Brilliant Victory Of Serbs Over Germans and Bulgars

With Support of French Artillery, Force Teutonic Allies to Refreat Nearly Two Miles—Two Day Battle—Russians Cross Danube Into Dobrudja—MacKenzen's Force Demoralized

Paris, Nov. 13.—The Serbians have won a brilliant victory over the Germans and Bulgarians in the Cerma district, southeast of Monastir. The war office announced this today. The Serbians, supported by French artillery, forced the Teutonic allies to retire a distance of nearly two miles and captured about 1,000 prisoners. The retreat of the German-Bulgarian force was compelled after a battle lasting two days.

The prisoners taken raise the total captures since September 12, says the statement, to 6,000 men, together with seventy-two cannon and fifty-three machine guns taken during this period.

RUSSIAN SUCCESSES

London, Nov. 13.—The Russians have crossed the Danube into Dobrudja at two points south of Tchernavoda and the Russian fleet has renewed the bombardment of Constantza, according to Petrograd advices today.

Field Marshal Von Mackensen is reported continuing his retreat with demoralized forces and with one-third of his effectives lost.

The ravages of disease and the military reverses sustained are declared to have affected the morale of Von Mackensen's army seriously, while the reinforcements he has requested to make good his losses are said not to have been provided. His retreat therefore is being conducted under disastrous conditions.

BRITISH IN ATTACK

London, Nov. 13.—The British statement reads:

"This morning we attacked on both sides of the Ancre, capturing a considerable number of prisoners. Hostile artillery activity continued during the night on our positions in the neighborhood of Les Boucqs and Gueudecourt. Gas was successfully discharged by us against enemy trenches opposite Rans. The enemy's trenches were entered by us southeast of Armentieres."

SERBIANS WIN BACK VILLAGES

London, Nov. 13.—The Serbians are continuing their pursuit of the defeated Bulgarians in the Cerma Bend and have captured the village of Ivan, according to a Reuter's despatch from Saloniki.

Ivan is five miles north of Polog, reported captured yesterday, and is about ten miles within the Serbian border. Its capture, it is confirmed, also means that the Serbians have effected a new crossing on the Cerma River.

Sofia, Nov. 13.—(Via London)—An advance for the Serbians in the Cerma Bend is admitted in the official statement issued by the war office today.

On French Front

Paris, Nov. 13.—There was only the usual cannonading during the night along the front in France, says today's announcement by the war office.

Good Work by Americans

Paris, Nov. 13.—"Under the command of Lieut. Robert E. Derasouon de Penandier and Herbert Townsend, an American officer," says a citation, "the American Ambulance Field Service in August and September and 1916 assured the evacuation of three divisions successively under particularly dangerous circumstances. It asked the favor of continuing the work and both officers and staff gave proofs of most brilliant courage and most complete devotion."

The Rumanians

Bucharest, Nov. 13.—In an all-day battle in the region of Dragoslave, northeast of Campulung, south of the Transylvania border, the Rumanians maintained their positions. On the right bank of the River Al, however, the Rumanians were compelled to yield ground.

TAKES BACK GIFT TO KING

Athens, Nov. 11.—The municipality of Saloniki, in which was launched the movement to take Greece into the war in opposition to the wishes of King Constantine, has formally revoked its gift of Villa Alati and Naisos Forest, made by the king after the Balkan war. The reason assigned is the "ingratitude" of the king.

Enemy Reports

Berlin, Nov. 13.—Attempts of Entente troops to advance between the Ancre and the Somme yesterday were broken up by German artillery fire. In Upper Alsace the French took the offensive, but their efforts to advance failed completely. There was nothing of military importance yesterday along the battle front from the Baltic to the Carpathian Mountains.

On the Transylvanian front yesterday Austro-German troops captured three towns and repulsed numerous Rumanian attacks. More than 1,000 prisoners were taken.

THE LUMBER CUT.

The Amherst News understands that the lumber cut in the Cobequids and along the Paroboro shore will be exceptionally large this winter, providing that sufficient labor can be secured. The output was large last winter, particularly up the River Philip Valley. The work there will be repeated this winter, and many of the crews have already started for the woods.

GUESTS OF THE MAYOR

Sir George E. Foster and Sir Thomas Gratton Esmond, M.P., were the guests of honor at a luncheon given by His Worship Mayor Hayes at one o'clock today.

Ottawa, Nov. 13.—It is officially announced that the following troops have arrived safely in England: The 110th, 112th, 116th, 122nd, 129th, 161st, 162nd and 184th Ontario battalions; the 184th Manitoba battalion, the 193rd and 209th Saskatchewan battalions; the 131st British Columbia battalion, the 19th western universalist battalion, drafts, 192nd Alberta battalion, army medical corps, engineers and naval ratings.

Welcome New Governor General In Ottawa

Ottawa, Nov. 13.—The Duke and Duchess of Devonshire and party were tendered a state and civic reception and welcome by an assemblage of several thousand people on arrival in the capital a little before noon today. They came by special train from Halifax.

Premier and Lady Borden, Mayor Foster, members of the cabinet and their wives and about 200 representative invited guests made up the official reception party. The Governor General's foot guards supplied a guard of honor. After the brief formalities at the station, the vice-regal party immediately drove to Rideau Hall through streets lined with cheering citizens.

WOULD HAVE BRITONS SEE TO LARGER FRONT

French Military Writer Thinks Greater Help Needed

GRATEFUL FOR THE PAST

Capt. Millet Says Britain Holds 150 Kilometers to 580 Watched by France—Expects Khaki Men to Take Over More

London, Nov. 13.—The Express today features an article by a French military writer, Captain Philippe Millet, calling on Great Britain to take over more of the western front and relieve the French more efficiently.

Captain Millet says it is necessary to speak plainly, that the alliance of Great Britain and France cannot be based on a mere exchange of compliments, and that all Frenchmen are wondering whether the English fully realize what is happening in France.

He says the French recognize gratefully what Great Britain has already done, but feels that the time has come for the British army to relieve the French more efficiently.

