Cooking Made

All the year 'round gas is the ideal fuel for cookery, the gas range the kitchen convenience without equal. And when the warm months come using various kinds of ointments, etc., the gas range ranks as a life-saver—it banishes so much toil, so much discomfort. You cannot know how much perfection has been worked into the modern gas range until you know the Oxford Gas Range.

Oxford Gas Range

It is built high and requires little stooping to get at the oven. Rvery part is easy to get at and keep clean. Burner tops lift off without tools, and grease is wiped out is a moment. Gas and air inlets are so regulated that all the gas burns with clear from Zam-Buk for burns, put some on blue flame, all heat and no waste. Over doors drop flat instead of swinging, and will hold up a heavy roast without breaking the Thermometers in oven doors change baking from guesswork to a cerl tainty. And there are plenty of other features worth your while.

Call in and see this range, and let us demonstrate to you its economy and efficiency. The price of this high-grade gas range, with 16-inch oven, is from $18.00 to $20.00 according to finish.

This range is also fitted for use with city and county of Middlesex of a nospital for consumptives.

The clause adopted does not finally settle the matter, but it advances the negotiations a considerable stage. The clause read as follows:

"Your committee beg to submit herewith a proposed agreement between the city of London and the county of Middlesex, re hospital for consumptives, recommend same for adoption as a basis for further negotiation between the city, the county and the Provincial Government, and your committee further recommend that they be given power to arrange any further details with the county and to arrange for taking a vote of the ratepayers at the next municipal election or obtain special legislation confirming the said agreement at the next session of the Ontario Legislature, providing always that reports be made from time to time by your committee to the council of such steps as may be taken by your committee.

Asphalt Repairs.

Asphalt repairs again gave the council trouble. Ald. Garratt, seconded by Ald. Gillean, moved that no repairs be made this year, as to spend the sum of $2,-500 on the pavement now would only mean to throw the money away.

When it was explained that No. 2 committee has made arrangements to have the repairs made, the mayor uled the motion out of order. Mr. Pearce Will Go.

Parks Commissioner Pearce granted ten days' leave of absence to visit Chicago as the representative of the London Playgrounds Association, when the convention of American Playgrounds Associations meets there. Ald. Gillean made the motion to send Mr. Pearce to Chicago, and Ald. Scarlett seconded it. This was a direct slap at the board of works, which at its last meeting had refused to allow Mr. Pearce leave of absence, even though the local playgrounds association had offered to pay his expenses. The members of the board of works opposed the proposal, but Ald. Stevely declared that it was "small potatoes to refuse Mr. Pearce a holiday, when all other civic employes are given holidays during the year." Ald. Gillean's motion was to give Mr. Pearce two weeks' holidays, but on motion of Ald. Matthews it was made to read "ten days' leave of absence," Mr. Pearce to be allowed to go anywhere he desires-Chicago or anywhere to meet the current expenditure of the Blocking Niagara Power Line. Mayor Judd informed the council that owing to the fact that the application of the Toronto and Niagara Power Company for permission to run a transmission line and electric railway from Brantford to London had been held up by the city of London, and that it will come up for hearing again at Ottawa before the deputy minister of railways and canals on June 27. According to a statement made in a recent letter to the mayor, the deputy minister was favorable to the granting of the franchise, despite the opposition of the representatives of the Western Ontario Municipalities Niagara Power Union and it was only because London's views on the subject had not been learned that an adjournment until the 27th inst was agreed to.

A map of the proposed route of the transmission line showed that it does not enter the city of London, but stops

City Should Be Protected.

The mayor gave it as his opinion that before the route is approved of by the department of railways and canals a clause should be inserted in the charter making the company subject to such conditions as the council of the city of London shall see fit to impose, at any time the company attempts to go through London.

The work done this year has been on exhibition at Montreal, and is certainly most creditable. Carpentry, plumbing, paint-Ing. drawing, electrical work, boot and shoe pattern-making, dressmaking, millinery and other practical work are included, all of which has been greatly admired. In this respect, Hon. Mr. Weir makes an important announcement on behalf of the Government, which seems determined that the province shall not take a back seat in a matter of such moment; that training shall not be confined to preparation for professional life, but shall include consideration of the requirements of the future artisan and agriculturist. The mechanic at one time pursued his calling in his own shop; today he is but part of the machinery in the factory, where everything is turned out. The result is that the shop no longer fits him for that leadership which too often has to be sought in other countries. FURNACE The Sunshine is differently and better DIRECT constructed than common furnaces. It's stronger, safer, more healthful The dome, the two sections of the fire-pot and the frame of the ash-pit are all securely fastened together by our famous "cup joint." Three "cup joints" in all, you see. All sections, you will notice, fit together perfectly, and are lined with a layer of asbestos cement, which unites them so firmly together that they become, in every purpose, one solid piece of metal. Can never spring or fall apart.

And that's not all! The top of the dome is fastened to the sides with cement and boiler rivets, making the Sunshine just as smoke, gas, heat and dust tight as a steam boiler. From a hygienic standpoint it takes precedence in the furnace world.

An Invitation To the Wedding

The importance of having a properly and fashionably prepared Wedding Invitation is greatly emphasized by the pleasing fact that in many cases it is preserved by the recipient as a memento of the auspicious occasion. It must therefore be prepared in the most approved style and be worthy of this honor. It is also regarded by many as a keynote to the good taste and social standing of th parties issuing it.

