STARTLING RELATIONS TO BE MADE IN LEGISLATURE BY EVANTUREL

REFORMERS WANT A PRESIDENT TO REPLACE W. HARLAND SMITH OFFICE NOT IN GREAT DEMAND

Double Quandary Faces Toronto Liberals, Since President and Treasurer Have Resigned Owing to Pressure of Outside Business—Major Hunter Named as Probable Candidate.

When the Toronto Reform Association assembled for its regular meeting in room 17 at the Forum building tonight, the members will consider the resignation of Walter Harland Smith, president, and R. D. Ross, treasurer.

Judging from a canvass made by The World last night there does not seem to be anybody after either job. Walter Harland Smith stated positively that he would not attend the meeting, pleading tomorrow night's meeting of the council as his excuse for both his resignation and his intention not to be present.

No Nominations Fixed. G. E. Gibbard, first vice-president, is likely to preside. When The World asked him whether he was a candidate for the vacancy he had nothing to say, and the same applied to several other members who professed entire ignorance of any action to nominate anybody.

Both Walter Harland Smith and R. D. Ross state emphatically that their stepping out is not actuated by any dissatisfaction whatsoever. The story on the street is, however, that there is a difference of opinion as to how the work of the association shall be carried on. Some are in favor of adding the services of a paid official to help A. E. Hacker, at present the organizer. Others oppose this, and want things to continue as in the past.

Will Elect Major Hunter? It has been suggested that if the voting elements fail to decide on a united course of action, Major A. T. Hunter, former Liberal candidate in West Toronto, may be nominated and elected.

Laurence Irving's Local Engagement. The engagement of the distinguished English actor, Laurence Irving, and his complete London company, will begin tonight at the Princess Theatre with the famous play "Typhoon."

Press Bourassa to Run

OTTAWA, March 8.—A delegation of Prescott Liberals has gone to Montreal to see Henri Bourassa, the Quebec Liberal Nationalist leader, to see if he will accept the nomination for the Ontario Legislature. They want him to go to Toronto for the special purpose of handling the bilingual question.

REBELS SEIZED BRITON'S RANCH

British Ambassador Asked Secretary Bryan to Investigate Alleged Outrage Near Chihuahua.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—Another British subject has gotten into trouble in the State of Chihuahua, and the state department has again been called on to extend his protection. Sir Cecil Spring-Rice called at the state department today to inform Secretary Bryan that an Englishman named Sydnal had been driven away from his ranch and his property at least was in danger of destruction.

Gen. Snyman Driven Out. EL PASO, Texas, March 8.—Great interest was manifested today in the case of Gen. M. B. Snyman, the former Boer general, who has been ordered from his 3000-acre ranch, La Reina, 45 miles south of Chihuahua, and the estate itself confiscated.

Not an Invasion. AUSTIN, Tex., March 8.—Gov. Colquhoun tonight authorized the statement that he did not specifically instruct Ranger Capt. J. J. Saunders, who recovered Clemente Vergara's body, to cross the border to get it.

TORONTO MAN ARRESTED. HAMILTON, March 8.—An old charge of assault and robbery resulted in George Bedell of Toronto, and George Mulholland, no address, being taken into custody last night by Detectives Cameron and Goodman, when they made their first appearance in the city since the alleged crime was committed. James Tuedale was the complainant.

RECOVERED BODY MUST NOW FACE FRAUD CHARGE IN WINNIPEG

Promoter of Fake Lighting System Rearrested at Jail Doors—Forgery Suspect Taken—Geo. Southwest, Arrested, Thought to Be One of Pocketpicking Gang.

Just out of jail after serving a term for attempted fraud, James C. Campbell, who more than a month ago attempted to lure investors with a fake illumination promotion company, was taken back to Winnipeg last evening to stand trial.

While in Toronto Campbell, with spacious downtown offices, organized a sales force to sell stock in a concern which had for its object the manufacture and sale of a lighting system, which, Campbell claimed, would enable farmers to plow the fields by night. It turned out he did not even own the patent of the plant in question, having only heard that a Toronto man was working on an invention of that nature.

One Letter Too Many. Charged with forgery, George Eckardt, 25 Alexander street, was arrested Saturday evening by Detectives Cronin and Mitchell. In September last Eckardt is said to have called at the general postoffice for his mail, and taken a letter addressed to George Eckardt. On opening the letter he found it was not for him, but contained a $10 postal order. He is said to have forged the name of George Eckardt and cashed the order.

On her release from the Toronto jail Saturday, Mary Johnston, alias Woods, was rearrested at the request of Chief Smith of the Hamilton police. She is wanted in Hamilton on a charge of obtaining money by false pretences.

A Ring for Someone. Thought to be the fourth of the suspected pocketpick gang arrested last Friday, George Southwest, alias Adams, was arrested in a Simcoe street rooming house by Detective Miller Saturday evening. In his possession the police found a ring worth easily $500. It has a sapphire setting, two diamonds and one onyx, and is the property of a man who has been stolen and would like to locate the rightful owner.

EVANTUREL, FORCED TO RESIGN SEAT SAYS HE WILL NAME LEGISLATORS WHO ARE TOOLS OF CORPORATIONS

OTHER LIBERAL MEMBERS NOT FOR ABOLISH THE BAR POLICY

One of Mr. Evanturel's remarks before his electors on Saturday may yet cause some consideration on the floor of the legislature. "I am not the only one on the opposition side of the house who cannot vote for Abolish the Bar," he stated. "There are two or three at least who cannot vote that way, and did not vote that way."

Some of the women assailed the police with short sticks, but the marchers were soon dispersed.

SUFFRAGETTES AND POLICEMEN BATTLED IN HEAVY DOWNPOUR

Sylvia Pankhurst's Abduction Brought on Lively Clash in Trafalgar Square With Ten Arrests as Sequel.

LONDON, March 8.—Militant suffragettes again engaged in a battle with the police today on their favorite field, Trafalgar Square, and in a pouring rain. The arrest of Sylvia Pankhurst for the sixth time under the "Cat and Mouse" Law, precipitated the conflict.

Among those taken into custody was Miss Zelle Emerson of Jackson, Miss. Miss Emerson has been arrested several times for participation in suffragette demonstrations, and recently there were rumors in circulation that steps were being taken by the British Government to expel her from the country as an undesirable alien.

Discovered Abduction. Several hundred women and men had marched in procession to the square to attend a meeting of the Men's Federation for Woman Suffrage. Sylvia Pankhurst, who for some weeks had been hiding from the police, arrived in the square in a taxicab to deliver a speech, but detectives surrounded the cab and started it for Holloway Jail before the militants realized what was happening.

When it was discovered that Miss Pankhurst had been abducted the chairwoman of the meeting, Miss Patterson, who later was among those arrested, shouted to her supporters from the base of the Nelson column, "Follow the flag and see if we can't find something to do."

MINISTERIAL CRISIS IS PENDING IN ITALY

Resignation of Giolitti's Cabinet is Now Regarded as Inevitable.

ROME, March 7.—The approach of a ministerial crisis, forecasted early in the month, when it was stated that Premier Giolitti desired to resign following the passage by parliament of the budget for the new African colony of Libya, was accelerated today when the Radicals, who previously had voted with the majority, decided to join the opposition.

The carrying into effect of this decision would render impossible Radical members of the cabinet holding their portfolios and eventually lead to the resignation of the entire cabinet.

Telly report: Robert Hazelton, one of the Tomnodon delegates, had some startling revelations to make. "I was offered substantial remuneration to throw in my lot with the annexationists. I refused with indignation, and was told I would be sorry for my refusal. I had been forced to leave Tomnodon when annexation came and know all about high taxes and rents."

TWO ACCIDENTS WITHIN A WEEK

Death of Albert Nash in General Hospital Saturday Traceable to Gale of March First.

Two accidents in six days caused the death of Albert Nash, 194 Sherbourne street, in the General Hospital Sunday morning. A week ago yesterday, in the severe windstorm, Nash had his hat blown off while standing on the back of a car. In reaching after it he lost his balance and fell on the roadway. He proceeded home, believing himself but slightly injured, but a continual pain in his right shoulder caused him to go to the General to have it looked after. Here it was found that he had a slight fracture of the collar bone. He returned home. He was unwell all week, and Thursday evening fell headlong down stairs at his home. Friday he was very ill and a physician ordered him to the General Hospital again. It was found that on this occasion he had sustained concussion of the brain, and despite all efforts to save the man, he died Sunday morning. An inquest may be held.