The writer cites utterances of French deputies to support his claim and remarks that the British are holding 150 kilometers of the front, compared to the French's 680 kilometers. He adds: "There is not one village in France where the people do not expect our friends to enable us, after twenty-seven months' hard struggle, to have some rest during the winter, and prepare for an advance next year, without having to exhaust ourselves."

"This is what our people feel. They have put their trust in Great Britain, and they all expect the relief of a good bit of the French line to be made soon."

BAVARIANS REFUSING TO OBEY ORDERS

Mutiny When Orders to go to Front Received—News of Casualties Too Startling

Paris, Nov. 13.—(New York World cable)—The Berne correspondent of the Excelsior Telegraphs: "I can guarantee the authenticity of the reports of a growing revolution in Bavaria among entire regiments of men aged more than forty-five. They refuse to depart for the front because of the receipt of terrible news from the soldiers on the Somme and before Verdun regarding fearful losses."

"The King of Bavaria has intervened several times to restore order."

SOME SURVIVORS FROM CABOTIA REACH HOME

One of Them Says 40 of Crew Drowned When Vessel Torpedoed

Survivors from the torpedoed Canadian steamer Cabotia of the Donaldson line, which left Quebec for overseas with horses on October 10, reached Quebec yesterday and among them are five Quebecers.

J. B. Rousseau of Weedon, Wolfe county, related the experiences of the survivors. He says he engaged on the horse transport in Montreal with other French-Canadians named Gervais, Merqui, Beausjour and Martel. On October 20, two German submarines were sighted off the coast of Ireland. The Cabotia was torpedoed and the men had barely time to jump into the lifeboats.

Of the seventy members of the crew, thirty escaped, the rest went down with the ship.

Rousseau says that with his companions he was seventeen hours in an open rowboat, which was then rescued by a British naval patrol boat. The men were eleven days in Glasgow and reached Quebec yesterday on the Allan liner Ionian.

BRITISH WIN IN AN AIR FIGHT IN EGYPT

London, Nov. 13.—Two successful air raids have been carried out by aircraft operating with the British forces in Egypt, says an official announcement.

The points raided were Maghdaba and Birshah. A ton of high explosives was dropped.

Two Fokker machines were brought down. The raiding airplanes all returned safely.

ANOTHER BLOW AT GERMAN NAVY

Petrograd, Nov. 13.—An official statement says that a majority of German vessels which took part on Friday in a bombardment in the Gulf of Finland were sunk.

The German warships, the statement says, were 86 torpedos craft.

WRITES OF DEATH OF LIEUTENANT KERR

Gunner Howard Recounts How Officer And Gunner Ashwood Were Killed

Gunner John E. Howard of the 11st Siege Battery in a letter to his mother, Mrs. W. T. Howard of 169 City Road, gives the details of how Lieutenant Kerr and Gunner Ashwood met with their death. He also pays high tribute to Lieut. Kerr as an officer and as a gentleman.

The letter follows:— "Just a few lines to say that I am well and enjoying this life, such as it is. Of course it is not all candy, as you know, and we have to put up with all the little unpleasant things. Rubber boots are the clear thing for over here. Well, mother, no doubt you have heard about the death of Lieutenant Kerr, also Charles Ashwood. They were out observing near the trenches and the Hun seemed to be rather more active that day than usual and were shelling that particular spot very heavily. Just as Mr. Kerr and Ashwood were sneaking for cover in the dugout a shell came over and caught them both as they were in the open, and killed them instantly. They were our first casualties and the battery felt pretty gloomy over it.

I was in Mr. Kerr's section and I always found him a real gentleman. If there was anything that the boys wanted all was needed was the asking. He was one of the best liked officers in the battery and we will all miss him.

KIDDIES' MONEY, SAVED FOR BELGIAN LITTLE ONES, STOLEN

Sometime between Saturday and this morning Alexandra school was broken into and the sum of $12 and a fountain pen were stolen. The money had been collected in two of the classes and was for the fund for Belgian children. The teachers had the money in boxes in their desks and the desks were locked. The burglars apparently gained entrance through one of the windows, accessible by means of the fire escape.

BRITISH IN NEW PUSH DRIVE ENEMY BACK A MILE ON ANCRE RIVER

London, Nov. 13.—The British troops in their new offensive north of the Ancre River have advanced to a maximum depth of one mile, capturing from the Germans the town of Beaumont-Hamel and Saint Pierre Divion, according to the correspondent of Reuter's Telegram Company at British headquarters.

Fighting is still going on between the German and British troops around the town of Serre, about two miles northeast of Beaumont-Hamel. Two thousand prisoners already have been taken by the British.

LIEUT. COL. BULLOCK PREACHING IN LONDON

Was Here a Few Months Ago With American Battalion—Why He Has Donned Khaki

London, Nov. 13.—(New York Herald cable)—Lieut.-Colonel F. C. Bullock, the only clergyman to command a battalion of troops, is now in London, where, without donning his khaki, he has been preaching in a Unitarian church. He is in command of one of the American Legion battalions raised in Canada.

In answer to a question why he, an American minister, had joined the British army as a combatant, the colonel said:—"I hold it is wrong to tell another man to go out and shoot without you go and do likewise. The men I have in command of, and more, came voluntarily. They realized, as I did, that this was a war of principles, not of nations, and that the United States was affected by the outcome just as much as the allied nations."

"It was a question whether the mailed fist should rule civilization, or whether the principles of the Man whose fist were nailed to the Cross should prevail. But the sinking of the Lusitania was not of nations, the United States was affected by the outcome just as much as the allied nations."

"I then took a commission and combatant rank and helped to raise a battalion of Americans to fight. That one battalion grew into eight, added, the colonel, with a satisfied smile.

"In America," he continued, "there is a ubiquitous sign, 'Safety First.' There is no more ignoble cry unless it may be 'Too good to fight,' as honor comes before safety. Righteousness and justice take precedence when it comes to a question of pride and fighting."

Lieut.-Col. Bullock, it will be remembered, was in St. John on military business a few months ago.

