TOWN MENACED BY FOREST FIRE

Wind Changed Barely in Time To Avert Danger—Flames Threaten Back Sett.

For the past few days the Sugarloaf Mountain, which is situated about a mile to the rear of the town, has been shrouded in a great blanket of smoke which proceeded from a forest fire blazing on private lands to the rear of the mountain.

Although the night attracted considerable attention on anxiety was felt until Tuesday afternoon when, roused by a freshening breeze, the flames spread beyond the control of the fire fighters and kindled its tongues of fire around the station and at the mountain, rapidly enveloping the foliage on the north eastern side. Great clouds of smoke, pungent with the odor of burning spruce floated over the hills to the east dimming the riotous beauty of their autumnal tints.

At intervals huge flames darted menacingly skyward and the situation began to assume a rather military aspect towards the town. As the breeze stiffened and night drew on many anxious minds involuntarily turned back to that fatal day in July twelve years ago.

Lack of water in the vicinity and insufficient earth, owing to the rocky formation of the ground thereabouts, combined against the efforts of the fire fighting crews and hourly increased danger but additional help was sent from town and before long their efforts began to tell. When the wind changed to the southwest quarter yesterday morning, much of the danger to this locality was averted but as the breeze was a strong one the fire for a time threatened settlements to the rear of the mountain. A heavy rain, however, which visited the district last evening has practically extinguished the blaze so that further damage is unlikely.

Beyond a considerable quantity of burned forest, occasioned by the fire is not heavy and much of the natural beauty of the historic old Sugarloaf Mountain has been destroyed.

LYOYD IS COMING!

Harold Lloyd, the screen's most popular comedian, will be seen in his latest production "Quintet's Best" at the Opera House next Wednesday and Thursday. This is Lloyd's first five part feature and according to all reports is the best work in this class of comedy. Many inquiries regarding it are being received and undoubtedly the Opera House will be filled for its showing.

Things to worry about now include a threatened shortage of furs.

HUNTING SEASON'S SECOND FATALITY

Henry Carrier of St. River Cove Accidentally Shot on Sunday Last.

While hunting on Sunday afternoon, Henry Carrier of St. River Cove, was accidentally shot on Sunday last. The victim, who is about sixteen and two other boys of that place, upon deciding to precede the party for some reason or other the victim of the accident handed his gun to his brother. When a sagged bush fence was reached the young brother made an unsuccessful attempt to make it and fell backwards simultaneously discharging the rifle. The bullet happened to be pointed in the direction of the older brother who was at yet only a short distance away and the shot entered behind the ear cutting out on the opposite side. Death was instantaneous.

An inquest was held by Coroner Dr. Ellis of Jacques River and the jury gave a verdict of accidental death. The funeral services were held on Tuesday morning, the Rev. Father Robichaud officiating.

This is the second fatality of the hunting season and the expression of sympathy for the deceased parents and brother who survive is a general one.

FREIGHT TRAIN LEAVES RAILS

Twenty-one Cars Left Track Near Tobin, Que., on Monday.

Traffic between Montreal and Laval was interrupted for some time when a freight train left the rails at 5 o'clock in the afternoon about 15 miles from Montreal. The train, which was about 165 miles long, was a result of the mishap the track was torn up for several hundred yards thus necessitating the alteration of the direct service between Montreal and Laval, and the train continued their run via the Transcontinental from Chaudiere to Montreal. The local trains, however, were operated as far as the disheveled scene of the accident where passengers were then transferred from one train to the other. According to latest advice the accident was not attended by any injuries.

The freight train which was proceeding from Riviere du Loup to Montreal with a general cargo was travelling at a good speed when the accident occurred. It was in charge of Conductor Proulx and Engineer L. Pelletier, both of Riviere du Loup.

The cause of the derailment could not be ascertained but it is believed to have resulted from a break in one of the rails. This accident is the second one this season at that section of the line.

NEWCASTLE BOY SERIOUSLY HURT

Four-Year-Old Son of O. Collette Hit by Motor Truck Tuesday.

Newcastle, Oct. 4.—The little four-year-old son of O. Collette was struck and seriously injured by an auto truck Tuesday afternoon near Henneville Corner. The child ran in front of the truck and was knocked down, fortunately the car did not pass over it, as the result he had a bone broken. The child was taken to Dr. McGrath's office in an unconscious condition and bleeding profusely from the mouth, nose and ears. The head was injured at the base of the skull. The child was removed to his home after regaining consciousness suffered considerably. The driver of the truck which was from Chatham, was taken into custody and locked up but later released, the facts going to show that the occurrence was purely accidental.

Attempts to improve any time he was asked for.

The King Government is never again happy. If the Tories want to talk, Parliament can be called on the shortest notice.

HELD UP TWICE IN TWELVE HOURS

Alderman and Woman Accomplished Committed for Trial At Blairmore, Alta.

Montreal, Oct. 4.—They left me alone, you know? They took every cent I had in my boots—$400. Then they stole my watch and cuff links. After that I don't remember, I was unconscious.

In these words, Alfred Dubois, of Blairmore, yesterday afternoon related to the court the story of his adventures in Montreal on Sept. 2 last, when he was held up and robbed twice within twelve hours. Dubois' tale of woe held the interest of a crowded court room all afternoon, as he narrated his experiences in the company of a number of "friends" who had volunteered to show him the sights of the city. Among these acquaintances, he said, was an Italian who showed his interest by removing $10 from him after flourishing an eight-inch dagger. Three other men and a woman volunteered to find the robber, said the witness, and after many wanderings through the city streets in a taxi cab, they in turn held him up and emptied his boots of his remaining cash—$500 which he had brought from Joliette.

The quartet alleged to have committed the second hold-up committed Dubois in the prisoners dock yesterday afternoon, swelling from time to time as he narrated his story. When arrested, they gave their names as Louis Grignon, and Joseph St. George. The woman, who gave her age as twenty-three, and was of fair complexion with her three companions, in the dock, her shoulders barely rising above the rail. Grignon's head was swathed in bandages, with only one eye visible. The other two accused stood next to him and the woman.

Quest for Robber.

Dubois swore that Grignon had led him to a house on Leguachet street, where he met a number of men and the woman accused in the case. After drinking several glasses of beer, Dubois left the place, fearing trouble. According to him, he was followed by an Italian, who brandished an eight-inch dagger and demanded $10. "He got the $10," said Dubois. Continuing, the witness said that he again met Grignon who was accompanied by the other accused. They volunteered to help find the robber, and hired a taxi cab for the purpose. Several houses in the downtown district were visited, and later the party went to two clubs. But the Italian could not be found. While passing through a lonely spot near Cote St. Michel, the taxi cab halted and the party got out of the machine. The woman complained that her dress had been torn, and a quarrel arose. Dubois urged them to go back to the city, but for his pains, according to his testimony, he was set upon and robbed. He claimed that Grignon seized him by the throat, while the others helped to rob him. When they left, he was unconscious and bereft of his valuables.

