MANY ASPIRE TO MUNICIPAL OFFICES

However, There Will Be No Mayorality Contests in Toronto, Hamilton, St. Catharines, Kingston and Elsewhere—List of Gladiators in Battle of Ballots.

Nominations for municipal offices were held throughout the province yesterday, and while in many cases important posts went by acclamation, there were sufficient candidates in most municipalities to ensure stiff contests in cities, towns, villages and townships where elections are held on Jan. 1.

Mayor Geary is not alone in getting into office again by the easiest way. Mayor Lees of Hamilton, Mayor Merritt of St. Catharines and F. J. Hoag of Kingston were among those whose names do not have to go on the ballot paper. In some cities and towns large fields are shown, notably Berlin, where the various offices are especially eagerly sought. The list of nominations follows:

CITIES.

HAMILTON.—Mayor Lees was elected for a second term by acclamation. Nine candidates were nominated for controllers as follows: Thos. Skinner Morris, Thomas William Jutten, Robt. A. Campbell, William G. Batley, Chas. W. Gardner, Y. Thomas Robson, John Forth, Hugh C. Sweeney, John Allan. Aldermen—Ward 1—Joseph H. Hornung, William F. Campbell, George H. Milne, Thos. Lovejoy. Ward 2—John H. Bell, Hugh Wallace, Fred C. Robins, H. J. Halford, Jos. Kirkpatrick, Chas. G. Bird. Ward 3—George Clapham, David Garms, Chas. W. Heming, M. A. Pennington. Ward 4—James Edgar Davey, Norman John Clark, Thos. Wilkinson. Ward 5—James MacKay, Fred William Littlewood, William Birrell, Abraham Norman, Thos. H. Gould. Ward 6—S. Howard, William J. Ryan, Jas. B. Kingsdon, Herbert Alfred Martin, W. B. Hopkins. Ward 7—Albert E. Case, Walter Thomas Elliott, David Newlands, John Reid Dodson, Thomas Roselle. Ward 8—Peter Frank Lalonde, Thos. Charles Gleadow, Nathaniel Merrigold, John Jess. School trustees—Ward 1—Ralph C. Ripley, Charles G. Booker. Ward 2—Thos. Watkins (acc.). Ward 3—Alfred Ward (acc.). Ward 4—John Montgomery, George Robert Allan. Ward 5—J. W. Lamoreaux (acc.). Ward 6—George Armstrong (acc.). Ward 7—Dr. Leeming (acc.). Ward 8—Dr. Robert Y. Perry (acc.).

LONDON.—Dec. 22.—Aldermen Eckert, Stevenson and Cooper, and former Ald. Graham were nominated to-day for the mayorality.

Niagara Falls.

NIAGARA FALLS.—Mayor, Chas. C. Cole, O. E. Dore, Water commissioners—R. P. Slater, Dr. H. G. A. Cook, H. M. Robertson, Geo. Seales, W. E. McReddie, Aldermen—Geo. H. Clark, W. H. Ward, J. Hopkins, E. CROWDED OUT AND SWARMING

BOSS FLEMING: I've lost 'em. They're heading for the Tubes honey tree.

SURFACE CARS UTTERLY UNABLE TO COPE WITH CITY'S TRAFFIC

No Tie-ups Marred Running Order Last Night—Service Worked at Its Best—But a Hundred Thousand People Had Long, Miserable Wait in Rain—Service Hopelessly Inadequate

There were not as many cars on the streets last night as the tracks would hold, to handle the six o'clock rush, but they came along as fast as the people could clamber into them and then the service was hopelessly behind in conveying the supper hunters to their homes and the cold meal list must have been heavy indeed.

At King and Yonge the traffic east, west and north was congested. The cars simply could not handle them. It was not a "tie-up" or a "break-down," a derangement, nor any other incidental defect. It was just a case of trying to bail out Lake Ontario with a bucket. The cars could not handle the crowd and that was all there was to it.

Therefore you and I and our wives, daughters and our sisters and our cousins and our aunts had to stand out in the wet and wait. The cars that came along were filled as quickly as they could be crowded full with men, women and children wedged together inside and on the platforms. Still the waiting crowds at such corners as

King and Yonge, Queen and Yonge, Richmond and Yonge, Richmond and Bay grew, for they came quicker than the cars could load them and carry them off.

One thing was demonstrated beyond dispute and that was this: With all the cars out and with no hitch, the city's cars cannot handle the city's crowds and, with the present car service, a large part of Toronto must eat its supper cold.

One man who stood and waited at King and Yonge-streets, while a steady succession of drops from a lady's umbrella dripped down his neck, remarked to the man beside him: "It wouldn't be wet waiting for a tube line anyway." This was a part of the thoughts of those who stood steaming in the cars, breathing in the exhalations, the mingled odors from the clothing of those who labor at many trades in many places.

Accuses Mgr. Bello Of Dark Plotting

Patriarch of Lisbon May Be Heavily Sentenced for Alleged Treason to Portuguese Republic.

LISBON, Dec. 22.—(Can. Press.)—The government has decided to prosecute Mgr. Anthony Mendes Bello, patriarch of Lisbon, on a charge of conspiring against the republic. It is considered certain that if the prelate is convicted he will be sentenced to the maximum of six years' imprisonment and ten years' deportation to Africa.

Mgr. Bello frequently has been considered a likely appointee to the cardinalate, and just prior to the last consistory when Pope Pius created nineteen new members of the sacred college, the identity of one of them was kept secret. In best informed quarters in Rome, however, it was believed that his name was withheld from the public only because of the strained relations between Portugal and the church.

HUGHES LIKES MR. BOURASSA

Only Thing Nationalist Leader Lacks to Make Him Great is Military Training.

OTTAWA, Dec. 22.—(Special.)—The following statement was handed out by Col. Hon. Sam Hughes to-night in answer to the attack of Mr. Henri Bourassa in his paper, Le Devoir: "Bourassa would have been a model fellow if he had only been fortunate enough to have received a military training. He is able, handsome, genial, well educated, critical and energetic, in short, he possesses very many of the essential qualities of greatness. Only the one thing is lacking. Had he been fortunate to receive a military training he would have had greater balance, a broader and more tolerant spirit and a more readily controlled mind."

"As it is he will come out alright. I like him and always enjoy his attacks upon me. When he learns the great advantages of military training and practices then he will be a truly great man. It will afford me the greatest pleasure to gaze upon him in command of a squadron of mounted rifles or Hussars, should he see fit to raise such a corps and qualify. I would be quite willing to lend him Turpin, for a time, to assist him."

THE INCARNATION.

Christian Guardian: Bethlehem and Calvary are linked together forever, and they tell one only story, a story of infinite love. God stooped to men because He loved them, and the incarnation, and the privation, and suffering, and death, which it implied were counted a joy to all-conquering love. Have we learned our lesson from that yet? If, in any part of the world, the church has halted or moves forward feebly and uncertainly, we may be sure the trouble lies in this, that men are trying to do Christ's work without Christ's spirit. It is that alone that has dynamic enough in it for the task of world-regeneration. God must be born in men: there must be the new incarnation, before men may do God's work.

ARISTOCRATIC ROSEDALE

Wants No Touch With the Common People

The World received the following from a plain, everyday citizen, who lives in Bleeker-street. What he says we believe is true. The men who wanted the diverted street (which they said was also high art and picturesque), wanted it to fence out the common people. Read this letter:

Editor World: While reading the historical sketch of East Rosedale in The World to-day, it occurred to me that that ancient suburb is still inhabited by "Yorkies," who in some respects are more "wee" than any of the early inhabitants.

On Jan. 1 last, among other bylaws, there was one for the Bloor-street viaduct, the primary object of which was to give the residents of Riverdale direct access to the central, western and northern portions of the city, but which would incidentally bring them into closer touch with their more aesthetic fellow-citizens of Rosedale.

Another bylaw was for $100,000 to improve roadways radiating out from the City of Toronto into the County of York. The primary object of this bylaw was to induce the farmers to bring their produce to market with greater frequency than heretofore, but which was recognized by the owners of automobiles as incidentally furnishing good speed roads beyond the reach of speed bylaws.

These two bylaws enabled many residents of East Rosedale to play the dual role of "Wee Yorkies" and "Great Yorkies" in one act. In this polling subdivision, No. 28, Ward Two, the vote on the bylaws, according to the city clerk's returns, are:

	For.	Against.
Bloor-street viaduct	31	121
Good roads	158	16

This polling subdivision, with a comparatively small total vote, gave the largest vote against the Viaduct Bylaw and the second largest vote in favor of the Good Roads Bylaw of any in the city; and when it is recalled that there are more private garages in Rosedale than in any other part of the city, we are forced to the conclusion that, all things considered, they did not, after all, lose caste as "Wee Yorkies" in voting for the Good Roads Bylaw.

I trust that if citizens are again treated as they were last year to "eleventh-hour" appeals thru the mails to vote against the Bloor-street viaduct they will ask themselves who is financing this opposition, and why? And, if on reflection of the foregoing observations, they furnish any clue to the motives and identity of the authors, I trust that all democratic ratepayers will resent it by voting for an improvement that will be of lasting good to all classes throughout the entire city.

RUSSIA WINS OUT SHUSTER MUST PACK TRUNK

Russian Ultimatum in Full, With Provision That Apology Be Made for Insult to Vice-Consul, Accepted—Fighting Reported To Be of Serious Character.

LONDON, Eng., Dec. 22.—(Can. Press.)—Persia to-day yielded to the demands of the Russian ultimatum, which demanded that the Persian foreign minister apologize for an insult to M. Petroff, the Russian vice-consul at Teheran, on the occasion of the seizure of the property of a brother of the ex-shah, and also called for the dismissal from office of W. Morgan Shuster, an American, who held the post of treasurer-general.

The Persian charge d'affaires at St. Petersburg called at the Russian foreign office late to-day to announce officially his government's decision to abide by the terms of the ultimatum. Up to a late hour to-night, however, no public announcement had been made at Teheran of the recession of Persia from the defiant stand she originally took against the demands of the czar's ministers, even in the face of threatened aggression. The delay in making public the fact that she had yielded to the Russian demands probably was thru fear of the consequences of public resentment.

Shuster Not Notified.
Mr. Shuster is still without formal notice of his dismissal. He is resolute in declaring that he would have nothing to do with the negotiations and would only recognize the right of the national council to dispense with his services.

The exact form of Persia's reply to Russia is not yet known, but from the latest news received from Teheran, it would seem that the cabinet has overridden the wishes of the commission which the national council appointed to deal with the matter.

Russians in Danger.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 22.—The fighting between the Russians and the Persians, which was reported from Tabriz yesterday, lasted in the streets of the city through the day. The old citadel was bombarded.

The Russian consul-general has sent to headquarters a request for reinforcements in view of the danger to Russian subjects and Russian property in the city.

The Russian Cossacks at Resht, which is 16 miles northwest of Enzeli, on the Caspian Sea, drove the Persians out of their position after considerable fighting. It was found that the Persians were armed with Russian rifles.

According to the despatches received here, both at Tabriz and Resht, the fighting was opened by an attack on the Russians from a Persian ambulance.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—The London morning newspapers generally consider that Persia in acquiescing in the Russian ultimatum acted wisely and averted.

Knighthood for Borden

OTTAWA, Dec. 22.—(Special.)—According to information received in Ottawa to-day thru the English mail, Premier Borden will be Sir Robert Borden after the distribution of New Year honors. The conferring of the knighthood upon the prime minister thus early in his administrative career, will be a recognition of his fight for the British connection and the unity of the empire in the recent election.

QUEEN CARS GO "ANY OLD WAY"

Service Run in "Haphazard Fashion—Hour Waits Common—Conductors Say They Have Orders to Suit Themselves.

The street railway apparently hasn't over its milkiness, caused by the order of the Ontario Railway Board, yet. In fact its petty rage was considerably worse yesterday and more annoying and aggravating to the good people of North Parkdale and West Toronto.

What was apparently a deliberate effort to run the worst kind of service possible happened yesterday on the Queen route. To a lesser extent this was true of the Dundas line. But along Queen-street the service was beyond adequate description.

Two bunches of cars, each bunch containing about fifteen cars, were operated yesterday afternoon and evening on the Queen line. Each bunch was about ten minutes apart early in the day, that being the longest time between cars, but by late evening the system was in such fine working order that the cars, or rather bunches of cars, were a good hour apart.

World reporters asked several conductors why the cars were running it.

FEARED LINER WOULD BLOW UP

East Point Five Days Overdue, Carried Powder Magazine Thru Heavy Seas.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 22.—(Can. Press.)—The trans-Atlantic line steamer East Point, which was reported to have met with disaster at sea, arrived here to-day about five days overdue with a story of a stormy time at sea. The big freighter left London Dec. 1, and soon after steaming out of the English Channel, met with a succession of storms.