LONDON TIMES INCREASES PRICE

London, Nov. 13.—(New York Times cable)—The Times, in announcing the raising of its price to three half pence, says:—

"The great increase in the cost of production, especially in the cost of paper, brought about a loss of about $1,000 a week in the circulation. The increase in the price of raw material, exclusive of the paper on which The Times is printed, since the beginning of the war, is costing it an additional $70,000 per annum."

Rather than reduce the size of the paper, The Times decided to increase the price and it predicts that there must follow suit in the near future.

GERMAN ARMEN BOLDER; STIRRING COMBATS LOOKED FOR

More Reckless Fighting Than Has Ever Been Seen on Sea or Earth

London, Nov. 13.—(New York Sun)—The Times has received the following despatch from its special correspondent with the armies in France:—"The German armen have grown bolder. They are making a more serious attempt to dispute us. This winter probably will see some bitter fighting. "Air fighting now is much closer and savage than ever it has been before. The importance of air mastery has been more clearly demonstrated. The individual fighting and the number killed have immensely increased with greater speed of machines and greater cleverness in handling them."

"The old leisurely combats are no more. Now it is a headlong plunge, a single shot, a dip, a sverre, another shot, a loop, a single shot again, a duel swifter, more breathless, more reckless than any fighting that ever was before on earth or sea."

"One of the chief evidences of the new activity has been a great aerial battle in which seventy aeroplanes were engaged Thursday and which the official communique mentioned."

OFFER $28,370 FOR TWO LOTS FOR ELEVATOR

Same Rate to Private Owners—Another Matter Between City and Street Railway Company

The Dominion government, for the department of railways, has made an offer of $28,370 for two city lots on the site of the new grain elevator at Reid's Point, a price fixed at the rate of $1.50 a square foot, which is forty cents a foot more than the city received for the last lots they sold in that district. The same rate is being offered to the other property owners and, if this is not accepted, it would be necessary to take the matter into the exchequer court. The commissioners sought to view the offer favorably when it was presented at the committee meeting this morning.

The committee recommended that Commissioner Wigmore be authorized to purchase a two ton motor truck chassis for $2,707, and that his purchase of 250 acres of land at Lattimer's Lake be continued.

Commissioner Fisher gave notice of a report and recommendation which he will present at the council meeting this afternoon regarding the operations of the street railway company which is re-negating rails at the foot of Indianawagon and laying one section in a new location, without permission. He will recommend that they be required to lay grooved rails or put granite blocks between the rails, or both, or that otherwise the city refuse permission to construct or operate the new section.

Mayor Hayes presided and all the commissioners were present.

Commissioner Russell gave notice that he had received from the Dominion government an offer for lots Nos. 3 and 9 at Reid's Point, in the proposed grain elevator site of $1.50 per square foot, a total of $28,370. The offer will be considered at a meeting of the common council in committee on next Thursday.

On motion of Commissioner Wigmore the committee recommended that he be given authority to purchase a federal motor truck chassis from the Motor Car & Equipment Co. Ltd., at a cost of $2,707 L.O.B. St. John, duty paid, and a body to be built by William Akery of the North End for $150.

Commissioner Wigmore announced that he had purchased, at a tax sale, 250 acres of land at Lattimer's Lake for $160 and the committee voted to ratify the sale.

Street Railway Matter

Commissioner Fisher submitted a report regarding street railway operations in Indianawagon for the information of the commissioners. The report, which will be dealt with at the meeting of the common council this afternoon, is as follows:

"The commissioner of public works reports that the street railway company is re-negating the rails and laying cement foundations under the ties on the portion of their line around the public (Continued on page 10, fourth column)

TWO LIQUOR CASES IN THE POLICE COURT

Charles Young, arrested by Detectives Barrett and Briggs on charges of supplying liquor to soldiers, selling liquor without a license in his house in Erin street, now faces a fine of $200 or five months in jail. He pleaded guilty to the various offenses but asked the magistrate for a chance, saying that he was glad he was caught as he now fully realized what he had done. The court informed him of his severe penalty that could be imposed. He was remanded.

James McInerney was before the court on charges of drunkenness and "waving" liquor to soldiers, selling liquor without a license in his house in White street for sale without a license. He pleaded not guilty. The city detectives both gave evidence and the magistrate for a chance, saying that he was glad he was caught as he now fully realized what he had done. The court informed him of his severe penalty that could be imposed. He was remanded.

Thomas Hurley, who was let out of jail on last Tuesday, was back again this morning. The court fined him $8 for intoxication.

A man was charged with drunkenness. Sergeant Scott said that the man was going about from door to door attempting to sell glasses, pipes and other trinkets. The man said he wanted enough money to get out of town. He was sent to the lock-up.

Terry, in Brussels street, was charged with selling a larger quantity of liquor than a retailer is allowed to sell. He pleaded not guilty. Charles Young testified that on Saturday he had called at the defendant's place of business and secured four flasks of Scotch whiskey. He had them charged. This was all the evidence this morning. The case will be finished this afternoon. E. S. Ritchie appeared for the defendant.

POPE TO PROTEST AGAINST NEW OUTRAGE UPON BELGIANS?

German Paper Gives Specious Explanation of Wholesale Deportations

Paris, Nov. 13. Despatches from Rome say that the Pope is about to send a note to Germany protesting strongly against the reported wholesale deportation of Belgians. The despatches say that this decision of the Pontiff has been come known semi-officially in Vatican circles.

Amsterdam, Nov. 13.—The Koelnsche Zeitung publishes a long article on the subject of Germany's deportation of Belgian workmen. It says in part: "These measures are not connected with the war but are dictated solely by considerations of a sane police administration which could not allow thousands of able-bodied workers to go to ruin by remaining idly unemployed and spending their time unprofitably in cafes. Germany's action is the result of humanitarianism which would justify even the use of coercion in the circumstances."

"President Wilson will have first to ascertain how the Entente stands towards his plans. Only then can he expect that Germany, which certainly has not been coddled by him, will occupy itself with his ideas."