W. J. P. Dagenais, for the defence called all four accused to testify in their favor. They denied the charge and swore that Dubois had told them that he had only $7 in his possession. Judge Cusson took the case under advisement.

MURDER CASE IN ALBERTA

Joliette Man Also Claimed to Have Been Robbed By Italian With Dagger.

Coleman, Alta., Oct. 3.—At the conclusion of a two-day preliminary hearing, at which some 25 witnesses for the Crown were heard, Emilio Piccarillo, Blairmore, Alta., alderman and alleged run runner, and his alleged woman accomplice, Mrs. Charles Lassandro, were today committed for trial by Magistrate Gresham on the charge of jointly participating in the murder of Provincial Police Constable Stephen O. Lawson here on September 21st last.

It is likely that the trial will be held at the Supreme Court criminal session, which opens at MacLeod next Monday.

Seasonal evidence was given by D. J. Brown, a resident of Blairmore, who testified that he heard Piccarillo say on the afternoon of the murder that "if the constable had shot his boy, he would kill him the night, by God, and Piccarillo would have killed the gun he was carrying."

The evidence of a number of eye-witnesses was taken today. The shooting occurred at Joliette, where the victim was shot by a man who was later identified as the Italian.

DEVON MAN HIT BY AUTO

Edgar Smith, Aged 73 Had Fractured Yesterday Afternoon.

Edgar Smith, formerly of Hampden, who had lately resided at North Devon, while riding a bicycle this afternoon collided with an automobile at the corner of Carleton and Brunswick streets.

He was rendered unconscious and suffered serious lacerations about the head by being thrown through the windshield of the car. He was rushed to Victoria Hospital by several doctors who responded to emergency calls but the extent of his injuries had not been fully determined except that his skull was fractured.

The automobile was driven by James Warnock, of Milltown, N. B., who had driven through from his home today, accompanied by his wife and with Thomas Lee of St. Stephen, as a passenger. Witnesses of the accident said that Mr. Smith, who is 73 years old, was really to blame for the accident as instead of rounding the silent policeman at the corner, he cut across into Brunswick street while turning up from Carleton street and Mr. Warnock, it was said, was unable to avoid the collision.

Mr. Warnock was driving down Brunswick street, witnesses said, and quickly turned his car to the right to avoid the collision when Mr. Smith turned the corner on the bicycle. The aged man was thrown through the windshield of the car and then dragged diagonally across the street. He was badly cut about the head and bleeding profusely when picked up while the only signs of life were occasional moans.

It was believed late this afternoon that his chances of recovery were not bright. He has been residing at North Devon with Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Roy, who for the past three years and has a son who lives in New York.

According to Reputation.

Higgins—"I had your friend the naturalist met with an accident. What was it?"

Miggins—"Someone gave him a tiger cub, and said it was so tame that it would eat anything and everything."

ing occurred just at dusk, when lights had been turned on, but all evidence was to the effect that there was a man and a woman in the "murder car."

BYRNE PONDERS PARIS CASE

Attorney General Says He Will Have Made Up Mind in a Week.

St. John, N. B., Oct. 4.—Asked today what course his department would pursue in the case of John Paris, who has had five trials for murder to date, Attorney General, Hon. J. P. Byrne, said today that he expected to be in the city again in about a week and that something would be decided upon by then. He said he had no further comment to make upon the case in the meantime.

G. H. Vernon, K.C., counsel for John Paris, said this afternoon that as yet he had received no communication from the Attorney General as to what course the crown would pursue in the case, though he expected to know soon. He will leave tomorrow morning by automobile for his home in Truro.

EXECUTIONER FOR SWIM ARRIVES

Woodstock, N. B., Oct. 4.—M. A. Doyle, of Montreal, is the executioner who will carry out the death penalty in the case of Benjie Swim, condemned to be hanged on Friday morning for the murder of his cousin, Mrs. Olivia Swim Trenholme, who he shot in March last with her husband, Harvey Trenholme, a returned soldier, of Baie Verte, N. B.

Sheriff Foster returned to Woodstock today accompanied by Doyle, who, he said, he brought here upon the recommendation of the High Sheriff of Montreal, by whom he was said to be an experienced and efficient executioner. Sheriff Foster said upon arrival that he had received final instructions that the death sentence must be carried out and that everything was now in readiness for carrying out the orders of the court of the Minister of Justice.

Meanwhile Swim is recovering from the shock of the sentence which he has been suffering from. Reports that he will have to be carried to the gallows were not confirmed by Sheriff Foster today. Swim was said to be cheerful and an official said that he "waits his fate with calmness."

SPURIOUS PEARLS BAFFLE DETECTION

Parisian Owners of Valuable
Strings of Gems Thrown Into Consternation.

Owners in Paris of valuable strings of pearls have been thrown into something like consternation by the published opinion of Dr. Louis Boutan, professor of science at the University of Bordeaux and an expert in pearls, that he and other pearl experts are unable to distinguish between real pearls and those artificially grown by Japanese. The statement of Dr. Boutan, made at the French Academy of Sciences, removes the last hope concerning Japanese pearls, which have been grown in quantity since M. Mikimoto, the Japanese scientist made his discovery.

Pearls normally are grown by accident, through a fine grain of sand entering the shell of the oyster. The white substance, called a pearl grows inside the oyster and is a secretion caused by the effort of the shellfish to get rid of the foreign substance. Mikimoto conceived the idea of opening oysters and inserting the foreign substance, or grain of sand, that formerly came there accidentally.

Since Japanese began to grow pearls artificially, there has been much discussion as to whether these new pearls would affect the value of the accidentally grown pearls. The only difference would appear to be in the pearl seed, or grain of sand, and now it is claimed by Dr. Boutan that even this difference cannot be detected.

The statement of Dr. Boutan in category: "If I did not have a certificate of origin when sections of pearls were shown me, pearls cut into sections for testing purposes, I would not be able to say which pearl is artificial."

THE GRAVEST PERIL CONFRONTING WORLD

Toronto, Ont., speaking at a Mass-gathering recently R. Hon. Arthur Meighen said that statistics showed that the educated and intellectual members of the race were not propagating their kind to the extent they ought, while those classes of the human race less intellectual and controlled by impulses were reproducing at a rapid rate. He made the statement that the gravest peril confronting the world to-day is a fervent appeal to members of the Masonic order and all who desired that a strong and virile citizenship should be built up in Canada to face this problem boldly and to do their part in preserving the great traditions of the race for service to humanity.

