SPIRIT OF REVOLUTION SWEEPS THROUGH CHINESE PROVINCES

Authority of Peking Government is Now Denied by Eleven Provinces SITUATION IS CRITICAL Parliament Broken Up, President Urged to Resign

By Courier Leased Wire. Peking, June 4.—Eleven provinces of China, including the province of Chihli, in which Peking is situated, no longer recognize the authority of the Peking government. The provinces of Kwang Tung, Kwang Si and Yunnan, are supporting President Li Yuan Hung. The provisional assembly of Kwang Tung, in assuring its loyal support to the President and parliament, demands that the military governors be dismissed and punished. Dr. Dun Yet Sen, former Premier Tang Shao Yi and other revolutionary leaders, are proceeding hurriedly to Canton. It seems probable that should the military governors persist in their revolutionary course that the three loyal south China provinces named Kwang Tung, Kwang Si and Yun Nan, will join in the revolution. The situation is serious and the President utterly powerless.

Parliament was convened today to consider a bill calling for a declaration of war against Germany, but the fact that 250 members had left Peking. Attempts are being made to influence President Li Yuan Hung to resign rather than to dissolve parliament, the object being to throw the blame for any disturbance upon the militarists.

The militarists it is said, do intend to force a disturbance while they are in contact with the railways. Traffic has been uninterrupted and the militarists are demanding a new election immediately for the purpose of securing a workable constitution.

President Li Yuan Hung is powerless, owing to the Peking military commanders refusing to carry out his orders.

Shanghai, June 3.—General Chang Shun, military governor of the province of Anhwei, arrived in Tien Tsin, Saturday evening and after a conference with the militarists, a provisional government was formed. Hsu Chih Chang was appointed dictator, Wang Shih Chen as the acting premier, was made Premier, Tuan Chi Kwei, brother of Tuan Chi Jui, former Premier, was named minister of war. Tho Jun, who is believed to be strongly pro-Japanese was given the portfolio of Foreign affairs, and Lung Haulung, former minister of communications, was chosen as minister of the interior.

The chief of the gendarmerie at Peking, has been requested to watch President Li Yuan Hung, who presumably is virtually a prisoner and who is expected to resign forthwith. The militarists have completely isolated Peking. The government has established a strict censorship on the telegraph lines.

VISIT KRONSTADT

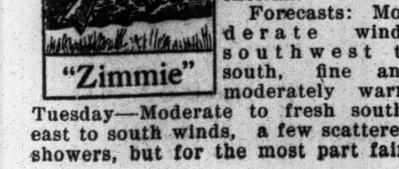

By Courier Leased Wire. Petrograd, via London, June 4.—M. Tcherno, Minister of Agriculture, and M. Tseretli, minister of posts and telegraphs, are going to Kronstadt with a view to arranging a settlement of the difficulty existing between the members of the Workmen and Soldiers delegates and the government.

M. Kerensky, the minister of war, has returned to Petrograd.

Weather Bulletin

Toronto, June 4.—Since Saturday showers and thunderstorms have occurred in nearly all localities from Ontario to Newfoundland while rain has fallen locally in southern Alberta and south western Saskatchewan.

Forecasts: Moderate winds southwest to south, fine and moderately warm. Tuesday—Moderate to fresh southeast to south winds, a few scattered showers, but for the most part fair.

BATTLE RAGING AT LENS

Electrical Station Held by Canadians For a Time, Is Evacuated

By Courier Leased Wire. (By Stewart Lyon, special correspondent of the Canadian Press in France.) Canadian Army Headquarters, June 4.—The troops that captured the electrical station southwest of Lens are back in their own trenches, and the enemy once more occupies the ruins of the station as well as his trench in the vicinity temporarily in possession of the Canadians. After eighteen hours of endurance of heavy shell fire in an effort to hold the ground which proved untenable, the men were withdrawn as a course preferable to sending in more men to the confined area in which the battle was proceeding.

Throughout Sunday, with very little shelter from the German positions occupied in the early morning, the westerners tenaciously held the ground under grueling fire. When in the evening a strong counter-attack was directed upon the electric station it was evacuated under pressure, the Alberta men returning to their former outposts in a group of ruined miners' houses seventy-five yards to the west.

The enemy undoubtedly lost heavily in his attack, but he has the distinct advantage in the shelter in the numerous fortified points on the slopes leading up to Avion and Lens, in which his men gathered for the advance.

The prisoners taken during the engagement number 112, of whom ninety are un wounded. They belong to three enemy battalions. This would indicate that when our men attacked on Sunday morning the enemy had available immediately for defence a larger force than that which made the attack. During the day the Germans added materially to this number, and there was much activity this (Monday) morning all along the front particularly on the part of the snipers and the machine guns.

The enemy displayed enterprise in airplane bombing in the back area, this doubtless being by way of retaliation for the recent raids of our airplanes in the region east of Lens.

Two fires were observed in Lens during the night.

The renewal of the activity extends to the region north of the Souchez, where the canonading is increasing.

On the British front in France June 4, via London, from a staff correspondent of the Associated Press.—The fighting which raged yesterday about the electric power station southwest of Lens was as intense as any since the beginning of the battle of Arras considering the number of troops involved. Canadian troops were in the thick of it, first and last. They gained the ruins of the electrical works shortly before 2 o'clock on Sunday morning, after a splendid dash to Monthlight, and it was not until nearly 3 o'clock Sunday night that they were finally driven back to their original positions under the pressure of German counter-attacks in which an over-powering weight of men was employed. The works were held eighteen hours against the concentrated German artillery fire.

One difficulty with which the Canadians were confronted was the fact that in preparing the attack on the works their artillery had reduced the buildings so effectively and had so obliterated the trenches dug about them that practically all shelters were eliminated. While the objectives eventually were lost the enterprise was not without compensations for 112 prisoners were taken and valuable identifications were obtained. The prisoners represented at least three different German regiments which engaged in the fighting and in the counter-attacks.

Gains of Foe Near Cherisy are Temporary Only, British Recapturing Post; Activity Upon Macedonian Front Also Reported

By Courier Leased Wire

Bulletin, London, June 4.—12.50 p.m.—The British have recaptured the advanced post near Cherisy taken in Saturday night's attack. "The post southwest of Cherisy mentioned in the communique yesterday morning which remained in the enemy's hands at the conclusion of the fighting in that neighborhood, was recaptured by our troops last night. Hostile raids were repulsed during the night southwest of La Basse and in the neighborhood of Neuve Chapelle. The enemy's trenches were entered by us east of Vermelles."

Bulgars' Report

Sofia, June 3.—Via London, June 4.—Continued efforts by the French and British to advance on the Macedonian front are reported in the official statement issued by the war office Sunday. The text of the statement follows:

"Some French companies tried to attack Bulgarian posts south of the villages of Huma and Moyina but were repulsed by our gun fire. In the northern part of the Seres Plain at nightfall, after artillery preparation, strong enemy detachments advanced toward Spatovo but retired under effective Bulgarian fire."

Bruges Raid

Bulletin, London, June 4.—11.35 a.m.—An air raid on Bruges is reported in an official statement issued by the war office this morning. The statement follows:

The Commodore at Dunkirk reports that a bombing attack was carried out on the Bruges docks and canals last night with good results."

To Battle Subs

Paris, June 2.—Sattos Dumont, the Pioneer Brazilian aviator, has invented a powerful seaplane for fighting submarines, according to a Turin despatch to the Petit Journal. The despatch says that the new machine will be made in the United States and supplied to all the allies.

French Official

Bulletin, Paris, June 4.—Noon—The Germans have forced their way into French advanced positions, on the Salient near Froimont, according to an official statement issued by the war office this morning. The Germans attacked the Salient last night.

SOCIALISTS IN BRITAIN DEMAND WORKMEN'S AND SOLDIER'S GROUP

AMERICAN ELIGIBLES REGISTER

Ten Million Names Are Expected for War Draft Tomorrow

REGISTRATION OPENS

Canadian Shirkers in U. S. to be Forced Into Enlistment

By Courier Leased Wire.

