

QUICK PROSECUTION OF WOULD-BE ASSASSIN

Man Who Tried to Shoot Mayor Mitchell Just a Hobo—Had Made Threats Against Other Notables—His Sanity Is Questioned.

[By Special Wire to The Courier]

NEW YORK, April 18.—The arraignment to-day on a charge of assault with intent to kill of Michael P. Mahoney, to whose erring aim Mayor John Purroy Mitchel owes his life, marked the first move in the program outlined by District Attorney Whitman for the quick trial of the would-be assassin.

On Monday Mr. Whitman will present the case to the grand jury and an immediate indictment is expected to be returned, making it possible to bring Mahoney before a Supreme Court Justice for trial at an early date.

Mahoney faces a possible prison sentence of twenty years, but should be adjudged insane. He will be committed to an asylum for the criminal insane.

Frank L. Polk, corporation counsel, who was struck in the jaw by the bullet intended for the mayor spent a restless night and suffered much pain. The bullet was removed early last night and the patient is expected to recover rapidly.

The attempted assassination by Mahoney caused Police Commissioner Woods to-day to assign a secret service squad of eight men under command of a police captain to guard Mayor Mitchell.

Mayor Mitchell, after seeing that Mr. Polk was made as comfortable as possible at the New York hospital, returned to his office and finished the day as customary. Last night he attended a dinner at the New York Press Club, where he told the members of that organization that he had expected some such happening as the act of Mahoney, but that "it does seem unfair that anyone else should have to take the consequences of the hazard that properly belongs to me."

BRANTFORD COLLEGIATE IS AMONG THE ELECT

Class A Rating Given by the Inspector for the First Time on Record—Report Was Most Favorable to Institution.

The regular meeting of the Collegiate board was held last night in the Collegiate. There were present the Chairman, W. Lahey; G. Pickles, E. Sweet, Dr. Hart, Principal Burt, Mr. Scaee and Mr. Ryerson.

A letter of resignation was received from Mr. G. C. Dunlop one of the members of the staff who is leaving at the close of the present term to resume his studies at the university.

The boiler inspector who examined the boilers at the Collegiate reported them in splendid condition.

The report of the inspector, J. A. Houston, was read, and for the first time in its history this school is graded No. 1. About the only commendation made was the placing of an English dictionary in each room of the school.

Where Engine Plunged

The Grand Trunk yard engine didn't know whether to bury itself in the cemetery yesterday, or not. The above picture shows how nearly the engine came to smashing up several tombstones.

ENGINE ALL BUT WENT OVER INTO THE CEMETERY

A Freak Wreck at the Grand Trunk Yesterday—Engineer Billy Moore Had Narrow Escape.

A heavy 30-ton freight engine went over the embankment at the Grand Trunk station yesterday, and was only prevented from toppling over into the Greenwood cemetery by one or two fortunate circumstances. Luckily the engineer yardman, in charge of the engine, and the freeman managed to jump from the engine and escaped any serious injury.

Web Girths—It is notified for the information of officers commanding squadrons that the S. O. O., 2nd division, have been instructed to take in to camp a supply of web girths.

Annual Training Advance Party—The advance party under the command of the Quartermaster will leave by the early morning train on Saturday, April 30th next, for the purpose of proceeding to Niagara camp.

Camp Stores—The quartermaster upon issuing camp stores to the different squadrons will take a receipt for same from the Officer commanding each squadron.

The quartermaster will give a receipt to Officers commanding squadrons for the quantity of stores returned.

Wheat Seeding All In by April 30th

[By Special Wire to The Courier] REGINA, Sask., April 18.—"Prospects are that wheat seeding in Saskatchewan will be completed by April 30," said Hon. W. R. Mather, Minister of Agriculture.

IT ALL DEPENDS ON WHAT HUERTA DOES

United States Atlantic Fleet Will Arrive at Tampico Tuesday or Wednesday—Feeling is Held That the Trouble is Not Yet Over.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] WASHINGTON, April 18.—Upon word from Huerta depend vital developments in the Mexican situation to-day. The United States had rejected Huerta's repeated suggestion for a "simultaneous salute."

The fact that Huerta had realized the United States was in earnest in its dispatch of the fleets and would force, if necessary, to secure a compliance with its demands, led many to believe the controversy would be adjusted within the next 24 hours.

