reading of Miss Page was especially meritorious, and the violin solo of tiny Glenn Campbell was received with spirited and well-merited applause.

The editor enjoyed the usual New Year's call from the venerable George G. Gray, who has not failed to make a visit on the first day of the year for a long period. He pays his subscription on that day—setting a most worthy example for others—and greets the editor with words of cheer and of wisdom and knowledge gained through the nearly 66 years of experience in this world. Mr. Gray came to the office without the aid of a cane, and unimpaired by glasses his kindly eyes met those of the editor; his voice is firm, his hearing acute; his heart is young—his courageous spirit much to be envied by many who are scores of years his junior. The Observer office is always brighter and better for the New Year visit of Mr. Gray.

The Observer has received a great number of calendars, among them being calendars from F. F. Plumer, C. T. Black & Co., J. T. G. Carr and others in addition to those mentioned last week. Many thousands of dollars are sent each year from Carleton and Victoria counties to the calendar concerns, most of which are American lithographing houses with Canadian branches. The same money invested in space in the local newspapers would keep the merchants and their wares more constantly before the people and not only help the local industries but promote local trade. Newspaper advertising pays. This section of the universe is plagued with the "sending away" habit and the merchants—

At the home of Mrs. S. S. Miller on Monday night Jan. 1, a very enjoyable time was spent by the young people who gathered to celebrate the birthday of Robert Miller, the host. The first part of the evening was spent in games and songs and at 10 o'clock refreshments were served. Those that were present sincerely wish Robert a happy New Year and that he might have many other such enjoyable birthdays.

Every package contains directions so simple any woman can put new, rich, fadeless colors into her worn garments or draperies even if she has never dyed before. Just buy Diamond Dyes—no other kind—then your material will come out right, because Diamond Dyes are guaranteed not to streak, spot, fade or run. Tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton or mixed goods.

A HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL

We wish to thank our many Customers and Friends for their patronage in the past, especially during 1922, since we went to CASH. We are glad to say that business was better than expected, considering the "hard times" cry. Now we are going to say that we are going to continue a STRICTLY CASH business during 1923, and we trust—and know we can give the people better service this year as we are getting our accounts collected in which enables us to pay cash for our goods and get the discount. When we do this we can sell our goods to the people cheaper.

We will take your produce in exchange for goods and pay highest market prices. We want Egg, Butter, Pork, Beef, Hides, Meal and Poultry. We also pay cash for PULP-WOOD and HAY in carload lots at any point.

Potatoes and Fish

Do you remember the time when we were told or asked to eat more FISH? Well, there is need for us to do the same at the present time. The Fish market is in about the same condition as the Potato Market. So if we eat more Fish and Potatoes the Fisherman can eat more Potatoes and Fish. We do not care much where you buy so long as you EAT MORE FISH! But we can supply you with the following:

FROZEN HERRING, COD AND HADDOCK
SALMON AND HALIBUT

Besides the usual SALT and SMOKED FISH, and we will continue to keep a supply of the Frozen Fish as long as the cold weather lasts and thus do our part to help the Fisherman.

Tells Women How She Was Restored to Perfect Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Winnipeg, Man.—"I cannot speak too highly of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was a nervous wreck and I just had to force myself to do my work. Even the sound of my own children playing made me feel as if I must scream if they did not get away from me. I could not even speak right to my husband. The doctor said he could do nothing for me. My husband's mother advised me to take the Vegetable Compound and I started it at once. I was able to do my work once more and it was a pleasure, not a burden. Now I have a fine bouncing baby and am able to nurse her and enjoy doing my work. I cannot help recommending such a medicine, and any one seeing me before I took it, and seeing me now, can see what it does for me. I am only too pleased for you to use my testimonial."—Mrs. EMILY DAVIS, 721 McGee Street, Winnipeg, Man.

Cause of Early Old Age

The celebrated Dr. Michenoff, an authority on early old age, says that it is "caused by poisons generated in the intestine." When your stomach digests food properly it is absorbed without forming poisonous matter. Poisons bring on early old age and premature death. 15 to 30 drops of "Edgely's Syrup" after meals make your digestion sound.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS

A large crowd attended the communication of Carleton Lodge, No. 35, F. and A. M. on St. John's night, Dec. 2. The installation ceremonies occupied the greater part of the evening and were performed by J. Chesley Stevens and Col. W. W. Melville. The officers for the ensuing year are as follows: James G. B. Lee, Worshipful Master; J. A. Tompkins, Senior Warden; E. A. McCain, treasurer; S. O. McCain, senior deacon; S. W. Niles, senior steward; M. McKenzie, inner guard; A. A. H. Margison, Junior Warden; Dr. E. R. McClintock, secretary; J. R. McCain, junior deacon; S. N. Banks, junior steward; A. A. Milbury, Tyler.

The lodge has had a very prosperous year and the outlook for 1923 is most promising.