New York, June 4.—Final arrangements have been completed for the registration to-morrow of possibly 10,000,000 Americans between the ages of 21 to 31 inclusive, to serve with the allies in the war against Prussian autocracy. The plans for the first step of selective conscription have taken on the magnitude of a national election. Minor disorders here and there, which usually mark election day, are anticipated, but local state and federal authorities are co-operating to meet promptly and adequately any organized resistance to the draft measure. In accordance with previous proclamations that Tuesday be considered a day of patriotic devotion, a general holiday has been declared in most centers. Patriotic mass meetings will be held throughout the country this evening, and appropriate exercises will take place Tuesday. It will probably be days before accurate registration totals can be announced, but the work of fitting the hoven of American manhood for service at the front will begin immediately.

Loss of their citizenship faces British slackers in this country who refuse to respond to the recruiting pleas of the British mission, headed by Brigadier-General W. A. White, which will begin recruiting at 280 Broadway on Wednesday.

In statements issued yesterday by General White and his staff, plans for forcing the slackers into line were revealed in detail.

"It is naturally expected," said General White, "that a large number of Englishmen in this country will come forward voluntarily. But it should be borne in mind that compulsory service is now in force in England, and probably will be put in force in Canada, and as the citizens of any country accept the obligations as well as the privileges of his citizenship, it may be assumed that the man of military age who does not offer his services cannot expect to retain the privileges of citizenship. The British Empire has need of all her sons."

While the headquarters of the British recruiting mission will be at 280 Broadway, branch offices will be opened in Chicago, Boston and other cities. Also the United States Government has placed at the service of the commission its own recruiting stations throughout the country.

According to the 1910 census, General White said, there were at that time 500,000 British and Canadian male subjects over 21 resident in the United States. An accurate census of the number of such subjects between the ages of 21 and 31, will be afforded by the Federal registration to-morrow.

TO EXCHANGE CAPTIVES

By Courier Leased Wire. Paris, June 4.—The Petit Parisien prints a paragraph from Geneva as saying that Austrians expressed a desire to effect the wholesale exchange of prisoners with Italy along lines proposed recently by the International Red Cross for Germany and France. The Austrian proposals will be considered soon by the Red Cross officials.

HUN DESERTER

By Courier Leased Wire. London, June 4.—A Reuter despatch from Riga says that the Russians have detained Lieutenant Rabenek, of the 182nd Russian Regiment, who came to the Russian lines with separate peace demands. German airplanes dropped bombs for his return before June 5, threatening that otherwise he would be terribly avenged. The Russians replied that Rabenek was regarded as a deserter and has been sent to the interior of Russia.

RUSSIAN REVOLUTION HAILED BY ELEVEN HUNDRED DELEGATES IN LEEDS

Support Russ Aims Peace Without Annexations Or Indemnities is Approved

Leeds, June 4.—Eleven hundred delegates, ten per cent. of whom were women, assembled in the Coliseum here yesterday to hail the Russian revolution. They represented the extreme pacifist organs including the independent labor party. Robt. Smillie, the miners' leader, presided.

Telegrams of congratulations were read from the executive of the workmen and soldiers delegates at Petrograd. Chairman Smillie, in the course of his speech said it was evident that there would be no knocking blow, and it was the wish of the convention to concentrate the attention of the people on peace by negotiation.

The proceedings were rather lively at times but eventually resolutions were adopted proclaiming sympathy with the work directed to the accomplishment of peace without annexations or indemnities and demanding the freedom of the press and speech and calling for the establishment in England of a workmen and soldiers group on the Russian model to work for "a peoples peace."

The delegates present included James Ramsay MacDonald, Socialist and labor member of parliament for Leicester, Philip Snowden, Socialist for Blackburn, and William C. Anderson, labor member for the Attercliffe Division of Sheffield.

Disorders occurred in the neighborhood of the Coliseum in the evening. The authorities of Leeds had forbidden proposed outdoor meetings and the Socialists respected the ban, but during an indoor meeting in the evening crowds surrounded the hall, which was protected by police. When the Socialists left the hall wearing red rosettes the crowd hooted the socialists of military age. The mob repeatedly tried to rush the pacifists, whom the police had great difficulty in defending.

The message of the workmen and soldiers delegates, which was received with cheering, follows: "The executive of the Workmen and soldiers delegates sends salutations and fraternal greetings and hopes to meet the representatives of the Leeds conference both on July 15, and July 30. The executive finds Stockholm most convenient for the proposed conference. The details have not yet been settled and will be telegraphed later. The meeting agreed to divide the country into thirteen districts and to call a conference in each at the earliest moment possible, and formulate its plans. A resolution initiating the British workmen and soldiers group defines its aim as 'being to work for a peace made by the peoples of the various countries; for the complete political and economic emancipation of international labor, and among other things, to stop the exploitation of food and concern themselves with the welfare of soldiers and sailors in every way.'"

Simcoe, June 3.—From Our Own Correspondent.—The funeral of the late John H. Goodland, was held at St. John's cemetery, Woodhouse, at the rate for 1917. The traffic by-law was passed at eleven o'clock. The bearers were all former neighbors and life long associates, who, as it were came up to carry home the remains of one whom they missed for some six years since when the deceased left there for Simcoe. They were Wm. Colley, George Dixon, Wm. Laine, Colin McCullough, Wm. Stamp and F. W. Smith. The many floral tributes and other expressions of concern by people of all ranks went to show, that as one said, "Sunshine always came with him, when he came down town."

Town Council Tonight
 There is every indication of a long session of council to-night. The committee on alterations at the market will have plans and specifications ready to submit to the council. The finance committee will present the estimates and announce the rate for 1917. The traffic by-law will probably get its final reading.

There is a general impression abroad that the rate is almost sure to take a jump of at least two mills. Lower hotel assessment, loss of the Litho Plant $44,860, additional debentures to take care of, and none of the old ones terminating, coupled with the high cost of teams, feed and wages are factors, consideration of which go to reconcile the objectionable and concrete rate payer to his lot. On top of this, the Board of Education has asked for $1,360 more this year than last, which is in itself slightly more than half a mill. It will be understood then that fines for infractions of town by-laws are at present very acceptable in the treasury.

Arrangements for collecting the mill tax will probably be made at the June meeting. It is estimated that there are at least 100 liable for this tax.

The question of the re-division of the town into seven instead of five wards to comply with the statute may be necessary.

County Council Meets Tomorrow
 The June meeting of the County Council, of Norfolk will begin tomorrow at 2 p.m. Besides ordinary routine, the question of a swing bridge at Port Dover, and the matter of the new union school section at Simcoe are among the special matters to be dealt with.

It is highly probable that the council will give little time to the school matter. There was no difference of opinion among the arbitrators in the finding handed out. A month was given for the entry of appeal before the award was made and no appeal was entered. Subsequently some of those who signed the appeal to the county council, present there are but eleven effective appellants, against forty-two on the counter memorial. The move against the new section is quite evidently made by those who desire to keep down the tax regardless of the merits of the case, and it now looks as if the council will let matters stand. We have been able to obtain an almost complete list of the names of those who desire the council to offset the award:
 J. Saville, assessment $1,100; C. S. Marr $800, J. Johnson and Bros.

$8,050. W. Lewis $550. C. Chatterton $700. Mrs. Harries $1,500. M. Curtis $6,500. J. Chadwick $2,800. J. Coleman $1,000. J. Bowby $3,600. Total: $25,750. At present, Messrs. Yeager and Landon who are slightly affected.

The following, some of whom are included in the above, have signed a counter petition to be presented to-day:
 R. W. Bartman, $275; H. Weston $200; J. Gilles $900; M. Goldman $1,000; A. Mills $2,200; W. Smith $2,100; J. Pratt $2,000; G. Watson $2,000; Dr. Burt $600; John Barnes, $1,900; D. Leflar $2,100; S. Cross, $1,400; E. Edmonds $1,500; J. Collins, $1,000; J. Galt $2,000; R. Post, $2,000; H. Curtis, $6500; T. Coates, $4000; J. Church $1,200; L. Guntow, $600; G. Glazebrook $5000; H. Johnson $1,400; W. Mather, $2,000; E. Galt $2,000; R. Post, $2,000; E. Force, $1,700; W. Alway, $700; L. Cratt, $400; H. Carter, $3500; G. Eald, $5,252; C. Innes, $8500; W. J. Galt, $1,000; J. B. Jackson, $2,000; C. Mason, $600; A. Swartz, $5500. Total $86,752.