To add to the anxiety of the crew there were 400 cases of gunpowder in the miscellaneous cargo and the sailors feared that the terrific pitching of the ship would set off the explosive and blow the steamer to pieces. The vessel weathered the storm swell, and came into port little the worse for her rough experience.

LOOKS LIKE THE GRAND TRUNK.

A Montreal man who was in town yesterday was speaking about the recent purchase of the northwest corner of King and Yonge-streets by the Dominion Bond Company. He said: "It may be that they are acting as agents of the Grand Trunk. All I can say is that the Grand Trunk is behind the big million dollar transportation building that has just been erected on St. James-street, Montreal, and which is across from the new Canadian Pacific Railway building, which is also approaching completion. I believe that the same policy will follow in Toronto that is in Montreal, and that at the diagonal corner of the new Canadian Pacific building in Toronto there will be a large Grand Trunk building, and that the purchase made the other day is the first move in that direction."

The Moral is Obvious

In 1910 the City of Borden had 22.7 miles of subway, and was building 16.5 miles more. This will give them fifty miles of single track, as against six miles of single track which Toronto is proposing to build under the bylaw to be submitted to the electors on Jan. 1.

The Boston subway is paying a six per cent. dividend to the shareholders of the Boston Elevated Railway Company, which controls it, after paying 4.12 per cent. to the municipality for its franchise.

MANY HAPPY RETURNS.

To Mr. H. P. Dwight, president of the Great Northwestern Telegraph Co., born at Belleville, Jefferson County, New York, Dec. 23, 1832.

DUPONT CAR STRIKES DOWN UNKNOWN MAN

On Yonge Street Shortly After Six—Has Fractured Skull—Recovery Doubtful.

An unidentified man between 35 and 40 years of age was struck by Dupont car 608 southbound at Yonge and Gould-streets at 6.10 last night in charge of Motorman No. 1922. He was removed to St. Michael's Hospital in the police ambulance, where it was found that his skull was fractured, and his recovery doubtful. No papers or other effects by which he could be identified were found upon him, but he had not recovered consciousness early this morning. He is clean-shaven of medium height and build, and wore dark clothes.

TUBES' CAMPAIGN IS PROCEEDING WITH VIGOR

Controller Hocken, W. F. Maclean and Ald. McCarthy Speak at Playter's Hall.

Evangelistic work in favor of the tubes, etc., is being carried on these nights with great success by Controller Hocken. Already he has addressed meetings in almost every part of the city. At every one he has created an excellent impression, and told the electorate exactly what the tubes mean. Last night he spoke in Playter's Hall, outlining his proposition to the satisfaction of his audience. W. F. Maclean, M.P., also spoke, dealing with the necessity for such a service in Toronto. He counselled his hearers against taking a small view of the matter.

Ald. McCarthy spoke at the meeting in the interests of his candidature for the board of control. He gave his platform for the coming year and reviewed his past efforts.

HAMILTON HAPPENINGS

LEES BY ACCLAMATION NOMINATION QUIET

Ward 4 Aldermen Returned By Easy Route—Two Fatal Accidents.

HAMILTON, Dec. 22.—(Special.)—Listless affairs to-day were the home nations of candidates for the municipal election to be held by the electors for city on Jan. 1. The little speech-making indulged in by the candidates was of a perfunctory character, and at several of the nomination places only the candidates, their nominators and seconders were present.

The only acclamations were for mayor and aldermen in ward four. It had been expected that ward two would return its aldermen by acclamation, but five dark horses were in the field, making a field of six candidates.

Mayor George H. Lees, who was given an acclamation, was nominated by Controller W. H. Cooper, seconded by J. S. Cloke.

Controlship candidates are: Chas. W. Gardner, merchant; William Gill Bailey, gentleman; Thomas Robson, builder; John North, grocer; Robert A. Campbell, contractor; Thomas W. Jutten, manufacturer; John Allan, gentleman; Hugh Swainson, merchant; Thos. S. Morris, merchant.

The full list of candidates is given in another column.

TO REORGANIZE NEW YORK CENTRAL.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—(Can. Press.)—What is regarded in Wall Street as the first step in the long rumored plan to consolidate the subsidiaries of the New York Central system with the parent company, was taken to-day, when the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad Company addressed letters to the holders of its $110,000,000 3 1/2 per cent. collateral trust bonds, which were given in exchange for stock of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern and Michigan Central roads, asking their consent to merge either or both roads with the parent company.

There were many other phone calls and personal messages delivered to The World last night, besides what a reporter picked up on a personal trip of inspection. The conductor told him that he had killed time at the top of Roncesvalles. Further enquiries elicited the information that it was the common thing for conductors to keep their cars waiting until a goodly bunch had formed, and then away they'd all go gallily together.

Only One "BROMO QUININE," that is Laxative Bromo Quinine Cures a Cold in One Day, Grip in 2 Days such an unusual way. The reply was invariably because they liked it that way. A half dozen conductors candidly said that they were told by those in authority to run their cars any old way they pleased, and they were engaged themselves immensely, all of course, much to the discomfort and inconvenience of the people of the west end.

There were no roadmasters on the whole Queen line as far as could be ascertained, and if there were any they must have been taking things easy.

It was impossible to find anybody in the west end last night who wasn't absolutely certain that the street railway was deliberately aggravating the people, and that they were being treated with a tale of having to wait anywhere from a half hour up for a car to take them home or else downtown.

Several passengers, or people that would have been passengers if they had waited long enough, phoned down to The World to enquire as to what was the matter with the Queen cars.

Hundred Waited in Rain.

Said one resident to a World reporter: "Just imagine waiting 35 minutes to catch a car to go home at noon yesterday."

During the afternoon, when of all times thru the day service should be regular, there was an intermission of 35 minutes before a car went up Roncesvalles-ave., and then one lone car took the trip to return. It was followed 45 minutes later by another, twenty or thirty people waited at one time for a Queen car eastbound at Sunnyside, within halting distance of the car barns. One woman with a baby in her arms and a young tot of three years, were forced to wait on that corner in the rain for thirty minutes.

A man wanted to come down town in the early evening, was stalled at the top of Roncesvalles for 30 minutes, and at Sunnyside for another 15 minutes.

A young lady living on Fern-ave. phoned the Street Railway Company to find out why she had to wait a solid hour on Roncesvalles for a car, only to give up in disgust, and to postpone a shopping tour until to-day. The Street Railway Co. didn't know.

A World reporter, who wanted to get out to Roncesvalles-avenue, went to catch a Queen car. After waiting for 35 minutes the first Queen car came along, crammed to overflowing, with people hanging on the steps, catching the drippings which flowed in streamlets from the car roof. After staying around in the drizzling rain he decided to go and chance the cars being looped at Bay-street, as dozens of others were forced to do. At 6.48 he succeeded in getting on the platform of a car and arrived at Sunnyside at 6.30, and when he attempted to get off he was received with an onslaught of humanity, endeavoring to get a car up Roncesvalles. Five cars, some with trailers, were idle. By actual count seventy-one persons were waiting at the corner to go north. One elderly gentleman, after waiting 45 minutes, decided to walk his five blocks up Roncesvalles. Naturally the service east was even worse as a result of cars being sent into the barns, sometimes three in a row.

One man waited an hour at Sorarens and Queen, at which corner at several other times during the day cars were held.

Another man who wanted to go west telephoned from Dundas and Queen that he had waited from 10.55 to 11.45 for a car.

Took Late Transfer Gladly.

Another phone message was to the effect that a man had got a transfer from a Bathurst car and had waited for the Queen car from 8.40 to 9.25. The Queen conductor took his transfer with a grin.

ed thereby Russian occupation of Teheran.

The Times in an editorial congratulates the Persian cabinet. It says the cabinet needed no little courage to follow so unpopular, if sensible, a course.

TEHERAN, Dec. 22.—The commission appointed by the national council to deal with the acceptance of the Russian ultimatum held a long session to-night, but it is reported that its members were unable to agree on the wording of the cabinet's draft of a reply to Russia.

It is stated in Russian official circles that while the Russian Government is sincerely desirous for an early withdrawal of its troops in Persia, it will be unable to pledge an evacuation immediately Persia complies with the terms of the ultimatum. Speculation is rife whether the cabinet will act without sanction. On its failure to do so the commission would assume dictatorial power.

Dr. Risk declared himself in favor of public ownership, but he said the projects which the city had undertaken had not been worked out properly. He also favored civic car lines and single fares, and thought the city debt should be watched more carefully. He would, he said, watch the civic undertakings under Judge Winchester, so that it would be seen that the work was properly done, and it would not be necessary to hold any more "farouca" investigations under Judge Winchester. He did not think such investigations had done any good.

Ald. Yeomans followed and he took exception to the last named statement of Dr. Risk. The investigation he had started into the filtration plant had done good, he asserted. He declared that the greatest problem before the city was the water supply. He was going to fight, if re-elected, to have the pure water basin at the filtration plant made water tight. He reviewed his past record.

Ald. Rowland also declared that the water question was the biggest one in eight years. He said the intake pipe should be inspected again soon. Also it should be extended. He also reviewed his work in the past, dwelling on his actions as chairman of the board of health.

Dr. Noble said that not enough attention was paid to the health of the rising generation. In the daily running of the schools, there were too many special teachers interrupting the lessons being given by the regular teachers, he said.

BRIDGE TENDERS UNFAIR

British Contractors Complain Bitterly of Late Government's Action.

LONDON, Eng., Dec. 22.—(C. A. P.)—The late Laurier Government came in for sharp criticism at the annual meeting of the Cleveland Bridge Engineering Company, which was the only British concern to tender for the construction of the railway road bridge over the St. Lawrence. After receipt of tenders, the managing director stated that divisions among the commissioners arose, resulting in the resignation of the chairman. The Canadian Government, accepted a tender of about $1,800,000 from a Canadian competitor.

For a railway bridge only, which didn't conform with the conditions of the specifications. The action of Laurier's government was called an outrage, as had other competitors taken liberties with the specifications a $1,800,000 bridge would not have been cheapest. Moreover for that amount they could have been provided with a cantilever bridge and approaches, also to carry two heavy railway tracks, two wagon roads and tramway lines. He didn't think behavior of this sort would commensurate itself to a commercial community like Great Britain, which directly and indirectly had found some $400,000,000 for Canadian development. That the rules and ethics which govern honorable men in private affairs might be ignored in public affairs seemed to have been the views of members of the late government, not as a matter of immorality, but of indifference.

WARD TWO ALDERMEN.

Charles Abner Risk, dentist, 268 Yonge-st., by James J. Brown and Charles Meach.

Robert Maxwell Yeomans, contractor, 19 Fairview-boulevard, by Emerson Costworth and Thos. Greer.

Henry Adams Rowland, druggist, 236 Gerrard-st., by Chas. Meach and Thos. Greer.

William Alexander Douglass, 220 Wilton-ave., by E. H. Randall and A. Boustead.

John O'Neill, manufacturer, 184 Wilton-ave., by James Greer and Hector McLean.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

John Noble, physician, 219 Carlton-st., by James J. Brown and W. J. Calgey.

Edward Honan Randall, commercial traveler, 25 Cab-st., by John Wickert and Hector McLean.

Above is the list of names of those nominated in ward two at the meeting held in Winchester-st. school, corner Winchester and Ontario-sts., last night. The candidates above named spoke and were followed by Ald. McCarthy, candidate for the board of control, and Controller Chisholm. John Mills was in the chair. Mayor Geary was present.

That the electors, some 100 in number, assembled there were in favor of the Board-st. viaduct, etc., was shown on more than one occasion.

"Every person, I hope, is in favor of the viaduct," said Dr. Risk, and the remark was followed by loud cries of "Yes, yes."

Ald. McCarthy also struck home with the statement that if one drew a ring around the Board-st. viaduct and the Danforth car line and single fares, and thought the city debt should be watched more carefully. He would, he said, watch the civic undertakings under Judge Winchester, so that it would be seen that the work was properly done, and it would not be necessary to hold any more "farouca" investigations under Judge Winchester. CHANGE IN REGAL FORCES.

A severe attack of "western fever" is responsible for the return of Ben S. Bingham to the Pacific Coast as district manager for the Regal Motor Car Company of Detroit, Michigan. For two years Mr. Bingham was the sales representative for this well known motor-car concern, in California, Washington and Oregon, but recently he was recalled by General Sales Manager F. L. Pierce of the Regal organization, to take charge of an extremely important eastern territory, viz., Western New York and Northern Pennsylvania.