REST. POTATO CROP ONLY HALF YIELD

Scarce But of Good Quality in Some Parts While Others Districts
Show Reverse.

According to late reports the potato crop throughout Restigouche County is more or less of a failure considering the extensive scale on which farmers of certain districts have gone into this branch of agriculture this past summer. Digging, except in the case of a few farmers who have an immense acreage to cover, is about over half comparing the crops with that of last year the result shows only about half the expected yield. In some districts the potatoes are of a first class quality although very scarce in the ground. In other localities, especially near the Gloucester county line a very poor potato raising crop extensive scale heavy yield is reported but about two thirds are effected by rot.

Last spring the farmers along the Charlott and New Mills section of the coast planted great quantities of government inspected seed potatoes.

Many farmers former trials were 20 or 25 per cent success from 50 to 100 per cent this year, according to their facilities to handle the harvest. One horticulturist who has rented several farms in that vicinity planted over six hundred barrels. For the past few weeks men, horses and machinery engaged in digging operations have succeeded in turning up only a few potatoes in the soil. Now that the digging of the coast. And now that the digging of the coast is about completed large potato fields.

$1,500,000 Construction Pro-

For Cars Grows.

Following recent completion of a vast construction program costing $8,000,000, Dodge Brothers, Detroit, have broken ground for another huge 6-story building requiring an additional investment of $1,500,000. In this new unit, 440,000 ft. of floor space will be provided. It will be devoted largely to closed body work.

The new principle of all-steel closed body construction developed by Dodge Brothers has generated a rapidly-growing demand for this type of body. The new assembly, enameling and storage human race less intellectual and controlled by impulses were reproducing at a rapid rate. He made

FOURTH ANNUAL FAIR WAS A GREAT SUCCESS

In Spite of Unfavorable Weather the Result of This Year's Fair Was a Most Gratifying One—Netting
Proceeds of $4,477.00.

MANY PRIZES AWARDED.

Campbellton's Fourth Annual Fair, which was brought to a close on Friday evening last after being in operation for three days, proved a genuine attraction and a successful undertaking for the proceeds, over all expenses which were heavy, amounted to $4,477.00.

The opening day of the event and the one following were extremely cold for the time of the year and doubtless this circumstance was responsible for the absence of a great many people from the surrounding country who otherwise would have attended. In spite of this contingency, however, the undertaking resulted in a gratifying success. The fair building was crowded with an enthusiastic throng each evening and enjoyed generous patronage during the daytime. Radio-telephone equipment, the local band and Rattray's orchestra were three additional features this year which were much appreciated by the visitors.

Taking into consideration the stringent financial condition of the country in year and also the existence of several other contemporary local sources of diversion the proceeds of the fair present figures of very satisfactory proportions and hearty congratulations are due all those who contributed towards the success of the event.

The reports of the various committees are as follows:
Ticket Committee $622.00
Dining Hall Committee 734.00
Sales Committee 1353.00
Entertainment Committee 912.00
Vegetable Department 735.00

COLLINS' BROTHER TELLS HOW MICHAEL REMAINED TO DIE

Patrick Collins.

INDIANA EDITOR TOLD EXACT TRUTH

Was Asked to Change Back to the Old Fashioned Way.

It is not pleasant and profitable to always speak the plain truth in the columns of the newspaper. Men who have tried this heretofore have always come to grief. Only a few days ago the editor of a paper in Indiana grew tired of being called a liar, and announced that he would tell the truth in the future, and the next issue contained the following news notes.

"John Banin, the laziest merchant in town, made a trip to Belleville yesterday."

"John Coyle, our grocery man, is doing a poor business. His store is dirty and dusty, how can he do much?"

"Rev. Stix preached last Sunday night on 'Charity.' The sermon was a very ordinary town girl, who doesn't know any more about cooking than a jack-rabbit does, and never helped her mother three days in her life. She is not a beauty by any means, and has a gait like a duck, the groom is an up-to-date loafer. He's been living off the old folk all his life and is not worth shucks. It will be a hard life."

"The governor of our State, a very ordinary man, and who was elected by accident, was here yesterday. He has very few friends here now. He promised some of the voters of this precinct 'a piece of the pie' in event of his election, but had forgotten all about it when the time to hand over the little office rolled around."

The paper had no sooner reached the public than a committee was sent to the editor bearing a petition asking him to continue in the good old way, and stating that they believed him to be a truthful honest man.

ELISIE TELLS HOW

"I've just heard of a new charm to tell whether anyone loves you; and, if so, who it is," whispered Elsie.

"What is it?" queried Sophia, absently fingering a new diamond ring.

"Well, you take four or five chestnuts, name them each after some man you know, and then put them on the stove, and the first one that pops is the one that loves you."

"Hm!" said Sophie, "I know a better way than that."

"Do you?"

"Yes, indeed. By my plan you take one particular man, place him on the sofa in the parlor, sit close to him with the light a little low and look into his eyes. And then, if he doesn't pop, you'll know it's time to change the man on the sofa."

OPENS DOORWAY TO OTHER MINISTERS

Church of England Will Permit
Other Clergymen to Preach in Churches.

London, Ont., Sept. 28.—With but one dissenting voice, the Provincial Synod of Ontario of the Church of England in session at Crony Memorial Hall, this city voted to unlash the doorway of their church to ministers of other denominations when following a long and warm debate it decided in favor of amending canon six. The revised portion of the canon will read as follows: "Nevertheless this shall not prevent the bishop of any diocese from giving occasional authorization to any minister of another communion to preach in an Anglican church in his diocese provided he is assured that such minister is working towards the ideal of union set forth in the 'appeal to all Christian people' issued by the Lambeth conference of 1920, and that the incumbent of the parish where he is to preach is prepared to invite him to his church."

The paper had no sooner reached the public than a committee was sent to the editor bearing a petition asking him to continue in the good old way, and stating that they believed him to be a truthful honest man.

MUCH BUILDING
THIS SUMMER

Some Thirty Permits Issued To Date—
Monetary Value Approximates to $450,000.

Campbellton has this summer been the scene of considerable building activity. Over thirty permits have been issued to date and the total valuation of these buildings when completed will be in the neighborhood of $450,000 and may possibly reach the half million mark. Dating from the early spring fifteen private dwellings have been erected and several others are now in the course of construction. Among these are several fine residences which are a credit to the town. A large convent school, also a Roman Catholic Presbytery are being erected on the east side of Central Street. These are both magnificent structures of brick and will be completed about the first of the year. J. I. Boudreau former owner and proprietor of the St. Louis Hotel is putting up a large brick building on Ross-street.