WATERWORKS AND SEWERAGE DEPARTMENT

SEWER WORK GOES FORWARD RAPIDLY

Main and Annette Street Largest in Course of Construction.

CHANGE TOO EXPENSIVE

Manager Dunstan Considers Subscribers' Outlay for New Stationery.

Work on ward seven's sewer system is now progressing rapidly and favorably, and it appears that the installation of the citizens for more haste in their sewer construction has borne fruit. The Annette street line, the largest in course of construction, although the main on Woodville avenue is very nearly as large, and the work is being carried on in a most satisfactory manner. Both streets are entirely closed to traffic, and the work is made on foot. Some difficulty has been encountered with the loose sand at the deeper parts of the excavation for the Quebec avenue sewer, but this has also been overcome, and the southern part is now almost completed. A steam pump is still employed to empty the trunk on Annette street, where a fresh water spring appeared last week and caused great difficulty in excavating.

Special Preacher.
Pastor Roffe of the Missionary Tabernacle was the special preacher at the morning service of the Annette street Baptist Church yesterday. A large congregation was present at it and the evening service was held at the same place. Pastor W. J. H. Brown commenced a series of sermons on "Sons That Must Shortly Come to Pass." The funeral service of the late Henry Thompson, who succumbed to heart disease on Friday afternoon, was held at his late residence, 212 Dundas street last night. Rev. T. B. Smith officiating. The remains were shipped to his former home at Belleville, Ont., today for interment.

Would Be Expensive.
Those citizens who have been agitating the changing of the name of the Junction phone exchange to West, appear confident that it can be brought about in time. Mr. Dunstan, the general manager of the Bell Telephone Company, is reported to have said, when asked about it, that the cost of changing the name of the exchange, pointing out that the merchants and men would have to change their bills and letter heads, and this would mean considerable expense.

Other Side.
The advocates of the new name claim, however, that the cost of changing the name has been caused by subscribers in various parts of the city by having their phone number and street name under the same company in the formation of new exchanges, and this without any consideration for their interests, now shown them.

CLAIM THAT REPORT IS QUITE MISLEADING

Mr. Thomas Malby, secretary, and chairman A. Harvey, together with the members of the Toronto Heights Social Club, wish to state in a paragraph in an evening paper under the heading, "The Growth of the Club House," which is a misstatement of the actual facts.

As far as the records of the club house show, there was no date mentioned for the completion. A meeting was held in the fall of last year when ways and means for the completion of the club house were discussed. A certain gentleman present at the meeting made a statement to the effect that the club house would be completed in a certain number of months, which, when submitted to the Dovercourt Land Company, were refused to be accepted. The acceptance would be detrimental to the objects for which the gift was originally made.

The work of completion is at present being carried on by the club house executive in hand, together with the subscriptions paid by the members and the voluntary help of the members of the club.

It was also stated that a loan had been granted by the Land Company. In the case, they say, no loan has been given by the Land Company. The members are working on a cash basis, and they expect to procure the necessary assistance without having occasion to raise a loan.

As far as the evening paper is concerned it has not been mentioned since last November, and no member of the executive committee has given any information as to the business of the club.

FAIRBANK WANTS HYDRO INSTALLED
Mr. Ballantyne was the speaker at the recent meeting of the Fairbank Hydro Electric Association, held at the subject being "Three Entrances to the Electric Building."

PICKERING.
Robert Wood will hold an auction sale of horse, cattle and farm implements at his residence on Wednesday.

WEST YORK CONSERVATIVES HOLD THEIR ANNUAL BANQUET

Attendance the Largest on Record - Many Interesting Speeches by Members of the Dominion Parliament and Ontario Legislature - Geo. S. Syme, Reeve of York Township, Elected President.

West York Liberal-Conservatives have reason to be justly proud of the enthusiastic gathering which crowded the banquet hall of the Eagle House at Weston on Saturday evening. The newly-elected president of the association, George S. Syme, reeve of York Township, acted as toast master, and among the guests present were: Hon. W. H. Hearst, minister of lands, forests and mines; E. M. Rhodes, M.P., Cumberland, N. S.; Capt. Wallace, M.P., W. R. Smythe, M.P., for Algoma, and George S. Henry, M.L.A., East York.

Resolutions passed.
In a brilliant address, reviewing the past history of the Liberal-Conservative party, the secretary of the association, J. E. Lawton, proposed the toast of the Dominion Parliament of Canada, and submitted two resolutions, the first of which expressed confidence in Premier Borden's government and the second that the Conservative party and the association's gratitude to the recovery of Premier Whitney.

Referring to the work accomplished by the party since the last election, he pointed out that in a little over three years gigantic undertakings had been carried out for the benefit of the country, and many reforms inaugurated, such as the parcel post, which would enable men on the farm to get better prices for their produce, cheaper car rates, improved mail service and huge appropriations in aid of agriculture.

Wanted to Dictate.
Highways also have received a share of the government attention had it not been for the senate refusing to pass the highways bill. The money to be expended by the provinces in their own way, which he thought might have worked in their favor, under the good government of Ontario, but the government of Nova Scotia had appropriated $500,000 for highways on the condition that the province should have a foot of permanent highway there and never was. When things of this kind occur, he thought it only fair to point out that the West York Association should decide how the money was to be expended.

Mr. R. Smythe, M.P., said that he was glad to see that the West York Association was still growing and pleased to recognize so many old members who had kept the party in line. Mr. Rhodes had done full justice to the issues before the Dominion house, and he had nothing to add to his address, but he would like to assure the conservatives of York that their interests were well looked after in parliament.

He recalled his early experience in the Ontario Legislature, and his indebtedness to Sir James Whitney for the determination with which he discouraged all political intrigues in the early days, even at the expense of an opportunity for a party victory.

Captain T. Wallace, member for Centre York, was greeted with a salvo of cheers when he rose to speak. He pleased that the party was as solid as ever, and was sure that no one could have brought it together as well as Hon. R. Borden had done.

He regretted that the senate had been able to make Canada look small through the world, but was sure that a way would be found to make sure that a way would be found.

DAIRY CATTLE BROUGHT HIGH PRICES AT SALE
On Feb. 24, D. Beldam, commonly called "Doc," of Beldam, of the firm Beldam & Ingleton, auctioneers, held a sale of dairy cattle and farm implements at the Massey Farm, in the township, with very satisfactory results. Fifty-one cows and one bull passed under the hammer, and were disposed of at the high average price of $80. During the whole one hundred and thirty-five cows were sold, and the auctioneer received a total of $10,000.

WESTON.
At a degree meeting of the Bathurst Presbytery, No. 82, R.B.K., of Ireland, held candidates were advanced to the royal secret degree and one to the royal mark degree. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. R. A. Spence and was assisted by the Rev. R. A. Spence and the Rev. J. Spence, who was appointed delegate to the Supreme Grand Chapter meeting, which will be held in Guelph tomorrow. James Hughlin presented the lodge with an electric train for the degree work.

TESTON.
News has just reached Teston of the death of Jesse Murray in Emergency Hospital, Duncan, B.C., from tuberculosis. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Murray, and was 29 years old. He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. O. McDonald of Maple and Mrs. N. W. Malton of Teston, and two brothers, David C. and John B. Murray, both living in Teston.

MARKHAM.
The ladies of the Methodist church will hold their annual concert on St. Patrick's night, March 17, in the town hall. A special organ will be loaned to the church by the Rev. E. Langford, who will deliver a lecture on "Why Left the Church?" The Markham Methodist quartet will give musical numbers. The ladies of St. Andrew's church will give a supper and entertainment this evening in the church hall. A good program has been provided.

SPENCE SPEAKS ON HARBOR SCHEME

At Big Meeting of B. I. A. in Earlscourt on Saturday Night.

DR. TYRER'S STATEMENT

Representatives of Many Societies Attended Funeral of Late George Laird.

A largely-attended meeting of the B. I. A. was held on Saturday evening in Dufferin Street Public School, H. Parfrey in the chair, when Dr. Spence addressed the gathering on the harbor board scheme. Dr. Spence said that the water-front development entailed the making of twenty-five plans before a suitable one was selected. Mr. Cousins had been appointed engineer for the undertaking, which, when completed, in five years' time, will make Toronto one of the finest cities in the world.

Contracts Awarded.
The scheme will cost nineteen million dollars, of which the government will grant $12,000,000. The remainder will be raised by the sale of land, which will be added to the city with park space for industrial sites, upon which will be built a canal, in addition to eleven miles of boulevard, a mouth of docks and a railway system thirty miles long. The scheme will add a larger tract of land to the city than has been taken up since the city was founded. Twenty-five million cubic feet of sand will be taken out of the bay, the dredging will be done at a cost of six and a half million dollars, and the sand will be used for the building of the harbor.

