HE CONDEMNS BOERS

Bishop J. C. Hartzell, of Africa, Lauds the Englishmen.

SAYS BURGHERS ARE BRUTAL.

Te's American Methodists that Great Britain is Justified in the War—His Sentiments Cheered.

Every allusion to an alliance between England and the United States, and every expression of hope for English victory over the Boers made by Bishop J. C. Hartzell, of Africa, in the Auditorium, Chicago, last week, was enthusiastically greeted by the Methodists in general.

CHARGES BRUTALITY TO NATIVES. Bishop Hartzell was introduced by C. B. Mason, Cincinnati, general secretary of the Freedman's Aid and Southern Educational Society, and one of the leading colored Methodists in the country.

"No one can understand the full significance of the war in South Africa unless they study the laws and spirit of the British and Boer concerning the native or black population in the midst and in the surrounding districts. In the treatment of the black races there has been a clear antagonism between the British and the Boer from the very beginning.

"The Boer believes that the natives are the children of Ham and are intended by Providence for slavery. If slavery cannot be in that form, then the relations must be law fixed so that equality of privilege is not permitted between the Boer and the native, no matter what may be the intelligence or character of the latter.

BLAOKS CANNOT OWN LAND. "No black man can hold land in the Transvaal. No black man can become a trader of any kind, no matter what his intelligence or how good his character. Up to two years ago there could be no legal marriage of any black person.

"The Transvaal Dutch churches, after fifty years of opportunity, have done practically nothing in missionary work among the natives. The only native church, a black one, was founded by a white man, and is now in the hands of a white man.

FRANCHISE LAW CRITICIZED. "The immediate occasion of the war was the treatment of the Outlanders in the Transvaal. The Transvaal has been a government administered on the basis of preference instead of principle.

"The franchise law provides that an Outlander must be 40 years of age; he must own property; he must be a burgher in his district; most express in writing their desire that he be made a burgher; he must not be objected to by the state secretary or the president; and as a climax unparalleled in civilized government, he must be a native-born citizen.

SAYS REBELLION WAS JUSTIFIABLE. "The Transvaal seceded its doom as a permanent government in its first petition containing over 35,000 names, acknowledged to be genuine, asking for some light modifications of the franchise. After that, if there was a spot on earth where rebellion was justifiable on the part of the aggrieved, it was the Transvaal. In no civilized country on earth would 80,000 grown men, representing an intelligent and aggressive Anglo-Saxon population of 210,000 people, conducting enormous business interests, submit to the tyranny of an oligarchy such as ruled at Pretoria.

"History will condemn this war as having been inaugurated by the Boers because in the administration of civil justice to white men, irrespective of race, and justice as applied to man, irrespective of race, black or white, or language or religion."

A Shocking Accident. A fourteen-year-old of Alexander Jewett, of Prince William, was the victim of a very serious and somewhat peculiar accident a few days ago. He was helping

Thousands of Maritime Province Residents Were in Deadly Danger.

Most of them Would Have Perished but for Dodd's Kidney Pills—Kidney Diseases Vanish before This Great Remedy.

Halifax, N. S., May 11.—The list of names of Maritime Province residents who have been recently cured of Kidney Diseases by Dodd's Kidney Pills, and which was published a few days ago, in the leading newspapers of these provinces, has created deep interest, and has been the one great topic of conversation ever since.

"You think the list is large" said a leading Halifax druggist, to one of his customers who had bought a box of Dodd's Kidney Pills, "but look at this," he said, taking a number of sheets of foolscap paper from his desk. "Here is a list of names of some of those among my customers, who have been cured of Kidney Diseases, in one form or another, by Dodd's Kidney Pills."

"I am compiling this list just for curiosity," I have already fifty names, and I have spoken to only about half my customers yet.

"It is really the most remarkable thing I ever heard of," went on the druggist. "Here are the names of fifty persons. Some had Rheumatism, some Lumbago, others had Diabetes, others Bright's Disease, four had Paralysis, three had Heart Disease, one had Stone in the Bladder, five had Gravel, and so on. They all state here, in writing, that Dodd's Kidney Pills cured them."

MARYVILLE NEWS. (Special Correspondence to the Herald.) May 12.—Mrs. Biss and her four children have arrived from Boston on a visit to her father, Mr. John Gibson. Her many friends are pleased to see her.

Miss Meehan has been spending a few days in the Capital. Mrs. Meehan, an aged and respected resident, passed away last Sunday, 6th inst., after a short illness. He was a native of Nova Scotia, and had made his home here for the past five years with his wife, Mrs. Meehan.