For the short period of sixty days he was kept busy signing up contracts in this eastern district, when at the end of this time he was advised that a change was to be made in the management of the Pacific Coast territory, Bingham, who had become a firm believer in western progress and western humanity in his former business life on the Coast, immediately requested that he be favored with his old position again. Being near the good old Yule-tide season, the officials of the Regal Motor Car Company decided to present as their Christmas offering to Bingham a re-appointment as district manager along the Pacific seaboard territory and as a result his familiar figure will once again be seen moving along in all automobile trade circles from San Diego to Seattle.

TRUCK TIRES.

One of the largest and most exacting users of motor trucks in New York is the American Express Company. It maintains a garage famous thruout the country for its completeness; and maintains carefully kept records and data on truck and tire service. This company is now equipping nearly all its trucks with Swinhardt tires, and has specified Swinhardt on the following newly ordered trucks: Forty-two-ton Baker electric, five three-ton Studebaker electric, five two-ton General Vehicle electric, five three-ton Peerless and five three-ton Alfa gasoline trucks. This decision was arrived at after careful comparative tests, which showed them most satisfactory results from Swinhardt.

The American Express Company has had actual service experience with Swinhardt tires for some time, having used the non-skid pneumatic on the 76 taxicabs it operates in New York City, and claims to have received most satisfactory service from Swinhardt pneumatic and solid tires than from any other make.

CHICAGO WANTS THE '16 OLYMPIC GAMES

Determined Effort To Be Made and New Stadium is Promised—The Outlook.

CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—Everett C. Brown, former president of the National Amateur Athletic Union and leader in athletics at the U. S. A., is going to make a determined effort to bring the Olympic games of 1916 to Chicago. Mr. Brown, now chief executive of the Western A. A. U., said: "Chicago should have the Olympic contests in 1916, and I shall do all in my power to bring them here. The new stadium to be built on the lake front, where track and field games may be held; and the big lagoon for swimming and rowing; will make Chicago an ideal place for the games."

Cleveland Club Training Dates

CLEVELAND, Dec. 22.—The Cleveland Club announces its training trip dates. The batteries will leave Cleveland March 2, arriving at Mobile the following night, and starting to work March 4. The remainder of the team will leave a week later and remain at Mobile until the night of March 17, when the entire squad will move on to New Orleans, staying there until April 5. At least four Saturday and Sunday games will be played at New Orleans, while other week-day contests will be arranged upon the arrival of the Naps in that city.

There is a chance that the American League season will start early. In the case of the Cleveland club, the season will be curtailed, and the Columbus and Springfield clubs will be out of the league. The schedule is as follows: The entire squad at Mobile from March 9 to 15 inclusive. First squad—March 16, at Mobile; 17, at New Orleans; 18, at New Orleans; 19, at New Orleans; 20, at New Orleans; 21, at New Orleans; 22, at New Orleans; 23, at New Orleans; 24, at New Orleans; 25, at New Orleans; 26, at New Orleans; 27, at New Orleans; 28, at New Orleans; 29, at New Orleans; 30, at New Orleans; 31, at New Orleans.

MANSELL WILL APPEAR.

The case of Ford A. Mansell, who was convicted of false pretences in the court of general sessions Thursday, will be appealed by his attorney, John MacGregor, on the grounds that the two charges of conspiracy and false pretences should have been tried separately. Mansell's bail of $5000 has been renewed.

COMPANY STAFF.

J. M. Macdonnell, late of the firm of Davidson & Macdonnell, barristers, of this city, has been appointed trust officer of the National Trust Company, and will have charge of that company's trust mortgage department. The other changes in the staff, consequent upon the recent retirement of Hon. W. T. White as general manager of the company and the appointment of W. E. Fundle to that position, are as follows: R. Home Smith, manager of the Toronto office; J. C. Breckenridge, assistant manager; Edwin Cassidy, secretary; William M. O'Connor, manager estates department; F. B. Poucher, manager real estate department.

Eddie Sutherland Wins the Diamond With a 632 Score

Eddie Sutherland added another victory to his string when he won the diamond hung up by Manager Hartman of the Brunswick alleys. Eddie was in form, and, after getting off to a bad start, he finished up with the good total of 632. The competition was run off under tournament rules, and loaded balls were barred, while every man had to roll his frames out.

D. King dropped out, and Andy Sutherland took his place. Andy finished second. Harry Phelan dropped out after the first game. The scores: E. Sutherland 181 216 236-632; A. Sutherland 175 212 193-580; F. Harris 182 181 182-545; Martine 179 178 181-538; Slean 186 188 184-658; Fomlin 180 177 141-508; McMillan 181 164 182-507; Atkins 180 182 184-547; Moffatt 186 188 202-576; Phelan 188 ... -163.

LIQUOR ROW IN STE. AGATHE.

MONTREAL, Dec. 22.—(Can. Press.)—A large force of detectives, acting under the direction of the provincial authorities, swooped down on the little village of Ste. Agathe des Monts, in the Laurentian mountains, to-day, and raided several houses where liquor was being sold, confiscating some $2000 worth of intoxicating drink. The detectives were followed to the train by a large and hostile crowd, and one man threatened them with a revolver. They promptly arrested him and brought him to Montreal.

SELF-STARTERS.

"Doc, what's good for a lame back?" "Doc, fix me up some more of that 'unliment' that you gave me last time I sprained my wrist." These are two phrases which became hackneyed as the result of frequent mishaps in cranking automobiles, and are going to be laid away in the mothballs for all time, according to Geo. D. Wilson, sales manager of the Warren Motor Car Company. "The self-starter is the real goods for medium-priced cars," says Mr. Wilson. "Of course, it doesn't matter so much how the very expensive cars are started, because in nine cases out of ten there is a chauffeur to do the starting and the owners aren't over solicitous about the chauffeur's back or wrist." "But the man who drives his own car, as practically all owners of cars are, as selling under $2000 do, has a lot to be thankful for in the self-starter." "Until the Warren settled the self-starter question, I didn't realize what a blessing the self-starter was. But I realized it the other day when a Physicist told me that ruptures were brought on often by the strains of cranking an automobile than by any other agency."

THINKS IT A GOOD IDEA.

Dr. J. W. S. McCullough, provincial medical health officer, thinks the suggestion regarding the appointment of district medical health officers is a good one. Not having had anything to do with the suggestion, however, Dr. McCullough could not express any opinion of the project until something more definite is known. Vice-General of Pembroke. PEMBROKE, Dec. 22.—An appointment of much importance to the diocese of Pembroke was announced officially by His Lordship Bishop Lorraine, who has named Rev. F. T. UNITED STATES INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION.

In its twenty-fifth annual report submitted to congress on Wednesday, the interstate commerce commission of the United States deprecates the action of the commerce court in the matter of western freight rates.

THE GLOBE AND THE STREET RAILWAY.

The Globe is very keen on having the street railway get a share of the business on the new city car lines. It can defeat the tubes and the Bloor-street viaduct, it is possible that the Street Railway Company may get all the business and pack the passengers in as usual in half as many cars as are needed.

WATCH TORONTO GROW.

Toronto people are making progress. The Evening Telegram thinks that the east end must come to its own and it sees the way thru Ashbridge's Bay. Why has the city council not handed the property over to the harbor commissioners yet?

MR. SINCLAIR AND THE VIADUCT.

Yesterday The World, on the principle of giving all sides a hearing, published a letter from Mr. Angus Sinclair, giving his views on the Bloor-street viaduct. It is almost needless to say that we do not agree with those views.

THE CADET MOVEMENT.

No one who keeps in touch with the progress of modern thought will quarrel with the minister of militia in his attempt to make a certain amount of military training easily accessible to every Canadian boy.

every Canadian boy. Canada is rapidly preparing herself to take a leading place among nations, but to do this, and also to help in the preservation of international peace, it is essential that she should have an efficient system of home defence.

But utterly apart from this aspect of national safety, the cadet movement presents another side which in itself should be sufficient to gain the support of every citizen who has the welfare of the Canadian boy at heart.

Best of all, to quote Inspector Jas. L. Hughes, "he is made conscious of his relation to the state," an absolute essential to the success of popular government. Once a boy has realized that he is an active unit in a great nation, and that upon him and upon his fellows rests the future of that nation, he is much more likely to become a good citizen.

The unlighted few who oppose the cadet movement and military training in general, are rapidly decreasing in numbers. H. G. Wells is the greatest socialist and the greatest humanitarian in England to-day, yet in his recent books he speaks very highly of the boy scout movement and of the improvement it is working among the boys of England.

The absurd cant to the effect that we are "brutalizing our boys" is rapidly being discredited. The claim that proper drill and instruction in handling of a rifle makes men more bloodthirsty is too foolish to receive support from any but the extremely fanatical.

The Government of Australia, easily the most advanced and socialistic of the modern world, has made the cadet system an important part of the national life, and in doing so, it has received the heartiest support of the Australian people.

The World does not believe in extreme militarism, nor do we uphold war, but since it has been proved that military training makes better citizens, then by all means let the people of Canada give the minister of militia their full support in his efforts to secure a more progressive cadet system for this country.

THE MERCHANTS' BANK OF CANADA.

Elsewhere in this issue of The World will be found the report of the directors of The Merchants' Bank of Canada, submitted at the forty-eighth annual meeting of the shareholders, held on 20th December. It discloses another prosperous year's trading, the net profits after making full provision for all doubtful debts, amounting to $1,173,581.03.

ronto in future must live almost entirely outside the present residence area. There is only room for about three years more of growth in the present city limits. Even if there were room for seven years or for ten years' growth, should no preparation be made for the future? Can we look no farther ahead than to-morrow? Do we prefer slums or the risk of slums—Dr. Hastings says it is slums without doubt—do we want to encourage slums when every motive of good sense and reason turns against it?

Mr. Sinclair thinks we abandon facts for theory on the Bloor-street viaduct question. So far we have the facts with us. But Mr. Sinclair says that a straight line viaduct is not desirable. The Globe once said that it was only a whim to make a street straight. "That is pure theory and not common sense," we reply, quoting Mr. Sinclair. No great bridges have been built anywhere that are not straight, and Mr. Sinclair's plan of a botched-up viaduct has been rejected by the practical engineers on the spot.

The straight viaduct is recommended because it saves time, because it accommodates a larger territory, because it provides the city with the only thoroughfare it will have from east to west, thus cutting five miles off the journey from Kingston to Hamilton, because it opens up a whole new residential district north of Danforth-avenue, where the city car lines are to provide transport. These are not theories. They are facts.

Mr. Sinclair's botched-up plan which the people are having held up to them is only a red herring scheme. When a man wants to go from Spadina to Yonge on Queen-street he does not want to go round by King-street to do it. It is almost as short, say the advocates of Mr. Sinclair's plan. Just a little out of your way. But does any sane man prefer to go down by King-street every time he wants to go from Spadina to Yonge-street along Queen? It would be "pure theory, not common sense," if he did.

The opposition to the viaduct is based on the theory, that it is shorter to go several miles out of your way than to go direct. Without the viaduct you must take a street car down Broadview-avenue. With a viaduct you might take a Danforth-avenus street car, but it would not be the railway company's. It would be your own car on the city's own lines. So the street car people are strenuous in opposition to the viaduct. It is not needed, they say, for ten years yet. That is, until the franchise expires. The people think differently, however.

As to the extra cost, it is partly due to the delay and the increased value of land, and partly to the change from steel to concrete in the building material. The actual cost will be so much anything greater, as a steel viaduct costs a great deal annually to keep in repair and to paint, while the concrete costs nothing. In the long run the concrete viaduct will be the cheaper. It will not be noisy, as steel would. And it will be a beautiful structure, and an ornament to the city. The city engineer's plans are reasonable and economical, and we believe the people will vote for this necessary improvement.

Allan, John Wanless, jr., 19 Spadina road, jeweler, nominated by Thomas Wylie and Trevor Ferguson, and James D. Allan.

George Weston, 124 Peter street, biscuit manufacturer, nominated by W. H. Smith and Harry Lovelock.

John Shayne, 353 Bathurst street, journalist, nominated by Albert Humphrey and Thomas A. Owen.

BOARD OF EDUCATION. Robert Rhys Dakens, Fairbairn, 633 Huron street, manufacturer, nominated by George McMurrick and James D. Allan.

William Henry Smith, 286 Queen street, merchant, nominated by Thomas Wylie and Albert Welch.

The above nominations were received by Restructuring Officer David W. Clarke at the Ward Four nomination meeting held in Broadway Hall last night.

Sharp at 8:30 the nominations were declared closed, and 350 men prepared to judge the speeches of the candidates.

Alderman George McMurrick was the first speaker. A voice from the audience informed him that he had promised not to run again this year.

Mr. McMurrick gave a resume of the work of the city council during the past year. He was not, he said, in favor of the annexation of North Toronto under the terms of the act.