Unless the various parties deem it necessary to address the council in this matter, that body will probably dispose of the question quite briefly. Royal Academy and Royal College of Music—Simcoe Exam Results.

Two letters, each of which took a month to come through, have reached his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Nelles here. Douglas is continuing his accustomed reticence regarding his exploits, but a clipping from the Daily Mail of May 14th, received from England, tells the tale. Douglas has been listed for the D. S. They were not such raids as most of local readers have heard of about home. From various sources we learn that there will be a very short crop of winter apples, and only a fair crop of six boxes for $2.50 from the most favorable circumstances.

Many who have planted corn during the past fortnight, will have to plant again, the continued cold and wet weather having spoiled the grains.

Mr. Jas. J. Fiddin, supt. of the works department, was up the line Saturday evening for pointers as to how work in his line is carried on elsewhere.

The boxes of works have made a good job on O'Car's street. There is now no evidence of any gravel pit in this street, where vendors of sand and gravel, often poached for supply.

A TONIC FOR THE NERVES
 Nervous people who have not yet developed a disease that can be remedied and treated by the medical profession have the greatest trouble in finding relief. Irritation, headache, sleeplessness, nervous dyspepsia, all these disorders make life miserable but are endured rather than run a doctor's bill without definite hope of an improved condition to see good results.

Every sufferer should know the danger of such a condition to the nervous system. Nervous debility and even paralysis may result if the cause of the nerves is not restored. The one big fact that brings hope and relief is that the nerves can be restored by building up the blood. It cannot be too often repeated that only through the blood can nourishment or medicine reach the nerves. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make the blood rich and thus quickly restore vitality and energy to a weak nervous system. A nervous person who gives these pills a trial is almost sure to feel better. It is not because there is more, the benefit will be lasting because the trouble is attacked at its root. This blood makes weak nerves; but it also gives them the energy force that is why people who occasionally take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills always feel bright, active and strong.

The early varieties under the name "out of sorts," give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial, and you will be surprised to see how quickly the weakness will pass away and your former energy return. You can get these pills through your medicine dealer; or by mail at 50 cents a box for six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

From various sources we learn that there will be a very short crop of winter apples, and only a fair crop of six boxes for $2.50 from the most favorable circumstances.

Many who have planted corn during the past fortnight, will have to plant again, the continued cold and wet weather having spoiled the grains.

Mr. Jas. J. Fiddin, supt. of the works department, was up the line Saturday evening for pointers as to how work in his line is carried on elsewhere.

The boxes of works have made a good job on O'Car's street. There is now no evidence of any gravel pit in this street, where vendors of sand and gravel, often poached for supply.

SUNDAY SCHOOL SERVICE

Over five hundred members of the Wellington Street Sunday School turned out yesterday afternoon for the special service that was held in connection with the conference. A splendidly illustrated address that was impressive and instructive was delivered by the Rev. H. W. Avison, M.A., B.D., of Acton, he pointing out the connection with the conference. A clear type of citizen, whether he be a business man, or a boy or girl.

Mr. C. P. McGregor, president of the Layman's Association, gave a special talk on Sunday school work, emphasizing the wide scope of influence which it exercised. He contended that none was too old or too young to in some way be identified

THE SITUATION.

The British have resumed the offensive for the possession of Lens making an attack southwest of that place and west of Arion one of its suburbs. Hag's report speaks of "varying fortunes" and it is evident that very bitter fighting is taking place.

In the Champagne the Huns made several desperate attacks upon the French positions, advancing in wave after wave. In each instance they were repulsed with very heavy slaughter. According to the official statement issued from Paris, the French and British forces during May took over 52,000 prisoners, more than one thousand of them officers, and also much material including 446 heavy field cannon, 1,000 machine guns and a considerable number of machine mortars.

For the first time in a very long while there comes the cheering news of something done by Russia. Petrograd makes the official announcement that troops have achieved a victory over the Turks on the Mesopotamia frontier, taking possession of three heights. It is also stated that many enemy ships loaded with provisions, have been sunk on the Black Sea and shore positions of the enemy were successfully attacked. It is announced that the U. S. Mission, headed by Elihu Root, has arrived. It is to be hoped that it will help to exercise a steadying effect. Our neighbors can, and no doubt will do much to add the Muscovites financially if conditions become such as to warrant said assistance.

The Canadians in what is termed a "minor engagement," early on Sunday morning took a stretch of the enemy front, exceeding a mile, southwest of Lens and to a depth of its greatest point of over 800 yards. They also captured an electric station. The thrust is reported to have been brilliantly executed.

There is a lull on the Italian front, although another Austrian position has been taken. In fifteen days the enemy has lost 95,000 men, dead, wounded, and missing, including five generals and one hundred cannon have been taken or destroyed.

At a gigantic mass meeting in Queen's Park, Toronto, resolutions were passed amid great enthusiasm calling for the enforcement of the selective draft system.

New York Life, in a recent article, gave this very apt summary of the present position of the affairs at the front:

"The United States Administration is taking a very large view of the war, an impression that is borne out by the distribution through the Associated Press on Monday, last week, of a rehearsal in detail of the Pan-German plan of a mid-Europe empire, stretching across Germany, Austria, the Balkans and Turkey from the North Sea to Asia Minor, and taking in Constantinople and the Dardanelles. It is not merely that Germany wants this territory. She has got it now. She owns Austria, Italy and Bosnia, also Bulgaria and Turkey; and she has conquered at present, Roumania and Serbia. The job is not merely to defend these countries from her, but to fetch them loose out of her clutch."

The above is a very terse and timely summary and it constitutes an excellent reason for the belief that the struggle will yet last for a long time.

THE PEOPLE LIKE CLEAR CUT MEN.

In an editorial headed "A Poor Tactician" the Brantford Expositor says:

"Sir Robert Borden is doubtless the possessor of many virtues, but he is certainly no strategist."

As a matter of course if Sir Robert ever hears of this criticism he will quit public life forever.

The organ lamentably mistakes the proper spirit which should prevail at this period of Empire crisis.

This is no time to exalt political tacticians and strategists, who are looking for party advantage out of these solemn and soul racking days.

That is the very last kind of thing the people want, or any paper should extol.

Our cotem apparently has an excessive admiration for such tacticians as Sir Wilfrid, who promised "Free Trade as they have it in England," and then didn't give it, and who had his partizan majority in the Senate knife Borden's proposal for naval aid to the Mother Land, on the ground that the Conservative leader, when he talked of a threatened menace, had raised an unwarranted bugbear.

As for Sir Robert Borden, everyone knows where he is to be found on all issues, and that what he says he will do.

If this constitutes a "poor tactician," then it would be a grand thing for the Liberal party if they had a leader of the same calibre.

AFFAIRS AT OTTAWA

For some days now it has been "up" to Sir Wilfrid Laurier to make some reply to the proposals placed before him by Sir Robert Borden. Thus far the Liberal Leader has maintained his silence. He has indulged in many conferences with his supporters and it is said that negotiations have not yet been ended.

There cannot be much doubt that most of his consideration is centring upon Quebec. That Province has always been his stronghold and he apparently finds himself in a quandary as to taking any step which might jeopardize his hold there.

As for Borden he has not hesitated to take a clear cut and manly course and outside of the French Canadian and foreign elements there is great approval of his stand.

FRATERNIZING CEASED
By Courier Leased Wire.

Kiev, Russia, via London, June 4—M. Kerensky, Minister of War, to-day delivered an address to the military delegates in which he declared that the Russian troops had ceased fraternizing with the Germans and that the Russian army was gaining in strength daily.

"After touring the whole of Russia, and the battlefield," said M. Kerensky. "I can affirm that what hitherto was regarded as the dying agony of our army was nothing else than the laborious travail of the new Russian state. I can affirm that notwithstanding the destruction of the old discipline, the power of the Russian army is increasing daily based as it is on a new and intelligent discipline. I can affirm, once far all, that fraternizing with the enemy has completely ceased."