Quite a number of our town people have visited the Opera House this week. The many friends of the Rev. Mr. Sloss will be glad to hear he has recovered from his recent illness.

BULLER'S VICTORIOUS PROGRESS. Occupies Dundee—Enemy has Fled to Laing's Nek—Boers Destroyed Valuable Property.

London, May 15, 1.56 p. m.—The war office has received the following despatch from Gen. Buller: "Dundee, May 15, 1 p. m.—We have occupied Dundee. About 2,500 of the enemy left yesterday for Glencoe, where they entrained their wagons; also left yesterday by De Jagers drift and the Jannahaus road. Their Kafirs said they were going to Laing's Nek. Almost every house in Dundee is completely looted. The navigation colliery is all right. The machinery of the Dundee collieries is destroyed. Houses of the town are damaged but are structurally intact."

Confirmed by War Office. London, May 15.—The war office today furnished confirmation of the Associated Press story of yesterday, telling of Gen. Buller's move on the Biggarsberg. It is a despatch as follows: "Kemp's Farm, May 15.—The following telegram sent to Roberts. They begin under date of May 13: "In accordance with instructions to keep the enemy occupied at the Biggarsberg on May 11, I concentrated the third cavalry brigade of the second division, and some corps of artillery, at Sunday river drift, on the Helmapark road, and directed Col. Bethune to advance on Greytown with the Bethune infantry, the Umbell mounted rifles and the Imperial light infantry. On May 12 we moved to Washbank and Bethune to Homery, while Gen. Hildyard from Elandsdalge occupied Indola mountain."

"On May 13, I sent Gen. Hamilton with three battalions up the steep slope of Witloek hill. The third cavalry brigade crowned a hill on each side of the main road, and Bethune attacked by the Pomeroy road from three sides. "The enemy hurriedly abandoned the position which they had strongly entrenched and retired to the Nek in front of Helmapark, whence we hope to dislodge them to morrow; as many of them have retreated we have gained the summit of the Berg with the loss of only a few men wounded."

"I advance to-morrow on Beth and Hildyard moves on Wessel's Nek. "Our small loss, I think, was certainly due to the excellent troop leading of Gen. Hamilton, Lord Dundonald and Col. Bethune."

"A second despatch dated May 14, says: The enemy evacuated Helmapark Nek during the night, leaving a rag guard of about a thousand men in front of us. These were taken back throughout the day under considerable difficulty, as they fired all the grass on top of the box as they retreated, and the wind being unfavorable to us, we were scarcely able to see at all."

I halted the infantry who had marched through the hot smoke, at Beth. The cavalry have not yet reported, but are some miles ahead. "We have taken a few prisoners; our casualties are small. "A third despatch dated from Kemp's Farm, May 15, says: "Dundonald reported late last night that he had driven the rear guard on to the main body of the enemy near Brualindine, where they occupied in force a strong position with three powerful guns."

"Major Gough, with the composite regiment, manoeuvred to the right of their left flank and they retire. "Dundonald then had a. He was 25 miles as the crow flies from his previous night's bivouac, and had covered nearly forty miles during the day in a waterless country, most of the time riding through smoke."

"I think his pursuit a very fine performance. "From prisoners I learn that the enemy number over 2,000 at Helmapark, and being now joined by those who left Vanjoder's pass, they must total nearly 3,000 men. "We moved on Dundee today. "Hildyard reports the occupation of Wessel's Nek and is repairing the line."

Steyn's Brother a Prisoner. Brond's Drift, May 13.—Gen. Randle has completely checkmated the advance of the Boers to come south again, and the enemy are retiring before the advance of the British; many have been captured or are surrendering. There were 150 of these yesterday and to-day among them President Steyn's brother. The L.-ydrandic district is clear of Boers. They have evacuated M-quaiting's Nek and are now near Lindley.

TORYISM RUN MAD.

Our Tory newspaper friends find pleasure in quoting from French Canadian papers, an evidence of opposition to imperialism, and hold those of the Liberal party up as disloyal. Now the Liberals do not claim all the loyalty of the country; that absurd position is left to the Tories, but we submit that nothing so rank and disloyal as an extract which was emanated from any French Canadian Liberal. It is from a Tory newspaper, Le Trifluvien, published at Three Rivers, Quebec, and is a gem in its way. Possibly this Tory newspaper has been studying recent speeches of its leader, Sir Charles Tupper, and its article shows the "staring result of following a preposterous example."