"HELLISH" IS CAPION OF EDITORIAL

Asquith Government is Roundly Scored for Ulster Plot.

Sir Arthur Paget Called Upon to Reveal the Truth.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] MONTREAL, April 18.—"Hellish" is the caption of The London Daily Express' editorial in reference to the Ulster plot, says the London correspondent of the Daily Mail.

"The ministers who have lied continue to lie," says The Express. "Sir Arthur Paget, who has maintained a steady silence, must speak now."

The London Daily Mail says: "The government cannot let the indictment pass unanswered." Heading its editorial, "The Insolence of Ulster," The Daily News does not think that the publication of the story of the plot will influence British public opinion.

The Daily Chronicle says: "With this new revised version, the Ulster plot fable takes a fresh start. The writer expresses confidence that Sir Arthur Paget will take the earliest opportunity of denying the preposterous statements which the Ulster Tories put into his mouth."

MAYOR ALLAN GETS HIS BID

Hamilton Chief Magistrate is Asked to Handle Mayor Spence's Curves.

The Hamilton Spectator gave front page prominence to the following last night: "If, at any date within the next week or two, the chief magistrate of this city is observed going through strange and intricate movements and further evinces a disposition to dash madly around street corners, here is the reason. He is preparing to break into what is known in baseball parlance as 'fast company.'"

This will happen on May 7, when the Canadian League season will open at Brantford with Mayor Spence of Brantford as pitcher, and Mayor Allan of Hamilton "holding them down" behind the bat.

All this, of course, providing the mayor accepts the invitation which reached him this morning. This invitation was as follows: John Allan, Esq., mayor, Hamilton, Ont.: Your worship—

The officers of the Brantford baseball club would esteem it as a favor if you could make it convenient to assist at the opening ceremonies of the Canadian baseball league season in Brantford on May 7, when the Hamilton and Brantford teams will clash.

This worship, Mayor Spence, of Brantford, has kindly consented to pitch the first ball, and with the chief magistrate of Hamilton as the receiving end of the battery, we are satisfied no club in the league will have a more auspicious opening.

As a large number of Hamilton baseball followers have signified their intention of coming up for that game it will be largely an intercity affair, and the club management sincerely trust that you will be able to honor them with your presence and assistance. Very sincerely yours, THOS. J. NELSON.

President, Brantford Baseball club. The invitation speaks for itself showing as it does that the mayor's fame as a ball player is not confined to Hamilton, and that some one has taken the trouble to look up his batting average. This invitation should prove a cause of considerable gratification to all loyal fans here.

It is safe to say that there will be a good representation of the latter on hand to cheer the mayor as he neatly naps a player trying to steal third.

SENTENCED TO BE HANGED. BATTLEFORD, Sask., April 18.—Brought into court in the arms of two burly mounted policemen, John Peter Hanson, a semi-paralyzed farmer, was tried for the murder of his brother-in-law, Edward Gustave Warren, was found guilty and sentenced to be hanged at Prince Albert jail, July 16. The invidious suspecting his wife of infidelity with the murdered man, shot her with a gun as he lay on the floor, where all three slept at Fort Pitt.

SUMMER COTTAGE FOR THE Y.W.C.A.

Plans Adopted at Meeting of the Directorate on Friday Afternoon.

The monthly meeting of the Y. M. C. A. directorate took place yesterday at the institution. Mrs. Ott, president of the Brantford Association, presiding. The reports of the various committees showed that the work was going on very satisfactorily. It was decided that the physical classes will close on April 28th, when the summer programme will be resorted to.

It is probable that a display will take place in the Victoria Hall on the closing day.

Good Work by I. W. T. Club. The net result of the entertainment promoted by the I. W. T. C. showed a balance of $68 to the good. This amount will be used in sending delegates to the summer conference of the Y. M. C. A.'s in Muskoka.

Summer Home. A new and original idea was brought up when it was decided to appoint a committee to investigate and make plans for the provision of a summer cottage at some lake port for the use of the girls of the extension work department during the coming summer.

This will be the means of giving the girls a very profitable and pleasant vacation at a reasonable cost. The idea is well worthy and being taken up by other bodies.

Whirlwind Campaign. The report of the sustaining membership campaign showed that $1894 had been subscribed during the recent campaign which was so successfully carried through by gentlemen of the city. The Directorate expressed their gratitude for the help they received.