M. Kerensky afterwards reviewed the troops massed outside the city, who enthusiastically cheered him.

LARGE FUNERAL IN PARIS TODAY

Remains of Late Walker C. Tisdale of London Laid to Rest

OTHER NEWS OF PARIS
Conference Sunday Observed in Methodist Church Yesterday

(From our Own Correspondent)

Paris, June 4.—The funeral took place yesterday afternoon to St. James' cemetery, of Mr. Walker C. Tisdale, of London, who passed away on Friday in the 63rd year of his age. The deceased was born in Brantford township, near Paris, and later purchased a small farm on the Governor's Road opposite the Paris pumping station. He disposed of that and some 20 years ago moved to London, and had been employed in the Grand Trunk shops there. Some thirty of his fellow shopmates accompanied the remains to Paris. His widow, formerly Miss Kirkpatrick, of Brantford township, two sons and a daughter, are left to mourn his demise; also a brother, George, of Detroit, and a sister, Mrs. Allan Perley, of Cincinnati, Ohio, who were present at the funeral. Another brother, Mr. Herbert Tisdale, is living in Saskatoon, was unable to be present. The service was conducted by Rev. R. J. Sten-Adamson.

On Friday afternoon, Master Roy Barker had the misfortune to fall off

Mr. Heddles' barn, breaking his right arm.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Kerruish and Miss Edna of Fergus, have been renewing old acquaintances in town.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Marston will regret to learn that they will soon be leaving for Waterford, near which place Mr. Marston has purchased a fruit farm, named "Gore View," from Dr. M. M. McGuire, and is already in possession of same. During Mr. Marston's stay in Paris, the family have made many friends, who will wish them every success. In gardening and the raising of flowers, Mr. Marston has been very successful, and taken a large number of prizes at the Paris Horticultural as well as Agricultural Society shows. For the past ten years they resided at the home of his wife's parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. James Finlayson. Being employed in the firm of Finlayson and Son, Mr. Marston will be very much missed among the lovers of flowers in town, as also will his exhibits at the shows.

What might have been a serious if not a fatal accident, was narrowly averted on Saturday afternoon, when a number of boys, riding by twos up and down the streets on their bicycles, collided with a car which was driven by Mr. John Cunningham. The lads were not watching what they were doing, and ran into the auto, the front wheels passing over the bicycle. Just in front of Mr. T. Evans store. Mr. Cunningham was going slowly at the time, and was able to stop his car quickly, and it was only this that prevented a serious accident. The boys went away feeling rather crestfallen.

Last evening two young girls driving a car, in turning the corner of William and River streets, opposite McCausland's store, ran into another auto that was turning the opposite corner at the Bank of Commerce. Fortunately both autos were going at a slow pace or considerable damage would have been done, as the former car struck the other square in the centre.

The bicycles ridden by lads and good sized boys, is getting to be a nuisance to pedestrians. Sunday afternoon, along several of the level stretches in town they would use the sidewalk and coolly ring the bell to get out of their way. Last evening about 7.30, one bicyclist coming from Walker's corner, was run down by another cyclist, and thrown off his wheel. Several spokes of the front wheel were smashed and the guard broken. If the reckless manner in which these lads are riding about is not stopped by them, some one will meet serious injury.

Yesterday being Conference Sunday, special services were held in the Methodist church. In the morning Rev. G. K. Bradshaw, B.A., of Welland, preached a very eloquent sermon. In the evening Rev. Simon Edwards had charge of the service, and gave a very powerful sermon. Special music was given by the choir, and Mrs. Jack Scott favored with a solo.

The Courier has been notified by the Toronto Military Hospitals Commission of the impending return to this city of three wounded soldiers, expected to arrive here to-morrow. The men are Pte. S. Pizzev, 251 Sheridan street, Pte. F. W. Pearce, 240 Dalhousie St. and Pte. W. J. Hurley, 45 Alton St.

BIRTHDAY HONORS

In the morning papers, the name of Lt.-Col. Charles Hamilton Mitchell, head of the intelligence staff of the 125th battalion, had been mentioned among the recipients of the birthday honors of the King, as having been knighted. Congratulations were tendered to his father, the Rev. George Mitchell of Toronto, who is present at the Methodist Conference, at its session this morning.

FIRST BAPTIST

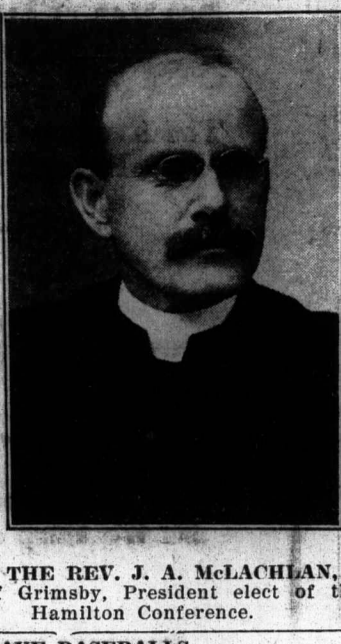

Rev. Dr. Scanlon of Pt Elgin, was the preacher at 11 a.m., and delivered a scholarly and able address on the value of a high ideal in life. Rev. R. D. Hamilton, of St. Catharines, formerly pastor of Wellington St. Methodist church, preached a fine sermon at 7 p.m. on "A Religion of Gladness." Many of his old-time friends from the city were present to hear him. The service proved most helpful.

POLICE COURT

In the police court this morning, Daisy Matthews, of Waterloo, charged Thomas Cheevers with indecent assault. Cheevers was allowed payment of $7.85 costs. Clarence Brackenberry, for having liquor in an unauthorized place, to which he was charged, was fined $200.00. Mark Wanicott, wanted upon a similar charge, did not put in an appearance. Alfred Isaacs, charged with a breach of the traffic by-law in connection with a recent collision with a bicyclist, was allowed to go with a warning, having paid for repairs to the wheel. Charles Morely, for shop-breaking and theft, paid $4.00 and $7.85 costs. His accomplice in the act was dealt with in the juvenile court, being also fined $4.00.

GOLDEN WEDDING

Under the most auspicious circumstances, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hampel on Saturday celebrated their golden wedding, the commemoration of fifty years of happy and unbroken wedded life. Accompanied by the children and grandchildren, the couple attended High Mass at St. Basil's Church, following which they repaired to the home of Mrs. P. Cheevers, their daughter, 101 Oxford street, where a dainty luncheon was served, followed by brief addresses by Rev. Dean Brady, Rev. Father Dogorski and others, both Mr. and Mrs. Hampel replying with feeling. The happy couple were made the recipients of a purse of gold to commemorate the passing of their fiftieth milestone in wedlock. Those present at the celebration included four children, Mr. John Hampel, of Detroit, and Mr. W. Hampel, of Newmarket, and Mrs. P. Cheevers of this city; also twenty four grandchildren, and one great grand-child.

THE REV. J. A. McLACHLAN, of Grimsby, President elect of the Hamilton Conference.

GAVE BASEBALLS

At the opening of the city amateur baseball league on Saturday afternoon, a very welcome donation of a dozen baseballs was made to the league by Mr. J. H. Fisher, M.P., who was among the spectators.

ROSE DAY

The members of the Women's Hospital Aid have been busy all day counting the shekels reaped in connection with their annual event. The total had not been reached at the time of going to press but it will be large.

FAUST GOOD

The following telegram has been received by Manager Whittaker of the Grand: "The performance of Faust by the Boston English Opera Company was one of the finest we have ever had in Hamilton. We have had opera at five dollar prices which was not as good. The audience simply went wild with enthusiasm. A. Strowger, Manager Grand Opera House, Hamilton."

DIED OF WOUNDS

Mrs. Taylor, of 66 Eagle Ave. has received word of the death of her husband, Pte. George Taylor, in Leinster General Hospital, on May 27, of gunshot wounds received at Vimy Ridge. The deceased went out from Brantford as a Salvation Army officer and was stationed at Tweed, Ont., when he enlisted in the 155th Battalion. His death is deeply regretted by the local corps, who held him in high esteem.

ALEXANDRA CHURCH

Owing to some misunderstanding the Rev. Mr. Eyre, who was expected to occupy the pulpit of Alexandra Church, failed to put in an appearance. The hour of service arrived and no minister, as the Rev. Mr. McIntock was absent from the city. Fortunately the Rev. George Cropp, of Carlisle, a former Brantford boy, was espied by one of the elders, who laid hands on Mr. Cropp and asked him to conduct the service. The request was willingly complied with and the congregation greeted and applauded the most delightful address, and the impressive manner in which the Rev. Mr. Cropp conducted the service. Mrs. Ernest Corey was the soloist for the morning service. In the evening the Rev. G. K. Bradshaw conducted the service, and his address was decidedly most interesting and instructive. The services during the day were thoroughly enjoyed by those fortunate enough to be present. Mrs. Edward Barton was the soloist for the evening service.

