the Victoria Hospital Treasurer.

Dr. McCallum's Letter Creates a Warm Discussion.

Some Lively Attacks on the Doctor's Position.

The accounts were not all in, and the liabilities have not as yet all been settled, but the committee took this occasion to place on record its objection to the letter written by Dr. McCallum, and published in The Advertiser on Saturday last.

Mr. P. W. D. Brodrick submitted a statement of the receipts and expenditures to date. The expenses amounted for tickets, $120 99 for advertising, $50 for band, and several other accounts. The receipts amounted to $2,201 72, of which $65 20 was received for medals, $1,613 27 from Queen's Park gate receipts, and $107 from J. W. Jones. This left a balance of $1.396 53.

Mr. Brodrick moved that his report e referred to Thomas R. Parker and Mr. Kingston, and that $1,000 of the $1,then referred to the necessity of forming a company to complete the col-lection of the funds. People would not give because they did not know just what was going to be done with the money. He was happy to say that a company had secured a charter, the provisional directors of which sat for ad been elected president; Col. Gartshore, first vice-president; Thomas Hobbs, second vice-president; R. W. Puddicombe, treasurer, and P. W. D. Brodrick, secretary. A committee of management was elected, consisting of the gentlemen above named, and Messrs. Charles Hunt and John Bow-

In moving the resolution he desired, he said, to draw the attention of the committee to a letter published in the fity papers, and signed by Dr. H. A. McCallum, in which the latter endeavored to set himself right with the people as the mover of the resolution at a meeting of medical men held on June 23 for the appointment of a com-mittee to ascertain what could be done owards submitting a bylaw to the peo-ple for the erection of a new hospital towards submitting a bylaw to the people for the erection of a new hospital or two pavilions to the present one. Before doing this, Dr. McCallum had pointed out what he was pleased to call misrepresentations by Ald. Winnett and himself. Mr. Brodrick said he did not think that he as a member of did not think that the present circles did not think their scheme was to be a failure, ed to make some explanation of he statements made by Dr. McCalalsehoods. -Browning. London, Tuesday, July 13, 1897.

A Reminiscence of How Hon. Alex. Mackenzie Fared.

Taking up the opposition cries against Hon. Mr. Tarte, for which no senator and no member of the House of Commons has had the courage to take responsibility, the Toronto Globe makes the following pertinent com-sary to the Liberal party. The Tory press has a perfect mastery of the art of circulating slanders about an adversary and iterating and reiterating the thing until it actually gains cre-dence for the falsehoods in quarters where these tactics should be fully known by now. Liberals surely do not forget the cries of 'steel rails,' 'Neebing Hotel,' and 'My friend Moore,' which were used against Mr. Mackenzie's government and were dinned into the pub-Thic ear until they gained a lodgment where they should not have obtained a moment's consideration. The Liberal party stands for honest politics and cannot abide the appearance of public wrong-doing, nor would we endeavor to change its character in this respect in the slightest degree. It is fair, nevertheless, to ask that no man should be condemned on the mere sayso of unscrupulous partisan newspa-pers which adopt slander as a policy and have unfortunately had so cess in its employment in the past.

The humorous side of the affair is furnished by brakemen, who sell tramps to the farmers at $1 apiece. It is said the railroad men keep the tramps locked up in box cars until the farmers pay the money. The professional tramp may be expected to give Kansas a wide berth for some time to account, no doubt, of the heavy rain, and in consequence the demand was limited and trade slow, even at the reduction in prices. There was no demand from shippers, as they had ample stock on hand, and trade in this line was dull. Choice butchers' cattle sold at 4c to 44c; good at 3½c to 3%c; fair at 3c to 3½c; and common at 2½c to 2%c per lb., live weight. Owing to the continued unfavorable advices from abroad on sheep of late, and the fact that recent sales reported, netted the ship-pers a loss of $1 25 per head, there as a weaker feeling in this market, oday, and prices declined 4c per lb., and even at this reduction export-ers did not operate freely. Sales of od choice stock were made at 3½c 3½c, and fair at 3c per 1b., live eight. Lambs were in fair demand, d sold at 3¾c to 4c per 1b., live eight. The supply of calves was hall, and prices ranged from $1 to each. Young pigs sold at $1 to each.

$5 each. Young pigs sold at $1 to each, as to size.