Spence's Driveway.
One of the finest driveways in the world will be another feature of the scheme. A lift bridge will be built to the sea wall, and a canal will be closed, and the Humber River, 600 feet from the city, will be run down Bathurst street and into the harbor. In 1921 it is expected that transportation with the harbor will be a single fare to connect with the city.

Amusement centres are also being planned, and a number of picture theatres, with moving picture theatres, bathing beaches and a large number of other amusements will be provided. The harbor will be four and three-quarter miles long, and will be a waterway where boats can sail from Toronto to the harbor.

Business Meeting.
At the annual meeting in the afternoon, speeches were made by Dr. E. M. Rhodes, M.P., Capt. Wallace, M.P., and others. Dr. Emerson, Dr. H. L. Hertz, M.P., Capt. Thomas Wallace, M.P., Reeve of York, George S. Syme, M.P., Dr. R. A. Spence, M.P., and W. R. Smythe, M.P., for Algoma.

It is intended to organize two provincial bodies for the furthering of the interests of Ontario farmers, one to be social and educational and the other commercial.

BRAMPTON.
The Peel County Women's Institute will hold a "Made-in-Brampton Exhibition" at the new armories as soon as they are opened—probably in April. ## PROSTRATE ON WOODSHED FLOOR GRIPPED CARBOLIC ACID BOTTLE

Samuel Baker, Contemplating Suicide, Did Everything But Drink the Poison—Domestic Tragedy at 8 Bellevue Place Concludes With Family Still Intact.

The married man in search of ways and means of curbing the spirit of an over-ruling wife, should overlook the method devised by Samuel Baker of 8 Bellevue place last evening. All day Baker and his wife had been at loggerheads, until at 10 o'clock in the evening the crisis arrived when Sam had his face slapped. With his wife's relations in the house he was at a loss what to do, but in due time the idea arrived.

"I'm going to commit suicide," he announced. "No doc could live here."

The Only Way.
"Bah, it takes nerve to suicide," he said.

One called Dr. Yellowless, while the other hurried to No. 3 police station to call the police. Dr. Yellowless and two constables arrived at the same time. The doctor examined the man's mouth. With a puzzled air he felt the pulse and listened to the heart beat, then announced: "There's nothing the matter with him. Thereupon the shame-faced Sam arose to his feet and admitted the fact. "I was only faking a little to scare her," he said.

SENATE TO STAY ON LIBERAL SIDE

Present Parliament Not Expected to See End of Domination of That Party.

OTTAWA, March 8.—It seems well assured that the Liberals will be able to retain a majority in the senate during the whole of the present parliament. The standing in the upper chamber at present is: Liberals 53, Conservatives 42, vacancies 2. The two vacancies were caused by the death of Senator Cox and Sir George Ross. When the vacancies are filled the Liberal majority will be 19, when the new senators from the west are appointed the majority will be reduced to 10. There is a rumor in the lobbies that the senate will reject the bill of Mr. Borden to give the west the nine new members which it is entitled to.

When Mr. Borden became premier, the complexion of the senate was: Liberals 49, Conservatives 19, vacancies 2. The Liberal majority being 47. Mr. Borden filled the two vacancies with Conservatives, leaving the Liberal majority 45. During the past two years 17 Liberals and four Conservatives. With the two vacancies already mentioned, the Liberal majority being 47. Their successors will make the majority 19.

THIS CIVIC JOY RIDE ENDS IN MISHAP

Montreal Firemen Get Into Trouble While Speeding in Automobile.

MONTREAL, March 8.—What is claimed to have been a joy ride, but which the participants say was merely a test of the civility of automobiles, resulted in disaster this morning to two members of the city fire brigade, the chauffeur of the city master and his car. Another fireman and two companions were lucky to escape the serious injury that befell the others when the automobile going down hill on Upper St. Louis street, swerved and crashed into a telephone pole. The chauffeur, A. Martin, has a broken leg and internal injuries. E. Desaulniers, all right on right side, crashed in, and a companion was lucky to escape the serious injury that befell the others when the automobile going down hill on Upper St. Louis street, swerved and crashed into a telephone pole. LAW TO SERVE HIGHER RULE THAN LAW TO LIVE.—HIBBEN

President of Princeton Tells Varsity Students That Life is Not a Career, But a Mission—Educated Man Should Let His Light Shine Out Upon World, and Use His Power to Help the Weak.

"Live and let live, if possible, but live at any cost," was the pessimistic doctrine denounced by President Hibben of Princeton University, in his sermon to Varsity students yesterday morning in convocation hall.

"The educated man," President Hibben said, "belongs to a privileged class, and the light which he has attained by the labor of years he should allow to shine out upon the world."

"That was not a true trait of his nature, as was seen by his action in standing forth as his own avenger, when thru the hands of Nathan he saw himself in his true perspective," said Principal Hibben.

Rev. H. H. Sanderson Commends Standpoint of Charles Eliot, Harvard University President—Church of the Future to Be Based on Brotherhood.

"Twentieth Century Christianity," expressed in the formula, "The fatherhood of God, the brotherhood of man, and the reign of Christ on earth," was the subject of the sermon of Rev. H. H. Sanderson, in the Unitarian Church, Jarvis street, yesterday morning.

"Thoughtful people," he said, "have dismissed the ideas of God as monarch, king, or Lord of Hosts, with all the imperial and feudal system ideas of God which have for so long prevailed not only among the masses of humanity, but among the intellectual leaders of the race."

"The church of the future will reverence more and more the personality of Jesus, and will dwell on the extraordinary qualities of His teachings, as proved by the historical effects during nineteenth centuries."

Ven. Archdeacon Cody last night at St. Paul's Church, described the Queen of Sheba as the typical woman, who sought for wisdom.

For instance, it does not require a very strenuous imagination to think of some simple plan whereby the top-most reaches of the rockery may be made to hold a small tub or vessel of some simple material, containing an acute attack of indigestion may occur from some transient cause, too much food at the last meal, an error in its cleanliness, or temperature.

Dried Fruits

At this season the retail grocer makes a handsome display of evaporated fruits, for he knows very well that your store closet shelves are badly depleted and your stock of home-made preserves almost gone.

The dried apple of today is a work of art; it still retains the elusive sweetness of its native orchard and is dainty in color and soft to the touch.

Another way is to soak these fruits in cold water until they are soft, then stew them with a little water until they are plump.

A dried fruit that we should use more of is cocoanut. This is dedicated and packed in quarter and half-pound cartons and comes to our door with all its original flavor.

Soak one and a half cups of cracker crumbs in five cups of milk. Add a cup of sugar, half a cup of molasses, one fourth of a cup of butter, three beaten eggs and a cup of seeded raisins.

Purple and Cerise in Model Poiret Gowns

By MADGE MARVEL

DEPTH violet, which approaches the royal purple in tone, is used in combination with cerise in one of the latest Poiret models to reach this side. The material is a charming, the skirt of violet is made without a slash, and is so long that there is a slight train. The tunic, also of the violet, is long in the back and reaches just above the knees in front, but there is no abrupt slope and no distention at the edges.

It topped an evening gown that was as dainty and simple as a water lily, which some way it seemed to suggest. The skirt of pale green charmeuse was in the shade we once knew as Nile green. It was draped and short, and gave the idea of being but a lengthened overskirt worn over a petticoat of lace which was quite transparent. The bodice was of shaded chiffon velvet in a deeper green. It was plain, tight-fitting and sleeveless. There was a tiny fold of tulle to soften the effect in front of the corsage. The tunic of tulle was pleated and full, quite like a ballet skirt. About the waist were pearl ornaments, forming a deep ceinture. From each ornament, hanging loose over the tulle tunic, was a strand of green beads ending in a tassel of pearls. White gloves reached just above the elbow, and were very much wrinkled at the wrist, and the slippers were heelless and of white kid. Another Poiret model for the spring is built on the lines of the straight blouse which Mme. Poiret wore so beautifully in New York recently, but which would be trying to the average mature American figure, though for the young and slender girl it is charming. It illustrates the manner in which striped and plain fabrics are to be used. The skirt, long and plain, is of dark blue serge. At the side there is a peculiar line, which gives a panel effect, with the edges piped with red, and on a line with the knees, at the side seams, there are three red bone buttons. The blouse, of blue and red-striped serge, is perfectly plain and straight, and reaches below the hips, where it has a band of red davetene applied like a buff. The sleeves are of the plain serge to match the skirt. There is a vest of cream muslin with a remarkable collar, which reaches up on the back of the head. It is so high and turns away in deep ruffles just at the ears. On each of the points are tiny tassels of tarnished gilt, which sway like misplaced car-rings. There is a band of galloon which finishes the vest. The wig to wear with this frock is of the most glaring venellon. There is a marked tendency in spring styles toward the fitted bodice. In dozens of models one finds the "odice drawn snugly to the figure like the old-time basque.