CROSS, SICKLY BABIES

Sickly babies—those who are cross and fretful; whose little stomachs and bowels are out of order, who suffer from constipation, indigestion, colds or any other of the minor ills of little ones—can be promptly cured by Baby's Own Tablets. Concerning them Mrs. Jean Paradis, St. Bruno, Que., writes: "My baby was very ill and vomited all his food. He was cross and cried night and day and nothing helped him until I began using Baby's Own Tablets. They soon set him right and now he is a fat, healthy boy." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

THE STONES OF ARRAS—JUST ONE MORE EXAMPLE OF GERMAN BARBARISM Our photograph shows the ruins of the cathedral of Arras, which was built between 1155 and 1833, on the site of the old abbey church. Though architecturally of less note than "The Stones of Venice," Arras Cathedral was a fine building—fine enough for the Germans to destroy. What it lacked in past history it has made up during the war.

SOLDIERS RAIDED SOCIALIST CROWD

Anti Conscription Meeting Broken Up by Returned Soldiers

CRUTCHES WIELDED Trouble Started When National Anthem Was Not Played

Toronto, June 4.—About the time the Socialist anti-conscription meeting was to have started in the Labor Temple last evening hysterical men and women fled from the building shouting "Mercy, Kamerad!" or words to that effect.

The meeting was broken up by returned, wounded soldiers because the Socialists refused to start the proceedings with the National Anthem.

"Run for your life—get out as quickly as you can," shouted the frightened men and women as they jostled their way to the street. The women looked as if they would faint (fortunately there were not many of them); some of the men were like Germans, who had been rooted out of their dugouts and were rushing to surrender.

Wild Scene in Hall
The scene inside was the wildest witnessed here for many a day. The crutches and sticks of disabled veterans of Ypres and the Somme were flying about; men who returned from Courcette and Thiepval minus limbs were engaged in hand to hand fights with Socialists. Tables and chairs were upset and sent spinning across the room. Everybody seemed to be shouting, some were giving orders. A bugler sounded several calls. Persons offering resistance were knocked to the floor or thrown downstairs, and some who attempted to escape by the rear were chased through the windows, over roofs and down the fire escapes.

Played "The Red Flag."
Alfred Perkins, a stereotyper, was to be chairman of the meeting, while R. A. Rigg, M.P.P., of Winnipeg was to have been the principal speaker. This is about as far as the meeting got. A Finnish orchestra started to play "The Red Flag," the "marching song" of the Socialists, when a veteran of Courcette rose and demanded that the National Anthem be played. There were probably 300 or 400 war veterans present, in command of Sergt-Major Lowery. The Socialists refused to sing "God Save the King." The war veterans cried, "We will make you sing it." And the Socialists sang "God Save the King" at the point of the bayonet, figuratively speaking.

"Get Out, Everybody."
The orchestra was compelled to play the National Anthem, and those who refused to doff their hats and sing were hustled out of the hall in double-quick time. The next command was, "Get out everybody!" and those who thought discretion the better part of valor did not remain to argue the point. A number of plain-clothesmen in charge of Police Inspector Geddes regulated the crowd on the stairway, and Inspector Geddes handled the whole situation with great tact, otherwise many persons would probably have been crushed in the wild rush for the exits.

"Pack Up Your Troubles."
After the room had been cleared of Socialists the soldiers again sang the National Anthem and marched out to the street, where a great throng had gathered. The crowd reached from Queen street almost to Wilton avenue, and the police regulated traffic with great difficulty. Out on the street the soldiers again sang, this time the National Anthem and "Pack Up Your Troubles in Your Old Kit Bag and Smile, Smile, Smile."
"They're looking for trouble and they'll get it," commented a foreigner who stood by as the veterans commenced singing "God Save the King." He was as "meek as Moses" a minute later when a man in khaki stepped up to him and said, "Take your hat off."
"All right, if you say so," he muttered as he removed his hat, and held it in his hand until the National Anthem was finished.

Interrupted Church Service
The veterans then formed a fours and marched off amid cheers, which disturbed divine worship in the Metropolitan church across the street. En route to the city hall they chased a man who is said to have displayed a German flag.
At the city hall they held a recruiting meeting which wound up with cheers for the King and hisses and boos for "Jimmy" Simpson.

JOHN PETERS, Statistical Secretary.
Brantford, June, 1917.

Save the Food and Serve the Empire!

The Average Canadian Family Wastes Enough to Feed a Soldier

"The Kitchen must help as well as the Workshop and the Trenches" Lloyd George.

INTELLIGENT economy in the kitchen can do much to prevent the threatened world famine—can counteract the effect of high prices—and can replace growing debt with systematic saving.

Careful investigations show that before the war the average British family wasted 25% of their food—and we Canadians were even more extravagant.

This waste is not in a few big things, but in many little ones, each, we used to think, too small to bother about—such as careless peeling of vegetables and fruit—failure to make good use of dripping and "left-overs"—and such others as will occur to every thrifty housekeeper.

For the Empire's sake as well as your own, hunt up and cut out these leaks! You'll be helping to relieve the food shortage—saving your own money—and putting yourself in a position to buy Canadian War Savings Certificates and help win the war.

War Savings Certificates are issued in denominations of $25, $50 and $100, to be repaid in three years at full face value. They cost $21.50, $43 and $86 respectively, at all Money Order Post-Offices and Banks, thus yielding over 5% interest. Should you need it, you can get your money back at any time.

The National Service Board of Canada, OTTAWA.

MARANVILLE BROKE ANKLE

Crack Shortstop of Boston Braves Out of the Game

Cincinnati, June 4.—In a ragged ten inning game here Sunday Cincinnati won from Boston 6 to 5. Maranville sprained his ankle in the sixth inning and had to be carried from the field. He may be out of the game for some time. Rudolph's hitting was superior to his pitching, his triple and two singles being responsible for several runs. Score: Boston . . . 0000311000—5 13 3 Cincinnati . . . 1100030001—6 11 2 Batteries, Rudolph and Gowdy; Toney and Wingo.

AT CHICAGO

Chicago bunched hits Sunday and defeated Brooklyn 5 to 2, before one of the largest crowds of the season. Cadore held the locals to six hits, but they bunched four of these in the 4th inning, one being a homer by Doyle, which sent a runner across the plate ahead of him, and another was a triple by Mann, which also sent home a run. Douglas was hit hard, but snappy fielding prevented the visitors from scoring more than twice. Score:

Brooklyn . . . 000000110—2 8 3 Chicago . . . 00040010x—5 9 1 Batteries, Cadore and Miller; Douglas and Elliott.

AT ST. LOUIS

St. Louis won yesterday's game from New York, 3 to 1. St. Louis won in the 7th when Gonzalez double and scored on Miller's single to right. Miller took second when Robertson threw wild to the infield, scoring on Crump's hit. St. Louis' run in the fifth was the result of the singles by Hornsby and Cruise and Zimmerman's error. New York's lone run was a homer by Burns in the fifth. Score:

New York . . . 0000010000—1 7 3 St. Louis . . . 000001020x—3 6 9 Batteries, Sallee and McCarty; Ames and Snyder.

TWO BATTING RALLIES

Detroit, June 4.—Two spectacular batting rallies Saturday gave Detroit a 5 to 4 victory over New York. This was the play off of a postponed game. In the fifth after Hendrix' muffed Velt's foul fly, Velt singled and Bush drove in two runs with a timely single. Cobb's triple scored Bush in the seventh. The winning runs were made in the eighth on successive hits by Burns, Velt and Spencer. Score:

New York . . . 031000000—4 11 2 Detroit . . . 00002012x—5 12 1 Batteries, Russell, Love and Walters; Boland, Daus and Spencer.

erved, under the direction of the Rev. J. A. MacLachlan, assisted by other prominent ministers in attendance at the conference session...

The sermon was based on the text, "And he ordained twelve that they should be with Him, and that He might send them forth to preach..."