Trifluvien, after having alluded to the Queen's Jubilee in 1897, says: "Sir Wilfrid Laurier, forgetting his origin, betraying his fellow-countrymen and trampling underfoot the sentiments of a whole nation who merited his gratitude, had the cynicism to declare that he would be happy only on the day when he would be permitted to sit in the Imperial Parliament. It was all up with us French-Canadians; we were despised, betrayed by a brother. Who among us, before that shameful and humiliating declaration, would have thought that we had in the person of our representative a traitor and a new Judas? Who that time would have dared to believe that we had in London a perfidious renegade called Laurier? Unhappily, it was only too true. Sir Wilfrid Laurier had become a perfidious man, a traitor, a renegade and a Judas in the eyes of his fellow-countrymen. Three years have rolled by since that baneful day of treason. The form of imperialism, soon, sustained and cultivated with care by Sir Wilfrid, has grown and increased in a prodigious manner. The Grand Master, Israel (Mr. Tarte), has just returned in London to the shameful declaration made by Sir Wilfrid in 1897. 'The French Canadians,' said he 'would like to be pure English, and in order to make their position regular they require nothing more than to be represented in the Imperial Parliament.' One must be a degenerate to utter such absurdities. Yet these are the men, both devoted partisans of the imperialism, which we repudiate as a hideous monster, who represent us at Ottawa. Both united for evil, traitors to our interests and to the sentiments of French-Canadians, sit in the Canadian Parliament under the title of representatives of our race. Let us awaken and prepare for the combat. Let us withdraw our confidence from these men, since they are unworthy of it. Let us drive them from the power they stole in 1896, and then we shall have the satisfaction of having accomplished a national and meritorious work."

Tories in some parts of Canada denounce Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Tarte as disloyal, but here we have a leading Tory newspaper calling them Judases because they are loyal to the Queen, and advocates of Imperial Unity.

GENEROUSLY TREATED.

A correspondent of the Montreal Herald finds that New Brunswick is dealing more liberally with her soldier boys in South Africa than any other Province. When the first contingent started for the front, movement was inaugurated to collect money sufficient to pay each man from this Province 50 cents daily for six months. The response was so generous and spontaneous that it was found possible to continue this liberal grant to the men of the second contingent, as well as to those who went out to fill vacancies on the first contingent. At a meeting of the subscribers to the fund on Monday, it was reported that $15,990 had been received and that promised grants by the Provincial Government of $5,000 and the City of St. John of $2,000 only left $2,990 more to be raised by public contributions to enable the payment to every New Brunswick soldier at the front of $5.50 per week for the full year of his enlistment. This sum will be collected.

The heirs of those who die in Africa will receive their proportion, already a large amount has been paid out on orders from the men, mothers or other legal representatives getting the $3.50 weekly. Others will have a good sum to their credit when they get home.

The correspondent however, forgets to add that the soldiers who went from Fredericton, have had their lives insured for $1,000 each by the city council.

The Australian federation bill has had its first reading in the Imperial House of Commons, and Mr. Chamberlain in introducing it made the important announcement that the government proposed to introduce into the House of Lords forth with a scheme to appoint for seven years a representative of each of Canada, South Africa, Australia and India to be members of the privy council and who would act as lords of appeal. Life peerages would be conferred on them, so that they would continue to sit in the House of Lords although they would not as judges be paid the same as lords of appeal and at the cost of the imperial government.

Mr. Chamberlain's proposition to abolish the judicial appeal committee of the English privy council, and appoint in its place a new court of appeal, four of whom shall be from the colonies, meets with favorable comment. The appointees will also be members of the House of Lords, and will continue in the peerage after their appointment for seven years, or to the court has expired. Canada will have one member of the new court, and we shall therefore have a new peer every seven years. Who is going to receive the first appointment, Blake Laurier, Mills, or Blair?

Lord Roberts has made a valuable contribution to the literature of temperance. In a letter to Sir Geo. White, which the latter has read before the army temperance association, in England, the British commander-in-chief in South Africa, writing at Bloemfontein, April 19, says: "There never was a more temperate army than that which marched under my command from the Modder River to Bloemfontein. Nothing but good can result from so many soldiers being brought together in an arduous campaign."

London, May 16.—The war office has posted the following despatch from Lord Roberts under date of Kromstad, May 15: "Two officers and six men of Prince Alfred's Guards while out foraging yesterday a few miles from Kromstad, visited a farm flying a white flag, the owner of which surrendered himself with arms and ammunition. They then approached another farm, also flying a white flag, but when within forty yards of the enclosure, they were fired upon by fifteen or sixteen Boers who were concealed behind the farm wall. Two of the men were killed, Lt. F. B. Walton was wounded, and Lt. A. B. Everton and two non-commissioned officers were taken prisoner. The owner of the farm states that the Boers threatened to shoot him when he protested against their making an improper use of the white flag."