WILSON BACK TO WASHINGTON

To Take up German Submarine Question Early

NOW HAS FREE HAND

Believed He Will Follow Strictly Course Outlined in Notes—German Paper Sees His Attitude Toward Belligerents Changing

Washington, Nov. 13.—President Wilson returned to Washington last night ready to take up waiting public problems and begin the framing plans for his second term in the White House. He has been away for two months. One of the first problems to be laid before the president today is the situation resulting from recent activities by German submarines.

Secretary Lansing is expected to lay before him a summary of recent developments, collected at the state department, dealing particularly with the Mariani, Columbian, Arabia and Lanna cases. No secret is made of the belief of some of the officials that the situation is serious. The president has made it clear to friends that the policy toward submarine warfare laid down in the notes to Germany, concluding with the correspondence on the Sussex case, will be followed strictly. In his campaign speeches he declared that in case the administration was defeated at the election, it would have difficulty dealing with foreign problems between now and March 4. Now that he has been re-elected, however, he is known to feel that his going about in his house in Erin street, now faces a fine of $200 or five months in jail. He pleaded guilty to the various offenses but asked the magistrate for a chance, saying that he was glad he was caught as he now fully realized what he had done. The court informed him of his severe penalty that could be imposed. He was remanded.

Sorry Task for Berlin Papers

Forced to Conceal or Explain Progress of British Can Sneer No Longer

Journalistic Hedging is the Feature of German Press Reports of Our Operations

London, Oct. 20.—What the inspired Prussians are now trying to teach the Germans about the Battle of the Somme is both interesting and instructive.

The bearing of these same "genies" at Verdun, as well as glowing tributes to the heroic resistance of the Prussian "Heldengas," much stress, too, is laid upon the smallness of the allied territorial gain, in relation to the task which the allies have set themselves—the deliverance of Belgium and the occupation of French provinces—and comforting calculations are made regarding the time and sacrifice which, at its present rate of progress, the completion of this task will demand.

One fact of interest, however, is that in the argument, as on the battlefield, the Prussian is now on the defence—a very different state of things from what recalls in the first stages of the war.

The significance of this fact has not escaped some of the journals. It is essentially militarist Kreuz Zeitung says: "England has developed a vigor and energy such as she has never shown before, not even in the Napoleonic wars."

TRAINING BRITISH AIRMEN

Nine Months Required to Make a Raw Recruit into a Pilot

No branch of the British service has won greater distinction during the great war than the aviation arm.

Under the present conditions, it is estimated that the training of these aviators will require nine months.

The British air service, it is now a great army, 80 per cent of whom were the war had never seen an aeroplane before.

The usual method of training a new hand is to let him up to the air, which is done by the use of a dummy.

Following the first flights, there are numerous trips in dual-control machines, which are controlled by the instructor.

The instructor keeps his hand on his own control-stick, but gradually allows the pupil to find out what to do and how to do it.

Sufficient progress made, it is allowed to make flights alone, and when he has learned to "bank" left and right and to land the machine in a safe and seemingly unobtrusive manner, he is given his certificate.

THE LUMBER MARKET

(Halifax Chronicle)

Since our last report prices have risen on the British market. There has been no improvement in the condition of the market, which, as previously stated, has generally fallen off owing to the additional constraints of workers and the restrictions on building operations in the United Kingdom.

There has, however, been a rise in prices, which is chiefly due to the advance in freight rates. Rates of two weeks ago were from 250 to 375 shillings for a charter from Halifax. Today they are 300 shillings. Prices have advanced in sympathy and deals at Liverpool are now quoted at £24, the same price holding in London.

In the American market prices are being held at 82 1/2 to 85 shillings per ton. The market for lumber is decidedly off. The latest price is 83 1/2 shillings per thousand.

Besides his parents he is survived by six brothers, James, at home, David and Thomas in the west, Anthony, in New Hampshire; John, in the states, and Leonard, in St. John. Also four sisters, Mrs. Daniel Sullivan, of Kouchibouguac; Miss Tillie, teaching at Main River, Alberta; Mrs. Elizabeth's hospital, Brighton, Mass., and Nellie, at home.

MORNING WAR CABLES. A squadron of naval aeroplanes on Friday successfully bombed Bulgarian aerodromes on the Macedonia front with excellent results. An air raid on Rhenish Prussia was carried out successfully on Friday also by British naval air craft. On Saturday the British air raids were continued with great effect. Gas attacks were used successfully by the British in the Ypres salient on Saturday night. The French have completed the conquest of Sully-Saillies. The Russians and Roumanians have taken the offensive again. They have stormed the heights and penetrated fifty miles into Transylvania. The Germans are fighting ground on the western Roumanian front. It is probable that the line of the eastern front is stationary for the winter. J. L. Garvin, the American who has been giving his impressions gleaned during a stay in Germany, predicts that the war may last two years longer.

OUR ARMY IN ENGLAND (Halifax Chronicle) The London correspondent of the Montreal Star, in a copyright cable with reference to the appointment of Sir George Perley as Overseas Minister of Militia, says that "Canadian military circles in London are wondering what is going to happen next," and he states that "if this appointment really means new broom sweeping conditions overseas, he will be welcomed most of all by the fighting men at the front." Then he goes on to pay a "tribute" to the government management of Canada's hosts of men overseas, by saying that "military men from the Dominion who should know, hint that overruling during the last two months has been tremendous, and that staffs generally on this side could be reduced by one-third." This, of course, refers to the large number of Canadian officers in England who have never seen Canada's military administration has been bungled.