Miss Marguerite Campbell returned to Presque Isle on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Burt of Woodstock spent Sunday and Monday here with relatives.

Harry Leech of Woodstock is spending a week in town.

Special evangelistic services in the United Baptist church at Centreville, Jan. 7, at 11 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Come and hear Prof. Fletcher of Spencer, Mass. Services every night next week, except Monday. Service at Carvell at 8 p. m. All are cordially invited to any or all.

A near catastrophe occurred on Saturday evening about ten o'clock when the potato house of Hatfield & Co., occupied by the United Farmers, was discovered to be on fire, having caught in the main floor, from a stove in the basement and burning up the side of a bin, next the storehouse. A crowd soon gathered around with all the fire extinguishers owned in the locality. When the doors were first opened, entrance was a real physical feat owing to the thick pall of smoke on the inside. Some possessing most fortitude braved the smoke and by the use of the five extinguisher soon had the real hazard well in hand. Then by the earnest efforts of others present, supplemented by quantities of snow, the fire was put on the shelf. By finding the fire in the nick of time and by quick concerted action on the part of the firefighters, a string of five large potato store houses, all adjoining, some of them well filled, were undoubtedly saved from total loss. Just this time of year, such a loss would be a real calamity to all farmers in the locality, who haul their stock to this shipping point. Those who were most active in the firefighters' brigade on Saturday night deserve a real pat on the back from those whose property they really saved, and from others whose buildings they incidentally saved.

New Years day was observed by all the merchants and different staffs in town and our village was a quiet as a midnight graveyard. Two holidays a week tend to make one a bit lachrymose and makes him sort of drag his feet when the next morning's duties call him to store or the office.

B. E. CHIEF spent Saturday in Woodstock.

Ernest Cluff of Bloomfield was in town on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. McCain and Mrs. R. McCain at Woodstock spent the New Year's with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Riley.

Douglas Downey returned to Bathurst on Wednesday.

Miss Rovene Downey leaves for Carleton this week, where she has accepted a position.

The Lakeville Amateur Society repeated their comedy "Nothing But Truth" here in the Opera House on Friday evening. The parts were all well taken and the performance on the whole was most creditable.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Kennedy have returned from Newcastle, where they spent Christmas with the latter's parents.

Chas. Herrington is taking a holiday with his parents at Miramichi. Friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. Henman have learned directly of their safe arrival in England.

The Rev. Hugh Miller will preach on Sunday next, Jan. 7, as follows: at Centreville 11 a. m., at Lakeville, at 3 p. m., and at Bloomfield Corner at 7 p. m.

EAST CENTREVILLE

Denny and Russell Lewis returned home last Saturday from Hayden and Herrington's camp, Foreston.

Cyril and Eric Brown won the races at Centreville on the ice on Christmas day.

RADIO FLASHES

(Edmundston Observer)

On Sunday night there was quite a crowd gathered around the residence of Stewart White, Canada Road. The reason for this crowd of people on a cold December night in this New Brunswick northland was a stentorian voice greeting the children of the North American continent and the speaker was no less a personage than Santa Claus. St. Nick himself, however, could not be seen, but the voice proceeded from a horn. It appears that this gentleman was speaking from Schenectady, N.Y., and was making use of the Radio phone.

After the church services on Sunday evening a number of people made their way to Mr. White's hospitable home, where anybody, anytime finds a welcome, and "listened in" to music, sermons, and messages from different parts of the United States.

The editor of the Observer heard that night messages from the Hon. Calvin Coolidge, vice President of the United States, Navy Denby and Secretary of the U. S. War department Weeks, as well as many others. Mr. White has a loud speaker attached to his Radio phone and can be heard for several blocks.

Messages from different parts of the continent have been received since it was installed, and last week one was heard from Manchester, England. The outfit is manufactured by the Northern Electric Company and is giving splendid satisfaction. Mr. White is selling this Radiophone and will be glad to give particulars to anyone enquiring as to price, or to give a demonstration on request.

Every subscription that expires during December—about 600 do—may be renewed on payment of $1.50 if the money is sent right now. The Observer feels the pinch of the return to normal times possibly more than any other business, and every dollar and a half helps to keep the wheels turning.

DON'T LOSE ANOTHER HAIR

35c "Danderine" Saves Your Hair—Ends Dandruff!
Delightful Tonic

Don't lose another hair. Don't tolerate destructive dandruff. A little Danderine now will save your hair; thicken and strengthen it; double its beauty.

Falling hair never stops by itself! Dandruff multiplies until it forms a crusty scale, destroying the hair, roots and all, resulting in baldness.

Your druggist will tell you that "Danderine" is the largest selling hair saver in the world because it corrects and tones sick, ailing hair of men and women every time. Use one bottle of Danderine then if you find a single falling hair or particle of dandruff, you can have your money back.