Much speculation has been advanced as to the possible nature of the business which will be carried on in the new building but it is generally believed that it will be a hotel or a departmental store. It is understood that the building when completed will be a structure of five stories. Two new business buildings are also going up on Water S. One of these is a trial progress in Campbellton.

Gray's Wholesale is now making a large addition to their warehouse and office building on Water Street. Half of the new building will be used as an addition to the present warehouse and the other half will house a ten ton cold storage plant.

The new building which will provide spacious and modern offices for the town is well under way and promises to be a real source of pride. The new curling rink has also been started and when this is completed the local curling club will have a fine new building.

The firm of Hamilton & Collier have also made an extension to their wood-working factory which speaks well for the growth of their business. In addition many garages and smaller buildings have been erected in different parts of the town during the summer. Such activity speaks well for industry in a town which is a trial progress in Campbellton.

Wedding March. She was becomingly gowned in white cotton crepe with veil and orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of American beauty roses and ferns. Little Miss Opal Blair, sister of the bride and Miss Vickie Miller cousin of the bride acted as flower girls.

The house was artistically decorated with flowers for the occasion, the bride party standing under an arch of autumn leaves.

"Perfect Day" was pleasingly rendered by Mrs. David Jamieson of Moncton. After the ceremony a dainty buffet luncheon was served, after which dancing was indulged in.

The happy couple left for a honeymoon trip to Nova Scotia. The bride's travelling suit was of navy serge with blue and silver hat and a squirrel scarf the gift of the groom.

The gifts were numerous consisting of cut glass, silver, linen, etc. On their return they will reside at Bathurst.

EDITOR'S MAIL

Dear Editor:

I have read with deep interest Dad's remarks of the 7th inst. re Petite Rochelle, and I think more than twenty attention should be paid to them by the citizens of Restigouche and Broadlands. This settlement is very old, being founded in 1638 or 1639 by Jean Jacques Enand, more than a hundred years before the Indian Settlement at Mission Point. The Indian village was at that time on the south shore of the river at Atholville. It has been said that Pulemie in Nova Scotia was the first French Indian settlement in the world. Now it was founded by D'Entremont in 1650, twelve years after Petite Rochelle, and even though there is no trace left of the once celebrated fortified town, it should not be confused by historians with Petit Rocher, near Bathurst, N. B. But it would be proper to amend the spelling of both as I wrote them purposely.

These names are purely French and the usual spelling is quite shocking. As Rochelle is of the feminine gender an "e" should be added to Petit—Petite Rochelle—the same would apply to Petite Roche, another genuine French name of the place is Rocher with an "r" then Petit is O. K. Petit Rocher—should any anglicizing of the names be contemplated, it would be far better to translate Petit and say Little Rochelle. Little Rocher, or even Little Rock. But if we make up our mind to keep the old form, let us use it right and genuine.

OUR LOCAL BAND.

All those who visited the fair on the evenings on which the band was in attendance spoke very highly of their aggregation of local instrumentalists. Campbellton's band, which was reorganized only recently, is steadily improving in membership until now, at full strength, it can boast of about two dozen pieces.

Although not in full force, the band furnished a musical program at the fair on Wednesday and Friday evenings of last week and added very appreciably to the enjoyment of both occasions. The time of the players was almost perfect in many of the pieces rendered and the harmonious blending of the various instruments combined to produce music of a quality which is far above the capabilities of the average small town band.

HICKS—BLAIR.

The home of Mrs. Mary Blair was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Sept. 27th when her eldest daughter Catherine Gertrude was united in marriage to Mr. Edgar Hicks of Bathurst. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. McLean in the presence of immediate relatives.

The bride who was given away by her eldest brother Glenison, entered the room to the strains of Lohengrin.

FATHER PACIFIQUE.

Generous to a Fault.

A congressman was in the office of a friend, a justice of the peace, in Ohio town, when a couple came in to be married. After the ceremony the justice accepted a modest fee and handed the bride an umbrella as she went out.

The congressman looked on gravely and asked: "Do you always do that, Frank?"

"Do what? Marry them? Oh, yes."

"No, I mean bestow a present upon the bride."

"A present? Why, wasn't that her umbrella?" gasped the justice.

"No; it was mine," replied the congressman, sadly.

VICTIMS OF DUAL SUICIDE IDENTIFIED

Two Men Found Hanging in Maine Woods Belonged to New Jersey.

Portland, Me., Sept.—Inexplicable in life and fearing age to lose the other as their allotted time drew near, Charles and James Westervelt of Little Falls, New Jersey, twin brothers, entered into a strange suicide compact which brought them 500 miles from home to the little town of Gorham, Me., where their bodies were found hanging from a tree in an unfrequented wood.

Although the suicides had attempted to conceal identity by stripping their clothes of all marks, a newspaper man discovered the name of Taylor & Bartlett, a Passaic haberdashery firm, on their neckties. This clue led to an investigation that ended in the identification of the bodies. The initials "C. W." were found on the clothing of one, and W-138 and W-131 marked in their handbills. They were about 55 years old.

The discovery of the two bodies gave rise to the early report that there had been a lynching. As soon as suicide was apparent the authorities found themselves baffled by the apparently successful efforts of the men to destroy all means of identification. Under the bodies was a little pile of ashes, where they had burned letters and papers.

After viewing the bodies, Fred Messer, a Gorham farmer, declared that he met two men walking along the road last Thursday. A local storekeeper remembered seeing a piece of rope to two strangers resembling the suicides.

Passaic, N. J., Sept. 30.—Bulletins posted by a Passaic daily, telling of the discovery of the bodies of two men evidently brothers, in the woods near Gorham, Maine, led to their identification here as James and Charles Westervelt of Little Falls, N. J.

Fred Bartlett of Taylor & Bartlett, a men's furnishing store, remembered selling them the brown suits mentioned in the bulletin and also the hat which bore the name of his firm and the initials "C. W." Charles Westervelt had been employed for some time as a bookkeeper by the Biddle & Bogert Paint Company, where Mrs. Mary Conklin, a clerk, said the souvenir key ring and disk, found with the bodies, were tarnish advertisements belonging to Westervelt.

Edward W. Jovett, the newsdealer whose stand adjoins the newspaper office, saw the brothers last on Sept. 9. They came to him every morning for papers. Since Sept. 9 he has been saving copies for them.

In Little Falls, where the brothers lived, Mrs. John Harlor, a neighbor, recalled a meeting with the brothers two weeks ago, in which they had failed to stop and chat with her, as they usually did. Shortly after this meeting they remarked to Mrs. Harlor that they were "going away for a rest."