We study the most minute details of social requirements in our high-class engraving and copper plating for Wedding Stationery.

Economical people who appreciate the subtle distinctions which ever mark the line between the superior and the merely ordinary, should inspect our printed designs. By reason of our unusual facilities and skillful workmen, these designs are unique in their resemblance to hand engraving, and our price for this work is surprisingly small. Yesterday's jaunt proved that, while Adele is a lively stepper in light airs, she can carry sail with the best of them, and slip along, too. She was out with a full mainsail when Temeraire and Zoraya both had single reefs in, and she stood up with her weather sail well above the water. She beat Temeraire at every style of going. The management of the proposed big Dominion Day meet at Queen's Park is highly elated with the manner in which everybody is taking interest in the undertaking. And not only is great interest being shown locally, but Toronto, Hamilton, Montreal, and other places, are sitting up and taking notice. In fact, in Toronto, the annual Y. M. C. A. field games, scheduled for July 1, have been postponed until the 6th, in order to give the Toronto athletes an opportunity of showing their mettle in the local events. This action was taken even after the bills for the affair had been distributed and posted, and most certainly shows good spirit on the part of the Toronto

WILLIE IS HOT UNDER THE COLLAR.

"Billy" Amos is mad. Oh, terribly, awfully angry! "The very idea," he exclaimed this morning. "The very idea! Humph!" Then William looked daggers for several moments.

Verily, he was too hostile for utterance. It seems that some person or persons have willfully conveyed the impression that "Bill" has been training for the Marathon race on ice cream and candy, and that the bulk of his running has been to the boarding-house table at meal times.

Now, everybody who knows Willie, knows that he is a most conscientious little chap-when he is going right. Of course, there are times when he gets balky, and takes the bit in his mouth, as it were, but withal "Bill" loves work-sometimes.

But, as has been intimated, "Bill" was, and presumably, is still, angry over the rumors going the rounds at present, and it is with the purpose of vindicating the speedy one that we publish the above.

"Am I in shape?" snorted "Bill" this morning, in reply to a query. "Well, I should just snicker that I am. Why, I sleep just like a brick, eat like a race horse, feel just as strong as ---."

"But how about the running end of it?" we interposed. "Bill" snorted again. "Run? Huh! I could run from London to Calgar, and return if I felt like it—but I don't. But you just watch my smoke tomorrow morning. I'll show some of these fellows whether I'm in shape or not. I've set the alarm clock for 3 o'clock, and at 3:02 1-2 in the morn ing I'll be on my way to St. Thomas. After reaching there I'll probably run around the town four or five times, then if I have time I may run down and take a dip at Port Stanley. I'll probably land back in London about 5 o'clock-just in time for my ham and eggs-and then if I've broken into a sweat I'll get a rub-down. If I haven't begun to perspire I'll likely take a jog down to Hamilton or some other near-by suburb of London, returning by 5:30. In the evening I may repeat my morning route—and I may not. You can say for me that I'll be 'Sir William on the run' on Dominion Day."

Then, having had his say, "Bill" returned to his knitting in high glee. grabs it with both hands as easily and ball and fell upon the standing rows. HE'S A BASEBALL ENCYCLOPEDIA.

At a signal the machine is released, and, as the announcer put it, "at a speed faster than the fastest locomotive," it descends the incline, strikes the upshoot, and rises to a height of 40 feet, when a scientific arrangement of weights, causes it to turn a complete front somersault and alight on a platform of springs and large cushions. Notwithstanding that the device is a purely mechanical one, it requires considerable nerve for a person to ride in the automobile during its wild flight.

Faces that would make an old thief-hunter shudder, devilish eyes popping out of death heads, craniums so deformed we would declare them exaggerations if met with in medical books. They walked along like wolves, slouched like guerillas. 'The infantry of the Camorra,' said the chief of police to me, adding "God save Naples if these scoundrels ever take it into their heads to be masters here."

The name of the new head of the Camorra is not yet known. Among the several candidates a number of duels have been fought recently. In one of them a chief cut-throat was knifed to death; again another candidate bested his antagonist by suddenly pulling a gun on him after he had agreed that stilettos were to be the only weapons. No one is punished for these doings. The duelists simply save labor to the hangman.

In bidding farewell to his congregation recently the Rev. E. H. Hobday, pastor of Gray's Baptist Chapel (London), said there were those who were ever ready to find a blot on a minister's escutcheon, and he called on God to witness that if he had 50 ons he would not send one of th

HAS A MAGNIFICENT VOICE.

The Beggar-Student Operetta Company presented by W. Francis Firth, has just finished a very successful tour, and Mr. Firth intends to spend the summer in Londoe, where he will rechearse his company for next season's tour. Miss Beatrice Hunt, who was leading soprano in the company, is a being rapidly brought to the front rank as a singer, through Mr. Firth's tultions In speaking of Miss Hunt, Mr. Firth says: "In ever had a pupil with promise of a greater future. She possesses the necessary requirements to make a great singer, health, quality of voice, flexibility, range, and, what is most lacking in singers, temperament. Considering that she has been under my tuitton for so short a time, her progress has been wonderful, as her voice showed no signs of greatness to begin with. I feel myself responsible for discovering a voice of such promise, and adthough I have practically given up the field of teaching, I hope to guide that voice to greatness. Only proper tuitton and hard work will accomplish that result with any singer, to matter how talented."