LOCAL NEWS. WEAR RUBBERS TO SAVE SHOES. Economical Housewife is Giving This Advice to Members of Her Family to Defeat High Cost of Shoes. The economical housewife is outfitting her family now with rubber footwear for the fall rains and the winter snows. She is doing this because she knows that rubber is the only staple article that has decreased in price since the war began, and that rubber shoes and overcoats cost no more now than they did before, while leather has reached a price that is almost prohibitive. "Save your Shoes by Wearing Rubbers" is the thrifty woman's advice to her family. Rubbers cost no more than they did two years ago. Leather has advanced over 50 per cent. The British government has made cheap rubber possible. Show your patriotism by buying rubbers and overcoats to save your leather shoes. 20. Buried Yesterday. BORDEN ORDERS INQUIRY. Providence Journal Report That Canadian Nickel is Being Taken Back on Deutschland. Ottawa, Nov. 12.—Sir Robert Borden has directed that inquiries be made into the allegations of the Providence Journal that Canadian nickel is being taken back as part of the cargo of the German submarine Deutschland. The question will be taken up by the cabinet today, and an official statement issued. In the meantime government circles discredit the story, asserting that sufficient safeguards have been provided. It is said that some mines in the United States are producing a limited supply of nickel.

THE LULL IN CANADA

Sir George Foster has lost none of his power of presenting a case to an audience. One could but wish in listening to him yesterday that his plea for unity and brotherhood and consecration to a great task might be presented by him to his colleagues in the government and to that portion of the Conservative press which is charging the honored leader of the Liberal party in Canada with disloyalty.

could be indifferent to the conditions revealed in the reports presented to the public last week. The co-operation of the churches would be invaluable in social welfare work, but it must be personal work, and not merely a monetary contribution, however valuable that may also be.

It may be said, of course, that nothing which the government may do or fail to do, and nothing its press may say, can relieve a man from the primary duty of defending his home and country; but it is nevertheless true that he will do it better and with more enthusiasm if he has confidence in his leaders and touches shoulders with men who are all actuated by the one overmastering desire to make whatever sacrifice may be necessary to make victory swift and sure.

St. John is one of the worst lighted cities in Canada. This was especially noticeable last evening. Mr. J. L. Garvin predicts two years more of war. And there is a lull in Canada. Where are our leaders? Greece appears to be drawing closer to the Allies. She has lost a great opportunity, but better late than never.

PROTECT THE CHILDREN Addressing his congregation last evening, Rev. W. H. Barracough referred to the annual reports of the Associated Charities and Children's Aid Society, and the work of the Playgrounds Association in its boys' and girls' clubs. He pointed out the opportunities for social Christian service, and made a very earnest appeal to his people to ask themselves if with a clear conscience any

There will be no small degree of interest in the attitude President Wilson comes to St. John. It will be as welcome as any that went before. Yesterday's great demonstration told how our people honor the soldiers of Canada, from whatever province they come.

There is a hint for the government at Ottawa in the following announcement made by the attorney-general of the United States:—"The department of justice is investigating the recent abnormal and suspicious increases in prices of various necessities of life, especially coal. Whenever any such increase is found to have been due to conspiracy or other unlawful action the department will invoke against the offenders the severest penalties which the law prescribes."

Killing the Calves All sorts of excuses are offered for the high price of beef, the most plausible being the alleged demand for meat—"the killing of calves which should be allowed to grow into regular beef." You cannot have beef if you eat it as "veal," but you can have Shredded Wheat Biscuit which contains more real nutriment than beef and costs much less.

LIGHTER VEIN "I see you carrying home a new kind of breakfast food," remarked the first commuter. "Yes," said the second commuter. "I was missing too many trains. The old brands required three seconds to prepare. You can fix this new brand in a second and a half."

City's Tribute to Battalion Crowds Cheered 180th and 222nd Yesterday A Brigade on Parade

St. John saw yesterday the largest military parade in its history when practically a whole brigade marched down King street in review order, a parade which represented the west, Ontario, and New Brunswick.

Casualties. The midnight casualty list contains the names of two New Brunswick men wounded, W. P. Connors, Chatham, and Charles Verhille, Milltown.

Word was received recently in Ottawa to the effect that Private Robert Turfiff, son of J. G. Turfiff, Liberal M. P. for Assiniboia, had been killed in action on September 15.

Naval Recruiting. This week fifty tars, who have been taking gunner practice in the West Indies are expected to arrive in the city. Arrangements are being made to hold them over for two or three days to assist in recruiting.

SOME TRYING TO RESTORE NAME OF BERLIN TO TOWN IN ONTARIO To the Editor of The Times-Star, St. John, N.B. Sir,—The pro-German propaganda which has been intensified in this city since the change from a Prussian to a British name is being cloaked under an organization which professes to have formed only to promote improved civic government.

Not content with agitating for the restoration of the name in a lawful way, members of this organization with improved civic government and its ostensible aim, are trying to persuade the general public to override the statutes of Ontario and the order of the post office department at Ottawa by enclosing a card having the following notice with their correspondences.

Indigestion Resulted From an Inactive Liver The Bowels Became Constipated and the Whole Digestive System Upset With many people constipation becomes a habit. And it is a dangerous habit which is certain sooner or later to cause serious disease.

but got to using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and was so benefited that I began to study this malady. I found that the indigestion resulted from a bad case of inactive liver, and as soon as I got the liver working right I didn't have any stomach trouble or indigestion. I cannot praise this medicine too highly, and would advise anyone suffering from indigestion or constipation to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. My husband also claims that these pills have done him more good than any medicine he ever used.

SIR GEO. E. FOSTER ON "WAR AND PATRIOTISM"

Sir George E. Foster, minister of trade and commerce, delivered an address on "Patriotism and the War" in the Imperial Theatre on Sunday afternoon. Mayor Hayes presided and among those on the platform were the commanding officers of the 168th and 22nd Battalions, the Field Ambulance and Siege Battery, and also Senator Thorne, Sir Thomas Esmonde, M. P., and Judge McInerney. A vote of thanks was tendered also to the 168th Band which rendered a musical programme. In his address Sir George gave a serious warning that the war is far from won and that we are fools if we think that Canada has done her full duty. He commented on the fact that Quebec has given only 89,000 men.

HERE TODAY HERALDED AS ONE OF THE BEST

A scene from "The Black Feather," the new British War Office play in which Albert Brown and his own English company appear at the Opera House tonight, tomorrow and Wednesday nights and Wednesday matinee.