James Westervelt, whose resemblance to his brother Charles was so strong that the two were often thought to be twin, was a trustee of the Ridgeland Cemetery company, at Lelewanna, N. J.

In all their tales the brothers were alike. They were inseparable and their revolution to each other was steadfast. They were often seen together taking long strolls in the countryside about Little Falls.

About twelve years ago, through the death of an aunt, they inherited a sum of money which enabled them to all appearances, to live in comfort. Of their relatives nothing is known. Friends say they were bachelors.

CHILD MEETS SUDDEN DEATH

Eight-Year-Old Boy Fatally Injured When Play House Collapsed.

Quebec, Sept. 30.—While playing in the yard of the St. Sauveur Orphan Home, where he was a boarder, Andre Robitaille, the eight-year-old son of Mrs. Joseph Robitaille, a widow, was crushed under a pile of wood and died before physicians summoned had reached the point of the accident. The circumstances accompanying the accident still render it more sad. Young Robitaille, with a number of other young lads, had decided to build a little house out of a pile of boards which were lying in the yard. Just as they had realized their dream and had taken possession of the fragile house, one of the boards slipped, and the whole building crumbled to the ground. One of the boys, Robitaille, was unable to get out before the crash. The situation was immediately realized by his companions, who called for help and then started to remove the pile of boards under which Robitaille was buried. When the lad was rescued it was seen that he was seriously hurt, and the doctor summoned. However, the injuries sustained proved fatal shortly afterwards and the doctor could do nothing. It was stated that the child's skull was fractured. The news of the accident was conveyed to the mother of the victim, who was working at the time, and, needless to state, the sadness of the tragedy was rendered more acute.

Coroner Joliveau held an inquest this morning over the remains of the young boy and a verdict of accidental death was returned by the jury.

BRAZILIAN WEALTH STILL UNTOUCHED

Brazil's Wealth More Extensive
Than That of the United States.

The potential services which Brazil is capable of rendering to the rest of the world and to Western Europe in particular, is a subject that deserves the careful study of business men visiting the Brazil Centenary Exhibition at Rio de Janeiro, which lasts until well into the Spring of 1923. Some English Journals are emphatic on this point and urge that English visitors who go to Rio with the idea of furthering British commerce with Brazil must first of all study the Brazilian wealth. Two centuries ago, Brazilian raised more cotton than any other country in the world, one hundred years ago she outstripped other countries in cocoa production and at one time she was a world source of supply for sugar. But these peaks of industrial progress are long since lost in the past.

Brazil has an area something over 3 1/4 million square miles. That is to say, it is more extensive than the purely continental area of the United States. According to a census taken two years ago, her total population only amounts to a little over 30% million. The population, for the most part is confined to the Atlantic States and there is an enormous area of land of extraordinary fertility watered by a greater number of rivers than are to be found in any similar area of the earth's surface, practically unoccupied and practically unused, which are yielding to the rest of the world little or no service of any kind. This is mainly because they lack adequate population to cultivate them, and still more because they lack adequate transport facilities which would enable any commodities which might be raised in the interior to be taken down to a port of shipment at such a cost as would give any reasonable prospect of the produce being sold at a moderate price.

VANCOUVER THUGS GET BIG LOOT

Robbers Attack City Paymaster in Broad Daylight and Escaped with $76,304.

Vancouver, Oct. 1.—Police efforts in Vancouver and the surrounding districts had up to last night failed to apprehend the three bandits who shortly after ten o'clock yesterday morning attacked City Paymaster C. A. Schooley and his assistant, Robert Armstrong, just outside the City Hall and escape with a bag containing $76,304, representing the civic payroll for September.

Yesterday afternoon detectives detained Philip Ruggero and Tony Calibro, owner of the car in which the bandits escaped. Both the men are Italians. The robber who fired the three shots from a revolver was of usual physical proportions and the hunt was commenced immediately after eye witnesses had given a general description.

It is thought they have crossed into Letu Island with the intention of escaping into the United States by boat. Unless the police recover the stolen money it will be a dead loss to the city as not a cent of protection against loss by robbery of this character was carried, officials say.

The robbery was spectacular and daring. Every detail of the coup worked smoothly. Callibro declared he rented the car to a man who had given him the name of Fred Wells, New Westminster, but there is no such man in that city, it is said.

STILLMAN NOT YET SATISFIED

Stillman Has Not Conceded Defeat and Will Request Substitution of Judges.

James A. Stillman, multimillionaire banker of New York, yesterday lost his fight to divorce Mrs. Anne U. Stillman and disown Baby Guy Stillman and was himself found guilty of the charge he made against his wife—the parentage of an illegitimate child. Mr. Stillman, it was indicated last night, has not given up the fight. His lawyers would not say whether they would appeal from the findings of the referee should these be upheld by a Supreme Court Justice, but they were reported to have made a move which seemingly makes clear that they have not conceded defeat.

MILL TO RUN THIS FALL.
The local shingle mill of Stetson Cutler, formerly known as the Shives Lumber Company has begun a fall cut on the huge pile of cedar logs west of the ferry slip. When it is remembered that this mill did not operate last fall it appears as though this fact is significant of improving conditions in the lumber business here.

SCHOOL FAIR AT NEW RICHMOND

Interest of Grown-ups As Well As Children, Make Fair Great Success.

New Richmond, Pro. Quebec.—Wednesday, Sept. 13th, was a Red Letter Day with the school-children of the municipality of New Richmond, Co. Bonaventure, it being the occasion of the first school-fair ever held in the place.

The great interest manifested in the affairs was shown by the number of children and "grown-ups," who found their way to the Model school, where the exhibition took place.

To Mr. Hector LeBlanc B.S.A., official agriculturist, is due great credit for the fair. During the previous winter he visited the schools and explained the work of the children, and took their orders for seeds, etc., which were filled later. Mr. LeBlanc is delighted with the success of the exhibition, and is, thus encouraged to pursue more actively the work in this locality.

People are very interested, and public feeling in the municipality is very strongly in favour of the continuation of this work, as interest in rural and domestic pursuits will thus be aroused in the young people.

Sixty dollars were given in prizes; there were 140 exhibitors and 504 exhibits. Exhibits of Huron Wheat and Alaska Oats were splendid. Exhibits of woolen goods, embroidery, preserves, and cakes were very good. Drawings of rural scenes show talent in the children in this line. Compositions entitled "My Little Garden" were also good.

Notwithstanding the limited space the officials were pleasantly surprised with the good order that reigned during all the time of the exhibition.

Races for the children were a very pleasing feature of the recess. Over one hundred and twenty prizes were awarded to exhibitors.