Special blessings would be conferred for special duties, and the speaker hoped that all who had been called to the ministry would realize the magnitude and comprehensiveness of the power of the Almighty...

A masterful and compelling justification of the aims of Britain in the present war, and of the principles of the allied forces, delivered by Lt.-Col. G. H. Williams...

The young men were being ordained but to what order were they being admitted? In the old Mosaic economy two orders had existed...

He asked them to come to their people with a simple earnest message from the Master and with His truth on their lips...

Neither of the two encounters staged could be described as thrilling, for in each the victory proved to be a walk-away for the victors...

SIDELIGHTS ON THE STAGE AND SCREEN

RED HOT COMEDY
"Fatty" Arbuckle has been in hot water ever since he started work on his newest Paramount comedy. It takes three hours every morning to heat the amount of steaming fluid necessary in taking the kitchen scenes called for in this scenario. Judging from the sounds emanating from the Arbuckle studios, one would be justified in mistaking it for a boiler factory rather than a home of the photodrama.

ON THE GRIDIRON
It is a hot spot that Carlyle Blackwell walks into as the hero of "The Crimson Dove" when he becomes sky pilot for the residents of a lumber camp called "Hell's Gridiron." Dog fights, gun fights, rousting, and knife fights and "booze" fights are going on all over the place when he drops in and casually takes a hand.

"FAUST"
The leading prima donna with the Boston English Opera Company, which comes to the Grand Opera House on Monday, June 4th, is one of the most interesting personages on the operatic stage. She has a repertoire of over thirty operas, is an accomplished linguist, speaks English and Italian almost as fluently as her native French.

Mlle. Gardini is an authority on interior decorating, and her hobby is collecting ivories; she is an all-round sportsman; as a swimmer she can put many a professional to shame, and is an excellent rifle and pistol shot.

Mlle. Gardini attributes much of her operatic success to her love for outdoor sports. With the constitution of a prize athlete, she usually puts the average grand opera prima donna in a state of nervous collapse in a few weeks, is just fun for her.

THE GRAND
The Grand Opera House opened its doors for a summer season, as a motion picture house, on Saturday, with the first showing of a return engagement of the colossal feature film, "The Whip," one of the most stupendous productions ever undertaken, and containing a number of thrills never before placed upon the screen, including the destruction of a racing automobile going at full speed, and a railroad wreck, two scenes devoid of film trickery and compelling in their intensity and vividness. An all star cast is presented in this offering, which is again the attraction to-morrow and Wednesday evenings, such well known names as those of Irving Cummings and Alma Hanlon appearing in the cast.

The Grand has been transformed into a modern and up to date motion picture theatre, with nothing conducive to the comfort of its patrons lacking, and will offer high class pictures for the entertainment of all. While such features as "The Whip" and "The Crisis" are being secured, it is not the intention of the management to show these high priced productions exclusively, and less pretentious attractions will be secured also.

CHILLING CHARLIE
During the making of "The Betrayal of Maggie" Mack Sonnett-Keystone Charley Murray suffered some indignities which even the imaginative, lurid scenario didn't call for. Discovering in the kitchen making love to Louise Fazenda, he had to hide in the ice box.

A painstaking propertyman had stowed a cake of ice therein, but Murray didn't know it until he was inside. Meanwhile the camera was taking the scene in the kitchen and it would have cost the Keystone several hundred dollars in retakes if he opened that icebox. So he stuck to his hiding place. Later, when it was time to come out, he found his trousers, perhaps with the same exalted sense of duty, had decided to stick to the ice. Murray made his exit, and part of the trousers re—but that is another story.

SHIRLEY IS DOMESTIC
Shirley Mason plays Althea Marden, the feminine role next in importance to that of Ann Murdock in the adaptation of "Where Love Is," a Mutual Star Production.

Miss Mason says she loves the role of Althea Mason because in it she had to do all the kind of things she just loves. For although Miss Mason is first and foremost an actress she is thoroughly domestic and "loves to fuss around a house," as she expresses it. In the studio home of Jimmie Padgate she was called upon to do such things as sweep floors and embroider.

BLIND ACTOR
Probably the only blind man now acting in motion pictures is J. Van Cortland who is playing in "The Great Secret." Mr. Van Cortland is an actor of culture and experience, and up to a little over a year ago was rarely out of an engagement. Then came his affliction. He had been working for the Essanay company in Chicago and one night while leaving the studio he was held up by thugs and robbed.

Finding that all he had was $4 the robbers blockjacked and beat him so severely that his eyesight was permanently affected. He came to New York to consult specialists and suddenly went blind. He is just able to distinguish between light and darkness, and has to be led about the streets. Yet he moves about the stage at the Quality studio with remarkable accuracy, as though he were gifted with a sixth sense.

In "The Great Secret" he was cast for minor characters that entailed a stationary position with confined action, and so well did he acquit himself that the motion picture spectator will not know the actor is totally blind. During the last eight months he has taught himself to read from books with raised type that are issued for the blind, and during waits between rehearsals he is always surrounded by an interested audience of players to whom he reads. Mr. Van Cortland is a native of Rotterdam, Holland, and came to this country twenty-three years ago.

JOSEPH F. SHEEHAN, WHO PLAYS THE LEADING ROLE IN "FAUST" AT THE GRAND TONIGHT.

shadow of the Hun, the passion of self interest and self desire which could spell but disintegration, degeneration and demoralization. The path had not yet been trodden to the end, however, we were not yet prepared for victory, we did not yet deserve it, the speaker considered, proceeding to deliver an impassioned appeal for the purging of selfishness from our nation, the abolition of war profiteering, and other such evils; if we were to prove ourselves brothers to the men at the front, we must be prepared to make like sacrifices to theirs, to rise to a like standard of manliness. We must unite in prayer, must purge ourselves of the lust for gain. Particularly did Colonel Williams take objection to race track gambling in wartime, urging all men to stand as one in the sight of Heaven, prepared to bear their share, to play the man truly, loyally, faithfully, "for," he declared, "when the life of the trenches becomes that of the street, all sacrificing all for victory which we shall then deserve."

Evening Service
"The Divinity of Christ," was the subject of a powerful address by the Rev. S. E. Marshall, B.A., B.D., at Wellington St. Church last evening. Taking as his text the words found in the first chapter of the Gospel of John, verses one and four, "The Word was God," and "The Word was made Flesh," the speaker proceeded ably and logically to classify the countless evidences afforded us of the divinity of Christ, with fine intuition it was that the Christian church had made Christmas and Easter the two greatest religious feasts of the year, in commemoration of the beginning and ending of the Lord's life upon earth. In bygone ages the divinity of Christ had been everywhere acknowledged, while His humanity had been frequently challenged. To-day, the situation was reversed, and while His humanity was universally admitted, queries were raised against the doctrine of His divinity, or rather His Deity. Then such a cardinal doctrine of faith as that of the Deity of Christ, nothing more essential to Christian religion existed. The speaker went on to draw from the character of Christ the most profitable support of his case; Christ was so great, so perfect that He must be more than a mere man, for two thousand years of the world's history had produced none to parallel Him. It was a moral absurdity to claim that He was good but not God, for were He not God, then His expressed claims to divinity were irreconcilable with goodness. And His goodness was universal, complete, as contrasted with the fragmentary goodness of others. We were to seek the meekest of men, we must turn not to Moses, but to Christ; the most patient, not to Solomon, but to Christ; the most pitying, not to Jeremiah, but Christ; the most loving, not to the Apostle John, but to Christ. His life was a sinless one, whereas all others of the Bible's characters confessed to sin. He alone prayed for others, but not for Himself. He alone of all the great religious teachers dared to issue to the world the challenge, "Which of you shall convict Me of sin?" Through two thousand years the searchlight of criticism, focussed upon Jesus Christ, had failed to reveal a flaw in His Divinity.