The Educational Classes had been a success right through, including Bible classes, club classes and the other classes of the Association.

Annual Meeting. The annual meeting will be held on May 15th. It is to be an open session in the evening for all the members. The directorate intend to have a fine programme arranged which will add to the attraction of the event.

WATER TURNED ON, HOUSE IS FLOODED. How long has the water been running? This question that is being asked by residents of Sheridan street, at the house owned by Mr. A. J. Wilkes. Mr. Wilkes' tenants left about a month ago, and when a mail man looked into the house when he heard a noise inside, he found the place flooded with water to a great depth. Evidently the water has been running for some length of time, as the cellar is flooded and the water is now creeping up on the first floor. The water commissioners were notified, and Mr. Wilkes, and the water was shut off.

THE WATERLAND, GERMANY'S GIANT TRANSATLANTIC LINER

PLACING THE WATERLAND'S FUNNELS IN POSITION AT HAMBURG. The funnel is seen suspended from one of the big cranes which have been adopted by many engineering yards in other countries. The Waterland, Germany's giant transatlantic liner, is now being completed at Hamburg and will take her place in the express service on June 5. The huge ship has a tonnage of 55,000, which is 3,000 tons in excess of her older sister ship, the Imperator. She is 897 feet long, 95 feet broad and 62 feet in depth.

The Roberts & Van-Lane Shoe Co.

LIMITED
Only Address: 203 Colborne St., Brantford, Ont.

The Ontario-Niagara Connecting Bridge Co. is applying for incorporation to build another bridge across the Niagara above Queenstown.

The Rev. Mr. Smith of Merriton, near St. Catharines, gave an excellent address. He was of the opinion that they had permission from God to take the world for Christ. Therefore he said, Sunday Schools should get busy and get hold of the young souls of the community. It was not his mode to chase after the drunkard. By getting hold of the young child there was no need to chase after the soul in after life. They had the Lord's word to go upon in the matter and the Lord's word was truth. It was not the statement of man. No, it was the word of God. He believed in conservation, but with it there should be concentration. Besides concentration there should be tact and not only tact, but contact.

It was a hard thing to get into a heart when the gates were closed, and the walls were up, but Christ had said he would give the key. That key was sympathy. Another key was instruction, illustration. Another useful key was contact. Perhaps the key of contact was most useful in teaching of school lessons. He closed a most interesting address which was tinged with a fine touch of humour, with thanks to the audience.

A selection, The King of Glory, by the choir was next given. Mr. Preston Orwig of Toronto, gave a very entertaining address and complimented the audience upon their turnout. They were a band of workers belong to an army 30,000,000 strong, covering the entire world. He had some practical suggestions to give to the teachers and he wanted those present to get a "line on them." He thought it a good idea to let the scholars get their own teacher. It was a good thing and pleased the boys and girls, besides being very satisfactory. Another way was to point out the great work that was to be done. Point out that the person approached was the man for the job. Give them a vision of boy life and the necessities of it. Teachers must then take up the work conscientiously and get an idea of the tremendous amount of scope of their work. They must take after the individuals of the class. A good class collectively was a great thing, but a good class should be also attended to attentively. Another thing program. Much credit is due Miss Goodson for her work in training the young ladies in the part that they took. The program was opened by a sailors chorus in costume by Master Leslie Goodson, P. Holt and Charles Stern.

Two Dialogues, The Little Mothers and Red Riding Hood, by the Girl Companions, were well staged and attracted much attention.

Capt. Vansickle made a speech and Mr. James Hawke made an address, during the course of which he invited old and young alike to be present at a social evening next Wednesday at the Boy Knights' Armouries.

Recitations were given by Charles Stern, Percy Holt, J. Olmstead, Madeline Campbell, L. Finch, E. Clarke, L. Clarke, and others. Leslie Goodson made a great hit in the comic song "The advice my father gave."

An attractive figure at the concert was that of little Jack Billington in full Highland costume.

Mr. Alfred Hunt occupied the chair and made several interesting announcements during the evening. The Corps song was well rendered by Capt. Matthews, the boys joining in the chorus.

A character duet by L. Goodson and P. Holt, caused much amusement. Mr. Finn gave an excellent imitation of the farm yard, which brought forth roars of laughter.