ROSEBERRY ST. SEWER TO

The Graphic has been informed the railway authorities have their papers ready for signature, permitting the town to put in a sewerage pipe under their track on what was formerly known as Victoria street. It has not yet been definitely settled whether this sewer will be extended up Roseberry Street to Sugar Loaf street or only up to George Street.

WOULD BE SUICIDE RECOVERERS

Mrs. Fred Furlong of Lorne settlement, whom it is alleged, attempted to commit suicide on the night of Sept. 19th inst., by cutting her throat, is now recovering although for several days her life was in the balance. Mrs. Furlong now testifies in her confession to her spiritual adviser that the act was not committed by herself, but refuses however, to divulge the name of the person or persons who made the assault. Little dependence, however, is placed on the attempted murder story as, it is alleged, the contents of Mrs. Furlong's cranium have not always registered normal. An investigation into the matter is to be held shortly.

FIRE AT SHIVES MILL.

The new diaphone which now substitutes the old fire alarm bell notified citizens on Saturday evening about 8.15 of a blaze at Shives mill. The fire was first discovered in a pile of slabs near the tie carrier. The fire department responded promptly and extinguished the blaze before it did any considerable damage. The cause of the fire is unknown but it is thought that it may have originated from sparks from the pipes of a party of men who were enjoying an evening smoke in that vicinity. When this rumor is founded on fact or not it should prove a lesson. Gentlemen whose wives will not permit them to smoke in the house should erect for themselves a "Smoking Den" in the back yard where they can indulge without danger in this particular pastime rather than run the risk of setting fire to the town.

MARRIAGE EASIER FOR RUSS PRIESTS

Monks Will be Allowed to Marry After They Have Renounced Their Vows.

Moscow, Sep. 29.—Questions relating to the right of marriage of the clergy have been thrashed out at the congress of the "new living church," which aims to succeed the old orthodox church of Russia. The conclusion was decided not to consider as an obstacle reached by the "young clergy," as to marriage the fourth degree of re-they call themselves, that virtually all restrictions of wedlock be removed. After devoting several days to discussing matters of matrimony it was decided to permit married priests to become archbishops; to allow priests to marry a second time and retain the same dignity as before; to permit monks to marry after they have renounced their vows and without losing their rank of honor, and to permit priests to marry widows. It was also decided not to consider as an obstacle to marriage the fourth degree of re-

DO NOT RUSH TO BUY COAL

Practice Has Tendency to Run Price Up—Plenty Coal for All.

The Provincial Fuel Administrator is issuing a warning to all coal dealers and users to coal to go easy on ordering hard coal for winter consumption.

There is also a good supply of Welsh coal at St. John which can be delivered at a lower price than American.

The following appeared in a recent issue of the St. John Globe:

To the Editor of the Globe:

Sir: I have had Welsh Anthracite Coal, size, tested in a small and in a No. 14 Self-Feeder Stove, it gave entire satisfaction to both parties. No 14 can use a size larger than nut.

The Gentleman using No. 14 has used Scotch and American Anthracite, if he could get this coal would not go back to American Anthracite.

I have had it used in Kitchen Stove with great success.

The public should not attempt to get a Winter supply but should partially supply their needs, this policy will also aid the dealers by making room for further importations.

It is anticipated that the cargo of Stovoids now on the way will answer the same purpose.

PROVINCIAL FUEL ADMINISTRATOR.

MANY HUNTERS TO THE WOODS

Some Special Licenses Issued Here—Many Going Next Week.

The regular season for big game will open on Monday, Oct. 2nd. Already a number of special licenses, which permit the hunting of big game from Sept. 15 to Oct. 1st, have been granted, but so far not many big game animals have been killed.

Next Monday will see the exit to the big game haunts of many of our local sports, and no doubt the next week or two will be dangerous times for moose deer and partridge.

The season for moose and deer opens on Oct. 1 and closes on Nov. 30, but shooting on Sundays is prohibited. The license allows the holder to take one moose and two deer. There is no open season for caribou. Beaver are protected, but a limited number may be taken by special permit. Mink, otter, fisher and sable may be hunted from Nov. 1 to March 31, and muskrat from March 25 to April 30. Foxes may be hunted from Oct. 1 to Feb. 28.

Partridge have been protected for several years, but an open season has been set again this year from Oct. 1 to 21, by order-in-council of the provincial government, as they are becoming more plentiful. The season for woodcock, plover, yellow legs and snipe opens on Sept. 15 and closes on Nov. 30. The season for ducks, geese and brant opens on the same date but extends until Dec. 31. The sale of migratory birds and the shooting of seagulls, pheasants, song birds and all insectivorous birds is prohibited.

Request to the Soviet government providing for the transfer of all the treasures of the churches and monasteries of the old regime, was framed as part of the programme gradually to take over the affairs of the old orthodox church.

The new living church desires the establishment of a single church treasury, and in this connection it has made plans for handling all the sums collected in the various churches throughout Russia, the government having been asked to make it possible for the new element to take over administration of church affairs. This includes a tax to be collected from the worshippers; revenues from the cemeteries, and the various other sources from which money is derived.

MADE SOME MONEY.

The provincial exhibition at Woodstock was a pronounced success from every standpoint. During the past week all the bills have been paid and there is a surplus of $11,880.

WHAT IS A LETTER

Many Times It's a Guide to Health as is This One

Women—Read It

Marmion, Ontario.—Before using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was a total wreck. I had terrible pains in my sides and was not regular. Finally I got so weak I could not go up stairs without stopping to rest half way up. I saw your medicine advertised in the newspapers and gave it a trial. I took four bottles of the Vegetable Compound and was restored to health. I am married, am the mother of two children and do all my housework, milk eight cows and do a hired man's work and enjoy the best of health. I also found the Vegetable Compound a great help for my weak back before my babies were born. I recommend it to all my friends.—Mrs. Henry James, Marmion, Ontario.

Letters which you read in the newspapers recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound are genuine expressions from women who have been helped by this splendid medicine. They are anxious for other women, who may be suffering as they did, to know of the great merit of this medicine. Each one, with her own story, tells the way to health. Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "A Woman's Peculiar Troubles" will be sent you free upon request. Write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

LONG AND HONORABLE CAREER.

Hon. R. J. Ritchie, Judge of the City Court and Police Magistrate, said it was probable he would retire on or about October 12th, of this year his birthday. He intimated that he expected to receive full retiring allowance from City Hall. Judge Ritchie will be seventy-nine years of age on his next birthday, and has satisfactorily served as Police Magistrate and Judge of the City Court for thirty-three years. Before sailing for Europe some months ago, the Judge intimated that he might not resume his duties on his return, or if he did that he would only be on duty for a short time.—St. John Globe.