He advocated that the city's income in a sinking fund to be used to pay for the street railway.

Wellington Olen McTaggart, 102 De-awards-avenue, estate agent, nominated by William Bush and W. J. Conron.

Half-hearted endorsement of the tube and other bylaws now before the electors, marked the speeches of most of the aldermanic candidates at the Ward Five nomination in Givens-street School last night.

One of the most positive speakers in the whole list of aldermanic candidates was David Clarke, a new-comer, who afterwards unfortunately withdrew from the race.

He took the view of the optimistic, that the bylaws would pile up the city debt, he said.

These bylaws were for improvements that were needed for a city that was fast approaching the 13 years of its present rate of progress.

He also thought it would be better to let the Bloor-street viaduct alone for some time yet, claiming that was the cost would not be any more at the present time.

FOSTER IN MIDWAY

Holds Good Meeting—Talks of Water-works.

Delmar's last night, at an enthusiastic meeting in support of Thos. Foster's candidature for the board of control.

McEwan Neil president of Rhodes-ave. Ratepayers' Association, was chairman.

Speeches were made by Jos. Gillespie, H. C. Wilson, W. S. G. Tidman and Ex-Controller Foster.

Mr. Foster spoke vigorously in favor of a reorganization of the waterworks department.

ONLY ONE WILL BE LEFT IN WARD THREE

Alex. C. Lewis Gets Seat on the Board of Education by Acclamation.

WARD THREE ALDERMEN.

Samuel McBride, wholesale lumber merchant, 351 Palmerston-boulevard, nominated by Noel Marshall and G. A. Case.

C. Alfred Maguire, insurance broker, 74 Oriole-road, nominated by Alexander C. Lewis and James W. Stanbury.

Marmaduke Rawlinson, warehouseman, 22 Maple-ave, nominated by G. B. Cook and A. Allen.

Abraham Scher, gentleman, 137 Borden-st., nominated by T. W. Posternack and James Merker.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Alexander C. Lewis, journalist, nominated by C. Alfred Maguire and Marmaduke Rawlinson (by acclamation).

Four men only are in the fight for aldermanic honors in ward three. W. F. Bryans, W. J. Trounce, Louis Gurofski and John Kirk dropped out after their names had been handed to the returning officer, William Lee.

John Kirk thought he had run out enough. W. F. Bryans intended to run, but at the last moment decided otherwise.

W. J. Trounce was not present, and was therefore considered among those who had resigned.

Alexander C. Lewis was the only one nominated for the office of school trustee for ward three, and was therefore proclaimed elected by acclamation.

Candidate Scher proclaimed himself as being out for pure honest government, a proper and adequate isolation hospital, a proper inspection of all meats and milk.

In conclusion he said he "would do the best he could for all, no matter what nationality."

What are you running for then? came from the audience.

"I'm not running, it's the explanation."

Controller Church in no cold manner requested the people to make sure of the passing of the hydro and viaduct bylaws.

He also had a good word for the tubes and added that in the meantime Toronto must have an adequate railway board, which will see to it that what was a better car service.

The mayor had a good word for Aldermen Maguire and McBride and Mr. Rawlinson. He touched only upon one bylaw and that was the hydro-electric.

He wanted to be sure that the people did not think that the extra two millions of dollars was on account of miscalculation, but to cover new territory.

He said that the original plans were for lighting only 280 miles of streets, but that Toronto has now expanded and that it has now 410 miles of streets to light.

Lets People Do Thinking. Samuel McBride failed to touch upon any of the bylaws. He wanted the people to think about them for themselves.

He said he had been before the electors of Ward Three for four years and that he wanted to be re-elected on what he had accomplished.

Ald. Marmaduke Rawlinson hopes to see better water supplied to Toronto and amongst a multitude of other things, has hopes to see the ugly poles removed from Yonge-street.

Alderman Maguire was also one who wanted to be sent back to the council on the merits of his work.

Pastor Dropped Dead. GALT, Dec. 22.—(Special).—Rev. Dr. Carruthers, pastor of the Preston Methodist Church, dropped dead just after arising from bed this morning.

Deceased was appointed to Preston last June, was a brilliant preacher and highly popular. He leaves a widow and three children.

Women Owe Dr. Stowe-Gullen Debt of Gratitude

During the recent visit of Mrs. Fankhurst the interest of the presence of the English leader of the suffrage movement somewhat eclipsed the interest in matters connected with the local suffrage organization.
At the banquet given to Mrs. Fankhurst the chair was taken for the first time by Miss Flora McDonald Denison, on the occasion of her elevation to the presidency of the Canadian Suffrage Association, in succession to Dr. Augusta Stowe-Gullen. Both these ladies have devoted much time and energy to the cause of human enlightenment, and their labors in the cause of women have been arduous and self-sacrificing. The following address, presented to the retiring president, is an earnest of the general appreciation in which she is held:

"To Augusta Stowe-Gullen, M.D., Honorary President Canadian Suffrage Association:
The officers of the Canadian Suffrage Association have the honor to present to you this testimonial in appreciation of your many years of service in the cause of the emancipation of women. The fact that your illustrious mother, Dr. Emily Howard Stowe, started you on a career of public service does not detract from the credit due to you in standing and working for the many reforms destined to benefit not only women, but the race. Pioneer in Medicine.
"Taking as you did, the first medical degree granted to a woman in Canada, you stood all the ostracism and indignities that an unthinking and ignorant male student body could heap upon you; but before another woman took the same course you had so changed the feeling against women students that no other woman has to undergo the unpleasant experiences. Wherefore every medical woman in the Dominion of Canada to-day owes to you a debt of gratitude.
"Not only are you the pioneer in medicine, but we find you one of the first women to serve on the school board of the City of Toronto, and here you rendered a great public service; on hospital staffs and hospital boards you worked untiringly. We may be pardoned, however, if we consider your greatest achievement has been your work for woman suffrage; you often stood alone in meeting and committee; public opinion and sympathy were not with you; 23 years ago you joined the council of women and always stood for the fundamental basic reform of political equality; you were bitterly opposed, but one by one, associations making up the council declared themselves in favor of woman suffrage, till last year a resolution was passed, and to-day the National Council of Women of Canada stands for this reform, due undoubtedly to your years of arduous work.
"Hopes Will Soon Be Fulfilled.
"You began your career by being ridiculed, criticized, and ostracized, but to-day you are honored by having been unanimously elected to serve on the senate of Toronto University. The women of the Dominion of Canada owe much to you, the cause you stand for has passed its days of ridicule, country after country has adopted its tenets, and with public opinion so manifestly in its favor, you will have the joy of seeing your hopes fulfilled in your own province in the very near future.
"As honorary president of the Canadian Suffrage Association, your colleagues trust that you will still be their guide and inspiration. The you have, we regret, resigned from being our president, we believe that this only means that you will devote yourself to public propaganda work for woman suffrage, unhampered by the tiring details of organization work; our love and respect, our admiration and devotion are yours in all sincerity.
"(Signed) Flora M.D. Denison (president), Margaret Gordon, M.D., Margaret Johnston, Margaret McAlpine, H. Munroe, J. S. Wood, Ada Mareau Hughes."

GEARY GETS THIRD TERM BY ACCLAMATION

There'll Be No Heartrending Struggle With R. B. Noble—Eight For Controllers.

MAYOR BY ACCLAMATION.
GEORGE REGINALD GEARY, barrister-at-law, by W. K. McNaught, M.A.A., and Harry Lovelock.
BOARD OF CONTROL.
H. C. HOCKEN, journalist, by Thos. W. Self and Frank Somers.
THOMAS L. CHURCH, barrister-at-law, by Emerson Gostavov and Frank Somers.
J. O. MCCARTHY, insurance manager, by Rev. Alex. McMillan and Albert Welch.
F. S. SPENCE, journalist, by Miles Vokes and Albert Welch.
GEORGE R. SWEENEY, barrister-at-law, by Ambrose Kent and Harry Lovelock.
J. G. O'DONOGHUE, barrister-at-law, by Aubrey A. Bond and H. B. Woodrow.
J. A. WARD, merchant, by Lionel H. Clarke and Joseph Gibbons.
THOMAS FOSTER, gentleman, by Peter B. Whitlock and R. H. Graham.

When the nominations for mayoralty and board of control closed at the city hall yesterday morning at 11 o'clock George Reginald Geary became chief magistrate for Toronto by acclamation.

Next year will be Mayor Geary's third term, and never in the life of this city has any one been declared mayor for the third time by acclamation.

The nomination process was a rather dreary one. At 10 o'clock when the nomination booth opened in the garret-like room at the top of the hall, there was hardly any one around save City Clerk Littlejohn and Deputy Clerk Sanderson, who were there to take the nominations.

Fifteen minutes later Thomas Church sauntered in, but soon departed in search of some warmer climate, and where silence was not quite so pronounced. Ten minutes more elapsed and Controller Hocken was nominated by T. W. Self and seconded by Frank Somers. The rest of the candidates soon followed, and at a quarter to eleven His Worship the Mayor came in and was nominated by W. K. McNaught and seconded by Harry Lovelock, and when Big Ben tolled out the hour of 11 his election was proclaimed by acclamation.

Mayor Geary proceeded to make a short speech and in doing so urged upon the people the advisability of voting for the hydro-electric bylaw. He showed that it would be well invested money just as the money already invested in that department is.

He wished to see the hand of every citizen and wish him a merry Christmas and a happy and prosperous New Year.
Controller Hocken made no promises. He asked for re-election on the merits of what he has already accomplished and not on promises to be carried out away on in the future. Speaking of the waterworks department, he declared that the company would install in two tiers and put on a better system just as the Toronto Electric Light Company has done with its electric current.

Controller Church was out against the works department and declared that it was only a whitewash. He believed also that it could have averted the "Intake" trouble encountered a year ago. He also wanted a new system of taxation, and was bitter against the idea of closing York-street at "Front-street."

J. O. McCarthy said he either had to get into things deeper or else get out and therefore he is running for the board of control. He wants to have the waterworks department changed in some way, so that the fifty per cent. of water now running to waste will be saved or not pumped. He is in favor of the creation of a public utility commission, which shall be elected in the same manner as the city council. He spoke at some length on the city's health and declared that health comes first and that health cannot be secured without pure food and he would therefore pay close attention to the food which is sold in our city.

F. S. Spence was very brief, and after saying a few words on the hydro commission and the street railway problem, adding that he felt that the tubes were already beaten, he sat down.

R. B. Noble, who had been expected to have the honor of opposing Mayor Geary, could not get anyone to second him. He, therefore, is not in the field.

George Sweeney was brief in the full sense of the word, merely saying "look up my record."

J. G. O'Donoghue declared himself in favor of the Board-street viaduct, the hydro extension and the improvement of Ashbridge's Bay. He said that no titles commission would know more about the requirements of the workmen than himself.

Controller Ward reviewed his work of fifteen years, and closed by saying "my work of the future will be guaranteed by my record in the past."

Thomas Foster said he would reorganize the works department and decrease the method of paying taxes at the city hall as barbarous.

William Dunlop Robbins, secretary Railway Employees' Union, 536 Queen street, by James Stevenson and Jas. Leonard.

FOR BOARD OF EDUCATION.
Leon E. Worthall, barber's business agent, 20 Waverley road, by W. J. Storey, Caroline avenue, and James Stevenson.
James W. Jackson, traveler, 128 Edgewood avenue, by Rev. W. Baynes Reed and W. R. Walters.

Ward One held the best-attended nomination meeting in the city last night, according to Controller Church, and he visited them all. The R.C.B.C. Hall, Broadview avenue, had its seating capacity overtaxed, and scores of electors manifested their interest in civic affairs by standing through the meeting. Twelve of the thirteen candidates nominated at the meeting were present. Mr. Leroy was unavoidably absent. T. L. Chubb's advent at the closing period kept the total list of speakers up to the significant number, 13.

Full of good-will, but orderly throughout was the meeting under Returning Officer D. Walton's chairmanship. One member of the audience put some light into his headlight. Trustee Jackson for voting to maintain L. S. Leves in the chairmanship of the board of education, but the matter was ruled out.

W. D. Robbins, the first speaker, said that after ten years' service as secretary of the Railway Employees' Union he was making his first public speech and first request for election to public office. He considered it of the greatest importance to Ward 1 that the Board street viaduct, Danforth avenue, and the hydro-electric bylaws should be adopted.

Leon Worthall appealed for election to the board of education because he considered the present trustees spent too much time in personalities.

The Retort Typical.
S. E. Fieldhouse was asked: "Why didn't you clean your shoes?"
"So that I could show you how much mud we have to come thru," he replied.