The offerings of live stock at the Point St. Charles market were 125 cattle, 100 sheep and 50 hogs. The emand for cattle was slow, there being only one or two loads changing hands at 2½c to 3c per lb., and one small lot of export stock was purchased at 4%c per lb. The sheep ofered were of good quality, and were bought on export account at 3¼c per lb., live weight. Hogs met with a ready sale, at 4¾e for heavy and at · 54c for live weights per lb.

depth of 8 feet in the reservoir. The against a telegraph pole, breaking his regular city supply is being pumped direct, and the pressure is much greater than yesterday, averaging 70 degrees. The pressure was reduced between 6 and 8 o'clock last night in order to prevent the drain of the lawn services. The result shows that when lawn services are not used the supply of water for other purposes is ample.

Several hundred feet of pipe have Several hundred feet of pipe have been shipped to the city to connect the springs on the north bank of the river, with the pump house. These springs were recently purchased, and have not yet been tapped. They are expected to add materially to the supply.

Consumers need not be alarmed at the milky color of the water when first drawn. This is merely caused by the infusion of air, and the combination of wind and water will hurt no one.

A special meeting of the city council will be held tonight to consider the London West amalgamation agreement and the street railway branch on Rectory street. The street railway company some time since laid ties on Rectory street intending to operate cars there; but the council afterwards requested them to run their line up Egerton street. The company stopped work, but as they have the option of either route it is likely they will stick to the Rectory street line.

Another batch of statute labor summonses has been issued.

FAGGED OUT.—None but those who have become fagged out know what a depressed, miserable feeling it is. All strength is gone, and despondency has taken hold of the sufferers. They feel as though there was nothing to live for. There, however is a cure—one box of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will do wonders in restoring health and strength. Mandrake and Dandelion are two of the articles entering into the composition of Parmelee's Pills.

LONDON GOT THE WORST OF IT. The Globe's special from Hamilton says: The Hamiltons opened up the week well by defeating the Lo in a closely contested game this after-noon. The game abounded in errors and questionable decisions by Umpire Patton, the visitors getting somewhat the worst of it. Both Johnson and Cochrane were hit hard, but the former had much the better control of the ball. The features of the game were Hoffner's catch of Reid's long fly to the left field fence, and Gun-ther's splendid drive to right garden for three bags, which with coaching would have been a homer, The attendance was 750.

New York July 13 .- The Herald's correspondent telegraphs from Pittsburg as follows:

The price of bituminous coal in the Pittsburg market today was $1 50 a ton. A week ago it was 70 cents. It looks as though there was a corner in soft coal which had previously been arranged on inside information that the strike was to come off, and supply was being held back. this be true, $1,000,000 will be made out of the miners' strike in another week. It is a great game, and the cards seem to have been dealt. Senator Marcus A. Hanna and H. L. Edith heard these things with droop-ed head and a faint rising flush, but silently refused to enlighten Mrs. Nor-thrup on her relations with the Ashleys. Her MS. had been sent some weeks previous to the magazine, and now she was on the anxious seat of the young author, who reads life or death in the editor's decree. She knew she ought to set herself to work, but a bodily languor rendered every effort abortive. Her imagination seem ed unstrung, like her nerves, and would yield nothing coherent. Her attic chamber was stifling in the long, hot dog days, and the railway trains became more and more unendurable while the engine drivers appeared to take a malignant pleasure in startling her sleep with diabolical shrieks. She began many things—stories, poems, ketches—and then threw them aside half-finished. In fact, she was sub-sisting on two little poems taken by a child's magazine, and which she cal-culated would, with the closest economy, carry her through to September. She had given up meat and tea and confined herself to bread and milk and a little fruit as the cheaper diet. If the Story was refused, after all, what was to become of her? Now that her brain Reemed atrophied, perhaps somebody's kitchen door would open to her necessities. She dared not think of poor Will. ## Exposure Will Come,

If Not in This World, Then in the Next.

God Does Not Forget to Punish Fraud - Characteristic Discourse by Rev. Dr. Talmage.

Washington, D. C., July 11.-This discourse of Dr. Talmage shows that fraud will come to exposure, if not in this world, then in the next. Text, I. Samued, xv., 14: "And Samuel said, What meaneth then this bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?"

The Amalekites thought they had conquered God, and that he would not carry into execution his threats against them. They had murdered the Israelites in battle and out of battle, and left no outrage untried. For four hundred years this had been going on, and they say: "God either dare not punish us, or he has forgotten to do so." Let us see. Samuel, God's pro-phet, tells Saul to go down and slay them alive; also to destroy all the beasts in their possession—ox, sheep, camel, and ass. 1.4rk! I hear the tread of two hundred and ten thousand men with monstrous Saul at their head. more despondent than usual, she met Harold Ashley face to face. He lifted his hat and colored high. Edith, too, was painfully embarrassed by the unexpected encounter.