Saturday Service
The clergy and lay delegates to the Hamilton Methodist conference, united in prayer and worship for the first hour of the morning session on Saturday. Prayers were offered and familiar hymns were sung. At ten o'clock the conference was declared open for the transaction of the regular business. The Rev. F. M. Mathers, of Waterloo, suggested that the fathers of sons who are in khaki serving their country, should hold a "get together" dinner or supper, where pleasant social intercourse could be had under the new bond of union that has been established by the Empire crisis. The order of the day was proceeded with and this subject laid over for later discussion at a more opportune time. Rev. Dr. J. W. Graham, of the educational committee, who is closing his tenth year in the incumbency of the general secretaryship of this department, submitted his report. Within the past ten years the income has increased from $30,000 to $70,000 in 1917. He presented other figures to show on what a sound financial basis the department exists. He spoke of the possibility of the consummation union within three years, and stated that if this movement was accomplished, the Methodist church will be able to enter with educational assets of between $8,000,000 and $10,000,000. He reviewed the work that had been done in the different districts and the campaigns carried on there, the holding of "Educational Days" and other similar measures. He did not doubt but that the high water mark of contributions, made by the Methodist ministers of Canada, had responded to the call. If there was any doubt of the attitude of the Methodist ministry toward the selective conscription proposed by the Government, the records thus far of the church should answer the doubt without question. He paid a glowing tribute to the boys who have given up their lives to preserve liberty, and claimed that the church would be immortal and prove an inspiration to the students of the coming generations. "Their high souls will burn in," he continued. He thanked his hearers for their continued support in time of stress. "God help us to do our bit where we are." He scoured the continuance of the Woodbine and asked exceedingly sarcastic and described the condition as an anarchism, that arrested a few Chinamen in a back room for gambling, yet legalized 15,000 of the elite of the province to each day enter this race track for gambling purposes.

"Why then did the Toronto University confer the highest degree in its gift upon the Lieut. Governor, the greatest gambler of them all?" he demanded. In reply Mr. Graham stated that the Methodist Church nor Victoria College had not been associated in the conferment of the degree. Sam Carter, M.P.P., of Guelph, speaking of race track gambling, said that the Lieut. Governor had been criticized for his association with race track gambling, from the floor of the house, and gave his assurance that the matter had not dropped there but would be again brought up. Mr. Graham resumed the floor and in a few brief words placed himself definitely and emphatically as opposed to race track gambling and declared the multiplication of tracks in the vicinity of Windsor.

Mr. Thos. Hilliard gave a report of the sustentation fund of the church and pointed out what the committee had to do to meet weaknesses in the present system. In some cases the inefficiencies of the ministers, in a small proportion was to be blamed on the neglect on the part of a great many congregations to even take one collection for this fund, almost one quarter of the fund is granted to two charges, which in the opinion of the committee, should not exist, because of their self-sustaining churches are nearby and within easy reach. He thought that this was a matter for the consideration of the stationing committee. In some cases there had been deficiencies in salaries and with the advance in the cost of living, the difficulty was assuming serious proportions. In moving the adoption of the report, a delegate thought that this was a difficulty for which immediate solution was imperative. He urged that action be taken. The opinion was given by another delegate that the present system was absolute and that the minister should be guaranteed the minimum amount and another method of raising the necessary fund be instituted. The original report was adopted, and several recommendations arising out of the discussion were placed in the hands of the committee for consideration.

A Fine Record
Rev. Dr. Griffin, Chief of the Superannuation Board, Toronto, who was 64 years ago pastor of the Wellington Street Church, spoke entertainingly and delightfully to the audience with his interesting account of his work. He is over ninety years of age and has been engaged in active service for sixty-eight years. He gave an account of the financial standing of the Board, which was very satisfactory. He assured the conference that the report of 1917 would at least equal if not surpass that of former years. He emphasized the necessity of the fund and made a strong plea for continued support.

It was moved by Rev. G. S. Cassmoor and seconded by Mr. Isaac Wilson, that the following laymen be appointed to the conference missionary committee: Messrs J. M. Denyes, Milton; J. S. Harker, Hamilton; C. P. McGregor, Hamilton; George Wedlake, Brantford; and F. Mann, Brantford.

The result of the election for the board of directors was announced, it being found that those elected were: Rev. J. H. McBain, B.A.; Rev. J. S. Ross; Rev. G. W. Barker; H. B. Christie, B.A.; S. A. Laidman, M.A. Ph.D.; C. J. McViney, S. E. Marshall, B. A., B.D.; W. S. Daniels, B.A., B.D.; F. M. Mathers, B. D.; W. B. Smith, B. A.

LEAFS BREAK EVEN WITH THE HUSTLERS

Lost Opening Game on Saturday But Landed Second Encounter
NINTH INNING RALLY
Scored Three Runs in Final Frame and Conquered
4 to 3

Rochester, N. Y., June 4.—The best the Leafs could do here Saturday in their initial appearance of the season was to break even with the Hustlers, they losing the first by 6 to 2, but pulling the second out of the fire by the score of 4 to 3, after a grand rally in the ninth inning which netted them three runs. Zabel was opposed to Causey in the first game, but he proved no puzzle and was relieved by Lyons. In the second Thompson and Lohman were the heavies, the Leafs getting half their safeties in the ninth inning. In this spasm Altenberg started the fun by being walked. He went to third on Whiteman's single, and scored on a close play. Graham doubled to left, and Blackburne singled, scoring Lajoie with the tying run. Smith hit safely, Graham counting. The scores: First game—R. H. E. Toronto . . . 000001010—2 9 Rochester . . . 002211010—6 10 2 Batteries—Lyons, Zabel and Kelly and Lajoie; Causey and Wendell. Second game—R. H. E. Toronto . . . 00010003—3 8 Rochester . . . 010010010—3 9 2 Batteries—Thompson and Lajoie; Lohman and Sandberg. Umpires—Hart and Tannehill.

The Halifax (N.S.) Trades and Labor Council has quite a pretentious programme of work mapped out for its legislative committee, and among some of them already dealt with may be mentioned cheap fares on the street railway, amendments to the provincial workmen's compensation act, fair wages schedules on public works, and the appointment of a provincial fair wage officer.

aced our glory, our integrity, our strength. A purer and truer blood pulses today the arteries of the empire than ever before; waste and indigence had gone, and we were well on their way, and we were delivered from the abyss which had yawned before our national life, a grave deeper than that which engulfs our heroes at the battlefield, a grave of shame and sorrow rather than of glory and eternal heavenly reward. Col. Williams was loud in his appreciation of the showing made by Canadian troops at the front, the splendid resurrection of the young manhood of today, spelling a salvation from that as ominous as the

When Nothing Else Could
Mrs. Jarvis, Box 236, Penetang P.O., Ontario, writes: "It is a pleasure to tell you what Dr. Cassell's Tablets have done for my baby. When only five months old he fell ill, and though I had medical advice for him he got worse. I tried several special foods, but none of them would stay on his stomach, and he became so thin that he seemed just skin and bone. He only weighed 10 lbs., and we never thought he could live. But chancing to hear of Dr. Cassell's Tablets I got some for my baby, and am thankful I did. He is a bonny boy now, quite cured, and weighs 25 lbs. at twelve months old." A free sample of Dr. Cassell's Tablets will be sent free to you on receipt of 5 cents for mailing and packing. Address: Harold F. Ritchie & Co., Ltd., 10 McCasland St., Toronto. Dr. Cassell's Tablets are the surest home remedy for Dyspepsia, Kidney trouble, Sleeplessness, Anaemia, Nervous Allments, Nerve Paralysis, Palpitation, and Weakness in Children. # THE MAELSTROM

By Frank Froest

Late Superintendent of the Criminal Investigation Department of New Scotland Yard. (Copyright)

(From Saturday's Daily)

"Take a good look at these ladies," said Menzies's suave voice.

Jimmie had not needed more than one glance. There was a sufficient general resemblance among the army of women, but she was unmistakable. She was the second from the right. He had taken one pace toward her when her gaze met his. There was nothing in it of appeal. It was indifferent, cold, impassive. Yet Hallett's resolution wavered. He walked past her along the row—and back again. He felt himself a fool. There was not the faintest reason why he should not identify her. She was a stranger. She was at least indirectly responsible for the unpleasant experiences that had beset him. She was possibly concerned in a deliberate murder. And then out of the crowd of his eye he saw her moisten her dry lips. That was the only trace of emotion she gave.

"It's no good, Mr. Menzies," he said quietly. "I don't recognize any one here." He had played poker in his time, and his face and voice were absolutely expressionless. Menzies tapped a forefinger thoughtfully alongside his nose and smiled ruefully.