Trustee J. V. Jackson said the eastern portion of the city would have a school with the largest hall he knew of.
Chas. Doughty expressed thanks for his substantial vote last year. He replied to a questioner by saying that it was perfectly true that he was a candidate for the position of sanitary inspector under the health act.

DEATH AFTER OPERATION
Five Arrests Follow Discovery of Woman's Mutilated Body.

BOSTON, Dec. 22.—(Can. Press.)—Five persons were taken into custody after the discovery by the police today of the partly dismembered body of Miss Mary Boldus, aged 22 years, of Manchester, N. H., in the apartment of Mrs. Jennie A. Shattuck, in the Forest Hill section of Jamaica Plain. The discovery of the body followed the receipt of word from New Hampshire City authorities that they had been informed by a Manchester physician that a woman lay dead in that house. Medical Examiner Leary, after performing a superficial autopsy, announced that death was due to an illegal operation.
Within a few hours of the finding of the body Mrs. Shattuck and Miss Hattie M. Hazlett of Cambridge were taken into custody at the Forest Hill Apartment, and Dr. John D. Ferguson of Manchester, a clerk in his office, Miss O'Neill, were detained by the New Hampshire police at the request of the Boston officers.
This evening the police of Pittsburgh arrested Anna W. Reed, aged 50, and looked her on the charge of murder in connection with the death of Miss Boldus. She gave her occupation as a dressmaker and lodging-house keeper in Boston.

DR. ELMORE HARRIS MEMORIAL

Service Sunday and Special Services Wednesday Evening.

A memorial service will be held at the Walmers-road Baptist Church, Sunday morning, at 11 o'clock, in memory of the late Dr. Elmore Harris. The sermon will be preached by Rev. Jno. McNeill. A general memorial service will also be held on Wednesday evening, in the Walmers-road church, in which all Baptist churches of the city will participate. The ministers are requested to withdraw their Wednesday evening prayer meeting and share in this service with their congregations. The Wednesday evening service will be held at 8 o'clock.

Toronto Man Cured of Intolerable Itch

Mr. J. E. Hooper, Toronto.

By Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. "I just want to say a good word for Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Four or five years ago I was in York, Ontario, and had an attack of the itch. It certainly was an intolerable nuisance. The itching was principally at night before I went to bed. The thighs were especially affected. I went to two doctors about it, and tried more than one remedy. I was beginning to think the complaint was incurable, when I was told by a friend to try Cuticura. I bought a box of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and used it as directed. After one week the itching had completely disappeared. I had probably been troubled with the itch for two or three months before I tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and they completely cured me of that intolerable nuisance. After one week with Cuticura Soap and use of the Cuticura Ointment I was never troubled with the itching again. Anything in this testimonial I would be prepared to swear to in a court of law." (Signed) J. E. Hooper, 208 Parliament Street, Toronto, Jan. 10, 1911.

For more than a generation Cuticura Soap and Ointment have afforded the simplest, simplest and most economical treatment for skin and scalp humors. Sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. A liberal sample of each, with 32-page book, sent free to any address, by the Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., 62 Columbus Ave., Boston, U.S.A.

CANADA'S LOYALTY.

We may be Tories or we may be Grits. Yielding, at times, to passion's thoughtless fits; When duty's call demands the sacrifice, Our differences scatter in a trice. In England's cause Canadian blood was shed; And history's page reveres its deathless dead. The past betokens what the future brings; To Britain's aid against foreign threatenings. Lovers of peace! unshin'd in arts or war; Yet are we ever British to the core; Cherishing well the heritage of birth Which gave us to us the fairest land on earth. We cannot boast of military might, Nor naval strength, but in the cause of right, The spirit which our fathers' battles won Supplies the need, when fighting must be done. While, tho' in peaceful paths we choose to move, As in the past, so shall the future prove. Tho' Canada, by virtue of her will, Remains the daughter of Britannia still. The healthy offspring of a hardy race, Vies with its kinsfolk for the chiefest place. In times of war! Why not in times of peace Contribute of our treasure and increase? Secure against attack from foreign foes, We live and prosper, but the debt still grows. The burden of protection's freely paid By Britain, while our future's being made. Should we not offer, from our golden store, To Britain's treasury to protect our shores? Or build a navy worthy of the name, And thus declare the loyalty we claim. —Brits Hereafter.

MAYOR BROWN GETS IT BY ACCLAMATION

N. Toronto Has Lively Nomination—Some Good Men in the Field—Doings Elsewhere.

NORTH TORONTO, Dec. 22.—(Special.)—Mud and slush, and fog and rain together, coupled with the attractions of the Christmas season and the cozy fireside failed to dampen to-night's nomination meeting, held in the town hall, and one of the best attended meetings in the history of the town was held. It was a representative meeting of all the best people in town, the men who take an interest in the town's progress and want to know, and very properly, how their money is being spent. It had a good deal of snap and go, and withal was good-natured and breezy. Clerk Norman received the nominations from 7.30 to 8.30 p.m., ten in all, and when he vacated the chair, the nominees were as follows: Mayor—J. Alonzo Brown, by James Peers and T. J. Madill. D. D. Reid, by Charles De Ferrari and William Irwin. Council—H. H. Ball, by James Logie and J. A. M. Innes. Duncan D. Reid, by James Logie and Chas. Adamson. Charles Adamson, by James Logie and William G. Ellis. Walter Munton, by James W. Brownlow and H. H. Ball. Wm. G. Lawrence, by A. W. Arnold and E. G. Powell. Richard L. Parker, by W. J. Douglas and S. W. Reynolds. Frank Howe, by James Peers and E. G. Law. John P. Patterson, by R. McQueen and H. H. Ball. Robert B. McQueen, by D. T. Palmer and Charles Spittell. School trustees—J. J. Davis, by Chas. Murphy and Chas. M. Hirschfeldt. B. D. Palmer, by R. B. McQueen and T. J. Madill. James Logie, by B. D. Palmer and Neil Auld. Mayor Brown got a fine reception and plumed at once into an exhaustive discussion of the general work of the year. He dealt with the inspection of the sewer work, the installation of the hydro-electric and touched on the annexation question, scoring the city council for delay in the matter. This he claimed, had delayed the general work of the town. The mayor referred to the installation of the free postal delivery and paid a graceful compliment to the member for South York, W. F. Maclean, M.P., in his untiring efforts to secure this boon.

At the church Rev. Father Bimouche was the celebrant. Rev. Father Tracy of Dixie in an eloquent address referred briefly to the great loss sustained by the church and village in the death of the late Mr. Teedy. His life was an inspiration to all and his kindly interest in everything that pertained to the betterment of the country would stand for all time as a monument to his worth. His long and honorable connection with the public service was referred to in eloquent terms. Beside the sanctuary, together with the brethren named, were Rev. Father McBrady and Father Meader. The choir of St. Basil's Novitiate of St. Clair-avenue were in charge of the musical services under the direction of Rev. Father Christian. The chief mourners were the two sons, Armand and Baldwin, and the daughters, Mrs. Mulcahey of Orillia of again and again, bore tribute to the warm place the ex-mayor occupies in the hearts of the people.

D. D. Reid, who got a fair reception, said the mayor had held everything back while he had been pushing them on; attacked the mayor's method of financing the town's business; dealt with the method of disposing of the sewerage question and said that D. D. Reid had refused to submit the sewer by-law in January, but council refused; said he was responsible for getting the rate dropped from 20 mills to 17.1-2; saved every man in town 2 1-2 mills. Frank Howe in the outset found fault with the time allotted to the mayoralty candidates; touched on the sewerage question and said that D. D. Reid had claimed credit for everything. He had favored the general rate instead of the local rate.

Dealing with the sewer question he claimed that the expenditure was well within the estimate of Engineer Murray, making satisfactory progress and would be practically completed by June 1, 1918. He quoted a lot of engineering figures as to the cost of improving Yonge-street. Richard L. Baker made his initial bow to a North Toronto gathering and got a reception which speaks well for his candidacy. Walter Munton, one of the solid business men of the town, during the past year the chairman of finance, spoke briefly, but what he said was good and to the point. W. J. Lawrence, as chairman of the parallel roads, dealt with the question of the proposed submission by a private company of a street railway system on Avenue-road and Mt. Pleasant-road. A private roadway on the town's streets" queried W. G. Ellis, in protest. H. H. Ball dealt briefly but clearly with the big question of water and favored the Lemonville scheme in general. Mr. Ball dealt with the financial aspect of this and other town projects and got a splendid hearing. did R. B. McQueen, also a candidate.

Large Attendance at Funeral of Late Mr. Matthew Teedy. RICHMOND HILL, Dec. 22.—(Special.)—The last rites in connection with the funeral of the late Matthew Teedy of this village, whose death occurred Tuesday evening, were held from the family residence, Main-st., here this morning, to St. Mary's Church, and later to the Roman Catholic cemetery at Thornhill. Especially large was the gathering of life-long friends and neighbors, business in the village being practically suspended during the forenoon. At the church Rev. Father Bimouche was the celebrant. Rev. Father Tracy of Dixie in an eloquent address referred briefly to the great loss sustained by the church and village in the death of the late Mr. Teedy. His life was an inspiration to all and his kindly interest in everything that pertained to the betterment of the country would stand for all time as a monument to his worth. A watch case no longer an unknown quantity

FORMERLY when you bought a watch, the case received trifling attention beyond the consideration of the decoration or monogram. That the case might or might not be worth the price paid for it was seldom considered. Naturally, errors of judgment were common when watch cases were bought on this uncertain basis. Now, since the American Watch Case Co. have started to advertise their product there is no longer any occasion for the watch buyer to be misled as to the quality of the case. If he will just take the precaution to look inside the case for the Winged Wheel trade mark, he will make sure of obtaining an article that is at once thoroughly honest in value and reliable in service. Gold Filled Cases bearing this mark contain more gold now than before the recent Canadian Stamping Act forbade the giving of a time guarantee. They are dustproof and warranted as to workmanship and construction and the makers at all times stand ready to make good any defects for which they are in any wise responsible.

GRIT AND GINGER WIN SUCCESS

A MAN OF STRENGTH A MAN AMONG MEN

Do you want to win success? Do you want to make your mark in the world? Do you want to live a life that others will emulate? If so, and you don't feel that you have the necessary Vigor, I can help you. Talked with a man who called on me the other day—a skilled mechanic; went to a technical school, graduated with highest honors; had the ability, but couldn't hold a position. Said he knew he had no disease, doctors had told him that, but had no AMBITION, no ENERGY, no GRIT. Knew he didn't want to take medicine. My remedy appealed to him; he bought it, and I'll make a Man of him; I'll put him in the ranks of the winners.

PAY ME WHEN CURED

The honors of this world—the successes in life—are not won by weaklings. The man who drags himself along with a weak back, a stomach that feels as though he had a chunk of lead in it, is the fellow who hesitates, who has no mind of his own, who leans upon others, and such a man is terribly handicapped in the strife. My Belt is a scientifically constructed Body Battery, and must not be confounded with anything heretofore sold as an Electric Belt. The most practical method of applying Electricity to the body that has ever been devised. My Belt is not a cure-all, but, as I can prove from statements of people who have used it, it is a positive and lasting cure for Indigestion (Dyspepsia), Constipation, Headache, Drowsiness, Rheumatism, Neuritis, Lumbago, Sciatica, Weakness of mental impairment and physical breakdown in Men and Women. Here I give you a sample of the kind of letters I receive every day by the score from people who have found health, strength and happiness through the use of my Belt— Dear Sir,—I wish to say that your Belt has done me more good than all the medicine I ever took. I used it every night for about three months, and since then I do not need it. I can sleep good, and feel as good as ever I did. I am only too pleased that I made up my mind to get your Belt. You have my permission to use this letter if you wish, as I will be only too pleased if it will help anyone to get a cure. JOHN HUNT, Davisville, Ont.

Christmas Offer To Toronto Churches

Appreciating the danger incurred by the use of lighted candles on Christmas trees in church festivals at this holiday season, and with the object of illustrating the safety and beauty of the modern methods of electrical Christmas tree decorations, we make the following offer:

To any church having a Christmas festival between December 21-31, using electric service, we will loan without charge a complete electrical Christmas tree lighting outfit, consisting of various colored miniature electric lights, for any tree, however large.

The only limitation to this offer is that owing to the demand for these sets by sale to our consumers for home use, the number of churches supplied can't exceed twenty, the first twenty applying for this service after the publication of this announcement, Thursday, December 21st, 1911.

All requests for this service must be addressed in writing to our Sales Department, and signed by an officer of the Church or Sunday School to be served.