DRY OFFICERS ARE GUESTS ON SHIP

Saw a $175,000 Cargo. But Were Unable to Lay Hands On It.

The intrepid mariners of the "dry navy" were treated to a new experience yesterday when they encountered the British schooner Tacoma, anchored about thirteen miles off shore. Commander Tawes of the Hahn had been on the lookout for rum runners with the intention of boarding them even in the face of the most determined resistance.

Only the other day the dry agents had been prevented from climbing on to the decks of the Onward by the doctory Skipper Shears, who leveled a revolver at the prohibition men, turned a searchlight on the British flag and said, "Let your conscience be your guide," or words to that effect.

Naturally Commander Tawes, and his men yesterday were on the lookout for gun-play, bars and drawn knives when they decided to board the Tacoma to ascertain what sort of cargo it carried.

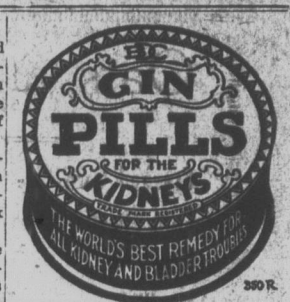

They were wrong again. The captain of the Tacoma was a gentleman of the old school. He said, "Certainly, come right aboard and look around."

As the astonished agents gaped, the skipper led the way around, exhibiting much pride in the vessel and its cargo—mostly the latter.

"Looks here," he said. "Three thousand cases of the finest liquors that man ever moistened a palate. Champagne, all kinds of wines, brandies, everything any one could want." And as the dry agents received an eyeful he announced: "I've got $175,000 worth. Pretty good, eh?"

Commander Tawes and his men admitted it was pretty good, murmured something unorthodox about being thirteen miles out and departed while the skipper of the Tacoma called after them a cherry "Good day."

boarded a number of other ships, which were anchored in the vicinity, but he did nothing toward seizing them because of the lucky thirteen. Some of these ships, Captain Tawes reported to Chief Appleby, were empty, their cargoes of liquor having been taken off by rum runners evidently before the arrival of the Hahn.

U. N. B. TEAM DEFEATS

ST. JOHN TROJANS
Fredericton, Oct. 2.—University of New Brunswick's football team open their season here on Saturday, when they met the Trojans, of St. John, and won by a score of 5 to 0. Chris Bosley scored U.N.B.'s only try so far, a few minutes before the conclusion of the second half following a "kick ice" play which the red and black ice boys had developed under coach Jack Asten, to get the benefit of their speed on the half-line. Billy Lounsbury converted on the kick for a goal.

The collegeans aroused the visitors line several times but failed to score further.

The game was seriously a fair test of the real strength of the U.N.B. team as the Trojans had never been together before.

The visitors' line-up, however, included some individual stars amongst whom were McGowan and Moloney on the half-line, and Fraser, their full back, who was the best long distance kicker on the field.

GREAT LIST OF BOUTS

Tiger Jack was in the city Friday on his way from the New Brunswick woods to New York. He looked wonderfully fit, with deep coat of tan. "If the Faneuil A. C. still has courage you can bet the I am going to come over here next Saturday and give the fans a show," said Dempsey.

Dempsey will get here on Friday. He is now in New York, where he will do some light work in the gymnasium to keep himself in shape. He had a wonderful hunting trip, and says it was just what he needed after two months of railroad travel through the country on his exhibition tour.

The Faneuil Club has a very scrappy programme to precede the champion's bout with Thompson. It will consist of four 10-round bouts to decide.

REAL BATTLES PROMISED

Freddie Madden of East Boston and Frankie Ryan of Everett will open the show. Pat McNary, the Ware heavyweight, will meet Tom Cotter of Quincy in the next bout on the bill.

There will be a lot of real fighting when young Gradwell and young Tansy start on their journey. They battled 10 terrific rounds at Revere during the summer and Gradwell got the award, but it was not a popular one.

The semi-final will be another real fight, for it will bring Jack McCellar and George Robinson together. Their last battle was a humdinger, Robinson got the decision, but the crowd boomed loud and long. It was a very fast hard fight.

DEMPESEY TO BATTLE IN BOSTON

According to latest reports Champion Jack Dempsey is scheduled to box Jack Thompson, the huge negro heavyweight, in Mechanics' Building, their Saturday night. Tiger Jack will be the headline of an all-star card to be staged by the Faneuil A. C. Three times the same club has killed the champion for a bout here. Twice the bout was scheduled for Braves Field, but J. Fluvius stopped it. The third time Dempsey had a boil on his arm and was unable to keep the date.

SPORTING NOTES

They had a dog race at one of the Cleveland half-mile tracks early in the season and now they announce three-quarter mile heats for the horses. Seeking the rich rake-off from the "Iron Men" is certain to kill sport in Ohio.

Edward "Nodder" Healey, of Halifax, is out with a challenge to Coyne of Toronto, who gained a close decision over him in Halifax about two months ago. Heavily in making his in-

CAMPBELLTON,

SYNOPSIS:

CHAPTER I.—John Stuart Webster, mining engineer, after climbing up a gulch in Death Valley, Calif., boards a ship for the East. He befriends a young lady named by a masher, thoroughly enjoying the "game."

CHAPTER II.—At Denver Webster receives a letter from Billy Geary, his closest friend. Geary urges him to come to Colorado, Central America, to finance and develop a mining camp. He decides to go.

CHAPTER III.—Dolores Rusty, the young woman Webster befriended, who has made a deep impression on him, is on her way to the west to separate.

CHAPTER IV.—At El Estanquero, capital of Colorado, Billy Geary, his partner, is living on the charity of "Mother Jenks," keeper of a drinking saloon. She receives a cablegram from Dolores, telling of her coming.

CHAPTER V.—Dolores' father, Ricardo Rusty, president of Colorado, had been killed in a revolution led by Barro, the present executive. Dolores, a child of eight, was smuggled out of the country. Mother Jenks and her husband, who had been of her occupation and habits of life, were to meet Dolores, and send her to the United States.

"Willie," Mother Jenks interrupted impatiently, a ghost of her old debauched spirit shining through her tears, "you don't owe me a blooming sixpence! You've sinned the day, sinned my reputation, and sinned a lady's peace of mind. Kiss me, my precious baby."

So Billy kissed her—gravelly and with filial reverence, for he had long suspected Mother Jenks of being a pearl cast before swine, and now he was certain of it.

"I'll send her back to the United States and promise to cable you to await her there," Billy continued. "Of course, we can't help it if you and the cablegram miss connection, and once the young lady is back in the United States, I dare say she'll have to stay there a couple of years before she can save the price of another sea voyage. And in the meantime she may marry."