Perhaps the best stage production seen in St. John in recent years was "The White Feather," in which Albert Brown, the distinguished Canadian actor, appeared at the Opera House last April. Mr. Brown, after successful engagements in Montreal, Toronto and other large cities, is again here in St. John and opens a three days' engagement at the Opera House tonight in his new play, "The Black Feather," a comedy drama written by the veteran Canadian dramatist, W. A. Tremayne of Montreal. It is a story of the British War Office and the British Secret Service and the Montreal and Toronto newspapers have unanimously endorsed it as even a better play than Mr. Brown's success of last year and gave the author, actor and the splendid English company of players in Mr. Brown's support unqualified praise for a presentation of exceptional merit. Mr. Brown brings here a special scenic production, complete to the slightest detail and the presentation of "The Black Feather" should be the one big theatrical event of the present season. The engagement is for three nights and Wednesday matinee. Seats are now on sale for all performances.

PLANS ORTHOPAEDIC WORK FOR CANADA

Lieut.-Col. Starr Prepares to Set up Hospitals in Dominion—Remarkable Cures Effected in England

London, Nov. 9.—Lieut.-Col. Clarence Starr, of Toronto, who has had charge of the orthopaedic work of Canada, is now at the Canadian special hospital in Ramsgate, preparing for setting up in Canada several similar institutions. Col. Robert Jones, director of the military orthopaedic branch in Great Britain, is establishing hospitals similar to the Canadian hospital at Ramsgate all over Britain.

Canada thus has led the way on the most successful medical enterprises of war. Amongst the recent striking cures at Ramsgate is that of Corporal Hogan, an employe of the Grand Trunk, who was twice wounded at Ypres. He was buried alive during the Somme operations while following the tanks. When rescued he had lost his speech, hearing and taste. After ten minutes treatment through mental suggestion at Ramsgate his deafness and dumbness had vanished and he has since recovered his sense of taste. Another man named Villen-shell, went fourteen months from hospital to hospital fruitlessly. Eventually he reached Ramsgate where special treatment restored his sight. He is now on active service again in France.

A CHILD DOESN'T LAUGH AND PLAY IF CONSTIPATED

If Peevish, Feverish and Sick, Give "California Syrup of Figs."

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or set naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remember a good liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills: give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the "food waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

Canada's Trade Makes New Record

Ottawa, Nov. 12.--During the second year of the war Canada's total trade, exclusive of coal and bullion, reached the new high record of $1,665,880,000 as compared with $929,827,000 for the preceding twelve months. The balance of trade in Canada's favor grew to $896,860,000 as compared with $58,988,000 for the year ending with August, 1915. The aggregate favorable trade balance for the two years is $448,948,000 and the export of manufactured articles for the two years aggregated $468,897,000 or more than four times the total value of manufactured exports for the two years preceding the war.

The Leather Situation

(Boot and Shoe Recorder, Boston.) The development of the leather situation for the last three weeks has been so startling as to cause general apprehension as to the trend of supply of leather for export to Russia. A commercial paper reported several phenomenal sales of leather among which was a single order for 100,000 lines of sole upper for export to Russia. The facts as to "single order" are a trifle far-fetched for no one house could fill it or quote prices for such a large order. It is believed that the total buying over several weeks for export to Russia equal that huge amount--the equivalent of the hides of 975,000 full grown animals. Another rumor "on the street" is to the effect that secret orders have been given for 1,000,000 worth of leather to be put in storage, as it can be accumulated, and held subject to shipping orders the day war is over. At this rate, it is believed that leather consumption is greater than production and hides are contracted for on animals not yet born. Can you expect other than higher prices for leather? The answer is, "Yes." November ushers in with our first issue of the month conditions in the shoe, hide and leather fields which may best be described as unparalleled in the history of the trade. Prices on all varieties of foreign and domestic hides and skins as well as on stock lines of sole upper leathers are the highest ever known. For months past there has been a steady drain of American leathers taken for export to the European continent. The importers of England, Russia, France, Holland, Scandinavia and other countries, such as Italy, Germany, Belgium and Austria, have been buying up leather for production of civilian shoes and leather goods, but British, Russian and Italian requirements for leathers suitable for leather and military equipment are being met by the export of millions of transatlantic liners are leaving our ports daily heavily laden with American leathers. Japan, South Africa and other countries are also buying up leather for military purposes. American farmers of both sole and upper leather, forecasting the leather and tannery export trade, requests for offers from abroad and the presence of leading leather buyers from England, France, Russia, Scandinavia and other countries here, advised domestic customers to cover their wants in advance of the expected avalanche of orders for leather and tannery equipment and far-reaching buyers got under a cover of secrecy.

Bank of Commerce in British-Italian Co.

That the Canadian Bank of Commerce has secured an interest in the British-Italian Corporation is a statement made to the Monetary Times by John Alder, general manager of the bank. The corporation was organized in London in last March between the London County and Westminster Bank, Limited, and Lloyd's Bank, Limited, on one side, representing a British financial group, and the Credito Italiano on the other side, representing an Italian financial group, for the constitution of a British company to be called the British Italian Corporation, with an authorized capital of 1,000,000 pounds sterling, and the constitution also of an Italian company to be called the Compagnie Italo Britannica, with a capital of 10,000,000 lire. The object of the two companies is the development of the economic relations between Great Britain and Italy and the promotion of undertakings in the commercial and industrial field in Italy.

$35,000,000 Profit

New York, Nov. 9.--Estimates as high as $35,000,000 are being made on earnings of the United States Steel Corporation in October. This would by far eclipse the previous high record of $30,000,000, reached in September, 1916. It is figured that steel production of United States Steel in October established a new high record.

Lackawanna's Record

New York, Nov. 9.--Lackawanna Steel's earnings in October established a new high record, being approximately $1,200,000 net, after all charges, or at the annual rate of slightly more than $48 a share on the $84,750,000 stock. Earnings for November are expected to be materially higher and it is probable that net for the quarter will be at the annual rate of $40 a share or better.