THE SNOW. The snow is the holy garment God wraps around the earth. That his dream may remember how fair it looked at birth. That on its perfect beauty He may look unafraid—The snowdrops, hiding, The scars that man has made. Too Talkative. It was a beautiful evening and Ole, who had screwed up courage to take Mary for a ride, was carried away by the magic of the night. "Mary," he asked, "will you marry me?" "Yes, Ole," she answered softly. "Ole lapsed into silence that at last became painful to his fiancée. "Why," she said despondently, "why don't you say something?" "My tank," Ole replied, "they have too much said already."—Success Magazine.

Prof. Dr. Ehrlich's 606 Cures Blood Poison—Syphilis

Every man or woman suffering from blood poison, ought to know that this fatal disease—syphilis—can now be positively and permanently cured with the aid of the wonderful discovery made by the world-famous Professor of Medicine, Privy Councillor, Dr. Ehrlich, Vienna. Sufferer, the effect of blood poison creeps on like a thief in the night. As many a sufferer who has had symptoms was suddenly awakened a few years afterward to find himself stricken with the horrible after effects, such as Locomotor Ataxia, Heart Failure, Blindness, Gout, etc., etc., can you take this terrible chance? No one who has ever had blood poison should get married before taking "606" for although the symptoms have disappeared, they will surely reappear in later years. Your offspring will be affected. Trys of thousands of cases cured in Europe and America. The treatment recommended by the greatest medical authorities in the world. Articles concerning "606" appeared in the leading medical journals all over the world. They will be forwarded on request. The success of this most marvelous remedy depends almost wholly upon the manner in which it is administered. Don't allow yourself to be experimented upon, but call and consult me.

All communications strictly private.

PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS AT THE PRINCESS.

"Seven Days." "Seven Days" is to be presented by Messrs. Wagman & Kemper at the Princess Theatre. "Seven Days" stands for laughter, first last and all thru, so much laughter that people have said they wished the fun would let up so they could catch their breath. They really didn't wish anything of the sort, tho; they wouldn't have missed one minute of the excitement in the funniest play footlights ever shown upon. Popular prices at matinee Christmas Day and Wednesday. Evening seats at the show here Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Blanche Bates. It has been a long time since a star and a play have so happily united as Blanche Bates to "Nobody's Widow." To those who are intimately touch with the trend of things theatrical, the mention that David Belasco presents Miss Bates in this delicious comedy at the Princess Theatre, for three matinee performances, Friday and Saturday, Dec. 28, 29 and 30, with a matinee on Saturday, signifies the altogether too brief stay of an event of exceptional importance and merit.

AT THE GRAND. Fiske O'Hara in "Love's Young Dream" Fiske O'Hara, who is the best-ideal Irish romantic actor and singer, will be the attraction at the Grand Christmas week, presenting his new play "Love's Young Dream." It will be an event of more than ordinary interest, for the play which is from the pen of Theodore Burt Sayre, is without doubt the most romantic and delightful in which this young actor has yet been seen. During the week matinees will be given on Monday (Christmas Day), Tuesday (Boxing Day), Wednesday and Saturday.

GUS EDWARDS' SONG REVUE AT SHEA'S. At Shea's next week Gus Edwards' Song Revue will head the bill at Shea's Theatre. Ed. Co. in their great "scream" are presenting "The Wandering Billiken," and Frank Stafford & Co. in their novelty, "A Hunter's Game." These are the special attractions for the week. Included in the week's bill are Ruby Norton and Sammy Lee, Kate Watson, Strength Bros. and the Kinetograph.

AT THE STAR. Commencing Christmas matinee, "The Moulin Rouge" will hold forth at the Star, and will spring several clever surprises in the musical comedy line.

Symphony Orchestra. The Toronto Symphony Orchestra have engaged as soloist for their next concert on Monday, Miss Eva Mylott, the Australian contralto and soprano of Melba. This young artist was "discovered" by Melba and it was thru the influence of the great diva that Miss Mylott was sent to Europe to complete the perfection of an already wonderful voice. She has toured the world several times and appeared in Toronto about four years ago, always eliciting the same high praise for her extraordinary singing. As announced in the program of the last concert, the "Requiem" will be played by the orchestra. The numbers are Tchaikowsky, Symphony Pathétique; Wagner, Tannhauser Overture, and Grieg, Peer Gynt Suite.

Dr. Torrington's Program. Many enquiries have been received requesting to know why Dr. Torrington is not giving his usual Yuletide performance of the "Messiah." Some time ago, on account of the large drafts made on his time by the College of Music, the doctor decided that he would be his last season as an oratorical conductor, and concluded to give two performances on successive evenings, one of "Elijah" and the other of the "Messiah," and the dates chosen so as not to conflict with the performance of the little girl dancers, who will appear that night. Mr. Campbell has also secured Miss Barbara Foster, the well-known Scottish contralto; Mrs. Flora McVoy Craig, Toronto's favorite Scottish soprano, and Mr. Harold Jarvis, Canada's premier tenor. As Scotch folks have always a warm welcome for the little girl dancers, they will be on hand with Grand Pipe-major, George Murray, to pipe for them. The plan will be opened at Massey Hall on Wednesday morning next, and in order to accommodate downtown business people seats can also be reserved at Nordheimer's Music Store, King-street east.

Ernest Coulter's Lecture. Ernest Coulter, the clerk of the New York Children's Court (the world's largest) is booked to lecture on civic betterment at the New York Civic Lecture Hall on Jan. 8. Mr. Coulter has had a close personal view of the cases of more than 80,000 children who have been brought into the institution. "This unprecedented opportunity and his study of child and civic problems give him an authority on these subjects such as is possessed perhaps, by no other one lecturer.

Director of Music. Russell G. McLean has been appointed musical director of the Timothy Eaton Memorial Church.

Johnny Increases His Vocabulary. A teacher in one of our public schools has laboriously and exhaustively explaining to her pupils the meaning of the word income, told little Johnny to go to the blackboard, write a sentence containing the new word and read it aloud to the school. And Johnny, his freckled face fairly radiant with the pride of his newly-acquired knowledge, marched to the board, and after considerable musing, pronounced: "In come a cat."—National Monthly.

Why do not the cable despatches plainly tell the truth about the cause of the civil war in China? The cause—let us be perfectly accurate and only say the occasion of the uprising was the national feeling against the recent loans forced on the Chinese by the four powers—Great Britain, France, Germany and the United States—against the "selling of the country" to patriotic Chinese regard to foreign bond buyers.—World's Work.

THE WIDOW BIRD. "I fall to see how the name of 'widow bird' fits that citizen of South Africa." "In the first place, he is not of the right sex to be a widow. You would think that he should be able to find a mate in the meadows and raise a big family. He is a handsome bird and I am not surprised that he should be able to hypnotize a dozen or more females. I've heard of men just like him." The speaker stood in front of the cage in which were many small birds from various parts of the world. The widow bird is the size of a bunting, coal black, with a long tail. There is a collar of red feathers about the neck and patches of grey on the wings.—New York Sun.

EVERY TRAIN SWELLS CITY'S POPULATION

From Everywhere Visitors Arrive From Every Station - Clerks Heaped High With Work.

What promises to be the largest Christmas traffic in the history of the Union Station has already begun. The railroads have all increased their service with special trains and extra coaches. The transfer companies have every available wagon in use and their staffs have been increased. The mail handled at the station during this Christmas rush will exceed that of any previous year. Every section and every department of the depot is busy in an effort to keep the work up to date, but Christmas yet four days away, and the traffic will increase with every day.

As is usual this time of year the passenger traffic is largely incoming. Nearly all the trains were late yesterday, and the city's population was increased as every train arrived. In some cases the delay was so long that visiting visitors from all parts of the country. Yesterday the C.P.R. Winnipeg express arrived in two sections, one carrying 14 coaches and the other 12. They were followed a few minutes later by two sections of the G.T.R. Western Canada train, which came via Chicago. This gives an idea of the visitors coming from the western provinces.

To-day the passenger traffic will be much larger, owing to the fact that the fare and one third will begin on Saturday, the railroads are offering special fares, good until Tuesday, and the officials at the station anticipate that the traffic on that day will make a new record.

The express and transfer companies have been unusually busy this week, but their harvest is yet to come. The express companies have increased their staffs, and night and day shifts have been arranged in an effort to keep abreast with the business. Up to date the Christmas mail has been larger than ever. The eastern end of the station has the appearance of a rampant ant-hill, by the large stacks of mail bags. They have lost the limp empty appearance and most of them are chock full like a four bag. Thousands of packages varying in size and weight are handled and the clerks could give away many secrets if they would, as a large number of the parcels are small and the suspicion is that they are the usual tie or silk handkerchief.

Saturday will be the big day for the mail clerks. Many people will mail their presents then, expecting that they will be delivered on Christmas Day if addressed to a point in Ontario. This assumption is a bad one, and if followed will result in many disappointments. The Christmas mails are so large that it cannot be handled in the usual time, in spite of the increased staff engaged in the work.

C.P.R. EXTRA TRAIN SERVICE.

Owing to the heavy passenger travel account to the Christmas holiday, the Canadian Pacific Railway will arrange the following special train service on Dec. 23, in addition to the regular schedule: For the purpose of meeting all schedule trains sharp on time. No. 18 train, leaving 9 a.m. from the Union Depot for Peterborough, Ottawa, Montreal and intermediate stations. Standard equipment, parlor and dining cars, will leave sharp on time irrespective of connections from the west.

A second section of this train with standard equipment, parlor and dining cars, will leave Toronto for Ottawa, with Toronto at 9:25, making same schedule stops as the regular train. No. 19 train, leaving 11:30 a.m. from the Union Depot for Peterborough, Ottawa, Montreal and intermediate stations. Standard equipment, parlor and dining cars, will leave sharp on time irrespective of connections from the west.

An extra train will leave London at 8:30 p.m. for Toronto and intermediate points. No. 22, the regular train, following 20 minutes later, both trains making scheduled stops.

An extra train will leave North Parkdale Station at 5:20 p.m. for Orangeville, Shelburne, Hanover, Durham, Walkerton, Owen Sound and intermediate points. The regular train No. 707, due to leave Toronto Union Station at 5:10 p.m., will leave sharp on time for the same points.

No. 702, the regular train, scheduled to leave Toronto at 6:05 p.m. for Alliston and intermediate stations, will on this date run thru to Coldwater instead of stopping at Orillia as at present.

No. 759, the regular train for Hamilton, Welland, and Buffalo, will leave Toronto at 5:20 p.m., sharp but an extra train will leave at 5:30 p.m. for Hamilton.

An extra train will leave Hamilton for Toronto at 8:40 p.m. The regular train will leave Hamilton at 8:30 p.m. The above special train service will no doubt be greatly appreciated by the traveling public.

PRESIDENT ESTRADA DEAD.

GUAYACUIL, Dec. 22.—(Can. Press.)—Emilio Estrada, president of the Republic of Ecuador, died here at midnight.

President Estrada was elected to office on Jan. 11, 1911, and was inaugurated on Sept. 1.

President Estrada became ill in September and was sent to Quito. While there a plot to assassinate him was foisted, and a number of the would-be assassins captured. The attitude of Quito proved dangerous, and President Estrada returned here the latter part of last month.

HEAVY MAIL FROM OLD COUNTRY

Eight ton-loads of English mail arrived at the postoffice yesterday, brought over by the liners Philadelphia and Royal Edward. Altogether the mail amounted to 357 sacks.

When the British letter and parcel mail arrives on Saturday it will come as an avalanche of extra work for the postoffice, which is already taxed to its capacity owing to the fact that the local mail is very much larger than in former years.

BUILDING PERMITS

The records for the month of November, so far as they have been received, are disappointing, says The Financial Post. Several important cities, including Winnipeg, Saskatoon and Medicine Hat, Regina, Yorkton and Guelph, Brantford, Stratford, Berlin in the east, have failed thus far to furnish figures for the month, and it must be assumed that inclusion of these figures would turn the scale from the total loss of 30 per cent, which is shown in the following table. Fourteen of 22 cities show an actual decline, compared with the month of November last year, eight being in the eastern section and six in the western. The eastern cities in the aggregate, show a gain of 29 per cent, while the western cities show a loss of 9.6 per cent. Vancouver leads mostly responsible for the drop. Victoria leads last both in percentage of increase and actual figures of increase, Edmonton being in second place in percentage, but behind Fort William in actual amount.

THE ROMAN CATHOLIC VIEW.

Editor World: As a subscriber to The World for over twenty-five years I write to protest against the privilege your columns afford nearly every Monday morning to the ignorant and bigoted preachers who make a living by so-called preaching. Poor old Rome how she still survives the quixotic attacks of these ministers! I send you my warmest regards for the magnificent effort before the members of the Canadian Club recently. Not one of these well-paid preachers could deliver the same charming and instructive manner such a gathering of intelligent men.