"Or that haremum may 'ave turned the trick before that," Mother Jenks suggested candidly but joyously. "In course she'll be disappointed, but I'm disappointed seven days 'eavy on a young 'art, Willie; an' 'eavy disappointed at not seeing a person you ain't really acquainted with, ain't as bad as some disappointments."

"I guess I know," Billy Geary replied bitterly. "If that cablegram had only been for me! Mother, if my old partner could, by some miracle, manage to marry this Dolores girl, your arteries and your aneurisms might bust and be damned, but the girl would be safe."

"Why," Mother Jenks suggested hopefully, "you might fix it up for her when I'm gone. From all accounts 'e's no-end a gentleman."

"He's a he-man," Mr. Geary declared with conviction. He sighed. "John Stuart Webster, wherever you are, please write or cable," he murmured.

CHAPTER VI.

The ancient bromide to the effect that man proposes but God disposes was never better exemplified than in the case of John Stuart Webster, who, having formulated certain daring plans for the morrow and surrendered himself to grateful slumber in his stateroom aboard the Gulf States Limited, awoke on that momentous morn to a distinct apprehension that all was not as it should be with him. His mouth reminded him vaguely of a bird-and-animal store, and riot and insurrection had broken out in the geometric center of his internal economy.

Webster was sufficient of a jack-leg doctor to suspect he was developing a splendid little case of ptomaine poisoning. He decided to go into executive session with the sleeping-car conductor, who wired ahead for a doctor to meet the train at the next station. And when the sawbones came and, patted Jack Webster over, he gravely announced that if the patient had the slightest ambition to vote at the next presidential election, he should leave the train at St. Louis and enter a hospital forthwith. To this heart-breaking program Webster entered out the slightest objection, for when a man is seriously ill, he is in such the same position as a politician in the hands of his wife.

However, life had the habit of going back with Webster so frequently that fortunately he was trained to the thing, and after three days of heroic battling, the doctor, wearing Jack the doctor's hat, kept him in the hospital ten days longer, "feeding him up" as the patient expressed it—at the end of which period Webster, some fifteen pounds lighter and hot quite so fast on his feet as formerly, resumed his journey toward New Orleans.

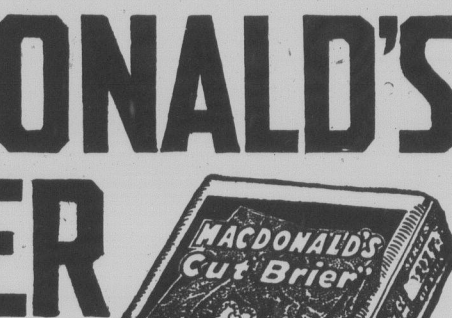

In the meantime, however, several things had happened. To begin, Dolores Rusty spent two days wondering what had become of her guardian knight of the whiskers—at the end of which period she arrived in New Orleans with the conviction strong upon her that while her love might be as courageous as a wounded lion when dealing with men, he was the poorest when dealing with women, of about two per cent less courage than a cottontail rabbit. OBITUARY.

Edward LeBoutillier.

The many friends of Edward LeBoutillier of Caraquet will learn with regret of his death which occurred at the Hotel Dieu Hospital here at 10 o'clock on Monday, 2nd inst., after the deceased had undergone an operation for an apparently incurable malady from which he had been suffering for some time. Before expiring he received the last sacrament.

The late Mr. LeBoutillier who was sixty-four years of age was a fisherman, farmer and sailor and was captain of his own schooner. He was well and favorably known along the North Shore coast and leaves many friends to mourn his death. He is survived by his wife, two sons and one daughter, three brothers and one sister. The funeral took place at his home in Caraquet on Wednesday, Oct. 4th, at 8 a.m.

Mrs. Margaret Douglas Harper.

It is with feelings of deep regret that we announce the death of Mrs. Wm. Harper of Oak Bay, which sad event took place at her home at an early hour Friday morning, after an illness of only a few days.

The deceased was up and about as usual on Wednesday last but complained of a cold. She was obliged to take to her bed on Thursday when medical aid was summoned, but without avail, death being due to heart failure.

The late Mrs. Harper, who was 69 years of age, was of a loving disposition, a kind neighbor and was deeply beloved by an exceptionally large circle of friends. She was an active member of the Presbyterian Church and took a deep interest in missionary and charitable work.

Deceased is survived by her husband, three sons, Roy of Eldersburg, Sask., Benjamin of Cross Point and Gordon at home; three daughters Mrs. Woodman, Transcona, Man., Mrs. Angus Campbell, Esquimaux and Eva at home, to whom the sympathy of the community is extended in the loss of their beloved one.

The funeral services which were held on Saturday afternoon, Rev. Mr. King of Point La Garde officiating assisted by Rev. Mr. King of Matapedia and Rev. Mr. Salter of Tide Head, were largely attended. Interment was made in Kempt Road Cemetery.

The floral tributes were as follows: A wreath from the family; cut flowers from Mrs. R. L. Sinclair; cut flowers from Miss Doyle; a spray each from the W. C. T. U.; the W. M. S. M.; and Mrs. H. McLennan; the Geraghty family; the Jelliffe and Fraser families; Misses Maurine Cook, Winifred, Delaney, and Lillian Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Fair; Mr. and Mrs. Yorton; and the Robbick, Lodge; a wreath from R. L. Sullivan, A. R. Andrews, and D. Y. Craig.

LAWLOR-ALLARD.

Dalhousie, Oct. 4.—The convent here was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Tuesday morning when Miss Rosea Arsenault Allard was united in marriage to Mr. John Lawlor of Point La Nim. Rev. J. A. Hard, P.P., performed the ceremony. The chapel was beautifully decorated for the occasion and a large gathering attended the nuptials. The bride wore a becoming suit of navy blue with hat to match and was given in marriage by her cousin, Mr. Armand LeCoffre, while Mr. William Lawlor supported the groom.

After a dainty breakfast served at the home of Mrs. James Arsenault, Mr. and Mrs. Lawlor motored to Campbellton, where they took the limited for a short wedding tour. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts. The groom is a popular section foreman on the C. G. R. The happy couple on their return will reside in Dalhousie.

A RECORD IN CONCRETE CONSTRUCTION WORK

His Worship Mayor MacKay on Monday evening stated that he had gone carefully into the cost of the concrete sidewalk construction work up to date, and found that some $2,550 had been expended. He stated that there is a credit of $2,500 to be given, bringing the expenditure down to about $500. These figures which are reliable conclusively prove Campbellton has put down her concrete walks at a very low figure, and bears out the general belief during the plebiscite taken on the issue of debentures, that no more favorable opportunity would present itself for the undertaking this work.