An Effective Model

At each side are deep pleats which make a cascade effect at the lower edge and allow the lining of cerise to show. The sleeves are of the cerise, and down each side of the tunic on the hips is a

Peter's Adventures in Matrimony

By LEONA DALRYMPLE

Author of the new novel, "Diane of the Green Van," awarded a prize of $10,000 by Ida M. Tarbell and S. S. McClure as judges.

The "Girl in the Case," about whom Miss Dalrymple has written candidly and conscientiously, even though her analyses may have seemed harsh at times, has apparently come to a realization that a wife has some duties which should not be shirked. This may be said to mark the first step in her development in the modern marital arrangement. The thousand and one questions which arise in the everyday household—mainly as a matter of course—come up now for the decision of Mary and Peter. As the series of Miss Dalrymple develops, these will be dealt with as frankly as the initial steps in the working out of such a "simple case" as this have been studied and chronicled.

Woman's Sense of Values XXXIX. OUT of much toll and turbulence Mary and I have at last settled down into a certain system of creditable house-keeping. It is a matter of course that Mary's visionary ideas, which she has learned from French and Strauss waltzes instead of bread-making and similar essentials, it's been a difficult job. As things stand now, I still suffer considerably from my wife's wilful, spoiled girlhood. I get my own breakfast regularly, and contribute considerable gray matter to household problems, but Mary has at last learned to keep her house in order, and that is a great relief. For months after our wedding I remember our library was stacked high with wedding presents because Mary couldn't find a place to put them or time to find the place. Now she has evolved a sort of system, and we're getting along a lot better. When a woman honestly makes up her mind to do a thing, I notice, she usually finds a way. The trouble is she has so much difficulty making up her mind. I find, however, now that Mary does keep her house in order, she talks a great deal in the bromidic fashion of women about the terrible monotony of housework and the terrific amount of work she is daily obliged to do. "I work and work, Peter," she exclaimed, "and I'm never through!" Then she quoted that old couplet which which women have hidden from their immemorial: Man works from sun to sun, But woman's work is never done. Most women, I fear, are extremists. I notice that the woman who is slowly at all is excessively slovenly, and the woman who is orderly drives her family mad by a passion for detail. Mary was not, I am sure, slovenly by nature. She merely didn't know the things about a house that she should have known. Now for a while, Mary had a way of gliding away from the dining room table at night and leaving it just as it was—dishes and all—until morning. Her reason for this was that she could do housework when I wasn't around, but that it was a waste of time when we were together. "Don't you think we'd better do these dishes tonight, Mary?" I asked one night, appalled at the disorder of the kitchen. "Oh, no, Peter," she said carelessly, "I can do them in the morning." I shrugged, but I could not help recalling that the first eye to encounter this dreary outlay of china and food from the night before was invariably my own. We adjourned to the library, and Mary took up her sewing. The doorbell rang. When we opened the door we found that some old friends of mother's and dad's had come to call, and, incidentally, to view the house. Mary has an airy, sprightly way about her when she's embarrassed, and I knew she was not comfortable about those dishes in the kitchen. Nevertheless, we valiantly escorted our friends through the house—this, by the way, is an ordeal most young married people have to go through religiously for many months—and eventually we came to the kitchen. It looked even worse to me than it had before. There were milk bottles in the sink and on the table; there were dishes and pots and pans in every conceivable spot, and some not immediately conceivable, and Mary was nervously apologetic as well she might be. I felt horribly ashamed. Mother's kitchen is so neat and shiny always. Our guests were very decent. Their courtesy, however, did not mitigate my annoyance, and after they had gone I desperately resolved to have it out once for all with Mary. "Mary," I inquired cautiously, "just what are you sewing on?" "Why," said Mary, with an air of conscious virtue, "I've made up my mind that if you begin your Christmas presents for next year just as soon as Christmas is over, you get along so much more nicely. And it's systematic. This is a belt for Nan Carey." It was then January. I gasped. "Mary," I said, "do you actually mean that you're making next year's Christmas presents 11 months ahead, and the dishes in the kitchen aren't washed?" "Great Guns!" Mary flushed and looked annoyed. "Peter," she countered lamely, "Did I know the Browns were coming?" But that was the end of the slovenly kitchen. The trouble with some women is, I think, an abnormal sense of values. Else why would Mary make Christmas presents 11 months ahead when she ought to be washing dishes? It was. "That's what I call a picture of health," remarked Gobson. "What is?" asked his patient wife. "This one in the paper here," was the answer. "It is labelled 'After Talking,' you see."

Secrets of Health and Happiness

Your Adam's Apple Is a Nest for "Liquid Nerves"

By Dr. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG

A. B. M. A., M. D. (Johns Hopkins). Copyright, 1914, by L. K. Hirschberg.

HAVE you ever noticed a frog swallow? This is no riddle such as: "Have you ever seen a horse fly?" You are not expected to "bite" or to be the "goat." When a frog swallows you see a big lump come into his throat. There sits your frog on a toadstool, perhaps. He looks blandly and almost imploringly toward heaven as he gulps down, not tears, but air. If you were a cruel vivisectionist, you would prop open the frog's jaw with a cork. The dentist does this to you with some annoyance, but no danger. When you thus torment a frog the creature dies. The beseeching brilliancy of the hop-toad's eyes, with his head held skyward as he swallows, is due to the life-giving air which he drinks in. A frog breathes by swallowing. If his mouth is kept open, he dies of suffocation. No air can enter his lungs and windpipe. This has very little to do with a goitre. It draws your attention to the big, bulging lump seen outside the frog's throat. This bulb, bubble or swelling of the frog's under-throat, is where you look for a goitre in men and women. Goitres are called Derbyshire necks in that part of England. In Switzerland, the Alps and certain other European and American neighborhoods, goitres reach the size of large pear-shaped pumpkins. Indeed, they often resemble these Frenchhorn-shaped pumpkins. Many people, particularly of the tender sex, have little goitres without knowing it. Moreover, the preoccupied physician often overlooks these flat, saucer-shaped, convex swellings in the neck. Glands Most Important. You know where your Adam's apple lies. It is the little, semi-rigid wind-glass or band around your windpipe. The Adam's apple is made of stiff but slightly elastic cartilage. Sometimes it is a bit bony in texture. Perhaps its firm structure explains Hood's verse: When I've seen the first of men, I'll take a thousand kisses then. But Adam was not adamant. Just below your Adam's apple is a bouquet of sweetbread. It is a tender, delicate, grasslike efflorescence. This structure is called the "thyroid gland," and it plays a most vital part in your life. From this nether convexity of your Adam's apple issues forth into your inner ravines of lymph, blood and chyle certain thyroid-made juices. The juices made with particularity of fatness into your vertebral column living units in man and other animals are called "internal fluids," or "hormones." The thyroid melon, or tongue-of-flesh, about your windpipe, has no canals. It manufactures a special juice, or "hormone," and literally squeezes it into the cob-web of veins, arteries and tissue spaces which ramify in its core. Therefore, the retrostriding thyroid textile is numbered with other "hormone" makers, such as the spleen, the bone-marrow, the near kidney glands, or "adrenals," the "pituitary" or onion-like body beneath the brain, and others as "ductless" glands. Regulates Your Emotions. All thyroids, luckily, do not become goitres. Any disordered thyroid, let it be remembered, is apt to be a type of goitre. Even infants have goitres, although in man and animals and in the goitre begins with budding womanhood, around 15 or so. The hormone of fluid which your thyroid pours into your vertebral rivulets of life is actually a liquid "nerve." Just as there are fluid crystals, there are, as

Answers to Health Questions C. B., Philadelphia—Is eczema a skin disease or a blood disease? Are internal or external remedies necessary? "Eczema" is another ancient name which covers a legion of skin ailments. While it is true there are really local troubles, just as cancer and leprosy are local when they begin, after a time the virus of "eczema" spreads around and requires additional general treatment. MR. ROY N., Petrolia, Ont.—If the person who "hears voices" has the irritation in the auditory nerve—in the brain, as your article excellently stated, what can be done? I will gladly pay for your advice. I accept no pay, but am always most happy to advise the ill in every way I can. The condition you describe can only be remedied by a rare operation upon the brain. This I cannot, at this experimental stage, sanction. Dr. Hirschberg will answer questions for readers of this paper on medical, hygienic and sanitation subjects that are of general interest. He will not undertake to prescribe or offer advice for individual cases. Where the subject is not of general interest letters will be answered personally if a stamped and addressed envelope is enclosed. Address all inquiries to Dr. L. K. Hirschberg, care of this office.