"I have been trying to see you this along time, Miss March, to ask you for an explanation. The whole Ashley famerals and two hundred and ten thousand men with monstrous Saul at their head, ablaze with armor, his shield dangling at his side, holding in his hand a spear, at the waving of which the great host marched or halted. I see smoke curling against the sky. Now there is a thick cloud of it, and now I see the whole city rising in a chariot of smoke whole city rising in a chariot of smoke behind steeds of fire. It is Saul that set the city ablaze. The Amalekites and sraelites meet; the trumpets of battle blow peal on peal, and there is a deathwith long strides he easily kept by her Then there is a signal waved;

ard of each that he cannot bear to dill. Saul drives the sheep and oxen lown toward home. He has no idea any sin upon the shoulders of other Samuel, the prophet, will find out hat he has saved these sheep and oxen for himself. Samuel comes and asks Saul the news from the battle. Saul puts on a solemn face, for there is no one who can look more solemn than your genuine hypocrite, and he says: "I have fulfilled the command of the Lord." Samuel listens, and he hears the drove off sheep a little way off. Saul had no idea that the prophet's ears had no idea that the prophet's ears would be so acute. Samuel says to Saul: "If you have done as God told you, and slain all the Amal-ekites and all the beasts in their possession, what meaneth the bleating of the sheep in mine ear, and the lowing of the oxen that I hear?" Ah, one would have thought that blushes would have consumed the cheek of Saul!

No, no! He says the army-not himself, of course, but the army-had saved the sheep and oxen for sacrifice; and then they thought it would not throw off your sin upon the shoulders of other merchants. God Amalekitish king. Samuel takes the sword and he slashes Agag to pieces; sword and he slashes Agag to pieces; and then he takes the skirt of his coat, in true oriental style, and rends it in twain, as much as to say: "You, Saul, just like that, shall be torn away from your empire, and torn away from your throne." Jesus Christ said: "Unless you become as this little child, you cannot enter the kingdom of God," We may play hypocrite successfully now, but the Lord God will after awhile expose our true character. You must know the incident mentioned in the history of Ottacas, who was asked to kneel in the presence of Randolphus I.; and when before him he refused to do it, but after awhile he agreed to come in private when there was nobody in the king's tent, and then he would kneel down before him and worship, but the servants of the king had arranged it so that by drawing a cord the tent would suddenly drop. Ottacas after a while came in, and supposing he was in entire privacy, knelt before Randolphus. The servants pulled the cord, the tent drop-ped, and two armies surrounding lookdown on Ottacas kneeling Randolphus. Stacks of dead on all sides, with eyes unshut and yet grinning vengeance. Huzza for the Israelites! Two hundred and ten thousand men wave their plumes and clap their shields, for the Lord God hath given them the victory.

Yet that victorious army of Israel is conquered by sheep and oxen. God.

How natural it is to try to put off our sins on other people. Saul was charged with disobeying God. The man says it was not he; he did not save the sheep; the army did it—trying to throw it off on the shoulders of other people. Human nature is the same in all ages. Adam, confronted with his sin, said, "The woman tempted me, and I did cot". And the woman charged it upon the serpent; and if the serpent could have spoken, it to but off our sins on other people. God asks of us one-seventh of our time in the way of Sabbath. Do you suppose we can get an hour of that time successfully away from its true object? No, no, God has demanded one-seventh of your time. If you take one hour of that time that is to be devoted to God's service, and instead of keeping his Sabbath, use it for the pur-pose of writing up your accounts or making worldly gains, God will get that hour from you in some unexpected way. God says to Jonah, "You go to Nineveh." He says, "No, I won't. I'll go to Tarshish." He starts for Tarshish.

The sea rayes, the winds blow, and the ship rocks. Come, ye whales, and take this passenger for Tarshish! No man ever gets to Tarshish whom God tells to go to Nineveh. The sea would not carry him; it is God's sea. The winds would not waft him; they are God's winds. Let a man attempt to do that which God forbids him to do, or to go into a place where God tells him not to go, the natural world as well as God is against him. The lightnings are ready to strike him, the fires to burn him, the sun to smite him, the waters low him.