London, May 16.—It is officially announced that Glencoe was occupied yesterday, and that the Boers have evacuated Biggarsburg.

London, May 16.—The war office has posted the following despatch from Gen Buller, dated Dundee, May 16: "We occupied Glencoe yesterday. The Transvaals have now evacuated Biggarsburg. The Free Staters on the Drakensberg are much reduced in numbers. The Cronje Lydenburg and Pretoria commandants are retreating north from Platitane on the 18th and 19th of May. Eleven guns were entrenched at Glencoe. The last train with ambulance left there at dawn, May 16."

London, May 16.—A despatch to the Daily Mail from Lorenzo Marques, dated Tuesday, says: "There is now no doubt that there was desperate fighting at Mafeking Saturday, but it is believed to have gone in favor of the garrison. All that can be ascertained of a reliable character follows: 'The Boers, using artillery, attacked the town Saturday. Very soon the Kaffir location was in flames, some say as the result of shell fire, others as the result of treachery. Fighting at close quarters became general; and, in the midst of the confusion, the Boers entered possession of the Kaffir location, from which point of vantage they brought guns to bear on the town at close range. 'By an adroit move the garrison despite its attenuated numbers, succeeded in actually surrounding the party of Boers who captured the Kaffir location. Severe fighting followed, but, according to the latest reports, the Boers still hold the location, in which they are probably surrounded. THE GREAT WEST.

An Interesting Chat With Ernest L. Crowdon.

WHO HAS RETURNED HOME AFTER A Sojourn of 18 Months in the Pacific Province.

FORMER FREDERICTONIANS WHO ARE PROSPERING IN THE WEST.

Ernest L. Crowdon, who removed to British Columbia in the fall of 1898, has returned to Fredericton, and although as yet undecided as to his future course, his many friends will be glad to know that he will in all probability remain here. He is being heartily welcomed back to his native city, and does not hesitate to say that he is glad to be with his old friends and relatives once more.

In conversation with a Herald representative, Mr. Crowdon stated that the Pacific coast cities, from Vancouver to San Francisco, were very much over-crowded, and it was exceedingly difficult for a clerk or professional man to secure employment. The surplus population is composed largely of young men who have returned from the Alton and Yukon districts after an unsuccessful search for the yellow metal. Most of them came back poor in pocket, but rich in experience, and are now ready and willing to take hold of almost anything that offers in the way of employment. The mining districts in the interior of the Pacific province, Mr. Crowdon thinks, offer excellent opportunities for the man who is not averse to roughing it, and has a little spare capital at his disposal. He would not, however, advise the man without capital to go there.

Mr. Crowdon has been absent from Fredericton about eighteen months. He remained for some weeks at Silverton, B. C., and afterwards removed to Butte City, Montana, where he was offered and accepted a lucrative situation. A stay of a few months in Butte satisfied him, however, and he resigned his position and returned to British Columbia. For the last year he has been a resident of Revelstoke, a bustling railway centre on the line of the C. P. R. The population of the town is largely made up of people from eastern cities, and Mr. Crowdon has nothing but good words for the place and its inhabitants. During his stay at Revelstoke, Mr. Crowdon identified himself with the Methodist Church choir, and on the eve of his departure the other members of the choir presented him with an address and silver shaving set. He held a lucrative position at Revelstoke as manager of a leading business house, which he resigned to return to the east.

Mr. Crowdon, during his absence came in contact with many former Frederictonians, who are comfortably located in the west. The proprietor of the leading hotel in Revelstoke is Henry Perley, a brother of Lewis Perley, of this city and son-in-law of E. S. Hammond of Kingsclear. Mr. Perley is the manager of several hotels on the line of the C. P. R. in addition to the one at Revelstoke, and is generally recognized as one of the ablest and most popular hotel men in the west.

John Kelly, another Fredericton boy, and son of Gordon Kelly, of the N. B. Foundry, is located in Three Forks, where he has an interest in a large and growing mercantile establishment.

Mr. Crowdon also met and conversed with Mr. Frederick Hume, M. P. P., formerly commissioner of mines in the B. C. Government, and a brother of Mrs. Wesley Vanwart of this city. He did not meet Mr. George Hatt, who removed to the west from this city some months ago, but frequently had letters from his son, Harold, who has a good situation. The last time Harold wrote he stated that his father was very ill, and not expected to recover.