What Happened to Jonah

By Tom Jackson

JONAH was a hoodoo man, who lived long years ago, and every place he butted in he'd queer the bloom'n' show. He was a picture of bad luck; a Jinx, he was for fair. Whenever he liked to a time he took a trip to sea. A storm it soon arose. "All hands on deck," the captain cried. "Great Scott, men, how it blows!" "There is a hoodoo on this craft," the first mate loudly said, and then a wave came, right like way, and stood him on his head. "You're right, old Hoss," the crew replied, "whoever can it be?" "Get out the box," the captain cried, "and chuck the dice, and see." They threw the bones the best they could, and Jonah, he threw low. "Pack up your beans, and cook them as up water till they are done get very cold. Make a little vinegar, add a little mustard, adding a little parsley and chopped also a stewed red pepper chopped till very fine, and serve the beans. "It's me for it," he shouted forth, and then he went inside. He landed safe within the whale, without a scratch or jar; the whale was so upholstered, like a Pullman palace car. For seven days he paid no board, and travelled here and there. He had a stateroom to himself without a cent of fare. "Was then the whale it thought and thought, and said: 'I guess, my friend, I'll give up this sea chaffeur job, your joy rides at an end.' So Jonah was cast on the shore, while natives gathered 'round and listened to the story of the hoodoo man they'd found. "For seven days," said Jonah, "I have lived upon sardines. I am the guy, the first to try and test out submarines."

Advice to Girls

By Annie Laurie

Dear Annie Laurie: I've a friend who says that no lady would go anywhere with mended gloves on. She says she'd stay at home all her life before she'd do it. What do you think? I THINK your friend is the queen of the Amalgamated Order of Goose Girls. Let her stay in the order—that's where she belongs. Put on your mended gloves and your neat little hat and your best smile and go anywhere you want to go, and forget that such people as your friend, the goose girl, are alive at all. That's the best way. Dear Annie Laurie: I go to business college, and there's a girl who sits next to me who is very pleasant and agreeable, but she borrows every last thing I've got. I do not want to offend her, but it is getting to be a perfect nuisance. What shall I do? THERE are so many ways to do, dear child, and it all depends upon you and upon the other girl as to which is the best. What sort of girl is she? A bright, clever, irresponsible sort of creature with brains enough to see a point when you make one? If she is, just laugh the next time she tries to borrow anything, and say good-humoredly, "Not today, little sister. I need that myself, and besides, I think it's about time you got some of your own things for your own self." If you don't want to do that, start in borrowing yourself. Begin before she gets a chance. Borrow every thing she has—and forget to return it! If she hasn't anything to lend she'll soon wake up and get something. It is all very well to be good-humored, but it is all very ill to be imposed upon. Miss Laurie will welcome letters of inquiry on subjects of feminine interest from young women readers of this paper and will reply to them in these columns. They should be addressed to her care this office.

Can't Be Prevented. Bless—You would not let a man hug you unless you were engaged to him, would you? Marie—How can you expect me to be engaged to every man jammed in next to me in the subway? Problem. "I was just wondering," said the bride. "What about?" asked her friend. "Whether it is better to have a husband who does not tell you all he does or to have one who tells you more than he does." It Was. "That's what I call a picture of health," remarked Gobson. "What is?" asked his patient wife. "This one in the paper here," was the answer. "It is labelled 'After Talking,' you see."

Daddy's Good Night Story

By GEORGE HENRY SMITH

MASTER SQUIRREL pricked up his ears and listened. The children were sitting in a bed talking about him. "I wish our father could tell stories like Brer Rabbit," he heard Sammy Squirrel say. "Yes," began Sallie Squirrel. "When father goes to tell us a story it's awfully dry. We all go to sleep, but when Brer Rabbit tells us a story we grow wider awake all the time." "Yes," answered Sammy Squirrel, "when he told us about those Indian—" At the word "Indian" Mister Squirrel sat up with a jump. "You children go to sleep and stop talking about Indians!" he shouted. "We can't go to sleep unless you tell us a story," answered Sammy Squirrel. Mister Squirrel ran up stairs as fast as he could and, seating himself on the stairs where all the children could hear, he asked: "What do you want me to tell you about?" "Tell us about Indians," said Sallie Squirrel. "No, don't," said Sammy. "You don't know anything about Indians." Mister Squirrel jumped. "Tell us a funny story, then," said Sallie, "and don't begin it 'once upon a time.' We hate that." Then Mister Squirrel began: "Day before tomorrow there lived a little boy at the foot of the top of a mountain and—" "How could a little boy live at the foot of the top of a mountain?" laughed Sammy. "Keep still!" said Mister Squirrel. He continued: "He had two eyes, two ears and two feet. He—" "The mountain top had one foot and the boy two," interrupted Sammy. "Keep still or I will stop," said their father. "The boy's name was Bobolino," continued Mister Squirrel. "How do you spell it?" asked Sallie. "Never mind how I spell it—just listen to the story. It is very funny. As I was saying, Bobolino started down the mountain one day to get some ears of corn and—" "I thought he had two ears already," laughed Sammy. "You don't know how to tell a story anyway," added Sallie Squirrel. Mister Squirrel went down stairs without answering and when he got seated in his chair the children began to laugh. "What are you laughing at?" asked Mister Squirrel. "At Bobolino!" shouted all the children at once.

CONDUCTED BY MRS EDMUND PHILLIPS

Col. Gooderham returned from New York yesterday morning, where he went to meet Miss Colburn (Londonderry), who is going to make a stay of several months with her sister, Mrs. Andrew Duncanson.

The afternoon dance given by Col. Stimson at the Acadia Club, Bay street, was a most unqualified success. The very large room was most beautifully arranged, at one end being rugs, with comfortable chairs and sofas, and tables holding vases of sweet scented blossoms, palms and ferns lending their graceful aid to the general effect.

The Hon. F. H. Phlippen and Mrs. Phlippen, accompanied by their daughters, Mrs. Clifford Gilmore and Miss Margaret Phlippen, left yesterday for New York, whence they will sail on Tuesday to spend three months in England and abroad.

PARIS, March 7.—(Special to The Sunday World).—A squadron of French warships will act as an escort to the British royal yacht which brings the King George and Queen Mary across the channel next month, and there will be an imposing military and naval demonstration in their honor, when they reach French soil. Every precaution will be taken to see that the visit of their Majesties is untroubled by a single unpleasant incident. While there is nothing to indicate any activity on the part of the anarchists, every known member of the Red faction will be kept under close surveillance until the royal visitors have returned home.

SHACKLETON HAS NECESSARY FUNDS

Sir Ernest Refuses to Discuss the Claim of Priority By Austrian Explorer.

NEW YORK, March 7.—A London cable to The World says: Sir Ernest Shackleton has now secured $250,000 which was needed to carry out his exploring trip across the Antarctic continent in the south. He wants $50,000 more to have a margin for the supporting parties. The government has offered $50,000, while anonymous persons have offered $100,000 as a free gift; another person offered $175,000 for the cinematograph rights, but the explorer said this remains to be decided.

Sir Ernest Shackleton is working fifteen hours a day at the preparations, and he is obliged to postpone his intended trips to America and Norway owing to the demand made upon him. He declines to discuss any further the Austrian explorer Koenig's claim to priority of the idea in fixing Weddel Sea as a base, insisting that he mentioned this intention soon after his last return from the Antarctic, whereas Koenig claims to have published his plan only last May.

Whether the Austrians go there or not Sir Ernest Shackleton says is a matter of indifference to him.

THE HIGHLANDERS BEAT QUEEN'S OWN

Winners Showed Superb Form—Grens Win by One Run From Body Guards.

The Queen's Own fell down in the final push on Saturday night at the armories in the Officers' Baseball League. They were a long way from their best game, both in fielding and batting, and on last Saturday's play were beaten by a stronger and better-balanced team. The Highlanders are at present the most dangerous team in the league, hitting and fielding superbly, and running the bases with speed and good judgment. They were upset and weak at the beginning of the season, and lost the first four games, getting stronger with each game. They finally broke into the winning column, and have won the last four games by substantial margins. Queen's Own have been in-and-outers, playing brilliantly one night and falling down weakly the next. Hugh Reid and Payto Macdonald were the strong men of the team Saturday night. Both were in the play at all times.