American Locomotive

New York, Nov. 13.--November, it is expected, may prove the best month in the history of the American Locomotive Company in regard to gross business taken. The record so far is that reaching last month, when the company booked orders for 85 engines, at a total contract of $11,200,000. It would not be surprising if November bookings exceeded 100 locomotives. Besides the Russian contract, which is on the point of being closed, both France and Great Britain are on the market for locomotives, the former for 120 and the latter for 100 or more. If all these orders are placed this month, these alone will account for about 400 engines.

To End Receivership.

New York, Nov. 12.--The public utility commission of Missouri is approving the plan of reorganization proposed for the Missouri-Pacific St. Louis and Iron Mountain system, the beginning of the end of another receivership is in sight. It is expected that the reorganization committee will now push the foreclosure suit and prepare the way for an early liquidation of the property. Bankers who have been handling the matter say that with operating efficiency increased under the administration of R. E. Bush and the fixed charges scaled down, there is every reason to believe that the road will again become a profitable system.

THE CHALLENGE TO CANADIANS

Men Insufficiently Trained Drafted to the Front

BATTALIONS UNDER STRENGTH Shall Our Brigades be Reinforced by British or Canadian Troops Today in Canada--Rowell's Great Speech

Sir George Foster told his audience yesterday that Canadian battalions which were not up to full strength had to do the work of full battalions in France and Flanders. Mr. N. W. Rowell, the Liberal leader in Ontario, put the case even more strongly in an address before the Women's Canadian Club of Toronto last week. He said: "The most important question facing the people of Canada today is this: are we going to maintain throughout the war our present divisions at the front, or are they to drop out of the battle-line and be replaced by British troops? We have two alternatives. First, we may maintain them at the front by the necessary reinforcements, or, secondly, we can say to the British government when our present reserves are exhausted that we can no longer maintain them. And they must either drop out of the battle-line or be reinforced by British troops. "May I again repeat what I have said elsewhere, so that we all may realize the urgency of the situation, that scarcely at any time during this past summer have gone over to relieve the 1st Division and to give them a greatly needed rest, was broken up on more than one occasion to provide reinforcements for the front. But even this did not meet the situation, and we had to send men over to the front who had not completed their training. Men who had been trained to reinforce our battalions at the front to meet the best trained troops of Europe. "One only needs to state the facts for everyone to appreciate all that is involved. But even with these reinforcements, our battalions are not up to full strength; and during the summer, and even during a portion at least of the Somme offensive, we were called upon to do a full battalion's work. Would anyone say that this was fair to the men of the British and Indian soldiers--Rhodesians and Beluchis, whose regiments have fought bravely and have developed a great admiration for each other. Every possible provision for the comfort of the refugees was made by the military authorities. "There seems to be no end to the number of men who are being sent to the front. One of them going to the front is Private E. T. Baker of the Seventh South African Regiment, who was contained in a letter to his father, the Rev. E. Baker, who is well known in Cape Town. His parent being a clergyman, it is to be presumed that, like George Washington, he couldn't get a divorce. "We had reached a certain base camp early one morning," he says, "and left about five o'clock that afternoon. Six of us were told off to guard the thirteen oxen we were taking with us to provide us with fresh meat along the way. They were wild young animals, and as yet had no yoke across their necks, and when motor lorries or other heavy transport came along they would make a dash for the bushes, each in a different direction, so that nearly an hour was wasted getting them on the sleds. We decided, therefore, to sleep at the base camp that night and go on with them in the morning. "We did fourteen miles the next day, but failed to catch up with the company. Night approaching, it was necessary to camp where there was still light, and secure the cattle. We spent an hour building a huge bonfire (thorn tree barrier) around them, and in constructing two great bonfires, then, leaving one of our number on guard, lay down to sleep. "At 10.30 the oxen became restless and nothing seemed to quiet them. At midnight we were again roused, this time by furious roaring of lions not fifty yards from us. Hastily seizing our rifles, we fired in the direction of the roars and for a time were left in peace. There was no further sleep for us that night, though, and had it not been for the fires we should have been frozen to death, for the cold was bitter. "At three o'clock the lions rushed the bonfire again and once more the firing drove them back. From then on the beasts worried us continually. They had snuffed the cattle and meant to have them. Through the grass we could at times see their eyes blazing like coals, but could not take proper aim, the darkness being so deceptive. At last day began to dawn and the lions, evidently noticing this sign as well, made a final and determined effort to get the cattle. At 5.15 with a mighty roar, they rushed from three sides. There must have been at least a dozen of them. "I shall never forget that awful rush. We fired as fast as we could, but as they were evidently keeping very low while advancing, we could not see them in that light. The firing did not stop them, and they came on to within three yards of the bonfire, and, giving one last roar,

Germans Shepherded Into Southeast Angle of Kaiser's Last Colony

Scenes in Captured Town--Thrilling Story of Camp Attacked by Lions as Recounted by the Son of a Clergyman

Cape Town, Sept. 15.--(Correspondence)--With wide sweeps the British army in German East Africa is shepherding the remnants of the Kaiser's forces into the southeast corner of the territory, from which there is no escape. General Northey's columns operating from the south and the bulk of the expedition under the Commander-in-Chief, General Smuts, coming down from the north, are practically in touch, and despite heavy rains, which have destroyed roads and bridges, thus seriously delaying the army and transport, and compelling the army to subsist chiefly on fruit gathered on the way, are pressing Colonel von Lettow-Vorbsch so closely as to give him no chance to make a stand in prepared positions. In fact the German commander has to be abandoned, or destroyed, or hide a considerable portion of his remaining artillery. His further resistance and retreat are alike hopeless, of course, but he is under orders from Berlin to delay surrender to the last possible minute. The forlorn hope appears to be entertained that something will happen somewhere to stop the war before the last of the German colonies is wholly lost, so that partial possession may serve as a factor in the peace settlement. At any rate the German government is taking no chances. Interesting details are reaching here of the occupation of Morogoro, on the Central Railway, about a hundred miles west of the capital, Dar es Salaam, the capture of which is now also reported. Morogoro for some time has been the seat of government, which had been removed from Dar es Salaam. It is a plantation centre with large government offices and private residences which, however, are somewhat squalid in appearance. It had been strongly fortified, but the British and other European women and children had been sent to the hills in preparation for a desperate defence. The place was abandoned with scarcely a shot being fired, and the British enveloping movement had been so rapid that the defenders had had no time in which to cause extensive damage to the railway. A munitions factory had been destroyed together with large supplies of small arms ammunition and foodstuffs, but among the trophies captured was a 34-calibre navy gun mounted on a locomotive turntable for use against aeroplanes. Many enemy sick and wounded had been left behind in hospitals, and with them was Miss Mabel Packard, an English nurse, who had been missing for two years. She had been held as a prisoner, but was well treated, she said. Backache is the signal sent out by the kidneys the minute they become overtaxed. Those who heed the warning when it first comes, usually have but little trouble. The danger lies in delay. You can cure the lame, aching back by curing the aching kidneys beneath—for it is really the kidneys' aching and not the back.

