The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Harriet Irving Library
University of New Brunswick

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol  $\rightarrow$  (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol  $\nabla$  (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Harriet Irving Library

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole  $\rightarrow$  signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole  $\nabla$  signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

Loyal Orange Institution.

“Thou shalt teach men ordinances and laws, and shalt show them the way wherein they must walk and the work they must do, moreover thou shalt provide out of all the people, able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness, and place them to be rulers of thousands and rulers of hundreds and rulers of tens.” — Exodus, c. xviii., v. 20, 21.

GENERAL DECLARATION.

At all times nothing can be more natural, and at this time nothing can be more reasonable, than that those who have common rights to protect and common interests to defend, should act together and know each other. It is by division that the benevolent objects of true patriots are frustrated, and their best and noblest efforts of public good defeated. In these distant, but important appendages of our Great Empire, it must be obvious to every loyal and reflecting mind, that an union of intelligence, an increase of means, and a knowledge of each other are essential.

The LOYAL ORANGE INSTITUTION is formed by persons desirous of supporting, to the utmost of their power, the principles and practice of the Christian Religion, to maintain the Laws and Constitution of the Country, afford assistance to distressed members of the order, and otherwise promote such laudable and benevolent purposes as may tend to the due ordering of Religion and Christian Charity, and the supremacy of Law, Order, and Constitutional Freedom.

Its members associate in honour of King William the III., Prince of Orange, whose name they bear, and whose immortal memory they hold in reverence, tending as he did, under Divine Providence, to the overthrow of the most oppressive bigotry and the restoration of pure Religion and liberty. They revere the memory of that immortal Prince, not only as a Patriot, a constitutional Monarch and a Hero, but as a true Christian, and hope in the adoption of his name to emulate his virtues, by maintaining Religion without persecution, or trenching upon the rights of any.

The Orange Society lays no claim to exclusive loyalty or exclusive protestanism, but it admits no man within its pale whose principles are not loyal, and whose creed is not Protestant.

Disclaiming an intolerant spirit, the Society demands as an indispensable qualification, without which the greatest and the wealthiest may seek admission in vain, that the candidates shall be believed to be incapable of persecuting or injuring any one on account of his religious opinions; the duty of every Orangeman being to aid and defend all loyal subjects, of every religious persuasion, in the enjoyment of their constitutional rights.

The Rules of the Society are open not only to members of the Institution, but to the whole community; there is no reserve except the signs and symbols, whereby Orangemen know each other, and these mysteries are essential to the proper qualification of the brotherhood, the recognition of the members, and the prevention of intrusion and imposture from strangers and enemies. The association is general, not confined to any particular place, person or nation, but extends itself wherever a loyal Protestant Briton is to be found, to the remotest corners of the globe, for the establishment of Protestant faith and British liberty to the latest ages of posterity. Its whole institution is one neighbourhood, within which every Orangeman is at home in the furthest part of the world; and such is the mechanism of the association, that while its operations are thus extended, its every movement is alike felt and answered in every part.

In short the Orange Institution, like a glorious moral luminary, is intended to pour its refulgence, not on one part only of the ample circumference of the British dominions, but simultaneously on every portion equally enlightening the whole periphery.

The Institution in these Colonies can never be suppressed but by means which would subvert the constitution, and annihilate the connection with the Mother country.

In many quarters where the true nature of the Orange Institution is not properly known, its designs and objects have by some been misunderstood, and by others misrepresented. From the name it bears, being connected in every one's mind with the history of parties in Ireland, some are apt to suppose that its sphere is necessarily confined, not reflecting that an instrument which has been chiefly used in the country of its birth to suppress rebellion, repel invasion, and secure domestic tranquillity, may be found equally efficacious to loyal men of all countries in protecting their lives, liberties, and properties in these Colonies. The society is constituted upon the broadest princi ples of national freedom. It takes its stand upon the glorious principles of the Revolution of 1688; it lays its foundation in the field of British liberty; it disdains the badge of faction, and knows no emblem save the "Altar and the Throne."

As the Prince of Orange was invited to England by a coalition of parties, who were united by a common sense of their sacred duty to preserve their religion and liberties, so the Orange Society, named after that immortal Prince, invites a similar combination, and calls upon the sons of Britain to lay aside political feuds, and, like their illustrious ancestors, who signed and sealed the Great Covenant of freedom, to sacrifice every private consideration, and establish a centralization of freedom upon such a comprehensive basis as will enable every limb and fibre to receive vitality and nourishment from the parent stem.

QUALIFICATIONS

ESSENTIAL FOR A MEMBER OF THIS INSTITUTION.

He should have a sincere love and veneration for his Almighty Maker, productive of those lively and happy fruits, righteousness and obedience to his commands; a firm and steadfast faith in the Saviour of the world, convinced that He is the only Mediator between a sinful creature and an offended Creator; his disposition should be humane and compassionate, and his behaviour kind and conciliatory; he should be an enemy to savage brutality and every species of unchristian conduct; a lover of rational and improving society, faithfully regarding the Protestant Religion, and sincerely desirous to propagate its precepts (i. e.) charity and good will to all men; zealous in promoting the honour, happiness, and prosperity of his Queen and country; heartily desirous of success in those pursuits, yet convinced that God alone can grant them; he should have an hatred of cursing and swearing, and of taking the name of God in vain; he should use all opportunities of discouraging them among his brethren, and shun the society of all persons addicted to those shameful practices; prudence should guide all his actions; temperance, sobriety, and honesty direct his conduct; and the laudable objects of the Association be the motives of his endeavours.