The second game returned the Grenadiers winners and champions of the league once again. It was a terrific struggle. The Body Guards fought hard and made a gallant finish. Roy Simpson picked a good game and deserved to win. He has greatly improved, and is at present one of the best players in the league. Macdonald has been hitting well and is a consistent player. The Grenadiers have won on their merits; they have played good ball all season; they are a well-balanced team, with each man strong in his position. They hit well, field well and run the bases good. They should give a good account of themselves in the series of games for the military championship of Canada. They play the winners of the Hamilton-Guelph section next Saturday night here at the armories, at 8.30.

D. F. A. OFFICIALS TALKED WITH JONES

Con. Outlines His Plan for English Tourists—O.F.A. to Meet Parent Body Tuesday.

Con Jones of Vancouver, who has just returned from England, met President Watson and Secretary Robertson of the D.F.A. on Saturday afternoon, and talked over the football situation, and especially in connection with Mr. Jones' idea of bringing out a team from the old country. Mr. Jones outlined his plan, and he hopes to bring out the two finalists in the English Cup some time this summer. The D.F.A. officials are rather opposed to that, as they do not think it would be a wise move. They would rather see a picked team from England and a picked team from Scotland come over here and play. There is bound to be several of the players stay in this country, and it is not clear as yet how a couple of men, if the D.F.A. officials decide against Con's plan he will be in a fix, as unless the D.F.A. sanction it he will not be allowed to bring out these teams.

R. M. Gray, Jr., was elected captain, and D. W. Baxter secretary-treasurer.

BROCK McALLAN MERELY FAILED TO GUESS THE TOSS.

Sporting Editor World: In your issue of March 5 you state that in the final consolation game of Owen Sound bonspiel, Wright of Owen Sound beat McAllan of Southampton, 15 to 10. This report is incorrect. McAllan of Southampton lost one game at Owen Sound—a semi-final in the first trophy to Batchelor of Owen Sound by one shot. He reached the final in the consolation, and owing to its being so late at night Wright of Owen Sound and McAllan of Southampton agreed to toss a copper for the game, instead of playing. Wright won the toss. John McVittie, Sec.-Treas. Southampton Curling Club.

GREAT WRESTLING IN OPEN TOURNEY

Best Contest of Season at West End Y.—Lapponen Throws Gibson.

There was some great wrestling on the West End Y.M.C.A. floor on Saturday night, the occasion being an open tournament. These monthly meets are drawing good crowds of spectators and are the best this season for the wrestlers were in better condition than ever. The following is the summary of the tournament:
105-lb. class—T. Rabikainen, a new member of the midget class, gave Ostuskie, until Osborne got the head hold, and a pick-up team from Scotland come over here and play. There is bound to be several of the players stay in this country, and it is not clear as yet how a couple of men, if the D.F.A. officials decide against Con's plan he will be in a fix, as unless the D.F.A. sanction it he will not be allowed to bring out these teams.

Highest Traditions of The Art of Fencing

Sporting Editor World: On Saturday last I had the pleasure of watching the hard-fought finals in an contest for the fencing championship of Ontario, and venture to beg the hospitality of your columns for a few remarks on what I saw. It was not competing, nor interested in any competitor present, so that my point of view is perfectly impartial, and I write only as one who is interested in Canadian sport and sportsmanship. The most striking feature of the contests was the marked contrast in style. I do not refer to the individuality of style which any fencer develops for himself, but to a sharp clear cut distinction between two styles, revealing two opposite attitudes toward the sport.
On the one hand I saw with pleasure and admiration the gracefully poised fencer who took guard with perfect balance, and who depended entirely on his foil to parry the thrusts of his opponent. To such a fencer the most important object of his play was obviously not to get in a certain number of hits and to avoid being hit himself, but to sport in the most artistic and sportsmanlike way, and to maintain the highest traditions of the art of fencing.
On the other hand there was the fencer who crouched like a wild beast ready to spring covering up his target with arm and wrist and glove, thrusting in his blows, and using the most effective and low lines, and sacrificing the spirit of sport to the determination to win at all costs.
This contrast in styles represent a fundamental difference in point of view, and points to a danger which is threatening this most admirable of sports, even in the most artistic and sportsmanlike way, and to maintain the highest traditions of the art of fencing.
The total award of marks for championship purposes should not rest upon hits alone, but on the style as well. Fencing is especially open to such a method of deception, and it is a pity that the danger element which the desire to win at all costs has introduced.

College Rugby Rules To Be Taken Up Later

KINGSTON, March 8.—McGill University was not represented on Saturday night at the first meeting called by the representative committee of the intercollegiate Rugby Football Union, and the meeting was too heavy for him to attend. The meeting was held at the Royal Military College, and Queen's were represented. It was a mystery to the delegates present regarding McGill's non-attendance, as the committee did not take up the rules, the meeting being purely for organization purposes. Variety, Royal Military College, and Queen's were represented. ### CANADIAN PROS TO PLAY FOR PURSE IN NEW YORK

Vancouver, Wanderers and Quebec Opening Next Saturday Night.

NEW YORK, March 8.—An uneventful season will be brought to a close with the annual invasion of the Canadian professionals, who will play a series of five games for a purse of $500, beginning next Saturday night, at St. Nicholas rink. Three of the strongest organizations of professional Canadian experts will take part, and will give the most brilliant exhibition of the great Canadian game ever played outside of the Dominion. The team from Vancouver of the Pacific Coast League, which will represent the far west in the sectional conflict for titular honors, will include among others Frank Patrick, one of the most sensational players in Canada, and Fred Taylor, the giant, who is the most sensational because of his resemblance to the erstwhile heavyweight champion pugilist, D. Pitts is another famous player with the Vancouver champions. The Quebec team, another of the participants, is a past winner of the Stanley Cup, emblematic of the professional championship, and comprises many distinguished players, among them McDonnell, formerly of the Ontario; Moran, a noted goal-keeper; Munnery, Rodgers and Malon. The other team to complete the trio will be the Wanderers of Montreal, headed by the incomparable Art Ross and the two Oshon boys, who formerly played here in the amateur hockey league and subsequently became two of the most brilliant professionals in Canada. Ernie Russell, Hyland and Roman have also played here before. Five games will be played on alternate nights, three preliminary games and two finals. The Wanderers and Quebec will face each other in the opening game on Saturday night, to be followed on Monday by a game between Vancouver and Wanderers, and Vancouver and Quebec will draw in the last preliminary, the two teams scoring the highest aggregate number of goals to participate in the two final nights' play, the total number of goals to decide the winner.

DON VALLEY FOOTBALL.
A general meeting will be held at Todmorden Hotel, on Tuesday, March 10, of the Don Valley F. C. All last year's players and supporters and any new players are invited to attend, as the business is important.

Arrange For Horse Show

Arrangements are under way for the holding of a horse show during the week beginning Tuesday, April 28. The program has not been completed, it has been decided to put on a number of military features. On the whole the features of last year's program will be closely followed. Application has been made for the use of the armories, and an invitation issued to His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught to open the show.

Long Ring Career Of Sam Langford

Sam Langford, who has been resting up at his home in Boston since he returned from Europe, was entertained by a party of his old friends on the occasion of his twenty-eighth birthday anniversary. Langford is a product of Nova Scotia, where he was born March 4, 1885. The Tar Baby, as he is familiarly known, is one of the veterans of the ring, notwithstanding that he is comparatively young in years. He began fighting at the age of 16 and consequently he has a ring career of a dozen years to his credit. During this period he has engaged in more than 300 battles. He made his early reputation as a welterweight and in recent years has faced practically all of the middleweight and heavyweight fighters of reputation on both sides of the Atlantic and in the Antipodes. Langford will engage in a ten-round boxing match in New York this week with Jack Blackburn, who is about of several years from the ring. Some ten years ago, when Blackburn was in his prime, he and Langford met on five or six different occasions, each contest resulting in a draw. After the Blackburn contest Langford will go to Kenosha, Wis., where he is matched to meet Carl Morris at the end of this month. After several other bouts now in prospect he will return to Paris in April to renew his efforts to bring about a match with Jack Johnson for the world's championship.

DUFFERIN DRIVING CLUB.
The annual meeting of the Dufferin Driving Club will be held tonight at the office of the secretary, 390 West Queen street, when the officers will be elected and the reports presented. A full attendance of members is expected.