During his sojourn in Butte, Mr. Crowdon met the Farrell boys, (sons of James Farrell of this city) Hon. J. Hennessey, Andy and John Haslin, James Berry, Dr. Hanson and other former Frederictonians. They are all comfortably settled and well satisfied with their lot.

On the whole Mr. Crowdon expresses himself as well satisfied with his sojourn in the west, and says he would not be without the experience acquired, for a good deal. Still he thinks Fredericton and New Brunswick offer some advantages as places of residence, and is contented by his locality which he visited in the western country.

UNDRESSED IN CHURCH. Queer Antics of a Young Pharmacist Suffering from Over-Study.

Trenton, N. J., May 14.—Harry Jidd, a young pharmacist of this city, while suffering from the effects of overstudy, began last night, while services were in progress, to undress himself in the Bethany Presbyterian Church.

He removed his coat and waistcoat, unfastened his collar and pulled off his outer shirt. A woman who saw the disrobing shrieked. This seemed to bring Jidd to his senses, for he kicked off his trousers and ran down the aisle to the vestibule, clad only in his underclothing.

An usher pushed him into a side room and another went back after his clothing. Jidd was dressed and taken home.

The fast trotting mare Litta E., recently purchased by J. C. Allen from E. L. Jewett, of St. John, arrived by boat Thursday. She has a record of 2.31.

Erythema, suffering from dizziness and nervousness so that I could not rest at night. Tired Hood's Sarsaparilla with good results, and now recommend it to others." M. CHAMBERLAIN, Toronto, Ont.

Tired Feeling.—"Was all run down and had no appetite. Was tired all the time. Hood's Sarsaparilla was suggested, and a trial benefited me so much that now I would not be without the medicine." Miss G. B. CHAMBERLAIN, Central Station, N. Y.

TRAGEDY OF THE SEA.

Wholesale Butchery on Board a Swedish Ship.

Copenhagen, May 17.—A telegram from Koping, Sweden, reports that as the steamer Koping last night was passing the Prinz Carls, a man sprang on the deck of the latter vessel and shouted, "If any one comes near I will shoot." At the same moment a woman was seen hanging over the ship's side, shrieking for help. The man escaped in a boat.

When the Prinz Carls was boarded, it was found that the 12 men aboard had been shot, six of whom, including the captain, were dead. The rest were found locked in their quarters. One of the wounded has since died.

CANTERBURY STATION

(Special Correspondence to the Herald.) May 10.—The farmers of our parish are greatly encouraged over the prospects of getting a good mill...

Measles has again invaded our parish, but so far no fatal cases have occurred. Mrs. L. L. L. is spending a few weeks at her home...

Mr. Wallace M. Smith has on hand a full supply of Government wheat to be disposed of at cost price.

Dr. Coburn has removed his office from Mrs. John Price's to Mrs. James A. Gault's. The doctor is on the night and day, having 6 or 8 cases of pneumonia on his hands...

Mr. Hart, traveller for Churder and Massey Medicine Co. of Toronto was in town today.

Among the latest arrivals for Skiff Lake are Mr. Cram, manager of Bangor, and Aroostook railway, with his friends John Stewart late (P. R. Supt. Mr. Phair of Presque Isle and Mr. Everett a leading boat official of Bangor Maine...

We are glad to learn that Mrs. William Jarvis and Mrs. Wilmot Jarvis who have been in a very critical condition for several days, are now rapidly improving...

Mr. Tapley has been in our village several days, making sleepers for the C. P. R.

Mr. Thomas Sherman and Mr. John English who have been suffering from attacks of pneumonia and grippe are also progressing favorably under Dr. Coburn's management.

Many of the curious ones have been inspecting the elegant private car of Mr. Cram, of Bangor, which has been in the siding here for several days...

Two new boats for Skiff Lake arrived today from Fredericton, one very fine one for John Stewart, and other for Mrs. Connell of Woodstock.

Edward London has two or three new light flat bottom boats for transportation to the smaller fishing lakes, and dead water.

We wonder why no fish were taken this season. Mr. Cunningham should be on the lake at once, for we understand fish are being taken from the lake in more ways than one.

Lake Lawson spent Sunday here.

BENTON

(Special Correspondence to the Herald.) May 12.—Rev. R. W. J. Clements, wife and family, have returned from P. E. I. Mrs. Clements and family have spent the winter at her old home on the island...

The concert and oyster conducted by the Foresters on Thursday evening, was a decided success.