"All right," he said, and Jimmie fancied there was an inner shade of meaning to the words. "That will do, ladies, thank you."

The women—wives and daughters of police officials, for the most part—separated. Only the girl of the cheeks remained behind. As the room emptied she walked toward Menzies.

"That's our, Miss Greye-Stratton," he said cheerfully. "I am so much obliged to you. I want you to know, Mr. Hallett, the gentleman who first called our attention to the death of your father."

Jimmie concealed the surprise that the name gave him. Although there was a certain touch of melancholy in the oval face, there was none of that grief which might have been expected in a girl who had suddenly learned of the murder of her father.

For a moment he was repelled. He murmured some conventional phrase of sympathy, but she swept it away as though aware that her manner needed explanation.

"Yes, this is very dreadful, Mr. Hallett, but not so dreadful to me as it might have been. You see, I scarcely knew my father. We were almost complete strangers."

"Miss Greye-Stratton called on me at the Yard as soon as she heard of the murder," he said. "I thought it as well in the circumstances that there should be no ground for misunderstandings. You see, your story of the way the checks came into your possession is bound to make talk when you give evidence at the inquest. I wanted it to be definitely clear that Miss Greye-Stratton was not the lady and she was good enough to consent to this arrangement."

Hallett wondered how the diplomacy of the detective could have got over the difficulty if the girl had refused. That she had consented showed nerve, for she had not known that he would not identify her. He was curious, too, as to what would have happened if he had picked her out. Would she have been arrested on suspicion?

"If it had been Miss Greye-Stratton she would hardly have sought you out," he remarked.

"No, no, of course not," said Menzies soothingly. "I never thought for a moment that she was the woman. One likes to save anything in the nature of scandal though. I remember a case where two elderly ladies—sisters—living in a country house were attacked by some one with a hammer. One was found dead, the other unconscious—she remained unconscious for weeks. The hammer was found in an outhouse a hundred yards away. Now there was a considerable amount of gossip and the theory was firmly held by dozens of people that the living sister had attacked the dead one. They overlooked the fact that to have done so she must have walked to the place where the hammer was found after her own injuries had been inflicted. That's an example of what I mean."

The girl nodded. "I am quite sure you only meant to save me possible future unpleasantness. Is there anything else?" You have my address. "There is no other way at the moment in which you can help. As matters develop I may call on you. It has been very good of you."

She stretched out her slim gloved hand to Hallett. But he was not inclined to let her escape so easily. She owed him something, if only an explanation. "I am going your way," he said unblushingly. "Perhaps if you don't mind—"

"You are very kind, Mr. Hallett," she said formally.

Menzies stroked his moustache and his eyes roved sideways to his aide-de-camp. Royal, who after an absence of two or three minutes had now returned. Royal nodded almost imperceptibly, and the inspector said good-bye.

"By the way, you had better be at the police court at two, Mr. Hallett. We shall charge this man Smith today. I don't expect you'll be kept long. It will be purely formal. We shall apply for a remand."

Hallett and the girl went down the steps to the street. He was conscious that though she appeared to be gazing serenely in front of her that she occasionally scrutinized him with curious eyes.

Not till they were a hundred yards away from the police station did either of them speak again. Then Jimmie ventured on the ice.

"Perhaps now you will tell me what it's all about?"

"Oh!" she stopped and turned full on him with the wide open innocent blue eyes of a child. "So you knew all the time. I wasn't sure."

"Wasn't sure that I knew you as the girl in the fog?"

"Yes. Shall we walk on? We might attract attention standing here. Why did you do it? Why didn't you denounce me?"

Jimmie twiddled his walking stick. "Hanged if I know," he confessed. Her self-possession rather daunted him. "I thought—that is—if you wanted to you would have explained the incident yourself."

"That's no reason. You didn't know me. There was no earthly motive. All the same I am grateful to you, Mr. Hallett—most sincerely grateful," she sighed.

A porter with a parcel under his arm loitered three yards behind them. Ten yards behind him a youth scrupulously dressed and seemingly conscious of nothing but the beauty of his attire, swaggered aimlessly. Menzies, as has been said, was not a man who took anything for granted. His arrangements for "covering" Peggy Greye-Stratton in the event of Hallett not recognizing her had been completed long before he had confronted them in the charge room.

Hallett might have guessed—if he had thought about it at all. The girl certainly did not. Jimmie caught at her last words.

"You can prove that. Although we have only been formally introduced in the last five minutes, we are not exactly strangers. Come and lunch with me. Then we can talk. There are several things I want to know."

She assented, it seemed to him somewhat indifferently. He hailed a

"A CRAZY WAY OF MINE."

I wish I had gone to see his drawings but I had heard so much about them that I resolved not to see them. "A crazy way of mine, your honor."

So wrote Walter Scott many years ago of the famous bird drawing of Audubon which were then being exhibited in England.

Don't you think it is interesting to know that this "crazy way" of turning against things which have been too much recommended to us is Sir Walter Scott's as well as yours and mine.

We Like To Be Scott's Thousandth Cousin

It seems to us as a sort of thousandth cousinship with him when even Thackeray humbly called "that great and good man."

But what I wonder is the cause for this "crazy way" into which the greatest and the least fall?

I suppose it's just plain human perversity.

We do want to do what we are told to do.

Too much sugar turns the stomach of the mind.

Courier Daily Recipe Column

JOHNNY CAKE
One pint corn meal, scalded with 1 cup boiling water, 1-2 cup flour, 1 cup milk, 1 tablespoon lard, 3 tablespoons molasses, 2 tablespoons baking powder.
Can be used with an egg or not. The egg improves it.

MARBLE CAKE
Light Part
Whites of 3 eggs (well beaten), 1 cup white sugar, 1-2 cup melted butter, 1-2 cup sweet milk, 1 teaspoon of cream of tartar, 1-2 teaspoon of soda, 2 cups flour, flavor to taste, salt.

Dark Part
Yolks of 3 eggs (beaten), 1 cup brown sugar, 1-2 cup molasses, 1-2 cup soft milk, 1-2 cup melted butter, salt, 1 teaspoon soda, 2 1-2 cups flour, all kinds of spices to taste.

Bake in loaves in alternate layers of light and dark.

DATE PIES
Crust, 3 cups of flour, 1 cup of lard, a pinch of salt, water enough to mix (about 1 cup); filling, 1-2 pounds of molasses dates, cook in water enough to cover until soft, then strain, add one-quart of milk, 3 eggs well beaten, a pinch of salt. Bake with one crust. This makes two large or three small pies.

CRANBERRY PIE
One cup ripe cranberries, cut each one in half, put in dish; put over them one cup of white sugar, 1-2 cup of water, a tablespoonful of sifted flour; stir all together and put into a baking dish. Add one upper crust and bake slowly in a moderate oven. Very nice.

BREAD AND BUTTER PUDDING
Cut thin slices of bread and butter, put in pudding dish, a few stones, raising between each layer of bread; make a custard of 1-2 pints of milk, 2 eggs, 4 tablespoons of sugar, a little salt, a little nutmeg; mix well and pour over the bread; let it stand one hour, then bake 45 minutes in a moderate oven and you have a very delicate pudding.

ATTRACTIVE DINING CAR SERVICE
Probably nothing helps more to make a railway journey really enjoyable than a visit to the "Dining Car," especially if it be a Canadian Pacific Dining Car, where the passenger is assured of the highest form of efficiency in the culinary art, the choicest provisions that the market affords, prepared on the scientific principle known as "Dietetic Blending."

Your favorite dish as you like it, may be enjoyed at a reasonable price. Ideal surroundings, while travelling on the Canadian Pacific.

YOU NEED A TONIC

Hood's Sarsaparilla, as a Spring Medicine, is the Best.

Spring sickness comes in some degree to every man, woman and child in our climate. It is that run-down condition of the system that results from impure, impoverished, devitalized blood. It is marked by loss of appetite and that tired, feeble, and in many cases by some form of eruption.

The best way to treat spring sickness is to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Ask your druggist for this old reliable family medicine. It purifies, enriches and revitalizes the blood. It is an all-year-round alternative and tonic, and is absolutely the best Spring medicine.

Get your blood in good condition as soon as now. Delay may be dangerous. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla, nothing else can take its place.