Prospects Bright for Yorkshire Cricket Club

The third annual general meeting of the Yorkshire Society Cricket Club was held in the Sons of England Hall on Friday last. Great interest was displayed by all present, and everything points to another successful year by the champions of the Toronto Church and Mercantile Cricket League for 1913. Several new players have been secured and prospects look as if even a stronger team than last year will be put on the field this next season. It is also anticipated the club will have much better grounds than heretofore which should be of great advantage. A concert is to be held in about four weeks' time with a view of helping the club generally and also to present the prizes won by the various players last year. This year it was decided that four prizes, which were kindly donated by Messrs. W. C. Robinson, C. W. Dickinson, H. Fugh and Cotton, should be presented to the two best batsmen, the best bowler and also the best fielder. The election of officers resulted in a good executive being returned, which also should add greatly to the success of the club. Mr. W. C. Robinson, who so ably piloted the team to victory last season, was re-elected as captain for 1914 season. The election resulted in the following being returned: Hon. president, Ex.-Aid. M. Rawlinson; president, A. Atkinson; vice-presidents, E. Bracewell, E. Grimshaw, C. Hopkin, J. T. Myers, J. A. Marshall, J. Scott, T. P. Wood, W. C. Robinson; secretary, treasurer, re-elected, W. Myers, 19 Elmer avenue, Kow Beach; captain, re-elected, W. C. Robinson; vice-captain, A. A. Denton; committee, C. W. Dickinson, J. T. Myers, J. Scott, E. Bracewell, J. H. Tesson, umpire, F. Brownlie. A hearty vote of thanks was passed to The World and other papers for the way in which they have devoted space to cricket news during the past season.

DENIES HE WANTS CUBS.
CHICAGO, March 7.—John T. Connerly, coal dealer of Chicago, who denied in New York yesterday that he was trying to buy the Chicago National League Baseball Club, informed friends in this city that he was going to New York to endeavor to purchase the club. Connerly, a Chicago syndicate, according to Riger C. Sullivan, former Illinois Democrat National committeeman, who is connected with the Connerly family by marriage, said Sullivan gave this information after he had shown New York dispatches, which said Connerly was reported to be negotiating for Charles F. Taff's controlling interest in the Cubs. Sullivan was not asked to take a hand in the deal, but I might be willing to buy a part of the stock if given the opportunity," said Mr. Sullivan.

Hoppe Makes World's Record at Billiards

CHICAGO, March 7.—Willie Hoppe of New York, world's champion billiardist, finished the most brilliant run of his career tonight by defeating George Sutton, and winning the All-Star tournament, which has extended over the week. Hoppe's grand average for the 500 points he has played the two weeks he has been here was a fraction over 47. Sutton took second place in the tournament, Yamada was third, Demarest fourth, while Slosson was last, having lost every game in which he participated. Hoppe made a world's record average of 134½ in his 1000 point match, with Sutton last week.

Irving on Jap Methods. "We have lately heard a great deal about academies and conservatories of acting," said Laurence Irving to an interviewer the other day, "but in this as in so many other respects, the Japanese have solved the problem in a much simpler and more efficacious way. Every Japanese actor or singer has a batch of pupils who reside with him and acquire the intricacies of their art. A Japanese actor has besides an exponent of the drama, to be a highly trained swordsman, a skilled acrobat and dancer. Thus when a leading actor produces a play he casts it amongst those who have studied his ideas on methods in the closest intercourse of daily life. This method must produce an ensemble beyond anything the European stage can hope to show.

"The most eminent figure on the Japanese stage was Danjuro, tho it is interesting to note that this name Danjuro is one which is conferred successively on the actor who reaches the highest summit of his art in any age. Thus should a given period not produce an actor of sufficiently high merit, there would at that period be no Danjuro. It is as if every pre-eminent actor since Betterton's day had been entitled Betterton.

Ignace Jan Paderewski Master pianist, returning to Massey Hall in recital this evening after a three years' absence.

and impersonations. Martini and Maxmillian have one of the best burlesque magic and illusion acts in vaudeville. Lacey Sampson and Mabel Douglas, a very clever comedy duo, will appear in what they call "their own nonsensical oddity." Burton, John and Cantwell, "three big voices," who scored a tremendous hit in their first New York appearance, have a singing specialty that embraces the latest song successes. One of the most unusual acrobatic "turns" ever conceived is that of Hugh Lloyd, "the sailor on the bounding rope." The limit of agility seems to have been reached in Lloyd's sensational act. Among other announced for the week are Fred Hildebrand, a singing and dancing comedian of the first water, and the Mendelssohn Four, a quartet of refined instrumentalists and singers.

Ed by Manager Withrow on Saturday from C. A. Ellis, the Boston impresario who conducts all of Paderewski's tours. It referred to the Polish master's reappearance in New York after his coast to coast tour. "Tonight's recital at Massey Hall will be heard by the largest crowd that has ever greeted any pianist in the past two or three seasons, greater perhaps than any since Paderewski himself was here last, some three years ago. The great pianist arrives in Toronto this morning in his private car, attached to the regular New York train. He prefers this mode of living on tour, rather than going to an hotel in each of the cities he visits, because he finds that he enjoys more personal comfort and is better able to care for his health if he has his own chef and personal staff of servants with him. His travelling expenses amount to more than those of any other musical artist in America this season, and he is one of the very few who are able to maintain a private car for an all-season tour. He is also the only one who is able to stipulate in his contracts that no person must be allowed on or near the stage while he is playing. Others are only too glad to allow the overflow crowd to occupy chairs on the platform, but Paderewski will not permit it. In pursuance of its usual policy, the Massey Hall management will place 300 rush seats for tonight on sale at 75c.

Ed. Johnston at the Gayety. "The name of Ed. Johnston to the devotees of burlesque is a positive guarantee of an enjoyable evening, and the announcement that he will appear this week at the Gayety Theatre in the Dreamland Burlesque Company, needs no further comment, except that the company is composed of fifty singers, dancers and comedians, who appear in a new, two-act musical comedy, entitled "Newport."

Stop Thief! at the Princess. "All the world loves to laugh, yet once in a while a human being is found who has apparently promised his mother he will not indulge in that form of healthful exercise. It is one of these who is to go and see "Stop Thief" the new farce soon to be presented here. He will surely break his pledge, for it is said that nothing but a wooden leg could withstand the risible inclinations that come from visiting this funny play.

"Broadway Jones" for the Grand. George M. Cohan's famous comedy "Broadway Jones" will be the offering at the Grand Opera House next week, the first time it has been offered anywhere at less than a dollar-fifty cents of price.

At Shea's Today. Heading the bill at Shea's this week is the dancing sensation of the country, Adelaide and J. G. Hughes, late stars of "The Passing Show of 1911." Adelaide is long and well-known to Shea-goers, and her artistic dancing has been the delight of theatregoers the world over. Adelaide and her dancing partner, Mr. Hughes, will present their dance creation, "The Spark of Life," gorgeously mounted with special scenery and costumes, and the story in dance as told by Adelaide and Hughes, is a splendid spectacle.

Lawrence Irving in Town. Mr. Lawrence Irving, son of the late Sir Henry Irving, accompanied by Miss Mabel Hackney and his entire London company, arrived in Toronto yesterday evening. Mr. Irving will open his engagement at the Princess Theatre tonight under the auspices of the British-Canadian Theatre Organization Society, with a performance of his wonderful play, "Typhoon," in which he will sustain his original role of Dr. Takerano. It was in this part

Where the Trail Divides. Robert Edeson's Indian drama, "Where the Trail Divides," is offering at the Grand Opera House this week. It was written by Mr. Edeson himself and was suggested by W.H. Lillibridge's novel of the same name, which has been one of the "best sellers" for some time. The event leading up to the play-story proper is the finding of two bodies, one an Indian boy and the other a white girl, after one of those terrible massacres which marked the pioneer days in the great west. Col. William Lanier, a wealthy rancher, takes the two children to his home and brings them up together, adopting the girl, who becomes known as "Dee Lanier," while the Indian takes the name of How Lander. The pair grow up into young manhood and womanhood and fall in love with each other quite naturally. As the play opens, Dee Lanier has just discovered that

SIR GEORGE ROSS PASSED PEACEFULLY TO HIS REST AGED SEVENTY-TWO YEARS

Was Prominent as Statesman, Educationalist, Writer, Speaker and Lecturer—Lady Ross Last Spoke With Him on Friday Afternoon—Sketch of Late Senator's Life.