Lt. Col. Guthrie in Address to the 22nd

Men of 180th Make Presentation to St. David's Church

After the church parade yesterday morning the 22nd battalion formed up in Sydney street, in front of St. David's church, where they attended divine service, and were addressed by Lieut. Col. P. A. Guthrie. The commanding officer of the Klitties returned warmly to the records of the front by Lieut. Col. Lightfoot and several of his officers and non-coms., with whom he had fought in the 10th Battalion on the western front, and expressed the wish that the 22nd might win as great a name as the other Canadian battalions which have preceded it.

On Saturday evening a large number of the 180th, headed by the band, serenaded Rev. J. A. MacKeigan and through him, presented to St. David's church a framed panoramic picture of the battalion in recognition of kindliness extended to them by the congregation. They also presented to Mr. MacKeigan for his little son, Ian, a solid silver cup. There were not so many soldiers at the song service in St. David's church last evening, after the regular service, but a bright and cheerful service was held and refreshments were served by ladies next to the fairly large number who were present.

CORNER STONE OF ST. VINCENT'S SCHOOL IS LAID

Bishop LeBlanc Officiates and Address is Given by Rev. Patrick Casey, S. J.

This afternoon at 8:30 o'clock the corner stone of the new St. Vincent's High School in Cliff street was laid in the presence of city authorities, educational heads, prominent clergymen and citizens. The impressive ceremonies were presided over by His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc.

A box, which was placed, contained papers with records of the building, which will soon be in readiness, and documents of other historic importance. The laying of the corner stone was an address by Rev. P. Casey, S. J., of Boston, who just finished preaching a retreat to the men of the Cathedral parish.

"We are here today at the occasion of the laying of the corner stone of a national institution, which is to fit the young girl for her future life, to fit her to take her allotted place in the world. Here she will be prepared so that she will not shirk her duty, so that she will not be filled with idle vanity, but to make her a worker whether in a palace, a mansion or in a hovel. We are here to develop the faculties of the women and therefore perfect in every detail, the teachers will be the best, no effort will be spared to impart the most complete training and when the task is done we feel confident that the girl of today will be the finished woman of the future."

"We do this not merely for the secular education she will receive, but particularly because of the divine influence which will be exercised over her soul's faculties as they develop."

"The highest ideals will be held out to her to admire, emulate and have a galaxy of such—Theresa and Catherine, Cecilia and Agnes—all summed up in the model of every true woman—the Queen Mother of God. And the girl will be ready, staunch of heart, pure of soul, strong of hand to comfort her husband and be his better part if so God wills, but there shall be no virtue forgotten with which to adorn these daughters of yours in preparation of their future life."

LOCAL NEWS OF SOLDIERS

The ground on which the military authorities will construct trenches was decided upon this morning. It lies near the Catholic cemetery on the Loch Lomond road. The authorities purpose building trenches at the site, frequently in view of the fact that the men will get the experience in the building of them, but that they are to be used for the training of the men in how to take them and how to hold them.

Lieutenant Piesche, formerly of the 20th Battalion, who was mentioned in despatches for bravery shown at the front, has charge of the construction. No definite word was received in the city this morning with regard to the new battalion reported to be on its way to St. John. The military authorities, however, were making the necessary arrangements for the handling of troops should they come along as have some of the battalions.

HEAVY SNOW FALL

When the Montreal train arrived in the city this morning several of the cars were coated with snow. One of the train officials said that snow began to fall yesterday in Montreal and the storm increased in violence during the day. When they passed through Cookshire, Quebec, the snow was deep enough to permit sleighing. Snow continued to fall until after the train had passed Brownville Junction.

Passengers from the north today reported that more than a foot of snow fell on Saturday between Chatham and Doaktown.

There was a very light fall in the city this morning.

Lieutenant Bariat of Halifax, is at the St. James street hospital today taking stock and when an inventory is made the Major Corbel of the Field Ambulance Train will take over the duties that are now held by Major Bishop. The transfer is to go through in the course of a few days.

The Boys of the Field Ambulance will be entertained this evening of the parlors of Centenary church by the young ladies of the church.

square at Indiantown; that the company is doing this work without permitting from the city, notwithstanding that a portion of the track, sixty feet in length, is being laid in a new location; that the road engineer has approved of the grades, but that your commissioner has objected to the T rails on the portion of the work which is in the new location and has suggested as an alternative to changing the rails in this section, that the company pave between the rails with granite blocks, this being apparently as good for the city as the use of grooved rails, and, if done at once, avoiding future opening of the street for the changing of the rails, grooved rails, shaped to the curves, not being obtainable without a long delay; further, that at the suggestion of the city solicitor, who made a visit to the work on Friday last, the company has undertaken to change the rails next year in case the council at this meeting decides to order the change.

Your commissioner recommends that the railway company be ordered, in lieu of changing the rails, to pave between the rails in the new location with granite blocks, laid in an approved manner, and, in the event of the company refusing to do this, that the city withhold permission for the construction or operation of the new section, and that, if the paving cannot be done at present, and an undertaking for the future should be entered into, the changing of the T rails to an approved form of grooved rails be made an added condition.