It is a well known, but a lamentable fact that very few members of the different Protestant sects pay any attention to the preachers. If they form the acquaintance of an ordinary Catholic priest they find him far more interesting and honorable than they attach to those modern Pharisees who only make a living by talking. I know that the Christian Church, naturally kind, ministers many from a human standpoint do their best according to their light, but take the case of that Mr. C. O. Johnston, who by his latest tirade showed anything but the spirit of Christ in his last Sunday blow out against the no temper and other Roman tyrannies.

Let me quote a sentence of the reported words of this O'Johnston (is he Irish?) "By this I mean no sweeping denunciation of the Roman Church, but I do mean that the church must not assume any rights, powers or privileges which are not possessed by like by all other churches." Boss Johnston! What a silly little fellow! "No sweeping denunciation," I have rarely read a more sweeping ignorant denunciation of the Roman Church than this breathing raved about at the Queen-street Methodist meeting house on Sunday afternoon, the gods applauded. Good grounds for a call to some other city meeting house with probably a raise in salary. Hurrah for Johnston! Let him look to his laurels. Now, Mr. Editor, what does his prince of well-paid preachers know about Italy, Austria, Spain and Portugal? Judge us at home by our fruits, and we are not as good citizens in this country as the Johnstons, the Hinckes and others of such ilk? Have not we Catholic priests the respect and reverence of our people and of our good charitable liberal-minded Protestant friends? Have you to go to Europe for arguments to bolster up your cauldrons against the faith and morals of millions? I do not wish to follow this man in the many lying unchristian charges but his words do me more than will reach his hearers I beg of them not to believe him in his bishoprics against the Church of Christ.

I would advise him to procure a little catechism and if he is honest in seeking that truth he can soon answer all these worn-out objections, which I find he definitely flings us from his pulpit. Talk about cheek and impudence and wishing to have Father Vaughan in his audience. Why not let Prof. Jackson, Dr. Workman, Dr. Carman and see if he could reconcile their widely different opinions about important biblical questions? There are none so blind as those who will not see. Mr. Johnston with his bitter ignorance is too proud to learn that all his string of questions and objections have been answered time and time again. The world-wide war dream of his is going nowhere with more bitterness than in the conferences of the Methodist church. There is no use in arguing with a fellow who does not know the five-cent Catholic catechism. Simply do not believe him. Our Lord said to the forerunners of these modern hirelings, "If I speak the truth why do you not believe me?" The Catholic church asks the same question. If I have met and conversed with many ministers. Some of them nice amiable men, but as for reading or possessing a Catholic book in defence of the church's history I defy Mr. Johnston or any of his kind to produce to-day in his library any book that would show him our side of history or theology. There would be no story in replying to the varied topics this famous harangue contained. Suffice it to say that there is not one sentence in his unchristian fulminating pages to the worst of us, a defensible ground. He and Romanists that can be truthfully substantiated. I therefore protest against your affording your pages to the worst of us, a defensible ground. They do us no good, the few who would believe them are made more bigoted, the Catholics who read the stuff in The World are naturally angered when their most sacred beliefs and religious sentiments are outraged. You lose your friends and subscribers, so it profits no one.

WEB-FOOTED MEN. Editor World: When professionally engaged some years ago in Paterson, N.J., I was called to nurse a young man of about 30 years of age. A very sensitive person. He did not object to treatments and the numerous duties needed for typhoid fever and pneumonia, but he asked me "would not touch his feet." After telling him it was a part of the body that needed my care, he finally submitted, and then told me it was because he had been born with web-feet. The feet were beautifully shaped, and when the toes were together one would see no difference, but when separated, it was like a duck's foot. After the patient's recovery, I persuaded him to have an operation on the toes. He did, and the feet afterwards looked perfect, and his heart was made glad that typhoid fever brought about the relief of his web-feet.

GIRLS LEAP FROM BRIDGE THE DEAD, ANOTHER DYING

Frightened by Approach of Train, They Took Plunge of Twenty-five Feet.

BRANTFORD, Dec. 22.—(Can. Press.)—A shocking accident occurred at Cainsville, three miles from Brantford, last night, when Miss Jessie E. Gibson, 19 years old, was killed by jumping from the G. T. R. bridge to the T. H. & B. tracks twenty-five feet below when a train approached. Her companion, Miss Lena Irving, also jumped and received fractures to her hip, nose and jaw, and internal injuries which are thought to be fatal.

In company with a number of other young ladies they were on their way to an entertainment at the Cainsville Baptist Mission, and to save time, took a short cut across the railway bridge. When they reached the bridge they heard the Buffalo and Goderich passenger train approaching. The other girls ran quickly to the end of the bridge, but the Gibson and Irving girls were caught midway. Both were later found unconscious. Miss Gibson's head struck a rail and she died in a few hours. She was the daughter of Principal Gibson of Waterloo public school. Miss Irving's home is in Forestville.

The entire party consisted of seven young ladies and Rev. C. H. Emerson and others had a very narrow escape. The girls were all boarders at the Y. W. C. A. in Brantford. The public has no right on railway bridges, but, nevertheless, they do use them, and often of necessity. Every railway bridge should have a barrier walk alongside the track, and if it is a long one, a "refuge" in the centre. There is one rule, however, that every girl should know, and that is to get caught on a bridge, and that is to lie down on the edge of the bridge ties next the rail with the head in the direction the engine is traveling. Then there is little danger, except noise.

FATHER VAUGHAN'S GREETING.

To my dear Torontonians: Dear Friends,—Before leaving you and your fascinating city, in which I have felt so very much at home during the past strenuous month, let me send to you all, thru the columns of The World, England's season's greeting: "A Right Merry Christmas."

It is pleasant to be able to look back upon my visit to you in the same spirit as I looked forward to it, as to a season full of bright and sunny days, with God's dear blessing on every moment of it.

When I recall all the events that have gone to make up my sojourn in your midst, I scarcely know to what portion of your community I am most deeply indebted. To all persons of all creeds, all political parties, and to classes in every walk of life and in every social circle, I am held by a debt of gratitude, which nothing but Old England's Christmas-giving spirit can repay. I take back with me to the old country, stories of your loyalty to the throne, good for to hear, and I will tell the dear old motherland that, in a possible day to come, if she behaves well and lovingly to her daughter of destiny, Canada, she may expect from you a respectable old age pension!

Meanwhile, let the Dominion rally ever more closely to the flag, which, wherever it floats on the breeze, must be seen tomas high. Build up for us a race of Dreadnought men, far more needed by our empire to-day, than the most up-to-date fleet of Dreadnought battleships. Character! Yes, it is character, of which there is a plentiful lack, that our empire most of all wants to-day. The patriotic character can be grown on one kind of soil only, on the soil of religion. Always and everywhere patriotism is that rare rich bloom, which ripens into fruit on the soil of a heart, where the sunshine of religion rises never to set.

APPEALS FOR EARLY SHOPPING MOVEMENT. Over the signatures of Theodore Roosevelt, Jacob Riis, Jane Adams, Professor John Graham Brooks of Harvard University; Edward T. Durne, editor of The Survey, and others, an appeal is being sent to the general public to buy Christmas supplies early and thus aid the efforts of department stores in caring for the Christmas trade with the least friction on weariness. To department stores also an appeal is sent to impress upon their customers the wisdom and necessity of shopping early. This many department stores are doing. Yet many shoppers thoughtlessly defer purchases until the pressure on the merchants and puts an unnecessary strain on sales and delivery forces.

MAKING PALATABLE BREAD FROM ACCRNS. The Indians of the Sierra country have their own method of transforming the bitter kernel of the acorn into a kind of bread that is said to be extremely palatable, and the process has been described by a writer in an exchange, as follows: "They shucked and ground in the usual manner a large mass of acorn nut, and then they added water. Upon the mass so crushed bitterness they ladled the hot water till it was about the color and consistency of cream. Not a speck appeared.

SURFACE CARS UNABLE TO COPE WITH TRAFFIC

came along King, King, King, with only an occasional Belt Line coming in the line, but it was the King cars that the crowds were waiting for, particularly the eastbound ones, that run out over the Don. This was true despite the fact that the Belt Line cars serve a thickly populated section of the city, perhaps the most thickly populated section within the limits, while the King cars, running east, are supposed to serve a thinly settled section.

Anyone who watched those woezy horses leading the King cars last night must have known that many of them must have had long tramps to make thru the rain even when they had reached the point where the cars of to-day can do no more for them.

One weary laborer remarked as he left the car west of Greenwood avenue: "God send the viaduct and God send no more rain."

It is also to be considered that last night's crowd was greatly decreased by the rain, so that if the rain added to the discomfort in one way it may reduce the number by reducing the crowds to be handled.

"It's a rotten service, this," soliloquized a resident of "The Beaches," who related the following story: "Last night, that is, Thursday, I arrived at the corner of King and York-streets at about 6 o'clock, to get home as quickly as possible and after a wait of 30 minutes, I succeeded in boarding an already overcrowded car. All went fairly well until we reached Kingston-road, when I noticed the driver and conductor were holding a parley in the forward vestibule. The conductor told us we must disembark as the car had to go there. The passengers were obdurate, and I reminded the conductor that he had told me that the car was destined for Scarborough Beach. "So I thought it was," he answered. I told my fellow-passengers that we were considered as "dead" and it was up to us to prove to the contrary, with seats, and after a wait of about two minutes were taken on to Scarborough Beach."

On King-street East. With this experience in mind a member of "The World" set out on a journey eastward at 5.30 last night. At King and Yonge-streets at 5.30 he found King cars waiting, but they were not crowded, as each one moved off, packed to its fullest capacity, it still left a waiting crowd.

The pressure was the heaviest between Yonge and Sherbourne-streets, and at each successive stop the car went on leaving crowds of disappointed people standing in the rain. "This is horrid," said a busy blacksmith, "but it is not quite so bad as other nights."

"Something has happened?" queried his workmate. "I can see another car behind us."

"Do you know what I think?" said another. "I believe that Bob Fleming wants the city council to buy the system as it is going to be a good thing for the people on until they have to give up in despair."

This is some of the conversation heard by the reporter as he stood on the rear platform as the car bumped its way down to the beaches. Arrived at Kingston-road he found no cars turning there, all running east. The reason apparent was that all cars were loaded past capacity, even after leaving the Woodbine.

Northbound Crowd. The inadequate facilities of the Toronto Street railway for handling the crowds between 6 and 6 o'clock each evening were absolutely demonstrated at the intersection of Yonge and College-streets. The collection of waiting facilities is used advisedly, for certainly a great number of cars passed these points in the hour's time, in fact most of the cars in both directions followed one another in steady procession. But the crowds were too great even for the number of cars in the service.

As Yonge car 1268 came along last night every available inch of space was packed with rain-soaked, perspiring humanity. Women were hanging to the straps, their hats knocked to a dowdy angle, and wedged in tightly with the men. Tall people in the car had the mantle of their overcoats as the water from the rims of their hats would trickle in happy little rivulets down the necks and over the faces of their shorter brethren.

Charon's Ferry. The rear platform was a sight for the gods. It was loaded with a wet, shivering, shivering, shivering throng who were wedged against each other so tightly that the disconsolate and pained expression on each face reminded one of the department of the railway souls being ferried across the Stix by the grim boatman Charon.

Packed as the platform was, a couple of boys with their youthful love of dangerous places, had climbed on to the rear of the car where they hung precariously to a couple of rings which the life-saving department of the railway company had benevolently installed.

"Does the conductor allow people to ride on this ledge?" asked the reporter.

"Sure, there's room for another. Want to catch on?" replied one of the lads.

Next came an Avenue-road car crammed like its predecessor. The crowds, first of waiting in the rain, made a frantic rush for the car. The car managed to wedge in one or two more passengers by some miracle in floor economy, and then the car started with a string of men, women, children and two pet dogs stumbling along after it to get aboard. A woman slipped on the pavement, but picked herself up philosophically and brushed her skirts.

Hanging on Behind. Dupont car 513 followed, packed so badly that two more youngsters were observed hanging to their points of vantage on the rear of the platform, and grasping the slippery rings. The ledge on which the boys stood is only a few inches wide.

College car 496 also carried two more boys by its ring system. Four or five other cars along the line were similarly packed, but it is not possible to give an exact number of those who were hanging on behind.

RONCESVALLES AVE.—I have a few exclusive properties on this street, in houses, stores and vacant lots, at investment prices.

LAND BUYERS wanting a safe investment, need not look thousands of miles away, but in the country, and pay extravagant prices for farm lands, when they can secure safe investments in the most delightful district, between Roncevalles avenue and the Humber. Prices are rapidly advancing, and the past week, I have made several purchases, with walking distance. Thomas Edwards, 135 Geoffrey street. Day or evening.