Sir George Ross is dead. His life of service to the world came to an end at 8 o'clock on Saturday in Toronto General Hospital, where for weeks he had been lying—growing weaker until just before the end he lost all consciousness and then died peacefully. The last week he lay in a state of coma, until Thursday night, when consciousness returned and his mind was clear. Then he was quite rational and talked to Lady Ross and visitors. But that was the last time, for Friday afternoon he sank again into his former state. At five o'clock on Saturday morning it was known the end was fast approaching and just at eight o'clock his life slipped out into the beyond.

Sir George William Ross was leader of the senate for years, a member of parliament in the early days of Canadian Confederation, a former minister of education of Ontario, a former premier of Ontario, a charter member and fellow of the Royal Society of Canada, and was first president of the Authors Society.

Sir George Ross was the son of the late James Ross, who, with his wife, Ellen McKinnon, both natives of Rosshire, Scotland, came to Canada in 1832. Sir George was born near Nain, County Middlesex, Ont., in 1841, and received his early education in the public schools. After receiving a matriculation county board certificate empowering him to teach, he took a course at the Normal School, Toronto, and left it with a first-class provincial certificate. At a later period he matriculated on law at Albert University, graduated LL.B. in 1870, and was called to the bar in 1871.

In 1871 he was appointed inspector of public schools for the County of Lambton and acted subsequently in a similar capacity for the Towns of Petrolia and Clinton. In 1875 the establishment of additional normal schools was agitated in Ontario, he took a leading part in the creation of the county model school system. After their organization he prepared a syllabus of lectures for their direction and filled the position of inspector from 1876 to 1880. He was a member of the central committee of examiners. He steadily contended for the uniformity of methods and favored the limiting of normal schools to professional work. A Liberal in politics, he was elected in that interest to the house of commons in 1882, and continued the representative of that riding at Ottawa up to November, 1883, when he entered the senate. In 1884 Sir Oliver Mowat in Ontario as minister of education. This office he retained under the late Hon. A. H. Macdonald, and was also a member for West Middlesex in the legislature. He devoted some years to journalistic work, being at one time editor of the "Strathroy Age," and at another time part proprietor of the "Huron Examiner." He was also the conductor of the "Ontario Teacher," a publication which did much of great service to educationists in all parts of the province.

For many years he was prominently identified with the temperance cause. He was elected most worthy patriarch of the Sons of Temperance of North America in 1870, and was president of the Ontario Temperance Society in 1882; attended the British and Colonial Temperance Congress held in London in 1882; was elected president of the Temperance and General Life Assurance Co., 1885, and was elected vice-president of the Ontario Prohibition Alliance in 1896.

Supported Reciprocity. As a legislator and administrator, his record was one of no little achievement. In 1882 he introduced a resolution in the house of commons asking for the opening of a public route for the trade between Canada and the United States, which resolution subsequently gave rise to a Liberal campaign in favor of reciprocity. In 1887 he introduced a bill in the Ontario Legislature providing for the consolidation of the Public Schools Act and the act respecting Mechanics' Liens. In 1887 he introduced a bill authorizing the federation of the University of Toronto and the University of Western Ontario. He was also responsible for placing upon the statute book an act respecting railways and compulsory attendance at school.

Was a Writer. He also enjoyed a reputation as a writer in connection with the "Huron Examiner," he wrote in 1892 a biography of the Hon. Alexander Mackenzie. Among his other works may be mentioned "History of the School System of Ontario," written for the "International Series of Educational Works," published by the D. Appleton Company, New York; "A Report of the Schools of England and Germany" and "Patriotic Recitations for the Use of Schools and Colleges." In 1892 he was appointed chairman of the committee having for its object the preparation of a history of Canada for the use of the schools of this country, and, in 1897, served as vice-president of the British Association for the Advancement of Science. He was also president for some years of the Dominion Educational Association.

Honored by Universities. For his services in behalf of education, he received the honorary degree of LL.D. from St. Andrew's University, Scotland, in 1892, and the same honor conferred upon him by Victoria University, Toronto, in 1892, and by the University of Toronto in 1894. In 1899 he was elected a fellow of the Royal Society of Canada, and in the same year was appointed one of the commissioners for the revision of the Ontario Statutes. He was a member of the council of the Toronto Astronomical and Physical Society, and was likewise interested in the Dominion Scientific Association, of which he was one of the founders. In 1886 he served as a commissioner to the Indian and Colonial Exhibition, held in London.

Minister and Premier. Sir George Ross was a member of the government of Sir Oliver Mowat as minister of education from 1893 to 1896, and also served his province in the same capacity in the Hardy administration from July 25, 1896, to Oct. 18, 1899. On the resignation of Mr. Hardy, Sir George Ross took up the reins of government on Oct. 21, 1899, and continued as premier with a working majority until the dissolution of the house on May 15, 1902. On going to the country on May 29, 1902, Sir George was sustained by a small majority. On June 20, 1902, the strength of the parties was as follows: Liberals 45, Conservatives 45, vacant 7. The result of the general election on Jan. 25, 1905, was as follows: Conservatives 69, Liberals 29.

Opposition Leader and Senator. Sir George was for nearly two years leader of the party in the opposition benches. He was made a senator of Canada on Jan. 15, 1907, but through ill health he never took a part in a public interest in state affairs. Later he was elected leader of the senate.

Speaker and Lecturer. As a public speaker Sir George Ross took high rank. Among the best known of his lectures were the following: "Machinery Factors in Our Canadian Life," "Formative Forces of Canadian History," "Our National Outlook," "Citizenship and Higher Culture" and "Preferential Trade."

He was a Presbyterian in religion and held the office of elder in St. Andrew's Church, Toronto, in 1896. He was elected a delegate from the general assembly of Canada to the Pan- Presbyterian conference, held that year in Glasgow.

Turns Against Reciprocity. In the Dominion election campaign of 1911 Sir George Ross was one of the prominent Liberals who opposed the entering into a reciprocity pact with the United States of America. Sir George delivered an address before the Toronto Board of Trade and wrote two letters to The Toronto Globe dealing with Canadian commercial interests. He then advanced strong grounds against the completion of reciprocity negotiations and in favor of closer imperial and reciprocal trade relations. The address was printed and circulated throughout Canada by the Canadian Manufacturers' Association and the Ontario Manufacturers' Association. It was quoted by many Conservative speakers in the debate on reciprocity in the commons. He said that British preference and reciprocity were mutually hostile. So much use was made of these arguments in the commons that it was asserted by some of the Liberals who supported the then government, that Sir George Ross could not see beyond the bounds of Ontario. Some curiosity was felt as to the course Sir George would take after Sir Wilfrid Laurier brought down the reciprocity measure. Sir George did not have to declare himself in the senate, for the bill never reached that chamber, and he took no part in the discussion of the subject on the hustings.

Favored Canadian Navy. On Nov. 25, 1913, in the Dominion Senate, Sir George Ross, as the newly-appointed leader, delivered his first address, dealing in with the question of Canadian support to Great Britain in the naval crisis. Sir George, on a motion in reply to the address from the throne, spoke for a Canadian navy, created by Canadians and manned by Canadians.

Sir George Ross was knighted in 1907. Temperance people will remember him as the first recognized leader of the temperance party in parliament.

Interesting Reminiscences. In the "Political History of the Dominion" was published. In these pages Sir George proved himself a close student of history, and his recollections of his fellow-members in parliament are readable character reproductions.

Sir John A. Macdonald, Edward Blake, Alexander Mackenzie, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Sir Charles Tupper and Sir Richard Cartwright are among the many prominent politicians who are mentioned in his recollections. Sir George was twice married, first to Christina, in 1862, daughter of Duncan Stewart, who died in 1872; secondly in 1875 to Catharine, daughter of William Boston, and thirdly in 1907 to Mildred, daughter of John Peel, painter. Sir George leaves a widow, two sons and six daughters. Duncan C. Ross, member of parliament for West Middlesex, is a son.

ELOQUENT SON IS LOST TO CANADA

Hon. G. P. Graham Pays High Tribute to Late Senator Ross.

Hon. George P. Graham, who was a member of Sir George Ross' cabinet, said: "In the passing of Sir George Ross, Canada loses her most eloquent English-speaking son. I knew him as a leader, a colleague, a friend, and he rang true at all times, and was equally strong in adversity as in success. He brought to public life the ability and energy which enabled him to split very high positions in the affairs of the nation. Always cheerful, his mental brilliancy never showed any signs of wear. His mind remained clear, his tongue lost none of its wonderful powers of expression, and his disposition spread sunshine and dispelled sadness wherever he went. Personally I feel that one of my warmest and best friends had been taken."