M. Felix Finn sang a solo in good voice. A number of other solos were splendidly rendered by Mr. H. Rogers, Mr. Johnson, Miss B. Kendrick, Isabella Olmstead, Master Charles Snowden and Little Winnie Goodson. A number of choruses were rendered by Miss L. Clark, E. Clark, L. Finch, I. Olmstead, Madeline Campbell and Miss Goodson.

This Sarcastic Player Will Soon Get His

Closer, April 15, '14.
Mr. Nelson,
B. B. C.
Dear Sir,—Have now reached Closer, where I met a young man who came from Brantford. He is on his way to join Amby Kane at Fall River. He is a New England shoe-maker that Amby brought to Canada last season to play with the Red Sox. He did not 'last' but thinks he will be able to 'stick' with the Fall River team, as he has been working at the Canada Glue Company all winter.

He wanted me to go with him; said I would have a lot of trouble reaching Brantford. I told him no, I was going to join the Red Sox if I had to go to Hades. Alright, he answered, you will think you get your first whiff of Brantford's sulphuretted hydrogen gas.
This is one of his. While with the Red Sox on our way to St. Thomas, Amby advised me to be careful when I faced Wild Bill Baker. He said, when you see Bill pitching, you will see one of the comin' stars of America. When I stepped to the plate, the first ball Bill delivered beamed me. As I came to, Amby said, I told you to be careful. Yes, I replied, you did, and you also told me I would see one of the comin' stars. Why,

KELLEY BITTERLY ATTACKS MAJOR LEAGUE MAGNATES AND PREDICTS REBELLION

NEW LONDON, Conn., April 18.—The Leafs arrived here late yesterday afternoon from New York to be greeted by the first sunlight they have seen in four days. After a long spell of the worst April storms in years, in New England States, conditions changed over night and there was splendid weather for the game in the afternoon.

Manager Kelly is still with Manager McGraw, but so far it appears his quest for players has been a fruitless one.
The Toronto manager was out this morning with a warm interview in the New York Journal declaring that if the big leagues continue to hold back players who should come to the minors, that the whole class AA organization will desert the National Commission and give organized baseball a blow that it can ill stand at this critical stage, when the Federals are proving such a stumbling block.

The Journal's interview was given to Sam Crane, its famous baseball writer, at Philadelphia. It was as follows:
Class AA leagues, and in fact other minor leagues of lower classification, are thinking seriously of breaking away from organized baseball and going it alone. They are very apt to cut loose any day. I should not be surprised to see the break come within a week unless certain National and American League moguls get down off their high horses and try to help the minor league clubs, who have been hit the hardest by the raiding of the Federal League.

McGraw the One Exception
Instead of lending the helping hand these clubs that have suffered the most by loss of jumping players, there is not one manager of a big league club, with the exception of McGraw of the Giants, who has done a thing towards making the rocky path of the minors any smoother.

"What does organized baseball amount to if there is no organization in it?" asked Joe Kelley, manager of the Toronto club in the International League, of me yesterday. Continuing he said:
"Where is my club, for instance, that has been riddled by the loss of half a dozen players who have jumped to the Federals? I must strengthen my team so as to be able to make a front in our race. I and the owners of my club are perfectly willing to pay good money to the big league clubs for their cast-offs, and I have hustled around in various training camps down South, making offers, but I have been turned down coldly every time but once. I was given a player by McGraw, and he has promised me more."

"I went to one camp of a big league club and made proposals to buy two players whom that club had bought for $2,500 each. I offered to pay $5,000 for the two players, pay them the salaries their contracts called for, and then to return them next fall free, even if I had succeeded in developing them into prospective stars. I agreed to take all the chances on inexperienced players, go the trouble and expense of developing them and get nothing for it. If they proved to be failures they were not to be returned, and I would stand the loss of the $5,000.

"Do you know that offer was refused with the remark 'No, I want more money for them,' and mind you, they have not a chance to make the big league team they are now with, and I know it. It was a clear case of 'hold up,' and nothing else.
The Case of Benny Meyer.
"Again there is the case of 'Benny' Meyer, for whom I paid $3,000 in cold cash to the Brooklyn club. He was worth that to my club, I considered, but before I had a chance to see Meyer, although I was a week in St. Louis and that neighborhood looking for him, he accepted an offer from the Baltimore Federals and is now playing with them. I have asked President Ebbets for the $3,000 back, but he refused, and told me to go to the National Commission for redress. Ebbets evidently wants to get a decision on my case so that he can get back at Tinker, the player he neglected to sign when he had the chance, and thereby made the Federal League possible and all of the present troubles of the minor leagues."