After car passed to packed to take on more passengers. The cars, too, were running in good order, and there were no blockades during the hour of over a minute's duration.

It was simply a matter of proof that the tubes are the only solution to the problem.

A World man patrolled the corner of Queen and Yonge-streets during the busy hour last night.

There was no hitch in the despatching of cars in any of the four directions. Everything went smoothly and without the slightest mishap, that is, so far as the railway company is concerned.

One car followed another in orderly procession. The traffic man at the intersection calmly beckoned for a car to come north, and then for a car to proceed west and then another to make a turn to the east. The service worked as nicely as clockwork. The watching of the cars moving steadily in their appointed ways, without delay and with the regularity of an intricate but absolutely accurate machine, got monotonous.

The street car company had everything in their favor but they were unable to take care of the people who wanted to board the homebound cars. At every stop up and down both streets were grouped little knots of people, the cluster never seemed to grow less, although the size varied a little. The places of those who got aboard cars were immediately taken by others. Till long after the stores disgorged their afternoon crowds did the throngs of waiting passengers remain at the corners. The collector of fares, as they have ever done; the shopping crowds were yesterday no greater than usual, for yesterday was a day that most of the stores had closed in both directions followed one another in steady procession. But the crowds were too great even for the number of cars in the service.

Not Demoralized. Giving the railway every benefit, the general impression of a survey of the street car conditions at the big corners was that the street cars were unable to handle the crowds. Many people waited from ten to thirty minutes. The cars had not room for them. The service was not demoralized—it was simply insufficient.

STICK CHRISTMAS STAMPS ON ALL YOUR MAIL.

Thousands, indeed tens of thousands of pieces of mail, letters, parcels, etc., are being sent out during the Christmas season, and this will continue until after the New Year. The Citizens' Stamp Committee are asking that everyone use Christmas stamps on all their mail. The purchase of these stamps a small amount in each case, will aggregate a large contribution to the work of the Muscular Dystrophy Hospital for Consumptives. What is equally important in an educational sense, is the suggestion that comes to everyone of the value of sanitary treatment and the great work that is being done at Muskoka, as their eye falls upon this attractive three-color stamp. The many friends, who have interested themselves in the work all over the wide Dominion, have the deep thanks of the trustees for the great assistance they have rendered. Keep to it up for another week and it will round out a magnificent contribution to the work in Muskoka.

J. H. WINTERS & CO. BANQUET. Employer and Employee Make Merry at Year-Celebrated.

Employer and employee were perhaps never in greater harmony than at the first annual banquet given the staff of J. H. Winters & Co., cloak and suit manufacturers of this city, by Mr. Winters last night at McConkey's. The dinner was given in recognition of the able and loyal co-operation rendered by the staff during the past year, which has been a remarkably successful one for this firm. About 75 members of the staff were present and the event, which was purely informal, was most enjoyable. Mr. Winters, in his capacity as toast master, expressed his appreciation of the spirit of harmony which prevailed and which had been a big feature in the year's success. Impromptu addresses were given by different members of the staff.

Wall Street in Apathetic Mood Stock Market Allowed to Drift

Pending Holidays Overshadow Speculative Interest on New York Exchange—Some Activity on Toronto Market.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—The Gould issues and Lehigh Valley attracted most attention to-day in the stock market. The advance in Lehigh Valley was continued. Most of the buying of this stock was said to come from Philadelphia sources and apparently was based upon the belief that some action may soon be taken in regard to the extra distribution to shareholders. Among the Gould securities trading was especially heavy in the Wabash 4 per cent. bonds. The preferred stock also was advanced strongly. The Denver and Rio Grande securities pronounced weakness early in the day, but later rallied sharply.

Signs of Holiday.

The stock market as a whole showed the customary symptoms of the season, with a triple holiday at hand. Trading was on a small scale, and prices moved within an unusually narrow range. Final changes were inconsequential in most cases.

The day was marked by occurrences of influence upon values. Trade reports disclosed little change.

In the money market there were no indications of stress such as prevails abroad. Little was heard to-day of further bids from Berlin for funds. The banks this week received more than $11,000,000 from the interior. Estimates of to-morrow's bank statement indicated a considerable gain.

TORONTO STOCK MARKET.

World Office.
Friday Evening, Dec. 22.

Interest in the Toronto Stock Exchange shifted today from the bank stocks to Sao Paulo, which came in for more attention than in some time, and scored a sharp advance under a renewed buying demand from the speculative following.

The street has heard a good many rumors concerning the big South American company during the last few weeks, and there is a persistent report going the rounds to the effect that a distribution of $1,000,000 stock will be made in the near future, this to take the form of a bonus to the shareholders, similar to that recently given by the Toronto Railway Co. The company has a common stock capitalization of 100,000,000, all of which has been issued, consequently if such action is taken, it will be necessary for the shareholders to ratify an increase in the capital.

Sao Paulo in to-day's market sold at high as 184, a gain of 2 1/4 points from yesterday's top level, and closed bid there, with no stock offering.

A Holiday Market.

There was little doing, outside of the instance mentioned, in the general speculative list, prices in the majority of cases remaining comparatively unchanged from yesterday. Rio sold at 111 3/4, yesterday's record, and closed at 111 1/2 bid, with offerings held half a point higher.

There was a continued good demand for the bank stocks, and some additional advances were secured. The trading showed no such vivacity as during the preceding session. Standard was the centre of interest, this security moving up to 32, an advance of eight points, and holding its advance well right to the close, when bids of 21 were put in. Imperial and Hamilton also made gains, the latter of a lesser extent.

The market on the whole was a decidedly narrow affair, and was clearly under the influence of the impending three-day holiday. Sentiment, however, was of a favorable nature, the fact is not expected that any activity will be evolved until after the year-end.

Successful Bond Sale.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—J. P. Morgan & Co. have disposed of entire issue of $10,000,000 4 1/2 per cent. N.Y.C. lines equipment trust bonds of 1912, which were offered this morning. It is understood that about one-third the amount was placed in London. Entire STOCK MARKET HOLIDAYS.

To-day will be a full holiday in brokerage circles, all the Canadian and United States stock, grain and mining exchanges being closed over the Christmas recess. Monday will, of course, also be a full holiday. The markets on this continent will resume their usual sessions on Tuesday next; the old country exchanges will be closed on that day, and not open until Wednesday.

Issue was largely over-subscribed, and allotments will probably be confined to 20 or 30 per cent. of subscriptions.

To Investigate "Money Trust."

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Democratic leaders of house have practically agreed to take up investigation of alleged money trust after holiday recess.

European Bourses.

PARIS, Dec. 22.—Prices on the bourse today were generally steady.

Appointments at Manufacturers' Life.

At the Manufacturers' Life Board meeting yesterday, John Massey, joint general manager of the Canadian Permanent Mortgage Corporation, was elected director to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late J. F. W. Ross.

DETROIT UNITED AFFAIRS.

DETROIT, Dec. 22.—The people of Detroit, in all likelihood, on Jan. 23 next, have an opportunity to vote on two rival measures respecting the future of the Detroit-United Railway Company.

The first of these is known as the Thompson-Hally settlement and provides for a three-cent fare. The other is designed to bring about municipal ownership.

There is no certainty, however, that the municipal ownership measure will get to a vote, for its opponents are known to be planning to prevent it by an injunction, as they did two years ago.

In the agreement with the Detroit-United Railway takes the form of a franchise, the railway will have to bear the expenses of the election of Jan. 23.

ON WALL STREET.

Erickson Perkins & Co. had the following:

Stocks were quiet to-day, but they yielded little and there were a few firm spots. The feature was the strength of Wabash issues. The sharp rise of the refunding fours was accompanied by a report that they are being absorbed by a prominent railroad with a view to securing control. We find a cheerful sentiment among bankers, but the bank and file in Wall-street are bearish. They see imaginary disturbing elements in sight, one of which, we take it, is likely to develop. We can see ahead steady improvement in business, but must expect an occasional lull. Our view is that stocks should be bought on all drives, such as we have had this week. Take moderate profits and buy again when stocks look weak. We should have a good bank statement to-morrow. They are in good shape for the Jan. 1 payments.

Record Coal Output.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—The Coal Trade Journal in a review of the trade for 1911 says that the production of a record-breaking one. The output of anthracite is estimated at 50,200,000 net tons, a gain of about 6,000,000 net tons, a gain of about 450,000,000 tons, a gain of more than 7,000,000 tons. The total value is estimated at $57,700,000.

IN HOLIDAY MOOD.

Wall-street was in a decidedly holiday mood yesterday, and no new indications were afforded in the stock market. Prices were allowed to drift throughout the whole session, and at the close of business showed practically no change from the previous day. There are some large dividend payments to be distributed after the first of the year, and these funds, if put back into the market, might bring about a temporary upward movement. Outside of this, however, there is little in the situation which could be taken as indicative of any pronounced disposition.

LONDON STOCK MARKET

Money in Good Demand—Holiday Attitude in Markets.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—Money was badly wanted to-day, and the sudden appearance of a demand for gold for Brazil caused firmness in discount rates.

There was a holiday attendance on the stock exchange, and the markets had an irregular tendency. Home rails were weak, with the exception of Omnibus and Underground road stocks, which closed firm. Far Eastern bonds, Kaffirs, and consols all declined a fraction.

American securities were quiet and steady during the forenoon. Prices advanced a fraction on light covering, but weakness in Denver and Rio Grande shares offset the gains in the late trading. The market, however, closed fairly steady.

Money Movements.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—Reported movements of currency this week indicate gain in cash held by banks, of about $8,000,000, due to fairly large inflow from the interior.

Montreal Stock Market.

MONTREAL, Dec. 22.—With semi-holiday conditions existing the local stock exchange was marked to-day by activity other than standing. The only features to the business were furnished by Power & Crown Reserve. Power continues to show remarkable strength and is asked, 19 1/2 bid at the close. Crown Reserve stronger and rose to 25. Toronto Railway held its advance, closing strong at 127 1/2. Richelleu made a quarter of a point gain to 12 1/2 on small trading in the morning. Canadian Pacific Rights were at 8 1/2 with 7 1/2 bid.

Copper Statistics.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—Copper exports for week ended Dec. 21 were 2311 tons; since Dec. 1, 24,755 tons; last year, 22,224.

—Of First Interest After the Holiday—

The Simpson Store Gives the Most Authoritative Modes for Women

Skirts Show Pleasing Models
 The price is a close one, and therefore is no index to the unusual worth that has been put into these skirts. To sell for... 8.00
 Many styles are on display, but one worth particular mention is a skirt of imported Panama in navy only; made with panel back and double box pleat down the front panel. It is cut with a deep band on the side gores, and pleats around bottom. Tabs of narrow braid and buttons are the finishing touches. Price... 8.00

SUITS IN VARIOUS MATERIALS
 This is an exceptional price attraction, for these goods were $15.00, $22.50, $26.00 and $29.00 a suit, but have been marked for Tuesday... 9.95
 Women's and misses' sizes of English serge, French velvets and imported tweeds, all of approved models, with short or medium length coats, lined throughout, with silk or satin. Some are strictly tailored, others velvet or novelty trimmed. Skirts are sored or pleated. The color range includes black, brown, grey, green and pretty tweed mixtures; while all sizes and colors do not occur in every line, yet all sizes are here. Women's sizes 32 inches to 42 inches bust; misses' sizes 14, 16 and 18 years.

Sweater Coats—A Feminine Need
 There's a lot of comfort to be derived from a good sweater coat such as we are selling at half-price on Tuesday.
 120 only women's and misses' coat sweaters, of heavy knitted wool, have V neck, two pockets, double cuffs and pearl buttons. The colors are grey with red and in all red; regular price $3.75 each. Tuesday, each 1.75

Ribbon Remnants to Clear
 In the cutting of so many ribbons during the Christmas rush there are bound to be many short ends left. These will all be bunched and priced to sell on Tuesday. This is a yearly event of more than usual interest. Tuesday morning prices are a small part of their value.

Our Newest Millinery
 On the moderate price list we are displaying some handsome hats at $1.95, worth $6.00 to $7.50 each. Fur hats, silk velvet shapes, silk covered shapes and white felt, trimmed with flowers, marabou and ribbon; all the mid-winter styles; no two alike. Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock... 1.95

The Hosiery for Women
 Black Silk Hose, fine gauge weight, lisle thread tops, soe heel and toe. Sizes 8 1/2 to 10. Special, Tuesday per pair... .49

The passing of Christmas leaves you free to consider the more pressing home and personal needs.
 The season also leaves us in possession of many odd lines that we will clear at much lessened prices.
 These are among the reasons why Tuesday will be a day of glorious opportunity for those who have been awaiting the after-Christmas selling.