"The almighty dollar seems to be paramount with certain big league magnates. They cannot look further ahead than a five dollar note in hand, no more than could Charley Murphy. I have tried my level best to get players, and did not neglect to try to sign Meyer as Ebbets did Tinker. I have been held up in the most barefaced manner by the big league managers on requests I have made for players whom I know will not be held. Instead of trying to help me out, the old dollar has been pre-eminent."

The Majors Should Help.
"The way I look at the present situation is that as long as we are fighting the Federal League and are not in the best of position to do it, owing to the riddling of our teams, the big league clubs which have been merely scratched where we have been stabbed deep, should assist us in the battle. They are in a better and stronger position than we are. They have the money and supposedly the brains, but I doubt the latter ingredient judging by their inane attitude in our behalf. My club must have players, and we are willing to pay for them, and the big leaguers have the players we want, but even fair prices will not cause a loosening up. It is a downright shame, a disgrace for the big leaguers to leave us in such a hole.
Do you suppose we can hold our players if we cannot get together winning teams as an inducement for them to stick by us. No player wants to be with a loser, and he can hardly be blamed if he jumps. I might myself under similar conditions."

Canadian League Notes

For the fanatic who sits in the look out there are a certain number of high suits to lamp in the early stages of the conflict which will have an important bearing upon the two races. For example:
What effect thirty-nine years and eighteen campaigns will have upon Hans Wagner.
What effect thirty-nine years and eighteen campaigns will have upon Napoleon Lajoie.
What form Joe Wood will assume after a long layoff last season and a complete separation from his appendix.
What assistance Ed. Walsh will be able to furnish Russell, Cicotte and Scott.
What machine morale Hank O'Day will be able to instill into the Cubs.
How Griff's new pitchers will be able to help out Johnson and Boehling.
Whether Koney, Mowrey and Marmon will more than supplant Robinson, Wilson, Butler and Miller.
How well McGraw has been able to plug that gap at third with both Shaffer and Herzog missing.

Erie Players Reporting.
Eight players of the Erie baseball team reported for duty yesterday and have taken up their headquarters in the Wayne hotel. Manager "Henke" Smith, forced to leave the city Tuesday evening to clear up a few details concerning Erie baseball affairs, was not on hand to welcome his proteges. George O'Neil, owner of the club and Tom O'Connor extended the right hand of friendship in his stead.
The eight men who arrived yesterday were: John Beck, of Titusville, a catcher; Paul Warner, of Cleveland, third base; T. Dorbeck, of Toledo, pitcher; John Schaffer, of Toledo, out-fielder; Leo Wiltse of Rochester, third base; S. Sutton of Toronto, pitcher; T. N. Osborn, of Blasdell, N. Y., pitcher; W. Call of Blasdell, N. Y.
Manager Smith was expected to arrive in the city late last night. He announced his intention Tuesday night of commencing training as soon as his men were on the spot. If rain interferes with outdoor work an effort will be made to obtain the use of the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium.
It is expected that the other players, with the exception of Taylor, Dawson and Behan, will arrive in the city to-day. Dawson and Behan will come before the week is out and Taylor is due shortly after—Eric Despatch.

BAD BASE-RUNNING GAVE GAME TO CUBS.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Chicago won an exciting game from Cincinnati yesterday 6 to 5. The locals had two men on bases and two out in the ninth when Matsans attempted unsuccessfully to steal home from third base, ending the game in favor of the visitors.
Ames practically lost the game for

Cincinnati by his wildness in the fourth innings he was on the mound. Davenport pitched effectively for four innings and was retired only to permit a pinch hitter to bat for him. Vaughn, for Chicago, also was wild and was out in the third. Lavender was effective until the seventh, when Cincinnati scored two runs on a base on balls, a double and a single. He was retired in the eighth by Cheney.

RAY DEMMITT HELD UP BY CHICAGO WHITE SOX
DETROIT, April 18.—Ray Demmitt an outfielder, secured by the Detroit American League team from Montreal was yesterday sold to the Chicago Americans for the waiver price of $2500. Chicago refused to waive on Demmitt when Detroit requested waivers and the sale resulted.
